

We need your help!

How can we improve data quality in Wikidata?

We want to better understand how you tackle data quality in Wikidata and how data quality issues influence your editing work. Please answer the following questions by using the post-its provided below.

Which quality-related task should we better support?

On which data quality dimension(s) do you focus the most during your editing work in Wikidata?

On which dimension of data quality would you like to focus in your future editing work?

Universität
Zürich^{UZH}

