

INDEX

TO THE SIXTH VOLUME.

A.

- Abbot's Oak, a legend of Money-Hutch Lane, 508.
- Adalantado of the Seven Cities, a legend of St. Brandan, 257.
- Adventures of the Cannon Family, 37.
- Adventures of a Maintop-crosstree-man, a Nautical Tale, 73.
- Ainsworth, W. Harrison, Jack Sheppard by, 1. 109. 221. 325. 429. 543.
- Alhambra, Recollections of the, 185.
- Allspy, Toby, the Dog Hospital of Paris by, 141; Chronicles of the Place Vendôme, 381.
- Alura, lines to, 475.
- Amelia, Princess, daughter of King George II.; account of her excluding the public from Richmond Park, 86.
- American Niggers, see Uncle Sam's Peculiarities.
- Ancient and Modern Mohocks, account of, 357.

B.

- Bancal, E. account of his suicide, 519.
- Bayly, Thomas Haynes, No Silver Spoon by, 46.
- Beauty, lines on the power of, 388.
- Bethlehem, or Bedlam, old, account of, 134.
- Bibundtucker, Professor Wolfgang Von, Prospectus of an intended Course of Lectures on the Philosophy of Humbug by, 599.
- Blind Girl to her Mother, a poem, 78.

C.

- Cannon Family, further account of the Adventures of, 37.
- Captain Jack, story of, 322.
- Cenotaph, Cœlebs in search of a, 353.
- Character and Conduct of Louis XVI. 305.
- Chelsea Veterans, Dumalton's Story, 51. 450.
- Chronicles of the Place Vendôme: The Degrading, 381.
- Church, lines on a Spot where it is intended to build one, 598.
- City of the Doge, or Letters from Venice, 615.
- Clark, Jeremiah, account of his committing suicide, 524.

VOL. VI.

- Cœlebs in search of a Cenotaph, 353.
- Colin Clink, further particulars respecting his residence at Miss Sowersoft's, 96. 206. 414; conversation between his mother and Miss Sowersoft, 424; improves in health at his mother's residence, and returns to Miss Sowersoft, 528; his advice to Fanny, 534; his interview with Squire Lupton, 626; his plan for rescuing Fanny's father from Dr. Rowel's madhouse, 635. 637.
- Conqueror's Grandsire, a poem, 271.
- Crayon Papers, the, Account of Wolfert's Roost, 24. 159; Sleepy Hollow, 164.
- Crime and its Punishment, see Moral Economy of Large Towns.

D.

- Dalton, the Abbot's Oak by, 508.
- Degrading, the, story of, 381.
- Dog Hospital of Paris, account of, 141.
- Doge, city of the, 615.
- Donne, M. his defence of suicide, 518.
- Dullbrainz, Baron von, account of; 316.
- Dumalton, Samuel, story of, 450; see Chelsea Veterans.
- Dustmen's Bells, song on the, 428.
- Dwarf of Jungfernstieg, story of, 561.

E.

- Eden, Vincent, see Vincent.
- Edward VI. King of England, his residence at Hampton Court, 300.
- Edwy, King, persecutions of, owing to his marriage with Elgiva, 158.
- Eel-Pie Island, account of, 86.
- Elder, A. Tales and Legends of the Isle of Wight by, 66. 253; a Legend of Puckaster, 368.
- Elgiva, the Queen of King Edwy, her persecutions by the Clergy, owing to her marriage with him, 158.
- Enchanted Island, or the Adalantado of the Seven Cities, a legend of St. Brandan, 275.

F.

- Farewell Sonnet, 597.
- First Farewell, a poem, 352.
- "Friends of Suicide," Society of, in Paris, 526.

G.

- Gay, the poet, remarks respecting him, 85.
 Geraldine, daughter of the Earl of Kildare, remarks respecting the Earl of Surrey's supposed attachment to her, 299.
 Gleig, Rev. G. R. Chelsea Veterans by, 51. 450.
 Godshill, legend of the church of, 255.
 Golden Legend, No. III. a lay of St. Dunstan, 88.
 Gore, Mrs. National Songs by, 295.
 Grave, the, a poem, from the German of Rosegarten, 366.

H.

- Hampton Court, account of the erection of the palace at, 297; royal occupants of, 300.
 Harem Unveiled, the, 389.
 Harryson, Katherine, accused of witchcraft, 32 n.
 Hatchment, the, a poem, 286.
 Herbert, Edward, sonnet on the Anniversary of the Battle of Trafalgar by, 542.
 Hogarth, George, character and conduct of Louis XVI. by, 305.
 Hooton, Charles, Colin Clink by, 96. 206. 414. 528. 623.
 How to Feed a Lion, a poem, 23.
 Hudson River Steam-boat Dialogues, see Uncle Sam's Peculiarities.
 Humbug, Prospectus of an intended Course of Lectures on the Philosophy of, 599.
 Hume, the Historian, his defence of suicide, 518.

I.

- Indigence and Benevolence, see Moral Economy of Large Towns.
 Ingoldsby, Thomas, a Lay of St. Dunstan by, 88; Cœlebs in search of a Cenotaph, 353; some account of a New Play, 639.
 Inman, G. E. Old Morgan at Panama by, 45; the Conqueror's Grandsire, 271.
 Inquest, the, by Lieut. Johns, 603.
 Insanity, Hereditary, remarks on, 527 n.
 Irving, Washington, the Crayon Papers by, 24, 159.
 Isle of Wight, Tales and Legends of the: Tale of St. Nicholas, 66; Wulfhere, the kind-hearted, 69; the Queen's Bower at Borthwood, 253; account of Godshill, 255; a Legend of Puckaster, 368.

J.

- Jack, Captain, story of, 322.
 Jack Sheppard, continuation of his adventures, 1; his burglary at Dollis Hill, 15; quarrels with Jonathan Wild, 19; escapes from Clerkenwell Prison, 21; visits Jonathan Wild in the dress of Quilt Arnold, 110; discovers his relationship to Sir Rowland Trenchard, 117; warns Thames Darrell of his danger, 128; visits his mother in Bedlam, 134; captured by Jonathan Wild, and conveyed to Newgate, 139; account of his escape from the Condemned Hold, 226; visits his mother at Dollis Hill, 241; overtaken by Jonathan Wild, 242; account of his tricking Shotbolt the gaoler, 325; his capture by Jonathan Wild, 429; imprisoned in Newgate, 436; his portrait taken by Sir James Thornhill, 442; sketched by Hogarth, 447; again escapes from Newgate, 543; rescues Thames Darrell from Jonathan Wild's power, 557; his last interview with his mother, 559.

- Jenkinson, Olinthus, Adventures of a Maintop-crosthree-man by, 73; the Harem Unveiled, 389.
 Jerdan, William, Baron von Dullbrainz by, 316.
 Johns, Richard, the Inquest by, 603.
 Joyce Jocund, How to feed a Lion by, 23.
 Julia, lines to, 462.

K.

- Katerina, the Dwarf of Jungfernteig, story of, 561.
 Kean, the actor, anecdote respecting him, 87.
 Kemble, John, anecdote of him and his Cat, 350.
 Kingston, list of English Kings crowned there, 157.

L.

- Lady Singing, lines to a, 50.
 Legends—the Golden Legend, No. III. a Lay of St. Dunstan, 88; Legends of Lochs and Glens, No. II. 195; Legend of St. Brandan—the Enchanted Island, or the Adalantado of the Seven Cities, 275; a Legend of Puckaster, 368; the Abbot's Oak, or Legend of Money-Hutch Lane, 508.
 Legends of the Isle of Wight, 66. 69; the Queen's Bower at Borthwood, 253; Godshill, 265.
 Lewis, Mr. John, his action against the Princess Amelia, for excluding the public from Richmond Park, 86.
 Lines—to a Lady Singing, 50; to a Young Girl, 108; on the Power of Beauty, 388; to Julia, 460; to Alura, 475; on a Spot where it is intended to build a Church, 598.
 Lochs and Glens, legends of, see Legends.
 London by Moonlight, a poem, 303.
 ———— Suicide Company, prospectus for, 540.

- Longfellow, H. W. The Reaper and the Flowers, by, 482.
- Louis XVI, King of France, character and conduct of, 305; his Diary, 306.
- Lovat, Matthew, account of his suicide, 523.
- M.
- Mackay, Charles, Rambles among the Rivers by, 79. 151, 296; Ancient and Modern Mohocks, 357.
- M'Jilton, J. N. the Old Elm by, 140.
- M'Teague, P. The Spalpeen by, 288. 396; those Sweet, those Happy Days, 574; the Moonbeam, 614.
- Maintop-crosstree-man, adventures of, 73.
- Mallet, the friend of Thomson, his song in praise of the Thames, 84.
- Malta, account of the Plague there in 1813, 59; its capricious ravages, 62; vigorous means employed by the authorities, 63, 64.
- Marie Antoinette, Queen of France, remarks on Louis's treatment of, 315.
- Mathews, Kemble, and Mustapha the Cat, 350.
- Millengen, Dr. Remarkable Suicides by, 516.
- Mohocks, account of Ancient and Modern, 357.
- Money-Hutch Lane, Legend of, see Legends.
- Moonbeam, the, a poem, 614.
- Moral Economy of Large Towns: Crime and its Punishment, 476; Indigence and Benevolence, 575.
- M. T. H. lines to a Young Girl by, 108.
- Murray, Hon. J. E. The Pyrenean Hunter by, 496.
- Mustapha, Mr. John Kemble's Cat, account of, 351.
- N.
- National Songs, No. I, 295.
- Newgate, account of, 221.
- No Silver Spoon, story of, by Haynes Bayly, 46.
- O.
- Old Elm, the, a poem, 140.
- Old Morgan at Panama, a poem, 43.
- Oxonian, The, see Vincent Eden.
- P.
- Paris, society of "The Friends of Suicide" in, 526; Dog-Hospital of, 141.
- Patron King, story of, 483.
- Peake, R. B. The Toledo Rapier by, 463. 584.
- Phantom Funeral, No. II. of Legends of the Lochs and Glens, 195.
- Plague in Malta, account of, see Malta.
- Plato the philosopher, his opinion of suicide, 517.
- Play, some account of a New, by Thomas Ingoldsby, 639.
- Plunkett, A. H. The Saphire Gatherer's Story by, 33.
- Poems.—How to feed a Lion, 23; Old Morgan at Panama, 43; Retiring from Business, 65; Blind Girl to her Mother, 78; the Old Elm, 140; the Conqueror's Grandsire, 271; the Hatchment, 286; London by Moonlight, 303; the First Farewell, 352; the Grave, 366; the Withered Rose, 380; Reaper and the Flowers, 482; those Sweet, those Happy Days, 574; the Moonbeam, 614.
- Pope, remarks on his monument in Twickenham Church, 152; account of his grotto, 153; of his losing his intellect previous to his dissolution, 155.
- Power of Beauty, lines on the, 388.
- Priolland Zelie, account of her suicide, 519.
- Prospectus of an intended Course of Lectures on the Philosophy of Humbug, 599.
- Puckaster, a legend of, 368.
- Pyrenean Hunter, or Wild Sports in the South of France: Wolf-Hunting in the Landes, 496.
- Pythagoras, his opinion of suicide, 517.
- Q.
- Quip, Vincent Eden by, 172. 341. 646.
- R.
- Rambles among the Rivers*, No. IV.: The Thames and his Tributaries, 79; No. V. 151. 296.
- Rapier, the Toledo, 463. 584.
- Reaper and the Flowers, a poem, 482.
- Recollections of the Alhambra, 185.
- Remarkable Suicides, 516.
- Retiring from Business, a poem, 65.
- Richmond Church, account of the monuments in, 80.
- Palace, account of, 83.
- Robert of Normandy, his work in favour of suicide, 518.
- S.
- St. Brandan, Legend of, see Enchanted Island.
- St. Dunstan, a lay of, 88.
- St. Nicholas, story respecting, 66.
- Saphire Gatherer's Story, 33.
- Schlegel, Dr. his account of the society of "The Friends of Suicide" in Paris, 526.
- Seneca, his opinion of suicide, 517.
- Sheppard, Jack, see Jack Sheppard.
- "Sketch-Book," Papers by the author of the—Recollections of the Alhambra, 185; the Enchanted Island, 274.

- Sleepy Hollow, one of the Crayon Papers, see Crayon.
- Socrates, his opinion of suicide, 517.
- Songs — National Songs, No. 1. 295 ; Those Dustmen's Bells, 428 ; Song of Mallet in praise of the Thames, 84.
- Sonnets—on the anniversary of the Battle of Trafalgar, 542 ; Farewell Sonnet, 597.
- Spalpeen, the, story of, 288 ; Chapter ii, 396.
- Subaltern, The, papers by the author of —The Veterans of Chelsea Hospital, 51. 450 ; Legends of Lochs and Glens, 195.
- Suicide, remarks on, 516 ; opinions of ancient philosophers respecting, 577 ; instances of modern cases of suicide, 318 ; a table of suicidal cases, 527 ; suicide from hereditary insanity, 527 n.
- Surrey, Earl of, remarks on his supposed attachment to the Fair Geraldine, daughter of the Earl of Kildare, 299.
- Strawberry Hill, the residence of Horace Walpole, account of its previous possessors, 155.
- T.
- Taylor, Dr. W. Moral Economy of Large Towns by, 476. 575.
- Teddington, remarks on the origin of the name of, 156 ; celebrated residents at, ib.
- Teutha, the Hatchment by, 286.
- Thames and its Tributaries, see Rambles.
- Thomson, James, the poet, remarks on the tablet to his memory in Richmond Church, 80 ; veneration for his residence, 82.
- Those Dustmen's Bells, song of, 428.
- Those Sweet, those Happy Days, a poem, 574.
- Toledo Rapier, a tale, 463. 584.
- Toulmin, Camilla, London by Moonlight by, 303.
- Trafalgar, sonnet on the anniversary of the battle of, 542.
- Trollope, Mrs. the Patron King by, 483.
- U.
- Uncle Sam's Peculiarities, American Niggers — Hudson River Steam-boat Dialogues, 262.
- V.
- Vendôme, Chronicles of the Place, 381.
- Veterans of Chelsea Hospital, 51.
- Vincent Eden, the Oxonian, account of his meeting with Mr. Walrus, 172 ; accepts the invitation to dine with the Brothers' Club, 176 ; obtains a Trinity Scholarship, 341 ; the Brothers' Club at Henley, 646.
- W.
- Wade, J. A. Lines to a Lady Singing by, 50 ; Retiring from Business, 65 ; the First Farewell, 352 ; the Withered Rose, 380 ; the Dead Bird, 395 ; lines to Julia, 462 ; to Alura, 475.
- Whitehead, Paul, remarks on his heart being deposited in the mausoleum of Lord Despencer, 156.
- Wild Sports in the South of France, see Pyrenean Hunter.
- Withered Rose, a poem, 380.
- Wolfert's Roost, see Crayon Papers.
- Wolf-hunting in the Landes, see Pyrenean Hunter.
- Wolsey, Cardinal, his palace at Hampton Court, 296 ; presents it to Henry VIII, 297 ; his reverse of fortune, 298.
- Wulhere the Kindhearted, legend of, 69.
- Y.
- Young Girl, lines to a, 108.

END OF THE SIXTH VOLUME.

