DIGEST

Tochigi prefecture
Asahi Shimbun Tochigi
Section - C
Dec. 1, 1949

1. Headline: The revised rice quota to be allocated to each town and village

The 1949 rice quota for this prefecture has been reduced by 49,000 koku, and each town and village will have to have its quota adjusted accordingly. The prefectural authorities have a program of calling a meeting of the prefectural Agricultural Adjustment Committee on Dec. 2 and that of the village and town mayors on Dec. 3, when the Governor will make explanation of the circumstances which led to making such a reduction of the rice quota and it is planned that each town and village will have its quota readjusted accordingly.

2. Headline: Uncovered commodities to be turned to advantage

The hidden goods uncovered by the Utsunomiya Public Procurators Board and the prefectural authorities are said to be worth about ¥ 262,500,000 altogether. Of the items uncoverd, the textile goods are said to cover the major portion followed by steel and oil etc. Of this ¥ 3,530,000 worth has been turned over to the Occupation Forces and those goods which will have to be confiscated will amount to ¥ 2,550,000 and with other items turned over to the procuratorial offices, there will be left about 150,000,000 worth unsettled. It is said that this much will be utilized to better advantage with necessary permit obtained from the competent authorities.
