THE LARGEST PRECINCT

GLENDALE PRECINCT NO. 3 HAS POLLED LARGEST VOTE IN LOS ANGELES COUNTY

Precinct No. 3 in Glendale has the distinction of having polled the heaviest vote of any precinct in the county, 839 votes having been cast.

Thursday evening it was necessary for the supervisors to arrange to swear in four additional clerks to assist and relieve the worn-out officials, and it is hoped with this additional force to complete the work of counting some time this afternoon.

The original board consisted of Dr. I. H. Durfee, Mrs. J. F. Tatlow, Mrs. Scott, A. F. Howard, P. F. Renfrow and W. O. Borthick. Thursday evening additional clerks sworn in were G. H. Jordan, Mrs. Durfee, Mr. Lane and Mr. Carruthers. It was necessary, in this precinct, for judges, inspectors and clerks alike to give their attention to counting votes.

The polling place was in a tent on the corner of Sixth and Louise streets, but it became necessary to move into quarters in the Christian church on account of the heat. The original board members have worked steadily for eighty hours, with occasional naps on a cot beside the table at which they are working. The members of the board are "worn to a frazzle" and are scarcely able to keep their eyes open. Arrangements should have been made to relieve them sooner.

At 5 o'clock this morning the last box of 146 ballots was opened and the tired workers now feel that they are on the home stretch.

In precinct No. 4 the count was completed at 7:30 this morning; 715 ballots were cast. The officials in this precinct were T. W. Doyle and Jasper N. McGillis, clerks; J. H. Flower and J. W. Stauffer, inspectors, and Henry L. Miller and Rudolph A. Petersen, judges.

In precinct No. 1 the count will not be completed until some time tomorrow. The officials in this precinct are Mrs. Newcomb and Owen Emery, inspectors; H. E. Colby and F. A. Marek, judges, and Mrs. Ben Nichols and O. H. Jones, clerks.

The following were sworn in last night to assist this overworked board: Roy Sherman, W. E. Ross, Mrs. Potter, C. E. Parker, Thomas Ogg and Frank Zerr.

In precinct No. 2 the inspectors are Dr. E. H. Willisford and Wm. F. Nash, Sr., clerks; Mary C. Mandery and Lillian E. Dow, judges, and W. H. Harrison and Wm. Henry, inspectors. It is expected that the count in this precinct will be completed this evening.

ELECTION BRIEFS

Latest returns seem to give Chas. H. Randall a decisive lead over C. W. Bell for congressman.

Harry A. Wishard, Progressive candidate for the assembly from the sixty-first district, leads his nearest opponent, Mrs. Estelle Lawton-Lindsay, Socialist.

The further the count progresses, the greater is Governor Johnson's lead over Fredericks.

The plurality of Boles Penrose, Republican, for election to the senate from Pennsylvania, will be more than a quarter of a million.

Complete unofficial returns show Senator Reed Smoot of Utah re-elected by 2500 votes.

The woman's suffrage amendment was defeated in South Dakota.

The plurality of Lawrence Y. Sherman for United States senator from Illinois is close to 10,000.

Prohibition leads in Washington by large majority.

Unofficial returns from Colorado show 7000 majority for prohibition.

Prohibition carried in every county in Oregon.

MEETING CALLED

The General Richard Gridley chapter of the Daughters of the Revolution will meet at the home of Mrs. S. C. Leppelman, 1457 Milford street, on Wednesday afternoon, Nov. 11.

A full attendance of members is requested.

Those having materials ready be sure and bring them along for work will be begun on garments for the children of the All Night and Day nursery.

Music lovers will be glad to know that in about two weeks the Sinai Congregation Temple of Los Angeles will give a series of oratorical concerts. One selection will be that of "Elijah," with Miss Helen Cooper of Glendale as soloist.

FREE LECTURE ON CHRISTIAN SCIENCE
Prof. Hermann S. Hering, C. S. B., of Concord, N. H., a member of the Christian Science board of lectureurs, appointed by the Mother church in Boston, Mass., will lecture on "Christian Science" tonight at 8 o'clock in the high school auditorium at Fifth and Louise streets. The public is cordially invited.
Mrs. George Young and three children left Thursday for Redlands, where they will make their home, they having spent the summer with Mrs. Young's mother, Mrs. Fanny B. Crouch, of 916 North Central avenue.

THE WAR GOES ON

FIERCE BATTLES RAGE BUT NO DECISION IN FAVOR OF EITHER SIDE

BERLIN (via London, 4:52 p. m.) Nov. 5.—The German general headquarters issued the following statement today:

"Yesterday the Belgians, assisted by British and French troops, made a fierce attack by way of Neuport, between the sea and the inundations, but they were easily repulsed.

"Near Ypres, southwest of Lille and south of Berry au Bac, in the Argonne region, and in the Vosges, our attacks are progressing.

"In the eastern theater of war there have been no material events."

PARIS, Nov. 5, 10:50 p. m.—The following official communication was issued at the war office tonight:

"There is no information on the operations at the north of the Lys.

"In a violent offensive movement by the Germans north of Arras we lost a few trenches, which later were retaken.

"In the Argonne (region of St. Hubert), all the German attacks have been successfully repulsed.

"Concerning the remainder of the battle front there is nothing of importance to report."

LONDON, Nov. 5, 9:15 p. m.—No decision has yet been reached in the battle in the sand dunes of West Flanders, and the opposing armies now stand virtually as they have stood for many days.

While the Germans keep hammering away at the allies around Ypres, which route they chose for their march to the coast after they had found the road along the sea barred to them, and the allies are making an effort to move north to Ostend, neither side has got very far.

The Belgians and those supporting them have found that the floods which they created to stop the German advance are a hindrance to their movements, although they have been able to occupy some villages, including Bixchoote, which had been in possession of the Germans.

Around Ypres the German offensive, according to the accounts of the allies, has met with no success. In fact, it seems that all along the line there has been merely a repetition of artillery duels and of infantry attacks and counter attacks, which sometimes succeed, but more often do not.

On the frontier in the east, more wide-sweeping movements are being made by the opposing armies. The Russians from all reports have driven back the German center to the River Warthe in Russian Poland, have held back a German offensive movement from East Prussia, and now are straightening their line for a more vigorous offensive against the Austrians, who have been trying to beat their left wing in Galicia.

It is to the battles in these regions that the British military men are now looking, for they declare that if the Russians can keep up their successful fighting against the Austrians and Germans, relief will come to the allies in the west because of the necessity for the withdrawal of a German army corps from France and Belgium to protect Silesia and East Prussia.

These military observers express the belief that the Turkish threat against the Russian Caucasus will weaken the Russian armies by withdrawals from Poland, but the Russian authorities say that the advent of Turkey into the war already has sufficient troops to deal with Turkey on the spot.

The first reports of the fighting between the Russians and the Turks are as conflicting as were the first Austrian and Russian accounts of the warfare in Galicia. Each contending claims to have invaded the other's territory and to have defeated his frontier armies. These fights, however, probably have been only advance guard affairs, and it is thought here that some time may elapse before a pitched battle occurs.

The Anglo-French fleet continues to bombard the Dardanelles forts, but the Turks say the warships have inflicted no damage. In other parts of Turkey, British warships are being kept busy. The government, however, has ordered the holy places shall be respected by the British gunfire as long as the Indian subjects visiting them are not molested.

This necessity for respecting the feeling of her Moslem subjects, it is considered here, may hamper Great Britain somewhat in the prosecution of the war against Turkey, but with her large Moslem population it can not be disregarded. In addition to the assurances received from the Indian princes, England has been informed by the leaders of the Moslems in the Malay states that her war (Continued on Page 3.)

THINGS FOREIGN

MISS IDA WAITE ADDRESSES TEACHERS AND MOTHERS ON HER ORIENTAL TRIP

A most interesting program was that given at the Colorado boulevard school on Thursday afternoon, when Miss Ida Waite, principal of the school, addressed the Parent-Teacher association, of which Mrs. Edgar A. Bayley is president.

Miss Waite has recently returned from an Oriental trip and used "Things Foreign" as her subject, and proved a most interesting talker.

Miss Gladys Justema gave an excellent reading on "School Subjects" and four little girls in Japanese costume rendered a Japanese lullaby. Those representing Oriental beauties were the little Miss Nellie Rowe, Miss Katherine Hendricks, Miss Virginia Fanbrough and Miss Garnet Peters, all of the sixth grade.

Gems from "The Mikado" and "Aloha" were given on the Victrola. Tea and rice cakes were served and on departing each of the 115 guests were presented with a beautiful hand-adorned card which Miss Waite had brought back with her from Japan. In return, Miss Waite was given a beautiful bouquet of flowers from the P. T. A., which was presented by Mrs. Bayley, the president.

LUNCHEON FOR MRS. GIRARD

A peep into fairyland was the interior of the Bachman home at 303 West Ninth street Thursday, when Mrs. Chas. W. Bachman and Mrs. Geo. H. Melford entertained with a luncheon for Mrs. Harry Girard.

The color scheme of pink and white was dainty, yet elaborate throughout. In all rooms turned over for the happy occasion pink garlands alternated with ferns and smilax were hung. From these tiny pink hearts were suspended. Cut pink carnations and white chrysanthemums lent the floral beauty to the rooms.

Besides the two gracious hostesses and the beloved honoree, who was the recipient of many beautiful gifts, the well-wishers were Mesdames Joseph De Grasse, Spencer Robinson, H. L. Miller, H. W. Lawson, E. W. Kinney, E. Z. Barnett, Henry Stockbridge, W. H. Psaff, Harry Kemp, F. H. Foss, Frank Picho, C. L. Edwards, Harry Duffield, T. J. Keleher, Thomas Lingham, Chas. O. Morgan, Wm. Halliwell of Los Angeles, H. P. Courtney, J. R. White, William Starr, Louis Girard, Jack Boetner, Beatty, W. L. Glasdel, Howard Chapman, Fm. McMullen, Phiad Williams, C. E. Anderson, Dora Glazier, Howard Oswald, Kelly, Chas. H. Eudemiler, W. W. Kirkby, Ed Clisbee and Miss Laura Oakley.

FAREWELL SHOWER

Cut flowers beautified the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Leppelman at 1457 Milford street Thursday evening when members of the Thursday Evening Five Hundred club met to bid farewell to Mr. and Mrs. Edw. L. Payne, who leave very shortly for their ranch in Antelope valley.

Cards were enjoyed during the evening, prizes being captured by Mesdames Frank Cook and C. G. Farrow.

Supper was served at the small tables and just before the guests were ready to arise, Mr. and Mrs. Payne were presented with small be-ribboned packages. Upon opening, they each disclosed a handkerchief.

Those remembering the honored guests were Mesdames R. C. Lane, C. G. Farrow, S. C. Leppelman, Arthur D. Cross, Frank Cook, Harry L. Howe, Chas. Guthrie, M. E. Brown, H. V. Henry, S. W. Corwin, J. W. White and Messrs. R. C. Lane, S. C. Leppelman, C. G. Farrow, Arthur D. Cross, S. W. Corwin, H. V. Henry, J. W. White, Chas. Guthrie, E. M. Brown, Harry L. Howe and Frank Cook.

"JUDGE" MILLER

"Judge" Harry M. Miller is wearing the smile that won't come off since his many friends in Burbank township have attested their faith in him by electing him justice of the peace by a large majority. All returns are not yet in, but Mr. Miller is so far in the lead that there is no question of his success.

The same devotion to duty that has characterized Mr. Miller's service to the city during his long term as marshal will prevail while he serves this township as justice.

LOS ANGELES VISITORS

Mrs. B. J. Lyons and baby son John of 1617 Ruth street spent several days in Los Angeles, where they were guests of Mrs. Lyon's mother, Mrs. J. Mayer, of Angeleno Heights.

WHAT'S IN A NAME

When Governor Johnson addressed the citizens of Glendale a week ago he made the promise that if re-elected he would eliminate party from state politics. The result of the election seems to indicate that the people of California are doing that for themselves. They are beginning to realize that it makes little difference what party a man belongs to—it is principle that counts. The intelligent man and woman want some other reason than "I am a Republican" or "I am a Progressive" before voting for a man for any office.

The voters have shown that party doesn't count. According to registration figures the state of California is overwhelmingly Republican, but Progressive Republicans and Progressive Democrats by the hundreds of thousands cast their votes for governor for the man who was the Republican candidate four years ago, but who since that time has seen fit to advocate Progressive principles.

The people have shown their desire in this respect. The next step is take party designation from the ballot in state offices as has been done in county and city offices.

THRILLING PROGRAM AT THE GLENDALE THEATER

The management of the Glendale theater has arranged for a very exciting and thrilling bill for tonight.
The "Lucille Love" series is of course
the headliner, and this series deals largely with a safe scene in San Francisco, where Lucille in the place of a cabaret dancer meets her old lover
and faints from chagrin at the part
she is playing.

"When Death Rode the Engine"
is a thriller extraordinary, and in
it is a chase scene in which two engines on parallel tracks run a race with a life as the stake. The sheriff in one engine catches a kidnaper in the other engine after a flying leap during the chase.

Comedy is well portrayed in "An Awkward Cinderella," the highest class of comedy pictures. "Bess the Detectress or the Dog Watch," is one of the funniest photoplays produced, both "Bess" as the detectress and
"Willie Walrus" as the other star furnishing a multitude of laughs.

EXCELLENT PROGRAM TO BE GIVEN AT P. T. A. BENEFIT

This afternoon and evening is the date for the P. T. A. fund benefit.
Three excellent picture performances
will be given at the Majestic theater
at 3:30 this afternoon and at 7:00
and 8:30 this evening.

The program has been especially selected for children and is as follows: "Cocoanut Plantation," "John Bunny Buys Wife a Hat," "Wizard of Oz," "In Old California Before the Gringo Came," "Trip Through Brazil" and "Niagara Falls in Winter."

Your five and ten cents will help
a great deal toward installing the lighting system of the Columbus avenue school, so come and assist, for
"every little bit helps."

The Evening News classified columns bring results.

PERSONALS

The Cushman have moved from 1456 Third street to their new ac-
rage near Burbank.

Mrs. Raymond P. Foss of 1460
Salem street will entertain the Pr-cilla club on Thursday next.

The women's auxiliary of St.
Mark's church held their regular monthly meeting this afternoon.

Miss Gladys Justema of 304 South
Central avenue will be a week-end
guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs.
E. E. McCalla, Hollywood.

Mrs. Engerson of Pacific Grove is here and will spend the winter with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Chapman of Salem
street.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Retts of 415
Brand boulevard were visited on Nov.
4 by "Mr. Stork" and a bouncing ten-pound boy was left. Both the mother and babe are doing nicely.

Mr. R. J. Ogle of Los Angeles has purchased a home at 343 North Jackson street and is moving in today with his family. Mr. Ogle conducts a real estate business in Los Angeles.

Mrs. R. W. Meeker and Miss Meeker of 300 East Colorado boulevard
will attend the golden wedding celebration of Mr. and Mrs. Hall at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Anderson of Los Angeles.

On Thursday Miss Helen Cooper,
head of the Cooper School of Music,
was entertained as an honored luncheon guest in Alhambra by the well-known pianist, Mr. Clarence D. Kellogg of that city.

Mrs. Dorothy Van Wie sang at the Tropico P. T. A. meeting this afternoon and on Wednesday of next week Glendale will be favored with selections by Mrs. Helen De Gaston, of the Cooper School of Music.

TONIGHT'S PROGRAM

"When Death Rode the Engine"--1 reel railroad drama
and full of thrills.

"An Awkward Cinderella"--1-reel comedy of the highest class.

"Lucille Love"--2-reel, series No. 13

"Bess the Detectress, or the Dog Watch"--1-reel comedy of comedies.

Performances 7 and 8:30 p. m.

Matinee Sat. 2:30

Mrs. Helen Woodruff Boyd of 1463
Ivy street was an all-day guest of Mrs. Roy Bendle, whose home is now in Burbank.

Mrs. Earl Schuyler and daughter of 1432 Ivy street, together with Mrs. D. A. Lane, motored to Los Angeles today to be luncheon guests of Mrs. Carl Stokie, residing on West
Adams street.

Mrs. Florence Betts and two little granddaughters, Helen and Charlotte Cushman, have returned from an extended visit of seven months in Bakersfield to the Cushman home at 1467 Salem street.

The Ladies' Aid society of the First M. E. church wishes to call attention to the next meeting on next Tuesday afternoon, Nov. 10th, at the home of Mrs. C. W. Spickerman of 236 North Maryland, promptly at 2 o'clock.

Mrs. Clara Case of 105 North Maryland avenue entertained the First Street Thimble club at a one o'clock luncheon on Thursday. The guests were seated at one long table prettily decorated with yellow and white feathery chrysanthemums.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Braly were luncheon guests at the home of Mrs.
Ritche at Venice on Thursday of this week. Mrs. Ritche is president of the P. T. A. of that city and Mrs.
Braly had been asked to speak before the mothers. "Responsibility of Mothers" proved a very interesting subject when handled by so eloquent and capable a speaker as Mrs. Braly is known to be.

MUNSON SAYS

The contest for the "kiddies" closes tomorrow, Saturday. All papers must be turned in by Saturday night. Three fair judges will be secured and the result announced next week.

There's always delicious specials at our fountain.

The stationery we've displayed at 25c is sure selling fast, and no wonder, when you consider it's worth about double what we ask.

Christopher's Brick Ice Cream
just "tops off" a Sunday dinner.
We'll deliver any time Sunday
you say. Also bulk ice cream,
as well as pint or quart bricks.
When you get Christopher's you get the best—a real ice cream.
Delivered promptly and freely if you phone either phone 156.

Going to take any pictures on Sunday? If you are, get your supplies here. We've also a large display of Eastman kodaks.

Few drug stores have the prompt, efficient motorcycle delivery such as this store has.
You can have any drug order,
large or small, quickly supplied by just phoning 156, either phone.

Remember these two numbers—170 for the best cough
cure made, and 156 the telephone number, either phone, at this store.

Get the habit of meeting on the corner.

MUNSON—THE DRUG MAN

VALLEY VIEW

O. Ditzberger has sold his place at 1427 Vine street and will move to Los Angeles next week.

H. D. Flanders and his new bride have moved into the house at 1437
Vine street.

Rev. Geo. Dodd and wife, who moved here from Hemet two weeks ago, occupying the house at 1607
Vine street, will move back to Hemet
Saturday.

Arch Moore and wife of 1554 West Seventh street are rejoicing over the recent arrival of a thirteen pound
boy. Mother and child are both doing finely.

Mrs. W. J. Hoopes of 1660 West
Colorado was called to Eagle Rock
the first of the week by news of an injury to her mother. A slight cut on one wrist developed blood poisoning and for a time her condition was serious, but she is better at present.

A family by the name of Everleigh have moved into J. E. Bellue's house at 1645 Oak street.

F. W. Hammond and wife have moved into their new house at Fifth and Pacific.

Mrs. Geo. Meredith of 1562 West Fifth street is enjoying a week's visit from her mother, who lives in Boyle Heights.

Valley View residents are somewhat divided over the reported probability of the P. E. Burbank line being diverted to run down Pacific avenue. While some would be willing to subscribe to a bonus to bring the line nearer their property, others declare that before they will buy the P. E. to run a line where they would make money for themselves,
they would see the whole line sunk
in the raging wash. There is no doubt that the line run along Pacific avenue would be a great boost to this part of the city and would enhance property values. Many people object to paying a company for installing its own money-making plant.

Harry Valient and wife have moved to Los Angeles and expect to rent
their little place at 1554 Colorado boulevard. Harry has been a resident of Glendale for several years,
working in different barber shops,
and his many friends are sorry to lose him.

T. C. Armstrong and family have moved from 1418 West Seventh street to Ogden, Utah.

Mrs. R. Goad has moved into Walter Deacon's house at 1615 Oak
street.

KELTY WINS IN CONTEST

Glendale lodge 388, I. O. O. F., celebrated the end of the contest between members of the lodge captained by the noble grand, Dan Kel-ty, Jr., and vice-grand, J. E. Horne.

The contest ran for two months and the losing side had to give a banquet. A large crowd turned out to help celebrate the occasion. San Fernando lodge, No. 365, sent a large delegation to help the turn-out. After the regular business of the lodge had been cared for, speeches were in order. Every member from San Fernando responded, besides numerous other visitors and members of Glendale lodge. Rev. C. R. Norton was voted the best story teller of the evening. Brother J. A. Roper was a close second. Brother Roper exhibited the first pin ever worn by an Odd Fellow, of which he is the proud possessor. After the brothers had talked themselves out, they repaired to the banquet room, where the Rebekahs served a fine oyster supper. Rev. Norton acted as toastmaster and several responded. During the banquet the quartet sang several songs, which were well received. The party broke up rather late and Judge Miller raised the "speed limit" so everyone could be home in time for breakfast.

Mr. and Mrs. George Dewey and family returned from Oxnard last Tuesday, where Mr. Dewey had a responsible position in the sugar beet factory during the summer months.

against Turkey will not affect the loyalty of the Moslems to the empire.

The result of the naval battle in the Pacific between the German and British squadrons, details of which are still lacking here, naturally is the most discussed subject of the war in England. It is realized that the worst accounts, which include the sinking of the Monmouth and serious damage to the Good Hope,
probably are true.

"It is the price of the admiralty," says the average Englishman of this and other losses to ships that have been sustained since the war commenced. The balance thus far is on the side of Germany, but every Englishman seems confident that when the main fleets meet, this discrepancy will be more than wiped out.
It is said here that should the German fortress of Tsing-tao fall, the British and Japanese vessels engaged
there will start out in an endeavor to round up the eight or nine German cruisers still at large.
