Dines Stricken With Pneumonia

DISEASE MORE DANGEROUS THAN BULLET WOUND TO MYSTERY SHOOTING VICTIM

Mabel Normand, in Same Hospital with Her 'Playmate,' to Be Operated On, Claim; Chauffeur Sticks to His Story

BULLETIN

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 3.—Coming as a dramatic corroboration of the story told by her chauffeur, Horace A. Greer, who shot and wounded Courtland S. Dines, Mabel Normand, film star, who was present when Dines was shot, underwent an operation at the Good Samaritan hospital for chronic appendicitis. The operation upon Miss Normand was performed by Dr. Guy Cochran, also physician for Dines, and was declared to have been successful. Miss Normand will be in the hospital three weeks, the doctor said.

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 3.—Dr. Guy Cochran, physician for Courtland Dines, announced this morning that pneumonia had developed, but that Dines was "doing fine." The pneumonia was feared to be more dangerous than the bullet wound. It was learned at the hospital that the pneumonia condition has made Dines' breathing labored and painful and that he has suffered considerable agony.

"Pneumonia has developed, but it has not progressed far," Dr. Cochran said today. "We are hopeful of defeating the pneumonia. Mr. Dines is doing very nicely. He is holding his strength well."

Mabel Normand is in the same hospital, where, it is reported, she will be operated upon.

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 3.—Police endeavoring today to disclose the real motive in the shooting here Tuesday night of Courtland S. Dines, wealthy oil man of Denver, Colo., by Horace A. Greer, chauffeur for Mabel Normand, who shot Dines in his apartment while Miss Normand and Edna Purviance, film actresses, were present, centered their efforts on checking the past record of Greer, who is also known as Joseph Kelly.

Dines at the Good Samaritan hospital, where he was removed late yesterday from the central emergency hospital, was fighting a battle with death. His physicians were hopeful that no complications would arise today when the crisis in his case was expected to be reached.

Pneumonia Comes
Dines was declared at the Good Samaritan hospital this morning to have passed a fairly restful night, getting into good sleep and was said to be resting easily. Pneumonia had developed, it was announced. However, a special nurse has been engaged for him and Dr. Guy Cochran, his physician, said he was resting as well as could be expected under the conditions. It was understood from a good source that Dines has suffered great pain and that his doctors are fighting to prevent two serious developments in his case. The first is blood poisoning, always possible in such cases, and the other is pneumonia.

And by strange coincidence in the same hospital Miss Normand was denied all callers by her personal physician, Dr. Dudley Fulton. She arrived there late last night attended by a maid and no (Continued on Page 3)

CHAUFFEUR'S STORY NOT CHANGED

Denies He Said Dines Was Getting Narcotics For Miss Normand's Use

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 3.—Courtland Dines, shot by H. A. Greer, chauffeur for Mabel Normand, motion picture star, during a New Year's party, was today stricken with pneumonia.

The pneumonia, however, has not progressed far, according to the attending physician.

Concerning the condition of Mabel Normand, who was taken to the hospital last night, Dr. Cochran showed far less worry.

"Oh, she's alright," he said, in answer to a query regarding her condition. Dr. Cochran refused to state why Miss Normand was taken to the hospital.

The menace of pneumonia in Dines' case threw a shadow of possible murder over the chauffeur's story.

WANT AUTOS TO ENTER IN GIANT PARADE

Every Glendale Business Firm Is Urged to Share In Celebration

A special plea is made this morning by L. H. Myers, chairman of the Greater Glendale parade that is to be held Saturday, January 5, to mark the passage of the $10,000,000 building goal and to boost interest in the sewer bond election, that every business house in Glendale enter one or more automobiles or trucks in the parade's commercial division.

"It has been impossible for me to make a personal call on every establishment in Glendale," Mr. Myers stated. "But I want to emphasize the desire that is felt by every member of the parade committee that every business house in the city be represented in the commercial division of the parade. The more cars and trucks they can enter in the procession the bigger impression it will make on the thousands of visitors who will be here and the better showing it will make when the news reel distributors send out the pictures of Glendale's parade to the people of the entire United States."

The plans for the parade place the assembly station of the commercial division facing east on California avenue between Brand boulevard and Glendale avenue.

Citizens' Division
The citizens' division is also to be increased by as many cars as can be entered in it, and every citizen who is not placed in some other division of the parade is asked to take his place with his automobile in this division. "If anyone hasn't got a car of his own he ought to be able to ride with some of his friends," says Mr. Myers, "and we want him to wave a flag and make all the noise he feels like making. This is an occasion for enthusiasm, if there ever was one in Glendale's history, and we want to see our people rise to their opportunities to tell the world that Glendale is up and coming."

Present indications are that at least one thousand cars and trucks will be in the line of the parade.

Voters who go to the polls on election day, January 8, will be handed two ballots. One of these ballots will carry the question as to whether the bond issue of $1,600,000 for the construction of the Glendale sewer system shall be authorized by the voters.

The other ballot will carry the question as to whether the agreement that has been entered into between the cities of Glendale and Los Angeles, through their prop-

More Than Score Missing In Pekin, Illinois, Starch Plant Explosion

PEKIN, Ill., Jan. 3.—Seven bodies were taken from the ruins of the Corn Products company's starch plant here just before noon today. An eighth man, hurt when a dust explosion destroyed the unit of the $8,000,000 refinery, died in a Pekin hospital. Twenty-seven others were shown by a company check-up to be missing.

Two of the bodies were identified. The others were said to be those of George Harms, Lee Harding, Louis Schmidt, William Rumber and John Hooker. The man who died in a hospital was James Fulton.

Scores Injured
Nearly fifty injured were in Pekin and Peoria hospitals and homes.

Efforts to establish the casualties with indisputable accuracy were frustrated by company officials, who placed armed sentinels around the plant and refused admission to all but rescue workers. Women and other relatives of the dead and missing were herded outside, where they frantically tried to learn the fate of their kin.

Officials of the corporation said their information showed thirty-four injured to be under treatment, either in hospitals or homes.

Employees said the blaze followed so closely after the explosion that the entire structure was (Continued on Page 3)

GREAT FLOOD THREATENS IN PARIS

Seine Continues to Rise, Railway Stations Close, Number Homeless

PARIS, Jan. 3.—With railway stations closed, public buildings isolated and suburbs flooded, the river Seine continued to rise today, threatening Paris with the worst flood in history.

The river at noon had reached twenty-one feet and ten inches, the highest in history, except during the disastrous flood in 1910. The water has cut off electricity in the Invalides district.

Clerks in the ministry of finance worked feverishly transferring documents and files from the basement to the second floor.

The great foreign office building is surrounded by water.

Many homeless Official flood stage readings and weather forecasts are being broadcast by the Eiffel wireless station. Warnings are being sent to residents of low-lying suburbs.

Many people are homeless in the suburbs and tremendous property damage has been done. There have been no casualties.

Suburbs bordering on the Seine resemble a scene from Venice. Many families that refused to abandon their homes moved to second floors. Mail and food-stuffs were delivered from boats. Rains along the upper Seine continue, making it impossible to say when the crest of the flood will be reached.

COST OF SYSTEM CANNOT BE REDUCED BY JOINING METROPOLIS; RESOLUTION AND LETTER BY OFFICIALS

Type and Size of Disposal Plant Now Being Put Before Voters Same as Required Under Consolidation

That the annexation of Glendale with the city of Los Angeles would not mean any reduction in the cost of construction of a sewer system for this city, and that the completion of the project, in the event of consolidation, would be delayed at least a year longer than it would be under the terms of the contract between the city of Glendale and the city of Los Angeles, was emphasized by Councilman Sam A. Davis at the weekly meeting of the Glendale Realty Board at the First Methodist church yesterday afternoon.

Mr. Davis read a letter that he had received from W. T. Knowlton, engineer of sewers in the department of City Engineer John A. Griffin, in which it is shown that the cost and type of a sewer built for this city in case of annexation would be identical with that proposed under the terms of the contract, and which also shows that a longer time would elapse before it could be built than would be necessary if the agreement with Los Angeles is approved and if the bonds are voted next Tuesday.

Mr. Knowlton's letter, dated December 31, 1923, follows:
CITY OF LOS ANGELES, CAL.
Board of Public Works
ENGINEERING DEPARTMENT
JOHN A. GRIFFIN, City Engineer.
Room 405, 240 So. Broadway
December 31, 1923.

File No. 486.
Subject: Glendale and San Fernando Valley Intercepting Sewer. Request for statement regarding status of construction of proposed sewer system.

Hon. S. A. Davis, Member of City Council, Glendale, Cal.

Dear Sir:—In reply to your verbal request for a statement as to the status of the construction of the proposed sewer system connecting Glendale with the Los Angeles Outfall Sewer, I advise you, that in the opinion of this office, should the city of Glendale be annexed to the city of Los Angeles that the type of construction heretofore provided and now contemplated under the contract entered into between the city of Glendale and the city of Los Angeles, would be required in the event of such annexation, and that the cost thereof would have to be borne by a general bond issue or the Act of 1915. It is my opinion that the above would be the only way in which the construction of the Glendale trunk line and tributary mains would be built and that a general bond issue of the combined cities of Glendale and Los Angeles, if under separate administration, would be impracticable. Further, I am of the opinion that using the proposed contract, the sewer would be built probably a year or more sooner than would be required for the construction in the event of annexation on account of the time required for bond issue.

Yours truly,
JOHN A. GRIFFIN, City Engineer.
By W. T. Knowlton, Engineer of Sewers.

The opinion of the Los Angeles City Council is shown in the following resolution passed by a unanimous vote of that body on Wednesday, January 2, 1924, at 10:31 a. m. The members of the City Council are, if anything, more emphatic than was Mr. Knowlton, declaring that the type and cost of the sewers would be the same in the event of annexation, and also that the cost of such a system would have to be borne by the issue of bonds by the district benefited, for the reason that the system would be of purely local benefit and that a general bond issue for this purpose by the city of Los Angeles would be impracticable. The resolution follows:

RESOLUTION
WHEREAS, It has come to the attention of the Council of the city of Los Angeles that certain statements have been printed and circulated in the city of Glendale, in connection with the voting of bonds for the construction of the proposed sewer system, pursuant to and in accordance with a certain contract entered into between the city of Los Angeles and the city of Glendale, dated October 10, 1923; and

WHEREAS, It is deemed advisable that an expression of this Council be given relative to the true conditions affecting the construction of said sewer; therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That it is the sense of this Council that the type and size of the proposed sewer system heretofore provided, and now contemplated under said contract, would be required in the event of consolidation of said cities, and that, should said cities be consolidated, that the cost of the construction of said proposed sewer system would, of necessity, be borne by a district benefited by the improvement, for the reason that said system is of purely local benefit and is not of benefit to the city as a whole, and by reason of that fact a general bond issue for said purpose would be impracticable.

I hereby certify that the foregoing Resolution was adopted by the Council of the city of Los Angeles at its meeting held January 2, 1924.

ROBERT DOMINGUEZ, City Clerk.
The above letters are a matter of record. Their contents cannot be denied. The statements contained in the letters are direct. They leave no ground for a misunderstanding. They should convince everyone that ON JANUARY 8, 1924, IS THE TIME TO VOTE FOR THE SEWER BONDS!

Last of Glenlos Terrace to

Tract Owner

Offering what he declares to be one of the best buys in Glendale territory, C. E. Palmanteer of 708 East Palmer street, sole agent for Glendale, Highland Park and Eagle Rock for Glenlos Terrace a sub-division in the Ivanhoe Hills district, is preparing to close out the remaining thirty-eight lots in this tract.

Glenlos Terrace is situated just three and one-half miles from Los Angeles, and is only a "stone's throw" from the Glendale-Los Angeles Pacific Electric car line. These lots, says Mr. Palmanteer, are ideally located, being on level ground and in a district where values are rising very rapidly. Ivanhoe Hills district also has the advantage of facing on two 100-foot boulevards—Glendale and Silver Lake. This sub-division, Mr. Palmanteer points out, is the restriction placed on property to protect the purchaser. This will prevent the promiscuous location of unsightly buildings on the lots and will keep the home-owner safe from undesirable elements which he would face in a community less favorably situated and protected.

The first feature was the roll call, which was presented with clever mention of each member's name. In response the members were to give the names of their native states and a New Year thought for the section.

Mrs. C. H. Wilcox, curator, and Mrs. Rapp told of the Christmas work of the section, of the gifts and tree for the children in a Los Angeles hospital. It was noted that the section had contributed eighty-four baskets, 217 toys and games, forty articles of clothing, and countless jars of jellies and fruit.

The program given yesterday included a duet by Miss Pearl and Mrs. Gretta Gentry, accompanied by Mrs. Roberta Young, "I Would That My Love" (Mendelssohn); an informal talk by Mrs. C. E. Hutchinson on books and magazines; a reading, "The Week After Christmas" (Guest), by Mrs. Rapp; a Musical Romance with Mrs. Helen Sawyer at the piano, and Dr. Margaret York winning the prize; solo by Mrs. Lura Jane Burris, "I'll Die Yet First I Implore Thee"; two songs by Miss Adair, "The Danza" (Chadwick) and "Pansies" (Cox).

Hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. Fred Abbey and Miss Mae Lyons. Late in the afternoon they served tea and cakes to the twenty-six women present.

Dance Success
Reports from the New Year's eve party given by the Glendale Knights of Columbus council in their clubhouse at 330 East Lomita avenue, tell of an evening of gayety.

Wonderful holiday decorations and live music were features of the enjoyable affair.

During the evening there was a prize waltz with Mr. and Mrs. Sullivan, recently from Detroit, Mich., winning. Mrs. Sullivan was presented with a bouquet of beautiful sweetpeas by Jesse Smith, grand knight. The flowers were furnished by H. S. Bryan of the Verdugo Woodlands nursery.

At the stroke of 12 o'clock a high jinks greeted the new year, and each of the 200 persons present had a party favor. Later a buffet supper was served.

Frank Salmaica, chairman of the entertainment committee, who has been ill at home for several days, directed plans from his bed. He was assisted by P. H. Huesler, T. D. Smith, J. R. Miles, E. J. Albright and F. Wallace.

Mr. Wallace served most efficiently as chairman of decoration. He was assisted by W. Casket and Ray Delaney, the latter having charge of the lighting effects.

A bit of comedy was introduced when Jesse Smith, as grand knight of the council, formally presented Mr. Wallace with a deeply engraved iron cross, in recognition of his devoted services to the organization.

Eight Dead, Number Hurt by Explosion

(Continued from Page 1) a mass of flames almost instantly and escape would have been an impossibility for some of the men on the upper floors of the four-story structure. Pekin firemen were called, but found the blaze uncontrollable. Calls for aid were sent to Peoria immediately and fire trucks responded with the ambulances bearing physicians to the work of rescue. When Peoria firemen arrived the structure was out of control. The firemen directed their efforts to saving other buildings threatened by the blaze.

WANT FEDERAL BUILDING WASHINGTON, Jan. 3.—An appropriation of $100,000 for the erection of a new federal building at Port Angeles, Wash., was asked today in a bill sponsored in the Senate by Senator Jones, Republican of Washington.

Pneumonia Strikes Victim of Bullet

(Continued from Page 1) announcement was made as to her condition. At her home it was said she was suffering from nervous exhaustion. However, at the time of his arrest, Greer gave as his reason for insisting that Miss Normand go home from Dines' apartment with him, the statement that the film star was to undergo an operation for appendicitis.

Assumes Name Delving into Greer's past, the police learned today he came here eight months ago from Buffalo and assumed the name of Kelly upon his arrival in Los Angeles. He told the police he had been employed by several prominent film celebrities, but the officers were unable to learn who they were. He said he went to work for Miss Normand about two months ago. This part of his statement was borne out by the actress who said she employed him on the recommendation of the automobile agency from which she purchased a new machine at the time. Greer is said to claim that at one time he was employed as chauffeur by Charles Ray.

Assistant Captain of Detectives Herman Cline renewed his assertions again today that he did not believe Greer fired to protect himself but that Greer had conceived the idea that he was the protector of Miss Normand and was madly in love with her. This Greer emphatically denies, claiming he shot Dines during an argument when Dines tried to keep him from taking Miss Normand home after she had called him. It is Cline's theory that Greer went to Dines' apartment as a self-appointed hero and when upon arrival was scoffed at and told to leave, the shooting followed.

Miss Normand's Story Miss Normand questioned a second time by the police in an effort to clear up conflicting stories as to what preceded the shooting, said: "When Greer came in where we were, he said something about it being time for me to go. I remember Mr. Dines also said something about he didn't see why I should be detained to by my chauffeur and the next thing I knew, Greer had fired the shots and Dines was on the floor. It was all such a surprise and happened so hurriedly, I remember little of what occurred."

She also said that she could not see how Greer was infatuated with her as their relations had always been that of employer and employee, and simply can't understand it at all," Miss Normand said.

Companion Corroborates Mrs. Edith Burns, companion and chaperone for Miss Normand was questioned by the police and corroborated that portion of the story told by Greer that she ordered him to call for Miss Normand at Dines' apartment a few minutes before the shooting. According to Mrs. Burns, she called Dines' apartment in accordance with Miss Normand's instructions, shortly before 7 o'clock and told Dines that Greer was coming for Miss Normand.

"Whether or not Greer carried a gun, I do not know," Mrs. Burns said. "It would not be strange if he did. Mabel always wears so much jewelry and is so irresponsible that we must look after her." Miss Purviance, in a statement today, declared she met Dines a year ago and while they were "more or less" engaged, Dines had never given an engagement ring. She admitted she was very fond of him. Miss Purviance is said not to have slept since the shooting and was on the verge of illness today as a result.

In Bedroom Twice "What business had he in my bedroom, anyway?" demanded Miss Normand when told that Greer said he went to her room for the revolver. "I'll tell you the truth—it isn't I hope to drop dead! That man has been in my room only twice—once to repair my curling iron and once to fix an electric plug of some kind." Further investigation of Greer's past record was made by the police today. J. Roy Harlacher, of the police bureau of records, found Greer's photograph in the rogues' gallery together with finger prints and a record of his arrest and conviction in Oakland in 1914 for petty larceny under the name of Harris Greer. Greer escaped from the chain gang of the Oakland city jail, it was learned, after having served a few days of his sentence, and was never re-captured.

REV. TINNING TO HEAD NEW CHURCH

Rev. Louis Tinning, associate pastor of Glendale Presbyterian church, who resigns to lead Community Presbyterian church at San Juan Capistrano.

There has been only one event that has in any way detracted from the great happiness of the formal opening of the new Glendale Presbyterian church last Sunday and that is the resignation of Rev. Louis Tinning, presented last night to the session of the church board, and to take effect January 15.

During the three years that Mr. Tinning has been associated with the Glendale Presbyterian church his personality and devoted service have been noted in every undertaking of the organization and the regret of the church members upon his departure is shared by Glendaleans in all parts of the city.

Mr. Tinning goes to San Juan Capistrano, where he will become pastor of the Community Presbyterian church there. Capistrano is a place of great historic interest for it is there that Fra Junipero Serra and his brothers established one of their missions.

Real Service It is with the same spirit that inspired the mission fathers that Mr. Tinning will go to lead the first protestant congregation in the little town near the old mission.

Before coming to Glendale Mr. Tinning was pastor of Sunset Hills Presbyterian church in Los Angeles.

In bidding Mr. Tinning and his family farewell, the Glendale Presbyterian church voices deep appreciation for faithful service and happy friendship and the whole city of Glendale joins with the church in wishing success and happiness in their new home.

Two Presentations of Klever Kiddies' Play

The children's Japanese play, "Santa Claus in Japan," will be given Friday and Saturday nights of this week by the Woods School of Klever Kiddies, under direction of Mrs. Nanno Woods, director of the Glendale Community Players. This production marks the second step in Mrs. Woods' efforts to create in Glendale a Children's Little Theatre, similar to that in San Francisco and other cities. The curtain will rise at 8 o'clock sharp, and the performance will be over by 10 o'clock. The East Broadway school auditorium has been rented by Mrs. Woods for the occasion; she calls it the Broadway Little Theatre, for it has an ideal sloping floor, theatre seats, a fine stage, and seats 400 people. Santa Claus, impersonated by Cyril Holway of the Glendale Community Players, will give free presents to every child in the audience. Tickets may be had from Mrs. Woods, 122 W. Milford street, or Cornwall, Kelly's hardware store, 107 South Brand.

Bids Are Opened For Irving Improvement

Bids were opened this morning by the City Council for work in connection with the improvement of Irving street, San Fernando road and Fourth street, and for the water pipe on San Fernando road. After being read by City Clerk A. Van Wagon they were referred to the heads of departments concerned for checking and report.

COMMENT That's All

Enjoying a Cold Snap Glendale's Own Parade Behind the Scenes New Einstein Theory

By Gil A. Cowan

Chilly here? Well, you would have enjoyed blizzards in the east with ice and snow. However, the temperature is rising here and elsewhere.

The reported "killing frosts" in southern California were not so serious, although the change was sudden.

It is a little variety in climate that makes life worth living. And there are many here who like a little cold snap. Would that some of our famed bottling works contrived a means to preserve some of it for summertime.

Glendale is going to have a pageant all its own Saturday. The "Ten Million Dollar" parade planned to celebrate that grand total of building in 1923.

With the two prize-winning floats in line, several bands, and many local commercial entries, there is no question but that this event will be well worth seeing.

And last, but not least, it will be a splendid opportunity for argument in favor of the sewer bonds. More power to the parade.

We are rather amused at the reports on the cost of the Glendale floats—the civic entry being listed at $1500 and the Elks at $700.

That does represent the cash outlay, but where, oh where, could a person buy either for a price ranging from $5000 to $10,000?

The work done by loyal Glendale people to advertise this city at the Tournament of Roses each year is priceless. No doubt the wealthier cities would gladly give $2500 to Mr. Charles Coker, the designer, simply to direct the building of a grand prize entry.

How well do we recollect the year Portland paid a Los Angeles florist $2500 to turn the trick.

And where could we hire a crew of workers to go twenty-four to thirty-six hours without sleep to "bring home the bacon?"

The men who man the float in the parade, the children who play their part in riding the floral piece to victory, also deserve special mention.

Indeed, it is too bad that the pictures of the children do not show up plainly; while the mechanics are hidden by the foliage. Such is life!

Here's the new Einstein theory, according to the Santa Barbara News, which both wets and dries will enjoy reading:

Izzy Einstein, who has won fame as a rapid performer in the dry enforcement ranks, has prepared a schedule showing how long it takes to get a drink in various cities.

Izzy ought to know the facts, but his schedule does not accord with the statements of newspaper observers and others who study these things solely from a philosophical standpoint.

Here is the Einstein theory of the booze problem:

- Los Angeles, 50 minutes. San Francisco, 4 minutes. Washington, 2 hours 8 minutes. New Orleans, 35 minutes. Detroit, 3 minutes. New York, 3 minutes 10 seconds. Savannah, 4 minutes. Boston, 11 minutes. Pittsburgh, 14 minutes. Atlanta, 17 minutes. Baltimore, 18 minutes, 20 seconds. Chicago, 21 minutes. St. Louis, 21 minutes. Cincinnati, 26 minutes. Cleveland, 29 minutes. Minneapolis, 31 minutes.

It will be noted that, according to the real dry city of the nation, it takes the industrious stranger more than two hours to find a place to secure a drink of anything stronger than near beer.

It is a close race between San Francisco, New York and Detroit as for the wet "honors." A competent observer who knows the way around in some of the cities mentioned would find the schedule deficient in that it made the drink-finding problem more difficult than it really is. But Izzy and most other observers agree on one thing: that it is getting more and more difficult to find "the cup that cheers." In all parts of the country there is a growing determination to enforce prohibition laws even though at the same time, there is much agitation for a modification of the dry status.

Order Condemnation For Reservoir Site

City Attorney Ray L. Morrow was instructed by the City Council this morning to start condemnation proceedings for a reservoir site situated north of Campbell street.

An attempt has been made, it was stated, to reach an amicable agreement with the owners of the property, but without avail. The city will attempt to show that the reservoir is needed to care for the present and future residents of the north part of the city, and will take steps to acquire the land before it is subdivided and residences built on the lots in question.

Set Campbell Street Hearing For Jan. 17

Hearing on the application to establish Campbell street from Dryden north to the city limits, as a first-class residential district, allowing two residences on each lot, was set for January 17 this morning by the City Council.

Chauffeur's Story Remains Unshaken

(Continued from Page 1) fear, Greer, who shot him. A complaint charging Greer with attempted murder was drawn up by the district attorney's office today and arrangements were made for his arraignment in court.

The attempted murder complaint will be superseded by one charging first degree murder, if Dines dies, Captain of Detectives Hines announced.

Greer sticks to his story that he fired in self-defense when he thought Dines tried to strike him with a bottle. "I got the gun to protect myself," he said. "I've got lung and heart trouble and can't fight much. I insisted on Miss Normand returning home because I knew she needed the rest."

Drugs Not Discussed "Is Miss Normand using narcotics now?" one of the officers asked Greer.

"Not that I know of," he answered. "Did you ever tell anyone you thought Dines was getting narcotics for Miss Normand, or was persuading her to use them?" was another question fired at Greer.

"No," he shot back. "Well, was the subject ever discussed?" he was asked. "Not that I know of, but Mrs. Burns said she thought Miss Normand would be better off without some of those friends."

At the Good Samaritan hospital, where Dines is now confined, it was reported that Dr. Guy Cochran was preparing to perform an operation upon Miss Normand, who also is now at the same hospital.

Dr. Cochran was found this morning in the surgery room of the hospital, preparing for an operation, but refused to state whether or not it was true that Miss Normand was to submit to an operation.

Edna Purviance, who, with Mabel Normand, attended the ill-fated New Year's party in the apartment of Courtland S. Dines, millionaire clubman and sportsman, when Dines was shot by H. A. Greer, chauffeur to Mabel Normand, today emphatically denied that she is or has been Dines' "fiancee."

"The stories that have been circulated that I am to marry Courtland Dines, were manufactured out of whole cloth. Mabel Normand started the rumor when, in an irresponsible and impetuous moment she declared I was engaged to Court. But it isn't true."

Propped up in bed and wearing a pair of horn-rimmed glasses to "relieve the eye-strain occasioned by much weeping over the serious condition of Dines, Miss Purviance gave way to indignation that engulfed her because of erroneous reports of her engagement. "I'm not in love with Courtland

Dines and never have been," she continued. "Neither is he in love with me. We were dear friends, very, very dear friends, and the best of pals. We had an understanding concerning our friendship but the idea of marriage was never discussed by us, never even entered into our relation."

THEATRES THE GLENDALE THE GATEWAY. What is said to be the largest stock company ever employed in making a motion picture was engaged by Mary Pickford for the production of "Rosita," her latest photoplay feature, now showing at the Glendale Theatre. During the filming of this feature, twenty-five players, not counting those mentioned in the cast, were in stock at the Pickford-Fairbanks studio. All wore costumes made to order, the cost of which, plus the payroll, is believed to have made this the most expensive stock company ever employed. In "Rosita" Mary Pickford enters into her rightful heritage of glorious, vital, alluring womanhood in her histrionic career, and while the grown-up Mary Pickford quickly becomes the idol of men picture fans, she loses none of her tremendous following of women and children. It is believed by many that Miss Pickford's standing will be greatly enhanced by her temporary departure from little girl roles.

SPORTS

GRID SUPREMACY STILL UNSOLVED

Both Huskies' and Middies' Rooters Disappointed Over Results

Another annual inter-sectional football game has come and gone, and we are no nearer a decision regarding the supremacy of western football over the eastern brand, or vice versa, than we were before.

The Navy-Washington contest was a thriller from the spectators' point of view. Washington adherents, who figured that the Huskies were two touchdowns better than the Middies, were naturally disappointed at the Seattle men's showing. The Middle rooters, who figured after the third quarter passed that Washington was beaten, were also disappointed that Washington tied the score. So both sides were disappointed.

Those who witnessed the game should have taken home with them knowledge of two facts: First, that the Navy was a better coached team than Washington; and, second, that weight does not give the element of advantage in the present game that it did in the line-bucking style of a few years ago.

Navy's arrival in Pasadena was preceded by glowing accounts of their aerial attack. This was scoffed at by many, with a certain degree of justice. Although many eastern coaches who were in a position to know stated that the Navy was dangerous in the air, they had produced very few results from this method of attack. Notre Dame had beaten them, the Army and Princeton had tied them. Their sole claim to glory was their defeat of Colgate, 9-0.

Displays Skill

But the passing unworked by the Middies New Year's day was by far the finest exhibition ever seen on a western gridiron. Especially effective were the short, two-handed basket-ball passes of Shapely over the center of the line. Of the fifteen first downs made by the easterners, this short pass was responsible for a great majority. The Navy attempted twenty passes and completed sixteen, truly a wonderful record.

The Navy's complete and unopposed interception in all the passes netted them 175 yards. With Shapely to throw, Cullen and McKee to receive, the Middies had a very dangerous backfield.

The other noticeable feature of the Navy's play was the splendid interference. Those who took their eyes off the main carrying ball long enough would see the line on the offensive flank, in most cases, leave their positions when the ball was snapped, blocking out their line opponents and joining in the interference. Especially was this noticeable of Captain Carney, right guard, who is a man who runs interference with skill, and the many gains registered around the right end of the Husky line were in no small measure due to his all-around playing.

Of the eight passes attempted by Washington, three were completed, one resulting in the touchdown that tied the score. They attempted none of the short passes, and each one completed registered a big gain for the men from the north. They excelled the Middies in line plunging, Wilson making the first touchdown for the Huskies through a great hole torn in the Navy line by the heavy Washington backs.

Injuries Handicap

Washington was undoubtedly handicapped by injuries to three stars, Kuhn at tackle, Sherman and Tesreau in the backfield. In contrast to this Navy certainly had the best team of the year on the field, and played better football than they did against any of their eastern rivals, with the possible exception of Colgate. Neither team could offer any alibi regarding the warmth, but the Navy appeared to be in better condition than the Huskies.

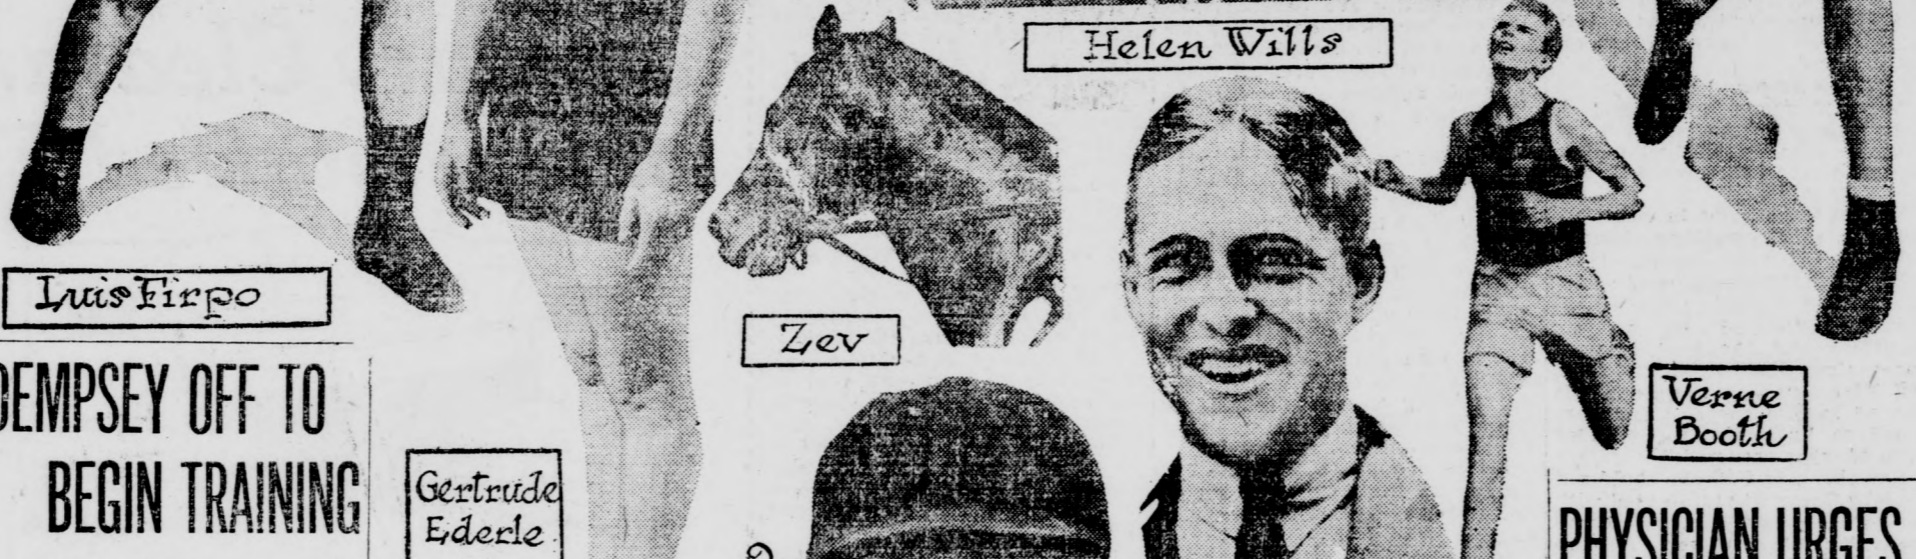

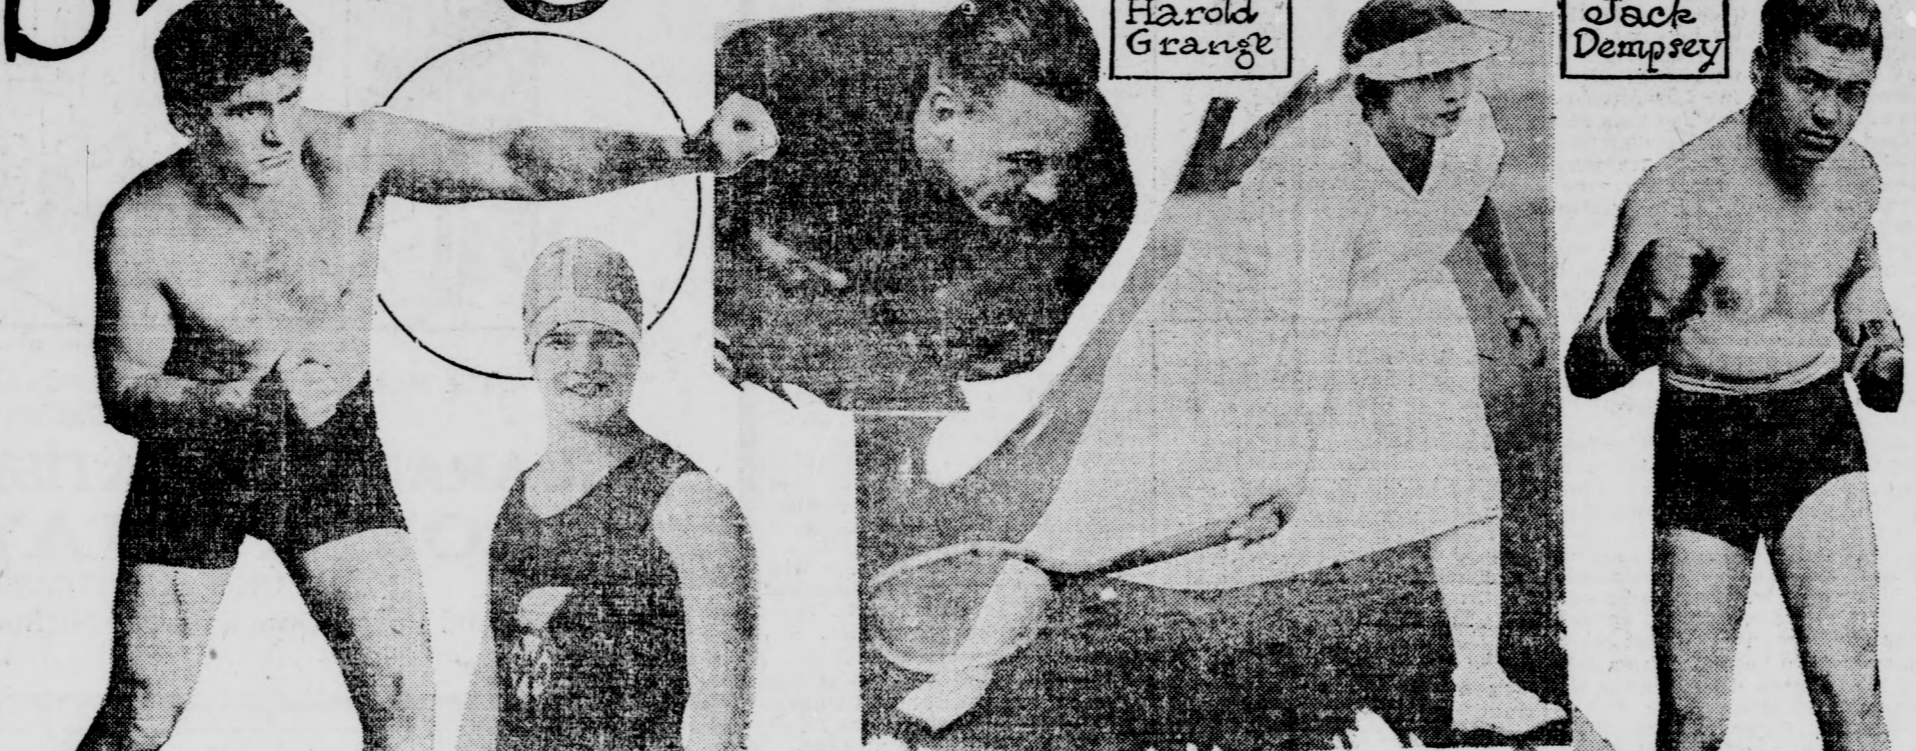

The deciding factor in the Navy's unexpected showing was the fact that they got the jump on the Huskies at every play. Given three steps, the Navy backs were in full speed, and outflanked the Washington backs and ends repeatedly. Washington, against the Navy, appeared very slow in getting their plays off.

SET COOTE'S TRIAL

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 3.—The date for the second trial of A. W. Coote, stock and bond broker who recently was tried and was acquitted on two of six charges of embezzlement, has been set for March 3rd. It was stated by Deputy District Attorney Van Cott that Coote will be prosecuted a second time on all of the four counts of embezzlement on which the jury was unable to reach a verdict at the first trial. Coote was indicted by the county grand jury for the alleged misappropriation of money to investors after he had been thrown into bankruptcy.

To maintain Harvard's football team, about $50,000 is spent annually.

DEMPSEY OFF TO BEGIN TRAINING

Like Arab, Steals Away, But in Different Way; Has Three Bouts Up

By DAVIS J. WALSH
For International News Service.
NEW YORK, Jan. 3.—Jack Dempsey, the well-known heavy-weight, is on the high seas, somewhere off the Virginia coast, bound for Florida to undergo light training in that genial climate for a bout in defense of his title later in the spring, probably with Tom Gibbons, the young man who stepped fifteen rounds with the champion at Shelby, Mont.

Few knew of Dempsey's projected trip to the land of palms, itching and floral. Like the wandering Arab of immortal fame, he just folded his tent and stole away. The only difference was that the Arabs stole everything else.

Dempsey's port of call will be Jacksonville, where the steamer Comanche is to end its voyage. It is possible that the champion will remain in Jacksonville for several days to await the pleasure of Jerry Luvasis, his trainer, and Jack Kearns, his man of business.

Once complete, the party will head south with Palm Beach and Miami in the immediate foreground.

May Visit Cuba

After that it may be a case of join the navy and see the world from a port-hole. The champion may go to Cuba for a quick look.

Meantime, he will indulge in light exercise under the direction of Kearns and his trainer. In a conference with Tex Rickard just before sailing Dempsey expressed a desire to frolic with three opponents during the coming outdoor season. The other two are Luis Firpo and Harry Wills.

He had been quoted as saying that two championship fights would be enough for Dempsey now. One of them, for a certainty, would be against Luis Firpo. The latter is a sure start-up against Dempsey despite the fact that everyone knows he will fail to finish.

New Business Heads Conduct Beauty Shop

Marion S. Tribble and Irene G. Neugebauer are announced as the new business managers of the Palace Grand Beauty shops. This announcement was made in the big display advertisement for the Palace Grand shops in the special edition of The Glendale Evening News on Tuesday.

A continuation of the satisfactory service and courtesy of the popular shop is assured all Glendale patrons.

KILLED IN CRASH

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 3.—Mrs. Charlotte Burgess, 57, of Florin, was instantly killed late last night when the machine in which she was riding collided with the automobile of S. R. Haight of Fruit Ridge on the upper Stockton road and turned turtle.

The most important game of the season's basketball schedule to date will be that played at the high school gym tonight between Santa Monica, last year's champs, and Glendale post of the American Legion.

The Saints nosed out Glendale last year, but the locals have been going great guns so far this season, and expect to win. The game will have great bearing on the league standing, and both teams may be expected to extend themselves to the utmost.

Glendale has not lost a game this year, and the team is playing a brand of ball that is hard to beat. Santa Monica has practically the same quiet in the field that walked off with the flag last year, and are confident of victory.

Rumors, Denials, Alibis

By F. A. GRAHAM

Just what a risk is taken in writing this stuff for you, is shown by the fact that Prof. James Smith, secretary and treasurer of the California State Normal school, died recently from infection in a bruise he received while operating a typewriter. We have increased our insurance policy and hope the subscribers appreciate the jeopardy in which we work. Thus has writing become a doubly dangerous vocation.

Hitherto the danger was from the outraged subscribers who have to read the stuff, but now the Knights of the Typewriter take their rightful place among those who daily risk their lives in the service of the dear public. Now if we can just escape the irate customers long enough to take out a few more insurance policies to protect our family, all will be Jacob.

LEGION TOSSERS TO PLAY CHAMPS

Santa Monica Basketeers Will Meet Local Athletes at H. S. Gymnasium

As the locals have defeated both Los Angeles posts, and Huntington Park has showed only mediocre form, it would seem that this year's pennant rests with Santa Monica and Glendale. The team in Glendale colors will be the same that has played together all year: Wheeler, Leggett and Brown, forwards; Bunker and Beach, center; Austin, Dick and Hibbard, guards.

The game will be called at 8 o'clock sharp and the largest crowd of the season is expected to be on hand.

Car Catches Fire as Result of Back Fire

A Studebaker touring car, in a garage at 343 North Pacific avenue, belonging to C. E. Miele, caught fire this morning at 9 o'clock, as the result of a back-fire from the carburetor.

The blaze spread to the garage, but was well in hand when the fire department, in response to a call for help, arrived on the scene. The fire was easily extinguished before extensive damage had been done.

ROTARY CLUB TO ENTER 42 AUTOS

Organization to Make Strong Showing in Greater Glendale Parade

Forty-two cars will be entered in the Greater Glendale parade on Saturday by members of the Glendale Rotary club, according to the results of a poll taken at today's luncheon in the Egyptian Village by W. E. Lusby.

Earle C. Pendroy, who was a guest of the club, brought the three silver cups that were won by the two Glendale floats at Pasadena on Tuesday in the Tournament of Roses and exhibited them to the members. These cups will be shown in the windows of the Pendroy Department store on South Brand boulevard. L. W. Chobe, the designer of the two floats, and Mrs. Chobe, will be honored guests at the luncheon of the Rotary club next Thursday.

Forty members of the club will attend the annual entertainment at the Biltmore hotel, Los Angeles, on Saturday night, when the Los Angeles Rotary club will be invited to twenty-five clubs in Southern California.

Miss Hermine Schwed, speaking under the auspices of the Better American Federation, delivered an address urging support of the constitution of the United States.

The following visitors were present: Ed Kimball of Hollywood, the father of Clara Kimball Young; J. Will Johnston, Pueblo, Colo.; Wallin C. Miller, Jerome, Ariz.; Paul W. Light, Liberal, Kansas; J. R. Knapp, Will R. Parker, W. F. Traugher and George Silvers, Los Angeles.

Campfire Girls Have Outing Over Week-End

Tatapachan Campfire Girls enjoyed a week-end outing recently with their guardian, Mrs. Roy Watrous, at the Chandler cabin in the Verdugo hills.

The formal Campfire activities were enjoyed and five new members were initiated at the ceremonial held Thursday night.

Those in attendance were Josephine Franklin, Anna Margaret Phillips, Marjorie Brown, Viola Van Pelt, Rose Watrous, Janice Fletcher, Nyla Chapman, Margaret Haight, Grace Thompson, Margaret Knight, Dorothy Beane and Willa Hoyt Budd.

AGED MAN SUICIDE

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 3.—Y. H. H. Baumgardt, 70 years a cripple, climbed into a tree, tied a rope around his neck and jumped. His body was found hanging to the tree in Presidio park late yesterday by soldiers.

SYDNEY, Australia, Jan. 3.—The British steamship Preuth, bound for New York, went aground today on Natera reef. She was reported in a dangerous position.

PHYSICIAN URGES SEWAGE SYSTEM

Dr. A. A. MacIntyre Advocates Building of Sanitary Plant For City

Editor, The Evening News.—There is an impression about town that those who favored annexation to Los Angeles are opposed to the sewer bonds. About a year ago I was in favor of annexation, as I believed it the only way by which Glendale could get an adequate sewage system. I thought then, as I think now, that sewer farms, reduction plants, etc., are an expensive makeshift, and have not yet passed beyond the experimental stage.

Legislation has made it possible for Glendale to "hook up" with Los Angeles' outfall sewer system, and an agreement has been entered into, between the two cities, which may not be all that we would like, but no doubt the best that could possibly be obtained, and failure on our part to ratify it would be a colossal blunder.

No one doubts the absolute necessity of getting a sewage system at the earliest possible moment. Every day we delay this matter we are tempting fate, for, while cesspools are multiplying, contamination of our water supply must come sooner or later.

We are responsible for the health of those who come after us, and human life cannot be measured in dollars and cents.

Our duty, therefore, on next Tuesday, is as clear as Nelson's message on Trafalgar's morn.

Take, then, the other side of the question, the business side, if you will. Ratify the agreement and vote the bonds, and every piece of property in the city will enhance in value over night. Capital will seek investment here; industries will come in ever-increasing numbers; hotels will be built, and Glendale will enter upon an era

MAY RECOGNIZE RUSSIA

MOSCOW, Jan. 3.—George Tchitcherin, commissar for foreign affairs in the Russian soviet government, predicted today that Great Britain and Italy will soon recognize Russia. He said that perhaps the United States would join in the recognition movement. Revelation was made that Japan has made overtures. The Russian commissar said that France is the only big nation remaining hostile.

DELAY FINAL ACTION

DENVER, Jan. 3.—Acceptance of a loan of $1,500,000 from a New York syndicate to pay interest on outstanding bonds of the Denver & Rio Grande Western railroad was announced here today. The loan, it was said, will result in postponement of final action on the reorganization plan recently approved by the interstate commerce commission, which provides for taking over the Rio Grande by the Missouri Pacific and Western Pacific railroads. The state of Colorado is strongly opposed to this reorganization plan.

Annexation Is Not Issue In Sewer Bond Project Says Atty. W. E. Evans

W. E. Evans, for ten years city attorney for Glendale, a large taxpayer and prominent in civic affairs, is in favor of voting for the sewer bonds and in favor of the contract with the city of Los Angeles.

Editor The Evening News:—Every analysis of the issues involved in the sewer bond election resolves in favor of voting the bonds and ratifying the contract with the city of Los Angeles, providing for a connection with the sewer system of the latter city. The contract with the city of Los Angeles, is eminently fair to the city of Glendale. I fear that too many people in considering this contract, overlook the invaluable privilege Glendale is acquiring by binding Los Angeles to carry its sewage from the point of connection at Sixth and Utah streets, to the ocean, treating it there, and finally disposing of it.

Too much credit cannot be given to Glendale a privilege that she has been praying for, almost on her bended knees, during the past twelve years.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH ELECTS OFFICERS

Reports Show Congregation Flourishing in Charge of Rev. C. A. Cole

In spite of the rain on New Year's eve, the annual business meeting and election of officers of the Central Christian church was attended by a large part of the membership of the church.

A feature of the meeting this year was a comparative report of the activities of 1923 and that of 1917, the first year of the pastorate of Rev. Clifford A. Cole. The membership has grown from 175 to about 700. The entire budget for that year was but $2,300 for all purposes; and this year it was $10,550 and was overpaid by $325.

The church has never in these seven years gone to the business men of Glendale nor outside its own ranks for financial aid, and has never closed a year with a deficit.

Cole's Record. Rev. Clifford A. Cole came to the Glendale church January 1, 1917, from the Compton Heights Christian church, a downtown church in St. Louis with about 800 members.

Following the reports of messages, Tuesday night, the church elected the following officers for the year: Elders—A. B. Heacock, Floyd Mercer, E. W. Lyon, J. L. Metz, C. W. Bacon, C. A. Cole, R. P. Jodon, W. B. Kirk, O. L. Kilborn, J. H. Garnsey, H. A. Lathrop, R. L. Adamson.

REALTORS CHEER FLOAT DESIGNER

L. W. Chobe Given Ovation at Luncheon; Will Be Guest at Annual Dinner

Members of the Glendale Realty Board and the precinct captains and their assistants, assembled at luncheon in the First Methodist church yesterday noon, rose as one man to greet L. W. Chobe, designer of Glendale's two winning floats in the Pasadena Tournament of Roses when he entered the dining hall, and the cheers that Glendale's artistic genius was accorded showed the appreciation felt for his work by every man in the room.

President Peter Hanson, in a brief speech, complimented Mr. Chobe for his accomplishments and declared that the reproductions of his work will go out around the world, advertising Glendale wherever it is shown.

C. D. Thom, chairman of the sewer committee, declared that the bond issue is certain to go over in spite of the slight opposition that is being manifested in certain quarters, and he then called on C. W. Ingledue, chairman of the precinct organization, to submit the reports of the workers.

The remainder of the city precincts, it is declared, may be depended upon to roll up more than the required two-thirds in favor of the bond issue of $1,600,000, and arrangements will be announced tomorrow, when the organization meets again at the noon, by which a regular schedule First Methodist church for luncheon will have been worked out for bringing the supporters of the (Continued on page 4)

Man Who Asks Something For Nothing Only Foe of Proposed Sewage System

It is seldom that a public improvement is planned without some objection being raised on account of the cost of the contemplated project.

Glendale has at the present time over 10,000 cesspools, representing an investment of more than $500,000.00. Over $100,000.00 of this amount was spent during the last twelve months. In less than five years, if the same system is continued, the total investment will be $1,000,000.00—two-thirds of the cost of a permanent solution of the sewage disposal problem.

During the last year $1,600.00 was spent in the business district in a vain attempt to keep six blocks of sewer served by cesspools in operation. One thousand dollars of this amount was spent in the last two months and conditions are worse than ever.

The proposed Glendale outfall main will cost $1,250,000.00 approximately, and together with the Los Angeles outfall will give complete sewerage service to the Pacific Ocean.

New Ford Dealer. Announcing My appointment by the Ford Motor Company as an authorized dealer in the city of Glendale, located at the Gateway, San Fernando Road and Brand Blvd., occupying the premises formerly occupied by Harry E. White, Inc. J. G. CADDELL LINCOLN FORD FORDSON

GLENDALE. I remember only a few years back When 'twas only just a village; But look at it now, and what we lack, To make it some great image. I always was for all improvements To help along our city's growing; The smiles, the joys, the great contentments, Its praises my trumpet forever blowing. Big buildings have sprung up o'er night, And still there's more a-coming; A sewer is what we want all right, To keep prosperity humming. The city then by leaps and bounds, Her population increase, Industries planted on vacant grounds, Pay-roll money will then release. The skies will look the brighter, The mountains all more grand, Our hearts will all be lighter, And our city's fame expand. Our churches sing its praises, To help this New Year's plans, While our city blazes Against all opposing clans. A bright and bigger city we shall be If a sewer system we can get; From contagious diseases keep us free, With a bond's indebtedness met. I believe the cost will repay ten-fold All money that's expended, The city worth its weight weight in gold, And opposing factions mended. I'm member of no clique or clan, But foster what I think is right, Nor fear or favor any man, And fight a wrong with all my might. On January 8 I shall go to the poll To register a vote for my city; As a property owner pay my toil, And herewith close my ditty. FRANK BOOTH, January 1, 1924. 111 So. Kenwood St., Glendale, Cal

Diet and Health

By Lulu Hunt Peters, M.D.
Author of "Diet and Health, with Key to the Calories"

WHAT YOU WILL DODGE BY REDUCING YOUR WEIGHT

Today is the second day of your shrinking stomach period. You are going to have from 600 to 800 calories during the day, preferably one quart of skim or buttermilk, which is about 320 calories (one quart of whole milk is twice as much, on account of the cream) and twelve dates (300 calories). However, if you do not care for milk, or cannot get it, then you can take 600 or 800 calories of fruit. If you cannot get the fresh milk, there is a dried skim-milk powder which you can get and make up according to directions on the label.

DIABETES: Joslin one of the great authorities on that disease, says that 75 per cent of the diabetics are over-fat. Not that the fat in itself causes the trouble, but the same thing which causes the excess fat is the chief cause of diabetes—namely, the over-consumption of starches and sugars. So when you allow yourself to accumulate an excess of fat, you may be heading for diabetes. Therefore, prevent or reduce excess fat and you prevent or reduce cases of diabetes.

ARTERIO-SCLEROSIS, or hardening of the arteries: Osler gives over-eating as one of the chief causes of this disorder. Over-eating is one of the chief causes of over-fatness. Therefore, prevent or reduce fat and you prevent or reduce cases of arterio-sclerosis.

HEART DISEASE: Heart disease may result from hardening of the arteries (see above), acute rheumatism, etc., and it may also result from being covered too warmly with a blanket of fat. Or the fat may penetrate in between the muscle-fibers of the heart, and later the muscle itself may degenerate into fat. A lump of fat will not function as a heart. An constrains, a lump of fat will not function as anything. Prevent or reduce excess fat and you prevent or reduce cases of heart disease.

APOPLEXY: Apoplexy is the result of a rupture of an artery in the brain. It is due usually to arterio-sclerosis, which may be due to over-eating for a long enough time to accumulate excess weight. It is not considered a pleasurable disease to have nor to prevent. Prevent or reduce excess fat and you prevent or reduce cases of apoplexy.

Kidney disease, intestinal disorders, cancer, gout, muscular rheumatism, neuritis, and a lot of other little things are more prevalent in the over-weighters than they are in the under-weighters. Prevent and reduce excess fat and you prevent and reduce cases of kidney disease, cancer, gout, muscular rheumatism and neuritis.

FLAT FEET: Flat feet, nine times out of ten, are due to the arches of the feet breaking down under a load that Nature never intended them to bear. They cannot be termed a joy forever by the wildest imagination. Normal and lightweight individuals seldom have them, but you find flat feet on fat figures frequently. There's enough alliteration there, I'm thinking, to impress you that the prevention and reduction of excess fat will prevent and reduce cases of flat feet.

There are many other disagreeable disorders that the prevention and reduction of excess fat will prevent and reduce. But I am sure I have given you sufficient to make you realize it is not wholly the question of looks that makes reduction advisable—but that reduction is a matter that has to do with health, efficiency and happiness.

Tomorrow continue on your 600 to 800 calories and we will talk about some get-thin-quick schemes which you must avoid.

The Rev. Maude Hoyle is a medical missionary at Rotifunk, Sierra Leone, Africa. Recently she returned home to Springfield, Ohio, on a furlough. She prepared for her ministerial work at the Bonebrake Seminary of the United Brethren church in Dayton, Ohio, and was graduated in 1909, the only graduate of her class to enter the ministry.

After her graduation Miss Hoyle founded a church in her home town of Springfield. Her ambition, however, was to be a missionary, and, realizing that she must know something about ministering to the physical as well as spiritual needs of her flock, she resigned her pastorate and took a course of training in the Springfield City Hospital. She was graduated from there in 1917 and made application to the foreign mission board of the United Brethren church. Her application was accepted in 1921.

Rev. Hoyle is head of the dispensary in Rotifunk. There are three hospital beds in the dis-

Miss Annie S. Peck, author of "Industrial and Commercial South America," and other books on South America, is lecturing in a number of the larger cities of this country on "Friendliness With South American Countries." She discusses methods of promoting a better understanding between Latin-America and the United States. Miss Peck is noted for her knowledge of South American affairs, and has frequently lectured in Spanish before audiences in South American countries where she speaks for friendliness with the United States.

In a recent issue of "The Independent Woman," the official bulletin of the National Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs, Miss Gertrude Dillenberger of Shreveport, La., stresses the necessity of work to reduce the unemployment of women during times of business depression. Miss Dillenberger was chairman of the unemployment bureau during the slack time of 1921 and was able to render valuable service to many women. She asserts that the Public Employment Service of the United States has done notable work in reducing unemployment and bettering the conditions of the employed.

BEAUTY CHATS

FOR NERVOUS WOMEN

Nervous women give out as a rule, more easily than those of stolid temperament. It is the nervous woman more than any other, who should watch for signs of growing old.

She will find that her skin tends to become excessively dry, particularly during a "nervy" period. She will find wrinkles appear overnight with the most astonishing rapidity, she will find gray hairs, unsuspected the day before, showing in the thick patches, all over her head. The only thing she is not likely to find is that she is losing her figure, through unwieldy flesh.

She should experiment with hair tonics, until she has found one that does the hair good. I would advise my pilocarpine tonic because it particularly prevents premature grayness. She should use her tonic at least three times a week and massage her scalp then and on the inter-tween days. She should possess a good flesh building cream even if she spends more on it than she can afford. In order to know what is in the cream, she really should make it herself, for it should be rich with almond or olive oil, and if there is no tendency to superfluous hair, a little camelline oil.

She should also have a cleansing cream, for there will be a few times when she is feeling particularly run down and nervous when the skin will be so dry that she will not be able to use soap on it. In this case she had better use cleansing cream and wash it off with warm water. The other massage cream should be used at night after the face has been steamed or washed in very hot water. It should be rubbed in thoroughly; in fact nothing would be better than a half hour's massage. Whatever remains on the surface of the skin can then be wiped off. The following morning the complexion will be fresh but not at all oily.

This sort of treatment prevents wrinkles, one of the nervous woman's greatest afflictions. She must guard against frowns and facial twistings as much as possible also.

A Constant Reader:—The reason why you have lost weight and have become nervous and irritable, is because you are brooding over your disappointment in the man. You have no disease other than a bad case of mental depression, and that would be enough to pull you down just as you describe in your letter. You already see that it is keeping you from holding a position, so why not make yourself have a vital interest in the next position and with a determination that it shall effect your cure.

Forget all about men for the time being and try building yourself up mentally and physically by being thoroughly in earnest in whatever work you find to do. Drink at least a pint of hot milk before retiring; it will nourish and make you sleep well. You will then be ready and refreshed for the next day's tasks, and in a few months you will be better than ever before.

Tomorrow:—Face Steaming.

All inquiries addressed to Miss Forbes in the "Beauty Chats" department will be answered in these columns in their turn. This requires considerable time, however, owing to the great number received. So, if a personal or quicker reply is desired, a stamped and self-addressed envelope must be enclosed with the question.—The Editor.

Heart and Home Problems

By MRS. ELIZABETH THOMPSON

DOWNCAST

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a married woman thirty-five years old and have a good husband. I am sick nearly all the time and have been for the past four years. I have three sisters and a brother and I dearly love all of them. I would take anything I had to help any of them out and I never try to hurt their feelings in any way. But only one of my sisters comes to see me. This hurts me terribly. Also my mother never comes to see me unless I am nearly dead. All through my life I have been wanted that way. Please tell me what you would advise a person in my condition. It just seems as if I can't stand it as I am not to blame.

BROKEN-HEARTED.

My dear woman, my advice will probably be anything but comforting, but it may help you to understand your family better and to get along with the various members. Only too often it takes sickness and suffering to make one sympathetic. Doubtless your mother, brother and sisters enjoy good health and therefore it depresses and irritates them to be around you when you are suffering so much. Try not to judge them harshly because experience has not taught them what it is to be sick so much of the time.

I think if you try to get their point of view, completely ignoring your side of the case, you will find that they enjoy you more. Never talk to them of your own sickness and suffering, but devote the conversation when you are together to their affairs. If you maintain a cheerful attitude and do not let trouble cloud your hours together, you will probably find that the healthy members of your family enjoy you more. It is only natural that sickness should throw a cloud over your life, but smile through it. Let your own radiance make you a brave sufferer who refuses to recognize trouble and discouragement.

SWEET BLUE EYES.

I agree with your parents decidedly. You are too young to go with a boy.

USELESS.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: There is a boy whom I love very much. He doesn't know it and I haven't known him very long. I asked to bring me home one night from the theatre and I accepted his company. He seems to be a very nice boy. I have gone out riding with him and his sister and he has always been polite in every way.

Please advise me how to win his love.

ANXIOUS GIRL.

Just be happy, sweet and good, and if the boy does not like you as you are, let him find another girl more to his taste. It is useless to try to force a man's love.

HELPED LITTLE GIRLS' COUGH.

"FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR COMPOUND" is fine. My little girl had an awful cough. I got a bottle of FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR COMPOUND and gave her a few doses and she was greatly relieved," writes Clyde H. Benson, Marlborough, Virginia. The best remedy for coughs, colds, hoarseness; relieves promptly and effectively. FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR COMPOUND has stood the test of time, serving three generations.—Glendale Pharmacy, 638 East Broadway; Hub Pharmacy, Glendale and Colorado; Acacia Pharmacy, 922 South Glendale Avenue.—Advertisement.

TODAY—Bus an Institution in London; Drivers Are Highly Skilled

By DAVID M. CHURCH For International News Service.

LONDON, Jan. 3.—All the comforts of home will soon be found in a London bus.

The London General Omnibus company is proposing to install wireless sets on its busses operating in the London area.

All London travels by bus. In the evening a silk-hatted young blood off to a dinner party may be seen sitting by the side of a dirt begrimed "navy" on his way home after a hard day's work for a dinner of bread, cheese and beer.

More than a billion people a year travel on London busses and the service has been worked up to such an efficiency that during the last year there were only three complaints for every million passengers carried.

The bus conductor has taken the place of the old cab driver in the life of London. There is a type of humor developing which is distinctive to the bus conductor, just as in the old days there was a type of humor distinctive to the cab driver.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, Jan. 3.—With the object of studying the birds and wild fowl of Alaska with reference to their possible bearing on vegetable life and agriculture, in the northern and western parts of the U. S., a group of government experts and field naturalists is preparing for a journey to the Delta of the Yukon.

On the Spur of the Moment

Uncle Wiggily Bedtime Stories

BY HOWARD R. GARIS

UNCLE WIGGILY BLACKS THE STOVE "Oh, it looks all right," said the Fox, indifferent like.

"What do you mean around, my dear muskrat lady housekeeper?" asked the bunnny gentleman, as he twinkled his pink nose.

"I mean around the hollow bungalow," replied Nurse Jane. "I want to do a bit of cleaning and black the stove. It will soon be Christmas, you know, and I want things to look neat in case Santa Claus should drop in to call."

"This is too bad, not to say disappointing," thought Uncle Wiggily to himself, as he hopped into another field. "Perhaps I shall find an adventure here."

"Here I am, Nurse Jane, back again. I hope you'll let me stay!" But there was no answer from the muskrat lady housekeeper.

"I see what happened," murmured Uncle Wiggily. "Some of the neighbors asked Nurse Jane to come over to one of their houses. She went before she had time to black the stove. But I'll do it for her. It may be an adventure for me. I'll black the stove!"

"No sooner said than done! Uncle Wiggily took off his coat, picked up some of the rags and the brush and, putting a little water in the can of shiny black stuff, the bunnny began to polish the kitchen stove."

"Tra-la-la! Tra-la-la!" sang Uncle Wiggily, as he dabbed a little of the black polish on one stove lid. "Tra-la-la! Christmas will soon be here!"

"Oh, yes, I s'pose so," grumbled the Fox. Uncle Wiggily put a big daub of black on the brush and rubbed it on top of the stove.

'I'm all black!' howled the Fox not at all indifferent like. And out of the bungalow he ran to wash the stove blacking off his face.

Timely Views on World Topics

"MOB SPIRIT MENACES DEMOCRACY," SAYS DR. MEIKELJOHN

"Whenever excellence has been given to the multitude, the mob has destroyed it," declared Dr. Alexander Meikeljohn, former president of Amherst college, in a recent address on "Democracy and Excellence."

"The crowd cannot work for excellence as an individual. It is jealous of superior ability and seeks to drag it down to the common level," he said.

"Drama, music, speech, all the arts, are degraded when they come in contact with the multitude. Greece flowered into works of unexcelled beauty because it was a democracy of a few, using the work of thousands of slaves to advance the upper classes.

"The honest aristocrat today urges that we pick out the talented few and let the others be slaves to support them, that they may attain excellence."

"Will democracy succeed in America? We do not know. We cannot know the result of any game we enter, and democracy is the great experiment of America. The chances seem to be against us. Only when we're down do we know. That is time enough."

Boy Scouts Hike
The local troop of Boy Scouts enjoyed a hike up to Switzer's camp under the direction of Assistant Scout Master Arthur Cox. Driving up the Arroyo Seco as far as Idiwild the boys left the cars to hike up the trail to their camp. Leaving Idiwild after eating lunch the first accident of the trip occurred when Harold Harrison of Tujunga slipped, cutting quite a gash on his head. First aid was rendered and the journey proceeded to Switzer's camp, where the boys had a splendid dinner, doing full justice to it with healthy young appetites. After dinner the large fireplace in the living room was enjoyed, the boys singing songs and playing Scout games till time to retire. On Saturday morning the troop left camp to hike up the trail to San Gabriel peak. Alpine Tavern was visited for lunch, and some time was spent at Camp Huntington where the boys watched a contest in archery between the Huntington Archers and the Johnson bowmen.
