vent the spread of infestation of the pink bollworm (Pectinophora gossypiella Saunders), a dangerous insect new to and not heretofore widely prevalent or distributed within and throughout the United States.

Now, therefore, under the authority of section 8 of the Plant Quarantine Act of August 20, 1912 (37 Stat. 315), as amended, I do quarantine the said States of Arizona, New Mexico, and Texas, and do order that (1) cotton, wild cotton, including all parts of either cotton or wild cotton plants, seed cotton, cotton lint, linters, and all other forms of unmanufactured cotton fiber, gin waste, cottonseed, cottonseed hulls, cottonseed cake, and meal; (2) bagging and other containers and wrappers of cotton and cotton products; (3) railway cars, boats, and other vehicles which have been used in conveying cotton or cotton products or which are fouled with such products; (4) farm products, farm household goods, farm equipment, and, if contaminated with cotton, any other articles, shall not be shipped, offered for shipment to a common carrier, received for transportation or transported by a common carrier, or carried, transported, moved, or allowed to be moved from the States of Arizona, New Mexico, or Texas into or through any other State or Territory or District of the United States in manner or method or under conditions other than those prescribed in the regulations supplemental hereto: Provided, That the restrictions of this quarantine and of the regulations supplemental hereto may be limited to such areas, now or which may be hereafter designated by the Secretary of Agriculture as regulated areas, in the quarantined States, as, in his judgment, shall be adequate to prevent the spread of the said pest. Any such limitation shall be conditioned, however, upon the affected State or States providing for and enforcing the control of the intrastate movement of the restricted articles under the conditions which apply to their interstate movement under existing provisions of the Federal quarantine regulations, and upon their enforcing such control and sanitation measures with respect to such areas or portions thereof as in the judgment of the Secretary of Agriculture, shall be deemed adequate to prevent the intrastate spread therefrom of the said insect infestation: Provided further, That whenever, in any year, the Chief of the Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine shall find that facts exist as to the pest risk involved in the movement of one or more of the articles to which the regulations supplemental hereto apply, making it safe to modify, by making less stringent, the restrictions contained in any such regulations, he shall set forth and publish such finding in administrative instructions, specifying the manner in which the applicable regulation shall be made less stringent, whereupon such modification shall become effective, for such period and for such regulated area or portion thereof as shall be specified in said administrative instructions, and every reasonable effort shall be made to give publicity to such administrative instructions throughout the affected areas.¹

Done at the city of Washington this 7th day of March, 1939.

Witness my hand and the seal of the United States Department of Agriculture.

TITLE 10—ARMY
WAR DEPARTMENT

CHAPTER IV—MILITARY EDUCATION

PART 41—CITIZENS' MILITARY TRAINING CAMPS¹ *†

SEC. 41.01 Definition of terms "applicants" and "trainees." The term "applicants" as used in these regulations has reference to the individuals from the time their applications are submitted to their actual enrollment at Citizens' Military Training Camps, and the term "trainees," after their actual enrollment.

SEC. 41.02 Camps, general. (a) The number, type, location, and dates of camps will be determined annually by the corps area commander in accordance with existing conditions and War Department instructions, preference being given, with due regard for economy in transportation, to camps and stations at which suitable facilities exist and at which Regular Army troops are habitually stationed.

(b) Camps will ordinarily be conducted for a period of 30 days during the summer months. Camps will not open on Saturday or Sunday.

(c) State and county quotas will be based on population.

SEC. 41.03 Attendance areas. (a) In general, applicants will attend a camp located in the corps area in which they are stationed or in which they reside.

(b) In cases in which a saving in mileage can be effected, or in which applicants are willing to bear personally the extra expense of attending camps outside of the corps areas in which they reside, applicants may be permitted, by mutual agreement between the corps area commanders concerned, to attend camps in corps areas other than those in which their permanent residences or stations are located.

(c) All applicants will ordinarily attend the nearest camp, except as provided in paragraphs (b) above and (d) below.

(d) In assigning applicants to arms, consideration will be given to economy in transportation, to the needs of the Organized Reserves in a particular area, and to the desires of the applicants. The corps area commander is responsible for proper assignment, and the desires of the applicant will not be the final consideration in making assignments.

(e) When an applicant for the Red Course elects to pursue training in an arm which would result in his being sent to a camp more distant than the one to which he would ordinarily be assigned, and the corps area commander approves the assignment, he will be informed that he will be required to pay the additional transportation not only for the Red Course but also for the White and Blue Courses.

SEC. 41.04 Applications. (a) Applications for enrollment will be submitted on forms provided for that purpose.

(b) Trainees should continue training in the same arm in which previously trained. Trainees recommended for White and Blue Courses who are assigned to an arm other than the one in which they have previously trained should be required to retake the Red or White Course, respectively, in their new arm.

SEC. 41.05 Physical requirements and examinations. (a) Each applicant for a course in a Citizens' Military Training Camp will be required to undergo a preliminary physical examination by a physician, the results of which must be recorded on the application blank before it is submitted.

(b) The preliminary physical examination may be had, free of charge, by applying in person to the nearest station where a medical officer of the Regular Army is on duty.

(c) The corps area commander will furnish information regarding other places at which such preliminary physical examinations may be obtained without charge.

(d) In the event that a civilian applicant does not desire to avail himself of this privilege, he may, at his own expense, be examined by any physician but preferably by one who has had military experience.

(e) (1) The corps area commander may waive the preliminary physical examination required for applicants for the Red, White, and Blue Courses who were found physically qualified for those courses at a final examination during attendance at a previous Citizens' Military Training Camp.

(2) In case of such a waiver, the corps area commander should require a certificate from the applicant that he is physically fit to undergo the training of the course applied for and has not suffered any recent illness or injury.

(3) In case of doubt as to physical fitness, the corps area commander should require a preliminary physical examination.

(f) After arrival at camp, all applicants will be given a thorough physical examination in addition to the inspection required in paragraph (c), section 41.07. The results of the examination will be recorded on W. D., A. G. O. Form No. 122-1 (Medical Record, Citizens' Military Training Camp). All existing defects and disabilities will be recorded, and applicants found physically disqualified will be rejected for training. Reports of physical examination will be filed as permanent records as directed by the corps area commander.

(g) Physical standards. (1) For admission to the Basic and Red Courses the physical standards will be, in general, those prescribed for enlistment in the Regular Army, except that visual requirements and the tables of height, weight, and chest measurement may be modified to conform to the following:

(i) If glasses are not habitually worn, vision must be at least 20/40 in one eye and not less than 20/100 in the other; vision of 20/100 in both eyes without glasses is acceptable, provided one eye is corrected to 20/40 with glasses habitually worn.

(ii) No applicant who has a chest mobility of less than 2 inches will be accepted.

(iii) No applicant who weighs less than 108 pounds or is less than 60 inches in height will be accepted. Applicants 62 inches or over in height must weigh at least 110 pounds. In all cases reasonable weight for height and age will be required. As a general guide to determine a reasonable weight for height for these applicants, add one pound to the minimum weight at 62 inches for each additional inch from 63 to 67, inclusive, and three pounds for each inch above 67; provided that the foregoing weight and height requirements may be waived in the case of applicants who have successfully completed one or more camps.

(2) For admission to the White Course the physical standards will be, in general, those prescribed for enlistment in the Regular Army, except that visual requirements will be the same as those prescribed for Basic and Red Courses in subparagraph (1) (i) above.

(3) For admission to the Blue Course the physical standards will be those prescribed for commission in the Officers' Reserve Corps.

¹These regulations supersede Part 41, Title 10, of the Code of Federal Regulations.

*Sections 41.01 to 41.40 issued under the authority contained in 41 Stat. 779; 45 Stat. 251; 10 U. S. C. 442.

†The source of sections 41.01 to 41.40 is AR 350-2200, December 15, 1938.

(4) For standards and exceptions referred to in subparagraphs (1), (2), and (3) above, see AR 40-105.²

(h) Except as authorized in paragraph (i) below, all applicants will be required to be vaccinated against typhoid fever and smallpox before being enrolled at camp. Details regarding this vaccination are given on the application blank.

(i) The corps area commander is authorized to waive the requirement in paragraph (h) above in exceptional cases, but in all cases in which the vaccination is not completed prior to arrival at camp it will be completed as soon as practicable after arrival.

SEC. 41.06 Advance preparation of applicants. (a) Applicants for the White Course or the Blue Course should be informed that because of the short duration of the camps it is impossible to give theoretical or textbook instruction in all subjects required for qualification as a specialist, a noncommissioned officer, or a commissioned officer. Mere attendance at the White Course is not sufficient to obtain a recommendation to the effect that a trainee is qualified for service as a noncommissioned officer or specialist or that he is qualified for the Blue Course; similarly, attendance of one month at the Blue Course does not necessarily qualify a trainee for recommendation for appointment as a second lieutenant in the Officers' Reserve Corps or to a recommendation for an enlistment. Recommendations will depend on the merit of the trainee and the progress made by him during the course. The above information will be given at camps to prospective graduates of the Red and White Courses. Trainee should be advised to study in preparation for the White and Blue Courses. Training publications used at camps may be issued to Red and White Course graduates covering the subjects they are advised to study.

(b) Applicants for the White or the Blue Course from the Regular Army, National Guard, or the Enlisted Reserve Corps should be given opportunity to prepare themselves for the courses, and such assistance as may be practicable should be given them by their commanding officers.

SEC. 41.07 Receiving applicants. (a) The commanding officers of camps will have detailed arrangements perfected in advance for receiving, messing, examining, equipping, and assigning applicants authorized to attend the camp.

(b) If the camp is located at a distance from railway stations, applicants will be transported to camp.

(c) Immediately upon arrival at camp all applicants will be inspected by a medical officer, with a view of detecting incipient cases of communicable diseases.

²Administrative regulations of the War Department relative to Standards of physical examination for entrance into the Regular Army, National Guard, and Organized Reserves.

This inspection will be conducted with the applicant stripped to the waist.

(d) Applicants who are definitely rejected for any cause at the opening of camps may be retained, messed, and quartered at Government expense for a period not to exceed twenty-four hours after their rejection.

SEC. 41.08 Classification. The camps will be conducted in a series of four courses, known as the Basic Course, the Red Course, the White Course, and the Blue Course. No obligation for further military service is attached to any course.

SEC. 41.09 Information for trainees relative to Officers' Reserve Corps. (a) The corps area commander will require that explanation be made annually to all trainees concerning the components of the Army of the United States and the National Guard, and the opportunity each presents for important personal service in National defense. He will further require that they be informed relative to the requirements for a commission in the Officers' Reserve Corps as prescribed in section 41.25, and that those who have a reasonable chance of qualifying be encouraged to enroll in appropriate extension courses, successful completion of which will authorize exemptions in the examination for appointment.

(b) Near the close of the camps an explanation of the functions of the arms, in which training is available in the particular camp, will be given to all Basic Course trainees in order that they may intelligently select an arm for their training in the Red, White, and Blue Courses. The explanation will be as practical as possible and will include a discussion of the material employed, the drill and field duties, the ideals and esprit de corps of each arm.

SEC. 41.10 Objects of the Basic and Red Courses. The objects of the Basic and Red Courses are (a) To inculcate in the youth of this country the principles of basic military training; to stimulate their interest in the importance thereof; and to qualify them for further training in the White and Blue Courses.

(b) Better to qualify young men for effective service as American citizens in time of peace or during national emergency.

SEC. 41.11 Qualifications for admission to the Basic Course. (a) Physically fit male citizens who have reached their seventeenth birthday but not their twenty-fourth on the opening day of camp.

(b) Applicants must have average general intelligence and must be of good moral character.

(c) No educational qualifications are prescribed or required other than ability to read and write English.

(d) Each applicant for admission must file the following on W. D., A. G. O. Form No. 121 (Application to Enroll in a Citizens' Military Training Camp)—(1) A certificate from a qualified physician stating that the applicant's health and strength are adequate for the course of training.

(2) A certificate from any reputable citizen to the effect that the applicant is of good moral character and average general intelligence. Corps area commanders may require such additional evidence of character as they may deem desirable.

(e) No applicant will be enrolled for the Basic Course who has had military training equivalent to that course.

(f) Basic Course trainees who complete the thirty days' course but who, due to inaptitude or similar reasons, are not recommended for advancement will not be permitted to retake the Basic Course. If training is interrupted for exceptional and worthy causes, trainees may be permitted to retake the course another year at the discretion of the camp commander.

SEC. 41.12 Qualifications for admission to the Red Course. The qualifications are the same as for admission to the Basic Course, with the added requirement that the applicant must possess a certificate showing satisfactory completion of the Basic Course, or military training equivalent thereto. Applicants otherwise qualified will be accepted for the Red Course if they have reached their seventeenth birthday but not their twenty-fifth on the opening day of camp.

SEC. 41.13 Object of the White Course. The object of the White Course is to qualify selected citizens as noncommissioned officers or as specialists capable of performing the required technical duties.

SEC. 41.14 Qualifications for admission to the White Course. (a) To be eligible applicants must (1) Be male citizens physically fit for enlistment who have reached their eighteenth birthday but not their twenty-eighth on the opening day of camp.

(2) Possess a grammar-school education or its equivalent.

(3) Be recommended graduates of the Red Course, or possess a certificate showing military training equivalent thereto.

(b) Civilian applicants who have not attended a previous camp will be required to file (1) A certificate of physical fitness for enlistment from a qualified physician.

(2) A certificate of moral character and average general intelligence, as required of applicants for the Basic Course. See paragraph (d) (2), section 41.11.

SEC. 41.15 Object of the Blue Course. The object of the Blue Course is to aid in the preparation of the trainee for appointment as second lieutenant in the Officers' Reserve Corps.

SEC. 41.16 Qualifications for admission to the Blue Course. (a) Warrant officers and enlisted men of the Regular Army who normally are unable to obtain their commissions in the Officers' Reserve Corps through their own organizations, and selected civilian male citizens who are physically fitted for commissions in the Officers' Reserve Corps and have reached their nineteenth birthday but not their twenty-ninth on the opening day of camp, may be accepted for this course. Reserve Officers' Training Corps students referred to in section 41.24 are exempt from the minimum age requirement and may be enrolled for the Blue Course after reaching the age of 17 years and 9 months, provided they are qualified in all other respects.

(b) An applicant for admission to the Blue Course must have (1) Evidence of having a high-school education or its equivalent and, for technical arms, the necessary technical education. For further details as to nonmilitary educational qualifications, see Army Regulations governing appointment in the Officers' Reserve Corps in sections corresponding to the arms in which Citizens' Military Training Camp training is given.

(2) The personality, appearance, tact, bearing, and general adaptability which will fit him, after further training, to be an officer of the Officers' Reserve Corps.

(3) Evidence of having had service of such a character and of such length as will fit him to be an officer in the arm desired and to hold a position as leader or technical expert, or have completed the training prescribed for the White Course, or military training equivalent thereto.

(4) Been recommended by his commanding officer for the Blue Course and as complying with the foregoing qualifications.

(c) Graduation from the Blue Course does not of itself confer legal eligibility for appointment in the Officers' Reserve Corps. In order to be so appointed, a candidate must comply with the requirements of section 41.25.

(d) The end of the White Course is the point where all trainees not considered officer material should cease to be considered for further advancement until deficiencies are overcome. No applicant will be admitted to the Blue Course who does not have, or who does not satisfy the proper military authorities that he will eventually have, both the educational and physical requirements for a commission in the Officers' Reserve Corps.

Sec. 41.17 Organization of units. (a) Trainees in the Basic Course will be organized into provisional units, to which will be assigned such White and Blue Course trainees as are found necessary and desirable. Red Course trainees may be assigned to these units if found desirable.

(b) Trainees in the other courses may be organized into separate provisional units for the different arms.

(c) The status of those in the Blue Course or the White Course will be analogous to that of cadet officers and non-commissioned officers at the United States Military Academy. In recognition of their grade, all noncommissioned officers will be furnished warrants upon their appointment.

(d) The instruction of trainees in the Blue Course or the White Course will be given partly by the actual performance of the functions pertaining to the organization indicated above, and partly in schools of application in the appropriate specialties, tactics, and administration.

Sec. 41.18 Personnel. (a) The camp organization for the practical training will be appropriate to the size and work of the camp.

(b) Trainees will be detailed by roster, and without compensation, for at least one one-day tour of duty as kitchen police, and at least one one-day tour of duty as waiters. These are military duties and constitute features of practical instruction that properly belong to camp training.

Sec. 41.19 Applicants and trainees, general. (a) No applicant will be accepted without expense to the Government unless the War Department consents.

(b) No applicant will be accepted with the understanding that he can report after the opening of camp, nor will any applicant be enrolled with the understanding that he will be discharged prior to the termination of the camp in order to attend any other camp (military or civilian), to enter school, or for similar reasons. However, if necessary in order to obtain his quota, a corps area commander may order additional qualified applicants to camp provided none are enrolled after the fifth day.

(c) No trainee will be permitted to attend more than one camp during a calendar year.

(d) No trainee will be permitted to repeat a course in the same arm he has already satisfactorily completed.

Sec. 41.20 Individuals reporting without orders. (a) No individual who reports at camp without proper orders will be enrolled until every possible effort has been made to complete the desired enrollment from among those applicants who had been previously accepted but not ordered to camp due to the quota of accepted applicants having been filled.

(b) No transportation to or from camp will be furnished to individuals who report at camp without proper orders and who are not enrolled under the provisions of (a) above, unless it is established beyond a reasonable doubt that there was misrepresentation on the part of some procurement agency or that the individual in question acted in good faith in reporting at camp.

Sec. 41.21 Physical training. (a) Physical training will be given in all camps with a view to both the physical development of the trainees and their instruction in physical training methods.

(b) A physical training officer of experience and proper qualifications should be designated.

(c) Extreme care should be taken that the amount and character of physical training prescribed are altered when necessary to fit the needs of the immature or of those who lead sedentary lives.

(d) In addition to such physical development as may be required by training programs, organized athletics, sports, and competitions will be arranged and supervised whenever practicable and advisable.

Sec. 41.22 Discipline—(a) Oath upon admission. Civilian applicants, upon their enrollment as trainees, will take the prescribed oath, as follows:

"I do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will bear true faith and allegiance to the United States of America; and while at this camp, I will obey those in authority and observe all the rules and regulations of the camp to the best of my ability. So help me God."

(b) Trainees will be required to comply with all orders and instructions issued by proper authority and must earnestly and actively pursue the prescribed course of instruction. The rules and regulations of camp will be fully explained to trainees.

(c) The status of all persons attending Citizens' Military Training Camps is that of civilians, except members of the Regular Army, of the National Guard when called or drafted into Federal service, and of the Organized Reserves when placed on active duty. Members of the Regular Army, of the National Guard when called or drafted into Federal service, and of the Organized Reserves when placed on active duty are governed by the Articles of War. For crimes and offenses which constitute a violation of civil law, as distinguished from military law, trainees will be delivered to the civil authorities.

(d) For military offenses committed by those persons in a civilian status, punishment will ordinarily consist of admonition, reprimand, or the deprivation of the privileges enumerated in the one hundred and fourth article of war. However, when a trainee by continued violation of orders or camp regulations indicates that he is not amenable to discipline, he can and should be dismissed from camp.

(e) Precise discipline will be enforced at the camps. The meaning of discipline will be an important part of the instruction. It is especially important that trainees learn the methods and the importance of developing discipline in the training and control of soldiers of whatever arm. The salute, bearing, demeanor, and address of instructors and of trainees will be required to meet a high standard of correctness at all times.

(f) A neat soldierly appearance of the trainees must be insisted upon. Equipment must be kept in excellent condition. Order, neatness, and sanitation in quarters and in camp must be maintained.

(g) Uniform should be worn by all trainees for the entire period of the camp. Commanding officers may grant permission to wear civilian clothing under exceptional circumstances. Passes for absences over night should not be given unless the circumstances are exceptional.

SEC. 41.23 Relief or withdrawal. (a) Any trainee whose conduct, whose indifference to training, or whose habits or traits of character indicate that with further training he would not attain the qualifications for which he is a candidate may be relieved by the commanding officer from attendance at the camp and recommended for nonreturn to future camps.

(b) Any trainee who is compelled by necessity to leave the camp through no fault or misconduct of his own may be permitted by the commanding officer to withdraw without prejudice.

(c) All trainees who are relieved from duty or who withdraw prior to the termination of camp will be given a certificate so altered as to show the reasons for noncompletion of the course.

(d) (1) The commanding officer will issue the necessary order for the authorized return travel of trainees who withdraw or are relieved prior to the termination of the camp.

(2) Trainees who are relieved, withdrawn, or dismissed from camp are entitled to transportation and subsistence as authorized by sections 41.37 and 41.38.

SEC. 41.24 Credit for Reserve Officers' Training Corps training and training at 55c schools. (a) If otherwise qualified, students not regularly enrolled in the Reserve Officers' Training Corps, or student members of a unit other than medical which has been discontinued, or graduates of class MS schools whom the corps area commander is particularly desirous of affording an opportunity to qualify for commissions in the Officers' Reserve Corps, and whose attendance at a Reserve Officers' Training Corps camp cannot be authorized, may be given credit toward completion of courses of the Citizens' Military Training Camps as follows: (1) Students who have successfully completed the first year, Basic Course, may be admitted to the Red Course.

(2) Students who have successfully completed the Basic Course may be admitted to the White Course.

(3) Students who have successfully completed the first year advanced course and students who have successfully completed the Basic Course and an advanced camp may be admitted to the Blue Course.

(4) Students who have successfully completed the first year advanced course and an advanced camp, and students eligible for Reserve Officers' Training Corps camp attendance who have successfully completed the advanced course or the course prescribed for units at class MS schools but who have not attended a camp, may be admitted to the Blue Course and will be eligible for commissions on the successful completion thereof.

(5) No credits additional to those above mentioned will be given for completion of a fractional part of a year's course.

(6) Each student should furnish a certificate from his professor of military science and tactics stating the Reserve Officers' Training Corps course or portion thereof which he has successfully completed and the Citizens' Military Training Camp course for which he is recommended.

(b) Credit for Reserve Officers' Training Corps training received in class CS schools and training received at 55c schools will be adjusted by corps area commanders on a similar basis.

SEC. 41.25 Reserve commissions for graduates of the Blue Course. (a) Appointments in the Officers' Reserve Corps will be governed by the provisions of AR 140-5 (Part 61) and AR 140-22 to 140-38, inclusive.³ In addition, candidates for appointment in the Infantry, Cavalry, Field Artillery, and Coast Artillery Corps sections of the Officers' Reserve Corps must at time of appointment be either warrant officers or enlisted men of the Regular Army or Enlisted Reserve Corps.

(b) Examinations for appointment will be conducted by an examining board as prescribed in AR 140-5 (Part 61). Examination will be based upon the minimum qualifications for appointment in the selected arm as prescribed in the appropriate regulations (AR 140-22 to 140-38, inclusive).³ Proficiency will be determined by written examination on each subject except those for which exemptions have been granted under paragraphs (c) and (d) below and AR 140-5.

(c) Graduation or recommendation for graduation from the Blue Course will be considered as evidence of satisfactory completion of instruction in the following subjects, and candidates will be exempt from examinations therein:

Military discipline, courtesies, and customs of the service.

Interior guard duty.

Military sanitation and first aid.

In addition to the foregoing subjects, Coast Artillery Blue Course graduates, or those recommended for graduation, will be exempt from examination in Coast Artillery ammunition and weapons and matériel.

(d) Satisfactory completion of appropriate extension courses within five years will exempt candidates from examination in subjects covered in those courses.

(e) Where practicable, Blue Course trainees who are able to submit satisfactory evidence of qualification in the subjects prescribed in AR 140-22 to 140-38, inclusive,³ for appointment to the grade of second lieutenant and who are recommended for graduation will be examined for appointment prior to the completion of the Blue Course.

SEC. 41.26 Certificates and records. (a) Upon completion of any course the trainee will be given W. D., A. G. O. Form No. 124 by the commanding officer of the camp stating (1) The time of attendance.

(2) The location of the camp.

(3) The record of the trainee.

(4) The recommendations of the camp commander. See also paragraph (d), section 41.23.

(b) The recommendations of the camp commander will include the following:

(1) A statement that the trainee is recommended to continue training in a higher, or the same course, or for nonreturn to any course. To be recommended for the White Course the trainee must be qualified for enlistment. Those who are physically disqualified must be recommended for nonreturn, the certificate to state "by reason of physical disability." Trainees who complete the Basic Course should not be recommended for return to that course.

(2) A statement as to whether or not the trainee is professionally and otherwise qualified and is recommended for examination for appointment as a second lieutenant in the Officers' Reserve Corps, or for appointment as a noncommissioned officer, or a specialist in the Enlisted Reserve Corps. In determining satisfactory completion of the Blue Course and suitability for the Officers' Reserve Corps, careful consideration will be given to demonstrated qualities of leadership and of ability to instruct and handle men.

(3) A specific statement to the effect that he is qualified or not qualified for appointment in the Officers' Reserve Corps and, if qualified, the section for which recommended. (See sec. 41.25.) The recommendation of the camp commander as to qualifications of candidates for appointment in the Officers' Reserve Corps may be based on either the work of the candidate while at camp or on the report of an examining board, or both.

(c) (1) The qualifications stated and recommendations made in the certificates furnished to trainees who are not members of the National Guard will refer to the Officers' Reserve Corps and the Enlisted Reserve Corps.

(2) Trainees will not be recommended for appointment, or as qualified for appointment, as officers or noncommissioned officers of the National Guard. The usual method of entrance into the National Guard is by enlistment as a private.

(d) Records and certificates of trainees will carry a notation of any property loss to the United States incurred through their carelessness or neglect.

(e) (1) Appointments of candidates who are also members of the Reserve Officers' Training Corps will be made in accordance with the provisions of subparagraph (5) below.

(2) Appropriate certificates of qualification will be issued by The Adjutant General to candidates under 21 years of age who are otherwise qualified and eligible for appointment in the Officers' Reserve Corps. These certificates are in addition to the certificates issued by the camp commander, and may be accepted by The Adjutant General within five years of the date of issue as evidence of qualification for appointment in the Officers' Reserve Corps. This provision does not apply to trainees who are enlisted men of the National Guard.

(3) Candidates not qualified for appointment in the Officers' Reserve Corps will be informed of their deficiencies and encouraged to take further training if it is believed that they can eventually overcome these deficiencies.

(4) All Blue Course trainees will be informed as to their status before leaving camp. During the closing exercises appropriate ceremonies will be held, and those candidates recommended for appointment in the Officers' Reserve Corps will be publicly advised.

(5) Should a Reserve Officers' Training Corps student be eligible and permitted to take the Blue Course, Citizens' Military Training Camps, and complete that course, he will not be appointed as a Reserve officer in consequence thereof, except through the regular channels of the Reserve Officers' Training Corps. For students not regularly enrolled but taking the Reserve Officers' Training Corps course under the provisions of section 62.17, and members of a Reserve Officers' Training Corps unit other than medical, which has been discontinued, see section 41.24.

Sec. 41.27 Medical and hospital treatment. (a) All trainees receiving instruction at a camp are entitled to medical and hospital treatment when necessary, at Government expense, during the period of their attendance at such camp.

(b) Members of the Citizens' Military Training Camps who suffer personal injury or contract disease in line of duty while en route to or from and during their attendance at camps of instruction are entitled, at Government expense, to such hospitalization, rehospitalization, medical and surgical care, in hospital and at their homes, as is necessary for the appropriate treatment of such injury or disease, until the disability resulting from such injury or disease cannot be materially improved by further hospitalization or treatment, and to the necessary transportation and subsistence incident to hospitalization and rehospitalization and return to their homes when discharged from hospital. (See 49 Stat. 1507; 10 U. S. C. 455c.) In lieu of the transportation and subsistence authorized above, payment may be made of travel allowance at 5¢ per mile, or transportation may be furnished and payment made for subsistence at the rate of 1¢ per mile. See MS. Comp.

(c) Cases of members of the Citizens' Military Training Camps remaining in hospital after completion of the training period in which they are serving will be disposed of in the manner prescribed in paragraph 7j, AR 40-590.⁴ If further treatment will be required after return of a member to his home he will be given instructions relative to the steps to be taken in securing such treatment as may be deemed advisable. Arrangements for such treatment will be made by local commanders in accordance with paragraph 3, AR 40-505,⁵ but Government funds will not be obligated without authority of the corps area commander except in emergency, in which case the latter will be furnished with an immediate report of the facts and circumstances of the case. Recipients of treatment will be subject to physical examination by military personnel at any time the corps area commander may deem necessary. When civilian medical and hospital service is necessary, the corps area commander will be the final authority in determining when the disability cannot be materially improved by further hospital treatment or when treatment at home is all that has been reasonably necessary, and such treatment at public expense shall then terminate.

(d) Claims for disabilities sustained while en route to or from or while at camps of instruction will be acted on by a board of officers convened by the military commander having immediate jurisdiction.

(e) In case an applicant or trainee is officially undergoing treatment in hospital because of an injury or disease incurred or contracted not in line of duty, upon termination of camp he should not be discharged from hospital unless he is physically fit to be transported to his home, but the commanding officer of the hospital should report the case and the attending circumstances to the corps area commander and await his instructions as to disposition of the patient.

Sec. 41.28 Death and burial. The cost of recovery, preparation, transportation to their homes (or to such other place as their relatives may designate provided the distance is not greater than the distance to their homes), and interment (or cremation if requested by relatives) of the remains of civilian members of the Citizens' Military Training Camps who die while undergoing training or authorized hospital treatment, as provided in the act of June 15, 1936 (49 Stat. 1507; 10 U. S. C. 455d), will be paid from appropriations for Citizens' Military Training Camps, as will also the cost of round-trip transportation and subsistence of an escort.

⁴ Administrative regulations of the War Department relating to the administration of hospitals.

⁵ Administrative regulations of the War Department relating to Medical Attendance.

Sec. 41.29 Post exchanges. Post exchange facilities with an equitable distribution of the profits thereof will be provided for Citizens' Military Training Camps under existing regulations and such additional instructions as may be issued by the corps area commander.

Sec. 41.30 Solicitation of funds. Solicitation of relatives of trainees in order to procure funds for camp activities is prohibited. No pressure will be used to obtain contributions or subscriptions from trainees for any purpose.

Sec. 41.32 Care of arms, clothing, and equipment. Every trainee will be required to care properly for the arms, clothing, and equipment issued to him and to return them in good order upon demand. The responsibility for the proper care and safekeeping of Government property will be impressed upon all concerned.

Sec. 41.33 Disposition of clothing and equipment at close of camp. Articles of clothing issued to trainees, other than those from the Regular Army, and equipment issued to all trainees will be turned in at the close of camp to the appropriate camp supply officer.

Sec. 41.34 Responsibility for Government property. (a) Any article of clothing, equipment, or other property issued to a trainee and lost, damaged, or destroyed through his carelessness or neglect will be charged against him and reimbursement will be demanded.

(1) Clothing that was new when issued will be charged in accordance with authorized current price lists.

(2) Renovated clothing issued will be charged at 50 percent of the value set forth in authorized current price lists.

(b) (1) Articles lost, exchanged, damaged, or destroyed, and not paid for by the individuals responsible, will be surveyed and the responsibility therefor determined.

(2) Losses to the United States through fault on the part of trainees will be itemized on surveys separately from other losses.

(3) Records and certificates of trainees will show the amount of property loss to the United States and the amount received as reimbursement.

Sec. 41.35 Personal baggage. (a) Every applicant authorized to attend a camp will bring one piece of hand luggage containing the personal articles indicated on the application blank.

(b) Athletic equipment. In the preliminary circulars sent out by corps area commanders applicants will be encouraged to bring athletic uniforms and equipment and also bathing suits where the camps afford facilities for swimming.

(c) Protection of property of Citizens' Military Training Camp trainees. Proper provision will be made to protect the private property of trainees against theft or damage by fire or the like, and they will be instructed immediately upon arrival at camp that, in order to secure proper protection, their private property which will not be used in camp must be stored in the place provided therefor. Any trainee unwilling so to store his personal belongings will be required to sign a statement releasing the Government of all responsibility in the event of loss in any manner.

SEC. 41.36 Sales of quartermaster and ordnance property to trainees. (a) The amount of quartermaster and ordnance property sold to any one trainee as authorized in the National Defense Act is limited to that which is required for his proper equipment.

(c) All sales made to trainees will be for cash, at cost price plus 10 percent, and will be paid for at the time of sale.

SEC. 41.37 Transportation. (a) (1) All applicants, other than those from the Regular Army, will be furnished transportation to and from camp by either one of the two methods prescribed in section 47d, National Defense Act, at the option of the corps area commander, except that trainees separated from camp prior to termination thereof for their own convenience or for disciplinary reasons will be returned to their homes as prescribed in subparagraph (2) (i) below. There is no objection to a corps area commander encouraging the use of either one of the above-mentioned methods, but in no case will an applicant be refused a transportation request if he does not have sufficient funds to pay his own transportation to camp.

(i) Travel allowance at the rate of 5 cents per mile between the applicant's home (or any other place selected by the applicant which involves no greater travel) and the camp may be paid after arrival at camp.

(ii) Transportation from the applicant's home (or nearer point) to the camp may be furnished in kind, and in addition thereto the applicant may be paid a subsistence allowance at the rate of 1 cent per mile.

(iii) The payment of the travel allowance or the subsistence allowance prescribed in subdivisions (i) and (ii) above, respectively, for the return journey in advance of the actual performance thereof is authorized.

(iv) Where the travel is performed via privately owned conveyance, highway distances not in excess of officially established distances will be the basis of payment of travel allowances.

(b) Trainees are not authorized to obligate their return travel allowances.

No deduction to reimburse the Government will be made or accepted from the travel allowances due a trainee for travel to his home.

SEC. 41.38 Subsistence. Subsistence for all trainees in attendance will be provided from a per diem allowance prescribed annually by the War Department.

SEC. 41.39 Pay. Those authorized to attend the camps will receive no pay as Citizens' Military Training Camp trainees.

SEC. 41.40 Laundry. All trainees will be furnished with laundry service, and the accounts therefor will be paid from the appropriation "Citizens' Military Training Camps."

"04.211 Airspeeds. (See §§ 04.109 to 04.116 for definitions.) The design airspeeds shall be determined as follows:

" V_L (see § 04.111).

" V_G shall not be less than $V_L + K_G(V_m - V_L)$, except that it need not be greater than either $V_L + 100$ miles per hour or $1.5 V_L$, whichever is lower. K_G is specified on Fig. 04-1. V_m is defined in § 04.115. A special ruling may be obtained from the Authority if the design gliding speed thus determined is greater than $1.33 V_L$ and appears to be unnecessarily high for the type of airplane involved.

" V_f shall not be less than $2V_{sf}$. V_{sf} is defined in § 04.113.

" V_p shall not be less than $V_{sf} + K_p(V_L - V_{sf})$, except that it need not be greater than V_L . K_p is specified on Fig. 04-2.

("See §§ 04.2220, 04.2223 and 04.2230 for exceptions for multi-engine airplanes.)

"04.257 Seaplane float loads. Each main float of a float seaplane shall be capable of carrying the following loads when supported at the attachment fittings as installed on the airplane. The minimum ultimate factor of safety shall be 1.5.

"(a) A limit load, acting upward, applied at the bow end of the float and of magnitude equal to one-half of that portion of the airplane gross weight normally supported by the particular float.

"(b) The limit load specified in paragraph (a) above, acting upward at the stern.

"(c) A limit load, acting upward, applied at the step and of magnitude equal to 1.33 times that portion of the airplane gross weight normally supported by the particular float.

"04.260 Engine torque. In the case of engines having five or more cylinders the stresses due to the torque load shall be multiplied by a limit load factor of 1.5. For 4, 3, and 2 cylinder engines the limit load factors shall be 2, 3, and 4, respectively. The torque acting on the airplane structure shall be computed for the take-off power desired and the propeller speed corresponding thereto (see § 04.744). The engine mount and forward portion of the fuselage and nacelles shall be designed for this condition. The minimum ultimate factor of safety shall be 1.5, except that higher factors may be prescribed by the Authority when it appears necessary to make special provision for conditions such as vibration, stress concentration, and fatigue.

"04.2610 The engine mounts, nacelles, and forward portion of the fuselage (when a nose engine is installed) shall be investigated for the limit loads determined from Condition I (see §§ 04.2131 and 04.2160) acting simultaneously with the limit loads due to the engine torque determined in accordance with § 04.260 except that the engine power and the propeller speed shall correspond to the design power (§ 04.105) or the output specified for climbing flight (see § 04.744), whichever is higher. The minimum ultimate factor of safety shall be 1.5.

"04.404 General flutter prevention measures. The Authority reserves the right to require special provisions against flutter in any case when such provisions appear to it to be necessary. For specific requirements see §§ 04.323, 04.413, 04.423, 04.424, 04.425, 04.426, 04.4260, 04.435, 04.436 and 04.707.

"04.424 Dynamic and static balance. All control surfaces shall be dynamically and statically balanced to the degree necessary to prevent flutter at all speeds up to the design gliding speed.

"04.426 Tabs. The installation of trim and balancing tabs shall be such as to prevent the development of any free motion of the tab. When trailing edge tabs are used to assist in moving the main surface (balancing tabs), the areas and relative movements shall be so proportioned that the main surface is not overbalanced at any time.

"04.444 Retracting mechanism. When retractable landing wheels are used visual means shall be provided for indicating to the pilot, at all times, the position of the wheels. Separate indicators for each wheel are required when each wheel is separately operated unless a single indicator is obviously satisfactory. In addition, landplanes shall be provided with an aural or equally effective indicator which shall function continuously after the throttle is closed until the gear is down and locked.

"04.4440 A positive lock shall be provided for the wheels in the extended position, unless a rugged irreversible mechanism is used.

"04.4441 Manual operation of retractable landing gears shall be provided for.

"04.460 Provision for turn-over. The fuselage and cabins shall be designed to protect the passengers and crew in the event of a complete turn-over and adequate provision shall be made to permit egress of passengers and crew in such event. This requirement may be suitably modified when the possibility of a complete turn-over in landing is remote.

"04.4610 No passenger door shall be located in the plane of rotation of an inboard propeller, nor within 5° thereof as measured from the propeller hub.

"04.4632 Means shall be provided by which the operating personnel is suitably informed of the operation limitations specified in § 04.744, and of the ceilings specified in §§ 04.723 or 04.733, as the case may be.

"04.510 (j) A portable fire extinguisher, which extinguisher shall be of an approved type, which shall have a minimum capacity, if carbon tetrachloride, of one quart, or, if carbon dioxide, of two pounds, or, if other, of equivalent effectiveness; except that any extinguisher of not less than half the above capacity may be used in an airplane equipped with an engine whose maximum rating is 40 horsepower or less (see § 04.5811 for installation requirements).

"04.512 (b) Two electric landing lights if the aircraft is operated for hire: Provided, however, That only one such landing light shall be required for any airplane certificated for a weight of less than 1,500 pounds (see § 04.5885 for installation requirements).

"04.532 (d) Two sensitive-type altimeters, both of which shall be adjustable for changes in barometric pressure and compensated for changes in temperature: Provided, That aircraft in use on or before January 1, 1939, and thereafter replacements and additions of aircraft of the same make and model may, for purposes of standardization, be deemed to have met this requirement if there are installed in each such aircraft, one sensitive type altimeter and one standard type altimeter provided each is adjustable for changes in barometric pressure, and compensated for changes in temperature.

"04.5800 Air speed indicator. This instrument shall be so installed as to indicate true airspeed at sea level with the maximum practicable accuracy but the instrument error shall not be more than plus or minus 3 percent, except that it need not be less than plus or minus 5 miles per hour, at the level flight speed corresponding to the design power (§ 04.105), at V_L (§ 04.111), or at the maximum attainable level flight speed, whichever is lowest.

"04.5825 Landing lights. Electric landing lights shall be so installed on multi-engine aircraft that at least one shall be not less than 10 feet to the right or left of the first pilot's seat and beyond the swept disk of the outermost propeller. On single-engine aircraft such lights shall be so installed that no visible portion of the swept disk of the propeller, if of the tractor type, is illuminated thereby. Individual switches for each light shall be provided in the pilot's compartment.

"04.6291 An adequate means shall be provided for preventing the formation of ice in the engine carburetors (see also § 04.532 (i)).

"04.743 Air speed limitations. Maximum operation limitations will be incorporated in the aircraft certificate and will specify the indicated airspeeds which shall not be exceeded in level and climbing flight (§ 04.111), in gliding and diving flight, and with flaps extended. The values in gliding flight and with flaps extended will be 10 percent less than the corresponding maximum airspeeds attained in flight tests in accordance with § 04.722.

"04.744 Power plant limitations. Maximum operational limitations will be incorporated in the aircraft certificate and will specify power plant outputs on take-off (§ 04.260), in climbing flight, and for all operations other than take-off and climbing flight (§ 04.105). The output, except for take-off, shall not exceed that corresponding to the maximum (except take-off) rating of the engine installed. For the above purposes no specified output will be in excess of that corresponding to the limits imposed by either the pertinent engine or propeller certification (see §§ 04.60 and 04.61)."

By the Authority.
