

Saturday

10 March

1860

Dear Maria,

I send

out your bonnet by Baker, who I shall see at the station here & direct him to give the sundry to Peter.

At any rate to be sure that it is delivered ^{to} ~~fast~~ night. Mary was so earnest to have me stay, that I thought I would I call her very poorly. She went to Mary's ^{B's} party - cool - It ^{the party} went off well.

I am going to see Mr B. ^{oblivious} this afternoon. Annie looked very pretty in her grey silk. She went to the Papanti Ball

to wear her pink silk. She longs to get home to Weymouth, but I
forbid her to speak.
She has bought Hawthornes new
-look. to select
herself with tomorrow
I shall come
Monday - tell her
to collect all the clothes for the wash
for it will be a small

one - tell her to change all the
sheets, put in a night gown of mine. I should like bathing room door I have been brown calico washed.
I have not been to the office yet.

ever yours D. W.

you can be carried
up to North B. on Monday. There is a 9 o'clock train, ask
Gleaves about it.