BONDS OF FRIENDSHIP STRENGTHENED ON PACIFIC BETWEEN GREAT NATIONS

Speakers at Consul Gomyo's Banquet in Honor of Visiting Japanese Officers Lay Stress Upon Friendly Relations Existing Between Canada and Eastern Empire; Vice-Admiral Hyakutake Gives Thanks for Welcome.

The hearty welcome and the cordial hospitality that has been shown us since our arrival yesterday, is sufficient to demonstrate the enthusiasm and wholeheartedness with which the people of Canada, and especially the people of British Columbia and the citizens of Victoria, are extending the hand of friendship to us.

Deafening applause greeted the Japanese Admiral. He said: "Consul Gomyo, your Excellencies, ladies and gentlemen: I have the pleasure to thank my kind host for giving me and my officers, who are lucky enough to be present on this occasion, such a fine opportunity of meeting the distinguished representatives of the great people of Canada."

Recalls Previous Visit: "Personally speaking, my visit to this beautiful port is not without some special pleasure and feeling, because this is my second visit to the western coast of Canada since my first arrival here in 1922 as a training midshipman."

Seven months continuous work for nearly 300 men will be involved in the erection of the Caissons for the new drydock at Esquimalt, the contract for which was recently awarded to Yarrows Limited. It will not be possible to obtain the 2,000 tons of steel that will be required on this coast, so the firm has been forced to purchase it in the East, where it will be punched and sheared before shipment.

Happy Memories: "My happy memories of this port have been most richly rewarded and still more heightened by the sincere demonstration of the cordial hospitality and true friendship on the part of the Government and people of British Columbia for which I beg to express my hearty thanks and deepest appreciation."

It was immediately following the toast to the King, and to the Emperor of Japan, that Consul Gomyo rose to address the gathering. He said: "It is indeed a happy occasion on which we have met here this evening. For many days the press of British Columbia has been heralding the approach of His Imperial Majesty's training squadron to Canadian waters, and now it has arrived. The Government of Canada, the people of British Columbia, and the citizens of Victoria have welcomed them so kindly and hospitably that I know the Admiral, his staff and men will take away a very favorable impression of the people of this country, and I am sure that their visit will also leave in your minds a very good and lasting impression of the Admiral, his staff and men. These mutual, favorable impressions should, without doubt, increase."

HANSARD REPORTS OF DEBATES ARE READ AT CROW'S NEST RATE HEARING IN SUPREME COURT

Ottawa, Feb. 4 (Canadian Press)—H. J. Symington, K.C. counsel for the prairie provinces, continuing his argument this forenoon the second day of the hearing before the Supreme Court of Canada of the appeal against the judgment of the Railway Commission upsetting the Crow's Nest Pass rates, reasserted his definition of the Crow's Nest Act as a special act. He submitted that Parliament did not in fact derogate from its own general statutes, unless it was specifically stated in the wording of the act. He challenged the contention that Parliament had ever "delegated to a subordinate commission" the right to overrule an act of Parliament.

PAYS TRIBUTE TO DEPARTED FRIEND

Vice-Admiral Hyakutake Visits Grave of Old Comrade To-day

Vice-Admiral Saburo Hyakutake, accompanied by about thirty officers of the Japanese training squadron at present in port, visited the grave of the young midshipman who, over thirty years ago, came to Esquimalt in company with a number of other young officers in training, but who was taken suddenly ill and died before his ship left. His body lies in the naval cemetery at Esquimalt.

He was a friend of the present commander of the training squadron, who was then only a young midshipman, and the two had ambitious plans for their respective careers. With flowers in his hands Vice-Admiral Hyakutake approached the grave this morning, and paid tribute to his friend of long ago.

He had been with her a number of times since he came here last Summer, he said.

LIBERALS OF VICTORIA HONOR F. A. PAULINE AT BIG FAREWELL BANQUET

New Agent General of Province Outlines Programme; More British Settlers of Good Type, Will be Major Objective.

It is essential, to Imperial interests, that British Columbia shall continue to be British in character as well as in name. We must therefore invite our kin in the Motherland to join us here and aid in building up a bulwark to the Dominion and a stay and comfort to the Empire. That thought will always be foremost in the work I go to England to perform for you," was the assurance with which F. A. RAIL RATES AND REFORM OF SENATE ARE CHIEF QUESTIONS FOR PARLIAMENT'S DECISION

New Grain Act, Upsetting of Industrial Disputes Investigation Act and Geneva Disarmament Protocol Other Subjects Awaiting Attention of Legislators Who Will Start Session in Federal Capital Tomorrow; Much Public Interest Because of Likelihood of Early General Election.

Ottawa, Feb. 4 (Canadian Press)—Parliament will open tomorrow, with railway rates and Senate reform probable as the dominant themes of the session. The speech from the throne has been drafted and is in the printers' hands; members are flocking into the city and there have been rehearsals of the pomp which marks the coming and going of the Governor-General between his official residence and the Senate Chamber where he will formally open the Fourth Session of Canada's Fourteenth Parliament.

Except for Senate reform and railway rates, it is not thought likely the legislative programme of the Government will be extensive, although a new grain act is on the slate; the decision of the Privy Council in London finding the Lemieux Act ultra vires will likely entail some enactment; there will no doubt be long discussion over the disarmament protocol adopted by the League of Nations Assembly at Geneva. But the session will be especially important in view of the prevailing uncertainty whether or not it will precede a general election, among the Liberals are understood to be some who wish no general election this year, although present chances seem to favor a dissolution in July, with an election in the Fall.

FURTHER BARRIER PREVENTS REMOVAL OF MAN FROM CAVE

Kentucky Rescuers Were Working to Free Floyd Collins When Slide Occurred

Cave City, Ky., Feb. 4.—A slide in Sand Cave this morning was at first said to have left Floyd Collins, thirty-five, foot free for the first time since he was imprisoned Friday morning last, when a boulder wedged his legs where rescuers were unable to reach them, but Collins was left walled in behind rock which fell from the side of the cave. Later observations by rescue workers, however, indicated Collins might have been only partly freed around the neck. William E. GOOD PROGRESS OF ALBERNI BOY SCOUT MOVEMENT

Special to The Times Alberni, Feb. 3.—The annual meeting of the Alberni Boy Scout Association was held in the Scout Hall last evening, when there was a fair attendance of those interested in this work.

The president gave a short address upon the objects and aims of the movement, and also explained the hard uphill struggle that the committee of management had had in their efforts to get things going.

He also paid tribute to the work of the ladies in assisting to finance the movement by giving entertainments, whist drives, etc., and referred to the loss by death during the past year of Mrs. J. R. Motion who had been the most energetic worker on behalf of the boys.

The treasurer then presented the financial report, which showed the association to be in a sound financial basis, while having a large cash surplus, yet there was a balance of $12.00 of assets over liabilities, this being the first year that this had been possible, thanks in no small degree to the ladies.

The election of officers for the current year was then proceeded with and resulted as follows: President, Rev. G. A. Bagshaw being re-elected unanimously, as was the secretary-treasurer, E. M. Whyte; committee—Rev. H. A. Bain, Capt. Hodgeson, E. E. Frost, J. R. Motion, H. A. Hoard, M. M. Stephens, S. Cozens, W. G. Bigmore, T. M. Patterson and W. T. Rice.

A vote of thanks was also tendered the president, Rev. G. A. Bagshaw and the secretary-treasurer, E. M. Whyte.

NEW PROTECTION PLAN IN BRITAIN

Government's Tariff Plan to Cover Industries Suffering Unfair Competition

Liberals Say Measure Means Introduction of Tariff by Back Door

London, Feb. 4 (Canadian Press Cable)—Industries in Britain may henceforth secure protection if they prove to the satisfaction of the Board of Trade that they are suffering unfair and abnormal competition and also demonstrate that the industry is managed efficiently and economically, but the period of protection will be limited by a finance bill wherein such protection is made legal. Moreover, no applications will be considered relating to food and drink.

The foregoing summarizes a white paper on the Government's safeguarding of industries policy given out yesterday, which has resulted in a mixed reception in the press. Conservative organs welcome as "eminently reasonable" proposals which they say should satisfy all but the "most hidebound free traders," the exception being the London Morning Post which claims many industries will suffer for the sake of conscience. The Liberal newspapers, however, angrily denounce "tariff by the back door" and accuse the Government of a breach of pledge by failing to embody the proposals in a regular preliminary bill.

PENNY POSTAGE IS DESIRED IN BRITAIN

London, Feb. 4 (Canadian Press Cable)—That penny postage be restored in the United Kingdom was the request made yesterday by a deputation representative of the printing and paper making industries of Great Britain. The deputation contended that restoration of penny rate would stimulate trade, reduce unemployment and help the British home and export trade. It was pointed out to the department of the Postmaster-General, Sir William Thompson, that sales of picture postcards in New Zealand had increased twenty-five per cent since the New Zealand Government had reduced the postal rates.

WHILE OCCIDENTAL SETS OUT TO CONQUER THE WORLD, ORIENTAL SEEKS CONQUEST OF HUMAN MIND

By A. C. Cummings, Special Correspondent of The Times Third of Series

Before our era, the Aryans, dark-white nomadic peoples, spread from Central Asia India, Europe, Persia and Northern India. They found in India the dark-skinned Dravidians, whose descendants, mostly Canadian, showing advances of twenty per cent over September and selling up to $21; 180,000 muskrat pelts, practically all Canadian and Alaskan, up to $1.75, the Canadians showing a fifteen per cent advance and Alaska twenty-five per cent over the September prices, and silver fox skins to the number of 630 up to $375.

He it was who, thinking over the manifold ills of life, over the mysteries that surround humanity, over its origin and over what might become of it, received enlightenment from his own mind and devised the Aryan Path, or way of life. It seems a very simple discovery to a modern mind, this way of life, but the Aryan mind for so long that they are now taken as read.

Let us see what this Aryan Path is. First, Gautama taught love of truth for its own sake; next the cultivation of right ideas so that the wrong one might be cast out; next good and right living—all the commonplaces of what constitutes good citizenship and moral behaviour, but behind it all, behind the teaching he had a philosophy. Men must, he held, suppress greedy desires, suppress their craving for personal fame and advancement, other words, until man has taken control of his personal life he cannot be true and honest, he cannot be a philosopher. Men must, he held, suppress greedy desires, suppress their craving for personal fame and advancement, other words, until man has taken control of his personal life he cannot be true and honest, he cannot be a philosopher.

From the Brahmins came the Hindu religions, the worship of Brahma, the mind from which all things come, his "emanations" being the gods Vishnu and Shiva, whose worship I have already described in a previous article. This is the old religion of India and still by far the greatest and most influential. No extravagance is too great to be believed about these gods, but behind all lies the old propitiatory idea that men may place powerful and angry beings in the next world so that they may escape punishment.

Gautama taught, nothing of this kind, but his followers did not escape the contagion. HINDU CREDULITY Gazing out over a beautiful artificial lake or "tank" in a religious centre in Southern India, we see a tall, thin man standing in the middle of a square island in the centre of the lake surrounded by beautiful flowers, when a Brahmin sits down overhead.

The guide promptly stopped his historical review and explained that my visit was of the most auspicious character, that I should have good luck for weeks to come for this bird was most sacred and a source of great benefit to all who beheld it. He launched into a legend by which the bird had only to fly low enough over a dead body of man or animal for its shadow to fall upon it, then an immediate restoration to life would take place.

"Have you ever known of such a miracle yourself?" I asked him. "Of course he had several. In another city a priest told me that the temple never cast a shadow upon the ground because it was so holy—and this notwithstanding that to get out of the fierce sunlight of the sun's heat it was actually standing in the shadow at the moment!"

Wonderful is the eye of faith amongst the Hindus! Of course, the educated Hindus do not believe such things. They have, as have also the educated Buddhists, a philosophy of religion rational and reasonable enough. As one of them explained it to me—a lawyer holding rank equivalent to a K.C. in Canada—the Hindu religion aims at the control of the unconscious mind; it aims at the suppression of thought so that, as the modern psycho-analysts explain it, the sub-conscious may be set free. In the subconscious reside tremendous powers of annihilating time and space, they believe.

As my friend described it, breathing exercises and repetition of certain phrases bring on a sort of trance, really self-hypnotism, I suppose. This trance passes after a time and then the mind seems to attain a sense of universal knowledge and power. CONQUEST OF THE MIND "You Westerners," said my friend, "have sought to conquer the world; of the East, the East has sought to conquer the human mind. Which is the nobler achievement?"

The acutest intellects in India (and India has produced at times the acutest intellects in the West) have been for centuries trying to learn the secrets of the mind, trying to penetrate to whatever the secrets may be beyond it, every night went in spirit all over India, but it would be rash in view of what modern scientific research of the human mind is showing us, to assume that the knowledge that India claims specially for her own is mere foolishness.

There is something serene and peaceful about a true Buddhist who has gone through this process of self-discipline. The restless Westerner, greedy for acquisitions for power, for fame, chasing one ambition after another, unable to sustain an hour's real solitude without boredom, seems by the side of those men who have attained Nirvana, or mind-serenity, only like so many noisy, ill-mannered and badly-behaved schoolboys. That is the conclusion I have reached, and it made clear a good deal of the teaching that Gandhi, the Hindu religious leader now expounds for his fellow countrymen.

THE MOSLEM MINORITY In the thirteenth century the Mohammedans came into India and set up a Moslem state, the state of Hindustan in Delhi. Later came the Moguls, conquerors and Akbar sought to make India a nation rather than a collection of scattered sultanates and kingdoms. He did not impose Mohammedanism by force and though under his successors the new faith spread widely to-day in India the Mohammedans are still only a minority of one in five of the population. Mohammedanism is still militant in India. The Moslem rising of a year or so ago was an Islamic attempt to convert Hindus by

London, Feb. 4 (Canadian Press Cable)—Industries in Britain may henceforth secure protection if they prove to the satisfaction of the Board of Trade that they are suffering unfair and abnormal competition and also demonstrate that the industry is managed efficiently and economically, but the period of protection will be limited by a finance bill wherein such protection is made legal. Moreover, no applications will be considered relating to food and drink.

The foregoing summarizes a white paper on the Government's safeguarding of industries policy given out yesterday, which has resulted in a mixed reception in the press. Conservative organs welcome as "eminently reasonable" proposals which they say should satisfy all but the "most hidebound free traders," the exception being the London Morning Post which claims many industries will suffer for the sake of conscience. The Liberal newspapers, however, angrily denounce "tariff by the back door" and accuse the Government of a breach of pledge by failing to embody the proposals in a regular preliminary bill.

PENNY POSTAGE IS DESIRED IN BRITAIN

London, Feb. 4 (Canadian Press Cable)—That penny postage be restored in the United Kingdom was the request made yesterday by a deputation representative of the printing and paper making industries of Great Britain. The deputation contended that restoration of penny rate would stimulate trade, reduce unemployment and help the British home and export trade. It was pointed out to the department of the Postmaster-General, Sir William Thompson, that sales of picture postcards in New Zealand had increased twenty-five per cent since the New Zealand Government had reduced the postal rates.

WHILE OCCIDENTAL SETS OUT TO CONQUER THE WORLD, ORIENTAL SEEKS CONQUEST OF HUMAN MIND

By A. C. Cummings, Special Correspondent of The Times Third of Series

Before our era, the Aryans, dark-white nomadic peoples, spread from Central Asia India, Europe, Persia and Northern India. They found in India the dark-skinned Dravidians, whose descendants, mostly Canadian, showing advances of twenty per cent over September and selling up to $21; 180,000 muskrat pelts, practically all Canadian and Alaskan, up to $1.75, the Canadians showing a fifteen per cent advance and Alaska twenty-five per cent over the September prices, and silver fox skins to the number of 630 up to $375.

He it was who, thinking over the manifold ills of life, over the mysteries that surround humanity, over its origin and over what might become of it, received enlightenment from his own mind and devised the Aryan Path, or way of life. It seems a very simple discovery to a modern mind, this way of life, but the Aryan mind for so long that they are now taken as read.

Let us see what this Aryan Path is. First, Gautama taught love of truth for its own sake; next the cultivation of right ideas so that the wrong one might be cast out; next good and right living—all the commonplaces of what constitutes good citizenship and moral behaviour, but behind it all, behind the teaching he had a philosophy. Men must, he held, suppress greedy desires, suppress their craving for personal fame and advancement, other words, until man has taken control of his personal life he cannot be true and honest, he cannot be a philosopher. Men must, he held, suppress greedy desires, suppress their craving for personal fame and advancement, other words, until man has taken control of his personal life he cannot be true and honest, he cannot be a philosopher.

From the Brahmins came the Hindu religions, the worship of Brahma, the mind from which all things come, his "emanations" being the gods Vishnu and Shiva, whose worship I have already described in a previous article. This is the old religion of India and still by far the greatest and most influential. No extravagance is too great to be believed about these gods, but behind all lies the old propitiatory idea that men may place powerful and angry beings in the next world so that they may escape punishment.

Gautama taught, nothing of this kind, but his followers did not escape the contagion. HINDU CREDULITY Gazing out over a beautiful artificial lake or "tank" in a religious centre in Southern India, we see a tall, thin man standing in the middle of a square island in the centre of the lake surrounded by beautiful flowers, when a Brahmin sits down overhead.

The guide promptly stopped his historical review and explained that my visit was of the most auspicious character, that I should have good luck for weeks to come for this bird was most sacred and a source of great benefit to all who beheld it. He launched into a legend by which the bird had only to fly low enough over a dead body of man or animal for its shadow to fall upon it, then an immediate restoration to life would take place.

"Have you ever known of such a miracle yourself?" I asked him. "Of course he had several. In another city a priest told me that the temple never cast a shadow upon the ground because it was so holy—and this notwithstanding that to get out of the fierce sunlight of the sun's heat it was actually standing in the shadow at the moment!"

Wonderful is the eye of faith amongst the Hindus! Of course, the educated Hindus do not believe such things. They have, as have also the educated Buddhists, a philosophy of religion rational and reasonable enough. As one of them explained it to me—a lawyer holding rank equivalent to a K.C. in Canada—the Hindu religion aims at the control of the unconscious mind; it aims at the suppression of thought so that, as the modern psycho-analysts explain it, the sub-conscious may be set free. In the subconscious reside tremendous powers of annihilating time and space, they believe.

As my friend described it, breathing exercises and repetition of certain phrases bring on a sort of trance, really self-hypnotism, I suppose. This trance passes after a time and then the mind seems to attain a sense of universal knowledge and power. CONQUEST OF THE MIND "You Westerners," said my friend, "have sought to conquer the world; of the East, the East has sought to conquer the human mind. Which is the nobler achievement?"

The acutest intellects in India (and India has produced at times the acutest intellects in the West) have been for centuries trying to learn the secrets of the mind, trying to penetrate to whatever the secrets may be beyond it, every night went in spirit all over India, but it would be rash in view of what modern scientific research of the human mind is showing us, to assume that the knowledge that India claims specially for her own is mere foolishness.

There is something serene and peaceful about a true Buddhist who has gone through this process of self-discipline. The restless Westerner, greedy for acquisitions for power, for fame, chasing one ambition after another, unable to sustain an hour's real solitude without boredom, seems by the side of those men who have attained Nirvana, or mind-serenity, only like so many noisy, ill-mannered and badly-behaved schoolboys. That is the conclusion I have reached, and it made clear a good deal of the teaching that Gandhi, the Hindu religious leader now expounds for his fellow countrymen.

THE MOSLEM MINORITY In the thirteenth century the Mohammedans came into India and set up a Moslem state, the state of Hindustan in Delhi. Later came the Moguls, conquerors and Akbar sought to make India a nation rather than a collection of scattered sultanates and kingdoms. He did not impose Mohammedanism by force and though under his successors the new faith spread widely to-day in India the Mohammedans are still only a minority of one in five of the population. Mohammedanism is still militant in India. The Moslem rising of a year or so ago was an Islamic attempt to convert Hindus by

Insurance Ruling By Ontario Judge

Kingston, Feb. 4.—No evidence having been submitted to prove that Mrs. Roberts, who with her husband and two children was killed by a train which struck their automobile on November 2 at Findlay Station, lived longer than her husband, Mr. Justice Mowat has dismissed the action brought by John Bennett, father of Mrs. Roberts, to recover the $5,000 insurance which Mr. Roberts carried on his life. The claim was disputed by Mrs. Peattie of Toronto, sister of Mrs. Roberts. She contended Mr. and Mrs. Roberts were instantly killed and therefore the insurance money should be paid to her. Mrs. Peattie is administratrix of Mr. Roberts' estate, and the insurance money will go to her.

Vancouver, Feb. 4.—That operatives in the Liquor Control Board were not properly qualified and appointed police officers, and in their activities became accomplices to the offence, thus necessitating corroboration of their testimony by independent witnesses, was the legal point raised by Gordon F. Sloan, barrister, in police court here yesterday, when S. H. Newman was sentenced to a fine of $500 or three months by Magistrate Shaw for selling liquor. It was announced by counsel for the defence that notice of appeal would be filed.

Leased Wire For Press Service in Eastern Canada

Moncton, N.B., Feb. 4 (Canadian Press)—At a meeting of representatives of the daily newspapers of the Maritime Provinces held here yesterday, final arrangements were concluded to resume the leased wire Canadian Press service on February 8. The new service will materially increase the volume of news to maritime papers, and will give a much larger and wider range of news delivered direct by wire to the various offices of publication.

J. F. L. Lacey, general manager of the Canadian Press of Toronto, who attended the meeting, left afterwards for Montreal. A. J. West and Howard F. P. Robinson of the St. John Telegraph-Journal; G. F. Pearson, Halifax Chronicle; A. W. Robb, Halifax Herald; E. L. Coleman, Sydney Record; H. P. Duchemin, Sydney Post; A. D. Mark, Canadian Press, Superintendent of Halifax, and A. R. Coffin of The Truro News were in attendance at the meeting.

TONGUE-TWISTING TESTS DENOUNCED

London, Feb. 4.—Tongue-twister tests as applied by the British police to persons arrested on suspicion of having imbibed too freely are not fair, in the opinion of Sir Purves Stewart, senior physician at Westminster Hospital.

Speaking before the Society for the Study of Inebriety, he declared that such catch phrases as "terminological inexactitudes" or "leith police dismiss us" were all right in the case of elocutionists, schoolmasters, lawyers or others of the learned professions, but would not do for ordinary men in the street who came into the hands of the police.

There was only one infallible proof of drunkenness, he said, and that was in the finding of alcohol in the system by scientific tests.

OXFORD STUDENTS WON

San Francisco, Feb. 4.—The Oxford University debating team, arguing against prohibition, won a decision from a team jointly representing the University of California and Stanford University here last night. The decision was rendered by the audience and showed: Against prohibition 757; for prohibition 443.

Damage Award is Appealed by C.P.R.

Moose Jaw, Feb. 4.—Announcement was made here to-day that the Canadian Pacific Railway would appeal to the Supreme Court of Canada in the case of John Brass, who was awarded damages totalling $14,407 for the loss of a foot while in the employ of the railway company. Last Fall Brass brought an action for $25,000 damages, but a jury in Mr. Justice Embury's court awarded him $14,407. The company appealed to the Saskatchewan Appeal Court, which in turn upheld the other court decision.

PRICES HIGHER AT FUR AUCTION SALE

Montreal, Feb. 4.—Another successful day was reported by the Canadian Fur Auction Sales Company, Limited, yesterday at the close of the second day of selling here. The feature was the disposal of 251 timber wolf skins from the Northwest Territories at prices up to $70, a record at any sale. Prices showed an advance of twenty-five per cent over last September.

Other sales included 4,099 wolf-skins, mostly Canadian, showing advances of twenty per cent over September and selling up to $21; 180,000 muskrat pelts, practically all Canadian and Alaskan, up to $1.75, the Canadians showing a fifteen per cent advance and Alaska twenty-five per cent over the September prices, and silver fox skins to the number of 630 up to $375.

LIQUOR DISCUSSION NOW IN ONTARIO

Toronto, Feb. 4.—Within two weeks of the opening of the Legislature of Ontario, the two opposing forces on the prohibition question will have meetings in Toronto. At the annual prohibition convention delegates from every part of the province will meet February 17, and one week later, on February 24, the Moderation League will hold a provincial convention. The Knights Templar, a temperance organization, will also start a convention on February 24.

In preparation for the main convention the prohibition forces are to hold meetings in every riding next Tuesday. In the cities where there are two or more ridings one meeting only will be held.

The Moderation League convention will last but one day.

Liquor Hours in London Discussed

London, Feb. 4 (Canadian Press Cable)—Anomalies in the hours during which licensed public houses remain open in London are continuing to cause some comment and criticism. Magistrates of the district south of the river decline to make any alteration in the hours during which public houses may remain open there, which are at present from six to nine in the evenings, in order that they may conform to the hours in operation north of the Thames, which are from seven to nine, and this despite strong representations from those who assert that the differences in hours means a long procession of thirty-one over the bridges into Greater London after 9 o'clock every Sunday night.

Catholic priests, however, have urged the justices of the peace to maintain the present hours as likely to prevent folk on the way to church services on Sunday night from being beguiled by acquaintances to go to public houses.

Vice-Admiral Recalls Days When He Visited Esquimalt as Midshipman

Two hundred members of the Victoria Canadian Club and the Women's Canadian Club joined in a cordial welcome to Vice-Admiral Saburo Hyakutake and members of the Japanese naval squadron at a joint luncheon held at the Empress Hotel this afternoon.

Thanks for the hospitality which has been extended to the visitors were expressed by the Vice-Admiral who recalled the time when he visited Esquimalt thirty-three years ago. He was given a great ovation when he arose to address the meeting.

The Admiral said: "Mr. Patrick, Mrs. Hodges and Members of the Canadian Club: My first and the most important duty on this signal occasion is to thank the president and the members of this club for extending the privileges of their club to myself and the officers of my squadron during our pleasant stay in the port of Esquimalt. We are also grateful for being given such a happy opportunity of meeting the distinguished representatives of every walk of life in British Columbia and especially the city of Victoria.

"The people of this country whose majority of life has been spent on the sea, quite apart from the activities on shore, I am not a man fitting to distinguish people who are gathered as this and to deliver anything like a speech. However, as the recipient of the courtesies and hospitality of the Dominion of Canada, especially those of British Columbia and the city of Victoria, which you distinguish people who are gathered before my eyes, I should not like to remain silent all through this pleasant function without so much as expressing our sincere appreciation of your kindness towards us.

"As the first foreign land that I visited and also as the first foreign people whose hospitality I have enjoyed, I should like to say that I have enjoyed the land of British Columbia and especially the ports of Esquimalt and Victoria, and the kind and warm places have always been the reminders of my happy youthful days when as a red-checked midshipman I visited the beautiful port of Esquimalt at the end of 1892, when the hills and fields of British Columbia were changing their general aspects from the luxuriant green of the spring into the simple somberness of winter. My training ship entered the port of Esquimalt escorted by a big group of seagulls and dropped anchor just at the spot where the Yakumo is now lying. Yesterday I was guest to your kind and hospitable Senior Naval Officer at his officers' mess, where I saw a picture over the fireplace. It was a picture of the port of Esquimalt that had been painted a few years after my first visit to this place. When I saw that picture I nearly exclaimed, 'Here is Midshipman Hyakutake again.'

HISTORIC SHIPS

"I am now standing before you as your honored guest and as the commander of a training squadron which is composed of such ships whose careers have had very much to do with the cordial relations between the two nations, Great Britain and Japan. I will not go into details of the histories of these veteran ships because such has so often been mentioned by you on several other occasions since our arrival among you, except that they are very much responsible for the friendly relations happily existing between the Dominion of Canada and the Land of the Rising Sun.

"I hasten to express our hearty appreciation of the warm reception and the sincere friendship which our members of the training squadron have enjoyed so much since our arrival in your land of beauty, and to hope that our visit to your country may serve, even in the smallest way, to tighten the existing ties of friendship between the British and Japanese nations, especially the people of the Dominion of Canada and Japan, whose shores are washed likewise by the waves of the Pacific Ocean."

THE CLUB PRESIDENT

"We as Britishers are glad to welcome the Japanese, said Joseph Patrick, president of the club. "We have always had friendly relations with them and we, like them, have a common object, the preservation of peace. We recognize Japan as a great nation and an important nation." Mr. Patrick remarked that like Britain, Japan was not a quarrelsome nation, but was a nation that would be prepared to fight if it were forced to. He recalled the fact that the Japanese stood ready to protect this port during the great war.

TRADE RELATIONS

Isago Gomyo, Japanese Consul at Vancouver, dealt with the trade relations between Canada and Japan, which had expanded tenfold in the last ten years. There was a good market in Japan for Canadian products, he said, and Japan stood ahead of any single market in the world for British Columbia lumber. There was no doubt in the future that Japan would become one of the greatest buyers of grain from Western Canada. There was also an ever-increasing market for meat. Most of the products of the greatest food stores of Canada were varieties non-competitive with Canadian products, he said.

The speaker touched upon the common interests in the Pacific of British Columbia and Japan, remarking that British Columbia's prosperity was linked with its Oriental trade. He concluded by expressing sincere thanks to Canada for the sympathy which had been extended to Japan when it was visited by the great disaster.

Mrs. H. P. Hodges, president of the Women's Canadian Club, expressed appreciation of the opportunity of sharing in the welcome to the Japanese naval training squadron. Canadian women appreciated the protection offered in Canadian waters by the Japanese navy during the great war when the natural protectors of the Canadian coast were away she said.

REAL DRS DENOUNCE WOODWARD PLAN AS SINGLE TAX

Foresee Hopeless Position Arising For Tax Paying Property Owners

The Woodward debt reduction scheme came in for warm criticism at today's luncheon of the Victoria Realty Board, ex-Alderman D. Leeming pointing out that fifteen years of tax exemption on lots and any buildings placed thereon, would result in a hopeless competitive position being created for adjacent privately owned lands bearing forty years of a levy.

Ex-Alderman E. H. B. Ker pointed out that the proposed price of $3,000 is only the equivalent to the taxes waived. A. R. Wilfong thought no chance existed of putting the deal through, as no such large sum could be found.

Fred Landsberg agreed, but feared the endorsement of the principle involved would be followed by piecemeal disposal of the lands and result in the return of single tax as the only means of ending discrimination. The board unanimously decided to ask the council to withhold action until the board may have had an opportunity to examine closely into Alderman Woodward's proposal.

She was a native of England, but resided in this city for the past fifty years, and is mourned by a daughter, Annie L. UNITED CHURCH OF CANADA WILL HAVE STRENGTH

Far Beyond the Dreams of Its Supporters, Says Rev. G. C. Pidgeon

According to a statement issued on January 29, by Rev. Geo. C. Pidgeon, of Toronto, convener of the Joint Union Committee of the Presbyterian Church, the strength of the United Church of Canada will be far beyond the dreams of its supporters. Out of a total of 2,559 congregations or preaching stations of the three churches forming the United Church of Canada, only 324 so far have voted non-concurrence. Of these, 226 are in the province of Ontario, which province will ultimately contain approximately 3,000 preaching stations within the United Church.

The number of congregations voting non-concurrence in Ontario makes the loss to the United Church appear far greater than it really is. In each such congregation, there is a large minority determined to go with the Presbyterian Church into union. These include the leading workers and contributors of the congregation, in most cases.

The revolt against the Presbyterian Church is largely confined to Ontario. The reactionary element is strong in certain sections of this province, but insofar as their influence goes, they are setting their province against the rest of the Dominion.

East and West are practically a unit in favor of church union. Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island are as emphatic in favor of a united Canada religiously as well as politically as the West and North. No vote will be taken in the provinces of Manitoba and New Brunswick until after June 10. These sections will be as strongly in favor of the union of the churches as their sister provinces. Newfoundland has as yet no legislation.

The vote thus far demonstrates that the United Church of Canada is already a great and Dominion-wide reality, as well as a great ideal. The following table shows the exact situation in each province and each denomination:

CONGREGATIONS OF THE UNITED CHURCHES

After a lengthy examination by technical men, and care to see that it conforms to the definitions of the Canadian Standards Association, the city's electric wiring by-law is now ready for the attention of the legislative committee of council. It will be introduced at an early meeting of the council. The by-law takes advantage of the additional powers given by the amendment of the Municipal Act at the last session of the Legislature.

Improve Tea with Lemon

At all first-class hotels and famous restaurants, as you have noticed, tea is always served with a California lemon.

The lemon tang enhances the flavor of the tea—adds an attractive zest.

California lemon juice makes a cup of tea more healthful too, furnishing fresh vitamins and organic salts and acids which are appetizers and digestive aids.

So lemon with tea is both the vague and a feature of good dietetics.

Ask for California lemons, juicy, tart and practically seedless. Best for drinking. Keep a dozen handy for all kinds of uses.

NEW SALVAGE SHIP LEAVES FOR VICTORIA ON SUNDAY

Superintendent T. W. Allan of Pacific Salvage Company, Satisfied With Results of Tests; Bringing 500-ton Cargo to This Port; Princess Kathleen is Making Excellent Time Towards Victoria, Due Next Week-end.

When the Salvage King, newly built for the Pacific Salvage Company of this city, leaves the Old Country on or about Sunday of this week, she will be the third vessel actually en route to this port. She will make her headquarters here and incidentally make the local salvage fleet the finest in the world. Word was received yesterday that the vessel would leave either on Sunday or as soon as she has completed loading a 500-ton cargo for this port. The Salvage King was built by Bow, McLachlan and Company Limited, of Paisley, Scotland, and is said to be the finest salvage ship afloat. Exhaustive tests and trials have proved her worth

GAS IN STOMACH HURTS THE HEART

Thousands of Cases of Heart Failure Are Caused by Acute Indigestion, Says Medical Writer.

Gas pressure from sour, acid, upset stomach is not only nauseating and highly uncomfortable, but some day it may prove fatal. When your meals are followed by bloating, a feeling of fullness or pressure around the heart, you may be sure that the acid condition of your stomach is producing a GAS that is pushing upwards and crowding your heart. That's the reason for the shortness of breath and sleeplessness which follow.

as a tow-boat of immense power, a craft of surprising speed and splendid qualities as a sea-going ship. She will stand the worst mauling that the sea can give and still make good progress through the weather and render the aid which it is her business to give.

On this particular voyage, which is really a fine test of the vessel's capabilities, T. W. Allan, superintendent of the Pacific Salvage Company, who has been watching the construction of the ship, her tests and her trials, will be aboard the craft and although he has already assured her owners that she is satisfactory in every way, will pass final judgment on her when she arrives in this port after her long and exacting trip from Scotland to Victoria.

PLEASED WITH SHIP

Mr. Allan's message to the Pacific Salvage Company stated that the new vessel was satisfactory in every way and that he was immensely pleased with her performance during speed and towing trials. Officials of the company here are much pleased with the report and are looking forward to the arrival of the vessel.

Capt. C. P. Kinney, a well-known Victoria skipper, is in command of the vessel and is bringing her to this coast, over the same route that was followed by the Princess Kathleen.

PRINCESS MAKES RECORD

Due in this port on or about February 14, the Princess Kathleen is expected to reach San Pedro on February 16, and is making especially good time. Capt. J. McMurray is in charge of the ship, and other members of the B. C. Coast Service on the boat are first officer W. M. Thompson, Third officer, O. J. Williams, purser, A. G. Barker, second engineer, Allan Matheson and chief steward Thomas McCloy. The ship carries a crew of thirty men. The time she is making is thought to be a record for her type of ship.

HARBOR BOARD WILL CONTROL ELEVATORS

R. E. Beattie, of Vancouver, Thinks There Will be no Change There

Winnipeg, Feb. 4.—"I certainly do not contemplate for one moment that as a result of the recommendations of the Royal Grain Inquiry Commission, our elevators at the coast will be taken from the Vancouver Harbor Board and placed under a separate commission," stated R. E. Beattie, Harbor Commissioner, last night en route home after a trip to Ottawa.

"If such a course is proposed by the Dominion Government," said Mr. Beattie, "we shall fight it tooth and nail."

The grain commission recommended that the Government elevators should be taken over by a special commission instead of being both operated and checked by the board of grain commissioners, as at present.

"Our elevators do not belong to the Dominion Government, but to the Vancouver Harbor Board," said Mr. Beattie. Mr. Beattie emphasized the point that the Vancouver elevators belonging to the Harbor Commission did not handle only the top grades of grain. "We handle grades of all qualities, and what is more," he said, "we handle them cheaper than any other port in Canada."

TANKER HERE FOR ANNUAL REPAIRS

Mina Brea is in Hands of Yarrow's Workmen at Esquimalt

The Imperial Oil Company's tanker Mina Brea is at the drydock, Esquimalt, in the hands of Yarrow's workmen. She is undergoing her annual overhaul and having work done under water on her hull. The ship arrived here yesterday at 8 o'clock in the morning and, on being floated, will move from the drydock to Yarrow's outfitting wharves this afternoon.

From that time onwards until Saturday she will have work done in her boilers and engine-room. The ship will be subjected to a careful inspection and overhaul.

C.N.R. APPOINTMENTS

Toronto, Ont., Feb. 3.—W. G. Barber, general manager Canadian National Telegraphs, announced the appointment of A. C. McConnell, formerly secretary and auditor of the Canadian National Telegraphs, to be assistant general manager and secretary of G. H. Renwick, formerly of the comptroller's department, to be auditor.

The appointments were effective from February 1. Mr. McConnell, who becomes chief assistant to General Manager Barber, has spent almost fifty years in the telegraph business. Becoming identified with the old Montreal Telegraph Company in 1875, he was moved to Toronto upon the amalgamation with the Great Northern Western Company, and for his whole period of service has been connected with the auditing department.

He was appointed auditor in 1902, and nine years later was promoted to the position of secretary and auditor. Mr. Renwick joined the Canadian Northern Railway in 1909 as a member of the auditing and accounting staff in Toronto, and latterly was chief clerk to J. F. Alchison, assistant comptroller of the Central railway.

Steamers Will Load Lumber in Port Here Soon

The Nelyo Maru, was reported to be due in this port within the next few days to load 250,000 feet of lumber from the Sidney Mills and the Canadian Puget Sound Lumber Company. The ship will berth at the Ogden Point docks and will be loaded there.

The Capto, another freighter, is also reported due here shortly to take on lumber and other freight. She will probably arrive to-morrow.

OFFICERS OF NAVAL STATION ENTERTAIN JAPANESE VISITORS

Commander Brabant and Staff Take Admiral Hyakutake and Officers For Drive

Commander F. H. Brabant and officers of the Naval Barracks entertained the guests of Admiral Hyakutake, staff officers and the flagship Asama to a luncheon, drive and tea yesterday afternoon.

Lunch was served in the wardroom at the naval barracks and afterwards the guests were ushered into cars and driven to Sidney and back by Brenta lodge. They then returned to the barracks and expressed great appreciation of the beauty of the Saanich country.

Those present were: Vice-Admiral S. Hyakutake, the three ship's captains, Flag officers C. Osmik, K. Tsuda, S. Yano and T. Ishijuro, and Staff Officers S. Sakabe, Y. Okuma, M. Tanaka, K. Sugiura, S. # LAKE LOUISE HOTEL READY IN JUNE

Assistant to Vice-President Coleman En Route to Victoria

Vancouver, Feb. 4.—"One of the most hopeful signs of the time throughout the West is the general tendency toward saving buying which is evident in the prairie provinces and British Columbia," said C. E. Stockhill, of Winnipeg, this morning. Mr. Stockhill is Assistant to the Vice-president of Western Lines, and will spend several days on the Pacific Coast.

"People are learning to limit their buying to their ability to pay instead of mortgaging their future, as has been the case both on the prairies and elsewhere during the past few years," Mr. Stockhill explained. In his opinion this change of attitude is the very foundation of stability in future progress. Altogether there is a very optimistic spirit abroad in the prairies and the general feeling is that the country is now going over the top into a new era of prosperity.

"Everything is in readiness for a very heavy westward movement of tourists, particularly large parties necessitating special trains and equipment during the Summer months," Mr. Stockhill said.

The new wing at the Chateau Lake Louise will be completed and ready for occupancy by June, and a record season is at this and other mountain resorts is expected.

HUMIDITY GAUGE WOULD ASSIST FIRE CONTROL, SAYS CHIEF

Simple Apparatus Has Large Bearing on Prevention of Fire Outbreaks

A daily record of the humidity of the air, in relation to fire menace is proposed in plans now before the city fire wardens, on the recommendation of Chief Vernon Stewart. The plan calls for the installation of a humidity gauge which would keep a charted record of the values of the atmosphere in relation to a state of dryness or dampness during closed season, he stated. The gauge—the one is described as "explosive" in that it mixes readily with materials under combustion, and fans the flames.

To such an extent has this charting of the air's humidity proved of value that fire insurance companies make it an integral part of their records, and base their rates in part on the result, it is stated.

The apparatus wanted by the fire chief would cost $205 installed. It would be used in conjunction with the Phoenix Brewery whistle for two purposes: to warn off-duty firemen when alarms may be expected, and householders when to take special

CODFISH CASE RESULTS IN FINE

Chinese Defendant Fined $100 For Possession of Fish in Closed Season

Charged on remand in City Police Court to-day with possession of codfish in closed season, Yop Yick, was fined $100. The defendant, represented by Frank Higgins, K.C., pleaded not guilty.

Mr. Higgins argued that Victoria was not included in the Dominion regulations dealing with the matter by virtue of its geographical position.

Gordon Campbell appeared for the Dominion fishery authorities, supported by Inspector Nicholson, who gave evidence as to the facts of the case. No codfish could be legally retained in possession during closed season, he stated. The fine was imposed.

BROTHERHOOD NON-POLITICAL, SAYS DR. DAVIES

Denial Made That City Temple Body Plans Organization of New Party

An impression, more or less abroad, that the newly formed organization of the Victoria City Temple, was "political," was corrected very definitely to-day by a statement given to The Times by Rev. Dr. Clem Davies.

"While the organization will study closely social and economic conditions there will be no movement to organize another party, nor is it the desire of all ranks to fellowship with the Brotherhood to do so," affirmed Dr. Davies.

"It is the duty of every man and loyal citizen to take a vital interest in everything that concerns the welfare of the state and home and church," said Dr. Davies, "and this new movement will bring together men of all ranks into fellowship to pursue economic, educational and social studies."

"You can say for me that I shall neither lead a third party, nor have I any desire to do so, nor shall I lend any influence I may have to this end. There is no reason why men cannot get together to talk these matters over and in a straightforward way help all they can to relieve conditions that should be corrected, if it is in their power to do so. All governments welcome public opinion and it is the duty of the press, the church and all kinds of organizations to help mould an intelligent public opinion and focus this opinion where it will help the state to efficiently carry on its work. The freedom of speech and press is axiomatic and will always be so under British regime and practice. The main object of the Brotherhood will be to bring men together in a mighty movement of fellowship and service to this city and Province. The men already in its ranks are among the best types in commercial and provincial life and I am of opinion that with their natural ability and provincial matters, politics will feel the impetus as well as the social order and good will come of it."

Customer: "Is this 'country sausage'?"
Butcher: "Certainly, it was made in this country."

Pains That are needless

Relieve at once

Rheumatic pains, lameness, soreness—pains you can end at once should be stopped. The means should always be tried that this method can. The modern relief is Red Pepper Rub. It so excels the old ways that there is no comparison. It is saving cons of pain.

Nothing else creates such concentration, such penetrating heat. And heat that doesn't hurt.

Apply Red Pepper Rub and the tingling heat is instantly apparent. In three minutes that heat seems to reach the depths. Then the pain and soreness disappear.

At first the results seem like magic. No other method ever brought them. Then you come to rely on them. You come to know that most pain is easily avoided.

But these troubles often appear at night. That means hours of suffering. A jar of Red Pepper Rub on your shelf would prevent them.

So many people suffer needless pains—pains that this method can end in three minutes. That is a pity. Get this Rub-to-day and have it ready to end every such pain at once.

Cougars Anxious To Beat Calgary On Their Own Ice

Ambition of Victoria This Year Has Been to Accomplish That Big Job

Beat Calgary With Ease in All But One Game This Year; Hard Road Ahead

Two jungle packs will meet in the high and cold altitudes of Calgary to-night when Lester Patrick's Cougars and Lloyd Turner's Tigers show the points of their skates.

This will be one of the crucial games of the home stretch, which is waxing hot and close as the teams come galloping towards the wire.

The one ambition of the Cougars this year outside of winning the championship, has been to defeat Calgary on its own ice.

CONDITIONS MUST BE RIGHT To-night the Cougars will endeavor to rip through the stiff Calgary defence for enough goals to bring them the game.

The fans here can count on the Cougars playing their hearts out. The Cougars realize that they will encounter stiff opposition all around the prairies and before they left they would be satisfied if they could win one game, although of course, they hoped they might take more.

MOVE TO EDMONTON The Cougars will move on from Calgary to Edmonton, where they will play on Friday, following with a game in Saskatoon on Monday and in Regina on Wednesday.

Vancouver is also away on a trip to the prairies opening in Saskatoon to-morrow night. The Maroons follow up with a game in Regina on Saturday, play in Calgary on Monday and Edmonton on Wednesday.

The Cougars and Maroons will hustle back to the Coast to make their final stand. Each club will have four games to play, two between themselves and one with Calgary and Saskatoon.

Trigger Grip Gives Control

The trigger grip is the only practical way of getting a firm hold on the club. It has the advantage of giving one absolute control, and Abe Mitchell insists this grip is responsible for his long driving, and there certainly is no disputing the fact that Abe is a long hitter.

If the first finger and the thumb have a firm hold on the club nothing else matters. If one will place the finger and thumb together and press he will find that it brings into play the important muscles of the forearm.

As we grip a gun so should we take hold of the golf club. (Copyright, 1925, by The Bell Syndicate Inc.)

Second Title In S.S. Basketball Series Decided

First Presbyterian Juniors Win Championship by Easily Beating Christ Church

Axioms Heading Along For Intermediate Girls' Title; Defeat Congos by Big Score

S.S. Basketball Results Junior Boys—First Presbyterians 31, Cathedral 19. Intermediate Girls—St. Mark's 10, Christ Church 6.

The second championship of the season in the local Sunday school basketball series was decided last night at the Memorial Hall, when the fast First Presbyterian Juniors won easily from the Cathedral "Greyhounds," the final score being 33-4.

In their games played this season the Firsts have scored 102 points and have had only 11 scored against them. They have won all their games with ease and will now keep in training for the mainlanders.

ST. MARK'S STEP OUT St. Mark's girls sprung a surprise on the Christ Church intermediates and nosed out ahead after a very exciting battle by 10-6.

Ruby Bethel and Hazel Cross scored some nice shots for the winners. Alice Code was the most successful shot for Christ Church.

ST. MARK'S STILL LEAD Although the Congos made a hard fight against the league leaders, they were unable to stop the Axioms in their steady progress towards the championship.

REPORTS SHOW BIG GROWTH IN C.W.V.A. RANKS

Officers Elected by Victoria Branch at Annual Meeting Last Night

Over Seven Hundred Branches of Association Functioning Throughout Canada

The annual general meeting of the Great War Veterans' Association was held last night and officers for the ensuing year were chosen. Reports were read from the president complimenting the Association on the excellent state of affairs obtaining in matters pertaining to the welfare of the Victoria branch. The president stated it was something to be proud of in that just over 700 branches of the association were functioning throughout the Dominion. In addition, there were many active branches in other parts of the world. He was glad to note the association had been honored with an invitation to the banquet given by the Japanese consul to the officers of the Japanese fleet at present cruising in Canadian waters. The various functions given by the association during the year had been most successful, especially the Armistice ball held in November last.

MELDED HOSPITALS

The report of the treasurer, Comrade Stone, was read and that official remarked that it was a matter of some satisfaction that the assets of the branch were so much greater than at this time last year. Comrade Stone pointed out that the association had benefited very handsomely from various functions staged, and it had therefore been possible to devote the proceeds of the Armistice ball to the hospitals. He wondered if the majority of the members quite appreciated the time and work entailed to make such affairs rebound to the credit of the association. He urged the members to all take an interest in things and not leave all the work to "just a fatigue party."

WIRESPEAD MEMBERSHIP

The ever widening ramifications of the branch were reported upon and it was a matter for some comment that ex-members of the forces living far distant from Victoria were glad to become members and have their interests handled by the local branch. Distant members still retaining their good standing reside in Ontario, Alberta, one in Australia, all parts of British Columbia, Texas, Arizona, California, Washington, Montana and other states. Another pleasing feature is the ever increasing number of ex-Imperials joining the branch.

NEW OFFICERS

Officers elected for the year were as follows: President, David Shereff; first vice-president, J. G. Johnson; second vice-president, J. Cassidy; treasurer, W. G. Stone; committees, chairman, finance, S. Sherratt; sick, J. J. Blair; membership, C. C. Thomas; ways and means, W. J. Lisney; resolutions, etc., R. Knowles; house, R. Kinneer; sergeant-at-arms, A. MacIntyre.

LIBERALS OF VICTORIA HONOR F. A. PAULINE AT FAREWELL BANQUET

to turn towards this Province, to share in the coming prosperity, aid in development of the latent natural resources, and widen the incidence of the present heavy taxation, necessitated by the large public undertakings required by such a great area with a small population, mostly concentrated in one comparatively small area.

MANY ADVISERS

Mr. Pauline was greeted with applause when he arose to make his farewell address to Victoria Liberals. He expressed his gratitude to the hundreds of friends who, in Victoria and from all parts of the Province, had given him spoken or written appreciation.

Many of his correspondents had kindly offered advice on many things, but on most matters, the suggestions were so divergent that he had determined to adhere to his own course, which was to seek to accomplish those things which would be for the best advantage of the Province as a whole.

Mr. Pauline told of his recent meetings with the Okanagan fruitgrowers in convention in Penticton, who had supplied him with a mass of valuable information. He was confident that his appointment was satisfactory to the fruit men. Similarly, the merchants and manufacturers of Vancouver, at two most cordial meetings, had assured him of their hearty goodwill and assistance in making British Columbia House a strong factor in the task of winning prosperity for this Province.

DAWNING PROSPERITY

"Good times have commenced to dawn on British Columbia; we should all be optimistic as to the future. In a short time everyone will be compelled, by solid facts, to admit that prosperity again dwells with us," he forecasted.

Referring to the need of more British settlers in British Columbia, Mr. Pauline said three classes of population should be sought: the man with capital, the man with a fixed income and the young man or woman willing to come here and work. He pledged himself to try hard to secure for this Province large numbers of a good type of settlers.

Mrs. L. Knight and S. Winterbottom rendered songs between the speeches, being warmly encored, while Miss D. Morton rendered piano solos. At the conclusion of the speaking an informal reception took place, with everyone shaking hands with Mr. Pauline and wishing him success. Last night's banquet was the final gathering of the kind given Mr. Pauline by friends, and political or business associates of Victoria and district, and was a remarkable testimony to the high esteem with which the new Agent General is regarded by Victoria Liberals.

An Industry in Overalls

MORE than 300,000 persons on this continent are directly employed by the electric railways. 500,000 receive part of their wages from the industry.

All told, more than 3,000,000 are dependent, in whole or in part, on the electric railways.

The Victoria Street Railway System is part and parcel of this important industry.

It gives regular employment to 350 men, with an annual payroll of $625,000.

All this is a decided asset to the community, and if it is to continue as such, the street railway must be able to earn an adequate revenue. It has but one source of income, the fares paid by you and the many others who depend upon the continued efficient conduct of the industry, as a whole, for their transportation requirements.

These are facts you may not have known or realized before, and they are placed before you for consideration.

COLISEUM SHOWS "BY DIVINE RIGHT" WITH MILDRED HARRIS

Elliott Dexter and Mildred Harris are in the pivotal roles of the R. William Neill production, "By Divine Right," now being presented at the Coliseum Theatre.

The story is highly melodramatic being adapted from the novel, "The Way Men Love," by Adam Hall Shirik, in such a manner as to compound cumulative suspense leading to a climax of extraordinary power.

Elliott Dexter will be remembered for his wonderful work in the various DeMille productions, especially "Adam's Rib." Mildred Harris is well known to all movie fans and a star in her own right. Neill, who produced the picture, has directed for Ince, Paramount and others. He recently returned from Italy where he made "Tollers of the Sea."

The story, the cost and the direction should all help to make "By Divine Right," one of the greatest pictures that has ever been shown in Victoria.

The plot of "By Divine Right" is unusually strong. In fact, it is a private screening in New York City, four detectives sat watching the unfolding of the plot with interest.

speculating upon the outcome. Only one of these highly trained solvers of mystery came near the final outcome of the plot. All were agreeably surprised at the end and declared "By Divine Right" to be replete with thrills and suspense.

The continuity of the screen version does not depart at any time from the story of the book, so that the readers of this widely read novel, "The Way Men Love," will not be disappointed in the film.

"Charley's Aunt," which has made more people laugh than any other known entertainment that the world has ever produced, is this week's stage offering at the Coliseum Theatre. The Hincks Company has gathered a cast admirably suited to this farce. The artists consist of Will Marshall, George Brydome, Reginald Hincks, Frank Allwood, Peggy Lewis, Vangie Bellby and Eileen Allwood.

ANOTHER VERSION OF "SALOME" SHOWN HERE BY NAZIMOVA

It is pointed out by those who have seen a preview of Nazimova's "Salome," which is showing all week at the Playhouse Theatre, under an Allied Producers and Distributors Corporation release, that it differs vastly from the plot made familiar to opera-goers through the medium of the Strauss opera, and that the difference is as fundamental as it is broad.

According to the Strauss version, the character of Salome was brutalized and a reputation of the capricious but chaste creature that was the heroine of the Oscar Wilde drama from whence the opera libretto was drawn. The Princess of Judea, as shown in the opera, is a voluptuous creature, essentially evil, if not in deed, at least in thought.

LOVE GUIDED ACTRESS NOW FILMED AS STAR AT THE CAPITOL

She went on the stage to escape being married! She went into the "movies" to be near her husband! These paradoxical captions might well mark two important chapters in the life of Winifred Bryson, the captivating motion picture player who plays a "vampish" role in "Flirting With Love," now playing at the Capitol Theatre, co-featuring Colleen Moore and Conway Tearle.

The first one may be briefly explained thus: Winifred was seventeen, pretty and talented. Her parents—as parents are wont to do—arranged a match for her. But the little lady did not feel the throbs of budding love, and, having ideas of her own, decided to foil Fate. Seeing the light—or electric light—one day, she up and scampered away from home, eventually finding herself playing second leads in original New York productions.

Later—as they say in movie subtitles—she was given the role of the vamp in Leo Carillo's original "Lombard Ltd.," company, in which she appeared for one thousand performances. But the stout heart that induced her to leave home because of a persistent suitor failed her. Heart trouble was the minister's diagnosis, and she fell a willing victim to lovelessness, the microbe being none other than Warner Baxter, well-known and popular film leading man. Warner was juvenile in the Carillo company.

NEGRI-LUBITSCH FILM FOR LAST TIME AT THE DOMINION

"Forbidden Paradise," the first Paramount picture starring Pola Negri to be directed by Ernst Lubitsch, creator of "Passion," "The Marriage Circle," etc., is being shown at the Dominion Theatre for the last time to-day.

The professional re-union of these two in the making of such an important production as "Forbidden Paradise" is significant. It follows a demand which has been constant from critics and the public since their co-operative efforts resulted in one of Europe's most memorable productions.

"Forbidden Paradise" was adapted from the famous stage play, "The Czarina." The screen play, written by Agnes Christine Johnson and Hans Kraly, retains the dramatic suspense which made the stage production notable and introduces many striking new features.

Rod La Rocque, Adolphe Menjou and Pauline Starke are featured in the principal supporting roles in the production. Among others are Fred Malatesta, Nick De Ruiz and Mme. D'Aumery.

"BANDOLERO" SHOWS PORTRAYER OF TYPE OF CRIMINAL MIND

Gustav von Seyffertitz has a leading role in "The Bandolero," Tom Terriss's production for Metro-Goldwyn, which is showing at the Columbia Theatre to-day.

Mr. von Seyffertitz has made movie fans lay awake many a night after having seen him as a master mind criminal and similar characters. He scored one of his biggest hits in "Sherlock Holmes" with John Barrymore, and ever since that time has been in great demand for roles of the same sort. Other pictures he has appeared in recently include "When Knighthood Was in Flower," "The Face in the Fog," and "The Inner Man."

RACHMANINOFF THRILLED OHIO MUSIC LOVERS

A criticism from Cleveland, Ohio: "Sergei Rachmaninoff thrilled a great course of music lovers by his wonderful playing last night, Masonic Hall was filled to the last seat, and all the available standing-room was disposed of long before the recital began."

"We do not know how it may be in other cities, but no pianist since the rainy days of Paderewski has won so great a following in Cleveland as has Mr. Rachmaninoff. The reason is not far to seek. The Russian pianist is not only a supreme master of the keyboard, making light of the most stupendous difficulties; he transfigures every one of his presentiments with the clear light of his own genius, his own fancy, his own imagination.

"This to our notion—there are many who are contrary-minded—is the very summit of reproductive art. Surely, though, music has no higher function than to delight, to stir, to hold spellbound its hearer."

"All this Rachmaninoff achieved. And the utter silence of the vast audience during the performance of the numbers was in itself a thing to

PERCY HUTCHISON WILL OPEN HERE AT ROYAL TO-MORROW

The popular English actor, Percy Hutchison, will open an engagement with his London company at the Royal Theatre to-morrow for three days with a performance of a farcical comedy named, "Nightie Night." This piece should be billed as the tonic Victoria is looking for. And the reason that it appeals so strongly to its audience is that it is a farce, although it is a very human play, and Billy Moffat shows how, with the best of intentions, it is easy to say the wrong thing at precisely the wrong time, and this with all the good faith in the world.

URGES DEVELOPMENT OF HORTICULTURE

J. Hutchison Addresses Victoria and District Gardeners' Association

The Victoria and District Gardeners' Association held their regular meeting at the City Hall last evening. W. J. Edwards, presiding.

In his opening remarks, the speaker urged an eastern city, Springfield, which he happened to be with a similar population to Victoria, about twenty-five years ago. Two men commenced rose growing on an exceptionally small scale. Last year's output was 10,000,000 roses. Mr. Hutchison was very optimistic regarding British Columbia's future in this respect with climatic conditions second to none. The cultivation of bulbs was particularly suitable here, as shown by the Sidney Experimental Station. The prairie provinces would eventually be a great market for British Columbia grown shrubs, he stated, arguing that the greatest need for the commercial grower was a consistent market.

George Robinson of Elk Lake added a few remarks to the previous speaker, particularly from a seed grower's standpoint. He said that British Columbia grown seed commanded a higher price than that of the California grower. He also expressed the need of a consistent market, and wished greater support from the Canadian seed houses.

The show committee has now been appointed, and has commenced arrangements for the holding of their second show about the second week in July.

The increased interest shown in the association is now apparent, judging by new members enrolled. The president made reference to the loss the association had sustained by the fatal accident to George Hilton. He eulogized the late member's enthusiasm as an amateur gardener. All present stood in silence in respect to the late member.

A start was made on the consideration of the estimates, and it was decided to call another special meeting next Tuesday at 8 o'clock at the Oak Bay High School.

YOUR HEALTH

WHEN A CHILD HAS A FEVER HERE'S WHAT YOU CAN DO

By Royal S. Copeland, M.D.

I have been asked by a mother to tell what should be done when children have fever. She speaks particularly of fever in indigestion, constipation and in a cold attacking the throat or chest.

It is safe to assume that in almost every instance, rise of temperature in a child is an indication of infection.

What do we mean by infection? An infecting agent is anything which taints or poisons the system. Bad air, unclean food, fermenting waste in the body—these are examples of common forms of infection.

Many germs taken into the body are capable of producing pus formation. When the pus develops, the blood takes out of it poisons which are likely to cause fever. Other germs generate certain toxins, poisons capable of reacting upon the body in such a manner as to elevate the temperature.

In a grown person the fever may be announced by a sudden chill. In a child there may be a convulsion instead of a chill. In most instances, however, there is a gradual increase in the temperature which is first noticed when headache, great weakness or general feeling of illness gives warning that something is wrong.

Knowing why fever comes, you can see how foolish it is to treat the fever, instead of removing the cause. The patient might be put in cold storage long enough to lower the temperature, but that wouldn't cure the ailment, would it? The fever is merely one of the symptoms of the ailment, whatever the ailment may be.

Returning to the mother's question, you will see that she suggests the proper treatment in each instance by reciting the cause for the fever. The direct answer is simple—get rid of the fever by removing the exciting cause.

But of course this is not a sufficient answer. I shall be more specific: In diarrhea or constipation the first thing to do is to empty the bowel. A dose of castor oil and an enema of hot water will accomplish this.

In acute indigestion, to empty the stomach is good tactics. Sometimes a little baking soda in warm water, given to the child to drink, will cause him to throw up the offending food. Milk of magnesia or rhubarb and soda may be useful.

If the child has taken cold, he should be placed in a very warm bath and left there for a quarter of an hour. Then dry him off and put him in a warm bed, nicely covered, till his sweat is ended. Then sponge him off with cold water and place him in a dry bed. Give him plenty of water to drink.

Get rid of the primary cause of trouble and the fever will take care of itself.

A MIRACLE THAT NONE WERE KILLED—When this Pas-saic (N.J.) trolley left the trestle over the West-Shore R.R. tracks in Jersey City, N.J., it seemed that a miracle was all that saved the twenty-two passengers from death. As it was, all were hurled in a tangled heap in the front of the car. Most of them were unconscious when dragged out, but recovered quickly after being taken to the hospital, only two being found to have been seriously injured.

GERMANY'S NEW EMDEN—The popular demand in Germany for a floating monument to the German sea rider Emden, which created so much havoc to allied shipping in the early days of the World War has at last been answered. A new Emden, a scout cruiser, has been launched. The photo shows the scene at the launching at the great shipyards at Wilhelmshaven. Incidentally the Emden is the first war vessel to be constructed at Wilhelmshaven since the war.

NOW COLLEGE WARDEN—H. A. Fisher, former British Minister of Education, who has been elected as warden of New College, Oxford. He made a tour of Canada last year. A recent photo.

NICE, BUT WHAT A BUMP'S COMING—Gerhardt Moller of New Canaan, Conn., became tired of the ordinary run of tobogganing, so he tried some new antics, emulating the high-flying ski-jumpers.

REGAL REDHEAD OF WORLD—Hollywood's newest quest for the world's most beautiful woman has just ended. And included in the group selected by Jesse L. Lasky, director, is Clara Morris. Clara was suggested by Neysa McMein, noted artist, who be-titled the beauty as "the regal redhead of the world."

WHEN MONSTER WAS HUMBLLED—A unique action picture taken when a 120-ton gantry crane, formerly the property of the Dominion Shipbuilding Company, Toronto, was wrecked. The photo shows the structure toppling over with the masts tilted off the bases and the immense top span falling. The construction, 140 feet high and 50 feet long, was pulled down by means of cables and winches. The joints where the masts or supports met the bases were first burned through by torches, then the winches were thrown into action and the structure toppled over.

WOODROW WILSON HONORED—Mrs. Woodrow Wilson, as she appeared on leaving Central Presbyterian Church, Washington, after having seen a tablet unveiled to the memory of her late husband, President Wilson.

IN THE WORLD OF ART—The famous long-lost painting of Rubens, "Daniel in the Lion's Den," which has been traced to Philadelphia by Professor Pasquale Farina, expert on the works of old masters. This painting has been a centre of art controversy for fifty years, no less than five paintings having been declared the original Rubens. The expert, however, says that the true "original" is in the possession of Max A. Krankel.

COMING—Cyril Maude, noted English actor, who has been playing in Canadian cities lately.

FRENCH OFFICER TRIED AS RED—Captain Sadoul, who deserted the French army during the war after he had tried to convert his comrades to Bolshevism, and who then found refuge in Russia, returned to France after the peace treaty between the Soviets and France, as a member of the Soviet mission. He was promptly arrested and is now being tried by a military court. Photo shows him behind prison bars.

WILD WOLF AT LARGE STIRS TORONTO—Considerable excitement was caused when Knahey, six-months-old wolf of Joe Laflamme's wolf and dog team, broke loose in Toronto. After a long chase he was captured by Bill Fortin, French-Canadian, with whom he is shown in two poses above just after his capture.

LEFT HOME IN BATTLE CREEK MICHIGAN TO VISIT AUNT IN TORONTO, CANADA

A PAWN OF NATIONS—Little Mary Gogoff, thirteen, is a pawn of nations. Though her parents are wealthy, Mary finds herself a "waif of the world," the centre of a controversy between nations as to where she will be permitted to live. She is now in Toronto, Canada, and United States immigration authorities will not permit her to return to Battle Creek, Mich., where her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Gogoff, reside.

RETURNING HOME, U.S. IMMIGRATION OFFICIALS REFUSE TO LET HER ENTER COUNTRY

And Canadian officials say if she isn't good enough for the United States she can't remain. All because Mary has defective sight and hearing and because her father has not taken out his first citizenship papers. Mary went to visit her aunt in Toronto last Fall to recuperate following an illness of scarlet fever which impaired her two senses. She started home for Christmas, and her parents went to Detroit to meet her.

MARY GOGOFF
But immigration authorities said no—she could not cross into the United States.

SENT BACK TO TORONTO

NOT GOOD ENOUGH FOR THE U.S.; THE CANADIANS JOINTLY WANT HER—A GIRL WITHOUT A COUNTRY.

Then Canadian officers got busy. She couldn't say in that country either—they would deport her. But where? Mary was born in Macedonia, but a Balkan war had changed Europe's map since her emigration to America. Macedonia, once a Turkish province, was now ruled by Greece. Turkey wouldn't have her—neither would Greece. It seemed like the only way to satisfy all immigration authorities was to take Mary into mid-ocean, and leave her. Then the Battle Creek Federa-tion of Women's Clubs took a hand. It has petitioned Secretary of Labor Davis and he has said that the girl's case will be re-opened. The federation in its petition points out that Mary had been a pupil in the public schools and had contracted the disease, which impaired her faculties while living in the United States. The child's father, who has built up a large fortune in the past eleven years, says he will spend every cent, if necessary, to have Mary returned to the family home.

Wall Street TO-DAY

Last Minute News on Stocks and Financial Affairs. New York, Feb. 4 (By R. P. Clark and Company.)—The turnover was rather large to-day, and the dealings were pretty well distributed throughout the list. Much strength was manifested in the low priced rail group, considerable of the buying being stimulated by merger talk and prospective dividends.

NEW YORK STOCKS

NEW YORK STOCK EXCHANGE, FEBRUARY 4, 1925 (Supplied by two local stockbrokers over direct New York wire)

Table of New York Stock Exchange prices for various stocks including Am. Beet Sugar, Am. Biscuit, Am. Can, etc.

Market again showed firm undertone due to strength in cables and some improvement in export demand. Underlying conditions remain favorable for higher prices, but would confine purchases to moderate setbacks.

Money Market To-day

New York, Feb. 4.—Call money easy; high 3 1/2%; low 3%; ruling rate 3 1/2%; closing bid 3%; offered at 3 1/2%; last loan 3%; call loans against acceptances 2 1/2%.

WINNIPEG GRAIN

Winnipeg, Feb. 4 (By R. P. Clark & Co.)—The market opened on a 1 1/2 to 4 cents higher this morning while there was a lot of speculative buying coming through the commission houses based entirely on the excellent, strong 30 cent movement.

The strong European sales were somewhat of a surprise and clearly indicate that foreign markets are more or less dependent on the American continent to fill their requirements. The undertone is strong and the fundamentals surrounding the wheat market are unchanged.

Winnipeg, Feb. 4 (By B.C. Bond Corporation's direct pit wire)—Action of the market somewhat disappointing in view of strength of other markets and reports of fair quantities both American and Manitoba worked for export.

LOCAL FEED PRICES SHOW AN ADVANCE

Local feed prices advanced at the beginning of the week. No. 1 wheat is now selling at $71 a ton and $3.65 per sack, while No. 2 wheat is going at $66 a ton and $3.40 a sack.

EARNINGS MAINTAINED

The Dominion Bank, in Fifty-Fourth Annual Statement, Records Increased Deposits. Strong Liquid Position.

While it is generally admitted that 1924 was a year of slow business, the figures in the fifty-fourth annual statement of the Dominion Bank presented by the directors at the meeting of shareholders on January 23 show improved profits, increased deposits and a strong liquid position well maintained.

THE MARRIAGE SCALES

BEDTIME STORY
Uncle Wiggily and Johnnie's Tail
 Copyright, 1925, by McClure Newspaper Syndicate.
 (By Howard R. Garis.)
 "Come on, Johnnie!" called Billie Bushytail, the squirrel boy to his brother one day. "Let's play hide and go seek!"
 "I will if you'll be it, and blind," chattered Johnnie.
 "All right," agreed Billie. So he covered his eyes with his paws, and began to count: "One, two, three, and so on up to a hundred. And while Billie was counting Johnnie ran to hide himself so his brother couldn't find him."
 Not far away from where the squirrel brothers were playing this game, was Uncle Wiggily's hollow stump bungalow. As Johnnie ran through the woods he thought to himself:
 "Uncle Wiggily's house will be a good place to hide in. Billie will never think of looking for me there!"
 So into the bungalow he dashed, and as it happened, Mr. Longears had just gone out to seek an adventure.
 "Where is the girl you said you wanted me to meet?"
 Charles laughed heartily.
 "You've already met her—Sally McPherson!"
 Relief almost made Mariana dizzy. "But she's not a girl," she objected. "She must be frightfully old."
 Charles mentioned Mrs. McPherson's age. It was the same as Mariana's. The news made the latter thoughtful.
 "Of course Sally looks heaps older," Charles remarked. "She works pretty hard, I dare say—housekeeping and kids and all that. She doesn't have much time to keep fixed up the way Eastern women do. An afternoon at the golf club, or a picnic on the beach is a wild orgy to her."
 Mariana shuddered. She looked at Charles with new, admiring eyes. He was about McPherson's age, in fact, they had gone through college together. Yet he was able to give her a luxurious town house, a country place, a camp in Canada if she wanted it, cars, servants, Paris gowns—
 She caught her breath in dismay. How little she had appreciated him! The day dragged endlessly, she thought. The McPhersons were nice, but everything they said and did revealed Charles in a newer and more desirable light to Mariana. She began to see him as a personal exponent of a lost paradise.
 After supper, Mrs. McPherson went back to the house to put the children to bed. Her husband, at her warning, wandered off somewhere with his pipe.
 Charles and Mariana were alone on the beach. A benign moon shone down upon lazily rolling waves and silvery sand.
 Charles discovered suddenly that Mariana was crying.
 She was visiting a certain zoo and gathering as much information about the animals as was possible in one short afternoon.
 "Are these bears carnivorous?" she inquired of a keeper who happened to be standing near.
 "Yes," replied the keeper, slowly, "they was when they arrived, mow, but they've been all right since we cleaned 'em down with carbolic!"

THE INEVITABLE DENOUEMENT
 It was, a subdued and chastened Mariana who answered Charles's ring the following morning.
 She had scarcely slept at all. Hour after hour had crawled by in darkness and loneliness. She had watched the dawn break with wide, sleepless eyes and, remembering other dawns when she had sighed romantically over the thought of Craig Culam, shuddered with distaste.
 Wild thoughts of rising early and leaving the hotel before Charles was astir came to tempt her in the silent watches. She would go to Honolulu, perhaps to China, lose herself in the kindly oblivion of the Orient! At other times, doing a right-about-face mentally, she would resolve to go back to Reno and join forces with the young prospective divorcee of the train. In six months, she would fling Charles's freedom in his face!
 But that very idea made her desperate and forlorn. She thought of Doris and longed to confide in her.
 At 9 o'clock her telephone rang. She answered it hesitantly and her heart leaped at Charles's cheery "Good morning."
 "How do you sleep?" he asked solicitously.
 "Very—thank you," she prevaricated politely.
 "Fine. I'll call for you at eleven. Be ready by that time!"
 She laughed with an effort.
 "Do you think I have to make an elaborate two-hour toilet for a day on the beach?"
 "I know you women! Fly to it, and I'll ring you on the hour sharp."
 As a matter of fact, it took Mariana a mere half-hour to prepare for the day's outing. She had never, even on the occasion of a great ball, made so careful and perfect a toilet.
 Her face, with the ravages of sleeplessness stamped upon it, almost made her despair when she first looked in the mirror. But she went to work doggedly to repair damages. Steaming towels, long-continued application of ice, a brisk massage, and her lovely skin bloomed radiantly once more. She pencilled her eyes delicately and viewed with satisfaction the wistful expression her art gave to them.
 When she joined Charles at five minutes past eleven, she was a vision of modish and perfect grooming in the latest silken sport suit which commented Mr. Robb when viewing the great flood of messages which had been wired to the Moncton studios.

 Mr. Robb read a message from Sir Henry Thornton, president of the Canadian National Railways.
MAKING HISTORY
 During the course of his address Mr. Robb explained the purpose of the broadcast and gave details of the operations of the radio department of the Canadian National Railways.
 "I am proud to be privileged to speak on such an occasion," he said, "because I regard it as history in the making. The occasion is historical to the extent that it is the first on which a radio station in Canada has arranged a special programme for the express purpose of broadcasting it across the Atlantic to reach a people in the British Isles, to deliver a message to our kith and kin in England, in Scotland, in Wales, in Northern Ireland, and in the Free State, and if this voice carries even farther and is heard in the countries on the continent of Europe let it be heard as a friendly voice, the voice of a country desiring to promote good will amongst all peoples. The voice will, I know, be heard across the border to the south of us and there it will be recognised as that of one member of a great family addressing its elders. No special explanations are required from me by the people of the United States, and I have no doubt whatever they will regard this event as a new evidence of the use of science in broadening the councils of men, and by so doing approaching more closely to that sympathetic understanding and international good fellowship which are essential for the progress of prosperity and happiness of all of us."
CANADA'S OPPORTUNITIES
 Sir Henry Thornton's message said in part:
 "Attempts have been made in certain quarters in Great Britain to discredit the name of Canada and to discourage migration from the United Kingdom to Canada. As one who has lived among you over there you and to love you as I give you my assurance, based upon a thorough knowledge of the conditions in Great Britain and in Canada, that Canada is still the land of great opportunity. For men and women who are not afraid to work, there are Canada opportunities to be found nowhere else in the world."

Cross-word Puzzle 020
HOW TO SOLVE THE CROSS-WORD PUZZLE
 Every number in the form represents the beginning of a word, reading either horizontally or vertically. If there is a black square to the left of the number, the word is horizontal; if above it, the word is vertical. The same number may of course begin both a horizontal and a vertical. The definitions for the correct words to fill the form are found below, with numbers corresponding to those on the form. Run through the definitions till you find one that you recognize, and put it in its proper place on the form, one letter for each white square. This will furnish several cross-clues to the words linking with it at right angles. Continue in this manner till the form is completely filled. If you have solved the puzzle correctly it should read both horizontally and vertically with words corresponding to the definitions. The correct solution of to-day's puzzle will be printed in the next issue of The Times.

Penalties for Overlooking Classified Ads
 You may be paying too much rent for your home or place of business, solely because you have not been a classified ad reader.
 You may be getting too small a salary for the same reason—or be paying too high salaries to others.
 For, as it "pays" to read and answer and investigate ads, so it "costs" not to do so!

CANADA-BRITAIN NEW RADIO SUCCESS
 Moncton, Feb. 4.—Success attended the first attempt of a Canadian radio station to broadcast a regular programme to the British Isles, cable messages received here announcing reception at Liverpool and Manchester of music and addresses sent out last night from CNRA, the Canadian National Railway broadcasting centre for the Maritime Provinces. A message received by W. D. Robb, vice-president of the Canadian National Railways, stated that the first reports in England were received at 11:40 p.m. Greenwich time.
 The first broadcast sent signals at 11 o'clock, Greenwich time, on 313 metres, so that owners of sets in the British Isles could tune in on the wave length of CNRA at Moncton. There were considerable Newfoundland in the early stages of the broadcasting which indicated that the broadcast was receiving a good reception at its journey across the Atlantic.

URGES POLICE FORCE STAND AS IT IS

Grave Mistake to Reduce Police Force, Says Chief Fry

Minimum Now Reached For Public Safety in City

Pointing out that the minimum force for safeguarding the city and its residents had been reached and any other attempts at a cut in the police would result in dangerous consequences, Chief Fry tabled the following report with the City Police Commission at the last regular meeting.

The Police Commission has before it a contrary report by Commissioner W. E. Stanbury. Action as to the future policy of the board has been tabled.

CHIEF FRY'S REPORT
Police Station, Victoria, B.C., January 27, 1925.

His Worship the Mayor and Board of Police Commissioners, Victoria, B.C.

Sirs,—In reference to the recommendations put forward at the last meeting of the Board, I place before you the following report, for your guidance.

The compliment of the force at present, I consider to be the minimum required for the proper policing of the city, having regard to all the circumstances.

It must be borne in mind that it is necessary to maintain the same vigilance at two o'clock in the morning as at twelve o'clock noon. It must never be relaxed. In this connection we must take into consideration the annual leave. This is spread over a period of about eight months of the year, and during that time there is an average of about three men off duty all the time. Then we have the weekly leave, this takes off four to six men daily. In addition to regular leaves sickness or accident may lay off one or two men from duty for a few days. Then again prisoners have to be escorted to Oakalla or New Westminster from time to time, and insane patients have to be removed to the mental hospital under escort. All of this work takes men from their regular duties and at times necessitates the calling in of men from other reliefs so that the maximum of service may be given. Guards may have to be placed at an hospital to watch over some patient who is under arrest or unmanageable through mental sickness. This work entails throughout its period three men every day in reliefs of eight hours each.

The police department must at all times be prepared to cope with anything that may occur. The preservation of the peace at meetings, control of processions, parades, etc., which can only be done by men who are experienced in police practice. To enumerate all the many duties that fall upon the department would take up too much time. It is well known, however, that the efficiency of the force or the amount of work done by the department cannot be accurately judged by newspaper reports of the number of cases that come before the court. The law-abiding citizen does not realize the value of the work done by the force, as much of the best work of the department is never heard of outside police circles, for reasons that are obvious. The average man fails to realize also that the liberty and freedom by which he is enabled to travel upon or pass and repass along our streets in safety, is due in no small measure to the silent vigilance of the police force. It is the lawbreaker who is conscious of this.

Victoria, as a law-abiding city, holds an enviable record throughout this great continent, and this state of affairs I claim has largely been brought about by the conscientious, intelligent, humane and loyal efforts of its police force.

It has been suggested that two additional men be attached to the Detective Department, this I do not think necessary as there are already seven men in this department. Should at any time circumstances arise which may warrant the assistance of extra men, this can easily be arranged by detaching patrolmen for plain clothes duty. Should we allow ourselves to be carried away by the fascination of sleuth work, and let our police department develop into nothing but a detective agency, we would lose sight of our mission, which, to my mind, is the doing of the greatest good to the greatest number, with the minimum of expense to the city. Prevention of crime and the preservation of peace is of more importance than the conviction of criminals, and should be the principle upon which the duties of a police force are founded. This I contend cannot be better accomplished than by an organized system of patrolmen in uniform, who by their personality, mannerism and initiative, would inculcate that moral effect upon those with whom they come in contact, especially upon the younger generation, thereby tending to create a spirit of citizenship so much desired, and to further attain this end I respectfully recommend—and request your support for the putting into effect of a special patrol system for the residential districts, which I am of the opinion would greatly enhance the efficiency of the force and eliminate to a great extent the juvenile delinquency and depredation of property from which the city has suffered so much in the past.

SUBURBAN PATROLS

What I propose is this, the portions of the city known for police purposes as Nos. 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, and 12 beats, be patrolled by placing four men in these districts as follows:—One man on 5 and 6 beat which embraces Victoria West, Rock Bay, and Hillside Avenue; one man on 7 and 8 beats, being that portion of the city bounded on the North by Hillside Avenue, on the South by Yates Street and all within the city limits East of Quadra Street; one man on 9 and 10 beats being that portion of the city known as James Bay and the streets surrounding Beacon Hill Park; one man on 11 and 12 beats, being that portion of the city South of Yates Street, along Fort Street to city limits and East of Quadra Street, city limits.

Each man would have to reside in his respective district and would be held responsible for the maintenance of the law in such district. His hours of duty would to a certain extent be governed by circumstances, but mainly from three to eleven p.m. Under this system an officer would become personally acquainted with the residents of his district, attend their complaints, assist them in settling their difficulties, and as I have already stated, he would by his personality have that moral effect upon the younger generation which would be of inestimable value to the city. Each patrolman's residence would become, as it were, a substation to headquarters. The people of his district would get to know where he resided, thereby creating that feeling of confidence and security so essential to the welfare of the community. It would be necessary for the department to have one party line phones installed in the residences of these men so as to better facilitate their services. This would cost the department about thirteen dollars a month. The above system can be adopted without engaging any more men, and would leave three men for patrol duty and one man for relief duty on each relief for the business district of the city, except that during the period of annual leave of anyone there would not be any men to take their place.

The motor cycle squad as at present constituted, I maintain is sufficient for the immediate requirements of the city, there being one cycle for each relief. Their duties are mainly concerned with the control and regulation of vehicular traffic and attending to complaints of an urgent nature. As to a man on a motor cycle or even on an ordinary bicycle taking the place of a patrolman, I cannot in any way recommend this.

HEIGHT OF FOLLY
With reference to the abolition of patrol sergeants, I must strongly protest against this proposal, as the adoption of such a course would be one of the main factors in reducing the efficiency of the force. He is one of the most important officers of the department, is in close touch with the men, and they look to him for guidance, instruction and assistance in the performance of their duties, and by virtue of his position he must be possessed of initiative and have a good general knowledge of the law. To do away with this position would be the height of folly, for no matter what responsibilities you place upon the station sergeants in reference to the patrolmen, they cannot by the nature of their office, have the same influence or control required as the sergeant on duty outside.

The position of desk or station sergeant which is a very responsible position, is only of recent date. They formerly ranked as gaolers with the pay of first class constables. The rank of sergeant was created when Sergeant Walker and Blackstock, after long and faithful service on street duty, were given inside positions. Sergeant Hall being promoted to the same rank as he was doing the same work and in charge of the books.

Constable Wood, who has been long in the service, was during the past year, placed in the position of park constable in place of Constable Carter deceased. Gentlemen, may I again stress the necessity of creating a pension fund or adopting a superannuation scheme. Every year this question is becoming more acute. There are several men on the force who have given long and faithful service to the department, and who, although they still give their best, the fact remains they are past the heyday of their life. To cast these men out without making some provision for them would be against all public policy and what is more important still, it would tend to lower the morale of the department. A police officer by the very nature of his duty is in a somewhat prohibitory position in that he cannot supplement his salary by other means, having to devote all his energy and time to his police work.

ENOUGH WOMEN CONSTABLES.

As regards the women police, I do not think that circumstances warrant any addition at the present time. This branch of the service is now composed of a matron—Mrs. Gillingham—for female prisoners and whose services are available for departmental purposes on occasion demands; and a probation officer—Mrs. Claydon—who is experienced in the work and whose services are available at all times for the assistance and guidance in matters relating to the welfare of young girls. The Gamewell signal and patrol box system is now entirely out of commission. All the wiring would have to be renewed, in addition to other necessary repairs, to put it in working order. It is a system which, in my opinion, was installed in the city long before circumstances warranted same. Personally I do not see any necessity at the present time to expend any money on this as the public telephone system throughout the city is such as to give the department all the facility required.

In conclusion, gentlemen, I request you to seriously take into consideration any proposal to reduce the number of men in the department. As I have already pointed out, having regard to all the circumstances, and the knowledge I have gained from past experience, we are now at the minimum strength for the proper policing of the city.

I have the honor to be, Sirs,

Your obedient servant,
JOHN FRY,
Chief Constable.
