INTRODUCTION.

IN presenting the public with the first number of the Connecticut Real Estate Register, a few words of explanation may seem necessary. It certainly will be no news to the intelligent business people of our State to say that there has always existed a great necessity for a first-class Connecticut Real Estate Register; a work that should become particularly identified with the interests of real estate owners, and purchasers, in our State,—and a work to be recognized as authority upon all matters pertaining to the real estate business. Without further preface, we will say, that, in the Connecticut Real Estate Register which we have established, we shall endeavor to furnish such a work, and shall also try, to the very best of our ability, to maintain the good standing of our profession.

We have determined to make THE CONNECTICUT REAL ESTATE REGISTER a permanent institution, although the expense attending the publication and circulation of it will be very large. It is our intention to issue it semi-annually; and its pages will contain a reliable descriptive list of the largest number of desirable FARMS, COUNTRY RESIDENCES, VILLAGE AND CITY PROPERTY, MILLS AND MANUFACTORIES, HOTELS, STORES, BUILDING LOTS, LIVERY STABLES, BUSINESS CHANCES, &c., &c., to be found registered for sale at any real estate agency in New England. It will also contain leading and important articles of interest to the buyer and seller as regards the state of the markets as affecting real estate, &c.

To every FARMER or owner of real estate, who may advertise their property for sale in its columns,—and to the PURCHASER,—it will prove an invaluable work, and supply the want long felt by thousands of buyers and sellers who are daily seeking new homes in our State; and a work greatly needed by myself in my own extensive business for a period of ten years, as a medium of public communication between buyer and seller to be reached in no other way, and to aid me in sustaining in the future, as in the past, our unrivalled preeminence as the first among real estate brokers. If you have a FARM or REAL ESTATE of any description to dispose of, you will find this the very best and by far the cheapest mode of making known among actual buyers just what you have for sale; as I send to the very man who wants to buy a full and accurate description of your property in each copy of the REGISTER.

It will be CIRCULATED GRATUITOUSLY, in order that people in every section of the country may let their friends and neighbors who are seeking new homes, know of the large and varied list of desirable real estate offered for sale at the old established CONNECTICUT REAL ESTATE OFFICE, and to induce them to seek our beautiful homes, our healthy climate, and prolific soil; our valuable water powers, mills, and manufactories, schools, &c.,—instead of incurring the fearful risk of locating themselves and families in the fever-ridden sections of other States. I propose to advertise everything in a full and explicit manner, and to faithfully and impartially represent, as heretofore, whatever I may offer for sale; and shall use care to always avoid exaggeration, that all may rely upon the description given as correct and truthful, so that the purchaser will find the property as it is represented to be; and need make but one journey to find just the property he wants.

There are thousands daily seeking Farms, Country Residences, Business Chances, &c. &c., in our State for purchase. They all need some reliable and central authority, where they can obtain a complete and accurate list of the greater portion of the property for sale in our State. Now they are obliged to purchase papers day after day, and then seldom find what they want. The CONNECTICUT REAL ESTATE REGISTER will be a work which they can lay their hands upon at any time, "free," and find in its columns the greater portion of the desirable property for sale in this State, and best adapted to their wants.

Since we have announced our intention to publish the Register, we have received from ten to twenty letters daily, from parties wishing to purchase property of every description, — wishing the Register sent to them, &c. We now have over 3,000 names of those wishing the REGISTER, and shall obtain the balance of our subscribers by advertising it in the daily and weekly papers, "sent free to any address," besides distributing from thirty to fifty per day among actual buyers who call at our office. We shall also distribute them in all the principal hotels, eating-houses, steamboats, railway stations, &c. &c.; in a word, we intend to keep THE CONNECTICUT REAL ESTATE REGISTER before the people.

Those wishing to buy in any particular locality, will be furnished with full descriptions of all we have, and as we are receiving new property for sale every day, and have much valuable property NOT advertised in the REGISTER or PAPERS, parties not finding what they want should communicate with us before purchasing. No trouble to comply with your wishes, and no charge to buyers whatever. We ask you to consult your own interest, by paying us a visit, or write to us, and we will gladly furnish you with all the information in our power.

In sending for a more definite description of any property, please give the number at the top, also the town in which it is located. It was our intention to have the Register contain a description of about 500 farms that we have for sale; but after reflection, we thought best to place in it only those that had been left for sale recently, thereby presenting to those wishing to purchase a fresh collection that have not been long in the market. This issue will not contain those received since Oct. 15th; and as we shall receive hundreds before April 1st, next, parties about to purchase should examine our list at the office.

As we have, for years, sold more real estate than all other brokers in Connecticut combined, and are now doing a larger business than ever before, it is hardly necessary for us to say to those wishing to buy, sell or exchange property of any description, that they will find it greatly to their advantage to deal at the old established Connecticut Real Estate Office. OUR MOTTO IS THIS: No sale, no pay; and no charge to the purchaser under any circumstances. We charge, for selling real estate outside of Hartford, two and one-half per cent. on the price obtained, the same as we have charged heretofore, notwithstanding the largely increased expense of advertising in the papers, and of issuing THE CONNECTICUT REAL ESTATE REGISTER. AUCTION SALES, and special sales, will be charged special rates, to be ascertained on application.

THE FEE FOR ADVERTISING IN THE REGISTER we have fixed at $10; and this amount will be deducted from the commission when the property is sold. Those who have previously paid us for advertising in the papers, can have theirs inserted in the REGISTER, on receipt of five dollars, which will also apply on commission. This, in reality, is but advancing a small portion of the commission to have your property disposed of; and when a party is willing to advance that small portion of the fees, then we are satisfied he really wants to sell; and we are ready to go ahead and use our best efforts to dispose of his property, and pay out our own money also in advertising it liberally in the papers. We take it for granted when we receive the small fee required, you are desirous of selling out.

In sending us a description of your property, be careful to fill out a correct and full description.

Those having property for sale, will find the Register the medium through which they can dispose of it quickly, and at less expense than in any other way.

Blanks will be furnished (free), on application, to parties who desire to avail themselves of our services; and they should send a minute and correct description, with lowest price, terms, &c.; and if desiring to advertise, enclose the Register fee of ten dollars, which will apply on commission, and your property will be liberally advertised in the Register and in the NEWSPAPERS; also a description will be placed on file in our office, which is thronged continually.

N. B. No description will be placed in the next number of the Register unless the fee is sent in, with the description.

OFFICE OPEN DAY AND EVENING, and myself, or competent assistants, are always in attendance to give the desired information.

Very truly yours,

C. A. LINCOLN.

THE REAL ESTATE MARKET.

WITH the more favorable weather we have had of late, the demand for every variety of real estate is greater with us than at any period during the past eleven years. Houses and tenements for rent, are scarce. We need a great increase in the numbers of good comfortable houses, of moderate size and rent. Our MECHANICS, and others, and the stranger who would locate with us,—if they were to be had,—want them: Hartford capitalists should protect and shelter her mechanics, for they have made them, and our city, WEALTHY IN MANUFACTURES, and if encouraged to remain with us, by giving them comfortable homes, at moderate cost, they will build up for Hartford a still greater fame. But houses of this class in the city are not readily found, and many are obliged to seek property for purchase; and as property in the city is high, very many are purchasing in the country. Cheap residence, and farm property, is in great demand with us, as this class of people are prepared to BUY A CHEAP PROPERTY, (and pay interest if need be,) rather than hire at present rates; and so soon as we offer anything desirable, in city or country, at prices ranging from $1,500, to $6,000, it is taken at once. There is considerable speculative inquiries for residence and business property, and large estates, which can be divided up, and sold out again in parcels. We dispose of an immense amount of city, and farm property especially, and could sell much more if good desirable places could be had. Property in many parts of our city and State cannot fail to prove a profitable investment, as it is rapidly enhancing in value; and at present prices, although some are offered largely in advance of former rates, are still very reasonable, considering the certainty of the rapid increase in value. We offer a large amount of property at former prices, much of which is for sale in consequence of old age, infirmity, business changes, &c., rendering a disposal absolutely necessary: consequently, bargains are offered. We can give no better advice to any one than to secure a bargain when you can; and we know that such we are constantly offering, and this issue of the REGISTER contains very many of them.

All classes of real estate, in desirable locations, are sure to go up higher; and any property bought now, will bring a good profit in a short time. We feel sure of this, and our advice is, not to delay when you can secure a good bargain. Now is the time to buy; and a careful examination of THE CONNECTICUT REAL ESTATE REGISTER will show you where good investments may be had.

NOTICES OF THE PRESS.

“REAL ESTATE.—C. A. Lincoln is one of the oldest real estate brokers doing business in this city, and his operations have been very extensive. His facilities for making purchases or effecting sales can not be surpassed. His office has long been known as the ‘Head Center’ for New England in all real estate matters. He offers for sale over 500 farms and any amount of other property—and still he says, “I want 300 more farms, &c., as I am selling them off rapidly.’ His motto suits the people—‘No sale no pay.’”—Hartford Post.

“Over $53,000 worth of real estate, mostly farms, was sold by C. A. Lincoln, real estate broker, at his office yesterday. He actually sold, for Cash, twelve different properties at private sale. We should consider it a big day’s work. If any of our readers have real estate for sale, we advise them to leave their property with him, and we can assure them they will not remain under their own shingles long.”—Hartford Press.

“REAL ESTATE BROKERS AND REAL ESTATE SALES.—We notice by our exchanges that C. A. Lincoln, Esq., 265 Main street, Hartford, is selling an immense amount of Farm Property and real estate of every description in all sections of the country; and why not? He is an enterprising, wide-awake, clever fellow, has hosts of friends, advertises far and near, and deals liberally with everybody. He is a practical farmer himself, understands his business, and his sales for the past ten years have been enormous, and are constantly increasing. If any of our readers have any real estate for sale, we advise them to employ him to dispose of it, as he will dispose of it if any body can; besides, his motto is, ‘No sale, no pay.’”—Willimantic Journal.

“Buyers of real estate for the past few years have been in the habit of going direct to a broker, as they can there obtain (free) more information in five minutes, than they would get in searching the country over a whole season; and those wanting to sell will ‘take due notice thereof, and govern themselves accordingly.’”—Hartford Times.

“We called in at the office of C. A. LINCOLN, Real Estate Broker, yesterday, and were surprised to witness the amount of business he is doing in selling real estate of every description on commission. His office was thronged with buyers and sellers from every part of the country; and we did not wonder that his sales were very large. The fact is, he is a wide-awake, reliable gentleman to deal with, and the people like his ways of doing business."—Hartford Daily Courant.

"THE WAY TO SELL FARMS.—If any of the farmers in this vicinity wish to sell out we would advise them to put their real estate into the hands of C. A. Lincoln, real estate broker, Hartford, who is one of those active fellows, that is entirely out of his element unless he is buying or selling. If any one wishes 'to buy a farm' he will suit him short meter. He goes on the principle of 'no sale no pay,' and if any one has not fully made up his mind to sell he had better not employ Mr. Lincoln, for it would go off so quick that there would be no time to back out. The fact is, he is a wide-awake, liberal, and reliable gentleman to deal with; advertises extensively far and near, and is universally known as one of the most successful dealers in real estate in the whole country, and during the past ten years his sales have been enormous and are constantly increasing. His business has become so extensive that he now publishes a Conn. Real Estate Register at an expense of $3000 a year and sends it free to any address all over the United States."—State Paper.

CONCLUSION.

THIS closes the first number of THE CONNECTICUT REAL ESTATE REGISTER, which we present gratuitously to the public, with as full and accurate descriptions as is possible, of every variety of property, fresh from the owners. THE REGISTER is now fully established, and will be issued semi-annually: from present indications we think the next issue will reach a CIRCULATION OF NEARLY 25,000 COPIES, making it one of the best advertising mediums in the country.

We admit no Advertisements in this issue.

IN OUR NEXT ISSUE, we shall admit a limited number.

EVERY BRANCH OF TRADE should have its representative in these columns, and as we shall admit none but honest upright dealers, we shall cheerfully recommend them to our patrons. From our own office in the usual course of our business, we guarantee it a free circulation of 6,000 COPIES. The balance of our subscribers we shall obtain by advertising the Register in every part of the country, SENT FREE TO ANY ADDRESS POST PAID ON RECEIPT OF TWO STAMPS.
