

Boston, June 5, 1865.

Dear May:

Your check just been put into my hand.

I am to leave tomorrow afternoon (Tuesday) for the Pennsylvania meeting of Progressive Friends, and shall not return under ten or twelve days. Hence, our meeting must be held tomorrow at 12 o'clock, at which time the members of the Board will be summoned to appear at the Anti-Slavery Office. Can you be with us at that hour?

Faithfully yours,

Wm. Lloyd Garrison.
