GENOA ECONOMIC CONFERENCE FORMALY OPENED

Business Men Fail to Hold Up Board's Closed Sunday Plan

Mayor and Staneland Unmoved By Strong Representations of Big Businessmen's Delegation; Backed By Clergy, Commissioners Insist on Sabbath Observance.

Victoria business men attempted and failed to persuade the City Police Commission, at a two-hour conference this morning, to seek the opinion of the voters of Victoria before going ahead with its plan strictly to enforce the Lord's Day Act and so inaugurate real closed Sundays here.

Backed by a delegation from the Ministerial Association, Mayor Marchant, chairman of the Police Commission, declared at the close of the conference that Sunday closing was not as injurious to business as Wednesday and Saturday afternoon closing; that failure to enforce the Lord's Day Act would tend to breed a dangerous disregard for law enforcement generally, and that the citizens of Victoria primarily, and not tourists, must be considered by the Commission in administering the statute.

"Where do we go from here?" H. S. Stevenson, president of the Retail Merchants' Association, who headed the businessmen's delegation, asked the Mayor after he had made it clear that he had not altered his determination to enforce the Lord's Day Act. No answer was forthcoming to this question, but the delegation went away with the settled conviction that Sunday closing would become operative, as he provided Attorney-General Manson allowed the Police Commission to prosecute owners who keep their stores open on the Sabbath.

The Mayor opened the conference in his office to-day with the assurance that the Police Commission realized the limitations of the Lord's Day Act but felt that labor laws were to change there. But as we wished to be guided by the Golden Rule and to act for the best interests of the people at large we have called this meeting to confer with the people interested.

Effect on Taxation. Joseph Bridgman, representing interests which own business buildings asked the Commissioners to explain exactly what they had in mind in connection with Sunday closing. He explained that a delegation of businessmen had told a delegation of businessmen that he had not been asked by the Police Commission to close up all stores on Sunday. Thus there had been some confusion surrounding the whole question.

Would Not Harm "Intellect." When C. T. Cross, representing the Liberty League, asked the Mayor to instruct the police to interfere with the closing of stores operating contrary to the Lord's Day Act and to see that the names of all stores that are violating the Act are taken down.

CAPT. TROUP BACK FROM ORIENT TOUR

Traveled Seventeen Thousand Miles in Far East

After traveling seventeen thousand miles on a pleasure tour which extended to the Dutch East Indies and the great hinterland of China, Capt. J. W. Troup, manager of the British Columbia Coast Steamship Service, returned to the city accompanied by Mrs. Troup last evening on board the liner Empress of Asia.

It was the first real holiday that Capt. Troup has taken in many years, and he returned greatly benefited by the trip. Capt. and Mrs. Troup left Victoria on January 5 last, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Butchart, by the liner Empress of Russia. The itinerary was a most interesting one.

From Yokohama the party continued on the Empress of Russia, touching at Kobe and passing through the picturesque Inland Sea of Japan, and on to Woonsoing and Manila. From Manila the party sailed for Hongkong and arrived at the Chinese port the day after the settlement of the seamen's strike. At Hongkong the party took passage by a peninsular and Oriental boat to Singapore, and from the Straits Settlements port to Batavia, Java.

A motor tour was taken through the same route to Singapore and Hongkong, and the party returned to the State from the latter port to Shanghai. Here Captain and Mrs. Troup parted company with Mr. and Mrs. Butchart, the latter proceeding to Hankow and later to India.

From Shanghai, Captain and Mrs. Troup proceeded by rail to Peking, crossing the Yang-Tse Kiang at Nanking. After looking over the Chinese capital they passed through Manchuria via Mukden, and through Chongchun to Fusan, where they crossed the Korean Strait to Shimonsu, Japan, continuing by rail to Tokyo and Yokohama, where they boarded the Empress of Asia.

Shipping Activity. Capt. Troup, being a shipping man, was greatly impressed with the tremendous shipping activity at the larger ports of the Orient. This was noticeable, he says, not only at Yokohama, Kobe, Manila and Hongkong, but also at Singapore and Batavia. Singapore, located at the crossroads of the Far East, is an exceedingly busy port, with steamship routes branching out to every point of the compass.

Gay Singapore. Everybody in Singapore believes in enjoying themselves to the full. The estimation of Capt. Troup, Singapore is the gayest city in the Far East, where the night life compares with the capitals of Europe. Automobiles have ousted the jinrikishas as the most popular method of conveyance in the Far East. The automobile is just as numerous on the streets of Yokohama, Hongkong, Manila, Singapore and Batavia as in the larger cities of the United States.

Strike Effective. Arriving at Hongkong simultaneously with the settlement of the strike, Capt. Troup was in a position on his return here to give an idea of the completeness of the strike. The Chinese guilds have organized labor as Canadians know it backed off the map when it comes to the turning point comes.

Signs of Improvement. Capt. Troup says complaints of business depression were general in the Orient, but there are indications that business recovery will be rapid with the turning point comes. In fact that large number of modern business blocks of steel and concrete are being built at Yokohama, Kobe and other points, is an indication of better times in the East, Capt. Troup says.

PRIVATE MEMBERS' DAY AT OTTAWA; RESOLUTIONS

Ottawa, April 10.—In the Commons this afternoon it is expected that private members' resolutions, of which there are several standing on the Order Paper, will be dealt with, and Tuesday will, in all probability, be devoted to estimates.

The Cabinet met twice on Saturday, but no announcement was available as to what took place at the meetings. It is believed, however, that attention is now being given to the railway statement of Hon. W. C. Kennedy, which is expected to be placed before the House shortly after the Easter recess. There has been a suggestion, in fact, that it might be placed before the recess in order that the members have the several days of their holiday to delve into the facts and figures it contains.

Guy Manners, Accepted Here as Aristocrat and Poet, Jailed as Impostor

Eccentric "Genius," Favorite of Victoria and Seattle Drawing Rooms, Held In New Orleans For Using United States Mails to Secure Money Fraudulently From Pretty Stenographer Whom He Wooed Here.

Guy Manners, who was accepted in Victoria two years ago as an author, poet and traveler of note, and in Seattle as a member of the British nobility, was arrested in New Orleans late Saturday on a charge filed by Seattle post office inspectors, alleging fraudulent use of the mails to obtain money. The charge against Manners is that, after winning the affections of Miss Nettie Hammond, a stenographer, of Seattle, while she was in Victoria in the Fall of 1919, he persuaded her family to invest savings in southern oil propositions, using the U. S. mails for fraudulent purposes.

To Discuss International Outlook at Forum

"The International Outlook" will be the subject of the address which will be given by Professor Alfred Zimmermann at the open meeting of the Member's Forum of the Chamber of Commerce to be held in the auditorium at 8 o'clock to-morrow evening.

Professor Zimmermann is a recognized authority on international politics and economic problems and a distinguished classical author. He was a British representative at the Geneva and Washington conferences, and his lecture will afford an unusual opportunity to hear an intellectual and instructive discourse.

Professor Zimmermann was born in Surbiton, near London, England, in 1873, and was educated at Winchester, and New College, Oxford. He commenced his career as a lecturer at New College, and was a Fellow there for three years. In 1907 and 1908 he was a member of the committee on Oxford and Working Class Education, and then became a staff inspector of the British Board of Education. That office lasted from 1912 to 1915, when Mr. Zimmermann began to devote himself to international affairs. In 1915 and 1916 he was attached to the political intelligence department of the Foreign Office, and in the latter year became Wilson Professor of International Politics at the University College of Wales at Aberystwyth.

He is the author of books on Harry Grattan, Latin and Greek words and translations and Wartime Essays. Mrs. Zimmermann, who is visiting Victoria with the professor, is a daughter of Pasteur H. Hirsch, of Poissy, France.

MOTOR CRASH ON ISLAND HIGHWAY

Occupants of a Small Car Pitched on Bank Had Marvellous Escape from Death

Patrick Courtney, chauffeur of the Vernon Auto-Store, for whom a warrant was issued early this morning in connection with the Island Highway accident, is being sought by the Provincial and City Police, who have the matter in hand. The warrant charges him with failure to give his name and address to the occupants of the Ford car, under the Motor Regulation Act.

Traveling at a terrific rate of speed along the Island Highway at Colwood, just as darkness was falling last evening, a large Studebaker car crashed into the rear end of a Ford carrying six people, threw the latter a distance of seventy-five feet, up an embankment and into a telephone pole, which fell to the ground.

Nothing short of a miracle saved the occupants of the Ford car, all of whom are suffering from bruises and shock. The Studebaker car following the impact wavered at the embankment, but the driver quickly righted it and drove away at high speed toward the city. It is alleged he made no endeavor to find out whether any of those involved in the accident had been killed or injured.

The Ford's Occupants. Mr. and Mrs. C. Bosustow, of 914 Hillside Avenue, with their youngest daughter, and Mr. and Mrs. J. Fulton, were driving along in their car just at the turn in the highway by the Colwood Hotel. With Mrs. Fulton, who is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bosustow, was her eighteen months' old baby.

Without warning, the oncoming Studebaker crashed into them from the rear. To make matters worse the hood of the Ford collapsed, and falling about the occupants of the car made it impossible to see or know what was happening. Their car was shot through space. Almost immediately following the first impact between the two cars, a second collision followed when the car smashed into the telephone pole.

There was considerable traffic on the highway at the time, and a crowd soon gathered. Chris Wenger, the local jeweler, took charge of the wrecked party, and they were brought into the city by him.

Clues Discovered. The Provincial and City Police immediately set to work to capture the driver, but he apparently took some roundabout way, and succeeded in getting his car in a garage without being discovered. At the scene of the collision, however, a large and heavy running board which had been torn from his car, together with other identification parts were picked up by the police.

At 5:50 o'clock this morning Motor Cycle Constable Allen found a 1920 Studebaker car, license No. 12576, with the running board missing, and showing other signs of severe injury in the garage of Jameson, Willis, Limited, on Broughton Street, where Patrick Courtney, the owner, had storage privileges.

Nations' Delegates Start Their Task at the Genoa Meeting

Opening Speech Made By Premier of Italy; General Peace and Confidence Between the States Are Chief Objects, Says Lloyd George.

Genoa, April 10.—The Genoa Economic Conference was formally opened this afternoon in the historic Palace of St. George by Premier Facta of Italy.

Premier Lloyd George, discussing the Genoa Conference yesterday, according to a Genoa dispatch, said: "I am glad to be here on the eve of the conference which I obstinately sought while others vainly tried to wreck it. With the same obstinacy I will work for the success of the conference, of which I am fully confident. I had originally planned to stay here one week, but now I think I shall remain a fortnight, even longer if necessary, the task before us being of capital importance, namely, to re-establish good international relations and restore economic conditions in all states.

"On one point I am sure all the delegations are in accord, and that is to reach agreements which will prevent renewal of international conflicts, thus establishing general peace and reciprocal confidence between the states on a basis of economic prosperity."

The British Prime Minister and his family are temporarily situated in the Villa de Albertis at Albaro, four miles from Genoa. A dispatch from Genoa last night said: "The preliminary moves on the European chess board to which the day before the opening of the Economic Conference was largely devoted plainly showed all nations, great and small, courting Russia, though they wished to appear not over-eager in their courtship. Therefore, the Russians seemed to hold a position of distinct advantage, all depending on how they manipulated their pawns in their project to be admitted to the round of conferences since the Versailles Peace Conference."

Representatives of thirty-five states were prepared to take steps which were hoped would lead to the economic reconstruction of Europe, the conference particularly to be concerned with plans for rebuilding Central Europe and rehabilitating Russia, which was admitted by many delegates to be a subject of supreme importance by itself, perhaps the most far-reaching question which the congress will be called on to solve.

The Ambassador from the United States, Richard Washburn Childs, was to take his seat to-day in a section reserved for eminent guests. He will attend all the open meetings, but will not be present at any conference of committee at which the actual important work of the conference will be done.

Old Building. Formal opening of the sessions was to take place at 3 o'clock this afternoon in the historic Palace of St. George. This picturesque structure built in 1293 by Paolo Oliviero, and was the first official residence of the captains of the people, then the seat of the celebrated Company and Bank of St. George.

Crowds Here. Great throngs on Palm Sunday visited this scene of to-day conference and found scores of assistants engaged in carrying plants and flowers to relieve the somewhat austere and lonely aspect of the auditorium. Thousands of interested Genoese gathered along the waterfront seeking advantageous positions from which to observe foreign diplomats and distinguished statesmen on their arrival. In the Bay of Genoa itself screeches of small tugboats and more impressive and deep-throated whistles of more important vessels seemed to breathe life into the modern commercial city of Genoa, whose vessels sail to markets on all the seven seas.

The Delegations. A list of the nations and states represented with the size of their delegations follows: Canada, 2; South Africa, 4; Albania, 4; Austria, 14; Austria, 8; Belgium, 14; Bulgaria, 15; Czechoslovakia, 30; Denmark, 10; Estonia, 25; Finland, 7; France, 80; Great Britain, 25; Germany, 40; Greece, 22; Ireland, 6; Italy, 40; Latvia, 6; Lithuania, 7; Luxembourg, 4; Norway, 8; New Zealand, 16; Holland, 16; Poland, 40; Portugal, 9; Roumania, 22; Russia, 12; Jugoslavia, 12; San Marino, 16; Spain, 16; Sweden, 10; Switzerland, 8; and Hungary, 7.

Premier Lloyd George of Great Britain, who was the chief moving force behind the call for the conference, emphasized on the eve of the gathering the vital necessity there was for Europe and the world to grapple earnestly with the problems confronting the conference. While declining to make a prediction as to what would be accomplished, he declared:

"One thing is certain—we have come here to work with all energy and earnestness and not to waste time in amusement. I am sure the delegations are in accord on one point and that is to reach an agreement which will prevent renewal of international conflicts, thus re-establishing general peace and reciprocal confidence between the states on a basis of economic prosperity."

Ready To Help. As for the French delegation, it was declared in its behalf it had

DRYDOCK PARTY TO LEAVE THURSDAY

Notice Is Given to Directors' Meeting To-day

Henry C. Hall, one of the delegations to go to Ottawa to wait on the Government to press the claims of the Esquimalt Drydock upon the Dominion Treasury, informed the Directors of the Chamber of Commerce to-day that the delegation will leave on Thursday next, in order to approach the Government immediately after the Easter recess.

Canadian Products.
Dr. S. F. Tolmie, M. P., supplied from Ottawa a mass of information regarding the Russian "Save the Children" Fund, the central fact being that no contributions from Canada save in the form of goods. This was in reply to inquiries made by the Chamber, on rumors that cash from Canada was used to purchase supplies of American origin in New York.

Another fact emphasized is that plans are in hand for free transportation of these supplies from Canada, though hitherto freight has been paid.

Coal Complaint.
The importation of Japanese coal for use of C. G. M. steamers having been protested against, the Directors have no objection to a petition with Island coal was planned by the incident complained of.

George McGregg, who is dissatisfied, alleging that a specific shipload had been brought in and later used for bunkering other Government ships.

J. L. Beckwith suggested that the coal in question may have been brought over as ballast, and the explanation of the merchant marine was accepted.

Drydock First.
The Montreal Chamber of Commerce asked support for the proposal that Canada operate an exhibition train in France, but J. O. Cameron protested that, while the Government was cutting down such expenses, the Chamber of Commerce should not be asked to support such a scheme, with Mr. Cameron registering disapproval.

A committee was authorized to aid in every way the Sayward Valley residents in their campaign for road extension, after President Beatty and Mr. Beckwith had told in a recent deputation to the Government, and conditions existing in the district.

Mr. Beckwith was enthusiastically in favor of support on grounds of good business for Victoria, while J. O. Cameron thought no good would accrue to the city by expending money on roads and bridges in the northern districts of the Island.

The Marchant Letter.
Mayor Marchant's letter urging support of preparatory taxes by citizens was read and the city and saving 6 per cent. interest, was spoken to by Alderman Todd as being practical and helpful.

J. O. Cameron heartily supported the proposal, which was endorsed unanimously.

Mr. Kingham's Condition.
The directors read with interest an optimistic letter from Joshua Kingham, who is under treatment at the Mayo Brothers Clinic at Rochester.

President Beatty stated that a telegram had since arrived telling of a successful operation.

Manson Gets Cut Rates For 1,500 B.C. Men to Take Prairie Farm Jobs

As a result of the efforts of the Hon. A. M. Manson, Attorney-General and Minister of Labor, fifteen hundred men in the coast cities of B. C. will secure work on prairie farms this month and will be able to make the trip from Vancouver on reduced rates.

The rate obtained by Mr. Manson is on the basis of $11 through to Calgary or Edmonton and one-half cent a mile from there to any part of Saskatchewan.

These cheap rate tickets will be available only between April 12 and 22.

Mr. Manson has secured from Saskatchewan an order for 1,500 British Columbia men, Alberta and Manitoba are now full up and do not need any help.

Mr. Manson explained to-day that if the men who go from here give satisfactory service they are assured steady work there throughout the summer and until the end of the harvest. Those who leave earliest will get the pick of the jobs.

The B. C. allotment of 1,500 will be divided between the coast cities on the basis of population.

George I. Warren Talks to Gyro Club on Publicity

"If we can only get the people to eat, sleep and talk Victoria, in the same way that they do down in Los Angeles, we will have no trouble getting the tourists to come here and to keep them here when we get them here," remarked George I. Warren, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce and publicity commissioner of the Victoria and Island Publicity Bureau, in the course of a talk at the Gyro Club luncheon to-day.

Mr. Warren said he regretted to state that present Victoria had not sufficient amusements to keep tourists here.

"It is discouraging to have tourists come to Victoria and on looking around find nothing to do, and leave town the next day," he stated.

He thought that a tourist camping site should be established at once in order to be ready for the many motorists who will visit Victoria this summer.

Mr. Warren also referred to the adverse publicity which the Capital was receiving in outside papers over the enforcement of the "Blue Sunday" laws.

Mr. Warren spoke strongly for the development of the tourist trade and remarked that if the people can be brought here the industries will follow.

Mr. Warren referred to the Anacortes-Sidney ferry which would start operating on Wednesday morning. The fare would be $1 a head. This, he explained, would be much cheaper than before.

He expressed the hope that Victorians would take more pride in their city and engage in a "clean-up" campaign.

Valhalla Jones delighted the Gyros with two splendid solos. Mr. Jones has a beautiful tenor voice and it is hoped that he will be heard more often in this city.

He expressed surprise at the three-minute speaker of the day, and he told of the ups and downs of the boot and shoe business.

DIED IN VANCOUVER

Fishery Inspector Was Known Throughout Cariboo Country

Vancouver, April 10.—In the death of David F. M. Perkins, of South Fort George, Fishery Inspector for Northern British Columbia, the Province has lost one of the Cariboo country. He was taken ill while in this city on business relative to his occupation, and died in St. Paul's Hospital yesterday morning at two o'clock.

His widow is a sister of Mr. Justice Murphy.

Coming to British Columbia from his home in Eastern Quebec about twenty-five years ago, he entered the Cariboo, and was a notary public, and for almost a score of years was identified with the province in his various capacities.

From 1909 to 1912 he was associated here with F. J. Gillespie in the Excelsior Life Insurance Company.

About five years ago he was appointed Fishery Inspector for Northern British Columbia under the Federal Department and occupying that position he was a resident of South Fort George. During his career in the interior he made countless friends from Ashcroft to Fort George, and his passing will be sincerely mourned.

The funeral will be held Tuesday morning at 9:45. There will be a service at the Holy Rosary Church.

SHOT HERSELF AT CHURCH SERVICE

Seattle Young Woman Died This Morning

Seattle, April 10.—Miss Bertha Brackett, twenty-five years old, choir singer, who shot herself during the service at the First Baptist Church here last night, died this morning.

A nervous breakdown, superinduced by fear of a recurrence of a mental trouble which afflicted her twelve years ago, was believed by members of the family to have caused Miss Brackett to commit suicide.

Miss Brackett was the daughter of Alfred H. Brackett, vice-president of a large dye works here.

The shooting came with dramatic suddenness just after the Rev. Ambrose M. Bailey, pastor, had concluded reading the lesson from the fifth chapter of John: "Verily, verily, I say unto you, the hour is coming, and now is, when the dead shall hear the voice of the Son of God; and they that hear shall live."

There was a muffled report in the choir loft, and Miss Brackett fell. She was carried to an anteroom and the pastor, believing her to be only slightly injured, continued the service.

"I'm all right; it was the thing to do," she told those who were assisting her.

Vancouver, April 10.—There will be no criminal assizes this Spring at Nanaimo, Prince Rupert, Prince George or Clinton, because of the fact that there are no cases to come before the court. There was one case at Nanaimo, the murder of Wong Sang, but it has been transferred to the assize court here.

A DENIAL.
Dublin, April 10.—A statement issued by the Irish "Waters" publicity department to-day contradicted the rumors, given form in an article in The London Daily Mail, that Eamonn de Valera had been deposed as leader of the republicans at a secret meeting of the "Irish Republican Army" in Dublin yesterday.

MUNICIPALITIES OPPOSING BILL

Measure Would Put B.C. Railway Under Commission

Canadian Union Is Heard at Ottawa

Montreal, April 10.—It was stated here last night by A. D. Shibley, secretary-treasurer of the Union of B. C. Municipalities, that that body was offering determined opposition to the proposed Bill regarding the Vancouver, Fraser Valley and Southern Railway Company, on the grounds that it would menace both Provincial and Municipal rights with regard to the control of many public utilities. To this end, said Mr. Shibley, a meeting had been called at Ottawa to-day under the direction of the Union, of representatives of the Municipalities opposing this measure, with the idea of concentrating their forces to object to the proposed Bill.

"This bill," said Mr. Shibley, "will come before the Railway Committee of the House of Commons toward the end of this month, sponsored by H. H. Stevens, M. P. for Vancouver, although Vancouver city is opposed to the measure."

"If this bill is adopted it will have the effect of taking control of street railways, gas works and waterworks that are managed by this company's subsidiaries away from the municipality and province, and place them under control of the Railway Board at Ottawa."

INDICTMENTS OF COAL MEN IN U. S. MAY BE DROPPED

Indianapolis, Ind., April 10.—Attorney-General Daugherty, who arrived here from Washington to-day, announced, was declared authoritatively to be considering the dismissal of indictments pending here in Federal court, which some operators have declared make impossible any wage conference which would end the coal strike, which began April 1.

The Attorney-General's mission was kept a secret and he refused to state its purpose, declaring he could say nothing until "investigation of the purpose of my trip is complete and I am satisfied that any action is right."

TO EXAMINE NORTH ON HIS AFFIDAVIT

Interpleader Action by Sheriff Before Justice Gregory

Sheriff F. G. Richards' interpleader action to determine the ownership of the chattels in the residence of Commissioner North was the subject of argument in Supreme Court Chambers this morning before Mr. Justice Gregory, who stood the matter over in order that Frank Higgins, K. C., might have an opportunity to examine Police Commissioner North and Mrs. North on their affidavits. The time set for this is 11 o'clock on Wednesday morning.

Following the judgments against North in the damage actions brought by the Sicilianos, Macdonald, Higgins, and their solicitor, had the Sheriff entered into possession of the property which Mrs. North claims. Mr. Higgins claims that the consideration for which the property was made over to Mrs. North was only a nominal one, and that Mrs. North is really holding the property as trustee for Mr. North.

An affidavit by Detective Siciliano was filed claiming that in a conversation had with a George Mowat, an insurance agent, the latter had stated that North had told him that he, North, could not hold property in his own name while the detectives were after him and that if he had to pay Siciliano it would be only at the rate of $50 per month.

In answer to this Mr. Clearhue put in an affidavit from a John Mowat, insurance agent, who says there is no George Mowat engaged in insurance in the city; that the reference in Siciliano's affidavit is, no doubt, to himself, and that he does not belong to Siciliano and that he denies ever making any such statement to Siciliano.

Mr. Clearhue claims that there is positive fact evidence that the property belongs to Mrs. North and quoted authorities to show that the onus should be upon Siciliano to prove that the goods do not belong to Mrs. North and do belong to Mr. North.

His Lordship, addressing Mr. Clearhue, remarked: "I took it as sound as though the position you take is, I must give both sides a full opportunity to say what they have to say in the matter. I am not making any judgment to that effect at the present time, and I will grant Mr. Higgins' application to examine the parties on their affidavits."

SUCCESSFUL SALE AT GARDEN CITY

Success attended the efforts of the members of the Garden City Women's Institute on Saturday at the Easter Sale held in the hall at 1141 in aid of the building fund, $166 being realized. The beautifully decorated stalls proved extremely attractive to the buyers.

Mrs. Harrison, the President, introduced Mrs. S. F. Tolmie, who, after a few words of praise for work she had accomplished and of encouragement for the future declared the bazaar open. A beautiful bouquet of Spring flowers in the Institute colors, green and gold, was presented to Mrs. Tolmie by Fay Stansfield.

The candy stall, supervised by Mrs. V. L. Smith, was artistically decorated with Easter novelties and baskets of daffodils and did an excellent trade as did also the ice-cream, dispensed by Mrs. Munro, Mrs. Stansfield and Mrs. Fryatt, with the plain and fancy work stall, had some dainty and useful articles on display. The apron, handkerchief, and towel stall, with Mrs. Peetz as saleslady, was very well patronized. Mrs. Lawrence had a variety of goods for sale on the superfluous booth and the toy stall in charge of Mrs. Wardman and Miss Munro proved a "mecca" for the children as did the bran tub, presided over by Mrs. Savage.

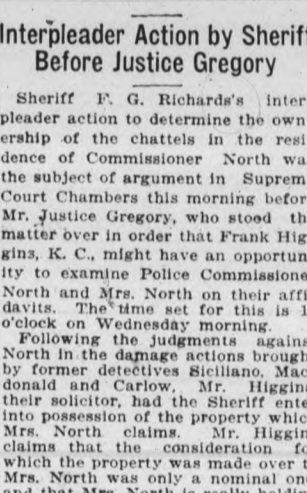

The home-cooking stall, under Mrs. Green and Mrs. Higgs, displayed appetizing home-cooked goods and dairy products. Mrs. Adams, Mrs. Wilkinson and Mrs. Chambers dispensed tea from prettily arranged tables. During the afternoon Mrs. Butterfield charmingly rendered two solos "Daybreak" and "In an Old Fashioned Garden."

The winners of the competitions were as follows:
Chocolates, Mrs. Drennan, whose guess was 14 1/2 ounces, the exact weight; beans, Mrs. Green's guess was 2.925, the correct number being 2.944; cake, the exact weight 2 lbs., Mrs. Roper and Mrs. French being the winners; eggs, exact weight 1-lb. 13-ozs., Mrs. Charlton won with a guess of 1-lb. 12-ozs. Doll—The exquisitely dressed, bridal doll generously donated by Mrs. Fowler of the Beehive, was in charge of Mrs. Reid. There was no correct guess of the doll's name, which was "Shirley." Mrs. Fowler is to be congratulated as to its disposal.

The Institute wishes to extend grateful thanks to the following firms who kindly donated various articles to the bazaar: Spencer's Ltd., Well-

TWO BISHOPS TO RECEIVE RESOLUTIONS

Religious Instruction Issue Is Raised

(Times Correspondence) Duncan, April 10.—A meeting of the 1st Cowichan Girl Guides' committee was held on Friday afternoon last at Queen Margaret's School, with the president, Mrs. Hayward, in the chair.

The building committee reported that J. C. E. Henslow had kindly furnished plans, that J. Somerville was giving his services as supervisor of the work, and that C. Stone was giving every assistance, and that the merchants of the city were supplying materials at cost. Through the generosity of these gentlemen it will be possible to finance the new hall, which will be 60 ft. by 40 ft. with the funds in hand. The club rooms has been a most urgent necessity for more than a year.

A piano has been given by a friend, who wishes to be anonymous. Arrangements were made for a sale of plants, needlework, cooked food and afternoon tea to be held in St. John's Hall on the 22nd inst., in aid of the club room fund.

Sea arrangements will be in the hands of Mrs. E. Stock and Mrs. K. E. Ruman, Mrs. Somerville; cooked food, Mrs. Castley and Mrs. Lamont; candy, a committee of girl guides; needlework, Mrs. Findlay and Mrs. Fletcher; plants, Mrs. W. M. Dwyer and Mrs. H. D. Morten. Mr. Somerville, who was present, explained what had been done, and the meeting adjourned to inspect the foundations which have been laid. Twenty of the girl guides will lay the floor, and a number of boys under Mr. Somerville will put up the framework, and do a good part of the shingling.

At a recent meeting of the Cowichan children's Aid Society a resolution strongly advocating religious instruction in the schools was passed. The resolution is being sent to other non-sectarian bodies to be endorsed by them, and to be forwarded to Bishops MacDonald and Schofield, of Victoria. It was the hope of the

MAN AWAITING CALIFORNIA TRIAL KILLS ACCOMPLICE

Los Angeles, April 10.—Herbert Wilson, formerly a minister of the Gospel in Oregon and London, Ontario, held in the county jail pending trial for the robbery of the mails here of nearly $1,000,000 on the night of March 2, 1921, shot and killed his alleged accomplice, Herbert R. Cox, just after officers had frustrated an attempted jail break late yesterday. Cox, Wilson and Eddie O'Brien, recently arrested here in connection with a mail robbery at Toledo, Ohio, more than a year ago, had made their escape from the jail proper and were on the "Bride of Sighs," a passage-way leading to the Hall of Justice, when Deputy Sheriffs closed in on them.

PAPER'S ATTACK CAUSES SURPRISE

Canadian in London Writes of G. T. R. Arbitration

London, April 10.—(Canadian Press Cable)—A letter signed "Canadian," appearing in The Daily Telegraph and the recent articles in a weekly review concerning the Grand Trunk arbitration award, declares the articles were written with something like primitive savagery and proceeds to point out that the matter is now pending before the Privy Council.

"It is nothing short of astounding," says the letter, "that any responsible journal should permit, not only comment, but a verbal onslaught of unbridled fury in connection with a case now sub-judice.

"If the offence does not savor of serious contempt of court, it is reprehensible as an apparent attempt to create an atmosphere hostile to Canada so as to influence the deliberations of the Judicial Committee."

The correspondent adds that the appeal will be heard in July, though he does not give his authority for such a statement.

ANNIVERSARY OF VIMY OBSERVED

Governor-General, Ministers and Others at Toronto Event

Toronto, April 10.—Eleven hundred guests, including the Governor-General, Hon. G. P. Graham, Minister of Militia, General Sir Arthur Currie and ten other Generals of the Canadian Army, representatives of the various branches of the corps, gathered here on Saturday to celebrate the first anniversary of the Battle of Vimy Ridge, which was fought April 9, 1917.

Only two speeches were delivered. Lord Byng, recalling the wonderful esprit de corps of the Canadians in that great battle, urged those present to get together in their efforts to "make this Dominion the finest in the world."

General Currie spoke of comradeship. "It stands for loyalty, friendship, working together, unselfishness and every ideal for which we fought," he said, "and we are going to play our part to make this land happier and more contented, we must carry over before us that ideal of comradeship. And that is the message which I am going to leave with you."

GIVES VIEWS ON CATTLE EMBARGO

London, April 10.—(Canadian Press Cable)—The Yorkshire Post, which circulates largely among the agricultural interests, discussing the forthcoming vote in the House of Commons on the question of the embargo against Canadian cattle, remarks that the possibility of slightly mitigating effect on the price of beef gives an opening for a popular agitation and will certainly affect the vote in the Commons, the membership of which is predominantly urban.

DO YOUR BOWELS MOVE REGULARLY, OR DO THEY BECOME CONSTIPATED

There is no medium through which disease so often attacks the system as by allowing the bowels to become constipated, and there is no other trouble which flesh is heir to that is more liable to be neglected, because material inconvenience may not be felt, at once, from irregular action of the bowels. When there is not regular action the retention of the decayed and effete matter, with its poisonous gases, soon poisons the whole system by being absorbed into it, causing violent sick and bilious headaches, internal bleeding or protruding piles, heartburn, jaundice, etc.

MORE PASSENGERS TO CANADA'S PORTS

Eastern Cities Profit at Expense of American Ports

St. John, N.B., April 10.—Sir Andrew McPhail of Montreal, and his three brothers, Colonel Alexander, of the Military College at Kingston, Ont.; W. M., an engineer of Winnipeg, and J. G., Commissioner of Lights of the Marine Department, Ottawa, arrived on board the steamship Melita from Liverpool yesterday.

Sir Andrew claimed that the service and general conduct of affairs aboard the liners running between the Old Country and Canada were attracting large numbers of people to these routes, rather than to the lines running between the Old Country and United States ports.

"Red tape" and officialism surrounding entry into United States ports, Sir Andrew said, was one reason for preferring Canadian ports.

KASLO LIBERALS ARE REORGANIZING

To Send Ten Delegates to Nelson Convention

Creston, B. C., April 10.—A reorganization meeting of the Kaslo Riding Liberal Association was held here on Saturday with a large and representative turnout of delegates from both the north and south ends of the riding. President Frank Abey presided. After the president's address had been adopted, the new officers were elected as follows: Honorary President, Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King; Vice-President, Hon. John Oliver; President, R. B. Staples; Treasurer, C. J. Macdonald; Executive, R. McGregor; Crawford Bay; E. H. Latham, Kaslo; P. Paulnam and S. A. Peers, Creston.

The selection of members of the advisory board will be looked after by the Associations at Kaslo and Creston, delegations from which will visit the more important polling subdivisions of the riding.

Of the ten delegates who will be seated from the Kaslo riding at the Provincial Convention in Nelson in June five each will be from the north and south ends, and immediately following the Nelson Convention it is likely a nomination convention will be held to select a standing bearer to replace the late John Keen, whose death occurred in February.

A resolution of condolence with Mrs. Keen was passed, with the removal of the one-cent-a-pound duty on lead re-entering Canada after being sent to United States smelters for treatment.

SOLDIER-POLICE CLASH IN QUEBEC

Intoxicated Soldier Arrested; Soldiers and Constables Hurt

Quebec, April 10.—(Canadian Press)—As a result of a clash between soldiers of the Royal 22nd Battalion and the city police here Saturday afternoon, six soldiers are confined to the military hospital and several policemen are confined to their homes nursing injuries. Eight soldiers were arrested. The brawl occurred at the corner of St. John and D'Youville Streets when a number of soldiers attacked Constables Smith and Camache, who were doing traffic duty. The police officers were badly used up and chased into a private building. Reinforcements soon arrived and a battle royal followed on Saturday night. Private Benoit of the Royal 22nd Regiment was arrested on a charge of drunkenness and this started the trouble.

WAS SENTENCED TO THREE YEARS

E. T. Hooley Imprisoned After London Fraud Trial

London, April 10.—(Canadian Press Cable)—Convicted of conspiring to defraud persons by inducing them to buy shares in the Jubilee Cotton Mills, Ernest T. Hooley, a well-known financier, was on Saturday sentenced in the central criminal court to three years' penal servitude after a trial lasting several weeks.

Five other defendants were charged with Hooley by conspiracy and two of them, ex-Mayor Fletcher of Derby and another were acquitted. Lord Agent Demery and Solicitor Willis were sentenced to twelve and ten months, respectively, for conspiracy. The presiding judge took under consideration the suggestion that Willis be struck off the rolls. Ex-Mayor Macdonald of Alkington, who was recommended for mercy, collapsed in the dock. He was bound over in the sum of £5,000.

Bankruptcy proceedings are still pending against Hooley, whose liabilities, following a recent meeting of creditors, were returned as £587,000, with assets of £25,000.

H. F. Dickens, K. C., son of the novelist, in the course of a three-day summing up of the evidence, said Hooley had never been a director of the company, and after this case certainly never would be. He added that Hooley had pulled the strings throughout.

FRENCH SOLDIERS KILLED BY MINE

More Than Twenty Lost Lives in Silesia

Kattowitz, Silesia, April 9.—More than twenty French soldiers were killed to-day, and a dozen wounded searching for hidden arms. A mine struck the detonating mechanism of a hidden mine. The explosion occurred in a cemetery between Gleiwitz and Sossinitz.

IRISH EXTREMISTS STOPPED A TRAIN; COLLINS NOT THERE

Dublin, April 10.—Train hold-ups and attempts to prevent pre-treaty meetings continued yesterday. The crew of a Dublin train on which Mr. Collins was supposed to be traveling to Wexford found rails had been taken up near Arlow. Armed men prevented a repair gang from replacing the rails. Mr. Collins had foiled his opponents by making the trip during the night.

The place where the rails were removed was on a bridge over the river Avoca. After they had been re-laid and the train had reached Ennisceary, armed men, who arrived in an automobile, kidnapped the engine driver so as to prevent the train reaching Wexford.

Strength

Strength of muscle does not indicate strength of nerves. On this account many people who look healthy enough suffer from nervous troubles and cannot understand what is ailing them. Sleeplessness and irritability are among the early symptoms. Indigestion and tired feelings soon follow.

Read this letter from an Ontario man:

Mr. W. L. Gregory, Charles St. E., Ingersoll, Ont., writes: "I had been troubled for quite a while with indigestion. At times there would be a twitching of the nerves of my stomach; and I also found it difficult to get a good night's sleep. I am a moulder, and owing to the nature of my work my system became run-down. I took a treatment of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and found great benefit from this medicine. They did me a great deal of good. I have not been bothered at all with indigestion since, and can sleep much better. I have recommended Dr. Chase's Nerve Food to many of my friends, as I think it splendid for anyone run-down and needing a tonic." Dublin, April 10.—The convention of that section of the "Irish Republican Army," which is opposed to the Free State authorities held in private in the Mansion House yesterday the adjourned session of the convention held a fortnight ago. It is reported the draft of a new constitution for the army and a resolution proposing a military dictatorship were discussed.

About 250 delegates from various parts of the country attended. A guard of young men in citizens' clothes, armed with revolvers, lined the approaches to the Mansion House.

TWO IRISH PARTIES APPEAL FOR FUNDS FOR THE ELECTION

Dublin, April 10.—Speaking with reference to a cable from Chicago, stating that the impression was spreading there that present conditions in Ireland were prompted by "Reds" and irresponsible persons, Eamonn de Valera said this was not the first time that Ireland and the Irish race had had to face the "misrepresentations and slanders of the British-controlled press."

"Standing on justice and on our rights, we bade that press defiance," he added, "and will do it again. Oh, ye of little faith, hold up your heads."

De Valera has issued an appeal for £50,000 for the purpose of running candidates in the forthcoming elections. The pro-treaty party also has issued an appeal for funds.

SIR P. MANSON DIED IN LONDON

London, April 10.—The death of Sir Patrick Manson in London on Saturday was announced by The London Times this morning. The Times referred to Sir Patrick as the father of tropical medicine and said the completion of the Panama Canal was made possible by the application by Major-General William C. Gorgas of Sir Patrick's discoveries.

DAM BROKE AND TWO LOST LIVES

Several Had Narrow Escapes at Parry Sound

Parry Sound, Ont., April 10.—Two lost their lives and several had narrow escapes from drowning when the dam at the Parry Sound Lumber Company's mill went out Sunday afternoon. Cecil N. Stalker, principal of the Victor School, and Donald Bruce, a boy of nine years, were washed away in the raging flood at the moment the frail barrier on which they were standing was burst by the force of the swollen river. Kathleen Bruce, the sister of the dead boy, leaped to safety as the dam went, while a boy named Fleming clung to a portion of the broken dam and was rescued.

IMMIGRANTS.

Sir Clifford Sifton, who as Minister of the Interior in the Laurier Cabinet had a great deal to do with the origin of the country's immigration policy which put Western Canada on the map between 1900 and 1910, recently gave an instructive address on Canada's chief need before the Toronto Board of Trade.

He pointed out that the best sources of supply for immigrants such as the Dominion requires are, first, the North of England and Scotland; second, the United States, and third the continent of Europe. Everybody is familiar with the qualifications of settlers from the first and second sources.

PROTECT OUR FORESTS.

An urgent plea has been made by all public bodies interested in forest and game protection to campers, fishermen, hunters and others having occasion to use the woods for recreation to join hands with the forest rangers of British Columbia this year in eliminating at least half of the enormous forest fire losses chargeable last summer to human agency.

ple precautions they would preserve this year hundreds of the finest and most beautiful camping spots in the Province and at the same time remove one of the chief sources of forest fires which are doing such enormous damage to an important source of employment in this Province.

HERTZOG IS ANNOYED.

It was not to be expected that General Hertzog would be pleased about the outcome of the recent strike and subsequent disorders in South Africa. Any incident which postpones the day when this part of the Empire shall sever itself from the British family altogether merely adds to the numerous disappointments which the Nationalist leader has been called upon to suffer during the last few years.

THE EMBARGO DEBATE.

As the day approaches when the British House of Commons will stage its "field day" for a discussion of the embargo on Canadian cattle public opinion is being roused by sections of the press. Several motions, both for and against, have already made their appearance on the Order Paper, and Mr. Winston Churchill has signified his intention of voting in favor of the removal.

THE RIGHT SPIRIT.

Whatever may be in the minds of other delegates to the Genoa Conference, whatever sinister motives may be locked up in the breasts of those who are hoping to use the gathering as an escape from obligations which must be met, there is no doubt about the frame of mind in which the British Prime Minister has gone to this important assembly. Here is his brief and simple statement for the world to read:

"I am glad to be here on the eve of the conference which I obstinately sought while others vainly tried to wreck it. With the same obstinacy I will work for the success of the conference, of which I am fully confident. I had originally planned to stay here one week, but now I think I will remain a fortnight even longer if necessary, the task before us being of capital importance, namely, to re-establish good international relations and restore economic conditions in all states. On one point I am sure all the delegations are in accord, that is to reach agreements which will prevent renewal of international conflicts, thus establishing general peace and reciprocal confidence between the states on a basis of economic prosperity."

FINDING MARKETS.

Although it is true that proximity gives the United States an advantage over this country in its bid for tropical trade the fact remains that our political relations with the British West Indies should be of service to Canadian enterprise and assist it to take advantage of markets that will grow from the gradual development of the rich resources of all those islands and shores of the Gulf of Mexico and the Caribbean Sea. No element of competition would enter into such an interchange of commodities as might be conducted for the reason that the products of tropical countries are vastly different from those of Canada. In other words there should be more business in Cuba, Mexico, Central America, Colombia, Venezuela, and Guiana as well as in the British possessions and the United States.

NOTE AND COMMENT

We are told that Canada's future lies West of the Great Lakes. Nature certainly did us a dirty trick when she pushed up the Rockies and established a "mountain scale."

Some day the people in Ireland who are responsible for the continual destruction of property are going to regret their folly. They seem to forget that they themselves will have to foot the bill for things that they are doing to-day under no other excuse than that of political conflict within their own ranks.

Mme. Galli-Curei is lucky. She has recovered the jewelry which press dispatches yesterday reported had been stolen from her in California. As far as we are aware this is the first time the diva has had the harrowing experience of having her jewelry stolen, but if artistic precedent is worth anything it will not be the last. Moreover, the recovery of the lost property also is quite true to ancient custom and tradition. Jewels stolen from queens of song always turn up, without a scratch. Ask Lillian Russell; she knows.

An Alberta Magistrate fined a liquor company $200 for selling a case of rye whiskey to a dry squad detective, and ordered the confiscation of the company's case of whiskey valued at $60,000. A Supreme Court judge quashed the conviction and his judgment was upheld in turn by the Court of Appeal of the Province and the Supreme Court of Canada. The Attorney-General then took the case to the Privy Council which has sustained the decision of the Police Magistrate. The Magistrate will be pardoned for throwing out his chest a little more than normal in view of the high vindication of his interpretation of the law against that of the highest court of his Province and the Dominion, while no doubt the liquor company will soulfully agree with those who think it high time that appeals to the Privy Council from Canada should be prohibited.

NO RELATION.

To the Editor:—I will be much obliged if you will spare me a little space in your paper. I have within the last few days been asked by one or two people, if I am the same gentleman who was caught the other day in an Oriental gambling den. To avoid further annoyance, I wish it to be publicly known that I am not the same Mr. Perry; neither am I related to him.

MORE OPTIMISM.

To the Editor:—The question might fairly be asked, of Victoria's daily newspapers, why not in dealing with municipal matters, occasionally expatiate upon the bright side, instead of so frequently, sowing pessimism broadcast? It is not to be wondered that, owing to the greatest war in history taking place at the time when Victoria was in the midst of the largest programme of public works in the city's history, Victoria is as nearly every other community in Western Canada, struggling with some serious problems. So much has been said about these troubles that everybody that reads the newspapers must have an idea of their seriousness and nature. On the other hand, notwithstanding the burdens of the foregoing, and equally true, there are numerous happy homes in this city, ranging from the humblest to the most pretentious, enjoying every municipal service given by any city upon the American continent—more than many cities give—and, during the past ten years, and now, it may safely be claimed, that the annual taxation upon these homes, is lower than that in any similar city in Canada or the United States.

So low are the taxes on many of these properties, that, concerning them, the foregoing statement could well be made if the annual taxes were doubled.

Why not, editorially write this up, and make the most of such a circumstance? There is much that could be said in a similar strain, concerning other matters. Victoria's problems are serious enough, but there are two sides to every subject. Over pessimism is certainly as foolish as excessive optimism. Indeed, perhaps, during this time of war and uncertainty, a moderate pessimism may be the worse of the two sins.

RE SINGLE TAX AND IMPROVEMENT TAX.

To the Editor:—In letters to your paper from Messrs. W. A. Jameson and W. G. Winterburn the former says: "The wealthy are relieved and the poor burthened. Even an honest assessor will almost assess the dwellings of the rich much less in proportion to their real value, than those of the poor means." This is a false premise. Consequently their conclusions are wrong. The following examples taken from the assessment roll prove this:

Table with 2 columns: Buildings, Land. Values ranging from $1,710 to $31,625.

Buildings are within $2,749 of being three times the value of the land. If anyone has a right to complain at the proposed change, it is the owner of excessively costly improvements not the residential owner of modest buildings. The above examples demonstrate that: "Single tax, when applied, to and spread over the combined value of the land and buildings of modest value, in comparison with land having more costly buildings, will be found to be paying a higher tax, varying in degree with the differences in the values of their respective buildings."

not Canadians, but aliens." He did not think that the laws of Canada should be violated to accommodate tourists who came here one day and left the next and asserted that Sunday closing would not interfere with the tourist business to any extent. "This city is for the citizens of Victoria," Mr. Staneland said. "We hope so!" Mr. Cross interrupted. "There is an intense feeling of pessimism abroad here to-day," Mr. Cross pointed out. "Any action that tends to increase it is fatal to the city's best interests. You have taken in vast quantities of property for failure to pay taxes and much more is just hanging in the balance. Now this Sunday closing is looked upon by a big majority of people, I believe, as a backward step that will injure the city financially. It may be the straw that will force this land into the City's hands. There has been no demand for a change in present conditions any way," Mr. Cross argued. "I don't know anywhere in British Columbia where the law is strictly enforced. The law was not enacted in answer to the question of British Columbia, but for the Lord's Day Alliance and Ontario the Lord. It was not an issue at the last election. The only issue then was, 'Shall North and Hall be endorsed?' They were endorsed and they had never attempted to enforce the law." "It is a question of principle as regards Mr. Staneland's policy," Commissioner Staneland interrupted. "There is no request from the citizens for the enforcement of this law." Mr. Cross proceeded and added that most cigar stores were operated here by returned soldiers who were working under disabilities. "An invidious distinction," John Cochran argued, "that the Lord's Day Act is actually a provincial statute in its effect, and aplication as it vested in the provincial Attorney-General the right to decide whether the law should be enforced or not. He held that the Attorney-General of British Columbia would be making an "invidious distinction" if he allowed the Act to be enforced here if it were not enforced in Vancouver. The drug store owner of the City, said Mr. Cochran, would observe the law however it was enforced, he emphasized. J. D. O'Connell objected to the closing of stores in Victoria when similar establishments were open on Sundays just outside the City boundaries. He suggested that the Police Commission before going ahead with its Sunday plans should secure a provincial amendment to the Lord's Day Act, covering the local situation, and ask the people for a mandate on the whole question at the next civic election all over the Province. He said it was inconsistent to spend money to bring tourists here and then do away with facilities which insured their comfort. B. O. Taylor, representing the Great War Veterans' Association, recalled that Sir Robert Borden had said to the soldiers at the front, "Go to it boys, the country will be yours when you get back." The returned men had not found this promised land on their return, Mr. Taylor said, and urged that returned men operating stores which now remained open on Sundays should be given every opportunity to make a living. "You have said many times in the City Council, Mr. Mayor, that you did not like to embark on new projects without the consent and approval of the electors," said Mr. Stevenson. "Let you do not know the opinion of the people on this matter. Why not wait until you can get legislation passed in October and then put the whole thing before the electors in December?"

Lord's Day Alliance Case. The delegation of clergy representing the Ministerial Association, who listened to this argument in silence, was then given an opportunity to present its side of the case. Introduced by Rev. William Stevenson, President of the Association, Rev. Dr. Sippell, President of the Lord's Day Alliance here, declared that the welfare of Victoria was not necessarily circumscribed by its financial interests.

The Ministerial Association, he added, was thoroughly in accord with the efforts of the Police Commission in connection with Sunday closing. Whatever action the Commission took in connection with Sunday closing, he asserted, the congregations of city churches would not be affected. To take a plebiscite on the question, he argued, would be to regard Federal legislation as a kind of joke. "You might as well take a plebiscite on the question of whether it is right to convict a man for a crime," he affirmed. "It would be ultra vires."

The Mayor, referring to the Municipal Act, said he doubted that the City Council had the power to submit a by-law on the Sunday closing question. Dominion Wide. Rev. Dr. Leslie Clay said he would not be drawn into a controversy, although the statements of some of the business men tempted him sorely to do so. The Lord's Day Act, he said, was a Federal statute in force all over Canada although it was nowhere properly observed. The enforcement of the Act was not left to the discretion of the Provincial Attorney-General, he explained. The Attorney-General was merely given power to block prosecutions under acts which were passed in violation of the Lord's Day Act. "The discussion to-day would have been more in order before a committee of Parliament when the Act was under consideration—it is out of order now," he asserted.

Rev. William C. Frank declared that the clergy were not "kill joys," as many people thought. They merely wanted a sane enforcement of the law and a sane observance of the Sabbath. A tremendous sentiment all over Canada, he said, favored proper Sabbath observance. Says Should Not Discredit Act. Rev. Robert Connell, representing the Bishop of Vancouver Island, said that the statement that the Lord's Day Act was a provincial matter was misleading. It was purely a Federal statute, he said. While the enforcement of the law might prove a hardship to a few people at first it was dangerous, he warned, to tamper with law enforcement. Opponents of the Act should attempt to have it repealed instead of trying to discredit it in a local area, he affirmed. "We don't want a Blue Sunday but a White Man's Sunday," Rev. Mr. Stevenson explained. "We want a fest case on this matter brought before the courts. We want a day's rest for everyone possible assured. We are absolutely disinterested from a religious point of view."

Mayor's View. Then the Mayor made it clear that he had not been dissuaded from his former Sunday closing ideas by the representations of the businessmen's delegation. While it was true that Sunday closing was not an issue at his election last December still everyone knew that he personally had been associated with the highest moral life of the community, he stated. He argued that Sunday closing would not be as injurious to business as Wednesday and Saturday afternoon closing and asserted that adjoining municipalities would soon follow Victoria's Sunday closing policies. To introduce a lax idea of law enforcement might tend to bring law enforcement generally into contempt and feared. As for the Council's tourist grant, he would never favor it if its purpose were simply to bring transient tourists here and run the City to suit them. This, he said, was not the purpose of the grant at all. Says Action Misunderstood. Chief of Police Fry this morning stated that he personally had taken no action towards listing of stores open yesterday in defiance of the Police Commissioners' edict, and that he was not prepared to give out particulars of the work on this matter performed by members of the force. "There has been too much publicity to the whole thing, the letters to the papers show that the actions of the police department are misunderstood and misunderstood," he protested.

DELIGHTFUL PLAY AT LITTLE THEATRE

Gifted Amateurs Presented Romance by Mme. Sanderson-Mongin

The "house full" sign was displayed at the Little Theatre, Oak Bay, on Saturday evening when a delighted audience enjoyed the charming French play "Une Romance Sous Louis XV." and at the same time assisted a very worthy cause, the fund in aid of the mutilated soldiers of France.

Although the dialogue was in French, the story was in English, the programme and the excellent acting by the company of gifted amateurs rendered understanding easy to those unacquainted with the language.

Written by Madame Sanderson-Mongin, the play is a sparkling comedy, redolent of the gallantries and graces of the period, and the charming costumes, hair à la poudre, and the graceful dances arranged by Madame Valda added a spectacular note to the production.

The various roles were sustained with ability by Miss Sayward and Miss Mason, who provided the comic relief, Miss Hinks, Miss Boston, Miss Bullock-Welton, Miss Ormliston, Mrs. G. Johnston, Miss Ora Pearson, Miss Nicholson, Mrs. H. G. Garrett, Miss Robertson, who played the parts of noblemen and ladies of the period, Mrs. Robert Baird and Miss Eva Hart who both sang delightfully and Madame Sanderson-Mongin, a charming little prelude arranged by Mrs. Gertrude Huntley Green was rendered by Mrs. Alex. Scott at the piano, Miss Scott, cello, and Mrs. Green, violin.

THE LOVE PETAL

Another Big, Gripping Story by the Author of "A Gamble in Beauty," Which Recently Created Such a Sensation

By NANCIBELLE HALE

I want to do something different, Emory . . . something I have never done before. Can't you suggest some place to go where I have never been. I feel as though I have gotten in a rut. I am afraid of stagnating of growing stale and becoming uninteresting to every one including myself. It's a dangerous way to feel.

"Rest assured you will never lose interest for me," assured Emory. "You're very gallant, kind sir. But you pay me compliments with such glibness that I fear you have gained experience elsewhere. Are you untrue to me?" teased Neata.

"Don't even joke about such a thing, dear," pleaded Emory, becoming serious. "I have been a madcap in my day—a perfect idiot. But I was a mere infant, spoiled and inquisitive as to life. I gained an unenviable reputation, as probably the cloying and clawing tabbies have informed you. . . . But I swear I was not as bad as painted. I did not do half the things with which I was credited."

"They tell queer tales about your escapades, Emory, but I seldom believe all I hear. Things one sees are quite enough to believe, without listening to slanderous tales, she reflected.

"The trouble was," said Emory, "I never denied anything. You never know what course to pursue in a case like mine. If you deny accusations, the public thinks your sin is even greater than had at first been suspected—if you don't deny it they are anxious to know if they have heard the whole truth. Each person adds a little to the story, consciously or unconsciously, and a saint can easily be transformed into a villain before the story comes back to its source."

"I always believed you were more sinned against than sinning," comforted Neata.

"The gossip never troubled me until I met you—since then I've wished with all my soul that I could change the name I've gained through my cursed foolishness."

"Everything I ever did was exaggerated. It all began with a lark. I was at college. One of the professors had a pretty young daughter who was anxious to spend a day in the city. Her father, who had refused to allow her to leave home, was himself called away for a day. I was sorry for her—the poor kid did not have much pleasure and I could see no harm in the trip. So we had a grand time until the car which I had hired decided to climb a pole. Fortunately, she was not injured but I had some ribs broken. I made her get on a train and go back and I traveled to the nearest hospital to be doctored up. It all got in the papers, and when I refused to tell the name of the girl, the rumor went the rounds that she had been a chorus girl. It did not make much difference to me what people thought so long as the professor did not find out about his daughter."

"After that every time I did anything the least bit informal the gossips seized upon it gluttonously. I am not trying to excuse myself—I just want you to understand. Finally, when my father would countenance my conduct no longer and I sailed away, it was reported that I had developed into a 'swain man' and was drinking myself to death on one of the South Sea Isles."

"The truth of the matter was my father did not approve of my idleness and I desired to change my mode of living, so together we arranged that I should investigate conditions in South Africa relative to the establishment there of headquarters for a palm oil industry in which the pater was interested. There was never a woman in the case. But what was the use of going about wildly declaiming my virtues? I would not have been believed, and furthermore, I looked upon it as a matter of charity. The gossips are bound to talk about some one. If they were not discussing me, they would be slandering some person who might care—and it made no difference what they thought or said—until I met you. You are the only woman I have ever really loved, Neata."

"That age-old line! Neata wondered, rather bitterly, how many women had believed that statement. They wanted to believe it quite naturally, but it was childishly simple to drown all doubt in assurances which played to their self-love."

"The only woman?" she questioned incredulously. "There must surely have been some fire where there was such black smoke. . . . Why not confess your past loves. I'll not be jealous, I promise."

"Believe me, Neata. Women I have known—the silly, little butterflies, the crafty sirens—none has left an imprint on my life or heart—none, that is, except you."

"The affairs with these women I can best explain to you by means of a simile. He gazed, unsmiling, into the bright coals left by the fire which had been built in the old marble-grate in the living room. It was not cool enough for furnace fires.

"During the war," Pinnell continued, "before an attack was made, flames were sent up preceding the terrific barrage. The flames did no damage; they merely lighted the way for the onslaught. Those other women were 'flames'—you are the 'onslaught!'"

Neata, looking in the fire, pictured the scene on the battlefield to which he referred, and a shiver passed over her as she thought of the ease with which those awful nights and fearful days of scarce two years ago had been forgotten. Then, with a mental shake, she realized that we cannot sweep our lives away; that the world shuns grief not because of heartlessness but because there are so many things which must be done . . . that yesterday must be cast aside in the archives of memory.

With a start she sat up and looked quizzically at Emory.

"You are original, at any rate," she laughed. "Your comparison is unique—and made with such delicious naïveté. I should think, in your case, the 'flames' would have robbed the 'barrage' of a portion of its power."

"My idea of love is that each person at birth is given a certain capacity for loving. And I believe that each infatuation is a flirtation affair de coeur—call it what you will—any situation in which the propensity to love is involved which occurs in the life of the individual. . . . reduce the store of affection until when what you term the 'onslaught' arrives there is only a very poor imitation of real affection.

"In other words, you think that love is a storage battery which loses its power with use?" Pinnell grinned.

"Putting it crudely, that is nearly correct. . . . Now that we have had this illuminating conversation, I refuse to be ambiguously at times. I revert to my first request—take me some place which is different from the places we usually see, some place with individuality."

"How about Chinatown? Did you ever go there?"

"No—and I don't think I want to. I have a horror of people with varicolored skin."

"Their skin isn't vari-colored, it's yellow." His eyes twinkled.

"You know what I mean. I do say things ambiguously at times, but it is difficult to be explicit always. I meant that I do not like people who are not white skinned. They are repulsive to me. I have tried to overcome this feeling, but it seems in-born. So I'd prefer staying away from creepy Chinatown."

Michael Collins Makes Appeal to Valera Urges Change in Anti-Free Staters' Tactics

Dublin, April 10.—In a speech delivered at Wexford yesterday, Michael Collins, head of the Irish Free State Provisional Government, declared that unless there was an immediate change in the tone and tactics of certain of the people, "it looks as if civil war can only be averted by a miracle."

Empress of Asia Just Failed to Lower Pacific Time

C. P. S. S. Liner Made Quarantine Yesterday Afternoon After Passage of 8 Days 19 Hours and 32 Minutes From Kannonaki; Averaged Speed of 19.74 Knots.

It was a close call, but the trans-Pacific steaming record was not lowered by the Canadian Pacific liner Empress of Asia. By one hour and one minute the Empress of Asia failed to equal the record of 8 days 18 hours and 31 minutes held by the sister liner Empress of Russia.

Commander of the Empress of Asia, when seen in his cabin on the bridge deck following the berthing of the big liner. "We averaged 19.74 knots and never turned less than 300 revolutions, but we ran into a heavy northeast swell outside which cut down our speed at the finish."

The Empress of Asia reached quarantine at 3.54 o'clock yesterday afternoon, her steaming time, as usual, being compiled as from the breakwater at Yokohama (Kannonaki) and William Head.

The stage had all been set for a race between the S.S. Empress of Asia and the S.S. Empress of Russia. The Empress of Asia was scheduled to clear from Yokohama about noon on April 1.

MISSIONARY HERE HAS NO LONGER FIELD FOR SERVICE

Persian Christians Either Massacred or Fugitives

Rev. E. O. Eshoo arrived in Victoria yesterday, and will remain in this city on a short visit of a week's duration. Mr. Eshoo graduated from Knox College, Toronto, and then took up missionary work for the Presbyterian Church in Persia.

There were 100,000 Christians in Persia before the war, he stated, "but now there is not a single Christian left in that country as a result of massacres during and after the war." When there is a re-adjustment he will return.

During his stay in this city he will preach at St. Columba Presbyterian Church and St. Aidan's Church next Sunday, while on Wednesday evening he will give a lantern lecture at the St. Andrew's Church. He gave an address at the St. Andrew's Church last night. Mr. Eshoo will continue his journey East to Toronto, following his stay in this city and Vancouver, where he has many friends.

Those Pretty Teeth

How careful people get them

Careful people—millions of them—are brushing their teeth in a new way. They do it almost the world over, and largely by dental advice.

Whiter teeth is one result. You see them everywhere. Now we urge you to try the method which they use. Ask us for a ten-day test.

Just remove the film

It is film that makes teeth dingy. That viscous coat clings to the teeth, enters crevices and stays. The tooth brush used in old ways has left much of it intact.

Film is what discolors, not the teeth. Film is the basis of tartar. Most people's teeth are kept cloudy by it, more or less.

Film also holds food substance which ferments and forms acids. It holds the acids in contact with the teeth to cause decay. It breeds millions of germs, and they, with tartar, are the chief cause of pyorrhea.

All these troubles have been constantly increasing. And most of them are traced to film which old-way brushing left on teeth.

What must be done

Dental science, after long research, has found two film combatants. Able authorities have proved

SCREAMING COMEDY ON ROYAL SCREEN

"A Connecticut Yankee" Is Based on Mark Twain's Story

As a special attraction, the Royal Victoria Theatre will show, beginning to-day, the big, new film version of Mark Twain's funniest book, "A Connecticut Yankee in King Arthur's Court."

As readers of Mark Twain will realize, this book offers wonderful scope to a motion picture director and it is surprising that no producer until now has undertaken to put it on the screen. The Fox production is on a huge scale, bringing out the full force of all the situations invented by Mark Twain's fertile imagination, and translating for the eye all the splendor of medieval court life that Twain had described in words. It aroused the greatest enthusiasm at a re-release run in Los Angeles.

"A Connecticut Yankee" is more than funny; it conveys an argument of striking force. It sets out to prove the thesis that we are as good as our great-grandfathers. It is the fashion nowadays to talk of the "good old times." Mark Twain shows us just what the "good old times" really were like. "A Connecticut Yankee" is an imaginative masterpiece. It puts a modern, shrewd up-to-date young American against a background of medieval chivalry, and the humor is the result of the sharp contrast.

"THE SPEED GIRL" AT THE CAPITOL

Bebe Daniels Stars, With Strong Staff; "The Show"

The popular star herself is so admirably fitted by this role that one has the feeling that she really is the heroine, and that the audience is merely seeing a cross section of her own life.

"The Speed Girl" is a fast-moving story of a girl who was born with the desire for swift motion, whether on land, sea or in the air. Even as a child, it is shown, Betty Lee wanted a speedier "scooter," and wanted to push it faster than any of the other little boys or girls.

Miss Daniels is supported by a cast which fully meets the requirements of the action, as well as fulfilling the Reelart standard of excellence. Theodore Von Eltz is leading man and looks very smart in his uniform of blue. Walter Hiers, as the press-agent, supplies his inimitable kind of comedy. Frank Elliott, who has played "heavies" in a number of pictures for other companies, is seen as an ardent suitor of Betty's, while Norris Johnson plays Hilda, the girl who contributes an important boost to the surprising solution.

Elmer Harris, the author of the original story, is well known for his authorship of stage plays, "So Long Letty," and "Sham," recently made into a picture, and as writer of "The March Hare" and "Her Sturdy Oak." Reelart pictures with respectively Bebe Daniels and Wanda Hawley. Mr. Harris was also scenarist of "All Souls' Eve," a Mary Miles Minter success.

The scenario of "The Speed Girl" was written by Douglas Doty, formerly a magazine writer and editor, and now a Reelart staff author. Maurice Campbell directed with just the proper feeling of touch-and-go, and a keen understanding of comedy value.

Larry Semon has the distinction of producing the most expensive comedy ever made. In order to get the action required for "The Show," which will be shown at the Capitol Theatre all week, it was necessary to build a theatre in Vitagraph studio at Hollywood, Cal., and thoroughly equip it with seats, lights, boxes, hangings and scenery.

In addition to this a complete vaudeville show was engaged for several weeks. A chorus of seventy-five girls, a plastic group of living models, a magician and a score of other acts were used in the comedy.

Not satisfied with the laughs produced in the theatre, Larry resorted to one of the most expensive stunts in the film business, he engaged two trains for several days. Over the Union Pacific tracks this comedian did all sorts of wild stunts on the roofs of fast moving cars.

The trains do considerable damage in the way of wrecking automobiles and destroying houses. A house is being moved across the tracks when the train comes along and ploughs through it like a knife through cheese.

The Capitol musical presentation this week introduces that popular vocal number "Beneath Thy Window," sung by Miss Isa Taylor, soprano, and Mr. William Draper, tenor.

"Missing Husbands," the French photoplay which has caused so much favorable comment in Paris, where it was first shown and at Covent Garden in London, will be ready soon for release by Metro in the United States and Canada. The picture, which was produced by a young Frenchman, Jacques Feyder, includes gigantic spectacles and impressive mass effects. In London it is known as "Atlantide" and in Paris as "L'Atlantide," which is the title of Pierre Benoit's novel. London critics place much stress on it as a story of adventure, with exciting elements of mystery.

If you are an ad-reader you know where the market is.

PARISIAN APACHE

LIFE IS THEME

"The Green Temptation" Is Presented at Dominion

The haunts of the Parisian Apaches are reproduced in Betty Compson's latest Paramount picture, "The Green Temptation," showing all this week at the Dominion Theatre.

This is somewhat of a triumph in motion picture architecture, as these dens have never before been exactly duplicated for tourists are seldom admitted to these underground resorts in the old Roman catacombs of this mysterious group of Parisian secret societies.

The replicas were made possible, however, by the co-operation of Prof. Sigurd Russell, for twenty years a resident of Paris and now a French instructor, and Theodore Kosloff, screen player, who plays the villain role of the chief Apache in the new picture.

The "Cafe des Apaches" setting was constructed from sketches submitted by Professor Russell. When in Paris, Mr. Kosloff was invited by Madame Efroski to give an Apache dance at a big party, and to provide an exact interpretation of the dance. Mr. Kosloff visited the Apache haunts with a member of the order. There he observed the habits and customs of the Apaches, which he has helped bring to the screen in "The Green Temptation."

This picture, said to be a masterpiece production, was adapted by Monte M. Katterjohn and Julia Crawford Ivers, from the magazine story, "The Noose," by Constance Lindsay Skinner. Others in the cast besides those mentioned, are Mahlon Hamilton, Neely Edwards, Edward Burns, Ly-more Lynnard and Mary Thurman.

"THE THIEF" NOW FILMED AT VARIETY

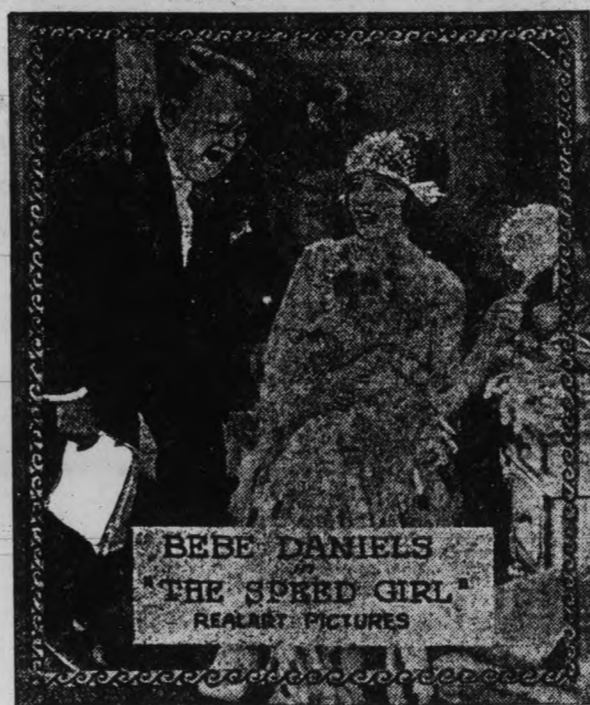

Pearl White's Play Has Made Author Rich

Pearl White, who is now appearing in the William Fox production "The Thief," at the Variety Theatre to-day, has in this play a story that has been translated into almost every known language and a play that has brought its author, Henri Bernstein, between $500,000 and $750,000 in royalties to date.

Bernstein came from a very wealthy family. He ran through his fortune and, being forced to earn a living, turned playwright. His first drama was accepted by the French Academy.

Those who know "The Thief" as a stage play will remember that in it is a speech three-quarters of a printed page in length. When the play was produced in New York where it was a great success, this was the longest speech they had heard in a play—yet the audience that crowded the theatre every night hung on every word of that speech.

Miss White had known the play and wished to appear in it a long time before. Mr. Fox got the screen rights for her. Its plot is as gripping on the screen as on the stage, and gives Miss White a splendid opportunity to show her dramatic talents.

CREATORE TO VISIT HERE TWO DAYS

Famous Conductor to Tour West; at Capitol April 24 and 25

Creator the famous conductor a little while ago spent a week as guest conductor at the Regent Theatre, in Toronto where he imparted several thrills by his conducting of the Lucia Sextette, sung by Canadian singers and made the Boccherini "Minuet" so popular that everybody in Toronto was brought up within three days.

In all probability he will do the "Minuet" in all the other Capitol Theatres on the circuit; depending somewhat upon the number of violin, viola and 'cello players he finds in the various orchestras. The rest of his programme will be announced in each centre as he comes to it.

In every case Creator will encounter an orchestra previously prepared for some such visitation; but not quite. He is ready at any time to impart mild shocks to any orchestra. He did it in Toronto when he got results that packed the theatre every performance to hear the band.

This custom of guest conductorship in picture houses is an entire novelty in Canada and is sure to arrest popular attention in every city visited by this musician. When Creator decided some years ago to become popular at the expense of his musician-ship, he did not forget the one thing he learned before—that the only way to make good music popular, the picture house orchestras in Canadian cities are doing a great deal—probably more than any other institution—to popularize good music by making it useful. They serve continuous programmes of good music in each case to thousands of people in a week. Creator will appear at the Capitol here on April 24 and 25.

"SEVEN WORDS OF CHRIST" TO BE PRESENTED

Choir of St. Andrew's Cathedral Prepare for Good Friday

The "Seven Words of Christ," by Th. Dubois, which is to be rendered by the choir of St. Andrew's Cathedral during the three hours on Good Friday is well known as one of the most profound and impressive settings of these solemn words. The arrangements for soprano, tenor and baritone soloists and choir give expression to all the depths of pathos and sorrow implied by the agonizing circumstances under which they were uttered, and render the composition not only a supreme musical effort but also a powerful aid to devotion. This will be the first time the cantata has been produced in Victoria under the conditions for which it was originally written. The setting is as follows:

Introduction, O vos omnes (O all ye), Mrs. Benedict Bantly.
1st word, Pater Dimitte (Father forgive them), Mr. J. Q. Gillan, Major L. Bullock Webster and choir.
2nd word, Hodie mecum eris (To-day thou shalt be), Mr. J. Q. Gillan and Major L. Bullock Webster.
3rd word, Stabat Mater (Stood His Mother), Miss Mamie Fraser, Mr. J. Q. Gillan, Major Bullock Webster and choir.

4th word, Deus Meus (My God), Major L. Bullock Webster.

A STRANGER COMES TO THE PLAYROOM

In one corner of the big playroom lived all the animals and there were so many of them that their corner was called the zoo.

Teddy Bear was there, though, to be sure, as Mr. Horse said, he was not a really, truly animal, but his cousin Big Brown Bear on Wheels, said Teddy must live in the zoo or he would growl, and so he was let in. There was Brindle Dog, Big Moo Cow, Woolly White Sheep, Mistress Tabby, Big White Duck, Bunny Rabbit, Little Tin Mouse, Mr. Donkey and Mr. Pig—all on wheels. Mr. Horse was on rockers and Polly Parrot swung on a perch from a hook on the end of the shelf over the heads of the others, while Teddy Bear, of course, sat on the floor and did a great deal of talking.

Now all the zoo folk lived very happily together and had a very good time when the magic hour struck at midnight until there came one day a stranger to their corner whom none of them knew.

The stranger was a very large animal and was on wheels, too. He had small eyes and very large ears and a very thick body; but the thing that bothered the zoo dwellers was the fact that he had two tails.

Even Big Brown Bear had never met in his wildest day anything like the stranger, and Mme. Cow said as the stranger seemed to be a very quiet creature she thought it best to let him stay.

White Duck quacked loudly at this "No, indeed!" she said. "This is a zoo—not a place for freaks. An animal with two tails should be in a museum—not among perfectly made animals."

"Well, who wants to tell the stranger he cannot stay?" asked Teddy Bear. "I don't. He is bigger than any of us, excepting Rooking Horse. I think he had better be the one to tell him he cannot stay here."

Little Tin Mouse came running out from behind a box. "I'll tell him," he squeaked. "I can easily run if he gets cross and I am so small he cannot follow me into a crack in the floor or wall."

All this time the big stranger was standing in the middle of the room with his back toward the zoo corner. Little Tin Mouse rattled across the floor and stood beside him, not at all sure where the head of the queer animal was.

"Squeak! Squeak!" went Tin Mouse to attract the stranger's attention. When he saw Tin Mouse up went his trunk in the air—for, of course, you knew all this time that it was an Elephant—and such a noise as he made!

"Take it away! Take it away!" he roared. "Tin Mouse did not need to be taken. He ran for the zoo corner as fast as he could and crept behind the box and there he stayed, and all the zoo folk huddled close to the wall."

"What is this noise about?" asked a big Policeman Doll, hurrying across the room, for he thought the noise came from the zoo corner. When he heard what had happened he began to laugh. "Why, don't you folk know an elephant when you see one?" he asked. "That was his trunk—not his tail—that he lifted, and he is scared to death of a mouse, even if he is big so I have heard."

"I guess we will have to take him in," said Big Brown Bear. "I have heard about him and I think he comes from Africa. He has such big ears!"

"He need not be afraid of me," squeaked Tin Mouse from his hiding place. "I shall go over to the doll house to live. I never did feel at home here." And off he ran.

HAD BAD COUGH AND SORE THROAT

Never neglect a cough or cold however slight. If you do it can have but one result; it leaves the throat or lungs, or both, affected. A single dose of will help to stop the cough, soothe the throat, and if the cough or cold has become settled on the lungs the healing virtues of the Norway pine tree along with the soothing and expectorant properties of other excellent herbs, roots and barks promptly eradicates the bad effects, and the persistent use cannot but help to bring about relief.

Mr. Albert Marsh, Lower L'Ardoise, N. S., writes:—"About a year ago I contracted a cold accompanied by a very bad cough and sore throat. I sent for the doctor, but what he prescribed did me so little good I began to get discouraged. A friend came to see me and asked me if I had ever used Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. I told him I had not and sent him right away to get me a bottle. I started using it, and after a couple of days I found I was getting relief, and after taking two bottles the soreness in my throat seemed to be leaving me, so I resolved to continue its use, and after I had used five bottles both my sore throat and cough were gone. I would not be without Dr. Wood's for any money." Price, 35c. and 60c. a bottle; put up only by The T. Millburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont. (Adv.)

LITERARY NOTES

Stephen Leacock, who has been delivering humorous lectures in England all Winter, has now returned to Montreal and is once more feeding the political economy students of McGill University on "the dismal science" of which he is professor. He has written, or is writing, a book on his impressions of England and the English. This will be a humorous book of a new species for our Mark Twain. It will be a relief to have him break away from those everlasting take-offs on various styles of fiction.

It is reported that when someone in the gallery at Mrs. Asquith's first appearance as a reader of her memoirs in New York shouted, "I can't hear you," she exclaimed "You're not missing anything!" This says The Christian Science Monitor was sound criticism.

Would it not be a good thing if at least fifty per cent of our native-born citizens would emulate the Chicago Women's Club in subscribing to the following pledge, substituting, of course, the word "Canadian" where the pledge says "American"—"I promise 1. That I will not dishonor my country's speech by leaving off the last syllables of words; 2. That I will say a good American 'yes' and 'no' instead of an Indian

Stomach Troubles Also Overcome by Tanlac, and She Is Like a New Person. Declares Vancouver Resident

"Tanlac has certainly done me a world of good, and I'm firmly convinced of its merit," said Mrs. J. Kennedy, 668 Hastings Street, East, Vancouver, B. C.

"I was in falling health for some time and finally became very much alarmed about my condition. My appetite was very poor, and the little I ate seemed to do me more harm than good. I was bothered a good deal with rheumatism, too, and was so restless that I hardly ever got any refreshing sleep.

"I began to get better almost from my first dose of Tanlac, and kept on improving until now I am just like a different person altogether. I have a splendid appetite, my digestion is perfect, and I sleep like a child every night. It is just wonderful to me how quickly Tanlac built me up, and I just can't begin to tell how happy I feel over my restoration to health." Tanlac is sold in Victoria by The Owl Drug Co. and all druggists everywhere. (Adv.)

WAR BREAKS OUT IN CAMP OF THE YANKS

Players Are Fighting Miller Huggins, Their Manager; Fines Are Flying

New York, April 10.—Col. T.H. Huston, the portly pacifier and part owner of the New York Yankees, is speeding south to save his ball club. Things seem to have come to the big break with the club down South. The boys are fighting Miller Huggins and the little boss is fighting back with fines.

lected and that several more are to be imposed on several other big stars who have been cutting up.

Long reports of bay news trickled into the Yankee office on Thursday and Col. Huston departed, insisting, however, that he was not going because of the trouble.

Mays, according to the stories, claims that Huggins has always made it annoying for him because he had told the club owners that Huggins was no manager. He says that Huggins ordered him to pitch with but a few minutes' notice after he played 18 holes of golf in the morning and that he was then jerked out of the box, which led him to register his disgust by throwing the ball over the stands.

The big pitcher also claims that Huggins is only the mouthpiece for Rab Cornery, the real manager of the club. He said he has always been picked upon while the others "get away with murder."

Hoyt in Dutch Too. After the open break between Mays and Huggins, the little manager also had some hot words with Waite

Hoyt, after which Huggins said several more fines were on their way if the players didn't get down to business. Huggins has had a stormy life ever since he took the reins of the Yanks. He is in good with Col. Ruppert, but Col. Huston, the other half owner of the team, has been wanting him removed ever since he returned from the army. Huston sides with the players.

The club is filled with high-spirited, temperamental stars who all feel that they know more about baseball than Huggins, and they don't mind showing him. They have their own ideas about playing and they follow them.

If the club reverts the fine of Mays over Huggins' head, the manager has nothing to do but resign.

Champion Is Not Particular Which Line of Business He Enters in Europe

New York, April 10.—Jack Dempsey arrived to-day from the Pacific Coast to join Jack Kearns; his manager, and party for a rest before sailing for Europe Tuesday. The champion will leave New York without any matches definitely in prospect, and only the haziest of plans. He says he is anxious to meet the best European offer, providing the purse is satisfactory. Mentioning Carpenter, Joe Beckett, Bombardier Wells, "or anyone else," he said he'd jump at the chance to take them on.

Harry Wells, the Negro heavyweight, who is being groomed for a bout with Dempsey, holds no terrors for the champion. Dempsey said that because of some prejudice against a mixed match in this country, it might be best to hold such a contest in Europe, but he added that he is willing to meet Wells at home. Dempsey intimated that Kearns was dickering with English promoters for such a match.

Accompanying Dempsey and Kearns will be Teddy Hayes, the champion's secretary, and Joe Benjamin, a stable mate. Benjamin probably will get into the ring soon after his arrival, arrangements being under way for a go with Ernie Rice, the British lightweight champion.

The party will proceed on what Kearns terms an "elastic schedule." They will go to London and Paris, and probably to other of the large continental cities. Kearns said he is not averse to an exhibition tour, and, unless some worthwhile matches are brought about, he plans to arrange one.

EXHIBITION GAMES COME TO A CLOSE

Washington Won Series With Braves; Yankees and White Sox Broke

Washington, April 10.—Washington defeated the Boston Nationals, 3 to 2, yesterday, in 10 innings in the final of the Spring exhibition series, making it seven victories in 11 pre-season games for the locals. Peckinpaugh's single, and error by Cruise, and Smith's double accounted for yesterday's result.

The Greatest Amateur. Was Harold Hilton, or the "wee man," as he has been called, the greatest amateur golfer the game has produced? For twenty years his only rival was John Ball. Possibly Freddie Tait would have been another, but he lies in a soldier's grave on the South African field, and all are left with the reflection that whilst others could beat him, Hilton rarely could.

It is hard to say how posterity will decide the question, but probably it will be as now: Hilton as the master stroke player, and Ball as the supreme match winner. The records of the two men suggest that this is a fair division of the honors. Against Ball's one win in the open championship Hilton has two at a time when the competition was a great deal keener, and against Ball's eight wins in the amateur event Hilton has four.

Father's Tuition. Fifty-three years of age Hilton had a special club made for him when he was six, and at ten he won the boys' medal at Hoylake, playing from scratch.

His father was not a very expert golfer, but he taught the boy how to swing and thus laid the solid foundation on which all his successes have been laid. He was only eighteen when he entered for his first championship, and for the last thirty-five years he has been competing in the chief events.

"The Doctor." It is doubtful whether any golfer has studied the game so closely as Hilton; no one knows more about its perplexing difficulties. He is the doctor for whom his friends visit when the shots go wrong, and it is very rare that he cannot diagnose the fault and prescribe the cure. George Duncan will tell you that he helped him greatly in his putting, and other professionals have been equally grateful for his friendly advice.

Last Summer Fred Robertson went off to play in the championship at St. Andrews with no fewer than five of the amateur's clubs. There have, of course, been occasions when it has

Harold Hilton Labelled the Greatest Amateur Golfer

A little man, with thick black hair that has now a silver streak here and there, luminous eyes with an arresting sixty of purpose, the chin of the strong, wilful man, and the jaunty step that denotes self assurance and confidence—that is the mental picture of Harold H. Hilton. To complete one should perhaps add the familiar knee breeches and canvas rubber-soled shoes, and the nonchalant cigarette.

When Silence Was Golden. Then he was about six holes up with twelve to play against the late Fred Herreshoff, and the easiest of wins was in prospect. "Very foolishly," he said, "I began to talk to friends in the gallery, and at once holes started to slip away. Then when it became necessary to make an effort to close the door, I found that I could not concentrate."

A Historic Spot. He won in the end, but it was a desperate finish at the thirty-seventh hole. All America remembers this extra deciding hole. Hilton's shot to the green was a crooked one, but the wayward ball struck a huge bunker and cannoned back on to the green.

To-day the bunker bears an inscription to this effect: "This was the stone that H. H. Hilton hit in the final of the 1911 championship, and beat Fred Herreshoff."

Best Performance. Hilton was once asked what was the performance he considered to be his best. He selected his win in the St. George's Cup, at Sandwich, in 1894. He had injured his left hand, and had to retire in the second round of the open championship. But he held the St. George's Vase, and, anxious to defend it, he competed a few days later.

His partner was Freddie Tait, as luck would have it, but though he was outdriven by many yards from every tee, and suffered great pain from his injured wrist every time he hit the ball, he "stuck it" to the bitter end, and won.

A Lost Opportunity. Of Hilton's many historic feats there is one that lingers in the mind of those rare occasions in his case when he allowed a great chance to slip from him. It was at Sandwich, in 1911, and he was chasing the profes-been a case of "physician heal thyself." Once Hilton could not get the putts to go down, and he was driven to the experiment of using only one hand, and pushing the other into his trousers pocket.

His friends will remember him as the silent golfer. Right through his career he has made it a habit never to talk when seriously engaged on the links, though he is a fluent conversationalist with a rare fund of humor in the smoke-room. Only once did he break his golden silence. This, too, was in the final of the American amateur championship of 1911.

DEVELOPMENTS IN IRELAND WATCHED
Possibility of Easter Outburst Subject of Discussion
Dublin Correspondent Says Two Sides Jockeying

London, April 10.—Will the so-called extremist republicans in Ireland observe the anniversary of the Easter Week uprising against Great Britain in 1916 by attempting this Easter Week to oust the Irish Free State Provisional Government and establish a republic in its place? This is a question that has been hotly discussed both in England and Ireland.

Opinions Differ.
The London Daily Mail's Dublin correspondent declares that this phase of Ireland's perplexities has been rather freely debated in Dublin and that opinions there differ widely. The correspondent is convinced that the Provisional Government will do nothing to provoke a rebellion by immediate attempts to restore order. He is less clear about the attitude of the more radical republicans and appears to think that the latter's action depends on how far they believe they can swing public opinion. The correspondent remarks that the extreme republicans are already in ill-favor with the generally recognized thinking classes in Ireland and also with the great bulk of the general public.

Jackeying.
The Mail's Dublin correspondent has come to the conclusion that both sides are simply jockeying for the right moment and in the meantime carefully considering the temper of the general public. He believes that in certain well-informed political quarters in London, a violent stroke is anticipated by extremist republicans at a very early date. Consequently, these English sources of opinion believe that Easter Week will be selected as a moment for a bold stroke because of its 1916 associations.

Prepared.
According to some political reports, the British Government is keenly alive to the possibility of another serious outbreak this week. Winston Churchill, Secretary for the Colonies, has kept in close touch with affairs in Ireland and is prepared for any vigorous action that may be needed. Lieut.-Colonel Wilfrid W. Ashley, representing the Elyde division of Lancashire, raised the question of another Irish rebellion in the House of Commons. He asked what instructions had been given to the British military commander in the event that a republic was proclaimed in Ireland and the case, even though arrangements be made for the immediate resumption of the Commons in such a serious contingency, before it recessed for the Easter holidays.

BUY LONG TERM BONDS NOW
History will fall to repeat itself if the standard interest rate is not greatly reduced long before many of the bond issues now available at an interest rate of approximately six per cent., or better, become due. When interest rates decline, high interest bearing securities of long maturity naturally enhance in value.

VOTE MONEY FOR JOBLESS RELIEF

But Council's Future Policy Is Vague; Stop Relief This Month

In the annual civic estimates, as fixed by the City Council, there is an appropriation of $50,000 to cover relief to unemployed. As a matter of fact, about $75,000 has been spent so far this year for unemployment relief in the work of work and in doles of about $20,000 has been absorbed by doles but two-thirds of all money spent for doles will be paid by the Federal and Provincial Governments. There is no sum in the estimates for unemployment relief next Fall and Winter.

As a matter of fact, the Council's future policy on unemployment is surrounded by doubt. Half a dozen plans for dealing with the unemployment problem were suggested at Friday's Council meeting but none were adopted. Mayor Marchant proposed that a camp should be established near Colwood where men would be offered work cutting cord wood. If they refused to work they would receive no assistance. Alderman Leeming urged the establishment of a soup kitchen and camp at the Willows where unemployed men could secure food and a place to sleep. Alderman Perry and Alderman Wood suggested that the city should employ the unemployed men to do general housework. The only tangible result of the long discussion was the decision to aid men to secure work on the Prairies as was done last year and to stop relief for unmarried men April 15 and for married men April 30.

ENGLISHMEN MADE FRAUD VICTIMS HERE

Barrow Steps in to End "Farm Pupil" Practice

The "farm pupil" system in practice in some parts of this Province, by which Englishmen are induced to come to this country and then work for nothing was denounced to-day by the Hon. E. D. Barrow, Minister of Education, as the result of information received from F. C. Wade, agent-general for B. C. in England.

As a result of investigations carried on by the Agent-General's office into what was behind certain advertisements which have been appearing in The London Times, three cases have just come to the attention of the Department of Agriculture here. In one case a man who had been on his farm in this Province for 18 months advertised in England for "a gentleman of some education who will be a congenial companion and who would work his land for six months. He was also willing to give 'extra instruction' not in farming, but in ordinary educational branches for $25 a month.

Another was the case of a man and his wife on a B. C. farm who "could not take in a servant as the large wage required is impossible, also no servant would remain long in a shack distant 11 miles from a town." The wife also wanted an assistant who must be a "gentlewoman" whom she could instruct in all work, both inside and outside the shack; and this explanation was added: "She has twin babies and the work is too pressing for either of them without a third hand of either sex."

In a third case a prospective farm pupil being induced to come to B. C. is asked to pay a premium of $600 besides board and to cable $300 before leaving England.

"Unless these people are stopped British Columbia will get a bad name," says Mr. Wade in a message to Mr. Barrow, urging that the B. C. Government do something. "The advertisements invariably list Old Country people who have gone to Canada and not Canadians."

"These advertisers simply require work in exchange for 'keep' said Mr. Barrow. "So far as the instruction is concerned it seems to be quite negligible. The 'farm pupil' who is not paid wages, or who, even worse, is asked to pay for his keep, is a man who is expected to pay a premium, has long been regarded as an extinct species in Canada. No man or woman will be content to work for a living in a 'shack' or elsewhere, without wages, when all neighboring farm-hands are paid good wages, nor is it necessary that they should do so. Such one-sided arrangements invariably end in trouble for the advertiser, and the British Columbia Government to encourage them."

E. P. MEYERS IS HOME FROM ORIENT

Made 3,100-Mile Railway Journey in Far Eastern Countries

The great progress made by the Philippines under American direction in the past twenty years was the most distinct impression gained by E. P. Meyers, of Omaha, Nebraska, who spent the last three months of his holiday in the Orient. He is a general traveler and has been to see a large travel in the well managed trains, but apparently the railways were feeling the effect of the general depression. "The holiday the Orient is all right," he said to The Times, "but give me America for business. To an American the Orient presents too many aspects of things which want straightening out, and while foreigners have done wonders in the Far Eastern countries, it is in the Philippines that there has been a greater chance to show what can be done."

Mr. Meyers is in the cattle business extensively in Nebraska, and when he was strictly on pleasure on this occasion, he stated that he watched with considerable interest the investment of foreign money in the Orient, particularly in China. He is accompanied by his wife and daughter.

MOTHER SAVES DAUGHTER'S HEALTH

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Helped Both Mother and Daughter

Lumsden, Saskatchewan. — "My mother had taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and when I needed something for my periods I took it and got good results. I recommend it to women with any female trouble. I know other women who have been helped by it and do the same." — Mrs. Max Retzer, Lumsden, Saskatchewan.

Many cases like this come to our notice. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is often recommended by the mother and the grandmother too, for bear in mind, it has been helping women for nearly fifty years.

Women Tell Each Other — In your own neighborhood are women who know the value of this wonderful medicine and they talk to one another about it. So if you are troubled with pains and irregularities, a tired feeling, nervous and sleepless spells, or have other annoying troubles, get some of our female trouble, you have only to ask some neighbor what she thinks of your taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.
