WORLD'S FLEET WILL REQUIRE
MUCH FOOD

SAN DIEGO, Jan. 26.—Thousands of tons of food supplies will be purchased at this port and at San Francisco by the United States government to care for the great fleet of war vessels which will come through the Panama canal in March to bring President Wilson and his party to the two California expositions. At first it was planned to have auxiliaries carry all supplies for the entire voyage, but now Joseph J. Cheatham, pay inspector of the Atlantic fleet, is busy making arrangements for the distribution of supplies at San Diego and San Francisco. These arrangements are being made both for American and foreign war vessels.

Among the foodstuff to be purchased will be 352,000 pounds of fresh beef, 32,000 pounds of mutton, 32,000 pounds of fowls, 45,000 pounds of frankfurters, 20,000 dozen eggs, 600,000 pounds of potatoes, 72,000 pounds of pork and veal, 42,000 pounds of pork sausage and 20,000 pounds of bologna sausage, 1000 pounds of yeast and 60,000 pounds of onions in addition to a large quantity of fresh vegetables and fruits.

More than sixty warships and auxiliaries will anchor in San Diego bay when the great armada reaches this port. Honor positions in man-of-war row in the harbor will be given to the dreadnaught New York, which will carry President Wilson, the dreadnaught Texas, on which will be Secretary of the Navy Daniels; the famous battleship Oregon, under the command of Rear Admiral Clarke, which will lead the procession of war vessels through the canal; the dreadnaught Wyoming, Rear Admiral Fletcher's flagship, and the flagships of the different foreign powers. The other war dogs will be anchored in the harbor in order of importance.

After a two-day visit at the exposition here, the fleet will sail for San Francisco. Off San Pedro, the harbor for Los Angeles, eight warships will be detached to escort the president and the New York to that port, while the remainder of the fleet will proceed northward to the Golden Gate. The president will stop a day in Los Angeles.

COLUMBUS P. T. A.

The Parent-Teacher association of the Columbus avenue school will meet Thursday afternoon at the schoolhouse at 3:15. Mrs. E. W. Hitchcock will render a vocal solo, accompanied by Mrs. W. D. MacRae. Dr. E. H. Thompson of Burbank will be the speaker of the afternoon, his subject being "Some Aspects of the Physical Care of Children." Two of the mothers assisted by some of the older girls of the school will care for the babies and smaller children in another room.

Mrs. F. H. Johnson of 1507 West Fifth street has just returned from a month's visit to relatives near Zelzah, California.

ROAD RACE NOTES

ABOUT THE COURSE—DRIVERS
AND DANGERS—OTHER
NOTES OF INTEREST

The one rough section on the course is Glendale avenue, between Colorado boulevard and Second street. The old oil paving has become full of mud holes and is exceedingly rough where rails were relaid in widening the gauge of the Glendale and Montrose railway. However, these little kinks will be straightened out by Saturday and the speed boys will be able to get everything out of their machines possible.

Glendale's wide streets will serve to a good purpose in Saturday's race for they will permit broad, sweeping turns which are impossible on most race courses, especially those which go through the heart of town. Second street, the narrowest on the route, is made perfectly safe from side-swipe collisions as both Glendale avenue and Brand boulevard will allow easy and safe turns.

One of the dangers to be guarded against in the Elks' speedfest will be to carefully watch the Pacific Electric cars which will cross the Second street crossing on Brand boulevard. The trolley cars will not be in the way of the drivers except at this one point, but care will eliminate any possibility of a smash-up.

The drivers in the Glendale race will not have to worry as to oil service stations or garages for repairs. There are a half dozen of the former and four of the latter along the two-mile course.

Glendale avenue and Brand boulevard, the two long straight-aways on the Elks' race-course will likely be literally burnt up Saturday during the 100-mile classic which will establish Glendale in the racing world.

So far, no "jitney" busses have entered the Glendale race. Looks as though Henry Ford is too busy discussing economics down at Washington to enter one of his horseless carriages in the Glendale merry-go-round.

Glendale will be the Mecca of twenty-five thousand auto enthusiasts Saturday if the dream of the Elks comes true—and it undoubtedly will.

While Glendale residents sit and look on with awe and admiration at the preparations which are being made to place Glendale on the road racing map, we must not forget to do our share of boosting for the local burden of Elks has taken an immense lurch in fostering and working out a race in the short space of two weeks' time.

Ruswender Bros., proprietors of a West Seventh street garage, have entered a 90 H. P. Isotta Fraschini racing car with Harry Reynolds as driver in the Glendale race. After Driver Reynolds drove around the course he stated that fast time should be made.

DO IT NOW

If with pleasure you are viewing any work a man is doing,

If you like him or you love him tell him now;

Don't withhold your approbation till the parson makes oration,

As he lies with snowy lilies o'er his brow;

For, no matter how you shout it, he won't really care about it;

He won't know how many 'tear-drops you have shed;

If you think some praise is due him now's the time to slip it to him

For he cannot read his tombstone when he's dead!

More than fame and more than money is the comment kind and sunny

And the hearty, warm approval of a friend,

For it gives to life a savor, and it makes you stronger, braver,

And it gives you heart and spirit to the end;

If he earns your praise—bestow it; if you like him, let him know it.

Let the words of true encouragement be said,

Do not wait till life is over and he's underneath the clover,

For he cannot read his tombstone when he's dead.

TRUSTEES' MEETING

CITY FATHERS MEET IN REGU-LAR SESSION AND TRANSACT
CUSTOMARY BUSINESS

The regular meeting of the board of trustees of the city of Glendale was held Monday evening, January 25th, 1915. Present: O. A. Lane, president of the board, and Trustees Charles Grist, J. S. Thompson, A. W. Tower and George Williams. Also present: T. W. Watson, city manager; J. C. Sherer, city clerk; W. E. Evans, city attorney; H. B. Lynch, manager of the public service department; Edw. M. Lynch, city engineer; G. B. Hoffman, city treasurer, and G. H. Herald, city marshal.

Minutes of the previous meeting were read by the clerk and approved.

A communication was read from J. W. Pearson in regard to the insurance of city employees. The communication was ordered placed on file.

A communication was read from City Marshal Herald in which he stated that M. E. Case, night man at the P. E. depot, had made the request that he be allowed the privilege of carrying a revolver to and from his office. Referred to the committee on public safety with the suggestion that Mr. Case be appointed as special policeman.

F. C. Boynton made application to install a gasoline station on the southwest corner of Broadway and Louise street. Placed on file.

The resignation of Mrs. Mattison B. Jones and Mr. P. W. Parker as members of the park commission was received and accepted. Mr. Stephen Packer and Mr. F. P. Wilson were appointed to fill the vacancies.

At the request of the Elks' Patrol the city manager was instructed to communicate with the Pacific Electric officials in regard to regulating the street car traffic between Sixth and Second streets on the day of the automobile races from 1:15 to 4:30 p. m. On motion of Trustee Tower, the use of the city band was donated to furnish music for the races Saturday.

A petition from a majority of the property owners along Colorado boulevard was received asking permission to plant ornamental trees and shrubbery in the parkways along the said street between Adams street and Verdugo road. Petition tabled for one week.

H. B. Lynch, superintendent of the public service department, read a very exhaustive report of the workings of his department. The report contained receipts and expenditures of the lighting department for the six months ending December 31st, 1914, and showed a net profit to the city of $3296.63.

The report of the water department contained receipts and expenditures for the three months ending Dec. 31, 1914, and showed a net profit to the city of $1869.74. The full report in detail will be published in Wednesday's issue of The News.

City Engineer Edw. M. Lynch presented a resolution for the adopting of a map of Sycamore avenue. The resolution was adopted. He presented a resolution for the improvement of a portion of Sycamore avenue. This resolution was also adopted. The city engineer called the attention of the board of trustees to the magnitude of the bridge work being done on Opechee way and reminded them that it would be well worth their while to visit that site while the work is going on. He called attention to the great flow of water the contractors are having difficulty with, it being almost impossible for them to exhaust the supply, which is more than two hundred inches.

W. A. Brown and E. H. Tatum of Casa Verdugo appeared before the board with a report relative to the annexation to Glendale of a portion of Casa Verdugo or North Glendale territory. These gentlemen are enthusiastically in favor of the territory in which they reside becoming a part of Glendale, and they asked that the city trustees take steps to give them a chance to vote on the question of annexation. City Manager T. W. Watson spoke on the annexation subject, thinking that it would not be best to hold an election for at least sixty days. On motion, the request of Messrs Brown and Tatum was referred to the city manager and the chairman of the board of trustees.

The demands were read and on motion the city treasurer was requested to draw up warrants for the payment of the same.

The board adjourned to meet in a committee of the whole.

Mrs. Eva Booth Allway from El Paso, Texas, is expected to arrive today for a visit with her friends, Mrs. Mary W. Edwards and Miss Helen Beatrice Cooper of 1411 West Colorado boulevard.

INSPECTOR HALTS WORK

CORONA OFFICIAL PROHIBITS
ERECTION OF TABERNACLE
—ORDINANCE AMENDED

In view of the fact that the big tabernacle for the Brown and Curry meetings in Glendale will soon be in course of erection, the following item from the Corona Independent may be of interest and also of value to those who will be in charge of that work. The Independent says:

There was something doing this morning around the corner of Eighth and Main streets when a small army of workmen representing the various churches of the city assembled to begin the erection of the tabernacle which is to be used to house the union gospel meetings next month.

Men, old and young, from all sections of the city, bringing with them hammers and saws, were ready for work when City Building Inspector Cecil Randall stepped to the front and prohibited the erection of the building on the grounds that it was in violation of the city's building and fire ordinance.

Led by Dr. J. F. Humphrey, pastor of the First Methodist church, and several of the influential citizens, the members of the city board of trustees were assembled at the city hall in an extraordinary extra session to pass on the difficulty. The meeting which ensued was enlivened by several spirited speeches and resulted in the passing of an amendment to the ordinance under which the tabernacle could be built.

The old building ordinance required that an eight-inch concrete foundation 24 inches in height be set in for all buildings which covered 1000 feet of superficial area. No such elaborate plans had been made for the construction of the building and until the ordinance was passed by the board of trustees, the work was halted.

No sooner had the trustees given permission than the army of men hurried across the street to the vacant lot and within a few minutes there was more activity on the lot than ever before in the city's history. The result of the day's work was surprising. The bosses were few and far between and everyone on the lot lent a willing hand to assist in the temporary house of worship.

The building is to be 90x120 feet in dimensions and will seat 1000 people. It is expected that the finishing touches will be put on the structure by tomorrow night.

ACCIDENTAL DEATH

Word has been received in Glendale of the accidental death of Daniel Mackay, a millionaire farmer of Carroll county, Illinois, a cousin of Dr. Jessie A. Russell of this city. Mr. Mackay was found lying in the road with the top of his head blown off. He had been hunting and it is supposed that he slipped on the icy road and fell, discharging his gun.

When found, the body was lying under a pile of snow which had fallen during the afternoon, indicating that the accident occurred several hours before the body was discovered.

Friends scout the suicide theory and point to the preparations Mr. Mackay had made to go to the aid of his brother, who is ill in South Dakota.

Financial difficulties could not have been a cause for suicide, friends say, as Mr. Mackay had holdings estimated to be worth at least a million dollars.

DRESS UP FOR COMPANY

There is no doubt that Glendale will entertain the largest crowd in her history next Saturday. The promoters of the road race are doing their share to bring the people to Glendale and it is up to the rest of us to make a good impression. In the few days that remain before the race much can be done in the way of cleaning and brightening things up. Let us be spick and span to receive our guests next Saturday, as well as generous in the matter of decorations.

INFORMAL DANCING PARTY

Miss George Duffet of 1008 Chestnut street entertained a number of friends with an informal dancing party on Saturday evening. The house was very tastefully decorated with violets and ferns and light refreshments were served during the evening. Guests were the Misses Edith Young, Lillian Young, Alice Conroy, Helen Robinson, Phoebe Armstrong, George Duffet, and Mrs. Gus Pulliam, the Messrs. Owen Emery, Billy Schroeder, Glen Stone, Dr. Ray Stone, Gus Pulliam, Harold Branch and John Kranz.

CURRY HERE

C. P. Curry, who will be associated with Mr. Brown as musical director in the special union revival services to be held in the big tabernacle in Glendale, was here Monday getting acquainted with our people and looking up material for the large chorus choir that will assist in furnishing music during the meetings. Much enthusiasm is being shown for the coming meetings.

Mrs. Sarah H. Woodbury passed away in Glendale Jan. 23 at the home of her best friend, Mrs. Grace Rottner. Mrs. Woodbury was the widow of Joseph Perkins Woodbury, who was one of the pioneer railroad men of the country, having helped in the completion and equipment and organization of the Panama railway in the early days. Both Mrs. Woodbury and her husband were at Panama for years after the road became operative. Mrs. Woodbury often taking a handcar from one end of the road and helping her husband pay off the different crews. She would have one or two chests of gold and silver placed on the handcar and with a guard of four huge Jamaica negroes, would take the coin across the sixty miles of jungle and mountains, paying off the crews as they progressed, meeting her husband, who would pay off from the other end, and in all the money handled by these two, never a loss or discrepancy occurred, which was marvelous, considering the times (late 50's and early 60's).

Mrs. Woodbury came from a long line of prominent New England families, being the daughter of Major-General Frederick W. Hopkins, a prominent figure of the war with Mexico, afterwards adjutant-general of Vermont. Mrs. Woodbury was a very gentle, sweet old lady, ever generous, ready at all times to give what she had to those who needed, and she will be mourned alike by her many friends and two sons whom she leaves. She had just passed her seventy-eighth birthday last November, and while crippled and helpless for years, as the result of an early railway accident, she was hopeful and cheerful for the future. A hard cold which developed into pneumonia was too severe for her and she passed away sweetly and peacefully to her long needed rest, amidst faithful and loving friends.

"MARTA OF THE LOWLANDS"
PLEASES LARGE AUDIENCE

The new Palace Grand theater was filled with the lovers of the movie beautiful Monday evening and enjoyed seeing "Marta of the Lowlands," the character part being splendidly portrayed by Mme. Bertha Kalich.

In "Marta of the Lowlands" Mme. Kalich's supreme dramatic triumph, that gifted emotional actress portrays a role that will live forever as one of the greatest demonstrations of pantomimic art ever recorded on the screen. There is something stately, austere, terribly beautiful about her attitude throughout the role. The play was written by Angel Guimera, the distinguished Spanish author, and, besides its powerful dramatic qualities, is full of the poetry and color which permeate the emotions and the very existence of mountain people.

Marta is a beggar child, who is adopted by Sebastian, the wealthy land owner. Sebastian makes Marta his victim. He wishes to marry a wealthy woman, but at the same time retain his influence over Marta. He therefore arranges through Tomas, the hermit, to marry her to Manelich, a simple, untutored shepherd living in the mountains—a rough child of nature who kills wolves with his bare hands and knows naught of guile and deceit. The wedding is consummated, Manelich being under the impression that Marta loves him, and being truly in love with her. Later he learns that he has been tricked, while Marta, who had at first believed that Manelich had been bought with the master's gold to become her husband, finds her conclusion wrong, the honesty of his love compelling her own. Then come developments which make the drama one of the most passionate, intense, trenchant character studies ever created.

Mme. Kalich makes Marta a patient sufferer, a tragic figure indeed, as she bravely endures all the cruelty and indignities that are thrust upon her by the ruthless "master." We witness the poignancy of her grief, the restraint and the anguish of the oppressed woman; we watch her movements among the treacherous characters of her environment, and throughout it all we are overwhelmed by the power of the artist and the appeal of the woman.

The play is mounted down to the smallest detail with such illusion of reality as to be life itself.

The same program will be presented this evening and undoubtedly the popular playhouse will be crowded to its capacity, for rarely is such an exceptional picture seen.

Mrs. W. H. Baldwin of Escondido is a guest today of Mrs. Colin Cable, 755 Columbus avenue.

OLDFIELD COMING

MASTER DRIVER TO START CARS
IN GLENDALE'S BIG ROAD RACE

Things are getting shaped up in nice style for the Glendale road race on Saturday of this week. Already flags and bunting outline the course as well as other principal streets of the city, and many of the business houses have begun to decorate in honor of the coming event. Everyone is catching the Elks' enthusiasm and doing all in their power to push and boost for the races. Entries are being made rapidly.

Interest in the race was increased last evening when it was announced that the three Duesenberg cars that competed in the San Diego races would be entered. Tom Alley, who is to drive No. 2, signed his entry blank in the Tribune office last evening. The other Duesenberg drivers will be Ed O'Donnell, No. 19, and Jack Callaghan, No. 10. Other drivers and cars now on the list are: A. A. Cadwell, Marmon; George Hill, Chevrolet; Gaston Morris, Renault; Wilbur D. Alene, Marmon; Huntley Gordon, Gordon Special; Harry Reynolds, Isotta. Several other fast cars and daring drivers are expected.

Barney Oldfield as starter will be one of the attractions of the race. George Adair will be the referee and Standish L. Mitchell representative of the A. A. A.

V. E. McDermott of the Puente Oil company will be clerk of the course. The judges are: O. B. Henderson, vice-president of the Pacific Kessel-Kar company; Frank Carroll, manager of the Goodrich Tire and Rubber company's branch; Eddie Lingenfelter, manager of the Goodyear Tire and Rubber company branch; K. E. Ahlberg, president of the Ahlberg Bearing company, and O. R. Fuller of the Pioneer Commercial Auto company.

The technical committee is composed of A. G. Faulkner of the Carlton-Faulkner-Bowles company; W. E. Bush, the Pierce-Arrow agent, and Guy West of the Western Rubber and Supply company. The timing will be in charge of F. H. Pendleton.

An amateur event of forty miles will be run as a preliminary to the regular race. Oldfield will send the first cars away from the starting point at Brand and Colorado boulevard at 2 o'clock.

DRIED PEELINGS

The drying of lemon and orange peels has been investigated by the people about Redlands. It is found that America imports about ten carloads of dried peelings every year; that 100 pounds of fresh fruit will produce about ten pounds of dried orange or lemon peel; but the work has to be done by hand, so that the expense of the California product laid down in the East is about 12 1/2 cents or nearly twice what it costs to import the same product.

We Specify the Stock

We welcome competition in quality and service and we are not afraid of any good printer's competition in price.

There can be no competition in the matter of stock if all printers would specify the stock in weight, basic size and trade name as we do. There's a difference.

Did You Know that Leavel-Premium Life-Insurance In Most Companies Is Just As Mutual As In Any Lodge or Association?

The principal difference is that the former is absolutely reliable and safe, while the latter may or may not be. It is the height of folly for a man to shirk the responsibility of youth and young manhood by carrying only temporary protection for his family and himself, thus shifting to the declining years of his life a burden which that period is usually least able to bear. The height of wisdom and of good business is to let youth and middle-age make provision for old age in insurance protection, as well as in property, by the paying of higher premiums in the younger years, to relieve the load when the cost of temporary insurance gets very high.

There is a Life Ins. Co. which has come nearer to observing the Golden Rule than any institution of its kind which was ever organized, to my knowledge. It has done this on such scientific principles that it maintains the same rates which were adopted fifty years ago, on most policies, and still has the lowest participating rates of any old-line company in existence. It has returned and holds in trust for its policy holders $117 for every $100 it has ever received from them.

Wouldn't you like to belong to such a company of men and women as this? If you have the requisite health and good family history, you may. If you haven't, you will be barred. Women are insured at same rates as men. Better talk it over with me.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

Mrs. C. E. Hall of Myrtle street is giving a delightful little party this afternoon in honor of the second birthday of her little daughter, Jessie Louise Hall. The decorations are all in pink and white and are very pretty indeed. The table is especially attractive with pink floral centerpiece and tiny baskets of pink flowers at each place, and the great pink and white birthday cake with the kewpie in the center is wonderfully beautiful to childish eyes. There will be fifteen little guests, as follows: Jessie Louise Hall, Stanley Lauries, Dorothy McCaskey, Dorothy Houston, Elizabeth Houston, Violet Landman, Billy Harrison, Happy Landman, Sonny Harrison, Ethel Edwards, George Herald, Frank Herald and Eugene Fratella, all of Glendale, and Anette Brimbaum and Junior Benedict of Los Angeles.

The regular meeting of Chapter L, P. E. O., will be held at the home of Mrs. A. W. Tower, 133 South Jackson street, on Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 instead of with Mrs. Bott.

SPURIOUS COINS IN CIRCULATION

It is understood that a government inspector was in Glendale investigating the number of counterfeit five-cent pieces—those which have the buffalo and Indian head on them. He said a Japanese had been found in Los Angeles with 20,000 of them. It is understood there is only one good buffalo nickel in every four in circulation. The imitation can easily be detected because the impressions on the surface are not smooth like the minted coin.

UNION PRAYER MEETINGS

A series of union prayer meetings have been arranged for Wednesday evening of this week at 7:45 o'clock. Meetings will be held as follows: First Presbyterian church, Broadway and Cedar; Central Christian, Sixth and Louise; First Methodist, Tropico, Central and Palmer; Casa Verdugo Methodist, Casa Verdugo; West Glendale Methodist, Pacific and Fifth; First Congregational, Central and Third.

It is suggested that regardless of church relation that the people attend the meeting nearest to them. It is the desire of the committee in charge that these meetings be as far as possible neighborhood affairs.

As many of the church people are going to Long Beach to attend the Brown and Curry meetings, it is urged that those who do not go to Long Beach attend one of the above meetings.

Competent leaders from among the laymen will lead the meetings.
