Camps Multi day edit-a-thons Seminars Conferences

Costs

The costs are highly dependent on the country and the desired living standard during the event, the location and the type of event.

Camps can be organized with 20 Euros per person per day. Conferences from 60 Euros per person per day upwards. Projects are financed by respective WM Affiliates or government programs and funds for youth exchanges.

Participants

The format is targeted towards people from 18 - 30, and both experienced contributors and newcomers to Wikimedia projects.

The projects are international exchanges with the effect of broadening knowledge about situations in other countries and other participants cultures.

Mission

- 1) To create more content on peace and justice issues on Wikipedia and other Wiki projects
- 2) To create cooperation between Wikimedia and peace organizations
- 3) To motivate new target groups and thus bring in diverse perspectives (activists, young people, women)
