Ontario G. W. V. A. Has Plan For Ottawa

Brantford, Ont., May 25.—The Great War Veterans' Association, Ontario Command, in annual convention yesterday called on the Dominion Government for a loan of $50,000,000 to the Soldier Settlement Board to enable city veterans to erect homes on such conditions as veterans who are farming receive them, payable in thirty years, with a limit of $5,000 and interest at five per cent.

The convention also passed a resolution against the Spinney bill as creating a return to patronage, a condition no veteran wanted.

CUSTOMS HOUSE IN DUBLIN BURNED

Destroyed To-day by Disorderly Sinn Feiners

Dublin, May 25.—The Dublin Customs House was set afire by a large number of Sinn Feiners at 1:40 o'clock this afternoon. A statement received from Dublin Castle at 3 p. m. said: "The Customs House, recognized as one of the finest public buildings in the United Kingdom, was set afire by a large party of Sinn Feiners to-day. The fire brigade was prevented from going to the scene and crown forces who sought to reach the building were fired on. A fight followed, the details of which will be made public later."

Subsequently the fire brigade under protection of crown forces, proceeded to the scene and attacked the flames, which then had a firm hold. It is doubtful whether much of the building can be saved."

Seven Killed. It was said four auxiliary policemen had been wounded and seven Sinn Feiners killed, eleven wounded and 65 taken prisoner. The customs house was still burning late this afternoon.

Costly Fire. London, May 25.—The Dublin Customs House was destroyed by fire to-day. (Concluded on page 14.)

Order in Alexandria And Rioters Flogged

Alexandria, Egypt, May 25.—There was only desultory firing in streets of this city last night, following the recent riotous disturbances here in which nearly fifty persons, including twelve Europeans, were killed and nearly 200 persons were wounded. Looters and skulkers were responsible for this disturbance.

London, May 25.—Telephone wires between Cairo and Alexandria, Egypt, have been cut, says a Central News dispatch from Cairo. No news is coming through from Alexandria and disquieting rumors are current in Cairo, the dispatch declares.

Flogged. Cairo, May 24.—Order is being maintained in Alexandria after the serious rioting of Sunday and Sunday night. A number of persons have been arrested and several who engaged in the riots, which resulted in the deaths of upwards of thirty persons, have been flogged at police

Fine summer weather prevailed and the citizens of Victoria and many visitors from up-island points and from other places joined in the enjoyment of the day. The scene was one of great animation and everyone seemed satisfied with the afternoon's programme.

MANUFACTURERS TO HOLD MEETING

Ship As a Floating Hotel at Quebec

Quebec, May 25.—(Canadian Press)—The Canadian Manufacturers' Association has chartered the Canada Steamship Lines steamship Saguenay for its three-day convention, which will open June 7. R. W. Gould, secretary of the Montreal branch of the association, announced on his arrival here to-day. The craft will lie at a dock here as a hotel ship, accommodating the overflow of delegates from the Chateau Frontenac.

Indications at present show that there will be between 500 and 600 delegates from all parts of the Dominion here for the convention, which will be the biggest in the history of the association.

Efforts are being made to have Mr. Lowther, ex-Speaker of the British House of Commons, speak at the convention.

Montreal, May 25.—Much damage was caused early Tuesday morning at Cushing Station, on the Canadian National Railway, about five miles north of Carillon, by the dynamiting of the station. This was the forty-ninth event staged by the Hyacks. The roll call previous to the firing, disclosed two original members of the battery on parade. The ceremony dates back to 1872.

WOULD REPEAL TAX ON CANADIANS

U. S. Immigration Commissioner Condemns Entrance Payments

Washington, May 25.—The head tax on Canadians entering the United States is a source of irritation and causes embarrassment to officials compelled to enforce it. W. W. Hubbard, Commissioner-General of Immigration, said to-day. Before the present law went into effect in 1917, the tax applied only to foreigners who had lived in Canada less than one year. Mr. Hubbard said, adding that the present law, which provides an $8 tax on each individual, including native Canadians, was unnecessary, disturbed friendly relations and should be repealed.

Conference Will Meet In Vancouver Next May

Bright sunlight and the seductive balm of the very welcome Victoria airs did not materially reduce the available members of Conference at yesterday's sessions. A great deal of business was transacted during the day.

An invitation was read from the officials of Wesley Church, Vancouver, to hold Conference there next year, and this was accepted and the date fixed as May 18.

The Rev. C. M. Tate having recently completed fifty years of service in this Province, the Conference passed an appreciative vote.

"The Church as Servant" was the title of Rev. Hugh Dobson's address in the morning. The church must possess the same pioneer spirit of adventure that in another realm characterized the lives of Fraser, Mackenzie, Cook and others, he argued. We preachers must have the same spirit of adventure, he said, after the undiscovered country of the soul and spirit. To serve the spirit of our time we may at times go with the Hyacks. The roll call previous to the firing, disclosed two original members of the battery on parade. The ceremony dates back to 1872.

as to economic determinism. This determinism of Marx masquerades as true science he asserted. "But economic determinism is only a half truth, as deceptive as all other half truths," he submitted. "It predicates the crushing power of environment. But environment is the one thing that the human spirit will not accept as a settled condition. The human spirit sets out to change environment. Hee hives have been the same since the dawn of time. No lessons have been learned there, no improvements adopted. But the career of the human spirit has been from cave dwell-

WILL RESUME DIRECT DISCUSSION

Saanich School Board Makes New Proposal

Meanwhile Arbitration With Teachers Is Delayed

Deciding to re-open direct negotiations with its teachers, the Saanich School trustees on Monday night, after a warm debate with Secretary Harry Charlesworth of the B. C. Teachers' Federation, arranged for a special session on Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock, new time when as a Committee of the Whole Board they will meet three authorized delegates from the Saanich Teachers' Institute and try to negotiate with them a view to coming to a settlement of the salary question. This motion was moved by Trustee Mrs. Humphries, seconded, with hesitation, by Trustee Oldfield and passed with Trustee Hull in opposition.

Claims Delay Immaterial. Mr. Charlesworth had waited on the Board and expressed regrets over inability to meet Mr. Brydon, the arbitrator named by the trustees, and declared that he was now free to go ahead. He maintained that there was still ample time for hearings and, should the Board not approve of the decision arrived at, there was no reason why the referendum, provided for in that eventuality, should not take place at a later date than June 1 as was specified in the agreement to arbitrate.

As a preferable method of closing the matter Mr. Charlesworth suggested a preliminary discussion between teachers' delegates and trustees, pointing out that, if an amicable arrangement was made, it would save expense of arbitration hearings.

Money By-law for Increases. He also maintained that there was no trouble to be anticipated in financing any increases, as the funds required could be secured as extra-ordinary estimates submitted to the ratepayers through by-laws.

Chairman Holloway approved of the principle of direct negotiation but strongly urged a meeting between the Board and the whole body of teachers in preference to a discussion with a delegation. He also stated that dissatisfied teachers had the remedy of resignation "and I am sure the Board would willingly extend the time for such resignations until the end of July, in order that those teachers

By League. Under the plan the commission would be appointed by the League of Nations and at the end of the thirty-year period the people of the region would again be given an opportunity to express their wishes.

The exchanges of views between London and Paris on the question are continuing notwithstanding the debate in the Chamber of Deputies and the feeling in French official circles this morning was that the Allies were coming together.

Food. London, May 25.—News has reached London that the German Government has notified the French Government of its intention to send supplies of food and money into Upper Silesia.

Blockade. London, May 25.—Lord Curzon, the Foreign Secretary, had a conversation with the German Ambassador, at which representations were made as to the necessity of lifting the economic blockade of Silesia.

It is said that while the British and French Governments agreed that this measure on Germany's part were imperative, no agreement was reached as to possible penalties.

Strike. London, May 25.—A dispatch from Berlin says the miners in the Lower Silesian coalfields have struck and all mines are idle. The trouble is due to a dispute over wages.

WAGE AGREEMENT. London, Ont., May 25.—There will be no street car strike in London. A settlement has been reached between the company and its employees which makes the wage schedule 43, 46 and 48 cents an hour.

Farmers. Discussing the programme of the party opposing the Government candidate in York-Sunbury, Premier Meighen said they did not care a whit what became of industries that depended on the tariff and he asked his hearers if by their votes next Saturday they wished to tell the Dominion that the city of Fredericton wanted a farmer Parliament in power.

He said the farmer parties would place all foodstuffs on the free list at once. Agricultural implements, farm household goods and vehicles would follow. He said makers of these things could not possibly live in Canada if their goods were to be free and other goods not.

Competition. Premier Meighen then proceeded to paint a sombre picture of what he thought would happen to Canada if the tariff walls were thrown down and the free competition of a country of 110,000,000 inhabitants with the greatest commercial cities of the globe were let loose in the Dominion.

He gave a straight contradiction to the statement of Hon. T. A. Crerar, made in the same hall recently, that the Government had declared it was disloyal to trade with the United States. What has been said was that it was not in the interests of the Dominion to put itself in a position where it would be helpless in the hands of the United States legislators.

Premier of France Asks Chamber for Vote of Confidence

Briand Makes Statement on European Affairs More In Keeping With Lloyd George's Views Than Extreme French Views and Asks For Support.

Paris, May 25.—Premier Briand, in a statement to the Chamber of Deputies on the Government's foreign policy and with regard to the London agreement for non-occupation of the Ruhr Valley, laid emphasis on the point that the main object he had been pursuing was to retain the support of public opinion, as well as the moral support of the Governments of the United States and Great Britain.

"In the world as it is constituted to-day," M. Briand said, "no country can exist in isolation. I do not want France to be in the same position as in 1870. If coercive measures must be adopted, it must be in agreement with our Allies."

To-day France has the strength which permits her to be confident, but commands her to be careful. Just at the time when a mere show of this force was sufficient to obtain more in two weeks than had been obtained in two years from Germany, the use of this force is unnecessary. I shall not use it unless as an imperative necessity which involves the security of France.

Premier Briand said he was convinced of the good faith and loyalty of the Government of Chancellor Wirth and that it was trying to live up to its promises.

The Premier asked the Chamber for a vote of confidence of his policy toward Germany.

M. Briand insisted that the Chamber must assume its responsibility as "I have mine," if it wished the occupation of the Ruhr region.

"If the Chamber is not satisfied because I have not imposed immediate penalties, it will say so," he added.

For Violations. The Premier made it clear after that unless there were some flagrant violations of the disarmament or reparations clauses by Germany, the troops on the Rhine would not receive orders to advance into the Ruhr regions, and then only conditionally upon agreement with the Allies. He (Concluded on page 16.)

COMMISSION PLAN FOR SILESIA

Plebiscite After Thirty Years Is Suggested

Paris, May 25.—The latest plan for settlement of the Upper Silesian controversy, reported to be a British suggestion, is to give Poland and Germany, respectively, the communes situated in their favor in the recent plebiscite, but to hold the entire territory under control of a special commission for thirty years.

Under the plan the commission would be appointed by the League of Nations and at the end of the thirty-year period the people of the region would again be given an opportunity to express their wishes.

The exchanges of views between London and Paris on the question are continuing notwithstanding the debate in the Chamber of Deputies and the feeling in French official circles this morning was that the Allies were coming together.

MORE DEATHS IN IRELAND REPORTED

Three Soldiers Murdered; Sinn Fein Raider Killed

Dublin, May 25.—Six unarmed soldiers were attacked by thirty armed men at a coast village in County Kerry yesterday, according to a statement issued by Dublin Castle. One of them escaped by swimming out to sea and another by taking to the mountains. The remainder were captured. Three of them were shot dead and the fourth was badly wounded.

Three hundred armed Sinn Feiners seized the village of Kilmannagh, Kilkenny. They fortified several houses, but decamped when police forces approached. They were pursued and overtaken, one rebel being killed, another badly wounded and a third captured.

Houses Destroyed.
Cork, May 25.—Several houses were destroyed at Blackpool yesterday in reprisal for recent bombing of the police.

REORGANIZING ARMY IN CUBA

Army of 11,000 Has Cost Over $6,000,000

Havana, Cuba, May 25.—Reorganization of the Cuban army is one of the tasks facing the new administration of Dr. Alfredo Zayas. The Menocal Government, which preceded that of Dr. Zayas, took a preliminary step by abolishing the custom of promotion of officers by selection. The presidential decree effecting this reform will become operative on July 1, but no selection will be made between the present and that date.

The motive for army reorganization is economy and was discussed at conferences between Major General Enoch Crowder, special agent in Cuba for the President of the United States and both President M. G. Menocal and Dr. Zayas, then president-elect.

While the army itself numbers only about 11,000, the high salaries paid and the cost of supplies has run the total cost of this branch of the national defence to more than $6,000,000, a figure considered excessive. Some sentiment has been shown for abolition of the army and the creation of a force of rurales, but the general trend seems to be for a smaller force than at present but of greater efficiency, the result of the acquisition of the most modern forms of automatic rifles and machine guns.

LANDRU TRIAL IN FRANCE IN JULY

Paris, May 25.—It now seems fairly certain that Henri Desire Landru, who for the past thirty months has been awaiting trial on charges of murder growing out of the disappearance without trace of eleven women to whom he had promised marriage, will come before the Versailles assizes in July.

Landru has become a great favorite with the warden owing to his unflinching good humor.

VETERANS HEARD ONTARIO PREMIER

Gradual Readjustment Needed, Said Mr. Drury

Brantford, Ont., May 25.—That the returned men's honor was of the highest type was a declaration made by Premier Drury at the annual convention of the Ontario branch of the Great War Veterans' Association here yesterday.

He declared his Government's policy was that, other things being equal, the returned men should receive the preference, but if a returned man could not measure up, they expected him to stand aside for a more efficient man. The only exception was the disabled man.

A readjustment to lower money values was wanted, Premier Drury said, but there should not be a lowering of the standard of living so as to interfere with good citizenship. Canada's produce could be exported only if at rock-bottom prices. He said that if, instead of falling off the ladder, they could climb down the ladder, they would be better off, and he predicted that the worst of the present decline would be over within a year.

FIVE PERSONS WERE DROWNED

Canoe Was Swamped in Quebec River

Quebec, May 25.—(Canadian Press). Details of a tragedy involving the drowning of five persons in the Saguenay River near Quebec, a Hudson Bay port some seventy miles north of Quebec, on the transcontinental railway, last week, have been brought to this city by Corporal C. W. Joiceur, who held an inquest on the remains of the five victims.

The victims of the tragedy were: John Mowat, Mrs. John Mowat, Philip Mowat, aged twenty-two; Agnes Mowat, aged eleven, and Elizabeth Mackenzie, aged ten years.

The accident practically wiped out the Mowat family. The only surviving member is a daughter of nineteen years, who is studying in a convent at LaTouche and had not accompanied the family on the fatal trip.

On Tuesday morning, May 17, Mowat, with four members of his family, left Quebec for Obliquan, where he had been appointed a factor of the Hudson's Bay Company. They embarked in a canoe which was being towed by a motor, which the craft was heavily laden their progress up the river was rapid and they were within a mile of Obliquan when a strong gust of wind lashed up the waters and a big wave struck the canoe broadside and, washing over the gunwales, swamped the crew and left the occupants struggling in the water. In spite of the efforts of Mowat and his son to save the lives of the women folk and their own, the party perished.

The bodies were found the following day.

SAILORS ESCAPED THROUGH PORTHOLE

Training Ship Burned at New York

New York, May 25.—The New York naval training ship Granite State was burned to the water's edge yesterday in a spectacular fire in which sailors dived through portholes after flooding the magazine.

The old wooden frigate for years had lain in the Hudson River. Firemen think a break in an oil pipeline running under the river coated the water with a thick film and that a motorboat, back-firing, set the oil alight.

Soon the flames spread to the docks and threatened naval militia barracks nearby and the state nautical school training ship Newport, moored alongside. The Newport was hastily towed into mid-stream.

The Granite State, formerly the United States ship New Hampshire, had a service record extending back more than 100 years. Her keel, laid in Kittery, Maine, she was commissioned in 1818 in the presence of James Monroe, fifth President of the United States, and saw varied duties until yesterday when she was viewed for the last time by the country's twenty-ninth President, W. G. Harding, when he landed here to-day from the Presidential yacht Mayflower.

She was in the battle line during the Civil War, but when she was replaced by the steel fighting craft that now bears her former name, she reverted to training purposes, eventually passing from Federal to State control.

SOVIET RUSSIANS SPECULATE IN FOOD

Helsingfors, May 25.—Now that the markets are again open in Moscow, the populace is living by speculation in food, according to a Finnish official who has just arrived from the Russian capital. Trade, however, is permitted only in provisions.

The markets are crowded nevertheless, with people, formerly wealthy, selling dresses, clothing of all sorts and other personal belongings for food.

In consequence of free trade, food prices are falling, but the food shortage is serious and the July supply of flour is now being used.

WANT PAPER IN BERLIN SUPPRESSED

Newspapers Urge Radical Sheet Be Ended

Berlin, May 25.—Repeated efforts of The Rote Fahne, Berlin organ of the Soviet, to incite German workmen to another revolt against the Government have caused conservative newspapers to protest to the administration against the continued publication of the paper as inimical to law and order.

The Rote Fahne has been suppressed a number of times, some of its issues confiscated and part of its presses taken away by the authorities, but it has always been able to issue succeeding editions, in a manner which its opponents assert is confusing and mysterious.

Since the March uprising in Middle Germany, The Rote Fahne has conducted a campaign against the Government and the special courts which President Ebert appointed to try the workmen who raised the red flag in Saxony and the Ruhr. It has urged the workmen to prepare for another uprising, which it recently said should now be launched.

Pat had seen nearly every clock in the place, but had discarded all of them as not being good enough for his purpose. The weary shopman had exhausted his whole stock except a few cuckoo clocks, so he brought these forward as a last resource, and vowed he would do his best to sell them. "I know the reason why," said the salesman, and he set the hands of one to a few minutes to 12, when the door flew open and the cuckoo thrust his head out cuckooing away for dear life. Pat was thunderstruck. But when the bird disappeared he looked glum, and he pondered in gloomy thought for a moment. "Well, how do you like that?" asked the salesman. "That's a staggerer for you, isn't it?" "Faith and begorra, I should think it is. It's a trouble enough to remember to wind it, without having to think of feedin' the bird."

HE KNEW HOW TO DO IT

A lady took her four-year-old girl to a photographer. The child couldn't be made to keep still. He of the camera was as suave as he could be and worked every device of gentle persuasion to make the little wriggler sit without moving. Finally, he said to the despairing mother:

"Madam, if you will leave the little dear alone with me a few minutes, I think I can succeed."

The mother had scarcely withdrawn when she was summoned back by the triumphant photographer, who said he had taken a satisfactory negative. When they reached home the mother asked: "Nellie, what did the man say to you when I left you alone with him?"

"He said," replied Nellie. "Sit still, you little rascal, or I'll shake you."—Edinburgh Scotsman.

CONFERENCE DEPRECATES THE SALARIES CHANGE

Request Repeal as Method of Restoring Public Confidence

Nothing during the B. C. Methodist Conference, in session here, caused more unanimity of action than when the Conference heard from wounded soldiers complaints regarding the lowering of their wages on public works of the Province at the very time in which the indemnities of the members and Cabinet Ministers were raised. Conference members did not trust themselves to deal with the matter off hand, but appointed a committee which retired and drafted a resolution. The resolution was carefully read, discussed and the usual course followed of pronouncing by a standing vote, which passed the Conference without a dissenting vote. The resolution follows:

The Resolution.

"In view of the prevailing unrest and loss of confidence in constitutional procedure, this B. C. Conference in annual session views with profound regret the recent action of our legislators in increasing the seasonal indemnities and the salaries of Cabinet Ministers, and this on the following grounds:

"1. The general industrial dislocation which has resulted in large numbers of workers being thrown out of employment.

"2. In the case of others their wages have been materially reduced, and by a strange irony Government employees were reduced at the very time the Legislature was increasing its own allowances.

"3. We also recall that the Government was unable to allow the usual statutory increase in the salaries of civil servants.

"4. The Government also declared itself unable to render needful aid to hospitals, public works, university and other public institutions, as well as come to the assistance of embarrassed municipalities on the ground of lack of means.

"5. Further, the situation of a considerable number of returned men is one of perplexity and embarrassment. They are greatly embittered at what they feel to be the undeserved lot that has befallen them after hazarding their lives and all for their country.

"On these and other grounds we judge it to be expedient that the Government should at once take steps to repeal the Act embodying the aforesaid increases, and this not alone in the interests of public economy, but primarily as a step towards restoring public confidence in these disturbed times and preserving public respect for British institutions."

The report was signed by George Dearing, chairman, and W. Lashley Hall, secretary.

DIRECTORS DEFER ACTION ON MATTER

Voice Objection to Steamships Under Railway Board

The question of taking action in connection with the Armstrong Bill before the Federal House by which it is proposed to place steamship lines under the Board of Railway Commissioners was deferred for six months by the directors of the Chamber of Commerce Monday.

Last week in his report on the matter, C. P. W. Schwengers, favored approving of the plan, which was discussed at length by the Board of Trade two years ago.

"If the scheme were carried out every ship plying inland waters would have to fill a scheduled timetable and fix a rate. These boats should be allowed to operate as free lances and compete with each other," said J. D. Cameron.

There is no question about competitive ocean rates and as a result there has been a cut in the lumber rates between the west coast and oriental ports from $45 to $10.

"Government owned vessels would also be affected and there would be the possibility of meeting the competition of foreign liners," he concluded.

Geo. J. Warren said there was some misunderstanding on the question as the proposed Bill was intended to apply only to traffic between Canadian points. He suggested laying the matter over as the Federal House was about to prorogue.

J. B. Clearhue, M. P. P. thought it would be a dangerous thing to put the steamships under the Railway Commissioners. "One of our chief weapons in fighting railway rates is our steamship competition," he said, "quoting an instance of a shipment of goods by water to Liverpool and back to this coast for less than railway rates from Toronto to this coast."

COLGATE'S TALC POWDER

"Light as Colgate's Talc"—passed through a silken mesh

IMAGINE a spider's web which only the shining dew makes clear—then imagine a silkworm's thread as fine.

Imagine a mesh formed by thousands of such gossamer-like threads contained within a single square inch. Conceive this weave to be so fine, so fine that only dust of flower-bloom, or powder as microscopic, could sift through it.

Through so incredibly minute a filter Colgate's Talc is passed. By what other means could come its delicate, breath-like quality—its airiness lighter than thistle-down, lighter than gossamer?

To the tender, sun-sensitive or wind-whipped skin what can be more gratefully cooling, what be gentler or more fragrant than Colgate's Talc?

What talc, while adding its charm to the complexion, merges with it as does Colgate's Talc?

So fine, so very fine it is.

And perfumed to your liking.

DEPRECATES HASTE IN CEMETERY ISSUE

Major Holmes Reports to Chamber of Commerce

There is no occasion for haste in selecting an inter-Municipal Park Cemetery, according to the report of Major H. C. Holmes, acting for the Chamber of Commerce in negotiations regarding the matter.

Major H. C. Holmes reported to the directors Monday that he attended the recent meeting to discuss a new cemetery under the impression that the City and the various municipalities would take up the C. Hiram Babcock proposal.

Mr. Babcock offered covered fifty acres of land in Saanich, the old Bull property, near Rogers' ranch. The land is not of great agricultural value and is situated on a steep slope. Mr. Babcock for an inter-Municipal Park Cemetery, but Major Holmes thinks the market value could hardly be placed at more than $25,000. The sum of $20,000 would seem to be a very liberal allowance for the work which Mr. Babcock undertakes to do, namely, surveying, plotting, grading roadways, converting 10,000 graves into lawn and park, providing and planting 500 ornamental trees and 1,000 flowering shrubs, installing water service for 10,000 graves, erecting gateway, fencing the whole tract and providing plans for Crematorium, Mausoleum and Columbarium, he states.

Major Holmes reports that, "With regard to the general idea of the necessity of providing a cemetery at the present time, I would point out a vital statement in Mr. Babcock's scheme. There seems to be no question of taking care of burials for at least another eighteen months at the most pessimistic computation."

"Mr. Babcock guarantees to provide suitable burial plots within sixty days, and no doubt he knows what he is talking about. Perhaps the chief reason advanced for obtaining a cemetery site now is that it will take nearly two years to prepare a suitable cemetery. This reason seems to collapse before Mr. Babcock's expert opinion that suitable arrangements could be made in sixty days.

Allowing three months for negotiations to obtain a site, it seems quite clear that the whole question of obtaining a site could be postponed until the Spring of next year, and such postponement would seem to be highly desirable in view of the doubtful financial position of the municipalities."

HE WAS PRACTISING

A lady on entering the kitchen early one morning saw a plate and knife and fork, the former of which had evidently contained cold pie. The lady strongly suspected a certain policeman of having supped off it, and the following conversation took place between her and the cook:

"Mary, what has become of the cold pie that was left?"

"Oh, I did it," he was wanted, mum, and so I gave it to the dog."

"Does the dog use a knife and fork, then?"

"The mistress sarcastically inquired."

"Not very well yet, mum; but I'm teaching him to," was the unabashed reply.—Edinburgh Scotsman.

A GREAT SUCCESS.

Victoria's celebration of Empire Day yesterday will go down in local history as one of the most successful and brilliant events ever held on any twenty-fourth day of May.

MUCH MORE MODERATE.

Premier Briand's statement to the Chamber of Deputies to-day is a mild renunciation of the Napoleonic sentiment.

The average individual in France will realize sooner or later that it would have been suicidal to French interests to have occupied the Ruhr region of Germany without the gravest provocation.

France is a party to the Treaty of Versailles and she must give the new German Government a fair trial.

Certain it is that Great Britain will refuse to carry her international load if its weight is to be increased by the military aggressives of France.

If Premier Briand succeeds in getting his vote of confidence after so complete a conversion from the "hand on the nape of the neck policy" European politics should assume a less turbulent state.

THAT TREATY.

If the Premiers of the British Empire could agree upon the principle it should be good business to invite the United States and Japan to send representatives to the forthcoming conference in London.

The proposal comes from The London Daily News and it is based upon the declaration of the Prime Minister of South Africa and his expressed belief that the Anglo-Japanese Treaty should be renewed providing the United States could be satisfied.

It is becoming increasingly obvious that public opinion in the British Isles and throughout the Empire is disposed to urge that the utmost caution be exercised in regard to alliances and agreements with other powers in all cases where the interests of the self-governing Dominions are involved.

These expressions of opinion indicate fairly clearly the general trend of thought throughout the Empire and the part that the two great English-speaking nations are expected to play in world affairs eventually.

THE GOLF CHAMPIONSHIP.

Those who know something about the emblem of British Columbia's Amateur Golf Championship will realize that the Bostock Cup is by no means a stranger to the City of Victoria.

MOTHERS' PENSIONS.

Some idea of the benefits which have followed the operation of the Mothers' Pension Act is reflected in the fact that nearly one thousand widows in British Columbia are in receipt of pensions from the public treasury.

leave her children to fare for themselves or place them in the custody of a charitable institution. What the state lost by the severance—partially or wholly—of the relationship between the mother and the child is better imagined than described.

NOTE AND COMMENT

That famous wooden statue of von Hindenburg into which his Prussian admirers were wont to drive their nails of hope is about to be sold for firewood.

One firm in London has adopted a novel method of gaining customers for its huge stocks of wines and liquors. Anyone who has the appearance of prosperity sufficient to warrant him being considered a prospective customer may enter and taste to his heart's content.

There is a string of interesting coincidences intimately related to yesterday's great battle for the British Columbia Amateur Golf Championship between Macan and Prie.

The planetary government is especially lucky for the signs and houses of women, who are to receive many great honors from nations as well as individuals.

"We feel we were imposed upon to some extent when the teachers threatened to strike, facing a new board unfamiliar with affairs with a threat. We did not like it and we do not wish again to meet this board."

A long debate then followed as to whether arbitration proceedings should be abandoned in the event of the resumption of direct discussions.

TRUSTEES DISAGREE.

Trustee Oldfield then intervened, remarking, "I maintain it is now too late to do anything, the only course is to accept any resignation which may come in."

Mr. Charlesworth then discussed and produced some tense moments. After remarking that the Teachers' Federation had noted that School Boards generally were reluctant to let out inefficient teachers and replace them with more capable instructors he declared, "That is our opinion of what should be done, and that is our stand" whereupon Chairman Holloway interjected "To dictate."

"I object to that," retorted Mr. Charlesworth. "We don't intend to dictate, but we could if we wished, as everyone in this Province well knows."

TEACHERS REASONABLE.

Mr. Charlesworth assured the Board that they would find the delegates quite reasonable and possibly, after hearing the Board's side of the question, if they could not combat the statements made, the delegates would recommend to the Teachers' Institute that the minimum demands be those at present in effect.

The final phase up of the discussion took place when Chairman Holloway remarked that all correspondence from the Teachers' Institute was on paper headed "Confidential" and that the Board would not discuss the same.

Mr. Charlesworth then discussed and produced some tense moments. After remarking that the Teachers' Federation had noted that School Boards generally were reluctant to let out inefficient teachers and replace them with more capable instructors he declared, "That is our opinion of tion that I started it. The Federation has information which it makes available to all members. Just as the farmers' organizations do."

"Just leave the farmers right out of this matter please," retorted Mr. Holloway, and Mr. Oldfield then sided with Mrs. Humphries in favor of meeting delegates from the teachers, but remarked, "I won't pledge myself to go further at present."

Trustee Hull declared outright against any further negotiations. "I am sure the teachers have made up their minds for more money, I am sure we have made up ours for no increase, but I am agreeable to receive minimum demands and put them up to the people."

Chairman Holloway then remarked that the teachers would feel injured, and with some reason, if we dropped the matter at this time, and we are dealing with fifty teachers, Mrs. Humphries' motion to meet delegates then passed.

Canada's Greatest Need POPULATION.

The 2,000,000 excess of females in the United Kingdom and the predominance of males in all the overseas Dominions, are in great measure responsible for the birth rates of the several portions of the British Empire not being considerably higher than they are at present.

The greater freedom, the greater respect shown by employers towards their household assistants and the absence of baseness and class distinctions, or snobbishness, in British Columbia, and as in other parts of the Empire overseas makes domestic work far more attractive to British women than it is at home.

The substitution of colored help is necessarily limited in numbers. Even then it is fraught with great risk to the future well-being of the race. For example if ten married couples of one race have average families of three boys and three girls, and ten British couples have an average of two boys and two girls, in six generations the former will have 14,580 descendants and the latter only 1,240.

At the commencement of the meeting the secretary read a letter from the District Governor stating that the local charter had been granted.

other Dominions make of their present offer.

A similar offer has been made to grant free fares to all the British ex-service men and their dependants who can be absorbed by the Dominions subject to the selective approval of the Dominion officials at home.

The best settlers, and the best migrants are undoubtedly the boys—Ontario, Australia and New Zealand have proved their worth.

They develop better in Canada than they could generally at home, where the environment and living conditions are on a lower scale. They learn and save, settle and marry, which is the right order of events. They offer a longer life for the same fare. They help out their friends from home before they settle on their own account.

Without apprenticeship, boys are inclined to roam and drift up to the cities, before they fully realize the attractions of rural life. The interests of the labor conditions of the country as well as of the boys are thus protected by apprenticeships.

VICTORIANS AT PRINCE RUPERT.

Capt. Newcombe, of D.G.S. Malaspina, and Newton F. Pullen, of Victoria, were guests at the last Rotary Club luncheon held in the St. Regis Cafe Club room, Prince Rupert.

Capt. Newcombe congratulated the club on its formation and spoke appreciatively of the work of Rotary clubs generally. He felt sure the club would be an influence for good here.

Newton Pullen said he came from the south into whose maw went the money which was paid out here, and he came with fear and trembling. He said he was a member of the Gyro Club recently formed in Victoria, he attended the meeting of the Kivranis Club every week, and he had also attended some of the meetings of the Rotary Club, and these were powerful forces in a community. One stood for "service before self," the motto of another was "We Build" and the third stood for "Friendship." He looked forward to the time when service and not self would be the guiding principle in men's lives, and he wished them every success.

At the commencement of the meeting the secretary read a letter from the District Governor stating that the local charter had been granted.

"Where are the seats?" she asked him, as he left the box office window. "In the first row, dear," he replied.
He knew he would arrive on time as he was travelling on the (here insert the name of the railroad against which you harbor a pet grudge).
A policeman entered with a special delivery letter which had been mailed only two hours before.
It was to be his first play, but Simpson was confident of its success, as he had struck upon the original idea of having the opening scene take place in a bedroom.

IT DIDN'T WORK
"Hello, Shadboit! Fine day, isn't it?" Speaking of the weather, by the way.
"Yes, I know, Dingus. Speaking of the weather, Old Probs says there is going to be a change, and speaking of a change reminds you that you came away from home this morning and left your purse in your other clothes. So did I, Dingus; so did I. It won't work this time. Good morning."

FOR CHILDREN THE SANDMAN STORY FOR TO-NIGHT

BIGGEST GIANT AND THE DWARFS Part II.
It was not long before the green dwarfs came out of their caves, and squatted down on the ground, and then the one who had spoken to Mrs. Giant said, "We will weave the cloth for your husband's coat and make it if you will promise to keep it a secret and on no account to tell your husband that you have seen us."
"Poor little Mrs. Giant could not make the cloth or the coat. This she knew, and what the biggest giant would do or say if she did not she was afraid to think, so she promised the green dwarf to keep the whole affair a secret.

"Come back to-morrow night after the biggest giant is asleep and make the cloth or the coat. This she knew, and what the biggest giant would do or say if she did not she was afraid to think, so she promised the green dwarf to keep the whole affair a secret.
"The next night when the biggest giant was sound asleep Mrs. Giant crept through the forest to the side of the green dwarf waiting for her, and on the ground was a huge green coat.
"You see we have kept our promise," said the dwarf who did the talking. "Now there is one thing more, you must show us the way to your home and let us put the coat over the biggest giant while he is asleep. To do this you must go ahead of us and scatter the powder which you will find in this box over his face and the green dwarf will be in a twinkling over him."
Mrs. Giant took the box and went ahead where her husband was sleeping and scattered the powder, and then she beckoned to the green dwarfs and into the room they ran, and in a few seconds the coat was over the biggest giant, covering him head and all.

Then out of the house the dwarfs ran, dragging with them a frightened Giant. For now the coat was there she wondered what she would tell her husband when he awoke, for he had told her the night before that he had had time to think more the green dwarf had formed in a circle around the house, and Mrs. Giant found herself with them, a dwarf holding a hand on either side. Then round and round they danced, chanting as they went:
"We now have broken the spell. That on us powder, that on us powder. When he drove us away From our home one day, And made us in caves to dwell. When Mrs. Giant found that she was alone, the house had disappeared and the forest and the dwarfs, and all around green grass like velvet, while a circle of small evergreen trees which looked very much like green dwarfs in the moonlight stood silently nearby.

She had hardly taken in all this strange change when instead of being Mrs. Giant she found she was a fairy again, fitting over the grass toward the dell where the fairies hold their nightly revels.
When the Queen and the sister, fairies saw the vanished fairy they did not say a word, but made a place for her in the dancing line and went for her in their revel, for the Queen knew she had been punished enough and would never again stay out late when she should be at home with her sisters and her Queen.

I. O. D. E. CHAPTER GAVE PICTURE OF FORMER PRINCIPAL TO SCHOOL
"Empire Day" was fittingly observed Monday in South Park School, when members of the Agnes Deans Cameron Chapter, I. O. D. E., presented the school with a beautifully framed picture of Her Majesty Queen Mary. The picture was held in the assembly room which was suitably decorated for the occasion.
Mrs. L. H. Hardie, the Regent in making the presentation, spoke of the picture of the school, Mrs. J. H. McFarlane, Educational Secretary of the Chapter, appealed to the boys and girls as the future citizens of Canada, to be loyal to the Empire. Mrs. William Russell, secretary, and Miss Grace Cameron, treasurer, were also present.
In introducing the members of the Chapter, Principal A. A. Campbell paid a tribute to the late Miss Agnes Deans Cameron, who had been the first principal of the school, and in whose memory the Chapter was organized. Mr. Galloway, Educational Sec-

LINDA.

Behind the liquid beauty of the name of Linda lies an interesting history. It is not, as is generally supposed, a contraction of Melinda or Belinda, or even Rosalind, though the latter came into existence in somewhat the same manner. Linda is one of the "serpent" names, which are found in abundance in Teutonic, non-German words for snake was the Veld-wurm, or snake worm. CARNIVAL SPIRIT REIGNS AT BALL

Cabaret Features at Dance Make "Zippy" Ending to Holiday
Four hundred persons took part in the Queen of Carnival Ball at the Empress Hotel last night, and applauded the Victorian artists who put on cabaret features between dances, some under showers of serpentine.

Miss Eva Hart, in costume, and Mrs. H. H. Pooley, in her sensational silver sheath gown, were greeted with lively encores for their character songs. Mrs. A. J. Gibson, the noted local recital pianist, was accompanied by Mrs. Charles Wilson, who played the piano. Mrs. Wilson entered the ball room dressed in broom and Eraser. Down, val song written by Vivian in a startling Duchess of Devonshire costume and assisted by Mrs. Pooley. Kenneth Angus, with Paul Sehl rendered "An Old Fashioned Garden."

The extravaganza feature of the ball was "Harem Eyes," sung by Kenneth Angus, with Miss Pooley, recently one of Pavlova's assistants, as the solo dancer in an Oriental movement. Miss Charlebois in this turn was assisted by Mrs. Coomb, Molly Birch and Ruth McBride. Jean Harvey and Frances Briggs as harem girls in rich Turkish costumes. As the song was spun out by Mr. Angus, the girls in the act, all barefooted, one by one, came over a high garden harem wall, which had been erected in one corner of the ballroom.

Butterfly Feature a Hit.
Miss Charlebois, assisted by Frances Briggs, Ruth McBride, Molly Birch and Jean Harvey, gave a Blue Bird dance. She was drawn into the ballroom in a large net. Dressed as a golden butterfly, and hidden by broom and purple tris, Phyllis Lavin Rochford was brought into the ballroom in a large gondola. With Dunne Bobday she sang "Boy," and gave a dance duet with Mrs. Coomb. Mr. Bobday chased Mrs. Rochford around the ballroom and tried to catch her in a huge butterfly-net.

Mrs. Billie Rochford, who is home from her "movie" activities in Los Angeles, was rolled into the room in a barrel as the introduction to her act, which was much appreciated by the audience. Assisted by a chorus, she gave two singing numbers and gave some character interpretations.

Lightning Artist Delights.
The effectiveness of the cabaret numbers was increased by the colored lighting effects produced by two stage-wing machines. The same lighting effects were used during the dances.
Le Messurier, the noted newspaper artist of Vancouver, gave some lighting character sketches and sang an interpretative song while he sketched. He also made a half life-sized sketch of Alfred E. Hall, jr., master of ceremonies for the broom carnival ball. With the exception of this sketch, which was preserved for special purposes, the others were acted off by Mr. Hall. They went for $10. In his singing Le Messurier was accompanied on the piano by Mr. Bogverts, of Vancouver.

Queen Was There.
The Queen of the Carnival, wearing her crown and a royal train twenty feet long, and leaning on the arm of the master of ceremonies, entered the ballroom and took her seat on the throne for the opening of the ball. Her suite consisted of maids of honor and gentlemen escorting them. They entered and left the ballroom in a formal procession. The Queen removed her train, came down off her throne and danced with a number of the prominent persons present. A fifteen-piece orchestra furnished the music for the dancing. Dancing was carried on in the main southern writing room and palm-garden as well as the ballroom, and lasted until 3 a. m.

VICTORIA NEEDS TO LEND SUPPORT TO FARM DEVELOPMENT

Whitney Griffiths Tells Gyro Club Land-Clearing Scheme Necessary

"The prosperity of Vancouver Island is wrapped up in agriculture. Minerals, timber and other natural resources have received such attention and much money has been spent on advertising your climate, but the best advertisement this city ever received was when those carloads of Gordon head strawberries went to the prairies. And with the going of those berries a considerable amount of money came into this city. That is what we need increased agricultural production so that we can save large sums of money going off this island."

This statement was made by Charles E. Whitney Griffiths, secretary of the advisory board of the Farmers' Institute, during the course of an address on "Agriculture and its Relation to the City of Victoria," at the luncheon of the Gyro Club Monday. The club passed a resolution asking for a reconnaissance survey with reference to a settlement near Victoria.

Mr. Griffiths gave a number of statistics which showed the vast amount of agricultural products which were being annually imported into Victoria. Last year the city imported 200,000 pounds of butter, 200,000 pounds of mutton, 27,000 cases of condensed milk and large consignments of other goods.

"When all these goods come into this city, you must remember that dollars go out and if you had an adequate police of land clearing and encouragement these dollars would be kept here," said Mr. Griffiths.

"Within twenty-five miles of Victoria you have sufficient land on which to put thousands of people," continued the speaker. "The things which keep them off are the high price of land clearing and also the high cost of land."

Mr. Griffiths said that the city of Victoria should take hold of the problem of developing the land as the prosperity of the place would be greatly enhanced.

After the address the following resolution was introduced and was laid on the table to be taken up at the regular monthly meeting of the Gyro Club.

Resolution re "Land Settlement and Development Act."

Whereas there exists on the statistics of the Province an Act entitled the "Land Settlement and Development Act" and:

Whereas the provisions of the said Act provide for the bringing under agricultural production, lands being retained by reason of remaining undeveloped and:

Whereas it is reported that there is a large acreage of land suitable for the production of agricultural products lying idle on the southern end of the island, adjacent to the city of Victoria, and:

Whereas the city of Victoria imports some millions of dollars worth of agricultural products that could be produced on the said land and:

Whereas the said Act provides that if representation is made by people in the districts affected the Board will make a general reconnaissance to examine into the feasibility of establishing a settlement area in any part of the Province;

Therefore be it resolved that we request the Provincial Government to now take steps to ascertain the prospects of creating such a settlement or settlements near Victoria.

Resolved that the city of Victoria do as follows:

1. That the city of Victoria do request the Provincial Government to now take steps to ascertain the prospects of creating such a settlement or settlements near Victoria.

A GAMBLE IN BEAUTY

By NANCIBELLE HALE.

ONE LOVE STORY YOU NEVER CAN FORGET.

The Romances of Two Sisters, Both Beautiful, One Demure, the Other Vampish—With Thrills in Every Chapter and an Unexpected Denouement.

"Oh, John," her voice so soft and magnetic, with the pleading quality in it that held him against his will, turned him back to her reluctantly. "Sit down there—please—I don't wonder if you hate me. I treated you abominably! I'm not going to ask you to forgive me, John; I know you never can. But perhaps if you knew the whole thing—"

Nina traced a pattern on her muff with a slender finger. The scent of that exotic-oriental perfume stole to his senses; he fought against her spell.

"I can't see any excuse," the actress had gained the upper hand in Nina. She really felt what she said now. As she played the part it became so real to her that her voice took on all the intonations, her face showed all the emotions as though they were true.

"A long time ago, when you first came, I discovered it—that Varia cared for you. I found her one day sobbing beside her window; it was just after you had left me, and then, I—you carried me off my feet. I forgot Varia; I forgot everything! Until that very last night and Varia begged me, begged me to give you up. Mel came and that was the way out—I took it!"

Nina sank back and turned her face away so that he only saw the outline of her cheek. Her thick dark hair outlined it against the chair.

"My God, Nina, what do you tell me this now for?" he asked. "We've made a hash of our lives and there's Varia to think of!"

"I shouldn't have told you—I was carried away," Nina took out her tiny handkerchief and wiped away some invisible tears—a little trick she had learned from seeing Ethel Barrymore.

"But I couldn't bear you to think of me that way, John," Nina rose and wrapped her fur about her. "I suppose it's all because Mel's in such trouble."

"Your husband?" Nina nodded. "I've got to go to some one to borrow some money. He'll be able to pay it back in a month. Oh, John, you couldn't help me—us—could you?"

"How much would you need?" he asked. "Oh—let me see—a thousand would pull him through!"

"Sit down here—much with me, or in my bank now!"

adorned the room in which she now sat. She reached for her cigarettes and then pushed them behind the black marble clock. That was one of her old tricks that John never had patience with—Mel was different. But still Mel didn't count.

A great many things had happened to Nina in this month of her marriage, and not the least of these was a certain fear of her husband, a certain scorn.

For the delicate illusion that might have been fostered by luxury and wealth had been thrust aside when she had found herself face to face with poverty. Her father had never liked Melville Rogers; he had been disgruntled over her elopement, and Nina, who could wind all men about her white fingers, had found him adamant.

"Not a penny!" he had stormed, when she had acted one of her pretty scenes for his benefit. "You married that fellow, now you stick to him!"

She remembered how Mel, waiting for her on the sidewalk outside the house, had seen her sulky face and read his message.

He could be sullen. And now he chose to be. His talk of oil wells in Texas melted away, and Nina found herself making frequent calls at the pawnshop and getting along in a haphazard way.

"Sometimes I almost fancy that you married me for my money," Mel had said only last night and Nina, whose temper was now none too sweet had answered:

"And I think that's why you married me!" She had expected his hot denial; but he gave her a queer look from his grey-green eyes; and pushing back his plate of potato salad that she had bought at the delicatessen, had slammed the door and gone out.

"And I could have had anyone," Nina thought bitterly as she sat there waiting for John.

She counted over the men who had asked her to marry them. There was the impeccable French nobleman of undoubted family who would have accepted her hand if—but even she had not been taken in by that.

Andrew McManus, who had rushed her madly for a season and then gone off and married a girl from home; that boy—what was his name—who hadn't cent, but said he would work for her! That fat old stock broker, but his hands were so wet and clammy. Then John, quiet, but madly in love, with no bright prospects; and at last, Mel, hard and handsome, with his talk of mines in the West.

She had fancied herself in love with him! Love, love, what was it? The black marble clock interrupted her with a wheezy sound; 5 o'clock! Fool, he ought to know enough to come earlier!

But he had not come at 5, and Nina flung out to buy something for their evening meal that would not require cooking. She could not bear housekeeping. She had never had to do it before, she wouldn't do it now. If Mel thought she had married him to be a servant—

The evening wore away, and still Nina looked expectantly at the clock. She was relieved that John did not come.

The next afternoon she waited again, but she knew when twilight had deepened in the room that he would not come. A mood of rebellion swept over her; she hated this crowded apartment and the imitation marble hall, the impertinent girl who carried her to her floor in the clattering elevator, and the whole Harlem neighborhood with its squalling children and dirty streets.

She even hated Mel—Mel, who had a certain hold on her when she was with him, a stronger will than her own, a frightening intensity.

By Wednesday she had given up

LOW GRAZING COST AIDS CATTLE HERE

In Nearby States Charges Are Twice to Eight Times As High

To encourage the cattle industry here, B. C. Government is giving a grazing permit for one eighth to what is charged per head of cattle by neighboring Governments for use of public ranges, the Hon. T. D. Pattullo, Minister of Lands, announced after completing a compilation and study of the grazing rates for Western North America.

"An interesting feature in connection with Government control of stock-grazing on the Crown or public ranges of Western North America is in the report of the United States Forest Service and refers to an investigation into the rental value of unfenced private range, intermingled with the public lands of the States of Washington and Oregon," said Hon. Mr. Pattullo.

"The investigation was made in connection with the order from Congress providing for the appraisal of the grazing value of all public lands with a view to increasing the grazing fee."

"The figures show that on an average it costs the stockman $2.77 a head to range his cattle for the open acreage range. On Indian reservations the charge is from $2.75 to $3 a head. Where the Government and private owners have entered into friendly agreement for the benefit of the stockman holding permits to use the public ranges the charges are considerably lower. In some cases the Government secures a rate of about 60 cents a head."

"These figures are in striking contrast to the charge of 25 cents a head and lower for cattle made by the Government of British Columbia for the use of Crown ranges of the Province during the open season."

A new story is being told about the C. P. R. It appears the company issued notices to some hotels, restaurants and storekeepers protesting against the unauthorized use of its initials, "C. P. R." One such notice was mailed to Timothy O'Brien, who was the proud proprietor of the "C. P. R. Barber Shop" in a prairie village. Tim's reply is entitled to a

SPEED BOAT COMING FOR NORMAN YARROW

Craft Known as "Hydro-glider" Consigned Here by Freighter Spector

A forty-five mile an hour speed boat known as a "hydro-glider," built at the Scotstoun yards of Yarrow & Co., will be delivered to Norman Yarrow, manager of the Esquimaux plant of Yarrows, Ltd., upon the arrival of the Harrison freighter Spector this week from the United Kingdom.

The craft is built on the lines of a "sea-sled," and draws but six inches when resting on the water, and a scant two inches when driving at full speed. The Prince of Wales displayed the keenest interest in the craft when a few weeks ago he travelled at a high rate of speed in the glider over the waters of the Clyde.

Norman Yarrow, following the delivery of the craft here, will arrange some speed trials for the benefit of his friends. The Spector has other interesting articles on board, over one hundred and twenty thousand of them. They are contained in more than ten thousand cases labeled "Scotch Whisky," part of which is consigned to the Provincial Liquor Board, and part to private individuals. The Spector will discharge part of her cargo here and the balance at Vancouver.

STEERING GEAR OF HARTLAND DEFECTIVE

Officers of Freighter Give Evidence at Marine Inquiry

Seattle, May 25.—Blame for the collision between the steamships West Hartland and the Governor off Port Townsend on April 1 was assumed by Pilot H. H. Marden of the Governor immediately after the sinking of the latter vessel. Quartermaster William Lane of the West Hartland, testified in a hearing conducted Monday by Supervising Inspector William Fisher, but was admitted. Lane also declared that steering apparatus of the West Hartland was defective, but that the ship was not difficult to steer.

Lane testified that Capt. Marden had visited the bridge of the West Hartland just after the collision and stated to Capt. Alwen that he was entirely to blame, that he might have cleared the ship, but he had mistaken certain shore lights for vessel lights and kept the course which brought him across the West Hartland's course.

Lane's testimony was given before Supervising Inspector William Fisher, of the Eleventh District, who charged with violation of the marine statutes involving negligence, unskillfulness and inattention to duty as master of the West Hartland, Arthur Ahrens, third mate of the West Hartland, also testified. F. W. Regan served as attorney for Capt. Alwen.

Inspector Fisher brought out that Lane's experience as a seaman was limited. Lane testified that he had been a seaman off and on for two full years' service, which is necessary to obtain an Able-bodied Seaman's certificate. He testified that the West Hartland's steering apparatus was not in perfect trim and that it had to be constantly adjusted.

Lane testified that he had been told by the captain that the ship was "by the head." Capt. Fisher asked if it was not likely that difficulty was experienced in handling the ship during the collision. Lane testified that the collision was about to occur.

Lane testified that his bridge officers had been told by the captain that at 11:58 he saw her green light and at the same time kept the West Hartland steady on her course. He testified that Capt. Alwen was busy watching the Governor and finally said, "What is the Governor going to do?" as she continued across the bow of the West Hartland. Lane testified that Capt. Alwen immediately blew one blast on his whistle, which was answered by three from the Governor. Capt. Alwen then rang full astern on the engine telegraph in an effort to stop the ship. The Governor seemed to be swinging to port fast, but could not avoid the crash.

Attorney Regan then examined the witness regarding his opinion of shore lights as notice. Lane testified that the West Hartland was not hard to steer, and that the collision of shore lights was merely casual.

Arthur Ahrens, third mate of the West Hartland, recounted the condition of the West Hartland's steering gear and stated that he had adjusted it several times on the run down the Sound. Capt. Fisher then had Ahrens plot the course of the West Hartland from Marrowstone Point into Port Townsend Bay, where the pilot was dropped and then out to the point where the collision occurred. Ahrens reiterated his previous testimony regarding bridge conditions and the course of the West Hartland.

TORPID LIVER FOR OVER 4 MONTHS

The duty of the liver is to prepare and secrete bile and serve as a filter to the blood, cleansing it of all impurities and poisons.

When the liver becomes lazy, slow or torpid it is not working properly, and does not supply sufficient bile to thoroughly act on the bowels and carry off the waste products of the system, hence the bowels become clogged up, the bile gets into the blood, constipation sets in and liver troubles follow.

Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills quickly remove the secretions, clear away the waste and effete matter by acting directly on the liver, and making the bile pass through the bowels instead of allowing it to get into the blood, and cause so many troubles.

Mrs. Alice Mehil, Napanee, Ont., writes:—"I was very badly run down, and had a torpid liver for four months. I tried several remedies, but got no relief. One day my husband brought me home a vial of Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills, and before I had used half of it I was much better. I only used two vials, and I am a different person to-day. I can safely recommend Laxa-Liver Pills to any one troubled with liver troubles."

Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills are 25c a vial at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Ltd., Toronto, Ont. (Adv.)

DO YOUR EARS BUZZ? HAVE YOU HEADACHES?

When your ears ring, your head aches, and you seem slightly hard of hearing, beware of Catarrh. Mr. J. A. Hamill writing from Greenmount, P. I., was similarly troubled, and writes: "No one could have worse Catarrh than I had for years. It caused partial deafness, bad taste, upset my stomach, made me sick all over. 'Catarrhose' cleared my nostrils, stopped the cough and gave me a clear feeling in my breathing organs. I am now absolutely well thanks to 'Catarrhose.' Nothing so certain as 'Catarrhose' inhaler to strengthen a weak throat, to rid you of Bronchitis, to draw out Catarrh, coughs and colds. Sold everywhere, 25c, 50c, and $1 for complete two month treatment. Dealers: The Catarrhose Co., Montreal.—Adv.

OBVIOUSLY FEMINE

"Oh, Bib, you've let in a lot of flies. 'I'll get after them, dear.' 'You'll never kill them.' 'Well, I'll kill these three, anyway—they're females.' 'How do you know?' 'They made a dash for the mirror the first thing.'—Boston Transcript.

YE FLAPPER

During the intermission friend flapper, between dustings of her nose, glanced up from the programme and offered this: "What can be funny about Wm. Collier in 'The Hotter?' All I ever read about them was their persecution during the religious wars in France."

BAD CASE

"Half a dozen doctors have given Mabel up!" "Really? What is the matter with her?" "She simply wouldn't pay their bills."—The Bulletin (Sydney).

For Rough, Freckled Or Blotchy Complexions

The freckling, discoloring or roughening to which delicate skins are subjected after exposure to wind or sun, often appearing at this season, may readily be got rid of by using one ounce of Freckles and Blotches Remedy. This is spread lightly over the face before retiring and removed in the morning with soap and water, completely getting off the disfigured surface skin. Get an ounce of the wax at any drug-gist's. There is no more effective way of banishing the freckles or other cutaneous defects. Little skin particles come off each day, so the process doesn't even temporarily mar the complexion, and one soon acquires a brand new, spotless, girlishly beautiful face.

Wrinkles caused by weather, worry or illness are best treated by a simple solution of powdered salicylic acid, one ounce, dissolved in one-half pint witch hazel. Bathing the face in this produces a truly marvellous transformation.

Street Dancing.—The street dancing feature of the Victoria Day celebrations proved a great success, huge crowds gathering on Yates Street Monday and Tuesday evenings to either take part in the dances or to watch the dancers. The G. W. V. A. band supplied the music and J. B. McCallum, C. E. Sylvester and J. B. Thoma were in charge of the arrangements.

BRIEF LOCALS

Municipal Chapter, I. O. D. E.—The Municipal Chapter, I. O. D. E., will hold its regular meeting to-morrow afternoon at 2 o'clock in the headquarters, Jones Building.

Proceeds From Concert.—The Willows Camp Chapter, I. O. D. E., has received the splendid sum of $152.25, representing the net proceeds of the recital given under the direction of the Canadian Concert Bureau at the Empress Hotel recently.

Tender Sympathy to Colleagues.—Before proceeding to business on Monday evening the Saanich School Trustees passed a vote of sympathetic condolence with Trustee T. Thorne for the accidental death of his son last week. Trustee Thorne was the only member of the Board absent from the session.

Silver Tea.—The second of a series of silver teas, for the benefit of the Ladies' Aid of St. Columba Presbyterian Church, will be held at the home of Mrs. M. G. Moore, 915 Oliver Street, Oak Bay, Friday afternoon from 3 to 5.30 o'clock. All ladies of the community are cordially invited, and a hearty welcome extended. It is hoped that through these teas a greater spirit of sociability may be promoted.

Protest Old School.—Hon. Dr. McLean, Minister of Education, on Monday night notified the Saanich School Board that a member of the Tolmie Parent-Teachers' Association had protested to the Minister against the continued use of the old Tolmie school. The Board will notify the Minister that it is the definite intention of the Board not to re-open the building after this term. "We will sell the lumber for kindling," remarked Chairman Holloway.

Y. M. C. A. Meeting.—The annual meeting of the Y. M. C. A. will be held at the Association headquarters at 6.30 Friday evening, commencing with a supper. An orchestra will be in attendance and there will be some community singing. After the reading of reports an address on Y. M. C. A. Work in India will be given by H. G. Healk. Six directors will be elected for a three-year term and one for a two-year term.

Community Sing.—Some thousands of citizens attended the community sing held on the premises of the Parliament Buildings on Monday evening, in connection with the Victoria Day celebrations. Frank Sehl proved an efficient conductor, and under his encouraging baton the crowd joined heartily in the singing of popular and patriotic airs and well-known hymns. A feature of the programme was the Hallelujah Chorus, sung by chorists from the various churches with fine effect. The Salvation Army Band contributed numerous selections and Mrs. C. C. A. Warn presided at the piano.

Fruitgrowers' Meeting Postponed.—The meeting of the Saanich Fruitgrowers' Association which was scheduled for Thursday evening at the Keating Temperance Hall has been postponed until Tuesday, May 31, at 5.30 o'clock, new time. This course has been decided upon because of the absence of Secretary J. H. Sutton, who with George Bushby, this afternoon left for Salem and Woodburn, Oregon, where they will inquire into the mechanical and financial details of the loganberry juice business, with a view to the inauguration of a similar plant in Saanich on a co-operative basis.

Empire Day Services.—Special services were conducted on Sunday at St. Columba Church both morning and evening, at which large congregations of worshippers were present. The minister, Rev. Thomas McConnell took as his subject in the morning "Sons of Empire" and his address was both impressive and inspiring. The evening service was entirely of a musical nature, and the large auditorium was filled. The choir, under the very able leadership of F. J. Mitchell, rendered some fine anthems and especially in "The Radiant Morn" the blending of voices was beautiful. Assisting the choir were Mesdames Muir, Tickner and Messrs. G. Guy, W. Sedgman and F. J. Mitchell, who individually contributed with suitable solos. This was the first choral service given by this choir, and it is the intention of Mr. Mitchell to give similar recitals monthly during the Summer. For such a successful recital the organist of the church, Mrs. Andrus, deserves much praise. Mrs. Andrus possesses artistic appreciation of the values of this instrument.

NEWS AND NOTES OF THE MINES

Patricia Mines.—Crawford McGee, of Vancouver, who with Dr. E. B. McKechnie, of Vancouver, is interested in the Patricia group of mines on the Marmot River, Stewart, will spend the Summer conducting development work on the Patricia claims. There is already some tunnelling on the group and ore running $12 in gold and $10 in lead and silver has been taken out. There is a big lead in sight and at the present time the ore that is taken out in the tunnelling to it is paying for the development. Mr. McGee has great confidence in the future of Stewart as a mining camp.

Alice Arm Mines.—"Development work may shortly commence at the Alice Arm mines and when shipping recommences it will be on a larger scale than ever before. This statement was made by Major C. B. North, manager of the mine at Alice Arm, who arrived at Prince Rupert on the Prince George on his way north to make a survey of the properties. He has spent the Winter in the South.

Major North was not in a position to make a definite statement but he said that work might shortly be resumed. He pointed out that he was going to make a survey and report. Anything that might be done in the near future would be along development lines. Major North admitted that when shipping was again resumed it would be done on a scale surpassing all past records for the Alice Arm properties.

What success A. J. Taylor, president of the company, had on his recent trip to the Old Country with a view to interesting capital, Major North would not state.

The Alice Arm mines closed down about Christmas of last year.

Mother.—"Gladys, stop interrupting. Have you forgotten what I told you about being seen and not heard?" Gladys—"You must fink I'm a moving picture, 'stead of a little girl."

Crackers Start Small Fire.

The Fire Department had a run to 708 Princess Avenue yesterday afternoon, where a small fire had been started as a result of children playing with fire crackers. A few boards at the front of the house were charred, and the firemen retrieved from the neighborhood a number of the crackers which had caused the alarm.

COST OF SCHOOLS IN VICTORIA IS RELATIVELY LOW

School Board Has Table of Seattle and Vancouver Costs

The following figures of attendance in 1920 at the Vancouver and Victoria graded schools were this morning supplied The Times by the City School Board in view of to-morrow's poll, the tabulations being compiled from officials records:

| Vancouver, Victoria. | |
|---------------------------------------|-----------------|
| Graded. | Graded. |
| Teachers' salaries | $40.26 $34.95 |
| Equipment | 1.35 1.35 |
| Janitors' salaries | 3.33 4.50 |
| Janitors' supplies | 35 47 |
| Fuel, light, power, gas and water | 3.70 2.57 |
| Educational or school supplies | 2.47 83 |
| Building repairs | 3.73 2.39 |
| Upkeep of grounds and gardens | 45 86 |
| Medical attendance | 1.94 65 |
| Dental clinic | .63 .39 |
| Supervising and miscellaneous charges | 5.34 6.59 |
| Cost per capita, monthly attend. | |
| 1920 | $51.50 $54.25 |
| 1919 | $51.50 $54.25 |
| Manual training | $26.43 $14.49 |
| Domestic science | 13.90 19.51 |

Seattle Compared.

In Seattle the cost per capita on the basis of the average daily attendance is as follows: Graded schools, $5.59; Kindergartens, $3.94.

The School Board pointed out that Seattle compares with Victoria as follows with respect to total cost for maintenance of schools, not including interest and sinking fund, $3.48 to 7.27. It has been stated that Seattle is curtailing its expenditures on manual training and domestic science to a considerable degree. The following telegram, dated May 19, 1921, was received from Frank B. Cooper, City Superintendent, "one period a week classes only eliminated, saving about $25,000."

Expenditures on teachers' salaries and janitors' salaries have materially increased in 1920 in all Canadian cities. In Victoria the increase in teachers' salaries did not take effect until September, 1920, consequently the current year's estimate has to bear the greater portion of this increase.

The latest published Winnipeg reports referred to by the Board in this regard, as supporting the trend, being the following quotation: "In the opinion of your committee a considerable increase in the school expenditures for 1920 cannot be avoided. The revised salary schedule for teachers and caretakers, effective from January 1, 1920, will alone contemplate an additional expense of $225,000."

Native Daughters to Meet.

The Native Daughters will hold their regular meeting this evening at 8 o'clock at the Orange Hall, when initiations will be proceeded with.

Fire Consumes Saanich Home.—After the Saanich Fire Department had put out an early morning outbreak of fire at the home of A. McConnell, 434 Walter Street, on Monday, a second outbreak took place the same afternoon, resulting in the entire destruction of the two-roomed building. By the time the fire apparatus was on the scene after a seven minute run, the structure was a mass of flames. The origin of the outbreak is unknown. Mrs. McConnell and four children being in the house at the time. Most of the furniture and personal belongings were rescued from destruction, many neighbors seconding the efforts of the firemen.

Classified advertisements in the newspapers offer to the business man or woman many opportunities that cannot be duplicated through any other medium.

It is the mission of the classified ad to act as a sort of Master of Ceremonies between the man who has and the man who wants.

In the past few years classified advertising has attained that degree of efficiency that is successful salesmanship.

The "tired business man" who uses the classified advertisements is the chap who isn't "tired" any more, and who has time to do the many things he used to be "too busy" for.

PRICE OF VICTORIA WINS B. C. GOLF TITLE LOCAL BOWLERS DEFEAT VANCOUVER CAPITALS LOSE BOTH BASEBALL AND LACROSSE GAMES

Capitals Dropped Two More Games to Yakima

Crabapples Grabbed Off Another Double-Header Yesterday; Victoria Nearly Won the Morning Affair But They Were Well Outdistanced in Afternoon Game; Big Crowds Out.

First Game—Yakima, 4; Victoria, 3. Second Game—Yakima, 11; Victoria, 3. It's another sad, sad story, but it must be told. Victoria lost two more ball games to Yakima at the Stadium yesterday.

The Caps forgot that it was the annual fete day in the life of the city and hadn't the good grace to give the fans one win. They performed in a listless style, lacked a hitting punch and in the afternoon game had the 2,000 fans groaning in dismay.

In the morning game the Capitals did show some fight, but in the afternoon tussle there was only one team on the field and it waded into three Victoria pitchers, rapping out 15 hits for a total of 23 bases.

About 2,500 fans picked on the ball game as their morning's enjoyment and they got plenty of thrills for their coppers, but they did not get the pleasure of seeing the home crew win.

Cooper Got It Again. The caps were out of the game for the second time in the afternoon game for tossing his glove about the diamond, tried to go through yesterday morning's game, but he was relieved of the burden in the fourth inning when he became unsteady.

Russell James, who did the twisting for Victoria last season, took his long length to the mound and the Caps popping up over the rest of the team.

Tolley-Evans, Jones and Ouimet Are Eliminated

Hoy Lake, Eng., May 25.—Dr. Paul Hunter, of Los Angeles, one of the two remaining Americans in the British amateur golf championship tournament was eliminated in the fifth round of this afternoon by 2 up and 1 to play.

This leaves Fred J. Wright, of Boston, as the sole American representative of thirteen originally entered. Hoy Lake, Eng., May 25.—Only three Americans were left as competitors in the British amateur golf tournament here at 2 o'clock this afternoon, the survivors at that hour being Fred J. Wright, of Boston; Dr. Paul Hunter, of Los Angeles, and J. H. Douglas, Jr., of Ontario, Ont., Canada.

Robert T. Jones, of Atlanta, Ga., who had been considered a probable contender for the British amateur golf championship, was defeated here this morning by Allan Graham, Royal Liverpool, the score being Graham 6 up and 5 to play.

Cyril J. H. Tolley, English amateur champion, was defeated by four holes, being beaten by J. B. Beidart, of Pennsylvania, 3 up and 1 to play. W. C. Fownes, Jr., of Boston, in their match in the fourth round of the British amateur championship.

Hoy Lake, Eng., May 25.—Cyril Tolley, British amateur golf champion, defeated J. L. C. Jenkins, the 1914 champion, by one up. H. Douglas, Jr., United States, beat R. K. Finlay, St. George Hill, by one up.

Dr. Paul Hunter, Los Angeles, beat A. E. Leger, Bromley and Brickley, by six up and five to play. W. C. Fownes, Jr., of Boston, in their match in the fourth round of the British amateur championship.

Results of third round: R. T. "Bobby" Jones, of Atlanta, beat Robert Harris, of Harewood Downs, by six up and five to play. W. C. Fownes, Jr., of Boston, beat Charles "Chick" Evans, of Chicago, being eliminated by Captain W. C. Fownes, of Pittsburgh, while Francis Ouimet, of Boston, was put out by the Yorkshire champion, Charles Hodgson, in the second round. Hodgson was beaten in the third round, however, by E. W. E. Holderness, of Walston Heath.

Victor in Thrilling Fight Against Macan

Result of Great Contest Remains in Doubt Until End, But Macan Is Unable to Recover Price's One-Hole Lead; New Champion's Short Game Proves Invincible; Large Crowd Watches United Service Man Win Bostock Cup.

(By Times Special Representative.) A. V. Price, captain of the United Service Golf Club, won the Bostock Cup and the Amateur Golf Championship of British Columbia at the Colwood Golf and Country Club links yesterday after battling with A. V. Macan, of the Victoria Golf Club, on one of the most thrilling contests ever seen on the island.

For thirty-six holes Price and his opponent, who is undoubtedly one of British Columbia's most experienced and cleverest golfers, fought for the championship, and for thirty-six holes the result remained in doubt. At the end of the first round of eighteen holes Price was one hole up, but only after the standing had se-sawed back and forth over the whole course.

In the afternoon it seemed for a time as if Macan, who for a time displayed more of the cunning which marks him as an artist at the game, would win. He got into trouble on the sixteenth, however, when the match was all square, and Price won the hole. That really gave Price the championship, for though he tried desperately to even accounts, Macan was unable to do more than halve the two last holes. Price was thus one up at the conclusion of the contest.

Macan had the better of Price in driving, but Price's short game was deadly-uncanny, in fact. Time and again Macan would seem to have a hole when Price's masher would land the ball a few feet from the hole. Both players sank some miraculous long putts, but, at other times, they both missed easy ones. Taking the match as a whole neither competitor played up to his championship form at times they were brilliant.

Thus Price took 35 strokes to cover the morning round of eighteen holes—42 for the first nine and 42 for the second. Macan took 36—42 for the first nine—44 for the second—though he did the 36 holes in the qualifying round in 77. In the afternoon Macan took 41 for the first nine and 43 for the second, a total of 84, while Price took 55 strokes—42 for the first nine and 42 for the second. Boney at the Colwood is so that the championship ship fight did not produce unusually high scores.

Large Crowd Sees Contest. A crowd of some two hundred people followed the championship tournament around the whole 36 holes and the excitement grew intense as the deciding holes were played. J. Graham Graham, Captain of the Colwood Club, directed the match.

The meeting between Macan and Price for the championship brought to light a most extraordinary coincidence. Both these golfers learned the game on the same links in the south of Ireland. In fact, Price, who is a much younger man than Macan, and he does not, of course, possess the knowledge and experience of his competitor, but, however, make him almost invincible.

Victoria Lacrosse Team Got Away to Bad Start

Vancouver Defeated Locals in First Game by 11-1; Fitzgerald's Boys Looked Good in First Period But Could Not Stick Pace Owing to Lack of Training; Expect to Do Better Saturday.

Vancouver, May 25.—Victoria game back into senior lacrosse yesterday after being on the shelf for a dozen or more seasons, and the licking they took from the Vancouver stickhandlers on the occasion of the first battle in the new Coast Pro League will make some Victorians wish they had followed other pursuits. The score was 11-1, with the Vancouverers on the long end. The contest marked the official opening of the new Con Jones park on Renfrew Street, and a good sized crowd was on hand to congratulate the Vancouver sportsman on his enterprise and extend best wishes.

Handicapped through only having had one practice, and just off the train, the new Capital City players, headed by Billy Fitzgerald, were unable to show anything like true form, and the amateurs who are filling in berths on the squad, strange to their new jobs, appeared stage-struck, but while the Vancouverers played them to a standstill in the last three-quarters, they hustled right through the piece, and with more practice should be capable of much better work. The heavy program they are to play this morning by President Dave Macfarlane.

Some Old Uniform. The Capitals came into the picture sporting brand new uniforms. It was the same old color scheme blue and white, which Billy McKenzie, George Snider, and other old-timers helped to make famous in the lacrosse world 25 years ago, and the newcomers looked smart, but after the first quarter the striking blue effect vanished, faded to a lifeless blue.

In the first quarter it was one-ally. The Capitals getting off in smart style, held their own with the Vancouverers, but after the start of the second quarter the locals started amassing their grand total of 11 markers, while the visitors went scoreless.

The teams play here again next Saturday and Fitzgerald promises a surprise. He points to the fact that all of the players lacked practice, but that with three days in which to prepare for the next game there will be a much improved brand on tap.

TENNIS COURTS WERE OFFICIALLY OPENED

Brown's Teams Won Over Bone's Party at Victoria Courts Yesterday

The Victoria Lawn Tennis Club had a very auspicious opening of their grass courts yesterday. A large number of members and visitors were present. A series of matches was arranged between teams captained by W. H. Bone, honorary vice-president of the club, and J. S. Brown, honorary secretary resulting in the latter's teams winning by five matches to three. The events were confined to mixed doubles. Computing the result by games, Bone's teams also won but by the narrow margin of five games, the total being 29 to 24.

AMATEUR BALL GAME TO-NIGHT CALLED OFF

Owing to the professional ball game being on this evening at 8.15 o'clock, the scheduled game in the Victoria Amateur League between the K. of C. and Conservators, was postponed. The heavy program they are to play this morning by President Dave Macfarlane.

VICTORIA BOWLERS WIN BY ONE POINT

Exceptionally Close Finish to Annual Competition With Vancouver

Victoria's lawn bowlers won a very narrow victory over the pick of Vancouver at the Beacon Hill green yesterday. When the total count was made it was found that Victoria had won by one point, the final being Victoria 210, Vancouver 209.

It was only through the splendid playing of the rinks skipped by Raeside, McCulloch and McKenchie that the local bowlers succeeded in winning. The weather was exceptionally good and the players took to their play with great relish. A large number of spectators gathered to watch the exciting sport.

WILLETS HAD NOTHING

Ed Willets, former big leaguer, tried to stop the game with his run in Yakima's favor, but he did not last three innings. Yakima touched him up for five hits, one a double, which with Shannon's error, accounted for four runs in the first inning.

After Harrigan and Elliott had each gathered a triple in the third, Willets took a jaunt to the dugout and Thompson, a new youngster who was supposed to be a Detroit find, took up the flinging. The portlander ducked for cover in the fifth after Harrigan had touched him up for a double and Elliott had worked a pass. Easter, the regular relief hurler, was sent to the mound, but the Crabapples treated his offerings just as scornfully as those which preceded them.

Yakima ran up its run total to eleven, getting two runs in the sixth on two doubles and a single and two more in the seventh on three singles and Gatewood's fumble. Even Eastley Won. Pat Eastley had his horsehooves with him yesterday and let the Capitals down with five hits. Victoria did not break into the scoring sheet until the fifth inning when Hansen got a home run out of his system.

Dine Amidst the Palms and Music, 176 Yates Street, Palma Grand Cafe.

Price's putt rolled to the very edge of the hole while Macan sunk his fourth stroke and won the hole in four. Macan was thus one up. On the tenth Macan got to within four feet of the pin in three and laid Price a perfect styrim. In this account, Price failed to sink his fourth by a foot. Macan won the hole in four.

After two drives of almost equal accuracy the green while Macan was to within three feet of the pin won him the eleventh hole. Macan, whose masher had landed him ten feet from the hole failed to sink his putt while Price's putt rolled into the hole. Price thus won the hole in three—excellent golf.

Macan spoiled a putt on the twelfth and his fifth stroke failed to sink the ball though it lay five feet from the hole. Price's fourth stroke brought him to within a foot of the hole which was conceded to him for five. Again the competitors were all square.

To cheat the wind which had arisen Macan drove a beautiful low, long shot on the thirteenth but his shot was not so near the hole as the rough, while Price's second shot—a brassy—was sliced into the rough at the left. Price's masher shot fell short of the hole, while Macan's third brought him four feet from the hole and he sunk his fourth. Price took five to sink his ball so that Macan was one up again.

Macan Does the Impossible. The fourth hole was the most difficult and finest shots ever seen at Colwood. Both got away with long drives but Macan sliced his ball slightly and it landed in the rough on the right. Price's ball, when Macan reached his ball he found that it lay in the depression between two tree roots. It seemed almost impossible to play it. Spectators expected that Macan would merely to land his ball in the fairway again. After examining the lie for some minutes, however, Macan lifted the ball high into the air and it almost landed in the hole. He had done what appeared to be the impossible. Price's third shot brought him ten feet from the pin, while Macan's fourth putt was five feet from the hole. Macan's fourth putt was weak but he sunk his fifth—a rolled beautiful putt. Price's fourth rolled clear over the centre of the hole but he was not so near the hole as Macan's fifth and the hole was halved.

Price Wins First Afternoon Hole. After both had driven into the rough Price put a perfect iron shot to the first green in the afternoon round while Macan lost a stroke on account of the difficult lie of his first ball. The hole was conceded to Price four five. Macan laid a brassy shot on the second green, while Price's third landed in a bunker. Price failed to get his ball out of the bunker on his fourth shot and conceded the hole to his opponent. Price drove into the rough at the right on the third hole but recovered nicely and he halved the hole with Macan for five. As in the morning both drove over

Scots Show Fine Form And Win Montreal Game Before Crowd of 10,000

Montreal, May 25. — (Canadian Press) — Displaying occasional flashes of brilliant football and at all times exhibiting real merit, the visiting Scottish football team yesterday afternoon, on the Grand Trunk field here, defeated the composite team of Montreal amateurs by six to two.

Around 10,000 people witnessed the game, and they rose as one man when Alec Smith, the speedy guardman, terminated a brilliant dash by driving a swift shot past Jimmie Brownlie, and accounted for the first amateur score.

Made Fine Impression. The visitors made a great impression, first of all with their size and Thompson, was brilliant. The latter shot two goals, the last being a particularly fine one.

Andy Wilson at the centre showed some of the stuff that has made him famous and found the net twice, while McMenemy and Rankin did their share toward the visitors' victory.

McCormick and Orr are a pair of spectacular backs who performed some great clearances during the match, and finally Brownlie, the goalkeeper, a surprisingly agile player for so big a man.

Trained to Minute. To sum up, the Scots are a team of men trained to the minute, who expend just the sufficiency of energy to get to the right spot, and who have the exact quantity of sound judgment needed in the game.

Of the Montreal amateurs, it may be said that while there were one or two weak spots and while some of the men were playing in positions to which they were unaccustomed, they put up a fine fight against a superior team. But it has to be conceded that they totally lacked the finer points in which their opponents excelled.

The scoring was as follows: First half—Rankin and Wilson for the Scots, and Alec Smith for Montreal. Second half—Thompson (twice), McMenemy and Wilson for the Scots and Adam Rae for Montreal.

Dempsey Cuts Color Line Georges Talks of Science

Atlantic City, N. J., May 25.—Jack Kearns, manager of Jack Dempsey, today eradicated a color line. Kearns said that if the champion eliminates Georges Carpentier, the next opponent of Dempsey after Carpentier has been conquered will be a man whose services can be obtained by the heavyweight champion of the world.

Kearns made this announcement when asked whether Kid Norfolk had refused advances to come here as a sparring partner. Kearns said that all reports that he had made "special rates" to Norfolk are unfounded. Norfolk would be welcome but as far as going to the point of guaranteeing a meeting with the colored heavyweight, Kearns would make no promise.

"Dempsey is a free-for-all champion," Kearns said. "He has the ambition to be pronounced the greatest heavyweight of all time. I believe that consideration is coming to him. I think that on July 2 he will make the verdict unanimous."

Manhasset, N. Y., May 25.—Georges Carpentier realizes in Jack Dempsey he will meet the greatest fighter of his career and that victory, if it comes to him must be gained by what he terms "superior fighting intelligence."

Carpentier's estimate of Dempsey as revealed in a conversation with a British sportsman, will be interesting to those who are following the training progress of pugilists.

Georges Speaks of Science. "I shall face Jack Dempsey confident that he is the strongest, the fiercest man against whom I have dared to put on the gloves with, and the challenger. There is joy in the prospect of meeting such a man. I will go into the ring with the odds against me. Undoubtedly Dempsey will be the favorite, not because of abnormal force, but because his great strength is at once obvious and unquestionable.

"It is possible that in a trial of sheer, or what you say, brute strength, he would prove to be my superior, but I hold that, while power, the ability to hit with almost abnormal force, is a primary qualification, fighting science is also of the first importance. I do not say that these qualities Dempsey does not possess."

PRINCE OF WALES IS MAKING POLO PLAYER

New York, May 25.—American polo players, practicing at Haringham, Eng., for the coming international matches, recently watched the Prince of Wales swinging a mallet with no mean result. At present he is handicapped at one stroke, but judging from letters received here, the future King of Great Britain might develop into an internationalist were he to devote sufficient time to practice atop a pony.

JIM LONDOS FAILED TO THROW WALKER

Fort William, Ont., May 25.—Jim Londos, of New York, Greek heavyweight wrestler, failed last night to throw George Walker, light heavyweight champion of Canada, twice in 75 minutes. Londos got one fall in 51 minutes, 30 seconds. Walker had the best of the wrestling for the remaining time, having Londos groggy with headlocks when the 75 minutes were up.

SCHOOL SPORTS DRAW THOUSANDS

Children of City Enjoy Fine Programme of Events

Some six thousand school children with their parents crowded the grand stand and bleachers at the Willowas track on Monday, when one of the most successful school sports that Victoria has ever had was held. The Queen of the Carnival, Miss Jessie Chapman, attended the sports, accompanied by her maids of honor, and took up her place in the judging booth about 1.30 o'clock. Much credit will be given to H. W. Creelman for the way the sports were managed, it taking only two and a half hours to complete 98 events, including the heats.

Oaklands proved to be the best school this year for most points in sports. They secured the cup for the most number of points from the Boys' Central School with a total of 23 points, while Boys' Central came a close second with 15 points. The tug-of-war cup, which was presented by the Hudson's Bay Company and won by the Boys' Central last year, was secured by the North Ward boys this year, after a hard struggle against a good team of opponents. The half mile races caused considerable excitement both in the foot races and the bicycle races. R. Emery, who won the half mile races for the Boys' Central, showed good form at these sports and finished a good three yards in front of his opponent, Cecil

VICTOR IN THRILLING FIGHT AGAINST MACAN

Macan's second shot put him almost on the green while Price's third was fifteen feet to the left of the pin. Macan's third also was fifteen feet short of the hole. The two four-stroke brought the balls to within four feet of the hole. After the distance between the hole and balls had been measured, Price was ordered to play his fifth stroke. Were he to miss it Macan undoubtedly would have won the hole and made the match all square. Amid tense silence Price tepped his ball and it rolled into the hole. Macan could not better this, of course, so Price had won Macan was the first to congratulate him while an eager crowd pressed around to shake the hand of the new champion and that of the man whom he had beaten so narrowly.

Macan laid a beautiful baffle shot almost on the fourteenth green and his fourth was four feet from the pin. He sank his ball in five while Price's fourth was fifteen feet from the hole. The competitors again were all square. Macan drove into the fifteenth and his second failed to extricate him. His third passed the hole twelve feet while Price's third was one foot from the pin. Macan sank a lovely twelve-foot putt, thus halving the hole.

Excitement was intense as the competitors, all square, started to play the last three holes. As a matter of fact, as subsequent events showed, the contest was fought out on the sixteenth. Macan drove into the trees at the right; played a second ball but then found that the first was in bounds. He attempted to lift it out but it hit a tree and bounced back. His third shot put him on the fairway again. Price's second shot carried him almost to the green. His fourth stroke brought him to within a foot of the hole and he was down in five. Macan's fifth stroke landed him to the right of the hole so Price was one up.

Both sank long putts on the seventeenth and halved the hole so that Macan had to win the eighteenth to draw even and force the competition into another round.

The Eighteenth Hole. Macan's second shot put him almost on the green while Price's third was fifteen feet to the left of the pin. Macan's third also was fifteen feet short of the hole. The two four-stroke brought the balls to within four feet of the hole. After the distance between the hole and balls had been measured, Price was ordered to play his fifth stroke. Were he to miss it Macan undoubtedly would have won the hole and made the match all square. Amid tense silence Price tepped his ball and it rolled into the hole. Macan could not better this, of course, so Price had won Macan was the first to congratulate him while an eager crowd pressed around to shake the hand of the new champion and that of the man whom he had beaten so narrowly.

ler to tent dweller and thence to cabin dweller, and thence again onward. Explanations were the first language, then imitative cries, then at length language and literature. The outreach of the human spirit and its adventure never pauses against any environment. There is no fatalism in true science. The "red philosophy must be revised," Mr. Dobson argued.

Various Committees.

Yesterday afternoon's session was occupied with the hearing of the reports of various committees, those on Sabbath Observance, State of the Work, Department of Finance, Contingent and other delayed reports passing through rapidly, since conference was getting restive and many of the business members especially feeling that they had been away long enough from home.

A special resolution was introduced by Messrs. Mahon and Curtis recalling that this is the twenty-first year of the issuance of the "Methodist Recorder" under the editorship of its first and only editor, Rev. J. F. Hicks, of Victoria, and congratulations were expressed to the editor on that fact. Resolutions of thanks were passed to the officials of the Metropolitan Church for their care and preparations for the conference, and to the people of Victoria for their generous hospitality. Thanks and satisfaction were expressed to the local press for their careful and complete reports. Greetings were forwarded to the Rev. R. W. Whittington, M. A., D. D., who through a superannuate has been a lecturer in Columbian College during the year. Rev. James Calvert, D. D., also had the remembrance of Conference.

Receipt of Reports.

During the morning reports were received and passed on "The Church and Parsonage Aid Fund," presented by Rev. J. F. Pye, on "Systematic Beneficence," presented by Rev. T. H. Wright, on Class Leaders and Local Preachers, presented by Mr. A. Lee. The last named provoked considerable discussion.

Report of Nominating Committee.

The Nominating Committee reported as follows through its Secretary, Rev. T. H. Wright, B. A.: Crosby Marine Mission.—Rev. J. H. Wright, President; Rev. S. G. Smith, White, Robson, Freeman, Raley, Scott, Spencer, Osterhout; Messrs. Harris, Hogg, Mitchell, Cleland, Bell, Oliver.

Many Subjects.

Late Monday afternoon came the report of one of the most important of the Conference committees, that of the committee on Social Service and Evangelism. It noted the call from all parts of the country on the part of the church for evangelist help from the department headquarters in Toronto. This was concurred in and it was decided that there shall be an evangelist sent out from Toronto this fall to work in the Province.

Note was taken of the growth of the Brotherhood Movement and this movement is to be encouraged. The matter of amusements were touched on next. It was noted that there is a growing sentiment that amusements are occupying a place in the life of our young people so large as to menace their educational advancement and the attention of the Department of Education is to be called to the serious tendency of the times.

The motion picture censorship shall be more thorough was considered. Special action was considered. It was desired that the Government should take steps to erect a department or bureau of films similar to those in other Provinces. It expressed hearty approval of the campaign against the use of narcotic drugs.

Special action was placed on the fact that the Lambeth Conference of the Church of England had, in speaking of Christianity and industrialism used almost identical language to that used by the last General Conference of this church as to co-operation for the common good in place of unrestricted competition and production for profit rather than for profit. And to supplement this it is suggested that churches form groups and classes to study social questions, particularly with a view to the appraisal of moral values in them.

An Unusual Expression.

A lively discussion ensued on the introduction by one of the speakers of the phrase, "these detestable little ecclesiastical peasant states" referring to some of the small village church enterprises that had shown little growth. Exception was taken to the term, but it was an evidence of the strong feeling that characterizes the delegates who are impatient of the unlimited appetite for mission work of some of these small war stations and their chronically feeble condition. This condition will in part be remedied by more active steps toward co-operation.

A Japanese Bishop.

A most interesting personality visiting the Conference is that of Rev. Y. Hiraiwa, of Japan. He was for eight years Bishop of the Japanese Methodist Church, which that land is an office to which ministers are appointed quadrennially. At the end of his second quadrennial the Bishop retired and has now been absent from his native land about nine months, about six of which has been spent in California endeavoring there to bring about better conditions as to the Anglo-Japanese situation. It is a case more of misunderstanding than anything else, says Mr. Hiraiwa. As Miss Nixon speaks both languages he is able to be the interpreter. He will stay two weeks longer in British Columbia assisting local Japanese pastors, and then expects to visit the Hawaiian Islands, returning to Japan in November.

Pioneer Laymen.

Affectionate greetings were sent by the Conference to Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Wells, of Chilliwack. In former years Mr. Wells was a regular attendant at Conference but this year through increasing years is absent.

The name Wells brought up another of the same, that of James Wells, of Mount Pleasant, who in his ninety-first year was remembered and greetings sent.

This list was extended by the name of Mrs. John Hall, of Jubilee, whose husband was a regular delegate to Conference but who died last year. Attention was called to the fact that there was one lay member present at Conference who had been there continuously year by year for thirty-four years. The person referred to was S. Gough, city clerk for many long years of Nanaimo. On being called on for a speech Mr. Gough said that talking was not his line but he liked to sit and listen.

Ocean Park Summer School was announced by Rev. O. M. Sanford as scheduled for opening on July 1 and Conference urged to get ready.

Portrait of Rev. C. Ladness

There stands in one of the committee rooms of the church an oil portrait which is attracting much attention. It is that of the pioneer and much beloved minister, Rev. Charles Ladness, of Kamloops. It is from the brush of S. Taggart, of Ottawa and was painted to be the personal property of the artist's son, who now lives in Kamloops.

A Pioneer

There is a tablet in the vestibule of Metropolitan Church to the memory of "Father MacKay" an early member of the church. Mr. MacKay came to Victoria in 1861, shortly after the Methodist church was established, and took an active part in the affairs of the church until his death in 1895. Rev. Mr. Ladner, in conversation with members of conference, referred to the splendid Christian life of Mr. MacKay. Mr. Ladner was a member of a class conducted by Mr. MacKay in the Maritime provinces and stated that seven members of the class were led into the Christian ministry. Two of these are now living, Mr. Ladner and Rev. Dr. Hearty, of Nova Scotia.

THOUSANDS ENJOYED THE GREAT HOLIDAY CELEBRATION HERE

Boys' Naval Brigade.

The Veterans of France entered a particularly striking float. Two captured German guns were mounted in realistic fashion in a gun pit and manned by ex-service men in war service kit complete to "tin-hat." This was followed by a detachment of the Boys' Naval Brigade under Lieut. Queen Jessie took her place with the suite on the dais, where Hon. J. W. de F. Farris, Acting Premier, after a brief address performed the coronation ceremony. The Queen was Striking Floats.

The Veterans' Pipe Band preceded one of the most effective entries in the parade, "The wee hose" arranged by the St. Andrew's and Caledonian Society. In a miniature Highland cottage with roof and sides fashioned of broom instead of heather, a crofter in his "plaid" sat with a bevy of typical Highland women, wearing caps and shawls and hand-knitined hose while the inevitable coillie reclined at their feet. A second float by the same society, was that driven by its owners as Rob Roy and Bonnie Prince Charlie, while two burly Scotsmen in tartan and kilts acted as escort.

Artistic Designs.

Some beautiful effects were achieved in the section for decorated automobiles. Almost without exception broom was the chosen medium of decoration. The most striking car, whose elaborate and artistic design evoked memories of the "Battle of Flowers" which is such a feature of European carnivals, was that driven by its owner, Mrs. Edmund Woodward. A replica of a Venetian gondola, its graceful lines were carried out in broom blossoms solidly massed and outlined with purple lilacs and red hawthorn.

The Dr. O. M. Jones Chapter with an elaborately designed floral car of brilliant yellow, the effect being achieved with the aid of broom and terepe paper. "Follow the Birds to Victoria" was the inspiration for a beautiful car entered by Mrs. J. C. Newbury, in which broom and wild roses formed a bower on which were perched bluebirds and gulls, with a swan leading.

Wildflowers of District.

The "wildflowers of Victoria" was the inscription on a prettily-decorated car containing a bevy of children and driven by L. Schmeis. Wild hyacinths and broom were used in the canopy overhead and in the decoration of the body of the car, the gold and blue blending into a harmonious color scheme.

Fine Floats.

Very effective, too were the floats entered by the Onwego Bible Class of the First Presbyterian Church, the Y. M. C. A. and the Boy Scouts. The "Onwegos" had arranged their float in replica of a summer camp complete to tent and camp fire, while the boys were attired in appropriate costume and from time to time rent the air with their "yell."

While some disappointment was expressed that more of the business firms of the city had not entered cars in the parade, much admiration was shown at the very striking floats and trucks entered by the more enterprising concerns. T. Pimley & Co. were represented by a car decorated in original fashion with two immense revolving wheels, adorned with the legend, "Put Canada on Wheels" the motto of the Overland Motor Company. Thacker & Holt showed much ingenuity with their motor truck on which was erected a beautifully-fitted bathroom with snowed bath in operation.

Ormond's, the Victoria Bed & Mattress Co., the Victoria Furniture Co., Woodward the florist, the Veterans' Auto-Painting Co., Shelly's, Rennie & Taylor, the Reliable Messenger Company, Cowichan Lake Lumber Co., A. Cameron & Bro., which entered a huge float bearing a sawmill in actual operation, and Brackman & Ker were among the local firms entering with striking effects.

Decorated Bicycles.

The section devoted to decorated bicycles revealed the ingenuity of the entrants. Here again broom was much in evidence, some delightfully artistic effects being achieved with its aid,

Had Kidney Trouble For Thirty Years

WHY W. J. HAMPTON RECOMMENDS DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS

Manitoba Man Says the Pain is Nearly All Gone and That Dodd's Kidney Pills Worked Wonders for Him

Newdale, Man., May 24.—(Special)—That even the most chronic case of kidney disease and rheumatism can be benefited by the use of Dodd's Kidney Pills is the belief of Mr. W. J. Hampton, a well-known resident here.

"Dodd's Kidney Pills certainly worked wonders for me," Mr. Hampton states. "My kidneys were so bad at times that I could not work and I was also a sufferer from rheumatism. Mine was a chronic case of thirty years' standing. Now the pain is nearly all gone and I recommend Dodd's Kidney Pills to all sufferers from kidney trouble."

Rheumatism is one of the effects of kidney trouble. The weakness of the kidneys fall to strain the uric acid out of the blood and rheumatism follows.

Ask your neighbors if Dodd's Kidney Pills are not the best remedy for weak or diseased kidneys.

"NOT YET MARIE" IS TUNEFUL COMEDY

Tabloid Revue With Star Cast Appears at Pantages

An exceptionally brilliant and pleasing musical comedy with just about the oddest plot ever given to such an affair is "Not Yet, Marie," which comes to the Pantages Theatre as the chief attraction of this week's bill of vaudeville.

with the talented William Edmunds in the role of "Bambino," one that is said to establish him as a very able actor indeed, this attraction should be well appreciated by those who like a colorful and melodious revue in tabloid form. To assist Mr. Edmunds there is a cast of Broadway favorites which includes William Frutkin, Jr., Loraine Lester and Fanchon Hayward, all stars in their own right.

An added attraction on the bill is the famous and hilarious sketch, "The Baggageman" in which Will H. Armstrong and his company appear for ten riotous minutes. "The Baggageman" is an original creation which has its reason for existence in the faithful and persistent efforts of the baggage man to find a place for the pretty lady's trunk, the prettiest lady being Miss Maudie Smith.

Another bright spot on the bill is that occupied by Grace Hayes, a songstress of grace and good voice who is assisted by Cyril Mockridge, a pianist of unusual ability.

Anna Vivian, assisted by Evelyn Dufresne, offers some exceptional scenery and costumes are of the most elaborate nature and the fun is continuous when complications begin to complicate in the studio of a temperamental photographer whose handsome and decoratively dressed interloper with the fun is a story with a strong human appeal.

Leonard and Willard, well known vaudeville favorites, are here in their latest comedy success, entitled "Seldom Inn," introducing some of the very early days chiefs and kings had a token of some kind by which they were known and the messengers were given these tokens to carry with them, that the receiver of the message might know that the message was genuine.

nifty songs, original patter talk, interspersed with clever dancing. On the screen will be shown topical films and the fifteenth chapter of the serial "The Double Adventure," with Charles Hutchison.

COLUMBIA

"Seeds of Vengeance," from a story by Margaret Prescott Montague, has been dramatized for the screen and will be shown at the Columbia Theatre again to-day. The Photoplay is a thrilling depiction of the hates and loves in the West Virginia mountains. It pictures the life in the eternal hills far back from the refinements of civilization, where the old law of "an eye for an eye" prevails. To interpret this story a highly capable cast has been employed. Bernard Durning, star of "When Bearcat Went Bye," "The Gift Supreme," and other recent successes, is the David Cree of the production. Pauline Starke is Ellen Daw, and Gloria Hope is Mary Reddin. Others in support are Eugene Bessner, Jack Curtis and Jack Levering. The action moves with all the swiftness of a mountain stream, and there are at least two stirring battles between men that will go down in screen history as classics in screen combat.

ROYAL VICTORIA

Forgery, usually associated with great skill in writing as writing is now one of the oldest known crime which was recognized as a transgression against the rights of individuals. Yet, despite its extreme age and the advantages it has acquired through its practice by the person who discounts the penalties attached, it has never reached a point of perfection. In the very early days chiefs and kings had a token of some kind by which they were known and the messengers were given these tokens to carry with them, that the receiver of the message might know that the message was genuine. Proof that unscrupulous persons forged these tokens, for whatever advantages they could gain through them, is given in the fact that among the earliest writings that have been deciphered are records of executions for the offense. In those days death was the penalty. Forgery, however, did not offer its fullest advantages until personal signatures came to have an actual cash worth when affixed to the proper documents. Fortunately, however, no forger has ever been so adept at copying signatures but what the ungueness of them can be detected by experts or by mechanical test. It is hard to realize the chaos that would follow in the financial world if a perfect forger did appear. Such a man, however, is the main character in "Jim the Penman," which will be the attraction at the Royal Victoria Theatre again to-day. Lionel Barrymore is starred in it and plays the part of James Ralston, a bank cashier, who discovers that he has the skill that makes his forgeries undetectable. AGREE TO REPEAT OPERA "ERMINE"

Royal Victoria Theatre Secured for Monday, May 30; Big Demand

The Royal Victoria Theatre has been secured for a repeat performance of "Ermine" the popular opera which was staged at the Little Theatre, Oak Bay, for two consecutive weeks. The demand for seats during the two-week run was so great that hundreds of people were disappointed at not being able to witness the performance and in response to scores of requests, the Victoria Dramatic and Operatic Society has therefore decided to stage the opera for one more night in order that everyone may have an opportunity of attending.

Monday evening next is the date chosen and the curtain will rise promptly at 8.15 o'clock. As there will be a great rush for tickets, those wishing to see this popular opera are advised to get their reservations early as it will not be possible for the Society to give another performance after Monday night. Tickets are on sale at the Royal Victoria box office.

"Ermine" is one of the finest productions in the list of operas now being run in the world's largest theatrical centres, and has been run continuously in London and New York for some time past. The costumes are simply beautiful, and blended with the artistic scenery, serve to produce a picture which is living long in the memory of the audience. Every member of the company is an artist, and the singing and dancing is delightful, repeated encores having been demanded at each of the previous performances.

"Ermine" was produced by the Victoria Dramatic and Operatic Society in response to a big demand, and it was recognized that no better selection could be made in meeting the taste of local theatre-goers for high class music.

DOMINION

For a real live, jazzy and delightful comedy that is as full of action as an egg is of meat, the most jaded movie fan in the world will recommend "The Ghost in the Garret" in which Paramount picture dainty Dorothy Gish appeared again at the Dominion Theatre last night. To say that the audience was pleased would express the truth in broadest form. If the gales of laughter that swept the theatre is a criterion on which to base one's judgment, "The Ghost in the Garret" deals with a girl who with her dog Mike (a splendid actor, by the way) follows a band of crooks into a haunted house and after playing the ghost with highly realistic results, brings the criminals to book. The story is a blues chaser of the finest art, and the production is in every way a treat. William E. Park heads a capable supporting cast, which included Downing Clark, Ray Gray, Mrs. David Landau, Mrs. Foy and others.

HILARITY REIGNS AT PRINCESS THEATRE WITH RURAL COMEDY

Full House Laughs Delightedly at "Broadway and Buttermilk"

A densely thronged house greeted the Mildred Page Players last night at the Princess Theatre, when they presented "Broadway and Buttermilk" as their holiday attraction. This comedy by Willard Mack proved to be ideally suited to the company, and the audience enjoyed one of the most continuous series of laughs which have yet been provided by this talented stock company. Miss Page is the central figure of the story; taking the role of Madame Nadine, a New York modiste, visiting a rural village for a vacation. The action takes place at the home of the widow Kate, who is being delightfully portrayed by Miss Berkeley, her elopement via step-ladder from her bedroom window, by the aid of her elderly newspaperman lover, Malar Howe, being only one of the funny hits of the show.

Miss Dooley is Back. In the first act the family of the widow receive the New Yorker and stage a celebration dance, when old-fashioned steps of the Major and the widow decidedly win the palm of applause from the modern styles as exemplified by Miss Mulhally and Miss Lily Dooley, the former being the ingenue daughter of the widow and the latter, as her first part since rejoining the company, being a most realistic red-headed boy. Miss Dooley made quite a hit in this part, the boy's wholesome absorption in his past earning job of property man for the village theatre giving lots of opportunity for well-turned comedy. Thomas Padden has a highly humorous role as the village barber, very much smitten with the charms of the New York Madam, and as a foil and companion in the laughable low comedy work he is bracketed with Mr. W. J. Campbell, the owner of the village theatre, store and general manager.

Mr. Campbell gets over the one big topical allusion of the show when in the last act, after all his efforts to propose to Madame have gone astray, he springs on the New York lady. "What do you think of the salary grab" of a suburban show was in the hovering proposal which had been forestalled by a runaway wedding with an old-time sweetheart, well-played by Mr. Coote. Miss Elsie Dumbleton and Mr. Robert Thoms both have small but effective parts, while Byron Aldern with the necessary impression right in the face of the villain and gets away up to the last moments, when it turns out he had been playing a "diamond cut diamond" scheme to win the village maid as the bride of the rich young college man.

SEED GROWING EXTENDING

Ganges, May 24.—Fred J. James, head of the firm of the same name who see seed growing industry on Salt Spring Island, located near Ganges Harbor, has grown to sixty acres in seed, informs the Times that the seeds have found their way as far as Shanghai, while in the United States and Eastern Canada is a ready market for the seeds grown on the island. The firm has developed his industry in a very big way and is now producing a large quantity of seeds for export.

Started in 1915 the James firm has extensive holdings on Salt Spring Island about a half mile North of Ganges. The James firm have now extended their interests widely, and are endeavoring to establish outside connections all over the world. The results of the tests made here have been so satisfactory, states Mr. James, that the seed growing industry is a project that should claim the widest possible attention and development locally. The firm consists of Mr. James and his four sons, Mr. James for a number of years being provincial inspector of fruit pests.

Shawigan Lake News

Shawigan Lake, May 24.—The Shawigan and District Fishermen's Association of the Duncan Board of Trade, held their monthly meeting in the S. L. A. Hall, Shawigan, on Wednesday evening. Twenty members attended. The Rev. A. L. Nixon, newly appointed vicar of the district was an interested visitor. Col. Oldham took the chair. Reports from the various committees were read; they covered a large variety of subjects. The Agricultural Committee reported progress in the "Canadian" thistle in the district, suggesting that steps be taken to eradicate this nuisance. A strong recommendation from the Roads and Bridges Committee was made relative to the steps of work on the diversion in the road between Mill Bay and Shawigan. The part of the road this diversion will eliminate is in a very dangerous condition. The Government is urged to carry the improvement to completion. The Fisheries Committee brought in a report and wished the Duncan Board to act upon it, namely that the trout in Shawigan Lake and Stream, do not spawn until March and April, and as the fishing season opens the middle of March, many trout are caught before they have spawned, thus leading to a great depletion of fish. This branch of the Board of Trade is doing much useful work. Two new members were balloted for. A dainty supper was served after the meeting closed.

FULFORD HARBOR ENTERTAINED ALL SALT SPRING ISLAND

Fulford Harbor: Fulford Harbor celebrated Victoria Day in splendid style, the Salt Spring Islanders turning out en masse for the occasion. The day's amusements commenced with a soccer match between teams from Ganges and Fulford Harbor, with the championship of Salt Spring Island as the stake, the game resulting in a 1-1 draw after a well-contested match. Children's sports, together with a shooting gallery, fortune-telling and other similar holiday attractions proved highly interesting to the holiday-makers, while the ladies of the Salt Spring Island Women's Institute served tea and ice cream, the proceeds being devoted to the Institute Hall building fund. The celebration closed at a late hour after a most enjoyable dance in the new hall, the music for the affair being supplied by the Fulford Harbor orchestra.

being accomplished musicians. The party broke up at 9 p. m., after a most enjoyable evening.

Mr. J. Peterson, sr., of New Westminster, is visiting his daughter, Mrs. Ray Eiford. Mr. Peterson is recovering from a serious operation and is making satisfactory progress. The opening of the rowing season finds the Shawigan Club rather hard hit, on account of the mill being closed down; several promising members have had to go away. Still the club hopes to make a good showing during the Summer regattas. Geo. Kingsley, the captain of the club, has imported a fine single shell and is accustoming himself to the precarious seat of this small craft. Mr. Ed. Leeson, provincial assessor, accompanied by Mrs. Leeson and family spent an enjoyable week end at the lake.

Prepare for Scottish Team. Nanaimo—A meeting of the Upper Island Football Executive has been called for Friday, May 27, at Nanaimo, for the purpose of making arrangements for the game with the Scottish football team, which is at present making a tour of the Dominion. It is understood that only one game will be played in the Upper Island district, and that will be at Nanaimo. A team will be selected by the executive from the teams in the district to play the visitors. The game will likely be played on Monday, June 20.

To Hold Flower Show. Colwood—At the regular monthly meeting of the Colwood and Luxton Women's Institute, held at the Institute Hall at Colwood, it was decided to hold a flower show on August 24. It is hoped that the members will endeavor to make this annual event an outstanding success. It was also arranged to have a "Better Babies Day" to be held on July 15, when prizes will be awarded for the best children in the various classes, also the school children will compete in "Bed-making" and "Baby-washing" contests for which Miss Sawley, the district nurse, is busy preparing the children in the local schools.

Late Chief's Funeral. Nanaimo, May 24.—Most impressive was the funeral of the late Chief of Police Jacob Neen, which took place Monday afternoon. The funeral was held from the family residence, 444 Nicol Street, to St. Paul's Church, thence to the Nanaimo Cemetery, where interment took place.

The funeral cortege was one of the largest seen in Nanaimo for a long time. Several hundred mourners followed the hearse to the church and the graveside. Members of the various lodges of which Mr. Neen was a member and other societies were represented, the order of procession being as follows: Firemen; Black Diamond Lodge, I. O. O. F.; Doris Lodge, A. F. & A. M.; Mourners; Mayor and Aldermen; Police Commissioners; School Trustees; City Official; Daughters of the Empire; Red Cross Society; general public. Members of the City and Mounted Police acted as a bodyguard. Services at the church were conducted by Rev. S. Ryall, while services at the graveside were conducted by Black Diamond Lodge, I. O. O. F., and Doris Lodge, A. F. & A. M. The pallbearers were all intimate friends, and were as follows: J. Sherran, Geo. Cavalry, John Ridd, C. J. Crawford, Alex. Mustart and Bert Stephenson.

VICTORIAN ERA

MANY of the masterpieces of literature were born in the Victorian Era. Poets, novelists, essayists, historians received their just recognition during the reign of Victoria, of glorious memory. LET CONTRACTS FOR ADDITION TO TILlicum SCHOOL

Saanich Trustees Authorize New Construction at Tillicum and Cloverdale

Improvements would be of considerable value in providing employment for many residents in the nearby districts.

ACIDS IN STOMACH CAUSE INDIGESTION

Create Gas, Sourness and Pain How to Treat.

Medical authorities state that nearly nine-tenths of the cases of stomach trouble, indigestion, sourness, burning, gas, bloating, nausea, etc., are due to an excess of hydrochloric acid in the stomach and not as some believe to a lack of digestive juices. The delicate stomach lining is irritated, digestion is delayed and food acids, causing the disagreeable symptoms which every stomach sufferer knows so well.

Artificial digestants are not needed in such cases and may do real harm. Try laying aside all digestive aids and instead get from any druggist a few ounces of Bisulphate of Magnesia and take a teaspoonful in a quarter glass of water right after eating. This sweetens the stomach, prevents the formation of excess acid and there is no sourness, gas or pain. Bisulphate of Magnesia (in powder or tablet form—never liquid or milk) is harmless to the stomach, inexpensive to take and is the most efficient form of magnesia for stomach purposes. It is used by thousands of people who enjoy their meals with no more fear of indigestion.

Chatham bakers have reduced the price of bread to twelve cents a loaf.

Government Aid Basis.

The grant from the Government is based on $6,126 for Tillicum and $2,184.33 for Cloverdale. These contributions bring the total cost to Saanich ratepayers to almost exactly the $18,000 which the Municipal Council allocated for extraordinary purposes of the Board, the net shortage the Trustees must meet from other sources being only $146.53.

The formal motion authorizing the work was moved by Trustee Oldfield and seconded by Trustee Hull, and specified that the contracts should be signed provided the Government grant arranged for be confirmed. It is expected that an early commencement will be made on both schools, as the Board require possession when the schools re-open after the Summer holidays.

While no specific provision has been made in the contracts for preference for Saanich workmen, the Board expected that the construction of these

The musical programme was furnished by the band of the Fifth Regiment under Bandmaster Rumsthy. The Festival Queen maids and attendants were present.

The Navy was well represented in the events and, in fact, without the boys from the Navy the affair would have been much less interesting, for they turned to with a will and furnished all the amusement possible. Men from H. M. C. S. Aurora, Patriot and Patricia being present in large numbers.

It was a subject of regret, however, that the Army was not better represented in the various events and members of the land forces were more conspicuous by their absence than otherwise.

The five-oared whaler races were very exciting and great interest was taken in the various rowing and canoe races. The Indian events and the swimming races also proved extremely popular.

The comedy canoe and swimming events and the greasy pole were responsible for a great deal of fun.

WIFE TAKES HUSBAND'S ADVICE
And is Made Well Again by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Springfield, Mass.—The doctors told my husband that I had to have an operation, otherwise I would be a sickly woman and could not have any more children on account of my weakened condition. I refused to have the operation. My husband asked me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. For the first four months I could do but little work, had to lie down most of the time, and was very nervous, but my husband was always reminding me to take the Vegetable Compound, which I did. Of my eight children this last one was the easiest birth of all and compound. I recommend it to my friends when I hear them complaining about their ill.—Mrs. M. Natale, 72 Fremont St., Springfield, Mass.

Sickly, ailing women make unhappy homes, and after reading Mrs. Natale's letter one can imagine how this home was transformed by her restoration to health. Every woman who suffers from such ailments should give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a fair trial. It is surely worth while.

MRS. T. C. KINCARD IS OVER TROUBLES

Winnipeg Woman Says She Couldn't Want to Feel Better Than Now, Since Taking Tanlac

"Tanlac has built me up until I feel as strong and healthy as I ever did in my life," said Mrs. T. C. Kincard, of 616 Main St., Winnipeg.

"Yes, I'm certainly thankful I read a statement which encouraged me to buy Tanlac, for it I hadn't I believe I would be suffering yet. I had indigestion so bad I just even dreaded to think about eating, for after every meal I was in almost unbearable pain and distress. My appetite left me, nothing tasted good, and I had such splitting headaches they almost drove me to distraction. I was so nervous the least little noise worried me, and nights I was so restless I could hardly sleep a wink.

"When I started on Tanlac I had very little faith in the medicine, but after finishing my third bottle I could scarcely believe I was the same woman. Five bottles have rid me of my troubles completely, and made me feel as fine as I could want to feel. In fact, I never felt better than I do now, and I hope everybody suffering like I did will give Tanlac a trial."

Tanlac is sold in Victoria by D. E. Campbell and all druggists.

JUST IN TIME

Smithson used to labor under the impression that he was a born humorist, but he has given up trying to be funny now.

He called one day on an old school friend, and was shown into a room where his chum's sister was busy arranging a quantity of dried grasses which she had collected.

"What a quantity of dried grass you have collected, Miss Ritchie!" he said.

"Then his humor burst forth. "Nice room for a donkey to get into."

"Then make yourself at home, Mr. Smithson," said the girl, pleasantly.

When he arrived home all the humor was gone out of him forever.
