Module 2: Your path to organizing

Things to think about:

What were some catalyst moments in your journey?
What made you feel motivated and kept you engaged?
What challenges did you encounter throughout your journey?
How did you overcome these challenges?

| Wikimedia Awareness | Wikimedia Literacy | Editing | Community Awareness. | Community Involvement | First organizing experience | Committed organizing | Organizing dormancy |
|---|--|---|---|--|---|---|---|
| When did you realize that Wikimedia projects existed? | When did you develop a deeper understanding of the Wikimedia practices and principles behind content creation? | Why and when did you first begin editing? | When did you become aware of Wikimedian communities, that there was more than just solo contributors? | When did you start to engage with a community group? | How did you first start organizing? How did the opportunity come about? | When did you transition from occasional organizing to committed organizing? | Did you ever step away from organizing for any reason (family or emplyment changes burnout)? When and why did you renegage? |
