THE ORIGIN OF THE RED CROSS

And What Your Dollar Helps To Do

"Henri Dunant, a Swiss, wrote a tract, which he called 'Souvenir de Solferino,' with which he made such an impression upon the minds of the rulers in Europe that he managed to get the powers to send delegates to a conference in Geneva, in October, 1863, to discuss methods of relieving the wounded and the sick in war.

"The upshot was a Treaty signed by fourteen nations the following year, known as the Geneva Convention, or the Red Cross Treaty. It provided that each government extend its sanction, authority, and protection to volunteer relief organizations in time of war; that the privileges of neutrality be extended by all belligerents to the ambulances, hospitals, doctors, nurses, and all persons attached to the medical relief corps of the armies; and, finally, that the Red Cross, now familiar to all and respected by all but savages, should be the universal insignia of volunteers in care of the wounded.

"It seems incredible that this simple Christian idea is hardly more than half a century old; but no more astonishing than that we depended upon unskilled and undisciplined and unorganized amateur endeavor to care for our own soldiers during the Civil War. Nobody can overestimate the sacrifice and heroism of the women to whom our building is dedicated, but in view of our recent thorough lesson in the necessity of organization and preparation, no intelligent person would dream of leaving us to face such another situation.

"You probably supposed—as any one would—that the Government of the United States had some great department to meet this most exacting of all services in the field, had enormous stores of bandages and beds and stretchers and blankets and gruel, thousands of nurses trained ready to go to the front, and all that. Perhaps you also thought that they had some provision to meet the suffering and misery of great fires and floods and wrecks. Well, they haven't, unless you count the regular Army which has once or twice been called in to help. This is all done by volunteer work. And, as in everything else, until this work was highly organized, and supplies and trained men prepared before hand, the truth is that the help was of little avail.

"The idea gathered force slowly in this country. In 1877, a few patriotic and benevolent citizens appointed themselves a committee to further the interests of the Red Cross. They fostered the idea, but they could not represent or organize a nation. In 1881, they gained sufficient momentum to incorporate under the laws of the

AN ENTHUSIASTIC PRESBYTERY MEETING

The Narberth Presbyterian Church Entertains the Presbytery of Philadelphia North

The Presbytery of the Philadelphia North met in the Narberth Presbyterian Church on Tuesday of last week. This is the first time in this church's history of over twenty-five years that it has entertained its own Presbytery. The boundaries of this Presbytery extend from Allegheny avenue northward and westward in Philadelphia, and includes all of Montgomery, Bucks and Berks counties. In this district there are 69 churches and the membership of this Presbytery consists of 102 ministers and 319 elders. Of this numbers there were over 100 present last Tuesday, mostly ministers. The morning session began at ten o'clock with devotional services conducted by Rev. W. J. Bone, of Newtown. At 10:30 the moderator, Rev. B. F. Paist, Jr., of Langhorne, constituted Presbytery with prayer. After the reference of many bills to their respective committees, the chairman of the Committee of Arrangements, Rev. John Van Ness, announced that the business session would continue till 12:30 when adjournment would be made for dinner at the Y. M. C. A., and that the afternoon session would begin at two o'clock and continue until the business was completed.

Some of the business accomplished during the day was the following: A resolution presented by Dr. J. B. Laird, of Frankford, was passed pledging the loyalty of the Presbytery to the President and the Nation in this time of national crisis. Two new churches were organized, one the McKinley Mission in Germantown, and the other, Cedar Park Church near Jenkintown. After passing a remarkably fine examination and delivering a most creditable sermon, a young negro from Lincoln University was granted ordination. He has accepted a call to a colored church in Reading. The resignation of Rev. Samuel W. Steckel, from the Falls of Schuylkill Church, was presented and referred to a committee. Rev. W. Barnes Lower, D. D., was transferred from the Wyncote Church to the Logan Church. The Sessional Records of all the churches were examined by a large committee of which Rev. G. J. Crist, of Ambler, was the chairman, and with but few interesting exceptions, all were approved. After some stirring speeches on both sides of the question, Presbytery voted against the proposition to merge into one the Board of Freedmen and of Home Missions.

The report on young people's societies was presented by Rev. W. E. Steckel, of Doylestown. The annual "Narrative" was read by Rev. D. H. Martin, of Cynwyd. The Temperance Committee reported through its chairman, Rev. John F. Sheppard, of Conshohocken, who introduced Rev. E. J. Reinke, a board secretary who made a forceful appeal, after which Presbytery passed a strong resolution favoring nation-wide prohibition during the war.

The dinner at the Y. M. C. A. proved a most delightful and successful affair. A small army of the ladies of the church under the efficient generalship of Mrs. E. S. Haws, prepared a bountiful repast. The tables were prettily decorated with the national colors. Happy after dinner speeches were made by the moderator and by Rev. R. P. D. Bennett, of the Summit Church, and Dr. W. B. Jennings, of the First Church of Germantown. The Presbytery adjourned at about 5 P. M. after expressing great appreciation of the visit to beautiful Narberth and the hospitality of the Narberth Church.

There were four squads on the floor drilling at the fire house Monday evening. Among the number were several of the younger boys from eighteen to twenty. Rezo Brooks and Frederick H. Taylor, of Wynnewood, assisted Captain White.

A CALL FOR VOLUNTEERS

Our Town $1.00
Civic Association 1.00
Membership fee, including Our Town. $2.00

The committee (appointed by the Civic Association at the annual meeting) decided upon a membership fee of $2 per annum, which is to include a copy of Our Town each week. One dollar for the use of the Civic Association and one dollar to the support of Our Town. The increased cost of material and labor in getting out the paper necessitates the withdrawal of the combination price of $1.50.

It should be a matter of local pride in your community that would prompt you to contribute such a trifling sum as 4 cents per week for the support of your association and circulation of your paper.

Remember, every householder in Narberth is a member of the Civic Association and will receive Our Town, but should it not be a matter of honor for him to do his bit, 4 cents per week, toward the support of the community in which he lives? However, no compulsion is used, "the volunteer system" is in full force in Narberth and all will continue to receive a copy of Our Town, except, of course, those (and there are very few, we are glad to say) who refuse to take the paper from the post office.

Arrangements are being made to have all the volunteer membership fees of $2 in the Civic Association fall due together at a specified time each year.

Mr. George M. Colesworthy is secretary-treasurer of the Civic Association and Miss Mary Gara, subscription manager of Our Town.

On behalf of the committee,
F. Millwood Justice,
Chairman.

Urgent appeals are being made for immediate aid to starving Belgians, Poles and Armenians. These peoples are all innocent victims of the world-conflict that has swept over their territories. The story of their slaughter, starvation and present suffering is too fresh in our minds to need repetition here. Now that we have entered into the conflict, they are our allies, and it is our duty to strain every resource to keep them from further suffering and starvation.

Appeals come to us daily from organized committees for help. We fail in our duty, if we pay no heed to these heart-rending cries for relief. If we were eating a meal in our homes, and a number of children were looking in the window, emaciated and crying from hunger, the food would choke us, if we did not rush to their relief. Because these children are a few thousand miles away makes no difference. Right now, this minute, as you read these lines, they are suffering the pangs of hunger and dying from diseases due to insufficient nutrition. They are our brethren, our allies. Can you resist this dreadful, mournful, cry of the children? As citizens of the United States, you are pledged to help, and help quickly. Do not let another day pass without finding a way to do your share, if you have not yet done it. For example, $1 per month for six months will give one Belgian child an extra ration a day for that period of time. This extra ration is needed to keep the children from contracting tuberculosis. Hundreds are dying for lack of this extra ration per day. If you are a church member, communicate with your pastor, or if a member of any organization, send your contributions through its treasurer, or if you prefer, to any one of the many relief committees that are appealing for funds.

Our fire company needs your membership dues, $3 a year. The cost is very small, considering the service and protection you are getting. The up-to-date apparatus which the company recently installed is a credit to our borough, and the maintenance of it is an item which everyone of us should accept as part of our present responsibility. The protection is your protection. How would it seem to you if you had a fire, and knew that you were not doing your part to support the company, the members of which oftentimes place their lives in peril to save your property and perhaps the life of some member of your family?

Is it not worth the small amount you are asked to contribute, to have this organization at your service?

Be a booster, stop knocking, and join now, send your check payable to the Narberth Fire Company, to Raymond C. Jones, financial secretary, Narberth, Pa.

To the Editor of Our Town:

These undersigned were present at the recent annual meeting of the Civic Association and reported to their neighbors that only twenty per cent. of the recipients of Our Town had paid their subscriptions. It was the consensus of opinion that Our Town was the best appreciated local paper they had ever read. It was therefore decided to make a canvass of the triangle bounded by Montgomery, Narberth and Price avenues. The results were, that out of eleven families visited, eight were only too glad to pay their subscriptions, the remaining three having already paid up. A check for the money collected is enclosed.

This would seem to indicate that a division of the town into small districts with one man in charge of the collections for each district would yield big returns. Would it not be well to advertise an Our Town Day on which all subscriptions would be collected?

Appreciating the work and sacrifice of those who are responsible for the success of Our Town.

H. C. Pierce,
R. D. Thomas.

The work accomplished by Messrs. Pierce and Thomas is certainly appreciated by Our Town.

If our readers would for one moment consider the fact that no one receives any compensation whatsoever for his work and time devoted to getting out this paper, they would at least take care of such a small obligation as a past due year's subscription.

This paper is not self-sustaining. Its income does not pay the printer's bills. The deficiency has at times been made up by those who are interested in seeing that the paper is kept alive. Do you want Our Town? Then pay up.

Would you miss it if we were forced to discontinue the publishing of it, owing to the fact that it was supported only by a few, and not by the many?

The responsibility certainly should not rest with the few. It is up to you.

The Editor.

SPECIAL NOTICE

Rev. Henry C. Stone, founder of the Stonemen's Fellowship, will preach at All Saints' Church, Montgomery avenue and Wynnewood road, on Sunday afternoon, May 20, at 4 o'clock.

All Stonemen in this territory, and all people living in Narberth, Wynnewood, Ardmore and vicinity are cordially invited to attend this service. As the seating capacity of the church is limited, you are asked to come early.

Mr. Stone and his work need no introduction to the people along the Main Line, therefore a large crowd is expected to hear him.

CUB'S WEEKLY LETTER

To the Editor of Our Town:

Don't forget that we have in Narberth a Unit of the Home Defense Reserve. If you haven't joined, it's time you did. Although you may be immune from conscription, owing to age, dependents, etc., and possibly not a believer in this war, you should welcome an opportunity to do your little bit in the Reserve, at least. Chances are you'll never be called on to do anything but sign the paper swearing allegiance to the flag and offering what help you can to suppress any possible local troubles that threaten your home or the homes of your neighbors. That's all there is to it.

Now then, if you want to go a step further and be a little more active, but with no further obligation, why not join the crowd that drills every Monday and Thursday evening at Elm Hall? It won't hurt you one bit, but will give you some probably much needed healthful exercise and genuine enjoyment. Some of us bible backs will learn to stand up straight anyway and that's worth something. Come ahead and join the awkward squad and set a good example for the younger fellows who are showing hesitation over enlisting. After all, it's the least you can do, if you have any patriotism, are not crippled and want to see Uncle Sam win out. They are doing it all along the Main Line and Narberth should prove herself no less progressive and wide-awake in this direction than she has in so many others where she has shown the way.

Not long ago I told you about the Forum at Elm Hall, but neglected to say that it was used at times by our local fire fighters as a dressing, or rather undressing room. Harmless card games are also indulged in when the hour grows late and the attendance thins out. Unfortunately some friction has been manifest lately, owing to the action of four or five firemen who came into the Forum after returning from a fire, leaving the door open behind them, thereby creating a cold draft, doffing their wet overcoats and heavy-soled shoes, to the accompaniment of much racket and boisterous talk, thus disturbing a perfectly good and peaceful pinochle game which was in progress at the time.

Among the prominent citizens who were at the card table was the genial Count DuMarais, who, as a result of sitting in the aforesaid draft, caught a bad cold, or rather it caught him. The Count is delicate anyway. The disturbers, it is argued, only wanted to exhibit themselves as heroes and should have gone to their homes to dry out and rest as the other firemen did. On the other hand, the contention is that the fire house is intended for the use of the firemen and not for a bunch of night prowlers, who ought to be at home with their families and who seem to think they are paying $3 annual dues for the privilege of monopolizing all the facilities of the building night after night.

It is rumored that General Joffre, who had accepted the Count's invitation to spend a week at the latter's home, heard of the ruction and has asked to be excused from visiting Narberth until the next European War. Inasmuch as the Count is a member of the committee welcoming the French Commission to Philadelphia, he hopes to induce the General to reconsider his decision not to visit Narberth.

BOY SCOUT NEWS

In this big land I guess there are a million boys at least, from Seattle on the western coast to New York on the east.

Who wish, with all their hearts and souls,
That they could wear a hat
And khaki pants and flannel shirt
With leggings and all that,
And hike and camp and do first aid,
Grow tanned and strong and tall,
And do their good turns every day,
And shinny up a wall;
You bet they want to do it; can't you almost hear them shout:
"Won't someone please give me a chance? I want to be a Scout."
—North Philadelphia World.

The last meeting of the Boy Scouts of Troop One, Narberth, was held in the Y. M. C. A. on Friday, May 4.

Cummer led the meeting which was opened as usual by the Lord's prayer, pledge to the flag and the Scout oath.

Paul Shea was a visitor at this meeting.

Mr. Cole told us about the Scouts of the country making gardens and said he thought the Scouts of Narberth should make one as an aid to civic relief.

Several Scouts offered their services in making a garden. Mr. Cole also offered a prize to the Scout who most regularly attended the troop and patrol meetings.

The assistant patrol leader of the Flying Eagle Patrol then showed the Scouts the contents of the new Red Cross kit recently purchased by this patrol.

Mr. Cole said that he expects to test each patrol in efficiency some time this week.

All the patrols had meetings this week, including the Seals, who have fallen back on their old name, after having tried about three others. The Wolf Patrol, however, which consists of two members, has not had a meeting yet and have not been represented in a meeting since the banquet which it attended in full uniform and with both members.

Karl Kreamer, the assistant editor, has been confined to his house under a yellow placard called a quarantine for two weeks, under the plea of having a spell of chickenpox.

11.00 A. M.—Morning worship; subject, "Our Debt to Motherhood," by Pastor Demmy.

Wednesday, May 9, 1917, 8 P. M.—Prayer and praise meeting. Every member should remember our motto, "Every member present at the prayer meeting."

Tuesday, May 15, 1917, at the home of Mrs. William J. Jones, 103 South Narberth avenue: 1.30 P. M., Ladies Aid Society; 2.30 P. M., The Woman's Mission Circle, Mrs. John W. Shinn in charge of the program.

Church Notes

On last Sunday Dr. John Gordon preached his last sermon and it was a powerful one, on "The Transfiguration" and he requested every member to support the pastor-elect, Rev. Avery S. Demmy, who begins the work next Sunday, May 13. Every member should make a special effort to be present. Dr. Gordon was acting pastor for eight months and we are all better for his ministry and thankful that the Lord sent him to us. We wish him God-speed.

ALL SAINTS' P. E. CHURCH.

Rev. Andrew S. Burke, Pastor.

The services at All Saints' P. E. Church, Montgomery and Wynnewood avenues, for next Sunday are as follows:

8.00 A. M.—Holy communion.
9.45 A. M.—Sunday School.

The regular meeting of All Saints' Guild has been postponed from Monday afternoon, May 7, to Monday afternoon, May 14, and will be at the residence of the Misses Shand on North Narberth avenue, Narberth, at 3 o'clock.

May 27 is the date Bishop Rhineland will visit All Saints' to administer the apostolic rite of confirmation.

Dr. Burke extends a most cordial invitation to any new Episcopalian families who have moved to Narberth, Wynnewood, Ardmore and vicinity, to make All Saints' Church their place for public worship.

The church has provided free busses that leave Wynnewood and Narberth stations at 10.40 on Sunday mornings. You are urged to use them.

THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

Rev. John Van Ness, Minister

The meetings for next Sunday are as follows:

10.00 A. M.—Sunday school.
11 A. M.—Public worship. Celebration of "Parents' Day." Special music by children of the Primary Department. Sermon on the Home Life.
7 P. M.—Young People's meeting. Special exercises held in the main auditorium. Addresses by the Misses Anderson, Beatty, Duff and McQuilkin. The public cordially invited.
8.00 P. M.—Public worship. Sermon theme, "How to Write a Shepherd's Psalm."

Church Notes

Mr. T. S. Berry, who played the organ so acceptably last Sunday, has been engaged as permanent organist of the church. Mr. Berry's home is in Overbrook and for years he has been organist in the large Calvin Presbyterian church. The Narberth church is exceedingly fortunate in securing his services. It is also expected that a full quartette will be organized by next Sunday to assist in the music of the church.

METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH

The Little Church on the Hill.

Rev. C. G. Koppel, Pastor.

Sunday services:
9.45 A. M.—Sunday school. Bible classes for men and women. Teachers of these classes urge every member present.
11.00 A. M.—Morning worship, Sermon by the pastor.
7.00 P. M.—Epworth League, "From Mountain Cabin to Manhood." The Rev. J. S. Burnett, D. D., who is a southern mountaineer, will tell the story of these quaint people with the aid of a stereopticon, sixty slides made from original pictures. A thrilling story of the American Highlanders.

Prayer Service

At the mid-week service Wednesday evening, the pastor will present the subject of "Our Church Paper." Interesting meeting beginning at eight o'clock.

Ration Club

The Epworth League is now providing daily meals for thirteen Belgian children. The young people will be glad to collect one dollar monthly for six months from anyone desiring to provide for additional children. Communicate with Miss. Flora Compton, 102 Narberth avenue.

Red Cross Appeal

Responding to this appeal many members of the congregation have become members of the Red Cross of which Mrs. Fletcher W. Stites is the local chairman of the Main Line Unit. Our Methodist Hospital in Philadelphia has been requested by the Surgeon General of the U. S. Navy to organize a Red Cross Hospital. This hospital is to be known as Navy Base Hospital No. 5. It will be sent abroad or located somewhere on the South Atlantic coast. Our church is justly proud of its history of patriotic support in times of great national support and the pastor will gladly receive and contributions toward the $30,000 needed to purchase the initial equipment required for this hospital.

Fearing a break into a profession that's overcrowded, some men waste the best years of their lives looking for one that isn't.

which will make their membership good for the same length of time after their return as it would be if they had not enlisted.

We will miss the boys very much, and, although sorry to see them go, yet we are more than glad that they can be of better service to our country at a time when so many critical situations are arising.

As they start upon new tasks and enter fields with a hidden future, we wish them God-speed.

Those of us who do not go should remember them and contribute in whatever way possible to make their lives more happy. Send letters, books, papers, magazines; in fact, do anything that you would like them to do if you were in their place.

A second junior pocket billiard tournament is under way and all the entrants are hoping to be the aspirants for the cues offered.

The bowling alleys are to be fixed

OBITUARY

On May 5 Mrs. Hannah E., wife of Mr. C. W. Heritage, died at her home in Montclair, N. J.

Mr. and Mrs. Heritage were residents of Narberth for eleven years. Mrs. Heritage was well known for her lovable, sweet disposition. The friends she left here will miss her sadly. They all extend to Mr. Heritage their heartfelt sympathy in his great trouble.

The funeral took place at their home, 309 Grove Place, Montclair, N. J., on Tuesday.

DR. GREEN'S LECTURE WONDERFUL SUCCESS

Anyone not having attended Dr. Green's lecture on "The Nature, and Worth of Wit and Humor" certainly missed a remarkable treat. It surely was one of the very best lectures ever given in Narberth and was an evening well spent. Dr. Green kept his audience in an uproar from beginning to the finish. The Alumni Association invited the high school pupils to hear this lecture, and each pupil certainly gave excellent attention, and thoroughly enjoyed every minute. The committee of the Alumni Association deserves great credit for having secured this lecturer, and it is hoped a similar course will be given under their auspices again next year.

BILLS BY ASSEMBLYMAN SITES
Assemblyman Sites, of the First district, this county, introduced the two following bills in the Assembly at Harrisburg Monday evening.
To create a board of mental hygiene to consist of five to be named by the Governor, to take over the duties of the State Board of Charities relative to insane, feeble-minded, drug victims and institutions therefor.
Establishing system of municipal liens, in first class townships, for removal of snow, ice, etc.; regulating cost of repair of turnpikes, when taken over by counties; regulating assessments in borough, first and second class townships.
A bill was presented by Mr. Stites, Montgomery, providing that banks and trust companies formed under State laws may establish sub-agencies for receiving and paying out money and requiring assets to and full reports to be sent to main offices at the close of each business day.

LOWER MERION A WINNER
At the big relay carnival at Franklin Field last week, the relay team of the Lower Merion High School showed their heels to their rivals from Norristown, Downingtown and Philadelphia Southern, and came home with handsome silver cups as a reward for their excellent running. Captain McGrady was in fine form and his team mates, Heston, Packer and Jack, also did well. The boys also made a good showing on Saturday afternoon.

WYNNEWOOD MEN ORGANIZE
Wynnewood residents, meeting on the grounds of the Wynnewood Tennis Club, with about sixty present, heard addresses by Chief of Police James I. Donaghy, of Lower Merion township; George Wentworth Carr and several others, and then organized a home defense police of elderly men, who will not be called upon for military service.

85 FROM LOWER MERION
Lower Merion will be required to provide eighty-five men under the selective conscription law, according to computations of officials on the basis of 500,000 first called out all over the country. In its towns and villages there are several hundred already enlisted in the regular service and the national guard.

SCHOOL NOTES

"Where is the account of the circus?" was heard on many sides when Our Town came out last week. But what's the use in taking space with something that everyone knows about? More than one-third of the town was there and that's all that was talked about for several days. But we've decided to submit a little report which will be found elsewhere in this issue.

Mr. Emmett has been requested to present the last act of the circus, the American Clown Dance, at the Bryn Mawr Hospital fete, which is held annually for the benefit of the hospital. At the regular meeting of the school board it was decided that school would be closed on Friday, June 22. Commencement will be held on the evening of the same day. On the morning of May 30 at 8.45 the school will hold its memorial exercises, following which will be the annual field day meet. Keep the date open. Particulars will follow.

Notice to Parents
The monthly reports were handed to pupils on Monday, May 7.

At present there are four hundred and thirty pupils enrolled in the school. As pupils come and go the enrollment varies from 430 to 445. The total enrollment this year is 469. We welcome the following new pupils entered during the past week: Jack Metzgar, Jack Survil, Bernard Weyer, Clarence Metzgar, Marcelene Coarie, Lynn Coane, Betty Hepler, Elizabeth Metzgar.

Donation to School Board Treasurer
At a regular meeting of the athletic association the following resolution was passed: "That the athletic association of the Narberth High School present the treasurer of the school board with one hundred and fifty dollars to be used for the construction of a balcony in the new gymnasium or for such other purpose as the board deems best in the equipment of the gymnasium." A check of $150 was therefore sent to Mr. Ridge.

District, calling themselves 'The American Association of the Red Cross.' "This country did not even sign the treaty until 1882, and this question, which any one to-day will recognize goes to the vitals of the nation, did not become of national concern until 1900. Meantime, of course, this association struggled on as a kind of private charity, undertaking the impossible, and bravely assuming the duties of the whole people. It changed its name to the American Red Cross in 1893.

"During these years, the conception of the scope of the work which should be done by such a national body was greatly enlarged. War is not the only scourge of mankind that overwhelms beyond the hope of private charity. The arrival of the Red Cross with supplies and charity—which, incidentally, was merely assumed by inherent fitness, after the fashion of Admirable Crichton—at the appalling scene of the Johnstown Flood created an impression and prestige that has never been forgotten. It became evident to all thinking men that it was not only essential to be ready for national disaster, to make it somebody's business to be ready; but that it would be criminal negligence not to be ready.

"Obviously this concerns the whole people. And they are glad enough to respond to an appeal. Money and volunteers are plentiful in time of dramatic disaster. But it was not until the Red Cross took command that there was any system or method or efficiency or results to be had. "Well, that is a digression. But it leads to your two dollars. For those days of groping are gone. The proposals made by Dunant are now accepted by all civilized people as a matter of course. The brassard and flag are the most familiar and welcome in the world. And the United States Government has taken a hand in placing the Red Cross in a position to really represent the country in both war and peace, here and abroad; to make it its own medium for helping others, and its own insurance against calamity.

"For in 1905—just yesterday among the events of prime importance in our history—all previous charters were repealed, and the Red Cross was reorganized by Act of Congress into the official relief organization of the United States of America. It is the only organization that can operate to give volunteer aid to the sick and wounded in case of war. It is the recognized official medium for communication between the Army and Navy and the people; it is the recognized force for meeting national calamity of any kind.

"Now perhaps you understand. The President of the United States is at the head of it. The Army and Navy are represented upon its board and depend upon it. Foreign countries recognize and respect it and its insignia, in peace of war. It belongs to you. It is a voluntary organization of the people of the United States for your protection. If you lived in Dayton, Ohio, when the whole city was washed away and the vandals came in as the water receded from your ruined home and drowned neighbors, you would know the Red Cross. It was in command. It supplied food and houses and nurses and business and protection; money and trained men, and meat and drink. "That is, it had these ready and in order, because the people of America belonged to it, and had willingly paid their fees and answered their call.

"If you propose to help the wounded in Flanders or to prepare against the day when we may need help ourselves; if you are inclined to come to the rescue of stricken and afflicted people in this country—or anywhere else, for the Red Cross covers the world—the only efficient and patriotic method possible is to join the Red Cross. Read the story of the last ten years. It includes the San Francisco fire, the Chinese famine, the Mississippi floods and the Messina earthquake. It is the story of the Monongah Mine disaster and the wreck of the Titanic, the Serbian typhus campaign and the East-land disaster. It is like a page from Sherlock Holmes. It is part of your life and inheritance; it is a good part of what makes you proud of your country. These things are hauled. Yes. By whom? By the members of the American Red Cross, volunteers. There is not a man alive in the Republic who would not have answered had he had a personal call to stand by on any of these occasions, had he known it. Well you had the call, and so did I. The Red Cross does it. If you belong, you help. If not, you are among those that bear the blame for the fact that the Japanese have seven members to our one, and ten millions in gold to our one. Do you understand—or do you want back your two dollars?"

Already the Narberth membership has increased to over 100, yet we need many more.

Don't forget the informal shirtwaist dance to be given Friday evening, May 18, at Elm Hall, for the benefit of our Red Cross Branch. Show your interest. One dollar and a half admits a couple.

The above department should be of the greatest use to the community, the list contains the name of every professional man, tradesman, mechanic, shopkeeper, etc., who does or can in any way serve his fellow-townsmen, and who is progressive enough to add name to list of Register. As it is difficult for those contributing their time and efforts to the production of "Our Town" to personally either know or interview all such it would be most helpful if those not now found in the printed list would send in a memo of their names, address, phone numbers and businesses or professions for listing. This will cost as follows: 10 cents each issue for 2 lines; 5 cents for each additional line.
