CATALOGUE.

THE REMNANT OF A COLLECTION FORMED PRIOR TO 1815.

MEDALS.

- 275 I 1717-27 GEORGE · KING · OF · GREAT · BRITAIN. Bust of the King in armor, draped and laur., r.; beneath the shoulder T C. R̄ An Indian in loose tunic to knees, girdled at waist, drawing bow upon a deer standing at l. on hillside, before a tree, bush between Indian and tree, sun above. Die-projecting loop removed. Extremely fine and sharp. Brass, (dark), or same metal as the Rosa Americana Series. 41. I

This very interesting piece has the advantage over the two others which have been described to the public, in that its condition is so perfect as to admit of accurate and minute details of type, and especially to establish the engraver's initials. Betts, under his No. 165, cites the piece in the New York Historical Society and gives the initials as I · C.; thus the editors erroneously ascribed the work to John Croker. Another specimen (and in bad preservation) appeared in a sale in 1896. No other example from these dies is known to me. It was unknown to Tancred, and "Medallic Illustrations" has no reference to it. The medal was presented to Indians at the conference with the Six Nations in 1717.
