

Middlebury March 31 1811

Dear Sir

Your fav^r of the 6th Inst. was rec^d & you ask, why not answer; true, can no reason be given, let us see, 'twas rec^d during the sitting of our C. C. no time then, next day after that you went to Bridport on Arbitration now comes saturday, partly answer^d letters from father & brother of olden date, now comes monday C. C. at Rutland, must post off there, now just got back, whole time occupied, no clock to assist. Aiken admitted, & gone the L. D. knows when, heard of him last in Burlington, he is, no doubt, seeking a resting place.
I intended to have written you to attend to a cause at Woodstock for me, but in the hurry of business that has gone, I conclude by your letter that business does not flow in to you with a full tide, you say, only one suit for Dist.!! this wont do, Cephas, six months on the ground & only one suit, & that for Dist.!! this wont do. you must inspire a more litigious spirit than this, or quit - tis the golden period with you, let it not pass unimproved.
I advise you to settle in some place where business is done, & there will always be a chance to step in for a share, but if you mean to do business go where business is done & if you are not in that place, seek such an one; you are young, & a long race be fore you, be carefull how you start in the beginning; the prize will be yours if you set out right, & hold well your course.

I don't feel sufficient confidence in my own opinion to point out to you any particular place, but I am unwilling to have you settle down where you are without some more flattering prospects than are express'd in your letter, above alluded to. you ought not to content yourself there, merely because you have your board free of expense; you must or ought to remember, that a little stock must be laid in against a wet day, sickness or the decays of age, & ^{season} that is the season of health & vigour, which you possess in an adequate degree.

If you wish for a little further time to look a broad, & make the necessary enquiries, to a future establishment of yourself, my office & library are free to you, & if you wish to remain a month ^{or months} you may fair as I do free of expense, & indeed if you are undetermined where to settle or if you are not determin'd to remain where you are, I should ^{think} it well for you to return & stay with me a few months, I have business enough to keep you employ'd. & there is a chance for improvement. This however you will not take as dictatorial, but merely advisory.

I feel extremely anxious for you, and all the aids within my feebly powers to extend to you, will be cheerfully extended.

I take for true your statement, as respects your business & prospects where you are - and to my mind the result clearly is, that there are many better places, & but few worse; ~~these~~ where you know many considerations come into view, in fixing a residence for life, & those always have reference as well to the future as the present time, resting in a degree on probable and ordinary calculations, & such too as is written

- in the power & capacity of almost every one to make.
perhaps you will do well to amplify & weigh what is here only suggested -

Now for the law questions.

A & B. are prosecuted by C. Juror for assaulting B.
A. is acquitted, & B. fined - & now C. commences a private suit for damages - can A. plead his acquittal in pub. proc. in bar? answer - no -

2. Question.

A & B. minors are sued for assault & battery - ought not the parent or guardian to notified - answer - he had -

3. qu: is a complaint by C. Juror act. 2 for the assault & battery of 2 - good - and in a public prosecution I think it is. as such offences includes breach of the peace - but A & B. could not join in an action of ass. & ^{title} vs C & D. - because the battery of it is not the bat.
of B. - & the bat. is our entire act, & the damages entire as to self -

I think my business is increasing - tho' my health is not good - & in fact not able to attend at my office, as much as is necessary - I am in hopes the warm season which is fast approaching will prove favorable in respect -
friends in N.Y. generally well -

Mrs. D. desires to be remembered to you -

I am with sentiments of esteem & friendship yours &c
J. Doobills

P.S. rem^d me to Judge L. with respect &c
