

THE PRIMARY TICKET

VOTERS SHOULD STUDY BALLOT CAREFULLY TO VOTE INTELLIGENTLY

Some confusion, because of lack of information, might result at the primary election among the voters, and there has been reported many cases where voters have declared they would not participate in the election for the reason that the "ballot is too complicated." To offset this possible confusion, there is a movement on foot among the party organizations, as soon as the sample ballots are sent out by the county clerks, to start a campaign of education among those who do not understand the working of the election.

Voting the primary ballot should be a simple matter. There will be provided separate ballots for each of the parties, and also for non-partisans, which includes those citizens who did not register under party designation. The difference between the party ballots and the non-partisan ballots is that the party ballots contain party aspirants as well as the candidates running for non-partisan nominations, while the non-partisan ballot contains non-partisan aspirants only.

On all party ballots will appear the aspirants for county offices, the judiciary and the state educational aspirants.

Every voter, no matter what his registration, has the right to participate in the primary and cast his ballot for the county aspirants and other non-partisan candidates. The voter registered as a non-partisan and the partisan are given equal rights and equal justice under their registrations.

The plan suggested for voters who are not familiar with the voting system, is for him to take his sample ballot, mark it at home and carry it into the booth on election day and copy the markings by stamping with the rubber cross opposite the names of those for whom he wants to vote. This plan will insure accuracy in the marking of the ballot, as well as greater speed.

Stories have been circulated to the effect that it will require from five to eight minutes for the marking of every ballot. These stories have been sent out for the purpose of making political capital. Actual tests have been made and the average time has been found to be less than five minutes, and some of the markers who had studied out their ballot before beginning, did the job in less than two minutes.

HAS HOPELESS APPEARANCE

Whatever of good influence may be brought to bear by the United States upon the powers of Europe now menacing one another, mobilizing troops on land and naval forces and perhaps actually engaged in desperate combats, will be exerted in an effort to prevent a general war.

President Wilson is a strong advocate of peace and he would also have this land spared the losses which it will inevitably sustain as a result of a general and prolonged convulsion in Europe.

But Washington influence as a peace factor, unfortunately, has little weight, and the United States can do little, with propriety, more than to offer the good offices of the nation towards averting the stupendous conflict that now appears imminent, even to the most optimistic mind.

It is also possible that, later, as a medium of communication between the conflicting parties, American diplomatic representatives in foreign lands may be in a position to contribute valuable assistance toward ending the struggle. But for the present, at least, this country can be little more than a neutral spectator. Benevolent wishes are of little avail at this time.

WAR NEWS

The fact that Kaiser Wilhelm has gone to join his army on the Alsation frontier is an indication that the Germans are prepared to attack the French in great force and that a great engagement is impending.

The report that the Germans now occupy the city of Liege seems to be confirmed.

Namur and Louvaine now seem to be the objective points of the German advance.

Official announcement from Paris says the French now occupy two cities in Alsace-Lorraine, which forty years ago was French soil.

Just because a man hurrahs and claps his hands when listening to a political speech is no sign that he won't sit away back and dose when he goes to hear a sermon.

DAYS' SHORT STORIES

ITEMS OF INTEREST OF PEOPLE YOU KNOW IN SOCIAL AND BUSINESS WORLD

PARTY OFF FOR BEAR VALLEY

Bear valley seems to be a favorite haunt for many who seek rest and outdoor life, especially this summer, as many local as well as other people have gone there for their vacation and pleasure trip.

Among the most recent parties who left Glendale by auto were Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Clewett and children, Merian and Robert, of 552 Orange street and Mrs. Clewett's sister, Miss Edna Phillips, of Tropic, who departed Saturday for a three weeks' outing in the above mentioned spot.

Complimentary to this party, Mrs. F. R. Matthiesen of 473 Orange Grove avenue entertained with a farewell dinner in her home Friday evening and as is always the case, a most delightful evening was enjoyed.

GOOD PUBLIC OFFICIAL

That Ed W. Hopkins, county assessor, candidate for re-election, will be elected at the primaries seems to be certain. He has made a good public official and has always given the same close attention to the affairs of the office that any man does to his own personal business, and there has never been a charge of graft or misappropriation made against his administration.

After the freeze last year and the flood this year, he made a personal canvass of the districts affected, and affixed the damages to the orchards and lands without waiting for the complaints of the parties interested.

He has placed the office upon a business basis without regard to politics or partisanship and has endeavored to bring his department up to a high standard of efficiency.

SHOWALTER'S NAME ON TICKET

Frank J. Showalter, candidate for justice of the peace of Burbank township, says on account of the carelessness of someone, his name did not appear in a list of the names of candidates published in some of the city papers.

Mr. Showalter says he is a real live candidate and his name is already printed on the official ballot. He asks his friends to look for his name on election day, August 25.

ATTRACTIVE WINDOW DISPLAY

In the west window of the Glendale Hardware Company at the corner of Broadway and Isabel street, is a battleship constructed entirely of articles usually sold in a hardware store. The ship certainly makes an attractive display and has attracted much attention. Fred W. Sanford is the originator and designer of this novel window.

CORRECTION

It was the Glendale Commandry, No. 53, Knights Templars, who enjoyed the banquet and card party Saturday evening, the occasion having taken place in the attractive Masonic temple instead of the K. of P. hall.

OPPORTUNITY IN THE ORIENT

"It is not merely China, Russian Siberia, Japan, Korea, Siam, Formosa, the Philippines, Java, Borneo, great and small," a government official remarked, "that constitute a vast field which has been termed the Pacific opportunity. All Eastern Asia today is trembling with the oncoming tread of progress, and when once these uncouth hosts realize that o'd conditions of sloth and inaction must yield to the invasion of new ideas, then the movement all along the line will astonish the world."

HOLLYWOOD WATER TROUBLES

A temporary injunction restraining the city of Los Angeles from enforcing the provisions of its recently enacted water rate ordinance, was granted to the Union Hollywood Water Company yesterday by Judge Erskine M. Ross, sitting for Judge Olin Wellborn in the United States district court. After rendering his decision, Judge Ross fixed the company's bond at $30,000, which is deposited to insure consumers against possible loss in the event a permanent injunction eventually is denied.

The ordinance attacked by the Hollywood corporation purports to reduce the ordinary residence rate from $1.40 to $1.25 minimum per month, and these figures, the company alleges, if allowed to be charged will prove confiscatory.—Hollywood Citizen.

ARTHUR KING IS FINED

YOUNG MASHER RECEIVES JUST DESERTS IN HANDS OF JUDGE WHOMES

A young married man, nineteen years of age, whose name is Arthur S. King, and whose address is 952 West Seventh street, Los Angeles, has managed to get in the limelight in Glendale considerably the past few days on account of attempts to flirt with young ladies.

It seems that King has spent the past few weeks driving an auto in Glendale for a Mrs. Wood, and during his leisure moments, according to his own testimony, he has been anxious to visit with the young ladies as a pastime.

Monday morning King was arrested and brought into Judge Whomes' court under three separate charges. The first charge was an attempt to flirt with Mrs. C. U. Wells, while she was walking on the streets of Glendale last Saturday. According to the evidence he asked Mrs. Wells to go riding with him. The judge fined the young man $10 for this offense.

The second complaint was brought by Miss Grace Shropshire, who testified that King, an entire stranger to her, asked her to go riding with him, and also asked her to go to lunch with him to the Easton restaurant. For this offense King was fined $15.

The third and most serious charge was made by Miss E. Kelley, who is employed in the Virginia Sweet Shop at 512 West Broadway. According to the evidence King was in the habit of frequenting the Virginia Sweet Shop, making purchases, and carrying on a conversation with Miss Kelley.

When he made a visit to that place last Friday he kissed the young lady, which act King does not deny. For this third offense he was fined $25.

The aggregate fines amounted to $50. Not having sufficient money on his person to pay the fines, the judge allowed him while in the custody of Marshal Miller to visit friends in an effort to secure the money necessary.

The case is one that is entirely against the young man, and after he is required to pay a few such fines he will wake up to the importance of conducting himself as a gentleman while in Glendale.

SIZE OF PRIMARY BALLOTS

The state primary ballot is fearfully and wonderfully made, five feet long and six feet wide. It is the largest ever presented to voters of the state, containing besides 770 names to be voted on, 41 propositions. These include constitutional amendments and initiatory, referendum and bonding laws. Among the initiatory measures are several said by opponents to be the most vicious ever presented.

According to a state law, arguments pro and con for each of these propositions must be printed and mailed to voters. The book which is now being printed by the state print shop contains 109 pages of closely printed matter; 1,800,000 of these books are being printed and with the printing of the ballots will cost the state $1,250,000.

So long is the ballot that it is figured that it will take the average voter the entire ten minutes allowed by law to vote, and for that reason 55 new precincts were made necessary in San Francisco.

The ballots are so large that the booths must be made larger. They were widened with the advent of the woman voter, her large hats and wide spreading hat pins, and now must be made larger to accommodate the huge ballots.

HANDS US BOUQUET

The P. E. O. Record, published at Parkville, Missouri, in its August number speaks in glowing terms of the proceedings of the delegates at the state convention of the order of P. E. O. held in Glendale last May, and makes the following complimentary mention of the Glendale Evening News: "The Glendale Evening News showed us a marked courtesy. It doubled its size during convention and each afternoon copies were to be had in the hall, with about two pages of P. E. O. in it reported by L's reporter, Mrs. Pulliam."

REMOVE TROUT

It has been estimated that 50,000 trout have been saved from perishing in the pools of the San Gabriel river, which now are rapidly drying up, by Monrovia sportsmen. The fish were seined out of the river and taken to the headwaters, where there is always water. The fish average about one and one-half inches in length.

PLANNING CELEBRATION

An enthusiastic meeting of many of the progressive and active citizens of this city was held at K. of P. hall Saturday evening. Frank E. Peters was chosen chairman of the meeting and ways and means were devised and discussed for a grand celebration to be held in Tropic sometime during the month of October. This carnival marks the completion of a number of improvements in Tropic, any one of which would be cause for a mighty demonstration in a town much larger than this city. The carnival will celebrate the completion of the two handsome tiled school buildings on Mariposa court and Acacia avenue and San Fernando road, improvement of Oak drive and walnut street, opening and widening Brand boulevard, completing new city hall and fire engine quarters, the purchase of one of the finest fire engines on the Pacific coast, ornamental lighting of Brand boulevard and San Fernando road and installing of one hundred fire hydrants in Tropic.

A special meeting of the Tropic Thursday Afternoon Club has been called for Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Frank B. McKenney on Laurel street, when the proposed plans and specifications of the new clubhouse will be presented and discussed. It is anticipated that there will be present every club member, as all are interested in the erection of the new clubhouse.

Mrs. M. Hillis and daughter, Miss Frances Hillis, of North Central avenue, were over-Sunday visitors at Venice.

After a pleasant visit of several days as the guest of his father and sisters, Samuel A. Sharpe and the Misses Sharpe of Cypress street, Geo. Sharpe has returned to his home at Hemet.

Dan Campbell and John Hobbs, past masters of Unity lodge, Masonic order, have returned from San Diego, where they attended a meeting of the Past Masters' Association of Southern California.

Miss Anna Anderson and sister, Miss Elsie Anderson of Virginia place, left for San Diego Sunday morning for a two weeks' visit.

N. P. Banks Sons of Veterans camp will hold their regular semi-monthly meeting of the camp at G. A. R. hall Tuesday evening. This will be veterans' night and a large attendance of the G. A. R. members is expected. The old grizzled war veterans delight in meeting with the Sons of Veterans and there is always a large attendance of the "old boys."

Mrs. Mary Barnes of North Central avenue is spending a few days visiting at Balboa Beach.

Miss Elizabeth Phillips has been appointed librarian at the Bible Institute in Los Angeles. Miss Phillips, who but recently arrived from Boulder, Colo., on a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. J. Phillips of Laurel, held the position of librarian in the University of Colorado and contemplated returning to Colorado, until the lure of the beauty and charm of the land of the afternoon sun decided her to remain in California.

The ways and means committee of the Tropic Thursday Afternoon Club will hold an important meeting on Wednesday afternoon at 200 North Central avenue.

N. P. Banks Post, Grand Army of the Republic, held a very interesting meeting at G. A. R. hall Saturday. Many of the veterans arranged to visit Huntington Beach during the encampment of the Southern California Veterans' Association, which will hold a ten days' outing beginning Tuesday at this popular beach town.

Several speakers from the 1914 Dry Campaign Oratorical Club and their Glee Club, from Los Angeles, will have charge of the services at the Tropic M. E. church next Sunday evening, August 16th. A cordial invitation is extended to the public.

Mr. H. G. Bradford, an esteemed citizen and merchant of Tropic, who has been ill at his home on Grace court, is able to be out again.

VETERANS' NIGHT

The Sons of Veterans of N. P. Banks Camp, No. 22, have extended a cordial invitation to N. P. Banks Post, No. 170, to meet with them at the G. A. R. hall, Glendale avenue, Tuesday evening, August 11. This meeting is to be known as veterans' night.

CLIMB MT. BALDY

Among the Campfire Girls who have just returned from a two weeks' outing in the mountains, there are seven lassies who are being warmly congratulated on every side for their pluck and daring. These young girls climbed to the top of Old Baldy last Monday night, alone, without a guide, a light or a firearm of any sort.

Leaving their camp at Seven Oaks at 4 o'clock in the afternoon, they were escorted by friends as far as Camp Baldy, 3 1/2 miles up the canyon. Each girl carried a canteen, a sweater, two lemons, a light lunch and her stick, besides the snake-bite outfit and ammonia for dizziness in high altitude.

From Camp Baldy at 6 o'clock they began their climb to the peak, which rises 10,080 feet above sea level. At 7:15 they reached Bear Flats, the last watering place. A ten-minute stop was made to fill canteens and when the moon rose it found the gay little party well started up the 2 1/2-mile zig-zag.

At 9:30 they reached The Pines, and here a short rest had to be taken on account of the effect of high altitude on breathing.

From then until 1 o'clock the trail led through giant pines. The full moon was directly overhead and the girls say it was so light you could almost read a newspaper. At 1 o'clock they passed the forest line and were on that part of their journey known as the "hard scramble," which it certainly was. About 2 o'clock they crossed The Narrows and began the last ascent. It was hard climbing here and the girls were almost exhausted. They staggered against the flag-pole at 3:50 "all in," as they expressed it.

The moon had gone down and there was a very dark hour before dawn broke. The winds blew around the barren top from the four corners of the globe and the girls huddled together over a tiny fire, teeth chattering and fingers numb. To try to describe the country as seen from the top of Old Baldy would be impossible. Suffice to say, that three states lay spread out before their eyes, as well as the blue Pacific. When the sun warmed up the young adventurers a little, they proceeded to toboggan in the snow, have a good old eastern snow fight and make a big snow man.

At 8:15 they gathered up canteens and reluctantly bid good-bye to age-old Baldy.

Early in the afternoon the plucky little company stumbled into camp, the heroines of the hour, having completed the 25-mile trip without an accident of any kind. The girls are none the worse for their daring trip and say they have had an experience which they will never forget. Those who left their names on Old Baldy's summit were Clara Jenkins, Elsie Tyler, Ethel Preston, Vera McPherson, Doris Lather, Edna Alley and Mildred Keyo.

BARACAS WILL EAT MELONS

The Baraca class of the First M. E. church will hold their regular monthly meeting tonight at the church. A good time and a watermelon feed are planned. Every member is expected to be present and attend to his share.

STUDY THE PRIMARY BALLOT

Every intelligent and well meaning citizen of California should make a careful study of the forty-one propositions to be voted on at the primary election Tuesday, August 25. Many of these propositions represent amendments that should never get the sanction of the people, and yet a carelessness on the part of voters may thrust upon the statute books laws that we do not want. Later the Glendale Evening News will attempt to give a synopsis of the propositions that will be printed on the primary ballot.

ANNOUNCEMENT!

There will be a meeting of the Campfire Girls at the Glendale Union high school tonight and everyone is asked to be on time—7:30 o'clock.

WATTS CITIZENS QUARRELING

Watts has become known as a place of strife and lack of harmony among her citizens. There are two factions there at present, the "wet" and the "dry," and both factions seem to love to quarrel. A few days ago a peace meeting was called, and the so-called peace meeting was the cause of more ill-feeling than any one for a long time. To an outsider it would seem that both factions are at fault.

IN THE SOCIAL WORLD

PINK LUNCHEON FOR TEN

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence L. Peckham, 125 South Jackson street, Saturday afternoon, ten girl friends of Miss Gladys Peckham were delightfully entertained at a pink luncheon, and garden party.

At 12:30 o'clock the way was led to the dining-room, where a beautiful table aglow with a center mound of Killarney roses, pink ices, cakes, tiny individual tapers and nut baskets to match, awaited the gladdened guests who found their places by means of hand adorned cards done in wee pink buds and gold.

Later an afternoon of pleasure was enjoyed on the lawn, where each and every young lady hovered until late.

Those besides the charming young hostess who enjoyed the pretty pink affair were the Misses Olive Bell Emery, Dorothy Hinkley, Josephine Emery, Dorothy Brown, Aileen McMaster, Alice Noyse, Rosalie Church, Ruth Morton and Doris Packer.

HONORS DAUGHTER

Complimentary to her daughter, Mrs. J. Frank Gore, who is visiting here from Pomona, Mrs. Mary J. Riggs entertained recently with a prettily appointed luncheon in her home, 1112 West Seventh street.

Shasta daisies of brightest yellow embellished the table and covers were laid for eight guests, all of whom were from Los Angeles and former friends in Redlands.

X. V. I. CLUB MEETS WITH MRS. ROBERTS

The usual afternoon pastimes, that of sewing, chatting and eating, were enjoyed Saturday last by members of the X. V. I. Club, who were guests in the home of Mrs. Warren Roberts, 707 West Seventh street.

Those present were Mrs. Roberts, Mrs. C. W. McFadden, Mrs. W. Daniels, Mrs. Joe McFadden, Mrs. Ruby Borthick, Miss Fredonia Borthick, Miss Carrie Cornwell, Miss Mae Cornwell, Miss Lillian Shropshire, Miss Birdie Shropshire, Miss Cora Ward, Miss Curtis, all of whom enjoyed the performance of "Maggie Pepper" at the Burbank theater in Los Angeles in the evening.

JOLLY TWELVE ENJOY PARTY

Saturday evening was filled with mirth and laughter for many, yet none enjoyed the night more than did the "Jolly Twelve," who gathered in the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Truitt, 411 West Ninth street, for an hour or two of cards and fun.

The gracious hostess carried out everything for the occasion in yellow and brown, brown-eyed Susans having been arranged in shower baskets and wall baskets throughout the house.

Five Hundred was the evening's diversion and was deserted only for a delicious midnight collation which was served in the dining-room.

Those present besides Mr. and Mrs. Truitt were Mr. and Mrs. V. Price Brown, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Beach, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Hinkley, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Beamon and Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Smith, who substituted for Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Parker, who are summering at one of the near-by beaches.

SUNDAY TEA

Mrs. Louise Simon proved herself a splendid hostess when on Sunday evening she entertained a number of young people at tea in her home, 1434 Vine street.

Cut flowers of the summer variety were used to brighten the rooms and tea table, at which were seated Mr. and Mrs. Robert Martin, Miss Georgia Whitney, Miss Eula Christian of Imperial, Miss Grace Beach, Miss Lola East, Mr. Julian Simon, Mr. John DeWar, Mr. Sidney Simon and the hostess.

WHICH TO CHOOSE

It must have occurred to Pacific coast people in Canada and in the United States, as well as to transcontinental railroad managers in both countries, that it will pay them to give serious attention to the matter of getting to the Panama-Pacific exposition next year, and incidentally to the Pacific West, visitors from the other side of the continent to whom travel expense will be a very important item. People of means will tour in that direction any way, but people of means are not the people who will remain out there or decide to settle there later. Well-to-do people are the ones wanted.

J. VINCENT HANNON ENDORSED FOR JUDGE OF THE SUPERIOR COURT

Ladies and Gentlemen: Honorable J. Vincent Hannon of the Los Angeles bar has announced himself as a candidate for the position of superior court judge of this county and his name will come before the electors of the county at the next primary election for one of the ten positions that will be vacant in that office.

We, the undersigned members of the bar of this county, take great pleasure in endorsing Mr. Hannon's candidacy, and we sincerely trust that the electors of the county will see fit, in their wisdom, to select him for one of the ten judgeships in this county, to be filled at the coming election.

Some of us have known Mr. Hannon since his boyhood days. Others of us have known him since he first began his career as a member of this bar. Others have known him in the active practice as an attorney, but all of us take great pleasure in certifying to the fact that in Mr. Hannon we have always found not only a splendid gentleman, but an excellent, well-equipped, competent lawyer, and one whom we not only believe but know from education, mental qualification and practice will make a splendid judge, and we endorse him as being fully qualified in every respect for that position.

It is our purpose, without disparaging the candidacy of any other aspirant to that office, to do what we can toward the election of Mr. Hannon for one of these places. There are ten judges for the superior bench to be elected in this county at the coming election and already the names of many men, fully qualified, have been suggested or announced, but with due respect to any and all of them, we believe that Mr. Hannon is as fully equipped and well qualified for that place as any man whose name has yet come before the people.

We take this means in making our position public in the hopes that those of our friends who have confidence in our knowledge of the fitness of men for the bench will do what they can to assist Mr. Hannon in this election. Very truly yours,
 Edwin A. Meserve, John G. Mott, Joseph Scott, Oscar Lawler, Max Loewenthal, Isidore B. Dockweiler, Frank P. Flint, George J. Denis, Walter F. Haas, J. Wiseman Macdonald, Albert M. Stephens, R. F. LIGHTENING THE BURDENS

If people who have goods delivered to their homes were just a little forehanded and thoughtful in their buying, they could materially lighten the burdens of the men, the boys and girls, and the horses that are required to serve them, observes the Council Bluffs (Ia.) Nonpareil. In some homes relivory boys call three and four times a day. It would be possible in most of these homes to reduce these calls to three times a week. And, out of this thoughtfulness for the comfort and well being of others, there would come grace, strength and pleasure to the doers.

No man ever got nervous prostration pushing his business; you get it only when the business pushes you.

Who is the first man to be laid off and the last man to be taken on by a business firm? The man who drinks.

MEETING THE STRANGERS

Alhambra Advocate: Alhambra is cultivating a very valuable as well as proper habit, that of extending a most cordial welcome to visitors and strangers who may be within her gates. The chamber of commerce, through its president, secretary and board of directors, is exceptionally active in this direction, as shown in the welcome extended the Adventists who are encamped within this city nearly 3000 strong and who come not only from all parts of Southern California, but from other parts of the state and some from outside of California.

These good people will be made familiar with Alhambra as a city and will carry home with them pleasant remembrances of their stay here that will inure to our benefit as the days go by. The board of trustees, in joining with the chamber in the general plan of welcome, also shows the aggressive spirit that makes any community grow. The people who come to Alhambra, whether by the hundreds or as the one individual, should be sought out by those appointed by the chamber of commerce, the city club and other organizations, and made to feel that someone takes an interest in them and their visit to our city. When the strangers come into Alhambra with no one to greet them and make them welcome, they are, as a general thing, not very good boosters of our city when they go away or locate somewhere else.

In this connection the Advocate suggests that a big banner, "Strangers Welcome," be stretched across Main street and that a large sign, "Chamber of Commerce," be placed on the city hall where it can readily be seen so that all strangers who come here seeking information will, at once, know just where to go. If the sign were put across at the city hall and the chamber of commerce added to the words, "Strangers Welcome," it might serve the double purpose of making the strangers feel at home and directing them where to go for information they are seeking.

Let us begin doing the things that will interest the visitors to the extent of wanting to locate here and become part of us.

THE WHIPPOORWILL

There are several reasons why the whippoorwill is rarely seen. He sleeps all day in the heart of the solitary woods, and instead of perching across the branch (which he is unable to do because his claws are so tiny), he crouches lengthwise along it, his dusky coloring not to be distinguished from that of the bark. His back and long wings are mottled in grays, buff and browns, his head black and white and his tail in 'blending colors, with the lower half of the outside feathers white. He matches well the mossy limb on which he squats. If he is discovered by chance, he utters no cry, but flies silently away.

The eggs are even harder to find than the parents, for they are creamy white with dark brown and olive spots, simply laid on the bare ground with the colors of which they blend. The whippoorwill is very careful of their children. If they think they are discovered, they pick them up in their mouths and move them as a cat does her kittens.—Farm Journal.

HENDRICKS
 THE CASH MAN
 1102 W. Broadway, Glendale.

The apple was the cause of Adam's downfall, but many a modern man traces his to a peach.

Mr. R. C. Sternberg of North Glendale has recovered from his recently contracted illness and together with other past masters of the Masonic lodge enjoyed the splendid celebration held at San Diego over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Oliver of 124 Howard street, with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Hadsell, of Los Angeles, as guests, motored to Santa Monica and about fifteen miles up the coast for a picnic Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Petty of 1443 Vine street returned late Sunday night from a delightful motor trip to Idylwild, near Redlands, where they enjoyed a taste of camp life. Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Herman of Los Angeles completed the merry party.

A cable to D. F. Robertson, manager of the steamship agency of the California Savings Bank, Los Angeles, announces the safe arrival at Shanghai, China, of Miss Ida M. Waite, who left Glendale June 25th on an extended tour of the Orient.

Only five more days left for those desirous of entering the tennis tournament which is to take place in Round Robin fashion some time this month. A goodly number of players have already placed their names upon the list, but as the old adage goes, "There is always room for one more."

Mrs. Frank Richardson and son, Frank, Jr., of 129 North Kenwood street, who with Mrs. Ruth Head and children, Elizabeth and Chas. Head, of 124 North Louise street, have been spending the past month at Manhattan Beach, returned Saturday evening from their wholly delightful outing.

Miss Irene Madden of Los Angeles was a house guest over the week-end of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Parker, 227 South Central avenue. On Sunday Miss Madden was joined by her mother, Mrs. Mae Madden, and sister, Miss Irene Madden, and Mr. R. Earl, also of Los Angeles, who were entertained at dinner in the Parker home.

During the next three months the position of concert master in the Presbyterian Sunday school orchestra will be filled by Mr. William Bode owing to Miss Frances Payne's absence. All the members are glad to see the young musician take up his former duties, and all admire the masterful manner in which he fills his position.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

Berries should never be hulled until just before the meal. Otherwise they lose much of their freshness and taste.

Never keep pastry in the ice box, as it soon becomes soggy.

A wet towel spread over the top of the ice box before the lid is closed will keep out the hot air and lessen the ice bill.

All acid drinks, such as lemonade or fruit punch, should never be mixed or served in a metal pitcher. Use a glass or china one.

To prevent hard crust forming on a pan of boiled mush, rub the top with lard while still warm.

ONE WAY TO PAY A DEBT

A crack-brained attorney who lived in Springfield, supported mainly by the other lawyers of the place, became indebted in the sum of $2.50 to a wealthy citizen of the county. The creditor, failing after repeated efforts to collect the amount due him, came to Mr. Lincoln and asked him to bring suit. Lincoln explained the man's condition and circumstances and advised his client to let the matter rest, but the creditor's temper was up, and he insisted on bringing suit. Again Lincoln urged him to let the matter drop, adding, "You can make nothing out of him, and it will cost you a good deal more than the debt to bring suit."

The creditor was still determined to have his way and threatened to seek some other attorney who would be more willing to take charge of the matter than Lincoln appeared to be. Lincoln then said, "Well, if you are determined that suit shall be brought I will bring it, but my charge will be $10." The creditor paid over the money and gave peremptory orders that the suit should be brought that very day.

After his client's departure, Lincoln went out of the office. He returned in about an hour with an amused look on his face. I asked what pleased him and he replied: "I brought suit against — and then hunted him up, told him what I had done, handed him half of the $10 and we went over to the squire's office. He confessed judgment and paid the bill." Lincoln added that he did not see any other way to make things so generally satisfactory.—"The Everyday Life of Abraham Lincoln."

WHALE 87 FEET LONG

The museum at Christchurch, New Zealand, the seventh largest in the world, has the entire frame of a gigantic whale which is claimed to be the largest animal seen by or known to man. The whale was washed ashore on the beach at Okarito, Westland, and the authorities at the Christchurch museum promptly took steps to have it placed in safekeeping. The parts were shipped to Christchurch, where they were reassembled beneath a specially constructed shelter adjoining the museum buildings. Some idea of the weight and preponderous bulk of the whale when washed ashore may be gathered from the fact that the frame alone, as it now stands, measures 87 feet, and weighs nine tons.

UNTRUTHFUL JOHN

"Why, my dear," exclaimed the good friend on finding Mrs. Newlywed in floods of tears, "what is the matter?"
 The young wife wiped her eyes and tried to compose herself and be inhumanly calm.
 "Well," she began with folded hands, "you know John is away for a week."
 "Yes, dear," helped the lady friend.
 "Well, he writes to me regularly and in his—has last letter he tells me he gets my photo out and kisses it every day."
 "But that is nothing for you to cry about," exclaimed the good friend.
 "Yes, it is," cried Mrs. Newlywed, bursting into tears afresh, "because I took my picture out of his ba-bag before he started in—just for a j-o-ke and put in one of mo-mother's in its place!"—Kansas City Journal.

WHY JOHN C. CLINE SHOULD BE SHERIFF

He has lived in Los Angeles 45 years and everybody is familiar with his clean public record.
 In 1894 as sheriff he handled the great American Railway Union strike without the aid of the militia, by appointing special deputies from the ranks of labor, to prevent disorder and the destruction of property. Thus in his wisdom demonstrating that men in any walk of life, put upon their honor, will observe their trust.
