SAYS PROCEDURE IN ISSUING STANELAND CHEQUE REGULAR

Alderman Woodward Replies With Quotation From Records of 1921; Alderman Andros Repudiates Any Knowledge of Legal Prosecution; Commissioner Staneland Silent.

Present Civic Finance Committee methods, which will be investigated in the Police Court Saturday, are exactly similar to the methods of the 1921 Finance Committee under Alderman E. B. Andros, whose recent charges led to the prosecution of Mayor William Marchant and three City Council members for alleged wrongful payment of $100 to Police Commissioner W. E. Staneland.

This is the substance of a counter-charge made by Alderman E. S. Woodward, chairman of the Finance Committee, this morning, after he had delved into the records of the Andros chairmanship. "I find in the records," said Alderman Woodward, "that on June 30, 1921, Alderman Andros, chairman of the Finance Committee, George Sangster and John Harvey committed a voucher for $200 to cover the expenses of Chief of Police John Fry to Montreal. This vote was not approved by the City Council, the records show. A similar vote, similar to the grant of $100 to Mr. Staneland, approved by the Finance Committee and now attacked by Alderman Andros, was made by the methods which Alderman Andros now attacks were the methods he employed himself when he was chairman of the Finance Committee.

Another precedent. "Another similar case, which does not concern Alderman Andros directly, but which shows that our methods are the methods of previous committees, was a vote of $500 to John Langley in 1920. This grant was decided upon by the Police Commission and was not approved by the Council. This grant was signed on behalf of the Finance Committee by Alderman Patrick, Johns and Sangster.

These two cases involve $700, against the $100 we granted to Mr. Staneland, and prove that we have acted in accordance with the customs of the past, and in accordance with Alderman Andros's own methods."

Plan Legal Fight. Mayor Marchant and members of the Finance Committee, at a lengthy conference in the City Hall this morning laid out plans for fighting the present charges pending against them in connection with the payment of $100 to Police Commissioner W. E. Staneland. After this conference the Mayor announced that he himself, Alderman E. S. Woodward, Alderman E. W. Perry, and Alderman David Leeming would be defended, when their case came up for trial Saturday, by D. S. Tait, of the firm of Tait & Marchant, and that pending trial, they would require strict attendance on the whole matter.

City Officials Called. Meanwhile the Taxpayers' Protective Association, which is sponsoring the charge against the Mayor and Finance Committee members, were completing plans for the prosecution Saturday. All city officials connected in any way with the payment of $100 to Mr. Staneland were summoned to-day to appear before Magistrate Jay Saturday to give evidence for the prosecution. These officials are: City Comptroller J. L. Raymur, City Treasurer E. C. Smith, City Clerk E. W. Brayer, Mayor David Leeming, John Baxter, who is also Secretary of the Finance Committee. They have been ordered to produce all documents and papers relating to the charge against the Mayor and his colleagues.

Not Worried. Members of the Finance Committee, it was apparent to-day, are not worrying over the charges brought against them. They hold that the payment of $100 to Mr. Staneland was purely Police Commission business, which was passed through the Finance Committee's hands simply as a matter of form, just as hundreds of other such expenditures are approved.

It was explained by city officials to-day that the money given to Mr. Staneland was paid out of a distinct fund, created under the Expenditure By-law, passed at the beginning of

SEIZURE MADE TO-DAY IN CORK

Insurgents' Literature and Field Dressings Taken

H. O'Mahoney, Cork Republican, Arrested

Cork, Oct. 19.—The arrest of H. O'Mahoney, a Cork republican, led to-day to the discovery of an important republican base in this city. In a house on the Grand Parade was found evidence that the building was used not only as headquarters for the republican publicity campaign, but also as the centre of "Cork No. 1" Flannery's military organization named after the ancient Irish Fenian bodies. Free State troops under an intelligence officer seized a large amount of literature, typewriters, field dressings, first aid outfits and provisions. It is thought the raid will prove a further blow against the republican campaign, particularly its propaganda department.

No One Injured; Rescue Twelve Miles Off Shore

Providence, R. I., Oct. 19.—One hundred and sixteen passengers were taken off the Colonial Line steamship Concord early to-day by the freighter Mohagan while a fire raged in the cargo hold of the passenger carrier.

The fire was controlled after men from the Mohagan had helped the Concord's crew to fight the blaze for an hour.

The transfer of passengers was done with the vessel's twelve miles from shore, and the wind blowing thirty miles an hour. No one was injured.

REWARD OFFERED FOR ARREST

Calgary Police Desire to Find C. M. Holt

Calgary, Oct. 19.—A reward of $500 has been offered by the J. H. Ashdown Hardware Company here for the arrest of Charles Michael Holt, former cashier of the wholesale branch, who disappeared September 2.

His books are said to be short $7,000. Circulars bearing the photograph and description of Holt have been broadcasted by the Calgary city police.

Holt disappeared from Calgary September 2. On the following day he crossed into Montana at Sweet Grass, driving a car which he had purchased a short time before. No trace of either Holt or the car has been found since that date.

Police say in legal proceedings they had been doctoring his books since 1919.

Holt is described as about forty years old, being five feet seven inches in height and weighing 130 pounds. His hair is black, combed back over the forehead. The man speaks with a distinct Irish accent.

Holt is said to have a sister, his wife and four children, leaving them practically destitute.

Berlin, Oct. 19.—An extension of President Ebert's tenure of office of chief executive until June 30, 1925, is now practically assured. All the political parties have agreed to the introduction of a bill in the Reichstag amending the constitution to this effect and the bill is assured of the necessary two-thirds majority for its passage.

GREEK TROOPS LEAVING THRACE

Removal of Thousands of Refugees a Problem

Every Port in the Area is Crowded

Rodosto, Oct. 19.—The evacuation of the Greek army in the area assigned to the Italian battalion has been completed, and the Italians have been requested to take over further territory. The military evacuation of other districts is proceeding satisfactorily, but the problem of moving the large civilian population is becoming more serious daily. It has been impossible thus far to get sufficient ships to take off the tens of thousands of refugees crowding every Thracian port.

Great serpentine columns of humanity, cattle and wagons block all the roads and overflow into the fields, rain is multiplying the misery of the exiles.

Slight Resistance. Most of the Greek army is leaving peacefully, but considerable portions of the Venizelist officers and men show a tendency to resist.

A French battalion which arrived yesterday at Adrianople is taking steps to protect the Moslem population against the Greeks, who threaten to burn Adrianople in revenge for the destruction of Smyrna.

The Greek Government has requisitioned all stocks of grain, which it is transporting across the Maritza River for the needs of the population and refugees.

LAWLESSNESS IN VLADIVOSTOK

"Red" Army Is Approaching the City

American and Japanese Warships on Guard

Tokio, Oct. 19.—Lawlessness reigns in Vladivostok as the result of the approach of a victorious "Red" army, official dispatches say. The French consulate was attacked yesterday and foreigners have appealed to their Governments for protection.

The American consul has engaged a ship for Americans, a building flying the American flag and guarded by the guns of an American cruiser.

Two Japanese cruisers and their Japanese destroyers also are in Vladivostok harbor to aid in the protection of foreigners.

Recent reports have stated the practical annihilation of the "White" guards under General Dietrich. The invading army of the "Reds" is reported to be in Vladivostok, apparently was marching on Vladivostok unhindered, and the capture of the Siberian port was expected momentarily.

The seaplane carries a crew of eight.

GREEK REPUBLIC TALK CONTINUES

Royalist Newspapers Say Venizelists' Ranks Split

Athens, Oct. 19.—The royalist newspapers declare the movement in favor of a republic has caused a split in the ranks of the Venizelists, and that long telegrams have been forwarded to M. Venizelos in London, outlining the political situation and asking for instructions.

One newspaper expresses the opinion that because of the disagreeable impression produced among the people by firing of the republic shells, Venizelos will disavow the movement and make it clear that he favors a "crowned democracy."

When M. Venizelos on Tuesday was informed that a movement for a republic had been launched in Greece, he declined to make any comment, according to London dispatches, but declared he was irrevocably determined to retire to private life when the Turkish peace treaty was signed.

FOOD SENT FROM U.S. TO NEAR EAST

Ships Also Will Carry Clothing to Refugees

Washington, Oct. 19.—Two steamships, as a result of action taken here, will leave soon from American ports, fitted with food and clothing for refugees in the Near East.

One of the vessels, a Shipping Board steamer, will proceed by direction of President Harding, who, in requesting Chairman Lasker to furnish relief for the Near East, has authorized further Government assistance in Near East relief activities.

The other ship, the steamship Relief, owned by the American Red Cross, will leave New York October 24 with a load of food and wearing apparel, according to an announcement by the American Red Cross.

Chairman Lasker, responding to the President's request, notified Dr. James I. Barton, head of the Near East Relief, that the Coeur d'Alene, now at New York, was available, and that if the cargo was not ready for shipment it would be furnished at the convenience of the relief agency. The Coeur d'Alene is capable of carrying 5,480 tons.

Great Work. In directing the assignment of a Shipping Board vessel, the President wrote to Mr. Lasker as follows: "You are familiar with the great relief work in the Near East, which has been undertaken by the American Red Cross and the Near East Relief Organization. This great work is in response to the promptings of the American heart to perform a great service in the hour of extreme emergency. There is not only an impressive call on the generosity of the American purse and the sacrifice of time on the part of American citizens, but I think there is good reason for us to do everything possible in a governmental way to further this most appealing enterprise."

INTERCOLONIAL A NATIONAL LINE

Ottawa, Oct. 19.—The status of the Intercolonial Railway has not changed one iota. Hon. George F. Graham, Acting Minister of Railways and Canals, stated yesterday when shown the statement attributed to J. K. Smith, manager of the transportation bureau of the Montreal Board of Trade, that he was unable to find out what the Intercolonial Railway and under what jurisdiction it comes.

The railway, Mr. Graham explained, is under the Canadian National Railways board for purposes of management and administration in exactly the same status as it had under the old board.

CRERAR MENTIONED FOR THE CABINET

Rumor He Has Been Offered Place in Ministry

Unconfirmed in Ottawa; No Crerar Statement

Ottawa, Oct. 19.—A rumor to the effect that Hon. T. A. Crerar, Progressive leader, has again been offered a seat in the Cabinet, which is current here, lacks official confirmation.

A dispatch from Winnipeg last night said: "Hon. T. A. Crerar, leader of the Progressive Party, declined to make any statement on this evening on a dispatch from Ottawa in a Winnipeg paper that he had been offered a seat in the Cabinet."

Crerar was found to comment on a report from Edmonton that the Stony Plain local of the United Farmers of Manitoba had asked for the resignation of Mr. Crerar on the grounds that he was negotiating an agreement with the Liberals and seeking to destroy the identity of the Progressive Party.

Crerar's resignation would probably be very brief, according to present forecasts, and a general election is expected swiftly to follow its formation.

CONSERVATIVE MINISTRY MAY HAVE BRIEF LIFE

London, Oct. 19.—The life of the new Conservative Ministry will probably be very brief, according to present forecasts, and a general election is expected swiftly to follow its formation.

The party lines upon which the election will be fought present a profound puzzle. One suggestion is that Mr. Lloyd George may form a centre party, in which he could count on Auston Chamberlain and Lord Birkenhead, and perhaps the Earl of Balfour; the three Cabinet Ministers whose adherence to him was repudiated by to-day's conference.

This new party, it is suggested, would probably command the support of a goodly proportion of the Conservatives who stood by the Coalition, and also of the Coalition Liberals. This formation might put the Labor Party in the position of the chief opposition party.

The possibility that Mr. Lloyd George will try to return to the leadership of the Liberals is not to be overlooked.

Mr. Bonar Law's friends question whether his health will permit him to hold office even for a short time. Lord Derby seems the most probable alternative selection for Prime Minister, although it is suggested that Lord Curzon, who gained greatly in prestige by his work in the recent Near East negotiations, and is believed to have been a lukewarm Coalitionist, might be summoned to form a Government.

THREE-CORNERED ELECTION FIGHTS

Four Candidates in Number of British Ridings

No Independent Liberal-Labor Agreement

London, Oct. 19.—(Canadian Press Cable)—There is no possibility, apparently, of an agreement between the Independent Liberals and the Laborites with regard to the suggested withdrawal of conflicting candidates in many constituencies in the forthcoming general election. Three-cornered contests will likely be the rule rather than the exception, and in quite a number of them four candidates will be in the field. In Lancashire some effort is being made toward effecting a union of the Liberals and the Coalition Liberals, but this effort is not likely to receive much assistance, judging by the unmerciful pounding of Lloyd George by Lord Gladstone.

In the Back. The Marquis of Lincolnshire, at the National Club yesterday, described Lloyd George as a man who had stabbed the Liberal Party in the back. As to the fighting funds of the parties in anticipation of an early general election, the Liberals are believed to have much the largest general war chest, possibly amounting to £2,000,000. The Unionists may have about £1,000,000 for general purposes, but the party has always been accustomed to depend on rich supporters to make special contributions to help the local candidates.

REGARDS BELONG PUBLIC PATIENT

Superintendent of Quebec Asylum Makes Statement

Quebec, Oct. 19.—Surprise was expressed last evening by Dr. J. Brochu, Superintendent of St. Michael's Asylum, over the contention of Mr. Rev. Adelard Delorme was a private patient in the asylum, on which he based decision as to the domicile of the latter.

"I have claimed this inmate as a public patient," he stated, "and had been made to understand that he was held as such."

It was learned, in fact, that indirect demands had been made on behalf of the abbe to get special privileges which are granted on payment of extra fees to private patients and the Attorney-General's department had refused. Though the payment of his board has not yet been collected, it has been set at $200 a year. This is the sum charged to patients who are classed as public.

It is understood that Delorme is still under observation regarding his mental status, and that by the end of the present year the Lieutenant-Governor will ask for a report from Dr. Brochu and the two other attending mental experts, Drs. Marius and Roy, on his status, which may bring him to face a jury by January. Such at least is the opinion of officials of the Attorney-General's Department.

NO PRIME MINISTER. MINERS WERE TOLD

London, Oct. 19.—After a brief audience with King George this afternoon Mr. Lloyd George returned to Downing Street, where he received a miners' delegation, but according to Frank Hodges, who heads the delegation, Mr. Lloyd George said he could not consult them as Prime Minister, since he had resigned.

The miners, relating their experience, said Mr. Lloyd George received them smilingly and asked their business, and that Mr. Hodges replied: "We have come to see the Prime Minister."

"Well, gentlemen, I have to inform you that there is no Prime Minister," replied Mr. Lloyd George. "I have just seen His Majesty and tendered my resignation, which His Majesty has accepted."

MARRIAGE WAS PREVENTED BY DEATH

Young Man's Body Was Found in Quebec

Quebec, Oct. 19.—That there was a romance in connection with the death of Stanley Perry, 22, who was found lying mortally wounded near his father's home last Tuesday, was brought out at the coroner's inquest yesterday.

According to the evidence of Celina Grosjean, of Loretteville, and that of her brother, Delphis, she and Stanley Perry had secretly arranged to be married. The girl had taken her brother into her confidence, and had sent him to see Perry and arrange for the secret wedding. Grosjean had volunteered to tell the victim's father, but young Perry said he would tell his father himself. The following morning Stanley Perry was found near his father's home with a bullet hole through his head and a revolver lying by his side.

REPORTED NOW TO BE ENDEAVORING TO ORGANIZE GOVERNMENT THAT WILL BE ABLE TO CARRY ON; ELECTION SHORTLY AS RESULT OF CONSERVATIVES' ATTITUDE.

London, Oct. 19.—Premier Lloyd George resigned to-day.

London, Oct. 19, 7.12 p.m.—Rt. Hon. Andrew Bonar Law has consented to form a Ministry in succession to the Lloyd George Cabinet. The Evening News says it has learned. King George summoned Bonar Law and asked him to undertake the task, declares the newspaper, and Bonar Law agreed to comply.

Bonar Law is a Canadian-by-birth, a native of Rexton, N.B. It was during the evening the official announcement of the resignation of the Lloyd George Cabinet came. Reports had been current during the day. "The resignation of Premier Lloyd George carried with it that of his entire Cabinet.

the party had spoken, Rt. Hon. Andrew Bonar Law, who was the official party leader before he retired on account of poor health, took the floor. There had been some speculation as to whether he would participate in the debate, and predictions had been made that if he spoke he would try to reconcile the Coalitionists and the anti-Conservative division of the party.

The vote of the Conservatives was taken on a motion by Colonel Pretyman, Unionist member for the Chesham division of Essex, which read as follows: "Resolved, that this meeting of Conservative members of the House of Commons declares its opinion that the Conservative Party, while willing to co-operate with Coalition Liberals, should fight the election as an independent party, with its own leader and its own programme."

To-day's vote, it is forecast, will be proclaimed as a great victory by the "die-hard" group of Conservatives in Parliament who for several months past have been advocating the withdrawal of the party from the Coalition and its resumption of its normal party organization.

TWO EVENTS HAD AN INFLUENCE

Two events of yesterday are considered to have contributed largely to to-day's decision. One was the result of the Newport by-election, which in so far as it was any test, confirmed the belief of the "die-hards" that the Conservatives, going into the election as a party, could sweep the country.

The second was the decision of the committee of the Unionist organization to hold a majority meeting to consider the course of the party because of the feeling that to-day's caucus, composed solely of the Coalition members of the members in the House of Commons with such of the members of the House of Lords as were Cabinet members, had no right to assume to decide the future of the whole party.

READY TO CARRY OUT IRISH TREATY

If the Conservatives control the next Parliament they may be depended upon to consider the treaty which carry out the treaty made with Ireland by the Lloyd George Government. "That this would be done was stated by the Marquis of Salisbury in his speech Monday."

The general results of to-day's collapse of the Coalition promises to be a period of upheaval the length of which is difficult to estimate, and the reversion to Great Britain of the traditional system of government on strict party lines.

Mr. Chamberlain received an ovation when he rose to address a meeting. He spoke strongly along the lines of his recent Birmingham speech, appealing for the unity of the party he supported.

Stanley Baldwin and Colonel Pretyman opposed continuance of the Coalition. They suggested a decision should be postponed until the meeting of the Unionist Association, Sir Henry Craig, a Scottish Unionist, also opposed an immediate decision in support of the Coalition.

One of those who attended the meeting said that Mr. Chamberlain was given a patient hearing, but that his position was plainly unpopular.

BONAR LAW'S VIEWS HAD GREAT WEIGHT

Mr. Bonar Law's plea for preventing the breaking up of the party is said to have made a profound impression.

"Mr. Chamberlain says the best way to defeat the Labor menace is to continue the coalition with the Liberals," he is quoted as having said. "I say the best way is to maintain the party absolute independent and you will defeat the Labor menace in the end. Otherwise you will split in your party, just as the Liberals are splitting."

The meeting lasted two hours. Resigned. Several of the Unionist junior members resigned from the Cabinet immediately after the Cabinet meeting. These included Stanley Baldwin, President of the Board of Trade; Sir Arthur Griffith Boscawen, Minister of Agriculture and Fisheries; (Continued on page 4) understanding the $50,000 was to be used to strengthen existing labor organizations in Canada and to combat the propaganda for a union of all organizations which would have disrupted the brotherhood.

Real Estate. Other witnesses gave testimony to support the union's charge that funds designed for organization and other work were used by Mr. Barker in real estate ventures. Thirty pieces of property in Detroit were purchased by the former president, it was alleged.

The testimony brought out that when Mr. Barker was removed from office, more than a year ago, the union had a membership of 400,000, and the income from dues was $5,200,000 annually. The president's salary was $14,000 and fourteen grand vice-presidents received $5,000 each.

Buyers for the home who fail to keep in close touch with the ads sustain regular losses in buying—which, in the course of a year, grow to substantial proportions.

Why Are Good Eggs So Hard To Get?

"Mother, it can't be done; I've tried all the varieties of 'Strictly Fresh,' 'New Laid,' etc., etc., but I cannot depend on them at all."

THE old story, and repeated daily in thousands of Canadian homes. The egg of quality, for which there is a natural demand and eager desire, is hard to obtain.

There is a solution and it rests with the consumer to demand eggs that are graded according to the Government standard grades.

A Universal Food

Few people realize how large a share of the world's food supply is provided by the hen. Eggs serve as human food the world over, and the variety of dishes in which eggs are included is well-nigh infinite. In Europe, Asia, darkest Africa, America—among civilized nations and barbarous people alike—eggs have been an important item in the food of mankind since history began. Their value as nourishment ranks even ahead of milk. They contain all the elements needed by the human body for energy, growth and repair. Eggs contain the vitamins necessary to life and health.

Eggs are easy to digest, easy to cook and prepare. Use more eggs—eggs on the table, eggs in puddings, cake and custards, but make sure that you ask for graded eggs.

Ask for 'Specials,' 'Extras,' 'Firsts' or 'Seconds'

Eggs displayed for sale in containers which are marked or labelled with the name of any Government grade, must be equal to or better than such class or grade. This is your guarantee that the eggs you buy, if so marked, are according to Government standard grades.

Scrambled Eggs
Country Style
Heat one-tenths pint fat in two tablespoons butter, add whole melted yolk in four minutes. Cook until white is perfect, set, then stir until cooking is completed, when whites will be thoroughly set. Season with salt and pepper.

Curried Eggs
3 Hard-boiled Eggs,
2 Tablespoons Butter,
2 Tablespoons Flour,
1/4 Teaspoon Salt,
1/4 Teaspoon Curry Powder,
1/4 Teaspoon Pepper,
1 Cup Hot Milk.
Melt butter, add flour and seasonings, and gradually pour in hot milk. Cut eggs in eighths lengthwise and reheat in sauce.

Proper Way to Poach Eggs
Fill two-thirds of frying pan with boiling salted water, allowing 1/2 tablespoon of salt to one quart water. Put two or three buttered muffin rings or egg poacher in water. Break each egg separately into saucer and carefully slip into muffin ring or poacher, so that water covers the egg. When top films over and white is firm, carefully remove with buttered skimmer and serve on buttered toast.

Eggs in Batter
Mix 1 egg, 1/2 cup flour, 1/2 cup milk, 1/2 cup oil, 1/2 cup sugar, 1/2 cup raisins, 1/2 cup nuts, 1/2 cup currants, 1/2 cup chocolate chips, 1/2 cup nuts, 1/2 cup currants, 1/2 cup chocolate chips. Bake six minutes in moderate oven.

How to Boil Eggs Properly
Place carefully into boiling water deep enough to cover and remove saucerpan to back of stove, where water will not boil. For eggs "soft boiled," leave in 4 to 5 minutes. For eggs "hard boiled," leave in 10 to 12 minutes. To be cooked they should be placed and kept in water at a uniform temperature of 175 degrees.
If hard-boiled eggs are needed for preparation of salads or other dishes, when cooled plunge into cold water to prevent discoloration.

Scalloped Eggs
3 Hard-boiled Eggs, 1 Pint White Sauce, 1/2 Cup Chopped Cold Meat, 1/2 Cup Buttered Crumbs.
Chop eggs finely. Sprinkle bottom of a buttered baking dish with crumbs, cover with one-half the eggs with sauce, and then sauce with meat. Repeat. Cover with remaining crumbs. Bake on centre grate of oven until crumbs are brown. Ham is best, but chicken, veal or fish may be used.

EXIT MR. LLOYD GEORGE.

Although it does not follow that Mr. Lloyd George will cease to be a driving and dominating force in the political life of Great Britain, yesterday's decision of the Coalition Conservatives, and the resignation of the Ministry this morning, naturally indicate a distinct pause in one of the most remarkable careers in the public life of the English-speaking world.

What place the retiring Prime Minister will occupy in the next Parliament at Westminster cannot even be reasonably guessed at until he makes his own decision and begins to feel the pulse of the electorate. None the less it can be taken for granted that the die-hards at the Carlton Club have not vanquished the little Welshman. Whatever the future may hold for him, whatever party he may choose to lead, if Mr. Lloyd George should not be the next Premier now quite naturally only the remotest possibility—the man whose unconquerable spirit and indomitable energy heartened the people of the British Empire and stiffened the backs of the Allies during the darkest days of the Great War is a long way from the last milestone in his journey of public service.

One of the most extraordinary circumstances about Mr. Lloyd George and his irresistible personality is the fact that he has been able to restrain such divergent political elements and retain for himself a liberal measure of support for so long after the necessity for such an arrangement might reasonably have been supposed at an end. At least three-fifths of his supporters in the House of Commons are parliamentarians trained to abominate the political ideals upon which the retiring Prime Minister was nourished in his early days and upon which he has really sustained himself ever since. His compromise with the teachings of that earlier radicalism in the teeth of national emergency never for one moment in the eyes of the average Conservative constituted anything more than the thinnest political veneer. Nevertheless Mr. Lloyd George was able to dominate even the ultra-Tory member of the Coalition by his own extraordinary genius.

It will be interesting to watch the attitude of the people of Great Britain when Mr. Lloyd George conducts his election campaign. It will be interesting to learn the length of their memory. It would seem to be certain that the average man in the street will take his mind back to the early days of 1915 when Great Britain and the British Empire understood the size of the task which the Central Powers had imposed upon them. Will they remember Mr. Lloyd George as the Minister who made it possible for British guns to get the badly-needed ammunition in order that a more effective barrier might be placed between the Channel ports and the seemingly endless stream of German infantry? Or will a peculiar periodical insistence upon a change of government, irrespective of the wisdom of such a course or otherwise, ensue as a consequence of his policy in the Near East? Very largely upon the answer to these two questions will depend the future complexion of the Government that is to follow that which has resigned today. It seems impossible to conceive of a condition of mind among the British electorate that will find a satisfying outlet for its political expression in the election of a Tory Government. It seems impossible that it is ready to ignore the Liberalism for which Mr. Lloyd George stands and which he was bound to espouse again with all his old-time vigor as soon as the need for political compromise had been judged at an end.

Few people will be deluded by the Carlton Club vote. The greater number of those who supported the Pretyman motion have merely suffered themselves to be led by Mr. Lloyd George because neither they nor anybody else could discover an alternative. Consequently it all comes back to the condition of mind in which the people find themselves. Whatever happens nothing can detract from the outstanding personality which Mr. Lloyd George wielded with such consummate skill through the most trying period which has ever visited itself upon the British Empire. Whatever niche the retiring Prime Minister may occupy in the political world of the future the historian will mark him down as one of the most extraordinary figures the public life of Great Britain has ever produced and easily a character in the English-speaking world whose life and work—as yet unfinished—may well be compared with those of Lord Chatham. The plain man will recall those early beginnings in virtual obscurity. And to the long stretch of great achievements attained by Mr. Lloyd George the average Briton will attach more significance than is implied by any passing failure or marching orders which come from the Carlton Club.

OFFERS PROPERTY FOR BOTTLED SCOTCH Over-burdened Taxpayer Would Exchange Land For Liquid

In view of the fact that property owners in Victoria, as in other cities, are giving considerable thought these days to their holding, a story related to The Times to-day by a property owner in one of the towns in the interior of the Province may be of interest.

The owner in question in writing from Victoria to a real estate agent in the town where the property is located, says: "I have held it for 30 years, and I am wondering if you could sell it for the price of a few bottles of Scotch. I would be satisfied with a dozen at $5, and if you can get the price of a few bottles over that, please accept them with my compliments. I will be glad to hear that you are thirsty enough to join me in a little liquid refreshment."

The reply read: "Your letter received regarding the property you wish to sell. Your offer is a very tempting one, but I would have you know that since the writing of your letter, Scotch has come down fifty cents a bottle, and at the same time my thirst has not been reduced to the same extent. I will list this lot with others."

DR. MACLEAN'S NEW JOB.

In-riding himself of the multifarious detail connected with the Department of Railways Premier Oliver has followed a wise course. The duties of his own office under conditions political and economic which need no reference must have exacted a heavy toll of patience and nerve tissue long ere this. How on earth it has been possible for the Government leader to tackle them all and not give way under the strain is beyond the comprehension of most people.

The new Minister of Railways is a happy choice. Dr. MacLean may not be the most voluble member of the Government, but it is a matter of public record that as Minister of Education and the official custodian of the public health in this Province he has acquitted himself in thoroughgoing and eminently successful fashion. These matters do not now need so much of his personal attention in view of the efficient organization which he has built up. He is quite familiar with the railway situation and the Department will be in capable hands.

NOT GOOD ENOUGH.

The reason given by the Hon. J. A. Robb, Minister of Trade and Commerce, for his inability to accept the invitation of the Victoria Chamber of Commerce to meet our business men at luncheon here prior to his departure for Australia is not good enough for us. Mr. Robb arrived in Vancouver on Tuesday and his vessel will sail on Friday, and while we can readily believe that Vancouver is keeping him very busy in the interim, this would still be the case if his ship did not depart for three months. Victoria is the last port of call for all trans-Pacific ships bound from this northwest coast, and the first port of call for incoming ocean vessels bound for British Columbia and Puget Sound points. Manufacturers and exporters on Vancouver Island are greatly concerned in the establishment of better trade relations between Canada and Australasia, which is the special object of the Minister's mission. Mr. Robb can learn much about the British Columbia end of this business from Vancouver, it is true, but not all of it, and it would have been much more satisfactory all round if he had made it a point to accept the invitation of the local Chamber of Commerce. That was what Sir George Foster did when he came to the Coast en route to Australia on a similar errand a few years ago.

NOTE AND COMMENT

Now watch the enemies of Mr. Lloyd George in the press of France dip their pens deep into the ink that is labelled "I told you so."

APPROVE PLANS FOR WATER BOARD

Legislation Endorsed by the Greater Victoria Committee

Must Be North Saanich and Esquimalt Men on Board

Plans for a joint water system which would cover the whole portion of Vancouver Island from the Esquimalt and Nanaimo Railway land grant south began to assume definite shape last night when the Greater Victoria Committee approved legislation which would create a water board to control and operate all municipal water services in that area. The committee managed to wade through half of the legislation drawn up by its chairman, Alderman A. E. Todd, and his executive and no change of any importance, was made. Under the clauses endorsed, surrounding municipalities and outlying districts would vote on the proposed joint water works project and then the municipal councils would vest complete control of water works matters in a joint board of twelve.

Choice of Commissioners.
As originally drafted the legislation provides for a board consisting of the Mayor and two other representatives of Victoria, the reeve and two representatives of surrounding municipalities and two representatives appointed by the Government. It was proposed by a strong faction last night that the Government representatives should be elected, but finally it was decided to allow the Government to appoint them but to make it compulsory to appoint one representative from Saanich, and another from Esquimalt.

Water Concessions.
Ex-Councillor Simpson, of Saanich, objected to a clause empowering the joint water board to give water free to people or industrial concerns on a three-fifths vote of the board members.

Alderman Todd explained that, by giving water concessions, it might be possible to secure new industries. The meeting, by a big majority, endorsed the clause in the water act as originally drafted.

Wide objection was taken to a clause which provides that if the water scheme is not a financial success, the water board could levy a water frontage tax to make up deficits. This, it was asserted, would result in injustices for many owners by charging a frontage tax on land not actually using water. It was suggested that the proposed tax be collected on the basis of the quantity of water used, or on the assessed value of property.

Some Provision Necessary.
It was generally agreed, however, that the water board must be allowed some power of raising extra revenue if the Legislature were to endorse the scheme. The Legislature, it was contended, must be satisfied that the waterworks system would pay all its debts.

"It is safe to assume that the water board will act fairly—that it will not levy the same frontage tax on a rough stoney field as on a well-cultivated area," Alderman Todd declared.

"We are attempting to absorb all costs in the water, to make the scheme self-supporting, but it is necessary to place a debt on some actual security, on land," Alderman Leeming explained.

It was decided to defer further consideration of this matter until

In addition, the following other great language families are distinguished by the philologist. All the American-Indian languages, which vary widely among themselves, are separable from any old world group. Here we may lump together not so much as a family as a miscellany.

There is one great group of languages in Africa, from a little way north of the equator to its southern extremity (the Bantu), and in addition a complex of other languages across the centre of the continent about which we will not trouble here. There are, also, two probably separate groups, the Dravidian in south India, and the Malay-Polynesian stretched over Polynesia, and also including Indian tongues.

Widely Separated Peoples.
Now it seems reasonable to conclude from these fundamental differences that about the time when men were beginning to form rather larger communities than the family tribe, when they were beginning to tell each other long stories and argue and exchange ideas, man beings were distributed about the world in a number of areas which communicated very little with each other. They were separated by oceans, seas, thick forests, deserts or mountains from one another.

There may have been in that remote time, it may be 15,000 years ago or more, Aryan, Semitic, Hamitic, Turanian, American and Chinese-speaking tribes and families, wandering over their several areas of hunting and pasture, all at very much the same stage of culture, and each developing its linguistic instrument in its own way. Probably each of these original tribes was not more numerous altogether than the Indians in Hudson Bay territory to-day. Systematic agriculture was barely beginning then, and until agriculture made a denser population possible, men may have been almost as rare as the great apes have always been. If agriculture was becoming at all important in human life at that time, and if population was anywhere denser, it was probably in the Mediterranean region and possibly in areas now submerged.

In addition to these Neolithic tribes, there must have been various still more primitive forest folk in Africa and in India. Central Africa, from the Upper Nile, was then a vast forest, impenetrable to ordinary human life, a forest of which the Congo forests of to-day are the last shrunken remains.

Possibly the spread of men of a race higher than primitive Australoids into the East Indies, and the development of the languages of the Malay-Polynesian type came later in time than the origination of these other language groups.

philologist do daily, it is manifest, in a broad sort of way with the main lines, classes of the ethnologist, and they carry out the same idea of apologetic separations between great divisions of mankind.

Held Back by Cold.

In the Glacial age, ice, or at least a climate too severe for the free spreading of peoples, extended from north pole into Central Europe and across Russia and Siberia to the great tablelands of Central Asia. After the last Glacial age, this cold north mitigated its severities very slowly, and was for long without any other population than the wandering hunters who spread eastward and across Bering Strait. North and Central Europe and Asia did not become sufficiently temperate for agriculture until quite recent times, this is, within the limit of 12,000 or possibly even 10,000 years, and a dense forest period intervened between the age of the hunter and the agricultural clearing.

This forest period was also a very wet period. It has been called the Pluvial, or Lacustrine age, the rain or pond period. It has to be remembered that the outlines of the land of the world have changed greatly even in the last hundred centuries.

When Russia Was a Swamp.
Across European Russia, from the Baltic to the Caspian Sea, as the ice receded there certainly spread much water and many impassable swamps; the Caspian Sea and the Sea of Aral and parts of the Desert of Turkistan, are the vestiges of a great extent of sea that reached far up to the Volga valley and sent an arm westward to join the Black Sea. Mountain barriers much higher than they are now, and the arm of the sea that is now the region of the Indus, completed the separation of the early Nordic races from the Mongolians and the Dravidians, and made the broad racial differentiation of those groups possible.

Again the blown-sand Desert of Sahara—it is not a dried-up sea, but a wind desert and was once fertile and rich in life—becoming more and more dry and sandy, cut the Caucasians off from the sparse primitive negro population in the central forest region of Africa.

The Persian Gulf extended very far to the north of its present head, and combined with the Syrian desert to cut off the Semitic peoples from the eastern areas, while on the other hand the south of Arabia, much more fertile than it is to-day, may have reached across what is now the Gulf of Aden towards Abyssinia and Somaliland. The Mediterranean and Red Sea may even have been fertile valleys containing a string of freshwater lakes during the Pluvial Age.

The Barrier of the Himalayas.
The Himalayas and the higher and vaster mass of Central Asia and the northward extension of the Bay of Bengal up to the present Ganges valley divided off the Dravidians from the Mongolians. The canoe was the chief link between Dravidian and southern Mongol, and the Gobi system of seas and lakes which presently became the Gobi desert, and the great system of mountain chains which follow one another across Asia from the centre to the northeast split the Mongolian races into the Chinese and the Ural-Altai language groups.

During the Pluvial, which then came into existence, before or after the Pluvial period, isolated the American Indians.

We are not suggesting here, be it noted, that these ancient separations were absolute separations, but that they were effectual enough at least to prevent any great intermixture of speech in those days of man's social life, and to keep the races, for the most part, separate and distinct, some amount of meeting and exchange even then, some drift of knowledge that spread the crude patterns and the various implements and the needs of a primitive agriculture about the world.

WANT TEXT BOOKS TURNED OUT HERE

That the printing and binding of the school text books used in British Columbia schools should be printed on the Government printing presses and bound in the Government plant in the Parliament Buildings was the contention made at last night's meeting of the Trades and Labor Council.

In the past, a mutual arrangement has been entered into by the four western provinces of Canada, whereby the contract for the printing and binding of the text books used in the schools was given to one firm and now the Gage Company of Toronto is in negotiation for a renewal of the contract, it was stated.

The Trades and Labor Council contends that the Government printing plant is a good part of the time and men are being laid off for want of work, therefore these books should be printed here. Regarding the question whether or not the printing could be turned out as economically or whether the taxpayer would be called upon to stand further expenditure if the printing were done here will be discussed when Phil R. Smith and C. K. Christian, spokesmen from the Trades Council, interview Hon. Dr. MacLean, Minister of Education, on the subject.

The Council took exception to the day wage of $3 for ten hours set by the Canadian National Railway Company for track work on Vancouver Island. It was claimed that this was a violation of the eight-hour day established by the Government, and it was pointed out that the wage scale set down by the Fair Wage Office was fifty cents per hour for a night-hour day. It was decided to appeal to Rt. Hon. W. L. M. King and the case will be laid before him in detail.

The subject of a boycott will also be taken up with officials of the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada.

We Now Carry the New McCall Patterns and Publications

In announcing the opening of our new McCall Pattern Department, we feel that we are offering a newer and better Pattern Service. We believe the New Printed Pattern will prove a great benefit to women who have heretofore had to translate puzzling perforations.

Here Are Six Features of the New McCall Printed Pattern

- WORDS PRINTED IN THE PATTERN—No perforations, no symbols, no guesswork; every instruction in plain English right on the pattern pieces.
- ITS OWN SEWING GUIDE—The confusing supplementing sewing guide is now an antique. Words right on the printed pattern show the woman exactly where to drape, pleat, tuck or gather. The exact points for every move are marked and explained.
- FOLLOW THE BLUE LINE—Instead of cutting along an indistinct, fluttering edge, the woman follows a clear blue cutting line. No stopping to wonder about seam allowance or any other detail. No fear of cutting into the most expensive material. The dark blue line is mistakeproof.
- BETTER STYLE—Following the dark blue line gives the most accurate copy of the original model possible. The designer's style is not lost in the cutting. A note of Paris supplants the home-made look.
- LESS FITTING—Accurate to the hairbreadth, the new McCall Pattern calls for half the usual fitting.
- MOST ECONOMICAL OF MATERIAL—By actual test, less waste of material with the new printed pattern.

WEEKLY SOCIALS AT NEW ARMORIES

Canadian Scottish Entertainment a Great Success

The Canadian Scottish weekly social evenings promise to be one of the most popular features of the Winter season if last night's entertainment is any criterion. The new armory will be the scene of these affairs and last night there were over five hundred adults in attendance. A fee is charged for admission and men in uniform are admitted free. The band of the 16th Canadian Scottish under the capable leadership of Bandmaster J. Miller rendered an excellent programme of music and the evening was spent in a most enjoyable manner.

While the dancing was in progress nearly one hundred people sat down to the tables set out in the small ballroom upstairs and enjoyed a game of five hundred. There were so many wishing to play that the accommodation was insufficient but G. G. M. Sgt. D. Fyvie, who is in charge of that feature of the entertainment, says that there will be plenty of tables for any number wishing to play next Wednesday evening. Excellent prizes are given for the five hundred contests.

A booth is open on these occasions for the use of those wishing refreshments. Regimental Sergeant-Major Nat G. Wilson and an energetic committee from the Sergeants' Mess, with Lieut. Thorburn as chairman, have the arrangements in hand and they promise the public plenty of entertainment each Wednesday evening during the season. Company Sergeant-Major Lacey is in charge of the dancing.

GOOD ROADS LEAGUE PLANS DRIVE IN PROVINCE

EX-MAYOR R. H. Gale, President of the Good Roads League of B. C., and P. R. McD. Russell, K. C., Chairman of the legislative committee, will call a meeting of executive and legislative committee members for the purpose of making changes to the organization constitution. Time and place of the meeting will be announced later, and in the meantime a tentative draft is being prepared for submission.

Changes to the constitution are essential in view of complete reorganization of the league along extension lines. At the recent Kamloops convention it was unanimously decided to extend the scope and numerical strength of the league by formation of new district branches in all parts of the province. Local branches will in some cases take in present automobile club memberships and effect a juncture of the work of the two bodies, with primary activities and objects devoted to good roads.

A committee of eight good roads enthusiasts was named by the convention to effect the desired reorganization. This committee comprises representatives of all sections of British Columbia. When the special committee now at work has drafted proposed constitution changes a general organization meeting will be called, at which all eighteen members will be present. The plan to awaken interest in road and highway improvement will include a definite and far-reaching campaign. Speakers will be sent into all sections, and officers of the league will be on hand to assist with the formation of local branches. Membership will be made nominal in figure and at the same time provide for adequate representation for all local branches.

"Would Wake Up Screaming"

"The Least Sudden Noise or Loud Talking Would Startle Him."

"Up to the age of eight, my boy was a strong, healthy lad, full of life and energy. While playing leap frog one day with some boys of his own age, and while in a stooped position, a big boy jumped on his back and in falling my boy caught his foot in an iron grating and dislocated his hip. The pain was so great that he fainted and the other boys were so frightened they ran away. For hours he suffered terrible pain and when found and brought home was very weak, with his thigh and leg swollen twice its size. The doctor set the bone but the pain and exposure were too much for the poor boy and he became unconscious. A high fever set in and for weeks he lay between life and death raving for hours at a stretch. One day he opened his eyes and murmured 'Mother,' but this was the only word he could utter. He was so weak, but I knew the worst was over. He got stronger but for months was in a nervous condition. The least sudden noise or loud talking would startle him and he would begin trembling. He was quite lame and the swelling still remained. The doctor gave him a tonic and told me to rub the leg with olive oil. This reduced the swelling and took away the lameness, but the nervousness remained. The poor child would waken in the night screaming at the top of his voice. The doctor gave him several different tonics but they were no use. I found a circular about Carnol and it seemed so different from other tonics I had heard of, that I thought I would get a bottle. Three bottles were all that was needed to make my boy like his own self again. It is hard to convince my friends that the change in him how is entirely due to Carnol. Of course I still have to watch him and give him Carnol occasionally but I know that he will soon be as strong again as ever he was."

Mrs. F., Montreal.

Carnol is sold by your druggist, and if you can conscientiously say, after you have tried it, that it hasn't done you any good, return the empty bottle to him and he will refund you money.

FIELD SECRETARY TO VISIT CITY

The Unitarian field secretary for the Pacific Coast, Carl B. Wetherell, of San Francisco, will pay a short visit to the city at the end of this week. On Sunday morning he will speak at the First Unitarian Church, Fernwood and Balmoral Roads, and on Saturday evening at 8 o'clock he will be present at a social gathering to be held in the church hall adjoining the church. Mr. Wetherell has a host of friends in Victoria who have been attracted on previous visits by his genial personality and eloquent speaking, and his visit is looked forward to with a great deal of pleasure. Next week he and several delegates from the Victoria church will attend a conference of Unitarians in the Pacific Northwest, to be held in Vancouver.

TO THE PUBLIC

I wish to thank the public for the support accorded me during the past year and to announce that owing to an unnecessary misunderstanding on the part of the management my engagement at the Capitol Theatre come to an unexpected and sudden termination on Saturday, Oct. 21st.

It has been my constant endeavor to establish a standard of good music, which I honestly believe has been an important factor in fostering clientele for the theatre.

Whenever I appear I hope to maintain through personal effort, that which I have always prized most dearly, the good will of a generous public.

Yours fraternally,

COLUMBIA

"Ten Nights in a Barroom" to my mind is one of the greatest pictures I have ever seen. It runs the gamut of human emotions, pathos, humor, farce, heart-throbs, suspense, the spectacular, the subdued, gripping climaxes, terrific action—in fact, every element that makes for the perfect drama. In my opinion it is the motion picture 100 per cent. If this picture doesn't contain all of the elements I have mentioned, come to me and get your money back. That is what I think of this wonderful motion picture. You know that I rarely endorse a picture personally, and when I say that "Ten Nights in a Barroom" is one of the greatest motion pictures I have ever seen I want you to know that it is my earnest desire that you see this picture because, know you will enjoy it as much as I did.—E. Clark.

These are some of the "high spots" in "The Ghost Breaker," a Paramount picture starring Wallace Reid and now showing at the Capitol Theatre. Those who are looking for thrills, frank entertainment, with the accompaniment of high class acting and production, will find that for which they are seeking in this picture. Lila Lee plays the Spanish sorceress and a funny colored servant role is interpreted by Walter Hiers, the noted comedy favorite.

ROYAL VICTORIA

John M. Stahl, director of "One Clear Call," the Louis B. Mayer first National attraction at the Royal Victoria Theatre, follows a very simple theory in the preparation of his productions. His directorial platform, to put it in his own words, is: "Get a good story and make the characters human." Big scenes or astonishing effects he regards as dead weight unless they are logically part of the story.
In his latest success, "One Clear Call," adapted by Best Meredith from the novel by Frances Nimmo Green, Mr. Stahl has excellent story material and through his interpretation and treatment he has made it a film far above the average release. From the opening scene it builds steadily towards one objective and then, when he has driven home the lesson of the story in an exciting climax, he ends the picture.
Stahl seems to have a peculiar knack for making his characters regular, everyday sort of people on the screen. Watching Milton Sills, Claire Windsor, Henry Walthall, Irene Rich, Lewis Egan, Shannon Day and the other stars of "One Clear Call," one can easily forget the theatre setting and imagine that the drama is transpiring in real life.

SAID HE COULD NEVER BE WELL

"Fruit-a-lives" Restored Him to Health

150 Avenue Plus IX, Montreal.

"For three years, I was a terrible sufferer from Dyspepsia and my general health was very bad. I consulted a physician and took his medicine, but I did not improve; and finally he told me that I could not be cured.
At that time, a friend advised me to try "Fruit-a-lives." After taking two boxes, I was greatly relieved; and this fruit medicine made me completely well. My digestion and general health are now splendid."

and magazine reviewers are giving more and more space to reasons why Harold Lloyd has gained such a remarkable hold on the public.

"Lloyd has the human touch." "His comedies are clean and consistent form." "He creates laughter by legitimate means through the medium of the picture screen, with all the art employ by the masters of stage comedy." In such strain the reviewers write.

It is pointed out that even in his earliest comedies Mr. Lloyd showed his familiarity with the methods of the world's masters of comedy construction. But with his advent into the field of the longer and more exacting forms of comedy construction a year ago, this characteristic was immediately emphasized; and at the present time is sustained in five remarkable multiple-reel productions, all begun, finished and presented to the public within that period.

That "human touch" everyone will agree is the real vital spark which Lloyd screen comedies, just as it is in every comedy far afield or screen just captivates the multitude. In the forthcoming Hal Roach production with Mr. Lloyd as the star, this quality is said to centre in "Grandma's Boy" in a way that will appeal powerfully to the motion picture fan.

"Grandma's Boy" is playing at the Dominion Theatre at this week.

HILARIOUS HOUSE ENJOYS "WHAT HAPPENED TO JONES"

Playhouse Audience Hilariously Laughs as Sequel to Prize Fight Unfolds

Laughter lovers of Victoria will flock to the Playhouse Theatre this week to see "What Happened to Jones," presented by Reggie Hincks with even greater success than was the case when the Red Cross Company lightened the gloom for thousands of citizens, through the medium of the "face."

Six of the actors sharing in that wartime success aid in making the new presentation a hit, and with Jack Davis and Ernie Petch as leaders the story of what happened to Jones, the hymbok "traveller," is told with greater gusto than ever.

Jack Davis cannot be surpassed as Jones, who gets into a prize fight, invades the home of Professor Ebenezer Goodley, assumes the garments of the expected Bishop of Bullarat and essays to "get away with it." His post-act dignity is convincing until later contrasted with the meanness of the real Bishop as enacted by Ernie Petch, while the ability of Davis to make the switch from solemnity to ways of human vanity is remarkable.

As the Professor, Stewart Clark makes a real hit, a most convincing characterization, overwhelmed by a masterful wife, with a secret sin to hide, yet almost betrayed by a blackened optic.

A Kindly Soul.
As the Bishop, Ernie Petch retains his dignity and diffuses a atmosphere of human kindness, whether garbed in his accustomed style or blanket wrapped and shaken by his encounter with a maniac. His port-

"I had only one week of the 'special' course of bad leg treatment supplied in my own city, and it cost me $131 in coarse ointments. It was simply money thrown away," writes Mrs. James Elsworth, 802 Selkirk Ave., Winnipeg.

"The ulcers first appeared on my left ankle, and they spread from the top of my foot up to the knee. Laid up in bed helpless with pain. I was treated by five different doctors. I persevered with their lotions and ointments until I felt positive there could be no cure.

Then one day I was brought a sample of Zam-buk. Even this small quantity was decidedly soothing and it encouraged me to get a supply from the druggist. Perseverance with Zam-buk proved wonderfully and thoroughly effective. The irritation and the pain were speedily subdued; the ulcers were thoroughly cleansed of poisonous matter and the leg permanently healed.

Zam-buk, the magic herbal balm, is equally good for eczema, ringworm, poisoned wounds, pimples, boils, abscesses, piles, cuts, burns, scalds and all skin injuries. 50c. all dealers.

Money Thrown Away!

Specialist charged $131 a week. $1 worth of Zam-Buk Saved Her Leg.

"I had only one week of the 'special' course of bad leg treatment supplied in my own city, and it cost me $131 in coarse ointments. It was simply money thrown away," writes Mrs. James Elsworth, 802 Selkirk Ave., Winnipeg.

"The ulcers first appeared on my left ankle, and they spread from the top of my foot up to the knee. Laid up in bed helpless with pain. I was treated by five different doctors. I persevered with their lotions and ointments until I felt positive there could be no cure.

Then one day I was brought a sample of Zam-buk. Even this small quantity was decidedly soothing and it encouraged me to get a supply from the druggist. Perseverance with Zam-buk proved wonderfully and thoroughly effective. The irritation and the pain were speedily subdued; the ulcers were thoroughly cleansed of poisonous matter and the leg permanently healed.

Zam-buk, the magic herbal balm, is equally good for eczema, ringworm, poisoned wounds, pimples, boils, abscesses, piles, cuts, burns, scalds and all skin injuries. 50c. all dealers.

travel of the part won general sympathy.
Mrs. Fred Bellby is wife and dominating partner to the Professor, her disbelief in her husband when the latter tries to betray Jones' duplicity being only equalled by her reliance on the bona fides of the bogus Bishop. Shining as a major star of the cast, Mrs. (Dorothy) Dalton scores a delicious hit with her rendition of Alvina, the maiden lady who is the real cause of the visit to Canada of the Australian Bishop. Her description of the Bishop's heated love letters aroused the delight of all the audience, while her ardent making up to poor Jones in his gaudy right brought about a riot.

"Bobby" Stevens returned to Victoria from up island on purpose to take up once again her part of Helma, the Swedish slave, who chants "Aye, I have seen Nottin', Hear Nottin', Know Nottin'" whenever mischief is afoot and greenback bribes are forthcoming.

Every time, of course, comes out all right at the fall of the story, when Jones threatens the industrious police with action for false arrest of the real Bishop, but before that arrives, Bob Webb has brought laughs and complications as a maniac fancying himself an Indian, Bruce Bredin and Dorothy Robinson have fought lover's lifts and made them up again with the aid of tactful Jones, while Jones makes a neat matrimonial selection for himself, and saves all unpleasant explanations for the Professor by making a match with Casey, the Professor's ultra lively ward, played with vim by Peggy Lewis.

COMING TO CAPITOL

A distinctly entertaining story of the sea is Dorothy Dalton's latest picture for Paramount, "On the High Seas." She is supported by Jack Holt who has the leading male role. Storm scenes are foremost and very realistic throughout the picture. Miss Dalton has a role which is admirably suited to her and which gives her an opportunity to display some of her beautiful good looks. Lovers of sea melodrama will not be disappointed in this case for except a few of the scenes the sea is the stage for the entire action. The stars are supported by a very strong cast.

SWEET CHARACTER

She had inspected every parrot in the store and the dealer was getting tired. She had declared one bird was too green to go with the dining room and another too red for the drawing room and so on.
At last she almost settled on a purchase. Then suddenly she asked: "But is he a good bird? I mean, I hope he doesn't use dreadful language."
"Es a saint, lady," breathed the dealer fevently. "Sings yms beautiful. I had some parrots wot used to swear cruel, but if you'll believe me, this 'ere bird converted the lot of 'em."
She had become engaged to the handsome and titled foreigner, much against the wishes of her family, who were averse to taking on a life boarder.
"Ah, Count," she sighed regretfully, "you don't know how my love for you distresses my parents. I have often heard father say he would gladly give $50,000 if I should never see you again."
The action of nobility sat up excitedly.
"Ees zat so?" he demanded. "And ees your fazeire in bees orees now, you sink?" —Detroit Free Press.

Withdrawal of Shooting Lands for Private Use Appears on Increase of Drives of Ten to Fifteen Guns Taking Place on Saanich Peninsula—Public Aroused

A development of recent years, that has become accentuated this season more than ever before, is the withdrawal of open lands from the general hunter. Owners in large areas are posting notices over large tracts of estimable shooting country under their control, warning trespassers that the full rigor of the law will be their welcome.

RECEIVES HIS REWARD

On his retirement from the saddle "Old John" was the recipient of an unprecedented compliment for a sportsman in limited to six birds in the case of pheasants and where a limit is provided for each type of bird open to the hunter. This check large with no little reward as the beating flushes a variety of game that permits considerable numbers being shot before the collective limit is reached.

CAPTAIN HENDERSON WENT TO SEA AT 15

Capt. William Henderson, the commander of the C. P. S. Victorian, like most of the skipper of the Canadian Pacific fleet, went to sea as a boy at the age of fifteen and a half years as an apprentice on the barque "Ben Lomena," of Glasgow, sailing to the west coast of South America. After serving nearly five years he passed for second mate and was appointed third mate of the four-masted ship "Bahama," which was wrecked in the Atlantic. The crew was picked up by the Allan Line steamer "State of Nebraska," on which, six years later, he sailed as third officer. After getting his master's certificate, Capt. Henderson joined the Allan Line on the steamer "Peruvian," as fourth officer, on October 1st, 1898, and was promoted step by step to chief officer of the "Sardinian" in 1907. In 1912 he was appointed to command of the "Sardinian," and during the war was served aboard this steamship which carried thousands of Canadian troops.

In January, 1918, Capt. Henderson was again appointed to command the "Sardinian," and in September of the same year he was appointed to the "Sardinian," in 1919 he commanded the "Batsford"; in 1920 the "Bosworth," and in 1921 was appointed to the "Sardinian," which was the first Canadian Pacific steamship in the West Indies service. On returning to England Capt. Henderson was appointed to the R. M. S. "Victorian." His appointment is a popular choice with Canadian travellers as he is "one of the best."

TRADE CONFERENCE AT HONOLULU

Canadian Delegate to Share in Discussion of Commerce

Ottawa, Oct. 19 (Canadian Press)—Canada has a commercial exchange with Asia, including Japan, but excluding Russian and Turkish Asia, worth $45,000,000 a year, according to unrevised figures of the Dominion Bureau of Statistics. With Oceania Canada does business to the extent of $20,000,000 a year, while with Mexico and the countries of South America bordering on the Pacific her trade is valued at $14,600,000 a year. In the aggregate this trade is about evenly divided between imports and exports. With Asia, the two accounts almost balance. Oceania sells Canada $5,000,000 worth of goods and takes $15,000,000 of Canada's produce. But Mexico and the west coast of South America send Canada $11,700,000 worth a year and take only $2,200,000. The whole subject of trans-Pacific trade will be gone into by the Pacific Commercial Conference, which will open at Honolulu on October 25. F. C. T. O'Hara, Deputy Minister of Trade and Commerce, will represent Canada. Within the memories of people now living stores were conducted on the "get-what-you-can" plan. The advent of advertising on an adequate scale ended that discredited policy. Advertised prices must be adhered to.

FOR CHILDREN THE SANDMAN STORY FOR TONIGHT

HOW TWO NAUGHTY SPARROWS BECAME GOOD.

Snippy Sparrow found one day in a yard a very large piece of bread. It was really a crumb but much too large for Snippy to carry very far. His bright eyes looked around to see if any one was watching. For Snippy was a greedy little fellow and did not wish to share his good fortune with any one. "Every one for himself" was the way Snippy reasoned—and so he wanted to hide this big crumb where he could eat it without having his mates try to take it away from him. Snippy picked up the crumb in his bill and started to fly. Down went the bread, breaking off some of it. Then again he picked it up and flew to a bush and again the bread tumbled to the ground and broke. By this time there was only a small piece left and Snippy had no trouble in flying with it to a place where he thought he was safe. But Bully Sparrow had his eye on him and as soon as Snippy was under a bush eating his tempting morsel Bully sneaked up behind him and grabbed the crumb and away he flew. Snippy had not been quick enough to see where Bully went and so he had to hunt for the crumbs he had dropped from the big piece and, while he was hunting Snippy thought of all that had happened since he found the bread in the yard. "Now if I had not been so greedy and had shared that crumb with my mates Bully Sparrow would not have dared to steal it," thought Snippy. "Besides, there was more of it than I could carry and more than I could eat. I guess I was pretty greedy." Just then some one threw out a handful of crumbs from the window of the house in the yard. Snippy saw a nice big crumb but this time he did not try to carry it away. He chirped to the sparrows on the other side of the fence—Snippy was perched on the top—and soon they were all having a nice breakfast. Then along came Bully Sparrow and down he swooped on the little flock chattering in an angry voice; but he could not drive away the birds—there were too many of them. Bully soon found it was no use and flew to the top of the fence to wait until they flew away. But when they had finished eating not a tiny crumb was left. Bully sat sadly thinking as he ruffled his feathers and hopped about, wondering why Snippy called the other birds, and then he flew over to where Snippy was perched and asked him about it. "You see when you are selfish and greedy you have to fight alone," explained Snippy. "You took away my crumb which I wanted all for myself, but when I was willing to share what I had found with the others I had some one to help me defend my rights. Half a loaf is better than no loaf, Bully remember that." "I guess you are right," answered Bully. "There isn't much fun fight-

TWO FACTIONS DRAG ON BUTTER MARKET

Meat Prices Vary; Eggs Advance to 70 Cents

"There seems to be two factions dragging at the butter market," stated a leading retailer to-day when questioned as to the situation of the market. At times there is an undertone which points to a downward movement, and then again it shows a strengthening which brings a very steady market, although no changes have been registered other than advances in the last two months.

"Eggs, too, are causing some consternation," he went on to say, "with steady advance to higher prices." Again the eggs were marked up and eggs have now reached a 70-cent quotation, while pullets eggs are following the lead and are demanding 40 cents a dozen. Storage eggs are the only commodity to remain stationary in this section.

No less than ten changes were registered on the meat market on revision this morning, and every one was a reduction of one cent or over. In the majority of cases variations were two and three cents. All prices on pork fluctuated and indicated a decline, while the remaining changes were shown among beef quotations. The retail quotations have been revised as follows:

NEW ZEALAND NOW B.C. APPLE MARKET

Large Consignment Will Leave on Makura; Eggs Are at Premium

Eggs are at a premium on wholesale row to-day. Prices were marked up to 65c a dozen and 50c on pullets' prices in California, which is now the largest source of supply for the season. Previous to the present large shipment two or three consignments had been sent to the Antipodes. This shipment consists chiefly of Jonathan from Vernon and Kelowna.

None of these apples will reach Australia, however, owing to an embargo having been placed on all British Columbia apples. This is in force for several years. The New Zealand shipments introduce a new market for British Columbia. The quotations on wholesale row have been revised as follows:
