MONTE VISTA HOME IS ABOUT READY FOR CHILDREN

Public Inspection Is Held and Many Compliments Are Extended on Work

Monte Vista Home for undernourished children of Los Angeles county was opened for public inspection Saturday, July 16, with the result that hundreds of people from various sections of the county, which had undertaken the remodeling and furnishing of the different rooms, came to admire the splendid work done. The rooms were all very beautifully decorated with large baskets of flowers which had been sent by some of the leading florists.

Russia's Many People

By LLOYD ALLEN United Press Staff Correspondent LONDON—Soviet Russia has established a branch of the world's greatest buying corporation here in London. It is called the All-Russia Co-operative society, but is generally known by the simpler title of Arcos and is buying goods for the 150,000,- 000 people of Russia.

Six months from date the Soviet representatives in London believe world's greatest selling corporation on the globe, because they say by that time Arcos will be disposing of 000 workers.

Great headquarters of Arcos is in Moscow and goes by the Russian name of Narkomynieshtorg, which means in plain United States, "Peoples' Commissariat for Foreign Trade," with Leonid Krassin as chief, dividing his time between London, Berlin and Moscow,

There are Arcos branches in Stockholm, Reval, Berlin and one or two other European cities, as well as in London

Today London branch of Arcos is housed in a four-story building in the heart of the city and work's in co-operatiton with the Russian trade delegation.

It has a staff of 200, including a board of directors and a number of experts in the various lines of trade; also engineering experts and so forth.

Six months hence the Soviet representatives expect to be using a staff of between 500 and 600 to carry on rapidly growing trading operations and eventually a staff of 1000 will be required. In furtherance of these somewhat elaborate plans, a big building has been bought and paid for in hard cash for consideration of 250,000 pounds, nominally about $1,000,000. This building will accommodate the 1000 workers previously mentioned. It is located on Moorgate street close to the great Bank of England in the midst of London's financial district. It will be a principal trading center for Russia. A second set of offices will be maintained on New Bond street, London's exclusive shopping street, where Leonid Krassin now has his headquarters. Russia's diplomatic affairs will some of these days be administered from the former imperial Russian embassy, according to Soviet expectations. Just now possession of the luxurious embassy is impossible, but when the Russian political treaty is signed between Great Britain and the Soviets, the embassy will be Building now on 1008 E. shining through facial and vocal expression, is the chief guide. His views on the stage as a career for the college man were given as

"While the theatre is primarily a place of amusement, its educational value has always been of the greatest importance. From the beginning of its history the stage has been the most democratic and cosmopolitan of the arts. One of the sources of its power in commanding universal interest is its appeal to all classes. University dramatics, it seems to me, could be made as fascinating as football.

"Whether in a university or on the professional stage, the supreme requirement of acting is to express the emotions one feels. A handsome face and a fine physique are worthless if they are expressionless. very ordinary face may become eloquent and radiant under some powerful emotion of life."

NASH MAKES GREAT SOUTHERN GLENDALE (Tropico) DISTRICT

Fred C. Gilbert Drives Car Over All Kinds of Roads Without Any Trouble

The deluging floods of Colorado miles upon miles of mud and every conceivable adverse road condition failed to impede the record-equaling tour of a Nash car from Victor, Iowa to Glendale, recently.

The Nash was driven by Fred C. Gilbert who, with A. C. Bowling, has purchased the confectionery establishment at the corner of South Brand and Colorado.

Mr. Gilbert was accompanied by his mother, Mrs. Clara Steffey, who although in her seventy-fifth year enjoyed every mile of the journey It was Mrs. Steffey who attended to the cooking at the road camps en route. A commodious tent and camp equipment was carried and camp was made early in the evening as no attempt was exerted to make a rapid

Iowa Air in Glendale

The party made the distance to Glendale in twelve days in their Nash, Sport Model. Over 300 miles of this distance was through the flood district and mud was very often to the axles. Many detours were nec essary with consequent complicated developments in road problems.

Mr. Gilbert reports over eighteen miles to a gallon of gas and about 800 miles to a quart of oil. This with the crank case drained every thousand miles.

The Nash, a 1919 Model, arrived in Glendale with Iowa air in all four The car, which is still in the city, looks like new and as if it had merely gone around the city instead of over some of the worst roads in the United States. Mr. Sutton, man ager of the local Nash agency, when apprised of the remarkable trip, was not at all surprised, but says he has hundreds of examples of the amazing efficiency of the Nash cars on transcontinental tours.

Strivin' Reporter Expresses Opinion on Fashions and Fads of Fair Ones

.477 .459 Glendale, July 19, 1921. Dear Katie: - I got your nice letter a couple of days ago in which you say as how you are wearin bobbed hair and short skirts and you Pct. want to know what I think about it, .655 if at all.

And right away I says to myself, what's comin off next?

Well Katie, the styles of today is about as big a mystery to me as a 415 doormat is to a iceman, but I guess .288 that's as much as anybody knows about it and seein as how it is the main topic of the days and nights, I guess I might as well write a artikle about it and be done with it.

And for this passion of adornment I guess its' all in the point of view 488 and anyway a strivin reporter on the sidewalk and ought to be a better judge than a jury up in a airoplane anyhow.

But Katie, the long and short of the matter seems to be; hew long ARE short skirts.

The short skirts seem to have the long end of it.

Yes, Styles to Change

A few years ago, skirts was short if they was at the shoe tops and now they're long if they reach the knees. In this everlastin beauty contest, I guess it's easier to think of a excuse than it is to think of a reason. cause some women dress to kill and others feel like committin murder cause they can't. And Katie, when it comes to the birth of a fashion now days, the Rue de la Paix (wherever that is) is 24 hours behind Glendale and the rest of California.

SPECIAL NOTICE

An Important New Factory For Los Angeles

I want my fellow townspeople to have an opportunity to share the substantial profits that will be made by the Modern Glass Hollowware Factory being erected at Richmond and Daly Streets. Every member of the Executive and Sales forces have made substantial investments in the Company's stock. The foremen, mechanics and operators are all stockholders—these workers have purchased $83,000.00 of the Company's stock. The Management and also all important workmen have had over 20 years' successful experience in the line out here on the Coast. There has been no promotion stock issued and no commissions paid for selling stock—every nickel has gone into the treasury. Here is an exceptional opportunity to "Boost" Southern California and enjoy large earnings while doing so.

The Factory is nearing completion-let me drive you over to the plant on a tour of inspection and give you detailed information about this much needed sound industry. It will be a pleasure to call and see
