By the first a duty of 20 centimes per ton burthen is established, from the 1st January, 1869, on all ships, French or foreign, entering the port of Bordeaux laden, and coming from a long voyage or from a foreign country.

By the second a duty of 10 centimes per ton burthen is established, at the port of Dunkerque, from the 1st July, 1868, upon all vessels, French or foreign, with the exception of tugs, pilot-boats, and boats engaged in coast fishing.

These dues are to be levied solely for the purpose of covering the difference between the rate of interest paid by the State, for the loans contracted with the two towns of Bordeaux and Dunkerque respectively, and the rate paid by those two towns to the subscribers to the loans; and will consequently cease immediately upon the entire reimbursement of the sum which forms the difference.

EXPLANATIONS.

I.—NAVIGATION DUES LEVIED AT SULINA IN 1867.

These dues are levied by the European Commission, by virtue of Article 16 of the Treaty of Paris of the 30th March, 1856, to cover the expenditure devoted to the improvement of the Mouths of the Danube.

The collection is effected on the basis of the Tariff joined to the Public Act signed at Galatz on the 2nd November, 1865. It includes as well the dues imposed on the navigation for the local pilotage, and for the keeping up of the light-houses which mark the Danube Mouths.

In 1867, the gross produce of the dues levied at Sulina amounted to the sum of 878,798 francs 37½ centimes. It is composed of the following items:—

	Fr.s.	Cs.
Dues paid by sailing and steam vessels (except packet boats)	854,907	42½
" packet boats	12,488	70

The net produce is then reduced to .. or 66,101 ducats, 15 piastres, 27 paras.

This produce amounted

In 1861, to the sum of	62,038 ducats

The mean produce of these seven years being 71,305 ducats, or about 848,530 francs.

II. DEBT OF THE EUROPEAN COMMISSION.

The debt is composed of two items:

1. The amount of the 10 per cent. Bonds issued by the Commission, and repayable at a fixed date.
2. The amount due to Turkey for advances made by her to the Commission until the year 1863, the date at which this amount is to be paid off not having yet been decided,

The 10 per cent. Bonds amount to 111,100 ducats, and comprise—

1. The balance of the issue of 1866, 24,550 ducats, which will be paid off in 1868, and
2. 86,550 ducats realized on the issue of the 25th April, 1867. Of this latter sum 21,000 ducats will be paid off on the 30th June, 1868, and the balance in 1871 and 1872, according as the sums fall due.

The debt to Turkey amounts to 320,969 ducats, 26 piastres, 12 paras.

Various sums have to be deducted from this amount, of which the principal item is the salary of the Staff of the General Inspection of Navigation, which the Commission pays for the account of the Ottoman Government.

The credit of Turkey in account current with the Commission on the 31st December, 1867, was 317,811 ducats, 27 piastres, 18 paras.

*Board of Trade, Whitehall,
July 9, 1868.*

THE Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade have received, from the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a Despatch from Her Majesty's Ambassador at St. Petersburg, inclosing an extract from the "Journal de St. Pétersbourg," of the 4th ultimo, relative to the alterations in the Customs' laws respecting the production of bills of lading at Cronstadt and St. Petersburg, of which the following is a translation :—

1. The production of bills of lading has been suppressed at the Custom-house of St. Petersburg, together with the formalities attending it.

2. Instead of the bills of lading at present demanded from masters of vessels on arriving in harbour, they will only be required to produce their manifests, made out in their own country and their own language, and these shall serve as the basis for drawing up the detailed account of their freight.

3. Under exceptional circumstances, however, when the vessel shall not be provided with a manifest, the regulations at present in force with regard to the production of bills of lading shall be applicable.

Board of Trade, Whitehall, 9th July, 1868.

THE Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade have received from the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs a copy of a Despatch from the British Commissioner of the European Commission of the Danube, inclosing the subjoined translations of:—

(1.) The Police Regulations to be observed in the interest of the Works of Improvement on the Lower Danube.

(2.) The New Provisions relative to Pilotage on the Lower Danube.

And (3.) The New Provisions concerning the Lighter Service.

EUROPEAN COMMISSION OF THE DANUBE.

POLICE REGULATIONS to be observed in the interest of the Works of Improvement on the Lower Danube.

THE European Commission of the Danube,

Considering that frequent damage is caused to its works and to its plant by vessels navigating between Isaktcha and Sulina, especially by steam vessels, the circulation of which becomes more and more active ;

And considering Article 112 of the Regulation of Police and Navigation annexed to the Public Act signed at Galatz on the 2nd of November, 1865,

Enacts the following provisions :—

Art. 1.

The precautionary rules prescribed by Article 25 of the Regulation of Navigation and Police, under date of 2nd of November, 1865, to the captains or masters of the vessels, floats of timber, or rafts, navigating or stationary on the Lower Danube, below Isaktcha, apply specially to the floating plant employed on the works of improvement of the river and of its mouths, as well as to the works of every kind, such as piers, jetties, groynes, quays, constructed or to be constructed by the European Commission, and to the buoys and other signals placed by it on the river or on its banks.

Art. 2.

The captains or masters of vessels, floats of timber, or rafts, are equally bound to take the precautions necessary for impeding as little as possible the works in course of execution, especially the dredging operations, and the construction of the works undertaken or to be undertaken in the Sulina branch, and at its mouth.

To this end, the captains of all steam vessels are bound to slacken their speed, as much as they can do so without danger to their own vessels, or to the vessels towed by them, when they are traversing a section of the river on which dredging or other works are in course of execution, and that, as long as they are between the signal posts placed on the banks, above and below the site of the works.

Art. 3.

When the steam dredgers are employed in the Sulina Branch, or at the Tchatal of St. George during the night, the passage of the channel, where the dredging operations and discharge of stuff dredged are being carried on, is forbidden, except in the case hereinafter mentioned, to all sailing, and steam vessels, rafts, or floats of timber, from seven o'clock in the evening till five o'clock in the morning.

This prohibition does not extend to packet-boats making periodical voyages, and engaged in the Mail Service, except, however, in the case of special necessity, when passage by night can be forbidden absolutely, by a simple notice which the Commission will cause to be published to this effect.

Art. 4.

Every offence against the provisions of the preceding Articles is punished by a fine of fifty francs (£2) at least, or of 500 francs (£20) at most.

Art. 5.

When an offence committed against the preceding provisions, or one of the offences provided for and punished by Article 99 of the Regulation of Navigation and Police of the 2nd of November, 1865, above quoted, is accompanied or followed by any injury or damage whatsoever occasioned by the offending vessel, float of timber, or raft, to the works of the European Commission of the Danube, to its floating plant, or to any other of its properties, the fine incurred by the offending party, is of 250 francs (£10) at least, and of 2,500 francs (£100) at most.

The infliction of the penalties enacted by the preceding 4th and 5th Articles, is pronounced by the Captain of the Port of Sulina, or by the Inspector-General of the Navigation.

It is regulated in general, and in particular for what concerns appeals, by the provisions of Chapter II. of Part VI. of the Regulation of Navigation and Police of the 2nd of November, 1865.

Art. 7.

The present provisions shall be immediately published, and shall enter in force on the 15th of May next.

Done at Galatz the 21st of April, 1868.

EUROPEAN COMMISSION OF THE DANUBE.

NEW PROVISIONS relative to pilotage on the Lower Danube.

The European Commission of the Danube,
Considering the 112th Article of the Regulation of Navigation and Police applicable to the Lower Danube, dated the 2nd November, 1865 ;

Whereas, in consequence of the works executed at the mouth and in the branch of the Sulina, the vessels which ascend the river are, in general, of a larger burden than formerly, and require, for that reason, more care and knowledge on the part of the pilots entrusted with the direction of them ;

Whereas, in the assessment of the pilotage dues for the navigation down-stream, the tariff now in force establishes no distinction between large and small vessels, and that thus the river pilots are no longer remunerated in proportion with the services rendered ;

Whereas, on the other hand, the power of obtaining a river pilot's licence implicitly granted by the Regulation of Navigation and Police of the 2nd November, 1865, to the pilots who do not exercise their calling exclusively on the Lower Danube, becomes more inconvenient in proportion as the employment of vessels of considerable size increases the difficulties of pilotage in the narrow channels of the Sulina Branch ;

And in order to determine the extent of the responsibility, which falls upon the river pilots, in piloting vessels ;

Enacts the following provisions :

Art. 1.

The second paragraph of Article 69 of the Regulation of Navigation and Police annexed to the Public Act relating to the Navigation of the Mouths of the Danube, under date of the 2nd November, 1865, is repealed, and replaced by the following provision :

“The licence of pilot is delivered by the Captain of the port, and must receive his visa every year; it ceases to be valid if the annual visa is wanting.”

Art. 2.

Articles 75 and 78 of the said Regulation are also repealed, and replaced by the following provisions :

“ Art. 75.—Independently of the corps of pilots charged with piloting vessels in the channel of the Sulina Mouth, and acting under the direction of the Captain of the port, there is a special service of pilots, likewise licensed, for merchant vessels navigating the river between Sulina and Ibraila.

“ The corps of river pilots is placed under the authority of the Inspector General of the navigation, by whom the licence of pilot is delivered.

“ This licence must each year receive the visa of the Inspector General, and ceases to be valid if the accomplishment of this formality is wanting.

“ The pilotage service is directed by a chief pilot who is bound to have three offices, at Galatz, at Ibraila, and at Toultscha, and by a deputy chief pilot residing at Sulina.

“ The licensed pilots of the river service alone have authority to pilot vessels during their navigation between Sulina and Ibraila, as well ascending as descending, but they are forbidden, excepting those of the steam packets making periodical voyages, to pilot them in the channel of the Sulina mouth, or in any part of their sea voyage.

“ Art. 78.—Captains will arrange with the river pilots the sum to be paid the latter for the pilotage up-stream. In case of dispute, however, on this point, the port authorities will not admit any claim on the part of pilots for a higher rate of wages than six francs a day for the voyage, in addition to subsistence on board, for the pilotage of a sailing vessel. These wages may be raised to a maximum of one hundred francs a day for the pilots of steam vessels.

“With regard to the compulsory pilotage of the voyage down-stream, its dues are fixed as follows, for sailing vessels :

“For the passage from Galatz, or from a port situated above this point, to Sulina, fifty centimes per register ton ;

“For the passage from Reni or Ismail to Sulina, forty centimes per ton ;

“For the passage from Tœultcha to Sulina thirty centimes per ton.

“Steam vessels pay only the half of these dues, and those who make their voyages between the ports of the Danube and the ports of the Black Sea or of the Bosphorus, may be freed from them, provided that the ship's pilot is furnished with a licence as river pilot.

“The chief pilot of the river service deducts two centimes per ton from the amount of the due paid by each sailing vessel, and one centime per ton on the due paid by steam vessels ; the rest of the due accrues to the pilot.

“These dues are paid into the hands of the Cashier of the Navigation Chest at Sulina, who alone can give a valid receipt for them ; it is allowable, however, to the captain of the vessel piloted to pay directly to his pilot the half of the due, as an advance.

“The calculation of the tonnage for the payment of the pilotage due, is worked out according to the rules laid down by the Tariff of Navigation Dues of the 2nd November, 1865.”

Art. 3.

The second paragraph of Article 80 of the above-mentioned regulation of the 2nd November, 1865, is repealed and replaced by the following provision:—

“They are forbidden to have any interest, either directly or indirectly in any operation, or contract connected with Lighters, the object of which is to get afloat a vessel aground, except in the case where the operation has been undertaken by the job for the whole duration of the voyage.”

Art. 4.

At the beginning of Article 81 of the same regulation, is inserted an additional provision, thus worded:—

“The Captain who has taken on board a licensed River Pilot does not, even in the case where the Pilotage is compulsory, remain the less responsible for the observance of the Regulations of Navigation and Police in force upon the Lower Danube, and especially of Articles 25 and 37 of the present Regulation.

“The responsibility of the Pilot is limited to the indication of the navigable channels and of the particulars of the River Navigation. Consequently, the Captain, who abandons to his Pilot the direction of his vessel, does so upon his own responsibility.”

Art. 5.

Between the second and third paragraphs of Article 101 of the aforesaid Regulation of Navigation and Police, is inserted a new paragraph, thus worded:

“Every Pilot of the River Service who offends against the provisions of the last paragraph of the above Article 75, by piloting a vessel in the Channel of the Sulina mouth, or in the sea, is punished with a fine of 100 francs (£4) at least, or of 500 francs (£20) at most. The same penalty is applicable to the Captain who has his vessel piloted in the Danube, between Sulina and Ibraila, by a Pilot who does not belong to the Corps of River Pilots.”

Art. 6.

Article 12 of the Tariff of Navigation Dues of the 2nd November, 1865, is repealed, inasmuch as it is contrary to the provisions of the new Article 78 herein above.

Art. 7.

The present provisions will enter in force on the 1st of June, 1868.

Done at Galatz, the 16th of April, 1868.

EUROPEAN COMMISSION OF THE DANUBE.

NEW PROVISIONS concerning the Lighter Service.

The European Commission of the Danube,

Whereas, the provisions of Part V, of the Regulation of Navigation and Police, under date of the 2nd November, 1865, which rule at present the Lighter Service, have been drawn up especially in view of the operations which are carried on at the mouth of the river ;

Whereas, at the present time, on the contrary, lighters are employed principally for the passage of the shoals of the Sulina Branch, or for the conveyance of cargoes destined for sea-going vessels, which do not ascend the river ;

Whereas, moreover, the number of licensed lighters, subject to the disciplinary superintendence of the Inspector-General of the Navigation, has diminished to a considerable extent ; and whereas, consequently, sea-going vessels of low tonnage are employed, in greater numbers than formerly, to act temporarily as lighters ;

Whereas, these vessels being subject neither to the constraint of being visited and measured every year, nor to that of giving pledges for good conduct, offer less security to commerce than the licensed lighters ; and whereas more frequent abuses, committed to the detriment of the lightened cargoes, have been made known to the Commission ;

Whereas, it thus appears that the provisions in force concerning the Lighter Service no longer correspond with the exigencies of the Danubian Navigation in so far as they have been modified by the effect of the works executed at the Sulina Mouth ;

And considering Article 112 of the above quoted Regulation of Navigation and Police of the 2nd November, 1865 ;

Enacts the following provisions :

Art. 1.

Articles 82 to 93, both inclusive, of the Regulation of Navigation and Police annexed to the Public Act, relating to the Navigation of the Mouths of the Danube, under date of the 2nd November, 1865, forming Chapters 1, 2, and 3 of Part V of the aforesaid Regulation, are repealed and replaced by the following Articles :

“ PART V.

“ CHAPTER 1.

“ General Rules.

“ Art. 82.—Lighterage operations are divided into two classes :

“ 1st. Local lighterage effected by a sea-going vessel, which, in order to cross the Sulina Bar (either on entering or on leaving the river), or a shoal in the interior, discharges the whole or a part of its cargo into a smaller vessel in order to re-ship it after having cleared the obstacle ;

“ 2nd. Coasting lightcrage performed by sailing vessels, or by steam vessels and towing lighters which take a cargo in a port of the Danube and consign it to a sea-going vessel anchored in the port or on the roadstead of Sulina.

“ Art. 83.—No one can undertake lightcrage operations without having previously entered at the Office of the Inspector-General of the Navigation at Toultscha, the vessels intended to act as lighters, or without having provided himself, for each vessel, with a licence delivered by the Inspector-General, and which must always be forthcoming on board.

“ Before delivering the licence the Inspector-General causes the vessels, intended to act as lighters, to be visited by a commission which judges whether they are in good condition and ascertains at the same time their capacity in register tons and their burden in imperial quarters.

“ The licensed lighters are bound to submit themselves, every year to a fresh visit, the period of which is fixed by the Inspector-General: if the result of the examination is deemed satisfactory, the Inspector-General notes it on the licence of the lighter; in the contrary case, the licence is withdrawn until the necessary repairs have been made.

“ Art. 84.—Vessels provided with regular ship's papers can be temporarily employed for lightening other vessels, upon condition that the captains make for each operation a special declaration to the Inspector-General of the Navigation, if the lightage is to be effected over the shoals of the Sulina Branch, or to the Captain of the Port of Sulina if the lightage is for the passage of the mouth. This declaration is accompanied by the deposit of all the papers of the vessel intended to act as a lighter, except the muster-roll of the crew.

“ If the vessel employed as lighter has entered the river with more than the third of her cargo, the dues owing for entry become demandable immediately after the first lightage operation.

“ No vessel, however, not entered as a lighter, can be employed in this capacity, during more than four consecutive months from the first operation, except after fulfilling the formalities prescribed by Article 83.

“ Art. 85.—Every master of a licensed lighter is compelled to deposit 600 francs (£24) which is paid into the Navigation Chest at Sulina. This deposit may be replaced by the liable security of a person well known to be solvent, resident in one of the ports of the Lower Danube.

“ The licence cannot be delivered by the Inspector-General before the deposit has been made, or the security accepted.

“ The deposit cannot be returned or the security discharged as long as the vessel continues to act as lighter. This deposit may be appropriated to the payment of the pecuniary fines pronounced against the Master of the lighter, and, in this case the licence is withdrawn from the vessel until the deposit has been renewed entirely.

“ Art. 86.—Licensed lighters, as well as vessels temporarily employed as lighters, are bound to have the muster-roll of their crews in order, and to present it, whenever required, to the Inspector-General of the Navigation, to the Captain of the Port of Sulina, and to the agents placed under the orders of these latter.

“Licensed lighters are bound, moreover, to bear the number of their licence, and vessels employed temporarily as lighters, the number of the last stamp, affixed to the roll of their crew in execution of Article 17 of the present regulation. These numbers must be marked in white paint on each side of the bows, in Arab figures one foot in height.

“Local Lighterage Operations.

“Art. 87.—The superintendence of local lighterage operations, which take place in the river, is exercised by the Inspector-General of the Navigation, or by his agents, and that of the operations which take place at the mouth, by the Captain of the Port of Sulina.

“Art. 88.—When a sea-going vessel discharges the whole or part of her cargo on board of lighters, the captain is bound to place on board of each of them a guard of his own choosing.

“For operations of local lighterage accomplished in the internal course of the river, the lighters must, unless they are towed, navigate in company with the lightened vessels, and may not quit them, except under circumstances beyond their control, before having returned to them the whole of the lightened merchandise.

“On their part, the captains of lightened vessels are bound, before putting to sea, to pay to the masters of their lighters, the freight agreed upon.

“ Art. 89.—In the case of lighterage at the mouth of the river by vessels putting to sea, the lighters leave the port at the same time as the lightened vessels; but if a vessel employs several lighters, the Captain of the Port regulates their departure so that the latter have not to remain too long on the roadstead before they can effect the re-loading.

“ In no case, whether the vessel to be lightened be leaving the Port, or entering it from the sea, or remaining anchored on the roadstead, can the lighters go out of Sulina harbour without a permit to pass from the Captain of the Port; this permit to pass is presented to the Guard-boat stationed at the mouth, in conformity with Article 16 of the present Regulation.

“ Art. 90.—Licensed lighters, and vessels having acted as lighters, which ascend the river, or re-enter the port of Sulina after having lightened a sea-going vessel, may be visited by the agents of the Inspector-General of the Navigation, or of the Captain of the Port of Sulina.

“ The masters of lighters are consequently bound to open the hold and the cabins of their vessels, whenever required to do so by the said agents.

“ Art. 91.—The operations of coasting lighterage may be carried on by all steam-vessels, towing lighters, sailing vessels or lighters provided with regular papers, on condition that the captains or masters procure for each voyage, from the Consular or competent local authorities of the ports in which they take their cargo, a certificate making known the object of the operation, and the quantity of merchandize embarked.

“ This certificate must be produced in the course of the voyage, whenever required by the Inspector-General or his agents.

“ Art. 92.—Immediately upon the arrival of a vessel, carrying on coasting lighterage, in the port of Sulina, the master is bound to repair to the office of the Captain of the Port, and to present there the certificate prescribed by the preceding Article.

“ If the vessel discharges the whole of her cargo in the port of Sulina, she moors alongside the sea-going vessel which is to receive the merchandize, and must not quit her, until after having entirely finished discharging.

“ If the cargo is to be discharged, wholly or partly, on the roadstead of Sulina, the master of the vessel hands over the certificate prescribed by Article 91 to the Captain of the Port, who delivers to him the permit to pass necessary for going out of the harbour.

“ Art. 93.—The preceding Articles 86, 89, and 90, are likewise applicable to vessels which perform the Coasting Lighterage Service.

“ However, steam-vessels, and towing lighters are not subject to the constraint of allowing themselves to be visited, conformably with Article 90, unless one of the parties demand it, or in case of suspicion of fraud.”

Art. 2.

The period of twelve days fixed by Article 95 of the said Regulation of Navigation and Police, of the 2nd of November, 1865, is reduced to six days.

Art. 3.

Article 97 of the same Regulation of Navigation and Police is repealed, and is replaced by the following provision :—

“ If it is proved that a larceny has been committed upon the cargo placed on board of a licensed lighter, the licence of the vessel is withdrawn for three months at least, without prejudice to the application to the Captain or Master of the vessel of the fine appointed by the third paragraph of Article 102 of the present Regulation, or to the criminal proceedings belonging to the competent authorities."

Art. 4.

Article 102 of the aforesaid Regulation is repealed and replaced by the following provision:—

"Offences against the provisions of the first paragraph of Article 83, and against those of the above Articles 84, 90, and 91 are punished with a fine of 100 francs (£4) at least, and of 200 francs (£8) at most.

"Every offence against the provisions of the third paragraph of Article 83, against those of Article 86 and of the first paragraph of Article 88, and against those of Article 89, and of the first paragraph of Article 92, is punished with a fine of 60 francs at least, and of 120 francs at most.

"Every offence against the provisions of the second paragraph of Article 88, and of the second paragraph of Article 92, is punished with a fine of 400 francs (£16) at least, and of 1,200 francs (£48) at most, and the same penalty is applicable to the captain or master of every vessel having acted as lighter, or of every licensed lighter, which, without having been thereto compelled by circumstances beyond control, quits, on the roadstead of Sulina, the lightened vessel, before having restored to her the whole of her cargo.

"The vessel or lighter on board of which the offence is committed, remains especially set apart for the payment of the fine incurred, for the recovering of which she can be sequestered by the Inspector-General of the Navigation, or by the Captain of the Port of Sulina, according to circumstances.”

Art. 5.

The present provisions shall enter in force on the 1st of June, 1868.

Foreign Office, July 13, 1868.

HER Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs has received from the Italian Chargé d'Affaires at this Court, the accompanying translation of an Official Memorandum from the “ Direction Générale des Finances,” in regard to facilities to be accorded to travellers passing through Italy, in the matter of their luggage :—

(Traduction).

Direction Générale des Finances,

BULLETIN OFFICIEL.

Art. No. 102.

15 Mai, 1868.

CONSIDÉRANT le grave désagrément auquel seraient soumis les voyageurs qui traversent par chemin de fer tout le Royaume sans s'arrêter, dans le cas où ils seraient obligés à faire visiter leurs bagages à l'entrée et à la sortie ;

Reconnaissant la nécessité d'adopter à ce sujet des mesures, qui tout en assurant les intérêts du Trésor, ne puissent empêcher la rapidité des communications qui est indispensable à ceux qui font de longs voyages ;

Ayant pris par conséquent les arrangements nécessaires avec la Compagnie des Chemins de Fer de la Haute Italie, qui s'est entendue à cet égard avec les autres Compagnies de Chemin de fer ;

Il est arrêté :—

1°. Les bagages des voyageurs qui traversent sans s'arrêter, par chemin de fer, le Royaume pourront être expédiés en exemption de visite soit à l'entrée soit à la sortie ;

La visite douanière se bornera par conséquent aux menus-effets que les dits voyageurs porteront à la main, ou qu'ils voudraient garder à leur libre disposition.

2°. Les employés du chemin de fer présenteront à la douane d'entrée les bagages à expédier par transit et en exemption de visite. La Douane, après les avoir plombés simplement, afin que l'identité en soit maintenue, leur donnera un bulletin d'assurance, dans lequel seront inscrits le nombre et la nature des colis, leur poids, et les étiquettes de service sous lesquelles ils sont indiqués dans la feuille de route.

Il sera donné autant de bulletins d'assurance qu'il y aura de Douanes par lesquelles les bagages devront sortir.

3°. Le bulletin d'assurance sera fait au nom de l'Administration des Chemins de Fer, qui assume la responsabilité de le présenter à la Douane de sortie. Le terme accordé pour arriver à la Douane de sortie sera fixé en raison de la distance kilométrique du chemin de fer et du temps nécessaire pour la parcourir, en égard aux règlements et aux heures de départ et d'arrivée du chemin de fer même.

4°. L'assurance sera taxée en raison d'un franc par chaque kilogramme de poids brut.

5°. Le bureau de sortie, après avoir vérifié que les plombs sont intacts, et avoir collationné les bagages avec les indications portées sur le bulletin, permettra, si rien ne s'y oppose, la sortie, et délivrera le certificat de service.

6°. Si des colis arrivent sans leurs plombs, ou altérés extérieurement, dans le cas où l'on puisse constater qu'il n'y a eu ni fraude ni tentative d'en commettre, on appliquera les dispositions de l'Art. 78c du Règlement des Douanes.

Si, au contraire, la fraude est constatée, ou qu'il y ait un colis manquant, le certificat se bornera à la partie des colis qui a été trouvée en règle, afin que la Douane d'entrée procède sur la base de l'assurance dont il est parlé au No. 4, aux termes de l'Art. 69 du Règlement Douanier.

OFFICIAL NOTICE.

Art. No. 102.

TAKING into consideration the serious inconvenience to which travellers would be exposed who cross the Kingdom by railway, without stopping, in the event of their being obliged to have their luggage examined on entering and leaving ;

Recognizing the necessity of taking some measures on this head, which, whilst maintaining the interests of the Treasury, should not hinder the rapidity of communication which is so essential to those travelling long distances ;

And having, in consequence, made the necessary arrangements with the Railway Company of Upper Italy, which is acting in concert with the other Railway Companies in this matter ;

It has been decided :—

1st. Baggage belonging to through railway passengers can be forwarded without examination, either on entering or leaving.

Consequently, the Custom-house search will be limited to such personal articles as the said travellers carry by hand, or to those which they wish to take charge of themselves.

2nd. The railway officials will hand over the baggage to be sent by transit and without examination, to the Frontier Custom-house officers, who, after having simply sealed it, so that its identity may be established, will give them a certificate on which will be written the number and nature of the packages, their weight, and the service labels by which they are entered in the way-bill.

The same number of certificates will be given as there are Custom-houses through which the luggage has to pass.

3rd. The certificate will be made out in the name of the Railway Company, which is charged with the responsibility of presenting it at the Custom-house at the place of departure. The time allowed for arrival at this Custom-house will be fixed in relation to the mileage of the railway, and the time it takes to traverse it having reference to the railway regulations and the hours of departure and arrival of the trains.

4th. The certificate will be taxed at the rate of one franc for each kilogram of gross weight.

5th. The Bureau, at the place of departure after having ascertained that the seals are unbroken and after having compared the luggage with the descriptions set forth in the certificate will allow it to pass, if there is nothing to prevent it and will deliver up the service ticket.

6th. If any articles arrive without their seals, or externally disfigured, and it can be proved that there has been neither fraud, nor attempt at fraud, the dispositions of the Article 78 c., of the Custom-house regulations shall be put in force.

If, on the contrary, a fraud is proved, or if a package is missing, the certificate shall only apply to such portion of the luggage as has been found to be in order, so that the Frontier Custom-house may proceed on the basis of the certificate which is spoken of in Article 4, in the terms of Article 69 of the "Custom-house Regulations."

FROM THE

LONDON GAZETTE of JULY 28,
1868.

War Office, July 28, 1868.

THE Queen has been graciously pleased to signify Her intention to confer the decoration of the Victoria Cross on the undermentioned Soldiers, whose claims to the same have been submitted for Her Majesty's approval for their gallant conduct in Abyssinia, as recorded against their names ; viz. :—

33rd Regiment.

No. 3691. Drummer Michael Magner,
No. 949. Private James Bergin,

For their conspicuous gallantry in the assault of Magdala on the 13th of April last.

Lieutenant-General Lord Napier reports that, whilst the head of the column of attack was checked by the obstacles at the gate, a small stream of Officers and men of the 33rd Regiment, and an Officer of Engineers, breaking away from the main approach to Magdala, and climbing up a cliff, reached the defences, and forced their way over the wall, and through the strong and thorny fence, thus turning the defenders of the gateway.

The first two men to enter, and the first in Magdala, were Drummer Magner and Private Bergin, of the 33rd Regiment.

FROM THE

LONDON GAZETTE of AUGUST 4, 1868.

Her Majesty's Most Gracious Speech, delivered by the Lords Commissioners, to both Houses of Parliament, on Friday, July 31, 1868.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

I AM happy to be enabled to release you from your labours, and to offer you my acknowledgments for the diligence with which you have applied yourselves to your Parliamentary duties.

My relations with foreign Powers remain friendly and satisfactory. I have no reason to apprehend that Europe will be exposed to the calamity of war, and my policy will continue to be directed to secure the blessings of peace.

I announced to you at the beginning of this session that I had directed an expedition to be sent to Abyssinia, to liberate my Envoy and others of my subjects detained by the Ruler of that country in an unjust captivity.

I feel sure that you will share in my satisfaction at the complete success which, has attended that expedition. After a march of 400 miles, through a difficult and unexplored country, my troops took the strong place of Magdala, freed the captives, and vindicated the honour of my Crown : and by their immediate return, without one act of oppression or needless violence, proved that the expedition had been undertaken only in obedience to the claims of humanity, and in fulfilment of the highest duties of my Sovereignty.

The cessation of the long-continued efforts to promote rebellion in Ireland has for some time rendered unnecessary the exercise by the executive of exceptional powers. I rejoice to learn that no person is now detained under the provisions of the Act for the suspension of the Habeas Corpus, and that no prisoner awaits trial in Ireland for an offence connected with the Fenian conspiracy.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

I have to thank you for the liberal supplies which you have voted for the public service.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

I have had much satisfaction in giving my assent to a series of measures, completing the great work of the Amendment of the Representation of the People in Parliament, which has engaged your attention for two Sessions

I have seen with satisfaction that the time necessarily occupied by this comprehensive subject has not prevented you dealing with other questions of great public interest, and I have gladly given my sanction to Bills for the better government of Public Schools, the regulation of railways, the amendment of the Law relating to British Sea Fisheries, and for the acquisition and maintenance of Electric Telegraphs by the Postmaster-General ; and to several important measures having for their object the improvement of the Law, and of the Civil and Criminal Procedures in Scotland.

By the appointment of a Comptroller-in-Chief in the War Office a considerable reform in army administration has been commenced, which, by combining at home and abroad the various departments of military supply under one authority, will conduce to greater economy and efficiency both in peace and war.

It is my intention to dissolve the present Parliament at the earliest day that will enable my people to reap the benefit of the extended system of representation which the wisdom of Parliament has provided for them. I look with entire confidence to their proving themselves worthy of the high privilege with which they have thus been invested ; and I trust that, under the blessing of Divine Providence, the expression of their opinion on those great questions of public policy which have occupied the attention of Parliament and remain undecided, may tend to maintain unimpaired that civil and religious freedom which has been secured to all my subjects by the institutions and settlement of my realm.

Then a Commission for proroguing the Parliament was read ; after which the Lord-Chancellor said :

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

By virtue of Her Majesty's Commission, under the Great Seal, to us and other Lords directed, and now read, we do, in Her Majesty's name, and in obedience to Her Commands, prorogue this Parliament to Thursday, the eighth day of October next, to be then and there holden ; and this Parliament is accordingly prorogued to Thursday, the eighth day of October next.

India Office, August 1, 1868.

THE following further Despatch has been received from Lieutenant-General the Lord Napier of Magdala, G.C.B., G.C.S.I, lately commanding the Abyssinian Expeditionary Force:—

(Sir Robert Napier to the Military Secretary, India Office).

SIR,

Paris, 1st July, 1868.

I HAVE the honour to forward for submission to the Right Honourable the Secretary of State for India, the report of Lieutenant-Colonel Warden, Director of the Transport Corps in Abyssinia, with a report attached from Captain Hand, Sub-Director, Transport Corps, on the Highlands.

Enclosure No. 1.

Report on the Transport Train, Abyssinian E.F., by Lieutenant Colonel R. Warden, Bombay Staff Corps.

This train was organized under the orders of the Bombay Government in August, 1867, and Lieutenant-Colonel R. Warden was appointed director to organize the same, under the orders of the Commissary-General of the Army.

2. The establishment for every 2,000 animals was laid down by Government Resolution, No. 144a, of the 28th September, 1867, at the strength as per margin* for 14 divisions in the train, and which, with the commissariat, was placed under the orders of Lieutenant-Colonel W. H. Holland, Controller of Supply and Transport, Abyssinian Expeditionary Force.

3. At the first starting the sole work of organization fell upon the director, without a second in command, staff, or any officer to assist him.

4. The duty of supervision devolved at first on the inspectors and head muccadums, consisting chiefly of civilians, i.e., persons who may have been or were then attached to the Commissariat, Railway, and similar departments. Among the muleteers and muccadums, a few were collected who had belonged to the field column carriage under the Commissariat; the rest were the off-scouring of the Bombay streets, consisting of broken-down native tradesmen, discharged Europeans and Eurasians from other departments, and the class termed "loafers."

5. Prior to their embarkation, the first detachment that proceeded with the advanced brigade, strength as per margin,† were inspected by His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief, in Bombay, who expressed himself as under the gravest apprehension in regard to the stability of a transport founded upon such a nucleus, and on the 15th of October, 1867, a military organization was sanctioned approaching very nearly to the first scheme, as laid down by the director in his report dated 15th August, 1867.

6. On the 4th November, 1867, a second de-

* 1 Captain, 2 Subalterns, 4 Chief Inspectors, 8 Second ditto, 2 Weighing men, 16 Head Muccadums, 80 Second ditto, 1 Man to 2 Mules, 4 Beegaries.

† 1 Captain; Civilians: 4 Head Inspectors, 4 Second ditto, 20 Head Muccadums; 80 Second ditto, 351 Drivers, 54 Artificers, 392 Mules collected from Nuggar, Malligaum, Poona, and Calcutta; 18 Tattoos, Poona.

tachment of the Transport Train was despatched to Abyssinia, strength as per margin.*

7. The change in the organization of the corps by the Order of the 15th October, 1867, was as follows:—

Four head inspectors to be European non-commissioned officers of good character, and able to read, write, and keep accounts, and of some education.

Four, second inspectors (two European and two native non-commissioned officers); they were also required to be equally efficient.

Ten, third class (half European and half native), the latter to be able to keep accounts in the vernacular; and Twenty, fourth class (all native), to be drawn from native regiments.

8. On this, circulars were issued to officers commanding Her Majesty's British and Native Regiments of Artillery, Cavalry, and Infantry, to collect good intelligent men for this work, and the following numbers were received:—

European Regiments	160
Native Regiments	405

9. This supervision was found, however, by experience when the work actually commenced in Abyssinia, to be still inadequate, and His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief therefore increased the same by attaching 37 men from the 3rd Regiment N.I. in Abyssinia.

10. It may be added that the 14 divisions of the Transport Train now included the Lahore and Rawul Pindie Trains.

11. The proportion of men to animals, i.e., mules and camels, was fixed at one to three, but as it will be shewn hereafter, the difficulties were so great that it became self-evident such a proportion could not answer, and in the advance of the army on Magdala, every mule had one man, either a soldier or muleteer, to look after it.

* 2 Subalterns, 2 European Inspectors, 125 Drivers, 42 Artificers, 140 Draught Bullocks, 126 Carts.

12. The establishment of officers of one captain and two subalterns to a division of 2,000 animals was found to be equally inadequate, for it became necessary that an officer should accompany every convoy, also one at each post to superintend the passing and returning of convoys with regularity and order, to supervise the feeding and watering of the animals—the latter under the circumstances a most important duty, and as in most places the supply of water was such as to require the greatest care in distribution.

13. Again, at the larger stations, such as Koomaylee, Senafe, Antalo, &c., officers were placed in command, with staff officers to assist them.

14. As may be imagined, these appointments drew away a considerable number of officers from the original strength, and His Excellency therefore drafted in a large number of officers as subalterns to be attached to the several divisions, so that there might be a better supervision over the men and their animals, which is so necessary to the well being of a transport.

15. On the 5th December, 1867, a second in command and staff officer were appointed, and on the arrival of the head-quarters in Abyssinia, the director for the first time was allowed a paymaster and quartermaster.

16. The paymaster was a most important post, and has been well and ably filled by Lieutenant Clark, Madras Cavalry; but it would have been better had this appointment been sanctioned in the first instance, instead of throwing this duty upon captains of divisions, assisted by a subaltern, with one or two of their head inspectors to assist.

17. This arrangement, as soon as the working of the campaign really commenced, broke down altogether; for it was found that the out-door duties were such as to require the presence of every officer and non-commissioned officer day and night, and His Excellency then ordered that non-commissioned officers from each British regiment in the force should be detached as pay clerks to each division, but the full number, 14, could never be obtained.

18. As the army advanced, and the distance from the base of operations, where the headquarters of the director was established, became so great, 4 out of the 14 divisions comprising the Transport Train were formed into what was termed a Highland Train, in contradistinction to the remaining 10 divisions, which were called the Lowland Train; Captain Hand, 82nd Foot, being appointed to the command of the former, and his report upon train is herewith annexed.

19. In addition to the establishment of officers, inspectors and muleteers, artificers, as per margin,* were attached to each division of 2,000 animals.

20. The strength of the corps under the Command of the Director, finally reached the gigantic proportions shewn at the close of the campaign, viz:

80 Commissioned Officers.
160 European Inspectors.
400 Native Inspectors.
12,000 Followers.

21. The organization of the train was much

* 1 Head Smith, 8 Smiths, 1 Head Carpenter, 6 Carpenters, 1 Head Moochie, 10 Mochies, 8 Bellows Boys, 8 Hammermen.

affected by a change in the class of muleteers, for besides those sent from Bombay at the commencement, a very large number of muleteers, or believed to be such, were sent from Suez.

22. They consisted of every European nationality besides Turks and Egyptians, and the interpreters were very few in proportion, many among these were so open to bribery and corruption, that the correctness of their interpretation had had to be purchased by the men.

23. The wanton barbarous cruelty of these men to their animals, their unwillingness to work or to bear privations beside being insubordinate in the extreme, led to their being discharged, and during the months of January, February, and March, 2,100 were sent back.

24. They were replaced by some 5,000 men collected from the "Punjab," who answered admirably, and without which the train could not possibly have worked.

They had great endurance, were very willing and tractable, and once they knew what was required of them worked both cheerfully and well.

25. The organization of the Transport Train, with the changes that occurred in the same having been shown, the working of the Train next comes into consideration, which commenced with the arrival of Captain Griffith and Lieutenants Mortimer and Hennell, with the advance brigade. The officers were followed by Captain Young and Lieutenants Sturt and Onslow and Captain Waring followed with Lieutenant Caldecott and Cornet Lucas.

26. The Train was divided into divisions as follows :

- A. Mules.
- B. Pack Bullocks.
- C. Carts.

- D. Mules.
- E. Mules.
- F. Pack Bullocks.
- G. Mules.
- H. Camels.
- K. Ditto.
- L. Mules.
- M. Mules (Lahore).
- N. Mules (Rawul Pindee).
- O. Pack Bullocks.
- P. Camels,

And Captains Griffith and Yonge commenced the formation of "A" and "E" Divisions, and Captain Waring, "P" Division.

27. Difficulties and disasters met these officers at every step. Mules landed without equipments in hundreds, and with muleteers of the class already spoken of.

28. At that time these officers having no subordinates had to look to every thing themselves, and this with the scarcity of water and forage combined, led to a loss to the army at this critical period of an immense number of mules.

29. As regards the camels, these were procured by the contractors at Aden, and Mr. Houseman's language fails to describe the pitiable condition of these animals when landed. Some were too young for work, others with sore backs, and ulcers frightful to behold, others so young, averaging from six months to one year, were utterly useless, and the majority landed in such a weak, and debilitated condition, that they could barely carry 100lbs. The proportion also of drivers to animals was so small that before long hundreds of these useful beasts were lost to the army.

30. The Director was detained in Bombay for work connected with the Finance and equipment of the Train by the Commissary General; and left Bombay on the 19th December, 1867, arriving here on the 31st December, 1867, only 3 days before His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief.

31. Besides the above mentioned work at the Presidency, he was enabled to form two complete divisions of bullocks, before his departure, viz.: "B" and "F," which were detained for tonnage, and the last of the divisions did not arrive here till March, 1868.

32. A short time previous to the departure of the director, Captain Twentyman proceeded in command of the first detail of the military element, consisting of 26 European and 35 Native Inspectors whose arrival was most welcome to the officers, then organizing the "A," "E" and "P" Divisions, and Captain Twentyman himself commenced the formation of "D" Division. These two Divisions, "D" and "A" subsequently formed one-half of the Highland Brigade already alluded to.

33. The state of the Transport on the arrival of the Director was truly appalling, for what with the wretched state of the animals, insubordination of the Suez muleteers, and the enormous pressure put on the Train by the Commissariat and other departments, to meet the requirements of the army daily landing, success seemed hopeless, and but for the untiring energy and perseverance, and hard work day and night of the above mentioned officers, the Train must have been lost altogether.

34. However, day by day, a fresh and better class of animals were received, especially camels from Soakim and the interior. The Lahore, and Rawul Pindee Mule Trains arrived. Muleteers from the Punjab came to be exchanged for Egyptians, Turks, &c., and matters began to assume a more hopeful aspect, although much remained to be done to render the Train effective.

35. At Koomaylee a large depôt was established, which became the great point where stores and provisions were accumulated, and from thence passed on to the front. For some time it was the Head-Quarters of seven divisions. Its command fell upon Major Nuttall, second in command, and the selection was a happy one.

36. The duties required of him were constant out-door supervision from morning till after midnight, of the numerous Convoys that had to start, and to his untiring energy must be attributed the great success and utility of this depôt.

37. A similar post was established at Senafe, and the selection was again equally fortunate, and Captain Annesley worked so ably and successfully in the command of this important post that he received the highest encomiums from General Officers passing through.

38. The Sub-Officers placed at intermediate posts also did their duty well, and frequently called for the commendations of General Officers for the neatness and order of the several stations under their command.

39. Among the many and severe duties the officers had to perform Convoy duty was the hardest, and under which many who had so long borne the burden and heat of the day had at last to succumb.

40. It must be acknowledged that the losses have been very great, both of animals and stores, but under the then existing circumstances it was literally beyond human control, the long marches (one especially of 32 miles) when the water supply at Undul Wells was very limited, without any streams on the way-side at which men and animals could refresh themselves, they would arrive at night utterly prostrate with fatigue, and without any hope of rest until the animals had been unladen, watered and fed, and this in a narrow crowded pass where only a few animals could be watered together, which took up a considerable time.

41. After this the men had to cook their own food, and they could barely lay down for rest and sleep, ere they were again called to load and resume their march.

42. This work of loading was in itself a very severe task for one man to load three unbroken and in many cases vicious animals, with no one to assist, was an impossibility, and when two or three combined together, the mules that were laden would either break from their pickets, throw off their burdens or roll on the ground till they had released themselves.

43. Thus hours passed in simply loading and re-loading, and the sun was well up before the convoy commenced its march.

44. These convoys covered an immense length of space, often extending for two miles; and when animals laid down or dropped with fatigue, they had to be unladen, and the spare animals put into their places.

45. The percentage of spare animals was ten per cent., but when the pack bullocks came into use, they were so wild, so unbroken, and many of them in such wretched condition, that even twenty-five per cent. was not enough.

46. As soon as the road between Zoulla and Senafe had become passable for wheeled carriage, the train was strengthened by a supply of Bombay bullocks and Maltese mule carts.

47. But for this timely assistance, it would have been sorely straitened; as mule carriage in the lowlands began to fail, and the supply of camels, which had for awhile revived in quality and numbers, also began to diminish.

48. The first passage of carts up the Senafe Ghaut, consisting of a convoy of eighty carts, in sole charge of a native military inspector, was so successful, that every effort was made to increase this kind of carriage. Captain L. A. M. Graeme, 102nd Foot, was chosen, to raise and organize the cart division; and his efforts were crowned with the utmost success, which he richly merited, as he devoted all his energies and time to this one work, seeing to everything himself, and his conduct is beyond all praise.

49. It must be here mentioned, that as the supply of draught mules had ceased, and those in use beginning to fail from hard work, with the sanction of the Controller of Supply and Transport, Captain Graeme commenced converting mule carts with broken shafts into bullock carts with the ordinary Indian yoke.

50. This was a great success, as we were enabled to purchase a very fair supply of draught bullocks from the natives of the country, and thus had as many as 600 carts at a time available.

51. The Veterinary Department was a source of great anxiety; for, on leaving Bombay, the establishment was miserably small, and at no time has it been possible to increase it; but among the French and Italian muleteers there were collected some eight or ten men who had some knowledge of the first principles of veterinary practice.

52. This was the utmost help that could be rendered to the veterinary surgeons, many of whom were young men recently entered the army, but who nevertheless, by energy and goodwill, did good service.

53. These officers were under the immediate orders of First Class Veterinary Surgeon W. Lamb, whose services were indeed valuable, for his charge was something enormous, consisting of upwards of 30,000 animals, with only ten veterinary surgeons to assist him, who had frequently to perform extraordinary and unusual duties, having constantly to compound their own medicines, administer them, and attend individually to the washing and dressing of the animals in the sick lines, for want of subordinates to assist them.

54. The Director would beg especially to bring to the notice of his Excellency the services of the Veterinary Surgeons Lamb and Anderson.

55. This latter officer had also great professional skill and experience; and the skill with which he speedily established a most useful sick depôt at the Pioneer Wells, as also one at Koomaylee, each containing over 1,000 animals, deserves the highest praise.

56. As a general rule, the European and Military Native Inspectors answered my expectations; but, of course, among such a large number, amounting to—Europeans 160, Natives 440—it was to be expected that a certain proportion would fail; but it was found that when really good men came from regiments, it was entirely owing to the selections made by the commanding officers; for when care was taken to select good and efficient men for this special service, they invariably turned out well, and showed wonderful examples of endurance and persevering energy when in charge of convoys; for this class of men in the train were frequently twenty-four hours without food, and a murmur of complaint I never heard.

57. Cavalry men, of course, are best suited for this work, and the train is much indebted to the officers commanding the 3rd Dragoon Guards, 11th Hussars, and Royal Artillery, in Bombay, for the careful selection of men they made for the Transport Train.

58. The pleasing task now remains of bringing to the special notice of His Excellency the names of such officers more especially deserving of his kind consideration, and whose efforts came under the personal observation of the Director, who from first to last never failed,—

Major Nuttall, 2nd in command,
 Captain C. M. Griffith, Bombay Staff Corps,
 Captain W. L. Twentyman, 18th Hussars,
 Captain E. Boyle, 96th Foot,
 Captain L. A. M. Graeme, 102nd Foot,
 Captain H. Waring, 2nd Foot,
 Captain C. McInroy, Madras Staff Corps, who commanded the first divisions that were raised; and it is difficult to find language to express the extent and value of the assistance they afforded.

59. They were materially assisted by their subalterns,—

Lieutenant F. G. Mortimer, Royal Horse
 Artillery,
 Lieutenant J. B. Hennell, Bombay Staff
 Corps,
 Lieutenant T. T. Hodges, 76th Foot,
 Lieutenant W. S. Daniels, 105th Foot,
 Lieutenant H. W. Faulkner, 95th Foot,
 Lieutenant A. D. Strettell, 109th Foot,
 Lieutenant F. J. Caldecott, Royal Horse
 Artillery,
 Lieutenant D. du McGunton, 96th Foot,
 Lieutenant W. G. Gerard, Royal Artillery.
 Cornet C. A. De N. Lucas, 2nd Dragoons.

60. To these are added the names of officers who, although not among the first to join, yet by the ability, energy, and zeal they brought to bear on their work, at once placed themselves on the same footing,—

Captain T. Kelly,

Lieutenant C. S. Sturt, Bombay Infantry,

Lieutenant A. E. Pearse, 76th Foot,

Lieutenant S. M. Onslow, Madras Cavalry,

Lieutenant H. de P. Rennick, 21st Foot.

61. The Sub-Director has brought to the notice of his Excellency such officers as served immediately under him in the Highland Brigade; and as this officer was selected for this important post by His Excellency, and those whom he recommends as well as himself having worked under the immediate and constant supervision of His Excellency, it would be out of place for the Director to add anything in this report.

62. The Director would beg to bring forward the names of his personal Staff,—

Lieutenant Clark, Paymaster,

Lieutenant Carr, Quartermaster.

63. Lieutenant J. D. Clark, Madras Cavalry, although Paymaster to the Corps,—an office of great responsibility, considering the enormous number of men in the Train,—has, in addition to this duty, frequently in times of great pressure, been both disembarking and embarking Officer, Staff Officer, &c., &c.—in fact, has made himself generally useful. Lieutenant Clark, with the small establishment allowed him for the Pay Department, has had very many difficulties to contend with, but has nevertheless managed to keep a regular and concise account of all his disbursements, which often amount to very large sums.

64. The stores required for the Transport Train have been considerable, and the creditable and efficient manner in which Lieutenant N. E.

Carr, 10th Foot, has performed these duties under the most trying circumstances, has called forth unqualified approbation.

65. As His Excellency is aware, the difficulties of the Transport Train have been from the first to last of no ordinary kind, and but for the peculiarly fortunate selection of officers from the several Presidencies and armies, the torrent could never have been stemmed. The high, gentlemanly tone of the officers, their strong esprit de corps, the cheerful alacrity with which every order was obeyed, has been the brightest feature in the existence of the Train.

66. They were placed in isolated command, and away from the personal control of the Director, who, however, commenced by placing both entire confidence and the credit and honour of the Train in their hands, and most nobly has it been repaid.

67. With reference to the annexed report on the working of the Highland Brigade by Captain Hand, Sub-Director, the Director quite concurs with him as regards the equipments; but with respect to drill and discipline, he would go still further, especially in the former; the men should be well armed, and well drilled in the same, as they would in that case be able to protect their own convoys, and not draw on the strength of the army.

68. The Jemadars and non-commissioned officers should be all well mounted and armed, and the Director would introduce as nearly as possible the drill and discipline of an irregular corps.

69. Any one who has had any experience with the Abyssinian Force must see the necessity of keeping up the nucleus of a Transport Train; and where wheeled carriage forms a part of the same, nothing could be a better guide in its whole formation than that of the Train des Equipages of the French army, of which the Director can speak from personal observation in the Crimea.

ROBERT WARDEN, Lieutenant-Colonel,
Director, Transport Train.

Enclosure No. 2.

Report upon the "Highland Transport Service."

*Abyssinian Field Force,
Camp, Antalo, 13th May, 1868.*

The Highland Transport was separated from the General Transport raised in Bombay for service in Abyssinia, on the 14th February, 1868; but it may be said to have derived its origin from the two Punjaub Trains specially organized in October, 1867, for this campaign, to which it owes both its foundation and organization.

Organization.

It consists of four divisions of 2,000 mules each, which are subdivided into troops of 150, and the following is the scale of the establishment of each division:—

- 1 Captain.
- 3 Subalterns.
- 4 European Inspectors (selected from British regiments).
- 20 Jemadars, or Troop Serjeant-Majors.
- 80 Duffadars, or Serjeants.
- 667 Muleteers.
- 2 First Class Nalbunds, or Farriers.
- 10 Second Class Assistant Nalbunds, or Farriers.
- 1 Head Native Blacksmith.
- 10 Second Assistant Blacksmiths.

10 Bheesties, or "Water Carriers."

2 Ropemakers.

1 Salootrie, "Native Veterinary Surgeon."

1 Moonshie, or Native Writer.

At the commencement of the campaign, one man had charge of two mules only; and it is as much as he can look after properly.

Stable, watering and all other line duties at fixed hours are conducted with the same discipline, and in precisely the same routine as in the Bengal Irregular Cavalry regiments.

The muleteers are trained and drilled to their work, and kept in as strict a state of discipline as the circumstances of its being a newly raised corps will admit of.

The Jemadars keep in Persian the "nominal roll" of each man in their troop; also the pay account.

The "long roll" of every man is kept in Persian by the Moonshie; also the pay account, which is also kept in English by the Captain.

The officers commanding the Punjaub Trains have summary powers, and can sentence to two years' imprisonment, in addition to corporal punishment.

The whole is under the direction of a Sub-Director, who is one of the Head Quarter Staff, and reports direct to the Assistant Quartermaster-General, Army Head Quarters, assisted by a Staff Officer and Officer Inspector, the latter of whom constantly travels from one station to another, and reports direct upon all matters that may come under his observation.

The Train has worked regularly between Addigerat and Magdala,* principally in carrying baggage, ammunition, hospital stores, and commissariat supplies for the Force for one month.

* About 300 miles.

At intermediate large stations a Staff Officer has been permanently appointed to receive all reports from officers in charge of convoys, and he forwards the same to head-quarters. At these posts small reserves are kept, from which sick and weakly mules are replaced.

We have had in work mules purchased in Spain, Egypt, India, Persia, and Abyssinia.

Mules.

The Spanish mules are principally large and ill-bred, and, from my own observation, are naturally of a weak constitution, and unable to bear great changes in climate. They have suffered much from a want of sufficiency of food, especially of grass, of which they do not eat enough even when it is procurable, for that which is obtained is dry and coarse, and they don't relish it.

When once in low condition, it is almost impossible to bring them round even with rest and grazing. abundance of which they get at the sick depôts, the few well-bred Spanish mules we have had have answered well.

The Persian, Indian, and Egyptian mules on the contrary are very much more enduring, require less grain, will eat any description of grass, and thrive upon it.

During the operations before Magdala, when the animals had for some days to endure hard work upon little food and water, which latter was very bad, the large mules fell off in condition very rapidly, whereas the others showed comparatively little change. The difficulties of the road, crossing and recrossing the rivers Bashilo and Jidda, enervated as they were, was most trying, and many succumbed.

Return of Mules from 1st March.

The Abyssinian mules are not enduring; all those we purchased were then in good condition and fresh, still they have broken down in larger numbers than any others.

On the 1st of March there were 5,412 animals in the Highland Train, and of these 1,002 were sick. On the 1st April there were 6,661, and of these 1,002 sick.

On the 1st May, 7,690; and of these, 1,944 sick. Since the 1st March we have purchased in the country on the Highlands 2,720, and 1,740 have been transferred from the Lowlands.

Since the same date we have lost on the road 449, and 1,257 have been sent to the Lowland sick depôt at Koomaylee, and struck off our returns, and 309 were destroyed or died at Highland sick depôts.

2,418 were discharged from Hospital and sent to work.

The mules had scarcely a fair start, for they were generally put to work the day after disembarkation, after some weeks between decks in a tropical climate.

Causes of Sick.

I have at all times consulted with Staff Veterinary Surgeon Hallen as to the causes and remedies for the large number of sick, and I consider the chief causes to be:—"Hard work at great altitudes."

"Constant exposure, with want of rest."

"Insufficiency of food and bad quality of grass."

"Irregularity in feeding."

"Galls, owing to bad saddles; want of time and means for repairing the same."

"Carelessness in saddling and loading."

Men.

The drivers of the train were entertained as syces or muledrivers, in the position of public followers from the Punjaub for the divisions raised in that district, and men from the same part of India were subsequently substituted for the Egyptians and Turks in the other two divisions, as the latter were found to be lazy, apathetic, and totally unmanageable. The jemadars and duffadars were selected from the drivers. To get men qualified for these posts has been a source of some difficulty; for, with the exception of the Punjaub Trains, the men were sent to the country quite untrained.

It is impossible to overrate the necessity of thoroughly training the men to a rigid system in the care of the animals, on the line of march as well as in the lines previous to their being sent on service.

A marked difference is apparent in the working of the men who were sent here without the advantage of any such training, and of those who had marched with their mules from Rawul Pindee to Kurrachee, a distance of nearly 1,000 miles.

The men evince an impression that they are looked down upon by their enlisted friends and relatives, consequently they take no interest in, and do not like their work.

It is therefore most desirable that the corps should be so constituted as to induce men to seek service in it, so that an "esprit de corps" will naturally become inoculated, and this can never be the case as long as the men are looked upon as mere followers, and in no way superior to the cavalry syce or grass-cutter.

To render it popular as well as efficient, I am of opinion that the men should be enlisted as mule drivers ; they ought not to be overdrilled, and should not take any military duty except in connection with their own branch—such as guards to convoys, and in their own line.

I should like to see them lightly equipped, dressed in a loose blouse and knickerbockers of a khakee colour, with bandages, as worn by the Himalayan mountaineers, in place of gaiters, and each man furnished with a small kit-bag capable of containing one suit of clothes. The blanket and great coat should be carried by the man, and each mule his own cleaning things and picketing gear.

I would arm each man with a pistol and kookery (Nepaulese knife), which is a formidable weapon, and can, if required, be used for cutting wood or grass without injury. The Ghoorkas use it for various rough purposes, and it continues serviceable.

There should be ten spare men per troop, who, as well as the jemadars and duffadars, and artificers, might, in lieu of the pistol, be armed with a carbine, and they should be ample to render the corps independent of the regular army for escorts on convoys, or men cutting grass in an enemy's country.

This protection in the corps was much needed in this campaign, in parts of the country were armed and predatory bands were constantly on the look out for unprotected parties, such as grass-cutters, &c. It is true that all the men with this train were armed, but they turned their swords to so many purposes that they have become almost useless.

Should it ever be contemplated to raise a permanent Transport Corps in India, it is to be hoped that the system and interior economy may be entirely under military organization, and that it, as with the Highland Train in this campaign, may work under one Department, viz., the Quartermaster-General's.

Report on Pack Saddles.

Otago weight 43 lbs. This saddle is decidedly the best adapted for general purposes, owing to the facility in loading it, and its general excellent manufacture. It seldom requires repair, except re-stuffing, which is easily and quickly done.

It is, however, apt to gall on the shoulder and hip, unless very carefully fitted. The leather of the pad should not project beyond the stuffing.

It is not suited to small mules, such as those obtained in the Punjaub and Persia; and even if sizes sufficiently small for them were built, I doubt much if the tree would present sufficient surface to carry an ordinary load.

The Punjaub pad weighs 33 lbs., and is the best saddle for small mules. If carefully put on and girthed, it never galls.

All suleetah (loose canvass bags) saddles of which this is one, are bad in hilly countries, owing to the difficulty in fastening the loads to the saddle, to prevent its slipping during ascent or descent. This difficulty, however, can be overcome; and Captain Bambridge, Commanding Rawul Pindee Train, is now trying a plan he has adopted, of a rope let into the pad, which can be used for boxes in a manner similar to the loading-strap of the Otago, or to fasten the "suleeta" and load to the pad.

The Kumaon pad, used in 5-25 Royal Artillery, weighs 36 lbs., and is similar to the Punjaub pad.

The Bombay pad weighs 40 lbs., and rarely galls, but it is badly made, unwieldy, and constantly requires repairs.

The Bombay Arsenal pad weighs 26 lbs. We have had more mules galled by this pad than by any other.

The McMahan weighs 66 lbs. This includes a waterproof sheet. It has not yet had a fair trial, but its excessive weight is a great objection to it.

Foreign Office, August 5, 1868.

(General.)

THE Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs has received, from the Acting British Consul-General at Havana, the following translation of the new Regulations to be observed by Masters of vessels trading with the Island of Cuba:—

RULES to be observed by the Masters or Supercargoes of Spanish and all other Vessels trading with the Island of Cuba.

1. All masters or supercargoes of vessels from foreign ports, engaged in the import trade of Cuba, are required, on being visited by the Health boat, on their arrival, to deliver up a statement of the cargo, certified by the Spanish Consul, and also a general manifest of said cargo, without any alteration.

These documents must express the name of the master and that of the vessel, her nationality, her Spanish tonnage, the port she comes from, the number of bales, packages, and every other article composing the cargo, with their respective marks, numbers, and description, according to bill of lading, their weight in kilograms, even though they are intended to be bonded or are in transit; bearing in mind that any addition or alteration in the manifest or statement of the cargo, or any entry to order, is absolutely prohibited; and that, should there be any difference between the statement of the cargo and the manifest, such difference will be visited by fine, according to the Regulations. If the whole or part of the cargo is composed of rod or sheet iron, metal plates, timber, jerked beef, salt, cocoa, or any article shipped in bulk, they must be manifested by decimal weight or measurement; adding, at the end of said manifest, a list of the ship's stores, ammunition, and armament, the coals, if the vessel be a steamer, and the unmanifested merchandize which the crew may carry to the value of one hundred dollars each. When the cargo comes from a port where there is no Consul or Vice-Consul, and if the residence of those agents is more than thirty miles from the place of sailing, the master or supercargo will be exempted from presenting said Consular manifest; but, to enjoy this exemption, all the cargo must be of one kind, and must be composed of either of the following articles; viz, raw hides, timber, shooks, dye woods, coal, or horns; and provided that these articles are the production of the country from whence the vessel sailed, that the voyage has been direct, and that the duties will be paid in bulk.

2. The masters or supercargoes of vessels arriving in distress must also deliver a manifest of their cargo, in the same manner as those engaged in the import trade.

3. Masters or supercargoes of vessels arriving in ballast, are subject to the same rules and obligation of delivering a Spanish Consular manifest and an uncertified one.

4. When the master of a vessel has been obliged by stress of weather, or any unforeseen cause, to throw any portion of the cargo overboard, he must state on his manifest the quantity of the cargo lost, specifying the number of packages, the class and kinds of goods ; being also obliged to produce his log-book at the Custom-house, to prove the truth of his declaration.

5. All masters of vessels coming from Spanish Ports with the clearance of the respective Custom-house, are only obliged to deliver an additional manifest of such goods as they may have taken on board after receiving said clearance, not included in the same, and also of all the ship's stores and armament.

6. Should the master or the supercargo not present the statement certified by the Spanish Consul or the manifest of being in ballast within the fixed time, they will incur a fine of 200 dollars ; if said manifest is not in accordance with Rule No. 1 they will incur a fine of 25 dollars, and one of a hundred dollars if not certified by the Spanish Consul.

7. If the master, when requested by the head Custom-house official, does not immediately present the statement of the cargo or the manifest ; or should these documents not be properly made out, he shall be subject to a fine of 500 dollars, unless the vessel has put in in distress.

8. In the event of there being any erasures or alterations in the said documents, the masters or supercargoes will be liable for the charge of forgery, whether the vessel is in ballast or whether she has cargo on board.

9. The exhibition of the statement of the cargo and of the manifest is obligatory in all the ports, creeks, or anchorages of the island, the vessel may enter, even should she be in distress, in which case the Custom-house officials will take a copy and return the original to the master, that he may present it at the port where his voyage ends.

10. All packages omitted in the statement of the cargo or in the manifest will be confiscated, and the master will be fined double their value, should the amount of duties to be paid on the contents not exceed 400 dollars, but should the duties exceed this sum, and the goods be the property of the owner, consignee, master, or supercargo of the vessel, then, instead of the fine, the vessel together with her freight and appurtenances will be confiscated.

11. If after the vessel's final discharge, one or more of the manifested packages should be found wanting, no invoice of the contents having been previously presented, it will be inferred that the master or the supercargo has defrauded the Revenue, and they will be fined 200 dollars for each missing package.

12. When the owner, or consignee of goods not manifested by the master, produces, within forty-eight hours, the note or invoice of the said goods, he will not incur any penalty, and the goods will be delivered to him ; but the master or the supercargo will pay a fine equal to the value of the goods so omitted in the manifest.

13. Nothing whatever can be discharged without the permission of the collector and the inspection of the chief of the Coast Guard. For the mere landing of any articles, no matter its value, or whether it is free of duty, the master or the supercargo will be fined 1,000 dollars, and the goods will be confiscated, together with the boat or lighter which conveys them ; should the amount of the duties to be assessed not exceed the sum of 200 dollars, but if they should exceed this sum, the vessel will be seized in lieu of the fine.

14. No goods whatever, be the quantity large or small, can be transferred from one vessel to the other in the harbour, without the necessary requisites of the Custom-house having been complied with ; a violation of this rule subjects the masters or the supercargoes to the legal penalty (1,000 dollars).

15. Should a vessel discharge merchandize, be the quantity large or small, in a port not open to general commerce, said merchandize, as well as the vessel and all her appurtenances, will be confiscated.

16. If in the Custom-house visit, previous to clearance, an excess of cargo should be detected, the goods will be seized, and the master will be fined a sum equal to the value of the excess.

17. All goods, produce, or any other article seized in the act of being fraudulently shipped, shall likewise incur a similar penalty.

18. If the master or supercargo should be unable to pay the fines and costs imposed, the vessel will be held responsible and seized, unless the consignee voluntarily assumes the payment.

19. The master who does not declare the exact Spanish tonnage of his vessel, will pay the cost of measuring her, if the excess is ten per cent. over the tonnage given.

20. Passengers luggage must be presented for inspection at the Custom-house dépôt; and if there should be found merchandize in it not exceeding 100 dollars in value, the passenger will pay the usual duties, presenting a note of the contents at the Custom-house; should the value of these goods be more than 100 dollars, and less than 200 dollars, they will pay double duty; but if the value is greater, the merchandize will be liable to seizure; unless in either case the party interested has previously presented a list of said merchandize; in which case it will pay duty according to the Tariff.

21. No manifest will be translated, nor permits granted for discharging, unless the master or the consignee has previously presented the ship's register at the Custom-house.

Board of Trade, Whitehall,
September 3, 1868.

THE Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade have received, from the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of a Note which has been received from the Greek Government by Her Majesty's Minister at Athens, on the subject of the Greek Quarantine Regulations.

This Note states that, by virtue of the Royal Decree of the 25:h August (o. s.), 1867, steam-boats and merchant vessels, whatever their nationality or port of departure may be, are not required to be provided with a bill of health visé by a Greek Consul (or in default of such an officer, by the Consul of some other Power), unless cholera or any other infectious disease is prevalent on the coast of the Mediterranean. If, however, cholera does exist in any part of the Mediterranean, and there is no Greek or any foreign Consul at the port of departure, on the arrival of a vessel from such place the Greek authorities will ascertain the sanitary condition of the port of departure, and take such steps with regard to quarantine as seem to them best calculated to promote the public health. In such a case the certificate of a Merchant, Greek or foreign, at the port of departure would influence the quarantine authorities in their decision, but could not be binding upon them.

In accordance with this Decree a Commission of three Engineers is to be at once appointed to proceed to and measure the guano deposits in the Islands of Guanape, Macavi, and of the North, in order to ascertain the amount of tons each deposit is likely to contain, and to make at various points of each deposit the necessary soundings, in order to learn the different strata and the respective qualities of the guano in each of the above-mentioned Islands.

It has been further resolved by the Peruvian Government that the guano consignees should increase the charge per ton ten shillings, this increase to be made effective this autumn.

port. The following is a translation of the Articles of that Decree :—

DECREE.

ARTICLE I. When contracts between parties shall not have provided for them, the conditions for charging and discharging merchant vessels in the port of Algiers are fixed as follows :—

DISCHARGING.

Sec. 1. The discharge of cargo from ships, whatever their port of departure or tonnage, is to be undertaken at the expense and under the superintendence of the master ; the delivery of the goods taking place on the quay.

Sec. 2. The amount of merchandise to be disembarked per working day has been fixed as follows :—

Cereals.

Ships of less than 60 tons, 150 sacks, of 1 hectolitre.

Ships of from 60 to 100 tons, 200 sacks, of 1 hectolitre.

Ships of from 101 to 300 tons, 400 sacks, of 1 hectolitre.

Ships of more than 300 tons, 600 sacks, of 1 hectolitre.

Timber.

Uncleft timber or oak, 30 cubic mètres.

Other kinds, 40 cubic mètres.

Wines and Spirits.

In casks, 200 hectolitres.

Other Merchandise.

25 tons, of 1000 kilog., or of 1 m. 44 each.

STIPULATED TIME FOR DISCHARGE OF CARGO.

Sec. 3. The time stipulated for the discharge of cargo, on arrival, will commence from the day after that on which the masters of vessels shall apprise the consignees, by means of their broker, that they are ready to discharge it.

If the bill of lading is to order, the consignee must be informed by means of a notice inserted in the papers appointed for the publication of legal announcements; the time stipulated for the discharge of cargo to commence, in this case, from the day after the publication.

Sec. 4. Days during which the discharge of cargo cannot be carried on in consequence of bad weather, duly verified, are not to be comprised in the stipulated time. This verification will be made, at the request of the parties interested, by the Director of the Port.

DEMURRAGE.

Sec. 5. The demurrage, or days of delay in the shipping or discharge of the cargo caused by the act of one of the parties, to be compensated for, in favour of the other party, by a payment of 0 fr. 50 cent. per day and per ton burthen of the ship employed. This payment will commence from the day after that on which the simple stipulated time, as determined by paragraph two of the present regulations, shall have expired.

Sec. 6. If the demurrage is prolonged beyond a period equal in duration to the original stipulated time, the rate of compensation will be increased from 50 cent. to 75 cent. for all the prolonged time.

Sec. 7. The indemnities provided above are payable daily and in advance.

Sec. 8. The delay cannot give rise to an action for damages on either side, unless demanded in due form of law.

SHIPPING CARGO.

Sec. 9. Embarcations are subject to all the regulations above enumerated. The merchandize to be shipped must be handed over to the master of the vessel upon the edge of the quay.

ARTICLE II. The conditions contained in these regulations will come into force, as "usages" adopted for the use of the Port of Algiers, on and after the 1st October next.

All local decrees and regulations concerning the police of the port and the quays, embarcation and disembarcation, are hereby annulled in all points in which they differ from the rules above-mentioned.

ARTICLE III. This Decree, inserted in the "Official Bulletin of Government Acts" and in the "Moniteur de l'Algérie," will be communicated by the Préfet of the Department to the Chamber and the Tribunal of Commerce of Algiers. It will in addition to this be addressed to all the Chambers of Commerce at the ports of the French Empire, and to the representatives of the European Maritime Powers at Algiers.

(General, No. 27.)

THE Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs has received from the Acting British Consul-General at Havana the following circular, giving notice that all persons arriving at that Port must be provided with passports visé by a Spanish Consul :—

The Captain-General to Acting Consul-General
Crawford.

(Translation.)

THE abuse which is being constantly committed by masters of steamers and sailing-vessels arriving at the Ports of this Island, of admitting passengers without passports, or without these documents being visé by the Spanish Consul at the places from whence they embark, thereby openly contravening the laws of this Island, which every one should respect, has obliged me to issue orders this day requiring all shipmasters to retain on board of their vessels, for reconveyance away from this Island, all persons who may be found so circumstanced, excepting those persons whose admission may be deemed allowable after previous guarantee of their respective Consuls, or a certificate of responsibility from two persons of respectability at the place where they arrive.

*Board of Trade, Whitehall,
November 5, 1868.*

THE Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade have received, from the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, from Her Majesty's Minister at Madrid, a translation of a Spanish Decree, under date of October 30, 1868, which declares that "as it appears from official communications that cholera has disappeared from the Empire of Morocco, and that clean bills of health are given to ships on leaving the ports of the same, vessels coming from thence are declared clean, nevertheless those that may have happened to have had any case of suspicious disease on board during the voyage, must be sent to a foul lazaret, or subjected to the proper observation according to the cases which may have occurred ; the same precautions will be taken with those ships the sanitary state of which may excite suspicion."

*Board of Trade, Whitehall,
November 5, 1868.*

THE Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade have received from the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of a despatch from Her Majesty's Minister in Japan, forwarding a notification he has issued in regard to the postponement of the opening of the port of Niigata :—

NOTIFICATION.

WITH reference to the notification issued by the undersigned on March 28th, and that issued by Her Majesty's Consul on June 25th last, relating to Niigata, the undersigned has now to inform British subjects that the Japanese Government have protested against foreigners or foreign merchant vessels resorting to that port, before it has been opened to foreign trade, and have declared that in the present state of war which prevails in that neighbourhood they cannot be responsible for the security of any foreigner who may proceed there.

The undersigned accordingly notifies this information to all subjects of Her Britannic Majesty, and hereby warns them that as Niigata has not yet been opened to foreign trade, any British subject proceeding to that port does so at his own risk, and cannot claim while thus engaged the protection of Her Majesty's Government.

DECLARATION relative to the duty to be levied in France on refined sugar imported from Great Britain, Belgium, and Holland.

Signed at Paris, November 4, 1868.

(Translation.)

Declaration.

THE Governments of Great Britain, of Belgium, of France, and of the Netherlands, having delegated Commissioners to find out the means of removing the difficulties which have arisen from the application of the second paragraph of Article XIII of the Convention of the 8th of November, 1864, relating to the sugar system; and those Commissioners having recognized, in Conferences held at the Hague, the impossibility, for France, of establishing an absolutely exact relation between the bases of the tax and the duty applicable to refined sugars, so long as there does not exist in that country a precise correlation between the duties to be levied on raw sugars and the yields fixed by the Declaration of the 20th of November, 1866: the undersigned, duly authorized to that effect, after having taken cognizance of the final Protocol of the Conferences above mentioned, dated the 21st of August of the present year, have agreed upon the following arrangements:—

Article 1. Until the 31st of December, 1869, the duty on the importation into France of refined sugars coming from the other Contracting States is fixed at forty-eight francs eighty-five centimes (48 francs 85 centimes), an amount in relation with the average duty on raw sugars and a yield of 88 per cent.

Art. 2. The present arrangement, concluded provisionally, shall come into execution in eight days from the date of its promulgation.

In witness whereof the undersigned have drawn up the present declaration, and have affixed to it the seal of their arms.

Board of Trade, Whitehall,
November 12, 1868.

THE Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade have received, from the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of a Despatch from Her Majesty's Minister at Hamburgh, reporting that a Zollverein Custom House has been established in that city.

At this new Custom House, all goods as well as passengers' luggage destined for the States of the Zollverein may be entered for import duties and cleared, or may be passed free if not subject to duties; and all goods destined for exportation may be entered outwards, and pay the export duties when due.

The officers of the Custom House are likewise authorised to make special arrangements for the visitation and clearance of all goods and effects passing by the ports and railways, and to grant all requisite certificates and documents.

Several villages and places to the north as well as the south of Hamburg, and likewise the Bailiwick of Ritzebuttel at the mouth of the Elbe have, since the 1st November, been annexed to the Zollverein.

The city and port of Hamburg, however, with its suburbs of St. George and St. Paul (as well as the outer harbour of Cuxhaven), still remains a free port, so that neither the Zollverein Custom House nor the extension of the Customs' Frontier imposes any restriction upon the freedom which foreign commerce has hitherto enjoyed in that city, or upon the liberty of warehousing and of forwarding goods in transit.

Art. 2. In order to carry out the provisions of the previous Article, the project of each work shall be accompanied by a list of all the materials to be imported for the same from abroad.

At about 10·30 P.M. on the night of the 1st June, 1868, while Her Majesty's ship "Myrmidon" was lying in Banana Creek, River Congo, Western Africa, William Torrance, Able Seaman, fell overboard.

Mr. DE SAUSMAREZ was Officer of the Watch, and although a strong current was running at the time, and the river infested with sharks, he immediately jumped overboard, secured Torrance (who could not swim), swam with him to the pier, and supported him there until assistance came.

*Board of Trade, Whitehall,
November 26, 1868.*

THE Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade have received, through the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, from Her Majesty's Ambassador at Paris, an extract from the Moniteur, containing an Imperial Decree, dated 7th November, 1868, relative to the drawbacks on the importation into France of refined sugar, and of which the following are the articles :—

ART. 1.

A declaration relative to the application of Art. 13 of the Convention of the 8th November, 1864, to the system of sugar duties in France, having been signed at Paris on the 4th November, 1868, between France, Belgium, Great Britain, and Holland; the said Declaration, the tenor of which is as follows, has been approved, and shall be inserted in the Bulletin des Lois :—

DECLARATION.

The Government of France, Belgium, Great Britain, and Holland, having appointed Commissioners to find means of removing the difficulties which the application of the 2nd paragraph of Art. 13 of the Convention of the 8th November, 1864, to the present system of sugar duties has given rise to, and these Commissioners having recognised, in a conference held at the Hague, the impossibility on the part of France of establishing an absolutely exact proportion between the bases of the tax and the duty applicable to refined sugars, as long as there does not exist in that country a precise correlation between the duties levied upon raw sugar and the yields (rendement) fixed by the Declaration of the 20th November, 1866, the undersigned duly authorized to that effect, after having taken cognizance of the final protocol of the above-mentioned conference, on the 21st August of the present year, have agreed to the following regulations :—

ART. 1. Until the 31st December, 1869, the import duty in France upon refined sugar coming from the other contracting States has been fixed at forty-eight francs eighty-five centimes (48 fr. 85 cent.), a rate in proportion with the mean duty upon raw sugars and a yield (rendement) of 88 per cent.

ART. 2. The present arrangement, which has been concluded provisionally, shall come into execution one week after its promulgation.

In faith of which the undersigned have drawn up the present Declaration, and have affixed their seals thereunto.

Done at Paris, the 4th November, 1868.

The following are the Articles of this Decree:—

ART. 1. The term granted to commerce by some of the revolutionary Juntas for the introduction of goods through the Custom-houses, with the reduction of some part of the tariff dues. or the entire abrogation thereof, shall be considered as ended on the 16th of October last, which was the day fixed by the Juntas themselves.

ART. 3. In places where a reduction shall have been made, with reference to all or some articles, greater than one third part of the dues, merchants, who may have imported the said articles even although they may have done so within the specified term, shall repay to the revenue the difference between the exceptional reductions and the reduction of one third, which shall be considered as general.

ART. 4 If in any part of Spain no reduction has been granted even previously to the 16th of October, merchants who may have imported goods before that date, paying the entire dues, shall be allowed discount on future payments of the third part which they paid extra.
