(2) For the purpose of this section "normal profit" means the profit which might reasonably have been obtained from a similar letting in the year ending on the third day of August, nineteen hundred and fourteen.

CHAPTER 9.

An Act to amend and regulate procedure under the Intestate Husband's Estate (Scotland) Act, 1911. [16th April 1919.]

BE it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

Application to court by widow in right of estate under the Intestate Husband's Estate (Scotland) Act, 1911. 1 & 2 Geo. 5. c. 10.

1. Where a widow is entitled to the whole or part of the estate of her deceased husband, in terms of the Intestate Husband's Estate (Scotland) Act, 1911 (in this Act referred to as "the principal Act"), she may present in the sheriff court of the county in which her husband was domiciled at the time of his death, or, if the county in which he was so domiciled is uncertain, in the sheriff court of the Lothians and Peebles at Edinburgh, a summary application in the form of the schedule to this Act, or as nearly in such form as the circumstances of the case permit, appending an inventory giving such particulars of the estate as are indicated in the form of inventory in the said schedule.

Procedure in application to court.

2. The sheriff shall order intimation of any application made under the preceding section and of the relative inventory to be given to the heir-at-law of the intestate, if the estate shall partly or wholly consist of heritage, and to the heirs in mobilibus of the intestate if the estate shall partly or wholly consist of moveables; and upon being satisfied after such inquiry as he deems proper that the applicant is entitled under the principal Act to the whole or part of such estate, he shall pronounce decree as hereinafter provided. Provided that, in any case where the heir-at-law or heirs in mobilibus of the intestate is or are unknown and cannot, after such inquiry as the sheriff thinks fit, be ascertained, the sheriff may dispense with intimation accordingly.

3.—(1) If the sheriff in any such application determines that the total net value of the estate does not exceed the sum of five hundred pounds, he shall pronounce decree in favour of the applicant, declaring that the estate belongs absolutely and exclusively to her; and on a duly stamped inventory of the estate being lodged by her with the sheriff clerk, or in the case of the application being made in the sheriffdom of the Lothians and Peebles at Edinburgh with the commissary clerk, such decree shall be a sufficient warrant for issuing confirmation of the moveable estate in favour of the applicant as executrix dative qua relict; and on an extract of such decree containing a description of the heritable estate and of the heritable securities and the subjects contained therein, or having a schedule annexed thereto containing the particulars thereof as set forth in the inventory annexed to the initial writ, being recorded in the appropriate register of sasines, the applicant shall be held to be duly infeft in her own right in the heritable estate and heritable securities.

(2) If the sheriff in any such application determines that the net value of the estate exceeds the sum of five hundred pounds, he shall pronounce decree in favour of the applicant against the defender or the defenders jointly and severally as the case may be, for the sum of five hundred pounds part thereof absolutely and exclusively with interest in terms of the principal Act, and the applicant shall have right to recover such sum and interest from the executor dative of the intestate on the expiry of six months from the death of the intestate in so far as there may be any free moveable estate in his hands after payment of the intestate's debts and other proper charges and deductions, but such decree shall only operate against such defender or defenders to the extent by which he or they shall benefit by the succession, and an extract of such decree duly recorded in the appropriate register of sasines containing a description of the heritable estate, or having a schedule annexed thereto containing the particulars thereof as set forth in the inventory annexed to the initial writ, shall have the full legal force and effect to all intents and purposes of a duly recorded bond and disposition in security over the heritable estate for such sum of five hundred pounds and interest thereon from the date of death of the intestate at four per centum per annum until payment granted by the intestate in favour of the applicant and containing all usual and necessary clauses, including power of sale, and as if the intestate had been subject to no legal incapacity and had been infeft in the heritable estate at the date of his death, and as if the sum therein contained were due at the date of recording the extract decree in the register of sasines: Provided always that the real security so constituted in favour of the applicant shall be postponed to all debts and obligations of the intestate.

Provided further that such decree shall only entitle the applicant to recover from the whole heritable and moveable estate of the intestate the sum of five hundred pounds in all with interest thereon in terms of section two of the principal Act and that such charge shall be borne and paid as between the heir at law and the representatives of the moveable estate of such intestate in accordance with section three of the principal Act.

(3) The sheriff to whom any such application is made shall decide for the purpose of jurisdiction any question with regard to the domicile of the intestate, and his decision shall be final and not subject to review.

Saving.

4. Nothing in this Act shall be held to supersede the existing law and practice relating to the delivery and recording of inventories and the lodgment of accounts of the estates of deceased persons and the payment of estate duty thereon, the whole rights of the Crown in regard to death duties remaining unaffected thereby.

Repeal.

5. Section five of the principal Act is hereby repealed.

Construction,
citation, and
extent.

6.—(1) This Act shall be read and construed together with the principal Act, and may be cited as the Intestate Husband's Estate (Scotland) Act, 1919; and the principal Act and this Act may be cited together as the Intestate Husband's Estate (Scotland) Acts, 1911 and 1919.

(2) This Act shall apply to Scotland only.

WHEREAS the raising or keeping of a standing army within the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland in time of peace, unless it be with the consent of Parliament, is against law :

And whereas it is adjudged necessary by His Majesty and this present Parliament that a body of forces should be continued for the safety of the United Kingdom and the defence of the possessions of His Majesty's Crown, and that the whole number of such forces should consist of two million six hundred and fifty thousand, including those to be employed at the depôts in the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland for the training of recruits for service at home and abroad, but

(4) For the purposes of elections conducted according to the principle of proportional representation, the scale of election expenses fixed by any county council under Article 6 of the Schedule to the Local Government (Application of Enactments) Order, 1898, may be increased or otherwise altered by the Local Government Board, and as so altered shall have effect as if it had been made under that article by the county council with the approval of the Board.

ANNEX.

WHEREAS the United States of America and the French Republic are equally animated by the desire to maintain the Peace of the World so happily restored by the Treaty of Peace, signed at Versailles the 28th day of June 1919, putting an end to the war begun by the aggression of the German Empire and ended by the defeat of that Power; and

WHEREAS the United States of America and the French Republic are fully persuaded that an unprovoked movement of aggression by

Germany against France would not only violate both the letter and the spirit of the Treaty of Versailles, to which the United States of America and the French Republic are parties, thus exposing France anew to the intolerable burdens of an unprovoked war, but that such aggression on the part of Germany would be and is so regarded by the Treaty of Versailles as a hostile act against all the Powers signatory to that Treaty, and as calculated to disturb the peace of the world, by involving inevitably and directly the States of Europe and indirectly, as experience has amply and unfortunately demonstrated, the world at large; and

WHEREAS the United States of America and the French Republic fear that the stipulations relating to the left bank of the Rhine contained in said Treaty of Versailles may not at first provide adequate security and protection to France on the one hand and the United States of America as one of the signatories of the Treaty of Versailles on the other :

THEREFORE, the United States of America and the French Republic having decided to conclude a Treaty to effect these necessary purposes, Woodrow Wilson, President of the United States of America, and Robert Lansing, Secretary of State of the United States, specially authorised thereto by the President of the United States, and Georges Clemenceau, President of the Council, Minister of War, and Stephen Pichon, Minister of Foreign Affairs, specially authorised thereto by Raymond Poincaré, President of the French Republic, have agreed upon the following Articles :—

ARTICLE I.

In case the following stipulations relating to the left bank of the Rhine contained in the Treaty of Peace with Germany signed at Versailles the 28th day of June 1919, by the United States of America, the French Republic and the British Empire among other Powers :

“ Article 42.—Germany is forbidden to maintain or construct any fortifications either on the left bank of the Rhine or on the right bank to the west of a line drawn 50 kilometres to the east of the Rhine.

“ Article 43.—In the area defined above the maintenance and assembly of armed forces, either permanently or temporarily, and military manoeuvres of any kind, as well as the upkeep of all permanent works for mobilisation, are in the same way forbidden.

“ Article 44.—In case Germany violates in any manner whatever the provisions of Articles 42 and 43, she shall be regarded as committing a hostile act against the Powers signatory of the present Treaty and as calculated to disturb the peace of the world.”

may not at first provide adequate security and protection to France, the United States of America shall be bound to come immediately to her assistance in the event of any unprovoked movement of aggression against her being made by Germany.

ARTICLE II.

The present Treaty, in similar terms with the Treaty of even date for the same purpose concluded between Great Britain and the French Republic, a copy of which Treaty is annexed hereto, will only come into force when the latter is ratified.

ARTICLE III.

The present Treaty must be submitted to the Council of the League of Nations, and must be recognised by the Council, acting if need be by a majority, as an engagement which is consistent with the Covenant of the League. It will continue in force until, on the application of one of the Parties to it, the Council, acting if need be by a majority, agrees that the League itself affords sufficient protection.

ARTICLE IV.

The present Treaty will be submitted to the Senate of the United States at the same time as the Treaty of Versailles is submitted to the Senate for its advice and consent to ratification. It will be submitted before ratification to the French Chambers of Deputies for approval. The ratifications thereof will be exchanged on the deposit of ratifications of the Treaty of Versailles at Paris, or as soon thereafter as shall be possible.

In faith whereof the respective Plenipotentiaries, to wit : On the part of the United States of America, Woodrow Wilson, President, and Robert Lansing, Secretary of State, of the United States ; and on the part of the French Republic, Georges Clemenceau, President of the Council of Ministers, Minister of War, and Stephen Pichon, Minister of Foreign Affairs, have signed the above articles both in English and French languages, and they have hereunto affixed their seals.

An Act to amend the enactments relating to the Housing of the Working Classes, Town Planning, and the acquisition of small dwellings. [31st July 1919.]

BE it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

PART I.

HOUSING OF THE WORKING CLASSES.

Schemes under Part III. of Act of 1890.

1.—(1) It shall be the duty of every local authority within the meaning of Part III. of the Housing of the Working Classes Act, 1890 (hereinafter referred to as the principal Act), to consider the needs of their area with respect to the provision of houses for the working classes, and within three months after the passing of this Act, and thereafter as often as occasion arises, or within three months after notice has been given to them by the Local Government Board, to prepare and submit to the Local Government Board a scheme for the exercise of their powers under the said Part III.

Duty of local authority to prepare housing schemes. 53 & 54 Vict. c. 70.

(2) A scheme under this section shall specify—

- (a) the approximate number and the nature of the houses to be provided by the local authority ;
- (b) the approximate quantity of land to be acquired and the localities in which land is to be acquired ;
- (c) the average number of houses per acre ;
- (d) the time within which the scheme or any part thereof is to be carried into effect ;

and the scheme may contain such incidental, consequential and supplemental provisions (including provisions as to the subsequent variation of the scheme) as may appear necessary or proper for the purpose of the scheme.

(3) The Local Government Board may approve any such scheme or any part thereof without modification or subject to such modifications as they may think fit, and the scheme or part thereof when so approved shall be binding on the local authority ; but if the Board consider the scheme inadequate they may refuse to approve the scheme and require the authority to prepare and submit to them an adequate scheme within such time as they may fix, or they may approve the scheme or part thereof subject to the condition that the authority prepare and submit to them a further scheme within such time as they may fix :

Provided that local authorities in preparing, and the Local Government Board in approving, any scheme shall take into account, and so far as possible preserve, existing erections of architectural, historic, or artistic interest, and shall have regard to the natural amenities of the locality, and, in order to secure that the houses proposed to be built under the scheme shall be of a suitable architecture and that the natural amenities of the locality shall not be unnecessarily injured, the Local Government Board may, in any case where it appears to them that the character of the locality renders such a course expedient, require as a condition of their approval the employment by the local authority of an architect to be selected from a panel of architects nominated for the purpose by the Royal Institute of British Architects.

(4) Before the Local Government Board finally approve a scheme, the local authority shall furnish to them estimates of the cost of the scheme and of the rents expected to be derived from the houses provided under the scheme.

(5) If the Local Government Board consider as respects any local authority that an occasion for the preparation of a new scheme has arisen, they shall give notice to that effect to the local authority, and thereupon such an occasion shall be deemed to have arisen.

(6) Where the local authorities concerned or the Local Government Board are of opinion that a scheme should be made affecting the areas of two or more local authorities, such a scheme shall be prepared by the local authorities jointly and the local authority of each area to which any part of any such joint scheme applies may, or, if the Local Government Board after giving the local authority an opportunity of being heard so direct, shall carry out that part of the joint scheme, and for the purposes of this subsection "local authority" shall, in any case where the Local Government Board consent, and subject to any conditions which the Board may prescribe, include a county council.

(7) Local authorities in preparing, and the Local Government Board in approving, schemes shall make inquiry respecting and take into account any proposals by other bodies and persons to provide housing accommodation.

(8) Where any proposals as to the provision of houses for the working classes have before the passing of this Act been submitted to the Local Government Board by a local authority and those proposals have been approved by the Board, either before or after the passing of this Act, the proposals may, if the Board so direct, be treated, for any of the purposes of this Act, as if they were a scheme submitted and approved under this section.

Duty of local authority to carry out scheme.

2. It shall be the duty of a local authority on which obligations are imposed by any such scheme to carry that scheme into effect within such time as may be specified in the scheme or within such further time as may be allowed by the Local Government Board.

Power of County Councils and Local Government Board to act in place of Local Authorities.

3.—(1) Where the Local Government Board are satisfied that a local authority have failed or are not prepared to fulfil their obligations as to the preparation of schemes under this Act, or their obligations under any such scheme, or that for any other reason it is desirable that any such obligation should be performed by the county council instead of by the local authority, the Board, after considering the circumstances of the case and giving the local authority and the county council an opportunity of being heard, may, if they think fit, by order, transfer to the council of the county, in which the district of the local authority is comprised, the obligation to prepare and carry out a scheme, or to carry out in whole or in part the provisions of a scheme prepared by the local authority.

Power to authorise county council to act in place of local authority.

(2) Where the Board make an order under this section, the order may, for the purpose of enabling the county council to give effect to the order, apply any of the provisions of the Housing Acts or section sixty-three of the Local Government Act, 1894, with such modifications and adaptations as appear necessary or expedient:

53 & 57 Viet. c. 73.

Provided that the local authority shall be entitled to appeal to the Local Government Board if, in their opinion, the amount of the expenses, which the county council require them to defray or propose to charge against their district, is excessive or unreasonable, or against any refusal by a county council to make an order under the said section sixty-three vesting in the local authority all or any of the powers, duties, property, debts, and liabilities of the county council in relation to the powers transferred to them, and upon any such appeal the Board may make such order as they may deem just, and an order so made shall be binding on the county council and the local authority.

(3) This section shall apply in cases where a joint scheme has been, or in the opinion of the Board ought to be, prepared with the substitution of references to the local authorities concerned and their districts for references to the local authority and the district of the local authority.

4.—(1) Where the Local Government Board are satisfied that a local authority, or, in cases where any powers or duties of a local authority have been transferred to a county council, such council, or, in cases where a joint scheme has been or in the opinion of the Board should be prepared, the local authorities concerned, have failed to fulfil their obligations as to the preparation of schemes under this Act or their obligations under any such schemes, the Board may, after considering the circumstances of the case, and after giving the local authority, authorities, or county council an opportunity of being heard, themselves prepare and carry out a scheme or take such steps as may be necessary to carry out any scheme prepared by the local authority or council, or by two or more local authorities jointly, and shall for that purpose have all the powers of a local authority under the Housing Acts, and those Acts shall, with the necessary modifications and adaptations, apply accordingly.

(2) Any expenses incurred by the Board in the exercise of such powers as aforesaid shall in the first instance be paid out of moneys provided by Parliament, but the amount certified by the Board to have been so expended, and to be properly payable by a local authority, shall on demand be paid to the Board by the local authority and shall be recoverable as a debt due to the Crown, and the payment of the sum so payable to the Board shall be a purpose for which the local authority may borrow under Part III. of the principal Act.

Power to act in default of local authority
under Parts I. and II. of
principal Act.

5. Without prejudice to any other powers for enforcing the provisions of the Housing Acts, where the Local Government Board are satisfied that any area within the district of a local authority is an area in respect of which the local authority ought to exercise their powers under Part I. or Part II. of the principal Act, the Board may by order require the local authority to make a scheme for the improvement of such area either under Part I. or under Part II. of that Act and to do all things necessary under the Housing Acts for carrying into execution the scheme so made, and, if the local authority fail within such time as may be prescribed by the order to make a scheme to the satisfaction of the Local Government Board and to carry the scheme into execution, the Board may either by order empower the county council to make and carry out a scheme, or themselves make and take such steps as may be necessary to carry out a scheme, and the provisions of the last two foregoing sections of this Act in regard to the powers of county councils and the Board, as the case may be, shall apply.

Inspection by
officer of health.

6. Where a representation is made to the Local Government Board as respects any county district that the local authority have failed to exercise their powers under Part I. or Part II. of the principal Act, the Board may direct the county council to instruct the medical officer of health of the county to inspect such district and to make a report to the Board as to the exercise of the powers aforesaid by the local authority.

(5) The obligations imposed by this Act shall not come into operation while the obligations with respect to wireless telegraphy on ships imposed by the Defence of the Realm Regulations remain in force, but shall be in addition to, and not in substitution for, the obligations as to wireless telegraphy imposed by the Wireless Telegraphy Act, 1904, or any Order in Council, or regulations made thereunder, or by the Merchant Shipping (Convention) Act, 1914.

1.—(1) Where, in any establishment to which this Act applies, any rule, practice or custom obtaining before the war in any industry or branch of an industry (hereinafter referred to as a trade practice) has, during and in consequence of the present war, been departed from, the owner of that establishment shall be under an obligation, at the expiration of two months from the passing of this Act, to restore or permit the restoration of the trade practice so previously obtaining, and for one year after such restoration is effected, or if it has been effected before the date of the passing of this Act for one year after that date, to maintain or permit the continuance of the trade practice.

(2) Where any industry or branch of industry, which before the war was not carried on in an establishment, commenced to be carried on in the establishment during the war and continues to be carried on therein after the termination thereof, or where the establishment is one which commenced to be worked after the beginning of war, the owner of the establishment shall be under the obligation, at the expiration of two months from the passing of this Act, to introduce or permit the introduction of, and for one year after such introduction is effected, or if it has been effected before the date of the passing of this Act for one year after that date, to maintain, or permit the continuance of, such trade practices as obtained before the war in other establishments where that industry or branch was carried on under circumstances most nearly analogous to those of the establishment in question.

(3) Save as expressly provided by this section, nothing in this section shall prejudice the position of employers or persons employed after the war.

2.—(1) If any person fails to comply with an obligation imposed upon him by this Act, he shall be guilty of an offence under this Act, and on conviction shall be liable to a fine not exceeding twenty-five pounds for each day or part of a day during which the offence continues: Legal proceedings.

(4) If an agreement has been entered into providing for the modification of an obligation under this Act, to which the owner of an establishment is a party, or to which any group or association of employers of which the owner is a member is a party, it shall be a good defence in any proceedings against him in respect of an alleged breach of his obligation if he proves that the breach is authorised by the agreement, and that the trade union whose custom it was before the war to maintain the trade practice to be modified is a party to the agreement or is a member of a federation of trade unions who are parties thereto.

(5) Where, in the case of proceedings against the owner of an establishment for failure to comply with an obligation imposed by subsection (2) of section one of this Act, the tribunal is satisfied that a failure to comply with the obligation has occurred, but that it has occurred from a genuine and reasonable doubt as to the nature of the trade practice to which the obligation relates or otherwise as to the interpretation of the obligation, and not from any refusal or unwillingness to comply therewith, the tribunal may, instead of imposing any penalty, make an order declaring the true interpretation of such obligation in relation to the matter or matters complained of, and such an order shall be binding on the parties to the proceedings, and a copy thereof shall be registered at the Ministry of Labour.

HOUSING OF THE WORKING CLASSES.

Housing Scheme.

Application of Part III. of the Act of 1890 without adoption, and duty of local authority to prepare schemes thereunder. 53 & 54 Vict. c. 70.

1.—(1) Part III. of the Housing of the Working Classes Act, 1890 (in this Act referred to as the Act of 1890), shall, after the commencement of this Act, extend to, and take effect in, every urban district or town in Ireland for which it has not been adopted as if it had been so adopted, and it shall be the duty of the local authority of every urban district or town for the purposes of Part III. of the Act of 1890 to consider the needs of the district or town with respect to the provision of houses for the working classes, and within three months after the passing of this Act, and thereafter as often as occasion arises, to prepare and submit to the Local Government Board a scheme for the exercise of their powers under the said Part III.

(2) A scheme under this section shall specify—

- (a) the approximate number and the nature of the houses to be provided by the local authority;
- (b) the approximate quantity of land to be acquired and the localities in which land is to be acquired;
- (c) the average number of houses per acre;
- (d) the time within which the scheme or any part thereof is to be carried into effect;

and the scheme may contain such incidental, consequential, and supplemental provisions (including provisions as to the subsequent variation of the scheme) as may appear necessary or proper for the purpose of the scheme or for giving effect to any of the provisions of this Part of this Act.

(3) The Local Government Board may approve any such scheme or any part thereof without modification or subject to such modifications as they may think fit, and the scheme or part thereof when so approved shall be binding on the local authority; but if the Board consider the scheme inadequate they may refuse to approve the scheme and require the authority to prepare and submit to them an adequate scheme within such time as they may fix, or they may approve the scheme or part thereof subject to the condition that the authority prepare and submit to them a further scheme within such time as they may fix.

(4) If the Local Government Board consider as respects any local authority that an occasion for the preparation of a new scheme has arisen, they shall give notice to that effect to the local authority, and thereupon such an occasion shall be deemed to have arisen.

(5) Where the local authorities concerned or the Local Government Board are of opinion that a scheme should be made affecting the areas of two or more local authorities, such a scheme shall be prepared by the local authorities jointly and

(6) Local authorities in preparing, and the Local Government Board in approving, schemes shall have regard to any proposals by other bodies and persons to provide housing accommodation.

Provided that His Majesty may, by Order in Council from time to time, add any other colony to the number of colonies to which this Act applies, or direct that this Act shall no longer apply to any colony specified in the Order if, in any such case, His Majesty is satisfied that due provision in that behalf has been made by the Legislature of the colony in question.

(3) The Judges of the Court of Appeal shall be the Chief Justices of the colonies to which this Act, for the time being, applies :

Provided that—

(a) if the Chief Justice of the colony in which the Court of Appeal is at any time sitting is unable from any cause to sit, the Governor of the colony may appoint a person appearing to him to be duly qualified instead of such Chief Justice to sit and hear either a particular appeal or all appeals to be heard during the whole of any particular sittings of the court in that colony ; and

c. 125.

(2) His Majesty in Council may by Order make such incidental, consequential and supplemental provisions as may be necessary or expedient for the purpose of giving full effect to any transfer of powers or duties by or under this section, including provisions for the transfer of any property, rights and liabilities held, enjoyed, or incurred by any Government Department in connexion with any powers or duties transferred, and may make such adaptations in the enactments relating to such powers or duties as may be necessary to make exercisable by the Minister and his officers or by the Admiralty and their officers, as the case may be, the powers and duties so transferred : Provided always that nothing herein contained shall enable the powers so transferred to be increased.

(3) In connexion with the transfer of powers and duties to the Minister, Admiralty, or Secretary of State, by or under this Act, the provisions set out in the First Schedule to this Act shall have effect.

(4) There shall be attached to the Ministry a separate department charged with dealing in the ordinary course of departmental business with road construction, improvement, maintenance, and development.

following provisions shall, unless Parliament otherwise determines, have effect for a period of two years after the passing of this Act, or where as respects any particular provision a longer period is expressly provided, for such longer period :—

- (a) Where at the passing of this Act possession has been taken of any railroad undertaking or part thereof in pursuance of section sixteen of the Regulation of the Forces Act, 1871, or otherwise, possession thereof shall be retained without any renewal of the warrant granted by the Secretary of State in pursuance of that section, upon the same terms as to compensation as those heretofore in force, and the Minister may exercise over all such undertakings all such powers as have hitherto been exercised by the Board of Trade under the said Act or with the consent of the owners of the undertakings or otherwise, and such other powers as may be conferred by this section or agreed to by the railway companies concerned :
- (b) The Minister may, after giving not less than one month's notice in writing, take possession, in the name or on behalf of His Majesty, of the whole or any part of any other statutory railway undertaking or of any light railway or tramway undertaking (other than a tramway or a light railway used as a tramway belonging to a local authority), or of any canal or inland navigation undertaking, and, subject as hereinafter mentioned, of any harbour, dock or pier undertaking, or of any plant belonging to any such undertaking as aforesaid or used thereon (exclusive of privately owned railway wagons), and of any barges, tugs, and other craft owned or held by the undertaking of which possession has been taken : Provided that such notice as aforesaid shall not, in the event of the matter being referred to an advisory committee as hereinafter provided, be given until the committee has reported :
- (c) The directors and other persons concerned with the management, and officers and servants of any undertaking of the whole or part of which, or of the plant whereof, possession is retained or taken shall obey the directions of the Minister as to the user thereof, and any directions of the Minister in relation to the undertaking or part or plant thereof of which possession is retained or taken—
- (i) as to the rates, fares, tolls, dues, and charges to be charged ; subject, however, to the provisions hereinafter contained respecting references to the advisory committee established for advising as to directions on the matters aforesaid ;

(ii) as to the salaries, wages, and remuneration and conditions of employment of persons employed on or in connexion with the undertaking ;

(iii) as to the working or discontinuance of the working of the undertaking or any part thereof including directions as to keeping open or closing of any stations ;

(iv) for securing that the permanent way, rolling stock, plant, appliances, or equipment, whether fixed or moveable, are satisfactory in type and design ;

(v) as to the carrying out of alterations, improvements, and additions which the Minister considers necessary for the public safety or for the more efficient and economic working of the undertaking ;

(vi) for securing co-operation between undertakings and for securing the common user of facilities, rolling stock and equipment whether fixed or moveable ;

(vii) for affording running powers over their system, or any part thereof, to the owners of any other undertaking ;

(viii) for securing that manufacturing and repairing facilities and auxiliary and ancillary services shall be used, and the purchase and distribution of stores shall be conducted, in such manner as may be most conducive to economy and efficiency.

Nothing in this section shall be construed as authorising the Minister to compel the owners of any such undertaking either to incur capital expenditure, or to draw upon their reserve funds, for new works or capital improvements to an extent which would seriously interfere with their finances, it being the intention that the financing of the undertakings from a capital point of view shall remain as far as possible with the owners.

- (d) For enabling any directions given by the Minister under the last foregoing paragraph as to alterations, and improvements and additions to be carried into effect, the Minister may, by order, authorise the owners of any undertaking to acquire any land (or easements) and to construct any works, and the order may incorporate the Lands Clauses Acts, subject to such modifications as may be specified in the order, being modifications of those Acts made or authorised to be made by the Development and Road Improvement Funds Act, 1909, or any other enactment, and may incorporate or apply any of the provisions of any enactment relating to the construction, maintenance, or working of railways, light railways, tramways, canals, harbours, docks, and piers, and any such order shall have effect as if enacted in this Act: Provided that nothing herein contained shall be deemed to empower the Minister to authorise the acquisition, otherwise than by agreement, of any land belonging to the owners of another undertaking to which this section applies, or of a local authority, or of a harbour dock or pier undertaking, but the Minister may authorise the acquisition of an easement or right of using such land for the purposes of any works the construction of which he may authorise under this section.

- (e) In the case of any undertaking of which possession is retained or taken by the Minister as aforesaid any rates, fares, tolls, dues and other charges directed by the Minister shall be deemed to be reasonable, and may, notwithstanding any agreement or statutory provisions limiting the amount of such charges or increases therein, be charged in respect of any undertaking during the period for which the Minister retains possession of such undertaking, and for a further period of eighteen months after the expiration of the said period, or until fresh provision shall be made by Parliament with regard to the amount of any such rates, fares, tolls, dues, and other charges, whichever shall first happen :
- (f) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, the rights of a consignor or consignee of goods or minerals, any trader or class of traders, or any port or harbour authority or dock company to complain to the Railway and Canal Commission under the Railway and Canal Traffic Acts, 1854 to 1913, in respect of undue preference or undue disadvantage or allowances or rebates in relation to the provision of station accommodation or terminal services shall not be deemed to be affected, and it shall be no answer to any such complaint that the railway company in respect of which the complaint is made was acting under the directions of the Minister.

(2) Subject as aforesaid, any agreement made between the owners of any undertaking, of the whole or part of which possession has been retained or taken under this section, and any other person shall continue in force in like manner as if such possession had not been so retained or taken, unless the Minister considers that such agreement is contrary to the public interest, and in that case he may suspend or modify the operation of such agreement during the period of such possession and for a period not exceeding eighteen months thereafter, and any party to the agreement who suffers loss or injury by reason of such suspension or modification, and any person who, by virtue of any special statutory provision or agreement, is entitled to the benefit of any special rate, fare, toll, due, or other charge, and whose position relatively to other persons is prejudiced by any direction of the Minister altering such special charge, shall be entitled to receive such compensation as, in default of agreement, may be determined by the Railway and Canal Commission, regard being had to any change in circumstances.

(3) The exercise by the Minister of any of his powers under this section as respects any tramway or light railway used as a tramway which a local authority, or two or more local authorities, have power to purchase under any Act of Parliament or order having the effect of an Act of Parliament shall not affect such right of the local authority, or authorities, and upon the purchase thereof such tramway or light railway shall cease to be in the possession of the Minister.

(4) Nothing in this section shall be deemed to exempt from any local rate or assessment any undertaking to which this section applies.

(5) For the purposes of this Act, possession so taken or retained as aforesaid shall confer on the Minister such rights of control and direction as may be necessary for the exercise of his powers under this Act, but shall not confer on him any rights of ownership.

4. Except where any harbour, dock, or pier forms part of a railway undertaking, nothing in section three of this Act shall apply to any harbour, dock, or pier undertaking established by Act of Parliament, including the Manchester Ship Canal, or to the owners of any such undertaking, without the consent of such owners, but, if at any time during the two years after the passing of this Act, the Minister shall consider that it is desirable in the national interest that the transport facilities and accommodation at the harbour, or at any dock or pier of the owners, should be improved or extended, or that the method of working should be altered, the Minister may by order, for the purposes aforesaid, require the owners to execute or do, within a reasonable time, such improvement or extension or alteration in the method of working as the order may prescribe, and may, for that purpose by order, confer on the owners any such powers of acquiring land or easements or constructing works as are mentioned in paragraph (d) of subsection (1) of that section: and the provisions of this Act relating to orders made under that paragraph shall apply to orders conferring such powers as aforesaid:

Provided that, if the owners of such undertaking consider that any such requirements are likely to be seriously injurious to the undertaking, or to the trade of the port, they may,

within thirty days of receiving notice of such requirements from the Minister, appeal, in the case of an undertaking situate in England or Wales, to the Lord Chief Justice of England, or, in the case of an undertaking situate in Scotland, to the Lord President of the Court of Session, or, in the case of an undertaking situate in Ireland, to the Lord Chief Justice of Ireland, and, if it appears to such Lord Chief Justice or Lord President that a prima facie case is made out that the requirements of the Minister would be so injurious as aforesaid, he shall forthwith appoint an arbitrator to hold an immediate inquiry, and, if the arbitrator reports that the carrying out of the requirements of the Minister will be so injurious as aforesaid, the Minister shall revoke his requirements, without prejudice to the power of the Minister to issue a new order.

Power to grant through-runnings on tramways.

5. The Minister shall have the power to require through-runnings on adjoining tramways belonging to different owners, whether local authorities or not, and in default of agreement between such owners to settle the terms of such through-running, after hearing the said owners, in such manner as he thinks fit.

Power to retain lands, &c.

6. Where in pursuance of any direction given by the Minister under this Act the owners of any undertaking shall acquire any lands or easement, or construct any works, or carry out any alteration or improvement of or addition to their undertaking, the owners may, after the expiration of the period of possession, continue to hold and use such lands or easement and maintain and use such works, alteration, improvement, or addition for the purposes of their undertaking, and such land, easement, works, alteration, improvement, and addition shall for all purposes be deemed to form part of their undertaking.

Provisions as to officers and servants.

7.—(1) The following provisions shall apply with respect to officers or servants of any undertaking of which, or of any part or plant of which possession has been retained or taken under this Act (all of which officers and servants are in this Act hereinafter referred to as “existing officers and servants”):—

(i) Where the Minister requires the services of any existing officer or servant, that officer or servant may be transferred to the Minister—

(a) either permanently with the consent of the officer or servant; or

(b) temporarily with the consent (which shall not unreasonably be withheld) of the officer or servant, and of the owners of the undertaking;

(ii) No existing officer or servant so transferred, whether temporarily or permanently, shall without his consent be, by reason of such transfer or anything done under this Act, in any worse position in respect to the conditions of his service (including tenure of office, remuneration, gratuities, pension, superannuation, sick fund or any benefits or allowances, whether obtaining legally or by customary practice), as compared with the conditions of service obtaining with respect to him at the passing of this Act, and, if any question arises as to whether the provisions of this paragraph have been complied with, the question shall be referred to a standing arbitrator or board of arbitration appointed by the Lord Chancellor for the purposes of this section, and, if the arbitrator or board consider that those provisions have not been complied with and that the officer or servant has thereby suffered loss or injury, they shall award him such sum as they think sufficient to compensate him for such loss or injury :

- (iii) Where an existing officer or servant has been transferred either temporarily or permanently to the Minister under this section, then, so long as the Minister remains in possession of that undertaking or any part or plant thereof, that officer or servant may remain a full member of any pension or superannuation fund established in connexion with the undertaking with all the rights to which he would be entitled had he continued in the service of the owners of the undertaking, and any contributions payable under the rules of the pension or superannuation fund or by customary practice by the owners of the undertaking may be paid by the Treasury out of moneys provided by Parliament, and he shall be entitled to receive such reasonable allowances for temporary disturbance as the Minister with the consent of the Treasury may determine (including direct pecuniary loss sustained in consequence of the transfer) :
- (iv) Every existing officer or servant not transferred to the Minister in pursuance of this Act shall, notwithstanding the powers conferred upon the Minister by this Act, continue to hold his office or situation under the owners of the undertaking under the same tenure and upon the same terms and conditions (including all conditions regarding gratuities, pension, superannuation, sick fund, or any benefits or allowances), whether obtaining legally or by customary practice, as he held it on the date of the passing of this Act, and while performing the same duties shall receive not less salary, wages, or remuneration than under existing regulations, agreements, or established customs of the service he would have been entitled to if this Act had not been passed :

- (v) The Minister may direct that the office or situation of any existing officer or servant which he deems unnecessary shall be abolished: Provided that the Minister shall not require the abolition of any such office which will, in the opinion of the owners of the undertaking, be essential to them in their conduct of the undertaking at the end of the period of possession :
- (vi) If by or in consequence of a direction of the Minister any existing officer or servant is, during the period of possession, required to perform duties such as are not analogous or which are an unreasonable addition to those which he has, prior to the date of the passing of this Act, been required to perform, such officer or servant may relinquish his office or service :
- (vii) Every such officer or servant who so relinquishes his office or service as aforesaid, and every such officer or servant whose services by or in consequence of any such direction are dispensed with on the ground that his services are not required, or for any reason not being on account of any misconduct or incapacity, or whose salary, wages, or remuneration are reduced on the ground that his duties have been diminished by or in consequence of any such direction, or who otherwise suffers any direct pecuniary loss in consequence of this Act (including any loss of prospective superannuation or other retiring or death allowances, whether obtaining legally or by customary practice), shall be entitled to be paid by the Minister compensation for such pecuniary loss, to be determined by the Treasury, subject to appeal to such standing arbitrator or board of arbitration as aforesaid, in accordance with the provisions contained in section one hundred and twenty of the Local Government Act, 1888, relating to compensation to existing officers, and those provisions shall apply accordingly as if they were herein re-enacted with the necessary modifications :

c. 41.

Provided that, in the case of any officer or servant who was appointed to his office as a specially qualified person at an age exceeding that at which public service usually begins, or of any officer or servant who suffers any loss of prospective superannuation or other retiring or death allowances as aforesaid, such addition may be made to the amount of compensation authorised under the said provisions as may seem just, having regard to the particular circumstances of such case: Provided further that the expression in subsection (1) of section one hundred and twenty of the Local Government Act, 1888, "the Acts and Rules

“ relating to Her Majesty’s Civil Service ” shall mean the Acts and Rules relating to His Majesty’s Civil Service which were in operation at the date of the passing of the Local Government Act, 1888.

(2) Any person formerly in the employment of the owners of an undertaking of which or of any part or plant of which possession is retained or taken under this Act, who on the date of the passing of this Act is, though not legally entitled thereto, in receipt of a pension or other superannuation allowance, shall continue to receive from the owners of such undertaking the same pension or allowance on the same terms and conditions as if this Act had not been passed.

(3) Any person who, at the date of the passing of this Act, was in the employment of the owners of an undertaking of which or of any part or plant of which possession is retained or taken under this Act and who, during the period of such possession, would, though not legally entitled thereto, in accordance with customary practice, be granted a pension or superannuation allowance by the owners of such undertaking, shall not be in any worse position in regard thereto by reason of the passing of this Act.

(4) This section shall apply to persons who are, or have been, members of the staff of the Railway Clearing House, or the Irish Railway Clearing House, or any railway conference, in like manner as if they were, or had been, officers or servants of an undertaking of which possession had been taken and the period of possession thereof had been the same as that of a railway undertaking, and to the Railway Clearing System Superannuation Fund, as if it was a pension or superannuation fund established in connexion with an undertaking of which possession has been taken, and as if payments and contributions heretofore made by railway companies thereto were contributions payable by the owners of the undertaking.

8.—(1) Where at the end of the period of possession by the Government of any undertaking or of any part or plant of an undertaking the value of the undertaking on a revenue-earning basis has been reduced or enhanced as compared with the value at the commencement of such period, or where during that period the income thereof has been reduced or enhanced, after taking into account in either case—

Claims against and by the Minister in respect of exercise of powers.

(a) any capital expenditure by the owners of the undertaking on any works brought into use in the interval ; and

(b) the natural growth of traffic on the undertaking, then, if and so far as such reduction or enhancement is due to the exercise by the Minister during that period upon the undertaking in question of the powers under section three of this Act

(including such powers as have been hitherto exercised by the Board of Trade as mentioned in paragraph (1) (a) of that section) the owners of the undertaking shall, unless such reduction or enhancement is otherwise provided for by the compensation mentioned in paragraph (1) (a) of that section, be entitled to be recouped, or liable to pay, the amount by which that value has been so reduced or enhanced, and if any question arises as to such amount or the liability to pay the same, or otherwise with respect to the financial relations between the Minister and any person affected by the exercise by the Minister of any of his powers under the said section, the question shall be determined by the Railway and Canal Commission having regard to all the circumstances of the case :

Provided that—

- (i) no claim in respect of any loss alleged to be due to any direction issued by the Minister shall be entertained if the direction was issued with the concurrence of the owners of the undertaking ; and
  - (ii) if, whilst an undertaking of which or of any part or plant of which possession has been taken remains in the possession of the Government, the State is authorised by Parliament to acquire the undertaking, nothing in this subsection restricting claims for enhancement attributable to the exercise by the Minister of such powers as aforesaid to cases where the value of the undertaking has been enhanced as compared with the value thereof at the commencement of the period of possession shall be held to affect, one way or the other, any question as to the principle on which the price to be paid on such acquisition is to be based.
- (2) Without prejudice to any other form of payment or satisfaction, the Treasury, on the recommendation of the Minister, may, as or as part of the consideration for exercising any powers of control under the said section, guarantee the payment of any dividends or interest on any stock or other securities issued by the owners of an undertaking up to such amount as may be agreed, or the payment of any working expenses of the undertaking, and any sums required to fulfil any such guarantee shall be paid out of moneys provided by Parliament.
- (3) Wherever the Minister has expended any sum in the capital improvement of any undertaking, the owners of the undertaking shall be liable to pay to the Minister the unexhausted value of such expenditure at the end of the before-mentioned period, if and so far as such expenditure is not covered by the payments to be made by the owners under the preceding provisions of this section, and that value shall, in default of agreement, be determined by the Railway and Canal Commission.

(4) The owners of the undertaking may satisfy any payment due from them under this section by creating a charge in favour of the Treasury upon the undertaking to such amount and in such form and with such priority as may be agreed, or, in case of difference, may be settled by the Railway and Canal Commission, who shall have due regard to the rights and interests of all parties concerned, but the charge so created shall in no case take priority to any capital raised by loan or debenture stock issued by the owners of the undertaking.

(5) Any claim by a railway company against the Government for compensation in respect of the exercise by the Board of Trade of any powers over or in respect of the undertaking in pursuance of section sixteen of the Regulation of the Forces Act, 1871, or with the consent of the railway company, or otherwise, may be determined by the Railway and Canal Commission in like manner as if it were a claim arising under this section, and the Minister was the person liable to satisfy the claim.

(6) The Minister shall indemnify, and keep indemnified, the owners of any undertaking of which or of any part of which, or of any plant of which possession has been retained or taken, and the owners of any harbour, dock or pier undertaking, against all actions, claims, and demands made in respect of loss or injury alleged to be caused by the carrying out of any directions given by the Minister under section three of this Act, or, as the case may be, any requirements contained in any order made by the Minister under section four of this Act:

Provided that, where the loss or injury is due to the breach of any contractual obligation, the Minister shall not be liable under this provision unless before carrying out the directions the owners of the undertaking have given written notice to the Minister of the existence of the obligation.

9.—(1) It shall be lawful for the Minister to establish, and either by himself or through any other person to work, transport services by land or water, and to acquire either by agreement or compulsorily such land or easements, to construct such works, and to do all such other things, as may be necessary for the purpose:

Power to establish transport services.

Provided that—

- (i) no new transport service shall be established by the Minister until an estimate of the capital expenditure required to complete it, accompanied by details of the scheme for the establishment of the service, has been approved by the Treasury;
- (ii) if in the case of any such service such estimate as aforesaid exceeds half a million pounds, or if the establishment of any such service involves the acquisition of land or easements compulsorily, or the breaking up of any roads, the Minister shall not exercise his powers of establishing the service unless authorised to do so by Order in Council a draft whereof has been approved by a resolution passed by both Houses of Parliament, and the Order may incorporate the provisions of the Lands Clauses Acts, subject to such modifications as may be specified in the Order, being modifications of those Acts made or authorised to be made by the Development and Road Improvements Funds Act, 1909, or any other enactment, and the Order may also incorporate or apply any enactments relating to the construction and maintenance of the works in question ;

(iii) where it appears to the Minister that the establishment of any such service could properly be undertaken by the owners of any existing undertaking, the Minister shall not himself establish the service without first giving to such owners an opportunity of establishing the service, and, where such an opportunity is given to the owners of an undertaking of which possession has been retained or taken under section three of this Act, and those owners prefer that the establishment of the service should be undertaken by themselves rather than by the Minister, they may require the Minister to give them directions under that section to that effect, but shall not be deemed to have thereby concurred in those directions ; and

(iv) the Minister shall not, after two years from the passing of this Act unless Parliament otherwise determines, commence the construction of any new works, or provide equipment for any transport service not established before that date.

(2) The Minister or other person working a service established under this section may charge such rates, fares, tolls, and charges in connexion therewith as may be prescribed by the Minister, subject to reference to the Advisory Committee on Rates hereinafter established, and the expenses of working such services shall be paid out of the revenues derived therefrom, and the Minister shall keep or cause to be kept such accounts of the receipts from and expenditure on the services and in such form, and those accounts shall be audited in such manner as the Treasury may prescribe.

Extraordinary
traffic.

10. Any transport service on roads established by the Ministry shall be subject to the provisions relating to extraordinary traffic contained in the Highways and Locomotives (Amendment) Act, 1878, or in Scotland the Roads and Bridges (Scotland) Act, 1878, or in Ireland the Public Roads (Ireland) Act, 1911, (as amended by any subsequent enactment).

41 & 42 Vict. c. 77.
41 & 42 Vict. c. 51.
1 & 2 Geo. 5. c. 45.

11. An appeal shall lie to the Minister in respect of any restriction upon any traffic passing over or seeking to cross any bridge or culvert, and the Minister shall have power, notwithstanding any provision in any other statute, to make such order as he may think fit concerning the strengthening, standard of maintenance, and maintenance of any bridge or culvert, the traffic using it or seeking to use it, and apportionment of any expenditure involved, but no order made by the Minister under this section shall enlarge the pecuniary liability of any railway or canal company or impose any new liability upon any such company.

Appeal as to bridges.

12. Section twenty of the Local Government (Emergency Provisions) Act, 1916 (which relates to the establishment of new routes for omnibuses), shall continue in force until the expiration of two years after the passing of this Act, and shall have effect as if—

Provisions as to new routes for omnibuses. 6 & 7 Geo. 5. c. 12.

(a) the following provision was substituted for subsection (2) of the section (that is to say) :—

(2) Except as provided in subsection (4), this section shall not be deemed to detract from any existing powers of highway authorities in regard to omnibuses.

(b) the following subsection was added to the section (that is to say) :—

(4) Where, upon application for a licence to ply for hire with an omnibus, the licensing authority either refuses to grant a licence or grants a licence subject to conditions, in either case the applicant shall have a right of appeal to the Minister of Transport from the decision of the licensing authority, and the Minister shall have power to make such order thereon as he may think fit, and such order shall be binding upon the licensing authority.

13.—(1) It shall be lawful for the Minister to purchase privately-owned railway wagons required for use on any railway on such terms and conditions as may be authorised by or under an Order in Council, a draft whereof has been approved by a Resolution passed by both Houses of Parliament, and to work or lease any such wagons when so purchased, or to apportion them among the several railway undertakings in such manner, on such terms, and subject to such conditions as may be provided by or under the Order :

Powers as to railway wagons.

Provided that the Minister shall not be entitled to purchase in England and Wales, or Scotland, or Ireland, respectively, wagons used for the conveyance of any particular class of traffic unless he purchases all privately-owned wagons so used which belong to or are used by persons carrying on business therein, and which comply with the regulations with respect to such wagons in force at the date of such purchase.

(2) Where, in the case of any wagon which has been in use on or before the fifteenth day of May, nineteen hundred and nineteen, the wagon has since that date been the subject of a purchase agreement, the price paid on such purchase shall not be evidence of the value of the wagon in determining the price to be paid by the Minister.

(3) Where the Minister has, in pursuance of his powers under this section, purchased any wagon, any contract then in force for the repair of the wagon shall upon the purchase be determined, unless otherwise agreed with the Minister.

(4) Where the Minister exercises his powers of purchasing wagons under this section, or of prohibiting or restricting the use of privately-owned wagons, or of limiting the number of wagons to be so used, the following provisions shall have effect:—

(a) The reasonable facilities which every railway company is required to afford under section two of the Railway and Canal Traffic Act, 1854, as amended or explained by any other Act, shall, where the railway wagons of traders of any class have been purchased, include the provision of suitable railway wagons for the use of traders of that class, and it shall be the duty of the Minister so to exercise his powers of working or disposing of the wagons purchased by him as to enable the railway companies to fulfil their obligations under this provision as fully as may be practicable:

(b) Where the provision of wagons is not included in the authorised maximum rates of conveyance, a railway company may charge for the use of such wagons such sums as may be directed by the Minister under section three of this Act, and, if and so far as no such directions are in force, any sums not exceeding those prescribed for the use of such wagons by any Railway Rates and Charges Order applicable thereto:

(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of any other Act or any decision thereunder, in determining what sum may be charged under the provisions of any Railway Rates and Charges Order for the detention of wagons at the premises of any trader, regard shall be had to the requirements and reasonable usages of the trade carried on at those premises in connexion with which such wagons are used.

(5) Notwithstanding any statutory or other provision to the contrary, it shall be lawful for the Minister to make regulations prohibiting or restricting the use on railways of privately-owned wagons or limiting the number of wagons to be so used and prescribing the type and capacity thereof:

Provided that nothing in this Act shall authorise the prohibition of the use on railways of such wagons as comply with regulations for the time being in force made in pursuance of the Railways Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, the Railways Clauses Consolidation (Scotland) Act, 1845, or any other enactment in force at the date of the passing of this Act, and as are in use, under repair, or in course of construction at that date.

7 & 8, Vict.
c. 20.
7 & 8 Vict.
c. 33.

14.—(1) Any capital sum payable under this Act for reduction in the value of an undertaking, or for the purchase of privately-owned railway wagons, or any interest therein, may be discharged in whole or in part, if the Treasury so direct, by the issue of securities, and the amount of such securities equivalent to such capital sum shall, in default of agreement, be determined by the Railway and Canal Commission.

Power to discharge capital liabilities by issue of stock.

For that purpose the Treasury may create and issue securities which shall bear interest at such rate and shall be subject to such conditions and regulations as to repayment, redemption, or otherwise as the Treasury may direct or prescribe, and the regulations may apply with the necessary modifications any of the enactments relating to local loans stock; the interest on any such securities as aforesaid shall—

- (a) in the case of securities issued for the purchase of railway wagons, be charged on the revenues derived from the wagons so acquired after payment thereof of working expenses, and, if and so far as such revenues are insufficient, on the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom or the growing produce thereof; and
- (b) in the case of other securities, be charged on the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom or the growing produce thereof.

(2) Where the whole or any part of the purchase money for the interest in railway wagons belonging to a wagon finance company is discharged by the issue to the company of such securities as aforesaid, and the company in consequence of the exercise by the Minister of his powers under this Act of purchasing railway wagons is wound up voluntarily, the liquidator may present to the court having jurisdiction to wind up the company a scheme for the discharge in whole or in part of the liabilities of the company to the holders of debentures or debenture stock of the company by means of the transfer to them of an amount of the securities so issued to the company, and, if the court sanctions the scheme, those liabilities may be discharged accordingly.

For the purpose of this subsection, "wagon finance company" means a company whose principal business is the advance of money to colliery companies and other persons for the purpose of the acquisition by them of railway wagons.

Incorporation
sections.

15. An order made by the Minister authorising the owners of any railway undertaking to acquire any land (including easements), and to construct any works, or an Order in Council authorising the Minister to acquire land compulsorily for the purpose of a railway, shall incorporate sections seventy-seven to eighty-five of the Railways Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, or, in Scotland, sections seventy to seventy-eight of the Railways Clauses Consolidation (Scotland) Act, 1845 (which relate to the working of mines), subject to any statutory modifications thereof then in force.

Power to make advances for certain
purposes.

17.—(1) The Minister may, subject to the approval of the Treasury, make advances out of the moneys provided by Parliament to any authority, company or person, either by way of grant or by way of loan, or partly in one way and partly in another, and upon such terms and conditions as he thinks fit for any of the following purposes:—

- (a) The construction, improvement or maintenance of railways, light railways, or tramways:
- (b) The construction, improvement or maintenance of roads, bridges, or ferries:

Where workmen are employed by a stevedore, the information to be furnished by the stevedore to the representative of the workmen shall include a statement, signed by the person by whom the stevedore is employed, of the quantities on which the stevedore was paid, which statement such person as aforesaid shall furnish on being required so to do by the stevedore.

4. Where the goods loaded or unloaded are actually weighed by the employer at or near the place where the vessel is loaded or unloaded, the workmen entitled under this section to appoint a representative may instead thereof appoint a checkweigher, and in such case the foregoing regulations shall not apply.

III.—The getting of Chalk and Limestone from Quarries.

1. Where the chalk or limestone gotten is weighed on the premises of the employer, the workmen may appoint a checkweigher. If the right of appointing a checkweigher is not exercised, the workmen in charge of the wagons at the time that they are weighed may themselves check the weighing, and the workmen may appoint a representative to check the taring of wagons, and the employer shall afford to such workmen and representative the same facilities for checking the weighing and taring as he is required under this Act to afford to a checkweigher.

2. Where the chalk or limestone is not weighed, but its weight is estimated from the capacity of the wagons into which it is loaded—

(a) all the wagons shall be deemed to be of the same capacity unless the employer divides the wagons into classes, and, if so divided into classes, all wagons of each particular class shall be deemed to be of the same capacity, and the capacity of all the wagons, or, if the wagons are divided into classes, the capacity of all the wagons of each class, shall be published either by being marked on the wagons or by a statement posted up in some conspicuous place on the employer's premises ; and

- (b) the workmen shall be entitled to have the capacity of the wagons tested by having such one wagon as they may select or, if the wagons are divided into classes, such one wagon of each class as they may select, weighed full and empty, and may appoint a representative to check the weighing, and the employer shall afford the representative all proper facilities for the purpose ;
- (c) where the capacity of wagons has been so tested as aforesaid, the workmen shall not be entitled to have the capacity of wagons again tested unless a new class of wagon is introduced ;
- (d) if at any time any dispute arises between the employer and any workman as to whether a wagon has been filled or not to its capacity, the workman shall have the right to have the wagon load weighed.

3. Where the limestone is not weighed nor its weight calculated on the employer's premises, but the limestone is weighed by the railway company or other person to whom it is consigned and accounts of the weight so ascertained are furnished to the employer, the employer shall, on being required so to do, allow a representative appointed by the workmen to inspect any such accounts specified in the requisition and received by the employer not more than fourteen days before the requisition is made.

IV.—The Manufacture of Cement and Lime.

1. Where the workmen are paid according to the weight of the clinker or lime produced or handled by them and the clinker or lime is weighed on the employer's premises, the workmen may appoint a checkweigher. If the right of appointing a checkweigher is not exercised, the workmen in charge of the wagons at the time that they are weighed may themselves check the weighing and require the records of the weighing to be produced to them, and the workmen may appoint a representative to check the taring of wagons, and the employer shall afford to such workmen and representative the same facilities for checking the weighing and taring as he is required under this Act to afford to a checkweigher.

2. The tares of wagons shall either be marked on the wagons or posted in some conspicuous place on the employer's premises.

3.—(1) Where the wages paid to workmen engaged in the manufacture of cement are adjusted from time to time on taking stock of the amount of cement manufactured at the works, the employer shall take stock at intervals of not less than six months, and when stock is so taken shall forthwith inform the workmen of the estimated amount of cement in store. If a majority of the workmen dispute the estimate and it is impracticable to ascertain by weighing or measuring the exact amount of the cement in store, the question in dispute shall be referred to arbitration.

(2) The employer shall also in any such case keep books in which shall be entered—

- (a) the amount of cement sold and used in the works ;
- (b) the amount of wages paid to the packers, if paid according to weight ;
- (c) the amount of wages paid to the workmen ;
- (d) the amount of cement ascertained or estimated to be in store when stock is taken ;
- (e) where substances are added to clinker when it goes into the mill and deductions are made in respect thereof, the amount of such substances bought, used, and in store on any stock-taking ;
- (f) if any works where the produce of kilns worked by men whose wages are not subject to adjustment is mixed with the produce of kilns worked by men whose wages are subject to adjustment, the weight of material produced in the first-mentioned kilns ;

and, in making deductions for the purposes of adjustment, no greater deductions shall be allowed than are justified by the entries in those books.

(3) Whenever stock is taken for the purpose of the adjustment of the wages of any workmen, those workmen shall have a right to appoint a representative with a view to ascertaining whether any addition to or deduction from the wages should be made, and the employer shall furnish to the representative such information and explanation as he may reasonably require for the purpose, and shall allow him access to the books so kept, and the accounts, tallies, and other documents from which such books have been made out.

4. Where workmen engaged in the manufacture of lime are paid according to the weight of the lime produced, and the lime is not weighed nor its weight calculated on the employer's premises, but the lime is weighed by the railway company or other person to whom it is consigned and accounts of the weight so ascertained are furnished to the employer, the employer shall, on being required so to do, allow a representative appointed by the workmen to inspect any such accounts specified in the requisition and received by the employer not more than fourteen days before the requisition is made.

SECOND SCHEDULE.

APPLIED PROVISIONS OF THE COAL MINES REGULATION ACTS, 1887 TO 1908.

(1) Coal Mines Regulation Act, 1887.

(50 & 51 Vict. c. 58.)

13.—(3) A checkweigher or other representative of the workmen shall not be authorised in any way to impede or interrupt the carrying on

of the industry in which the workmen are engaged, or to interfere with the weighing, or with any of the workmen, or with the management of the industry ; but shall be authorised only to exercise such powers as are by this Act or by the regulations made thereunder conferred upon him, and the absence of a checkweigher shall not be a reason for interrupting, or delaying the weighing, but the same shall be done by the person appointed in that behalf by the employer, unless the absent checkweigher had reasonable ground to suppose that the weighing would not be proceeded with : Provided always that nothing in this section shall prevent a checkweigher or other representative of the workmen giving to any workman an account of the material produced, handled, or gotten by him, or information with respect to the weighing, or the weighing machine, or the taring of the wagons or other vehicles, or with respect to any other matter within the scope of his duties as checkweigher or other representative as aforesaid, so always, nevertheless, that the carrying on of the industry be not interrupted or impeded.

(4) If the employer desires the removal of a checkweigher or other representative of the workmen or, in the case of the appointment of a checkweigher or other representative for a temporary purpose, desires that the person so appointed should not be re-appointed as checkweigher or other representative on the ground that he has impeded or interrupted the carrying on of the industry or interfered with the weighing, or with any of the workmen, or with the management of the works, or has at the works to the detriment of the employer done anything beyond exercising such powers as aforesaid, he may complain to a court of summary jurisdiction, who, if of opinion that the employer shows a sufficient prima facie case, shall call on the checkweigher or other representative to show cause why such an order as is herein-after mentioned should not be made.

(5) On the hearing of the case the court shall hear the parties, and, if they think that at the hearing sufficient ground is shown by the employer to justify the making of an order, shall make a summary order for the removal of the checkweigher or other representative or prohibiting him from being again appointed as checkweigher or other representative as the case may require, and he shall thereupon be removed or disqualified from again acting as checkweigher or other representative of the workmen, but in the case of an order for removal without prejudice to the appointment of another checkweigher or representative in his place.

(6) The court may in every case make such order as to the costs of the proceedings as the court may think just.

(8) If the person appointed by the employer to weigh any material impedes or interrupts the checkweigher in the proper discharge of his duties, or improperly interferes with or alters the weighing machine or the tare in order to prevent a correct account being taken of the weighing and taring, he shall be guilty of an offence against this Act.

14.--(1) If a checkweigher or other representative of the workmen has been duly appointed by any class of workmen, and has acted as such, he may recover from any workman of that class his proportion of the checkweigher's or representative's wages or recompense, notwithstanding that any of the persons by whom the checkweigher or representative was appointed may have ceased to be and others may have become members of that class since the checkweigher's or representative's appointment, any rule of law or equity to the contrary notwithstanding.

(2) It shall be lawful for the employer, where the majority of any such class of workmen so agree, to retain the agreed contribution of any member of the class for the checkweigher or other representative, notwithstanding the provisions of the Acts relating to truck, and to pay and account for the same to the checkweigher or other representative.

(2) The Coal Mines (Check Weigher) Act, 1894.

(57 & 58 Vict. c. 52.)

1. If an employer, or any person employed by or acting under the instructions of any such employer, interferes with the appointment of a checkweigher or other representative of the workmen, or refuses to afford proper facilities for the holding of any meeting for the purpose of making such appointment, in any case in which the persons entitled to make the appointment do not possess or are unable to obtain a suitable meeting place, or attempts, whether by threats, bribes, promises, notice of dismissal, or otherwise howsoever, to exercise improper influence in respect of such appointment, or to induce the persons entitled to appoint a checkweigher or other representative, or any of them, not to re-appoint a checkweigher or other representative, or to vote for or against any particular person or class of persons in the appointment of a checkweigher or other representative, the employer shall be guilty of an offence against this Act.

(3) The Coal Mines (Weighing of Minerals) Act, 1905.

(5 Edw. 7. c. 9.)

1.—(1) The power conferred by this Act on workmen to appoint a checkweigher or other representative of the workmen shall include power to appoint a deputy to act in his absence for reasonable cause, and the expressions "checkweigher" and "representative" when used in this Act shall include any such deputy during such absence as aforesaid.

(4) The facilities to be afforded to a checkweigher under this Act shall include provision for a checkweigher of a sufficient number of weights to test the weighing machine.

(6) The wages or recompense which a checkweigher or other representative may recover under this Act shall include expenses properly incurred by him in carrying out his work under this Act.

Section 5.

THIRD SCHEDULE.

APPLIED PROVISIONS OF THE FACTORY AND WORKSHOP ACT, 1901, WITH RESPECT TO REGULATIONS.

80.—(1) Before the Secretary of State makes any regulations under this Act, he shall publish, in such manner as he may think best adapted for informing persons affected, notice of the proposal to make the regulations, and of the place where copies of the draft regulations may

(2) Every objection must be in writing and state—

- (a) the draft regulations or portions of draft regulations objected to;
- (b) the specific grounds of objection; and
- (c) the omissions, additions, or modifications asked for.

(3) The Secretary of State shall consider any objection made by or on behalf of any persons appearing to him to be affected which is sent to him within the required time, and he may, if he thinks fit, amend the draft regulations, and shall then cause the amended draft to be dealt with in like manner as an original draft.

(4) Where the Secretary of State does not amend or withdraw any draft regulations to which any objection has been made, then (unless the objection either is withdrawn or appears to him to be frivolous) he shall, before making the regulations, direct an inquiry to be held in the manner herein-after provided.

81.—(1) The Secretary of State may appoint a competent person to hold an inquiry with regard to any draft regulations, and to report to him thereon.

(2) The inquiry shall be held in public, and any objector and any other person who, in the opinion of the person holding the inquiry, is affected by the draft regulations, may appear at the inquiry either in person or by counsel, solicitor, or agent.

(3) The witnesses on the inquiry may, if the person holding it thinks fit, be examined on oath.

(4) Subject as aforesaid, the inquiry and all proceedings preliminary and incidental thereto shall be conducted in accordance with rules made by the Secretary of State.

(5) The fee to be paid to the person holding the inquiry shall be such as the Secretary of State may direct.

*     *     *     *     *

84. Regulations made under the foregoing provisions of this Act shall be laid as soon as possible before both Houses of Parliament, and, if either House within the next forty days after the regulations have been laid before that House resolve that all or any of the regulations ought to be annulled, the regulations shall, after the date of the resolution, be of no effect, without prejudice to the validity of anything done in the meantime thereunder, or to the making of any new regulations. If one or more of a set of regulations are annulled, the Secretary of State may, if he thinks fit, withdraw the whole set.

*     *     *     *     *

86.—(1) Notice of any regulations having been made under the foregoing provisions of this Act, and of the place where copies of them can be purchased, shall be published in the London, Edinburgh, and Dublin Gazettes.

CHAPTER 52.

An Act to grant Money for the purpose of certain Local Loans out of the Local Loans Fund, and for other purposes relating to Local Loans. [19th August 1919.]

BE it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

Grants for public works.

1.—(1) For the purpose of local loans, there may be issued by the National Debt Commissioners the following sums, namely :—

- (a) For the purpose of loans by the Public Works Loan Commissioners, any sum or sums not exceeding in the whole the sum of forty million pounds ;
- (b) For the purpose of loans by the Commissioners of Public Works in Ireland, any sum or sums not exceeding in the whole the sum of two million pounds.

(2) The sums so issued shall be issued during a period ending on the day on which a further Act granting money for the purposes of those loans comes into operation, and in accordance with the provisions of the National Debt and Local Loans Act, 1887.

50 & 51 Vict.
c. 16.

Certain debts not to be reckoned as assets of local loans fund.

2. Whereas it is expedient that the principal of the several local loans specified in the tables contained in Part I., Part II., and Part III. respectively of the Schedule to this Act should, to the extent specified in the last column of those Tables, not be reckoned as assets of the local loans fund established under the National Debt and Local Loans Act, 1887 :

Now, therefore, the principal of the said loans to the extent aforesaid and the said sums shall be written off from the assets of the local loans fund, and the provisions of section fifteen of the said Act shall, so far as applicable, apply thereto.

Remission of arrears of principal and interest in respect of Eyemouth Harbour loan.

3. Whereas in pursuance of an agreement made in the year eighteen hundred and ninety-two the sum of ten thousand pounds was advanced by the Public Works Loan Commissioners to the Eyemouth Harbour Trustees on the security of the harbour revenues with the collateral security of the Fishery Board for Scotland :

1 Edw. 7. c. 35.

And whereas by an arrangement confirmed by section three of the Public Works Loans Act, 1901, the liability of the Eyemouth Harbour Trustees in respect of the said loan was extinguished without prejudice to the liability of the Fishery Board for Scotland to repay the said loan, and, in consequence thereof, the said collateral security is the sole security for the repayment of the said loan :

And whereas the terms of the said collateral security are embodied in a memorandum of agreement between the Secretary for Scotland and the Public Works Loan Commissioners, dated the eleventh day of March eighteen hundred and ninety-two, whereby a portion of the surplus herring brand fees, as defined in clause three of the said memorandum, was pledged in security for the repayment of the said loan with interest by the instalments and at the times mentioned in the security given by the Eyemouth Harbour Trustees for the said loan, and it was provided that the said portion of the surplus herring brand fees of any one year should only be applicable to the repayment of the one-fiftieth part of principal and interest on outstanding principal falling due under the security for the said loan in the same year, and should not be applicable to the repayment of arrears of principal :

And whereas the said portion of the surplus herring brand fees, so pledged as aforesaid, was in the year ending the thirty-first day of March nineteen hundred and nineteen insufficient to discharge in full the instalment of principal with interest which fell due under the security for the said loan in that year, and the principal sum of two hundred pounds, with interest amounting to one hundred and fifty-seven pounds seventeen shillings, now remains unpaid, and under the terms of the said memorandum of agreement is irrecoverable :

Now, therefore, the said principal sum of two hundred pounds shall be extinguished, and the said arrears of interest amounting to one hundred and fifty-seven pounds seventeen shillings shall be remitted.

4. This Act may be cited as the Public Works Loans Short title.
Act, 1919.

2. In assessing compensation, an official arbitrator shall act in accordance with the following rules:—

- (1) No allowance shall be made on account of the acquisition being compulsory:
- (2) The value of land shall, subject as hereinafter provided be taken to be the amount which the land if sold in the open market by a willing seller might be expected to realise: Provided always that the arbitrator shall be entitled to consider all returns and assessments of capital value for taxation made or acquiesced in by the claimant:
- (3) The special suitability or adaptability of the land for any purpose shall not be taken into account if that purpose is a purpose to which it could be applied only in pursuance of statutory powers, or for which there is no market apart from the special needs of a particular purchaser or the requirements of any Government Department or any local or public authority: Provided that any bonâ fide offer for the purchase of the land made before the passing of this Act which may be brought to the notice of the arbitrator shall be taken into consideration:
- (4) Where the value of the land is increased by reason of the use thereof or of any premises thereon in a manner which could be restrained by any court, or is contrary to law, or is detrimental to the health of the inmates of the premises or to the public health, the amount of that increase shall not be taken into account:
- (5) Where land is, and but for the compulsory acquisition would continue to be, devoted to a purpose of such a nature that there is no general demand or market for land for that purpose, the compensation may, if the official arbitrator is satisfied that reinstatement in some other place is bonâ fide intended, be assessed on the basis of the reasonable cost of equivalent reinstatement:
- (6) The provisions of Rule (2) shall not affect the assessment of compensation for disturbance or any other matter not directly based on the value of land.

For the purposes of this section, an official arbitrator shall be entitled to be furnished with such returns and assessments as he may require.

3.—(1) In any proceedings before an official arbitrator, not more than one expert witness on either side shall be heard unless the official arbitrator otherwise directs:

(2) It shall not be necessary for an official arbitrator to make any declaration before entering into the consideration of any matter referred to him.

(7) Subject as aforesaid, the Reference Committee may make rules regulating the procedure before official arbitrators.

Provisions as to costs.

(2) If the official arbitrator is satisfied that a claimant has failed to deliver to the acquiring authority a notice in writing of the amount claimed by him giving sufficient particulars and in sufficient time to enable the acquiring authority to make a proper offer, the foregoing provisions of this section shall apply as if an unconditional offer had been made by the acquiring authority at the time when in the opinion of the official arbitrator sufficient particulars should have been furnished and the claimant had been awarded a sum not exceeding the amount of such offer.

The notice of claim shall state the exact nature of the interest in respect of which compensation is claimed, and give details of the compensation claimed, distinguishing the amounts under separate heads and showing how the amount claimed under each head is calculated, and when such a notice of claim has been delivered the acquiring authority may, at any time within six weeks after the delivery thereof, withdraw any notice to treat which has been served on the claimant or on any other person interested in the land authorised to be acquired, but shall be liable to pay compensation to any such claimant or other person for any loss or expenses occasioned by the notice to treat having been given to him and withdrawn, and the amount of such compensation shall, in default of agreement, be determined by an official arbitrator.

(3) Where a claimant has made an unconditional offer in writing to accept any sum as compensation and has complied with the provisions of the last preceding subsection, and the sum awarded is equal to or exceeds that sum, the official arbitrator shall, unless for special reasons he thinks proper not to do so, order the acquiring authority to bear their own costs and to pay the costs of the claimant so far as such costs were incurred after the offer was made.

(4) Subject as aforesaid, the costs of an arbitration under this Act shall be in the discretion of the official arbitrator who may direct to and by whom and in what manner those costs or any part thereof shall be paid, and the official arbitrator may in any case disallow the cost of counsel.

(5) An official arbitrator may himself tax the amount of costs ordered to be paid, or may direct in what manner they are to be taxed.

(6) Where an official arbitrator orders the claimant to pay the costs, or any part of the costs, of the acquiring authority, the acquiring authority may deduct the amount so payable by the claimant from the amount of the compensation payable to him.

(7) Without prejudice to any other method of recovery, the amount of costs ordered to be paid by a claimant, or such part thereof as is not covered by such deduction as aforesaid shall be recoverable from him by the acquiring authority summarily as a civil debt.

(8) For the purpose of this section, costs include any fees, charges, and expenses of the arbitration or award.

6.—(1) The decision of an official arbitrator upon any question of fact, shall be final and binding on the parties, and the persons claiming under them respectively, but the official arbitrator may, and shall, if the High Court so directs, state at any stage of the proceedings, in the form of a special case for the opinion of the High Court, any question of law arising in the course of the proceedings, and may state his award as to the whole or part thereof in the form of a special case for the opinion of the High Court.

(2) The decision of the High Court upon any case so stated shall be final and conclusive, and shall not be subject to appeal to any other court.

7.—(1) The provisions of the Act or order by which the land is authorised to be acquired, or of any Act incorporated therewith, shall, in relation to the matters dealt with in this Act, have effect subject to this Act, and so far as inconsistent with this Act those provisions shall cease to have or shall not have effect:

53 & 54 Vict. c. 70.
6 & 7 Geo. 5. c. 63.

(2) The provisions of this Act shall apply to the determination of the amount of rent or compensation payable in respect of land authorised to be hired compulsorily under the Small Holdings and Allotments Act, 1908, or any Act amending that Act, and any matter required thereby to be determined by a valuer appointed by the Board of Agriculture and Fisheries shall be determined by an official arbitrator in accordance with this Act.

Power to refer to Commissioners of Inland Revenue or to agreed arbitrator.

(2) Where a question is so referred to the Commissioners of Inland Revenue, the Commissioners shall not proceed by arbitration, but shall cause an assessment to be made in accord-

- (c) The Commissioners, if either party so desires within such time as the Commissioners may allow, shall give the parties an opportunity of being heard before such officer of the valuation office of the Commissioners as the Commissioners may appoint for the purpose ;
- (d) The assessment when made shall be published to the parties and take effect as if it were an award of an official arbitrator under this Act ;
- (e) if either party refuses or neglects to comply with any direction or requirement of the Commissioners, the Commissioners may decline to proceed with the matter, and in that case the question shall be referred to an official arbitrator as if there had been no reference to the Commissioners, and the official arbitrator when awarding costs shall take into consideration any report of the Commissioners as to the refusal or neglect which rendered such a reference to him necessary.

(3) Where a question is referred to an arbitrator under subsection (1) of this section, the provisions of this Act, except sections one and four and so much of section three as requires proceedings to be in public and as provides for the fixing of fees, shall apply as if the arbitrator was an official arbitrator.

(4) Either party to a claim for compensation may require the Commissioners for Inland Revenue to assess the value of the land in respect of which the claim arises, and a copy of any such assessment shall be sent forthwith by the Commissioners to the other party, and a certified copy of such assessment shall be admissible in evidence of that value in proceedings before the official arbitrator, and the officer who made the assessment shall attend, if the official arbitrator so require, to answer such questions as the official arbitrator may think fit to put to him thereon.

9. An official arbitrator may on the application of any person certify the value of land being sold by him to a Government department or public or local authority, and the sale of the land to the department or authority at the price so certified shall be deemed to be a sale at the best price that can reasonably be obtained.

Recourpment
incurred in exercise of powers under
principal Act.

26.—(1) At the end of the financial year ending on the thirty-first day of March in the year nineteen hundred and twenty and of each of the six succeeding years the Board shall pay to a council of a county the loss (if any) which may be shown to the satisfaction of the Board of Agriculture and Fisheries to have been reasonably or necessarily incurred by the council during the financial year in the exercise of their powers under the principal Act otherwise than in relation to small holdings of less than one acre.

(2) The Board shall, on the passing of this Act, pay to a council of a county the loss (if any) which may be shown to the satisfaction of the Board to have been reasonably or necessarily incurred by the council in the exercise of their powers under the principal Act during the period from the first day of January nineteen hundred and eight to the thirty-first day of March nineteen hundred and nineteen.

(3) In calculating for the purposes of this section the amount of any loss incurred by a council, there shall be included all sums paid by the council by way of interest, or sinking fund, or other loan charges on account of loans obtained for the purpose of acquiring and adapting land for small holdings, and the amount of the loss shall be determined under and in accordance with regulations made by the Board with the approval of the Treasury.

(4) Until the thirty-first day of March nineteen hundred and twenty-six, a council of a county shall not incur expenditure under section forty-nine of the principal Act (which relates to co-operative societies), without the consent of the Board.

(6) This section shall apply to losses incurred by the council of a county borough in the exercise of their powers under the principal Act in relation to small holdings.

27.—(1) The value of the interest of the council of a county in all land acquired by the council under the principal Act, other than land acquired by the council acting in default of a district or parish council and small holdings of less than one acre, and vested in the council on the first day of April nineteen hundred and twenty-six, shall be ascertained as on that date by a valuation made by one or more persons agreed on by the Board of Agriculture and Fisheries and the council, or failing such agreement, appointed by the President of the Surveyors' Institution, and where, owing to the conditions of tenancy on which any such land is let or held, or to any rent-charge to which it is subject, or otherwise, the value of the interest of the council in that land is a minus amount, that amount shall be brought into account for the purposes of the valuation aforesaid. Recoupment of capital losses.

The value of the interest of the council in such land as aforesaid shall for the purposes of this section be deemed to be such as in the opinion of the person or persons by whom the value is ascertained will allow the value so ascertained, and all expenses which may be incurred by the council in relation to the land to be recouped out of the purchase money or rents which might reasonably be expected to be obtained if the land were sold or let by the council for small holdings or allotments, as the case may be.

(2) There shall also at the same date be ascertained by agreement between the Board and the council, or, in default of agreement, by an accountant appointed by the Treasury, the amount of the total capital liabilities of the council at the same date in respect of the acquisition and adaptation of such land as aforesaid.

(3) If the amount of the liabilities so ascertained as aforesaid exceeds the value of the interest of the council in the land as so ascertained, the Board shall pay to the council as from the same date such part of the interest and sinking fund or other loan charges payable by the council in respect of money borrowed to defray the expenditure as is proportionate to the amount by which such liabilities exceed the value so ascertained.

(4) The Board and the council shall each bear their own costs incurred in connexion with the ascertainment of any such liabilities or value as aforesaid, and shall contribute in equal shares to the charges of any person appointed to determine any such liabilities or value.

(5) This section shall apply to the council of a county borough in respect of land acquired by the council for the purposes of small holdings.

2. The council shall issue a certificate of the annuity to the person entitled thereto (in this schedule referred to as "the annuitant"), and for the purposes of this provision the person who could, if the land had been disposed of for cash, have given a good discharge for the purchase money, shall be deemed to be the person entitled to the annuity.

If any question arises as to the person to whom a certificate ought to be issued, that question shall be referred to and decided by the Board of Agriculture and Fisheries, whose decision shall be final and conclusive.

3. If in any case the Board think it desirable so to do for the purpose of protecting the interests of persons entitled to any mortgage, charge, or other incumbrance on an annuity, they may direct that the certificate to be issued in respect of the annuity shall be issued to and held by such persons as they appoint to be trustees for the purpose, and the persons so appointed shall, subject to the provisions of any regulations made under this schedule, be deemed to be the persons entitled to the annuity.

7. An annuity shall be included among the securities upon which a trustee may invest under the Trustee Act, 1893.

8. If within thirty days after a payment in respect of an annuity becomes due the payment is not made, the annuitant may recover the amount thereof against the council in any court of competent jurisdiction.

9. The annuitants, without prejudice to other remedies, may enforce payment of arrears of their annuities by the appointment of a receiver as though each annuity was interest on a mortgage granted to them by the council under the Local Government Act, 1888, or the Public Health Act, 1875, as the case may be.

10. The Local Government Board may make regulations with respect to the keeping by a council of a register of annuitants, and with respect to the transfer and transmission of annuities, and with respect to the redemption of annuities, and the creation of a sinking fund by councils for that purpose, and the Board of Agriculture and Fisheries may make regulations for the purpose of otherwise carrying the provisions of this schedule into effect.

BE it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

PART I.

HOUSING OF THE WORKING CLASSES.

Schemes under Part III. of Act of 1890.

Duty of local authority to prepare housing schemes. 53 & 54 Vict. c. 7.

1.—(1) It shall be the duty of every local authority within the meaning of Part III. of the Housing of the Working Classes Act, 1890 (in this Act referred to as the principal Act), to consider the needs of their district with respect to the provision of houses for the working classes, and within three months after the passing of this Act, and thereafter as often as occasion arises, to prepare and submit to the Scottish Board of Health (in this Act referred to as the Board) a scheme for the exercise of their powers under the said Part III.

(2) A scheme under this section shall specify—

- (a) the approximate number and nature of the houses which, in the opinion of the local authority, are required adequately to supply the needs of their district ;
- (b) the approximate number and the nature of the houses to be provided by the local authority, and wherever possible the average number of houses per acre ;
- (c) the approximate extent of land to be acquired and the localities in which land is to be acquired ;

(d) the time within which the scheme or any part thereof is to be carried into effect ; and the scheme may contain such incidental, consequential, and supplemental provisions (including provisions as to the subsequent variation of the scheme) as may appear necessary or proper for the purpose of the scheme.

(3) Parts I. and III. of the Schedule to the Welsh Church Act, 1914 (which define the property which may be transferred by the Ecclesiastical Commissioners to the representative body), shall have effect as if the words "date of disestablishment" were therein substituted for the words "passing of this Act."

8. Where an ecclesiastical parish which before the year eighteen hundred and fifty was situate partly in Wales or Monmouthshire and partly in England has since that year been divided into two ecclesiastical parishes, one of which is situate wholly in Wales or Monmouthshire and one wholly in England, and both those parishes are situated in an English diocese, then subsections (1) and (3) of section nine of the Welsh Church Act, 1914 (which relates to border parishes), shall apply to the ecclesiastical parish so situate wholly in Wales or Monmouthshire in like manner as if part thereof were situate in England.

CHAPTER 66.

An Act to check Profiteering.

[19th August 1919.]

WHEREAS it appears that the prices of articles are, to the detriment of the people, being enhanced in some cases by the charging of prices yielding an unreasonable profit to the persons engaged in the production, handling, or distribution thereof :

Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and

Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

1.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, the Board of Trade shall have power in respect of any article to which this Act applies—

Powers of the Board of Trade to investigate complaints and take proceedings.

- (a) to investigate prices, costs, and profit at all stages, and for that purpose by order to require any person to appear before them, and to furnish such information and produce such documents as they may require ; and on any such investigation they may by order fix maximum prices ; and
- (b) to receive and investigate complaints that a profit is being or has been since the passing of this Act made or sought on the sale of the article (whether wholesale or retail) which is, in view of all the circumstances, unreasonable, and on any such complaint they may by order, after giving the parties an opportunity of being heard, either dismiss the complaint or—
  - (i) declare the price which would yield a reasonable profit ; and
  - (ii) require the seller to repay to the complainant any amount paid by the complainant in excess of such price.

(2) If, as a result of any investigation undertaken on their own initiative or on complaint made to them, it appears to the Board of Trade that the circumstances so require, the Board shall take proceedings against the seller before a court of summary jurisdiction, and if in such proceedings it is found that the price charged or sought about which the complaint was made, or the price discovered at the investigation to have been charged or sought, was such as to yield a profit which is, in view of all the circumstances, unreasonable, the seller shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding two hundred pounds or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three months or to both such imprisonment and fine : Provided that a rate of profit which does not exceed the fair average rate earned by persons in the same way of business as the seller upon the sale of similar articles under pre-war conditions, shall not be deemed unreasonable.

(3) If any person fails to comply with or infringes an order of the Board of Trade under this section, he shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding fifty pounds or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding one month, or to both such imprisonment and fine, and, in the case of an order requiring the repayment of any amount, that amount shall be recoverable summarily as a civil debt.

(4) If any person at or for the purpose of any such investigation or on any such complaint knowingly or recklessly furnishes any information or makes any representation which is false in any material particular, he shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding fifty pounds or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three months, or to both such imprisonment and fine.

(5) Where a person convicted under this section is a company, the chairman and every managing director and every officer concerned in the management of the company shall be guilty of the like offence, unless he proves that the act which constituted the offence took place without his knowledge or without his consent.

(6) In any proceedings under this section to which the Board of Trade is a party, costs may be awarded to or against the Board.

BE it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

1. The following section shall be substituted for section sixty-five of the County Courts Act, 1888 (hereinafter referred to as "the principal Act") :—

51 & 52 Vict.
c. 43.

"In any action commenced in the High Court where—

"(1) the plaintiff's claim is founded either on contract or on tort and the amount claimed or remaining in dispute in respect thereof does not exceed one hundred pounds, whether the action could or could not have been commenced in a county court, and whether the defendant does or does not set up or intend to rely on a counterclaim, and whether the counterclaim (if any) is founded on contract or on tort, and whether the amount claimed on the counterclaim exceeds or does not exceed one hundred pounds ; or

Transfer of actions of contract, of tort, and for recovery of land from High Court to county court.

"(2) the only matter remaining to be tried between the parties is a counterclaim, whether founded on contract or on tort, and whether the counterclaim if it had been an action could or could not have been commenced in a county court, and the amount claimed or remaining in dispute in respect of the counterclaim does not exceed one hundred pounds; or

- “(3) the plaintiff's claim is for recovery of land, with or without a claim for rent or mesne profits, by a landlord against a tenant or any person holding or claiming by, through, or under a tenant, whose term has expired or has been duly determined by notice to quit or has become liable to forfeiture for non-payment of rent, and the action could have been commenced in a county court;

either party may at any time apply to the court or a judge for an order that the claim and counterclaim (if any) or, if the only matter remaining to be tried is a counterclaim, the counterclaim, shall be transferred—

- “(a) to any county court in which the action might have been commenced if the subject matter and the amount thereof had been within the jurisdiction of the court; or

- “(c) to any county court which the court or judge may deem the most convenient to the parties; and the court or a judge may thereupon, if the court or judge thinks fit, order the same to be so transferred accordingly.”

2. The following section shall be substituted for section sixty-six of the principal Act:—

Transfer of actions of tort where plaintiff is without visible means of paying costs.

“In any action founded on tort commenced in the High Court the defendant may, on an affidavit made by himself or by any person on his behalf showing that the plaintiff has no visible means of paying the costs of the defendant should a verdict not be found for the plaintiff, apply to the court or a judge for an order to transfer the action to a county court; and thereupon the court or judge, unless the plaintiff satisfies the court or judge that he has such means, may, if the court or judge having regard to all the circumstances of the case thinks fit so to do, make an order that unless the plaintiff within a time to be limited in the order gives security for the defendant's costs to the satisfaction of the court or a judge the action shall be transferred to such county court to be named in the order as the court or judge may deem the most convenient to the parties.”

Transfer, &c. of applications to attach debts or levy execution against member of firm.

3. Where an application is made to the High Court for the attachment of any debt to answer a judgment or order, or for leave to issue execution against a person as being a member of a firm against which a judgment or order has been obtained, and the amount of the debt sought to be attached, or for which execution is sought to be levied, as the case may be, does not exceed one hundred pounds, the court or a judge may make an order either—

- (1) transferring the matter to ; or
- (2) directing that any issue necessary for determining the matter shall be tried in, such county court to be named in the order as the court or judge may deem the most convenient to the parties.

4.—(1) Where, under any of the provisions of the principal Act or this Act, an action or counterclaim or matter is ordered to be transferred from the High Court to a county court, any party may lodge with the registrar of the county court named in the order, or cause to be lodged with him, the order and the writ or copies thereof and such other documents (if any) as the court or judge may direct, and the proper officer of the Supreme Court shall, on the application of such party and on production of the order and the filing of a copy thereof, send by post to the registrar of the county court all pleadings, affidavits and other documents filed in the High Court relating to the action, counterclaim or matter.

On the documents aforesaid being so lodged or sent, the action and counterclaim (if any), or the counterclaim or matter, shall be transferred to the said county court, and, subject to county court rules, all further proceedings therein shall be taken and tried as if the action, counterclaim, or matter had been originally commenced in that county court, and the county court shall have jurisdiction to deal with the same, any enactment to the contrary notwithstanding :

Provided that the transfer shall not affect any right of appeal in the High Court or to the Court of Appeal from the order directing the transfer, or the right to enforce in the High Court any judgment signed or order made in that court before the transfer.

(2) Where, under the foregoing provisions of this Act, an order is made directing an issue to be tried in a county court, the order shall define the issue to be tried, and any party may lodge or cause to be lodged the order, together with the affidavits (if any) filed in matter, and such other documents (if any) as the court or judge may direct, with the registrar of the county court named in the order, and on the documents aforesaid being so lodged the issue shall, subject to county court rules, be tried in that county court, and the judge of that county court, after the same has been so tried, shall certify the result of the trial and send his certificate to the High Court, together with the documents aforesaid and any report which he may think fit to make as to costs or otherwise.

5.—(1) Subject to county court rules, a registrar may, on the application of the parties and by leave of the judge, hear and determine any case in which the sum claimed or the amount involved does not exceed five pounds.

Jurisdiction of registrar.

(2) Where a defendant gives notice in the prescribed manner that he admits his liability for the whole or any part of a claim, but desires the decision of the court as to the time and mode of payment thereof and offers to pay the same, the registrar shall, subject to county court rules, on such notice to the plaintiff as may be prescribed, and unless, where the defendant admits less than the full amount claimed, the plaintiff objects in the prescribed manner to accept the amount admitted and the offer of payment in satisfaction of his claim, have power to enter up judgment and, for this purpose, to decide any question as to time and mode of payment.

(3) Where the plaintiff and defendant enter into an agreement in the prescribed manner as to the amount payable in respect of the whole or any part of a claim and the terms and conditions upon which the same is to be paid and satisfied, the registrar shall, subject to county court rules, have power to enter up judgment for the amount so agreed upon and for a payment thereof upon the terms and conditions sanctioned in the agreement.

(4) In any case where the registrar has power under the principal Act or this Act to hear and determine a case or to enter up judgment he shall have power to make such order as to payment by instalments as the judge might have made, and to exercise any other power which the judge might have exercised, and, subject to the provisions of this Act with respect to appeals, any judgment entered up by the registrar in pursuance of the principal Act or this Act shall, to all intents and purposes, have the same effect and shall be enforced and enforceable in the same manner as if it had been a judgment of the judge of the same court.

Power to refer matters for inquiry and report.

6.—(1) Subject to county court rules, the judge may in any case, with the consent of the parties, refer any action or matter or any question arising therein to the registrar or a referee for inquiry and report, and may direct how such reference shall be conducted, and may remit any report for further inquiry and report, and on consideration of any report or further report the judge may give such judgment or make such order in the action or matter as may be just, without prejudice to any right of appeal.

(2) The powers conferred by this section shall be in addition to the powers to refer matters of account to the registrar and to refer matters to arbitration conferred by sections ninety-two and one hundred and four of the principal Act.

Appeals from registrar.

7. Any judgment or order of a registrar, and any execution thereon, (except where all parties have consented to the terms of the judgment or order), may, on application made within such time and in such manner as may be prescribed, be set aside by the judge of the county court, and the judge may give such judgment or make such order in substitution therefor as he thinks fit, or may grant a new trial on such terms (if any) as he may think fit.

8. The following section shall be substituted for section eighty-six of the principal Act:—

“(1) County Court rules may provide for the issue, under the prescribed conditions, of a default summons, in the prescribed form or to the prescribed effect, in any action for a debt or liquidated demand in money, and may provide for the manner in which such a summons is to be served and the conditions (if any) under which the defendant is to be entitled to defend the action; and, where such conditions are not complied with, it shall be lawful for the registrar to enter up judgment summarily for the plaintiff in manner prescribed by the rules. Default summons.

“(2) The rules may provide for different procedure and different conditions according to the amount of the claim or the nature thereof or the position or occupation of the defendant, for the exclusion of any actions from the procedure by default summons, and for the amendments to be allowed in the case of a default summons, and the procedure consequent on any such amendment.”

9.—(1) A judge may, and, if so required by the Lord Chancellor, shall, appoint additional courts to be held, and, subject to county court rules, it shall be lawful for the registrar at any such additional court, notwithstanding that the judge is not present, to enter up any judgment and exercise any other jurisdiction which he is by the principal Act or this Act authorised to enter up or exercise, and to adjourn any such court. Additional courts and power of registrar when judge not present.

(2) Any such additional court may be appointed to be held at any place within the district at which an office is kept open by the registrar.

10.—(1) Where an action or matter is commenced in a county court, which ought to have been commenced in some other county court, the judge may, if he thinks fit, and upon such terms as to costs and otherwise as he thinks fit, instead of ordering it to be struck out in accordance with section one hundred and fourteen of the principal Act, either transfer the action or matter to the county court in which it ought to have been commenced or proceed to hear and determine the case in the court in which it was commenced, and in the latter case that court shall have jurisdiction in like manner as if it had been the court in which the action or matter ought to have commenced. Power of judge where action commenced in the wrong court.

(2) Where an action or matter is transferred from one county court to another under this section, the provisions of section eighty-five of the principal Act relating to procedure on transfer and to the trial or hearing of a transferred action or matter shall apply in like manner as if the action or matter had been transferred under that section.

11. The following section shall be substituted for section one hundred and sixteen of the principal Act :—

“ Provided that—

“(i) in any such action, whether founded on contract or tort, the court or a judge, or where the action is tried before a referee or officer of the Supreme Court, that referee or officer, if satisfied that there was sufficient reason for bringing the action in the High Court or that the defendant or one of the defendants objected to the transfer of the action to a county court, may make an order allowing the costs or any part of the costs thereof on the High Court scale or on such one of the county court scales and under such one of the columns in the scale as he may direct ; and

“(ii) if in any action founded on contract the plaintiff within twenty-one days after the service of the writ, or within such further time as may be allowed by the court or a judge, obtains an order under Order XIV. of the rules of the Supreme Court that he shall be at liberty to sign judgment for a sum of twenty pounds or upwards either unconditionally or unless that sum is paid into court or to the plaintiff's solicitor, he shall, unless otherwise ordered by the court or a judge, be entitled to costs on the High Court scale.

Provided that, as regards so much of the proceedings in any action transferred from the High Court to a county court as take place in the High Court before the transfer, the costs thereof shall be subject to the provisions of the last foregoing section of this Act, and the powers of the court or a judge under that section to make an order allowing costs on the High Court scale or on or under any county court scale or column shall, subject to any order of the court or judge by whom the transfer was ordered, be exerciseable by the judge of the county court.

13. Section twenty-one of the County Courts Admiralty Jurisdiction Act, 1868 (which prescribes the county courts in which Admiralty proceedings are to be commenced), shall cease to have effect, and provision may be made by county court rules as to the courts in which proceedings may be commenced in cases which by virtue of that Act, or any Act amending that Act, may be brought in a county court.

An Act to amend the Trade Marks Act, 1905.

[23rd December 1919.]

BE it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

PART I.

REGISTRATION OF CERTAIN TRADE MARKS NOT REGISTRABLE UNDER PRINCIPAL ACT.

1.—(1) The register of trade marks (including the Manchester Register) kept under the Trade Marks Act, 1905 (hereinafter referred to as the principal Act), shall be divided into two parts to be called respectively Part A. and Part B.

Division of register of
trade marks
into two parts.
5 Edw. 7. c. 15.

(2) Part A. of the register shall comprise all trade marks entered in the register of trade marks at the commencement of this Act and all trade marks which after the commencement of this Act may be registered under the provisions of the principal Act.

(3) Part B. shall comprise all trade marks registered under this Part of this Act, and all trade marks entered on or removed thereto under this Act.

Registration
of trade marks
in Part B.

2.—(1) Where any mark has for not less than two years been bonâ fide used in the United Kingdom upon or in connection with any goods (whether for sale in the United Kingdom or exportation abroad), for the purpose of indicating that they are the goods of the proprietor of the mark by virtue of manufacture, selection, certification, dealing with or offering for sale, the person claiming to be the proprietor of the mark may apply in writing to the registrar in the prescribed manner to have the mark entered as his registered trade mark in Part B. of the register in respect of such goods.

(2) The registrar shall consider every such application for registration of a trade mark in Part B. of the register, and if it appears to him, after such search, if any, as he may deem necessary, that the application is inconsistent with the provisions of section eleven or section nineteen of the principal Act, or if he is not satisfied that the mark has been so used as aforesaid, or that it is capable of distinguishing the goods of the applicant, he may refuse the application, or may accept it subject to conditions, amendments or modifications as to the goods or classes of goods in respect of which the mark is to be registered, or to such limitations, if any, as to mode or place of user or otherwise as he may think right to impose, and in any other case he shall accept the application.

(3) Every such application shall be accompanied by a statutory declaration verifying the user, including the date of first user, and such date shall be entered on the register.

(4) Any such refusal or conditional acceptance shall be subject to appeal to the court, and, if the ground for refusal is insufficiency of evidence as to user, such refusal shall be without prejudice to any application for registration of the trade mark under the provisions of the principal Act.

(5) Every such application shall, if accepted, be advertised in accordance with the provisions of the principal Act.

(6) A mark may be registered in Part B. notwithstanding any registration in Part A. by the same proprietor of the same mark or any part or parts thereof.

Application of certain provisions of principal Act
to Part B.
trade marks.

3. The provisions of the principal Act, as amended by this Act, with the exception of those set out in the First Schedule to this Act, shall, subject to the provisions of this Part of this Act, apply in respect of trade marks to which this Part of this Act applies as if they were herein re-enacted and in terms made applicable to this Part of this Act.

Effect of
in Part B.

4. The registration of a person as the proprietor of a trade mark in Part B. of the register shall be primâ facie evidence that that person has the exclusive right to the use of that trade mark, but, in any action for infringement of a trade mark entered in Part B. of the register, no injunction, interdict or other relief shall be granted to the owner of the trade mark in respect of such registration, if the defendant establishes to the satisfaction of the court that the user of which the plaintiff complains is not calculated to deceive or to lead to the belief that the goods the subject of such user were goods manufactured, selected, certified, dealt with or offered for sale by the proprietor of the trade mark.

5. If any person applies for the registration of a trade mark under the principal Act in Part A. of the register, the registrar may, if the applicant is willing, instead of refusing the application, treat it as an application for registration in Part B. of the register under this Part of this Act and deal with the application accordingly.

Power to treat applications for registration in Part A. as applications for registration in Part B.

PART II.

PROVISIONS FOR THE PREVENTION OF ABUSES OF TRADE MARKS.

6.—(1) Where in the case of an article or substance manufactured under any patent in force at or granted after the passing of this Act, a word trade mark registered under the principal Act or Part I. of this Act is the name or only practicable name of the article or substance so manufactured, all rights to the exclusive use of such trade mark, whether under the common law or by registration (and notwithstanding the provisions of section forty-one of the principal Act), shall cease upon the expiration or determination of the patent, and thereafter such word shall not be deemed a distinctive mark, and may be removed by the court from the register on the application of any person aggrieved.

Removal from register of word trade marks used as names of articles.

(2) No word which is the only practicable name or description of any single chemical element or single chemical compound, as distinguished from a mixture, shall be registered as a trade mark, and any such word now or hereafter on the register may, notwithstanding section forty-one of the principal Act, be removed by the court from the register on the application of any person aggrieved:

CHAPTER 80.

An Act to amend the Patents and Designs Acts.

[23rd December 1919.]

BE it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

Provisions for the prevention of abuse of monopoly rights.
7 Edw. 7. c. 29.

1. For section twenty-seven of the Patents and Designs Act, 1907 (hereinafter referred to as the principal Act), the following section shall be substituted :—

“ 27.—(1) Any person interested may at any time apply to the comptroller alleging in the case of any patent that there has been an abuse of the monopoly rights thereunder and asking for relief under this section.

(2) The monopoly rights under a patent shall be deemed to have been abused in any of the following circumstances :—

(a) If at any time after the expiration of four years from the date of the patent, the patented invention (being one capable of being worked within the United Kingdom), is not being worked within the United Kingdom on a commercial scale, and no satisfactory reason can be given for such non-working :

Provided that, if an application is presented to the comptroller on this ground, and the comptroller is of opinion that the time which has elapsed since the date of the patent has by reason of the nature of the invention or for any other cause been insufficient to enable the invention to be worked within the United Kingdom on a commercial scale, the comptroller may adjourn the application for such period as will in his opinion be sufficient for that purpose :

- (b) If the working of the invention within the United Kingdom on a commercial scale is being prevented or hindered by the importation from abroad of the patented article by the patentee or persons claiming under him, or by persons directly or indirectly purchasing from him, or by other persons against whom the patentee is not taking or has not taken any proceedings for infringement :
- (c) If the demand for the patented article in the United Kingdom is not being met to an adequate extent and on reasonable terms :
- (d) If, by reason of the refusal of the patentee to grant a licence or licences upon reasonable terms, the trade or industry of the United Kingdom or the trade of any person or class of persons trading in the United Kingdom, or the establishment of any new trade or industry in the United Kingdom, is prejudiced, and it is in the public interest that a licence or licences should be granted :
- (e) If any trade or industry in the United Kingdom, or any person or class of persons engaged therein, is unfairly prejudiced by the conditions attached by the patentee, whether before or after the passing of this Act, to the purchase, hire, licence, or use of the patented article, or to the using or working of the patented process :

Provided that, for the purpose of determining whether there has been any abuse of the monopoly rights under a patent, it shall be taken that patents for new inventions are granted not only to encourage invention but to secure that new inventions shall so far as possible be worked on a commercial scale in the United Kingdom without undue delay.

(3) On being satisfied that a case of abuse of the monopoly rights under a patent has been established, the comptroller may exercise any of the following powers as he may deem expedient in the circumstances :—

- (a) He may order the patent to be indorsed with the words 'licences of right' and thereupon the same rules shall apply as are provided in this Act in respect of patents so indorsed, and an exercise by the comptroller of this power shall entitle every existing licensee to apply to the comptroller for an order entitling him to surrender his licence in exchange for a licence to be settled by the comptroller in like manner as if the patent had been so indorsed at the request of the patentee, and the comptroller may make such order; and an order that a patent be so indorsed may be made notwithstanding that there may be an agreement subsisting which would have precluded the indorsement of the patent at the request of the patentee :

- (b) He may order the grant to the applicant of a licence on such terms as the comptroller may think expedient, including a term precluding the licensee from importing into the United Kingdom any goods the importation of which, if made by persons other than the patentee or persons claiming under him, would be an infringement of the patent, and in such case the patentee and all licensees for the time being shall be deemed to have mutually covenanted against such importation. A licensee under this paragraph shall be entitled to call upon the patentee to take proceedings to prevent infringement of the patent, and if the patentee refuses, or neglects to do so within two months after being so called upon, the licensee may institute proceedings for infringement in his own name as though he were the patentee, making the patentee a defendant. A patentee so added as defendant shall not be liable for any costs unless he enters an appearance and takes part in the proceedings. Service on him may be effected by leaving the writ at his address for service given on the register :

In settling the terms of a licence under this paragraph the comptroller shall be guided as far as may be by the same considerations as are specified in section twenty-four of this Act for his guidance in settling licences under that section :

- (c) If the comptroller is satisfied that the invention is not being worked on a commercial scale within the United Kingdom, and is such that it cannot be so worked without the expenditure of capital for the raising of which it will be necessary to rely on the patent monopoly, he may, unless the patentee or those claiming under him will undertake to find such capital, order the grant to the applicant, or any other person, or to the applicant and any other person or persons jointly, if able and willing to provide such capital, of an exclusive licence on such terms as the comptroller may think just, but subject as hereinafter provided :
- (d) If the comptroller is satisfied that the objects of this section cannot be attained by the exercise of any of the foregoing powers, he may order the patent to be revoked, either forthwith or after such reasonable interval as may be specified in the order, unless in the meantime such conditions as may be prescribed in the order with a view to attaining the objects of this section are fulfilled, and the comptroller may, on reasonable cause shown in any case, by subsequent order extend the interval so specified :

Provided that the comptroller shall make no order for revocation which is at variance with any treaty, convention, arrangement, or engagement with any foreign country or British possession :

- (e) If the comptroller is of opinion that the objects of this section will be best attained by making no order under the above provisions of this section, he may make an order refusing the application and dispose of any question as to costs thereon as he thinks just.

(4) In settling the terms of any such exclusive licence as is provided in paragraph (c) of the last preceding subsection, due regard shall be had to the risks undertaken by the licensee in providing the capital and working the invention, but, subject thereto, the licence shall be so framed as—

- (a) to secure to the patentee the maximum royalty compatible with the licensee working the invention within the United Kingdom on a commercial scale and at a reasonable profit ;
- (b) to guarantee to the patentee a minimum yearly sum by way of royalty, if and so far as it is reasonable so to do, having regard to the capital requisite for the proper working of the invention and all the circumstances of the case ;

and, in addition to any other powers expressed in the licence or order, the licence and the order granting the licence shall be made revocable at the discretion of the comptroller if the licensee fails to expend the amount specified in the licence as being the amount which he is able and willing to provide for the purpose of working the invention on a commercial scale within the United Kingdom, or if he fails so to work the invention within the time specified in the order.

(5) In deciding to whom such an exclusive licence is to be granted the comptroller shall, unless good reason is shown to the contrary, prefer an existing licensee to a person having no registered interest in the patent.

(6) The order granting an exclusive licence under this section shall operate to take away from the patentee any right which he may have as patentee to work or use the invention and to revoke all existing licences, unless otherwise provided in the order, but on granting an exclusive licence the comptroller may, if he thinks it fair and equitable, make it a condition that the licensee shall give proper compensation to be fixed by the comptroller for any money or labour expended by the patentee or any existing licensee in developing or exploiting the invention.

(7) Every application presented to the comptroller under this section must set out fully the nature of the applicant's interest and the facts upon which the applicant bases his case and the relief which he seeks. The application must be accompanied by statutory declarations verifying the applicant's interest and the facts set out in the application.

(8) The comptroller shall consider the matters alleged in the application and declarations, and, if satisfied that the applicant has a bonâ fide interest and that a primâ facie case for relief has been made out, he shall direct the applicant to serve copies of the application and declarations upon the patentee and upon any other persons appearing from the register to be interested in the patent, and shall advertise the application in the Illustrated Official Journal (Patents).

(9) If the patentee or any person is desirous of opposing the granting of any relief under this section, he shall, within such time as may be prescribed or within such extended time as the comptroller may on application further allow, deliver to the comptroller a counter statement verified by a statutory declaration fully setting out the grounds on which the application is to be opposed.

(10) The comptroller shall consider the counter statement and declarations in support thereof and may thereupon dismiss the application if satisfied that the allegations in the application have been adequately answered, unless any of the parties demands a hearing or unless the comptroller himself appoints a hearing. In any case the comptroller may require the attendance before him of any of the declarants to be cross-examined or further examined upon matters relevant to the issues raised in the application and counter statement, and he may, subject to due precautions against disclosure of information to rivals in trade, require the production before him of books and documents relating to the matter in issue.

(11) All orders of the comptroller under this section shall be subject to appeal to the Court, and on any such appeal the law officer or such other counsel as he may appoint shall be entitled to appear and be heard.

(12) In any case where the comptroller does not dismiss an application as hereinbefore provided, and

(a) if the parties interested consent, or

(b) if the proceedings require any prolonged examination of documents or any scientific or local investigation which cannot in the opinion of the comptroller conveniently be made before him ;

the comptroller may at any time order the whole proceedings or any question or issue of fact arising thereunder to be referred to an arbitrator agreed on by the parties, or in default of agreement appointed by the comptroller, and, where the whole proceedings are so referred, the award of such arbitrator shall, if all the parties consent, be final, but otherwise shall be subject to the same appeal as the decision of the comptroller under this section, and, where a question or issue of fact is so referred, the arbitrator shall report his findings to the comptroller.

(13) For the purposes of this section, the expression 'patented article' includes articles made by a patented process."

2. For section twenty-four of the principal Act, the following section shall be substituted:—

Provision as to patents indorsed "licences of right."

"24.—(1) At any time after the sealing of a patent the comptroller shall, if the patentee so requests, cause the patent to be indorsed with the words 'licences of right,' and a corresponding entry to be made in the register, and thereupon—

(a) any person shall at any time thereafter be entitled as of right to a licence under the patent upon such terms as, in default of agreement, may be settled by the comptroller on the application of either the patentee or the applicant:

Provided that any licence the terms of which are settled by agreement shall be deemed, unless otherwise expressly provided, to include the terms and conditions specified in paragraphs (c) and (d) of this subsection as if they had been imposed by the comptroller thereunder in like manner as if the terms had been settled by the comptroller:

(b) in settling the terms of any such licence the comptroller shall be guided by the following considerations—

(i) he shall, on the one hand, endeavour to secure the widest possible user of the invention in the United Kingdom consistent with the patentee deriving a reasonable advantage from his patent rights;

(ii) he shall, on the other hand, endeavour to secure to the patentee the maximum advantage consistent with the invention being worked by the licensee at a reasonable profit in the United Kingdom;

(iii) he shall also endeavour to secure equality of advantage among the several licensees, and for this purpose may, on due cause being shown, reduce the royalties or other payments accruing to the patentee under any licence previously granted:

Provided that, in considering the question of equality of advantage, the comptroller shall take into account any work done or outlay incurred by any previous licensee with a view to testing the commercial value of the invention or to securing the working thereof on a commercial scale in the United Kingdom :

- (c) any such licence the terms of which are settled by the comptroller may be so framed as to preclude the licensee from importing into the United Kingdom any goods the importation of which, if made by persons other than the patentee or those claiming under him, would be an infringement of the patent, and in such a case the patentee and all licensees under the patent shall be deemed to have mutually covenanted against such importation :
  - (d) every such licensee shall be entitled to call upon a patentee to take proceedings to prevent the infringement of the patent, and if the patentee refuses, or neglects to do so within two months after being so called upon, the licensee may institute proceedings for the infringement in his own name as though he were patentee, making the patentee a defendant. A patentee so added as defendant shall not be liable for any costs unless he enters an appearance and takes part in the proceedings. Service on him may be effected by leaving the writ at his address for service given on the register :
  - (e) if in any action for infringement of a patent so indorsed the infringing defendant is ready and willing to take a licence upon terms to be settled by the comptroller, no injunction against him shall be awarded, and the amount recoverable against him by way of damages (if any) shall not exceed double the amount which would have been recoverable against him as licensee if the licence had been dated prior to the earliest infringement :
- Provided that this paragraph shall not apply where the infringement consists of the importation of infringing goods :
- (f) the renewal fees payable by the patentee of a patent so indorsed shall, as from the date of the indorsement, be one moiety only of the fees which would otherwise have been payable.

(2) The comptroller shall, before acting on any request to indorse a patent made by the patentee under this section, advertise such request in the Illustrated Official Journal (Patents), and shall satisfy himself that the patentee is not precluded by contract from making such request, and for that purpose shall require from the patentee such evidence, by statutory declaration or otherwise, as he may deem necessary :

Provided that a patentee shall not be deemed to be so precluded by reason only of his having granted a licence under the patent where the licence does not limit his right to grant other licences.

(3) Any person, alleging that a request under this section has been made contrary to some contract in which he is interested, may apply to the comptroller within the prescribed time and in the prescribed manner, and the comptroller, if satisfied of the truth of such allegation, shall refuse to indorse the patent pursuant to the request or shall cause the indorsement, if already made, to be cancelled.

Any order under this subsection shall be subject to appeal to the court.

(4) All indorsements of patents under this section shall be entered on the register of patents and shall be published in the Illustrated Official Journal (Patents), and in such other manner as to the comptroller may seem desirable for the purpose of bringing the invention to the notice of manufacturers.

(5) If at any time it appears that in the case of a patent so indorsed there is no existing licence the comptroller may, if he thinks fit, on the application of the patentee and on payment by him of the unpaid moiety of all renewal fees which have become due since the indorsement, after due notice cancel the indorsement, and in that case the patentee's rights and liabilities shall be the same as if no such indorsement had been made."

3. After section twenty-seven of the principal Act, the following section shall be inserted:—

“or (e) that in the case of an application under section ninety-one of this Act the specification describes or claims an invention other than that for which protection has been applied for in a foreign state or British possession and that such other invention forms the subject of an application made by the opponent in the interval between the leaving of the application in the foreign state or British possession and the leaving of the application in the United Kingdom.”

- (b) disputes arise between joint applicants as to proceeding with an application;

the comptroller on proof of such agreement to his satisfaction, or if satisfied that one or more of such joint applicants ought to be allowed to proceed alone, may allow such other party or joint applicant to proceed with the application, and may grant a patent to him, so however that all parties interested shall be entitled to be heard before the comptroller, and an appeal shall lie from the decision of the comptroller under this proviso to the law officer.”

Term of patent.

6.—(1) The term limiting the duration of patents shall be increased from fourteen to sixteen years, and accordingly in subsection (1) of section seventeen of the principal Act, for the word “fourteen” there shall be substituted the word “sixteen.”

(2) Any patent the original term of which had not expired at the date of the commencement of this Act shall have effect as if the term mentioned therein was sixteen years instead of fourteen years, subject to the following conditions:—

- (a) any licence existing at that date which has been granted for the term of the patent shall be treated as having been granted for the term as so extended if the licensee so desires;
- (b) if the patent would, apart from this section, have expired on or before the first day of January nineteen hundred and twenty, the patent shall, during the period of extension, be subject to all the provisions by this Act substituted for section twenty-four of the principal Act (except subsection (5) thereof) as if the patent had been endorsed “licences of right.”

(3) Where any party to a contract with the patentee or any other person, entered into before the nineteenth day of November nineteen hundred and seventeen, is subjected to loss or liability by reason of the extension of the term of any patent under the provisions of this section, the court shall have power to determine in what manner and by which parties such loss or liability shall be borne.

7.—(1) At the end of subsection (1) of section eighteen of the principal Act which relates to the extension of the term of a patent, the following proviso shall be inserted:—

Amendment of s. 18 of principal Act as to extension of term of patent.

“ Provided that the court may in its discretion extend such period within which such a petition may be presented.”

(2) In subsection (5) of the same section, for the words “ for a further term not exceeding seven years, or, in exceptional cases, fourteen years,” there shall be substituted the words “ for a further term not exceeding five years, or, in exceptional cases, ten years.”

(3) At the end of the same section, the following subsection shall be added:—

“(6) Where, by reason of hostilities between His Majesty and any foreign state, the patentee as such has suffered loss or damage (including loss of opportunity of dealing in or developing his invention owing to his having been engaged in work of national importance connected with such hostilities) an application under this section may be made by originating summons instead of by petition, and the court in considering its decision may have regard solely to the loss or damage so suffered by the patentee :

Provided that this subsection shall not apply if the patentee is a subject of such foreign state as aforesaid, or is a company the business whereof is managed or controlled by such subjects or is carried on wholly or mainly for the benefit or on behalf of such subjects, notwithstanding that the company may be registered within His Majesty's Dominions.”

8. For section twenty-nine of the principal Act, the following section shall be substituted:—

Right of Crown to use patented inventions.

“ 29.—(1) A patent shall have to all intents the like effect as against His Majesty the King as it has against a subject :

“ Provided that any Government department may, by themselves or by such of their agents, contractors, or others as may be authorised in writing by them at any time after the application, make, use or exercise the invention for the services of the Crown on such terms as may, either before or after the use thereof, be agreed on, with the approval of the Treasury, between the Department and the patentee, or, in default of agreement, as may be settled in the manner hereinafter provided. And the terms of any agreement or licence concluded between the inventor or patentee and any person other than a Government department, shall be inoperative so far as concerns the making, use or exercise of the invention for the service of the Crown :

“ Provided further that, where an invention which is the subject of any patent has, before the date of the patent, been duly recorded in a document by, or tried by or on behalf of, any Government department, (such invention not having been communicated directly or indirectly by the applicant for the patent or the patentee), any Government department, or such of their agents, contractors, or others, as may be authorised in writing by them, may make, use and exercise the invention so recorded or tried for the service of the Crown, free of any royalty or other payment to the patentee, notwithstanding the existence of the patent. If in the opinion of the department the disclosure to the applicant or the patentee, as the case may be, of the document recording the invention, or the evidence of the trial thereof, if required, would be detrimental to the public interest, it may be made confidentially to counsel on behalf of the applicant or patentee, or to any independent expert mutually agreed upon.

“(2) In case of any dispute as to the making, use or exercise of an invention under this section, or the terms therefor, or as to the existence or scope of any record or trial as aforesaid, the matter shall be referred to the court for decision, who shall have power to refer the whole matter or any question or issue of fact arising thereon to be tried before a special or official referee or an arbitrator upon such terms as it may direct. The court, referee, or arbitrator, as the case may be, may, with the consent of the parties, take into consideration the validity of the patent for the purposes only of the reference and for the determination of the issues between the applicant and such Government department. The court, referee, or arbitrator, further in settling the terms as aforesaid, shall be entitled to take into consideration any benefit or compensation which the patentee, or any other person interested in the patent, may have received directly or indirectly from the Crown or from any Government department in respect of such patent.

“(3) The right to use an invention for the services of the Crown under the provisions of this section or any provisions for which this section is substituted shall include, and shall be deemed always to have included, the power to sell any articles made in pursuance of such right which are no longer required for the services of the Crown.

“(4) Nothing in this section shall affect the right of the Crown or of any person deriving title directly or indirectly from the Crown to sell or use any articles forfeited under the laws relating to the customs or excise.”

9. After section thirty-two of the principal Act the following section shall be inserted :—

“32A. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary appearing in section twenty-three of this Act, if the court in any action for infringement of a patent finds that any one or more of the claims in the specification, in respect of which infringement is alleged, are valid, it shall, subject to its discretion as to costs and as to the date from which damages should be reckoned, and to such terms as to amendment as it may deem desirable, grant relief in respect of any of such claims which are infringed without regard to the invalidity of any other claim in the specification. In exercising such discretion, the court may take into consideration the conduct of the parties in inserting such invalid claims in the specification or permitting them to remain there.”

Power of court to grant relief in respect of particular claims.

10. In section thirty-four of the principal Act, which relates to actions for infringement of a patent, after the words, “infringement of a patent” there shall be inserted the words “the plaintiff shall be entitled to relief by way of injunction and damages but not to an account of profits, but subject as aforesaid.”

11.—(1) After section thirty-eight of the principal Act, the following section shall be inserted :—

“38A.—(1) In the case of inventions relating to substances prepared or produced by chemical processes or intended for food or medicine, the specification shall not include claims for the substance itself, except when prepared or produced by the special methods or processes of manufacture described and claimed or by their obvious chemical equivalents: Provided that, in an action for infringement of a patent where the invention relates to the production of a new substance, any substance of the same chemical composition and constitution shall in the absence of proof to the contrary be deemed to have been produced by the patented process.

Chemical products and substances intended for food or medicine.

(2) In the case of any patent for an invention intended for or capable of being used for the preparation or production of food or medicine, the comptroller shall, unless he sees good reason to the contrary, grant to any person applying for the same, a licence limited to the use of the invention for the purposes of the preparation or production of food or medicine but not otherwise; and, in settling the terms of such licence and fixing the amount of royalty or other consideration payable, the comptroller shall have regard to the desirability of making the food or medicine available to the public at the lowest possible price consistent with giving to the inventor due reward for the research leading to the invention.

Any decision of the comptroller under this subsection shall be subject to appeal to the court."

(2) This section shall apply only to patents applied for after the passing of this Act.

Costs and security for costs.

12. Section thirty-nine of the principal Act, which relates to costs and security for costs, shall be repealed, and in lieu thereof the following section shall be inserted after section seventy-three :—

"73A.—(1) The comptroller shall, in any proceedings before him under this Act, have power by order to award to any party such costs as he may consider reasonable, and to direct how and by what parties they are to be paid, and any such order may be made a rule of court.

(2) If any party giving notice of any opposition under this Act, or applying to the comptroller for the revocation of a patent, or giving notice of appeal from any decision of the comptroller under this Act, neither resides nor carries on business in the United Kingdom or the Isle of Man, the comptroller, or in case of appeal to the law officer or the court, the law officer or the court may require such party to give security for the costs of the proceedings or appeal, and in default of such security being given may proceed to treat the proceedings or appeal as abandoned."

- (a) That the design has been published in the United Kingdom prior to the date of registration :
- (b) That the design is applied by manufacture to any article in a foreign country, and is not so applied by manufacture in the United Kingdom to such an extent as is reasonable in the circumstances of the case :

Provided that, if the application be on the last-mentioned ground, and the comptroller is satisfied that the time which has elapsed from the date of registration has been insufficient for such application by manufacture in the United Kingdom, the comptroller may adjourn the application for such time as he may deem sufficient for that purpose; and that in lieu of cancellation the comptroller may order the grant of a compulsory licence on such terms as he may consider just.

(2) An appeal shall lie from any order of the comptroller under this section to the court, and the comptroller may at any time refer any such application to the court for trial."

15. After section fifty-eight of the principal Act, the following section shall be inserted:—

"58A. The registration of a design shall have to all intents the like effect as against His Majesty the King as it has against a subject:

(3) The person registered as the proprietor of a patent or design shall, subject to the provisions of the Act and to any rights appearing from the register to be vested in any other person, have power absolutely to assign, grant licences as to or otherwise deal with the patent or design, and to give effectual receipts for any consideration for any such assignment, licence or dealing:

Orders for possession.5 & 6 Geo. 5.
c. 97.

1.—(1) After the passing of this Act no order or judgment for the recovery of possession of a dwelling-house to which the Increase of Rent and Mortgage Interest (War Restrictions) Act, 1915 (hereinafter called the principal Act), or any of the Acts amending the same applies, or for the ejectment of a tenant therefrom, shall be made or given, so long as the tenant continues to pay rent at the agreed rate as modified by the principal Act or any of the Acts amending the same and performs the other conditions of the tenancy, unless—

- (a) the tenant has committed waste or has been guilty of conduct which is a nuisance or an annoyance to adjoining or neighbouring occupiers, and the court considers it reasonable to make such an order or give such judgment; or
- (b) the tenant, by sub-letting the dwelling-house or any part thereof, or by taking in lodgers, is making a profit which, having regard to the rent paid by the tenant, is unreasonable, and the court considers it reasonable to make such an order or give such judgment; or

(2) At the time of making any order or giving any judgment for the recovery of possession of any such dwelling-house or for the ejectment of a tenant therefrom, or in the case of any such order or judgment which has been made or given, whether before or after the passing of this Act, and not executed, at any subsequent time, the court may, if the order or judgment was made or given on the ground that the premises were reasonably required as aforesaid, stay or suspend execution thereof, or postpone the date of possession, for such period or periods as it shall think fit, either unconditionally or subject to such conditions in regard to payment by the tenant of rent or mesne profits and otherwise as the court shall think fit, and, if such conditions are complied with, the court may, if it shall think fit, discharge or rescind such order or judgment.

(3) Where any order or judgment has been made or given before the passing of this Act, but not executed, and in the opinion of the court the order or judgment would not have been made or given if this Act had been in force at the time when such order or judgment was made or given, the court may, on application by the tenant, rescind or vary such order or judgment in such manner as the court may think fit for the purpose of giving effect to this Act.

(4) Notwithstanding anything in section one hundred and forty-three of the County Courts Act, 1888, every warrant for delivery of possession of a dwelling-house to which the principal Act or any Act amending the same applies, shall remain in force for three months from the day next after the last day named in the judgment or order for delivery of possession or

(2) The Secretary of State may, if he is satisfied on the recommendation of the said advisory committee that there is no reason to the contrary, grant such licence, subject to such terms and conditions (if any) as he shall think fit.

(3) This section shall apply to any former enemy alien now in the United Kingdom (not being a former enemy alien exempted from internment or repatriation on the recommendation of any advisory committee appointed after the 1st day of January nineteen hundred and eighteen and before the passing of this Act) as to whom there shall be delivered to the Secretary of State, within two months after the passing of this Act, a statement in writing signed by any credible person to the effect that the continued residence in the United Kingdom of that alien is, for reasons relating to the alien, undesirable in the public interest, and giving particulars of the allegations upon which such reasons are based.

(4) The Secretary of State shall refer all such statements to the advisory committee to be constituted under this section, and the committee shall thereupon require each alien affected to make to the committee within one month, in a form prescribed by the committee, an application to be allowed to remain in the United Kingdom, stating the general grounds on which the application is based, and the answer of the alien to the allegations made in relation to him, and the committee shall examine into such allegations and in the result may—

- (b) if satisfied that the allegations are groundless or insufficient, and that the alien affected holds an exemption recommended by any advisory committee appointed in the year nineteen hundred and fifteen, recommend that such exemption be not disturbed; or
- (c) in any case in which it seems to them right and proper so to do, recommend that the alien be granted a licence to remain, subject to such terms and conditions (if any) as may appear to them to be fitting in the circumstances.

(5) In granting a licence under this section, the Secretary of State may include in the licence the wife of the applicant and any child or children of his, and such inclusion shall, notwithstanding anything in this section, have the same effect as the grant of a licence.

(6) A list of the persons to whom such licence is granted shall, as soon as may be, after the granting of the licence, be published in the Gazette.

(7) Any licence so granted may be at any time revoked by the Secretary of State.

(8) If such licence is not granted, or if, having been granted, it is revoked, the Secretary of State shall make an order (in this Act referred to as a deportation order) requiring the alien to leave the United Kingdom and thereafter to remain out of the United Kingdom so long as the order remains in force. The Secretary of State may, by a deportation order, require the alien to return to the country of which he is a subject or citizen.

“(9) Where the Board intend to prepare such a scheme, they shall give notice of their intention to the landlord of any land which is to be comprised therein, and when a landlord has received such notice it shall not be lawful for him, save with the consent of the Board, to let or to enter into any agreement for letting such land or any part thereof until the Board have made an order confirming the scheme, or have abandoned the same :

“(f) In any case where the Board have entered into an agreement with a landlord or a tenant or any other person for or in connection with the constitution of one or more new holdings upon land in which such landlord, tenant or other person is interested, the Board may pay to any person so interested, whether a party to the agreement or not, such compensation (or other consideration in money), if any, as the Board consider equitable and consistent with the provisions of this subsection in respect of any damage or injury done to him in consequence of and directly attributable to the constitution of the new holdings, and it may be a term of any such agreement entered into by the Board with a landlord that section seventeen of this Act shall apply in respect of any such new holding as if the holding had been constituted otherwise than by agreement, and in that case the said section shall apply accordingly.

An Act relating to the Union of Benefices.

[23rd December 1919.]

BE it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

1. Whenever it shall appear to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners, whether on their own motion or any representation made to them, that inquiry ought to be made as to the desirability of uniting two or more benefices, or one or more benefice or benefices, and one or more sinecure or sinecures, being either in the same parish or neighbouring to each other, they may address a request to the Bishop of the diocese, in which that one of those benefices which has the largest population shall be situate, to cause a commission to be issued under his hand and seal addressed to the persons to be nominated as in the next section mentioned, authorising and requiring them to inquire and report to him whether such union may, with advantage to the interests of religion, be made, and to inquire into and report on all such matters in anywise affecting such union, or connected therewith, as they may deem necessary, and to recommend terms for effecting any union in favour of which they report, including the regulation of the course and succession in which the patrons (if there be more than one patron) shall present or nominate to the united benefice from time to time as the same shall become vacant. The Bishop shall thereupon issue the commission, and the commissioners shall thereupon make a local inquiry in the prescribed manner as to the matters referred to them.

Bishop on request of Ecclesiastical Commissioners to issue commission as to union of neighbouring benefices.

2.--(1) Of the commissioners one shall be nominated by the Bishop of the diocese in which the benefice or benefices, and sinecure or sinecures (if any) affected by the proposed inquiry are situate, or in case the benefices are situate in more than one diocese then jointly by the Bishops of those dioceses ; one shall be nominated by the patron or, if there shall be more than one patron, jointly by the patrons of the benefice or benefices and sinecure or sinecures affected ; one shall be nominated by the churchwardens (if any) of the benefice or benefices affected or by the major part of them ; and the remaining commissioner (who shall act as chairman and shall have a casting vote in addition to his vote as a commissioner) shall be nominated by the Ecclesiastical Commissioners.

Commission, how to be nominated.

(2) Provided that, if the Bishop of the diocese in which any benefice or sinecure affected by the proposed inquiry is situate shall also be the sole patron of that benefice or sinecure, the right of nomination by the Bishop in his capacity of patron shall be exercised by the patron or patrons of the other benefice or benefices affected.

Proviso.

(3) Provided also that, if the Bishop of the diocese in which each of the benefices or sinecures affected is situate shall be the sole patron of that benefice or sinecure, there shall be no commissioner nominated by the patrons.

(4) If for a period of thirty days after being requested in writing by the Bishop to nominate a commissioner the patron or patrons or the churchwardens or the major part of them shall refuse or neglect so to do, his or their right of nomination shall lapse, and the commission shall be issued and shall be valid for all purposes notwithstanding any such lapse.

Power to Lord Chancellor to make rules.

3. The Lord Chancellor, with the advice and assistance of the Ecclesiastical Commissioners, may make rules for prescribing anything which under this Act is to be prescribed and in particular for—

- (i) regulating the place and time of the sittings of the commissioners, and as to the quorum necessary ;
- (ii) the taking of evidence, and hearing by the commissioners of objections ;
- (iii) the notices (if any) to be given of their sittings to the incumbents, patrons, churchwardens or other persons interested, and the service of such notices ;
- (iv) the filling of vacancies in the number of commissioners, and the time within which the commissioners are to make their report ;
- (v) the payments (if any) to be made towards the costs and expenses incurred in the matter by any Bishop or by the Ecclesiastical Commissioners, or by the commissioners or the persons appearing before them ;
- (vi) the registration and inspection in the diocesan registries or elsewhere of Orders in Council made under this Act ;
- (vii) the fees to be paid to diocesan or other officials ; and
- (viii) generally as to all matters and things incidental to or connected with the holding of local inquiries, appeals to His Majesty in Council, and the publication or registration of draft schemes, schemes, or orders made under this Act.

Bishop to transmit report of commissioners to Ecclesiastical
Commissioners, who are to propose scheme.

4.—(a) The Bishop receiving a report under this Act shall cause the same, or a copy thereof, to be transmitted to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners, who shall, if the Commissioners making the report shall unanimously or by a majority of votes recommend a union, and if the Bishop of the diocese or the Bishops of the dioceses affected shall signify in writing his or their approval of the report, but not otherwise, cause to be prepared a scheme based upon the terms recommended for effecting the proposed union, which scheme may, with the assent of the Bishop of the diocese or the Bishops of the dioceses affected, embody any modification of the proposals.

(b) Drafts of such proposed scheme shall be published locally in the prescribed manner, and also be transmitted in the prescribed manner to the patron or patrons affected, together with a notice in each case requiring any objections to such draft scheme to be stated or transmitted in writing to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners within the prescribed time.

Draft scheme to be published locally.

Objections.

(c) After giving full consideration to such objections (if any), and after making such alterations (if any) in the draft scheme as, having regard to such objections, they shall deem right, and after submitting such alterations (if any) to the Bishop of the diocese or the Bishops of the dioceses affected, and obtaining his or their consent thereto in writing, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners (unless, after full consideration, they shall think it advisable to withdraw the scheme) shall certify the scheme, and the consent thereto in writing of the Bishop of the diocese or the Bishops of the dioceses affected, to His Majesty in Council.

Ecclesiastical Commissioners to certify final scheme to the King in Council.

5.—(1) After the scheme and consent shall have been certified as aforesaid public notice of such certification shall be given in the prescribed manner and within the prescribed time, and any person who has, in accordance with this Act, made objection to the draft scheme may appeal to His Majesty in Council against the scheme, or any part thereof.

Appeals to His Majesty in Council.

(2) If no appeal is so made within the period of one month after the date of the said public notice, it shall be lawful for His Majesty in Council to make and issue any order or orders for affirming the scheme, and for uniting the benefices and parishes proposed to be united to the extent and for the purposes recommended in the scheme.

(3) If any appeal is so made, His Majesty in Council may order and direct that such appeal shall be heard by the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council and the said Judicial Committee shall make report to His Majesty in Council thereupon and may propose to His Majesty in Council to affirm, vary, or dismiss the scheme certified by the Ecclesiastical Commissioners or to return the same to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for alteration or amendment and His Majesty may affirm, vary, or dismiss the scheme accordingly or return the same to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners to be reconsidered as to any parts thereof.

6. Every scheme under this Act for the union of any benefices shall recommend that the benefices proposed to be united shall become permanently united together and form one benefice with cure of souls, and either (a) that the parishes or places of which the benefices proposed to be united shall consist shall be united into one parish for ecclesiastical purposes and for such other purposes as in this Act provided, or (b) that such parishes or places shall continue distinct in all respects except as provided by this Act. Every such scheme, if the united benefice shall be in more than one diocese, shall determine to which diocese the united benefice shall belong.

Scheme to determine whether or not parishes shall remain distinct.

Parsonage house of united benefice.

7. Every scheme under this Act for the formation of an united benefice, if more than one parsonage house shall be left standing or remaining within or belonging to the united benefice, shall determine which house shall be the parsonage house of the united benefice, but, if only one parsonage house shall be left standing, such house shall be the parsonage house of the united benefice.

Parish church of united parish.

8. Every scheme under this Act for the formation of an united parish shall, if more than one church shall be left standing or remaining within the united parish, also determine which church shall be the parish church, but, if only one church shall be left standing, such church shall be the parish church of the united parish.

Union of Benefices Acts Amendment Act, 1871, to apply to church and churchyard of benefice united under this Act. 34 & 35 Vict. c. 90.

9. After completion of an union of benefices the Union of Benefices Acts Amendment Act, 1871, shall apply to the united benefice as regards any church within the united benefice not directed by the scheme to be pulled down, and the churchyard of any such church.

Scheme to define contingency on which union is to take effect and may contain provisions as to appointments of incumbents pending union.

10.—(1) In any scheme for union prepared under this Act the Ecclesiastical Commissioners shall define the event or contingency on the happening of which the union is to take effect, but not so as to postpone the union later than the date of the first avoidance of that one of the benefice or benefices, sinecure or sinecures, proposed to be united which shall last be avoided after the publication of the order or orders in the London Gazette relating to the same.

(2) The Ecclesiastical Commissioners may, if they think fit, insert in the scheme provisions requiring that in any case in which the benefice or benefices and sinecure or sinecures (if any) proposed to be united are not at the date of the registration of such order or orders all held by the same incumbent, then on any avoidance before the happening of the event, or contingency, the patron of the vacant benefice or sinecure shall be bound to present, or nominate, and the bishop shall be bound to admit and institute, or license to the vacant benefice or sinecure, the incumbent of the other, or one of the other benefices, sinecure or sinecures, proposed to be united.

Ecclesiastical Commissioners may decide doubtful questions of patronage.

11. If in any case it shall, in the opinion of the Ecclesiastical Commissioners, be doubtful what person or corporation is the patron for the purposes of this Act, it shall be lawful for the Ecclesiastical Commissioners to decide the question, and their decision shall be conclusive.

Supplemental schemes for uniting parishes of united benefices.

12.—(1) If after an union of benefices, whether made under this Act or not, it shall appear desirable to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners, whether on their own motion or on any representation made to them—

(a) that in the case of an united benefice, of which the parishes shall not have been united, those parishes, or any two of them, should be united for ecclesiastical purposes, and for such other purposes as in this Act provided; or

- (b) that in the case of an united benefice, of which the parishes shall have been united, some other church situate within the united benefice shall be substituted for the parish church of the united parish; or
- (c) that in the case of an united benefice, of which the parishes shall not have been united, some other church situate within any parish forming part of the united benefice shall be substituted for the parish church of that parish, they may request the Bishop of the diocese in which the united benefice shall be situate to cause a commission to be issued to commissioners to inquire into and report upon the desirability of those parishes being so united, or such substitution being made, as the case may be, and upon all matters arising from any union of parishes or substitution of a church which they may recommend.

(2) The Bishop shall thereupon issue the commission to commissioners appointed in like manner as commissioners nominated or appointed to inquire into and report upon a proposed union of benefices under this Act, and the same consequences, mutatis mutandis, as to the inquiry and report by such commissioners, the preparation, publication, and certification to His Majesty in Council of a scheme to give effect to the report, the issuing of an Order or Orders by His Majesty in Council, and the registration and validity thereof shall follow as in the case of commissioners having been appointed under this Act to inquire into and report upon a proposed union of benefices.

13.—(1) In administering the fund to be provided by the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for expenses under this Act, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners shall cause a separate account to be kept for each diocese, and all moneys received for or appropriated to the said fund shall be credited to the account of the diocese in which the benefice or sinecure from the property or revenues of which such moneys arise shall be situate, and the moneys so credited to the account of any diocese shall not be applicable to the payment of any expenses except expenses incurred or to be incurred in relation to proposals and schemes affecting benefices or sinecures in that diocese.

Administration of expenses fund.

(2) After providing and appropriating to the credit of any diocese a fund sufficient in their opinion to meet all expenses already incurred or to be incurred under this Act in relation to that diocese, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners shall, with the consent in writing of the Bishop, apply the surplus of the moneys so set apart for the benefit of any benefice or benefices in that diocese to whose benefit the Ecclesiastical Commissioners may with such consent think fit to apply the same.

(3) In case at any time, or from time to time, the moneys standing to the credit of a diocese under this section shall not be sufficient to pay the expenses incurred in relation to a proposal or scheme affecting a benefice or sinecure in that diocese, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners may, if they think fit, pay such expenses, or any part thereof, out of their common fund.

Bishop may give direction as to services in church not being parish church.

14. It shall be lawful for the Bishop from time to time to direct that services shall or shall not be held in any church in a benefice united under this Act or otherwise not being a parish church.

Bishop may require nomination of curate.

15. In any case in which the affirmed scheme shall recommend the appointment of a curate to assist in performing the duties of the united benefice, the Bishop shall have the like powers of requiring the nomination of and of appointing and licensing a curate, and of assigning a stipend to such curate as he would have under section thirteen of the Pluralities Act Amendment Act, 1885, in the cases therein mentioned, subject nevertheless to the like right of appeal as is provided under that section, but without regard to the annual value or population of the united benefice.

48 & 49 Vict.
c. 54.

Repeals.
1 & 2 Vict.
c. 106.

16. Sections sixteen to twenty (inclusive) of the Pluralities Act, 1838, are hereby repealed, but this repeal shall not affect any proposed union in respect of which a statement of facts or copy representation shall, before the passing of this Act, have been published pursuant to section sixteen of the Pluralities Act, 1838, nor any future union under the last-mentioned Act of any benefice or sinecure situate in the metropolis within the meaning of the Union of Benefices Act, 1860, with any benefice or sinecure situate outside the metropolis.

23 & 24 Vict.
c. 142.

Incorporation
of certain
enactments.

17. The sections of the Acts specified in the first column of the Schedule to this Act, of which the numbers and marginal notes are respectively set forth in the second and third column of that schedule, are hereby incorporated with and form part of this Act, and the said sections shall, so far as applicable, extend and apply to unions of benefices under this Act as fully and effectually as if such sections had been re-enacted subject to the modifications set out in the fourth column of that schedule.

Provided that a proportionate reduction of the grant shall be made in respect of any house which is not completed within the said period of twelve months unless the Minister is satisfied that the failure to complete the house within that period was due to circumstances over which the person constructing the house had no control.

Any person aggrieved by the refusal or neglect of a local authority to grant a certificate under this subsection in respect of any house may appeal to the Minister, and, if the Minister is satisfied that the house has been completed in a proper and workmanlike manner, he shall certify accordingly.

5.—(1) Where it appears to a local authority that the provision of dwelling accommodation for their area is or is likely to be delayed by a deficiency of labour or materials arising out of the employment of labour or material in the construction within their area of any works or buildings (other than works or buildings authorised or required by, under, or in pursuance of any Act of Parliament), and that the construction of those works or buildings is in the circumstances of the case of less public importance for the time being than the provision of dwelling accommodation, the authority may by order prohibit for such time and on such terms and subject to such conditions as the Minister may from time to time prescribe, and either in whole or in part, the construction of those works or buildings.

shall comply with any regulations made by the Electricity Commissioners as to the type of current, frequency, and pressure to be used; but such regulations shall be so framed as not to interfere with the economical and efficient working of the business for which the supply is generated:

CHAPTER 101.

An Act to make further provision with respect to the Government of India. [23rd December 1919.]

WHEREAS it is the declared policy of Parliament to provide for the increasing association of Indians in every branch of Indian administration, and for the gradual development of self-governing institutions, with a view to the progressive realisation of responsible government in British India as an integral part of the empire:

And whereas progress in giving effect to this policy can only be achieved by successive stages, and it is expedient that substantial steps in this direction should now be taken:

And whereas the time and manner of each advance can be determined only by Parliament, upon whom responsibility lies for the welfare and advancement of the Indian peoples:

And whereas the action of Parliament in such matters must be guided by the co-operation received from those on whom new opportunities of service will be conferred, and by the extent to which it is found that confidence can be reposed in their sense of responsibility:

And whereas concurrently with the gradual development of self-governing institutions in the Provinces of India it is expedient to give to those Provinces in provincial matters the largest measure of independence of the Government of India, which is compatible with the due discharge by the latter of its own responsibilities:

Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

PART I.

[23rd December 1919.]

BE it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

Rate of old age pension.

1. An old age pension under the Old Age Pensions Acts, 1908 and 1911, shall be at the rate set forth in the First Schedule to this Act instead of at the rate set forth in the Schedule to the Old Age Pensions Act, 1908 (in this Act referred to as "the Act of 1908").

8 Edw. 7. c. 40.

Amendment of statutory conditions as to means, nationality, and residence.

2.—(1) The following shall be substituted for paragraphs (2) and (3) of section two of the Act of 1908:—
" (2) The person must satisfy the pension authorities that for at least ten years up to the date of the receipt of any sum on account of a pension he has been a British subject.

“(3) The person must satisfy the pension authorities that his yearly means as calculated under this Act do not exceed forty-nine pounds seventeen shillings and sixpence.”

(2) Paragraph (1) of section three of the Old Age Pensions Act, 1911 (in this Act referred to as “the Act of 1911”), which modifies the statutory condition as to nationality as respects a woman married to an alien, shall have effect as though all the words from “and that” to the end of the paragraph were omitted therefrom. 1 & 2 Geo. 5.
c. 16.

(3) The following shall be substituted for the words in paragraph (2) of section three of the Act of 1911 from the beginning of the paragraph down to the word “this provision” :—

“It shall be a statutory condition for the receipt of an old age pension by any person, that the person must satisfy the pension authorities, if he is a natural-born British subject, that he has, since attaining the age of fifty years, had his residence in the United Kingdom for an aggregate period of not less than twelve years, and if he is not a natural-born British subject, that he has had his residence in the United Kingdom for an aggregate period of twenty years :

“Provided that for the purpose of computing residence in the United Kingdom under this provision—”

3.—(1) The following shall be substituted for paragraph (a) of subsection (1) of section three of the Act of 1908 :— Amendment as to disqualifications.

“(a) while he is an inmate of any workhouse or other poor-law institution :

Provided that a person who has become an inmate of any workhouse or other poor-law institution for the purpose of obtaining medical or surgical treatment shall not, during a period of three months from the date on which he becomes such an inmate if he so long continues to require such treatment, be disqualified on the ground only that he is such an inmate for receiving or continuing to receive an old age pension.”

(2) The provisions of paragraph (b) of subsection (1) of section three of the Act of 1908 (which disqualifies a person who has habitually failed to work according to his ability) shall cease to have effect.

(3) The provisions of subsection (2) of section three of the Act of 1908, as amended by subsection (2) of section four of the Act of 1911, so far as those provisions disqualify a person after the date on which he is released from prison, and subsection (3) of section four of the Act of 1911 (which imposes a disqualification on persons convicted of offences under the Inebriates Act, 1898), shall cease to have effect.

61 & 62 Vict.
c. 60.

Calculation of means.

4.—(1) Subsection (1) of section two of the Act of 1911 (which relates to the calculation of means) shall be amended as follows:—

(a) The yearly value of any such property as is mentioned in paragraph (a) of the said subsection (1) shall be calculated as follows, that is to say:—

(i) The first twenty-five pounds of the capital value of the said property shall be excluded; and

(ii) The yearly value of the next three hundred and seventy-five pounds of the capital value of the said property shall be taken to be one-twentieth part of the capital value; and

(iii) The yearly value of so much of the capital value of the said property as exceeds the sum of four hundred pounds shall be taken to be one-tenth part of the capital value:

(b) In calculating the income mentioned in paragraph (b) of the said subsection, no account shall be taken of any amounts received during a period of not more than three months in any year by a person or by the husband or wife of a person, as the case may be, under a medical certificate as sickness benefit from a friendly society or trade union, or under the National Insurance Act, 1911:

(c) No account shall be taken of the furniture and personal effects of a person whatever the value thereof may be:

(d) Where a husband is separated from his wife, any sum paid by him to her under a separation order shall be deducted in calculating his means.

(2) Subsection (2) of section two of the Act of 1911 shall have effect as if the following words were added at the end thereof: "and where either of the couple or the couple jointly is or are entitled to any property, each of them shall be deemed to be entitled to one half of that property."

Pension not to be taken into account for purposes of Debtors Act.

32 & 33 Vict. c. 62.

Date of commencement of pension or of increased rate
of pension.

5. Any sums received by any person by way of an old age pension shall not be included in calculating his means for the purpose of section five of the Debtors Act, 1869.

6.—(1) Where a pension is first allowed the pension shall commence to accrue, and where, by virtue of a decision on any question which has been raised, a pension becomes payable at an increased rate, the pension shall become payable at the increased rate on the first Friday after the date on which the claim for the pension is received by the pension officer or on which the notice of the question is received by the pension officer, as the case may be, or on the first Friday after the date on which the claimant or the pensioner first becomes entitled to the pension or on which the pension first becomes payable at the increased rate, whichever is the later, or, if the later of those two dates is a Friday, on that Friday.

(2) Where any general public holiday falls on a Friday, the Treasury may, if they think fit, direct that sums payable by way of old age pensions on that Friday shall be paid on some other day, whether earlier or later.

7. Regulations may be made under the Act of 1908 for enabling a local pension committee to appoint a person to exercise on behalf of any claimant or pensioner who is, by reason of any mental or other incapacity unable to act, any right to which that claimant or pensioner may be entitled under the Acts of 1908 and 1911, as amended by this Act, and to authorise any person so appointed to receive on behalf and for the benefit of the claimant or pensioner any sums payable by way of old age pension.

Provision for enabling claims to be made on behalf of persons suffering from mental or other incapacity.

8. If any person who is in receipt of an old age pension at the time of the commencement of this Act or whose claim to an old age pension has been provisionally allowed before that time, claims that the rate of his pension should be increased so as to be in accordance with the scale contained in the First Schedule to this Act, the claim shall, instead of being considered and determined in manner provided by section seven of the Act of 1908, be considered and determined by the pension officer :

Determination of claims by existing pensioners to have rate of pension increased.

Provided that, if the claimant is aggrieved by the decision of the pension officer, he may appeal against the decision to the local pension committee, who shall consider the case and give their decision thereon in the same manner as if the decision of the pension officer were the report of a pension officer on a claim referred to him for report and inquiry under the said section seven.

9.—(1) Where the means of any person who is in receipt of an old age pension at the time of the commencement of this Act would be greater if calculated in accordance with the provisions of the Acts of 1908 and 1911, as amended by this Act, than they would be if calculated in accordance with the provisions of those Acts as not so amended, the means of that person shall, for the purposes of the Acts of 1908 and 1911 and this Act, continue to be calculated as if this Act had not passed.

Saving for existing pensioners.

(2) The provisions of this Act modifying in respect of residence the statutory conditions for the receipt of an old age pension shall not operate so as to disentitle any person who is in receipt of an old age pension at the time of the commencement of this Act from continuing to receive the pension.

Short title,
commencement, and
repeal.

10.—(1) This Act may be cited as the Old Age Pensions Act, 1919, and shall be construed as one with the Old Age Pensions Acts, 1908 and 1911, and those Acts and this Act may be cited together as the Old Age Pensions Acts, 1908 to 1919.

(2) This Act shall come into operation on the second day of January, nineteen hundred and twenty.

(3) The enactments mentioned in the Second Schedule to this Act are hereby repealed to the extent specified in the third column of that schedule.
