THE SAD, SAD STORY OF THE NARBERTH TENNIS TOURNAMENT

It Started a Long, Long Time Ago, But It Will Be Finished Some Day—With a Veiled Reference to the Feud Between Colonel Kirkpatrick and Mr. Bliss

Of all sad words of tongue or pen, the saddest we have noticed anywhere around these parts lately have been the Saturday exclamations of Colonel Bill Kirkpatrick and other leading members of the Narberth Tennis Association. And consequently, notice is hereby given Mr. Bliss, the well-known weather man, that he had better stick close to Ninth and Chestnut streets and not come anywhere near the tennis courts at Essex and Elmwood avenues.

All of which is by way of saying that it rained again last Saturday, which made it three straight, and thereby gave the Red Cross Tennis Tournament another jolt. However, matches are being slipped in between showers, so to speak, and unless the weather should be unusually inclement, it is hoped to play the finals in the singles at, say, 10 A. M. Thanksgiving Day morning, and the doubles at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. This will make it especially convenient for Narberth folks who usually go into town to see the Penn-Cornell game; that is, they can stay in our own burg all day, have a full day's sport and thus avoid the crowd on Thirty-third street and the consequent possible delay in catching a train at West Philadelphia, and being late for their Thanksgiving dinner.

Complete Scores to Date

In the meanwhile it will not be amiss to remind members of the Tennis Association and others who are interested, that the 1917 tournament started a long, long while ago—Saturday, September 1, and that the complete scores of matches played up to date follow:

ONLY 247 MEN OUT OF 1400

Others Failed to Pass Physically, Had Enlisted, Were Aliens or Claimed Exemption—What Board Has Done

After completing the physical examination of the men in the first 1400 numbers on its list, the Local Board for Division No. 1, of Montgomery county, which takes in Lower Merion and Cheltenham townships, and Narberth borough, found that only 247 men, out of the whole 1400, had failed to take out exemption claims.

The others either failed to pass the physical examination, or did not appear at all, or else they had persons dependent upon them. A very large group was also already in the Army or Navy and still another good-sized block were students of divinity at the Seminary of St. Charles Borromeo, at Overbrook. There is also a large class of aliens who had to be discharged.

The board announced the granting of a number of claims for exemption, but has still another large list of claims to pass upon. In cases previously disposed of 61 cases were turned down, so that the board now has nominally 308 men for service.

But many of the 308 have taken out industrial claims with the District Board at Lancaster. The board has to furnish 397 men and from present indications may have to call between 500 and 600 more men for examination, some time next week, which will bring the district to its 2000th man. Many whose claims have already been denied have appealed to the District Board.

Mrs. Joshua L. Bailey, of Haverford, has added to appeals already taken out by her husband an appeal from the board in finding him physically fit, and this case will have to be threshed out at Lancaster. Bailey claimed dependency and that he is a conscientious objector.

Exempted or Discharged

The board announces that exemption or discharge has been granted in the following cases:

Ardmore—Lorenzo Paolone, Nicola Piscicelli, Francesco Nardone, Domenico di Giuseppe, Sante Caruso, Charles F. Barker Arthur Johnson, Pasquale Fratone, Egidio di Giuseppe, Alexander Hutton, Samuel Brown, Alfonso Maschangela, Filippini Giuseppe, Domingo Arias, Samuel G. Johnson, Ottaviano Pamiflo, Benjamin D. Mosser, George C. Stalker, William J. McKeon, William J. Gavin, Edgar C. Phillips, Michael Palma Guy L. Cornman, Thomas W. Kearney, John Spampinato, Thomas Shead.

FREE MAIL DELIVERY FOR OVERBROOK

Residents of a great portion of Overbrook, and also those living on the city line as far as Latche's lane will now receive mail by three daily deliveries, following the establishment, Friday, of routes throughout the community from the Fifty-third and Lansdowne avenue post office.

The old independent post office of Overbrook, 2125 North Sixty-third street, closed Thursday midnight, and a contract station for the selling of stamps and the registry of letters was opened at the grocery store of William McIntyre, whose premises adjoin that of the old office. Overbrook has maintained the independent second class post office for a number of years.

Upon complaint of residents, who desired a mail delivery, a move was made by which Philadelphia was given postal jurisdiction over most of the suburb. Persons living beyond Latche's lane will receive no delivery but will get their mail at the Merion post office, in the Pennsylvania station.

Merion will have a new post office completed November 1, which will provide larger accommodations and space for 300 boxes.

ELOQUENT AND IMPRESSIVE SERVICE

By Rev. John Van Ness to Narberth Home Guards

Last Sunday morning those members of Narberth Home Guard who take part in the weekly drills, attended the Presbyterian Church in a body. Twenty-five men turned out, and the usual large morning attendance was augmented by many visitors, crowding the main auditorium and overflowing into the Sunday school room. The building was handsomely decorated with the stars and stripes, and a large delegation from the Sunday school joined the congregation in singing appropriate hymns of patriotism.

The sermon preached by Mr. Van Ness was one of the finest and most impressive ever heard in Narberth. It was pervaded by the loftiest spirit of pure patriotism throughout, and those who were fortunate enough to hear it, came away with a re-awakened sense of the great responsibilities and duties which our country has assumed in entering the great conflict, and of the need of each and every individual to do his share to bring it to a successful issue. We subjoin a few excerpts from the sermon, but all will realize that "cold type" can give but a faint idea of the fervid patriotism with which it was delivered, and of the renewed devotion to our beloved country with which every heart was stirred.

Subject, "Guarding the Home." Text I Timothy 6:20: Guard That Which is Committed Unto Thee.

"We most heartily welcome among the worshipers in this church this morning the members of the Narberth Guard. In a most delightful spirit you have accepted the invitation which we gave you, and we are hoping and praying that you will be greatly repaid for coming with us. There is Scriptural authority for your organization, and that authority is found in the words which I have chosen for our text, 'Guard That Which is Committed Unto Thee.' You have taken upon you the name of 'Narberth' (Continued on Second Page)

Urgent attention is called to the appeal in another column for contributions to the Library Fund for the Cantonments and Training Camps throughout the country. The amount asked is not large—$150 for a town of 3000 inhabitants. If more is contributed, so much the better. Anything that will relieve the tedium of camp life, and keep the boys from the many temptations incident to it, is worthy of generous support. We have no doubt that Narberth will, as always, do her full share.

September 16, 1917.

To the Editor of Our Town:

For a long time I was puzzled when I read Isaiah. I never knew just what particular spot he had in mind whose waste places were comforted, whose wilderness had become like Eden and whose deserts were like a garden. But since visiting Narberth, after an absence of three years, I saw clearly that the prophet was talking about Narberth and he meant the park which has been built on that unsightly swampy no-man's-land, north of the Penny tracks.

So I thought I would tell you what I thought of the change. It certainly reflects a civic pride combined with a far-sighted policy.

C. K. Imbrie.

WOMEN'S AUXILIARY,
NARBERTH Y. M. C. A.

The first regular monthly meeting of the fall season will be held in the Y. M. C. A. Building on Thursday afternoon, September 27, at 2:30 promptly.

It is very urgent that the attendance be large and enthusiastic, as plans incident to the opening of Lovey Mary's Garden will be discussed and definitely completed.

Six silver teas have been given during the summer, and have been most successful both socially and financially. A cordial invitation is extended to all members and friends of the Y. M. C. A. by Mrs. A. H. Wilson, 212 Wayne avenue, on Thursday, September 20, and Mrs. J. F. Smith, 211 Elm Terrace on Wednesday, October 3.

Please remember these dates and join us in a cup of tea. This invitation, we trust, will appeal specially to those of us who have been conspicuous by our absence during the heated period.

Guards, that is to say, you have assumed the obligations and responsibilities as far as in you lies of guarding our homes, our loved ones and our country.

"Last April at the entrance of our country into this great war President Wilson said: 'The supreme test of the nation has come. We must all speak, act, and serve together,' and a few days ago he wrote to Mr. Gompers and the labor organizations, 'No one who is not blind can fail to see that the battle line of democracy for America stretches to-day from the fields of Flanders to every house and workshop, where, toiling upward, striving men and women are counting the treasures of right and justice and liberty which are being threatened by our present enemies.' Yes, the battle line stretches into every home in America. We are all in that battle line and he who does not hearken to-day to the dictates of patriotism in some service, ought never to expect to be excused by his fellow men, or to be forgiven for ignoring his duty.

"So let each of us, in his own best way, guard our homes. Until last April, most of us here did not realize how much our homes needed guarding. We read of the fearful cataclysm of Europe, but that is three thousand miles away, and we felt that it would not come nigh unto us. Most of us abhorred war, and still abhor it. We are all agreed that there is wrong, gigantic wrong in the sinful ambitions and the criminal hatreds, and that the aggressors, whoever they may be, are the basest of criminals. But now we are asking 'What of those who are assailed, and what of those who have gone to the aid of the broken-hearted and oppressed and the invaded and enslaved and outraged?'

"This is why we are in this war. This is why these men have organized this company. This is why I speak of the subject from this sacred desk. To their everlasting disgrace, many ministers refuse to discuss this greatest world's tragedy from the pulpit, and to denounce the vilest crimes that ever cursed the earth and to warn the people against those dangers which threaten us. Surely war must cease from the earth; God hasten the day. But war will never cease through the paralysis of men's courage in a craven spirit, that dares not crush the serpent's head that is lifted against the well-being of humanity. And so we have been slowly forced to think that we are in the gravest of danger. We have read of the ravage of Belgium and the enslavement of Serbia, and the massacre of a million Armenians, and the destruction of the Jews and Syrians of the Holy Land, and the desolation of Poland and we are forced to believe that a similar fate would be imposed upon us if it could be done. My friends, we can no longer cry 'Peace, when there is no peace.' We want this dreadful war to cease, but it must not cease until the power that deliberately plans and executes such outrages has been broken. Men, what would you do if, when you came back from your work some evening you found your home a mass of ruins over the dead bodies of your wives and children? Or if you found that they had disappeared, forced by brutal monsters at the point of the bayonet into a life of captivity? I ask you, if America refuses to-day to climb up to her Calvary that will save her from such a fate, who in the days to come will hold us guiltless? The just God who withheld not his only Son from the Cross could not look with favor upon a people who would put their own concern for comfort and ease above the holy claims of righteousness and liberty.

"To each of us of therefore there comes a holy commission from the King of kings, 'Guard that which is committed unto thee.' What can you and I do, who for good and sufficient reasons cannot go to the trenches? In the first place we must do all we can to help those noble young men who have placed their lives upon the altar of their country, ready for service and if need be for sacrifice. We must help them. We must guard them from all foes in the rear. We must furnish them with abundant food and clothing, and also we must to a large extent clothe and feed the nations with whom we have mad-common cause. It is evident to every thinking man that our industries, our farms, our gardens and mines and shipyards and factories and railways and everything must be made more effective, and that the men and women who devote themselves to these things will be serving their country just as truly as the men in the trenches. And whoever of us fails to assume the duty of careful and provident conservation of forces of every sort, is falling in a criminal way in the defense of our country.

"In a second way we must guard our sailors and our soldiers from the moral evils that confront them on every side. There are some things I cannot speak of here, but you know that the ravages of vice in this war are fearful. Do you not know that these evils are gnawing at the heart of our nation and sapping her life's blood, and you and I have not done our duty until by our prayers to God and our petitions to men we have done our utmost to wipe out this fearful stain of immorality.

"And what shall I say about strong drink? I believe this war will not have been fought in vain if this curse can be wiped off the face of the earth. England seems to have come to a point where she must decide between beer and bread.

"And now this last word. We stand for the defense of our homes. 'Guard well that which is committed unto thee.' The dearest and most sacred spot on earth is home. Around it are the most sacred associations, and about it cluster the sweetest memories. Our national life will never rise higher than our home life. The most beautiful picture that God has ever painted is that of a father and mother who love Jesus Christ, taking hold of the hands of their children and leading them on in the pathway of righteousness. And the blackest picture that the devil has ever painted is that of a father and mother without Christ, taking hold of the hands of their children and leading them into a Christless life and down the broad way to destruction. In these closing moments I bid you guard well our altar fires. I believe that this is the most important thing that any of us can do. There is an atmosphere of souls as well as of seas and skies, and our chief business in guarding the home is to create such an atmosphere for the physical and mental and moral and spiritual growth in the home, that there will ever be developing a character like unto that which is divine. Is the Bible an open book in your home? Is the voice of prayer heard in your home? Is the Sabbath day remembered in your home? Is there a family altar in your home? These are the safeguards which God has committed unto us.

"Are we doing all we can for our boys? Let us keep the altar fires burning brightly. Oh let us do our part to preserve inviolable our sacred trust."

WOMEN ASKED TO VOLUNTEER THEIR SERVICE FOR REGISTRATION

The Women's Committee of the Council of National Defense is working to secure a thorough registration of the women, in order to obtain a knowledge of the woman power and the number of trained women available to fill positions vacated by men called to national service. This registration will also disclose the number of women able to render volunteer service and to those who desire to work for compensation.

A committee for registration is now being formed in Montgomery county and women in every village and town of the county are urged to volunteer their services for this work. If all the clubs, lodges and church societies, the W. C. T. U. and suffrage organizations will unite to form in every center a unit of the Council of Defense, to whom the directions from the State and National Committees may be passed along and by them carried into effect, the registration will be thoroughly and quickly completed.

For information, address Mrs. R. J. Hamilton, Jr., Director of Montgomery County Women's Committee of National Defense, Athens avenue, Ardmore, or Mrs. A. M. Snyder, Chairman of Registration, Wyoming avenue, Ardmore.

8.00 P. M.—Wednesday evening—Prayer meeting.

Church Notes

The attendance and the services last Sunday were very inspiring. Good audiences greeted the pastor at all services. Mr. Waldner gave a most excellent address to the Bible school. We all want to hear him again.

A great crowd of young people gathered to hear the pastor's Candle Light sermon in the Young People's meeting. Both old and young seem to want more such meetings.

The special music of the day was real gospel singing, especially the quartet in the evening. One cannot help but be inspired and uplifted under that kind of music.

All who are not regularly attending church elsewhere are invited to come and worship with this church

ALL SAINTS' P. E. CHURCH.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES

Who said bowling? We all did, was the immediate answer. And, as a consequence, there are now exactly thirty names of men all getting into trim for an early start. The interest is very keen, not only by many of our old members and pastmasters of the art, but also by many new men who have recently been numbered in our splendid town.

It is the desire of the managers, Messrs. Savill, Weaver and Yeager to give every bowling enthusiast a good opportunity to get into this fine game of sport and recreation and during the next week or so there will be try-outs every night, not only for the Main Line team but also for a two-man tournament.

Even the younger boys have grasped the opportunity and it is eventually hoped that they too will be represented in the tournaments.

Now's your chance, you stay-at-homes, to enjoy a few evenings a week at the finest pastime to be had in the borough, so come in and enjoy yourselves. If you do not believe this statement ask your family physician. Officers of the Y. M. C. A. are: Mr. H. S. Hopper, president; C. E. Kreamer, vice-president; D. D. Sticker, treasurer; Charles W. Schaeffer, executive secretary.

SPECIAL SERVICE

There will be a special service at the Methodist Church Sunday morning at 11 o'clock by Rev. Chris. G. Koppel, which will be particularly interesting just at this time. The subject of the sermon will be "Why We Love Our Native Land."

You are cordially invited to be present and join in this patriotic service.

SELL TOLL HOUSES OCTOBER 2

State Plans "Progressive Sale" of Lancaster Pike Properties

The toll houses along the old Lancaster pike, from Philadelphia city line to Paoli, will be sold by the State Highway Department, October 2.

The plan is to have a progressive sale, starting at the house near the Philadelphia city line at one o'clock, and stopping at each house until the last one, at St. Davids, is reached. The houses contain six rooms each, and are in fair condition, but must be moved from the line of the road by January 1.

COMMUNITY MARKETING

It may be of interest to the residents of Narberth to know that a "community marketing" committee has been formed under the auspices of the Women's Community Club of Narberth. Its success will depend largely upon the co-operation it receives from you.

A letter from the Department of Agriculture states that this department is prepared to ship potatoes and apples in carload lots around the first two weeks in October. A minimum carload of apples contains 150 barrels and potatoes in either barrels or sacks to the amount of 600 bushels per carload lot.

The committee mentioned has altered and hope to follow with other household commodities.

If you are interested in particulars relative to the foregoing, any information will be cheerfully given, if you will phone Narberth 395-W on Monday and Tuesdays between the hours of 10 and 12 A. M.

If this appeals to you, it is expedient that you communicate at once, so that the committee may ascertain if the proposition can be carried through successfully.

The officers of the Community Club of Narberth are:

President—Mrs. C. P. Fowler.
Vice-president—Mrs. Ellery Taylor.
Recording Secretary—Mrs. Harry Jacobs.
Corresponding Secretary—Mrs. Roy Clark.
Treasurer—Mrs. E. Cockrill.

GOVERNMENT NOT TO SEIZE FOOD SUPPLIES HELD IN HOMES

The Department of Agriculture authorizes the following:

There is no truth in a widely circulated statement that the Government expects to seize food supplies from any family. Both the Food Administration and the Department of Agriculture join in a statement to counteract what seems to be a deliberate propaganda to the effect that the Government expects to take from every family all canned goods put up to the excess of (100) one hundred quarts.

This is only one of the variations of rumor that has been widely circulated. Another statement is that the Government has been urging the canning, drying and preserving of fruits and vegetables so that they will be in a convenient form for the Government to handle and transport when it takes them away from the people. Further elaboration is that these goods are to be taken away from American homes and shipped to England.

The authorities state emphatically that no such course has ever been contemplated by the Government. On the contrary, the Department of Agriculture and the Food Administration are strongly urging housewives to can and preserve, especially at this time, all surplus fruits and vegetables in order that the households themselves may have a cheap and plentiful supply of food.

COMPETITION FOR BEST KEPT YARDS

Competition for the "best kept, most artistic and attractive yards, as seen from the street" is on the way.
The judges have made several visits recently and will probably announce their decision very shortly.

A few of the awards have been definitely placed; for instance, Mr.
James Artman, Winsor and Wynne-wood avenues, is especially commended for the most attractive and complete display of spring flowers, his place showed to great advantage in early and late spring.

For Narberth a special prize has been secured for this season, to be won twice, as all the other trophies,
with the exception of the grand prize (which must be won three times) goes to Mr. Artman. Second award to Mrs. A. C. Shand.

On Dudley avenue a great many attractive yards were noted and will be mentioned later. Some of the yards around the houses recently built by Mr. Harris were in a commendable state of cultivation, the lawns rivaling the finest in town.

This writer has mislaid his notes,
but the house numbers on Dudley avenue deserve much praise; 322
414, 416, 418 and 420.

The following numbers on Woodside avenue are worthy of mention, viz: 307, 313, 416 and lot next door, 103, 105, 26, 9, 18, 20, 24, 28 and 30
and Grove Place corner house, 315.

On the corner of Chestnut avenue
and Wynnewood avenue, the lots 5, 9 and 15 are worthy of mention. Mrs.
Dold's place, as usual, looked in prime condition.

The splendid condition of the church properties was noted, which speaks well for the civic pride of the town.

The judges for this season are Messrs. A. Chandler Manning, a former Boston landscape designer, now a resident of Ardmore; Andrew Mc-Naughton, superintendent, A. J. Cas-sat Estate, Haverford, and Hugh Barclay, superintendent, Frank Graham Thomson Estate at Merion. Our local townsman, A. E. Wohlert, will act as guide.

The judges have promised to write up fully their findings at an early date.

RED CROSS

Anyone who can spare a little time each day, could obtain yarn free from Mrs. Redifer, and make a sweater for the soldiers. They are quite easy to make, being sleeveless and taking less time than a scarf. There is such a demand for the sweaters and helmets, particularly, that anyone who can knit would be doing a good charitable act by making these articles, leaving the plainer things such as wristlets
and scarfs for the novices.

WAR LIBRARY FUND APPEALS TO NARBERTH

The following letter has just been received from Miss Sarah P. Bedford, librarian of the West Chester Library Association, who is the head of the library district of the American Library Association which includes Narberth. The association has been asked by Raymond B. Fosdick, chairman of the Commission on Training Camp Activities, to assume responsibility for providing adequate library facilities in the thirty-two cantonments and National Guard training camps, now opening throughout the country. It is proposed to erect in each camp a library under the direction of the American Library Association, the funds to be secured from private sources. Secretary of War
Baker is chairman of the Library War Council. The library system will consist not only of books, but of buildings and equipment, all under the direction of the association. "One dollar apiece from the stay-at-homes will give to those who are fighting our battles some of the pleasure they crave, relieve the pang of homesickness and loneliness, and keep them in touch with the life they vacated. The letter follows:

"Mr. A. J. Loos, Chairman Civic Association, Narberth, Pa.,

Dear Sir:—I write to you as one active in civic welfare about the movement started by the American Library Association to furnish libraries and books in the thirty-two cantonments in the U.
S. for the soldiers and sailors in camps and at the front. The demand for books and reading by our soldiers should be met. The country and State have been dis-tricted—each town to be assessed 5 per cent. of its population.
Narberth at 3000 would be $150.
The money may be raised in any way you choose. In many towns a committee of ten raises the money. In others, the various societies and clubs do it. I am assisting Miss S. M. Alsin, of Conshohocken, who can give you more information than I can.
Hoping that Narberth may be willing to do its share,
Very truly,

Sarah P. Bedford.

P. S.—The week beginning September 24 is the time when the money will be raised all over the U. S."

This appeal should meet with instant response from all who have the welfare and moral upkeep of our soldier and sailor boys at heart. The time is short, and I therefore urgently ask the head of every organization in Narberth to be one of a committee to solicit funds for this purpose.

The pastor of every church in Nar-berth is requested to announce at both services next Sunday that this campaign is in progress. The presidents of the Y. M. C. A., the Community Club, the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Y. M. C. A., the fire company, the Tennis and Ball Club, the director of Narberth Home Guard, presidents of Council, School Board and Board of Health, and every other organization in the borough is hereby requested to co-operate with the Civic Association
in this work.

I will take the liberty of asking all contributors who do not hand their contributions directly to those who solicit them, to remit to Mr. Daniel Leitch, cashier of the local branch of the Merion Title and Trust Company, feeling assured that Mr. Leitch will be willing to act as treasurer.

Remember, the need is urgent, and the time is short. Narberth has done nobly in every other activity for the welfare of our soldier and sailor
boys, and I am confident she will respond generously now.

A. J. Loos,
President Narberth Civic Assn.

The above department should be of the greatest use to the community, the list contains the name of every professional man, tradesman, mechanic, shopkeeper, etc., who does or can in any way serve his fellowtownsman, and who is progressive enough to add name to list of Register.
As it is difficult for those contributing their time and efforts to the production of "Our Town" to personally either know or interview all such, it would be most helpful if those not now found in the printed list would send in a memo of their names, address, phone numbers and businesses or professions for listing. This will cost as follows: 10 cents each issue for 7 lines; 5 cents for each additional line.
