P R E F A C E .

THE Public are informed that it was the intention of the Publisher to have issued the Directory complete, as early as June last; but circumstances beyond his control conspired to delay it until it was deemed too late, and it was therefore resolved to suspend it till the ensuing Spring. Subsequently, however, the greater part of the names being in type, it was concluded to issue a small edition in its present form, promising a complete and perfect edition, with Calendars, Statistics, Census, Map, Cuts, Streets, and every thing usually found in such works, in the Spring, and continue its issue regularly thereafter. In the mean time we invite corrections, contributions, and suggestions, in any way affecting its usefulness.

The Directory heretofore has been a losing enterprise, but the Publisher is resolved to hazard a bold experiment in the next issue, trusting that the heavy expenses incurred in its compiling and printing, will meet with, at least, a fair remuneration.
