

Presenting the new Wikimedia Foundation Grants

(...and which grant will be best for you!)

Rapid Grants

Quick support for low-risk opportunities

Up to $2000 for low-risk experiments and standard needs (meetups, etc) that do not need significant review to get started. Applications accepted at any time.

Project Grants

Experiment and sustain successes

Up to $100,000 for 12 months. There will be different guidelines and support systems for experiments and established projects, but one application process. Applications accepted quarterly.

Conference & Travel Support

Scholarships and support for travelers

Provide scholarships for individuals to participate in non-movement events. Applications accepted at any time.

Funds and logistics for organizers

To support communities planning local, regional and thematic conferences and other events. Applications accepted at any time.

Annual Plan Grants

Simple process for program and operating expenses

To support organizations with experience in developing and sustaining effective programs. Up to $100,000 for 12 months through a simple process. Applications accepted at any time.

Full FDC process for general support funding

To support organizations with experience in developing and sustaining effective programs. For requests over $100,000 or unrestricted grants. Applications accepted twice a year.
