THINGS WORTH SEEING

At the American Music Hall

An all star bill combining practically every form of entertainment will be presented at the American Music Hall this week. The dramatic end of the program will be amply cared for by Bransby Williams the noted English portrayer of Dickens' characters. Mr. Williams long since recognized as one of England's most capable actors has made a specialty during late years of putting in the flesh the creations of the great novelist Charles Dickens. His characterizations of "Barnaby Rudge," "Oliver Twist," "Little Nell," etc., are masterpieces of acting. To any theatre-goer his work is entertaining but to the admirer of Dickens his work is an education in itself. A new act which has created a sensation in New York and which will make a very strong bid for top-blue honors in Boston is that of "Those Three Fellows." The name was suggested by the fact that in referring to them it was customary for New Yorkers to say, "Have You Seen 'Those Three Fellows?'" They are a trio of singers of the Bohemian sort who have scored individual successes at concert halls throughout the country. If New York critics may be believed they present one of the strongest singing acts in vaudeville. Lamb's Manikins is an elaborate act with a wonderful scenic setting. One of the prominent settings shows a remarkable view of the Swanee River with a miniature steam boat wending its way along emitting from its little funnel real smoke. The Svengalis lend a touch of the mysterious to the bill for they give an exhibition of mind reading which can only be explained by accrediting them with the power of mind over matter. The balance of the bill will include Spellman's Bears, a troupe of highly trained animals that will prove a real treat for the children, Gerlie LeClair and her Picks in Southern singing and dancing, Tambo & Tambo, sensational tambourine spinners and other high class acts.

AT THE GLOBE THEATRE

"Going Some," a comedy of unique types and a Western setting minus the usual heroes, will be seen here for the first time Monday evening, Feb. 7th at the Globe Theatre. The comedy, which is by Paul Armstrong and Rex Beach was first brought out "on trial" in Philadelphia over a year ago. Several New York managers were invited to witness a performance but each of them refused to buy the play. The manner in which Mr. Armstrong and Mr. Beach held on to their property and how the Shuberts a year later undertook its metropolitan production and the success the play met are now theatrical history.

BOSTON OPERA HOUSE—"Carmen"

SHOPPING NEWS

At the Red Glove Shop, 322 Boylston Street, Miss M. F. Fisk, is having an Opening of Ladies' Waists, made specially for this season of the year when so many are preparing for a Southern trip; like all of the pretty things turned out by this house very attractive are in the real Japanese silks, all colors, the French Crepe that does not require ironing, Voile and Lingerie, the models are becoming, are in plain or more elaborate and you are invited to see them.

Miss R. Butler, The Hair Store, 29 Temple Place. At this establishment, the most centrally located in Boston, will be found the largest assortment of Hair Goods in New England, Hair Dressing, Manicuring, Treatment of Face and Scalp, Chiropody, Pedicure, Combs, Barrettes, Pins. Hotel work by appointment. Tel. Oxford 628.

One of the almost indispensable articles at this the Opera season, is a good opera glass. Millar & Weltch the West St. opticians, have anticipated the demand and have imported an excellent line and are prepared to show a large variety in plain and fancy mountings, also they make a specialty of thermometers, both for inside or outside use.

Macullar Parker Company call attention to their Fall and Winter stock of Suits, Overcoats, Furnishing Goods, etc., for men, young men and boys.

William H. Winship (formerly H. A. Winship), 16 Tremont St., are showing a fine line of Trunks, Bags and Dress Suit Cases for European Travel. A full stock of the latest designs in ladies' wrist and hand bags. Always reliable. Established 1842.

The soft Oriental materials to be seen in Davis' East India House, 373 Boylston Street, near Arlington Street, are different from anything to be found elsewhere, and one finds there, also, beautiful embroideries and many interesting novelties, from many parts of the world.

John J. Stevens & Co., 300 Boylston St., call attention to their Annual Mark Down Sale. Ladies' Muslin Underwear, also Misses' and Children's Suits, Coats and Dresses. Great bargains in same.

A. L. La Vers & Co., 190-192 Boylston St., 32-34 Park Square, are showing an unusually attractive line of moderate priced Furs, suitable for Holiday Gifts. A discount of ten per cent. will be allowed professional people on all cash purchases.

There is no question but that Raymond & Whitcomb Company, whose office is at 306 Washington Street, next to the Old South Church, maintain the best equipped and most complete ticket office for railroad and steamship tickets in the city. Correct information will be furnished with pleasure.

Hewins & Hollis, at 4 Hamilton Place, are showing a complete line of English neckwear that will appeal to men of discriminating taste.

The establishment of Kakas Bros., 179 Tremont Street, is renowned for perfection of taste and refinement daily exemplified in beautiful creations of all kinds of Fur at Moderate Prices.

For correct styles in Men's Furnishings one naturally goes to Blanchard, King & Co.'s., 250 Boylston Street. Their Ladies' Department is becoming noted for a choice variety of hand embroideries in waists and gowns. Also Imported Brass and Leather Novelties in choice variety.

THINGS WORTH SEEING

At the American Music Hall

The great Scotch comedian, Harry Lauder, recognized as the World's premier entertainer, will make his last appearance in America for five years at the American Music Hall this coming week. Mr. Lauder is now so well known to Bostonians that very little comment is necessary. His engagement here as well as other cities where he appears mean capacity audiences and an entertainment which one long remembers. While he will introduce some new songs he will not neglect the old favorites "I Love A Lassie" and "She Is My Daisy." The management at the American Music Hall wishes to announce positively that Mr. Lauder will not be seen again in America for five years to come so that this will be the only opportunity of seeing him for that period. Mr. Lauder will be surrounded by a bill fully up to the high standard established at this popular playhouse. The staunch vaudeville favorites, Rice & Cohen will present their screaming farce, "All The World Loves A Lover." Rice & Cohen are two artists who have made their mark in the legitimate and have done a great deal toward raising the tone of the varieties. In every sketch in which they have appeared they have scored heavily and it is safe to assume that they will do likewise in their newest vehicle. The Mayvilles, Harry and Elsie, are two diminutive people, twenty-two inches in height, who have one of the most original acts in vaudeville. They sing, dance and cut up in a manner that keeps the audience continuously amused. Sam Stern is one of Mr. Morris' latest finds and from an unknown he has risen to be one of the ringing sensations in New York. He is a character singer, including in his repertoire Italian recitations and Hebrew characterizations. Other acts on this great bill are Paul's juggling girls, a sextette of beautiful girls, who juggle in a bewildering manner, the Two Roses, The Lel'ages and two others of vaudeville's big acts.

AT THE GLOBE THEATRE.

"Going Some," now on its second and last week at the Globe, is "the" Best Comedy that has played in Boston in many years, barring none. The scenes are laid out in the West where a former Yale student has taken up ranch life. Owing to a very fine ranch and from all appearances is making good. It seems, from the characters in the play that it is a Mecca for students, both male and female, to spend their vacation at this beautiful place in the western country and "thereby hangs a tale," love of course. Mixed with good, clean comedy, and funny, awkward situations that one is bound to find in this cowboy territory. Much credit is due to Walter Jones, the principal comedian. Walter can handle more slang, and get away with it before ladies, than any other man on the American stage today, there isn't any particular line of his that would claim particular mention, for every time he speaks it's funny. Mr. Fardmaze, who plays the part of a Mexican cowboy, deserves particular mention. It is too bad that his part does not give him more opportunities for singing. His Mexican love song is wonderfully sweet, but too short. The other characters in the piece are well taken care of, and the playgoers of Boston must not overlook this show as it's "the one best bet" of the season.

SHOPPING NEWS

At the Red Glove Shop, 322 Boylston Street, Miss M. F. Fisk, is having an Opening of Ladies' Waists, made specially for this season of the year when so many are preparing for a Southern trip; like all of the pretty things turned out by this house very attractive are in the real Japanese silks, all colors, the French Crepe that does not require ironing, Voile and Lingerie, the models are becoming, are in plain or more elaborate and you are invited to see them.

Miss R. Butler, The Hair Store, 29 Temple Place. At this establishment, the most centrally located in Boston, will be found the largest assortment of Hair Goods in New England. Hair Dressing, Manicuring, Treatment of Face and Scalp, Chiropody, Pedicure, Combs, Barrettes, Pins. Hotel work by appointment. Tel. Oxford 628.

One of the almost indispensable articles at this the Opera season, is a good opera glass. Millar & Weltch the West St. opticians, have anticipated the demand and have imported an excellent line and are prepared to show a large variety in plain and fancy mountings, also they make a specialty of thermometers, both for inside or outside use.

Macullar Parker Company, Annual mark down sale of Men's and Boys' Clothing and Furnishings. Bargains in Overcoats.

William H. Winship (formerly H. A. Winship), 16 Tremont St., are showing a fine line of Trunks, Bags and Dress Suit Cases for European Travel. A full stock of the latest designs in ladies' wrist and hand bags. Always reliable. Established 1842.

The soft Oriental materials to be seen in Davis' East India House, 373 Boylston Street, near Arlington Street, are different from anything to be found elsewhere, and one finds there, also, beautiful embroideries and many interesting novelties, from many parts of the world.

John J. Stevens & Co., 300 Boylston St., call attention to their Annual Mark Down Sale. Ladies' Muslin Underwear, also Misses' and Children's Suits, Coats and Dresses. Great bargains in same.

A. L. La Vers Co., Importers and Designers, 190-192 Boylston St., 32-34 Park Square, are showing their first display of advance styles in Spring Hats and Waists in all the latest creations for Southern wear. Here you will find the prices most reasonable and the shop one of the most attractive in the city.

There is no question but that Raymond & Whitcomb Company whose office is at 306 Washington Street, next to the Old South Church, maintain the best equipped and most complete ticket office for railroad and steamship tickets in the city. Correct information will be furnished with pleasure.

About that gown, Madam. Before ordering consult Miss Fish, 12 Hemenway St. Particular attention given to Line and Form. Tel. B. B. 3415-1.

The establishment of Kakas Bros., 179 Tremont Street, is renowned for perfection of taste and refinement daily exemplified in beautiful creations of all kinds of Fur at Moderate Prices.

For correct styles in Men's Furnishings one naturally goes to Blanchard, King & Co.'s., 250 Boylston Street. Their Ladies' Department is becoming noted for a choice variety of hand embroideries in waists and gowns. Also Imported Brass and Leather Novelties in choice variety.

THINGS WORTH SEEING

At the American Music Hall

A glance over the list of attractions at the American Music Hall this week will convince any theatre-goer that every act is of the headline variety. There is not a single filler or weak number in the whole bill. To begin with this week will mark the first appearance in Boston of the wonderful English slinging comedian, George Lashwood. Mr. Lashwood came to New York a stranger to Americans only a few weeks ago and his engagement there stamped him as the greatest European importation since Lauder. While his style is different from the great Scotch comedian yet there is a wonderful similarity between them. Lashwood remains on the stage for almost an hour just as Lauder did and at the end of that time there are incessant calls for more. Lashwood has packed to the doors every theatre in which he has appeared just as Lauder has done before him. He has been called the Beau Brummell of the stage because of his faultless attire and his newest styles in clothes. Another headline act is that of Sidney Drew and Company in the screaming farce, "When Two Hearts are Won." As a member of the famous Drew family Mr. Drew has long since been recognized as one of America's leading actors. In "Billy's Tombstones," his last successful vaudeville piece he scored tremendously. Critics, however, have pronounced his latest vehicle even a bigger winner than "Billy's Tombstones." Fred Niblo has again deserted the lecture platform for vaudeville and will be seen in his new travelogue, "Through Africa." Mr. Niblo's entertainment is well worth the price of admission to any show for it is not only humorous throughout but it is highly instructive. For quiet subtle humor, McMahon & Chapelle are in a class by themselves. After taking European cities by storm they come back to Boston with their laughing skit, "Twenty Minutes Before Train Time." Some more of the acts on this all star bill are Daly's Country Choir, a mixed quartette of rural singers who never fail to make good, Paul's Juggling Girls, who owing to their success of last week have been held over for another week, Edith Leroy, a dainty English singing comedienne and others.

AT THE GLOBE

A new dramatization of the widely-read novel, "St. Elmo," is here for the first time at the Globe. Vaughn Glaser is seen in the chief part.

Colé and Johnson present "The Red Moon," interspersed with Negro songs and humor, at the Grand Opera House.

THINGS WORTH SEEING

At the American Music Hall

At no time during the present season has the interest in vaudeville reached the height that it has just at the present time. This is due in a great measure to the remarkable bills which are being presented weekly at the American Music Hall. Headliners have been so frequent that they no longer excite the comment they usually did. For this week there is another all star aggregation that will make Boston Theatre-goers sit up and take notice. A big feature will be the Four Mortons, that riotous family of fun makers, that prove the life of any bill on which they appear. Father, mother, son and daughter are all singers, dancers and comedians of the first water and the entertainment furnished by them is thoroughly satisfying. The Empire City Quartette will be seen here for the first time in many moons. This quartette has become nationally famous because of its remarkable singing and the laughable comedy that pervades the act. A genuine novelty is promised in the appearance of the Mysterious Balloon Girl. This girl is extremely fine looking and wears a closely cropped dress and while singing the song, "Take Me Up With You Dearie," she floats in a big illuminated balloon over the heads of the audience. During her act the house is darkened which adds a great deal to the effect. The mystery is how the balloon gets out over the audience. The Three Richardinis are gymnasts whose feats of strength and daring are unsurpassed. They have created a most favorable impression in other cities where they have appeared. Delightful comedy will be furnished by Nicholson & Norton who will present their sartorial cartoon, "Gowns Berdelaise." The balance of the bill will include Stuart Collins and his Banjo Girls, Kara who will perform hair-raising stunts in juggling. Tom McGuire, character singer, and other high-class features.

The Majestic presents for the first time here, "Is Matrimony a Failure?" David Belasco has created an amusing farce of an American suburban town in which husbands and wives find a pretext for separation, divide into two camps, and finally come to terms after contrasted and diverting individual experience. Frank Worthing and an excellent cast act it.

For the first time on any stage, the Castle Square offers "The Spitfire," a play from Edward Pope's like-named novel of yachting adventures, romantic and mysterious, on the Jersey coast.

The attraction at the Grand Opera House is, "In the Bishop's Carriage," with Stephanie Longfellow acting Nance Olden.

THINGS WORTH SEEING

At the American Music Hall

Bostonians will this week have an opportunity of seeing the widely advertised Parisian sensation, "Ma Gosse," which will be presented for the first time in the Hub at the American Music Hall. This act is a European importation which during its brief stay in New York has taken the metropolis by storm. More has been written about it than any other single act on the vaudeville stage and from the Box Office returns thus far it would appear that everything said of it was fully justified. It tells the story of the Paris underworld showing the lowest possible den and the manner in which the social outcasts enjoy themselves. It also introduces the "Black Dance" which is the climax of daring sensations. The Empire City Quartette made such a favorable impression last week that the management has wisely decided to hold it over for another week. This act is conceded to be the greatest quartette on the vaudeville stage furnishing no end of fun in connection with its delightful harmony. A real novelty will be presented by the Royal Polo Players quartette of experts who use bicycles in the game instead of horses. The tries are made with the front and rear wheels only and many skillful goals are shot. A genuine thriller is promised in the appearance of "Speedy" the remarkable high diver who caps his wonderful act with a hair-raising dive from the top of the proscenium arch. Other acts on the all star bill will be Hallen & Hayes, known as the Daffy Dancing Comedians, Larola and assistant in novel juggling feats, Bessie Leonard in singing imitations and three other of vaudeville's headline features.

AT THE TREMONT THEATRE.

After many months in New York, George M. Cohen's latest and most successful musical comedy, "The Man Who Owns Broadway," with Raymond Hitchcock in the leading role, comes to the Tremont Theatre for a run.

THINGS WORTH SEEING

At the American Music Hall

At the American Music Hall headline features continue to make up the greater part of the bill each week. For this week another aggregation of vaudeville's best acts will be presented, the star feature being the Parisian underworld playlet, "Ma Gosse," which created a veritable sensation during its presentation last week. It was not the original intention of the management to hold this act over but the great outpouring of patrons at every performance, despite the Lenten season convinced the management that it would be wise to extend the engagement for two weeks. Interest in this sketch centers chiefly in "La Danse De Noire" or "Black Dance," which is an exhibition of terpsichorean art without parallel on the stage. In addition to being very entertaining the sketch is instructive in that it gives a clear insight into the manner in which the inhabitants of the Paris underworld live. A delightful number of the bill will be Willa Holt Wakefield, former entertainer of New York's "Four Hundred" who will present her inimitable pianologues. Miss Wakefield is an accomplished pianist, has a remarkably sympathetic voice and best of all possesses a personality which immediately wins her audience. Real polo will be played for a second week by the Royal Polo Players who make use of bicycles instead of ponies. The tries are made with the front and rear wheels and no more skillful exhibition of the game has ever been seen in Boston. Good wholesome comedy will be injected into the bill by Estelle Wordette and Company who will offer the sketch, "A Honeymoon In The Catskills." This piece has funny situations, bright and witty lines. Post and Russell, late members of several big Shubert musical comedies, will materially strengthen the bill with their Comic Opera offering. Katheryne Milley, the dainty singing comedienne, Mat Keefe and other big features will complete an admirable vaudeville program.

AT THE TREMONT THEATRE.

After a run of six months in New York, George M. Cohan's latest and most successful musical comedy, "The Man Who Owns Broadway," with Raymond Hitchcock in the leading role is at the Tremont for a run. It is said to be the best Musical Comedy Mr. Cohan has ever written, and the best thing Mr. Hitchcock ever did.

SHOPPING NEWS

At the Red Glove Shop, 322 Boylston Street, Miss M. F. Fisk, is having an Opening of Ladies' Waists, made specially for this season of the year when so many are preparing for a Southern trip; like all of the pretty things turned out by this house very attractive are in the real Japanese silks, all colors, the French Crepe that does not require ironing, Voile and Lingerie, the models are becoming, are in plain or more elaborate and you are invited to see them.

Miss R. Butler, The Hair Store, 29 Temple Place. At this establishment, the most centrally located in Boston, will be found the largest assortment of Hair Goods in New England, Hair Dressing, Manicuring, Treatment of Face and Scalp, Chiropody, Pedicure, Combs, Barrettes, Pins. Hotel work by appointment. Tel. Oxford 628.

One of the almost indispensable articles at this the Opera season, is a good opera glass. Millar & Weltch the West St. opticians, have anticipated the demand and have imported an excellent line and are prepared to show a large variety in plain and fancy mountings, also they make a specialty of thermometers, both for inside or outside use.

Macullar Parker Company. Spring goods now ready in all departments. In the Custom and Ladies' Tailoring particularly it is an advantage to place orders early.

William H. Winship (formerly H. A. Winship), 16 Tremont St., are showing a fine line of Trunks, Bags and Dress Suit Cases for European Travel. A full stock of the latest designs in ladies' wrist and hand bags. Always reliable. Established 1842.

The soft Oriental materials to be seen in Davis' East India House, 373 Boylston Street, near Arlington Street, are different from anything to be found elsewhere, and one finds there, also, beautiful embroideries and many interesting novelties, from many parts of the world.

John J. Stevens & Co., 300 Boylston St., show an unusual display of New Spring Suits, Gowns and Wash Dresses for all occasions at popular prices for Ladies and Misses.

A. L. La Vers Co., Importers and Designers, 190-192 Boylston St., 32-34 Park Square, announce that their Spring opening of Millinery and Waists will take place on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, March 8th, 9th and 10th, and on the following Tuesday and Wednesday, March 15th and 16th, they will display the latest designs in imported models. For the benefit of strangers, we may add that this is one of the leading shops in the city as well as the most attractive in its line.

There is no question but that Raymond & Whitcomb Company, whose office is at 306 Washington Street, next to the Old South Church, maintain the best equipped and most complete ticket office for railroad and steamship tickets in the city. Correct information will be furnished with pleasure.

About that gown, Madam. Before ordering consult Miss Fish, 12 Hemenway St. Particular attention given to Line and Form. Tel. B. B. 3514-1.

The establishment of Kakas Bros., 179 Tremont Street, is renowned for perfection of taste and refinement daily exemplified in beautiful creations of all kinds of Fur at Moderate Prices.

For correct styles in Men's Furnishings one naturally goes to Blanchard, King & Co.'s., 250 Boylston Street. Their Ladies' Department is becoming noted for a choice variety of hand embroideries in waists and gowns. Also Imported Brass and Leather Novelties in choice variety.

THINGS WORTH SEEING

At the American Music Hall

The dances of ancient Judea will be revived at the American Music Hall this week by Adelaine Boyer who will present them in a vehicle entitled, "The Princess of Israel." These dances have caused no end of talk in New York and have even attracted the attention of Mayor Gaynor and Anthony Comstock, they both claiming that Miss Boyer wears far too little cloth and dances with extreme suggestiveness. In defence Miss Boyer maintains that her dances are true representations of terpsichorean art as practised in the days of King Solomon and are only offensive to those who wish to make them so. Miss Boyer is a Hebrew beauty from California who has spent much time in the close study of these dances and New York critics have said that she was at least original in her style. Another big offering for this week will be "The Star Bout," presented by Taylor Granville and company and a company of fifty people. This act ran for twenty-six weeks in New York City and is a clever melodrama in which the hero is a bantam pugilist who wins a prize fight against great odds and defeats the purpose of his enemies to drug him. A real prize ring will be shown on the stage with the customary "spots" surrounding it. Winsor McCay, famous as the author of "Little Nemo," "Doll Care," will present his sketches from life which not only show his skill as a cartoonist but are productive of a great deal of humor. A pleasing addition to the bill will be Hope Booth and company presenting her well-known success, "The Little Blonde Lady." Miss Booth has been for a long time in Europe and this will be her first appearance in the Hub since her return. Other features that will fill out this all star bill are the Doria Opera Trio, a group of trained operatic singers, Caine & Odom in a singing sketch, "The Song Tailors," Hathaway's Simian Playmates, a troupe of monkeys highly trained and capable of performing unbelievable feats, Azard Brothers, remarkable strong men, and Farley & Clare.

AT THE MAJESTIC THEATRE.

Miss Mabel Hite, who has been one of the most popular stars of vaudeville and musical comedy, is making her first local appearance as a Lieder & Company star of the first magnitude at the Majestic Theatre this week in "A Certain Party," a new farce written by Edward W. Townsend and Frank Ward O'Malley. The former is famous as author of "Chimmie Fadden," and the latter is the celebrated humorist of the New York Sun. Miss Hite appears as a maid in the household of a reform candidate for political honors. He is in danger of losing the election, when the maid decides to use her personal influence upon the police force and the East Side organization, where she numbers her admirers by the thousands. The second act shows the maid giving a reception in the kitchen of the candidate's home.

Miss Hite will be supported by a strong company, which includes Mike Dolin, the famous ball player, John T. Kelly, and others. Miss Hite will sing several songs during the three acts of the comedy, one of them a tremendous song hit, entitled "I'm on my way to Reno."

MONDAY, MAR. 21

ART EXHIBITIONS

New Boston Museum of Fine Arts, The Fenway. Open 9 a. m. to 5 p. m. Admission 25c. The Museum contains collections illustrating the arts of Egypt, Greece, Rome, the Orient, and modern Europe and America, together with a large collection of reproductions.

The installation of the different departments, particularly the Japanese court, is of especial interest. Many acquisitions are shown for the first time, among them a Greek "throne" of the 5th century a Greek head of the 4th century, an alabaster statue and alabaster portrait head of Mycerinus, a Persian lustre bowl of the 13th century, portrait group by Van Dyck—"King Charles I and his family." Pictures by Bellini, Mierevelt, Rubens, Solario, and others have been lent for the opening exhibition.

SHOPPING NEWS

Miss M. F. Fisk, the Red Glove Shop, 322 Boylston St., is having an Opening of Ladies' and Gentlemen's Gloves, Ladies' Waists, Veils, Neckwear and Belts. New and novel things are constantly received that add distinction to one's costume.

Miss R. Butler, The Hair Store, 29 Temple Place. At this establishment, the most centrally located in Boston, will be found the largest assortment of Hair Goods in New England. Hair Dressing, Manicuring, Treatment of Face and Scalp, Chiropody, Pedicure, Combs, Barrettes, Pins. Hotel work by appointment. Tel. Oxford 628.

One of the almost indispensable articles at this the Opera season, is a good opera glass. Millar & Welch the West St. opticians, have anticipated the demand and have imported an excellent line and are prepared to show a large variety in plain and fancy mountings, also they make a specialty of thermometers, both for inside or outside use.

Macullar Parker Company. Spring goods now ready in all departments. In the Custom and Ladies' Tailoring particularly it is an advantage to place orders early.

William H. Winship (formerly H. A. Winship), 15 Tremont St., are showing a fine line of Trunks, Bags and Dress Suit Cases for European Travel. A full stock of the latest designs in ladies' wrist and hand bags. Always reliable. Established 1842.

The soft Oriental materials to be seen in Davis' East India House, 373 Boylston Street, near Arlington Street, are different from anything to be found elsewhere, and one finds there, also, beautiful embroideries and many interesting novelties, from many parts of the world.

John J. Stevens & Co., 300 Boylston St., show an unusual display of New Spring Suits, Gowns and Wash Dresses for all occasions at popular prices for Ladies and Misses.

A. L. La Vers Co., Importers and Designers, 190-192 Boylston St., 32-34 Park Square, announce their Spring opening of imported Millinery, Tailored Linen Suits, Waists, Dresses, Coats. They have on display many beautiful model hats from Marie Louise, T. Suzanne Talbot, Jeanne Lavin, Reboux, Georgette, Esther Meyer and Mme. Vivot. For the benefit of strangers, we may add that this is one of the leading shops in the city as well as the most attractive in its line.

There is no question but that Raymond & Whitcomb Company, whose office is at 306 Washington Street, next to the Old South Church, maintain the best equipped and most complete ticket office for railroad and steamship tickets in the city. Correct information will be furnished with pleasure.

About that gown, Madam. Before ordering consult Miss Fish, 12 Hemenway St. Particular attention given to Line and Form. Tel. B. B. 3514-1.

The establishment of Kakas Bros., 179 Tremont Street, is renowned for perfection of taste and refinement daily exemplified in beautiful creations of all kinds of Fur at Moderate Prices.

For correct styles in Men's Furnishings one naturally goes to Blanchard, King & Co.'s., 250 Boylston Street. Their Ladies' Department is becoming noted for a choice variety of hand embroideries in waists and gowns. Also Imported Brass and Leather Novelties in choice variety.

THINGS WORTH SEEING

At the American Music Hall

Capacity audiences at every performance last week, attracted to the theatre by the sensational dance of Miss Adeline Boyer in the "Princess of Israel," induced the management of the American Music Hall to hold over this remarkable feature act for a second week. While Miss Boyer is daring in the extreme, both as to costume and to suggestive movements, yet her dancing never fails to evoke the most favorable commendation. During this week the orchestra will still remain augmented to eighteen pieces and the music will be fully up to the standard of last week. Miss Boyer will perform the same dances despite rumors to the fact that she will be forced to change her costume and her style. No dancing act has ever created the interest that "The Princess of Israel" has and from present indications it may be necessary to keep it over even for a third week. All star acts will make up the balance of the bill. "The Star Bout" is another of those features which last week made such a tremendous hit and this act will be held over also. With fifty people yelling their lungs out at the ring side, a prize fight spectacle is furnished which may only be witnessed in the largest arenas in the country. Alex Carr and Company will be seen in their always laughable sketch, "Tobbitsky" or "The End of the World." Ed Keough, the noted actor, and a capable company including Helen Nelson will present "A Vaudeville Surprise." As a portrayal of heavy characters, Mr. Keough is in a class by himself and always furnishes delightful dramatic entertainment. McMahon & Chappelle, the big vaudeville favorites will offer their laughing sketch, "Twenty Minutes Before Train Time." The balance of the bill will be made up of headline features which have long since been recognized as standard attractions in vaudeville.

AT THE MAJESTIC THEATRE.

Lew Fields in "Old Dutch" with his large company of players, singers and dancers is at the Majestic Theatre this week. Mr. Fields is now here for the first time in his new character of Ludwig Streusand. Streusand is an absent-minded inventor who has recently done a big thing and is running away to the Tyrol to escape notoriety, taking his daughter with him. He registers as Leopold Mueller to conceal his identity, unwittingly hitting upon the name of a well-known swindler. The inventor loses his pocketbook, which of course is found by the real Mueller. Mueller naturally, when he comes across the papers of the inventor, takes the name of Streusand, thus setting up one of the finest cases of mistaken identity that one could possibly wish for. The real inventor is then unable to pay his bill. Wherefore, the proprietor tells him that he must either go to prison or work out his indebtedness. He doesn't care for prison and decides to become valet to the horse.

AT THE GLOBE THEATRE.

The announcement that "A Certain Party" is to be transferred to the Globe Theatre beginning Monday night in order to extend the Boston engagement is pleasing news to theatre-goers. "A Certain Party," with clever Mabel Hite and sturdy Mike Donlin in the cast, has been drawing heavily at the Majestic Theatre all last week. There have been requests for its continuance but the other Majestic Theatre bookings made this impossible. So arrangements were made to transfer the merry farce to the Globe Theatre for a limited extension of the original engagement.

"A Certain Party" is a farce of clever turn. It is new and laughable and Boston is taking to it as Boston invariably does to what is really amusing.

THINGS WORTH SEEING

At the American Music Hall

An extremely well balanced bill comprising a great many forms of entertainment will be presented at the American Music Hall this week. The big feature of the bill will be a thrilling dramatic sketch entitled "The Operator." Full of tense situations the sketch deals with a lonely operator in a small Western town. A mistake is made in the signals with the result that there is imminent danger of two trains rushing together and causing a terrible wreck. Realizing his helplessness the operator calls his wife and child together and prepares to kill them and himself when the accident takes place. The tragedy is averted by one of the trains reaching the switch so that it passes the other in safety. The little playlet is remarkably well acted and keeps the audience thoroughly on edge. An act which has peculiar interest for Boston is that of William Wolff and Co. in "The Head of the House." This is an original comic opera sketch combining a distinct plot with plenty of good music. Searle Allen & Co. will present his latest success, "The General Salesman," in which piece Mr. Allen portrays a character along the type of "The Traveling Salesman." That wandering violinist, Rinaldo, needs no introduction to Boston Theatre-goers. Rinaldo first plays several classical selections and then drifts into his famous "Rinaldo Rag" which is the nearest approach to a talking violin that has ever been heard. The balance of the bill will include Cartmell & Harris, in a comedy and dancing sketch, "Nearly An Actress;" Mosher Hayes & Mosher, who have one of the best bicycle acts in Vaudeville; La Petite Mignon, a little French girl who gives life-like impersonations of such stars as Blanche Ring, Nora Bayes, Nellie McCoy and others. The Four Nightons, European gladiators and gymnasts, William Dick, singing and guitar playing, and others.

AT THE SHUBERT THEATRE.

Blanche Bates in "The Fighting Hope," comes to the Shubert Theatre this week. This marvelous play has had a run of over one year in New York, playing to packed houses nightly. It has been said by the New York critics that Miss Bates is at her best in this piece, and the many admirers of this wonderful actress are due the treat of their lives in the coming engagement. Miss Bates will have the original cast of players with her.

AT THE GLOBE THEATRE.

"The Man of the Hour," that famous show, comes to the Globe Theatre this week, with the same cast of favorites.

SHOPPING NEWS

Miss W. F. Fish, the Red Glove Shop, 322 Boylston St., is having an Opening of Ladies' and Gentlemen's Gloves, Ladies' Waists, Veils, Neckwear and Belts. New and novel things are constantly received that add distinction to one's costume.

Miss R. Butler, The Hair Store, 29 Temple Place. At this establishment, the most centrally located in Boston, will be found the largest assortment of Hair Goods in New England, Hair Dressing, Manicuring, Treatment of Face and Scalp, Chiropody, Pedicure, Combs, Barrettes, Pins. Hotel work by appointment. Tel. Oxford 628.

One of the almost indispensable articles at this the Opera season, is a good opera glass. Millar & Welch the West St. opticians, have anticipated the demand and have imported an excellent line and are prepared to show a large variety in plain and fancy mountings, also they make a specialty of thermometers, both for inside or outside use.

Macullar Parker Company. Spring goods now ready in all departments. In the Custom and Ladies' Tailoring particularly it is an advantage to place orders early.

William H. Winship (formerly H. A. Winship), 16 Tremont St., are showing a fine line of Trunks, Bags and Dress Suit Cases for European Travel. A full stock of the latest designs in ladies' wrist and hand bags. Always reliable. Established 1842.

The soft Oriental materials to be seen in Davis' East India House, 373 Boylston Street, near Arlington Street, are different from anything to be found elsewhere, and one finds there, also, beautiful embroideries and many interesting novelties, from many parts of the world.

John J. Stevens & Co., 300 Boylston St., show an unusual display of New Spring Suits, Gowns and Wash Dresses for all occasions at popular prices for Ladies and Misses.

A. L. La Vers Co., Importers and Designers, 190-192 Boylston St., 32-34 Park Square, announce their Spring opening of imported Millinery, Tailored Linen Suits, Waists, Dresses, Coats. They have on display many beautiful model hats from Marie Louise, T. Suzanne Talbot, Jeanne Lanvin, Reboux, Georgette, Esther Meyer and Mme. Virot. For the benefit of strangers, we may add that this is one of the leading shops in the city as well as the most attractive in its line.

There is no question but that Raymond & Whitcomb Company, whose office is at 306 Washington Street, next to the Old South Church, maintain the best equipped and most complete ticket office for railroad and steamship tickets in the city. Correct information will be furnished with pleasure.

About that gown, Madam. Before ordering consult Miss Fish, 12 Hemenway St. Particular attention given to Line and Form. Tel. B. B. 3514-1.

The establishment of Kakas Bros., 179 Tremont Street, is renowned for perfection of taste and refinement daily exemplified in beautiful creations of all kinds of Fur at Moderate Prices.

For correct styles in Men's Furnishings one naturally goes to Blanchard, King & Co.'s., 250 Boylston Street. Their Ladies' Department is becoming noted for a choice variety of hand embroideries in waists and gowns. Also Imported Brass and Leather Novelties in choice variety.

THINGS WORTH SEEING

At the American Music Hall

On the bill which has been arranged for the American Music Hall this week are at least seven features that have long since been recognized as vaudeville headliners, so that the difficulty of selecting any one for the top position may be imagined. Considerable interest will center in the return of Europe's bathing sensation, the Divine Myrma. There is no longer any secret as to the identity of this beautiful mermaid. She is none other than Miss Ethel MacDonough at one time the popular drummer of the Boston Fadettes. Her perfect form, her beauty of face and her remarkable ability as a swimmer and diver have placed her in the first rank of diving acts. She does everything that a diver before the public does and a great deal more. Another pleasing feature will be Collins and Hart, two strong men. This is an act that is ludicrously funny from start to finish. It was at one time the big feature of "Little Nemo." The inducements held out by vaudeville compelled both Mr. Collins and Mr. Hart to forsake the legitimate. John C. Rice and Sally Cohen, always welcome to Boston will be seen in their latest one-act farce, "Our Honeymoon." Mr. Rice and Miss Cohen have never had a poor vehicle and this one is the best they have ever presented. Dave Genaro and Ray Bailey, big vaudeville favorites, will present an up-to-date novelty introducing their latest sensation, "The Flirtation Dance," Sophie Tucker who is in a class by herself as an up-to-date coon shouter will offer advanced fashions in coon songs. Miss Tucker's rise in the theatrical professional has been marvelous. In the course of a year she has advanced from an unknown to the position of a vaudeville headliner. Another headline feature will be the International Comedy success, "My Wife Won't Let Me," by Wilson Franklyn & Co. In addition to being a very funny sketch the act presents Miss Frankie Bailey who has the reputation of being one of the most perfectly formed women on the stage. The balance of the bill will include The Orlicks, whirlwind Russian dancers from the Imperial Russian Ballet and Mlle. Berthe, a high-class violinist and others.

BOSTON'S NEW ICE PALACE

With the completion of the Boston Arena, the new ice skating palace at Mass. Ave. and St. Botolph St., this city has rounded out its chain of amusement enterprises and surely becomes the Hub of the country in all that appertains to entertainment of its citizens. Boston Arena covers a ground area of 61,000 square feet, and cost $200,000 above ground, and is one of the largest structures of its kind in the world. The main building is 155 feet wide by 367 feet long with a seating capacity of 5,000 including the boxes. The floor, or ice space, is ninety feet wide and two hundred and forty-two feet long—one of the largest artificial ice skating surfaces in the world. Architecturally the structure is most attractive, the noticeable feature being the highly-ornate head-house, which, at night, is ablaze with thousands of electric lights. In its construction two hundred and seventy-five tons of steel were required, more than a million brick and thousands of cubic feet of solid concrete. The roof is supported by enormous steel spans, resting on twelve great double side columns. Each roof truss weighs twelve tons and the clear span is one hundred and forty feet. From the apex of the trusses to the floor level it is seventy-four feet. The engineering plant is one of the most interesting features and is the last word in refrigerating construction. Boston Arena is in the heart of the new amusement centre, near Symphony Hall, the new Opera House, Horticultural Hall, the New England Conservatory of Music and the Museum of Fine Arts.

THINGS WORTH SEEING

At the American Music Hall

Theatre patrons who have laughed themselves tired at the extremely funny monologues of the famous Hebrew character artist, Joe Welch, will undoubtedly welcome the announcement that he is to be at the American Music Hall this week in a mammoth production called "At Ellis Island." In this piece Mr. Welch portrays an Italian immigrant and no end of fun is caused by his inability to understand the customs of the country. He will be surrounded by a company of fifty people and an enjoyable half hour is sure to result. Riene Davies will be another pleasing number on the big bill. She is a beautiful woman and wears gowns that are the envy of other women and the admiration of men. Miss Davies is an accomplished singer and her songs have the merit of being strictly up-to-date. Eddie Girard and Jessie Gardner are too well known as vaudeville fun-makers to require any comment. They will present a new sketch which promises a laugh every second. Clark & Hamilton are new importations from Europe, but their work thus far in New York stamps them among the very best foreign artists who have ever come over. Considerable mystery attaches to the Moto Girl who has been a big feature in several of the largest cities in the country. Shaped like a doll, looking like a doll and acting like a doll, this person, if she be a person, does such wonderful things that it is hard to associate them with a mere mechanical thing. The audience will certainly be kept guessing as to whether it is alive or not. The balance of the bill will include Billy Inman in a new sketch, Besnah & Miller, song and dance artists who always score heavily, the Orpheus Comedy Four, a quartette of clever singers and comedians and others.

AT THE SHUBERT.

The New Theatre Company from the New Theatre, New York City, begins a fortnight's engagement this week at the Shubert. The first week's repertoire follows: "The School for Scandal," Monday and Friday; "Strife," Tuesday afternoon and evening; "Sister Beatrice," followed by "Don," Wednesday afternoon and evening; "The Nigger," Thursday evening; "Twelfth Night," Saturday afternoon, and "The Winter's Tale," Saturday evening.

The Castle Square has a revival of "The Prisoner of Zenda," a romantic piece. George N. Sidney in a new musical piece, "The Joy Rider," comes to the Grand Opera House. "Il Trovatore," is presented by the Aborn Company at the Boston Opera House.

The Boston Arena, Boston's newest pleasure palace, devoted to Ice Skating, is now running full blast, afternoons at 2, evenings at 8. A speed skating contest will take place Tuesday evening of this week, held under the auspices of the International Skating Union of America. The building is one of the finest in the world.

THINGS WORTH SEEING

At the American Music Hall

Another big aggregation of all star features at the American Music Hall this week makes it a very difficult task to select any one of them for the headline position. The sporting interest however, will probably center in the appearance of James J. Corbett, the one-time champion pugilist of the world and just now very much in the limelight as having been selected as chief trainer for James J. Jeffries for his coming fight with Jack Johnson. Mr. Corbett will this time present his big vaudeville success, "A Thief In The Night," a one-act playlet which is really a classic in theme and dialogue. In this sketch Corbett shows himself just as capable an actor as he formerly was a pugilist, and easily ranks among the very best light comedians in America. After many disappointments Henry Lee, the great impersonator of historical personages, will positively appear at this house this week. Mr. Lee has no peer in his particular line of work and it would seem in his case as if the perfection of character delineation had been reached. Some of the world famous people, past and present, portrayed by Mr. Lee are Generals Grant and Lee, Pope Leo XIII, George Washington, Theodore Roosevelt, Mark Twain and Uncle Joe Cannon. All of the artist's lightning changes are made in full view of the audience. Other big acts on this bill will be Jere Sanford, a very clever whistler and yodler, and that clever singer of songs of his own composition, Frederic V. Bowers, late star of the "Ham Tree" Co.

James K. Hackett comes to the Majestic after a long absence in "Monsieur Beaucaire," the pleasant little romantic and artificial comedy, drawn from Mr. Tarkington's like-named tale of the Bath of the Eighteenth Century and the gay and shrewd French gentleman, misunderstood by his English companions.

"Three Weeks," is the offering at the Grand Opera House.

The Aborn Opera Company appears in "Carmen," at the Boston Opera House.

ICE SKATING, BOSTON ARENA.

This is the last week of ice skating at the Boston Arena this season, as the building will close on May 1st. Professor Sargent of Harvard says "that ice skating is the king of outdoor sports," which is undoubtedly true, as it is the most invigorating of all outdoor sports. The pleasure is added to at the Boston Arena by the skaters having an ice space as smooth as glass, 90 feet wide by 242 feet long—one of the largest artificial ice skating surfaces in the world.

MONDAY, APRIL 25

ART EXHIBITIONS

New Boston Museum of Fine Arts, The Fenway. Open 9 a. m. to 4 p. m. Admission 25c. The Museum contains collections illustrating the arts of Egypt, Greece, Rome, the Orient, and modern Europe and America, together with a large collection of reproductions.

The installation of the different departments, particularly the Japanese court, is of especial interest. Many acquisitions are shown for the first time, among them a Greek "throne" of the 5th century, a Greek head of the 4th century, an alabaster statue and alabaster portrait head of Mycerinus, a Persian lustre bowl of the 13th century, portrait group by Van Dyck—"King Charles I and his family." Pictures by Bellini, Mierevelt, Rubens, Solario, and others have been lent for the opening exhibition.

SHOPPING NEWS

Miss M. F. Fisk, the Red Glove Shop, 322 Boylston St., is having an Opening of Ladies' and Gentlemen's Gloves, Ladies' Waists, Veils, Neckwear and Belts. New and novel things are constantly received that add distinction to one's costume.

Miss R. Butler, The Hair Store, 29 Temple Place. At this establishment, the most centrally located in Boston, will be found the largest assortment of Hair Goods in New England, Hair Dressing, Manicuring, Treatment of Face and Scalp, Chiropody, Pedicure, Combs, Barrettes, Pins. Hotel work by appointment. Tel. Oxford 628.

One of the almost indispensable articles at this the Opera season, is a good opera glass. Millar & Weltch the West St. opticians, have anticipated the demand and have imported an excellent line and are prepared to show a large variety in plain and fancy mountings, also they make a specialty of thermometers, both for inside or outside use.

Macullar Parker Company. Spring goods now ready in all departments. In the Custom and Ladies' Tailoring particularly it is an advantage to place orders early.

William H. Winship (formerly H. A. Winship), 16 Tremont St., are showing a fine line of Trunks, Bags and Dress Suit Cases for European Travel. A full stock of the latest designs in ladies' wrist and hand bags. Always reliable. Established 1842.

The soft Oriental materials to be seen in Davis' East India House, 373 Boylston Street, near Arlington Street, are different from anything to be found elsewhere, and one finds there, also, beautiful embroideries and many interesting novelties, from many parts of the world.

John J. Stevens & Co., 300 Boylston St., show an unusual display of New Spring Suits, Gowns and Wash Dresses for all occasions at popular prices for Ladies and Misses.

A. L. La Vers Co., Importers and Designers, 190-192 Boylston St., 32-34 Park Square, announce their Spring opening of imported Millinery, Tailored Linen Suits, Waists, Dresses, Coats. They have on display many beautiful model hats from Marie Louise, T. Suzanne Talbot, Jeanne Lanvin, Reboux, Georgette, Esther Meyer and Mme. Virot. For the benefit of strangers, we may add that this is one of the leading shops in the city as well as the most attractive in its line.

There is no question but that Raymond & Whitcomb Company, whose office is at 306 Washington Street, next to the Old South Church, maintain the best equipped and most complete ticket office for railroad and steamship tickets in the city. Correct information will be furnished with pleasure.

About that gown, Madam. Before ordering consult Miss Fish, 12 Hemenway St. Particular attention given to Line and Form. Tel. B. B. 3514-1.

The establishment of Kakas Bros., 179 Tremont Street, is renowned for perfection of taste and refinement daily exemplified in beautiful creations of all kinds of Fur at Moderate Prices.

For correct styles in Men's Furnishings one naturally goes to Blanchard, King & Co.'s., 250 Boylston Street. Their Ladies' Department is becoming noted for a choice variety of hand embroideries in waists and gowns. Also Imported Brass and Leather Novelties in choice variety.

THINGS WORTH SEEING.

At the American Music Hall

This week will mark the return to the American Music Hall of that greatest of all portrayers of feminine characters, Julian Eltinge. Mr. Eltinge, as everybody knows, is a Boston boy who has won a success on the vaudeville stage second only to that of the great Harry Lauder. Critics the country over have pronounced Mr. Eltinge a master in his line and absolutely incapable of being improved upon. During his engagement he will offer an entirely new program. He will make use of new songs and new costumes many of the latter being sufficient to excite the envy of any woman. Another act which will quickly launch into favor is that of Emmet Devoy & Company presenting a screamingly funny farce, "The Saintly Mr. Billings." As an actor, Mr. Devoy has long since been recognized among the leaders of the profession. His supporting company will be thoroughly capable. The announcement that Al Fields and Dave Lewis will be held over for another week will please every theatre-goer who is fond of a good hearty laugh. This pair of comedians are a scream from the time they enter the stage until their exit. They handle a bunch of nonsense which in the hands of other artists would prove far less effective. The balance of the bill will include Violet McMillan, a diminutive girl fifty-seven inches tall who sings as well as a grown woman; Miller Brothers, Gymnastic Comedians and Burlesque Wrestlers; Adams & Mack, and others.

AT THE SHUBERT THEATRE.

William Faversham and his company of 200 people come to the Shubert this week in "Herod," the spectacular production of Stephen Phillips's poetic tragedy. There is a splendid moving story, ably acted and notably mounted.

The Stock Company at the Castle Square presents a revival of Neil Burgess's homely and humorous play of New England, "The County Fair."

A well-liked Western melodrama entitled, "In Wyoming," is the attraction at the Grand Opera House.

Hotel work by appointment. Tel. Oxford 628.

One of the almost indispensable articles at this the Opera season, is a good opera glass. Millar & Weltch the West St. opticians, have anticipated the demand and have imported an excellent line and are prepared to show a large variety in plain and fancy mountings, also they make a specialty of thermometers, both for inside or outside use.

Macullar Parker Company. Spring goods now ready in all departments. In the Custom and Ladies' Tailoring particularly it is an advantage to place orders early.

William H. Winship (formerly H. A. Winship), 16 Tremont St., are showing a fine line of Trunks, Bags and Dress Suit Cases for European Travel. A full stock of the latest designs in ladies' wrist and hand bags. Always reliable. Established 1842.

The soft Oriental materials to be seen in Davis' East India House, 373 Boylston Street, near Arlington Street, are different from anything to be found elsewhere, and one finds there, also, beautiful embroideries and many interesting novelties, from many parts of the world.

John J. Stevens & Co., 300 Boylston St., show an unusual display of New Spring Suits, Gowns and Wash Dresses for all occasions at popular prices for Ladies and Misses.

A. L. La Vers Co., Importers and Designers, 190-192 Boylston St., 32-34^{1/2} Park Square, announce their Spring opening of imported Millinery, Tailored Linen Suits, Waists, Dresses, Coats. They have on display many beautiful model hats from Marie Louise, T. Suzanne Talbot, Jeanne Lanvin, Reboux, Georgette, Esther Meyer and Mme. Viot. For the benefit of strangers, we may add that this is one of the leading shops in the city as well as the most attractive in its line.

There is no question but that Raymond & Whitcomb Company, whose office is at 306 Washington Street, next to the Old South Church, maintain the best equipped and most complete ticket office for railroad and steamship tickets in the city. Correct information will be furnished with pleasure.

About that gown, Madam. Before ordering consult Miss Fish, 12 Hemenway St. Particular attention given to Line and Form. Tel. B. B. 3514-1.

The establishment of Kakas Bros., 179 Tremont Street, is renowned for perfection of taste and refinement daily exemplified in beautiful creations of all kinds of Fur at Moderate Prices.

For correct styles in Men's Furnishings one naturally goes to Blanchard, King & Co.'s., 250 Boylston Street. Their Ladies' Department is becoming noted for a choice variety of hand embroideries in waists and gowns. Also Imported Brass and Leather Novelties in choice variety.

THINGS WORTH SEEING

At the American Music Hall

Of peculiar interest to all lovers of dumb animals will be the mammoth production at the American Music Hall this week of "Black Beauty," a vaudeville playlet founded on the world famous book of that name by Anna Sewell. Every American is familiar with the book of "Black Beauty," but a word of explanation may be necessary regarding the dramatization. This was brought about by an offer of the late George T. Angell, President of the Massachusetts Humane Society, who in 1896 offered a prize of one thousand dollars for the best dramatic version. The playlet that will be presented this week is a condensed form of the winning version, and will be presented by a powerful company of nine people. Perhaps the most interesting character in the piece will be "Black Beauty" himself, a magnificent specimen of a horse. The music end of the program will be well taken care of by the Romany Opera Company, a troupe of twenty accomplished grand opera singers. This company is so well known in vaudeville that little comment is necessary. Cliff Gordon, the German Senator, may be relied upon to furnish his full quota of fun. His use of strangulated English and his serio-comic efforts to express himself in high flown language are excruciatingly funny. Alva York, is an English comedienne who has a line of material not yet heard on this side of the water. Her peculiar style of rendering it has already won her a high place on the English stage. Hardeen, the handcuff king will offer a program combining mystery with remarkable physical feats. The balance of the bill will include the Mayvilles, in a clever Marionette act, Gallando, clay modeler and Kelly & Ashby.

AT THE MAJESTIC THEATRE.

Charlotte Hunt and a stock company begins a season at the Majestic, presenting "The Blue Mouse," a lively and amusing farce. Richard Buhler is the leading man and appeared in Boston recently in "Ben Hur."

To the Grand Opera House comes the Black Patti Company in "A Trip to Africa."

SHOPPING NEWS

Miss M. F. Fisk, the Red Glove Shop, 322 Boylston St., is having an Opening of Ladies' and Gentlemen's Gloves, Ladies' Waists, Veils, Neckwear and Belts. New and novel things are constantly received that add distinction to one's costume.

Miss R. Butler, The Hair Store, 29 Temple Place. At this establishment, the most centrally located in Boston, will be found the largest assortment of Hair Goods in New England, Hair Dressing, Manicuring, Treatment of Face and Scalp, Chiropody, Pedicure, Combs, Barrettes, Pins. Hotel work by appointment. Tel. Oxford 628.

One of the almost indispensable articles at this the Opera season, is a good opera glass. Millar & Welch the West St. opticians, have anticipated the demand and have imported an excellent line and are prepared to show a large variety in plain and fancy mountings, also they make a specialty of thermometers, both for inside or outside use.

Macular Parker Company. Spring goods now ready in all departments. In the Custom and Ladies' Tailoring particularly it is an advantage to place orders early.

William H. Winship (formerly H. A. Winship), 16 Tremont St., are showing a fine line of Trunks, Bags and Dress Suit Cases for European Travel. A full stock of the latest designs in ladies' wrist and hand bags. Always reliable. Established 1842.

The soft Oriental materials to be seen in Davis' East India House, 373 Boylston Street, near Arlington Street, are different from anything to be found elsewhere, and one finds there, also, beautiful embroideries and many interesting novelties, from many parts of the world.

John J. Stevens & Co., 300 Boylston St., have reduced their entire line of Spring Suits and Coats. Special bargains in linen and chambray dresses—all sizes. Special sale of sample Coats and Children's Suits commencing Wednesday, May 4th.

A. L. La Vers Co., Importers and Designers, 190-192 Boylston St., 32-34 Park Square, announce their Spring opening of imported Millinery, Tailored Linen Suits, Waists, Dresses, Coats. They have on display many beautiful model hats from Marie Louise, T. Suzanne Talbot, Jeanne Lanvin, Reboux, Georgette, Esther Meyer and Mme. Virot. For the benefit of strangers, we may add that this is one of the leading shops in the city as well as the most attractive in its line.

There is no question but that Raymond & Whitcomb Company, whose office is at 306 Washington Street, next to the Old South Church, maintain the best equipped and most complete ticket office for railroad and steamship tickets in the city. Correct information will be furnished with pleasure.

About that gown, Madam. Before ordering consult Miss Fish, 12 Hemenway St. Particular attention given to Line and Form. Tel. B. B. 3514-1.

The establishment of Kakas Bros., 179 Tremont Street, is renowned for perfection of taste and refinement daily exemplified in beautiful creations of all kinds of Fur at Moderate Prices.

For correct styles in Men's Furnishings one naturally goes to Blanchard, King & Co.'s., 250 Boylston Street. Their Ladies' Department is becoming noted for a choice variety of hand embroideries in waists and gowns. Also Imported Brass and Leather Novelties in choice variety.

THINGS WORTH SEEING

At the American Music Hall

The much talked of dramatic sketch, "After The Opera," which has already thrilled Paris, London and New York, will be the big feature at the American Music Hall this week. That it will prove a sensation in Boston is almost certain for it deals with a topic of universal interest. It tells the story of an illicit love and its inevitable consequences. A synopsis of the piece is impossible in a short space. It suffices to say that the playlet grasps the interests of the audience at the start and holds it with increasing intensity right through to the tragic climax. McMahon & Chappelle, a clever pair of vaudevillians, will present their laughable skit, "Twenty Minutes Before Tram Time." This pair have been announced for Boston several times before but their popularity in New York was so great that it was impossible to secure them before this time. Sam Stern is another act that Bostonians will take kindly to. He has been seen here but once and on that occasion made a decided hit with his Italian and Hebrew characterizations. The Pullman Porter Maids are a sextette of pretty girls who know how to sing and dance in a manner to satisfy the most critical. The balance of the bill will include Josephine Sabel, known as the quaint comedienne; Larex & Larex, who offer a startling ring and bar exhibition; Petching Brothers, clever musicians, and the Bon Air Trio presenting an act combining dancing, acrobatics and pantomime.

AT THE SHUBERT.

"The Goddess of Liberty," a spectacular musical play, comes to the Shubert this week, and the seats are at summer prices. It was first given in Chicago with success. There are many girls in the company who carry out the patriotic sentiment. Joseph Howard, Stella Tracey and Violet Colby have the chief parts.

At the Castle Square is "My Wife," the French play in which John Drew and Billie Burke acted last season.

"Madam Butterfly" is the offering by the Aborn Opera Company at the Boston Opera House.

THINGS WORTH SEEING

At the American Music Hall

Cissie Curlette, the newest importation from Europe, who has been winning a remarkable success for the past two weeks in New York will be the big feature at the American Music Hall this week. Miss Curlette is so different from the average run of English Music Hall artists that her success in this country was instantaneous. She has been likened to Vesta Victoria, Lucy Weston and Yvette Gilbert, but just where the similarity lies would be hard to say. She is an incarnation of dainty demureness and is gifted with a personal magnetism which fairly electrifies her audience. Another big feature of the bill will be William Courtleigh the well known actor who with a capable company will present his big vaudeville success, "Peaches." In this sketch Mr. Courtleigh will be given ample opportunity for a display of his talents. Clinton & Robb will present a laughable skit called "Back To Louisville," while the Azards will give an exhibition of physical strength and hand balancing. Pulu is an educated dog that will prove a positive delight to children and will furnish no end of amusement even to older people. Ed. Foley is a clever singer who is very "Cohanesque" in his manner and not only sings "Cohanesque Songs" but sings them in a "Cohanesque way." The balance of the bill will include W. E. Whittle in a ventriloquist act called "9 P. M. At The White House," Anderson and Thomas, a clever pair of entertainers, and Farrell.

One of the most notable pieces in the American drama, "The Great Divide," is revived this week by Charlotte Hunt and her company at the Majestic.

The Castle Square stock company present "Brewster's Millions," a play made popular by a former engagement in this city.

At the Boston Opera House the Aborn English Grand Opera Co. offers "Cavalleria," and "Pagliacci," as a joint bill on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, and "Martha," on Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings.

On Monday, May 23, Norumbega Park, the first of the summer gardens with an open-air theatre, starts upon its season. Many new features have been added.

SHOPPING NEWS

Miss M. F. Fisk, the Red Glove Shop, 322 Boylston St., is having an Opening of Ladies' and Gentlemen's Gloves, Ladies' Waists, Veils, Neckwear and Belts. New and novel things are constantly received that add distinction to one's costume.

Miss R. Butler, The Hair Store, 29 Temple Place. At this establishment, the most centrally located in Boston, will be found the largest assortment of Hair Goods in New England, Hair Dressing, Manicuring, Treatment of Face and Scalp, Chiropody, Pedicure, Combs, Barrettes, Pins. Hotel work by appointment. Tel. Oxford 628.

One of the almost indispensable articles at this the Opera season, is a good opera glass. Millar & Welch the West St. opticians, have anticipated the demand and have imported an excellent line and are prepared to show a large variety in plain and fancy mountings, also they make a specialty of thermometers, both for inside or outside use.

Macullar Parker Company. Spring goods now ready in all departments. In the Custom and Ladies' Tailoring particularly it is an advantage to place orders early.

William H. Winship (formerly H. A. Winship), 16 Tremont St., are showing a fine line of Trunks, Bags and Dress Suit Cases for European Travel. A full stock of the latest designs in ladies' wrist and hand bags. Always reliable. Established 1842.

The soft Oriental materials to be seen in Davis' East India House, 373 Boylston Street, near Arlington Street, are different from anything to be found elsewhere, and one finds there, also, beautiful embroideries and many interesting novelties, from many parts of the world.

John J. Stevens & Co., 300 Boylston St., show an unusual display of New Spring Suits, Gowns and Wash Dresses for all occasions at popular prices for Ladies and Misses.

A. L. La Vers Co., Importers and Designers, 190-192 Boylston St., 32-34 Park Square, announce their Spring opening of imported Millinery, Tailored Linen Suits, Waists, Dresses, Coats. They have on display many beautiful model hats from Marie Louise, T. Suzanne Talbot, Jeanne Lanvin, Reboux, Georgette, Esther Meyer and Mme. Virot. For the benefit of strangers, we may add that this is one of the leading shops in the city as well as the most attractive in its line.

There is no question but that Raymond & Whitcomb Company, whose office is at 306 Washington Street, next to the Old South Church, maintain the best equipped and most complete ticket office for railroad and steamship tickets in the city. Correct information will be furnished with pleasure.

About that gown, Madam. Before ordering consult Miss Fish, 12 Hemenway St. Particular attention given to Line and Form. Tel. B. B. 3514-1.

The establishment of Kakas Bros., 179 Tremont Street, is renowned for perfection of taste and refinement daily exemplified in beautiful creations of all kinds of Fur at Moderate Prices.

For correct styles in Men's Furnishings one naturally goes to Blanchard, King & Co.'s., 250 Boylston Street. Their Ladies' Department is becoming noted for a choice variety of hand embroideries in waists and gowns. Also Imported Brass and Leather Novelties in choice variety.

THINGS WORTH SEEING

The American Music Hall

Announces to its patrons and the public the inauguration of Summer Vaudeville at reasonable prices.

Miss Charlotte Hunt and her company at the Majestic offer "Camille," a play always well received here.

"Charley's Aunt," a well known farce well known in this city from its numerous presentations is played at the Castle Square by the John Craig Stock Company.

Norumbega Park has many features for entertainment in the open air.

The Barnum & Bailey Circus has two performances daily at the Park Square site.

At Symphony Hall the Pops are drawing big audiences nightly.

Trinity Church, Copley Square, the finest ecclesiastical building in New England, completed 1877. The walls are built of reddish-yellow Dedham granite and brownstone. The tower is two hundred and eleven feet high and forty-six feet square inside, with a pyramidal roof of red akron tiles. The triple-arched porch on the front was built in 1894-97. Among Trinity's rectors were Bishop Parker, Doane, Hopkins, Wainwright, Eastburn, Clark and Phillips Brooks. This society formerly occupied the granite church building destroyed by fire in 1872 on Summer Street.

New Old South Church, Dartmouth Street and Copley Square. Built 1872-75 of Roxbury stone. The great bell tower is 248 feet high. Cost $600,000. The leading Congregational church in New England. Adjoining the church on Boylston Street is the chapel and parsonage. This society formerly occupied the Old South Church.

The Boston Public Library in Copley Square is one of the foremost architectural monuments of America, costing $2,500,000. The architects were McKim, Mead & White; the sculptures by Augustus St. Gaudens and D. C. French. The mural paintings by Puvis de Chavannes, Edwin A. Abbey and John S. Sargent attract thousands of visitors to this beautiful structure, which contains 900,000 volumes.

THINGS WORTH SEEING

The American Music Hall

The inauguration of Summer Vaudeville at this house has caught on with the public in general. Vaudeville of the highest type is maintained with the latest and up-to-date Motion Pictures.

"The Rivals," is the offering at the Castle Square by the John Craig Stock Company.

The Charlotte Hunt Stock Company at the Majestic presents the well known drama, "Caste."

At the Boston Opera House, the Aborn Comic Opera Company appears in "The Mikado," which is full of tuneful music familiar to most Bostonians.

On next Saturday evening Paragon Park at Nantasket Beach opens for the season. There are numerous new features which are sure to attract great crowds during the summer.

Norumbega Park has much to entertain in the open air.

Trinity Church, Copley Square, the finest ecclesiastical building in New England, completed 1877. The walls are built of reddish-yellow Dedham granite and brownstone. The tower is two hundred and eleven feet high and forty-six feet square inside, with a pyramidal roof of red akron tiles. The triple-arched porch on the front was built in 1894-97. Among Trinity's rectors were Bishop Parker, Doane, Hopkins, Wainwright, Eastburn, Clark and Phillips Brooks. This society formerly occupied the granite church building destroyed by fire in 1872 on Summer Street.

New Old South Church, Dartmouth Street and Copley Square. Built 1872-75 of Roxbury stone. The great bell tower is 248 feet high. Cost $600,000. The leading Congregational church in New England. Adjoining the church on Boylston Street is the chapel and parsonage. This society formerly occupied the Old South Church.

The Boston Public Library in Copley Square is one of the foremost architectural monuments of America, costing $2,500,000. The architects were McKim, Mead & White; the sculptures by Augustus St. Gaudens and D. C. French. The mural paintings by Puvis de Chavannes, Edwin A. Abbey and John S. Sargent attract thousands of visitors to this beautiful structure, which contains 900,000 volumes.

SHOPPING NEWS

Miss M. F. Fisk, the Red Glove Shop, 322 Boylston St., is having an Opening of Ladies' and Gentlemen's Gloves, Ladies' Waists, Veils, Neckwear and Belts. New and novel things are constantly received that add distinction to one's costume.

Miss R. Butler, The Hair Store, 29 Temple Place. At this establishment, the most centrally located in Boston, will be found the largest assortment of Hair Goods in New England, Hair Dressing, Manicuring, Treatment of Face and Scalp, Chiropody, Pedicure, Combs, Barrettes, Pins. Hotel work by appointment. Tel. Oxford 628.

One of the almost indispensable articles at this the Opera season, is a good opera glass. Millar & Welch the West St. opticians, have anticipated the demand and have imported an excellent line and are prepared to show a large variety in plain and fancy mountings, also they make a specialty of thermometers, both for inside or outside use.

Macullar Parker Company. Spring goods now ready in all departments. In the Custom and Ladies' Tailoring particularly it is an advantage to place orders early.

William H. Winship (formerly H. A. Winship), 16 Tremont St., are showing a fine line of Trunks, Bags and Dress Suit Cases for European Travel. A full stock of the latest designs in ladies' wrist and hand bags. Always reliable. Established 1842.

The soft Oriental materials to be seen in Davis' East India House, 373 Boylston Street, near Arlington Street, are different from anything to be found elsewhere, and one finds there, also, beautiful embroideries and many interesting novelties, from many parts of the world.

John J. Stevens & Co., 300 Boylston St., have reduced their entire line of Spring Suits and Coats. Special bargains in linen and chambray dresses—all sizes. Special sale of sample Coats and Children's Suits commencing Wednesday, May 4th.

A. L. La Vers Co., Importers and Designers, 190-192 Boylston St., 32-34 Park Square, are showing a beautiful display of Graduation Dresses and Flower Hats for the June Weddings, also a display of New Tailored White Serge Suits, and French Linen 3-piece Suits, beautifully braided in self colors, Colors rose, green, blue. This is one of the most attractive shops on Boylston Street, and is well worth a visit.

There is no question but that Raymond & Whitcomb Company, whose office is at 306 Washington Street, next to the Old South Church, maintain the best equipped and most complete ticket office for railroad and steamship tickets in the city. Correct information will be furnished with pleasure.

For correct styles in Men's Furnishings one naturally goes to Blanchard, King & Co.'s, 250 Boylston Street. Their Ladies' Department is becoming noted for a choice variety of hand embroideries in waists and gowns. Also Imported Brass and Leather Novelties in choice variety.

The Antique Store, 390 Boylston St., appeals to those who are searching for unique pieces of old furniture, Sheffield plate, blue China and quaint bits from Colonial days. It is under new management and offers especially low prices during the summer. The Antique Store is one of the places of interest to visit while strolling on Boylston St.

THINGS WORTH SEEING

The John Craig Stock Company at the Castle Square Theatre this week presents the comedy drama, "Mrs. Temple's Telegram."

"Romeo and Juliet" is the offering at the Majestic by Charlotte Hunt and her stock company.

The season is in full swing at the summer gardens. There are new and varied features at Wonderland, Paragon Park, Lexington Park and Norumbega Park. The managements have been liberal in expenditures and there is entertainment provided for all.

The Airdome, the latest of the out-of-door amusements, opens Monday evening for a season at the American League Grounds, Huntington Ave. Aeroplane ascents are a big feature. There will be a special matinee on Friday, June 17th, at 2.30, aside from the regular Saturday matinee.

Lindsey Morison takes the American Music Hall next week for his season of stock performances, with Wilson Melrose and an all star cast, producing a line of the newest and most modern plays of the present time at popular prices.

Trinity Church, Copley Square, the finest ecclesiastical building in New England, completed 1877. The walls are built of reddish-yellow Dedham granite and brownstone. The tower is two hundred and seven feet high and forty-six feet square inside, with a pyramidal roof of red akron tiles. The triple-arched porch on the front was built in 1894-97. Among Trinity's rectors were Bishop Parker, Doane, Hopkins, Wainwright, Eastburn, Clark and Phillips Brooks. This society formerly occupied the granite church building destroyed by fire in 1872 on Summer Street.

New Old South Church, Dartmouth Street and Copley Square. Built 1872-75 of Roxbury stone. The great bell tower is 248 feet high. Cost $600,000. The leading Congregational church in New England. Adjoining the church on Boylston Street is the chapel and parsonage. This society formerly occupied the Old South Church.

The Boston Public Library in Copley Square is one of the foremost architectural monuments of America, costing $2,500,000. The architects were McKim, Mead & White; the sculptures by Augustus St. Gaudens and D. C. French. The mural paintings by Puvis de Chavannes, Edwin A. Abbey and John S. Sargent attract thousands of visitors to this beautiful structure, which contains 900,000 volumes.

SHOPPING NEWS

Miss M. F. Fisk, the Red Glove Shop, 322 Boylston St., is having an Opening of Ladies' and Gentlemen's Gloves, Ladies' Waists, Veils, Neckwear and Belts. New and novel things are constantly received that add distinction to one's costume.

Miss R. Butler, The Hair Store, 29 Temple Place. At this establishment, the most centrally located in Boston, will be found the largest assortment of Hair Goods in New England, Hair Dressing, Manicuring, Treatment of Face and Scalp, Chiropody, Pedicure, Combs, Barrettes, Pins. Hotel work by appointment. Tel. Oxford 628.

One of the almost indispensable articles at this the Opera season, is a good opera glass. Millar & Welch the West St. opticians, have anticipated the demand and have imported an excellent line and are prepared to show a large variety in plain and fancy mountings, also they make a specialty of thermometers, both for inside or outside use.

Macullar Parker Company. Spring goods now ready in all departments. In the Custom and Ladies' Tailoring particularly it is an advantage to place orders early.

William H. Winship (formerly H. A. Winship), 16 Tremont St., are showing a fine line of Trunks, Bags and Dress Suit Cases for European Travel. A full stock of the latest designs in ladies' wrist and hand bags. Always reliable. Established 1842.

The soft Oriental materials to be seen in Davis' East India House, 373 Boylston Street, near Arlington Street, are different from anything to be found elsewhere, and one finds there, also, beautiful embroideries and many interesting novelties, from many parts of the world.

John J. Stevens & Co., 300 Boylston St., have reduced their entire line of Spring Suits and Coats. Special bargains in linen and chambray dresses—all sizes. Special sale of sample Coats and Children's Suits commencing Wednesday, May 4th.

A. L. La Vers Co., Importers and Designers, 190-192 Boylston St., 32-34 Park Square, are showing a beautiful display of Graduation Dresses and Flower Hats for the June Weddings, also a display of New Tailored White Serge Suits, and French Linen 3-piece Suits, beautifully braided in self colors. Colors rose, green, blue. This is one of the most attractive shops on Boylston Street, and is well worth a visit.

There is no question but that Raymond & Whitcomb Company, whose office is at 306 Washington Street, next to the Old South Church, maintain the best equipped and most complete ticket office for railroad and steamship tickets in the city. Correct information will be furnished with pleasure.

For correct styles in Men's Furnishings one naturally goes to Blanchard, King & Co.'s, 250 Boylston Street. Their Ladies' Department is becoming noted for a choice variety of hand embroideries in waists and gowns. Also Imported Brass and Leather Novelties in choice variety.

The Antique Store, 390 Boylston St., appeals to those who are searching for unique pieces of old furniture, Sheffield plate, blue China and quaint bits from Colonial days. It is under new management and offers especially low prices during the summer. The Antique Store is one of the places of interest to visit while strolling on Boylston St.

For anything in the Kodak supply line, developing, framing or enlarging, we recommend the store of Arthur W. Hubbard, 49-55 Bromfield St.

THINGS WORTH SEEING

The opera season at the Castle Square begins on Monday with Gilbert and Sullivan's favorite Japanese opera, "The Mikado," which has always been more than popular with Bostonians. It was in this piece that Richard Mansfield first won his fame as a comedian twenty-five years ago, and its long run of several months then at the Hollis Street Theatre will always be memorable. Since then "The Mikado" has been revived again and again, with no sign of any decrease in the public demand for it, and it is because of this popularity that it to be given for the opening of the Castle Square summer season.

Sir Arthur Sullivan's music, and Sir W. S. Gilbert's libretto, are masterpieces of humor, and few of us are there who are not moved to laughter by "The Flowers that Bloom in the Spring," "I've Got a Little List," "The Punishment Fit the Crime," "Tit Willow" and the dozen and more other lyrics with which the opera is filled. Scenically, too, it is most alluring, and its stage settings representing the flower-laden gardens of Japan are delightful to the eye, while its quaint Japanese costumes are picturesque in the extreme.

The Lindsay Morison Stock Company begins a summer season this week at the American Music Hall, the production being "St. Elmo."

"The Colleen Bawn," is the offering at the Majestic by Charlotte Hunt and her stock company. The play is well known to Bostonians and is at all times popular.

An entirely new programme is offered at "The Airdome," at the American League Ball Grounds, the performances being confined to the evenings.

Paragon Park, Nantasket Beach, Wonderland at Revere Beach, Norumbega Park and Lexington Park have an excellent list of amusements.

The Boston Public Library in Copley Square is one of the foremost architectural monuments of America, costing $2,500,000. The architects were McKim, Mead & White; the sculptures by Augustus St. Gaudens and D. C. French. The mural paintings by Puvis de Chavannes, Edwin A. Abbey and John S. Sargent attract thousands of visitors to this beautiful structure, which contains 900,000 volumes.

SHOPPING NEWS

Miss M. F. Fisk, the Red Glove Shop, 322 Boylston St., is having an Opening of Ladies' and Gentlemen's Gloves, Ladies' Waists, Veils, Neckwear and Belts. New and novel things are constantly received that add distinction to one's costume.

Miss R. Butler, The Hair Store, 29 Temple Place. At this establishment, the most centrally located in Boston, will be found the largest assortment of Hair Goods in New England, Hair Dressing, Manicuring, Treatment of Face and Scalp, Chiropody, Pedicure, Combs, Barrettes, Pins. Hotel work by appointment. Tel. Oxford 628.

One of the almost indispensable articles at this the Opera season, is a good opera glass. Millar & Welch the West St. opticians, have anticipated the demand and have imported an excellent line and are prepared to show a large variety in plain and fancy mountings, also they make a specialty of thermometers, both for inside or outside use.

Macullar Parker Company. Spring goods now ready in all departments. In the Custom and Ladies' Tailoring particularly it is an advantage to place orders early.

William H. Winship (formerly H. A. Winship), 16 Tremont St., are showing a fine line of Trunks, Bags and Dress Suit Cases for European Travel. A full stock of the latest designs in ladies' wrist and hand bags. Always reliable. Established 1842.

The soft Oriental materials to be seen in Davis' East India House, 373 Boylston Street, near Arlington Street, are different from anything to be found elsewhere, and one finds there, also, beautiful embroideries and many interesting novelties, from many parts of the world.

John J. Stevens & Co., 300 Boylston St., have reduced their entire line of Spring Suits and Coats. Special bargains in linen and chambray dresses—all sizes. Special sale of sample Coats and Children's Suits commencing Wednesday, May 4th.

A. L. La Vers Co., Importers and Designers, 190-192 Boylston St., 32-34 Park Square, are showing a beautiful display of Graduation Dresses and Flower Hats for the June Weddings, also a display of New Tailored White Serge Suits, and French Linen 3-piece Suits, beautifully braided in self colors. Colors rose, green, blue. This is one of the most attractive shops on Boylston Street, and is well worth a visit.

There is no question but that Raymond & Whitcomb Company, whose office is at 306 Washington Street, next to the Old South Church, maintain the best equipped and most complete ticket office for railroad and steamship tickets in the city. Correct information will be furnished with pleasure.

The Antique Store, 390 Boylston St., appeals to those who are searching for unique pieces of old furniture, Sheffield plate, blue China and quaint bits from Colonial days. It is under new management and offers especially low prices during the summer. The Antique Store is one of the places of interest to visit while strolling on Boylston St.

Arthur W. Hubbard, 49-55 Bromfield St., on account of alterations being made in his store, is offering his entire stock of Carbons, Water Colors, Etchings, Photogravures and Prints of all kinds at the low price of 50c on the dollar.

THINGS WORTH SEEING

The Shubert Theatre re-opens this week with Eddie Foy in the new musical revue, "Up and Down Broadway." In the company also is Emma Carus.

"The Little Minister," a great favorite here, is the offering of the Charlotte Hunt Stock Company at the Majestic.

At the American Music Hall the Lindsay Morison Stock Co. presents "The Christian."

"Rip Van Winkle," is the attraction at the Castle Square, where the John Craig Stock Company holds forth.

It is the closing week of The Pops at Symphony Hall.

New features are added to Paragon Park, Wonderland, Norumbega and Lexington parks.

"The Airdome" continues at the American League Grounds, Huntington Avenue.

Bunker Hill Monument. A granite obelisk, 221 feet high, on Monument Square, Breeds Hill, Charlestown. Corner stone laid by Lafayette, June 17, 1825, and monument dedicated, June 17, 1843; Daniel Webster delivered the oration. Cost $150,000. The battle of Bunker Hill was fought, June 17, 1775, when 4,000 British veterans attacked 3,000 Americans behind rude breastworks, and after four hours' battle, captured the redoubt. The British lost 1,500; the Americans 450.

United States Navy Yard. Founded 1800; entrance on Water Street. The yard is between the Charles and Mystic Rivers, and has an area of eighty-seven and a quarter acres; surrounded by a high granite wall and a water front of one and one-half miles. There are seventy-five buildings in the enclosure; commandant's residence, naval museum, naval institute, machine shops and a rope walk, built of granite, 1,361 feet long, where rope is made for the U. S. navy. The great granite dry dock is three hundred and seventy feet long; built 1827-33, at a cost of $991,000. The receiving ship Wabash is moored off the yard, with other vessels.

The Boston Public Park in Copley Square is one of the foremost architectural monuments of America, costing $2,500,000. The architects were McKim, Mead & White; the sculptures by Augustus St. Gaudens and D. C. French. The mural paintings by Puvis de Chavannes, Edwin A. Abbey and John S. Sargent attract thousands of visitors to this beautiful structure, which contains 900,000 volumes.

One of the almost indispensable articles at this the Opera season, is a good opera glass. Millar & Weltch the West St. opticians, have anticipated the demand and have imported an excellent line and are prepared to show a large variety in plain and fancy mountings, also they make a specialty of thermometers, both for inside or outside use.

Macullar Parker Company. Spring goods now ready in all departments. In the Custom and Ladies' Tailoring particularly it is an advantage to place orders early.

William H. Winship (formerly H. A. Winship), 16 Tremont St., are showing a fine line of Trunks, Bags and Dress Suit Cases for European Travel. A full stock of the latest designs in ladies' wrist and hand bags. Always reliable. Established 1842.

The soft Oriental materials to be seen in Davis' East India House, 373 Boylston Street, near Arlington Street, are different from anything to be found elsewhere, and one finds there, also, beautiful embroideries and many interesting novelties, from many parts of the world.

John J. Stevens & Co., 300 Boylston St., have reduced their entire line of Spring Suits and Coats. Special bargains in linen and chambray dresses—all sizes. Special sale of sample Coats and Children's Suits commencing Wednesday, May 4th.

A. L. La Vers Co., Importers and Designers, 190-192 Boylston St., 32-34 Park Square, are showing a beautiful display of Graduation Dresses and Flower Hats for the June Weddings, also a display of New Tailored White Serge Suits, and French Linen 3-piece Suits, beautifully braided in self colors. Colors rose, green, blue. This is one of the most attractive shops on Boylston Street, and is well worth a visit.

There is no question but that Raymond & Whitcomb Company, whose office is at 306 Washington Street, next to the Old South Church, maintain the best equipped and most complete ticket office for railroad and steamship tickets in the city. Correct information will be furnished with pleasure.

The Antique Store, 390 Boylston St., appeals to those who are searching for unique pieces of old furniture, Sheffield plate, blue China and quaint bits from Colonial days. It is under new management and offers especially low prices during the summer. The Antique Store is one of the places of interest to visit while strolling on Boylston St.

Arthur W. Hubbard, 49-55 Bromfield St., on account of alterations being made in his store, is offering his entire stock of Carbons, Water Colors, Etchings, Photogravures and Prints of all kinds at the low price of 50c on the dollar.

THINGS WORTH SEEING

Wilson Melrose appears this week in "The Battle," at the American Music Hall. It is the first appearance of Mr. Friebus. The play was received favorably when presented at one of the high price theatres earlier in the season.

"East Lynne" is the attraction at the Majestic, where Charlotte Hunt and her company are playing to big audiences.

At the Castle Square "The Bohemian Girl," is the opera.

Paragon Park, Wonderland, Lexington Park and Norumbega Park have a great array of out-of-door amusements.

Do you want to see the famous sights of the North and South shores of Mass.? Call up The Trolley Information Bureau, 309 Washington Street, and they will be glad to give you all information about their cars going to the different points on the North and South Shore. The Telephone Number is Main 4559.

Bunker Hill Monument. A granite obelisk, 221 feet high, on Monument Square, Breeds Hill, Charlestown. Corner stone laid by Lafayette, June 17, 1825, and monument dedicated, June 17, 1843; Daniel Webster delivered the oration. Cost $150,000. The battle of Bunker Hill was fought, June 17, 1775, when 4,000 British veterans attacked 3,000 Americans behind rude breastworks, and after four hours' battle, captured the redoubt. The British lost 1,500; the Americans 450.

United States Navy Yard. Founded 1800; entrance on Water Street. The yard is between the Charles and Mystic Rivers, and has an area of eighty-seven and a quarter acres; surrounded by a high granite wall and a water front of one and one-half miles. There are seventy-five buildings in the enclosure; commandant's residence, naval museum, naval institute, machine shops and a rope walk, built of granite, 1,361 feet long, where rope is made for the U. S. navy. The great granite dry dock is three hundred and seventy feet long; built 1827-33, at a cost of $994,000. The receiving ship Wabash is moored off the yard, with other vessels.

The Boston Public Library in Copley Square is one of the foremost architectural monuments of America, costing $2,500,000. The architects were McKim, Mead & White; the sculptures by Augustus St. Gaudens and D. C. French. The mural paintings by Puvis de Chavannes, Edwin A. Abbey and John S. Sargent attract thousands of visitors to this beautiful structure, which contains 900,000 volumes.

Hair Dressing, Manicuring, Treatment of Face and Scalp, Chiropody, Pedicure, Combs, Barrettes, Pins. Hotel work by appointment. Tel. Oxford 628.

One of the almost indispensable articles at this the Opera season, is a good opera glass. Millar & Weltch the West St. opticians, have anticipated the demand and have imported an excellent line and are prepared to show a large variety in plain and fancy mountings, also they make a specialty of thermometers, both for inside or outside use.

Macullar Parker Company. Spring goods now ready in all departments. In the Custom and Ladies' Tailoring particularly it is an advantage to place orders early.

William H. Winship (formerly H. A. Winship), 16 Tremont St., are showing a fine line of Trunks, Bags and Dress Suit Cases for European Travel. A full stock of the latest designs in ladies' wrist and hand bags. Always reliable. Established 1842.

The soft Oriental materials to be seen in Davis' East India House, 373 Boylston Street, near Arlington Street, are different from anything to be found elsewhere, and one finds there, also, beautiful embroideries and many interesting novelties, from many parts of the world.

John J. Stevens & Co., 300 Boylston St., have reduced their entire line of Spring Suits and Coats. Special bargains in linen and chambray dresses—all sizes. Special sale of sample Coats and Children's Suits commencing Wednesday, May 4th.

A. L. La Vers Co., Importers and Designers, 190-192 Boylston St., 32-34 Park Square, are showing a beautiful display of Lingerie Waists and Dresses and Mid-Summer Hats, also a display of New Tailored White Serge Suits, and French Linen 3-piece Suits, beautifully braided in self colors. Colors rose, green, blue. This is one of the most attractive shops on Boylston Street, and is well worth a visit.

There is no question but that Raymond & Whitcomb Company, whose office is at 306 Washington Street, next to the Old South Church, maintain the best equipped and most complete ticket office for railroad and steamship tickets in the city. Correct information will be furnished with pleasure.

The Antique Store, 390 Boylston St., appeals to those who are searching for unique pieces of old furniture, Sheffield plate, blue China and quaint bits from Colonial days. It is under new management and offers especially low prices during the summer. The Antique Store is one of the places of interest to visit while strolling on Boylston St.

Arthur W. Hubbard, 49-55 Bromfield St., on account of alterations being made in his store, is offering his entire stock of Carbons, Water Colors, Etchings, Photogravures and Prints of all kinds at the low price of 50c on the dollar.

THINGS WORTH SEEING

A lively farce, entitled, "Caught In The Rain," with Wilson Melrose and Miss Rosalind Coghlan in the principal parts, is the offering this week at the American Music Hall by the Lindsay Morison Stock Company.

Keith's present a splendid Summer bill, bright with novelties and good wholesome fun. A great feature for the fans is the Baseballitis, one big boisterous laugh.

The season is at its height at Paragon Park, Norumbega, Wonderland and Lexington Park. New and startling features are added each week.

Do you want to see the famous sights of the North and South shores of Mass.? Call up The Trolley Information Bureau, 309 Washington Street, and they will be glad to give you all information about their cars going to the different points on the North and South Shore. The Telephone Number is Main 1559.

Bunker Hill Monument. A granite obelisk, 221 feet high, on Monument Square, Breeds Hill, Charlestown. Corner stone laid by Lafayette, June 17, 1825, and monument dedicated, June 17, 1843; Daniel Webster delivered the oration. Cost $150,000. The battle of Bunker Hill was fought, June 17, 1775, when 4,000 British veterans attacked 3,000 Americans behind rude breastworks, and after four hours' battle, captured the redoubt. The British lost 1,500; the Americans 450.

United States Navy Yard. Founded 1800; entrance on Water Street. The yard is between the Charles and Mystic Rivers, and has an area of eighty-seven and a quarter acres; surrounded by a high granite wall and a water front of one and one-half miles. There are seventy-five buildings in the enclosure; commandant's residence, naval museum, naval institute, machine shops and a rope walk, built of granite, 1,361 feet long, where rope is made for the U. S. navy. The great granite dry dock is three hundred and seventy feet long; built 1827-33, at a cost of $994,000. The receiving ship Wabash is moored off the yard, with other vessels.

SHOPPING NEWS

Miss M. F. Fisk, the Red Glove Shop, 322 Boylston St., is having an Opening of Ladies' and Gentlemen's Gloves, Ladies' Waists, Veils, Neckwear and Belts. New and novel things are constantly received that add distinction to one's costume.

Miss R. Butler, The Hair Store, 29 Temple Place. At this establishment, the most centrally located in Boston, will be found the largest assortment of Hair Goods in New England, Hair Dressing, Manicuring, Treatment of Face and Scalp, Chiropody, Pedicure, Combs, Barrettes, Pins. Hotel work by appointment. Tel. Oxford 628.

Millar & Welch, opticians, have removed from West Street to 162a Tremont Street (next to Keith's Theatre). The Bostonian as well as the stranger will find best of kodak supplies as well as a fine and up-to-date line of field glasses for use at the seashore.

Macullar Parker Company. Spring goods now ready in all departments. In the Custom and Ladies' Tailoring particularly it is an advantage to place orders early.

William H. Winship (formerly H. A. Winship), 16 Tremont St., are showing a fine line of Trunks, Bags and Dress Suit Cases for European Travel. A full stock of the latest designs in ladies' wrist and hand bags. Always reliable. Established 1842.

The soft Oriental materials to be seen in Davis' East India House, 373 Boylston Street, near Arlington Street, are different from anything to be found elsewhere, and one finds there, also, beautiful embroideries and many interesting novelties, from many parts of the world.

John J. Stevens & Co., 300 Boylston St., are showing a very fine line of shirt waists and dresses for summer, also ladies' underwear, both domestic and French.

A. L. La Vers Co., Importers and Designers, 190-192 Boylston St., 32-34 Park Square, are showing a beautiful display of Lingerie Waists and Dresses and Mid-Summer Hats, also a display of New Tailored White Serge Suits, and French Linen 3-piece Suits, beautifully braided in self colors. Colors rose, green, blue. This is one of the most attractive shops on Boylston Street, and is well worth a visit.

There is no question but that Raymond & Whitcomb Company, whose office is at 306 Washington Street, next to the Old South Church, maintain the best equipped and most complete ticket office for railroad and steamship tickets in the city. Correct information will be furnished with pleasure.

The Antique Store, 390 Boylston St., appeals to those who are searching for unique pieces of old furniture, Sheffield plate, blue China and quaint bits from Colonial days. It is under new management and offers especially low prices during the summer. The Antique Store is one of the places of interest to visit while strolling on Boylston St.

Arthur W. Hubbard, 49-55 Bromfield St., on account of alterations being made in his store, is offering his entire stock of Carbons, Water Colors, Etchings, Photogravures and Prints of all kinds at the low price of 50c on the dollar.

THINGS WORTH SEEING

A leading feature this week of the vaudeville bill at Keith's is "The Aid of Mystery."

Rev. Thomas Dixon's race-problem play, "The Clansman," is presented by the Lindsay Morison Stock Company at the American Music Hall.

The Charlotte Hunt Stock Company at the Majestic plays "Thelma," and popular here by other performances in earlier years.

Because of its excellent location for summer amusement, Paragon Park at Nantasket is known as "The City of Festivity by the Sea."

Wonderland at Revere Beach is entertaining great crowds of visitors with many startling features from 1 to 11 P. M. daily.

Norumbega and Lexington Parks are reached by long cool electric trolleys through the country and there is entertainment provided for all.

One of the most delightful of the many trolley trips which one can take is along the Atlantic coast where the landscape and shore views are unequalled. From Boston to Lynn, Salem, Gloucester and around Cape Ann, through the witch country and attractive resorts of the shore, the local and provincial history of the shore towns seen on this trip is well preserved. See page 4 for tickets and all trolley information in and about Boston.

Old North Church.—More properly Christ Church, Salem Street, west of Hull Street. Dedicated 1723. From its steeple were displayed until Revere's signal lanterns, April 18, 1775. Opened by sexton on application. Fee, 25 cents.

The New Court House, a massive granite structure completed in 1893, at a cost of $4,000,000, stands at the head of Pemberton Square, 100 blocks from the State House.

Rufus Choate Statue, placed in the new Court House, was the first of a public school master in honor of this great lawyer.

Public Library, Copley Square. Founded 1852, is the largest library in America, and has over 550,000 volumes and 350,000 pamphlets. Erected 1888-95 at a cost of $2,650,000. Most of the land was given by the State. The building is built of pinkish-gray granite. The building is two hundred and twenty-feet long, two hundred and twenty-seven feet deep and seventy feet high. Joshua Bates, a native of Boston, but long a resident of London, England, gave $100,000 for the purchase of books, and since that time many generous individuals have given their large private libraries, and donated large sums of money for the use of the library. The city makes a large annual appropriation for the support of the library. (The old school building on Mason Street was the first building used for the library, and in 1858 a large new building was completed on Boylston Street. It was torn down in 1899.) The beautiful halls contain, beside the large number of books, many rare works of art, statues of bronze and marble, oil paintings, marble busts and many valuable historic relics of the city.

SHOPPING NEWS

Miss M. F. Fisk, the Red Glove Shop, 322 Boylston St., is having an Opening of Ladies' and Gentlemen's Gloves, Ladies' Waists, Veils, Neckwear and Belts. New and novel things are constantly received that add distinction to one's costume.

Miss R. Butler, The Hair Store, 29 Temple Place. At this establishment, the most centrally located in Boston, will be found the largest assortment of Hair Goods in New England, Hair Dressing, Manicuring, Treatment of Face and Scalp, Chiropody, Pedicure, Combs, Barrettes, Pins. Hotel work by appointment. Tel. Oxford 628.

Millar & Welch, opticians, have removed from West Street to 162a Tremont Street (next to Keith's Theatre). The Bostonian as well as the stranger will find best of kodak supplies as well as a fine and up-to-date line of field glasses for use at the seashore.

Macullar Parker Company. Spring goods now ready in all departments. In the Custom and Ladies' Tailoring particularly it is an advantage to place orders early.

William H. Winship (formerly H. A. Winship), 16 Tremont St., are showing a fine line of Trunks, Bags and Dress Suit Cases for European Travel. A full stock of the latest designs in ladies' wrist and hand bags. Always reliable. Established 1842.

The soft Oriental materials to be seen in Davis' East India House, 373 Boylston Street, near Arlington Street, are different from anything to be found elsewhere, and one finds there, also, beautiful embroideries and many interesting novelties, from many parts of the world.

John J. Stevens & Co., 300 Boylston St., are showing a very fine line of shirt waists and dresses for summer, also ladies' underwear, both domestic and French.

A. L. La Vers Co., Importers and Designers, 190-192 Boylston St., 32-34 Park Square, are showing a beautiful display of Lingerie Waists and Dresses and Mid-Summer Hats, also a display of New Tailored White Serge Suits, and French Linen 3-piece Suits beautifully braided in self colors. Colors rose, green, blue. This is one of the most attractive shops on Boylston Street, and is well worth a visit.

There is no question but that Raymond & Whitcomb Company, whose office is at 306 Washington Street, next to the Old South Church, maintain the best equipped and most complete ticket office for railroad and steamship tickets in the city. Correct information will be furnished with pleasure.

The Antique Store, 390 Boylston St., appeals to those who are searching for unique pieces of old furniture, Sheffield plate, blue China and quaint bits from Colonial days. It is under new management and offers especially low prices during the summer. The Antique Store is one of the places of interest to visit while strolling on Boylston St.

Arthur W. Hubbard, 49-55 Bromfield St., on account of alterations being made in his store, is offering his entire stock of Carbons, Water Colors, Etchings, Photogravures and Prints of all kinds at the low price of 50c on the dollar.
