Present Situation of Miyagi Child Welfare Center

1. History

A year and eight months have passed since its opening in April 1948.

2. Location and Building

Lies a little way to the north from the center of Sendai City, though near bus and tram stops. There are Miyagi Prefectural Office, Sendai Municipal Office, Society of Social Work, head offices of social services and Sendai Central Bureau of Health, within six or seven minutes' walk. The site covers 350 tsubo, while two storied building does 260 tsubo, in ⌐¬ shape. The site is too narrow for the building, because of which rooms are not sunny and airy. And also, being rebuilt, it is not well-arranged.

I. Method of Investigating problem-children

1. Preparatory investigation (Environment test)

If it was a grave one, parents, class teachers, ~~children leaders~~ Jido-iin, and child welfare officials are asked to come to the station, while if not so, parents only are asked; we ask them in detail about family members, history of the family, inheritances, process of growth, illness, behavior at home and school, social environment and so on.

2. Investigation

DECLASSIFIED E. O. 12065 SECTION 3-402 / NNDG NO. 775013

i) Bodily investigation

Condition of growth and nourishment.

Existence of any symptom of illness, deformity and degeneration.

ii) Mental investigation

Intelligence test.....Tanaka-B test, national grorys intelligence test, Suzuki-Binct test

Personality test

Classification of types by observation.....

Miyake personality test

Uchida-Kraepclin mental work test, perseveration tendency test

iii) Mental-medical, psychoanalytical investigation

Diagnosis of psychosis, neurosis and psychopathy

We trace the origin of childrens' difficulties in emotion and behavior to their mental life in infancy.

iv) Putting together all the investigations

Putting together all the above, we make childrens' mental constructions clear, thus finding how to guide them.

3. Conference

Parents, class teachers, Jido-iins, Specialists, Child welfare officers, meet together to argue

about the result of investigations on childrens mental constructions, which are made clearer by data given by parents or teachers. Thus the most suitable way of guiding children is chosen and if children ought to be guided at home or sent to institutions is decided in this meeting. If necessary, we often hold this kind of meeting. I believe it has several strong points.

II. Guidance

1. In case of putting children at home

Following decided ways, parents guide them at home, and teachers at school.

Continually consulting with specialists concerning the results of observation and parents' and teachers' informations, case workers find suitable ways of guiding children. Sometimes we let children, visit the station everyday to solve complexes and so on. Parents, too, are guided by case workers.

This case work is not sufficient at present in spite of its importance, the reasons of which are as follows :

1. These are few case workers.
2. Case workers are not on the staff of the station.

We are anxious for case workers being increased in number and being on the staff of the station.

DECLASSIFIED E. O. 12065 SECTION 3-402 / NNDG NO. 775013

2. In case of putting children in Temporary protection home whether children are put at home or sent to institutions, they must be investigated not only if they are normal or abnormal, how much intelligence quotient are, what types they belong, but also how their personalities have been formed.

Temporary protection home is very convenient to observe children's personalities.

i) Children's leaders have charge of several children.
Children's leaders must observe the children in their charge especially closely so as to find in what mental complexes exist and how those complexes are connected with children's daily behavior and emotion, thus solving the complexes.

ii) After informing the head of the station, children's leaders should take orders from the head.

iii) Specialists also should frequently observe children.

iv) Specialists and children's leaders should meet together that they may argue about an individual child.

We ought to introduce home and foreign papers to one another.

v) In Temporary protection home medical treatment is also given.

DECLASSIFIED E. O. 12065 SECTION 3-402 / NNDG NO. 775013

Psychotherapy is very often given to children, as it seems to be most effective.

Medical treatment Electric shock method as a special treatment.

We are making efforts to shorten the term of housing children in temporary protection homes.

3. In case of putting children in institutions (usually, Reforomatory home Home for feeble minded children, Home for dependent, neglected and abused children)

Since abnormal and sub-abnormal children are sent there, what in first to be done is not an educational disciplin, but to give medical and psychological treatments, for which experts of the station must be consulted with.

Institutions are, however, a good way off the station, so we wish we have some motor-cars.

B) Putting babies and infants in others' charge.

1. Outline

infants total number 89 monthly mean 4

2. Reasons of putting babies and infants in other' hands.

Parents' being vagabonds 11

Parents' divorce or illegitimate birth 79

Street-girls' children 16

3. Number of parents putting babies and infants in others' hands.

Babies 46 Infants 48

When we are asked by parents to put their babies and infants in others' charge, we must survey parents' actual conditions and take good care in treatment and guidance.

It's almost impossible for us to deal with this besides mental hygiens.

C) Problems of foster-children

1. Foster-parents

i) Offers to be foster-parents 283

ii) In welfare conference

Number of the adopted 178

Number of the rejected 47

ii) Classification by their age

6 ~ 10	18	16 ~ 19	8

iii) Parents' existence

Both living	12
Either of father or mother living	41
Step-parents, step-father or step-mother	7
Orphan	25

We have been making efforts to get many good foster-parents.

We also have been guiding foster-parents in groups or individually, which is not done sufficiently on account of the small number of the staff and too much expense for the station.

D) Consultation circuit

With great effort, we conduct consultation circuit at communities four times a month on an average. This is beliaved most effective.
