CANADA'S TASK SAID TO BE TO SETTLE HER OWN PROBLEMS FIRST

Labor Spokesman Tells Industrial Conference It Would be Fruitless to Try to Settle Europe's Disputes and Leave Canada's Unsettled.

Ottawa, Sept. 16.—"There is no use of Canadians trying to settle the disputes in Europe if the problems in Canada can not be settled first, and the labor problem is one of our greatest."

This was the message to the National Industrial Conference delivered by John Bruce, of Toronto, spokesman for the labor group, when he rose this morning to speak on the need of unity in Canada's labor laws.

There was a pressing need for unity in solving Canada's labor problems, said Mr. Bruce, and he appealed to everyone to drop all feelings of hostility and political views and approach the question before the Conference in a spirit of human good-fellowship, that their deliberations might be productive of the greatest good.

The "third group" in the Conference, representing agriculture, the civil service, the Great War Veterans' Association and the public interests generally, has been given a voice in the shaping of the committee's reports, although the delegates on the committees will have no voting power.

This was decided upon when a report of the committee on arrangements was made this morning. The joint committees are composed of three delegates each of the employers' and employees' groups only.

It was decided on motion of Mr. Bruce, seconded by Mr. Shaw, to refer the matter to the committee named to consider such business with instructions to draft a definite resolution.

Recommendations. Another question discussed this morning was when a special committee was decided upon to take up consideration of the recommendations of the Royal Commission on Industrial Relations that the findings of the Commission may be put into effect in all work controlled by the Government where the principles of democratic government and democratic management can be applied.

This special committee was urged before the adjournment last night by Tom Moore, president of the Dominion Trades and Labor Congress, who pointed out that its purpose was simply to give the civil servants and public employees the same rights as those employed by corporations and private employers.

Women Present. There was a good attendance when the session of the Conference opened this morning and many women were among those who had seats outside of the brass railing which encloses the space reserved for the delegates. Following the naming of the committee, Senator Robertson, Minister of Labor and chairman of the Conference, asked the members of the committee to advise the Provisional Committee.

Conference at Ottawa Discussed Movement of Women to Canada.

Ottawa, Sept. 15.—Important recommendations were made by the conference of women last week with Hon. J. A. Calder on the question of immigration of women, which will likely be carried out. They recommended for one thing that the present bonus system of immigration be discouraged and as soon as possible done away with.

They also recommended that great emphasis should be laid on the selection of household workers by means of a system of inspection which would include health examinations, both mental and physical, by experienced women medical officers at points of embarkation and ports of arrival.

They also recommended that a capable trained woman be attached to Canadian immigration headquarters for the purpose of supervising women immigrants to work in close co-operation with the Society for Overseas Settlement of British Women and a system of passports be maintained between Canada and the other countries.

Mr. Calder thought the appointment of medical inspectors overseas not feasible, but was in sympathy with greatly increased attention to medical inspection at Canadian points, and also approved the suggestion that there should be medical officers.

ATROCITIES IN MEXICO DESCRIBED

Numerous Women Brutally Treated, Woman Tells U.S. Senate Committee

Witness Says Country Has Suffered Nine Years of Crucifixion

Washington, Sept. 16.—Miss Agnes Laut, who recently returned from Mexico, testifying last night before the Senate sub-committee investigating relations between this country and Mexico, laid before the committee a solution of the Mexican problem which she characterized as "the beneficent pacification" of Mexico.

In corroboration of her assertion that widespread corruption had inflicted the cruelties of which she knew, she told the committee of two girls who were clubbed to death and of two American women who were carried into the mountains of Sonora and there forced to remain by their captors, who shaved the soles of their feet of flesh to make simpler the task of guarding them.

Detained in Hills. An American girl from Nebraska, she said, was more fortunate in the hills, the captive of Mexicans, who dragged her from her home near the Gulf Coast. When the band appeared they roped her father and mother and when she, sixteen years old, threw herself before the Mexicans they declared they would kill her parents.

An Englishwoman in the State of Zacatecas, she said, was fortunate, according to Miss Laut, in that Miss Laut said, the woman shot the bandit who was struggling with her and then, running forward, fired first on one bandit and then another, killing both, and thereby rescuing two daughters, one of whom each bandit held.

"The thanks of the American people and of the Congress of the United States are due and are hereby tendered to General John J. LLOYD GEORGE INSISTS EX-KAISER BE HANDED OVER BY NETHERLANDS

The newspaper asserts that the Prime Minister, who is planning to leave Paris today, will insist before his departure upon having such action decided upon.

The peace treaty with Germany arraigns Wilhelm Hohenzollern, former German Kaiser, "for a supreme offence against international morality and the sanctity of treaties" and provides for a special tribunal to try him. Nothing definite, however, was decided upon.

NEW ORDER COMING, STATES HENDERSON

British Labor Leader Says Common People Seeing New Dawn

London, Sept. 16.—The present world unrest means that the old order of things is in its death throes and that a new society is about to come to its birth and that age-long injustices and inequalities that burdened the lives of the common people are at last to be swept away, declared Rt. Hon. Arthur Henderson, secretary of the Labor Party, before the International Brotherhood Congress here today.

"Class rule in politics is doomed to disappear," he added, "but it is doubtful whether the ideal of true political liberty will be realized in this or other countries without a violent convulsion of society."

The main problem now, he said, is to restore popular confidence in representative institutions, and to guide the movement of the masses along the path of constitutional changes and to enable democracy to become master in its own house without violence.

Relief Workers Recovering Bodies in Corpus Christi Region, Texas

Corpus Christi, Texas, Sept. 16.—With troops patrolling the main streets, Corpus Christi today began emerging from the wreckage caused by the Gulf hurricane...

In the city proper the death list was placed by some officials at between fifteen and twenty-five, but that was regarded by many as far too conservative...

More than 3,000 persons were made homeless. With the coming of relief trains it was expected that by night most of them would be taken care of.

Fears are entertained that a heavy casualty list will be reported from surrounding towns.

Relief Train. Some relief was afforded the homeless shortly after midnight when the first train to reach the city in many hours arrived with foodstuffs and other supplies from Kingsville and Robstown.

The storm struck early Sunday morning and was accompanied by a tidal wave that sent a wall of water ten feet high sweeping into the business district of the city.

Soldiers Worked. By the time the worst of the wind had passed, United States soldiers stationed here had taken charge of the situation and continued ceaselessly at work until all danger was over.

Military rule was invoked late yesterday and no one was allowed to enter the wrecked portions of the city.

STATION AGENT FORCED TO QUIT

"All the Boys at This End of the Line Are Talking About My Recovery," Says C. P. Operator

"When the boys come by and see me back on the job looking like my old self they always holler at me to know what has brought about the wonderful change, and I always shout back, 'Tanlac,'" says A. E. Rawley, the popular telegraph operator at Westford Station on the Canadian Pacific railroad and living at Westfield Beach, New Brunswick, who relates his remarkable experience with the medicine, recently.

"My recovery has not only surprised me," continued Mr. Rawley, "but all the boys on this end of the line are talking about it. Pulling through what I have suffered back to health and strength seems more like work of a miracle than of medicine, for I had despaired of living much longer."

"My health suddenly gave way four years ago following a severe attack of grippe, which settled in my stomach. My food would sour, causing gas and such a pressure through my chest that I could scarcely breathe. Sharp pains would suddenly strike me in the chest, keeping me in agony for hours, and at night I would have to get up and walk the floor to keep from smothering. One day, about a year after my trouble started, I began vomiting and kept up almost incessantly for four days, and I thought sure my life would end there. I had to be carried to a hospital for treatment, after which I felt in fair condition for a few weeks and then another attack came on me with great pains in my stomach and intestines which would last for hours.

"In fact, I lost fifty pounds in weight had had to give up my position as station agent and do nothing but try to find relief. Then I went to another hospital for treatment, then another, making no improvement, and tried every medicine I knew of or that was suggested to me, but kept getting worse. I had no idea I could live much longer and, of course, had little hope of ever getting any better."

"My case was like that of the drowning man reaching out for a straw, and I had no faith in Tanlac to help me, when I saw it advertised I grabbed at it as my last resort. I had tried three hospitals and had given up the way of medicines so I couldn't have much faith in Tanlac, but it's a fact, before my first bottle was gone I noticed a difference in my feelings. It was not long then until the gas stopped forming on my stomach, I had a good appetite, and could eat most anything without any ill effects. Now, I put it all in as few words as possible, I have taken eight bottles of Tanlac and am not only feeling fine, but I have gained twenty pounds of my lost weight. I am now working regularly every day and am still picking up both in weight and strength right along. I attribute my recovery to nothing but Tanlac. To me it is the most wonderful medicine in the world and I will praise it as long as I live."

Tanlac is sold in Victoria by J. B. Campbell, corner Fort and Douglas. Advt.

FARMERS AND LABOR AS POLITICAL PARTY

Movement in Ontario to Have Beck as Leader Reported

Toronto, Sept. 16.—A dispatch to The Toronto Globe from London, Ont., says: "Independent political circles are on the qui vive with interest to-day over a report that the United Farmers of Ontario are seeking to effect an entente with organized labor of urban constituencies and to secure Sir Adam Beck as leader."

"The farmers in both federal and provincial activities have formally declared for nationalization of railways, public ownership of all utilities and the development of hydro-electric power and radial enterprises in Ontario. They are thus at one with Sir Adam Beck on his personal policies, and they have ambitions, it is claimed, to secure the backing of his skill as an organizer and leader. At present they are striving for a goal, but they have not had time to develop a man capable of commanding either provincial or national attention. They assert that they are keen for a radical programme that will attract Labor, and that, with Sir Adam Beck, the farmers and Labor could swing the next Government."

HOME-MADE BREAD

Home bread-making reduces the high cost of living by lessening the amount of expensive meats required to supply the necessary nourishment to the body. The increased nutritious value of bread made in the home with should be sufficient incentive to the thoughtful housewife to give this important food item the attention to which it is justly entitled. Bread made with Royal Yeast will keep fresh and moist longer than that made with any other.

ELECTION TALK IN UNITED KINGDOM

Rumor Lloyd George Will Purge Cabinet of Conservative Influences

London, Sept. 16.—The Daily News says that it is suggested that the Prime Minister contemplates an early general election and will purge his administration of Conservative influences. Long and Chamberlain in particular being marked for early retirement.

Both "The Daily News" and "The Daily Express" who are paying the cost of "The Future" pamphlet which was issued yesterday and distributed free, containing statements by Mr. Lloyd George and several other Cabinet Ministers on the present needs of the national and policy.

The Daily Graphic, which used to support the Coalition Government, says that the messages in "The Future" are bound to do mischief, and thinks they betray an appeal to envy which will only stir up hatred instead of promoting a joint effort.

Lord Milner, Colonial Secretary, contributed the following message to "The Future":

"The United Kingdom and the Dominions are partner nations, not yet indeed of equal power, but for good and all of equal status. A time may come when one or more of these Dominions will equal or even surpass the United Kingdom in wealth and population as they already surpass it in geographical extent. It is the paramount duty of British statesmanship to see that the free union between them and us which has been so gloriously maintained during the war shall be continued and strengthened in the years to come."

HEAVY PENALTIES.

Washington, Sept. 16.—The House yesterday passed and sent to the Senate a bill making the passing of a stolen automobile to another subject to five years imprisonment and $5,000 fine.

For your children's injuries nothing is equal to Zam-Buk—it ends pain so quickly! Children know this and when they have once had it applied will cry for it again.

Mrs. T. D. Ruston of the Children's Aid Society, Belleville, Ont., says: "We never use anything but Zam-Buk for our children's cuts, burns, bruises, etc. We have found it superior to all other remedies for ending pain and healing, and we have also found, by experience, that an injury treated with Zam-Buk never festers. With so many children in our shelter, we really could not afford to be without Zam-Buk, not only for their injuries, but also for their sores and skin troubles."

Mothers! Be sure to keep a box of Zam-Buk on the medicine shelf. It will save you much needless anxiety as well as expense. Zam-Buk does not deteriorate with keeping, but retains its strength and purity to the very last. For eczema, ringworm, boils, pimples, ulcers and piles, Zam-Buk is equally good. If you have not already tried this herbal balm, cut out this advertisement, write across it the name of this paper and send it with the stamp (to pay return postage) to Zam-Buk Co., Dupont St., Toronto. We will then send you a free trial box. All dealers 50c. box.

OVERSEAS DEMAND KEEPS PRICES UP

Canadians Pay More Because of Export Sales of Foodstuffs

Winnipeg, Sept. 16.—Pork products exported to Great Britain bring a much better price than the local wholesale price, James T. Gordon, president of Gordon, Ironsides and Fares, packers, admitted before Judge H. A. Robson at the Board of Commerce investigation into the high cost of living here yesterday.

"Mr. Gordon did not give comparative figures, but promised to produce them at a later date. Sixty per cent. of his firm's products is sent to Great Britain, he declared, and the remainder is sold in Canada. None is sent to the United States.

"We ought to make many thousands more if we could ship all our bacon to the United Kingdom," he stated. "It is the foreign demand which keeps up the prices here."

In Storage. Earlier the witness had testified that he had 5,000,000 pounds of bacon in storage in England.

"We are waiting to see if the British Ministry is going to fleece us or give us a living price for it," he commented.

Gordon said he was glad of the opportunity to give facts of his business, as he expected to prove that the packers were not responsible for the high cost of living to the extent which they were believed to be.

Butler was affected in the same way as pork by the exportations, according to Mr. Gordon. The butter market in the west was governed very largely by the prices disclosed on the Montreal market.

Harry Whitt, K. C., who is conducting the case on behalf of the Government, asked whether this referred to wholesale or retail trades.

Mr. Gordon stated he referred to the wholesale sale of butter to the retailers.

Mr. Gordon, while giving evidence, stated that he had received an anonymous threatening letter. "You profiteer, you hypocrite, the next time you'll be found hanging from the mantel of your door," were, according to Mr. Gordon, some of the terms of the letter.

"The blame for the agitation at present going on and the general unrest is largely on the press of this country," said Mr. Gordon.

"We have absolutely no control over the market, absolutely none," added Mr. Gordon when questioned as to the packers and the meat markets. "It is anybody's market," he declared, "and no one has any monopoly of any description."

"Profits of the Gordon, Ironsides & Fares Packers Limited, from March, 1918, to July 31, 1919, on the basis of a turnover of $25,000,000 were less than one-half of one per cent," said Mr. Gordon.

Quintone, as to an agreement among the packers as to price levels, Mr. Gordon said, "that to the outside world it would look like a combination, but from the inside I do not see as there would be such harm in it, particularly when we are selling almost at cost prices against outside competition."

Competitive Bidding. Examining A. T. McLean, manager of the Canadian Packing Company, Mr. Whitt, attempted to prove his theory that it was competitive bidding by wholesalers which made it possible for producers to get a high price for their eggs and butter.

Mr. McLean admitted that it was. He had to bid as high as the highest bidder before he could get eggs or butter at all from the farmers. Farmers were demanding fifty-five cents for strictly fresh eggs and fifty-three cents a pound for the best grade butter, he said.

Mr. O'Connor. Hamilton, Sept. 16.—W. F. O'Connor, K. C., vice-chairman of the Board of Commerce, who came here yesterday, said he would appoint a Fair Price Committee here. When he reached the City Hall not a member of the committee named by the City Council was there to meet him, and there were but six citizens, including two wholesale grocers, present. Mr. O'Connor expressed disappointment at the lack of interest.

H. G. Baggett, a wholesale grocer, said there was no combine of wholesale grocers.

"Replying in the words of a celebrated humorist, I would say them things are not true," replied Mr. O'Connor. "If all other efforts fail to remedy price conditions, then the Board will apply strong arm methods."

COST OF LIVING AND LABOR UNREST

National Industrial Conference at Ottawa Hears Warren S. Stone

Ottawa, Sept. 16.—At the opening sessions of the National Industrial Conference here yesterday some splendid addresses were heard. Perhaps none stuck home so much as did the brief talk of Warren S. Stone, president of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, who followed W. Jett Lauck, former secretary of the United States War Labor Board.

There is real social labor unrest in the opinion of Mr. Stone, and a buried spark of trouble which only requires a very little to fan it into a position on the school board to relieve the overcrowding.

S. M. Lamb has sold his property at Semones with over 1,000 chickens to Mr. Moon, and has bought a property on Quamichan Lake, G. O. Day's place.

A full meeting of the Cowichan District Nurse Committee was held yesterday afternoon at the Women's Institute room, with Capt. the Rev. F. L. Stephenson, in the chair. It was decided to advertise in Victoria and Vancouver papers for a trained nurse qualified in district nursing and to install her in Cowichan at once.

Very few infractions of the game laws took place in the closed season. The only case in court here was that of a man who was stopped by Provincial Constable Kier, with a willow grouse in his possession before the opening of the season, and fined by Justices of the Peace C. W. Dickie and Dr. Dykes.

Teacher Appointed. Miss Bradshaw has been appointed by the Consolidated School Board to a position on the school staff to relieve the overcrowding.

Mr. King. Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King, Dominion Liberal Leader, urged, among other things, that the rights of four parties to labor problems be recognized. There were labor, capital, management and the public interest, represented by the community which provided the laws without which industry could not progress, and which also provided the means of transportation so important to the development of every industry. The labor problems were too big for any party feeling to creep into efforts for their solution, said Mr. King, and he urged the delegates in their deliberations to put down to the human side of things. Human life was far more important than the dollar, he said, and they must remember that industry was created for humanity rather than humanity for industry.

Hon. A. L. Sifton, Minister of Public Works, and Hon. N. W. Rowell, President of the Privy Council, also spoke briefly. The former told of the work of the Canadian delegates on the labor clauses of the treaty of peace.

Permanent Solution. Mr. Rowell spoke of the pressing need for a permanent solution of Canada's labor unrest which had resulted in many strikes during the last year. However, Canada had been more fortunate than many other countries, and he felt that Canada's labor record during the war years would in no way be blemished by its record during the reconstruction period.

Mr. Lauck outlined the progress made in war efforts and in reconstruction work in the United States, and told the delegates that the nation across the border would watch the proceedings here very closely, more especially as a similar conference was to be held in Washington next month, when it was hoped that the results of the conference would guide the United States employees and employers to a great extent in solving their troubles.

Reconstruction. Senator Robertson, Minister of Labor, reviewing briefly the reasons for which the Conference had been called, spoke of the serious nature of the reconstruction period. Half a million men and women in Canada had to be switched from war to peace work after November 11, 1918, said Senator Robertson. With the repatriation of the soldiers, this was regarded as a prodigious task.

The report of the joint committee on procedure was then presented by Mr. Robertson.

Voting. The committee's recommendations were dealt with and in regard to voting it was decided that on ten delegates standing, a vote on any resolution presented would take place.

Voting would be confined to the duly-credited representatives and the groups would vote separately. Delegate R. A. Rigg, of Winnipeg, submitted an amendment asking for a special committee on the question of putting the findings of the Royal Commission on Industrial Relations into effect on all work controlled by the Government, where such was possible.

Tom Moore, rising to second the motion, regretted it had not found a second among the representatives of the employers. He said there arose the question of the condition of civil servants or public employees. Whitley Councils had been formed for the civil service in Great Britain but there appeared to be a difference made here by the public and private employees.

COWICHAN HUNTERS ARE REPORTING LESS SUCCESS THAN USUAL

Duncan, Sept. 16.—Sport was not so good in Cowichan as usual at the beginning of the season, birds being very much scattered. Very few shot the limit of grouse, perhaps owing to the fact that so many guns were out. Trains from Nanaimo and Victoria brought their quota to shoot around Cowichan. Best luck is reported from Salt Spring. Those hunting veer report better sport, two men from Nanaimo bagging five on Mount Prevost.

Quail are reported as being particularly abundant and pheasants quite up to the average.

Very few infractions of the game laws took place in the closed season. The only case in court here was that of a man who was stopped by Provincial Constable Kier, with a willow grouse in his possession before the opening of the season, and fined by Justices of the Peace C. W. Dickie and Dr. Dykes.

Teacher Appointed. Miss Bradshaw has been appointed by the Consolidated School Board to a position on the school staff to relieve the overcrowding.

A full meeting of the Cowichan District Nurse Committee was held yesterday afternoon at the Women's Institute room, with Capt. the Rev. F. L. Stephenson, in the chair. It was decided to advertise in Victoria and Vancouver papers for a trained nurse qualified in district nursing and to install her in Cowichan at once.

PREPARE FOR BIG STEEL STRIKE IN U. S.

Pittsburg, Pa., Sept. 16.—The presidents of twenty-four international unions, labor leaders and organizers from all sections of the United States, were arriving here to-day to attend a meeting on Wednesday of the American Federation of Labor national committee for organizing iron and steel workers.

At this session the committeemen will discuss plans for the proposed nation-wide strike of steel workers beginning September 22.

Chicago, Sept. 16.—An order directing steel workers in the Chicago district to suspend work next Monday was issued last night by Theodore Vind, president of the South Chicago Trades and Labor Assembly. Mr. Vind said that the order, which will affect 150,000 workers, was issued on authority of the Steel Workers' Association and would not be rescinded.

A LIQUOR CASE IN TERMINAL CITY

Vancouver, Sept. 16.—That the methods of the Government liquor vendor's office here were making a regular farce of the Prohibition Act was the opinion expressed by Magistrate Shaw yesterday when the case of Archibald Duncan was called.

Duncan was charged with having liquor in his possession in violation of the act, but pleaded that he had obtained three bottles of whisky from the dispensary. These bore no labels save those of the maker, and it was this fact, coupled with the statements from outsiders that they also had obtained unlabelled liquor from the vendor's office, which caused the court to comment. His Worship remarked that the police had no opportunity to trace the origin of liquor if the vendors did not place on the bottles a label showing where and when it had been purchased.

Duncan's case was stood over for investigation.

MOVIE WORKERS IN LOS ANGELES STRIKE

Los Angeles, Sept. 16.—Four hundred and fifty stage electricians, carpenters, operators and technical directors, members of the International Alliance of Stage Employees and Motion Picture Operators, are on strike here demanding recognition of their organization and a wage increase of approximately $1 a day.

Making a purely vegetable Medicine

1875 — 1919

In 1875, Lydia E. Pinkham of Lynn, Mass., gathered and dried the roots and herbs which she used in the now famous Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, from the fields and forests, — then steeped them on her kitchen stove and filled a few bottles at a time, to alleviate the suffering of her women friends, neighbors and acquaintances, and the success of this medicine was unparalleled.

After 44 Years

These illustrations show the present method by which vast quantities of this well-known remedy are produced and from exactly the same kind of roots and herbs used by Mrs. Pinkham in the beginning.

First—The various herbs used are of the finest quality, and gathered at the time their medicinal strength is the highest.

Second—After the herbs are properly ground and mixed, the medicinal properties are extracted by soaking in large stone jars, covered.

Third—Then the extract is drained through percolators, acting somewhat like a coffee percolator.

Fourth—To insure a thoroughly pure medicine, it is carefully pasteurized by heat in special apparatus, and bottled hot.

Throughout the entire process, from the crude herb to the finished medicine in bottle, cleanliness and exactness are the watch-words.

The Reliability of Testimonials Guaranteed

The testimonials published by the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Company come to them unsolicited. Never knowingly have they published an untruthful letter, never is a letter published without the written consent of the writer. The reason that thousands of women from all parts of the country write such grateful letters is that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has brought health and happiness into their lives, once burdened with pain and illness. It is easy to realize how these poor, suffering women feel when restored to health; and their keen desire to help other women who are suffering as they did.

THE CASE OF ALD. SARGENT.

The communication received by the City Council from the Civic Employees' Protective Association yesterday evening protesting against the soliciting of employees of the city for life insurance by Alderman Sargent, raises a question of principle which is not disposed of by merely filing the complaint.

While there is nothing illegal in the Alderman's action its propriety certainly is open to challenge, especially in view of his position in the Council. He is a member of the special committee of the Council charged with the adjudication and determination of the salaries and wages of the city employees, and no matter how conscientiously he may dissociate his public and private activities from one another, they are bound to be associated together in the mind of the employee he may canvass, especially if that employee has an application for a salary increase before the committee.

Alderman Sargent repudiated the claim of the Association that his judgment and decision as a member of the committee on salaries and wages were influenced in any way by his private business relations with city employees, but, admitting all this, the condition obviously is one that should not exist, and no alderman actuated by a clear sense of public duty should attempt to justify it and, by such justification, encourage it.

THIS PROVINCE COULD HELP.

One of Great Britain's most aggravating domestic problems is the lack of houses. Over 4,000 schemes have been approved already and it is hoped that at least 100,000 new dwellings will be ready for occupation by next Spring.

It would be presumptuous to suggest that the Standardization Committee of Inquiry into Health—a subsidiary body associated with the administration of Great Britain's housing programmes—does not understand its business. It is presumably composed of experts. At the same time, and in view of the very serious outlook in the matter of house scarcity, it might have profited the houseless if the Committee had gone a little further into the question.

Nobody would wish to refer slightly to the rainfall or other climatic vagaries of certain parts of this Province less favored than Victoria. Nearly all their houses are of the "colonial" type and they defy the elements quite successfully.

HE HAS NOT CHANGED.

American travellers arriving at San Juan, Porto Rico, yesterday reported open evidence of renewed German activity in Venezuela. Many Germans had arrived from the Fatherland during the last few months and German commercial travellers were particularly active.

Nobody will doubt the report. The commercial German of 1914 has taken an enforced holiday. He has not changed. His struggle to capture markets in all parts of the world before the war was not an easy one. The commercial German regards a difficult market as a tonic for his enterprise and perseverance.

ATROCITIES IN MEXICO DESCRIBED

Face Stripped. Another story she related was that of a woman whose skin was stripped from her face, the Mexicans cutting from the centre of the forehead circularly about the face, then tearing the covering loose.

Another example of the treatment of women she cited was the taking into the hills of more than thirty men and girls from a train Mexicans had captured. No attempt was made by the witness to shield the Carranza soldiery. She admitted that a fair part of the crimes were committed by bandits, but intimated that a number of the so-called bandits were in reality Mexican Federal troops.

MANITOBA TO ISSUE TREASURY BILLS

Winnipeg, Sept. 16.—Hon. Edward Brown, Provincial Treasurer, announced today that in addition to a sale of Treasury bills announced some weeks ago to the amount of $500,000, for the purpose of the Telephone Commission, the Government has agreed to authorize a further issue of $750,000. The Telephone Commission will get $250,000 of this; $250,000 will be for the purpose of good roads and $250,000 for the construction of the first section of a provincial hydro system.

school age ripen for the business career and the commercial harvest justifies the German means. In 1919 it is the same.

Everywhere the German traveller goes he will find a stout wall of prejudice. Teutonic wares which found such ready custom in pre-war days will be shied at fairly generally. It is a mistaken idea to believe for one moment that prejudice will penetrate the unsensitive hide of a German commercial traveller.

One thing is certain, nothing daunts the German gail. No matter whether it be Venezuela or Canada, or Timbuctoo, the German will apply the principle that "got him there" before the war. The Allied nations must play the same persistent game. Britain's consular service must go the limit in its reorganization.

A FOOL REGULATION.

The Dominion Government has decided to make no change in the regulation confining to eighteen years or under the age of soldier-students entitled to special courses of training to compensate them for what they sacrificed to their patriotism. Thus, the student who left his studies at nineteen years of age and served four years in France will not benefit from the regulation, while his classmate, who was eighteen and who may not have been near the battle-front, will obtain the special course.

THE WHITEWATER STRIKE.

If there are 50,000,000 tons of high grade limonite ore in the Whitewater district of British Columbia that can be mined by the steam shovel at a cost of under ten cents per ton, Mr. Hawthornthwaite's belief that this Province will have its own blast furnaces, rolling mills and steel plant in the not very distant future may be justified.

If the picture painted by the member for Newcastle is not too highly colored—and competent engineers, as well as other observers, are equally optimistic—the enormity of the deposit would appear to warrant more than passing interest on the part of the Government.

Should the ore be there in the quality and quantity suggested, then British Columbia capital ought to take whatever advantages its development offers; for if the venture is good enough for outside capital to work for the benefit of the outside investor it ought to be good enough for the people of British Columbia.

We presume that if the Government of this Province can be satisfied about the wealth of the deposit, the Department of Mines will undoubtedly take the necessary steps to secure the fullest measure of benefit for the Province.

If, on the other hand, an inexhaustible test should reveal sufficient information about the deposit to discount the optimistic claim, it had better be known so as to prevent a boom in speculation at home or a black eye for the Province by outside capital falling on "stony ground."

ISLAND MEN FOR ISLAND POSTS.

We fully agree with our morning contemporary that positions in the Soldiers' Civil Re-establishment Department on Vancouver Island should be filled by Vancouver Island men. Indeed, this is so obvious that it should not be necessary to call attention to it. There is not a post in that service on this Island which cannot be filled as efficiently by an Island soldier as by an appointee from the Mainland, and any other view will be quite properly resented here.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Miller have the sympathy of the community in the loss of their gallant son from drowning in the Arm on Sunday afternoon. Lieut. Miller was a fine type of young Canadian with a promising career before him, and his many amiable qualities had won for him a wide circle of friends by whom he will be deeply missed.

INSURANCE OF EMPLOYEES BY CITY ALDERMAN

Protective Association Lodges Protest Against Canvassing by Alderman Sargent

ASSOCIATION REFUSED TO WITHDRAW CHARGES

Alderman Sargent was charged at last night's meeting of the City Council with taking advantage of his position as an alderman to attempt to induce the employees of the city to take out life insurance in his company.

The charge was made by the Civic Employees' Protective Association, which also claimed that Alderman Sargent as a member of the conciliation committee of the Council, which regulates salaries at the City Hall is liable to be influenced in favor of or against increasing salaries of prospective clients.

This was the crisis in the "something wrong" at the City Hall. Alderman Sargent made last week by Alderman John Harvey and the sensational charges promised by the civic employees. The council chamber was well filled with about the largest crowd of men and women who have attended a council meeting this year.

Limited Canvassing. Alderman Sargent frankly admitted the truth of the charge, but said he had been asked only by eight or ten persons at the City Hall for life insurance and that only recently.

He, however, charged Mayor Porter with lack of consideration toward the city. The charges were placed on the Council file at the last minute yesterday afternoon by officers of the Association who took this action to prevent their suppression.

Constitutional rules. Alderman Cameron said, would not prevent a statement or an investigation to clear himself. Mayor Porter suggested that Alderman Sargent's reply should be made in writing.

"I have been learning and the citizens have been learning from the newspapers of some mysterious revelations that were made by certain individuals who have been closeted together in places. If you can place any reliance on newspaper reports you would have expected there would have been some divulging of something of importance."

Had to Return to Work. "I came here eleven years ago, and have worked steadily and successfully and invested my earnings from Victoria to Stewart. These investments of mine similar to those of many men like myself, have turned out disastrously. As a result of these disastrous investments I found that I had to earn my bread, and I know of no more honorable way than to write life insurance."

Employees' Charges. The charges of the Civic Employees' Protective Association were in the form of a resolution passed at the last meeting of the Association as follows: "Whereas, communications have been received from members of this association and others protesting against the action of Alderman W. J. Sargent, chairman of the finance committee of the City Council, in taking advantage of his position as an alderman to attempt to induce the employees of the City Corporation to take out life insurance policies with the company or companies for which he is agent;

"And whereas, Alderman Sargent is also a member of the conciliation committee of the City Council, the duty of which is to adjudicate and determine the salaries and wages of the employees of the City Corporation;

"And whereas, in the opinion of this association, Alderman Sargent is not in a position to render an unbiased decision on the question of the promotion or increase of salaries to be awarded to employees of the City Corporation, inasmuch as his judgment in this respect is liable to be influenced, not by the merit and ability of the employees, but solely by the question as to whether the employees are or are not suitable or prospective clients for life insurance in the company or companies for which Alderman Sargent is agent;

"And whereas, the action of Alderman Sargent in soliciting life insurance business from employees of the City Corporation during working hours may not be strictly speaking illegal, it is not conducive to efficiency in the civic service, inasmuch as it tends to create a feeling of unrest in the minds of the employees with regard to the remuneration for their services and the tenure of their employment, nor does it conform to the high standard of civic integrity which is expected from a member of the Council of the Capital City of British Columbia.

"Therefore be it resolved, that the Civic Employees' Protective Association do go on record as protesting against the action of Alderman Sargent and requests the City Council to take immediate steps to insure that this practice is discontinued. In the event of the Council instituting an inquiry into the charges herein set forth, the association is prepared to

And since July 15 I have casually mentioned life insurance to eight persons. I canvassed one man to the extent of showing him the advantages of life insurance and to the others I merely handed blotters. I venture to say with respect to one man that in my canvass of those eight people I didn't spend more than twenty minutes with them.

Choosing New Assessor. "Last winter as a member of the conciliation committee it was intimated that Mr. Northcott, senior, was likely to retire and Mr. McIlmoy's name was mentioned as his successor. I looked upon Mr. McIlmoy as a young man who should have ability and usefulness to serve the city department. My judgment weighed along these lines. Mr. Northcott was before the committee, and his statements were very nothing in that respect to what was in favor of Mr. McIlmoy and later on when

During the voting it was discovered that one alderman had two ballots. The extra one was taken away from him and Mayor Porter made a count of those turned in to make sure there were only ten cast. One member of the Council, Alderman Clark, was absent.

Alderman Harvey Object of Spirited Attack at Council Meeting

Alderman John Harvey and his charges of "something being wrong at the City Hall" were the object of Alderman Patrick's verbal castigation at the City Council last night, following Alderman Sargent's defence of the civic employees' charges against himself.

Alderman Patrick read news stories from The Daily Times, chiefly a report of last week's meeting, when Alderman Harvey claimed that eight important civic officials had resigned in as many months.

"There was Fire Chief Davis at the head of this list," said Alderman Patrick. "Would you believe that Alderman Harvey voted with the rest of the council to accept the Davis resignation? Would you believe it?"

"Then next on the list is the name of City Engineer Rust. Alderman Harvey voted to accept Rust's resignation."

"Then Alderman Harvey knows that City Assessor Northcott—"

"I don't take one word back," broke in Alderman Harvey. "This is all out of order. I don't think it has anything to do with the charges against Alderman Sargent."

Mayor Porter allowed Alderman Patrick to proceed.

"The alderman knows full well that the ex-assessor retired because he wanted to get out of active life during the balance of his old age," Alderman Patrick went on. "He said he had nothing but the most kindly feelings for the officials and the aldermen of the city of Victoria. And the aldermen gave him as a token of their appreciation of his services $500."

"Then there is City Solicitor Hanington. The alderman knows that he never asked any increase of salary, and was satisfied until he got an offer from Vancouver, and we wish him Godspeed."

"Then, City Clerk Dowler. I don't need to mention the circumstances. Alderman Harvey voted in favor of acceptance of that."

"I wish to correct that," replied Alderman Harvey.

"If there is one alderman who will get up and say that Alderman Harvey voted against that, I will take it back," replied Alderman Patrick. "No one rises. Every member of the council voted in favor of receiving and filing the petition in favor of getting him back."

"There is Miss Porrett, who is handed over as one of the city's important employees. She was a stenographer in Mr. Hanington's office."

"I want Alderman Harvey to get up and substantiate his charges—or withdraw them. While I am here I am going to have some respect for the oath of office that I took. As long as we have men who will stand up and tell that there is something wrong, no wonder we have secret sessions of civic employees," Alderman Harvey has never told what that something wrong is."

"Certainly something must be wrong when we get seven or eight resignations in as many months," replied Alderman Harvey. "I didn't say that I voted for or against them. I just made the statement. In all their rambling statements the aldermen have not disproved what I said last week. I never claimed that I opposed any resignations."

"Was the alderman conferring with employees to encourage dissension and discontent?" asked Alderman Patrick.

"Let's leave him alone," said Alderman Andros.

Rev. Father Morice Has Written Extensively on History of Northern Indians

Rev. A. G. Morice, O. M. I. B. D., who was in Victoria last week to see Premier Oliver, is the well-known Indian missionary. His latest brochure on place names of the interior, received in The Times this spring, is a valuable contribution to British Columbia nomenclature. He left on Sunday for the East.

He proposes to issue a dictionary and grammar of the Northern Indian tongues.

Father Morice was born in Meyenne, Normandy, in 1859. He joined the Oblates of Mary Immaculate in 1879, and took his perpetual vows in 1882, two years after his arrival in Canada. His vows were made in New Westminster, and immediately after he was sent to Stuart Lake, where he remained till 1903, a period of twenty-one years.

While at Stuart Lake he made many tours of exploration, and laid the foundation of that respect and admiration of the Dene tribe which, later, was to find expression in his books. In 1905 he was transferred from Northern British Columbia to St. Boniface, Man., where he wrote, in French, a "History of Catholicity in Western Canada" and also the "Life of Archbishop Langevin."

While at Stuart Lake the historian and writer was given a cordial reception by the older Indians. He is the author of "The History of the Northern Interior of British Columbia." Among his other books may be mentioned the "Western Dene" (1888); "Notes on the Western Dene" (1894); in French, "The Land of the Grizzly Bear," published in Paris in 1897, a two-volume book in "The Great Dene Race," issued in Vienna, and his greatest work, "The History of the Northern Interior of British Columbia."

A BEDTIME STORY

UNCLE WIGGLY AND NIPPY'S BONE.
Copyright, 1919, by McClure Newspaper Syndicate. (By Howard R. Garis.)

"Where are you going, Uncle Wiggly?" asked Nurse Jane Fuzzy Wuzzy, the muskrat lady house-keeper, as she saw the bunny rabbit gentleman jumping down off the front porch of his hollow stump bungalow one day.

"Oh! just for a hop through the woods, to see if I may have an adventure," answered Mr. Longears. "Yesterday I saw the Toddle Bug teach Croko, the baby frog, how to be brave and jump. Who knows what may happen to-day?"

"Very true," answered Nurse Jane. "Who knows? But I know one thing, Uncle Wiggly."

"What is that?" the bunny wanted to know.

"That is unless you get me a new broom I cannot sweep your bungalow very clean," answered the muskrat lady. "My old broom is worn out."

"Then you shall have a new one," answered the bunny rabbit, giving a kindly twinkle to his pink nose.

Over the fields, and through the woods he hopped until he came to the broom store. There he bought a fine just sweeper for Nurse Jane, and he was on his way home with it, carrying it over his shoulder as a soldier carries his gun, when, all at once, the rabbit gentleman, heard a grillery-growling noise in the bushes.

"Dear me!" thought Uncle Wiggly. "I hope that isn't the skillery-scalery alligator with the double jointed tail."

Carefully he peered around the corner of an old stump, and there, on the ground the rabbit gentleman saw Nippy.

Nippy was the little puppy dog brother of Jackie and Peetie. Bow-wow, the doggie boys. Any Nippy and Uncle Wiggly were good friends.

"Hello there, Nippy!" called Uncle Wiggly joyfully, when he made sure it wasn't the skillery-scalery alligator with the bumps on his tail.

"What are you doing, Nippy?"

"Gnawing a bone," answered the little doggie. "You see I am just learning how. First I could only gnaw old shoes, books and the like of that. Once I even gnawed my mother's broom. But she took hold of the handle and pulled it away from me."

"And what did you do?" asked Uncle Wiggly.

"Oh, I held on by my teeth as hard as I could, and I pulled, too," answered Nippy. "That's how I learned to make my jaws strong and my

WELL-KNOWN COUPLE WEDDED YESTERDAY

Nuptials of James F. Cameron and Miss Lotus Griffith

Two well-known young people of Victoria were united in marriage yesterday afternoon at three o'clock, when Miss Lotus Zerelda Griffith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Griffith, of 534 Trutch Street, became the bride of James Freeman Cameron, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Cameron, of 1985 Moss Street. The bridegroom recently returned from two and a half years' service overseas with the U.S. Balloon Corps.

The ceremony was performed by Very Rev. the Dean of Columbia at Christ Church Cathedral, a large gathering of friends attending the nuptials. The church was charmingly arranged with white chrysanthemums and mauve and pink asters on the altar, while ivy and pink sweet peas graced the chancel rail. The decorative scheme representing the artistic handiwork of Mrs. D. O. Cameron and Miss Betterton.

The bride, who entered on her father's arm to the strains of the "Bridal Chorus" from "Lohengrin," looked radiant in a smart suit of grey silk velvet, the coat of which was made in Russian blouse fashion. A smart little French hat with crown of shell pink crepe, the brim faced with black velvet and trimmed with pink japonica, and a handsome white fox neckpiece completed her toilette. She carried a lovely shower bouquet of Columbia roses and wore the jeweled gold wrist watch the gift of the bridegroom.

Her three attendants included Miss Charlotte Cahill Betterton, of Seattle, the maid of honor, who wore a very smart costume of navy blue, tricot heavily embroidered with silk, and a hat of navy georgette trimmed with coral-colored poppies; Miss Marguerite Ford Verinder, of Victoria, her bridesmaid, who was in navy tulle with a picturesque hat of navy tulle faced with velvet, and little Gertrude Hicks, the flower girl, who made a charming figure in her dainty frock of coral silk with its gauzy overskirt and white tulle. The silver flower basket which she carried was filled with coral pink sweet peas, a wreath of which encircled her fair hair. Both bridesmaids wore scarfs of black tulle and carried bouquets of Caroline roses and maiden-hair fern.

The best man was William Cameron, a brother of the bridegroom, and the ushers were Miss Patricia and Miss Peggy Cairns, friends of the bride. During the ceremony Miss Mona Misener sang "Beloved It is Morn" very beautifully. To the bridesmaid and maid of honor the bridegroom presented fitted traveling vanity cases, to the flower girl a gold and ruby brooch, and to Miss Misener a patent leather canteen case.

Mr. and Mrs. Cameron left by the 4:30 boat for Seattle, where the bridegroom will resume his studies at the University of Washington, to complete the course interrupted by his departure for overseas service. The bride is prominent in local musical circles as a gifted singer and pianist, and among the many beautiful gifts received was a silver electric reading lamp from the Victoria Choral Society, of which she had been accompanist for the past year. This was accompanied by a message of appreciation for her services coupled with good wishes. Also there was a silver chafing dish from the Volunteer Sewing Club for the Poor, of which she has been an active member for some time.

WELCOME EXTENDED TO REV. J. G. INKSTER

Large Congregational Gathering Last Night at First Presbyterian Church

It was a largely attended and enthusiastic welcome that was extended to Rev. J. G. Inkster in the lecture hall of the First Presbyterian Church last night by the members of his congregation. Several addresses were given at the meeting, and following an excellent programme of music refreshments were served. Mr. Inkster responded to the reception in a few brief and appropriate remarks of appreciation, and spoke encouragingly of the work that lay before the church and which must be accomplished during the coming months.

"The chief task of the church to-day is among young men and women. These are times when it takes courage to be a Christian. If we want to make Christianity what it should be we must apply it to the needs of to-day and every member of the congregation must work."

Mr. Inkster spoke highly of the support which he had received in the work. He looked forward with hope and assurance for even better results during the winter's work, a programme of which he outlined.

Ex-Mayor Alexander Stewart occupied the chair and his address of welcome was followed by a few happy remarks by Rev. A. F. Moore, of Duncan, a former college chum of Mr. Inkster's in Scotland. James Forman, on behalf of the Board of Management, welcomed Mr. Inkster and referred to the splendid financial standing of the church, which is free of taxes but carries a mortgage which it will be the endeavor of the congregation to pay off as soon as possible. Mr. John McLorie, one of the elders, also welcomed Mr. Inkster.

Among those who took part in the programme were: Mr. Charlesworth, pianist solo; Mr. Thomas song; Mrs. Morrison, song; James Petrie, song; Miss Detlor, song.

Opening Displays of Autumn Millinery

ANOTHER opportunity will be presented tomorrow for women to view the handsome Fall hats that we have gathered here for the new season. Exclusive and distinctive models are shown for wearing on various occasions. Brown in its various tones is undoubtedly the most popular color for Autumn wear, and women who have visited this department during the opening displays have seen a remarkable collection of hats in this color. Black, too, is popular, and is shown in some particularly smart models in velvet and hatters plush. Women would do well to take advantage of these extensive displays, of which tomorrow will be the last day, to make their selections.

Thousands of people suffer from baldness and falling hair who, having tried nearly every advertised hair tonic and hair-grower without results, have resigned themselves to baldness and attendant discomfort. Yet their case is not hopeless; the following simple home prescription has made hair grow after years of baldness, and is also unequalled for restoring gray hair to its original color, stopping hair from falling out, and destroying the dandruff germ. It will not make the hair greasy, and can be put up by any druggist: Bay Rum, 6 ounces, Lavina de Composes, 2 ounces, Menthol Crystals, one-half drachm. If you wish it perfumed add 1 drachm of your favorite perfume. This preparation is highly recommended by physicians and specialists and is absolutely harmless. It contains none of the poisonous wood alcohol so frequently found in hair tonics. Ladies using this prescription should avoid the use of soap to get it on the face or where hair is not desired.

CHAPTER TO OBSERVE ANNIVERSARY DAY

Lady Alderson Chapter to Make Street Collection on October 3.

The September meeting of the Lady Alderson Chapter, I. O. D. E., antedated on account of the regent's absence, was held on Monday, when arrangements were made for the commemoration of October 3, the date of the sailing of the first Canadian contingent. The Chapter has received permission to mark this anniversary by taking up a street collection in aid of the Memorial Fund and patriotic work of the Chapter. A picture depicting the departure of this contingent is to be presented by the Chapter to a local school on October 3.

Two pictures, of the sailing of the first contingent, and the departure of the Canadian troops for France were presented to the Chapter by its educational secretary, Mrs. Ricketts, and will be hung in the municipal headquarters.

Contributions were voted to the Child Welfare and Navy League funds, and other appeals were favorably considered.

Miss Ravenhill's resignation as convener of the sewing committee, on account of illness, was received with regret, and a standing vote of thanks was passed to Mrs. Anderson, secretary.

Just going to grab the bunny rabbit, when, all at once Nippy ran and rolled himself in a puddle of sticky mud. And then that brave little puppy ran and rolled himself in the loose, stickery, and prickly broom splints that he chucked out of the new broom. And then just as the Pipsisewah was about to bite some mouse off Uncle Wiggly's ears, Nippy, all mud and sticking-out broom splints as he was, ran straight for the bad creature, and cried:

"Wuff! Wuff! Wuff!"

"O, dear me hum sus did and some cat-tail lollypops!" howled the Pip. "I didn't know there was a prickly hedgehog porcupine here. Oh, hell stick me full of stickers!" And then the Pipsisewah ran away as fast as he could run, and he didn't hurt Uncle Wiggly at all. And the bunny cried it was all right for Nippy to have chewed the broom and Mr. Longears bought Nurse Jane another new one.

"So, you see, it's a good thing the little puppy made believe he was a porcupine, and scared the Pip. And if the pickle fork doesn't tickle the chow-chow when it goes down in the salt cellar after the pepperhash, I'll tell you next about Uncle Wiggly and the brown balls.

Beautiful Women of Society, during the past seventy years have relied upon it for their distinguished appearance. The soft, refined, pearly white complexion it renders instantly, is always the source of flattering comment.

ESQUIMALT TO VOTE ON LIBRARY QUESTION

Will Probably Follow Saanich's Lead by Submitting Referendum to People

Esquimalt apparently will follow the lead of Saanich in the matter of the dispute regarding the amount that Municipality should contribute to the Library Commissioners in order that the residents of Esquimalt may avail themselves of the use and privileges of the Victoria Public Library. At the meeting of the Esquimalt Council held last night, it was recommended by Councillor Porter that the Library dispute should be settled by a referendum to the people. Councillor Anderson presided at the Council meeting, in the absence of Reeve Coates, and the library question was one of the first items of business dealt with at the meeting.

For the mental recreation and the educational facilities of the Victoria Public Library, Esquimalt is asked to contribute in proportion to the service which she receives, or to put it in figures, somewhere around $900 per annum instead of the $250 flat grant which the district has heretofore made. The Library Commissioners claim it is a case of over-laxing Victorians unless the disproportionate library grants from Saanich and Esquimalt are rectified. Esquimalt's Council refuses to advance beyond the $250 mark. As a result of the attitude adopted the people of that district are now deprived of the library privileges. The majority of the Councillors thought the matter could be dealt with at the forthcoming elections.

The Council decided to grant the sum of $200 to the Friendly Help Society, after listening to some eulogistic statements from Councillors Wise, Cave and Mosher respecting the work of the organization.

Communications from two returned soldiers who were anxious to take up the housing scheme started a discussion on the Dominion Housing Scheme. Councillor Bridle stated that Oak Bay Council had deferred dealing with some applications on the ground that the city authorities were in doubt as to the legal aspect of some of the clauses. Pending further light being thrown on the matter action on the applications was deferred. The Council authorized the grading of Effingham Street.

DOMINION

The willingness of a girl to sacrifice wealth, comfort and luxury to which she had been accustomed in order to live with her father although his abode was a tenement house forms the central theme in "The Hoodlum," starring Mary Pickford, produced by her at the Dominion Theatre.
As Amy Burke, Miss Pickford's station in life switches from one of chummy roadsters, crepe-de-chine frocks, maids and money to push carts, poverty-stricken districts, the garb of the destitute and crap-games with the East Side boys.
Amy's wealth was brought about by her prosperous grandfather, a power in the financial world, and her poverty results when she chooses to be the only bit of pleasure in the life of her poor father who devotes his time to sociological writing. In the tenement district Amy discovers a friend who has been sent to a prison by the millionaire Guthrie, her grandfather.

How Amy's determination to reinstate the man her grandfather wronged in his proper sphere leads her into the hands of a merciless police system and ultimate happiness makes a very interesting and pleasing end for the feature.

ROMANO

"All Wrong," one of Pathe's Extra Selected Star Photoplays, featuring that popular young matinee idol Bryant Washburn, will be presented at the Romano again to-day. The producers describe "All Wrong" as a brilliantly entertaining farce-comedy of the hilarious type, full of the brim with comical situations, witty lines, shrieks of laughter, sustained interest and broad humor. The three previous Pathe-Washburn "Two-Two-One," "Kiddie & Ko" and "The Ghost of the Rancho" were all excellent comedy-dramas, but "All Wrong" is said to be the best picture produced to date in which Bryant Washburn has starred. As a special added attraction, the second of a series of Eddie Leckie features will be shown at the Romano.

COLUMBIA

Photoplay fans in this city who had an opportunity of seeing J. Warren Kerrigan in his first lead, "Paralytic Man's Man" and "The Turn of a Card," will welcome with delight the announcement that he has recurred to the screen in a picture which he sustained several months ago, and was seen on the screen of the Columbia yesterday, commencing a three-day showing in his newest port, "Fayal under the Paralytic banner." "One Dollar Bid" which is a screen interpretation of Credle Harris' popular novel, "Toby," which was listed as one of the "best sellers" when it appeared in book form a few years ago. "One Dollar Bid" is a typical Kerrigan story, with all the dash and red-blooded romance he has established. Mr. Kerrigan is the foremost actor of his type that the screen has ever known. The story is laid in that part of Kentucky which has been so often and with so much success in both song and story. In "One Dollar Bid," Mr. Kerrigan is seen as a young man who has been raised in the negro quarters of the town, neglected by both whites and blacks alike, until at last he attracts the attention of Virginia Duro, daughter of a wealthy planter, who takes him to her father's plantation to give him a chance in life. The romance that follows is the most beautiful and charming of which Mr. Kerrigan is a master, unfolds one of the most forceful photo interpretations in which this most popular star has ever appeared.

PRINCESS

Songs that have never before been heard in Victoria will be one of the many distinct features in R. N. Hincks' great new original musical comedy, "Oh, Jupiter," which appears at the above theatre on Friday evening next. Clever dialogue, local and topical allusions, sparkling singing and pretty dancing, the whole promising to supply one of the most enjoyable evenings' entertainment that has ever been staged in the above increasingly popular little playhouse. The cast includes Miss Eva Hart, Mrs. F. Beilby, Lieut. R. R. Webb and Messrs. R. N. Hincks, James Hunter, S. G. Clarke and A. M. D. Fairbairn, all of whose abilities are too well known to need any elaborate mention. They will be assisted by a specially selected chorus and a delightful evening's amusement and entertainment is assured. The box office is now open.

ABUNDANT THRILLS

Royal Uyeno Jays Give Amazing Exhibition of Skill at Pantages

Half a dozen excellent vaudeville turns combined with a new serial film which promises thrilling interest, offers good amusement measure at the Pantages this week. The current show compares in every way with the high class vaudeville shows put on at the Government Street playhouse in recent weeks. The "Nine Royal Uyeno Jays" occupy the premier place on the bill, and are described as Japan's foremost exponents of equilibristic specialties. In tumbling and foot-work the Uyeno Jays are unsurpassed. One of the unusual specialties offered is the juggling of human beings by means of the pedal extremities. The youthful members of the Japanese troupe display much cleverness in presenting various individual feats of skill. The act is gorgeously staged and the performers arrayed in the gaily-hued costume of the Nipponese. This is undoubtedly one of the best offerings of its kind ever sent over the Pantages circuit. The Royal Uyeno Jays were accorded a generous hand by packed first night houses.

Another distinctive and highly-pleasing act is presented by the Six Venetian Gypsies. This is a wonderful musical turn and singing put on in a Venetian setting. The repertoire of the company embraces Grand Opera and the most popular of Italian folk songs. A wide range of musical instruments are played, including the accordion, harp and guitar. The musicians prove to the satisfaction of the audience that they are just as proficient in rendering jazz, ragtime or popular hits as in the classical numbers.

The Makarekos are operatic singers and entertainers. The lady has a voice of wide range and the male pulls some comedy stuff which is enhanced by his broken English. Cats, rats, dogs and pigeons are the performers comprising Alice's Pets. This act is a real novelty and will be the feature attraction with the youngsters. A singing and talking act is presented by Weber and a lot of real fun is created by Arthur Silber and Eva North.

CROWDED HOUSE AT

"MY HONOLULU GIRL"

Beautiful Scenic Effects and Tuneless Songs at Royal Victoria

A crowded house at the Royal Victoria Theatre last night witnessed the first performance of the musical comedy, "My Honolulu Girl," a bright and breezy production fully flavored with the Hawaiian atmosphere which has had such a tremendous vogue during the past year.

From the spectacular point of view the production is charming, the settings representing the beauty spots of the Hawaiian Isles. The famous beach at Waikiki and the volcano of Kilaua in eruption are reproduced with striking effect and furnish vivid background for the action of the comedy. The plot is somewhat lacking in coherence, but a mere thread of incident serves as the necessary background for a pot-pourri of tuneless songs and instrumental numbers.

A quintette of native Hawaiians contribute a number of pleasing instrumental numbers and sing such old favorites as "Aloha, Oe" with a pleasing harmony. Of the principals, Miss Madeline La Fere as the English maid servant was responsible for much of the comedy element singing a number of catchy songs and dancing with much skill and grace. Eddie Lew-Krauer the principal comedian, earned well-merited applause for his eccentric dances and his entertaining vivacity. Miss Kathryn Purcell, Miss Billie Emerson Thadd de Monaco and Sam E. Barlow, the low comedian, completed the cast of principals. A bevy of pretty chorus-girls with an apparently endless wardrobe considerably to the attractiveness of the show which is to be repeated to-night.

FISHERMEN SCATTER WHEN WHALES ARRIVE

Half a Dozen Big Monsters of the Deep Seen at Fowl Bay

Half a dozen whales, declared by eye witnesses to be full grown specimens of the largest finny monsters, astonished fishermen at Fowl Bay, Sunday and caused a hasty retreat to the beach of those in the craft which the mammoths might have splintered into matchboard.

There was no mistaking the monsters and those who saw them scoff at the idea that they were possible, under a misapprehension and may have seen a school of porpoise. Among the fishermen who were out trying their luck Sunday were one or two experienced deep sea men familiar with the habits of the whale and they have no hesitation in declaring that the big monsters seen at Fowl Bay were the real McCoy.

Columbus, Ohio, Sept. 15. Three of the four favorites in the opening programme of the two-weeks' Grand Circuit race meeting here were defeated this afternoon. The biggest surprise was the defeat of Grace Direct in the King Stake, 2.06 pace by Sanardo, who won in straight heats. The best time was 2.02 1/4 in the first mile.

It took four heats to decide the two-year-old colt trot, Day Star finally taking first money. Duetette was quite lame but managed to capture second money. Best time 2:10. Hollyrood Kate won the 2:07 trot with Busy Lassie, a good second. Best time 2:06 1/4.

Trouble developed again on Sunday, and Barrieu was this morning allowed out on suspended sentence, and the remainder of the parties were given a stern warning that they had better keep away from trouble in future, and so avoid serious developments.

PATRIOTIC SERVICE COMMITTEE I.O.D.E. CLOSES ITS WORKS

Meeting To-day Reviewed Efforts Carried on Since August, 1914

After over five years of devoted service in the interests of the dependents of Victoria soldiers, the Patriotic Service Committee of the I. O. D. E. this morning held its closing meeting, and after to-day will cease to exist. Although, however, the committee ceases its existence, the members who have been acting as visitors will continue their friendly calls on the widows and orphans of fallen soldiers, to ensure that none of these brave women should be stranded at any time for want of a helping hand.

Chairman's Address. Mrs. R. S. Day was in the chair and in the course of her address paid sincere tribute to the workers of the committee. She said: "There is always a feeling of sadness and regret when we come to the close of some great work which has become part of our daily lives, especially if this work has been the means of forming life-long ties of interest and friendship between us and those with whom we have been associated."

"After over five years of such work together, during which our relationships have been of the happiest, we naturally experience some regret, mingled though it be with feelings of deep thankfulness that the necessity for our efforts along these lines is at an end."

"As you know we have acted in a dual capacity, that of relief and visiting committee of the Victoria Patriotic Aid Society and the Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire, administering the fund for the widows, orphans and dependents of those who have made the supreme sacrifice, and it is only in the former capacity that, after this meeting, we are to continue to exist. Our other work of sympathy and tender care for those who have suffered the greatest of all losses by reason of the war will continue to require our interest and support."

"But I do not feel that we can disembark a visiting committee of the Victoria Patriotic Aid Society without personally, as convener of this committee thanking you each and all for your unflinching loyalty, courtesy, kindness and the work you have so faithfully helped us to carry on since the day on which we started to the present day, with the maximum amount of efficiency and the minimum amount of friction."

"Many times when Mrs. Oliver and I did not know where else to turn for help when trouble, sickness or sorrow entered the home of our men overseas, we always found our visitors ready and willing to give their kindly services, in order to alleviate suffering in any shape or form."

"Of the magnitude of your work few have any conception as it cannot be tabulated, but when we realize that during some of the years of war as many as from 1,200 to 1,400 homes were visited every month, and some every week or oftener, we know that the tribute of appreciation could be great enough to offer as an expression of our gratitude, and I can only thank you again and again for the whole-hearted and self-sacrificing service you have rendered to us, to the community, to the men who fought and died for us and to the Empire at large."

"Of the greater possibilities which lie before us now, perhaps this is not the time or the place to speak; but I am confident that the same energy, the same resourcefulness and the same steadfastness of purpose will be shown in the work of restoration as has characterized your work during the devastating years of war."

Tribute From G. W. V. A. Further mark of appreciation of the work of the committee was contained in the various letters read at this morning's meeting. A letter from R. H. Swinerton, hon. secretary-treasurer of the Victoria Patriotic Aid Society, contained a copy of the following letter from the secretary of the Victoria branch of the G. W. V. A.:

"I have the honor, by direction of Contractor to the Canadian Government the general meeting of this Association, to forward you this letter of thanks to yourself and the lady workers of your Society for the work you have done for the soldiers and their dependents during the last five years and to assure you, that this work is fully appreciated by us all."

Trustees' Appreciation. Writing on behalf of the trustees of the Victoria Patriotic Aid Society, Mr. Swinerton said:

"Dear Mrs. Day.—The Trustees of the Victoria Patriotic Aid Society desire to express to you and the members of your committee their deep appreciation of the committee's work while acting as the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Canadian Patriotic Fund during the very eventful years just now past."

"They tender your committee their congratulations on work accomplished and work well done."

"One of the pleasant memories of these associations will be the very active and untiring efforts of your body, actuated and enriched by the highest motives of patriotism, making it a work of love rather than of duty."

"We have received many letters from dependents and from their husbands and relatives serving overseas, expressing their sincere gratitude and warm appreciation of the helpful and kindly nature of your committee's services. Their letters are strong testimony of the value of your work; and we are certain that many soldiers facing the enemy's lines must have found comfort in the thought that their wives and children were ready to help in the spirit of true friendship those near and dear to them."

"In the victory of our arms, a war waged for the declared principles of right and justice has ended. May these principles direct and guide us in the future, so that the era of peace, on the threshold of which we are bringing with it a happier, more prosperous and contented humanity."

"This wish we feel is your desire, and its realization would be the best recompense for your splendid services."

Generous Contributions. At the meeting thanks were expressed to Miss Pooley, through whose splendid efforts the sum of $356.55 has been added to the fund, $236.55 of which were the proceeds of a raffle conducted at the market and the balance through the sale of flowers; also to the Princess Dramatic Society for $200, being the net proceeds of the last two performances at the Princess Theatre. These contributions were acknowledged with warm appreciation.

The resignation of Miss Leighton, who has been honorary secretary-treasurer of the committee for the past four years, was received with much regret and a standing vote of thanks was passed to her. Mrs. A. F. Griffiths, regent of the Municipal Chapter, I. O. D. E., on behalf of the chapter extended her thanks to Mrs. Day and the members of the committee for their unflinching devotion to the cause of the soldiers' widows and orphans during the past four years.

Many of the big business deals of the Victoria of last century and the early part of this century were consummated over tables in the boxes of the restaurant, where the prominent men of the community were wont to dine and entertain their friends. Many events of other nature, that still stick prominently in the memories of old Victorians and provide material for many of them to gossip over to-day—occurred within its walls.

Some time ago the Young estate left the property to the city for taxes. Last night Thomas Kelway made an offer to the finance committee of the City Council of $7,120 for the property. This offer, the finance committee accepted and their action was endorsed by the full Council.

FRONTENAC IS THIRD IN SPEED AVERAGE

Tenth Vessel of French Fleet Establishes General Average of 12.49 Knots on Trials To-day—Fifty Per Cent. of Ships Now Delivered

With the completion of the Frontenac's trials to-day fifty per cent. of the French fleet has been delivered by the Foundation Company. Running her official trials this forenoon over the Parry Bay course the Frontenac established the splendid general average of 12.49 knots, being the third best ship of the fleet in point of speed.

The Frontenac was launched from the Point Ellice yard of the company July 11 last, and was sponsored by Mrs. R. T. Freeman.

Tenth Ship. She is the tenth ship of the fleet of twenty 3,000-ton wooden steamships for the French Government. The Frontenac left Ogdén Point at 8 o'clock this morning and headed direct for Parry Bay.

On the run to Albert Head she knocked off about 11 knots which presaged a very successful trial. On arrival at the marks the vessel got away to a splendid start making her first official run on a course from off William Head.

Making the measured mile in 4 minutes 45 seconds the steamer averaged 12.63 knots, an excellent average in view of the fact that several pounds of steam were lost in making the turn for position.

The second run over the course was made in 4 minutes 49 seconds, averaging 12.45 knots. On this run the vessel was slightly handicapped by tide.

The average for the first round trip was 12.54 knots. On the third run over the course the Frontenac made the measured mile in 4 minutes 55 seconds, averaging 12.39 knots.

The fourth run was made in 4 minutes 42 seconds, giving a speed of 12.76 knots. The average for the round trip was 12.48 knots.

On the fifth run the mile was covered in 4 minutes 35 seconds, at 12.87 knots. The time for the sixth run was 4 minutes 47 seconds, giving 12.54 knots. The average for this round trip was 12.45 knots.

Lunch was served aboard with Fred Fuller, Port Steward, supervising the commissariat.

Fast Installation. The engines were dropped into the hold of the Frontenac on Tuesday last, and on Thursday morning the power plant was turned over. Three days for the installation of engines is something of a record. This time, however, was beaten, when the engines were installed in the Trois Rivières, a great going ship, in two days and a half.

"We have a great gang out at the Point," said George Wayland, "what-ever you ask them to do, they do it."

The next Foundation ship to be sent over the trial course will be the Victoria, which will run her trials on Monday next. An effort is going to be made by the Ogdén Point organization to establish a new record this month by turning out five completed ships by September 30.

These Aboard. George H. Wayland, superintendent at the Ogdén Point, went out in charge of the trials. Others aboard were W. G. Winterburn, local representative for the Bureau Veritas; G. Thomas, representing the French High Commission; Harry Barnett, hull inspector for the Bureau Veritas; J. R. Hodgson, Machinery Expert for the Bureau Veritas; D. H. Finnick, G. W. Ferris, H. C. Ferris.

The ship was under the command of Capt. T. J. Jackman, port captain for the Foundation Company, and Capt. William Cox went out as pilot. The engine room was in charge of Ed. Bennett, installation engineer at Ogdén Point.

Jack Rosecamp handled the wheel in his customary finished manner. Throughout the trials the vessel kept her course finely.

Scranton Engines. The engines installed in the Frontenac were supplied by the National Marine Engine Works, of Scranton, Pa. This firm is controlled by the Foundation Company, and the Frontenac's engines are the first to be delivered here from the Scranton plant.

Another engine unit was delivered at Ogdén Point on Monday last, and will be installed in the Montmagtry.

WINNIPEG LEAVES ON MAIDEN VOYAGE

Extraordinary Success Which "Fruit-a-tives" Has Achieved

On her maiden voyage to France the wooden steamship Winnipeg, Capt. Len Raymond, left port last night, laden with 1,375,000 feet of lumber shipped in the Inner Harbor. The Winnipeg boasts the fastest time of any vessel of the French fleet yet put over the trial course, her speed being 12.49 knots, and a half knot. It is expected that she will make the Panama zone in twenty-one days and should complete her trans-Atlantic voyage in forty-five days. The vessel is bound to Queenstown for orders.

Five ships built by the Foundation Company for the French Government have now been dispatched to sea. The steamship Canada will be the next ship to go on berth. She will leave Ogdén Point to-morrow for Nanaimo to load bunkers and from the coal port will go to Port Alberni to take on lumber for Europe.

Provincial Metals at Williams Lake. P. G. E. Reaches Appointed Place on the Date Promised by Premier

During the early part of the last session of the Provincial Legislature Premier Oliver announced to the House that steel would be laid on the Pacific Great Eastern line as far as Williams Lake by September 15. A wire reaching the Parliament Buildings from Chief Engineer Proceedings yesterday afternoon announced the fact that the promise had been fulfilled about an hour before noon.

Particular emphasis was laid upon the Premier's promise at the time on account of a little scepticism on the part of the Leader of the Opposition. Mr. Oliver stated this morning that Williams Lake would have been reached in at least eight days less than the scheduled time if it had not been for difficulties encountered with nearly a mile of bog land, and more especially that the located grade traversed an old creek bottom for about a mile, with the result that as soon as the construction train traversed it, or attempted to do so, it sank.

To make good the resistible grades by the thousand had to be piled in, and while it is believed that the difficulty has been overcome, the Chief Engineer declares that it may be necessary at a later date to re-locate for about a couple of miles.

The Premier explains that there is a good hard ground paralleling the present grade which could have been used originally if the proper tests had been taken.

TRY MAGNESIA FOR STOMACH TROUBLE It Neutralizes Stomach Acidity, Prevents Food Fermentation, Sour, Gassy Stomach and Acid Indigestion.

Doublets if you are a sufferer from indigestion, you have already tried pepsin, bismuth, soda, charcoal, drugs and various digestive aids and you know that these do not cure your trouble—in some cases do not even give relief.

Before giving up hope and declaring you are a chronic dyspeptic just try the effect of a little bisulphate of magnesium—not the ordinary commercial carbonate, citrate, oxide or milk, but the pure, bisulphate of magnesium which you can obtain from practically any druggist in either powdered or tablet form.

Take a teaspoonful of the powder or two compressed tablets with a little water after your next meal, and you will find that provided you take a little bisulphate of magnesium immediately after a meal, you can eat almost anything and enjoy it without any danger of pain or discomfort to follow and moreover, the continued use of the bisulphate of magnesium cleanses the stomach in any way so long as there are any symptoms of acid indigestion.

SUCCESSFUL TIME AT PORT TOWNSEND Exhibition Flights of Pathfinder No. 2 Prove Popular; Flying and Poker

"Pathfinder" No. 2, piloted by Jack Clemence with Mr. Plant the senior mechanic of the Aerial League of Canada returned yesterday afternoon at 4:40 p. m., after being at the September Fall Fair, Port Townsend from Wednesday last to Monday afternoon. The exhibition was a successful one in every respect, a great deal of trick flying being done and a total of fifty passengers being carried.

So enthusiastic were the citizens of Port Townsend to have flights in the Aeris America's aeroplane that a huge waiting list was formed, but owing to the short period of stay many were disappointed in having to be refused a flight. The total flying time, that is from Victoria to Port Townsend, exhibition flying and passenger carrying, return to Victoria, was fifteen hours and forty minutes, and a total amount of gasoline consumed was ninety-six gallons and five and one-half gallons of oil. It was observed that during the whole time and the machine turned approximately six and one-half gallons of gasoline and three pints of oil per hour.

The "Pathfinder" covered roughly 340 miles during the fifteen hours and forty minutes flying time. Many passengers were carried including an elderly lady of fifty-five who was greatly delighted and impressed with the planes' steadiness and scenic beauty from the air. A gentleman of forty-five who was carried and who was taken into a spinning nose dive six times remarked after landing, "By heck! I have lost a darn sight more at a poker game and never felt one-tenth of the sensation that I had up there." Great credit goes to the pilot of the machine, owing to the fact that the landing field was most unsuitable for the purpose, landing had to be made across wind and the whole time and the machine slipped on to its landing ground, there being high tensioned electric cables surrounding it. On Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock the exhibition was welcomed and circled by the "Pathfinder," photographs being taken by a passenger. Later the machine left for Victoria, arriving at the Willows at 4:40, taking roughly thirty-five minutes to cross from Port Townsend. It was a notable fact amongst the people that many of them had never seen the exhibition plane, and that Alaska was quite close, but when they were informed that the machine had only taken thirty-five to forty minutes to come from Victoria, they were greatly surprised, and many spoke of their intention to fly over and visit this city.

POLICE TO WATCH CARNIVAL DANCING The nature of the dancing and other amusements that are proposed by King Kelly and others for the Fisgard Street carnival during the visit of the Prince of Wales, interested the aldermen at last night's meeting of the City Council.

Mayor Forter told the aldermen that early in the year a show was staged in the Hudson's Bay building. After it had been in operation for little more than half a year he went over to see what it was like, and was so surprised at the things he saw that he called in the police chief and they had the show closed.

"Skin games" and the "shimmy" dance worried Alderman Andrew, who said "Other cities have dancing on the public streets and there is no earthly harm in it," he said. "The only thing is that I'm not young enough myself to get out and dance with the bunch."

"If they dance the 'shimmy' or any other thing not respectable they will be put out by the police. When they ask of us permission for any innocent amusement they want to put up they will be endorsed."

"We ought to know something more about this before we endorse it," said Alderman Andrew, when the Royal Week committee informed the Council of their intention to hold five nights of high carnival from September 23 to 27 on Fisgard Street, east of Douglas Inlet, at on Yates Street, as had been proposed.

It was explained that to hold the carnival on Yates Street would draw the crowd away from the Home Products Fair. But holding it just outside the fair building would enable people to look around the fair until they were tired, and then go outside and dance on the street. It was proposed to have a band on the street which Mr. Kelly suggests should be placed on a movable stand that can be wheeled up and down the street to add variety to the entertainment and to keep the wind from blowing the music out of the hearing of the dancers.

The Council decided that the proposal was satisfactory as it is not to cost the city anything and instructed the police to look into the amusements that will be started and the style of dancing.

In connection with this matter F. Westley Newton, general secretary, announces to-day that L. Turner will provide orchestral music. All suggestions should be made to him, care of the Mayor's Secretary, City Hall.

WOULD PUT MORE TAXES ON MOTOR DRIVERS A new plan to increase the City's revenue and at the same time eliminate reckless motor car driving was proposed to the City Council last night by Walter J. Dandridge, 1612 Bell Street.

"I would suggest every person who drives an auto should undergo an examination as to fitness and ability to drive on the public streets," explained Mr. Dandridge. "When the person has passed the test and his ability recognized he should be compelled to wear a badge when driving the car and pay a nominal fee of about $2 or $3 for examination. I believe you could get some person to undertake these duties on a small commission basis, without the expense of a permanent force."

BITRO-PHOSPHATE IS GOOD FOR THIN NERVOUS PEOPLE A PHYSICIAN'S ADVICE. Frederick S. Kille, M. D., Editor of New York Physicians' Who's Who, says that weak nervous people who want increased weight, strength and nerve-force, should take a 5-grain tablet of Bitro-Phosphate for a two weeks' supply—it costs only fifty cents a week.

"This particular phosphate is the discovery of a famous French scientist, and reports of remarkable results from its use have recently appeared in many medical journals."

"If you do not feel well; if you tire easily; do not sleep well, or are too thin; go to any good druggist and get enough Bitro-Phosphate for a two weeks' supply—it costs only fifty cents a week."

"Eat less; chew your food thoroughly, and if at the end of a few weeks you do not feel stronger and better than you have for months, if your nerves are not steadier; if you do not sleep better and have more vim, endurance and vitality, your money will be returned, and the Bitro-Phosphate will cost you nothing. It is sold by Cyrus H. Brown in Victoria and all good druggists."

ONLY TWO CANDIDATES FOR LABOR NOMINATION

Tom Richardson, former Labor member of the British House of Commons, has withdrawn his name as a candidate for the nomination of the Federated Labor Party in opposition to the Hon. S. F. Tolmie, Minister of Agriculture, when he comes before the electorate in the by-election here.

This leaves only two men in the field for the Labor nomination, W. E. Pierce, of Victoria, and Thomas A. Barnard, president of the Great War Veterans' Association of New Westminster, and a Labor leader on the mainland. The party will hold its adjourned nomination meeting tomorrow night at the K. of P. Hall, North Park Street.

he was assessor I was asked by the Council to give him what help I could. I have done that. I may have offended him in one way. It was reported to the committee that Mr. Northcott, Jr. was refusing to make searches on land titles unless he was put on the permanent staff. I advised him to go down and make the searches and he saw the force of my argument and went down and made the searches. I told him that when an opening came he would be put on the permanent staff. Later on when an extra man was wanted in there and I believe in having efficient members of the staff, I heard of a young man who was a returned soldier, and I put him in after consulting the Mayor. It is just possible that I didn't please him in that particular. Up to the present moment I have endeavored to help Mr. McIlmoyle and given him assistance in every way.

Favored Increased Salaries.
"When he resigned I thought he knew what he was doing and the same with Mr. Shade. As far as being the chairman of the finance committee, I don't think I have said one word to influence the finance committee with respect to its decision.

"The Council has been made to look a bit cheap with respect to these two men. Mr. McIlmoyle was receiving two years ago $99 a month, and the council committee raised him to $110 and then we raised him to $150 which was above what Mr. Northcott got when he started as assessor of the City. Mr. McIlmoyle was the third member of the staff up to April and he was increased from $110 to $150. In talking over matters with him within the last month I told him, 'What you want to do is to show that you are making good and if there is a chance of a raise you will get it.'

"The position is that at the present time the assessor's staff is in the midst of the season's roll which must be returned by the middle of October. What will business men think of the head of a department who will throw up the preparation of that roll in the middle of the business and resign? I thought that Mr. McIlmoyle had had a good increase and that he should at least have completed the important work he had in hand before he thought of resigning.

Not Paying Office.

"He is a young man in that staff and he is absolutely a new man since last April and he was getting with-in $10 of what Mr. Northcott received. I think it only my duty to put the citizens right as to these conditions.

"Mr. Shade as well is not an old man. Go back over the receipts of the planning inspector's department and the citizens will get an idea of the importance of the work. Last month the receipts were $125, so from a financial point of view the building and plumbing inspector's office at this time is no very important affair.

"These men know what they were doing and I presume they are doing better by resigning rather than by staying in the City Hall. We can't hold a man if he wants to go.

"I think I had as much to do with any increases given as any other member of the staff. I favor an efficient well-paid staff, and I prefer it over a much bigger poorly-paid staff. I was personally instrumental in committee in increasing the salary of one lady to the same basis as the men working beside her because Mr. Baymur said she was giving as much work and as efficient work and did more important work. When I came back from being ill I found that my recommendations for some of these increases had been turned down and the pay put back. I did as much as any other member toward seeing that those increases were given last winter.

Adopts New Policy.
"I led up to the point where I came back to the City Hall after being away for some time. I decided what should I stay with those previous resolutions to not offer my policy to any member of the city staff. I suggested the matter to eight persons. Two I canvassed to the others I handed blotters. With respect to the warnings and the suggestions and private meetings and the people being closeted together, it is a case of the mountain laboring for two weeks.

"I have given the facts with regard to my good relation towards the staff and irrespective of that letter and anything else I will stand by any member of the staff for what is justice and fair play, for the man or woman of small pay or the man at the head of a department of the city. But I want fair play myself, and when that is done I am through.

Represents No Clique.
"I am here representing the citizens of the city and not representing any clique of employees. As chairman of the finance committee I know that last summer, in June, this city offered nearly $1,000,000 of tax lands for sale and had to buy back over $900,000 of this amount. I know that to-day we are carrying over $300,000 of current account. We have not been able to meet expenses, and the taxpayers are indebted for millions of dollars. Many men have put money into properties and they are losing that. Realizing that I am here representing the citizens of Victoria, and I am not here to hand out plums to any clique.

Disappointed at Mayor.
"In a certain municipal council in the West I sat in a position for eleven years, and for five years I was elected by acclamation. I have sat here under three mayors, and my time has been at the disposal of the City of Victoria, and I have never refused when I was wanted."

Alderman Sargent here declared that he regretted that the Mayor had not mentioned these charges to him, although in the other council on which he served an alderman in such a position would never have been treated that way.

"My friends tried to show the unwisdom of bringing on this document now," the alderman continued, "and you, Mr. Mayor, said that it had to go. I am sorry, Mr. Mayor, and I am disappointed."

"The citizens have been worked up to a point to expect something serious, and now the thing is out and I am charged with endeavoring to write life insurance.

"I declare now that I am going back to my first love, the sentiment that guided me up to July 15, and I am not going to do it any more. When I came back I was not better and I can't get around like I could before, and I would not have done it under any other condition. Medical men here tell me that if I were wise I would not be going around at all, as what I am doing is at the risk of being permanently lame."

"I have made my statement. I have been friends of yours," he said, looking around the council chamber. "Here's your document. Take it and do what you want. I consider that when I have written a policy on a man's life I have done him the best turn I can do him."

Character Abuse Repealed.
Alderman Patrick admitted that the charges had been discussed with the members of the Civic Employees' Protective Association with the idea of having them withdrawn "because it was bad business for the city and the employees."

"If the officials of the organization would withdraw their charges we were willing to guarantee that Alderman Sargent would stop his canvassing," said Alderman Patrick. "I am very glad to see that the city's employees are very particular about their time, and don't want to waste a minute. I am thoroughly glad that our employees are all so zealous in their work."

"There is no use spending time on this thing for it is contemptible. It is contemptible for any association to stoop so low as to charge a man with doing an honest business and trying to make an honest living."

The alderman went on to explain that in the last eight and one-half months there has been a deficit in expenditure over income of $509 in the building and plumbing inspection department.

"Then these men ask for an increase of $200, and the charge is that there is something wrong at the City Hall," he went on.

Alderman Patrick then read news stories from The Times in which Alderman Harvey was quoted as deprecating the resignations of eight officials and charged that the alderman's vote was not against the resignations.

"And here these employees come to-night with this wonderful thing against Alderman Sargent," he continued. "Alderman Sargent's character is above reproach."

"Had to Come," Says Mayor.
"This is all a tempest in a tea pot," said Alderman Sargent. Mayor Porter said that he was on the stairway when a member of the treasury called and asked him to see Alderman Patrick.

"An official agreed not to present the letter to-day, and he saw other officials, but they were determined that they must give their pound of flesh and blacken the character of Alderman Sargent, and you said the thing must go through," interjected Alderman Patrick.

Mayor Porter. My words to the official were: "I am very sorry that a document such as that is coming in, but if it has to come let it come."

Newspaper Influence.
The Mayor said that he could do nothing else with such a document as long as it was signed and couched in respectable language, especially because the newspaper said that the employees feared that the document would be suppressed.

"I told the officers of the association that they would not be in any worse position if they left it over a week," said Alderman Patrick. "This is nothing more nor less than a conspiracy of the lowest kind. I understood that Alderman Sargent agreed not to solicit, and that this would satisfy the occasion. But nothing would satisfy them unless it came out in public."

The Mayor explained that he thought Alderman Sargent was not to canvass life insurance around the City Hall until the council had dealt with the matter. "It is just as well that it has come up now as next week," he added.

"The only conclusion is that we don't want him to solicit life insurance," said Alderman Andros. "For Heaven's sake let us take his word for it, and get on with the business of the city."

The aldermen then received and filed the charges.
