SHOW HOUSE AND STORE BUILDING PLANNED

Contract Signed for New Structure, Corner Stocker and Central Avenue

A contract has been signed and an escrow formed at the Federal Commercial & Savings Bank of Glendale by which J. A. Menard, theatrical man, and associates, will construct a modern theatre and commercial building at Stocker street and Central avenue, to cost, including the site, about $250,000, it was announced today.

The building, it is stated, will have a total frontage of 361 feet and, beside the theatre for Mahurin Players, famous as Murphy's Comedians, will contain about twelve stores and a number of apartments and offices. It will be two stories.

This announcement, it is pointed out, will come as a welcome one to the many thousands of friends of Murphy's Comedians, who will make Glendale and Casa Verdugo their headquarters in a modern structure.

Sale of Tickets

J. B. Brown & Co. recently here from Eagle Rock, with offices on East Broadway, have been retained to organize and build the enterprise. Including the cost of the site, which in the agreement with Mr. Menard passes to J. B. Brown & Co. and which he recently purchased at a consideration of $51,000, the cost of the project will closely approximate $250,000.

Mr. Brown states that, aside from the regular real estate financing, he has a novel scheme which he believes the thousands of "regulars" who have shown their keen appreciation of the shows by their constant attendance and support, will unanimously approve. He says that, while asking for their continued loyal support, he will give them the opportunity of getting advance reserved seat tickets at the same old price of three for $1, and thus insure for themselves the opportunity to see the future shows and assist in the building of the theatre.

Exclusive Rights

"We play to sell the show out three months in advance at least," said Mr. Brown. "The tickets will be transferable and usable any time after the theatre is opened. Mr. Murphy has given up the ex-

SEARCH FOR FIRE FIGHTER BELIEVED TO HAVE PERISHED

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 18.—With the complete subjection of the Los Angeles forest fire in sight after eighteen days of furious effort, search was started today in the smoldering area north of Azusa for Lee Van Buren, of La Habra, a member of the fire fighting forces, for whose safety grave fears were expressed by forestry officials. Van Buren disappeared from a fire crew that was nearly trapped when a sheet of flame shot over a huge boulder. The youth vanished from sight, heading through the leaping flames toward a deep ravine which was later gutted by fire.

GOVERNMENT EXPENSES SLASHED

WASHINGTON, Sept. 18.—Government operating expenses were slashed $13,400,000 in July and August compared to the first two months of the preceding fiscal year, according to official treasury figures today.

Based on the savings in the last two months, governmental "overhead" will be $90,000,000 less in the 1924-25 fiscal year than in 1923-24. If this can be accomplished, that President Coolidge's hope for a $180,000,000 surplus in 1926 will be achieved.

To Show Increase
The president is keeping in close touch with the preparation of the new budget, which will be submitted to Congress in December. It was understood administration officials feel that ordinary expenses may be kept within the three billion mark, as urged by President Coolidge.

Only two government departments showed increases in cost—navy and agriculture. Operating of the navy totaled $62,013,000, an increase of $7,799,000 over July and August, 1923, while expenses of the agriculture department of $30,261,000 were $6,619,000 greater than the corresponding months of last year.

The transfer was made at the request of W. W. Preston, president of the library board, a letter from whom, embodying the transfers, was read before the council by A. J. Van Wie, city clerk.

The council transferred $99 from the unappropriated reserve of the park and recreation budget to the salary appropriation, for the salary of J. Arthur Myers, orchestra leader, from September 4, at the rate of $100 a month.

District Governor Harry Mason of Rotary International addressed the Glendale club at today's noon luncheon in the Tuesday Afternoon clubhouse on the program for the year. The responsibility for leadership in their individual communities was placed upon Rotarians by the speaker, who urged that every member should inculcate the Rotary spirit into his craft.

"Rotarians are learning they were made to serve, and Rotary gives them that chance," Mr. Mason said. Visits to other clubs, work with the crippled children, interest in overprivileged boys, as well as the underprivileged, were among the many things pointed out for inspirational activity.

Gilhuly was obliged to leave the council chamber this morning before the hearing could be held.

Mr. Holland was represented by Attorney Bert P. Woodard and the protesting property owners by Attorney Dwight W. Stephenson.

PASSED TO COUNCIL

At the last meeting of the council, the matter of granting the Glendale Merchants' association for a vote of the entire body in open session, the executive committee previously having expressed disapproval of an auto camp ground at this location, substituted instead a recommendation that the council take steps to establish a municipal camp ground.

The Glendale Merchants' association, at its luncheon meeting Monday of this week, refused to consider the matter further and passed the matter back to the council, where it now rests.

G. O. Russell Is Chairman Of Committee In Charge Of Demonstration

Every business organization and individual in Glendale is requested by the parade committee of the Citizens' Bond committee to participate in the demonstration that will be staged here on Monday September 29, the day before the special bond election, in favor of the various issues, and to enter decorated floats and automobiles in the line of march. The route to be announced later, will cover the business section of the city as well as a large part of the residential district.

G. O. Russell, of Gilhuly & Russell, has been appointed chairman of the committee, in place of J. M. Boland, who has asked that he be relieved of the chairmanship because of press of business and because he will be absent from Glendale over the coming week-end. Associated with Mr. Russell on the committee are Mr. Boland, Ira Carllock, L. H. Myers, W. L. Truitt, M. B. Trowman and George J. Lyons, and others will be added between now and the day of the parade.

Want Decorated Cars
The committee also wants to have the cars and floats decorated with banners boasting the various bond issues, and those who intend to participate in the parade are asked to register with the committee at 102 East Harvard street, either in person or by telephoning Glendale 4531.

According to present plans, Chief of Police J. D. Fraser will be marshal of the parade, which will include three bands and in which it is planned to have every civic organization and service club represented, as well as the individuals in favor of the bond issues.

Captains to Meet
A meeting of the precinct captains, who are being selected today, has been set for Monday night, September 22, at 7:30 o'clock, at the committee headquarters, to prepare for the final week's campaign to put the bonds across, and anyone who is interested in the passage of all or any of the proposed issues is asked to enlist with the precinct workers for the success of the bonds. Literature is now being mailed out to the voters, and the various local organizations are asked to allow speakers to appear at their meetings to present the question in favor of the bonds, the committee being ready to furnish speakers wherever desired.

MOBILIZATION
"Mobilization Day" will be observed Sunday at the Glendale Presbyterian church. In the morning the pastor, Rev. W. E. Edmonds, will speak on "Bogus Consecration," and at night his subject will be "Good Roads." There will be special music at both services.

WOMEN PLAN ATHLETIC ACTIVITY

Newly Organized Club Holds First Banquet, Discusses Proposed Program

Convincing proof that the recently organized Women's Athletic club of Glendale is a thriving unit of local club life, was seen last night, when fifty-two women met at the Kopper Kettle Tea room at 328 North Brand boulevard, for the first banquet meeting of the organization.

Mrs. J. H. Toal, prominent in Tuesday Afternoon club and Coliseum Women's club affairs, is president of this new women's organization, which is unique in that it has attracted many Glendale women who are not affiliated with other organizations.

The banquet company last night, entirely filled the tea room, where tables were arranged under the directions of Mrs. L. L. Craven, entertainment chairman.

Mrs. N. C. Payne presided as mistress of ceremonies during the dinner. Songs were sung and talks given by Mrs. Paul E. Webb on the future of the club; Mrs. Glen Vall, gymnasium instructor on "Physical Education As a Moral Factor in Life";

Later Mrs. Toal directed a business hour. By-laws were adopted. Included in provisions were that the club will hold a regular meeting one night each month, in addition to the various departmental meetings each week.

Outlines of the work planned for the year were given by Mrs. Paul E. Webb, membership chairman; Mrs. L. L. Craven, entertainment chairman; Mrs. Ruth Windrem, sports chairman; Mrs. R. E. Corrigan, golf chairman;

Feeling Fit Every Morn! Eat WHOLE GRAIN WHEAT Twice Every Day. Send for Literature

OUR CHALLENGE
 We challenge any man or woman, well or sick, to use WHOLE GRAIN WHEAT twice a day for twenty-four days and not confess a definite and distinct all around improvement, physically and mentally—mentally, mind you, too. We'll go further and contract to return the price you have paid, without argument, if after using the case on the basis of twice a day the user has the slightest doubt of his or her mental and physical improvement. This is a guarantee to the world—to any body, anywhere.

Did you know that only in a drop of normal healthy blood, a handful of fertile earth and a natural grain of wheat are to be found the sixteen elements of which every living creature is composed? Whole Grain Wheat maintains these sixteen elements in balanced relationship.

Warning: Do not confuse home-cooked wheat with Whole Grain Wheat, for when the natural grain is prepared domestically, whether by cooking in a fireless cooker, pressure cooker or any open or closed vessel, the oxidation, distillation and evaporation changes the chemical elements and their relationship to such an extent that it is no longer the same as the natural grain of wheat.

Whole Grain Wheat should be eaten twice every day by every member of the family for replenishment, and when so eaten it is further guaranteed to reduce your meat and grocery bill 25% to 50%.

Daily Greeting To News Readers

Each day is a branch of the tree of Life, laden heavily with fruit. If we lie down lazily beneath it, we may starve; but if we shake the branches, some of the fruit will fall for us.—Henry W. Longfellow.

SAFE INVESTMENT

There are any number of projects in which one may make an investment that MAY pay big returns. There are always those who are ready to accommodate us in the matter of investing our money. But, the good business man and woman are not taking chances. A safe investment with a reasonable profit is what they are looking for, and Glendale men and women do not have to look very far for such an investment. It is right under their feet—Glendale dirt.

The Glendale Evening News believes that Glendale real estate is a safe and sound investment, not only that, but it will bring more than a reasonable per cent of profit. History repeats itself, and the history of Glendale the past ten years, barring some awful catastrophe, must be re-enacted in the next ten years, although the volume and the importance of real estate transactions in the near future will be greater than in the past.

Ten years ago there was no sale for Glendale real estate. Many people who had bought at what seemed like high prices at that time would have sold if they could. Others had the vision of the Glendale that was to be, and held on through many trying years. Many Glendale people who were land poor ten years ago, who found it difficult to pay their taxes, are wealthy now through the rise in land values.

The man of business acumen doesn't go around telling that he could have bought a certain corner five years ago for $2500, and now it is worth $50,000, but he quietly acquires that corner now, very sure that in five years more it will be worth $100,000. He made a mistake once, but he isn't going to make the same mistake again.

There is no investment like Glendale real estate. Any property that can be bought at a fair price now is a bargain, for it will rise in value fifty to a hundred per cent in the next few years, just as it did in the past. If you buy Glendale real estate you will be putting your money where it will do you the most good.

CRITICISM IS JUST

Overmuch praise is apt to result in self-satisfaction, and this is true both of an individual and of a city. Glendale has much of which to be proud, her praises are being sung constantly by her citizens and strangers, but there are some things about Glendale that may be improved. It is sometimes easier for newcomers to see these things than it is for us who have been here a long time, and who have become so familiar with existing conditions that we take them for granted.

L. M. Fisher, in a recent letter to The Glendale Evening News, takes up the matter of the Pacific Electric right of way being unimproved and above grade in some sections of Glendale. We all know that such a condition is detrimental to the best interests of the city and the property owners, but we are rather indifferent about it. Hence, it is good to be jolted now and then by a stranger or newcomer.

It is understood that the Pacific Electric owns the right of way in Glendale and may take their own good time to make these improvements, unless the property owners come across with a part of the wherewithal. That the tracks on South Brand boulevard, between Colorado and Maple have been brought down to grade and the right of way paved is due to some of the public spirited citizens and the property owners who contributed a portion of the expense of the improvement.

Mr. Fisher's criticism is timely and just, also constructive, since he offers to give of his time to help remedy matters.

WE WANT THE Y. M. C. A.

The Glendale Evening News stands squarely back of the drive for a $275,000 Y. M. C. A. building.

Properly supervised athletics and games for boys are something that pays big dividends in manhood, and this, of course, is the big reason why we all want the Y. M. C. A.

But, aside from this feature of the case, we are in favor of the project as a matter of enterprise. Cities of the size and importance of Glendale are expected to have a Y. M. C. A. building. Why should we not have one?

A wide-awake business man wants in his office all the equipment that will help him to carry on his work efficiently. Likewise, a wide-awake city provides itself with all the accessories necessary to carry on all phases of its work.

The men who are working for the building have the good of the boys of today and tomorrow at heart. They have such pride in Glendale that they do not want it said that our young men have to go to questionable places for amusement. These men are of the type who get what they go after, so we are reasonably sure of the building. They are going to do the hard work, and all of Glendale is going to enjoy the results of their labor, for any good thing added to the city belongs to all. So we owe it to these workers to lend them a helping hand in every way we can.

PREPARE FOR RAIN

The winter rains will soon be here, at least so we hope. There was a dearth of rainfall last year, and we are praying for a generous amount of moisture the coming fall and winter. At any rate we should be prepared for a big rainfall, and now is the time to do so. A few new shingles or even an entire new roof may prevent damage that would amount to much more than the cost of repairs, and a coat of paint on the house and garage before they have a chance to become rain-soaked, will more than pay for itself.

No doubt the paving of Sycamore Canyon road will facilitate the carrying away of the storm waters of the canyon this winter and prevent a recurrence of last winter's disasters. But, it would seem wise to have workmen at hand to clear away the silt and debris that is certain to be washed down with the first rain.

THE FORWARD LOOK

A man who has been very successful in life, and who has realized his dreams of happiness and contentment as well as those of position and wealth, advises young people to "get the forward look."

This man has seen ill luck and discouragement, but he never allowed depressing thoughts of loss and poverty to pursue him. His method was to stop worrying, relax and fix his mind on the sort of position he wished to hold, the sort of life he wished to live, and then to take the first job that offered, secure in the thought that it would prove a stepping stone to his desire.

His advice is "Concentrate. Don't gamble. Stay with the business in hand." And, he defines concentration as making a picture of the thing you want and continuing to look at it.

A MAN IS—!

The Art of Dying

By DR. FRANK CRANE

A French author, Abbe Brugerette, has issued a volume on the art of dying.

Without having read the book I have much fault to find with it.

In the first place, no one should write about the art of anything unless he has practiced it at least to some extent. Unless the Abbe Brugerette is the reincarnation of Lazarus or some other dead man, we do not understand how he could have gone through the experience.

The question remains whether dying is an art at all.

In the theatre and the novel it is an art, perhaps, for much depends upon the way it is carried out. Also the historian has to deal with death in an artistic way.

But in real life, dying is a matter of improvisation and no amount of learning can render one perfect at it. It is usually a very disagreeable and sometimes a very anguishing performance. It can be disguised a good deal for the sake of the people around, but nothing can conceal the fact from one's self.

It is much more important to write upon the art of living, which is a difficult matter, one which has been tried many times, upon which we have abundant experiment, and which remains a mystery.

Dying is simply quitting the business of living. It is the end of life, its conclusion, and if one knows how to live well, the dying will take care of itself.

Perhaps, however, the art of living and the art of dying is exactly the same thing.

If one believes in the future life there is no art in dying except the art of preparing for a future existence, and the best way to prepare for the future is to improve the present. The same conclusion is reached by one who does not believe in the future life. Often a religion is of value to us only as it increases the importance and induces us to accept the responsibilities of this life. A religion that looks wholly beyond the grave is of little value to the living.

Horoscope

Astrologers read this as an uncertain day. Although the sun is in benefic aspect early in the morning, Mars and Neptune are strongly adverse.

If there is anything in astrology, then there must be much agitation regarding military and naval matters.

It will be remembered that predictions have been made regarding efforts toward preparedness and now there appears signs of definite crystallization of sentiment.

This should be a fairly favorable way under which to place oneself in educational connections and college students should benefit.

Strangely enough women appear to be much in eclipse at this time and subject to subordinating influences.

It is foretold that in politics old methods of procedure will be victorious, notwithstanding many reform efforts.

Astrologers have long predicted that this country is to go through an upheaval that will bring about great changes.

Inasmuch as the Pope at Rome has the Sun in square to Jupiter his authority will be subject to protests. His health may suffer this autumn.

This is supposed to be a time of sinister import for Italy and the king of that country.

The partial eclipse of the Sun on August 30 is believed to be contributory to many troubles. The death of a king or ruler again is foretold.

Earthquake shocks in the United States may be expected this autumn and the Central states may be affected.

Neptune culminating in Mars on the lower meridian is held responsible for troubles in eastern Europe.

Persons whose birthdate it is seen not worry about business which should be prosperous in the coming year.

Children born on this day may be rash and headstrong, but fortunate in business undertakings, jobbers, contractors and builders often develop under this sign.

Today's Poem

THE LONG WHITE SEAM
As I came round the harbor buoy,
The lights began to gleam,
No wave the land-locked water stirred,
The crags were white as cream;
And I marked my love by candlelight,
Sewing her long white seam.
It's aye sewing ashore, my dear,
Watch and steer at sea,
It's reef and furl, and haul the line,
Set sail and think of thee.

I climbed to reach her cottage door;
O sweetly my love sings!
Like a shaft of light her voice
breaks forth,
My soul to meet it springs,
As the shining water leaped of old,
When stirred by angel wings,
Aye longing to list anew,
Awake and in my dream,
But never a song she sang like this,
Sewing her long white seam.

Fair fall the lights, the harbor lights,
That brought me in to thee,
And peace drop down on that low roof
For the sight that I did see,
And the voice, my dear, that rang
so clear,
All for the love of me.
For O, for O, with brows bent
low
By the candle's flickering gleam,
Her wedding gown it was she wrought,
Sewing the long white seam.
—Jean Ingelow.

THE WORST OF IT
An Irish priest was preaching to his flock one Sunday on the evils of intemperance. "Whisky, my brethren," he said, "is a curse, a terrible curse. It is whisky that makes you beat your wives and starve your children. It is whisky that makes you shoot at your landlords; and, worse than that, my brethren, it makes you miss them, too."

Who's Who

The "Ironsides" forces of Gen. Feng Yu Hsiang, known as the "Stonewall Jackson of the Chinese Army" are expected to play an important part in future developments in China's civil war.

Recent dispatches stated that the noted Christian leader and his troops were expected to form reinforcements in the defense of Shanghai.

Attention was drawn to Gen. Feng two years ago when he was named military governor of Shensi, populated with what is referred to as the finest race in China.

Back in 1912 Gen. Feng was a major in Peking. Then he attended evangelical services held by Dr. John H. Mott of the international Y. M. C. A. He was converted, immediately entered a class for Bible study, and subsequently united with the Methodist Episcopal church. It is told of the general that once, capturing a brigade of rebels and having them at his mercy, he assembled the beaten soldiers in his camp, read them a lecture on patriotism, ordered that ten dollars be given to each officer and five dollars to each soldier, and sent them home. The insurgents from the south were amazed and fell to weeping, then arose and joyfully went home.

Methodist and other missionaries in China report that General Feng's success is based upon strict military discipline, plus the esteem and affection of his officers and men. His troops are better equipped, better drilled and better paid than any other division of the Chinese army. They have a reputation of marching further and fighting better than any other Chinese troops. Their barracks would do credit to the best-drilled European army, and their accoutrement is first class. General Feng has made much of athletics as supplementing the army bill, and many of his officers wear ornamental buckles they have won as prizes in athletic contests.

Do You Know

Because of the many small farms in France, handplows that may be operated by women as well as men are sold there. Paper raincoats weighing only eight ounces are proving popular among fishermen and picnickers.

If You Came From Minnesota THEN YOU KNOW THAT:

Minnesota was first explored in 1766, became a part of the United States in 1783, the territory was organized in 1849 and the state was admitted to the Union in 1858.

The state contains 54,682 square miles, and occupies the summit of a central plateau formed by the coterminous basins of the Mississippi, St. Lawrence and Lake Winnipeg.

The surface of the state is an undulating plain with a general slope to the southeast toward the basin of the Mississippi which with its tributary drains two-thirds of the state.

Lakes are numerous.

Iron and copper are the chief minerals found, the iron ore yield of the Lake Superior region being very large.

Peat is seemingly inexhaustible in some parts of the state.

Granite, gneiss and limestone are found, also red pipe stone deposit formerly used by the Indians for pipes.

The soil is good and the Red River valley is the finest wheat growing district in the state.

The "Big Woods" extend over the center of the state, 100 by 40 miles in area.

The climate is excellent, the winter cold but clear and dry.

Minnesota has a great diversity of mineral resources.

Her iron ore deposits which are the richest in the country are shipped to eastern blast furnaces.

But her wheat fields and forests furnish raw materials for the two most important industries in the state.

Meat packing and dairying are carried on extensively.

Transportation by rail and water is good.

By the state constitution a portion of land in each township is set aside to provide a perpetual educational fund.

The capital is St. Paul; the state University at Minneapolis.

GLENDALE, LOS ANGELES COUNTY, CALIFORNIA, THURSDAY, SEPT. 18, 1924

PARADISE FOR SPORTSMEN PLANNED

Owens River Valley Country To Be Developed for Hunting and Fishing

By GIL A. COWAN
For Southland News Service,
LOS ANGELES, Sept. 18.—

Both the city and county of Los Angeles appreciate the value of the motor car in the utmost development of resources, both from a scenic and practical standpoint.

The county is establishing parks in more or less sequestered spots, which will be available only to the motorist, and the city is going to promote something greater, according to Edwin L. Hedderly, local representative of the California Fish and Game commission, who speaks authoritatively on the subject.

Hunting and Fishing

In acquiring all of the ranch property possible for water rights in the Owens river valley of Inyo and Mono counties the Board of Public Works of the city of Los Angeles is going to rejuvenate that section in a unique manner, for it realizes that the economic status of the communities must be maintained.

Hunting and fishing originally attracted people to the Owens river country," according to Mr. Hedderly, "and Los Angeles proposes to again make that the biggest industry of eastern Sierras in the Southland. The ranchers will become guides, their stock will be used for packing and their towns will become resorts for sportsmen.

Plans Exploitation

"Los Angeles, I am informed," Mr. Hedderly continued, "is going to advertise and exploit the Owens river valley as a playground, and develop traffic over the Lincoln highway and Midland trail into this scenic wonderland. It will be the big motor trip of Southern California in years to come, and the streams and game preserves of the eastern Sierras will be most popular.

"Deer hunting this year is good in Inyo and Mono counties, according to reports received at this office. The country is wild, but easily accessible by motor car via Mojave and Bishop. Good hotel accommodations are to be had at Mammoth and Lone Pine and other towns close to the sportsman's paradise, while there has been no forest fire danger to close the forests to campers.

"Fishing will be at its best in the eastern Sierras for another month and outside of San Diego county, it is the place I would advise people to go now for fishing and hunting for a few days' trip."

Iowa is an Indian name from the Algonquin ajawa, meaning "across" or "beyond."

RIGHT HAND TURNS FREQUENTLY CAUSE RAILWAY ACCIDENTS

Pacific Electric Efficiency Chief Points Out One Reason for Crashes

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 18.—One of the predominating causes of collisions between street car and automobile has been traced directly to the motorist making a right hand turn in front of or along the side of an approaching electric car, G. H. Grace, Chief of the efficiency bureau of the Pacific Electric Railway, pointed out, today.

For example, the motorman of a northbound car crossing an intersection, seeing a clear track ahead applies power gaining a reasonable velocity. A motorist, westbound, making a right turn, must run parallel to the car or speed up to get in front of it. Not infrequently street space does not permit sufficient room between street car and line of parked machines, for an automobile, and the result is someone gets bumped. The driver does not realize the fact that the thirty ton car cannot stop in a few feet, even when traveling at a low speed.

Fines for Speeding Shown on Schedule

SANTA ANA, Sept. 18.—The price of speeding is no secret in Santa Ana, and the guilty party merely has to read the speed "menu" posted in Justice Landell's court here and then start peeling off the necessary cash or get in touch with the wife to deliver a farewell message.

The system is very simple. Just like reading a restaurant bill of fare. Jog your memory to find out how fast you were traveling when the copper popped alongside of you, read the price list and you have it.

For example, from 35 to 40 miles per hour, the fine is $20, 40 to 44 the list price is $30, and so on up to 50 miles per hour. At this point a different price prevails—cash counts for nothing, the offender must go to jail.

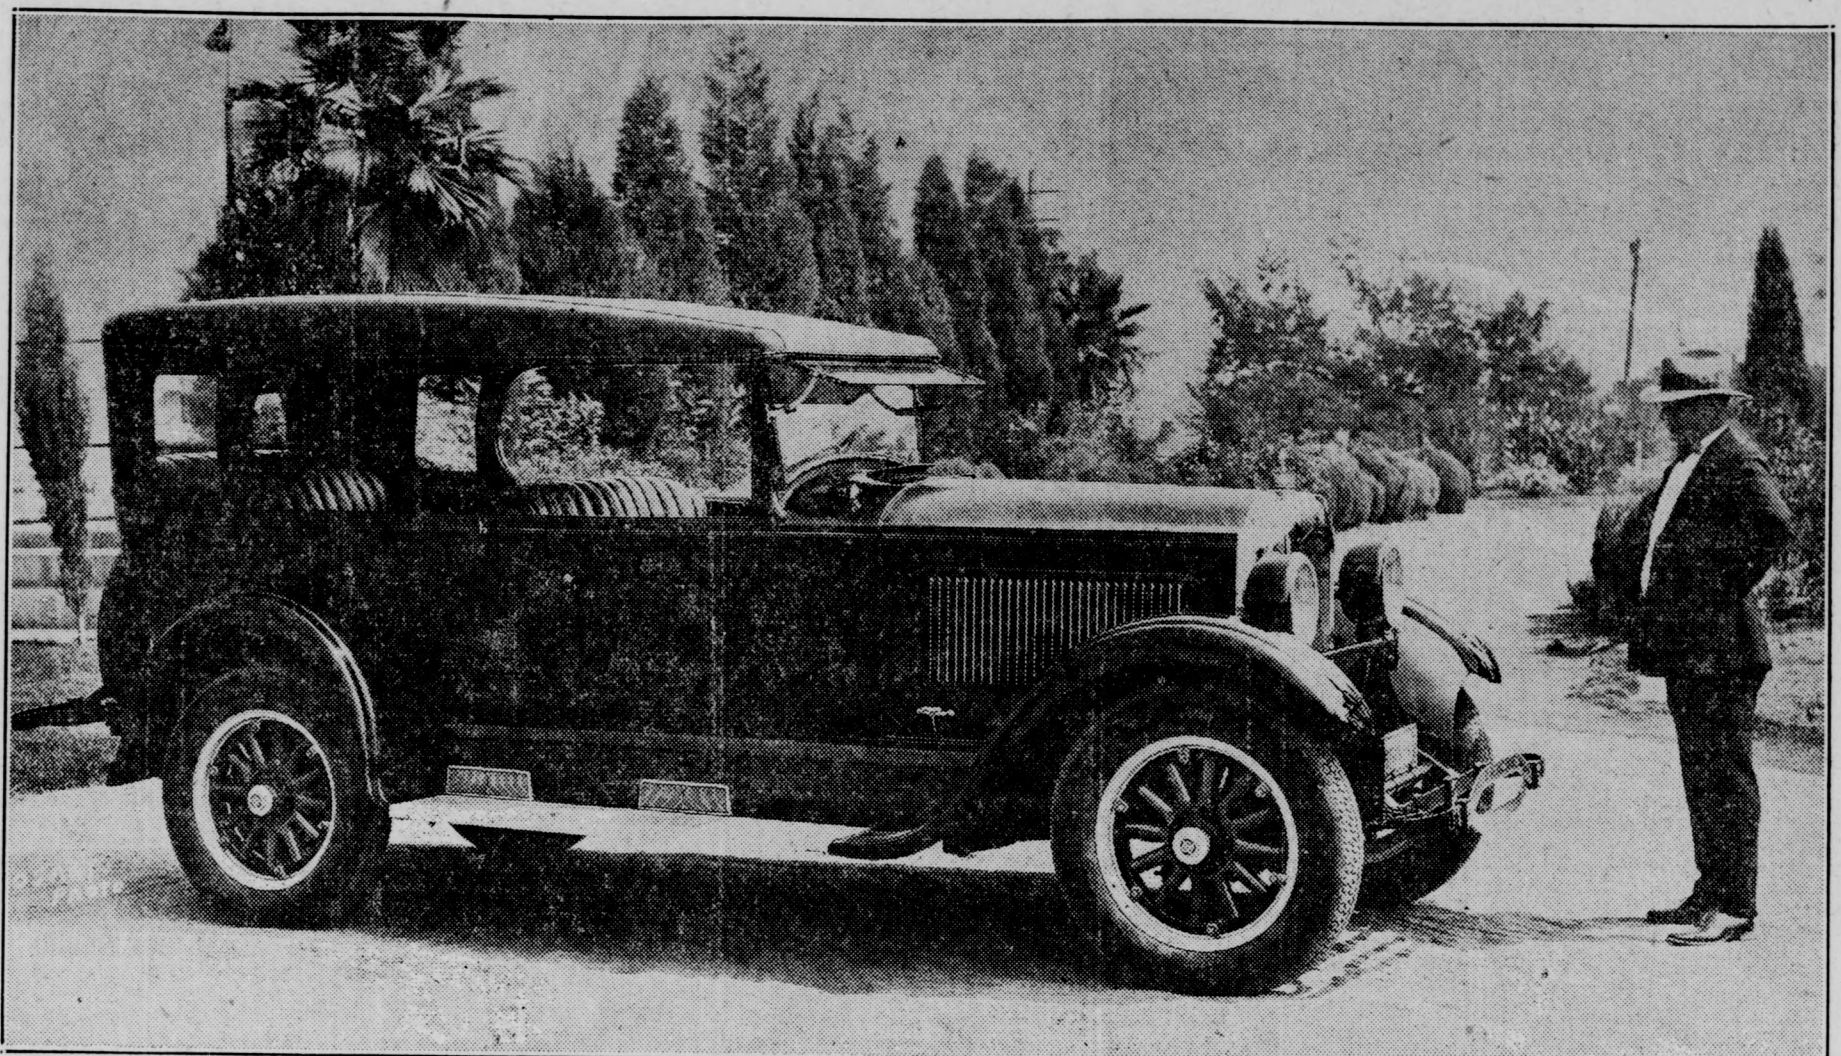

Bar Automobiles In Capturing Speeders

SANTA BARBARA, Sept. 18.—Traffic officers are now barred the use of automobiles in running down speeders, according to a ruling by the appellate court, it was announced here by O. L. Blake, captain of the Santa Barbara County traffic squad.

After being deprived of the use of timing devices or hiding by the highway as a means of catching the speeder, officers began using high-powered automobiles in checking up on speeders unobserved. The officer, under the new ruling, must be out in the open, in a uniform and on a motorcycle to curb speeding as best he can.

Admires Latest Output Of Studebaker Factory

The new 1925 model of the Special Six Studebaker Duplex Phaeton wins a look of intense admiration from R. L. CONOVER, sales manager of the PACKER MOTOR CO., Glendale dealers, as he looks it over and realizes that the Studebaker slogan, "This is a Studebaker year," promises to be borne out this year in a greater degree than ever before. Mr. Conover has been selling Studebakers for many years and declares that the new models will set the biggest record of any that the firm has ever turned out.

REVEAL AVERAGE NUMBER OF CARS

Condition of Paige-Jewett Company Praised By Financial Expert

If every Paige and Jewett dealer should carry a full line of both cars he would have seven Jewetts and seven Paiges on hand, according to calculations made at the Paige-Jewett Motor Co's factory, but actual records show that the average is two and one-half Jewetts to each dealer and three-quarters of a Paige.

"The Paige-Jewett Motor Car Co.," says Ralph B. Bliss, 219 West Colorado street, local dealer, "does not carry cars in storage, having only the normal day to day supply to meet shipping requirements. In July the dealer organization sold 240 more cars than were shipped from the factory, and the present stocks are as low as the company has ever had under normal conditions.

The firm's records, says Mr. Bliss, show that the organization has less money tied up in used cars than at the same period last year, and a review of the firm's condition by a financial magazine stated that the ratio of current assets to current liabilities is more than three to one.

BUSINESS SHOWS STEADY INCREASE

Gasoline Passes All Tests, Brings Customers to K. B. K. Station

Business for the first two weeks in September has been much better than in the same period last year, according to C. B. Creager of the K. B. K. service station at 1023 East Broadway. One reason for this, he claims, is that the gasoline that they are selling at 17 cents, and which they buy in immense quantities, passes all three tests to which gasoline is subjected, with flying colors, giving the motorist the advantage of a gasoline that develops the utmost in power under all conditions. "Automobile owners appreciate the excellence of our gasoline," says Mr. Creager, "and they show their appreciation not only by supplying their own needs here but by sending their friends to us, and so the business grows on a basis of satisfaction to our clients."

Excels in Strength and Performance

In its admiration of the good Maxwell's ability to outperform anything at anywhere near the price, the American public should remember—

1st.—That no other car in America, regardless of price, excels Maxwell strength and staunchness in proportion to weight and power.

2nd.—That at all vital points, metals and construction are the same as in cars that cost three to four times as much.

3rd.—That in its manufacture, no measures are too costly to protect the owner fully, in person and in pocket.

Those are the precise reasons why the good Maxwell—now under the supervision of Chrysler engineers—stands up and delivers its splendid service at such amazingly low cost.

All Maxwell dealers are in position to extend the convenience of time-payments. Ask about Maxwell's attractive plan.

Aged Model of Ford, Indian, Bang! Gone!

RIVERSIDE, Sept. 18.—Sherman institute's first car, a Ford of 1910 vintage, has been laid to rest, one of the Indian students having attempted, more or less successfully, to drive it through the wall of the garage. It is said that the steering gear is the only part not replaced other than the engine block and these will be kept as relics of aboriginal civilization.

Refuses $15 for Auto; Drives It From Iowa

If you see a wreck of a car, looking like $15 worth, driving around the highways of Southern California, don't laugh. It belongs to J. B. Criddle of Numa, Iowa, who has just made 2252 miles in his 1914 model for which he was offered a $15 allowance by an Iowa dealer. He was so mad at the offer that he drove it all the way west to prove to the world "it's a darned good car for the shape that it's in."

Chrysler At Alden Home

The latest sensation of the automotive world poses before one of the nation's most revered landmarks, the home of John Alden, at Duxbury, Mass., one of the leading figures in the early days of America's history.

GETS ROADSTERS FOR HIS CLIENTS

Scarcity of Two Models in Chevrolets Has Local Agent Worried

The biggest difficulty that C. L. Smith, Chevrolet dealer, at Orange and Colorado streets, has encountered for over the past month has been to get enough roadsters and de Luxe sport touring models to deliver to his customers, and the arrival of a carload in which both models are included has afforded him a breathing spell that he plans to utilize in accumulating a few more of these cars with which to supply some of the orders that he has on his books.

"What makes the big appeal about the Chevrolet roadster," says Mr. Smith, "is the proven economy that it affords while fur-

The intelligent motorist likes to leave the beaten path to find things that have a bearing on the early part of the nation, and the Chrysler Six roadster, standing in front of the John Alden house at Duxbury, Mass., brings together the old and the new in America's brief span, according to Lyman P. Clark, Glendale distributor of the Chrysler and the Maxwell, president of the Glendale Motor Car Co., 124 West Colorado street.

Recalling the history of John Alden, Mr. Clark says: "Alden was one of the Pilgrims who in 1620 emigrated to America and founded Plymouth Colony. From 1633 to 1675 he was an assistant to the governor for the colony. When he died in 1687 he was the last male survivor of the 'Mayflower Compact' of 1620 and with the exception of Mary Allerton was the last survivor of the 'Mayflower' company. He is remembered chiefly because of a popular legend, put into verse as 'The Courtship of Miles Standish,' by Henry W. Longfellow, concerning his courtship of Priscilla Mullins, whom he married in 1623, after having wooed her first on behalf of his friend, Miles Standish."

AGENT EXPLAINS COMFORT OF CAR

Double Thickness In Roof Of Coach Is Shelter To Passengers

The difference between one thickness between the occupants of a car and the sun, and two coverings with a dead air space between them is the reason why the Essex coach has proven itself so much more comfortable and so much cooler than the touring car, according to P. A. Kelley, of the Kelley Motor Co., 816 South Brand boulevard, Hudson and Essex dealers.

"In the touring car there is only the top to shelter the passengers," says he. "But in the Essex coach the two coverings, with the air space between them, prevent the heat from getting through, while all the windows may be opened to permit the breeze to circulate freely through the car and keep those inside it cool and giving sufficient ventilation during the warmest weather."

"The claim that was made when this type of car was placed on the market has been proven abundantly, but the comfort feature of this double roof was carefully worked out by Hudson engineers before the car was turned out, so

NON-STOP KNIGHT PILES UP RECORD

Schedule Halted by Bandits Resumed After Auto Is Found Again

Twenty-three thousand, two hundred and fifty-eight miles in forty-five and one-half days without a stop was the record hung up by the Willys-Knight non-stop car when it rolled into the Willys-Overland-Pacific company last Monday, September 15.

B. W. Sloan, 905 South Brand boulevard, Glendale dealer, bubbling over with enthusiasm at the success of the run, explained that this is only the mileage recorded from the time of the second start of the non-stop Knight, July 30.

"This same car ran 8,000 miles without stopping before bandits stuck up the pilots, stole the car, and left them standing in the middle of Foothill boulevard. The car was recovered a day or two later in a canyon near San Bernardino. It had not been hurt, so R. E. Starkey drove it back and the run was started all over again.

"So, in reality, this car has run

31,000 miles, and we expect to do enough more to make the total mileage 30,000 to 35,000 for the second start or more than 40,000 miles for the entire distance the car has traveled since the first start before the 'Boulevard Bandits' butted into our schedule," says Mr. Sloan.

"If Willys-Knights perform like this without the new Lanchester balancer, what will they do with this new device that eliminates all vibration?"

L. T. Rowley Drives Touring Car 7000 Miles Before Reaching Home

Taking delivery of a Buick standard touring car that he had ordered through Tanner & Hall, Ltd., 622 South Brand boulevard, at the factory at Flint, Mich., L. T. Rowley drove his new car close to 7000 miles before he rolled into Glendale again, more than ever satisfied with his purchase and with its behavior.

After taking over the car at Flint, Mr. Rowley went to New York, up into Canada, back to Philadelphia, through the principal eastern cities to St. Louis, Mo., thence to Denver, and on west over the Santa Fe trail to California, reaching home with no more serious mishap than one puncture, and his only costs, besides the gasoline and oil, being for the repair of the tube that was punctured.

Mr. Rowley has nothing but praise for his new car, especially for the way the big low pressure tires send it through heavy sand or over slippery roads, and the Buick four-wheel brakes he declares to be the finest safety appliance he has ever encountered in his years of motoring.

OAKLAND BLAZES TRAIL, IS CLAIM

Dealer Tells Features Where Car's Makers Pioneered In New Ideas

An enumeration of the many features proven and pioneered by the Oakland Motor Car company is full of many surprises, according to John Neuschaefer, Glendale Oakland dealer, 420 East Colorado street.

"Oakland was the first car to adopt and has always stuck to the nickled radiator shell. It was the first to come out with a small efficient six-cylinder motor. These features happened many years ago," says Mr. Neuschaefer, "but today almost every make of car boasts of the nickled radiator and the number of light sixes has steadily increased, showing that Oakland principles have been correct."

"Oakland, along with other General Motor lines, first came out with the mechanical type of four-wheel brakes that positively cannot lock and which permit of easy turning of corners when applied at time of making turn."

"Oakland was first to bring out the stationary top as standard on open models, and Duco finish was first brought out as standard on all models by the Oakland a year ago."

"Centralized control is coming. Each newer model of other makes shows this tendency and Oakland has had it for a year. This feature makes for greater safety in driving at all times."

Proved JEWETT

PAIGE BUILT SIX
"ONE BILLION MILES BEYOND EXPERIMENT"

New Autumn Green and Orange Beauty Now with Balloon Tire Comfort

JEWETT'S staunch chassis, its husky big six motor—have proved all round dependability, "rightness" of design. Jewett owners know no need of radical change for finer performance, greater comfort, freedom from care, lasting goodness! All these are proved!

New Colors

Now—Jewett has added smart new colors—Autumn Green bodies striped in orange. And balloon tires give the last touch needed to Jewett's comfort.

What does Jewett's big power mean to you? It means ability to perform! To climb hills easily in high; pass others; get away first in traffic; pull slowly in high when the going is bad. Some try to get this power by speeding up a small motor. But how long would you expect a small boy to last at a man's job? Jewett's 50 h.p. Paige-built motor is big! It gets its big power from size. So it does its work without straining. That's why it lasts long!

Jewett Six is sturdy in every part—2805 lbs. of huskiness. That's 200 to 400 lbs. more than "light sixes." Jewett's frame is 6 inches deep. All-steel universal joints. Heavy duty axles.

Try a Ride in Jewett

We suggest that you drop in and see the Jewett in its brand-new dress. The women folk will love its smart appearance. Take them for a ride. You drive, of course. You'll get a big thrill from Jewett's sparkling performance, its ability, its remarkably easy handling. And you'll all appreciate Jewett's easy riding.

It is surprising how quickly a Buick owner accepts, as a matter of course, the dependability of his car. He thinks no more of setting off for a thousand-mile jaunt than he does of driving down town—so complete is his confidence in Buick's continuous performance.

USED CAR SALES POLICY CHANGES

Every Element of Safety Is Given Purchasers From Reputable Firm

An interesting indication of the evolution of automobile merchandising is revealed in the fact that today every element of safety surrounds the purchase of a used automobile, says Charles McDaniel, president of the McDaniel Motor Co., 1234 South Brand boulevard.

The used car is just as much a part of the stock of the automobile dealer as his new cars, his tires, accessories or parts he claims. A great percentage of new car sales involve the acceptance of a used car as part payment.

The reputable dealer wants the used car he sells to give the same satisfaction that goes with his

JORDAN'S LATEST TO BE UNLOADED

Glendale Dealer to Receive Carload of Great Line Eight Models

The new Jordan great line eight that has been so eagerly awaited by the motorists of Glendale will be on display here within the next day or two when H. V. White, 111 West Harvard street, local representative of H. W. Swanson, unloads a carload of them consisting of two open and two closed models. The Jordan great line eight, says Mr. White, has the Duco finish and the balloon tires that are the last word in riding comfort.

The sales of Hupmobiles, the other line sold by Mr. White, have been so steady that he has found difficulty in supplying the demands of the local buyers and it has been impossible to keep cars enough in stock to satisfy his customers. But with the exertion of steady and consistent pressure on the factory Mr. White hopes to meet at least the greater part of the needs of his clients on both Hups and Jordans.

Pioneers Overseas Trail

Oldsmobile of early vintage is still doing duty on the blazing sands of ancient Egypt, where it has been in constant operation in carrying DR. GREGORY CHORLIAN on his professional rounds. His servant, RAGHEE, stands beside the car.

Where are the automobiles of yesterday?

One car made in this country nearly twenty years ago has been traced to Alexandria, Egypt, where today it is carrying a physician on his daily round of professional calls. This car is the pioneer that blazed a trail overseas and was the forerunner for thousands of American cars that now are running in every country in Europe, Asia, Africa, Australia and South America.

It arrived in Egypt more than 15 years ago. Several months later it was admired and purchased by Dr. Gregory Chorlian, 17 Boulevard de Ramleh, who has operated it continuously in making his daily rounds.

This car will be thrown in the shade in the near future, according to C. H. Hunter, 208-210 West Broadway, local Oldsmobile dealer, when he brings to Glendale a car that was made in 1902, three years before the Egyptian veteran rolled off the platform.

Woman Wins Verdict For Death of Collie

SANTA BARBARA, Sept. 18.—A superior court decision here recently awarded Mrs. Emma Taverna $100 for the death of her Collie dog killed several months ago when Wallace Blair ran over the dog with an automobile at a street intersection in this city.

Mrs. Taverna was given judgment in the justice court, but the defendant appealed on the ground that the dog was running without leash, contrary to the city ordinance. Plaintiffs claimed that Blair was exceeding the speed limit by traveling 35 miles an hour at an intersection where the ordinance prohibits a speed in excess of 15 miles.

NASH OUTPUT TO SHATTER RECORD

New Models Arouse Interest Among Motorists and Dealers, Is Claim

Indications pointing to a record-breaking volume of sales are seen by E. H. McCarty, general sales manager of the Nash Motors Co., in making public the fact that Nash now has on hand more orders than ever before at this time of year. "Not only does the volume of orders for the new advanced six and special six series exceed any previous September in the company's history," said Mr. McCarty in a letter to the local dealer, McDaniel Motor Co., 1234 South Brand boulevard, "but it also surpasses any single month of the last six months' period of all previous years."

"The reception accorded the new Nash series by the public has been highly gratifying, even greatly exceeding the factory's expectations. Since the new Nash lines were announced, requests for information about the Nash franchise and actual applications for territory have been received from 378 competitive dealers in all parts of the United States.

"We have every reason to be optimistic at this time and look forward to excellent business the rest of the year. As far as Nash is concerned, the big season is on in full swing and our problem now is to supply the demand. The Kenosha factory is rapidly reaching the point of peak production and it will not be long before that stage has been attained.

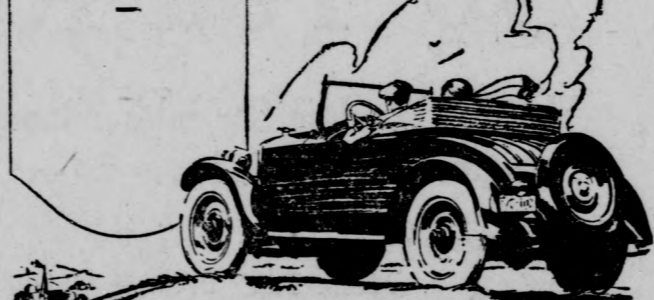

"Orders for the Nash special six series made at Milwaukee also are exceptionally heavy, because of the tremendous task of changing the plants over for a six-cylinder product from a four basis, the Milwaukee production naturally will be slower to reach its full capacity; operations there, however, are being stepped up to meet heavy demand."

Even aside from the sensational new DUPLEX BODY—the Studebaker Special Six has no superior in value in any car yet built. It was the conscientious intention of Studebaker in planning and designing the new Special Six to make it just such a leader—to that end every resource of the great Studebaker organization has been concentrated.

Even if we had the space we could not begin to tell you of the very many new and unusual features which indicate its superiority.

Certainly no words could do justice to its distinctive beauty. In appearance it is unlike any other American car—yet its long, low, broad, sweeping lines are conservative, crisply stylish and in beautifully good taste.

Think of the new Studebaker Special Six Duplex-Phaeton as the ultimate in value and performance in a five-passenger car—think of it as a car matchless in practical convenience and desirability.

But to appreciate the sparkling beauty of its totally new lines you must see it. To know its perfection of operation and performance you must ride in it and drive it.

If you have not seen this NEW type car—come today!

Why don't the high-priced cars change their body lines?

INDUSTRIES ACTIVE

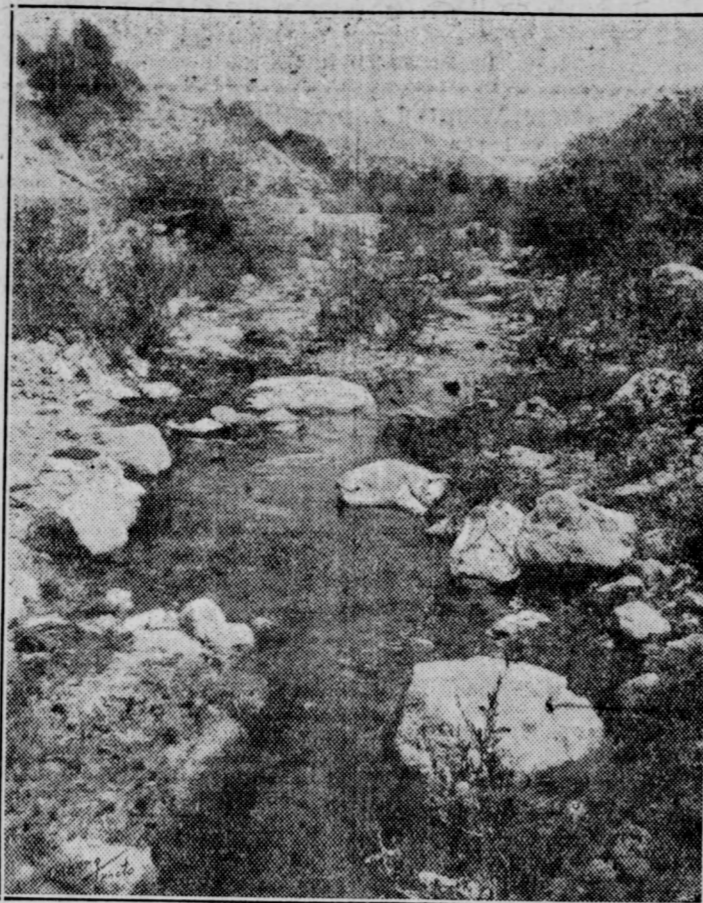

HOUSTON, Sept. 18.—All industrial plants here are working full time with a normal number of hands engaged. There is a slight shortage of bricklayers and plasterers and a steady demand for farm and dairy hands and cotton pickers.

CORN CROP DROPS

HOUSTON, Tex., Sept. 18.—The corn crop in this state has deteriorated and the forecast now is for a yield of 79,232,000 bushels, the smallest in recent years. The grain sorghums, however, show an increase of 13,000,000 to 34,665,000 bushels.

Where Water Flows Freely

Picture shows a scene along Cuddy Creek at FRAZIER MOUNTAIN PARK, where an abundance of clear, pure water is available the year round for the owners of cabin sites in the 800 acre tract that is now being developed.

Invitations to spend a week-end at Frazier Mountain Park, up near Lebec, have been broadcast to the people of Glendale by the owners of the 800-acre tract that is to be converted into a sylvan paradise and vacation resort by the Frazier Mountain Park and Fisheries Co., Inc., and everyone who can spend the week-end or even a Sunday at the park is urged to do so.

Every facility for campers has been provided. There are outdoor stoves on which meals can be cooked, benches and tables on which they can be eaten, fire is furnished, and there is abundance of cool, pure water easily available for all the needs of those who want to take advantage of the invitation and visit the park. The tract is reached by a wonderful drive over the Ridge route, and for a mile and a half this side of the entrance to the park the road has been posted with signs, so that there is no difficulty in finding the route.

The directors of the company, A. L. Baird, W. L. Twining, Harry G. MacBain and L. H. Myers, went up to the property today to confer with the surveyors and to approve the plat of the first unit that is to be placed on sale, and the pictures that are displayed in the windows of Twining & Myers' office at 108 West Broadway show some of the beauties that await the purchasers or the casual visitors to the park, that lies in a beautiful valley between Mount Tecuya on the north and Frazier mountain on the south.

Work on the construction of the fish hatcheries that will supply the sport for owners of cabin sites in the park will be started as soon as the engineers have laid out the plans for the chain of lakes that will dot the valley and that will be fed from the unfailing springs that rise in Soldier Meadow, while another spring rising 450 feet up on the side of the mountain will supply an abundant flow of water for domestic purposes to the owners of the cabin sites.

Literature describing the park in detail can be had at Twining & Myers' offices, and representatives of the company will be at the park during the week-end to point out the advantages that the property offers as a year-round vacation ground.

SPECIAL COLORS ON NEW STEARNS

Contractor Selects Trimming And Paints for Late Model Brougham

One of the recent purchasers of the Stearns-Knight light six, a Glendale contractor, has authorized W. D. Weeks, president of the Glendale Stearns Co., 246 South Brand boulevard, to have his new four-door brougham completely altered from its original appearance by having it painted in special colors that will make it one of the most distinctive cars of the city. In addition to the new paint, the car will also be upholstered in materials of the owner's own choice, and special trimmings will also be added to it. The car is to be delivered within the next week or ten days.

The style of the Stearns car, coupled with the wonderful sleeve-valve Knight motor, says Mr. Weeks, makes a powerful appeal to discriminating motorists, and his business since he opened here a few weeks ago is steadily growing. "The question of price," he declares, "cuts very little figure when a prospect who has not previously decided on what limits he will spend on his car sees the Stearns-Knight and has a demonstration ride. Once he gets into the new six-cylinder car he falls in love with its style and performance."

Humane Society Will Meet In C. C. Rooms

A meeting of the Glendale Humane society is to be held at 8 o'clock Friday night in the Chamber of Commerce offices on South Brand boulevard. Edwin Kulp, president, will preside over the discussion of plans for the building project the society has in prospect.

BOYS RETAIN GOLD

POMONA, Sept. 18.—The Barnum boys who found $340 in gold coins in an alley ash can maintain the old saying, "finders keepers." U. E. White yesterday was defeated in his efforts to divest the youths of the money when in Judge Willis' court at Los Angeles he lost his appeal that the boys' mother, Mrs. Ashton Barnum turn over the money to the estate of Arthur J. Warren, it being alleged that he had hidden the money in a car. The judge said more proof was necessary.

E. V. Jellison Drives 9000 Miles on St. Louis Air In Late Gardner

E. V. Jellison, head of the Jellison Motor Co., 1002-1006 South Brand boulevard, Gardner agent, is boasting of the performance of his new touring car that he took over at the Gardner factory in St. Louis, Mo., in June. After delivery of the car he drove to Maine, where he spent six weeks visiting relatives, and also toured over the New England states. From Wheeling, W. Va., he made the trip from that point to Glendale in eight days, rolling into this city with some of the original St. Louis air in his tires.

During the summer the car rolled up a total of over 9000 miles in a way that made a big hit with Mr. Jellison, who announces that he will receive deliveries direct from the factory in future, instead of through any other distributor. He has also secured the agency for American gears for all makes of cars.

H. J. Seely Offers Prizes of Merchandise Weekly To Customers

H. J. Seely, proprietor of the Ever-Ready Service Station, at the corner of Central avenue and West Broadway, will give away another Ford coupe on December 28, following the successful campaign that closed last Sunday when the crowd choked the adjacent thoroughfares to see who would be the fortunate winner of the first coupe to be turned over to the holder of the ticket picked from the barrel.

In addition to the coupe, the firm will give away $50 worth of merchandise prizes every week. The drawings will be made Saturday, and the ten winning tickets will be posted on the board, so that it will not be necessary for ticket holders to be present at the weekly drawings. The tickets will also be good on the Ford coupe to be given away in December.

CHAPTER LV.

"What does Craig feel about it?" Hilary asked, after a heart-sick silence.

"Men are infinitely more conventional than women," Dora answered, readily. "They hate publicity, they hate change. But if Craig is honest, he'll have to admit that, after it's once over, this is the only way. Hilary, what would you do? Could you go on living with a man you had simply ceased to love? And can you help it if you do stop loving? We can't control love. Love is sacred, the one wonderful thing—"

Dora added, dreamily, and stopped short.

"But there's more than that," she began again, as Hilary seemed to find nothing to say. "There's more than that. Sis, there's somebody else. I used to feel, years ago, that some day I would know what a great passion was. After I was married, and knew that with all my affection for him, and respect for him, and devotion to Craig—knew that it wasn't Craig, I used to pray that it would never come to me. Well, it's come."

"Ice was gathering about Hilary's heart, and she felt that all her life, the years when she was forming her own character, and helping to form Dora's, were an empty waste."

"And you know who it is," said Dora, with a sudden serious look. "Konrad," Hilary answered, slowly.

"Konrad!" Dora echoed, on a soft even breath. And she threw back her head, locked her white hands high above it, and laughed in sudden exultation. "There has never been anybody else in my life!" she breathed, her far-away eyes on the ceiling, her lips half-parted in a smile. "Since last spring, the very day you sailed—I've known it. It is the great love—the only love of my life! I can't see him, I can't be near him, without knowing, just by the way my heart beats, that there never will be any one else in my life. You may scold me, Craig may say what he pleases, I can't help it! I belong to Konrad—it's destined so!"

"You mean you are going to divorce Craig?" Hilary asked, after a silence.

"I mean I shall have to, Sis. It's the only honest way."

"Have you thought how?"

"I've thought this far. First I shall have a talk with Konrad, plan it all clearly. I hate to do that, Sis, but I must. I mean it, as seems a horrible thing to do, as

MURPHY'S COMEDIANS

The hilarious matrimonial farce, "A Mad Honey-moon," now showing nightly at the tent theater of Mahurin's Players (Murphy's Comedians), corner of Central avenue and Stocker street, Casa Verdugo, offers one of the cleverest satires on "the honey-moon trial" ever brought to the stage.

When it played in New York, as a William A. Brady production, this farce-melodrama made a big hit. It is full of laughs and has as its thrill motif a coat containing $30,000 in bonds, that disappears and reappears with amazing complications.

"A Mad Honey-moon" will be relished by young and old, married and unmarried, all classes and kinds of people who still have left the saving grace of humor. "And," says Manager J. A. Menard of Mahurin's Players, "this play will help a lot of folks to find their long lost funnybone!"

each other's husbands and wives! "Billy's in love with Rose, and Rutty is crazy about Bobby Wendell, and please don't kiss my husband, and so-and-so's mad about your wife," she quoted hotly. "It makes me furious! It's disgusting. I know they all do it. I know they don't always mean it, but I think it's disgusting, and I hate to hear my sister joining in!"

"Well!" Butterfly exclaimed, in airy resentment, as she paused. And for awhile there was a troubled silence between them. "I must live my own life," Dora said, soberly, after awhile. "Every human being has the right to do that."

"You are hardly more than a child," Hilary answered, sternly. "You don't know what your life is going to be, yet. You don't know that by the time you were ready to marry him, Konrad might not be involved with some other woman!"

THE GATEWAY

The first trained actor who ever worked in motion pictures plays a strong supporting role in "The Female," the Sam Wood production starring Betty Compson, which opens Thursday and runs Friday and Saturday at the Gateway theater.

He is Paul Nicholson, distinguished son of the late music and dramatic critic of the New York World. He plays the part of the lawyer in "The Female."

Nicholson's connection with motion pictures dates back to 1917 when, then manager Wallace McCutcheon, of the American Biograph and Mascopo company, equipped a studio in New York City. It was the first in the country to photograph stories, episodes and scenarios.

The completed pictures only ran five minutes, but they were a success from the start, and were the forerunners of the present-day elaborate screen productions. After the venture had become established, a reporter for a New York daily interviewed McCutcheon, asking among other things, "Who was the first film actor?" This was McCutcheon's answer, copied from the files of the newspaper of the time:

"As far as I know, Paul Nicholson was the only one employed in the studio who had any previous experience. He had worked on the stage. Most of the others were artists' models."

Nicholson has done only occasional motion pictures, although he has a distinguished stage career. He is well known on the eastern stage and in vaudeville with his wife, professionally known as "Miss Morton."

Warner Baxter and Noah Beery have the principal roles in support of the star in "The Female," an adaptation of Cynthia Stockley's popular magazine story, "Dalla, the Lion Cub." Agnes Christine Johnston wrote the scenario.

Film fans, who have dreamed of some day leaving your home towns and visiting that mysterious and sinister stretch of land, the African veldt, go down to the Gateway Theater and you will be able to realize a lifelong ambition without stirring from your seats!

As an extra attraction, the Gateway is offering Herrmann the great and Mlle. Gladys in an interesting act, both educational and original. Mlle. Gladys is giving a special matinee Friday afternoon at 2:30 for women only.

Uncle Wiggily

By HOWARD R. GARIS

"Uncle Wig, will you please give me a penny?" begged Baby Bunty, the little rabbit child, one day.

"Why do you want a penny?" asked Mr. Longears.

"I want to buy some red, blue, green, pink and purple paper to make pin wheels," answered Bunty.

"Ha! Ha!" laughed the rabbit gentleman. "How can you make PIN wheel out of PAPER? It can't be done!"

"Oh, yes it can," laughed Bunty, for she saw that Uncle Wiggily's pink nose was twinkling, and this always was a sign that he was feeling jolly and would give her a penny.

"You take a square of paper and cut the corners and fold them over. Then you put a pin through the middle and stick the paper wheel on a stick and it's a pin wheel—cause it turns around on the pin, you see!"

"I see," said Uncle Wiggily, laughing again. "Well, here is your penny to buy pin wheel paper," and he watched Bunty skipping down the street, happy and singing.

Not long after that Bunty came back carrying with her some squares of shining red, blue, green, yellow, pink and purple paper. With Nurse Jane's scissors, some pins and sticks, Bunty then sat down on the front steps and began to make the prettily colored wheels. She fastened a red one on a stick and carried it to where Uncle Wiggily was sitting in his easy chair.

"Blow on my red pinwheel and see it twirl!" invited Bunty.

"Oh, Bunty!" said Uncle Wiggily with a sigh, "please run away and play by yourself. I can't be bothered with pinwheels now!"

"Yes, run away and let Uncle Wiggily alone," said Nurse Jane. "Why—why—whatever is the matter?" asked Bunty in surprise, for both Uncle Wiggily and Nurse Jane looked very sad.

"Uncle Wiggily's rheumatism is hurting him very much," squeaked the muskrat lady housekeeper. "He must see Dr. Possum, I think." Then Baby Bunty knew that the rheumatism that made Uncle Wiggily sad, and when the bunny gentleman was in pain, Nurse Jane was sad.

But Bunty was a cute little rabbit girl, and when she wanted anything—well, she just wanted it—that's all there was about it! So, holding her red pinwheel in front of Uncle Wiggily's face, she said:

"Just blow on it once, Uncle Wig, an' make it spin. Go on—blow!" laughed Bunty. And, to please her, the rabbit gentleman gave a hard blow. Around spun the red pinwheel, and Baby Bunty held it so close to the rabbit's face that the sharp ends of the paper wheel tickled his nose.

"Gurr! Gurr! Ouchie! Ga zoo!" cried Uncle Wiggily, with a jolly laugh. "Oh, how funny that feels!" Then he blew on the pinwheel again, whizzing it as fast as a merry-go-round, and it tickled his nose again, and he laughed some more.

"Ha! Ha!" laughed Baby Bunty, seeing the pinwheel tickle Uncle Wiggily's nose.

"Ha! Ha!" laughed the bunny gentleman himself, as he blew harder and harder, tickling his nose more and more. Then he held the pinwheel in front of Nurse Jane, making her blow on it, and it tickled her nose so that she, also, laughed "Ho! Ho!"

"Now we're all jolly!" said

Uncle Wiggily and the Pin Wheel

"Yes," said Uncle Wiggily. "I think the pinwheel laugh cured my rheumatism pain. Anyhow I feel much better," and he turned then Bunty made more paper pinwheels—blue, green, yellow, purple and pink—and she decorated the bunny's hollow stump with them until they looked like a garden of hollyhocks. So all were made happy. And if the ink bottle doesn't try to stand on its head and dance with the postage stamp, I'll tell you next about Uncle Wiggily and the baked beans.

ANSWERS TO CORRESPONDENTS

A PERFECT SYSTEM
"Dear Doctor Peters: I've lost 30 pounds and it certainly has improved my looks; have seen more to lose to be ideal weight, but I feel ideal already. I surely do enjoy your articles and think your system is the only perfect one.—Mrs. R. H. Y."—
We are advised by our loving friends. Do you belong to our class? Better join. You can, by sending a stamped, self-addressed envelope and ten cents in stamps, requesting our booklet on reducing and gaining.

KIDNEY AND BLADDER STONES
A. B. C.—The primary cause of the formation of stones and gravel in the kidneys and bladder is not fully known. But whatever the primary cause is, the immediate cause is the over saturation of the urine with waste minerals, or a change in the composition in the urine, so that its solvent power is lessened.

Stones in the gall bladder often seem to come after a bacterial infection, such as typhoid; but according to Stevens, the bacterial infection does not seem to be the cause in kidney and bladder stones.

Incorrect diet, especially one too high in acid-forming elements, and overeating, are undoubtedly the factors in the causation of kidney and bladder stones by causing the urine to become too concentrated and injuring the kidneys.

It has been found that the alkaline salts are deficient in the blood and urine in cases of stones. The alkalinizing foods are the vegetables, especially potatoes and the green vegetables, and milk and fruits (especially cantaloupe). These should form the bulk of the diet. Best omit breads and cereals and take potatoes instead, because potatoes are highly alkalinizing. Fresh foods, eggs, alcohol, tea, coffee and spices should be avoided. Abundant water drinking between meals is important (10-12 glasses). The alkalinizing diet is especially important in regions where the water is very hard.

Stones of any size can be seen with the X-ray. If the stones are large, surgical removal is the only thing that offers permanent relief.

I notice you said you were enclosing stamps for the pamphlet on reducing. Did you also enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope? If you didn't enclose both, better try again, for I am afraid you haven't received it yet. It is significant, the fact you are suffering from stones and are overweight.

LUMPY ANKLES
"Dear Doctor Peters: I used to be called 'that little fat girl' before I started counting my calories. I weighed over 110 pounds and had lumpy ankles. I weigh 106 now, but my ankles are still as lumpy as ever. I walk miles and miles. I dance. I have taken up tennis, but nothing affects my ankles. Should I take thyroid or will massaging suffice? Please tell me what to do.—Valerie."—

SEALS WIN GAME, BREAKING HOODOO

San Francisco Twists Tail Of Tigers; Oaks Again Beat Los Angeles

By THREE STRIKES For Southland News Service. LOS ANGELES, Sept. 18.—Throwing off their hoodoo, which brought them nothing but defeats for their past six games, San Francisco turned in a decided victory over the Vernon Tigers here yesterday by the howling tune of 14 to 5. Things broke for the Seals during the last two innings and, overcoming a three-run lead held by the Bengals up to the eighth, Bert Ellison's help scored twelve runs in these last two frames.

So far as support is concerned given the three Vernon twirlers—there was very little, if any. In the pinches Bill Essick's men batted time and again, drawing a total of six errors.

Support Fails 'Em
Charley Fulton, the latest addition to the Tiger pitching staff, Christian and Lefty Thomas did their best on the mound, but, support being so nil, their efforts counted for little, eighteen hits being counted by the visiting Seals.

Bert Ellison, who is leading the league in the batting column, proved to be the hero with the stick, getting four singles and a homer in six trips to the plate.

Pat Shea started for San Francisco, but was replaced by Crockett in the eighth, when he was lifted for a pinch hitter.

Oaks Win Again
At Oakland the Los Angeles tribe lost another, the second of the series, to the Oaks yesterday, 5 to 0. Uncle Jim Myers hurled for the Angels, while Boecher worked on the mound for the Oaks.

The Salt Lake Bees turned in a victory over Portland on the Mormon field in yesterday's game, 15 to 10. Both clubs gathered seventeen hits.

Three Sacramento pitchers failed to hold the Seattle Indians in their fight for the pennant, and the Senators suffered defeat, 6 to 5, in yesterday's contest at Sacramento.

clusive sale of 300,000 tickets, which we anticipate will go very quickly." For over four months, since the advent of the Murphy's Comedians, they have shown to packed houses, and many thousands have been turned away. It has become the common practice for people to sit for over an hour to hold seats. Under the reserved seat plan the discomforts of the tent feature will be obviated. The plans call for proper ventilating and heating, highly comfortable seats and the usual freedom and enjoyment will be maintained.

Mrs. Susanna Hagey, Age 99, Honor Guest

"Horseless carriages" were but dreams of a century ago, but today, Mrs. Susanna Hagey, second oldest member of The Glendale Evening News Sunset club, celebrated her 99th birthday by being whisked away with a group of relatives for a picnic out in the park at Sunland. "Grandma" Hagey is an ardent devotee of the automobile and a more delightful birthday party could not have been arranged for her. She is also fond of walking and while she is no longer able to walk to Glendale from her daughter's home at 372 Burchett street, she still delights in accompanying her daughter to the neighboring store two blocks away. Although nearing the century milestone of her life's journey, "Grandma" Hagey enjoys reasonably good health and insists on looking after such household duties as washing dishes and making her own bed.

The picnic party was given by Mrs. Hagey's grandson, James Hagey, who, with his wife, motored to Glendale from their home in Orange county. Other members of the party were another grandson, Charles Hagey and wife of Los Angeles; and Mr. and Mrs. W. C. G. Sackett. During the summer "Grandma" Hagey has enjoyed visiting with her grandson, Walter Sackett, and family of Fort Collins, Colo. They were loath to leave before the birthday today, but had to be home in time for the opening of school.

Frank Chance Buried As Fans Pay Tribute

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 18.—Under a pall of California lilies and roses, Frank Chance went to his everlasting sleep here today. Surrounded by dozens of his friends, including several members of the organization he led four times to baseball championships, the former manager of the Chicago Cubs was buried here in a cemetery not far from Washington baseball park, where hundreds stood in a silent tribute to the "peerless leader." While Earl Houck, blind baseball fan and close friend of Chance, sang "Lead Kindly Light," the gray casket was lowered away. In Washington park the game between the San Francisco and Vernon clubs of the Pacific Coast league was halted and players and fans bowed their heads for two minutes.

The pallbearers were Barney Oldfield, famous automobile racer; Orvie Overall, who pitched ball for Manager Chance; John Powers, baseball magnate, for whom Chance directed a Los Angeles team; Arthur Braley, Rodney Webster and John Kipper, all close friends of the famous first baseman. Although the services were announced as private, at the last minute Mrs. Chance consented for all of the former baseball leader's friends to attend.

Boynton street and the foot of the grade. The council accepted the invitation of F. F. Foster to visit at 11 o'clock tomorrow morning the plant of the Bent Concrete Pipe Co., 4170 East Seventh street, Los Angeles. This plant manufactures sewer pipe. The council accepted the invitation of Chief P. J. Hayselden of the Glendale unit, Angeles Forest Protective association, to attend a barbecue 1 o'clock Sunday afternoon, September 21, at the Old Adobe, in Verdugo Woodlands, when a number of speakers will talk on the forest fire situation.

Sustains Action
The council sustained the recommendation of the City Planning commission in denying applications for commercial districts on Tenth street, across from the reservoir, and at the intersection of Sycamore Canyon road and Sinclair avenue. The continued hearing to establish a commercial district at the intersection of East Broadway and Wilson avenue was continued until the session of Thursday, September 25. The city planning commission had also recommended that this application be denied.

A petition was filed with the council by R. Belcher of 605 West Colorado boulevard, representing property owners, asking that the proceedings instituted for sidewalk on East Colorado boulevard be abandoned. The petition was turned over to the city engineer for checking and report.

Future Street Work
The council voted that future street work will be carried out under the 1911 bond act, which provides that each piece of property is covered by a separate bond. Under this act, proceedings may be completed within forty-five days, it was brought out, whereas under the Vrooman act it takes a minimum of ninety days.

A hearing on the establishment of a commercial district on Arden avenue between Pacific and Columbus avenues was set for the council meeting of Thursday, October 2. Establishment of a first-class district at Chester and Doran streets was granted.

The recommendation that Tenth street be re-named Burbank boulevard was made to the City Council this morning by Virgil B. The council referred Mr. Stone's suggestion back to the association for approval and recommendation.

A letter from the Southern California district council of the Assembly of God, Inc., requesting permission to erect a tent tabernacle at East Broadway and Isabel street, was read before the City Council. Issues Denials Official confirmation of the revolt has not yet been obtained here although Lu Yung Hsiang is reported en route here to seek refuge in the foreign settlement. Families of high Chekiang officials have already arrived here but Chekiang headquarters here continued to deny that a mutiny had taken place. Wu during the interview expressed himself as "confident that Chang is inviting disaster to himself by his warlike moves." "According to reports we have received," Wu said, "Chang has practically exhausted his resources to maintain 100,000 troops, which is just one-half the force the government is putting into the field within the next week or two."

ALLEY INN HOLDS FORMAL OPENING

Attractive Tea Rooms Prove Popular; Artistic Place In Business Center

A yellow picket fence surrounded by good luck black cats at 210 1/2 South Brand boulevard admits Glendale residents and visitors to the Alley Inn gardens and tea room, where they may enjoy the delightfully gracious hospitality of the hostess, Mrs. May B. Lavinson.

As a background for the artistic setting and refined atmosphere, Mrs. Lavinson has arranged and created, in the fact that this small house, transformed as in a fairy tale into a tea room of the most modern and attractive type, was the home in years past of prominent Glendale families.

Changes in Home
Perhaps twenty years ago, John Robert White, Jr., built the house for a residence. Later the Mattison B. Jones family occupied it, and just a year ago Dr. Jessie A. Russell had her realty business located there.

It is a marvel to see the changes wrought and to see the perpetuation of the house that was prominent on the landscape when the fast-growing city was only a village.

Mrs. Lavinson's success is being widely known and residents from all parts of Glendale and neighboring cities enjoy her hospitality for both formal and informal affairs. Last night the opening of the fall season was marked at the Alley Inn by a special dinner menu and musical entertainment from 6 till 9 o'clock. Over 100 guests were served.

Enjoy Hospitality
Among reservations for tables were Mrs. Ella Richardson, party of seven; Charles Murphy; Robert MacMullin family, R. R. Anderson, Frank Vesper, party of five; Mrs. E. W. W. Hayard, Dobbins family; H. W. Webb and Mrs. Frankie Webb and others from Glendale; Charles Stokes, party for Mr. and Miss Granky of San Francisco; Oliver party and others from Los Angeles and Pasadena.

In addition to serving many luncheon clubs, Mrs. Lavinson is looking forward to a busy holiday season and is planning many unique features for the pleasure of her guests.

Where Will the Y. M. C. A. Building Be Built?

AUTHORIZED STATEMENT

The Site of the Y. M. C. A. Building in Glendale is an important consideration.

A Y. M. C. A. Building should be centrally located and most easily accessible to the largest possible number of the boys and young men to be served.

AT THE PRESENT TIME there has been no Official Consideration or Authorized Action concerning a site for the Y. M. C. A. Building in Glendale.

There will be no action until after the campaign and the necessary $275,000 for site, building, furnishings, etc. has been subscribed.

Site talk now is not wise. It interferes with the best success of the campaign. Promises cannot be made that the building will be erected on any particular site or in any particular section of the city.

No subscription has been or will be taken with a string attached concerning any particular location.

The building will be placed in the location determined after the campaign, when the needed fund is assured, regardless of any other consideration or influence than the best good of Glendale from the standpoint of an efficient Y. M. C. A. service.

In SOME CITIES acceptable sites meeting all requirements for a Y. M. C. A. Building have been donated.

- Reno, Nev. had a site given worth $30,000.
- Great Falls, Mont. had a site given worth $35,000.
- Fort Worth, Tex. had a site given worth $75,000.
- Shreveport, La. had a site given worth $80,000.

If there is a friend of Glendale or of boys who will give an acceptable site for a Y. M. C. A. building here it would assure the success of the raising of the whole $275,000 in the campaign and being an ACCEPTABLE site would be gladly and gratefully received.

Citizens of Glendale are asked to believe that the business men handling this Y. M. C. A. project are doing so for the best interests of all concerned and are seeking only to serve their fellow-citizens and give Glendale the best possible Y. M. C. A.

J. B. BROWN
Builder and Property Manager of Murphy Comedians' New Theatre

"PHONE RINGING"

"Glendale 3077!"
"Glendale 3077?"
"Yes, please."
"J. B. Brown & Co."
"Oh, yes. I would like to speak to Mr. Brown, please."
"Mr. Brown speaking."
"Mr. Brown, I understand that your company is handling the property end of the Murphy Comedians' New Theatre."
"Yes, that is so."
"Can you give me any information about—"
"Yes. The Theatre will be built on the site of the Tent Theatre at the corner of Central avenue and Stocker street in Casa Verdugo. It will be modern in every detail, with luxurious, comfortable seating accommodations, with free parking facilities and most probably a nursery for the convenience of the thousands of mothers that are now regular patrons of the Tent Theatre. There will be a dozen up-to-date stores, two handsome arcades, a regular Merchants' Bonanza, because of the thousands of people that will brush by their windows at the matinee and evening shows, and thereby give the merchants unmeasurable free advertising!"
"Yes, yes. Mr. Brown, I am very glad to hear that. It will be the making of Casa Verdugo, besides being a splendid addition to the "Fastest Growing City in the World," and I am sure that the army of Murphy Fans, and I am one myself, will be tickled to death, but what I really want to know is, when can I RESERVE TICKETS for seats in the New Theatre?"
"Yes, I get you. Just wait a minute and I will let you speak to the manager of that department."
"Selling Agent for Murphy's New Theatre, Speaking."
"I wish to Reserve Tickets for the New Theatre on the opening night, if possible."
"Well, sir, I would like to accommodate you, I am sure. You would be surprised the number that have called up for just the same thing during the day. It is keeping us busy handling phone calls for RESERVED seats in the New Theatre, and everybody in Glendale it seems wants to revel in the first night's show, but I can't do anything for you. You see, Mr. Murphy, from the minute he put up his Tent until now, has insisted upon the policy of a square deal to all and NO FAVORITISM, and consequently our hands are tied until a date to be announced later when every patron of the Murphy Shows will be invited to a public mass meeting in the Tent Theatre Sunday afternoon, when Mr. Murphy will make a public address and open the doors for the Sale of RESERVED SEAT TICKETS so that every last man, woman and child will be given an EQUAL OPPORTUNITY."
"Thank you very much. Could you tell me when the announcement will be made?"
"Well, I anticipate that we will be ready to give the signal in a very few days now."
"I thank you."
"I thank you, sir."

Rev. Edmonds Greeted Postmaster Jackson
On His Return Home Seeking Suggestions

Rev. W. E. Edmonds, pastor of the Glendale Presbyterian church, received a hearty welcome home from vacation outings, last night, when 500 church members and friends met for the mid-week prayer meeting and social hour following. Enjoyable features were the vocal solos by Mrs. Mina Wenzel, and the informal social hour in the foyer. Refreshments were served by Circle 2, with Mrs. H. L. Bullinger as chairman. The church people are enthusiastic over the coming year, when Mr. Edmonds plans a series of practical talks for the Wednesday night meetings, which are always followed by a social half hour.

L. T. Rowley Family At Home From East

Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Rowley and son and daughter, Marion and Robert, of 334 West Vine street, are greeting their Glendale friends upon returning from an extended eastern trip. DISTINCTION OF MOON STRESSED

Adherence to Proven Styles In Body Designs Keeps Car Standard

"Many people wonder why we stress the distinctiveness of the Moon car in all our sales talks and our advertising," says J. W. Frazier, sales manager of Penn Motor Co., Moon dealers, 510 East Broadway, "and why we emphasize the claim that the Moon is more distinctive than any other car in the medium price class."

"The reason for this is that we have adhered to one type of body design since 1919, just as the makers of the highest priced cars have done, so that a Moon car of any year since 1919 is never in any danger of depreciating through a change in its lines. It can never become an 'orphan' car, due to the yearly alterations that are so prevalent nowadays."

"The resale value of the Moon car," Mr. Frazier claims, "is higher than that of any car in its class, due to the fact that it remains standard all the time and that it does not become obsolete through body changes."

Referring to the financial stability of the Moon Motor Car Co., Mr. Frazier calls attention to the fact that the factory has doubled its output fourteen times in the past four years, and that it is rated as one of the soundest concerns in the business.

At Sanitarium
Special Correspondence

A very delightful musical night was given in the Sanitarium parlor last night by Miss Green and two of her pupils, Miss Noel Culhane, who was at the piano, and Miss Kelley, playing the violin. Little Noel Culhane, 12-year-old, delighted the guests with her unusual talent.

Among the guests at the Sanitarium are Mr. and Mrs. Philip Knox. Mr. Knox has been conducting evangelistic services during the summer at Long Beach in the big musical pavilion at the end of the pier. In addition to being a very convincing speaker he is quite an astronomer and was one of the favored five who were given the privilege of using the hundred inch telescope at the Mt. Wilson Observatory the night that Mars came into closest proximity to the earth. Mr. Knox has a splendid assortment of astronomical slides and has given some wonderful illustrated lectures upon astronomy. We are hoping that he can be persuaded to give some of them here.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Huguley of Modesto were also guests, remaining for a day. Mr. Huguley was formerly manager of the Melrose Sanitarium near Boston.

Dr. Mary C. McKeenolds of Pacific Union college is at the Sanitarium on a brief visit.

In addition to those mentioned the following guests have registered at the Sanitarium during the last few days: Donald L. Macrae, Montrose; Dr. G. B. Snyder, Tucson; Ely Martin, Bakersfield; Mrs. Margaret Campbell, Glendale; Mrs. A. R. Satterlee, College Place, Wash.; Albert Satterlee, William Satterlee, Mary Ellis, all of College Place, Wash.; Nettie B. Campbell, Glendale; E. J. Undergraff; Mary E. Nicholl, Oakland; S. S. Liffitz, Los Angeles; Bertha M. Orchard; Martha N. Hathaway, Long Beach; A. Levine, Los Angeles; Emily D. Ohmer, Los Angeles; George L. Wilkinson, Seal Beach.

An interesting demonstration and talk will be given by Mrs. Daisy Harris, the superintendent of nurses, in the parlor at 6:45 o'clock, on the subject of correct posture, and kindred subjects.

Sciois to Celebrate On Constitution Day

Glendale Pyramid, No. 39, Ancient Egyptian Order of Sciois, will hold a special meeting Friday, September 19, to celebrate the anniversary of the adoption of the Constitution of the United States, at the Masonic temple on South Brand boulevard. This is the only holiday officially indicated by the Supreme Pyramid, and it is hoped that all members and their families will attend.

Harry Becker, song bird from San Diego, will be present to render some patriotic songs, and Senator George W. Cartwright will be the speaker of the evening. The meeting will open promptly at 8 o'clock, and at 9 o'clock the gathering will repair to the banquet hall, where Kelly's Shrine orchestra will await their appearance. The dance will be in charge of S. S. Gilhuly. Light refreshments will be served during the evening.

Ignatius Makes Suit For Mayor Robinson

All the thrills of being the royal tailor are being experienced by E. B. Ignatius of 410 South Brand boulevard, who has just completed a nifty fall suit for Spencer Robinson, "Glendale Singing Mayor."

Later Mr. Rowley went to Michigan to purchase a new car and, upon returning to New York, met his wife and daughter and son, and with them visited Baltimore, Philadelphia, Washington, D. C., and other cities. Coming west they visited relatives in Missouri and Iowa and then came on through Colorado, New Mexico and Arizona to California.
