TIDE OF BATTLE FAVORS ALLIED ARMIES

CUSTOMS OFFICIAL KILLED BY BANDITS

Gun-Fighting Near Blaine This Morning With Sedro Woolley Bank Robbers

MAN IS SHOT THROUGH HAT; ANOTHER IN HAND

Gang of Foreigners Has Been Surrounded Two Miles From Boundary Line

Vancouver, Oct. 22.—Clifford Adams, aged 22, Canadian customs officer, and two bandits, whose names are unknown, were killed at 4.30 o'clock this morning near the international boundary at Blaine, in a fight between officers and five robbers who last Saturday night stole $20,000 from the First National bank at Sedro Woolley, Wash. The point where the fight occurred early to-day is twenty miles southwest of Vancouver.

Mr. Adams and two other customs officers named Burke and Smith stopped the five men who were attempting to cross the boundary. Mr. Adams turned his flashlight on the robbers, who fired instantly, and Adams fell with a bullet through his heart. Mr. Burke had a narrow escape, for a bullet went through his hat. Mr. Smith was shot through the hand. They both fired in reply, and one robber was killed. The others fled in the darkness. The dead robber is an Austrian or Russian. He had $1,200 in currency in his pockets. One other bandit was subsequently shot.

Two bloodhounds kept at the New Westminster penitentiary have been sent to Blaine to assist in the chase of the men who escaped.

It was reported at 10 o'clock that the robbers, who are believed to number five in all, have been surrounded at Hall's Prairie, two miles from the boundary line on the Canadian side. Detective Keith, of the Great Northern railway, has also been wounded. Posses of police have been sent out from New Westminster and Vancouver.

The Sedro Woolley robbers are supposed to be members of a large gang of Austrians or Russians who committed four other daring bank robberies in Washington and British Columbia during the present year. In each case the method was much the same, and the robbers operated with skill and audacity that could hardly have been shown by inexperienced men. On January 15, the bank of Granite Falls, Snohomish county, was robbed of $1,500. Early in March the Abbotsford bank, near Vancouver, was robbed by a gang in daylight. On March 29, the bank of Elmo, Chehalis county, Wash., was robbed of $4,280 in the same manner. On April 7, seven men attempted to hold up the New Hazelton, B. C., branch of the Union Bank of Canada, and came to grief. Three were killed, three sent to long terms of imprisonment and the seventh, supposed to have a large sum of money taken at Abbotsford, escaped. Three Russians were arrested in Seattle charged with the Elmo robbery, and two were convicted at Montesano and sent to state's prison.

At noon word was received at Hazelton that the second robber dead had been wounded by the posse, and when about to be captured shot himself through the head. A third robber was found wounded. He was shot through the hip and is likely to die.

Superintendent Campbell of the provincial police this morning wired instructions to Inspector Wynn at Blaine to take charge of the search for the bandits and to employ as many men as necessary. Instructions were sent to the Vancouver to send assistance.

This action was taken by the superintendent because the town is at present without an official head, the receiver being at Kamloops and the chief of police at Seattle. Although the matter occurred in the municipal limits, the superintendent said the provincial department could not do otherwise than send men in pursuit of the outlaws.

ITALIAN MARINES ARE LANDING AT AVLONA

London, Oct. 22.—A dispatch to the Evening News from Venice says: "A company of Italian marines landed at Avlona to-day. The Italian 4th Infantry stationed at Lece, is said to be ready to embark for Avlona. It is stated that the telephone communication with other parts of Albania has been severed in order to prevent the spread of the news of the landing. The Italian embassy in London has no confirmation of the landing."

BRITISH COLUMBIA OFFERING BRIGADE

Two Battalions Allowed Province in Second Contingent Over-Recruited

OTHER DISTRICTS ARE ASKING FOR MORE, TOO

Men Coming Forward More Quickly Than They Can Be Accepted

Ottawa, Ont., Oct. 22.—The enlistment of the second Canadian contingent for service overseas is marked by strong complaints from the various divisional areas and military districts. These complaints, however, are in their nature gratifying for they refer to the small numbers which each military area is called upon to supply. From all points come protests to the effect that in many cases over double the number allotted to the districts have already offered themselves for service.

To British Columbia has been given the task of raising two battalions. Apparently, however, this is not credited a task at all for a strong complaint has been received by the department asking that the number allotted be increased to a brigade, as there are plenty of first-class recruits to make up that number. The department was compelled to remind that province that it had been given two battalions, and that there were eight other provinces to be considered, and only 16,000 men to be raised for the infantry branch of the second force.

Similar protests have been received from Toronto, Winnipeg and many other points. It is very clear that there are plenty of men in Canada and that enlistment can be carried on as fast as equipment can be provided. It is significant that the department has not reduced the standard of physique and fitness laid down for the first contingent.

The men of the second contingent will be as fine a lot as those of the first, and when the second has gone, according to present indications, there will be a continuous supply for the third draft.

The 16,000 men now being recruited are the infantry branch of the second division. When instructions have been received from the war office it will be possible to allot the cavalry and other units necessary. The department considers that first-class cavalry capable of giving a fine account of itself against the Uhlans can be trained in the west in less than three months.

JAPANESE ASSAULTING FORTS OF TSING TAU

New York, Oct. 22.—The East and West bureau this afternoon gave out this cable message from Tokio dated to-day: "The Japanese naval general staff announces that the marine heavy artillery corps is engaged to-day in the attack on Tsing Tau, and that a part of the Japanese fleet is keeping watch on the enemy's warships hovering about Hawaii."

IT WAS A GLORIOUS VICTORY

TROOPS AT SALISBURY MEET NEW COMMANDER

Canadian Soldiers Want Letters but Also Newspapers From Home Towns

Salisbury Plain, Eng., Oct. 22.—Today weather at the camp is extremely showery. It is the first wet day since the camp opened.

A civilian who travelled down to the two Canadian camps of Bustard and Westdown, on Salisbury Plain, made a great hit by stacking his automobile with a goodly stock of latest available Canadian papers. The western contingent particularly was delighted to get their home papers from towns all the way from Winnipeg to the coast.

"Write letters to the boys by all means," says this good Samaritan, "you folks at home in Canada, but send them papers, and as many as possible. You see, a letter in most cases brings pleasure to the recipient only, but a newspaper is passed around among the men from the same district until it is well nigh thumbed to bits."

Yesterday by far the greater part of every Canadian brigade undertook route marching, and away across the great plain a long indistinct line could be seen moving slowly. In half an hour or so the line became more distinct and the skirl of the pipes was heard, the moving mass resolving itself into the highlanders' brigade marching in quarter column. Another ribbon like formation advanced from another point, and a third appeared from another quarter, for General Alderson had expressed his desire to meet the division or as many as could attend at such notice.

"The parade is quite informal," he added. Several thousand were too far away on route marches to attend, but all the same it was a mighty square of khaki clad humanity which waited the new commander.

MILLION GERMANS SENT TO FRONT IN MONTH

London, Oct. 22.—A dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph company from Petrograd says it is semi-officially stated that the number of German troops sent to the eastern and western theaters of the war since the middle of September is 1,000,000.

Allies' Attacks Successful Russian Army Moves Forward

Paris, Oct. 22.—The official announcement this afternoon by the French war office says the positions occupied by the allies in Belgium and Northern France have been maintained in spite of constant attacks of the enemy.

The text of the announcement follows: "On our left wing, German forces in considerable strength have continued their violent attacks, particularly in the vicinity of Dixmude, Warneton, Armentieres, Radingham and Labasse, but the positions occupied by the allies have been maintained."

"On the east of the front the enemy has delivered only partial attacks. These have been repulsed, particularly at Fricourt, to the east of Albert; on the plateau to the west of Craonne; in the region of Souain, in the Argonne district; at Four de Paris, southwest of Varennes; in the region of Malancourt, in the Woivre district; in the direction of Champton and a point southeast of St. Mihiel, in the forest of Ailly.

"We have made slight progress in the Argonne district and in the southern part of Woivre, in the forest of Mortmare.

"Russia.—The forward movement of the Russian forces has been positively announced. An important success in the region of Warsaw has driven back the enemy more than thirteen kilometers (eight miles). The advances of the Russians at Ivangorod and to the south of Przemysl are equally perceptible."

REINFORCEMENTS ARE SENT FROM ANTWERP TO ASSIST GERMANS

London, Oct. 22.—German reinforcements, mainly marines with two seven-inch howitzers, have arrived in Antwerp from Liege, according to a Rotterdam dispatch to the Daily Mail. The reinforcements are going in the direction of Bruges.

Travelers from Antwerp, says the Rotterdam correspondent of Reuter's report that on Tuesday night 10,000 German marines with machine guns left Antwerp proceeding in a southerly direction. Later a long file of cars bearing wounded entered the town.

The garrison of Antwerp has been greatly reduced, and only a few policemen are on duty. Plundering in the suburbs is increasing. The Germans are dealing severely with plunderers when caught. Recently a man detected forcing an entrance to a house was shot.

A big movement of troops is reported from Ghent.

RUSSIA OFFERING BONDS ON MARKET OF BRITAIN

Paris, Oct. 22.—A Havas Agency dispatch from Petrograd says the Russian minister of finance has been authorized by imperial decree to place short term treasury bonds amounting to $60,000,000 on the British market.

PIRATES' ENSIGN IS TO BE WORN BY LORRAINE TROOPS

Berlin, Oct. 22.—Emperor William has conferred on the pioneer company of a Lorraine battalion the right to wear the skull and crossbones on the cap which heretofore had been a distinction monopolized by the famous Danzig Death's Head Hussars. The action of the emperor was taken at the instance of the crown prince, who reported the valor of the pioneers in building bridges and constructing earthworks under particularly dangerous circumstances.

THOUSAND CHAUFFEURS WANTED FOR SERVICE

British War Office Sends Out Call for Men to Report by Noon To-morrow.

London, Oct. 22.—Announcement was made here to-day that the British war office requires immediately for service on the continent a thousand chauffeurs and motor truck drivers between ages of 20 and 45. The applicants are requested to present themselves by noon to-morrow in readiness to proceed immediately to the front.

INVADERS IN NORTH FALLING BACK FROM CITIES NEAR COAST

Communications of German Force in Middle of West Flanders Disorganized—Warships Escape Submarine Attack Planned by the Enemy

Kaiser Reported to Be Ill and Compelled to Fall Back on Austrian Troops to Provide Reinforcements for Army

London, Oct. 22.—"The furious bombardment between Ostend and Nieuport continues to-day," according to a dispatch appearing in the Telegraaf of Amsterdam and telegraphed to London by the correspondent in that city of the Exchange Telegraph Company.

"The Germans are firing from Mariakerke and Middelkerke, the French from Nieuport and the British from their warships. British aviators directed the fire of the allies on the German positions."

The French and Belgians are persistently resisting the efforts of the Germans to cross the river Yser. The dykes of this river have been cut.

London, Oct. 22.—Reports that the Germans had evacuated Ostend and were retreating toward Bruges, and that their West Flanders army, from the vicinity of the coast south to Courtrai, was being hammered into a zig-zag line by the combined efforts of the British navy and the British, French and Belgian troops, coincide on so many points that in the absence of claims of any advances from Berlin, opinion here is that the fighting among the canals of North Belgium, which followed the German rush from Antwerp, had been generally against the invaders.

The Germans at one point have been driven back as far as Thourout, and some dispatches say that their communications in the middle of West Flanders have been so disorganized that the troops from Ghent are marching direct to Courtrai rather than joining their comrades to the north, who were in danger of being cut off.

Heavy Bombardment From Warships

The evacuation of Ostend was not confirmed this morning, but from Berlin came a report that British ships were shelling the town, while another dispatch said that the guns of war vessels had destroyed the village of Slype on the canal between Ostend and Bruges, where it is said the Germans have their headquarters. At Sluis, only a few miles northeast of Slype, in 1340, a British fleet achieved a victory over the French.

It is clear now that ships have been playing an important part in the warfare along the coast. The admiralty officially announces that the monitors Severn, Humber and Mersey not only bombarded the German position south of Ostend but landed detachments of marines with machine guns. It is reported from other sources that eleven war vessels are taking part in the operations, but what they are is not announced.

The monitors have been able to dodge submarine attacks, although as reported on Tuesday, at least twelve torpedoes were discharged at them without one finding its mark.

Seventy Mile Battle Line in Northwest

How the German submarines got to Ostend is unknown, but presumably they crept down the Dutch coast, submerging whenever sighted by a British patrol and then picked their way carefully through the British mine fields.

With the fighting along the Belgian coast hardly more than seventy miles from Dover that area of hostilities necessarily holds chief interest with the British public, though, according to last night's Paris official announcement there were violent actions here and there along more than a seventy-mile front, extending almost due north and south from Nieuport to Labasse.

Emperor William Reported to Be Ill

Everywhere the allies claimed to be holding their positions, reinforcements for the German right have been spoken of daily since Ostend was taken, and to-day comes a report that Austrian forces were transferred from the Italian frontier for this purpose.

Rumors that Emperor William is seriously ill are filtering in here via Paris, and the report that there is a German fleet off Falsterbo, Sweden, are among the usual crop of unconfirmed narratives that London is discussing.

IN BRUSSELS IN LESS THAN ONE MONTH

London, Oct. 22.—One of the allied commanders near the Belgian border is quoted as having said yesterday:

"We shall most certainly be in Brussels under a month. I myself expect, in fortnight."

A rumor comes from Ostend by way of Holland that the allies have succeeded in blowing up the railroad between Bruges and Ghent. It is quite possible, it is said here, that cavalry scouts are already in that vicinity. Stories differ as to the fate of Prince Maximilian of Hesse, whose body is reported to have been found in Northern France by French troops. A later report from Berlin says the prince was wounded.

RUSSIAN STATEMENT IS GERMANS BEATEN

Full Retreat on Roads From Warsaw Leaving Wounded on the Field

Petrograd, Oct. 22.—The Russian official statement issued last night says: "The German troops, which had occupied the roads leading to Warsaw in the region north of the river Pilzta, have been repulsed, and are now in full retreat, leaving their wounded on the battlefield. "The Germans abandoned the position they had fortified in advance. "The Russian troops are energetically advancing along the whole front. "The enemy is still occupying the left bank of the Vistula, south of the Pilzta and as far as Sandomir. "The Russians who had been gallantly holding for eight days the region of Kozenice, under most unfavorable conditions and heavy artillery fire achieved considerable success on October 20, and their position on the left bank of the Vistula is now secured. "The attempts of the Austrians to cross the river San, below Przemysl, have been checked, and the Russians are assuming the offensive there. "In the region south of Przemysl are found the remains of all the Austrian corps defeated in prior fights in Galicia. Here the Russian troops are energetically checking the advance of numerous bodies of the enemy. "There is no essential change in East Prussia. We are at present in touch with the enemy on a front covering over 400 versts (about 267 miles), from the lower Bzowranie to the slopes of the Carpathian Mountains. "The report seems to show that the Germans have concentrated a strong force of artillery in front of Kozenice, just across the river from the important fortress of Lvagorod. It adds that the Russians are holding this district under most unfavorable conditions. "Of the progress of the battles in Galicia, the Russian and Austrian reports again are in direct conflict. The Russians say the Austrians have failed to cross the San river, and that the Russians are taking the offensive, while near Przemysl the Russians repulsed numerous bodies of Austrians. "The Austrians, on the other hand, claim that their attacks are progressing, and that the Russians have been driven out of several places. It is thought possible here that the Austrian reports refer to a battle taking place further to the south of Przemysl, but that it must be part of the general operations to get the Russians out of Galicia and threaten their flank.

AUTHORS SUPPORT STAND TAKEN BY GREAT BRITAIN

London, Oct. 22.—A statement has been issued signed by practically all the more notable English authors from William Archer to Israel Zangwill outlining their views in regard to the present war. "After stating that many of them had been for years ardent champions of good will toward Germany and many of them extreme advocates of peace, the writers go on to assert that they are nevertheless agreed that Great Britain could not without dishonor have refused to take part in the present war. "Whatever the world destiny of Germany may be," the statement declares in conclusion, "we in Great Britain are ourselves conscious of a destiny and a duty. That destiny and duty alike for us and for all English-speaking races call upon us to uphold the rule of common justice between civilized peoples, to defend the rights of small nations, and to maintain the free and law-abiding ideals of western Europe against the rule of blood and iron and the domination of the whole continent by a military caste. "For these reasons," the writers add, "and others, the undersigned feel bound to support the cause of the allies with all their strength, with a full conviction of its righteousness and with a deep sense of its vital import to the future of the world."

AUSTRIANS IN AMBUSH SURPRISED AND CAUGHT

Petrograd, Oct. 21.—Correspondence from Warsaw giving the details of the recent capture of an Austrian battalion in the region of Stry, Galicia, relates how the Austrians, bearing branches of trees heavy with foliage to screen their movements, advanced at nightfall. The Russians, feigning ignorance of their approach, lashed the musketry fire, allowing the Austrians to draw near, but meanwhile bringing their machine guns and light artillery into position. "In the morning, so the story goes, the Russians opened an unexpected and deadly fire on the Austrians, who after momentary hesitating, surrendered without resistance before a Russian bayonet charge. Among the prisoners taken were fifteen officers.

EXPLAINS DESPERATE FIGHTING NEAR ROYE

London, Oct. 21.—The Star has published a dispatch explaining the desperate resistance of the Germans in the vicinity of Roze and Arras. The enemy succeeded in taking possession, the dispatch says, of the huge excavations of the grand canal du Nord, now in course of construction. It is sixty miles long and so deep that the Germans are able to move through it large bodies of troops sheltered from fire. "This canal passes Lassigny, Roze, Nesle and Roisel. "War ambulances as we know them today were first formed in the fifteenth century by Isabella of Castile, but the French were the first to organize and develop the idea.

PARTIAL MORATORIUM PLANNED FOR ONTARIO

Action to Be Taken at Next Session of Parliament to Protect Real Estate Holders.

Ottawa, Oct. 22.—Notice has been received by the lawyers of the city concerning the partial moratorium, which it is the intention of the Ontario government to introduce at the next session of legislature. The announcement which has been sent out by the attorney-general's department refers to "mortgages and agreements to purchase." "The circular states that the government is of the opinion that conditions in Ontario do not call for legislation in the way of a general moratorium. Attention is drawn, however, to the fact that mortgages and vendors of property in some quarters are being foreclosed and their legal position to force payments on mortgages and securities, where, owing to circumstances brought about by the present war, the mortgagors and purchasers are unable to meet payments, and where it would be unjust and unfair under the circumstances. "The announcement continues: "It is, therefore, the intention of the government at the next session of the legislature to introduce an act requiring mortgages and holders of agreements of sale, options, or other-like securities, to secure an order from a judge before taking proceedings, either through the court or otherwise, to foreclose or forfeit such mortgages or securities for default of payment or principal, and giving judges power upon a proper case being made out to relieve from forfeiture and to extend the time of payment of principal money."

REORGANIZING BELGIUM UNDER GERMAN FASHION

German Convicts Set to Work Repairing Forts at Liege and Namur.

London, Oct. 21.—The Daily Mail's correspondent at Rotterdam telegraphs that the whole of Belgium is being reorganized in German fashion, several villages being placed under one over-burgomaster. "German convicts are working night and day repairing the forts at Liege and Namur. "Bridges have been erected over the Meuse, between Liege and Vise, to prepare the way for a German retreat. "Three Zeppelin sheds are being built at Brussels and four at Antwerp.

RESIDENTS OF ANTWERP ARE RETURNING TO CITY

London, Oct. 21.—A dispatch received here from Breda, in the Netherlands, says 19,000 residents of Antwerp have been repatriated in the last two days. The water supply of Antwerp had been restored and the tramways are running. The German machine guns recently posted in the streets of the city have been sent to the front.

INDIGESTION AND HEADACHES

Arising From Constipation, Cured and Regular Habits Established by Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. In the western Provinces, where so many thousands live far from doctors and drug stores, very many rely on Dr. Chase's medicine to cure disease and maintain health and strength. This letter gives some idea of what perfect control Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills exert over the most common ills of life. Mrs. H. K. Hower, farmer's wife, Eastburg, Alta., writes: "For about ten years I suffered from constipation, indigestion, headache and languid feelings. Treatment from two or three doctors afforded only temporary relief, so I turned to Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, and with most satisfactory results. Headaches had disappeared, regular habits established and general health very much better. Both my husband and I can speak highly of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, as we have both been greatly benefited by them." BRITISH TREASURY NOTES ARE OVER-SUBSCRIBED

London, Oct. 21.—An issue of £15,000,000 six months treasury notes was made today. The price was 98 1/2. Bidders received an average of about 30 per cent. of the amount of their applications. This is the fifth similar issue of treasury bills.

JAPANESE TOOK GOLD FROM GERMAN ISLANDS

Tokio, Oct. 22.—A special dispatch received here from Sasebo says that the Japanese in their recent raids on the German islands in the South Sea destroyed the German military equipment and seized $250,000 in gold, and also ammunition and rifles. Ten officials on each of the captured islands surrendered to the Japanese.

PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND SENDS BELGIUM RELIEF

About $100,000 in Goods, $2,000 in Money in Addition to Other Amounts Given.

Charlottetown, P. E. I., Oct. 22.—The Hon. Charles Dalton, acting premier, in the absence of Premier Matheson, has received from the government representatives in Charlottetown an official report of what has been done in the matter of relief for the Belgians. The people of Prince Edward Island have shipped to Halifax for the Belgian relief 240 large cases of bedding, men's, women's and children's clothing, aggregating in value approximately $100,000. "Provisions of all kinds have also been contributed in abundance. "About $2,000 in cash has also been received. This is in addition to the 100,000 bushels of oats and $25,000 contributed to the army service fund, $100,000 to the Red Cross and $5,000 to the women's patriotic fund.

WINSTON CHURCHILL IN BELGIUM WITH MARINES

Was in Trenches and Reconnoitered German Position in an Aeroplane.

London, Oct. 21.—Winston Spencer Churchill, first lord of the admiralty, who accompanied the British naval brigades and marines to Antwerp was, according to one of the latter, with them in the trenches practically all the time, and just before the order was given to retire he urged the men to hold out twenty-four hours longer, when the big guns would arrive. One day he reconnoitered the position of the Germans in an aeroplane.

GERMANS SAID TO HAVE SECRET 'PHONE SYSTEM

Petrograd, Oct. 21.—Refugees from Russian Poland have brought information concerning a secret telephone system of which the Germans have made extended use. "They relate that when German troops enter a town in Russian Poland some officer at once asks to be directed to the home of a non-Polish resident, giving the man's name. In the house invariably there is found a telephone, and the cellar is stacked with benzine or gasoline, canned soups and other provisions. By the telephone the Germans establish communication with the rear. They inform headquarters of their exact whereabouts and even seek from villages ahead of them information as to the best roads. "The Russians are taking steps to destroy this system.

THE WAR.

Although the unofficial reports from the western front differ in many details they all agree that what is described as the German Channel army has ignominiously failed in its advance towards Dunkirk and that along the coast it has been flung back at least as far as Ostend. It is stated also that twenty miles from the coast the allies have advanced in a straight line north-erly from Roulers to Thourout, which means that they have penetrated into Belgian territory almost thirty miles northeast of Lille. That being the case, if the Germans still are attacking Dixmude between the coast and Thourout their communications must be on the verge of demoralization and their speedy complete isolation threatened.

The Berlin report says the British fleet is bombarding Ostend and the British admiralty have announced the landing of marines south of that place. If the Germans are in force anywhere in the vicinity it would have been difficult to land the marines, so the occupation of Ostend cannot be long delayed if it has not taken place already. To-day it is reported that a small village on the canal between Ostend and Bruges has been destroyed by the British warships, which, being light draft vessels of the monitor class, are able to approach closely to the shore, disable the German guns by a cross fire and clear the coast some miles from the coast. If the allies are near Ostend and have reached Thourout we cannot see how the Germans who Paris officially announces have been attacking the Belgian army at Dixmude, in the centre of a triangle formed by the advancing armies of the allies, can escape. It may be that the French official bulletin refers to fighting several days ago and that the Germans have all retired upon Ostend.

The magnificent fighting ability and dimensions of the Belgian army in this crucial struggle must compel the admiration of the world. They have been battling continuously since the war began. First at Visé, then Liège, then at Malines, Louvain, Tormonde, and Antwerp, they have contested every foot of the overwhelming German advance. Where they all have come from is a mystery. A correspondent says it took them seven hours to pass through Ostend, so, all told, there must be in the neighborhood of a hundred thousand Belgian troops splendidly holding the line of the Yser. They enjoy the enormous advantage of having an out-flanking auxiliary with which the Germans cannot cope. The left wing of the line is now the British fleet, whose great guns, superbly manned, have kept open a pathway some miles along the coast. This is a novel turn to the situation. Rarely indeed has a navy become so distinctively a corps d'armée as the British squadron has in these critical operations in West Flanders. The Germans, it is true, have attacked the maritime wing with submarines, but these have been driven off by destroyers. Why the German fleet at Wilhelmshaven does not attempt a diversion to break the pressure upon their Channel army only they, of course, know, but the incoordination of the functions of their two arms never was more conclusively exhibited than at the present time.

Reinforcements intended for the German Channel army are reported to have been diverted to Courtrai, northeast of Lille. If the allies continue to bend back the main German right wing in Belgium the enemy must entrench himself on the Lys from Courtrai towards Ghent running northeast and southwest. Driven from that position, the Germans would have to fall back upon the line of the Scheldt with Lille as the elbow. But it is questionable if the German army in France would remain in its position until the allies had gone so far in the north. Their difficulty is that if they attempted to retire towards Mons, on the Sambre, and, the Meuse, not only would they suffer severely but they would release a considerable army of the allies to assist the operations in Belgium, which, if consistently successful, would place them behind the works which the Germans have been preparing for weeks. In that case they would have to retire to the Rhine as fast as they could. On the other hand if they remained in France and the allies continued to gain in Belgium as at present they would find their line of retreat limited to two tortuous and difficult routes, one through Givet to Namur and along the Meuse by way of Liège and the other into Luxemburg through the narrow defiles and valleys of the Ardennes, in which snow is now falling. We may be unduly optimistic, but it looks as though the German host in France as well as the German Channel army were in a trap. Failure to silence the great fortress of Verdun and the rapid progress of the French armies from Toul and Nancy to the borders of Lorraine have made escape by way of Metz impossible and the army commanded by the bungling Crown Prince will have to tread a road of tribulation.

Petrograd officially announces that the German centre has been forced back from the region of Warsaw, north of the Piliza river, and that the Russians are advancing along the whole front. If this offensive is pressed the Germans must retire upon the line of Skierniewice, forty miles southwest of Warsaw. The German line farther south, which is at Sandmir, on the Vistula, must force retire correspondingly, leaving the German-Austrian armies in Galicia, the right wing of the German front, backed up against the Carpathians. The Austrians claim to have won certain successes in the Dneister region, but it is altogether probable that the Russians are contenting themselves with doing no more than holding the enemy in that region while they concentrate upon the German centre. Thus from both fronts the news to date has been satisfactory. Perhaps if the truth were known it would be even more satisfactory. Announcements of victory do not help recruiting.

MILITARY STRATEGY.

This war has reduced military strategy to first principles. Textbooks on tactics will be interesting as literature, but not as guides to operations in the field. The works of Clausewitz, von der Goltz and von Bernhardi will be relegated to the garret. The dazzling strategy of Napoleon cannot be repeated because of the altered conditions. Even he admitted at St. Helena that all his battles were won mainly through one element, and that he had learned nothing up to Waterloo that he did not know after Marengo. That element was surprise, which must be present to determine an issue. He surprised his enemy by the rapidity of his operations and the audacity of his methods. He won Marengo and Austerlitz by smashing through their centre while they were engaged in following the precepts laid down in textbooks and attempting to round his flanks.

The element of surprise is largely lacking in modern warfare. The aerial branch has deprived military leaders of their best weapon. Now when large forces are hurled to a given point the opposing leaders are warned in advance and make ample preparations to receive the onslaught. Joffre warned French at Mons of an impending turning movement by two German corps in addition to those with which the British were contending, and the little expeditionary force was able, though hard pressed, to save itself from isolation. In the days of Napoleon the blow would have descended without any warning. The Russians have been able to add a few of the oldtime frills to modern strategy, owing to the nature of the country in which they are fighting and the almost pathetic confidence and arrogance of their foes. Yet their tactics of retiring before the enemy and drawing him into a difficult locality to his ruin is as old as the hills. It antedates the time of Hannibal.

Military strategy nowadays, as judged from the operations on both fronts, is a combination of instinct and common sense. If the enemy's lines cannot be pierced in front, ordinarily a foregone conclusion, then attempts must be made to get around him. The Carthaginian conqueror won all his great victories by what is known as the turning movement. Frederick the Great operated on precisely the same lines, while Napoleon, though appreciating the importance of this manoeuvre, varied it with a few ideas of his own which were not supported by precedent and which therefore staggered his enemies with surprise. Von Moltke won Sedan by a turning movement which enabled him to surround a foolish sovereign and an incompetent collection of generals. Joffre won the battle of the Marne by outflanking von Kluck, and he is endeavoring to repeat the performance in Belgium. There is nothing mysterious in the operations of either side. Each is trying to outflank the other, and each is perfectly aware of the other's design.

After all the whole theory of success on the battlefield pivots once more on soldiers in the trenches. If they have the courage and staying power and their commanding officers do not underestimate the enemy, they win the battle if the opposing forces are anywhere equal in numbers. If added to courage and staying power are initiative, an intelligent appreciation of what is to be attempted and a strong patriotic spirit, they are irresistible even against superior numbers.

IN PERFECT ACCORD.

London, Oct. 21.—Col. the Hon. Sam Hughes, minister of militia and defence for Canada, came up yesterday from Salisbury to see Lord Kitchener. Subsequently interviewed at the Savoy hotel, Col. Hughes said he could not tell the object of his conference with the minister of war, but he volunteered the information that Lord Kitchener and he were in accord on all points.—Press Dispatch.

Not only the British empire, but France, Russia, Japan, Belgium and Serbia, must have heaved an enormous sigh of relief when the foregoing momentous announcement was made yesterday. There was just the possibility that Earl Kitchener and Colonel Hughes might not have been in "accord on all points," that the illustrious head of the British war office might have clung to certain mistaken views of strategy and military organization to which the distinguished chief of our war department was opposed. Of course, in the long run, Kitchener would have been forced to capitulate to the man who, according to his own veracious narrative (see Hansard, 1903, Vol. 3), brought the South African war to a victorious conclusion, but a conflict of opinion between the two would have been very discouraging, to say the least, to the millions who are praying for the success of the allied arms. We have no doubt—and we are sure Colonel Hughes would confirm our belief—that his visit to the war office was immediately responsible for the successful turn which seems to have favored the course of events in northern France, Belgium, Russian Poland and the Drina River in the Balkans. How Earl Kitchener must have counted the hours that lagged lazily along while Colonel Hughes was crossing the Atlantic! We may be sure Joffre and French wired every half hour for information of his whereabouts, while the Grand Duke Nicholas kept the wires hot with messages inquiring if "Hughesovitch had arrivedsky." Now, thank heaven! It is all plain sailing or fighting. Hughes agrees with Kitchener and Kitchener agrees with Hughes. Henceforth no more uncertainty will characterize the allies' campaign on any front. The war will be over before Christmas. However, there is one observation we venture to make, and that is to say that we hope Earl Kitchener will find it necessary to keep the real master mind of the war at his right hand until Canada has organized her second overseas contingent. Let the few ordinary militia districts do what they are expected to do. They were not given a chance when the first contingent was being organized.

TO-DAY'S SUMMARY.

Northern France and the coast of Belgium still are the fields where the most important fighting in the western arena of the war continues with utmost stubbornness, but as yet without decisive results. The French war office announces that the allied lines are holding in spite of the furious onslaughts of the enemy, while news dispatches from London assert that developments generally are against the invaders. British warships have played an important part in these operations and there are indications that their activities are not at an end. The fighting is going on night and day, and the allies are said to be approaching close to the German positions before Lille. The German garrison at Antwerp is said to have been reduced, and a German column of reinforcements with two sixteen-inch guns is reported as having passed through Antwerp on its way to Bruges. Outside of Belgium the fields of battle are numerous, Picardy, Champagne, the Argonne, the Woëvre, Lorraine, the Vosges and Alsace being referred to as localities where fighting is taking place. In several of these districts the French claim officially to have repulsed German attacks, which they describe as not so severe as in the Belgian field. The French say also that they have made progress in the Argonne and the Woëvre territory. A house sheltering the headquarters of the German staff at Sips, on the Belgian coast, has been destroyed by shell fire from the British warships, according to a news dispatch received in London from Dunkirk. The latest German casualty list gives the names of about 11,500 men killed, wounded and missing. In the eastern arena of the war both sides claim progress, but not in the same localities. Paris says officially that the Russians in the vicinity of Warsaw have driven the enemy back eight miles, and Petrograd declares that Russian troops have saved Warsaw from a German bombardment. There has been hand-to-hand fighting in the vicinity of Bionle and Prouschkoff, in Russian Poland. The fight south of Przenysl, according to this same authority, has been going on for six days with heavy losses on the part of the Austrians. A news dispatch from Warsaw says numerous parties of German prisoners, one of which included a German general, are constantly being brought into that city.

The German government has summoned the Reichstag to convene early in December to discuss the war situation, and, according to advices from Berlin, the Prussian diet is in session to-day, and will authorize a loan of $375,000,000.

The native chief of Kamerun, the German colony in Equatorial Africa, has been executed because he attempted to lead the natives in a rebellious movement against the German authorities. This news comes to London from The Hague.

After Colonel Hughes left Earl Kitchener yesterday it is certain the great British soldier muttered this: "Well, all things considered, Canada accomplished a miracle in getting her contingent started in six weeks. She labors under a tremendous handicap."

A correspondent, J. H. D., writes, "dropping into poetry": Their problems solved, Their doubts dispelled, The Germans will be quickly quelled By Kitchener & Co. for they Have Colonel Samuel Hughes's O. K.

DEATHLESS THEIR FAME.

We mourn for our dead, but their names are emblazoned On the great scroll of glory in letters of flame. And long will their deeds thrill in song and in story; They died all as heroes, but deathless their fame.

We mourn for our dead, but as surely to-morrow The sun in high heaven will leap in his might. So the glory to the full is our cup brimmed with sorrow, Leaps the swift sword from scabbard, avenging and bright.

And we'll never lay that sword down in peace until honor, Besmirched by the foe, shines stainless again. Our dead died for honor, we'll fight and avenge them, Then sheathe the spent sword in its scabbard again. H. E. X.

THREE VIEWS OF TOMMY ATKINS

New York Sun. Estimates of the British soldiers at the front vary with the side of the Rhine where they are held. Thus M. Berthouat, editor of Liberte, writes: "Their faces are always shaved, their uniforms brushed, their horses groomed and the harness polished as if at Aldershot. The English troops fight like ours, but dress and wash better." Berlin has a very different opinion of Sir John French's men. It is thus expressed by one critic: "English soldiers take so long to eat their marmalade and brush their teeth that they have no time for fighting." Tommy Atkins will be surprised to learn that marmalade is on his menu regularly. The man must be confused with the officer. But both friendly and hostile critics seem to agree that the British soldier is fairly clean, and as cleanliness is next to godliness, the devoted Kaiser ought to have a better opinion of Atkins.

A "DEFENSIVE WAR."

Manitoba Free Press. On July 30 the Russian ambassador at Berlin presented to the representatives of all the powers the following: "If Austria declares herself ready to abstain from her ultimatum the points which are an infringement of the sovereign rights of Serbia, Russia undertakes to cease her military preparations." (No. 60 yellow paper). On July 31 Germany declared war on Russia. Yet Germany calls upon the world to support her in her "defensive" war against "aggressive" Russia.

Important Notice.—There are many who want to get out on the land and who have not enough cash to make the first payment, but who own city or suburban lots. To help out we have arranged to do a limited amount of exchanging at a conservative valuation. Seven settlers bought land in the last ten days. They had only to see it to buy. The land is on or close to the railway to Courtenay and Alberni. Price $40 and $45 an acre, in tracts to suit, on long terms. For further particulars apply to Vancouver Island Fruit Lands, Ltd., General Agents, Carmichael & Moorhead, Ltd., 608 Belmont House, Victoria, B. C.

Murder Committed.—Word was received by Superintendent Campbell, of the provincial police, this morning that murder was committed last night by an Indian at Hat Creek. The fact was reported to the headquarters of office by Frank E. Aiken, chief constable at Clinton. No further details are yet to hand of crime or as to the identity of the victim.

Employment Depot.—The Local Council of Women Depot, 637 Fort street, has for sale a beautiful evening dress, worked by Munn's, the famous Parisian firm, and the person who has presented it for sale offers to make, free of charge, a new dress for the purchaser of the evening frock. A gift of flowers from an anonymous donor is gratefully acknowledged. More offers of work would be welcomed, as there are still on the books a number of names of women who are without work. Mesdames Kennedy, Manson and Powers were in charge of the rooms yesterday.

Discuss Hallowe'en Social.—At a meeting yesterday the Women's Alliance of the Unitarian church discussed arrangements in connection with a Hallowe'en social to be held in the church on Friday evening, October 23. Other business matters were also considered, and in response to the appeal for volunteers for duty at the employment depot of the Local Council of Women the following ladies offered their services: Mesdames Barton, Speakart, Graves and Miss Todd. The meeting was held at the residence of Mrs. Frank Gibbs, Yates street, and Mrs. George Barton, successor of Mrs. Lovekin as president, was in the chair.

Are Helping Sufferers.—The Junior Auxiliary of the Anti-Tuberculosis society held its monthly meeting yesterday morning at the Alexandra committee room, the president, Mrs. Griffiths, in the chair. A report of the changes and improvements in the tubercular ward at the Jubilee hospital was given by the president who referred to the recent addition of three open-air rooms and the improvement which had been made by whitewashing the walls. Six cases are being helped by the society at the present time, such necessary articles as milk, eggs and warm clothing being provided. Friends had been very generous in contributing through the society, such comforts as reclining chairs, hot water bottles and other luxuries.

Iron Mining Inquiry.—The provincial department of mines has been advised by the federal department of the appointment of a committee to investigate the state of iron ore mining in Canada, to the end that information may be collected upon which the department can act in deciding what, if any, measure of aid can be given by the Dominion towards the development of this branch of the mining industry. All owners and operators of iron ore properties should apply to the deputy minister of mines at Ottawa for a schedule of questions which will cover the information desired by the department. The committee consists of O. E. Leroy, George C. Mackenzie, chief engineer of the ore dressing and metallurgical division of the federal department of mines; Einar Lindeman, mining engineer of the department and John McLeish, chief of the division of mineral resources and statistics, secretary.

Xmas Photos.—A dozen Corona photos finished in platinum with embossed covers for $5.25 reduced from $7.00 for October only at the Skene Lowe Studio. This is the last week but one for this special.

The authorities will prosecute any one found driving in the streets over six miles an hour hereafter. Butcher boys are requested to note the fact. William Jensen, proprietor of the Occidental hotel, has presented to the park committee a fine cinnamon or brown bear. Mr. Jensen purchased the animal in Idaho and sent it by express to Alderman Goodacre, chairman of the parks committee.

The information has been received that H. M. North Pacific squadron is to be strengthened by the first-class armored twin-screw cruiser Wasp, the sister ship of the Imperieuse now on the China station. The tonnage of the Wasp is 8,400 tons, and she is of 10,000 horse-power. She carries ten guns.

Canadian History in Pictures.—A superb film in five parts is the headliner at the Variety theatre for the last half of the present week, commencing to-night. This picture is entitled, "Wolves, or the Conquest of Quebec," and is faithful in detail to history. The various scenes were made in Canada, on the actual location of the original battles. These pictures were made by the same company which produced the "South African War," which was shown at the same theatre some weeks ago. At that time a great many people spoke of the wonderful detail and action in these pictures. This is to be little wondered at when one stops to consider that detail is a motto with the Kaleid directors. If they cannot make a picture authentic and true to detail they do not attempt it at all. All Canadians who read the history of the conquest in history and many will welcome the opportunity of seeing this film unfolding on the motion picture screen events that happened in Canada long ago.

Farewell Presentation.—Rev. A. Raeburn Gibson, late director of religious education at the First Presbyterian church, was the recipient last Sunday evening of a purse of money given by the congregation at the George mission, this being but one of many tokens of appreciation which the retiring officer has received on the occasion of his appointment to the charge at Sidney. Last evening the Sunday school teachers of the First Presbyterian church met at the home of Daniel Smith, Pandora avenue, and, in the course of a very enjoyable social evening during which games and music were indulged in, presented Mr. and Mrs. Gibson with a handsome electric kettle, together with an address expressing appreciation of their work in the church and regret at their departure. It was hoped, however, that they would come back often to visit the various young people's societies in the church, and to their new field they carried the good wishes of all with whom they had worked here. Rev. J. G. Inkster, who was present, added a personal tribute of praise and appreciation to Mr. Gibson, who has assumed his new duties at Sidney today.

St. Andrew's Missionary Society.—At the monthly meeting of the Women's Missionary society of St. Andrew's Presbyterian church, held last Monday afternoon in the church schoolroom, Mrs. Tufts, the president, in the chair, a very interesting paper was read by Mrs. Fortune in which she told at length of the work being done in the various hospitals in the province connected with the Presbyterian church, and also referred more briefly to the splendid achievements of the Dominion. Mrs. H. E. Young's description of the hospital at Akland, B. C., and of the usefulness of the institution in that district, was also listened to with interest. A quantity of routine business was disposed of by the meeting, and members were reminded of the annual thankoffering meeting to be held on the evening of November 5 at the church, when ladies of the congregation were invited to bring an offering for the missionary work of the church. A good programme is being arranged, and it is hoped that many will attend.

VICTORIA PEOPLE PRAISE SIMPLE MIXTURE

Many in Victoria praise the simple mixture of buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., known as Adler-I-ka. This remedy is the most THOROUGH bowel cleanser ever sold being even used successfully in appendicitis. ONE SPONFUL relieves almost ANY CASE of constipation, soothes a gassy stomach. ONE MINUTE after you take it the gasses rumble and pass out. Adler-I-ka cannot gripe and the INSTANT action is surprising. Hall & Co., 702 Yates St.

DON'T BE MISLED, CHOOSE WISELY.

Needless to say, the choice of glasses must be made at an up-to-date establishment, such as may be mentioned—The Queens-Opticians, of Canada and the Stars, 607 Yates street. They have the latest and best methods of testing the eyes—a very important factor, as many people do not know anything about the seat of trouble, not realizing the fact that their sight is defective. Many women complain of headaches which are really the result of eye strain, and could be quickly remedied.

The Queens Opticians are following the example of other progressive firms, in cutting exorbitant rates. Their prices are all cut-rate, and a beautiful pair of glasses, which have proved a boon to thousands, may be had at the low price of $1.85. While they have many competitors in the older firms in Victoria, people here are now progressive enough to investigate the merits of others, and consequently The Queens Opticians are enjoying an ever-increasing volume of business, which justifies their existence in Victoria.

BUY COTTON GOODS NOW

Never again is the Canadian woman likely to have such splendid opportunities to buy cotton goods as she has to-day.

The war has forced the price of raw cotton to an unprecedentedly low figure.

That, of course, means lessened prices for cotton fabrics and greater buying opportunities.

It would pay to buy cottons today and store them up. When the war situation clears prices will jump.

The stores are showing many attractive values, as can be seen from the advertising in The Times.

GERMAN ATROCITIES.

Victorian Receives Details of Mutilations Practiced by Kaiser's Soldiers on Wounded British.

Details of the further atrocities by the Germans have been received in Victoria by J. Matheson, 1118 Blanshard avenue, who has just got a letter containing particulars from his mother in Scotland. The following extract from the letter gives some idea of the ferocious hatred of the Kaiser's troops for the British: "Mr. Watson is lying in hospital in Edinburgh, where he was brought from Mons. He had been wounded in the shoulder, and while lying there in the trenches the Germans found him, and cut off both his hands and gouged out both his eyes. He is such a terrible sight, that his own relations are not allowed to see him."

Another private was brought home in precisely the same condition, and his brother, insisting on seeing him, went mad at the sight of the mutilations which had been practised.

ADDRESSED C. E. UNION

Social Service Work Offers Big Field of Labor for Young People, Says Dr. Pidgeon, at Quarterly Rally.

In addressing the quarterly rally of the Christian Endeavor Union on Monday evening in the Centennial Methodist church, when over 300 were present, Rev. Dr. Pidgeon, of Westminster hall, Vancouver, secretary for the social service work in the west, spoke eloquently on the subject of social service.

It was the first duty of the state to prevent crime; failing that it should punish crime to vindicate innocence. If it failed to do either the responsibility rested with the people as a whole. A New York philanthropist had built a modern apartment house in the city in an effort to improve housing conditions. The same year a number of cheap in-anitary tenements had been erected which counteracted his action. But the following year, as a result of his work, a "Proper Housing" by-law was passed whereby one million people who had been living in dark, unhealthy rooms were transferred to sunlit ones. Avoidable accidents in one year had killed 123,000 men; the American civil war had killed only 90,000. One of the great problems of the Dominion to-day was immigration.

He suggested that the Christian Endeavor Union might work for better play grounds where the children would be directed in their play. In 90 cases out of 100 where crime in children was traced to its origin, it was found to be just love of play gone wrong.

In conclusion the speaker added that if young people wished to see the much-needed reforms brought about they must strive constantly, faithfully and with zeal unabated till the victory was won.

A very hearty vote of thanks to the speaker was passed unanimously by the meeting.

GOOD HUNTING.

The fishing at Koksilah is now at its best. The March brown is a killer, but the worm is the favorite; the fish are running large. Seven fish, weighing eight pounds and a half were caught within one hour. Shooting is good all round. One panther and one bear were shot within the last two weeks and two more panthers were seen recently.

That's the End of Him!

"Dog-gone him!" So said the farmer as he slaughtered a hawk with his shotgun and a three-cent cartridge.

As he looked at the dead bird, he found that he had another "think" coming: "This bird may have had two of my chickens, worth two-bits apiece, which puts me half a dollar on the wrong side. But in the course of a year the same bird would destroy at least one vermin per day, including Sundays—each of which would eat more than a cent's worth of my grain. This makes 265 cents to the credit of the dead bird and puts me $3.15 out of my first calculation."

It's the same way with the man who sends East, South or West for the goods which he can get in his own town—just as good in quality, just as high in finish. But simply because of the immediate saving of a few dollars, HE SHOOTS THE BIRD!

Three hundred and sixty thousand dollars per annum are distributed in wages to one industry alone in Victoria at the present time, and, based upon a careful estimate, two hundred thousand dollars are sent to other points for the same class of work.

If this $200,000 was spent in Victoria, the one industry alone would support 120 additional men; giving an average of five persons to the family, means an increase of 600 in population—all of them to be fed and clothed by goods for which the greater part of the $200,000 is spent with the local store-keeper.

HANG UP YOUR GUN. DON'T SHOOT!

DELIVERS SECOND LECTURE

Health, Beauty and Exercise Related, Says Mrs. Margaret Blair; Many Attend to Hear Address.

Cold morning bath daily, regular exercise immediately after rising and toast and hot water for breakfast! By these somewhat heroic measures as a foundation for the day alone may women hope to retain their health, and incidentally, their good looks. At least this is part of the system recommended by Mrs. Blair, who yesterday afternoon delivered her second lecture at the store of David Spencer, Ltd., the number of ladies present giving ample testimony to the interest which is taken in the subject of health and beauty.

Mrs. Blair illustrated several of the exercises which she recommends, among these being dancing, which was commended as exhilarating and creative of grace, while a variety of other movements which assist in relaxing or strengthening the muscles were demonstrated. To remove the tired lines from the face and soothe the nerves gentle massage was suggested, although above all else people should study repose of the mind, unselfishness of thought, and generosity of spirit, first for their own sake and afterwards for their beautifying effect.

Some very practical hints about the choice of colors for the dress were given by the speaker. The complexion should first be studied, and only suitable tones selected. Pink was only to be worn by those with clear skins; purple by people with black eyes, black hair and pale complexions; grey for the grey-haired. Yellow should be eschewed by the stout. Smartness and good taste should never be confused. They were not the same thing. A dress was often spoiled by faulty lines and finishing touches. Nothing made a woman look more poverty-stricken than a veil with a hole in it, worn down heels, and soiled gloves.

At the point where reference was made to the morning dress, which was to be of the simplest design and of washable fabric, Mrs. Blair urged the importance of neatness and tidiness in the home, and asked mothers to dress for their children and their husbands as much as for their guests. Finally, an erect carriage free of affectation, best attained by abundance of out-of-door exercise, would assist in the malignment of the ambition to be healthy and beautiful.

Mrs. Blair spoke again this afternoon.

ALIENS IN POSSESSION OF MAPS.

Over 3,000 Germans and Austrians resident in England have now been arrested by the police or military authorities and are confined in concentration camps.

About 1,000 were resident in London, the rest in the country. The total is being added to at the rate of about 100 a day.

A sentry at one of the Territorial camps in the Home Counties a night or two ago saw 'em stealing towards the quarters of the commanding officer, says a Central News special correspondent. The sentry challenged them, but they did not stop. He fired at them and brought them both down wounded. Taken to hospital, they were found to be Germans, with a complete plan of a Territorial camp in one of the London districts in their possession, besides tactical maps of the Home Counties.

Health and Beauty Helps

SUE L: I always recommend quinzoin to put vitality and luxuriance into anyone's hair. It will promptly remedy the dandruff and itching scalp, it cures little and you can prepare it at home. From your drugist get one ounce of quinzoin and one half pint of alcohol. Mix and add one half pint cold water. This makes enough tonic to last a long time. Apply to your scalp twice a week. This is fine to prevent falling of the hair and premature loss of color.

DALY: Don't worry about being too "plump" when there is such a simple, easy way to reduce flesh without dieting or any strenuous exercise. Get four ounces of piccolin from your drugist and mix it in one and one half pints hot water. Take a tablespoonful before meals. This is harmless and inexpensive, and I think you will find a beneficial change within a week.

LEONORA: There is no virtue in an egg shampoo. The slimy animal matter clings to the strands and clogs the pores of the scalp. Try this simple shampoo: Get some cantrox from your drugist and dissolve a level teaspoonful in a cup of hot water. It leaves the scalp stimulated and cleaned, and the hair beautiful, soft and fluffy.

POLLY: You do not need to send abroad for the new, perfect substitute for face powder. Make it yourself at home, by dissolving four ounces spumax in one half pint hot water. This is the simplest, purest lotion for making the skin soft and naturally fair. It stays on closely, and gives a youthful freshness.

When on it seems part of the skin and cannot be detected as can the old-style face powder.

CAROLINE: Yes, if the tissues of your face are inclined to sag, beware or you will soon have wrinkles. Here is a good massage cream which tones and braces the tissues while also beautifying the complexion: Mix an ounce of almond (from your drugist) in one half pint cold water. Add two teaspoonfuls glycerine. Apply freshly. At the first application you will feel the skin contract and you will soon get back the firm contour and a velvety skin. For a good blood-purifier see answer to Maurice.

MAURICE: The skin eruptions of which you speak are caused by impure blood and you must eliminate the poisons from the system before you can hope to enjoy complete health. Into one half pint alcohol (whisky must not be used) pour one ounce karoene, then add one half cupful sugar and hot water to make quart. Take one tablespoonful of this old-fashioned blood cleanser and tonic before each meal. This is splendid for that weak, worn feeling and restores the vital organs to a healthy condition, and its timely use will save much serious sickness.

FANCY: Certainly eyes are harmed by bella donna, but this home-made tonic will clear and make them brilliant while it is strengthening and resting. Anyone can prepare it by dissolving an ounce of crystals (obtainable at any drugist's) in one half pint of clear water. Use eye cup or put a few drops in each eye at skin soft and naturally fair. Its brightening effect is immediate.

GERMANY'S TRADE.

A further illustration of the injury to international trade caused by the European War has been disclosed in the American foreign trade statement for August just published. Imports were $129,399,000 or an increase of $8,252,000 compared with a year ago. Exports fell off no less than $7,571,000, the total amount being only $110,327,545. The excess of exports over imports for the eight months ended August is but $13,227,000. Exports from the port of New York alone showed a decrease of $43,343,000 in August. Germany took only $19,500 worth of goods, against $9,539,000 a year ago.

As a substitute for tin in the making of cans, iron tinned with gold has been introduced. The resulting product is said to be proof against corrosion of most kinds, but costs fifteen times as much as tin-plate.

KING AND WINGE HOME

Seattle, Oct. 22.—The Seattle power-schooner King and Winge, which rescued the Karliuk survivors from Wrangell Island, reached Seattle yesterday morning from Nome, via South-eastern Alaska. The King and Winge, after taking the survivors aboard and while on the way back to Nome, met the United States revenue cutter Bear, with Capt. Robert Bartlett aboard, and the men were transferred to the government steamer, so that they could receive medical attention.

OWES HER LIFE TO "FRUIT-A-TIVES"

Cured Both Stomach Trouble and Headaches

"Palmerston, Ont., June 20, 1913. 'I really believe that I owe my life to 'Fruit-a-tives.' Ever since childhood, I have been under the care of physicians and have been paying doctor's bills. I was so sick and worn out that people on the street often asked me if I thought I could get along without help. The same old Stomach Trouble and distressing Headaches nearly drove me wild. Sometime ago, I got a box of 'Fruit-a-tives' and the first box did me good. My husband was delighted and advised a continuation of their use.

"To-day, I am feeling fine, and a physician meeting me on the street, noticed my improved appearance and asked the reason. I replied, 'I am taking Fruit-a-tives.' He said: 'Well, if Fruit-a-tives are making you look so well, go ahead and take them. They are doing more for you than I can say.' "MRS. H. S. WILLIAMS."

"Fruit-a-tives" are sold by all dealers at 50c a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size 25c, or sent postpaid on receipt of price by Fruit-a-tives, Limited, Ottawa.

ROCHELLE LOST AT MOUTH OF COLUMBIA

Steam Schooner With Cargo of Vancouver Island Coal Drives Ashore

Astoria, Ore., Oct. 22.—The steam schooner Rochelle, which went ashore last night on Clatsop Spit, opposite buoy No. 12, at the mouth of the Columbia river, was believed to-day to be a total wreck with her cargo of coal.

Captain Kiddah and his crew of nineteen men and the pilot, Captain H. A. Mathews, were landed early to-day at Hammond and Fort Stevens. According to Captain Mathews, the wreck was due to the channel lights not being burning in the river. As soon as the vessel grounded on the south side of the breakers the seas began washing over her. She was half-filled with water when the crew was taken off. Soon afterwards she sank, only the top of her house appearing above the surface.

The rescue was made by the Point Adams life-saving crew with the greatest difficulty. The Rochelle, a vessel of 470 tons, was owned by the Columbia S. S. company. She was bound from Boat Harbor, B. C., for Portland.

Vessel Took Fire. Vessels crossing the bar to-day report that soon after the crew was taken off the Rochelle, the schooner keeled over and caught fire while lying in a higher position out of the water. She was burning fiercely when last sighted.

FIVE VESSELS ROUND RACE AT SAME TIME

Pretty Sight Witnessed by Early To-day; All Warships Are Home

Victoria pilots who were out in the Strait early this morning looking for deep-sea ships due in from foreign ports witnessed a very impressive and spectacular sight off Race Rocks. No less than five vessels were in sight at the same time, three being merchantmen and the other two warships returning from a cruise off the coast. Since 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon, no less than eight ships have steamed into Victoria and Esquimalt harbors.

The pilots were out looking for the Nippon liner Awa Maru and the Merionethshire, of the Royal Mail fleet. Out of the light mists the five ships suddenly loomed up. The Awa Maru was nearest the Vancouver Island shore and just outside of her was the British cruiser Newcastle. The steamship Protetia was next in the line and the Japanese cruiser Idzumo steamed outside of her. On the starboard quarter the Merionethshire was ploughing along, completing a long trip from Antwerp via the Suez canal.

Yesterday the Canadian cruiser Rainbow returned to Esquimalt and late in the afternoon the British steamship Lowther Range, which is being detained at Esquimalt under suspicion, took up a mooring in the naval harbor. In the evening the steamship Lewis K. Thurlow arrived to discharge cargo. Shipping at this port to-day has been the busiest waterfront men have seen it for many months.

EXHIBITION OPENED AT THE DRILL HALL

Citizens See Fine Displays of Goods Made in Victoria; Varied Exhibits

ARTICLES TO MEET NEEDS OF MANY KINDS

Event Will Continue Till Saturday Evening; Programme Includes Music

Everything was in readiness when the Made-in-Victoria exhibition, the first that has been organized here apart from agricultural exhibitions, was opened this afternoon at the Drill hall by Hon. Dr. Young.

When the provincial secretary declared the exhibition open he was accompanied by Colonel the Hon. E. G. Prior, president of the board of trade; and Alderman Okell, chairman of the executive of the Development association, representing the mayor, who is at Kamloops.

The object of the exhibition is to bring before the people of Victoria the possibilities of buying locally-manufactured articles. The Victoria and Island Development association started the movement in connection with the work of its industrial committee, whose object is to increase the number of people at work in city factories.

For three days the exhibition will be open to the public and there will be band concerts each afternoon and evening. It is expected that there will be a very large attendance.

By a short time before the exhibition opened, the stallholders were engaged in giving the finishing touches to their displays. Food products are a very interesting feature, and aerated waters, brewing products, paint products and illuminating systems find a large place in the display.

The B. C. Electric railway had applied its Jordan river current to the operation of an electric train, of model dimensions, at its stall. Behind were three capital photographic reproductions of the plants of the company at Goldstream and Jordan river (hydro-electric) and Brentwood (steam).

One industry of which the community is deservedly proud, that of Yarrows', Ltd., again showed the model of the Princess Maquinna, which formed such a prominent feature of the Made-in-Victoria exhibit in Fair week, 1912.

The study of food products is always interesting, and it must be gratifying to Victorians passing round the stalls to realize that so many of the articles for the table can be furnished from local plants, cereal foods, coffee, etc. Among other articles of domestic use on the tables are condiments, of a well-known brand made here.

Allusion has already been made to the beer, mineral waters, etc., for which Victoria has long been famous because of the chemical constituents of the local water provide important food values.

In turning from food products reference should be made to the two classes of local flour shown, and a note of commendation given to those who are showing furniture manufactured in the city as furniture has been so largely imported. The skill of the workman has gone far in the use of the favorite woods of the cabinet-maker.

In the household supplies stores are a prominent exhibit. Going outside his house, after paving the hall and sanitary quarters with a local mosaic tile that is shown, the householder may paint his premises with the material of the three local firms that have exhibits and connect the lateral services to the street mains with the pipes made by a local pottery.

The roof may be tiled with local products, and the boundary walls built with local bricks. The exhibition reminds him that if he requires tubs and coverage supplies they can be manufactured here, and that he may wear overalls made in Victoria while performing the customary chores of the household, the factory or the workshop.

In his leisure time the householder can sail his yawl or cutter with Victoria-made sails, and when he rigs up his camp, he may sleep under locally-manufactured tents, carrying his kit in dunnage bags made here.

The citizen cannot leave the drill hall without realizing that much that he has been accustomed to associate with famous British, eastern Canadian and American firms can be bought in his own town. The object of the exhibition is to spread that knowledge.

To increase their information, the children of Victoria are particularly invited to attend, so that they may intelligently compete in the contest under the control of the Victoria school board, which will be divided into three grades, and will call for seven reasons, limited to 15 words each, answers to the questions: Why should home industries in Victoria be

WAS MISERABLE COULDN'T STAND

Testifies She Was Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Lackawanna, N. Y.—"After my first child was born I felt very miserable and could not stand on my feet. My sister-in-law wished me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and my nerves became firm, appetite good, step elastic, and I lost that weak, tired feeling. That was six years ago and I have had three fine healthy children since. For female troubles I always take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it works like a charm. I do all my own work."—Mrs. A. F. KREMER, 1674 Electric Avenue, Lackawanna, N. Y.

The success of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, is unparalleled. It may be used with perfect confidence by women who suffer from displacements, inflammation, ulceration, tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness, or nervous prostration. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the standard remedy for female ills.

Women who suffer from those distressing ills peculiar to their sex should be convinced of the ability of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to restore their health by the many genuine and truthful testimonials we are constantly publishing in the newspapers.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

patronized? Why should we prefer goods made in Victoria? The sum of $75 will be awarded in prizes. Not the least attractive feature to the afternoon visitor is the tea-table operated each day by ladies of the Florence Nightingale chapter of the I. O. D. E. Mrs. Elliott and Miss Little presided to-day. The Pipe band of the Fiftieth Highlanders played during the afternoon and will play again this evening. At the evening performance vocal selections by R. Morrison, H. Griffiths and others will be rendered.

The exhibition will be open daily from 2 o'clock to 10:30 p. m. Admission will be free in the afternoon, and a charge of ten cents will be made in the evenings. Contribution boxes for the Patriotic and Belgian funds will be found at the hall. The fair will close on Saturday evening.

GERTRUDE HOFFMAN DELIGHTS AUDIENCE

Company Distinguished for Beauty, Grace and Perfection of Dress Accompanies Her

It is impossible more than to touch upon the principal features of the brilliant revue staged yesterday afternoon and last evening at the Royal Victoria theatre by Miss Gertrude Hoffman, the beautiful premiere danseuse herself being the centre of attraction in the twelve acts which constituted the programme. With a company distinguished for its beauty, grace, perfection of dress, and skill in dancing, Miss Hoffman was wonderfully supported, and a dozen novelty acts, a glittering succession of color, motion and grace, passed so rapidly and in such condensed gaiety and hue, that the onlooker had but little leisure until the fall of the final curtain for more than observation.

In the liberal variety of novelties provided it is difficult to select a favorite. For the spectacular set forth by the most skilled and highly-trained performers nothing could be compared with the performance of the gymnasts in the fantasy entitled "Zobelde's Dream," where a number of Moorish dervishes and tumblers threw themselves madly about the stage in a manner which was both startling and wonderful owing to the trained and graceful perfection of the athletes. In this act Miss Hoffman, as an Egyptian enchantress and dancer, took a prominent part, her most fascinating of her charms being (in this her arms, which sinuously, with fingers ringed representing eyes, became pale serpents as the watcher followed their movements.

A slim Isadora Duncan with classical nymph draperies and joyously tossing flowers as she danced, Miss Hoffman was much admired in her last act of all, where, in a portrayal of "Beautiful Blue Danube" she was pursued by other graceful nymphs in a soft and misty glade.

Other very attractive scenes in which she appeared were "The Argentine Tango," danced with her graceful partner, Senior Enrico Muris; a Harry Lauder impersonation distinguished by a refined mimicry of the great Scottish comedian, and a beauty-parlor episode in which a remarkable chapeau, a man, and a bevy of ladies from the Polles Bergere figure vaguely. There are other delightful scenes which in themselves are worth going to see, and a vaudeville programme to commence with.

Doctor (to patient)—"You'll have to rouse yourself up and take more interest in your business." Patient—"My dear thir, that it's absolutely impotible." Doctor—"Why, what is your business?" Patient—"I'm a money-lender."

MEETINGS

Parable on Extra Service.—Continuing his series of sermons on the parables, Rev. J. G. Inkster will speak on Sunday evening at the First Presbyterian church on "Extra Service."

Will Hold Annual Meeting.—The annual meeting of the Women's Auxiliary of the S. P. C. A. will be held on Friday, November 6, at 3 p. m., at the Y. W. C. A. Full particulars will be announced later.

Will Hold Social.—The Children of Mary will hold a social on October 27 in the Y. M. I. hall, View street, in aid of the Poor Clare Sisters at the Willows. These young ladies hope that all will help to make their efforts successful.

Sunday Evening Concerts.—The popular Sunday evening concerts that have been so successfully conducted by Bandmaster Rowland, during past winter seasons at the old Victoria theatre will be resumed on Sunday, November 1, at Pantages theatre. During last winter Mr. Rowland and his band gave no less than twenty-five of these most successful entertainments.

Organ Recital.—On Wednesday evening, October 28, an organ recital will be given at St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church. The Organist, Jesse Longfield will be assisted by Mrs. Macdonald Fahey, Miss Hastie, W. Quirk, J. J. Smith and the choir of the church. This will be the first of a series of monthly recitals given under the auspices of the choir.

Trafalgar Day Services.—At St. Mary's, Oak Bay, next Sunday morning, special Trafalgar Day services will be held at 11 o'clock, when the Navy League Chapter, I. O. D. E., will attend in a body to hear the Rev. G. H. Andrews' address on "Nelson's Immortal Message." Mr. Andrews, who is chaplain of the 88th regiment, will conduct a service at 10 o'clock for the soldiers.

In Aid of Church.—A bazaar is to be held in Christ Church cathedral school-room on Wednesday net, October 28 by the Guild of St. Agnes in conjunction with the Women's Guild, in aid of the church building in the Ross and Fowl Bay district. Plain and fancy needlework, delicious home cooking and candy and the ever-ready bran pie will be on sale. Tea will be served during the afternoon. The Bishop of Columbia will open the bazaar at 3 o'clock.

Metropolitan Brotherhood.—On Sunday afternoon next at 2.45 the weekly meeting of the Metropolitan church Brotherhood will be held in the auditorium of the church, when an address will be given by C. H. Lugin on the "Psychological Aspect of the War."

The president, Ald. Bell, who has just returned from a sojourn of several weeks' duration in the east, will occupy the chair. An interesting time is expected, and a cordial invitation is extended to all men in the city.

Anniversary Services.—The twenty-third anniversary of the opening of St. Paul's Presbyterian church, corner of Henry and Mary streets, will be celebrated with special services on Sunday, Rev. S. J. Thompson, of Wesley church, will occupy the pulpit at 11 o'clock, and Rev. R. A. Macconnell, of St. Columbia, will preach at 7 p. m. On the following Tuesday, October 27, at 8 p. m., a concert and social will be held under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid. Admission will be free and a voluntary offering will be taken in aid of the work.

Y. W. C. A. Bazaar.—A bazaar and entertainment will be held at the Y. W. C. A. on November 11, when patrons of this event in previous years will be given another opportunity to support the association in a small way. Tables of fancy and plain sewing, candy, home-made cooking, etc., will offer tempting purchases to the visitors, and a generous goose and fish-pond will provide entertainment for the smaller folk. A programme is also to be provided, and it is hoped that generous support will be given by the public to the undertaking, as, owing to the fact that many bills are coming in and that several of the resident young women at the association are out of employment at the present time, the organization needs all the financial assistance possible.

C. N. Tubman, who has been absent some time in the north has returned from his business trip.

Miss Helena Wakeman has left Vancouver and is spending the winter months in Los Angeles and Pasadena, California.

Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Scott, of the Metropolitan Methodist church, expect to return to Victoria on Saturday, October 31. They spent last Sunday in Toronto and are now in Detroit.

This morning, in the vestry of the First Presbyterian church, the marriage of Lewis William Choysse, a contractor of Seattle, Wash., and Edna Magnolie Stuart, also of Seattle, was celebrated by Rev. J. G. Inkster. Mr. and Mrs. Choysse will return to Seattle to live.

Rev. Dr. Campbell officiated at the marriage on October 16 of Daniel Robinson Bell and Emma Edith Newinger, both of Victoria. The ceremony took place at "Breadalbane," Fort street, the bride wearing a smart traveling dress. After the honeymoon Mr.

and Mrs. Bell will return to Victoria to make their home here.

W. Scott, of Winnipeg, who has been staying with his son, W. J. Scott, "Winnitoba," Tennyson avenue, returned by last night's boat to the mainland en route for the prairies.

Lora Lemoine Bowman, a teacher of Iowa, and Earl Robert Thomas, a commercial traveler from the same state, were married yesterday afternoon in the vestry of the First Presbyterian church, Rev. J. G. Inkster performing the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas left almost immediately for Iowa, where they will make their future home.

Rev. J. G. Inkster officiated at a quiet home wedding celebrated last evening at the residence of the bride's mother, when Sarah Ann, daughter of Mrs. Ives, Arnot avenue, the Gorge, and Einar Francis Rowa were joined in marriage. The ceremony was witnessed by a small company of the friends of the bride and bridegroom, Miss Ives' sister acting as bridesmaid. After the service a dainty supper was served, Mr. and Mrs. Rowa leaving later in the evening for their new home, Obed avenue.

Joy is the response of each of the higher faculties of a man's soul when it is brought up to concert pitch.—Ward Beecher.

BENEFIT SOCCER GAME FOR FUND ROWDY PLAYERS ARE CENSURED

Cup Ties Will Be Started Soon; Schedule for Saturday's Games

Victoria's soccer enthusiasts will have an opportunity to contribute their mite towards the patriotic fund on Christmas Day, when a benefit match will be played between two picked teams. It was decided at last night's meeting to close the cup tie entries on Wednesday next. Up to date entries for the lower island cup ties have been received from the following teams: Sir John Jacksons, Victoria Wests, senior and intermediate; Fairfields, 50th Highlanders and R. C. Horse. The first round of the tie is scheduled to be played on November 7.

W. Miller, the former professional, was regarded to play with the Civic A. A. second division team, Jeff Baker, Empires, Richards, Fairfield, Taylor, Thistles and Niven, Jacksons, were reported for fighting, and the league censured these players, with a warning. Referee Okewell reported Newlands, Thistles, for abusive language, and the league warned this player through his club, Saturday's schedule:

Senior.
James Bays vs. Thistles, Oak Bay grounds, referee, Mr. Allen.
Jacksons vs. Wests, Beacon Hill, referee, Mr. Goward.

PACIFIC BOWLING TOURNAMENT PLANNED

Vancouver, Oct. 22.—Con Jones announces that his fine new bowling alley at the old National Sports club, Cordova street, will be ready next Saturday night, when the official opening will take place. The inaugural big tournament will be held on Monday, November 9, when five-man teams will compete for a prize of $150. No entrance fee will be charged and entries are now being received for the tourney. Later it is proposed to hold a Pacific coast tournament, when outside teams will be able to compete. It is expected that Con will bring together Joe Mitchell, of Calgary, and Marsh Hodge, of Vancouver, in a series of games for the Canadian championship.

LOCALS BEATEN.

The Clarence Basketball club journeyed to Sooke last Saturday and were thoroughly trounced by the Athletic club of that village, 19-7. The proceeds amounted to $11, which was forwarded to the patriotic fund.

CLUB MEETING.

A meeting of the Vancouver Island A. C. will be held to-night at 8 in rooms 414-15, Sayward block. Business of interest will be transacted.

GRINDLE THINKS CLAIM GOOD ONE

Moran Succeeds Dooan as Manager of Phillies; League Reserve Lists

"I believe that the players have an excellent chance of securing the two weeks' wages for the curtailment of the Northwest league season this year," was the statement of Pinky Grindle, the former Victoria backstop, who caught for the Vancouver champions this year. Grindle states that Charlie Swain was the representative of the players who went east to interview Fultz, the Players' Fraternity president, and he also laid the case of the players before the National commission. The fight of the players is liable to involve other interests, as a number of leagues curtailed their schedules this season in an effort to lessen the losses for 1914. It is understood that Manager Bert Delmas, of the Bees, is also active in the fight for the extra two weeks' pay.

Nick Williams, manager of the Ballard club, is now a free agent. There is a rumor that Nick may land the job as manager of the Spokane club, but it is only a rumor, for President Farr says he will make no announcement for some time yet. Bobby James, of the Seattle club, is another player who was not reserved. Bob asked Dugdale for a non-reserve contract when he signed last spring, and his request was granted.

Fitchburg, Mass., Oct. 21.—Patrick J. Moran, who has been acting as coach for the Philadelphia National league baseball team, yesterday was elected manager of the club to succeed Chas. S. Dooan, according to a telegram Moran received from President Wm. S. Baker, of the Philadelphia club, last night.

Official reserve lists of the Northwestern league clubs, issued by Secretary J. H. Farrell, of the National association, follow:

Vancouver—J. F. Clark, Bert Hall, Ed. Doty, W. H. Reuther, Ben Hunt, William Brand, H. G. Ches, W. M. Grindle, C. McCart, H. G. Scharnweber, J. T. Bennett, A. Hiester, Joe Christianson, Walter R. N. Shaw, W. H. Brinker, Mike Wotell, W. B. Powell, Gus Thompson (suspended), Herb Bryson (suspended).

Ballard—R. L. Williams, Robert Coltrin, W. D. McKinnon, Frank L. Guigan, E. E. Leonard, R. J. Callahan, Henry Melchior, David Milligan, Earl Hausman, Homer Haworth, H. Salverson, W. C. McCarty.

Spokane—Joe Altman, Emil Frisk, Wm. Hogan, James Lewis, John Wuffli, Willis Butler, Joe Wagner, Wynn C. Noyes, Stanley Covaleskie, Harry Hughes, Alec Ariett, A. Meluskie, Charles Browning, Dave Gregg, M. J. Lynch.

Tacoma—C. E. Stevens, T. Brotton, R. Kaufman, W. McVoy, W. R. Osborne, Clyde Schroeder, J. D. Albrecht, Earl Pike, Lester Temple, G. Stork, Norman Boeckel, J. Butler, W. McClelland, Eddie Johnson, C. Neighbors.

Seattle—Eml Huhn, Walter Cadman, Joe Wally, Walter Malls, Al Bonner, Charles Fullerton, Wm. G. Dell, Alva E. Gipe, Edward E. Kelly, R. J. Vedovel, Frank Raymond, C. R. Swain, Edward Fries, Martin Killlay, Howard Wasley (suspended), Hardin Barry (suspended), William Jackson (suspended).

Victoria—T. Cunningham, Bert Delmas, M. B. Driscoll, E. Hansen, Geo. Kelly, Bert Lamb, F. G. McHenry, A. Narveson, Marty Nye, W. W. Smith, Thomas Scanlon.

There is a chance that Portland will get one of the greatest goal tends in the east, a man who has written the P. C. H. A. officials for a berth out here. Ernie Johnson and George Rechon are also available for the defense, though Vancouver may land Johnson to take Griffin's place. Silent Ulrich may be sent to Portland, while there are Art Throop, Eddie Garman and Charlie Tobin. In addition to these players there will be O'Grady, Ronan and another player whom the Patriots have still to name, as the annual N. H. A. draft by the P. C. H. A. A couple of the prairie players will also be given tryouts.

Victoria will have Lindsay, Ulrich, L. Patrick, Rowe and Kerr, as certainties, while Poulin, Small, Genze and Dunderdale, have still to send in their signed contracts.

A meeting of the P. C. H. A. will be held to-night at Vancouver, when the admission of the Portland club will be formally ratified by the league officials. Frank Patrick will be re-elected president, and the selection of Micky Ions as a permanent referee also put through. The schedule will likely be issued, also.

TEAM MATCH WILL BE PLAYED NEXT MONTH

A nice sum, totalling $32.50, was realized by the golfing competitions at the Victoria club links this week. In a ladies' foursome Miss Combe and Miss Mara, with a net score of 88 (93-5), won from a field of ten pairs. Mrs. Irving and Miss Gladys Pitts were second with a net score of 93, and Mrs. Graham and Mrs. Bird third with 95.

In putting for ladies over a nine-hole course, Mrs. Irving turned in the best score, 18, and Mrs. Tom Gore was second with 20. A tie resulted among the men, Messrs. Sayward, Say and W. Moffatt all turning in scores of 17.

Early next month the first half of the annual twenty-men team competition for the Biggerstaff Wilson cup between Seattle and Victoria will be played. Victoria has one win to its credit.

LESUEUR TO HANDLE THE PORTLAND CLUB

Ottawa, Oct. 22.—"If the Nationals want a hockey franchise so badly we will sell them ours," said one of the Ottawa hockey club directors this afternoon in regard to the newspaper reports that the National A. C. of Montreal, failing to locate a club at Boston for their proposed new professional league would try to organize a club at Ottawa. "We are not making so much that the franchise is not for sale."

The Ottawa directors claim that any new league is mere nonsense. The deal talked of last winter whereby the Patriots were to get Lesueur will be definitely settled in a few days. Lesueur may get the managership of the Portland club.

BASEBALL MOGULS TO HOLD CAUCUS

New York, Oct. 22.—An opportunity to bring peace to the warring baseball factions will be presented here to-morrow and Saturday when the club-owners and officers of the Federal league meet to discuss the campaign for next season. American, National and International club-owners are on their way to New York and despite declarations that they will not take cognizance of the so-called outlaw league meeting, it is expected they will not refuse to meet the Federals if given the opportunity.

CROSS AND SMITH WERE ELIMINATED

Gunboat Dropped a Roll When He Was Beaten by Sam Langford

Within the past month Boston was the scene of the passing of two high-class mitt-artists. Leach Cross lost to Gilbert Gallant in the bean-town, and Sam Langford dropped Gunboat Smith on Tuesday night in three rounds. Cross refuses to admit that he is a dead one and wants a chance at Freddie Welsh for the lightweight crown. A report comes from New York to the effect that Freddie has ventured to give the Gotham Jew first chance for the 133-pound throne. A few days ago Cross, despite his lacing at the hands of Gallant, demanded $4,000 to fight Kid Lewis ten rounds. Though he may have lost all his old-time ring craft, he has yet to lose his nerve.

Gunboat Smith made a foolish brag Tuesday night by entering the ring with Sam Langford when he had a chance to pick up some easy change on the coast. An article in a New York paper stated that Jim Buckley, manager of the California "hope," received a wire from Jimmy Coffroth, asking him if he would consent to his protegee meeting Jack Johnson on New Year's Day at Tia Juana, Mexico. Buckley accepted and the triceps would be signed in a few days. This disastrous defeat of the "paleface" put a crimp in his championship aspirations, and Langford will probably be the Galveston's opponent on January 1.

Battling Levinsky is again on the advance towards the heavyweight throne, his two recent victories over Gunboat Smith and Jim Flynn putting him in line for a title bout. He has beaten all the boys in the game, but Jack Dillon, who shaded him in a ten-round bout some months ago, Jim Flynn is a busy boy. Tuesday night the Pueblo "coal-shovelers" took a fancy trimming at the hands of Battling Levinsky in New York. Now he is scheduled to fight Jack Dillon ten rounds on Thursday night at Indianapolis, although the authorities may prohibit this bout owing to Dillon's recent fake bout with Knockout.

Jim has another ten-round task on his hands October 23, when he is to journey to Kansas City to mix with Carl Morris.

Young Ahearn, who Old Country dopsters hail as the coming heavyweight champ, is back in the States. He has been matched to fight Tommy Teague ten rounds the last day of this month in New York, while again on November 2 he will tackle Jack Dillon over a ten-round bout at New York. If successful in both bouts, Billy Gibson will match him with "Battling" Levinsky for the white heavyweight crown.

"Battling" Jim Johnson and Joe Jeanette complete the heavyweight bill. These two aspirants box ten rounds in New York, on November 3 and the winner will meet Sam Langford. Freddie Welsh and Charlie White furnish the most important feature on the lightweight bill. The two clever English lightweights will box ten rounds in Milwaukee November 9 for the lightweight throne. A dozen other lightweight bouts of less note are billed for the latter part of this month or early in November. Probably the next best contest on the programme is the four-round clash between former title-holder Ritchie and Johnny Dundee in San Francisco Friday night. Tommy Murphy and Matty Baldwin, good ones about five years back, battle twelve periods in Boston next Tuesday.

Eddie Morgan, an English featherweight invader, boxes Patsy Kline ten rounds in New York on October 23. The ten-round performance between Kid Williams, holder of the bantamweight crown, and Young Solonberg, in New York, should provide plenty of fireworks, while the other bantamweight clash of note is the twenty-round bout between Kid Herman, of New Orleans, and Frankie Burns, of New Jersey, on November 1, at Herman's home town.

LOCAL NEWS

County Court Cases.—The hearing of the cases on the very long September county court list is now almost finished, and within a day or two the court will take up the hearing of the October list, which cannot be completed before the November term opens with another lengthy list of actions to be disposed of.

Did Not Enter Suit.—One of the cases in which judgment by default was given in county court yesterday was that of E. E. Greenshaw v. Fisher. In this case the name of the plaintiff was given yesterday afternoon as Ernest Zimmerli through an error. Mr. Zimmerli has not entered any suit.

Series of Lectures.—Rev. Dr. Cameron has announced to his people that he will preach a special course of sermons on the Advent and Its Relation to the Present Disturbed Condition of the World. The first lecture will be delivered next Sunday morning. The theme will be: "The Attitude of the Apostles and Early Christians Towards the Return of Christ to the World: Were They Deceived and Were Their Hopes Disappointed?"

Discussed Lumber.—The board of trade's special committee met yesterday afternoon to consider the lumber situation in this province. A great deal of information was submitted at the meeting by the various members, and the committee decided upon the general terms of the report which will later be submitted to a meeting of the council. Some further data, however, is expected, and when it is to hand another meeting will be called. The committee yesterday consisted of Hon. E. G. Prior, C. H. Lugin, E. J. Palmer, J. O. Cameron and R. L. Drury.

Charged With Begging.—Pleading guilty in the police court this morning.

Call of Fire.—The fire department was called at noon to-day to a small blaze at the Drake Hardware store, Douglas street. The loss was small.

Pianist Arrives.—Leonard Borwick, the well known pianist who has been on a concert tour in the Antipodes, passed through Victoria yesterday on the R. M. S. Niagara to Vancouver.

Will Send Deputation.—The streets committee of the city council to-morrow afternoon will receive a deputation of Fairfield road owners who wish to advocate the abandonment of paving during next year. There is a motion on the board, waiting to be taken up, which proposes that do this work under section 9 of the Local Improvement act during next year. The advertisement will be urged to leave off action for many months yet.

Fire Chief is Injured.—Chief Davis is confined to the house to-day, nursing a three-inch wound in the nose, caused by a flying nozzle at a fire at 2608 Belmont avenue last evening, when $450 worth of damage was done to the roof and upper portions of the building owned by J. Brethour. The chief was in the smoke and concealed from the gaze of men on a ladder, and received the full force of the blow given by the descending nozzle. The wound required medical attention by Dr. Hadden.

Membership Campaign.—The Y. M. C. A. membership committee met last evening and decided on a plan of action in connection with the forthcoming tri-city membership campaign which is to be conducted along strictly warlike lines. As the holders of the patron trophy the local association has issued a manifesto through the newly-appointed secretary of war, Mr. Macdonald, and a reply is still being awaited from the mainland cities. A further meeting will be held next Tuesday evening for the purpose of receiving Mr. Macdonald's plans in detail, and Commander Perry will at that time swear in his captains, among whom are the following volunteers: George Bell, J. D. Christie, S. Cheeseman, Drake, N. E. Sandler, Marriner, J. C. McNeill, J. B. McCallum, J. Fuller and G. I. Warren. A meeting of the boys' council will hold simultaneously with the seniors' meeting, and it was decided that in defending the shield the lads should represent the navy, with William A. Baker and Paul Hayward as commanders-in-chief.

Charged With Obstructing.—Ernest J. Kennedy was arrested yesterday by Detectives Heather and Edens on a warrant charging that he did "between June 23 and October 21 unlawfully and wilfully obstruct F. G. Richards, sheriff of the county of Victoria, being a person lawfully executing process against goods, to wit, the goods of the British Canadian Home Builders, Ltd., under a writ of fieri factus, issued out of the supreme court of British Columbia to the said F. G. Richards as sheriff aforesaid, contrary to the criminal code." Mr. Kennedy was released on bail of $1,000 yesterday and appeared in court this morning to answer the charge. A remand until to-morrow was ordered.

New Director Appointed.—A. J. Mitchell, who arrived in Victoria only about a month ago from Golden, has been appointed to succeed Rev. A. Raeburn Gibson as director of religious education at the First Presbyterian church, and has already assumed his duties. Mr. Mitchell, who is an English university graduate, came to his work with the highest recommendations both from London, England, where he received his training and had much practical experience in work among young people, and from Golden, where he successfully supplied several mission openings among timber and mining camps. He is a chartered accountant and will bring to his work strong business ability as well as experience in religious instruction.

Successful Concert.—The concert held last evening in the First Congregational church, under the auspices of the W. C. T. U. and in aid of the men's mission, Store street, brought together much fine talent on the programme, and an audience which was composed of the sympathizers with the objects in view. Rev. William Stevenson, the chairman, spoke a few words early in the proceedings, in the course of which he emphasized the need of giving assistance to men who were out of work at the present time. Although the W. C. T. U. did little, perhaps, in the way of aggressive temperance work, it accomplished much in reclamation work, and provided a home where men without employment and who had just left hospital or prison could stay until they had some steady occupation. On this account the community should support the mission, and he hoped there would be other efforts of a similar nature. The programme included many excellent numbers, among those who assisted being Miss Davis, the gold-medalist, who recited very well; Mr. Waddington, who sang "Devon, Glorious Devon"; Mrs. Warren, with some Summary Dismissal.—Results in lawsuit. Accountant of Canadian-Puget Sound Lumber Company loses action.

An outcome of the winding-up of the Canadian-Puget Sound Lumber Company, Limited, occupied the attention of the county court and a special jury this morning.

The plaintiff was Henry A. Dibble, who for some years was chief accountant of the company, and who was dismissed summarily at the end of July by R. F. Taylor, the liquidator. He sued the company for damages for his dismissal without notice.

H. C. Hall, acting for him, asked the jury to decide whether or not Taylor was justified in discharging Dibble on July 29 last; if not, what the nature of Dibble's employment was; and whether the plaintiff had suffered any damage by reason of his employment with the company itself coming to an end on May 19, when it went into winding-up proceedings.

Judgment was entered for the defendant company on legal grounds. Mr. Dibble told the jury that he came out from Grand Rapids, Mich., in 1910, as chief accountant of the Michigan-Puget Sound Lumber Co., being engaged in that capacity by Charles A. Phelps, who was treasurer of that company and the company he had been with in Grand Rapids for three years. This contract ran from August 1, 1910, at $1,600 a year and an increase of $200 a year. A consolidation of the Michigan-Pacific Lumber Co. and the Michigan-Puget Sound Lumber Co. as the Canadian-Puget Sound Lumber company took place on June 8, 1911. He was re-engaged by the new consolidation in the same position at $2,000 a year for the balance of 1911, and $2,500 a year from January 1, 1912. When the company went into liquidation the liquidator, R. F. Taylor, told him it was not the intention to make any office changes; as it was likely that the company would be reorganized. While the heads of the company were in the east on reorganization matters he was the officer of the company who had to meet the public and represent his superiors. He was paid his salary at the $2,500 rate for May and June.

At half-past nine on the morning of July 29, Mr. Dibble proceeded, he was called into the private office by Mr. Taylor and asked if he had opened a certain letter. He had opened it, as he did with all correspondence, and as he told Mr. Taylor. The latter then told him that for that reason he was dismissed and could leave at once. The letter was addressed, like the envelope, to "R. F. Taylor, liquidator, Canadian-Puget Sound Lumber Co., Ltd., Victoria," and he pointed out to Mr. Taylor that he had opened all other letters similarly addressed without objection, drawing from the waste-paper basket an envelope so addressed opened that morning. He pointed out that the envelope had been the company's service on such short notice, and especially against being dismissed before he had been "checked out" by the regular auditors of the company. Mr. Taylor replied that in his opinion there was not any auditor of the company.

Mr. Dibble identified the letter, which was from one of the directors, enclosing an itemized statement of expenses incurred on behalf of the company, and stating that he believed it to be a proper charge. The auditor added that of course this had nothing to do with money the company owed him as a director. Mr. Dibble said he had opened previous letters from the same director without any objection ever being taken to this course. Since his dismissal he had offered his services to the company on several occasions. In contradiction of all this the statement of defence, the plaintiff denied that he had ever been absent from duty without leave, that he had ever refused to supply statements, or that there was any actual dispute of accounts. He described the system of accounting in use, and instanced the sort of errors which arose in the bookkeeping of a firm whose operations run over a million dollars a year. An apparent discrepancy of some $125 had been worked down to about $20 by Curtis Sampson, the accountant, who is working on the books, and must eventually come out even.

E. C. Mayer, for the defence, asked for judgment on the ground that it came within the statute of frauds, inasmuch as it was not the original contract, was not one which was to be performed within the space of one year from the making of it, and that there could be no subsequent contract with the liquidator as there was an existing contract.

After lengthy argument on the point, his honor held that the authorities were clearly with the defence and that there was no case for the jury.

MILITARY TOURNAMENT.

Lower Fee to Be Charged; Entries Coming in Rapidly; Good Programme Assured.

The decision of the committee in charge of the military tournament to be held at the Willows on Saturday afternoon to fix the admission at ten cents instead of twenty-five cents ought to result in a very large attendance. Even in times of financial stress this is not beyond the means of anyone, and as the total receipts are to be handed over to the patriotic fund it offers all an opportunity to help in that work.

Entries for all the events are coming in in large numbers, and it is assured that in each item on the programme there will be a keen contest. The soldiers in camp are taking great interest in the tournament. Contrary to the first intention, the members of the Lady Douglas chapter, Daughters of the Empire, will not serve tea on the occasion of the tournament.

Canadian Order of Foresters.—A meeting of Court Columbia No. 84, C. O. F., will be held on Friday evening at 8 in the A. O. U. W. building, over the Princess theatre.

SUMMARY DISMISSAL RESULTS IN LAWSUIT

RETURNS FROM ORIENT

Winnipeg Doctor Was on Empress of Japan When Admiralty Took Liner Over.

The effect of the great European war is not much felt in the treaty ports of the Orient, according to Dr. C. Intagh, a Winnipeg medical man who arrived on the Awa Maru this morning from Yokohama.

Dr. Intagh left here on the Empress of Japan on her last voyage from this coast, the vessel being requisitioned by the admiralty at the end of the trip. There was great fear of the seizure of the vessel and the voyage between Yokohama and Hongkong was an exciting one. The passengers were conveyed as far as Hongkong, when all were required to leave the ship. Since that time no information of the liner's movements has been allowed to leak out.

In Hongkong the doctor found many of the civilians attached to the volunteer detachments and it was a strange sight to see the men at work in their offices in uniform waiting for any alarm. Business had fallen off on account of the disorganization of traffic. The ships were leaving port at irregular dates and the shipping companies declined to guarantee punctual arrival.

The interest of all European residents in the Orient was centred on the investment of Tsing Tau, and it was expected that the Germans would be forced to surrender by November 1. There did not seem to be any intention on the part of the Japanese to force capitulation hastily by making assaults which might prove failures and cost a great many lives.

MEN'S SOCIETY MEETS

Annual Session of Church of England Organization Last Evening; Dean Gives Message of Encouragement.

The annual general meeting of the Church of England Men's Society, held last evening in the cathedral school-room and presided over by the Rev. Mr. Dawe, vice-president, was productive of interesting reports from the secretary and treasurer respectively. J. Pennell, the financial treasurer, read a statement which showed a small credit balance still on hand, and F. S. Hatten, the secretary, after reading his report, submitted his resignation which he was forced to make through his removal to Esquimalt. It was decided by the meeting that it would be better to combine the offices of secretary and treasurer and George Miles was finally appointed in that capacity.

In giving a resume of the year's work, Mr. Dawe reported the number of meetings, both of a business and social character, which had been held, and the number of papers which had been read. During the proceedings the Very Rev. Dean Doull, president of the organization, came in, and delivered a very encouraging message to the members present, hoping that the society would continue to go forward with its work, and urging the members not to feel discouraged through the loss of members which had resulted through enlistment and the departure of others for various points on the mainland.

After the announcement of the first regular meeting of the society, which will take place on the evening of the first Wednesday in November, proceedings were brought to a close with prayer.

BUY IN VICTORIA

Rotary Club Puts on a Clever Sketch To-day to Advertise the Value of Home Manufacture and Retailing.

Very fittingly the luncheon of the Rotary club this afternoon had the Made-in-Victoria fair as the text, and a practical demonstration was made of the value of dealing at home and the loss of town for articles that can be had here. "They are not in business to sell you goods; they are in the catalogue," was the way one of the actors put it in the course of a sort of dramatic sketch in which seven well-known merchants offered their wares for sale and other members acted the customers—some of whom bought and others sent away with dire results. This was put on under the direction of Walter S. Fraser and was capitalizing done.

S. J. Drake sold hardware, W. S. Terry hot-water bottles, W. H. P. Sweeney printing, Arthur Scourah ladies' suits, W. H. Wilkerson watches, Sam Scott boys' overcoats, and A. E. Matheson shoes. The men who sent away for hot-water bottles, overcoats, watches and hardware on the catalogue plan returned after refusing to buy in Victoria to confess that they had paid about twice in the long run to get the good article that could be got at home for a little higher price.

"This is not the time to cut your advertising or weaken your selling force," said President Higgins. "Your goods are being brought prominently before the public as never before, and it is an opportunity for you to get business and sell your goods. The man who is cutting

Women's Auxiliary of St. John's Church Holds Annual Donation Party; Bishop Speaks.

The annual donation party of St. John's Women's Auxiliary was held on Tuesday afternoon and evening, many useful and practical gifts being received from members of the congregation, and the schoolroom on Mason street, where the article were received, presenting a very hospitable appearance with its well-laden tables. The junior branch of the auxiliary made an excellent collection at its tables, superintended by Miss Evans.

In the evening many additional visitors from various parts of the diocese were present to participate in the excellent programme of patriotic songs and other items provided. The girls' branch had carefully decorated the hall, flags, flowers and portraits of the king and queen occupying a prominent position in the centre of the stage. The Bishop and Mrs. Roper were both present, and clergy from other parts of the diocese visited for the evening, while the diocesan Women's Auxiliary president, Miss Turner, and the organizing secretary, Mrs. Toiler, were also among those seen. The hymn "Fling Out Your Banner" was sung before the Bishop delivered his inspiring address in which he outlined the work of the Columbia coast mission, and told of his own visit there on the last occasion when he saw something of the good work which is being done among loggers and surveyors by the doctors and nurses in charge. The work of the mission ship Columbia was also referred to, Bishop Roper emphasizing that every penny given to the cause was expended in good.

Those taking part in the programme included Miss Albright, Miss Shields, Miss King, Mrs. and Miss Aldridge, Mr. Simpson, Mr. Crook and Mr. Hawkins, and later in the evening refreshments were served by the ladies of the auxiliary.

ELLIOTT HORSE LEAVES

Independent Unit of Cavalry Starts for East on Its Way to the Scene of War.

On this afternoon's boat the members of the Elliott Horse left for the east, where they will take steamer for the British Isles, and there will be given orders for the front.

The fine squadron looked well as it marched down to the steamer soon after noon, and the men were heartily cheered as they left the wharf.

This morning R. T. Elliott, K. C., who has had so much to do with the organization and equipment of the squadron, addressed the officers and men at headquarters. He expressed the confidence of the citizens of Victoria that they would reflect honor on Additional Donations During Past Few Hours; Auditor Appointed for Fund.

Several additional donations have been received during the past twenty-four hours by the Victoria Patriotic Aid committee, including $32.55 from the Victoria Ladies' Golf club, which turned over the proceeds of a ladies' four-some and putting competition; $11, the proceeds of a basketball match held in the Sooke Athletic association's hall last Saturday; $11 from the Y. S. D. club of the High School, being the proceeds of one of their informal dances, the donation being accompanied by the promise of a percentage of all future dances; and a promise of the sum of $200 from the employees of the Pacific Lock Joint Pipe company, per H. B. Kumpke.

The local theatres are showing a beautifully colored slide representing the Union Jack and the flag of the allies. The slide was drawn and designed by Mr. Dawson, the surveyor-general, and Mr. Aitken, of his department, C. J. Brown, the photographer, adding the coloring by hand.

Albert F. Griffiths has been appointed by his Honor the Lieutenant-Governor as auditor for the Victoria Patriotic Aid society.

STILL UNIDENTIFIED.

Provincial Police Anxious to Learn Particulars of Man Whose Body Was Washed Ashore.

The provincial police are very anxious to ascertain the identity of the man whose dead body was washed ashore two or three days ago two miles from Carmanah, on the west coast of Vancouver Island.

In pursuance of the recommendation of Coroner Hart, the body has been buried near the beach and the grave marked. Up to the present, however, no relative has come forward to claim the body, the washing ashore of which was reported by the light-keeper at Carmanah.

The description of the man sent to the provincial police headquarters states that he was tattooed on the left arm with a red heart and an arrow running through it. There is also an anchor in red and blue and on the lower part of the arm a girl's head wearing a cowboy hat. Close by are the initials L. V. L. with half a wreath of flowers in red and blue ink.

The corpse had been in the water evidently about ten days, and there was no clothing on the body save a new pair of black-buttoned shoes, socks and garters. The man was five feet eleven in height, was of heavy set, and appeared to be from 25 to 27 years of age. His head was badly smashed and the features were entirely unrecognizable.

Prices were not devoid of elements of strength, which at times showed signs of becoming aggressive during the session, but advances were resisted by offerings of stock. This was so in Coronation Gold, and this issue bore quite a strong appearance at the last, but there was not much stock for sale at this level, strongly in this instance.

WHEAT OPENED STRONG BUT PRICE WENT BACK

Winnipeg, Oct. 22.—Winnipeg prices opened strong to the extent of 1c. to 1 1/2c. on higher Liverpool and Paris cables, together with the report of an urgent demand for Manitoba wheat at enhanced values at Liverpool, but this advance was short-lived. Heavy profit taking developed, and a considerable decline occurred from the opening. Millers and exporters houses were fair buyers of futures. At noon prices were around one cent lower than the opening. Wheat options closed 1c. to 1 1/2c. lower.

The cash situation was less keen to-day, although a fair business was done. Wheat of all grades was in moderate demand. Oats were keen for the lower grades and barley was in fair request. Offerings of all grains were fairly heavy and about equal to requirements. Cash wheat closed 1c. to 1 1/2c. down on contract grades. Receipts were not heavy. Inspections Wednesday were 241 cars against 1,340 last year, and in sight were 815 cars. Fourteen elevator companies and commission firms of Winnipeg have arranged to charge from this date at the rate of 7 per cent. per annum on all bills of lading and freight paid. Deliveries through the clearing houses were: Wheat, 432,500 bushels; flax, 13,000 bushels; and barley, 29,000 bushels.

ADMIRALTY ANNOUNCES CASUALTIES IN NAVY

London, Oct. 22.—The admiralty announced the death from wounds of Lieut. Richard C. G. Foot, of the Royal Marines. Casualties of the monitor engagement in the Belgian affray amount to 14, including two able seamen missing, and one officer, Lieut. Edward Selby Wise, of the Severn, who was killed.

CANTEEN IS ALLOWED ON SALISBURY PLAIN

General Alderson Cheered by Canadians When He Says Camp Will Not Be "Dry"

London, Oct. 22.—The fact that the Canadian expeditionary force is now under British command and that the Canadians will be accorded all the traditional rights and liberties of the old country Tommy was made clear by General Alderson's promise to the troops yesterday to abolish the dry canteen regulation which was in operation at Valcartier. Addressing the troops, after review at the Bustard and West Down South camps, General Alderson stated that certain difficulties had been overcome, with the result that within a few days the usual British canteens would be opened in the various camps. The prolonged cheers which greeted the announcement indicated that it was one tending to make the new commander popular with the Canadians.

While the efforts of the Canadian minister of militia to avert trouble by adopting a drastic temperance policy have been appreciated on many sides, the fact cannot be ignored that the long period of enforced abstinence in camp at Valcartier, followed by a tedious sea voyage, tended to a good deal of reaction when the troops arrived in England, examples of which were painfully evident soon after landing. At present the village saloons on the outskirts of the camp are being guarded by pickets.

Princess Patricia's regiment, who are away from the general body of the contingent, had a wet canteen ever since their arrival here. They also had a "wet" canteen at Levis. Some of the men who did not like Valcartier and said hard things about it, are modifying their views now they have reached Salisbury and begin to appreciate that no matter where the camp is fixed there must be shortcomings. One thing in which Valcartier in a double sense shone over Salisbury was in being lighted by electricity. The water supply at Salisbury, it is said, is not up to that of Valcartier.

Col. Sam Hughes when seen to-day on the subject of the establishment of a canteen at Salisbury Plains was not disposed to say very much on the matter. "Permanent forces in Canada," he said, "have a canteen and they are well looked after."

Another officer now commanding an important section of the contingent who was seen on the subject pointed out that canteens in the lines would tend to have the sale of intoxicants under thorough control. "Salisbury plains," he said, "is dotted all over with small liquor houses and on Saturdays, for instance, you can get supplied at these practically at any hour, seeing that a three-mile walk makes them travellers under the licensing act, whereas if a canteen is established in camp the men are restricted to one pint of beer daily each, and there is no treating."

"I have had a clean defaulters sheet up to reaching England, and do not anticipate that the establishment of a canteen will make much difference in this matter. Soldiers do not get too much in the regular army on account of what they take inside the camp or barracks. The Canadians are a part

RAILWAYS CARRYING ON 1914 PROGRAMME

Transcontinental Roads Provide Employment Till End of the Year

Toronto, Oct. 22.—Although conditions of war time never favor railway activities, the three great Canadian systems are carrying forward practically their entire programme of building formulated many months prior to hostilities, and considerably over fifteen thousand men are employed in the construction camps from coast to coast. No new work, however, will be undertaken until the European conflict ceases, and the number of men now employed will be gradually decreased as section after section is tracked and ballasted. Statements received from chief officials of the three trans-continental companies contain the following details:

The Grand Trunk Pacific Railway company is still ballasting west of Prince George over about 125 miles, with a final lift, to be completed about November 15. The bridge work is about finished on the Prince Rupert end. The only construction work yet to be completed, and now under contract, is the erection of the divisional point facilities at Endako, Smithers and Pacific. With the completion of this work the main line will be in operating condition from Fort William to the Pacific coast.

Howard Kelly, vice-president of the G. T. R., is responsible for the additional statement that the company is waiting for the money market to improve in order to begin improvements and new construction. The construction of the C. P. R., according to the company's statement, has been restricted almost entirely to laying steel on grading already completed. The only major operation has been the driving of the tunnel at Glacier, in the Selkirk. A large amount of new steel has been laid on the company's system, but the work for the year is practically completed. No halt has been called on the construction of the Kootenay Central in the upper Columbia valley. The Kettle Valley line connecting with Vancouver is expected to be finished next year. It will provide an important outlet for southern sections of the province, and will do much for the many undeveloped mining areas.

ORGANIZED PLOTTING FOUND IN MONTREAL

Mayor Informed That Germans and Austrians Have Bombs and Wireless Outfits.

Montreal, Oct. 22.—Acting Mayor Vandela this morning handed a letter to the chief which states that there is an organized band of Germans and Austrians in the city who are possessed of several wireless outfits, bombs, explosives and fire arms. This band of men, it is said by the author of the letter, is ready at a moment's notice to do an appalling amount of damage in the city of Montreal. The writer of the letter signs his full name and address and gives facts to show that his connection with the German organization is a bona fide one.

KAMERUN NATIVE CHIEF EXECUTED BY GERMANS

London, Oct. 22.—A dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph company from The Hague, says that Magna Bell, the native chief of the German Kamerun, had been executed because he attempted to foment among the natives a rebellion against Germany. The announcement of this is credited by the correspondent to Herr Ebermayr, German governor of Kamerun.

Had Arranged to Be in Warsaw October 15 to 17 Are Now Repulsed.

Paris, Oct. 22.—"Russian troops are manifesting great courage and energy in the defence of Warsaw, many times successfully repulsing heavy attacks and at the same time establishing more firmly the union of Poles and Slavs," says a Havas Agency dispatch from Petrograd.

HIGH TREASON CASE BEGUN AT MONTREAL

Montreal, Que., Oct. 21.—The taking of evidence in the case of Israel Shafer, charged with high treason in an attempt to aid Austrian reservists to leave Canada for Austria, began before Judge Lee this morning. The Austrians alleged to have been aided by Shafer were identified, and the police captain who made the arrest told of his discovery of the reservists. Shafer is alleged to have told the Austrians to represent themselves as Roumanians.

GERMAN OFFICIAL AT YOKOHAMA

Tokyo, Oct. 22.—The German governor of Jaluit island, which has been occupied by the Japanese, has arrived at Yokohama on a Japanese warship. The American consul will arrange for his return to Germany.

CHAMPAGNE HELPED WIN BATTLE OF THE MARNE

Frenchman Says Germans Were Drunk on Wine Which Hits Back—When Profanely Used.

Crecy en Brion, France, Oct. 4.—(By Mail to New York From Wm. P. Sims.) "Did anybody ever tell you the real reason why the Germans got such a licking on the Marne, just as they thought they had Paris right in their paws?"

The chubby, ever-cheerful innkeeper, was laying the table for my luncheon under a big lilac bush on his lawn.

"Why, I suppose," I replied, "that they got licked for the same reason anybody gets licked—because they met better men."

"No," said the innkeeper, putting a knife and fork on either side of my plate. "They got licked while they were drunk."

"Drunk?" said I. "A whole army drunk?"

"It was my son who told me," explained the innkeeper, still smiling.

"He was in the battle. He charged with his bayonet right into the German trenches. I have a Prussian helmet he brought back."

"The Germans were all drunk, monsieur. I give you Henri's word for it."

"On booze?" I probed.

"On champagne," grinned the innkeeper.

"Champagne, monsieur," he continued, "is not for the Germans. They drink beer."

"The Germans," he added, "they don't know how to drink champagne. And champagne hits back when the profane use it. It hits back hard."

"The Germans, as they struck the champagne country pillaged every cellar. They entered Rheims and Châlons and Epervy and everywhere they drank champagne just as they drink beer. Millions of bottles they drank. Yet not one in a thousand had ever tasted champagne before. They revelled in it, staved in casks in cellars and literally rolled in it."

"And they all got drunk. After that they were sick. The battlefield showed it."

"Of course, my son told me we should as likely as not have licked them without champagne, but each bottle, he said, was worth a gun."

As I left the inn I wondered just how much truth there was in my host's story. Once, for a nail, a kingdom was lost, they tell us.

Can it be possible a champagne drunk will cost Germany this war?

Old Lady—"Oo's that?" Old Man—"Why, that be Turner's boy, back from the war. Got his arm 'urt, I think." Old Lady (noticing his puttees)—"Yes, and his legs, too, poor dear. I should say. See the bandages on 'em."—Weekly Telegraph.

LEADING SCIENTISTS

ARRIVE ON NIAGARA

Professors Dixon, Brown and Hudson, of British Association, Arrive in City

The second party of scientists from the Australian meeting of the British association for the advancement of science, who arrived on the R. M. S. Niagara yesterday from the Antipodes, included some men of considerable fame, among them Professor H. B. Dixon, the distinguished authority on explosives; Professor W. H. H. Hudson, a leading mathematician, and Professor E. W. Brown, an authority on the study of the moon. Other gentlemen in the party were W. N. Cheesman, J. P. F. L. S., J. T. Ewan, and H. L. Rayner. The ladies of the party included the Misses Cheesman and Rayner, Mrs. Dixon, Mrs. Ewan and Mrs. Rayner.

In a chat with Professor Dixon, the Times' representative was informed that the gathering in Australia had been a most interesting one, although social events had been fewer than usual on account of the outbreak of the war. The addresses at Melbourne and Sydney of the new president, Professor William Bateson, on the Mendelian theory of Heredity, particularly the Sydney address, were two of the greatest contributions to these celebrated observations on scientific progress. Under Professor Bateson was confident that the high reputation of the association would not waver.

Speaking of personal matters, Dr. Dixon, who is professor of chemistry in the University of Manchester, said that he was delighted to find some of his old pupils associated with the chemical industry in Victoria, among them Lieut.-Col. Hall. He also knew Vice-President F. Moore, of the Victoria Chemical works, who was formerly in Manchester. As a member of the home executive committee on explosives in mines, he had of late made a special study of high explosives and means of checking the terrors of the underground industries. He will visit Pittsburgh in connection with this matter, and will then proceed to Columbia university and Harvard university. He is watching the use of new kinds of explosives in the European war with the greatest interest, and hopes on his return to England to give special attention to this part of the work.

Professor Dixon has been in British Columbia before, but not in recent years. He was delighted with Victoria, though only a brief stay was possible. Dr. Dixon, after a distinguished college career at Balliol, Oxford, succeeded Sir H. E. Roscoe at Owens college, the nucleus of Manchester university, in 1888. He has served on several royal commissions and has written largely on explosive gases. He has also been president of several learned societies.

Professor Brown holds the chair of mathematics at Yale university. He was born in England, and has written numerous work on the lunar theory and celestial mathematics.

Professor W. H. H. Hudson, another member of the party, has been professor of mathematics in various colleges. Like his traveling companions, he has written considerably for scientific journals, his text books being well known to students of mathematics. He has been a member of the senate of London university.

SAW GERMAN PRISONERS

Mrs. Pemberton, Who Has Just Returned From Motherland, Saw Germans Held at Aldershot.

Somewhat sooner than she intended, owing to the war, Mrs. Pemberton, of "Gonzales," St. Charles street, has returned to her home here after more than a year's absence in the British Isles. In the course of a conversation this morning a Times' representative received the impression from the returned traveller that while the motherland realizes the appalling character of the conflict upon which she has entered, the people of Great Britain are nothing daunted in their determination to win.

At Aldershot she saw the high barbed-wire entanglements behind which the German prisoners were imprisoned. They all seemed quite happy and contented to be removed from the responsibility of fighting for their country, and little fear seemed to be entertained that they would even make an effort to escape into a freedom which would once again place them where they would be subject to mobilization and the discomfort and danger of war.

London was crowded with visitors from everywhere. Some did not wish to leave; others could not get away owing to the taking over of many of the larger steamships by the government for transportation purposes. For six weeks Mrs. Pemberton waited for passage after the Calgaritan, on which she had booked her passage, had been requisitioned by the admiralty, and the Hesperian, on which she finally sailed, was filled to capacity. Some London hotels, realizing the unwonted demand for accommodation an opportunity to elevate their rates, were experiencing an unusually profitable season, while practically all the leading hotels were filled with guests.

In Chicago, while Mrs. Pemberton was passing through, British officers sent out by the government to purchase horses for the army were seen, and long train loads of provisions and other things went to Montreal en route for the British Isles.

M. Rouzier Dorciereres of Paris, who has fought many duels, and directed over 200 others, enjoys telling the following story—Two gentlemen who had decided to settle a quarrel on the field of honor betook themselves with their seconds to a quiet country spot, where they would be free from reporters, photographers and spectators, and where the only witnesses would be some cows peacefully grazing in the field. While the necessary preliminaries were being carried out the farmer on whose land they were rushed up. "Excuse me, gentlemen," he said, "but is it a sword or pistol duel?" "Sword. But what difference can that make to you?" "Well, you see, if it was with pistols, I'd want to take the cows in first."
