PRINCE TO ARRIVE THIS AFTERNOON

Vice-President Fairbanks Is Welcomed—Lord Bobs May Come West.

Quebec, July 22.—Quebec heaved a big sigh of relief this morning when it was found that the water supply had been turned on again in full force during the night. Yesterday's experience, consequent upon the breaking of the mains, was anything but a pleasant one, but to-day visitors have been able to have their morning bath and a glass of ice water, and the trouble is already forgotten.

Vice-President Fairbanks, who is to represent the United States at the tercentenary, arrived at 7.55. He was met at the station by Joseph Pope, under secretary of state for Canada, and Col. Victor Williams, who is to be acting aide de camp to Vice-President Fairbanks. He was saluted by the guard of honor of the Fifty-third regiment, belonging to Sherbrooke, while the band of the same regiment played the "Star Spangled Banner."

A drenching downpour of rain prevailed, so very few people were there. The formalities over, he was brought across the river on a launch of the United States battleship New Hampshire, and as he landed in the rain and mist the guns of the citadel and ships boomed forth a salute. The band of the Victoria Rifle of Montreal, as well as a mounted corps, met him and escorted him to the citadel.

Winnipeg, July 22.—In an interview yesterday W. A. "My estimates is," Mr. Black continued, "that we shall have a crop of wheat this year aggregating 120,000,000 bushels, providing the conditions continue favorable. This, as I said, is of wheat, and does not include barley, oats, flax or any other agricultural products, which I believe will show results quite as good compared with the acreage under crop."

Fine Shooting at Clover Point—Victorians Beat All This Morning.
The Vancouver corporation cupstays in Victoria this year, having been won on the Clover Point ranges this morning by the youngest trumpeter A. McDougall, of Victoria, who shot ahead of all his older competitors over the 800 yards range, and plunked the bullet with ten shots in succession, thereby gaining the possible 50. Sergt. G. S. Carr, another Victorian, was well to the fore, this morning over the 800 yards range, in the extra series at that distance, getting 5 straight bullseyes and making the limit of 25. Victoria had a day out today, and the notices of the day's shooting were all-mentioned by having Victoria placed first. The tyro team match for the totals of the first five matches went to Victoria with a score of 1864, being 52 ahead of Vancouver Rifle Association, which gained second place.

HISTORY OF PANAMA CANAL
WONDERFUL WORK WILL AFFECT TRADE
Many Attempts Have Previously Been Made to Construct It.

As the time gradually approaches when the great work of piercing the Isthmus of Panama will be completed, speculations as to the effect which will thereby be produced become more interesting, though hardly less difficult to justify by arguments of a definite kind. That such a revolution in travelling will be effected as in the case of the Suez canal one can hardly anticipate, says the Daily Report. But as regards the communications between Europe, and especially between Great Britain and the whole coast of the Pacific, both Asiatic and American, it is hardly possible to exaggerate the importance of the change which will be effected in the transport of heavy merchandise. For Peru and Chili, for Ecuador and Colombia, as well as for the smaller states occupying the neck of land between Mexico and South America, the new order of things will mean a new chance, at all events, of attracting attention, and possibly capital and immigrants too, just as when a new road or railway is constructed in a desolate or unpopular locality the builder and the small shopkeeper see their opportunity for occupying the adjacent land for business or speculative purposes. It is so long now since the practical work of excavating the canal was commenced that many people have only a vague recollection of the history of the project in its early stages of development. For about two centuries and a half the Spanish government discouraged all attempts to carry into effect the many schemes which had been mooted for opening a waterway through the Isthmus, and it was not until the latter part of the eighteenth century that any regular surveys or estimates were made. The concession granted to a Dutch company in 1820 for cutting a canal proved abortive. Twenty years later the United States government took energetic steps towards examining the comparative merits of the various proposed routes, and especially those in Panama and Nicaragua. In 1829 the Colombian government, then, of course, paramount in Panama, granted the famous Weyse concession, which was purchased for 10,000,000 francs, by the French company under M. Lesseps of Suez canal fame. The career of this company furnishes one of the most striking instances in history of maldistribution and roguery, and brought ruin upon thousands of small investors in France when the exposures came and the concern had to be wound up. Work was discontinued in 1839, and in 1854 a new company or syndicate, was formed in France which carried on the work in a more or less desultory way until the United States in 1852 purchased the whole property, together with the concession, for $40,000,000. Two years later the "zone rights" comprising very extensive control over a belt ten miles wide on each side of the cutting, was purchased for $10,000,000 from the government of Panama, which in the preceding year had revolted from Colombia and declared its independence. Between 1852 and the end of March last the United States congress has voted about $42,000,000 on account of the work out of which have been paid the $40,000,000 due to the French company, the $10,000,000 due for purchase of "zone rights," and various other sums, including $25,000,000 for actual constructive works of excavation, $5,000,000 for municipal improvements in Panama and Colon and in the zone, $6,000,000 for sanitation purposes, $4,000,000 for material and supplies on hand, and various loans and payments in respect of the Panama railway, which is a United States corporation, in all about $125,000,000 leaving a balance available of nearly $16,000,000 wherewith to continue the operations. The last appropriation made by congress was for about $12,000,000 in February of this year, and it was preceded by a grant of $27,000,000 in March, 1907. Whereas the original project contemplated a canal without any locks, it is now proposed to construct six or possibly eight of them, which will result in lifting the water at the surface of the water 150 feet. This compares with a length of ninety-nine miles for the Suez canal, with a width on the surface of 122 feet, the depth in each case being about the same. But the twenty-four millions sterling which it cost to construct and enlarge the waterway in Egypt has already been far exceeded by the sums spent on the works at Panama. The proposed Nicaragua canal was to have a length of about ninety-five miles, exclusive of the lake with which it was to communicate. But the company which commenced the work very soon came to grief, and a new company that started to continue the interrupted work had no better fate.

ACCIDENTAL DEATH
Coroner's Jury Inquired Into Circumstances Connected With Yesterday's Fatality.

This afternoon, after a very brief recess, the coroner's jury in the case of Giovanni Tonello, the Italian powder man who was killed by a blast of powder at Smith's Hill yesterday afternoon, returned a verdict of accidental death. Thus, Donavan, the foreman in charge of the work, showed that Tonello had the most up-to-date appliances for his work, and that the fuses he used were three inches longer than those in general use for a ten-foot hole. He would have 46 seconds to get out of the way after lighting the fuse. W. Lawson Macdonald, the time-keeper, had been standing in the office when he heard the blast. He heard somebody yell out to call up the ambulance, and rushed outside to where Tonello lay. The man expired almost immediately. The powder and fuses used were the best procurable. Tonello had absolute charge of this department of the work. He had been on that particular job about a month, and was reported to be an expert.

TO ALL WHOM IT MAY CONCERN.

It appears some backbiting, slandering, and generally despicable busy-bodies, have been congregating at the street corners and slandering the Colonist. These mean creatures have been whispering in the ears of their fellow citizens of equally ignoble character that contemporary, or some one connected with it, and in high authority, has an interest in the Esquimalt Water Works Company, the deduction being, of course, that the paper is influenced by pecuniary considerations in insisting that the water commissioner be the city shall immediately proceed to expropriate the works of the Esquimalt Water Works Company, or as much of the property in question as the municipality may require in order to supply every citizen and every resident of the outlying districts with an adequate quantity of water. The Colonist naturally resents such insinuations, and proceeds to defy, in characteristically emphatic language, its defamers.

In order that there shall be no misunderstanding of its position, our contemporary proceeds to shrive itself by making a candid confession, which, we are told, is good for the soul. It says Mr. J. S. H. Matson, Managing Director of the Colonist Printing & Publishing Company, Limited, represents the owner of three hundred and forty-two shares of the capital stock of the Esquimalt Water Works Company, which stock is of par value of $25,000. It is said that these facts have been known to the public for months past. We cannot altogether agree with the latter statement. We imagine the announcement to be news of the most interesting kind to the public and that it will have considerable influence upon the public mind in determining the issue which has been raised by our contemporary. If three hundred and forty-two shares of the Esquimalt Water Works Company are valued at $25,000, the value of a single share must be a trifle less than one hundred dollars. This stock of three hundred and forty-two shares Mr. Matson, Managing Director of the Colonist, acting for the owners, and in order to prove that his newspaper is influenced in its agitation by motives which will bear the fullest investigation, motives which can only be construed as evidence of a desire to facilitate the acquisition by the city of a satisfactory water supply—these shares par value of $25,000 the managing director of Colonist will sell to the city for $25,000. That is, he will magnanimously dispose of the stock at a premium of slightly in excess of $15 a share. The explanation is so candid and clear that comment upon it would be but a superfluous multiplication of words. But it might be pertinent to ask what there is in the circumstances of the Esquimalt Water Works Company to-day to warrant its stock being quoted at a premium? It has its title lake property, which is admitted to be useless as far as furnishing a supply of water to the citizens of Victoria is concerned. The city does not want it. It has been expressly excluded from all negotiations bearing upon the matter of the acquisition of a future water supply. The only source of revenue the Goldstream system can rely upon is the tramway company, with which the Esquimalt Water Works Company has a contract for a specified term of years for a supply of four million gallons of water per diem. It is well known that the British Columbia Electric Railway Company is not satisfied with the power it is generating at Goldstream and is in a fair way of establishing a plant of its own. The officials of the railway company realize that before they can make further extensions to their system they must have water power upon which they can rely to generate a maximum amount of energy.

The street railway is the only customer of the Goldstream company, and it is only compelled to take from that company four million gallons of water per diem. Is the income so derived sufficient to warrant the Esquimalt Water Works Company in placing a value of $1,850,000 upon its property? Are the prospects of the company so rosy that Mr. J. S. H. Matson, managing director of the Colonist, is justified in vaunting his willingness, as a favor to the city, to sell the stock he represents at a premium of more than $75 per share? The foregoing we believe to be a fair statement of the situation. What is there in it to warrant the assumption that the Water Commissioner should proceed to expropriate the property of the Esquimalt Water Works Company without delay because every day that passes enhances the value of that property and increases the amount the city must pay in case it should finally decide that Goldstream is the one satisfactory source of water supply? And why is it that the agitators are not willing to trust the citizens and the ratepayers and the council to take whatever action is necessary in order to secure an adequate supply of water in the regular way, but insist upon the Water Commissioner, an official appointed by the council and who can be discharged by the same body, responsible alike to the council and the citizens for his actions, exercising his alleged statutory powers?

BLUNDERING.

Our local Conservative contemporary volunteers the information that "even on the question of the All-Red route there is no vital difference between the parties." Then why did the opposition oppose the resolution introduced by Sir Wilfrid Laurier endorsing the scheme? Anybody who has read the utterances of Mr. Foster, the actual leader of the Conservative party in the House, must know that his whole speech was a condemnation of the project, while his attitude in delivering it was one of unmistakable hostility. It was significant that one of Mr. Borden's followers voted with the government, while the Conservative member for Brantford stirred his vote. The line-up of the Conservatives in the House against the proposal indicates the growing ascendancy of Mr. Foster in the councils of the party, and the general opinion is that there is another "nest of traitors" conspiracy brewing.

In the past it has been the policy of the opposition to denounce the progressive legislation of the government and their vote for it, the French treaty and Oriental question being conspicuous examples. Latterly, however, it has adopted an attitude of and-out hostility to everything brought down by the government, showing the fine Roman hand of Mr. Foster, and even the bitter castigation which that gentleman frequently receives from the members of his own party who represents sent northwest consequences seems to have no effect upon his reckless course. With such leadership how can the followers of Mr. Borden ever hope to attain to power? Fancy a government with Mr. Foster as its moving genius.

THE WIRES CROSSED.

The local Premier has just met with two very severe reverses. His trip through the Kootenays, while made ostensibly in the public interest and at public expense, was really in the interest of Mr. R. F. Green, whose candidature for the Dominion House the Premier warmly advocated. When the result of the voting in the convention to select a candidate for Kootenay was announced, the vote cast for Mr. Greer was so ridiculously small that he withdrew his name, and on the next ballot Mr. Goodvee, of Rossland, carried off the nomination. Mr. Goodvee was Mayor of Rossland at the time of the labor troubles about six years ago, and in his official capacity called on the military authorities to clear out the union. When, a little later, he was called into the McBride cabinet and stood for election, he was defeated by Mr. Macdonald, the present leader of the opposition. His nomination, with Mr. Goodvee's bad labor record, has given great dissatisfaction throughout the riding and his defeat is certain. Another circumstance that has given the Premier pain is the failure of the Hawthornthwaite Socialist meeting at Nanaimo, where the attendance was small, and the feeling unsatisfactory. The local government was hopeful that with the Socialist candidate in the field their own candidate, Mr. Shepherd, would slip in. This hope is dispelled, and the popular tide is setting strongly in favor of Mr. Ralph Smith and against Mr. Hawthornthwaite. As regards Victoria, it is now thought the Premier may present the name of Mr. Green to the convention for nomination, and that he will be preferred to Mr. H. Barnard.

An aeronaut's account of a recent balloon voyage from Chicago eastward over the province of Ontario is interesting reading. He says "We rose to an altitude of over 16,000 feet. It was then we suffered for the first time from cold, and while you people were sweating we had our overcoats on. The water in the tank was frozen and the thermometer was below zero." When they reached the St. Lawrence they noticed that a storm was raging four thousand feet below.

A few Tory papers in Winnipeg, Toronto and Halifax have been in a frenzy over what they call "the cowardice of the majority of the Presbyterian General Assembly." They even went so far as to call Dr. J. G. Shearer "a chicken-hearted ecclesiastic" and Dr. Pringle, of the Yukon, did not escape unscathed from their anger. This was not altogether due to the hot weather. They wanted to make use of the General Assembly in their business.

Monetary Times: There being $100,000 of the Foresters' money in the Dominion treasury it was entirely appropriate that the Royal Commission should have investigated the society's operations, both as to the manner of investing its funds and as to the adequacy of its rates to provide for its undertakings.

The ship yards of Nova Scotia, which years ago resounded with the building of wooden sailing vessels, have turned out their first steel sailing vessel. She was launched at New Glasgow, J. W. Carmichael & Son, builders.

What Other People Think.

OVERHANGING BOUGHS. To the Editor:—Why is not the legislation with respect to trimming the boughs that hang over the sidewalks enforced? The old standing excuse was that the poles were too few to enforce the law. What will be the excuse now that the force has been largely increased for permitting boughs to overhang the sidewalks to the discomfort of passers-by and the injury of their wearing apparel? WATFARER.

HATS OFF IN CHURCH.

To the Editor:—At Seattle the other evening I attended a fashionable church. Before beginning his sermon, the pastor said: "Ladies will now please remove their hats." A request that was complied with. At Victoria on Sunday I was forced to change my seat twice because the headgear of the ladies in front of me hid the pulpit and the clergyman from my view. These Merry Widows are very pretty, but they should not be worn at public entertainments.

The contributions to the programme were: Misses Switzer and Nyland, and Messrs. H. Shandley, W. B. Smith and F. J. Sehl. Refreshments were served before the return journey was made.

The game will start at 3 p.m. The members of the local intermediate team are expected out to practice on the Royal Athletic grounds to-night without fail.

WHEN GREEK MET

GREEK AT OLYMPIA

In the National Review an interesting account of some of the forgotten features of the Olympic games is given by Lord Desborough. He calls attention to the fact that sports were not the original objective of the quadrennial gathering on the little plains of Olympia, in Elis. The games were primarily a religious one, and it was not until 776 B. C. that there was a contest. Previous to that time, as far back as we have record, the Hellenes were wont to gather at the spot to celebrate their special triumphs and invoke the favorable omens of their deities. The first Olympic Race.

In 776, however, a foot race, corresponding to our 400 yards dash, was instituted, and for fifty years or more it comprised the whole athletic programme. The 14th Olympic games saw a 400 yards race, and thenceforth the races and other contests gradually crowded religious ceremonies to the gathering. Boxing, wrestling and horse racing took their places, but it was not until hundreds of years later that the Marathon race was founded. It is rather curious that it is the last event added to the old Olympic programme that retains any power to interest us to-day, whereas the religious faith that inspired the festival has disappeared from the face of the earth, or has been so transformed as to be unrecognizable.

Hellenic Rafting Pride.

Another important aspect of the Olympic games that Lord Desborough recalls is that the gatherings were the expression of the Hellenic pride of race. National solidarity, as we understand the term, was not possible to the ancient Greeks from the fact that the Hellenic peoples spread along the Mediterranean shores of three continents on hundreds of islands and in scores of settlements, all in a ferment of political combinations which was continually dissolving, but withal there was an intense pride of race which every four years flowered on the plain of Olympia. One of the conditions of the contests then was that every competitor should be of pure Hellenic blood. Competitors, moreover, were required to be of good repute, and unless they could prove that they had never been guilty of any disgraceful act they were forbidden to compete. Thus the sacred traditions of the sport were maintained.

A Time of Truce.

Competitors were obliged to be not only Greeks, and more or less devout Greeks, but patriotic Greeks as well. Boetians might war with Spartans, and think none the worse of each other when they met at Olympia, but when Hieron, of Syracuse, failed to take part in his countrymen in repelling the Persian danger, the entry of his horses at the games was refused at the instance of Themistocles. As all readers of history know, the Hellenes were often at war with each other, but no war was considered so important as the Olympic festival, and every fourth year, some weeks before the opening day, would be forth, first through Elis, and afterward throughout Greece, to proclaim a truce. For one month thereafter, all fighting between city and city and between state and state would cease, and from the farthest Hellenic settlements, from Marathon to the Crimea, the Hellenic youth could travel unhindered to participate in the games and ceremonies.

The Winner's Garland.

The plain of Olympia was hallowed ground, and although the original religious character of the meetings became overshadowed by the athletic contests, some of the old forms were preserved, and to the last the greatest prize a successful athlete could gain, was a garland of wild olive cut by a boy with a golden sickle from the sacred grove near the altar of Aphrodite. Always, at the conclusion of the sports, there was a religious service, in which sacrifices to Zeus were made. One peculiarity of the festival was its dedication to the manhood of the race. No woman might cross the river Alpheus, which bounded the plain on the south; under the penalty of being thrown from the Tynanion rock, the

See Demonstration of Economy Glass Jars

As far ahead of all other makes of Glass Jars, as the automobile is ahead of the old-fashioned ox team. That is the popular verdict regarding the Economy Glass Jars. They are not ordinary preserving jars, but have the advantage of being useful for canning and preserving all kinds of cooked vegetables and meats, in addition to canning any kind of fruit, so that it will still retain its original flavor. An expert demonstrator will give practical illustrations of just what these jars will do. This exhibit is on the main floor, centre aisle. This demonstration is most timely, coming just at what might be called preserving time.

exception to the rule being the priestesses of Demeter, who sat at a marble altar all through the festival. Tradition tells of one woman who braved the penalties of detection, and in disguise attended the games. She was discovered, but was pardoned on the ground that her father, her brothers and her son had all been victors at the games.

IF YOU WERE THE ROSE.

If you were the rose and I the bird
That sings on the white-thorn spray,
I'd sing the love of my heart for you
In the dawn of the summer day.
When the dew on pink petals like pearl-drops lay,
And the wind came from hillside blue,
No song would be sweeter than mine,
Sweetest soul,
The song of my love for you.

If you were the rose and I the bird
In the golden fret of noon,
With the great red poppies swaying
dreamily,
To the wood-dove's tender croon,
I'd still sing on while the soft leaves slept,
And the winds sunk low to rest,
In the fragrant hush I would sing, sweetest soul,
The song that my heart loves best.

If you were the rose and I the bird
When day slipped slowly by
Past the misty curtains of mauve and grey,
That fold o'er the evening sky,
I'd sing till the moon like a half-drawn rose,
Peep'd over the fields of dew,
Till you slept, sweetest soul, with your heart's last thought—
The thought of my love for you.

THIRTEEN MORE TREES CUT DOWN BY CITY

Are Removed From the North-side of Cormorant Street This Morning.

Up to today thirteen fine shade trees, most of them maples, stood on the north side of Cormorant street, between Douglas and Blanchard streets, but apparently the lumber carried with it for them its unlucky significance for bright and early this morning they were all cut down by employees of the works department in order to allow of the construction of a permanent sidewalk. There was no objection in this case, for the trees were down before anyone knew what was happening. The trees in question were well grown averaging about a foot in diameter. With a few exceptions all were maples making an exceptionally well-shaded street. Some time ago the council passed on the work of building permanent sidewalks along both sides of the street but apparently the property owners either did not realize that the trees were to go in the carrying out of the work or knowing of it did not care. No steps were taken to protect them anyhow and this morning when the workmen started work the first thing they did was to cut them down and by the time that the people of the district were on the street on their way to work they were lying across the road. The work was done expeditiously and the remains were removed with equal dispatch.

It may be said there was no excuse that the trees would interfere with the sidewalk construction nor yet with the roadway, but the reason given is that it was found that in the construction of the sidewalk the grade would have to be lowered and to do this the roots of the trees would have to be cut and that they would be certain to die as a result. In view of this fact the works department considered it better to remove them at once and be done with it. When the street was first cut down some years ago the grade was cut down some feet but the sidewalk was left at its old level, thus protecting the trees for the time being. Now, however, the new sidewalk is being put down it is necessary to reduce the level to that of the street. To do this the works department found that the cutting of the roots of the trees could not be avoided.

W. Y. McCarter is Not Satisfied With System Prevailing.

W. Y. McCarter, of Macdonald & McCarter, contractors on the construction of the E. & N. extension, has returned from the scene of the firm's work at Nanooze Bay. The contract held by them is for four miles of grading at that point. He reports that work is going on very satisfactorily.

Mr. McCarter, however, has a protest to raise against the police administration in the district referred to. He says that on Thursday, July 9th, their camp was entered and a quantity of goods taken from the foreman's shed by them in violation of Constable Kellett was at once notified. Later P. Cowley, a teamster, who lost a suit case, a suit of clothes and all his wearing apparel, accompanied Constable Kellett to Nanooze and reported the matter to Mr. Stevenson, chief of police, at 6 o'clock Friday morning. Since that time apparently no effort on the part of the chief of police has been made to recover the goods as he has not been near the camp nor made any inquiries relative to the matter.

Mr. McCarter is indignant at the way in which the matter has been passed over. He says he understands the matter has been put in the hands of Constable Kellett, but he is incapable.

LOCALS PLAYING WELL AT VANCOUVER

Schwengers, Miss Pitts, Miss Pooley Win—Miss Pitts Loses Singles.

After a tremendous tussle in which every stroke was fought to the final point, but in which the luck was against the local girl, and champion Miss M. Pitts went down to defeat by two sets straight yesterday afternoon at the Vancouver tournament before the skillful playing of Miss Beckett of that city. The score was 6-4, 6-4. At any time the game could have been won by a stroke by the Victoria player, whose rallies, and standard net work were cheered by the spectators as the game proceeded. She fought an unlucky battle, which with a little luck might have resulted differently.

Schwengers in the singles championship of the mainland, which he holds from last year, commenced his engagements this year for the same championship by defeating E. J. H. Cardinal, who was formerly champion of Sussex. Schwengers won in two sets straight, 6-1, 9-7. The first game was won easily, but in the second the struggle became determined and every point was a hard one. Schwengers, however, accomplished the necessary stroke to win in the sixteenth game.

Playing in the mixed doubles with E. Jordan, Miss Pooley won from E. J. H. Cardinal and Miss Allen, 6-2, 6-3, and in the ladies doubles, Miss Pooley and Miss Pitts beat Miss Naton Baker and Miss Morris, 6-4, 6-1.

Miss Hotchkiss is in form and with Miss Beckett won the ladies doubles against Miss Jukes and Miss Lee. The results of yesterday's play were: Men's Singles—F. G. Tyler beat A. G. Jukes by default, W. B. Parry beat F. G. Crickmay, 6-4, 6-1. P. Bowler beat A. D. Eddy, 6-1, 2-6, 6-2. B. H. Schwengers beat E. J. H. Cardinal, 6-1, 9-7. E. Rhodes beat C. J. Hall or Everett, 3-6, 6-2, 6-4. L. R. Freeman beat W. E. Burns, 6-1, 6-2.

Men's Doubles—R. Bruce Smith and A. G. Jukes beat Rhodes Bros., 6-4, 6-2. In the ladies' singles, Miss Beckett beat Miss Pitts, of Victoria, 6-0, 6-0. Mixed Doubles—E. Jordan and Miss Pooley won from E. J. H. Cardinal and Miss Allen, 6-2, 6-3. Tyler and Miss Beckett beat A. E. Jukes and Miss Bell, 6-3, 6-2.

Yesterday's Match—D. G. McDonnell beat H. Hulbert, 7-5, 6-3. Ladies' Doubles—Miss Hotchkiss, the champion, with Miss Beckett, beat Mrs. Edgar Lee and Miss Jukes, 6-1, 6-0. Miss Pooley and Miss Pitts beat Miss Naton Baker and Miss Morris, 6-0.

To-morrow the entries for the championships of British Columbia, under the auspices of the Victoria Lawn Tennis Club close at 6 o'clock. The tournament will open on Monday next, 27th instant, at the Belcher street courts, when it is expected all the talent on the coast will be present from as far south as Los Angeles.

From California come Freeman and Miss Hotchkiss, while the coast players who have been running into first class form at the Tacoma and Vancouver tournaments will be here to talk to the local expert Schwengers.

Schwengers is at present in Vancouver at the tournament of the mainland championships which are being played this week.

VICTORIA CUP WON YESTERDAY

BY SERGT. SPERRING OF VANCOUVER CITY

Many of the Good Shots Are Low in List.

The Victoria Corporation match, shot over 600 and 800 yards at seven shots each yesterday afternoon by C. Sergt. Sperring, 6th Vancouver, who scored a total of 61 over the two ranges out of a possible 70. That no one was able to make up the difference of nine intervening shots is due to the somewhat tricky wind which bothered the marksmen, especially at the longer range.

H. C. Chamberlain, of New Westminster, was the only other to obtain an exact number of points, scoring 60 and 60 at 600, while the winner reversed the account, getting the larger score exactly, the longer range being 61 and 61.

Websters to Meet Wonders Saturday

Strong Seattle Combination Won't Have Tired-Nine Against Them.

There's been two or three grouches saying the Victoria nine didn't play ball on Monday. Well everybody knows that, but there is something they don't know. Robertson, for instance, was shuffling out at the school until 2 p. m. Monday afternoon, and he went to work at 5 in the morning to make the time good that he, after doing a hard day's work, spent in playing a severe ball game against first class talent. Robertson wasn't the only one; there was Wattle, Lang, McConnell and Surplice, besides some of the others who were at work early that morning to make up the off night.

The Websters are Joe Schlimm's Seattle nine, who are a good outfit and a combination of the Imperators and Nationals. They were beaten at Brimerton on Saturday last by the combined Navy team and the score was 3-0. They however showed their class by trimming the Yaks in the week before last, 2-0 and 2-2. The local boys have this season played eleven games and have lost two, and won nine. That record will take some beating, and there are few teams of their class that could have done better.

Manager Dickson of the Beavers had a word to say for the Websters. He was surprised the record did not go to 12-0, and said it should have done so under the conditions. Saturday will see the Loys out again and through their trial. What they lose Monday they learn, and will make good use of it for the future. As for the Beavers, the Imperators are the only team that has beaten them and that team is coming here Saturday determined to do it again as they are strengthened by additions of the Nationals. They will bring a strong nine over, the strongest they can raise, and the game will be a close one, and the crowd will be out to support the local boys and see them hit up another win.

CRICKET. ALBIONS PLAY VANCOUVER. The Albion cricketers on Saturday will play an all day match at Beacon Hill park against the eleven from Vancouver which was to have come over last Saturday. The local eleven will put its full strength into the contest and make the game as close as the visitors wish it. The Albion bowlers last Saturday were in fine form and upset Richardson's eleven in quick time; they will not however have such a good chance against the men from the Mainland. The play on the Mainland and was won by the Vancouver eleven with a lot to spare. The locals are anxious this time to return the compliment and will put the strongest team into the field they can get together. Members are requested to be on the grounds to-night for practice not later than 7.30 sharp.

Sixth race, five and a half furlongs—First, Vivant and Play; second, Mechlin; third, Vivant.

Cuba has sent a candidate for the Olympic races. Felix Carratal is the champion long-distance runner of the island. He was second in the twenty-five mile race at the St. Louis Fair, and recently ran twenty-five miles at the Matanzas Carnival in two hours and twenty minutes.

SUMMER SCHOOL AT NANAIMO IS OPENED

A Considerable Progress in Young People's Work—Visitors in Coal City.

Nanaimo, July 21.—Last night witnessed the inauguration service of the summer school and camp meeting which is being held this week in the City park under the auspices of the Methodist church of Victoria district.

Although the major portion of the visiting delegation will not arrive until to-day, yet there was a fairly good attendance and all enjoyed the rousing speeches and especially the delightful view and cooling breezes the park affords. With the Pavilion aglow with electric lights and festooned with flags and bunting it is by itself a most delightful spot to spend a hot afternoon of evening.

John Robson, B.A., president of the B. C. conference, occupied the chair and in a short inaugurating speech welcomed the visitors and delegates to sessions of the summer school.

Mayor Planta then addressed the assemblage, and, after expressing his deep interest in Young People's Work, he invited the visitors to the City and wished them a most pleasant and profitable sojourn in our midst.

Rev. W. F. Ewing next welcomed the visitors in the name of the Halburton street church, and Rev. A. E. Roberts responded on behalf of the visitors. Mr. Roberts during his remarks, dwelt especially on the progress Nanaimo has made since he was in the city two years ago, and expressed his delight at the new blocks being erected and the amount of improvement being done generally.

The congregational singing was not as good as anticipated, owing to the breakdown of the organ, but the audience was favored with a solo by Miss Edith Manifold.

To-day a new organ will be installed and the combined choir of Wallace street and Halburton street churches will be at its disposal.

This morning there will be no session as most of the delegates will arrive by the noon train.

Sessions in the afternoon and evening will be held as announced in programmes and everybody is welcome at any time.

A special feature of this evening's session will be the presentation of bronze medals, won in the local elocutionary contest by Mr. McDonald and J. LeRoy Laidley.

B. C. PACKERS HOLD ANNUAL MEETING

Review of Salmon Industry During Past Year—Financial Statement.

Vancouver, July 21.—At the annual meeting of the shareholders of the B. C. Packers' Association held yesterday morning at the offices of the company, on Granville street, Vancouver, the balance sheet for the last fiscal year was presented, directors elected, and the report of W. H. Barker, general manager, presented. The old directors were all re-elected, as follows: W. H. Barker, Aemiljus Jarvis, E. W. Rollins, E. E. Evans, Campbell Sweeney, William Brind and Robert Kelly.

The report of W. H. Barker on the business of the company for 1907 was as follows: "We operate twelve canneries and one cold storage plant.

"The run of sockeyes on the Fraser river was almost a failure—the total pack of Fraser river was less than 60,000 cases. Our total pack from all points was 139,865 cases—canned salmon, 180 tons mild cured salmon and 2,783,978 lbs. of frozen salmon and halibut, besides a small quantity of cod, herring, sturgeon, etc.

"Quite a large part of our canned salmon was of the cheaper varieties, of which some showed little or no profit; the lower grades of salmon being in demand, owing to the short supply of sockeyes.

"Betterments—Our frozen and fresh fish business having grown beyond the capacity of our plant, we decided to enlarge it. We succeeded in getting a lease on the Canadian Pacific railway of three lots adjoining our plant, and have built an addition which doubles our capacity and gives us two boilers, two engines and compressors, making a complete up-to-date cold storage plant. We have also added another cold room to our Balmoral cannery on the Skeena river, and installed a five-ton compressor there.

"Steamers—We have built a new hull for steamer Constance's engines. We had a new boiler, and upon examining the hull, we decided that it would be unwise to place the new boiler in the boat. Our new steamer is well suited to our business in every way.

"Traps—Our venture with Messrs. J. H. Todd & Sons in joint operation of traps proved very satisfactory last year. We have arranged to continue it, and in addition, to operate jointly their Esquimalt cannery. So far the traps have done slightly better than last year in catching spring salmon. We trust they will do as well with sockeyes.

"Hatcheries—Our Nimpkish hatchery again turned out its capacity of sockeye fry—about 5,000,000. The natural grounds were also well seeded. While our pack of sockeyes at Alert bay was not very large in 1907, being 4,138 cases, taken in comparison with that of 1902, which was 17,772 cases, and 1903, 1,508 cases, it would look as if the hatchery should get some credit. The hatcheries on streams tributary to the Fraser river turned out quite a large quantity of sockeye fry, about 50,000,000, everything was favorable for the retention of the parent fish. The natural spawning beds were not well seeded. The hatchery at Rivers Inlet did better than last year, having turned out some 12,000,000. Both at Rivers Inlet and the headwaters of the Skeena, the natural spawning grounds were well seeded.

"Cold Storage—As previously stated,

We have doubled the capacity of our cold storage plant, and have installed a new boiler and engine. Our fresh halibut shipments have increased a little, but not as much as we expected, probably owing to the hard times.

"Northern Plants—The writer has just returned from an inspecting trip of the northern plants. All are in excellent shape and have made a fair start. The weather has been very bad; this interferes very much with fishing at Rivers Inlet. We trust for the balance of the season they will have better weather.

"Preparations—We are operating ten canneries this year, two less than last—seven north and three on the Fraser river. We have prepared for a pack of 182,000 cases, or a little more than we packed last year, when we did succeed in filling all our cans, carrying over some 45,000 cases.

"Stocks—We had on June 30, 1908, 12,554 cases canned salmon—most of Fraser river halibut. There should soon be disposed of at good prices; a few are being sold from time to time. Stocks are higher than they have been for years.

"Finance—The balance sheet shows a profit for last season of $68,146.07. We have on hand canned salmon valued at $71,883.91, and have used in preparations for this season's pack, new cold storage, steamer, new machinery, etc., including amount of inventories of materials, $37,812.37. Stock on hand at cold storage, June 30, $23,000, and sundry accounts, $28,986.42. We owed the banks June 30, $74,901.85; outstanding accounts, same date, $8,817.61.

"Your directors thought best to only pay a 3-1/2 per cent dividend last year, owing to a large amount of profits earned to working capital."

All Cases Remanded in the Police Court Four Theft Charges and One of Wife-beating Stand Over for Various Reasons.

W. W. Northcott, and R. B. McMicking justice of the peace, occupied the bench at the police court, this morning but the five cases which came before them, four of theft and one of wife-beating, were all remanded.

George A. Morphy, who appeared for Beards, opposed the remand but the bench allowed it. The next man up was William Walker accused of beating his wife, Betsy Walker, and he made a decided protest against a remand until to-morrow.

When the case was called the chief asked for an adjournment, as believing that it was going to be impossible to secure the attendance of two justices of the peace to try the case he allowed the principal witness to go home.

The finding of half a boom, supposed to be that which was to be towed from Seymour Inlet to Vancouver by the tug Tartar, has given rise to fears that the little steamer, with Capt. Carter and eight men have been lost.

A despatch from Vancouver last night stated: "The steamer Tartar, Captain Carter, is reported to be lost in Seymour Inlet, one hundred miles up the coast. News regarding the loss of safety of the vessel was expected this evening by the steamer Camosun, which arrived from Prince Rupert, but she had seen nothing of the Tartar."

There has been no rough weather, and how the vessel could have come to grief is a mystery, but the coast line has been searched for her and nothing can be obtained in the way of information that will solve the enigma of her disappearance.

The Victoria took sack coal and the Transit arrived from Nome with the barge J. C. Potter in tow from Valdez Island. The Earl of Carrick and Ascot were big freighters, lumber laden, in for bunkers.

BRINGS NEWS OF FIRE AT PORT SIMPSON

News of a fire at Port Simpson which, while it did not result in a serious loss to the port, threatened at one time to destroy the new hotel and a considerable number of dwellings, in addition to a number of shacks that were consumed, was brought to the city by the steamship Venture, which arrived this morning.

Boscowitz Steamship Venture Back to Port From the North.

The fire broke out at midnight on the 14th in a shack near the single occupant of the building woke from his slumber and escaped by jumping through the window, sustaining several painful injuries. By the time the town was aroused several other shacks and the marble cutting workshop, owned by George Rudge, had taken fire from the flying sparks.

The fact that it was high water at the time alone saved the majority of the buildings in the town, including the new hotel, which took fire in several places, but was saved without serious injury by the proprietor and a bucket brigade. Nearly every able-bodied man in Port Simpson engaged in the work of packing water, and the loss was confined to a number of old shacks and Mr. Rudge's workshop, from which, however, many valuable tools were saved.

The Venture brought about twenty passengers south. From the ship she had 180 tonnes of salt salmon and also landed at Vancouver 1,200 cases of canned sockeye from the B. A. cannery. The first shipment of last year's salmon to come south this year. She will sail again tonight for B. C. northern ports.

Delayed by a dense fog off the Vancouver island coast the Nippon Yusen Kaisei Line Kaga Maru reported at noon to-day to the local Dominion Radio Telegraph station that she was stopped awaiting clearer weather.

The Kaga Maru was in communication with the local station at four o'clock yesterday afternoon and reported that, with normal weather conditions, she would reach port at ten o'clock this morning. Upon hearing Pichena a dense fog enveloped the steamship which was slowed and finally stopped being still outside at 12 o'clock to-day.

FIRST STEEL SAILER LAUNCHED IN CANADA

"James William" Name of Schooner Turned Out in Nova Scotia.

Further particulars of the first steel sailing ship built in Canada, the launch of which took place the other day at New Glasgow, N. S., are contained in mail advices from Halifax.

The new steel schooner is named the James William, in memory of the late Senator James William Carmichael. She is a three-masted schooner, 111 feet keel, 37 feet beam, 14 feet 4 inches depth of hold, 136 feet over all, with a tonnage of about 450. The vessel is practically an entire Nova Scotia product, the large quantity of steel used in her construction almost altogether the product of the Nova Scotia Steel Company.

The vessel was built by I. Matheson & Co., iron founders, under contract for J. W. Carmichael & Co. She is intended for the coastal lumber trade between Canadian ports and the United States in summer and in the winter will carry pine from the pulp ports to the West Indies. She is a particularly handsome model, made after the Darrah C. A. three-master, built by K. Cochran, of Port George, Cumberland county, and pronounced as handsomely a vessel as ever sailed into New York harbor. Experts say the James William will even surpass this vessel in appearance and she will have a greater carrying capacity. Capt. Martin, St. John, will be her commander.

The repairs to the damaged bows of the Norwegian steamship Transit, now in Esquimaux dry dock, are being effected by day labor and the vessel will probably be floated on Friday.

The French barque Marechal de Castries, which was damaged at Esquimaux, is being towed to the Sound to-morrow.

IS NEGOTIATING FOR A STEAMER IN EAST

Inland Company to Secure British Bottom for Vancouver Run.

The only development in the C.P.R. and Inland Navigation company's rate war is the announcement in Seattle by Joshua Green president of the latter concern, that a steamship now operating on the British side of the Great Lakes is to be secured for the Vancouver route while the Inland Navigation company's new steamer H. B. Kennedy will be placed in commission on the run next spring.

The statement that the company is looking for a British bottom in the Great Lakes trade comes in the way of confirmation of the news, published exclusively in the Times a few weeks ago, that it was negotiating for a vessel on the east.

The steamer H. B. Kennedy is being built for the company at Portland but will not be in commission until next Spring. It is anticipated that Mr. Green will make strenuous efforts to secure a suitable steamer for the opposition run before the two above mentioned vessels are ready.

LEE WILLARD IS APPEARING TO-NIGHT
Well Known Actor Will Be at the Victoria Theatre.

The young romantic actor, Lee Willard, is to be at the Victoria theatre to-night. Mr. Willard has surrounded himself with a company of exceptionally well balanced actors and is presenting a dramatization of Robert Louis Stevenson's great novel "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde."
The play tells the story of how a generous, upright doctor allows himself to become the slave of a drug which takes possession of his whole being, turning his better nature and converting him into a veritable fiend who delights in torturing women and little children. While under the influence of the drug the doctor is known as Mr. Hyde, and so great is the change in him that his daily companions do not know him. As time goes on he becomes gradually more addicted to the drug and loses more and more of his will power, and he changes from Dr. Jekyll to Mr. Hyde without a moment's warning.
It can easily be seen that the actor who assumes this great dual role must be a man of great histrionic ability and Mr. Willard is certainly equal to the part. Had Stevenson himself dramatized his novel and produced it, he could not have wished for a more capable man to perform the part than Mr. Willard.
It is hard to realize that an actor of Mr. Willard's calibre, possessing as he does a commanding stature and fine stage presence, is fitted for the part, but his performance of it speaks for itself. Whenever he has played the part, theatregoers have considered one of, if not the greatest characterizations they have ever witnessed.

PANTAGES THEATRE

A Splendid Bill at Johnson Street House This Week.
The bill presented at the Pantages theatre, this week is a most attractive one. It is sufficient to fill the house nightly in spite of the hot weather.
The greatest feature of the programme is Torcat and D'Aliza, the French comedians, who introduce a large number of performing chickens. The acts of the roosters are in themselves well worth attending for alone. The antics of Koko, a pugnacious little cock, affords infinite amusement during the whole of the time occupied by the performers.
In addition to the trained roosters and their rope walking, bicycle riding, etc., Torcat and D'Aliza introduce some of the most amusing acts which keeps the house in roars of laughter. They introduce French songs also, and the time during which this talented pair have the stage has not a dull moment.

VANCOUVER BEATEN BY TACOMA TIGERS

Visitors Win Opening Game of Series—Standing in Leagues.

Vancouver, July 22.—Vancouver went down to defeat before the Tacoma Tigers here yesterday by the score of 2 to 0. The Tigers hitting the ball in pinches, combined with Munderoff's glaring error in the sixth, which would have cut a run off at the plate, gave the visitors three runs. Jack Hickey pitched a strong game, but Carson, who performed for the Tigers, was successful in keeping the safe ones scattered, while his support was perfect. During the early stages of the game the Beavers had the Tacoma pitcher in bad holes, but he always tightened up, and sharp fielding by the Tigers cut runs off. For six innings Hickey held Tacoma down to one scratch hit, but Munderoff and Snyder let easy chances get away from them, and Tacoma started hitting the ball in the sixth, when two runs were scored. With one down, Martine uncorked a line drive to centerfield that went for three bases. Burnett hit one to Munderoff, but the latter could not hold the ball, and Martine scored. Burnett came home on Lynch's double to center. The Tigers got another run in the eighth, Burnett hitting for three bases and scoring on Lynch's out. Snyder to Nordyke. Only once during the game did Vancouver get a man to third, Carson being very effective. Donovan was hit on the head by a pitched ball in the third inning and was compelled to retire. Engle replacing him in the field. Flick, Quigley and Snyder furnished the fielding features, particularly the latter, who made a sensational one-handed catch of Flick's line drive in the ninth.

THE PROVINCE IS ATTRACTIVE

SCOTTISH VISITOR SEES GREAT CHANCES

He Would Come Here If He Were Starting Life Again.

"O, mon, but if we Scotmen had the country you have here in British Columbia we'd make the feathers fly," exclaimed William Bray, a Glasgow chemist who has come on a long holiday to Canada after thirty years in the drug business in the big Scotch city, where he has a very large circle of friends. Mr. Bray was not a little astonished at the great material prosperity of the country, especially of the western provinces and of British Columbia.

"Were I a young man again," said Mr. Bray, "this would be the country for me. I can't for the life of me make out why more Scotch capitalists don't come out here to invest their money where they can practically assured of good returns. The Americans are sharp enough to see the advantages of this country and are very heavy investors. Why some of those Wall street men will own the world yet."

Mr. Bray was very much struck with the neat and respectable way all things are done here. The Old Countrymen are keeping a closer watch on the saloons now and restricting and cancelling licences, but the best they seem able to do is to reduce the licences.

"Glasgow's largest industry is her ship-building trade," continued Mr. Bray, "and recently there has been a great depression along that line. When the government voted some years ago $250,000,000 for augmenting the fleet, the shipyards had their hands well employed. Now the shipyards have to handle a lot of small craft and there has had to be a general laying off of employees, especially owing to the reduction of expenditures for the navy. 'You have some very fine stores in the west here, as well as in Vancouver and Winnipeg,' observed Mr. Bray, 'but I think the rents are outlandish. I was shown one store in Winnipeg which rented for $200 a week, which would have rented in Glasgow for $200 a month.'"

Mr. Bray was present on the occasion when the Princess Charlotte, the new C. P. R. steamer for the coast service was shipped from the docks to the Clyde. He thought it was a particularly fine looking vessel in the water.

"You may talk about the mountain scenery and such like," said Mr. Bray laughingly, "but the greatest thing that has come to my notice in this country is the continuous line of whisky fiasks all along the railway from Montreal to Vancouver."

Mr. Bray is taking a number of drives into the country about Victoria.

REFUSES TO APPEAL THE CARROLL CASE

Attorney General Bowser Turns Down the Request of the City Council.

Hon. W. J. Bowser, attorney-general, refused the request of the city that he should appeal the decision of Chief Justice Hunter quashing the conviction by Magistrate Jay of Estelle Carroll on a charge of keeping a disorderly house, if the city, however, wishes to appeal the case. Mr. Bowser will allow it to use the name of the attorney-general's department in doing so. The government is not called upon to pay any portion of the cost. This is the effect of a reply which Mr. Bowser has sent to the city solicitors in reply to a request made by them acting on unanimous instructions from the city council.

It is quite likely however that the city will carry the case under the conditions imposed by Mr. Bowser, for the civic authorities feel that if Chief Justice Hunter's interpretation of the present law is allowed to stand, the police may as well give up all attempt at securing convictions under it, even against places known to everyone to be houses of ill-fame. If the ruling in this case is to hold good, it is felt that it would be impossible to secure a conviction, except perhaps under most unusual circumstances.

The attorney-general's decision has created quite a bit of talk about the city. It is pointed out that this was a criminal prosecution and the city authorities therefore did their part when the case ended in the police court. Anything further in the line of appeals devolves upon the attorney-general's department. This case in particular is regarded as an important one for if it goes on the records it will affect the prosecution of disorderly houses throughout the whole province. If it is reported it will be binding upon every court in the province as long as it stands. It is felt by the local authorities that if the chief justice's interpretation is correct it is time that the law is changed in order that the police may be able to secure convictions in such cases without the almost impossible conditions which the chief justice's decision exacts.

ADJOURNMENT OF AUTOMOBILE CASES

W. Henderson Declines to Hear Them—Will Come Before Magistrate Jay.

The case brought by the Oak Bay municipality against the automobile men, J. Ferguson, A. Shepherd, William Glover and A. Hazard, who are charged with a breach of a recently passed-by-law, in that municipality which requires that an annual license must be taken out for every automobile plying for hire, was adjourned again this afternoon, as Sibiary Magistrate Wm. Henderson refused to sit upon a test case of the by-law, which he had had a hand in framing, as a member of the Oak Bay council.

By mutual consent, all technicalities were waived, and both parties agreed that the case should be referred to City Magistrate Jay at his earliest convenience. Harry Lawson is appearing for the municipality of Oak Bay, and J. A. Alkman for the defendant.

SPRAINS, WEAK MUSCLES—HOW BEST TREATED.

In minor sprains the muscle is strained a little and all that's needed is a vigorous rubbing with Nerviline. This draws the extra blood away and permits the muscle to return to its normal condition. In the unusual sprains Nerviline enjoys its own supremacy. Its penetrating power—it strikes deeply, that's why it removes deep seated pains and cures rheumatism, lumbago, pleurisy and sciatica. As treatments go, there is just five times more pain destroying power in Nerviline than any other remedy. No wonder it's sale is so large.

600,000 GALLONS DAILY.
Capacity of the aqueduct, Vancouver, B.C. Brings Water to New York.

The great aqueduct that will bring 600,000 gallons of water daily to New York city from the Catskill mountains will be seventeen feet high and fifteen feet wide along its entire length of eighty-four miles. The aqueduct is built a trench which the water is to travel, and in this great trench the cement pipe will be constructed. Even where the aqueduct passes under the river it will be of the immense size of this cement piping.

Beats this immense underground water channel the famous sewers of Paris, Paris tunnels. When the great aqueduct is in use at the full capacity that may be demanded to supply the city with water a century hence it will be nearly filled with a vast volume of water that it will bring down from artificial lakes created by the engineers in the hills nearly a hundred miles away from the city. But this is looking to the far future, when New York city will need 600,000,000 or 600,000,000 gallons of water a day added to its present supply.

The value of the world's railways is put at $120,000,000.
