Front view of Itsukushima Jinsha and "Torii."

Itsukushima.

Itsukushima or Miyajima, a small island about 14 miles in circumference having 3580 registered population, stands in the Sea of Saiki-gun, Aki prefecture, and for its beautiful scenery it is regarded from olden times as one of the three chief sight of Japan. It is rather impossible to picture the whole charming views in this small pamphlet, but by the naked sight only. This, therefore, is intended, the few picture herein contained may be only a help to add some interests to one's friends or family for talking about his pleasant trip, or to be a memoir to recollect his joyful impression. This island being a part of fortification, to take the picture of those beautiful landscapes of Mt. Miyama, or the pretty spots of the other side the island is strictly prohibited. So it is hoped to witness them in person.

此島は安藝國佐伯郡の海中にある周圍七里餘人口僅かに三千五六百人有する小さい島で俗に宮島とも云ひます。が山水の景色寛によろしく四時の眺望實に比類のない所です。から古から日本三景の一として世界に其の名を知らぬ年中遊覧の客引きも切らぬ有様です。其天然の美景は身自ら其實景に接して直寫する外にはとても之の小冊子で其全幅を寫し出す事は出来ませんが遠國への話の種となり且つは此地に遊んだ時の愉快なる記憶を思ひ出す便にと只々最も名のある數ヶ所を顯はした譯です。現今之の島は要塞地帶に屬するので彌山の奇勝絶景、島廻の幽邃明媚等總て之を寫眞にする事を禁せられてあります。故之等は宜敷其境に臨んで其の壯觀を味はれん事を希望致します。

Great Torii.

Stands in the sea about 88 ken distance from the Sitazaki-45 feet high and 75 feet across the top and all are made of camphor woods. The date of the erection of first Torii is uncertain but according to the tradition it is thought that must be 1300 years ago atleast. The one now standing was erected in 1875, and the characters on the tablet were written by H. I. H. The late prince Arisugawa.

Mikasa Hama.

This is the name of the beach inclosing the shore of the Main Shrine. About the year 593 A. D. in the reign of the Empress Suiko, when the three goddesses first appeared in this place, a man offered "Kasa" to them, after that this beach is called Mikasa-no-Hama. This place is noted for snow view.

Mōri Teru-moto-no Tōrō.

108 iron lanterns affixed at a distance of one ken apart through the corridor, were presented by Mōri Teru-moto.

The illumination of the lanterns is famous as one of those eight sights of the island.

Kagami-no-Ike.

On the side of the Maro-do Jinsha there is one of the mirror ponds. It is said that about 1300 years ago they sprang up in the night that the three goddesses first descended to the island, since that time they have never grown either deeper or shallower. Although the salt water enters them when tide is in, when it goes out the waters is always fresh and cool.

Museum.

This place formerly was called Morning Room but now herein a part of treasures belong to the shrine are arranged to show for a very small fee.

鏡の池
廻廊に沿へる三箇の圓形の池を鏡の池と申します。これは推古天皇の元年十一月十二日嚴島明神此御社に御鎮坐になりました其晩に自ら出来ました池であります。昔より今日迄淺くも深くもならず潮が退けば鹽氣のない水となります。此の鏡の池の秋月は亦嚴島八景の一であります。

Sotoba Ishi and Yasuyori-no-Toro.

Sotoba Ishi.

It has very peculiar history. About 730 years ago Yasuyori, a noble man, was exiled to the Kikai-gashima with Shunkan, where, longing his mother, he wrote two odes on a thousand Sotoba and send them adrift over the sea. One of them was driven on this stone. After that this name is given to the stone.

Yasuyori-no-Toro.

By chance the Sotoba reached here his mother was much pleased with the tidings and the Emperor, moved by his filial piety, pardoned him. After he returned to his old home presented this lantern as a sign of gratitude.

Daikoku and Tenjin Shrines near Nōbutai.

Daikoku.

Close by the long bridge is another secondary shrine dedicated to one of the oldest and greatest shinto gods, Okuninushi-no-Kami, just beyond this is another, here the famous Tenjin or Sugawara Michizane, god of writing, is worshiped as diety.

No Butai.

This was erected by Kanze Tayū, the famous operatic singer. About 300 years ago Ichiki Shima Hime-no-Mikoto appeared to a man named Ko-no-Yoshi-masa in the dream and from that incidence he became a master hand of the Sacred dance. At certain festival where the Sacred dances with operatic songs are held on, close by is the relic of temporary palace of Emperor Takakura, where, about 720 years ago, he had stayed thrice when he visited the island.

One Thousand mat Room.

This large structure, 170 feet long, 100 feet wide, was built about 310 years ago by Hideyoshi as a sign of gratitude after his Corean campaign.

It is said that he built a ship called "Ataka Matu" from the wood of a single camphor tree and then used only the remainder of it to build this huge hall.

Inside the Hall.

In the shrine inside the room once the statue of Buddha was worshiped but at present the spirit of Hideyoshi is worshiped in there as diely.

The immense number of the rice paddles are fastened about the hall. They were first hang up by the soldiers going to the China Japan war as a token that they should "Meshitoru" or conquer china, but now it has become the custom for almost every person who visit the island to follow suit in commemoration.

島廻り

本島を廻り七浦の風光に接する之また大快事ですが今之を畫として示す事の出來ないは甚だ殘念ですが之は是非實地に其眞境に遊んで特殊の奇勝を搜られん事を望みます。

先づ機橋より東に向ふて進み一二箇の蓬萊岩の海面に聳へて居る聖崎より五六丁の杉浦には島廻り第一の參拜所底津少童命を祀れる杉浦神社あり陶を襲ふ時、毛利氏の上陸せし包か浦には鹽土翁を祀る包か浦神社あり夫より島廻り第二の參拜所底筒男命を祀れる鷹の巣神社、第三の參拜所中津少童命を祀れる腰細浦神社より青海苦浦に進み此處に第四の拜所なかつらの名残を祀れる山白神社より本島の南中筒男命を祭れる青海苦神社を拜し青海苦川の溪流を廻りて陶氏の最後の名残を留めたる高安が原を見、養父崎にて御鴉の靈を祀れる養父崎神社、山白濱にて第五の拜所表津少童命を祀れる山白神社より本島の南岬革籠崎に絶壁の上の早咲の櫻を見、須屋浦にて第六の拜所表筒男命を祀れる須屋浦神社に詣で御床浦に進めば第七の拜所市杵島姫命を祭れる御床神社あり夫れより内侍有子といへるが治承の昔大納言實定卿に分れる時見送りに來りて其上に名残を惜みたりといふ内侍岩の海中に凸出づるを見て遂に之の網の浦に達し大元浦を經て大華表の下を通り茲に本島を一周す其妙景絶勝中々筆にも言葉にも盡す事は出来ません

島廻りの本式には神官樂を奏し鳥喰式の執行あり之は旅館に就て悉く其手續を聞かれなば分るべし
