September 1867. Penang.

Mon. 2. Up at 6. Walked with J.B.K. to Mr. Distant's who is living with Mr. John Launder. Found Sandy a little better. Took a fresh egg for him. 7. Walked home alone. Had 2 slices of toast & butter. Saw the tables dusted. Took the bazaar account from our boy, and gave him the orders for the day. Then worked at my bead collar till 9:15. When I bathed & dressed. 9:30. Second breakfast. The Bengal Tailor brought my silk jacket to try on, but it did not fit me properly, so he had to take it home and alter it. J.B.K. is very busy having to go Court, this being the first day of the sessions. His dobie came. I sorted the clean things. 2. Tiffin. 3. Received a note from Larry. She was not feeling very well. I began answering it, as I had nothing else particular to do. 4. The boy brought a hawk, as I had told him I wanted some beads. So I bought 1. skein of transparent white beads & 2 of ruby colored beads at 3. a skein. 10 cents in all.

4:30. Just as I was going to lie down. Sarah Church came in her carriage, and wanted to see me, so I went down to see. She came to ask J.M.K. to go and see Robert Waller her brother, who was not very well - fever - &c. After having just the room tidy, I went to see Mr. Distant, it being arranged, that as J.M.K. could not take me out for a drive on account of having so many patients to see, he would come and see Mr. Distant, and then walk home with me. On my way to Mr. D. I stopped, to speak to Mr. James Prodyk, and children. Nellie gave me a piece of trimming for my bodices, which she had tatted, herself. I stayed a quarter of an hour, and then I went to Mr. D's. took her 2 fresh eggs, and a biscuit for each of her children. 7. Mr. K. came for me. we walked home, and had our dinner. Then we sang a few songs. Then I finished writing my letter to Perry, read the Bible, and at 10:30. went to bed.

Tues 3

Up at 6. Aunty Milania de Luz's birthday.
 I had promised Mary, Lorry & Georgie to send their presents to Aunty, at 5:30. but when I got up, I changed my mind, and thought I had better take them myself, and go and see her. So at 6:30. I made our orderly carry the parcel, and J.W.K. walked with me, as far as Mr. Hogan's house, and then he went down Seath street, and I walked straight on with the orderly behind me. When I got to Aunty's, I found that Uncle Lawrence & Phoebe, had both forgotten it was her birthday; and that I was the second one to wish her "Many happy returns of the day."

I had a cup of tea and a slice of toast and butter. Then I asked Phoebe to lend me her silk jacket, as it was very prettily trimmed, and I wanted the Bengal Tailor to copy it. 8:30. I walked home again, making our orderly carry the jacket. I took the bazaar account from our boy; and gave him the orders for the day. Then I worked a little at my bead collar.

9:15. bathed & dressed 9:30.

Second breakfast. 11. Aunty and Phoebe came to see Mamma's porter bottled, they stayed till 3 o'clock. 1 P.M. went out. Mary Anthony came to see me, but she would not stop to tiffin, though it was all ready on the table. 2 P.M. came home, Mary went away, and we had tiffin. I asked Aunty, if she would have anything to eat and she said, she had been home, and brought Phoebe her tiffin from Uncle's house.

After that, I again worked at my bead collar, till 3:30. when I rested. 4. Received a nice long letter from Georgie. 4:30. Got up. dressed. tried one song with the piano. 5:30. P.M. was just going to take me to Auntie's when Mr. Magalhães came to speak to him, and before we could leave the house, Captain & Mrs. Semon arrived. They were going to dine with us.

Mrs. Semon said she had

Wed 1. been up to the big hills this morning, and was feeling very tired. J.W.K. went out with me. We all sat out on the portico, till 7 when we had dinner. Then we had some music. At 10. Captain Lemon's wife went away. After seeing the doors and windows shut up, I came into my room, and answered Georgie's letter. Then I read the Bible, and at 10:30. went to bed.

Wed 2. Up at 6. It was drizzling a little, but I got up and dressed. Then walked with J.W.K. to see Mr. Distant, he left me at the gate to go to the general Hospital. Sandy was brought down after. I went there. I had to wait some little time, before I could see Mr. Distant. I took her 2 fresh eggs, as I was not able to go and see her at all yesterday, and I forgot to send them by our boy. At 7:10. I went to see Mrs. Waller (walking) to thank her for the guavas she sent us yesterday evening, and I also asked her to tell Sarah, I would be happy, to spend the day with her tomorrow.

Then I walked home. I had no occasion to use the umbrella, as it was not raining much, but I had not been home 5 minutes, when it began to pour. Took the bazaar account from our boy, and gave him the orders for the day. I had not felt very hungry, so forgot to eat anything. Took the account of beer, and porter, that we had consumed the night before. Worked at my bead collar. Read a little.

9:15. bathed. dressed. 10. Second breakfast. I had just begun to eat when J.B.K. came in. No one called. I mended my black grenadine cloak with silk, as the former silk, was getting rotten. Worked again at my bead collar and began threading the ruby beads.

1. J.B.K. went out. 2. home.

tiffin. Then he sang some songs. 3:15. Mr. Earl came to fetch him, as they were both going on an inquest. to Ayer. Stam. I worked. 4. rested. dozed a little. 5. Got up.

September. 1867. Penang.

Ordered the carriage, and went to see Aunty. Gave her a silver buckle from us as a birth day present. See Coign had not been able to finish it before. b. left her and went to see Mr. Distard again. Mrs. J. Saunters house has a very bad stone at the gate, so I did not take the carriage, but ordered the syce to wait for me outside.

Just as I was coming away James J.B.K. so I told him I was going to the jetty for a little while to see Mrs. Hogan. I went to the jetty and got into Mrs. H's carriage & talked to her. She told me the newly married couple Mr. & Mrs. Alexandersen came down the hill this morning. At 7 I came home. Mr. Waller came, and we went down to dinner. After dinner I left the table and made myself comfortable in my room. J.B.K. brought C. Waller upstairs and they had a chat together. I answered Mary's letter, which I received this afternoon. J. Mr. Waller went away. I saw all the doors and windows shut. Read the Wible. at 10. went to bed.

5. up at 6. Walked with J. B. K. to Mrs. Distant. I went in, but J. B. K. walked on the^r to General Hospital. Sandy was a little better. The children brought him some pictures from the Illustrated London News to look at, and he seemed very pleased. I gave him some sougee to drink while I was there.

Mrs. Distant has been suffering lately from a gum boil and toothache, and she was just going to sleep last night, when she heard someone cry out, "fire, fire." She jumped out of bed, her ayah Nam caught up Willie, the youngest girl, she been her favourite, and rushed into Mr. J. Faunters childrens room, and there they saw Lucy Faunter, the second girl, in her bed, with the fire surrounding her. They dragged the child out of bed, and then began throwing water on the bed till the fire was out. It is supposed that Sally, their ayah, who had been looking for the misquitos in the bed, must have let the wick of the candle she had in her hand, without knowing it, fall on the bed clothes, and so set fire to the bed. Fortunately there where no misquits curtains, or there would have been little chance of saving the child's life.

At 7:15. I walked home again by myself. For a wonder I eat a slice of toast and butter, and some duck, and drank a cup. of tea. Mamma and Phoebe came here. I saw them. Dobie brought my clean clothes, but he went to Mr. Padday's first. Took the bazaar account, and gave our boy the orders for the day. 9:15. bathed. dressed. 9:30. Second breakfast.

I worked a little at my bead collar. After breakfast, Dobie came, took the account. Sent my 1 doz and a 1/2 new chemises to the wash. 12. went to see the newly married couple (Capt & Mrs. Alexandersen at Hogesew's Hotel, commonly called the Punch house. Gave her a peach stone bracelet set in silver, as a wedding present. Mr. & Mrs. Bacon arrived there the same time as I did. Alice was spending the day with them.

5 7 Then I went on Sarah's and had tiffin with her, Major Church, having gone to play cribet. Charley Waller came in after tiffin and stayed until I came away. I began another collar of ruby and transparent beads. It looks very nice, and sparkles a great deal. After tiffin, Sarah and I played some piano duets together reading by sight. 3.

At 3. Miss Dickson and all Mr. Walter Scott's children came for Mr. Waller to take them on the Esplanade, where the picnickers were, to hear the band play. The three eldest children, as well as little Edith, all played some pieces on the piano. At 4. I came away, after having heard some tunes in Mr. Waller's musical box.

Then I rested. 5:30. Got up, put my things away, and walked over to see Mrs. Distant, taking 2 eggs for her. I stopped to speak to Mr. James Roddyk on the way, and when I got to Mr. D.'s I found J.M.K. had been there sometime, so I gave her the eggs, said

Thurs 5 good bye, then J.M.K. and I went out for a short drive on the lugar road. y. home. Mr. Lamb the banker, and Mr. Gentte arrived, we went down to dinner. &

After dinner we had some music, and two games at whist. Mr. Gentte being my partner. We lost. The opposite side being 12 points above us, when the games were finished. 11:30. They went away. I wrote to Carry, in answer to her letter which she wrote to me this morning, and which I received this afternoon. I wrote 5 pages. 12. went to bed.

Fri 6 Up at 6. As it was raining, I got into bed, and went to sleep again. till 7. When I got up dressed. I found I had a great deal of work to do, and so could not go and see Mr. Distant. J.M.K. and I had our early breakfast. I took 2 slices of toast, a cup of tea, and some cold curry, and a glass of sherry. 8:45. I cleared up J.M.K. went to see some of his patients. Took the lazuar account, and gave our boy the orders for the day.

6 Then I put my clean clothes, that the dobie brought yesterday, away, as I had not time to do so yesterday. I also put one of my almira's tidy; so bathed dressed. The Bengal dulgee came, but as J.M.K. was not yet come home, and he had to go to the nursery, I told him to go there first, and then to come here. 10:30. J.M.K. came home. He told me Mr. Burn had asked him to go and see Mr. Bagshaw at York House & Mr. Vizard as he himself was sick, and could not go out.

10:45. Second breakfast. Then J.M.K. had plenty of work to do. The dulgee came, so I tried on my silk jacket, and J.M.K. told him were it was to be altered; I also gave him some garibaldi's to make. 2 out the striped black cotton from England, and one from here a violet and white stripe. It takes 3 yds, all but 2 inches to make a garibaldi. Before the Tailor went away, I made him fold up my dresses silk, and he helped me to roll them up in a sheet, which J.M.K. had given to me for that purpose.

Then I wrote my journal for yesterday, not having had time to do so this morning. The time passes so quickly, and I was quite surprised, when I looked at the clock to find it was 12:30. So I had to dress. I wore a white garibaldi, and a light coloured silk dress, which Mamma had worn on my wedding day. J.P.K. could not find time to take me to the jetty as he promised, as he found he had too much work to do, and Mr. J. Launter had asked him to go and see his brother George C. who he was afraid was dying from drink.

12:50. I left the house in J.P.K.'s carriage, and went to the jetty. There I found Captain Senior, who also had just arrived. He took me in his boat, and we went on board the ship "Krishna", which belongs to his. His baby "Mary" was crying, and Mr. Senior, was not quite ready to receive me. We went down to the saloon, then I took off my hat and cloak, and put them in Mr. Senior's room I had taken. my bead work with me.

Capt Lemon showed me some views from Paris and Bombay. Then I did some bead work. 2. we had tiffin. Then we went on deck. The breeze was beautiful. There boy "Willie" was very mischievous, trying to upset and take my beads from me. 3. Mr. came. brought me a letter from Georgie, and the news that George Faunter was dead. 6. We had dinner on deck. There was roast duck & goose, fowl in paste, and curried fowl, Potatoes, Beans chow chow, Rice, Prawn and cucumber, dried prawns curries. Puddings, custards and Tarts. Chees & Lettuce.

After dinner Capt & Mr. Lemon each played something on the concertina. Then we had one game at whist. I very foolishly drank 2 cups of coffee, the consequence was, that I felt a little sick. At 10. we left the ship, and got into Capt Lemon's boat, and came on shore; got into the carriage and came home. I really was so tired, and feeling so sick, I could not write to Georgie, so directly I got home I went to bed.

September 1867. Penang

Sat 7 up at 6. Walked to see Mr. Distant. J.M.K. accompanied me as far as the gate, and he also went upstairs. George Caunter was buried. I went up the back way into Mr. D's room. Her children were all with her. J.M.K. followed the coffin to the burying ground. Mr. D. told me that Amy Durnford and Charlie Kodyk sat up all the night with the corpse, and they sent Mr. John Caunter to bed. She also told me that Auntie came to see her yesterday, and nearly fainted, when she heard the news.

I found Sandy better, though he had had a very restless night. His cough having troubled him a great deal. Uncle Joseph came to see Mr. J. Caunter. He received me very coldly. He also said that Larry was getting on famously, and that the hill was doing her good, also, Miss Palmer's ayah had come down the hill, some words having passed between her and Miss P. Uncle J. seemed quite in a hurry. He complained of having a bad headache, at the stroke he had received, when he heard of J. Caunter's death.

Last Wednesday, Capt & Mrs Simon with the Agent's son Mr. Le Fond went to the big tree, they got wet through, not having provided themselves with Umbrellas. They saw a tiger, but it must have had a good breakfast, as it did not stir, but allowed them to come on quietly. I walked home by myself. Took the bazaar account, and gave our boy the orders for the day. Wrote. I had a slice of dry toast, and a glass of wine, as I was not feeling very well, in consequence of having drunk 2 cups of coffee on board the "Krishna".

9:15. bathed. dressed. I was a little late, it was 10. when J.B.K. came home and I had waited to ask him if it would do me any harm to bathe. 12. The tailor came brought my silk jacket nicely finished. I covered my journal myself. 2. I had my dinner of chicken broth. 3. J.B.K. came home. Then I rested. 5. up. out for a drive. with J.B.K. on our way home called to see Mrs. D. I took her 2 fresh eggs. 7. home to dinner. music. 9. read the Bible and went to bed.

Sun 8 Up at 6. Walked over to see Mr. Distant. J. W. K. accompanied me to the gate. There we saw Victoria walking with the baby. He looked at it, and then walked on to the General Hospital. We met Capt & Mrs. Godfrey walking with their eldest child a girl. I carried a wine glassful of honey for Sandy, who I found had passed a better night.
 Mrs. D. wants to go on the hill for a change. She said she was thinking of asking Miss Palmer to allow her to go up to the "Highlands". The children had gone out with Ayah Eram
 and ~~had~~^{did} not come home till 7.

7:30. Walked home by my self. Left the wine glass, with the Ayah. Had a slice of toast and butter, and a glass of wine.
 Took the bazaar account, and gave our boy
 the orders for the day. Finished writing down all the birthdays to August. Then not feeling altogether right, rested, 9:30.
 Bathed. dressed. 3. J. W. K. sent me a letter
 by one of the Hospital orderlys for his boots.
 He had taken 2 odd numbers, instead of a pair.

10. Second breakfast. 10. J.B.K. came home. 11. Church. Neither Alice or Lena were in the gallery. They could not get their mourning finished in time. I asked Constance Hogan to change my Sunday book for me, as Georgie was not here to do it. 1. home. J.B.K. went to see Mr. Earl, who was sick with fever. 1:30. Constance and her three little sisters came here to bring me my book, but they stayed a short time only, and then went away.

2. Tiffin. rested. read. This morning Mr. Gentle wrote to ask J.B.K. to go to Langong Kohong with him this afternoon, and afterwards to dine there, at his house. So at 4, we started. J.B.K. first took me to the Anthony's, where I saw W. C. S. H. C. Padday, Robert Waller, and Joseph Anthony. I went upstairs to Mary, and J.B.K. went on to Mr. Gentle. Mary asked me to dine with them, so when the carriage returned, I sent it home, told the dyce to fetch J.B.K. at 7.

Sun

5. We went for a drive first a little way beyond the tree, and then we turned and went to the jetty. On our way we picked up Alice Caunter. When we got to the jetty, we all got out, with the exception of Mrs Galastain, who said she would go and see Flora. Mr & Mrs Buttery also got out of their open carriage, and we all sat down on the grass.

When we had been talking a little while, Mr & Mrs W. L. S. & Mr C. Paddy, Robert Waller & Joseph Anthony, came. W. L. S. gave Mary, Mrs Buttery, Mrs P. & myself each a line. 7:15. Home. We left Alice at her house, and then went on. We were a little late. Mr & Mrs Anthony having begun their dinner. They had some very nice dishes to eat. After dinner, Mary took a Guff or two at her brother's Hooka for fun, and then we went upstairs. Played a Japan first with Mrs Galastain then Mary. 10. Mr. came for me. Went home in the carriage. Read the bible. bed.

Up at 6. Walked to see Mr. Distant. J. W. accompanied me as far as the gate, spoke to Victoria who was carrying the baby, and then walked on to the General Hospital. I went in, saw Sandy who was looking a little better. He had had a good night's rest. The Ayah carried him in her arms about the garden. I gave him his sougee. The children had gone to see Aunty, and as they had not returned at 7:30, I could not wait any longer, so said good bye, and then walked home again by myself.

Took the bayar account and gave our boy the orders for the day. Eat a slice of toast and butter, and drank a glass of wine. 8. The Mail from and for home arrived. I did not get any letter from Joe. rested. read. finished my Sunday book. 9:15. bathed. dressed. 9:30. Second breakfast. Mamma and Phoebe were here. They were looking after the men, who were bottling another cask of beer.

September. 1864. Penang.

Monday

After breakfast J.B.K. went to see Mr. Pasley who had fever. He opened his mail letter, and gave me one from Mr. King which she had written to me. So I came up stairs and read it. Then I mended my jacket. I did not know it was torn, till J.B.K. told me. Time passed so quickly, I did not know it was so late as 1. I wrote to Mary, telling her, that as she was not sure whether she was going to the Province or not, to I had better put off the tiffin party till her return.

I received a letter from Mary saying Carry was not at all well, had been spitting blood, and groaning all night. Georgie came down the hill to have her tooth stopped, she was at Mr. Palmer's, and the carriage was at the door, ready to bring her here, but she was frightened to come, because Uncle Joseph had told her, he would bring her over at 3:30. I answered Mary's letter, and also wrote one to Carry, and then I wrote and asked Georgie to take them up the hill.

In my letters up the hill, I proposed going to spend a few days with them, if they thought I might cheer Carry up. Alice was to have gone, but Carry did not wish it. 2. Diffin alone. 3. J.B.K. came home. He was going across to the province, and I said I would like to go with him. He consented to my doing so; but when he came home, He said Capt Ellis wanted to go over; and see how the boat that he was making was progressing at all, and that as he could not refuse him, I would not be able to go.

4. J.B.K. went. rested. I was reading a book, and fell asleep over it, till 5:30. Then I got up, dressed, and mended 3 small holes in the sheet. 6. Walked over to see Mrs. Pasley who had fever, met Mrs. Distant. who was just going home. She had brought her baby. Then I walked on to see Sandy. He was much better. Took 2 eggs. As I was coming away, I met Mrs. Higan at the gate. Talked to her a little. Then J.B.K. went to see Mrs. Pasley. Walked home. 7. dinner. music. Read the Bible. 10. bed.

Up abd. Walked over to see Mr. Distant. Mr. K. accompanied me to the gate, asked Victoria about Sandy, she said he had been talking a great deal in the night. Then he walked on to the General Hospital, and I walked in. As Mr. Distant was not downstairs, I went up, & gave her an old muslin dress of mine, and I also asked her if she would like some old shirts of Mr. K's, and she said "anything in the shape of cloth will be very acceptable." The children had gone again to see Aunty, and they had not yet returned 7:15. So I saw Sandy take his sougee and suck some sugar cand, and then I walked home.

The boy had not yet come, so I began to write, as no one can make hot buttered toast but him and Harry's servant 'Bob' who was also not here. When the boy came, I had some toast and butter, and a glass of wine. I saw him dust the tables, and sweep the room. I put a piece of new mat, in front of Mr. K's stool. Took the bazaas account, and gave the boy the orders for the day.

Rested. Looked at a book of travails. 9:15. bathed. dressed. I was not feeling very hungry, so I went to the piano, and sang some songs of our the new book. No 2. Then at 10. I went downstairs and eat nearly half a pamphlet, with rice. When I had finished I came up, and sang again. J.B.K. came home and heard me. I put my hanging almira-tity. The tailor came I gave him five (5)
of my jacketed Garibaldi's to alter, and ordered him to make a new muslin one for me, for Lucy Brown's wedding.

Then I began working my stockings Charlie Waller came to see J.B.K.
who was downstairs, having his hair cut.
He brought us a couple of snipes, which J.B.K. said was to be cooked for tiffin, and I thinking he had told the boy to see about it, took no more notice. J.B.K. went to town
I told him not to forget his promise of bringing me a book to read from the library. Mr.
de Silver came to tune the piano for the first time this month.

September 1867 Penang.

Thurs

2. As I was busy working at my stockings, our Orderly brought me a visiting card of Mr Ansons, & had given my best gailbaldi to the tailor, so I sent down word I was not at home. At 2:30. I called the Orderly up to tell him not to bring the snipes up till J.B.K. came home but to keep them in the kitchen, when he told me they were not cooked, the feathers even were not taken off, so I thought I would chance it, as J.B.K. did not come home sometimes before 3:30. So I called the cook, gave him 2 slices of bread, and some lard, and told him to cook and clean them directly.

I was feeling very hungry, so I began my tiffin of hash & potatoes. 3. J.B.K. returned. The snipe fortunately were ready so we eat and enjoyed them. Then I worked 4. rested, went to sleep till 5. Got up. dressed 6. Out for a drive. On our way home called on Mrs Distant gave her 2 eggs, and then walked to Mr Pasley's and home at 7. to dinner & music. 10. J.B.K. had a headache. bed.

Up at 6:40. It was raining very hard at 6. so I did not wake J.M.K. dressed. Walked to see Mrs. Distant. J.M.K. accompanied me to the gate, and then he walked on to the General Hospital. I went in. As it was drizzling, Victoria was sitting under the house with baby. I went upstairs. Sandy was lying down on his couch outside in the verandah, I walked to the bedroom, and found Mrs. Distant was bathing. So I waited, and presently she came up. I gave her 6 of J.M.K.'s shirts.

She said Sandy was much better. He was eating a coey Mankos. He had also slept better. 7:15. walked home again. Then sent the boy out for 2 Apoms, and 4 coey Mankos. 2 rice in all. Got the Apoms, and drank a cup of tea, and some wine. I eat also one of the coey's, but I did not like it very much, so I gave the rest away. Saw the boy dust the tables. Took the bazaar account and gave our boy the orders for the day. Wrote. Rested, and read a little of Lords and Ladies.

September. 1867. Penang

Wed

9:15. Bathed. dressed. Then as I had eaten well this morning, I was not feeling very hungry, so I went to the piano and sang some songs. Also. The Massalchee came to tell me J.B.K. had come, so I went downstairs, and had my second breakfast with him. He told me he had asked Mr. & Mrs. Anthony, and that they would be very happy to come and dine with us tomorrow. So after I had finished my breakfast, I came upstairs, and wrote down all that we would require for dinner the. The

Then I read it to the boy, all that he was to buy. Then I worked some dirty socks of J.B.K.'s, as he thought if he sent them to the wash, the holes might get bigger, and I should have more trouble in mending them. I also mended some large holes in my chemises. 12. Raining very hard. And every now and then, it gets quite dark, and as I was sitting in the inner room, I could scarcely see. A man brought some incense, and a piece of muslin for dress, for sale.

The muslim was $6 the piece, and the insertion they wanted 20 cents for just one strip. We did not buy anything. 1. I wrote and asked Aunty, if I might come and dine with her, as J.B.K. was going to Mr. W. Allen's to dinner. It was still raining very hard, so J.B.K. could not go to town. Capt Lemon brought some jories which he had bought, for J.B.K. to see if they were good for anything. He also said, that he and Uncle Lawrence were going to the Province, and on Saturday to stay till Tuesday.

2. tiffin. Aunty wrote to say she would be very happy to see me. Worked again till 4. when I rested till 5. Mr. Pudday's butter made us a present of 25 duck, and 4. geese eggs. 5. 30. Went with Harry to Auntie's. Took her some fried fish to try. I played backgammon. 6:15. Uncle came home to dinner. After that Aunty and I had some games at backgammon, while the rest played at wight-Aune. 9. Harry took me first to the jitty, and then we came home bed.

Thurs¹² up at 8. Walked over to Mr Johnny Lunter to see Mr Distant. Mr. accompanied me to the gate, and then he walked on to the General Hospital. I went in, saw Sandy sitting on the chair outside in the open air. He was looking much better. He eat 4 finger biscuits, and drank his egg and brandy, and a cup of broth, while I was there. The broth had some onions chopped up & mixed with it to make it tasty but as he did not like it, I took a spoon and took all the pieces out, and then I gave it to him to drink.

As it was wet under foot, the children did not go out for a walk. But Mr D.
 sent Ayah Etam with a duck to Amy Lorraine's mother, to have it steamed, so that if Sandy felt inclined to eat any, it would be tender enough for him to do so. At 8. I walked home again by myself. Met Mr P. Prody's little baby at Mr Kuley's door. Gave a slice of toast, and drank a glass of wine. Had the orderly up here to sweep all 4 rooms, and dust the pictures he could reach and 2 tables.

He was very slow about it, having taken about an hour and nearly a half over it. The boy went to the bazaar again, after I came home, as he had not bought all the things for dinner. So I read, wrote, and rested. 9:15. Bathed dressed 9:30. Took the bazaar account from our boy, and gave him the orders for the day. Gave him also all the silver out of the Admiral, to clean for this evening. 10. J.M.K. came home and brought a couple of snipes, Mr. Hugh Scott had given to him, and some new kind of beans from Mr. Anthony.

I had my second breakfast with J.M.K. Then came upstairs, worked my stockings &c. J.M.K. had 2 pieces of cloth cut for my dressing table, and asked if I thought I could work them, and how long I would be over them. I said not long, and promised to begin them tomorrow. 12:30. I dressed, and went to call on Mrs. Walter Scott. She was in her alshabille, she asked me to excuse her, as she was very busy arranging some roses, as they were going to have a dinner party.

Thurs 12

While I was there, another carriage drove up, so Mrs. W. Scott said, I must really go and dress, for as your carriage is here, I must see this person, whoever it may be. She asked me to go in her room, but I said never mind. I won't keep you, and so came away. It was a strange gentleman. Then I went on to Mrs. Presgrave's, and asked Alice to lend me the bonnet, Amy trimmed for her, as I wanted one like it. So she lent it to me, and said I might keep it, till after next Sunday, as she was in mourning, and would not be able to wear it yet.

Then I went on to Mrs. Hogans. I took her the bonnet that was bought from Mrs. Plunket, and asked her if she thought it could be unpicked, and made the same shape as Alice's. She said she would try, so she unpicked it. The lace was very good, and would do for another bonnet, but she asked me, if I had been to the Gurney, to see if I could get a shape like Alice's bonnet, because that was were it was bought.

So I told her I had not been, but would go another day, and they if I could get one like it, I would bring it to her. And she said, if I cannot, never mind. Then I will try and make one like Alice's. 2. home. We had the snipes for tiffin. They were not so well cooked today. After tiffin, I was putting the dirty napkins table in the clothes basket, when I heard a crash, I looked and saw all the silver things, had fallen on the ground the boy having foolishly put them on the clothes basket, instead of on the table.

We were to have had some music but did not do so. I received a letter from Carry, saying she was much better. I began answering it, and also one to Mary, when I was feeling a little tired, so rested. 6. Up. Went on board the "Krishna" with Mr. we came on shore 6:50, and had just time to dress, when Mr. & Mrs. Anthony came & we went down to dinner. After that cards. Mr. Anthony and I being 15 points above them. They went away. Read the Bible. bed.

Fri 13 Up at 6. Walked over to see Mr. Distant. Victoria was walking with the baby outside the gate. Jack accompanied me as far as the gate, and then I went in, and he walked on to the General Hospital. Lizzie met me and told me not to go upstairs, but that her Gramma was coming down soon. Sandy was sitting out in the open air, munching some finger-biscuits. He was looking better. But had not yet got rid of his fever. The children played about in the garden.

At 7 I walked home again by myself. Eat a slice of toast and butter, and drank a glass of wine. 8. Took the bazaar account, and gave our boy the orders for the day. He brought all the silver things up, so I made him wrap them all up in their separate papers, and then I put them all away in the almirah. Gave him $4 more, for bazaar. 9:15. Bathed. Dressed. I wrote, read "Lords and Ladies". rested. I was not feeling very hungry, so I sat down, and hemmed 2 sides of a toilet cover.

And then to give J.M.K. a surprise, I called the boy up, had my gleist. looking, and little odds and ends taken off the table, and then gave him my duster, and made him dust everything. When he had finished I put the toilet cover on, and arranged the other ornaments upon it. By this time J.M.K. came, so I went downstairs, and to my surprise, he said he had already had his breakfast, and as I had not had mine, he told me to go and eat it now.

I eat a very good breakfast of rice and curry. Just as I finished, the tailor came. He had brought my new muslin jacket that I ordered him to make for me. But he had made a mistake, and put junk ribbon upon it, so we told him to take the junk ribbon out, and put a ruching of Mrs. Padday's silk upon it, and sew a piece of lace for a tucker, at the top. I also gave him my old muslin shirt to make a new band, and a little less bunched at the waist.

Fri 13

Uncle Joseph. came to speak to J.M.K. about Parry. He asked me, when I was going up the hill, and I told him. I was quite sure. 11. Mr. Dr. Maxwell came to have his booth stopped. I sewed my black shirt the back seam. 1. J.M.K. went out. I went and opened the piano, and sang a few songs for my own amusement, and practised some for J.M.K. 2. J.M.K. came home. tiffin. Then he sang 3 songs, he intended taking to Glugan tomorrow.

After that I came in, eat an orange, and hemmed the 2 sides of the other toilet cover. It took me exactly 1 hour. rested. 5. Up dressed. J.M.K. went downstairs to cut the ponies' hoofs. 5:45 Out for a drive near Juloong. came home by a different road. Stopped at Mr. Distant's to see Sandy. Then walked on to Mr. Pauley's. Met Miss Anderson. Then home at 7 to dinner. After dinner, I sang some duets, and J.M.K. some solo songs. 9. Very tired. Read the Bible, and went to bed.

Up at 8. Walked over to Mr. J. Launter's to see Mr. Distant. Sandy a little better. Slept pretty well. He eat 2 or 3 finger biscuits, and took his egg and milk. Mr. D. was bathing went I went there. I had the baby on my lap for a few minutes, but as it awoke, I gave it back to Victoria. The church clock had stopped, so I was not quite sure what time it was, I did not like to be late, I left and walked home by myself
and found it had only just struck 7.

Had a slice of toast and a glass of wine. Took the account, and gave our boy the orders for the day. Was kneaded. Read "Lords and Ladies." At 9:10. I was surprised to hear my name being called so I got up, and opened the door, and who should I see but Mr. Distant, she had come to tell me, to tell D. King, that Mamma had asked her to come and spend a few days with her at Uncle's, till their return, as Uncle, Aunty and Phoebe, had all gone to the Province with Captain. Lemon also.

She also asked me to send her word, if she could get Mr. Friedrich's hill. Because she wanted to go up as soon as she could. Then she went away, I went to bathe and dress. Played a little on the piano. 10. J.M.K. came home. We had our second breakfast together. After that J.M.K. asked me if I was going to Glugan to buy. After a little thinking, I said that I thought I would not go, then he said. If you do not go this time, you can never expect to have an invite again. Then I said I would go. So he told the boy to get me a hack jialankeen, and also that he was to go with me.

At 11. I wrote a letter to Mary and Larry, telling them, when they were to expect me up the hill. At 11:30. I began to dress. I tried on 2 or 3 different kind of dresses. I had no clean garibaldi, so at last I settled to wear my ~~jea~~ pearl silk shirt, with a half clean garibaldi, which did not look bad, when I put it on. Just as I was ready to go J.M.K. sent the boy to the watchman's, about the church clock, so I had to wait a little.

I was to have started at 12, but not being quite ready, I did not get away till 12:30. I arrived at Gylgar at about 1:15. The Robertsons from the Province were invited to stay till Monday at Gylgar from today, Saturday, but they never came at all, and never ~~told~~ ^{were} known to the reason why. 2. The 4 Paddays arrived. George Brown also came to tiffin. 2:30. We all went down to tiffin. Mr. W. C. Padday took me down.

After tiffin, we all had a game of billiards in turn. Then we went. Ladies went up to Miss Brown's room, and rested. 5. We had a cup of tea, and 2 thin slices of bread and butter each. 5:30. Out for a drive to James Town. The gentlemen went snipe shooting. Mr. Brown stayed at home. 6:30. Home. I dressed partly in Charlotte's, and partly in Lucy's room. Mr. Padday tied the string of my lace. 7. dinner. The gentlemen were late, we did not wait for them, but began. In the evening music till 11:30. home at 12:15. Very tired. I nearly left my work basket behind.

Sun 15. Percy. C. Padday's birthday. Up at 6. Called out to Harry, and asked him, if Mr. Distant and children slept at Uncle's last night, and he said "yes". So I walked with J.M.K. as far as the mill, opposite the Roman Catholic Church, and near Mr. Logan's house. Then I walked home by myself. Met Mr. Lamb the banker, just going out for his walk. y. home. Took the bazaar account, and gave our boy the orders for the day. Rested. Read some Sunday books. 9:15. Bathed dressed. Asked Harry for the old newspapers he promised me some time ago.

Last night as we were driving home from Guegar, J.M.K. told me Mr. & Mrs. Hill, went up to the Spout during the afternoon, and that they had invited us to go up this afternoon, and sleep up there. So I said I would like to go very much, and I would ask Harry to send me his pony, which I did this morning, and at 9. He told me I might have it. But that he would require ^{me} to bring him home from Uncle's at 8 o'clock.

15. 9. J. K. came home. He had no particular visits to make, so that is how he came home so early. 9. 30. I had my second breakfast with him. No church, Mr. Mackay having gone to the Province to preach. He remains there until tomorrow, when he is going to marry Miss Bacon (Mr. Ward's niece) to her eldest son Mr. Ward. Put all my admirals' tray. Packed up my box to go up the hill. The coolie came for it at 12 o'clock.

At 1. as I was quietly sitting down to write, I received a letter from Mr. Padday, saying that her husband had told her, that D. King was coming to tiffin, and that they also expected me to accompany him. I did not know what to do, as I had packed up my crinoline to send on the hill, but fortunately I had some old ones, which I never wore, on account of their being so very large, so I chose the smallest one, and put it on, with my violet spotted grenadine shirt over it, but it looked very clumsy.

September. 1867. Penang.

Sun 15.

My Garibaldi also I had to put a piece of lace, and some black velvet on. 2. Went to Paddy's. There was Robert. Waller, Charlie Roddyk, Joseph Anthony, Mary Ann, ourselves, and the 4 Paddy's. 2:30. We sat down to tiffin. W. C. S. P. took me in. We drank Mr. Percy's health. I asked Mary to come and spend the day, and tiffin with me on Tuesday, and told her to tell Mr. Galastan also to come to S. J. B. K. and I left.

Came home, put on my riding habit, got into the carriage, went to the foot of the hill, jumped on my pony, and arrived at the "Spout" at 5. Mr. Hill, and Mr. Macfarlane were gardening. Mr. and Mr. M. went to bathe, after they had seen us feed the fish in the tank near the house. 6. dressed, sat out in the garden. 7. Just before dinner. Mr. Hill put a chaffie of smoke into the room, as it was filled with Misquitoes, and he and Mr. M. took a towel each, and killed numbers on the wall. 9. Very tired. bed.

Up at 6. Packed at up my box, also J.M.'s. I had passed a very wretched night. It was frightful ly hot, and we were sleeping together in a very small bed, J.M. opened the curtains, and then we could not sleep at all, though it was cooler,
but the mosquitoes, and sandflies, were dreadful. I could not sleep either, so I begged of him to shut the curtains, which he did, after dusting them. Then he tried lying on the sofa outside but the mosquitoes were much worse there,
he had to come in again.

Then he dusted the bed
in the next room, and got into it, and slept better, I too slept, but it was too hot, and I neither of us really got a good night's rest. 6:30 came down the hill. Got into a hack Julian been, and came home. I did not have anything to it, as I didn't feel inclined for it.
I walked down the hill, and was feeling very tired, so I rested, and read the times for last month. 9:15. Got up. M. A. washed and dressed, ~~to~~ and was ready, just as J.M. came home at 10.

Mon 16

He asked me, if I had eaten my breakfast, and I told him I had not, as I was not at all hungry, besides not feeling very well. So he told me to go and begin to eat, as he had had his breakfast, and he would come in and sit with me a little. So I went and eat a slice of toast and butter, and an hard boiled egg with a glass of tinto to finish. Then I came upstairs and unpacked my box. I was feeling very tired, and 2 or 3 times I rested. William Maxwell came to have his tooth stopped.

My dobie came today, so I was busy taking the account of the clean and dirty clothes. I wanted to send my white muslin dress, trimmed with black lace to the wash, but I could not unpack it in time, so I told dobie, I would send it with Jack's things, and for him not to wait for it. 12. Mamma Mrs Distant, Lizzy and Doulie came here to look for an old ship that used to be in Joe's bedroom, but they could not find it. I asked Mamma if she could cut my black silk shirt for me today or tomorrow, but she said she would not have time

But at 1. her dobbie brought me a note from her saying she would be very glad to cut my skirt out for me today, if I came between 1 to 3:30, she as had nothing particular to do. Mr. Punks was here when I received the letter, so I could not show it to J.B.K., but when Mr. P. went away I gave J.B.K. the letter to read, and asked his opinion. And he said he thought I had better go, as perhaps I should not have another opportunity. But I must have my tiffin first.

So I ordered our orderly to bring the tiffin, and I dressed. J.B.K. went out, he said he would send the carriage back for me in 10 minutes. I took my tiffin. When I had finished, I found the carriage had arrived, so I jumped into it, and went to Uncle's. I had to wait for the dulgee, as he was not at home. 3:30. He came. Mamma showed him how much to cut. 4. came home. rested. slept. Very tired. did not go out for a drive. 7. dinner. Then we went to the circus at 8. Saw some Japanese men and women do some tricks. There were not very many Europeans. The circus was over at 11. and we walked home, as we lived so near to it.

Up at 6. I was very tired, but J.B.K. told me I had better get up, as I should have plenty of work to do. So I got up. Put my almucalis and room tidy. Got out some clean clothes, and packed them up in a box, as I was going up the hill this afternoon. Put my almucalis tidy. 9:15 Washed dressed. Took the bazaar account, and gave our boy the order for the day. I was not feeling very hungry, so I waited till J.B.K. came home, and then I had my second breakfast. As I was expecting ladies to tiffin, I began to dress. I wore the silk dress Mamma had on her wedding day, and a white muslin garibaldi. 11:30. Mr. Pidday arrived. I brought her hat in our room, then went outside again. Mamma came and said, someone had been meddling with her Chinese lock, which is on the door of her godown, that contains the wine and beer, as she had been trying to open it, and could not manage to do so. We afterwards found out that the lock had been in her possession a long time, and that it was quite or nearly worn out from old age.

12. Mrs Plunket came. She had walked over from the Shepherd's house just over the way. Her baby she had left there. 12:40. Mary came. I was teasing her, because she had promised to come early, and she came the latest of all. She said Mr. Hill had kept her, or else she would have been here at 11:30. I asked her if Mr. Galastoun had come, and she said "Of course not you never asked her." And I said "I did" and I asked Mrs. Paddy, who said she had heard me tell Mary, to bring Mr. Galastoun. So Mary said she was very sorry.

Then we all began to work. I was threading the ruby beads, and seeing how many would go through the needle twice. Mrs. Paddy was filling in a cushion, with red wool. Mrs. Plunket was working some dresses for her little girl, and Mary was hemming some pocket handkerchiefs. 1. Mr. H. went out. He never came out to see the ladies, as he thought it was better not to do so. He had ordered the tiffin before he went out.

September 1867 Penang.

Tuesday

At 2. we went downstairs to dinner. They are all very poor eaters. Mr. Paddy took a little below, Mary & I also took the same.
 Mr. Plunket eat one cutlet. After dinner we all went upstairs again. We did not do any more work, but talked. 4. Uncle Joseph came to take me up the hill, directly they saw that, they all went away.

Then I came in. Put on my riding dress, said good bye to Mr. Jacked up a small bundle, and went on Uncle J's carriage. We stopped at Mr. Presgrave's house, as Mr. Distant had asked Uncle to see them safe on their chairs, as they also were going up the hill (Mr. Friedrichs) so when we got to the foot of the hill, I jumped on my pony, we saw Mr. Distant and wife, safe on their chairs & then left them & arrived at the Highlands at 5 o'clock. Larry was looking better. I heard the first room on right hand side. 7 dinner.
 Then we had a game at commerce. After that I wrote a letter of 4 pages to Mr. Uncle is to take it down. 10. bed. Georgie slept with me.

Up at 6. Left my room just in time to give my letter for J.B.K. to Uncle to take down the hill. Then I had my first meal of a slice and a half of toast and butter, an egg, and a glass of tinto. There was also tea without milk. After we had all finished, I put Carry's chair and pillow under the large tree, near the house, in the shade, and Harry, Georgie, and I, went to the stone. We sat there for about 25 minutes. Then we came back, and I sat with Carry for a little while.

After that, as she said she was not feeling tired, I told her I would go and fetch my work which was upstairs, locked up in my box, and bring it down, and work beside her. When I had finished mending one pair of stockings, Carry said she felt tired, so we went upstairs and she laid down on the sofa in the drawing room. At 9 we had our second meal of coffee, buns, a toast, then Carry went to sleep. 9:30. We had prayers. We all read them allowed.

Wed. 18

10. Bazaar man arrived. I received a short letter of 1 page and $\frac{3}{4}$ from J. B. K. telling me to send the pony down for him at 2:30. so that it might be at the foot of the hill by 4. After I had read the letter, I dressed. Then I worked again at my stockings. I sat out in the garden, and made Carry do the same. Georgie read aloud out of "Pussell's papers" some short stories, till 12 when we had our third meal of breakfast.

Then we sat out in the garden again. Carry saw a snake about 1 yard and a half long, but before it could be caught, it ran away. It began to drizzle every now and then, so I made Carry all and go in. We sat under the house. Miss Palmer joined us after she had finished her work. I mended 4 pairs of stockings, and began one of Miss Palmer's. Georgie could not now read any more, as she had to mend Mr. de Luz's stockings. Mary and she went into the garden, and picked green guavas, and began eating them. They also brought me one. It was very nice.

3:35. We had our fourth meal-tiffin. I only took a piece of bread and cheese, and some mangosteens, and a glass of beer, as I did not feel at all hungry. At 4. we all began to dress for the evening. Then Mary, Georgie and I went to the rock. We took some Passals papers to read, but we did not pay much attention to them, as we looked up every now and then to see if Uncle and J.W.K. were coming. We sent Piah down after a little while to meet them, and tell us if he could see them.

At 5. Uncle came alone. He said J.W.K. had gone to the Châlet to see Mr. Distant. So we three waited at the rock. 5:30. We saw J.W.K. turned round the corner. We waved our handkerchiefs, and told him to come up quickly. He brought up 6 oranges for Larry, whom he thought looking better. We each had a glass of wine. 7. dinner. Larry went down. In a wonder after dinner we played at commerce. Uncle would not join us. 10. We were all very tired so ~~would~~^{went} to bed. I did not pack up, but left everything for the morning.

September. 1867. Penang.

Thurs¹⁹ Mr at 6. came out of my room. It was rather dark, and Georgie knocked at our door, to ask if we would like a light, and J.M. said No. Then I got of bed, and packed my things in the box, as well as J.M.'s, also tied the pillows and bolster in a mat, after having tied them together. Had a slice of toast and butter, which I eat in Carry's room near her bed. I spill some of the wine on her sheet. When I had finished eating J.M. came in to see Carry. Then we said good bye to her.

She cried, as she did not like the thoughts of my going down so soon. She would have liked me to stay longer. We said good bye to every one. And I got on my pony. Uncle Joseph and J.M. both walked down the hill. Mary and Georgie accompanied us to the first turning after you pass the store, and waved their handkerchiefs to us till we were out of sight. Then J.M. asked Uncle what time it was, and he said 6:20.

According to that we must have got up at 5:30. We arrived safely at the foot of the hill. Uncle Joseph very kindly offered to take me to town, so I got in his carriage with him, and J.B.K. got into his and we started. J.B.K. waved his handkerchief to me as he passed. In our way to town, we went to "Clove Hall," as I wanted to ask Mr. Galastain and Mary to come and spend this evening with me.

They both accepted the invitation. Then we went to Uncle's. Saw everyone. Aunty said they were going to the circus this evening, and I told her there would be no performance. She said Phoebe was going up the hill tomorrow evening. S. Home. The coolie had forgotten to go up for our box this morning, so I sent the boy to tell him to go immediately. I bathed, dressed, 9:30. A cold breakfast. Then I wrote the boy an account for yesterday, as well as today, & gave him the orders.

September 1867. Penang.

Thurs. 19

Mr. told me that perhaps Mr. Hill might call, so I dressed myself. I only had a large crinoline, which I put on. Then I waited. At 12 Mr. Le fond & Capt. Lemon called. his farewell call. Mr. Lemon he said was very sorry, but she could not come. He was telling me a sad story of a poor boy who was drowned. When he heaved up the anchor of the ship "Kishna" he found this dead body. Mr. Lochrane also called, about her daughter Agnes' finger. She had sprained it, in falling down.

The new banker, also called 2.iffin. Wrote. Then I rested. slept a little. Mr. went on an errand. To Ayer Etam. I made the macaroni and cheese. 5:30 up. dressed. 6. Mr. came home. I went alone to the jetty for a puff of air. 7. home to dinner. 4 Paddy's dined with us. In the evening Mr. Galastan & Mary came. music game at "Commerce" Mr. W. Paddy won. 11. All went away. We went to bed.

Up at 6. Too tired. Did not go out for a walk with J.B.K. Had nowhere to go to. Read "Land at Last." Took the bazaar account, and gave our servant the orders for the day. I saw Mrs. Hogan at the jetty the other evening, and promised to go to her house tomorrow, to spend a few hours, and talk about my new bournet. Work. Rested. bed. 9:15. Bathed dressed. Then as I was not feeling very hungry I waited till 10. when J.B.K. returned, and I had my second breakfast with him.

Then I came upstairs, and wrote the copy of my letter home to Mrs. King. No one called. The basket maker brought some baskets for sale. We had ordered him to make four small baskets for us, and we had paid him the money before hand. So when he came yesterday, we asked him why he had not brought them, as he promised he would do in 4 days. He made some excuses, the men were sick, and he could not get the rattans, but in five days he would bring them.

September 1867. Mary.

Fri 20

Worked my stockings. J.B.K. went out, said he would be back in half an hour. But when it was 3 and he ^{had} not returned. I ordered the tiffin, and began to eat. Just as I was in the middle of it, J.B.K. came home, and said, Mr. Hill had come to speak to him, so I came in my room, and dressed in a muslin shirt, and cotton gaiter, as I only had a loose jacket, and Petticoat. Then J.B.K. also came in to change, so I waited for him and we went out together, as I did not like going alone.

I finished my tiffin, and was just going to leave the table, when the Palmer's waterman, brought me a long note from Curry, and one from George to J.B.K., a bouquet of flowers, and some tiffin. Later in the day, I received a letter from Mary. I shut the doors leading to our bedroom, but forgot to take my book in to read, so I worked a little, and then rested. I read the Times, that Harry lent me, and fell to sleep over them.

I did not know when Mr. Hill left. But at 5 P.M. woke me up and said he had received a note from Mrs. Robertson to ask him to go over to the Province and see her husband who was sick, and that if I wanted to go with him, I must be quick and dress. So I got out of bed. Dressed in my jessper and salt dress, and my old red cloak over it. Put down the curtains, drank some wine, locked our door, went down stairs, got into the carriage, and arrived at the jetty at 5:30.

The boat was waiting for us. So we went across in it. Mrs. Robertson kept me talking to her, showed me the house. J.R.K. saw first Mr. R. then he said he would go and have a look at the Hatches who invited us to dinner. We said we were not in dinner costume, but he would make us stay, so we had our dinner of Lapon, &c. After dinner we did nothing but talk till 9. when we came home. J.R.K. corrected my letter, and we went to bed.

Sat 21 Up at 6. Did not go out for a walk, as I had no place to go to. Busy writing my journal for Wed nesday & Thursday, as I had no time to do it before. Read "Land at Last." Took the boys' account, and gave our servant the orders for the day. Rested. I was feeling very tired, but I wrote my letter to Mr. Pung, I had no time to finish it, as J.B.K. came home early. 9:15. bathed. dressed. 10. Second breakfast. Received a letter from Mary, saying Larry was a little better.

12. Went to the munnery in our carriage, to try and get a frame for a bonnet like Alices, but there were none to be had. Met Mr. Kapel. came to tell J.B.K.
 that I had bought some net, as there was no bonnet shape to be had. Saw Mr. Charlie Waller who had been to pay his V.P.C. call, just coming out of our gate. The Apothecary of the Province was speaking to J.B.K. and writing. I had to go into my bedroom, and get some old muslin, to put for a cap
 inside my bonnet.

12:30. According to promise I went to Mrs. Hogan, and took all the lace, flowers, &c that I had by me. She was just dressing. I had not been there five minutes when Charlie Walker came to call, so Mrs. Hogan asked me to go outside, (as I was then in her bedroom) and talk to him, while she finished dressing. So I went. We stayed a very short time. Then Mrs. Hogan took me into her bedroom again. As it was Saturday all the children were at home.

Izella and Fustance, were making shirts for themselves, Janett was making a doll's shirt, which she had gored herself. Mrs. H gave me the piece of wire for the frame of my bonnet. It came from one of Izella's old hats. She covered it with the net I bought, and then took the lace that was on Mrs. Plum's bonnet, and covered the net. Then she took some white beads that Madame Es-chas-rian had given me, before she went away, and string them together, and put them round the bonnet.

I had brought no ribbon for the strings, so Mr. H. could not finish the bonnet. At 3. Mr. Pasley came to see Mr. H. so I said I would go away, and come again on Monday. She told one of the children to go and meet Mr. Pasley, but she walked right into the bedroom, and Mr. P. said to me. Don't go away. but I said I must, so I ordered the oyce to get ready the carriage, and I came away. Mr. H. was just going to take his tiffin, and as I had not had mine, I sat down, and eat with him.

After tiffin he said he had brought me an amusing book from the library. I wrote to Mary, and also to Uncle Joseph to wish him many happy returns of tomorrow. The boy brought me some handkerchiefs. & rested till 5. Then dressed, went to the jetty alone. Met the usual number of persons. 7. home to dinner. 8. Drove to the Circus. nearly the same performance. 11:20 walked home. George & David Brown came to Harry's room & smoked. 12. Bible. bed.

22. Uncle Joseph's birthday. Up at 6. Did not go out for a walk. Put my clothes of the night before away. Finished writing my letter home to Mrs King. 9 pages. Mail from England came in. The Kurmah arrived last night. Rested. Read. 9:30. bathed dressed. Took the bazaar account, and gave our boy the orders for the day. 10. J.B.K. came home - I had my breakfast together with him. Then came upstairs just in time to add a few lines at the end of my home letter, and then dress for church.

11. J.B.K. first dropped me at the church door, then he went to Mrs Englisham, who had written to ask him to go and see her child who was sick. He came to church, while Mr Mackay was reading the Psalms. After church, I asked Constance Hogan to get me a Sunday book to read, as I was entitled to a book if I wanted them. Home. J.B.K. went to see Millie. 1:30 Constance brought me my books. I went down stairs to see her, but found she had gone.

September 1844. Penang.

2. Tiffin. Then I rested. 4. Mr got into the buggy. J.B.K. stopped outside Charlie Wallers door, and went in to see him. Then they both came walking out. Then J.B.K. took me to the Anthony's, left me there, while he went on to the betths. He promised to call for me on his way home. I played at paper with Ayah Kitty and Mr Galastan. Mary was going to call at Floa's, and I said I would not go out, but she would not hear of it, so I got into their carriage, and drove to the jetty.

On our way there we stopped half way, Mary got out of her carriage, and went to speak to Floa. We also called at the shoemakers for her boots. Everyone was at the jetty as usual. 7. on to the Anthony's. J.B.K. was waiting for me. so we came home to dinner. 8. J.B.K. went on board the Eurmah steamer, to see Mr. Wm. Hill. Charlie & Robert Waller off. to Singapore. I went to Floa's till they returned. so drove home. Read the Bible & went to bed.

8 up at 8. Did not go out for a walk. J.B.K. walked to the general Hospital. Georgie came down the hill, with Thobe Uncle Joseph. Wrote my journal for Thursday & Friday, as I had not time to do it before. Took the bazaar account, and gave our boy the order's for the day. Rested, read "Land at Last". 9:15. Georgie came. She said that she had come early, because she did not know when she might get the carriage, and if she came late, Dr. King might not be able to stop her tooth. I left off reading, and went and bathed & dressed.

10. J.B.K. came home, so Georgie and I went downstairs, and as she had not had her breakfast, we made her eat something with us. Uncle came to see J.B.K. he had received a letter from Mr. Dunnington, who had sent a message to him. I wished Uncle Joseph many happy returns of yesterday. After breakfast, Dr. King put some cotton in Georgie's tooth to deaden her nerve. I read a little of "Land at Last" it was getting very interesting.

September 1867, Penang

Mon 23

J.M.K. had brought some very thick sewing silk home, so I cut them up into needlefuls, and wrapped each in a separate piece of paper, ready for use. Then I ordered the carriage, and dressed myself in my cotton dress, and took Georgie with me to the nursery. I wanted to get some ribbon like Alice's bonnet, but could not succeed, so I got some a little narrower - 1 yd & a half - which J.M.K. thought was better, when I brought it home, after dropping Georgie at Mrs Palmer's, and shewed it to him.

Then I went on to Mrs Rogers. When she showed me the bonnet, I found she had unpicked it all down to the net and wire, and cut off a large piece of the latter, and made the bonnet into a different shape. She had finished it all but the ribbon. I was quite surprised. It looked more like a brides bonnet. She put it on my head to see if it suited me. Then I put all my things, cotton, &c in the box, and said good bye, & thanked her very much.

3 I went on to Mrs Anthony's to speak about my black silk, that she had got from Singapore for me. Mary went up the hill this morning to stay with the Mac-kay's till Friday morning. So only Mrs Galastan & Mrs An. were at home. I explained to her about the black silk, and told her I would tell Dr King to come and speak to her tomorrow morning. After drinking a glass of water I left. On my way home I went to Mrs Palmer's, and brought Georgie here to tiffin, which we took at 2:30.

3. Uncle Joseph came to take Georgie home, but I said we would send her. I gave him some late chong to take to Cary. 4. Took Georgie home. J.M.K. was immensely pleased with my new bonnet. Rested till 5. Up. Very dusty. J.M.K. said he could not take me out for a drive, so at 6. I ordered the carriage, and went to the jetty alone. Mrs was pleased, J.M.K. liked the bonnet. 7. Home to dinner. music. 9. Read the Bible. Went to bed.

Tues 24 Up at 6. Did not go out for a walk. J.M.K. walk ed out as usual. Wrote to Georgie, to see if she was coming to spend the day with me.
 Answer Yes. Had nothing to eat, read instead till 7:30. Wrote. Took the bazaar account and gave our servant the orders for the day. Yester day morning I had the rooms two washed, with water by the 2 Orderlys. Rested. Read "Land at Last" 9:30. bathed. dressed. Read again.
 10. J.M.K. came home, had my breakfast with him. Just as we had finished, Georgie came in Mrs Palmer's carriage.

J.M.K. was explaining to Lure
 the game of whist. We came up stairs. A steam er was signalized. We thought it was the Mail.
 G. & I sat outside in the verandah. I gave her some of my clean clothes to mend. while I work ed J.M.K.'s trousers. I mended four pairs. 12.
 J.M.K. ordered the carriage, and I came in. and got ready, and took Ge. with me to town to get some trimming for my bodice. Met Mr. Brown who told me it was the Calcutta steamer & Michael Anthony had come back.

24 We came home I brought three kinds of trimming 15. 20. & 40. I chose the latter & took two yards, gave it to the boy, who just took what I did not require. To Cleveiro's, & then took the 2 yds to Bengal Dulgee. J.K.H. stopped J's teeth for her. She told us she went to the Circus last night, there were only a few new things. 2. Diffin. 3:30 Georgie went home to dress to go up the hill. rested. 5. up. but for a drive to the jetty. Saw Harry and George Brown coming across the cricket field. I waved to W. but he did not see me. Mr. Hogan came down to the jetty. There were the usual number of persons, except that W. J. S. Padday came to my carriage to speak to me, and just as Mr. Hogan was going away, he went and spoke to her. I came home at 7. to dinner. Wrote a letter to carry in answer to the one, I received from her this morning. Very little music. Then I read Amy Herbert, until I was so tired, I read the Bible. Went to bed 9.

Wed 25. Up at 6. Did not go out for a walk.
 Took the bayana account, and gave out by the orders for the day. Rested. Read Land at Last finished the three volumes Wrote. 9:15. Bathed. dressed. Not feel ing hungry I waited till 10. for my breakfast, when J.M.K. came home. 11.
 Dobie brought my clothes, took the account of them. 12. Duljee came, with my new bodice. It was quite dirty, he had been obliged to soap it before he worked, it was so hard.

2. Tiffin. worked my crinoline, and a sock for J.M.K. 4.
 rested. 5. J.M.K. ~~and~~ I went to Dobie's with my bodice, as J.M.K. said, it was too dirty to wear without being washed.
 6:30. came home, found a letter for me from Carry Lane from George. 7.
 dinner. Mr. & Mrs. Plunket & Mr. Ellis, dined with us. In the evening whist.
 till 11:30. when they went away. Read the Bible. bed 12.

b. Up at 6. Did not go out for a walk. It was raining, so I got into bed again, slept, and read "My Herbert." J.B.K. packed up the box to send to Miss Brown, I wrote a letter. I gave her 6 salt cellars of the newest fashion. It rained so all day, that it was not till 5 in the evening, that the coolie was able to take it to flygar. g. bathed. dressed. 9:15. Breakfast. I saw the present Harry was going to send Miss Brown. It was a work box of Bombay work.

Took the boy's account and gave our boy the orders for the day. Busy finishing working my cross line. 2. Tiffin. work again, some holes in J.B.K.'s sock. 4. rested till 5. when I got up. We went out for a drive to the dobie, who though it had been raining all day, had finished my bodice. 7. home to dinner. He had a little music. I worked again - 9:30. Read the bible. bed.

September 1864. Penang.

Fri 27 Up at 6. Did not go out for a walk. ~~Just~~ walked as usual to the General Hospital.
 Put my glass admirably tidy. Brought up my journal, and read "My Herbs" for an hour. Then called the boy up, and made him put the curtains & mosquito
 up. Put all my ornaments, and clothes out that I should require today. 9:15.
 bathed. dressed. 10. J.R.K. came home.
 I was not feeling very well, so I asked to come up stairs and give me some Suddamun - and pepperment.

I took 20 drops of the former.
 The latter J.R.K. poured a little in a spoon. After I had drunk it, we went down to breakfast. I eat 2 pieces of my pie & drank a glass of wine. Then I came upstairs, and asked Harry for some scent for my handkerchief, he gave me a bottle out of a case, which has the best scent on account of the bottles having such good stoppers. Then I began to dress for Church.

I wore my light lavender silk dress, a new bonnet of lace, with beads all round, and little sprigs of jessamine dotted here and there, also a new garibaldi of muslin with 4 strips of lace in front and six small pleats between each, and a ruffling of the light lavender silk, just round the neck, down the middle of the garibaldi and round the cuffs. Round the neck I wore John's small gold chain, and pearl cross set in gold, Uncle Lawrence's brooch and earrings.

Mr. Brown's bracelet of carved gowns, and Harry pearl one set in gold. At 10:50. We went to church. At 11. Mr. Macray went and sat near the communion table, waiting for the bride who was late. At 11:10. The bridesmaids arrived, and a little while after them came the bride. She walked up the church leaning on her father's arm, looking very happy, and pretty. We heard every word of Mr. & Mrs. Lamb's responses.

Fri 27

The Bride wore a plain white satin dress, with a bow of the same stuff at the back, and a flustering of satin ribbon all round the bottom of the dress. A plain white veil, and a wreath of rose buds and jessamin placed on her head, and a long end of the wreath hanging down below her shoulders.

The Brides were Charlotte Brown, Lill, Sad., and Edith Scott, daughters of Mr. Walter Scott. Charlotte wore a white tartan dress, with 2 puffs of the same material, and a piece of ^{blue} ribbon sewn on plain on the dress just above the puffs with a plain piece of the dress sewn on it. Her wreath was blue flowers, and a little fall. The other three Bridesmaids wore the same kind of dress, but with only 1 puff. They had a double skirt on. Their wreaths were blue ribbon, with one white rose in each, and a little fall. Sunday their eldest brother, carried the bouquet, fan, and Handkerchief for Mr. Lous

Mr. Stuart was the groomsmen. Only the Ladies had favours put on them in Church. The gentlemen were had theirs at Gugar. We were rather late, as the carriages were allowed to come in any how, and ours being the last. J.W.K. had to go and look after it, though it was drizzling, but we left the Church at 12:30. We went to Gugar in our carriage, and with the red pony. We took the boy out with us.

A great many of the Ladies and gentlemen, had gone out in Hack-jalkis, and the consequence was, a great many stuck in the road, (broke down) as the rain had come down in such torrents that it made the roads quite heavy for the poor Jories. Though we left so late, and there were a great many hacks before us, yet we passed them all, and arrived at Gugar first. Mrs. Plunket came a little while after, and said she had broken down, & got in with Mr. Tompson.

September. 1867. Penang

Mr 27

Harry got in one of the first and he saw Miss Brown reading our letters, that we had sent with our presents. I gave her 6 salt cellars, in the shape of tubs with a handle on each, and 6 salt spoons, each being like a spade. J. N. K. gave her 5 flower glass stands of 3 different shapes. At 1. we had the wedding cake handed round, Mr. Brown having led the Bride, to the table, to have the first cut. Jill & Dad, made themselves very useful, and were just as good as any grown up Bridesmaid.

At 2:30. We went downstairs to breakfast. The tables were placed in this way: 1 The Bride & Bridegroom sat with their backs to the front garden x and I was handed down by Mr. Robert Shaw, but fortunately got a seat near Mr. Walter Scott xx, who sat in the middle of the left hand long table as you come down stairs. He joked and made us all laugh, and we had plenty of fun.

Mr. Stuart and Charlotte sat opposite to us. Mr. Mackay, Mr. Lamb, Mr. Frank Shaw, & Mr. Stuart made the speeches, the former for the bride, and the latter for the bridesmaids. After the breakfast the ladies all went upstairs, and a few of the gentlemen Mrs. Bidday went to the piano, and played 3 pieces, Mary Anthony 2, Charlotte 1. and Phoebe sang a song "Home". Then Mr. Vermont came up, and asked the gentlemen present to help him remove the tables, as Mr. Brown said they might dance.

^{trimmed black hair dress}
^{Bride. White pique.} Before the dancing began the Bride & Bridegroom ^{left} the poor man, had the slippers knocked on his head, back, shoulders, and everywhere. They had no mercy on him. Mr. Vermont got on the back of the carriage, and went as far as Gugar gate, and then got down to allow the footman to get up. Some of the gentlemen went to meet him, and they brought him back, on their shoulders.

September. 1867. Penang.

Fri 27

Then we all went upstairs, and began to dance. We had 2 Quadrilles, 1 waltz, and 1 galop. I played the first, reading the music by sight, and danced the rest. J.W.K. wanted to go home, before they began the waltz, but I begged of him so hard to let me stay, as I was going to dance with Mr. Joseph Anthony, that he allowed me to do so. We left flugar at 11:30. & arrived home in 3/4 of an hour. We brought home 1 of the bouquets.

Harry came home about 1/2 an hour after us, & said that all the Ladies left after us, and there were only a few bachelor gentlemen remaining behind. Sandie sent me some beans, which we told the boy to boil for dinner, but they were not cooked enough, so told him to keep them for tomorrow's tipping dinner. Then we had music. J.W.K. sang some new songs & I joined him in the chorus. Wrote to Larry. 10. Read the Bible & went to bed.

8 Up at 6. Did not go for a walk. J.B.K. went out as usual, walking to the General Hospital. Read until 7:15. Then began to write the account of yesterday's doings! Took the bazaar account from the boy, and gave him the orders for the day. Read again, rested. 9:15 bathed. dressed. As I was not feeling very hungry I went to the Juans, and tried some new songs, out of a book, Michael Anthony, brought from Calcutta for J.B.K. The first few songs, are better than the last.

10:15. I did not wait any longer, but went and began my breakfast. In the middle of it, J.B.K. came home, so we finished it together. Came upstairs. I was finishing my dress I wore yesterday, away, when Mr. Bengal Tailor came. He brought my habes. We made him measure some cloth for my crinoline, and also gave him my black silk skirt to alter. We had just some white lining at the bottom, to prevent it from getting dirty, that if it had no lining

MS 28

But J.B.K. did not think it looked well, so we bought some black lining to put in the place of it. I also gave him my low neck black silk body to make. 12. Put away my jewelry, and put my Admirah tidy. J.B.K. wanted to give the sailor my black cloth cloak to alter, but I could not find it anywhere, and he afterwards remembered that I had given it to the boy to brush, and had never had it brought up again.

12:45. went to see Mrs. Paddy, and ask her to come and take a quiet tiffin with me on Monday. She said she would come at 11:30. We also talked about the dresses worn yesterday, & she said everyone remarked both Gentlemen & Ladies, the difference between the Scott family. How nice one looked by the side of the other. The Walter Scott children looked like little fairies. 1:15. came home to pick up J.B.K. who was going to see Mrs. Anson.

He left me at Mr. Hogan's, as the latter had asked me to come and tell her all the news, which I did. I remained $\frac{1}{2}$ an hour, and then J.M.K. came to fetch me. He came upstairs to speak to Mr. Hogan about the dinner she had made for me. 2: home. Harry asked me to let him have tiffin with us, which he did. He told us he sprained his foot yesterday in coming down Ambler's staircase. I had plenty of things to put away, so had no time to rest.

4. Went over to the Province J.M.K. wanted to see Capt. Hatchel, on business. Fortunately we met Mr. Vernon over there, who kindly offered to take us over in his boat, for which we thanked him and accepted his offer. (We sailed over, though it was a little rough, and the boat kept going all on one side.) So when J.M.K. had finished his work, we said good bye, & got into Mr. V.'s boat. Capt. Hatchel gave us 2 couple of soup.

Sat 20

The sea was very rough, and every now and then, such large waves came, we thought we should have had them break into the boat, but we reached the jetty all safely. Met Mr. Buttery, who said he had been to our house with Mr. B. to show J.B.K. her arm, she had been suffering so much from rheumatism. Mr. B. asked us told he would give us a lift so we got into his carriage & came home.

We gave him 3 snipes. Received and answered a letter from Lena today. J. came down to dinner just as we had begun eating a carriage came to the door, J.B.K. went to see who it was, & found that P.C. Pa day had brought 2 snipes for me, that he had shot himself this afternoon. After dinner music. Then I finished writing my letter to Mary. J.B.K. also wrote to her. 10. I read the Bible. bed.

9. Up at 6. Did not go out for a walk. It was raining so hard, that J.M. too was not able to go and see his patients. So I jumped into bed again and slept till I was tired and then I got a book and began reading it. Mail steamer 7. was signalized. Read. Worked J.M.'s dirty socks. They were new, and had gone into holes, and he thought if they were sent to the wash before they were mended, the holes would be worse. 8:45: bathed. dressed. We were both feeling very hungry, so we had our breakfast at 9.

We had all the 4 snipe that were given to us, cooked, and they turned out to be just in a nice state for eating. Then I came upstairs, took the boy an account from our boy, and gave him the orders for the day. 10. Our orderly brought our home letters from the Post Office. I received a note from Florence from my niece written by herself, no correction. It was still raining, but we went to church at 11. There were about a dozen people all together. I asked constance to change my book for me.

September 1867. Penang.

Sun 29

After church I dropped J. & K. at Mr. Clark's, and then went on to Uncle's. Auntie was out, so I waited till she came home, and then I asked them all to come to dinner tomorrow. They were not quite sure, if they would be able to do so, as they were going to the circus, if it cleared up by tomorrow evening, but Auntie said she would write and let me know. Then I came home. Wrote my journal. Read till 2. when J. & K. came home. 2:15. Tiffin. Rested up at 4. dressed.

Put down the mosquitoë curtain. got into the buggy, and went to the Anthony's. Michael An: had fever. Mr. Padday also came. Mary called her upstairs. 5:30. J. & K. and W. C. & Padday went to the baths together. I went to Mr. Anthony's room for the first time, & she showed me all her jewels. 6. Out for a drive with Mary to the jetty, back at 7:15. Went in to see Michael who was better. 7:30. home to dinner. Harry asked J. & K. to see him, as he was sick with fever. After dinner, I put a mat down to lie on to read, but I went to sleep. woke up at 9. & got into bed.

30 Up at 6. Did not go out for a walk. Though it was wet under foot, J.B.K. walked out as usual to the General Hospital. Read till 7. Then had the 2 Orderly's, upstairs, to clean the floors of the 2 rooms without mats. Mur-rye changed, and brought up the water for them. Mended J.B.K.'s shirt, and trousers.
Wrote my journal. Took the bazaar account from our boy, and gave him
the orders for the day. 10. Had our Orderly to sweep the rooms.

9:30. bathed. dressed.
10. Feeling rather hungry, went down and began eating my breakfast. 10:30.
J.B.K. came home. He brought me some water cresses, grown in the General Hospital garden. We had not had his breakfast, so we finished together. 11
The Bengal Tailor came. He brought my black silk shirt, in which he had changed the lining, and also a white cloth body, low neck, to see if it fitted me, for a pattern, when he made the black body.

September 1867. Penang.

Mon 30

I also gave him my new cotton dress to alter. The front part of the body, was too tight. 12. Mrs. Paddy came to spend the day, and stay to dinner. She brought some baby clothes to work. She told me that in the last month, she had made with the help of her ayah, a dozen small baby shifts, ready waiting for the trimming. I came in the room. In a little as Mr. said, when you have been with her for a little while, then you can finish speaking to me.

So I came in, and he told me, we had better come duets together, as it would be a capital chance for me to have Mrs. Paddy to play with. Then I went out, took my work. I mended 4 pairs of stockings. 1. We played on the piano. I took the first part of the first duet in the book, and Mrs. Paddy, took the first of another duet, which we tried. We were both reading music at sight, as we neither of us had tried these duets before.

30 At 2. we had tiffin upstairs, as we do every day, using no ceremony to Mrs Paddy. I got some Calcutta biscuits toasted, for her, & she enjoyed them very much, she had never tasted them before. B. J. M. returned. We waited till he had finished his tiffin, then we went to the piano, and sang 3 trios, Mrs Paddy played 2 and I accompanied. I was growing with rain at the time, we could scarcely hear ourselves sing. Her carriage came for her at 3:30. she waited 10 minutes, and then went home.

I received a letter from Carry. J. M. from Mary. Georgie returned the unmentionable, I lent her the other day. I wrote to Mrs Distant this morning. 4. rested till 5. Then up dressed. put my things tidy. J. M. and I at 6. went & sat on the portico waiting for Mamma, Sib, Uncle & Aunt who came at 7. took dinner with us. After dinner whist, I was Uncle's partner. we lost 17 points. Uncle though said I played well. 11. went away. Bible. bed. hi. Carry just from Mrs.

October 1867 Penang

Tues 1 Up at 6. Did not go out for a drive walk. J.W.K. walked out as usual to the General Hospital. read till 7. Then wrote my journal. 7:30. Took the bazaar account from our servant, and gave him the orders for the day. Then I told him to call the waterman, to clean the jortico. But he did not come to do it till past 8. He brought some cocoanut husks, & earth, and he, the orderly, and our boy helping them occasionally, washed the jortico. Verder brought the water.

When the tubs of water were finished upstairs. The boy tied a string on the handle, and then threw them over the jortico, Verder who is standing, waiting down below, refills it, and the boy pulls it up. They took half an hour to clean it, till 9:30. when I bathed and dressed. 10:15. I was feeling rather hungry, so I began eating my breakfast. 10:45. J.W.K. came home, he said he had had his breakfast at Mr. B. Roddy's to prevent and finished mine as quick as possible, He brought no water cresses.

After breakfast, I worked my stockings, J.B.K.'s shirt and coat till 12. when I got ready to go out visiting. J.B.K. at first said he would call on Mrs. Anson with me, then I said, if he would do so, I would put on my new black silk cloak. Then afterwards he altered his mind, and said that he could not call with me today, as he had to go and pay a medical visit. So I put on my new brown and white cloak, and went and called on Mrs. Burn. She was at home fortunately.

Mrs. Burn, husband, and family are all going away by the Burmah Steamer this evening at 5. to Rangoon. All her children we saw, down to the little baby, who is very good natured. From there I went to see Mrs. Plunket, after having dropped J.B.K. at Mrs. Anson's gate. J.B.K. told me to keep the palkee at Mrs. Plunket's till he came. As he was going to walk over. Flora Earl was spending the day at Mrs. P.'s. W. Bonington, and Mary Lewis, both sent Mrs. P. some Doocoose from Malacca.

Sus 1

J.M.R. came in about $\frac{1}{2}$ an hour. A squall came on, so he was obliged to wait a little. He had some Doocoose given to him by Mr. P. who when he was going away, told him to leave me, and also invited us to go to Luck this evening. Mr. & Mrs. were also going to dine with them. So at 2. he went away leaving me behind, after my telling him to send the palkee for me at 4. I was busy in sorting some wools for Mr. P. There were a great many colours all jumbled together, so I put them in different papers.

2:30. Tiffin. There was only a small fowl for cutlets, and rice pudding baked, with plums. 4. home. Felt hungry from not eating a proper tiffin. rested. 6:20. dressed. 7. Dinner at Mr. Plunkets. After dinner, we three ladies, began a game at whist, Mr. Earl. came up just as we had begun, so we made him join us. He was my partner, and we lost by 6 points. Mr. P. & J.M.R. went to sleep. 11. home very tired. Put up the bell on the gumbah rope went to bed

2 Lizzie Distant's birthday, aged 4 years. Up at 6. Just as I was going to get out of bed, Mr. Buttery called out from down below to J.M.K. to ask him to go and see his wife, who was suffering very much from rheumatism in the arm and shoulder. J.M.K. forgot to take his handkerchief down stairs with him, so I had to throw it out of window. Read till 7 when I wrote my journal. Took the boy's account from our boy, and gave him the orders for the day. Made a fresh paper of B. accounts.

9:45. Bathed dressed. 10.

Played on the piano, and sang some songs, out of a new book, till J.M.K. came home 10:30 when I had my breakfast with him. Mrs. Chapman and Mr. MacDonald called. The latter came to see J.M.K. as she wanted him to attend her in her confinement about the beginning of next month. I was very busy working the 3 handkerchiefs, I gave Uncle Joseph on his birthday.

October. 1867. Penang.

1. I told J.P.K. to order the paluki, as I wanted to go out. Just before I was ready to go, Mr. Magalhears called to see J.P.K. He stayed sometime. I was unable to leave the house till 1:30. When I went to Uncle's godown. I took the 3 handkerchiefs to give Uncle Joseph, but he was not in the godown, nor could he be found anywhere, so I told the uncle to call Harry, and I left the message with him, which was to tell Uncle J. to send us the bottle of Calcutta biscuits, which he promised

1:45: home. J.P.K. went out, and returned at 2:30. When he told me that he would have to leave this house at 3:30. to go to the mad house, and meet the Lieut. Governor. I wrote a letter to Mr. Distant, and sent Dooley and Sizzie, a small wicker basket each, containing six Calcutta biscuits, and some toffy. Also 1 bundle of Gulwah.

2:30 Liffin. Then Uncle Joseph came, as I had written and told him to call here on his way to the foot of the hill. I gave him one bundle of Sulway for carry. 3. J.B.K. send order to look for the water man at Mr. Johnny Lunter's house, who always takes the evening milk to Mr. Distant, but he was nowhere to be found, so we told him to go for a cooler, to whose hands we gave the parcels for Mr. Distant.

3:30. J.B.K. went to the mad house in his American buggy. I mended his pantaloons then rested till 5. Up dressed. Received Dookoos from the children. P.M. 1/2 and a couple of snipe from Mamma. 5:30. Drive with Harry. 6. home. J.B.K. had returned. Mamma sent me some Dookoos, I wrote and thanked her by Harry. 7. dinner. Then we had music. Wrote a letter to Georgie, but got no answer. Read the Bible. Bed. 10.

October 1867. Penang

Thur 3 Up at 6. Did not go out for a walk with J.B.K.
 read "The last chronicle of Marsel," a book of two volumes from the library till 7. Then as I had written my journal yesterday evening. I began writing my letter home to W.^d King, S. Took the Pagadar account from our servant, and gave him the orders for the day. Then I made him sweep the ceiling of our 3 rooms, as there was a quantity of cobwebs on them. He had the Massalchee up to help him.

Then I went on with the copy of my letter till 9. when I rested and read again. 9:30. Bathed dressed. Mamma came and brought me two Pummeloes that Aunty had sent me. She got them from Sassek. 10:15. J.B.K. came home and said he had breakfasted. So I went and eat mine. He came and sat beside me.
 I eat both the snipe. J.B.K. eat the inside he said that was the best part of them. I came upstairs, and after eating an orange, I began writing my letter again

I wrote till my hand ached then J.W.K. said you had better leave of, and do some work. So I got my bead-collar and began working at that. J.W.K. had brought me some silver wire to act as a needle, as I could not get any proper bead needles here. I tried the wire & found it answered well. His dobie also came today. I sorted his clothes, and took the socks away to mend them. Then I finished writing the copy of my letter, and I did some more bead work.

2:15. tiffin. I received a letter from Alice. J.W.K. wrote to Mary, this is the third time. Worked some of J.W.K.'s socks. Gramma brought Annie here to have her toenail cut. She said Auntie, Phoebe, Bo, & Annie were going up to stay with Mr. Distant for a few days. 4. rested. 4:45. Up dressed. Went out for a drive, we were caught in the rain, but did not get much wed. 7. home got a letter from Dooley Distant. Stoney fruit. dinner music. Read the Bible. bed. 10

Hi 11 Up at 6. Did not go out for a walk with Mr. A.
 Read Mr. A's "The last chronicle of Basset" till 7.
 Then wrote my journal. Took the bazaar account from our servant, and gave him
 the orders for the day. Worked at Mr. K's sewing till 9. finished hemming a whole side of it.
 Rested. Read again. 9:45. bathed. dressed. 10
 went down to breakfast, just as I began Mr. K. came, so we eat together. He brought me home water cresses. This is the greatest quantity and the finest lot I have had yet.
 After that I eat an orange
 then I sewed Mr. K's two coats for him.
 Dulgee came. He brought me my cotton dress that he had taken away to put a new front, as it was very tight. He also brought my low neck black silk. I wanted to know how to trim it, so I told Mr. K. to tell the tailor. I would take it to Mr. Plunket and asked for my home way, I would leave it at his house. 12. Went to see Mr. Kiddy
 but the boy there told me she had gone out to spend the day with Mr. Wutley.

Then I went on to Mr. Plunked. Just as I passed the Court, Mr. P.'s boy met me & asked if the D. was at home, as her baby had fallen down, so I drove back, & took J.B.K. with me. The child had nothing the matter with it, only Mr. P. was frightened. She had fallen on her nose principally. Then I showed my black low body. We proposed to have it trimmed with black begal trimming at first, but afterwards it was changed, and we had a white Bertha with the begal trimming on it.

1. 10. home. Practised on the piano a new duet, & sang some songs. 2. J.B.K. came home tiffin. Washed my black petticoat. rested. 5. Up. wrote a letter to Larry & Alice. 6. Just going out for a drive, when it began to rain, so I did not get out at all. 7. dinner. Mr. Gentte & Mr. W. Allen dined with us. In the evening whist. J.B.K. & Mr. W. Allen partners they won, we Mr. Gentte & I lost. 11. went away. Read the Bible. bed.

Sat 5

Up at 6. Did not go out for a walk with J.B.K.
 Read "The last chronicle of Barsed" till 7.
 Then I began writing a fair copy of my letter home to Mr. King. We heard we were to have been invited out to Gligar to dinner today, but Charlotte Brown must have forgotten to write to us.
 Wrote till 9. Then rested, and read again
 9:30. bathed. dressed. 10. J.B.K. came home we had breakfast together. Came upstairs worked. eat an orange.

Worked again... wrote a little more of my letter home to Mr. King. Jobie J.B. came... busy sorting his clothes, and taking those things that require mending. 2 till rested. It was pouring with rain, but at 6. it cleared up, so I went to the jetty. Met Mary Anthony, told her if she did not mind would go to her house after dinner. I dinner. Then went to the Anthony's. The little children began acting. Bob also. W.C.S. Paddy dined there music. Then we had two tables of whist.
 12. home bed.

Up at 8. The mail for home came in, to the surprise of everyone. Most were not ready with their letters. I finished writing mine. I wrote 16 pages. Read till 7. Then wrote after that. Took the bazaar account from our boy, and gave him the order for the day. 9. rested. read. 9:30. Just as I was going down to bathe, J.M.K. came home. So I dressed quickly, and we had our breakfast together. Then I came upstairs, and wrote a letter to Alice, for Uncle Joseph to take up.

10:30. The bells ring for church. They stopped 2 or 3 times, as the church clock itself stopped. They did not know the time. J.M.K. not having written his home letters, could not go to church, so I went alone. home. read. 2. tiffin. work. rested. went to sleep. Pouring with rain, not able to go out for a drive. 7. dinner. I felt dreadfully sleepy, but managed to keep awake till 9. when I read the Bible, and went to bed. I gave my head a great knock at the corner of the biscuit table. quite a bump.

Monday. Did not go out for a walk with J.W.K., but he walked to the General Hospital as usual. Read "The last Chronicle of Barset" till 7. Then wrote to Mrs. Paddy to ask her to come and spend the day with me. She wrote back by bearer and accepted the invitation. Then I ordered the two Orderleys and syce, the latter to bring the water, and the former to come and wash our two rooms, which have no mats on them.

I worked part of the time. Looked at the bazaar account, and gave our boy the orders for the day. The washing took till 8. Then I worked J.W.K.'s socks again - 8:30. The Bengal Sailor came, with the white tittle for the top of my black silk low-dress. I made him sew it on, and also a button on my jacket which was nearly off. Asked Harry to lend me his pony to take up the bill. 9. rested. read. 9:30. bathed. dressed. 10. J.W.K. came home we had breakfast together.

11. Young George Scott came to see J.M.K. and he lent him a pony to keep on the hill. 11:30. Mrs. Padday came she bought baby's work. I felt very lazy, and I did not work. 1. We played duets on the piano. I took the treble of one duet, and she took the treble of the other. 2. J.M.K. went out, came home very soon. He came to the piano, and showed Mrs. Padday, the parts which he did not think she played very correctly. Then we went to tiffin.

After tiffin we sang trios. Mrs. Padday went away at 8:30. and took away a book of vocal duets with her, to take the first part. 4. J.M.K. went to the baths, I went to Anthony's. Mary took me to the band with her. There were very few people there. J.M.K. & Michael came just before we left the band. to say they were going to dine with the young Scotts, so I had dinner at Mrs. Anthony's. Whist afterwards. Mrs. Anthony, Burn 12. home bed

Tues 8 Up at 6. Did not go out for a walk with J.B.K.
 Read "The last Chronicle of Warsaw" till 7. Then I worked J.B.K.'s stockings. A beggar came. one of the low poor class of clings, and I gave him 6 cents. The China basket maker brought some sugar, and candied fruit, and four oranges, as a present to us. Also $1. that J.B.K.
 had given him. They Bengal Sailer came, he said the boy told him, I had called him, so I said that I had told our boy to tell him to come at 11. precisely, as I was going out to tippi
 at about 11:30.

9. rested. read again. 9:30
 bathed dressed. 10. J.B.K. came home. we had breakfast together. The boy could not get any fish for me. Took the bazaar account this morning and gave our servant
 the orders for the day. 11. Maria came and began talking, and telling about some reports she had heard respecting Willie,
 thinking that I was we had spread out about it. Then I finished packing up my box for the hill.

12. Went to Uncle's goodman, to arrange with Uncle Joseph, what time we were to start for the hill, and if he would take us to the foot of the hill, in his palke. came home, told J.M.K. to send for me at 3. Then I went to Mr. Radday's. Directly I got there we began playing our duets on the piano. we also tried two new duets. 2. Offin. Then I went into Mr. Radday's room, and showed me her dresses.

Also her wreaths, flowers, garibaldi's &c. 3:40. came home. J.M.K. could not send me the carriage before as Colonel Anson kept him to Offin. there. I found Uncle Joseph waiting for us, so at 4. I dressed was ready to start. Came to the foot of the hill and got on our jurnies, and arrived at the Highlands about 5:30. Geogie & Mary were at the stone waiting for us. J.M.K. first went to the Chalet, Sizzie had cut her head, then he came on here. Sat out in the garden. 7. dinner. Then we had a game at Commerce. so we were all very tired, so we went to bed.

Wed 9. Up at 6. J.M.K. went down to the plain with Uncle Joseph, he walked down part of the way, and then he rode. It was too wet under foot, so we were not able to go out in the garden. 7. Early breakfast of eggs, toast. Then I wrote my journal and a letter to J.M.K. asking him to bring me up some things that I had forgotten. Then Georgie and I went and sat under the tree, and worked, while Mary wrote, and Fanny made a bouquet. 9. We took our second meal, of coffee and buns & biscuits.

I did not eat, so I had a head ache. 9:30. Prayers. 10. Mary and I bathed together in their bathroom. The water was very nice and cold. Then we dressed for our third meal, breakfast. But there was a little time to spare, so we worked. The barabar man came. Georgie and Mary received letters. 12. breakfast, fish, corn & rice, fruit, &c. After that we took a table into the garden, and four chairs, and we all sat round it doing our work and talking. Miss Palmer was busy with house work.

About 3. Miss Palmer came to tell us, that she thought we had better come and lie down, so we first eat our tiffin of fruit, bread and butter, &c. and then we went to lie down. I went into the children's room and undressed, and laid in the same bed as Larry. We had plenty of fun, and made a great noise. Then Mary went to see what time it was, and came back and told it was considerably past 4.

Finding it was so late we all dressed, and went to the rock, to wait for Uncle and J.B.K. who arrived (the former) at 5, and the latter about half an hour afterwards, as he had been to the Phâlet to see how Sizzie was getting on. He said Auntie sent her love to us. We walked back and found Larry sitting in the garden, she had been sick. Then Mary and I played at La Grâce. J.B.K. brought up our eggs for Miss Palmer's dinner. Then commenced cards. Larry won. Very tired, all went to bed.

Thurs 10 Mr. at 6. J.B.K. went down to the plain with Uncle. He rode part of the way, and walked the rest. Uncle Joseph was very nearly going down without him, only I called out to him to stop. Georgie generally wakes us, but she over slept herself. It was very damp under foot, so J.B.K. asked me if I had brought my goloshes, and when I told him I had not done so, he said I was not to go out anywhere if it was damp. 7. Early breakfast, I eat two slices of toast and butter and one egg.

Then I and Carry together put my room tidy. After that the servant came upstairs to sweep, so I brought my writing materials downstairs, wrote my journal, and a letter to Sarah Church, which I enclosed in J.B.K.'s letter, so that he might read it before he sent it, while Carry made me a bouquet to send to Sarah, she also sent one to Mr. Shepherd. 9. Second meal of coffee and biscuits, as the former does not agree with me, I took one slice of toast and butter, and a glass of Sioton (wine)

Then I went upstairs, undressed, rested and read "The last chronicle of Basset" which J. M. brought up for me last evening. 10. A Malay man came, only Mary received a letter. 11. Bathed together with Mary. The water was beautifully cold. 12. dressed. Third meal. After that we had the table and four chairs taken out in the garden, and put in the shade, we all got our work, and sat out in the open air. Miss Palmer came for a little while, when she had finished her work.

We would scarcely believe her, when she told us it was past 3. Ayah Lam (Mr Distant's Ayah) together with a water man and chokara, came from the Châlet. She had been picking croonontings, and as she was feeling very thirsty, she came here for some water. She told us Annaly was going down tomorrow. 3:50. Tiffin rested. 5. Up. went to the rock. J. M. and Uncle Josiah came up together. 6. Mary and S. La Grace dined. Amy not feeling well I did not play at cards, but sat with her. The rest whilst I retired.

Up at 6. J.M.K. went down to the plain with Uncle Joseph. J.M.K. rode down half way and then walked the other half. They had to leave early on account of Annie who was going down from the Chalet, where she had been staying with Mr. Distant. She had asked Uncle J. to meet and accompany her to the foot of the hill. When they got down, they found that Phoebe and Bo with their Ayah had gone to town in Uncle Joseph's carriage, and Annie and Annie was sitting in the carriage waiting for Uncle.

It was too damp, so we did not walk out in the garden. I came upstairs, put my room tidy. & early breakfast of 2 slices of toast and butter, and an egg. Then I read "The last Chronicle of Basel." Wrote a letter to J.M.K. and Mary Anthony, and sent her a bouquet too. The letter I put in J.M.K.'s envelope, and told him to correct it. & Prayers. & second meal of toast and wine. Then I went upstairs and fed Larry.

She was not feeling very hungry, but I made her eat a slice of bread and drink her coffee. She made Mary Ann's brogue for me. Then I read again till 12 when Mary and I went and bathed in Uncle's bathroom, as Miss Palmer wanted to bathe in the other. We had not such a nice bath, as the tub was very small. 12:15 Third meal. Then we sat under the house, as Perry could not go out in the garden. The fog was very great, and we had had some rain.

Georgie put some hooks and eyes on my muslin shirt, so that I might not have the trouble of bunching it up under my arm. Miss Palmer then came to tell us that it was fast 3. I would not believe it. We went upstairs to tiffin of fruit. Then I finished mending 2 pairs of J.W.'s socks. Rested & played at draughts. 5. J.W. came. Uncle & Aunt sat on the porch and then came in. 7. dinner. (any not well. did not come down then different games at cards & so. box.

1812 Up at 6. J.M.K. went down alone as Uncle J. was not able to come up last night on account of one of the crammies being sick, and there was so much work to do in the go down. J.M.K. rode down part of the way, and walked the rest. I asked him if he was going to stay up all tomorrow, but he could not tell me till this evening, as it all depended on Mrs. Cairney Roddyk, he is expecting her confinement. 7. Early breakfast of toast and butter, and egg.

Then we all went down stairs, so as to allow the boy to sweep the room. I wrote a letter to Miss Dickson, and ~~was~~ going to have a bouquet made for her, but as I heard Uncle and J.M.K. might come up earlier this afternoon, I changed my mind, and told Carry to make the bouquet for me this afternoon and I would send it, and the letter down by Uncle J's syce, to await J.M.K. so that he might read it, before it was sent to Miss Dickson.

9. Prayers. Then I began working J.W.'s socks. Fanny was dozing on the couch, Georgie talking, and Mary writing letters. 11. Mary and I went to bathe. The water was beautiful and cold. 12. Third meal, breakfast. After that we had a table and four chairs taken into the garden, and put under the trees and we all sat round and began our work. They all began teasing me, but I did not mind it. Mary very kindly began darning the other sock for J.W.

About 3. we had the table and chairs taken in, as it was looking very cloudy and rainy, and just as we got comfortably settled, it began to rain. 4. dressed. went to the rock, waited for J.W. and Uncle Joseph who came at 4:30. Then we sat out in the garden, and was just beginning a game of drafts, when the rain came down. We went in. 7. dinner. Then we had some games at whist. Fanny was a little sick. 9. went to bed.

Sun 13

Up at 6:30. No one went down. Harry's pony was sent up for me. 7. Early break fast of toast and butter, wine and egg.
 J.B.K. had some coffee but no egg. Uncle
 J. would not eat at first, but after we had all eaten, he began. 9. Prayers. I did not go in this morning. Put my room tidy.
 Second meal of coffee, and toast. The bazaar man came up only letter for Miss Palmer. 12. Third meal, breakfast. Then we sat out in the garden, and I read aloud to Larry and Mary. 3. J.B.K. and I went down to the "Spout" to bathe we called at the Châtel both going and coming back. Every one was getting on well. Lena gave me a letter for Georgie. 4:30. back to Highlands.
 Then Harry, Georgie, J.B.K. & myself went and sat on the rock till we felt a few drops of rain, when we came into the house.
 Then it began to pour, and did not leave off till next morning. I mended my habit which I tore in jumping down from the pony. 7. dinner. 9. bed.

Up at 5:30. Finished packing up my box. Folded up the sheets and wrapped with the pillows, with 2 mats. Then had the coolie to come and them on the top of my box. Then I went to see Carry, after I was dressed, sat my boat & drew my wine by the side of her bed. She was crying, as I was going down the hill. Directly I had finished, we said good bye, and left I riding on Harry's pony. We got to the foot of the hill without any rain, though it looked very threatening. Uncle J. gave me a lift.

On my way home called to see Uncle L. & Auntie. 8. Home. 9. Bathed. dressed. 10. breakfast. Harry eat with us. Then I went to the godown in W.'s buggy. Asked Uncle for a party on my birthday, but he said better no. Then came home, put my things away. 12. went over to see Sarah who was going to Singapore, by the ^{home} mail which came in this morning. 1. returned. 2. letters from Mr. King for me. 2. tiffin. Then worked my crinoline. rested. 5. Up. 6. drove to the jetty. 7. dinner. Then music. 9. Very tired. Read the Bible, and went to bed.

October 1867. Penang

Tues 15 Up at 6. It was raining so J.M. was not able to go to the General Hospital. I sent our Orderly out to get 2 pice of Aporns for me; but he went to Love Lane, and brought me some that was not at all sweet, so when the boy came, I sent him to get 1 pice worth from the man who lives at the back of Mr. Palmer's house, as he makes them very well. P. M. cleared up. J.M. went to see some of his patients. Took the bazaar account, and gave our servant the orders for the day.

Sewed a hook on one of J.M.'s coats. Then I did some of my tatting. Georgie and I (when I was on the hill) made out together how Nellie had done the trimming she gave me as a present. We are copying, and batting it in finer cotton. I had got a little more thread in the shuttle, so I wanted to finish it. I rested. Read "The Lives of Bunce" a library book. 9:30. Before I had time to go down and bathe. J.M. came home, so I told him to wait. I went and bathed and dressed.

10. Second breakfast. Came upstairs, eat an orange. 11. Pegan working my crinoline, I took out to steets and covered them with some thick cloth, which J.M.K. gave me and then sewed a piece of the cloth, on the crinoline cloth, so as to prevent the rust from getting into the stuff, and spoiling it. 12. The Bengal Taylor came. I gave him my habit to alter. He had made the front of it so tight, that I had torn the cloth, and burst the hooks, on my way down the hill yesterday.

I bought some black silk braid at 5 a yds and also asked J.M.K. if I could get a role of that black velvet edged with white for 9/1. 1. 30. sang a little. 2. Diffin. 3. Received a letter from Mary, and some Hiltwah from Miss Palmer to J.M.K. worked. 4. rested. 5. Rec^d. letter from Miss Dickson, J.M.K. me from M^{de} Guillard. 6. 10. W^m Maggalheans came to see J.M.K. 6. out for a drive. 7. home. I went to jetty. J.M.K. to Pad days. 7. 30. dinner. 8. Music till 9. 15. Then wrote to Mary in answer to her letter. I got this afternoon. 10. Read the Bible, and went to bed.

October. 1867. Penang

 jutal. I read "The Clives of Burcot" till 7. Then I wrote my journal, made a copy of a letter to Miss Dixon Dickson. Took the lay out account, and gave our servant the orders for the day. Sent him out to buy a piece of Aprons, from the man who lives behind Mr. Palmer's house. 9. Received a letter from George from the Highlands. Uncle Joseph sent it to me with some Omrah's. Wrote two pairs of my stockings, as I had not to wear otherwise.

Rested, read again. 9:30.

bathed dressed. Had the boy upstairs, to sweep the rooms. 10. Second breakfast. J. N. K. brought home a beautiful quantity of water cress. He said, we had been invited to spend the evening at Mr. John Anthony's. After I had finished eating, I gave the soft Omrah's away,
 and only kept the good ones. Mr. W. Scott came to say, that if I was going out calling with Mr. King, Mr. W. Scott would be very glad to see me also to tiffin. He came afterwards at 11:30. to have us both stopped.

I was working in the outer room, at J.B.K.'s socks, patching the holes at the toes. 12:30. J.B.K. went to town to get some currants and cheese. He was unexpectedly detained there, so he made me write Nett W^o. W. Scott, not to wait tiffin for him. I worked, & played on the piano. 2:30. tiffin alone. Then I received a letter from Cary, and a bouquet from "all on the hill". She was feeling much better. After tiffin work at my crinoline. 4. Dressed. J.B.K. came home a little while after. I shut the shutters of my dressing room, as the sun was coming shining on my looking glass.

He said. W^o. Ayer Rajah and Betty were at tiffin at W. Scotts. 6. Harry took me to the jetty in his buggy. Met W^o. Hogan. D^o. Anderson &c. 7. home. Began answering Georgie's letter dinner. Came up finished writing. 8. Started for John Anthony's. There were the 2. Paddays, 2. Iairs. & all the Anthony family. we played at cards & different games. Flora & I laughed a great deal. We did not come home till near 1. after having dropped W^o. Michael an. at their house. I wrote to Miss Dickson today & sent specimen of my tatting

October. 1867. Penang.

Thursday Up at 6. J.N.K. walked to general Hospital. I read ~~or~~ book till 7. then I wrote my journal, took the 22 Up at 6. I was awoke by the ringing of our bell which we tie on the junkah rope. I thought I heard a little noise down below, so I asked what was the matter, and found that Aunty Phoebe, Annie and B^s, had walked here, and brought me some presents. The Orderly brought which gave which. There were 2 bottles of scent, a Maltese lace collar, and a tatted collar. A little while afterwards, I received a letter from Uncle Joseph with $5. and from Miss Palmer and the Highlanders, with a present of a dozen Lisbon.

I read till 7. Then wrote my journal. Took the bazaar account. I waited till 8. Thinking Mamma would be here, then I would be able to ask her whom the different parcels came from. But as she did not make her appearance I wrote and excused my self to them and thanked Aunty for the lace, and Phoebe for the tatted collars, and Annie and B^s, for the scent. Then I told our boy to tell the Bengal Sailor to come here at 10:30

Nov 22.

I had no evening dress to go to Gungar in, so I unpicked a piece of lace which had been sewn of my pink spotted tartan dress, as I did not like it. I had a berth sent up with the dress, but it was thought to be too large for me, but I ran it on in place of the lace, to let J.N.K. look at it. At 8.30. what was my surprise, when I heard the Bengal Sailor had come. I asked him why he came so early, and he said he was told, I wanted him directly. But as far as I could I explained it to him, and he said he would come at 10.30.

9. rested. 9:15. bathed. dressed. Henry came here, and told me Millie's baby had been christened. 10. Uncle Lawrence, and Joseph, and Mamma, came to wish me happy returns of the day. Uncle L. gave me $15. Mamma a common seed bracelet mounted in silver. I began my breakfast alone. then J.N.K. came home. I finished it with him. I had invited some ladies to tiffin, so I came up and dressed. The Bengal Sailor came at 10.30.

J. W. K. explained to him all about the dress. Then the latted collar I had received, I could not work as my muslin yaribaldi, so I gave it to him to work.

Sun 29 Up at 5:30. dressed in my boating dress.
 Then went down stairs to an early breakfast
 of corned beef, toast, bread and butter tea, coffee and wine. 7. Mr. Plunket arrived in Captain Reid's boat, they were all laughing at the way he was steering.
 8:15. Mr. & Mrs. Robertson, Mr. Plunket, Captain Reid, and our two selves got into the former's boat, and Mrs. Robertson's children were all put in a Lundy boat, and in this order we started for the Jooro river.

On our way there, we stopped first to get some fish, we hailed two or three boats, and found they were just going a fishing, at last we found one, and bought 50 cents worth. The second time we stopped was for Mr. Robertson to shoot an Alligator, also Mr. Plunket, they managed to hit two between them. We were getting very thirsty, and wanted something to drink, so Mr. R.
 had the boat stopped again, and took out a bottle of brandy & some of ginger wine.

They were not opened, so he asked for a cork screw, and found the boy had forgotten to put one in, so they broke the necks of the bottles. We passed Mr. Bacon's landing place, and found some rocks with bysses on them, so we stopped to pick some off, and found them very good. Then we landed, and set about getting the breakfast ready. Making the sambals &c. We had forgotten to bring spoons too, so we eat with our fingers.

Captain Reid, and J. H. K. eat with two forks. Then we washed our hands after eating breakfast, rested, and got into the boat again, having sent the children off first. We arrived at 6:30. Mr. Plunkett left for town directly. We had a bath, then came down to dinner at 7:30. 8:30 we left Captain Reid kindly bringing us over in his boat. We three walked home. J. H. K. offered Capt. R. his paluki, but he had passed by at the moment, he said good night, and jumped into it. 10:30 bed.

Mary's Bay. I stayed at home, read, work, write 9:30. bathed, dressed. 10. M.K. came home, breakfast at 12. M.K. went to Haddo, to see they some furniture, that was going to be sold by auction today.
At 4:30. We went to Phoenix Bay, walked through some jungle, got a fine uncommon creaper, and also a Penang lizard. Came home a little after six. Just as I got up to the house, I saw Mrs. Man coming, so I had to go down again to meet. She did not stay very long, only came sat outside our house, but did not enter it.

20/8/60 Up at 6. M.K. went to Hope Town & Mount Heriot.
at the latter place he saw a someone that had been in the hospital in Penang under him. He came home to breakfast at 10. And said I could not possibly walk up, as it was very steep. In the afternoon we had a splendid sail, all by Mary's Bay, & quite round
Viper. We met Mr. Kandal, Capt Church, Capt
Grove & 2 or 3 other Officers. We were enabled to sail till the way home. Dr. Watts & Mr. Wane Jnd, called while we were out

Wed 16 Up at 8. J.M.K. went to meet Colonel Man, he had come to see the hospital. His son Arthur - accompanied him. They neither of them came up. Our boat was sent at 12. to "Cross Island" and some $2,500 that J.M.K. wanted to send to Peruay. As it came back, J.M.K. would not believe it was our boat. And said there was only one of our men in it. I told him they were all there. So he went down to meet the boat, & found what I said was true, that they had a new sail.

Thurs 17 Up at 8. Colonel Man & his son Arthur called to take J.M.K. to Haddo. They did not come up to the house. I stayed at home. read. worked. wrote. 9:30. bathed. dressed. 10. J.M.K. came home second breakfast. 3:30. went to Haddo to pick up shells. As we were coming away. Mr. Warford & Mr. Mossyne came. They said they had called at the house for us, but found we had already come here. They told us to go on to "Black Reef" and they would meet us again. Capt. Chum & Ensign Banks also came. Capt. C. cut his feet by a rock. We got a few shells, & went up close to Capt. C's boat & he jumped in ours to see them.

September. 1860. Charleston

My at 8. Mr. went to meet Robert from, he had come to see the hospital. His son Nathan accompanying him. They neither of them came up. Our first was sent off at 12. A "Horse Stealer" another horse that Mr. wanted to send to Pennyl came back, Mr. would not believe it was our first. And said there was only one of our first in. I told him they were all there. As he went to meet the first, I found what I said was true,
 that they had a new one.

Thursday

My at 1. Peter from this son Nathan called to take first to Stada. They did not come up to the house. I stayed at home. Had worked note. 9:30. Ratched. dressed. 10. Mr. came in second nearly at 3:30. went to Stada to pick up shells. No one was coming away. Mr. from first this morning came. They said they had called at the house for us, but found we had already come here. They told us to go on to "the shed" and they would meet us again. Left them at margin Frank also came. Left I and his good to treat the jumped an order to see them.
