

The annual visual celebration of Africa
 #celebrateAfrica! #celebrate[country]

2020

ENTRIES ACCEPTED BETWEEN 15TH FEBRUARY AND 31ST MARCH 2020

The Wiki Loves Africa annual photographic prize visually celebrates Africa's diversity, richness and complexity. Enter your images or media that depict the theme of Africa on the Move, join an event and possibly win local or international prizes.

International prizes include:

- 1st prize: US$1000
- 2nd prize: US$800
- 3rd prize: US$500

Additional categories:

- Culturally specific or traditional representations of transport or structures that facilitate transportation : US$500
- Prize for best quality video: $500
- Each winner will also receive a pack of goodies

WIN [Country] PRIZES: [delete section if not needed]

- 1st prize: [enter prize]
- 2nd prize: [enter prize]
- 3rd prize: [enter prize]

We are looking for photographs ! audio ! videos ! that represent Africa on the Move!

This theme encourages entries that visualise movement, migration or transportation, whether local or regional, by path, road, sea, or air, self-propelled or by animal, natural or mechanical means. Entries could also capture the historical or contemporary structures that have been created to facilitate movement or the transportation of people, goods, or animals.

Look out for special Wiki Loves Africa events happening near you!!

ENTER YOUR PHOTOS: bit.ly/EnterWLA2020

www.wikilovesafrica.net

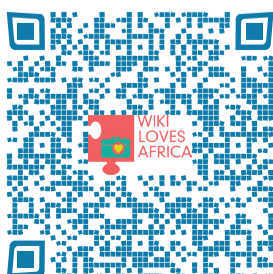

[insert handle]

[insert page]

[insert page]

[PLACE LOGOS HERE]

1. 3 Ghanaian young men play Tumatu by Amuzujoe (WMCommons,CC-BY-SA 4.0); 2. OR Tambo International Airport Gautrain station; June 2010 by Aileen Carrigan (Flickr, CC BY-NC 2.0); 3. Way back From the Farm by Jamiyu019 (WMCommons, CC-BY-SA 4.0); 4. Tropic of Capricorn, Namibia by Luke Price (flickr, CC-BY 2.0); 5. Horse Man (2013 07 Aii- 00341) by Alimdaihl (WMCommons, CC-BY-SA 4.0)