DEPARTMENTS AND CLASSIFICATION.

The plan of the Institution embraces two Departments, COLLEGE and ACADEMIC; each having its prescribed studies, and the whole forming a complete course. The full course, embracing three years in the Academic Department, and four years in the College, is designed to include all the studies essential to a thorough education.

COLLEGE.

Terms of Admission.

Candidates for admission to the Freshman Class must sustain an examination in Cæsar, Virgil, the Greek Reader, Latin Grammar, Greek Grammar, English Grammar, Ancient and Modern Geography, Arithmetic and Elementary Algebra.

A candidate for an advanced standing, in addition to the above studies, is examined in the various branches to which the class he proposes to enter, has attended.

Satisfactory testimonials of good moral character are required, and those coming from other institutions must bring certificates of regular and honorable dismissal.

An accurate and thorough acquaintance with the studies required for admission is indispensable, in order to receive the full advantage of the College course.

It is found from experience, that students, imperfectly prepared for the class they enter, are embarrassed in their future progress, and are seldom able to repair the want of solid preparatory study.

Course of Instruction.

The whole course of instruction occupies four years. The classes attend three or more recitations or lectures a day, except on Wednesday and Saturday, when they usually have but two.

The studies of the several classes are as follows:

FRESHMAN CLASS.

Greek.—Xenophon's Anabasis or Memorabilia, Cyropædia, Prose Composition (Arnold's), Grammar (Bullions and Kendrick's).

Latin.—Cicero's Orations, Livy, Prose Composition (Arnold's), Grammar (Bullions and Morris'), Classical Antiquities.

German.—Ahn's Easy Method, Schriftliche Uebungen, Deklamation, Unterredungen, Andersen.

English.—Rhetoric (Haven's), Sacred History (Kurtz's), English Grammar (Fowler's), Composition and Deklamation throughout the year, Rhetorical Praxis.

Mathematics.—Algebra (Robinson's University), Geometry (Robinson's).

Academic Department.

THIS Department has been re-organized by recent action of the Board of Trustees, so as to furnish a three years' course of study, affording, for those who desire it, thorough preparation for College, and for those who do not design to enter the College Department, a high degree of intellectual culture, as well as practical business course. The Department is under the immediate supervision of the Principal. It is regularly graded, and students on entering the Institution will be admitted to that grade for which they are qualified by previous study.

House Arrangements.

The students in this Department, who room in the building, will hereafter occupy a particular part of the College Edifice with the Senior Tutor, under whose special supervision they will be placed during hours for study and recreation.

Special Studies.

Arrangements will be made for those who desire to pursue special studies in the College Department.

Certificate of Scholarship.

A Certificate of Scholarship will be given to the students of this department, who complete the three years' course, and pass a satisfactory examination at its close.

The following includes the list of studies for each grade :

I.

Fourth Reader, Spelling, Defining, Dictation, Mental and Written Arithmetic, Modern Geography, English Grammar, Exercises in Declamation, Oral and Written Composition, Penmanship, Drawing, Latin Grammar, Latin Reader.

" " " 2d and 3d grades,.....	36.00

The year is divided into three sessions of 16, 14 and 10 weeks, the charges for which will be in accordance with the above rates.

There will be an extra charge for Drawing, Music, Book keeping, Fuel and Washing.

The expenses of each Session are to be paid in advance ; exceptions to be determined by the Treasurer.

All students will furnish their own rooms.

Students commencing to board in the Institution, will not leave, without giving notice to the President or the person in charge of the Domestic department.

Injury to property will be repaired at the expense of the pupil committing it.

No deduction will be made for the absence or premature withdrawal of a pupil from the Institution, unless occasioned by severe and protracted sickness, when an estimated cost of board will be refunded.

The indiscriminate use of spending money being often a fruitful source of evil, it is recommended that all funds for this purpose be placed in the hands of the President, or one of the Professors for distribution.

Parents and Guardians will frequently save themselves much expense and trouble by communicating directly with the officers of the Institution in regard to their sons or wards. Their cordial co-operation in sustaining the rules of the Institution and securing the cheerful and respectful obedience of their sons or wards will greatly contribute to their improvement and permanent benefit.

A prompt attendance at the commencement of the session, is of the utmost importance to the Student. A want of punctuality seriously affects his standing in the Institution.

Location.

 ALLENTOWN is beautifully located upon high ground a short distance above the confluence of the Jordan creek and the Lehigh river, about 50 miles north of Philadelphia. The adjacent country is picturesque, fertile and highly improved, and contains extensive beds of iron ore and slate. It is enclosed in the distance by a lofty range of hills and mountains, which either rise abrupt from their bases, or dissolve from the view in rolling ridges, adorned to their very summits with green fields and clusters of trees, and dotted with the substantial dwellings of thrifty farmers. Few locations combine in a more eminent degree, the advantages of accessibility, healthfulness, sublime and beautiful surroundings, and quietness, for the purpose of study.

The city has frequent and direct communication with New York and Philadelphia, and by the several through-lines from these cities to Pittsburg, Chicago and the West generally, as well as by the local Railroads intersecting here, ready access to all parts of our country.

THE BUILDINGS.

The Buildings of the Institution are situated in the south-eastern part of the city, surrounded by about five acres of ground, devoted to its exclusive use. In front there is a fine lawn adorned with shade-trees, and in the rear a large campus supplied with a gymnasium. The building presents a front of 120 feet, with a centre building of 50 feet, and two wings each 35 feet. The centre building has four stories in front and five in the rear, and extends to the depth of one hundred and forty feet. The accommodations are of the most approved character, each room being intended for two students, with alcoves for sleeping, well ventilated, abundantly furnished with light, and commanding beautiful prospects on every side, whilst the arrangements for cleanliness are ample.

The building is fully provided with a Chapel, Library, Recitation, and Reading-rooms, &c.

GOVERNMENT.

The government is firmly but kindly administered, and it is intended to be parental in its character. No unnecessary or arbitrary regulations will be introduced, but good order, obedience, and a general propriety of deportment will be strenuously insisted upon, and no one persistently disobedient, or pernicious in his influence, will be retained upon any condition.

An entrance into the institution is considered an agreement in good faith, to abide by its rules and regulations, and expulsion necessitated by disobedience or immorality, a forfeiture of its advantages. It will, however be the object of the officers and instructors, by their frequent presence and friendly relations with the pupils, to avoid, if possible, the severer forms of discipline and dismissal.

MORAL TRAINING.

The moral and religious training of youth is regarded as a most important part of their education, and nothing can atone for its neglect. Education imparts power to its recipient, but it is only when this is regulated by moral principle that it becomes a blessing to its possessor and the community. Hence the importance of an early training of the heart and conscience, as well as the intellect. For this purpose the Scriptures are daily read, at morning and evening prayers in the institution, and especial pains are taken to awaken an interest in their sacred pages, to mould character by their hallowed influence, and to imbue every heart with noble, generous and christian principles. On the Lord's Day a regular attendance upon public worship and Bible class is required. The denominational preference of parents will be consulted as far as convenient. The sanctity of the Lord's day, attendance upon religious duties, correctness of deportment and politeness of demeanor, will be strictly insisted upon.

SCHOLARSHIPS.

The following gentlemen, having each contributed $1,000 towards the endowment of the College, have by the action of the Board of Trustees, received the privilege of educating perpetually one student, free of expense for tuition, throughout his collegiate course: C. H. Nimson, Esq., Wm. Saeger, Esq., Hon. C. M. Runk, Hon. S. A. Bridges, James K. Mosser, Esq., J. W. Wilson, Esq., Thos. Keck, Esq., Chas. W. Cooper, Esq., Horatio Trexler, Esq., A. W. Potteiger, Esq., A. G. Saeger, Esq., Peter P. Keller, Esq., Charles Burkhalter, Esq.

St. John's English Lutheran Congregation of Allentown, has secured the same privilege, by the payment of a like sum, and the same course is recommended to other Lutheran Congregations, for the purpose of aiding young men in their preparation for the Gospel ministry.

Young men of meritorious character and limited means, can readily secure the use of some of these scholarships by application to the gentlemen owning, or having the control of them.

PRIZES.

The following prizes have been offered and will be competed for at the approaching Commencement:

A prize of Twenty-five Dollars, by A. STANLEY UL-
RICH, Esq., of Lebanon, Pa., to be given to the best student in Butler's Analogy in the Senior Class.

Committee of Award:—Rev. W. ASHMEAD SCHAEFFER, Rev. Mr. EARLE, and Hon. A. BROWER LONGAKER.

A prize of Twenty-five Dollars in Gold, by S. GROSS FRY, Esq., of Philadelphia, Pa., and Rev. JACOB FRY, of Reading, Pa., to be given for the best English Oration, as to manner and matter, in the Junior Class.

Committee of Award:—Hon. W. J. WOODWARD, Hon. C. M. RUNE, Rev. S. G. WAGNER.

A prize of Twenty-five Dollars, by J. S. GRUBB, Esq., of Philadelphia, to be given for the best Essay, as to matter and manner, on a subject in Physiology, in the Junior Class.

It is expected that these and similar prizes will be continued from year to year, and the friends of the Institution are earnestly solicited to increase the number, and donate permanent funds for this purpose, and for the better endowment of the College.

LITERARY SOCIETIES.

There are two Literary Societies connected with the Institution, the Euterpean and Sophronian, each of which possesses a Library of upwards one thousand instructive and entertaining books, and affords opportunity for improvement in Composition, Declamation and Debate. The College Library also numbers about twelve hundred.

RECREATION AND PHYSICAL CULTURE.

It is the constant aim, so to combine study and recreation, mental labor and physical exercise, as not only to preserve, but improve the health of the student, and harmoniously develop all the powers of both mind and body. For this purpose a large play-ground has been set apart for out-door exercise, for recreation and amusement.

COLLEGIATE YEAR.

The Collegiate year consisting of three sessions, making an aggregate of forty weeks of instruction, commences on the 1st of September, Sundays excepted, and closes with Commencement Exercises on the last Thursday of June.

New Students are admitted at the beginning, or at any time during the session, entering as a condition of admittance, always not less than half a session. Hereafter no irregular Students will be admitted into the College Classes, though arrangements can be made for their instruction by the Professor.

Absence from the Institution during session is permitted only upon the written request of parent or guardian, with the consent of the President. Pupils are admitted as they are found qualified, into their proper departments of study.
