Dear Mrs. Stone;—

I got your P. O.

Monday morning with quite a large business mail and only five minutes to go through it. I run the eye hastily over yours and put it in my pocket with the impression that the meeting with Mr. Garrison was on Tuesday, and did not discover my mistake until after the hour. I am very sorry for I fully intended to be here.

Very truly yours,

F. U. Bird
