Subject: Case of Intentional Damage Inflicted on Property which Was to be Taken Over.

To : Messrs, CCAR
 From : A Patriotic Citizen

On the above caption, I shall make a report of what I know. Personally I have no hands in this affair.
 As a <sup>righteous</sup> Japanese I could not bear to see this thing go on. Consequently I am forwarding the following items for your information and action.

Items

In reference to the MacArthur's instructions on dissolution and the take over of the properties of the former Korean League, the gray colored classy passenger vehicle (HIROno. 1307, 1941 make, Chrysler, Kotoku-Shu of 6 chome, Otomachi, Hiroshima ordered Nishimoto (Korean, who has been continuously employed as a driver for 7 years) of no. 251 Ryojo-cho, Kure-shi, Oyo Towa Kamigaki to damage the vehicle.

On or about 16 July with Ono (Korean) of the Hiroshima Taxi conspired with Nishimoto, contemplating to damage and embezzle the above vehicle.

These Koreans are North Korean Communists and I think they might have some connections with persons either in Shanghai or Hongkong.

Furthermore, Kotokushu may have friendly relations with the Hiroshima Police Force. I am looking forward that the Military Government would make immediate investigations and settle this matter.
I have heard from a friend that the driver, Nishimoto had supposedly collided with the vehicle, given a great damage. With all this accident, without reprimanding Nishimoto, Kotokushu demanded indemnity from the Hiroshima Taxi Company.

Here after Kotokushu had been meeting President Ono of the Hiroshima Taxis for consultations.

of the accident's whereabouts is known by the driver, Nishimoto.

After the above condition had been carefully scrutinized, I believed the whole thing was done on purpose for abeyement.

If it is delayed, the evidence shall be destroyed, consequently immediate investigations and necessary actions be taken by your headquarters.

We humbly ask your permission to narrate the following:-

Within our Takamori-cho, the Chairman of the town assembly, Mr. Kazumi Moriyama has been piling up non-payment taxes.
Last month when pressed for payment of taxes by a tax official of Iwakuni Tax Office, he issued an accommodation bill. Furthermore for the town taxes, to Murao, Town office officials, he had handed a draft and on the very same day, he had taken it back. Henceforth (being 11 July today) there isn't any indication of Moriyama returning the same.

Furthermore by employing flattery for his selfish motive, he enticed Misako Kijoshige, age 18 of Ichiichi Nakayama, Takamori-cho, to the store of Masayoshi Kijohara, in front of station, Bofu-cho, bringing back powder of bosses' into Takamoricho. Nothing has been done to a man of his calibre. We desire your Civil Affairs reprimand these officials of Takamori-cho. (turnover)
