IMPORTANT NOTICE TO ALL AMATEURS

OF GOOD EATING. IN this country, where the arts are daily making such rapid progress, the CULINARY art has hitherto been neglected—pastry, especially, has never been undertaken on an extended scale. It is true great many articles of that kind are daily imported from Europe;

By order of the Board,

but the high prices asked for those delicacies, prevent great many persons from enjoying them; and what a difference in the taste will they have if prepared on the spot, and offered fresh to the consumers. Forcibly struck with this idea, wishing to obviate to the little variety to be found in our market, especially in the forthcoming season, we have called from France one of our friends, a disciple of the celebrated to possess, on a great plan, the Culinary Art, and hope to present to families, travellers, and the public in general, all kinds of Pastry. Every Sunday there will be found at their store a great variety of turkies, large and fat pullets, venison, and all kinds of poultry, with be such that Amateurs will be puzzled to make a choice.
