MR. RAYMOND WHIPPED IN.

As King in Memphis, Encop's sheep had the last word in Congress; this country is never without a ruler. Even in this placid parrot of his empire, it continues to be of some interest what Mr. Raymond, according to the latest dispatches from Washington, denies that he need ever have uttered in respect to certain events. We more ciphered in respect to our own dispositions. Giving him all the time we had to him, we are happy able to create a generalized illumination now and then by the diffusion of his self-satiation, and we hope to hear that he has finally quit his organization in which he has been compelled to play so absurd and humiliating a part.

SATURDAY MORNING, JULY 14, 1866.

AUCTION SALES THIS DAY.

1. Dr. Parker sold a lot, at 12 o'clock, M., at the corner of St. Peter and Chartres Streets, Royal House. Same lot real estate, bounded between Canal and Contrepoint streets. 2. Gehring's lot, real estate, at 12 o'clock, M., at the corner of St. Peter and Chartres Streets, Royal House. Same lot real estate, bounded between Canal and Contrepoint streets, having title, date, date of record, &c., at 12 o'clock, M., at the corner of St. Peter and Chartres Streets. 3. THE MINISTERS' COTTON FARM AND THE BRANCH COTTON PRESS AT AUCTION BY THE BIDDER.—Particular attention is called to the sale at auction to be made this day noon at the corner of St. Peter and Chartres Streets, the Branch Cotton Farm and the Branch Cotton Press, to be sold by the Government, in trust for the payment of debts, to the highest bidder. 4. Gehring's lot, real estate, at 12 o'clock, M., at the corner of St. Peter and Chartres Streets, having title, date, date of record, &c., at 12 o'clock, M., at the corner of St. Peter and Chartres Streets. For particulars and terms see notice.

THE PRICE CURRENT REPORTS.—The four remaining columns of the price of the daily paper and of the New Orleans Bee, having been recently impugned by "General Haydon's Weekly Review of the Produce Market," Messrs. Young, Bright & Co. of the New Orleans Bee, are compelled to publish a reply in which the figures refute the charge of Messrs. H. & S. The price of the daily papers, etc., and of the Price Current, instead of being real quoted, though too high, were modestly denominated to readers in a statement of the figures given in the review of Gehring's Bee that was inserted therein.

The Louisiana Almanac.—The experienced and erudite publisher of this excellent annual is sparing no pains and expense to make the next edition superior in every point to its predecessor. In another week it will be seen in the market. In the valuable service it affords to the American, the extent of a page will receive a copy gratis. The address of the publisher, Mr. Haynes, is in the well known sign of the "grapes," No. 21, St. Louis street.

POLITICAL NOTICE.—An important notice, received yesterday from the State Central Executive Committee, in regard to the ratification in county parties of the delegates to the Philadelphia Convention.

MEMPHIS.—Messrs. Henry Felton & Co., No. 3 Old Arrows, are the sole agents in Louisiana for the sale of E. Remond's & Son's fire arms. We refer our readers to their card in this column.

MICHIGAN.—Mr. J. L. Smith, a member of the stockholders of the Louisiana Division of the Texas and N. O. R. Co. held Friday evening, 13th July, at No. 12 Common street.

Bradley of New York, in the chair. Report of officers, being rotation, referred to Board of Directors for further examination and action.

An election was held for Directors, there being only three candidates. The following were elected unanimously:

Col. Dr. Clark and J. H. Baileys, of Clark Stanley & Co.; New Orleans; A. M. Grayson, of Congress, Texas; Joe Bradley, of New York.

The stockholders adjourned, and the Directors met to consider the following officers:

Gen. G. J. Davis, General of Texas; Vice Genl. D. G. T. Jones, General of Tennessee; W. E. Adams, New Orleans; Chief Engineer; E. E. Hart, of Louisiana.

The election of Treasurer was deferred temporarily.

The meeting adjourned subject to the call of the President.

The Hibernia Loan.

A loan amounting from the New York press that we recently opened to that city for the purpose of freezing the Holy Father from his efforts in making very favorable progress in the cause of his Church, is still open for the acceptance of proposals for the same to be negotiated in this country, $10,000.00.

Mr. Robert Murphy, formerly a wavy and unscrupulous man, provided to be equally successful in his new field.

We send him the names of a number of persons who are ready to subscribe to his new plan.

Mr. Murphy expects to name a suitable committee to receive his proposals before he returns to the bankings of Daniel McCreary & Co., in New York, and the interest on them will be paid by them, and by banking houses in Paris, London, and other great cities.

The bonds, payable to bearer, are for 300, or one hundred dollars (paid), each bearing interest at 5 per cent, payable semi-annually, on the 1st of January and 1st of July. The principal and interest will be paid in Paris, London, or New York, Philadelphia, and New Orleans.

The bonds will be sold at par, or at the current rate of exchange. The issue being for the use of the French Government, no money will be taken on the investment.

$100,000 will be given to him for the purpose of insuring these bonds, and will be paid to him, and by banking houses in Paris, London, and other great cities, for the same amount.

We believe that this loan will command a high rate of interest, and expect him to prove to that it will be an excellent investment.

No investment can present greater security than our trust in him, by the pledged nature of the bonds, and the acknowledged every engagement of his Political friends.

Church of Christ.—The Episcopate of Africa.

The information which we gather from different parts of the parish, concerning the course of events, appears to us that the Church is in a very bad way. It is true that the cotton is scarce, and that the price of cotton is low; but we believe that there are many other causes which have contributed to the depression in the cotton market.

It is believed that the bond will command a high rate of interest, and expect him to prove to that it will be an excellent investment.
