1882, No. 5.—Local.

Title.	AN ACT to amend the Auckland Improvement Acts. [13th September, 1882.]
	BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—
Short Title.	1. The Short Title of this Act is “The Auckland Improvement Acts Amendment Act, 1882.”
Part of section 5, Act 1873, repealed.	2. Part of section five of “The Auckland Improvement Act, 1873,” is hereby repealed, that is to say, the words following:— “Instead of the militia store reserved by the Act of 1872, the Commissioners shall provide and fit up for the purposes of a militia store that stone building situate in the Albert Barracks, and known as the Hospital, such building and fittings to be satisfactory to the Governor, and such military store so reserved as aforesaid, together with the soil thereof, shall become vested in the Governor.”
Land and buildings vested in Corporation.	3. The land and buildings referred to in the foregoing section are hereby vested in the Mayor, Councillors, and Citizens of the City of Auckland, on the same terms and conditions as the lands and property transferred to them by “The Auckland Improvement Commissioners’ Transfer of Powers Act, 1879.” Provided that Her Majesty, her heirs and successors, shall have the use and occupation of the said land and building until a militia store shall be erected on the land next hereinbefore mentioned, in accordance with plans already or hereafter to be approved by the Native Minister.
Land vested in Her Majesty.	4. The allotments or parcels of land described in the First Schedule to this Act are hereby vested absolutely in Her Majesty, her heirs and successors.
Use of drill-shed.	5. The use and occupation of the building known as the Volunteer Drill-shed, standing on the land described in the Second Schedule to this Act, is hereby granted to and vested in Her Majesty so long as the same shall be required for military, militia, or volunteer purposes.
Use of land.	6. The use and occupation of the land described in the Second Schedule to this Act is hereby granted to and vested in the School Commissioners of the Auckland Provincial District so long as the same is required for a playground for the children attending a public school situate in Wellesley Street, in the City of Auckland.
