

DIED BY OWN HAND

C. E. CADY SETS FIRE TO HOUSE AND COMMITS SUICIDE IN THE FLAMES

Afflicted by loss of property, friendless and alone, C. E. Cady, of 1008 San Rafael street, North Glendale, cut his throat with a razor, set fire to the house in which he lived and lay down to die in the midst of the flames. Cady was 65 years of age as far as could be ascertained. He had lived some time in San Diego and while there had been unfortunate enough to lose the small property he had accumulated. Coming to Glendale he tried to make a living by doing gardening work and usually got enough to satisfy his meager wants.

Cady lived in a rear cottage on San Rafael street belonging to Mr. C. Haig, who with his family occupies the large house in front. The Haig family had taken pity on the old man and had shown him many kindnesses. They noticed that of late he had been greatly disturbed in mind and during the past week he had taken to writing scripture texts on the walls and other places. The proper authorities were notified and arrangements were being made to have the old man taken care of.

Meantime Cady had become acutely insane. His perturbation was very noticeable. He would walk up and down in the lot feverishly, muttering to himself all the while. He retired to his little house on Saturday night and early Sunday morning Paul Haig, who has a newspaper route, was about to start on his rounds about 5 a. m. when he noticed smoke curling beneath the doors of the little rear house where Cady lived. He immediately gave the alarm and the Glendale fire department was notified.

Mrs. Haig said that the fire department must have made a record run for the alarm had scarcely been sent them when the engine dashed up to the house and the work of getting the flames subdued began. Cady had stuffed one of the small rooms of the house with papers torn and soaked in kerosene and had also scattered other papers all through the house. He then cut his throat.

The fire department discovered that the unfortunate man had so effectively excluded all air from the house by stuffing up every aperture with paper and rags that after the fire had been started it did not blaze up much but smoldered. Quite a good deal of the walls and furniture was burned and scorched and had not the work of the firemen been prompt and efficient the whole house would have been destroyed.

Cady's body was found where it had fallen close to the flames. He was dead. The body was taken to the Pulliam Undertaking parlors where the inquest will be held today.

Cady left a note with $1.35 to pay for some groceries and milk he owed. The Glendale fire department extinguished the blaze with water and chemical, using three gallons of chemical. The firemen present were A. H. Lankford, fire chief; Walter Eves, George Potter, Joe Olivas and Jesse Flower.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

Quite a unique and charming birthday party was tendered to Miss Teresa Kugel of Joplin, Mo., niece of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Merrill, 116 Elrose avenue, Saturday evening. Miss Kugel has been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Merrill since the beginning of January. Her birthday fell on Saturday and her relatives thought fit to honor the occasion with a party. The rooms were tastefully decorated with the golden acacia and with orange blossoms. A sumptuous repast was partaken of. Music charmed the air; songs were sung by the famous blackface comedian of New York, Miss D. Trickey, Five Hundred was played and prizes awarded to Mrs. Charles Foss and Mr. Phillips of Los Angeles, and consolation prizes to Miss Virginia Archer of Redondo and Mr. O. R. Barnett of Glendale.

Out-to-town guests present at the celebration were: Mrs. J. E. Goodwin of Los Angeles, Mr. and Mrs. E. Phillips of Los Angeles, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond of Los Angeles, Mr. George Sherman of Los Angeles, Mr. Burkhardt of Los Angeles, Miss Virginia Archer of Redondo, Mr. and Mrs. Warman of Redondo, Miss Ethel Teel of Orange, Miss D. Trickey of New York.

Glendale guests were: Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Foss, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Barnett, Mr. and Mrs. Brummell, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Foss, Miss Edith Foss, Mr. Miller Fishel.

INCREASE IN PERMITS

FEBRUARY SHOWS BUILDINGS VALUES MORE THAN DOUBLE SAME PERIOD OF 1915

There was much activity in the building line in Glendale during the month of February. One large store building valued at $7000, one dwelling costing $2200, two of $2000, two of $1500 and various other smaller buildings make up the value of new buildings to $19,115. In February, 1915, the amount was only $9110. This very substantial increase confirms the idea that there is a kind of revival in business that will develop into something better as the days go on.

Following were the permits granted:

Spencer Robinson, owner and contractor, office building, costing $500, at 406 S. Glendale avenue.

Charles Brant, owner and contractor, store, costing $100, at 218 E. Broadway.

George F. Dair, owner and contractor, garage, cost $60, 332 W. Colorado boulevard.

A. B. Gillis, owner and contractor, garage, cost $50, 443 E. Third street.

PRINTING MATERIAL HIGHER

Printing material, including paper stock, inks, machinery and linotype metal are increasing in price so rapidly that the manufacturers and jobbers cannot assure the printer today what the prices will be tomorrow. In a letter under date of March 4 the Sierra Paper company of Los Angeles says: "Owing to the unprecedented chaotic condition of the Paper Manufacturing market we are obliged to withdraw all prices and outstanding quotations and until a new temporary price list can be issued your interest will be best served by communicating with us before giving estimates or placing any orders."

This uncertainty in prices of printing material is working a hardship on printers who find it difficult to get a higher price for work they turn out. Many of the "do cheap work" shops in large cities are forced to close their doors.

BRINGS SELLER AND BUYER TOGETHER

Advertising is a means of bringing seller and buyer together. Mr. B. has something he wishes to sell. Mr. C. wishes to purchase an article such as Mr. B. wishes to sell. A classified advertisement in the Evening News will let Mr. C. know that Mr. B. has the article for sale. Thus seller and buyer are brought together.

DOMESTIC SCIENCE LECTURE

The regular monthly lecture under the direction of the domestic science department of the Federation of P. T. A. will be given at the Intermediate school Wednesday, March 8, at 3:15. Miss Woodruff will lecture upon the food value of rice and how to cook it. A large per cent of the rice consumed in the U. S. is raised in California. We should learn how to use our home products. Everybody welcome.

LONDON, March 6.—Leading newspapers here today express doubts concerning the story that the Moewe had broken through the British blockade and reached Wilhelmshaven in safety. A CANDID CANDIDATE

GLENDALE MAN WOULD LIKE OFFICE—FRANKLY GIVES HIS REASONS

I'm sore on the way they are running the town.
The cost is becoming a fright;
The taxes are piling up fearfully high,
The limit is nowhere in sight.
They ought to elect a good fellow like me
The municipal funds to disburse,
When I took the reins you would certainly see
That I'd do the same—only worse.
They have good men appointed the work to perform
At a salary lusciously fat,
And we who are trying to kick up a storm
Are making a roar about that.
I think that I ought to be placed in command
That is why I am writing this verse,
For it wouldn't be long 'till you'd all understand
For I'll do just the same—only worse.
I told those good people some seasons ago
That I wanted a big piece of pie,
And that if in the forthcoming it proved to be slow
To start something hot I would try.
I am certainly quite a desirable man,
I should have been chosen at first;
Put me on the job just as soon as you can,
For I'll do just the same—only worse.

MOVE TO NEW QUARTERS

Messrs. Calvin Whiting and J. F. Lilly have removed their offices to 410 South Brand boulevard, next to "Chaffee's" store, where they are fixing up comfortable and commodious quarters. They count this location particularly good because of the fact that the Pacific Electric cars stop in front of their office.

Although the actual partnership between Mr. Lilly and Mr. Whiting was severed some months ago, they have divided their business so that the best of attention is given to the requirements of their patrons.

Following his natural bent, Mr. Lilly is giving practically all of his time to the mortgage and loan branch of the business. Mr. Lilly is an expert in the preparation of all forms of conveyances, and enjoys an excellent clientele among those who appreciate accurate work. His services are available both to the borrower and to the lender. Mr. Lilly will also give a portion of his time to insurance.

Mr. Whiting will continue to handle the real estate and rental departments as well as insurance. This agency represents some of the most famous insurance companies of the world, notably the Aetna of Hartford, the Liverpool & London & Globe, and the Royal, these companies all being on the "Roll of Honor" for having paid their losses in the San Francisco fire without discounting any policy holder a single dollar.

ARRIVES FROM NEW YORK

Mr. William Chapin, of Johnstown, N. Y., arrived in Glendale a short time ago to make his home with his daughter, Mrs. M. Stanton, 1015 Lomita avenue. Mr. Chapin has long been a resident of New York state, but is more than delighted with California. After reading reports in the Johnstown, N. Y. newspapers that, about a week after he left that city, the thermometer went to 30 degrees below zero, and in another report that a snow plow had to be shovelled out of snow drifts, Mr. Chapin smiled a deep smile of satisfaction and said he was glad he was "out of it."

MOVES BACK TO GLENDALE

W. E. Pelley has just moved to Glendale from Davis, Cal., and has purchased the Den O' Sweets confectionery from W. N. Shields at 1009 W. Broadway. Mr. Pelley has leased one of the rooms in the new Peters' building being erected next the Palace-Grand Theatre and about May 1st will open a fine establishment under the name of Pelley's Confectionery, and will conduct a candy factory as well as a retail department. A number of years ago Mr. and Mrs. Pelley resided on Moore avenue, Tropic, so it is like "coming back home" to be located in Glendale.

If you have not already registered you must do so before March 10 if you wish to vote at the city election April 10.

TO LEAVE FOR EAST

REV. JOHN TROY BIDS FAREWELL TO OLD CONGREGATION IN LOS ANGELES

The Rev. John Troy, who was called from New York to California by the Atherton Baptist church of Los Angeles, visited that congregation on Sunday and sat as a hearer in the body of the church for the first time in 17 years. Mr. Troy, Mrs. Troy and their son Frederick William partook of communion. This was Frederick's first communion, as it was also the first time that his father had had an opportunity to partake of communion unless when dispensing the sacrament himself.

The people of the Atherton congregation were anxious that Mr. Troy should preach in their church. They were much attached to him and regretted greatly his decision to accept a call from the Glendale Baptist church. Mr. Troy, however, judged that the higher elevation of Glendale would be beneficial to Mrs. Troy's health and to that of the whole family. He accordingly came to Glendale two years ago and has discharged the duties of pastor of the First Baptist congregation with much acceptance.

Mr. Troy leaves Glendale with the regrets of those who have learned his many excellent qualities; but he feels that there is other work different from that of congregational duties that he is better fitted to do. He has been offered in the East the larger opportunities and wider sphere that comes to the specialist in religious work. Mr. Troy will take up work similar to that done on the religious lecture platform by Leon Tucker, whose expositions of scripture have gained for him a great reputation on the Pacific coast. Mr. Troy's friends feel that he will succeed in this new sphere and he goes to take it up with their regrets for his departure but with their warm wishes for his prosperity.

At the close of the morning service in the Atherton Baptist church of Los Angeles Mr. and Mrs. Troy were tendered a reception in the course of which they took leave of their many warm friends there. They spent the rest of the day visiting some of the aged members of the congregation who were unable to be present at church.

Mr. and Mrs. Troy take this opportunity of thanking their many Glendale friends for countless kindnesses and courtesies and of expressing their regret that they cannot visit them all before leaving for the east.

IN HONOR OF MRS. LOGAN

A delightfully informal affair was the party given by Mrs. A. L. Weaver at her home, 235 South Kenwood street, on Friday afternoon. Mrs. Benjamin Logan, a charming young matron of Kentucky, who has been the recipient of many social compliments during her visit in Glendale, was the guest of honor. Bright bouquets of daffodils with asparagus ferns and lilies decorated the home, and made an air of springtime. Saint Patrick's day colors were used, with the green plug hat and pipe much in evidence.

A "stunt" ball caused much fun, a "National Board of Censorship" accepting or rejecting the stunt which the mystery ball commanded each guest to perform. Whenever the board of censorship failed to accept as satisfactory the effort of the guest, that unfortunate lady was obliged to perform any stunt the board saw fit to require. Since the talents and hobbies of many of the ladies present were well known to the board of censorship, Mrs. John Hunchberger, Mrs. H. D. Goss, and Mrs. Walter Stamps, the prerogative of the board was duly exercised—only the limit of time saving many of the guests from doing an extra stunt. A dainty two-course luncheon was served late in the afternoon.

The guests included the honoree, Mrs. Benjamin Logan, Mrs. H. D. Goss, Mrs. H. R. Boyer, Mrs. W. E. Evans, Mrs. Walter Stamps, Mrs. Mattison B. Jones, Mrs. F. W. Pigg, Mrs. John Hunchberger, Mrs. R. M. Jackson, Mrs. Charles Munson, Mrs. F. H. Cassell, Mrs. Frank Grosvenor, Mrs. Harry Lynch, Mrs. Albert Pearce, Mrs. Harry Goodwin, Mrs. Wayland Brown, Mrs. Warren Roberts, Mrs. Oliver Clark, Mrs. E. W. Kimmell, Mrs. A. W. Tower, and Mrs. Lucius Phillips of Los Angeles.

PRESERVING NATURE'S BALANCE

All nature is in a state of balance. This balance has been attained by slow evolution through millions of years. Creatures that are harmful to man and to the products of nature on which man feeds are kept in continual control by their natural enemies. In countries like India and Africa where there are enormous areas of uncultivated land where the contest between man and the carnivora is constant and where the wild beasts that prey on human beings and on other animals are rapidly being reduced in numbers the destruction of these creatures is great. That is merely nature's way of balancing up.

Many kinds of weeds and insects are growing in every neighborhood that would overwhelm the whole world and starve to death every man, woman and child in four or five years, were it not for the other creatures that keep them in check and make it impossible for them to increase beyond a certain point. The aphid that grows on rose bushes and plum trees, if left to itself, would soon increase until the whole vegetable world would be smothered by a green crawling blanket.

Grasshoppers would soon eat every pound of green food in the world if they were not checked. Squirrels or mice or rats, if they had no enemies, would increase at such a rate that nothing else could live. Weeds, if their seeds all grew, would soon cover the whole earth and make it impossible for any animals to continue, man included.

However, Nature maintains the balance. The plant lice are held in bounds by insects and birds of every kind. The ladybird is as mortal an enemy to the green aphid as is the Vandalia cardinalis to the cottony cushion scale. Weed seeds are devoured by trainloads in order to support feathered songsters that feed upon them in countless hosts. Squirrels and mice and gophers are destroyed by millions to feed the young of owls, hawks, coyotes, snakes and even the domestic cat.

It is dangerous to disturb this balance of Nature. Very often we ignorantly harry, drive away and kill off our best friends. When you shoot a barn owl or club a drowsy gopher snake you are saving thousands of sharp-toothed rodents to destroy your crops. When you stone a toad or drive him out of your garden you must lose many a fine lot of vegetables to pay for your folly. Every time you kill a little bird or knock down its nest you save a large basketful of weed seeds or destructive worms to eat up your own good food.

There is a foolish prejudice, for instance, against the common bat that flies about our houses by night. People often cruelly kill them; yet every bat that flies lives on insects and his whole life is devoted to catching and eating them. Myriads of harmful insects are eaten by the bats. The robin, too, is a great foe of all destructive insects and specially of the wasteful cutworm. In the stomach of one robin at Big Pine, Cal., 192 cutworms were found. Yet farmers shoot the robin, and recently a petition was got up to take away protection from them. So with the quail and many other useful birds. Any farmer can well spare a few grapes to these birds in consideration of their active service. Be careful not to destroy Nature's balance.

ECCLESIASTICAL BAN ON D'ANNUNZIO

Gabriele d'Annunzio, Italy's greatest modern poet, novelist and dramatist, has come under the ban of the Roman Catholic church. D'Annunzio is probably not very much put out by the decree that banishes his writings from the home and heart of every true Catholic, however, for he has always shown himself indifferent to criticism of any kind. D'Annunzio is now on the Index Expurgatorius and probably, like a modern man of letters, he will welcome the publicity as an excellent thing for an author. D'Annunzio has never been oversensitive to the hostility of those who detest him and his ways and who have renounced him and all his works.

On the Index Expurgatorius D'Annunzio will be a hero in the eyes of that large section of the Italian people that has no use for the Church. That the Church should have thus publicly pilloried Italy's great poet and patriot is likely to provoke a storm of indignation. Of course, there are many excellent authorities in the Church who will regret this affair, knowing the esteem in which D'Annunzio is held by the Italian people. It might have been wiser to have ignored him, especially at this time when he has been injured while scouting in an aeroplane on the front at Isonzo. D'Annunzio needs nothing to add to his literary fame. He has long been recognized as a master of style and a poet of wonderful insight and fire. Above all, he began four years ago to be the poet and prophet of the Italian renaissance. He now stands on a platform with Garibaldi in the affections of the Italian people.

King Victor-Emmanuel made D'Annunzio a Knight of the Order of the Annunziata and thus made him a cousin of the king and enshrined him in the hearts of the Italian people as their great national hero.

It would seem rather shortsighted on the part of the Congregation of the Index to choose this particular juncture in the history of the poet and the nation to denounce him and his writings. However, the worthy prelates who rule the Index are about as wise as the members of the movie picture board of censors. The latest works of the poet consists of poems inspired by Italy's military glory. At the time the ban was placed on these and other works it was recognized by many loyal members of the Church that it would call down on the Vatican the anger of all Italy. More than a few Italians now regard the decree as a blow by the Vatican at the Quirinal.

It is understood that the ban will announce that the writings of the poet contain religious and philosophical errors; that they loosely mix up sacred and profane words and sacred and profane ideas; that they contain also repeated abuse of biblical words and biblical images, and that they are so profoundly irreverent as to threaten to disturb the mind of any Catholic who might read them. With all this, the general feeling in Italy is that the ban of the Index critics will vastly increase the poet's popularity.

ALL-DAY MEETING OF W. C. T. U.

The annual all-day meeting of the Glendale City W. C. T. U. was held March 3, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Francy, 305 Kenwood street.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. Ruby J. Smart. The morning session was occupied with the business, and the president gave her annual address. In part, she said: "Beloved Comrades: Today we turn another leaf in the history of our local work of our grand White Ribbon Army, our peaceful war for 'God, Home and Humanity.' In the forward march of our world-wide temperance reform, the year 1915 will shine out as one of unparalleled advancement.

"We rejoice over the victories that have been achieved in the mighty march of prohibition. As you all know the roll call of prohibition states now number nineteen, and six more states crowding to the goal, and twelve other states that have introduced prohibitive bills in their legislatures.

"Our beautiful California is one of the six striving this year for a place in the white column. Last year when Ohio was in the hottest part of her fight, Jack London wired the state president of Ohio W. C. T. U., 'Ohio women stand guard.'

"Eternal vigilance is the price of liberty, and we cannot sleep on guard but be alert and alive to the needs of the time."

The noontide prayer was offered by Miss Rachel Sherer, a pioneer W. C. T. U. worker in Glendale. A delicious luncheon was served to over fifty guests. The tables were artistically decorated with ferns and roses. The house decorations were of calla lilies and ferns, suggestive of purity.

The meeting was called to order at 1:30 and reports of work done by officers and superintendents were read. The philanthropic and educational work done by this local organization is far in advance to any previous report. The organization is thrifty from every viewpoint.

One of the peculiar occurrences of the day was a communication read from the private secretary of President Wilson advising Glendale City Woman's Christian Temperance Union that a certain suggestion offered will be given due consideration and placed on file in the archives of the department.

Miss Lulu F. Slade played several of Wagner's compositions on the piano.

The officers elected are: President, Mrs. Ruby J. Smart; vice-president, Mrs. P. A. C. Moore; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Opal Greenwalt; recording secretary, Mrs. Louise Morton; treasurer, Mrs. O. S. Palmer; secretary Y. P. B., Mrs. Flora Lemon.

RUSSIAN CONCERT NOT GIVEN

Madame Dare and her Russian singers and dancers were on hand at the High School auditorium Saturday night, but the audience was so meagre that the company did not think themselves justified in giving the performance. The rain and competing attractions operated against the success of the Russian concert, which was consequently postponed.

"WHO'S YOUR COOK?"

In looking through the death records, it is surprising to find what a large number of Chinese die of tuberculosis, and a further revelation is found in the fact that a very large proportion of the Chinese who die of this disease are cooks. We have no means of ascertaining how great a factor these cooks may be in the spread of tuberculosis in California, but that they do play an important part in the transmission of the disease is very evident. The slogan, "Who's your cook?" which has been heard so often, is no doubt a pertinent question for hundreds of California families.

PREVENTION OF INSANITY

The United States is at the present time spending more than thirty-three million dollars yearly for the cure and care of patients afflicted with mental disease, and comparatively nothing for prevention. And yet the perusal of the report of almost any state hospital will show that in about 50 per cent of the cases admitted the mental disorder is due directly to definite causes which are clearly preventable. From 5 to 10 per cent more are functional disorders which probably could have been prevented by early treatment.—Eva Charlotte Reid, M. D., After-Care Physician for California State Hospitals.

Many vacant lots in Glendale have been seeded to rye and now the ground on these lots is carpeted with a thick green coating of the crop. It would be a good plan if more of the vacant lots could have that beautiful green appearance.

Mrs. C. E. Hutchinson was a luncheon guest at the home of Dr. Lanterman in La Canada Friday. There were six present. In the afternoon all attended the P. T. A. meeting. Mrs. Hutchinson spoke upon "How Can the P. T. A. Be of Benefit to the Country Child."
Dr. and Mrs. Clarence A. Webb entertained as dinner guests yesterday Mrs. Esther K. Martin of Los Angeles, Mrs. Martin's mother, Mrs. Kirk, and Mrs. Martin's three little daughters, Mary, Margaret and Elizabeth. Mrs. Martin was formerly of Des Moines, Iowa, Dr. and Mrs. Webb's old home.

LITERARY SECTION TO MEET
At the meeting of the Literary section of the Tuesday Afternoon club, Tuesday, March 7, a pleasing and instructive program will be presented. One feature of the program will be the reading and interpretation of John Galsworthy's interesting work, "The Fugitive," by Mrs. Wayland Brown. The section will meet at the home of Mrs. E. W. Kinney, 1223 W. Seventh street, at 2:30 p. m.
TRIPLE T. GIRLS
Something worth going to see will be the entertainment to be given Tuesday, March 7, by the Triple T. Girls, at 8 p. m., in the Presbyterian church, corner Broadway and Cedar. The Triple T. society is possessed of a vast deal of talent and the girls will be able to do most of the entertaining themselves. No admission will be charged, but a silver offering will be taken. Come! everybody and bring your friends!

MY LOST DOG—A little boy, broken hearted, came to The Evening News office Saturday afternoon saying he had lost his little dog, only about so long, indicating by the position of his hands that the extreme length of the dog was about six inches. Information concerning the boy's lost dog may be given to him at 227 Belmont, or phone Sunset 1322.

TROPICO
The Tropico Thursday club has arranged to give an evening's entertainment at the Bijou Theater on South San Fernando boulevard. Friday evening, March 10. Miss Ida Myers, assisted by Mrs. J. Herbert Smith, Mrs. C. H. Phillips and Mrs. Henry F. Goodwin, have selected the various films that will provide the evening's program.
A dainty French gold basket, filled with vari-colored hyacinths, centered an elegantly appointed table, at which Mr. and Mrs. Francis Booth presided Sunday with a dinner party. The guests who were thus entertained were Mrs. Katherine C. Hogan of Los Angeles and her sister, Mrs. M. R. Douglas, of Denver, Colorado.
Mrs. Charles Wallace Kimberly of South San Fernando boulevard, will be the charming hostess at an elaborate card party to be given by the Ivy club of Los Angeles. The announcement is quite unique, "At Goldberg-Bosley we will celebrate the wearin' o' the green. We bid you with us participate, Tuesday, March fourteen. Mrs. Kimberly will be assisted by Mrs. Frank Chase, president of the club, and Mesdames A. B. Waddingham, C. R. Burrier, W. H. Royal, Frank Allen, Arthur Cresse, D. R. Erway and Miss Mary Hifle.
Mrs. Kimberly also announces that the afternoon's game will begin promptly at two o'clock.
Mrs. A. L. Watson of Burbank was the guest of Mrs. Myra C. K. Shuey over Saturday.
Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Craford and daughter, Miss Marian Craford, motored over from Corona Saturday and were the over Sunday guests of their cousin, Mrs. David H. Imler, of West Park avenue.
Mrs. Alfred Frost and daughters, Misses Ruth and Mabel Frost, of Los Angeles, were the guests at luncheon of Mrs. Francis Booth Saturday.
The Tropico schools closed today and permitted the teachers to visit neighboring schools, thus affording an opportunity of exchanging ideas and methods along various lines of work.

MONEY RAISED FOR MISSIONS
At the First Congregational church two most unusual services were held yesterday. At the morning service, after the pastor had made a most impressive and graphic presentation of the great and varied missionary activities conducted by the missionary societies of the Congregational church, opportunity was given to make pledges for the Benevolent Budget. In a very few minutes $322.50 was subscribed. This amount will be materially increased when pledges are received from some who were not able to be present.
At the evening service many of the men and women who attended the great Laymen's Missionary convention gave brief but pointed reports. This service shows that this church has a large number of people who are effective public speakers.

CIVIL SERVICE QUESTION
S. E. Doty of the Civil Service department will speak on the subject of Civil Service, under the auspices of the High School P. T. A., at 8 o'clock in the High School auditorium, this (Monday) evening.

GLENDALE FOOTHILLS
There was a large attendance at the first meeting of the Strugglers' club, which was held in the Indian room at the Casa Verdugo establishment, Friday, March 3. Phil Felton, the well-known real estate man of the Foothills, who has done so much to organize this society, was chairman. The time was spent in making plans and it was decided to defer creating a permanent organization until some expected members should come in. Many of the leading actors in the Keystone Moving Picture company are taking an interest in this movement and it is expected that they will attend next meeting. The date of the meeting will be announced later.
After the business of the evening had been disposed of a pleasing and high-class entertainment was given. Songs and piano solos were the order of the evening. Mr. E. Watts played the violin and Miss Jennie Wilson the piano. Ernesto Martinez played a number of his own compositions on the piano—dances of the old Spanish style. Miss Viola Yorba, the renowned vocalist, sang some pleasing melodies. Then Miss Yorba and Senor Martinez danced the Spanish national dances with wonderful fire and grace. There is every evidence that the new society is going to be a wonderful success.
P. M. Boggs, vice-president of the Luck Manufacturing company of Los Angeles, has purchased the property at 1020 Stocker street and is now settled there with his family. Mr. Boggs is charmed with the place, which he is rapidly putting into excellent shape. At the back of the house, facing east, west and south, he has built a very large sleeping porch, fitted up in such a manner that the windows can be opened on each side, except the east, according to the weather. This porch is fitted with four beds and is extremely spacious and tastefully fitted up. A Japanese expert is putting the grounds into shape. The lot is 100 by 250. When the garden improvements have been made there will be few nicer looking properties in this locality. Mrs. Boggs and the rest of the family, who moved in a few days ago, are delighted with their surroundings.
Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Elliott have purchased the fine property at 1330 N. Louise and are having it put in order. The grounds have been laid out in good shape. One hundred and twenty sprinklers have been installed in the lawn and the water can be turned on all over at one time. A handsome low brick wall incloses the grounds. On the top of this an artistic wooden fence has been erected. A patio at the east end of the residence is gradually being put into shape and will add greatly to the beauty of the establishment. The house itself is painted a light gray and is a striking building even now when the improvements have not been completed.

C. Lamar of 711 Lomita avenue is building a 6-room bungalow at 404 North Maryland avenue. The contractor is Mr. J. H. Walters. This will be a very handsome California structure when finished.
Mr. T. J. Morgan is building two houses at 401 and 403 N. Louise, at a cost of $2000 each. Activity is the word all over the foothills and everywhere can be seen what might be termed spring cleaning. Lots are being cleaned up and gardens planted.
One of the residence properties in this community that shows signs of careful overseeing is that of F. E. Burlew, 1415 Valley View road. Mr. Burlew's neatly built dwelling house is located in a lot comprising an area of 3/4 of an acre. Every foot of the ground is under cultivation and its neat appearance bespeaks for the owner characteristics of thrift and good judgement in planning.
Mr. and Mrs. Willis Rupp of Lanark, Illinois, spent from Saturday until Sunday at the R. H. Cowan home, 1220 Arden avenue, while enroute to San Diego.
Ray Page of the U. S. cruiser San Diego, which is now at San Diego harbor, came to Casa Verdugo Saturday to spend Sunday and Monday at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Page, 910 San Rafael street.

SUCCESSFUL LOCAL ATTORNEY
Mr. James F. McBryde, attorney-at-law, is a rising young lawyer of Glendale and Los Angeles. Mr. McBryde passed the bar in July last and since that time he has had a great deal of remunerative work. His practice is general and he has been doing a great deal of civil work and has handled mortgage foreclosures to the satisfaction of his clients. Before passing the bar Mr. McBryde held a position in the department, where he was engaged in doing statistical work for the census bureau. Mr. McBryde resides at 1506 Vine street and has an office in the city at 1002 Haas building.

HONEST INVESTIGATION
There is nothing like honest investigation before making public criticism. It is so easy to talk and then it is so difficult to back up the talk with actual facts. Judges and men of superior business judgment are slow to render decisions until they learn all the facts. Honest and competent investigation is good for the soul.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH
The subject of the minister's sermon Sunday morning at this church was "Christ in Colossians," the text being, "Christ is all in all." The Book of Colossians is one that grows upon you as you become acquainted with it and should be studied by all who wish to find the great truth that is contained in its central thought. All these epistles of Paul have one central idea and in this one it is found in the text. When you come to know Christ all else is secondary. A man may have a good character, be tender and true and possess many of the virtues, but in Christ alone is found all of them. From Genesis to Revelation, Christ is the heart of the Bible, and can be commended to all men as the only One who can put a new emphasis on life; he is not only the second person in the Godhead, but he is very God himself. In him are all power, truth, knowledge; in the words of the text, "He is all in all." He should be all in all in the life of a people, and all who truly live in Him will show the fact in their daily life. "Whatsoever you do in word or deed, do it all in the name of Christ Jesus."
Seller and buyer are brought together by classified advertisements in The Evening News. On page 2 you will learn the cost.

Miss Ada Bisbee went to Los Angeles Tuesday of this week to attend the Missionary convention being held in the city.

Miss F. H. Godfrey attended the benefit for the Allied nations at the Trinity auditorium Saturday.

That the people of La Canada appreciate the branch of the Los Angeles County Library, which was started here about three years ago, is shown by the 32 per cent increase in the circulation for the month of February over the circulation for the corresponding month last year.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Stutz spent Sunday at Venice.

A district meeting will be held Tuesday, March 7, at the school house at 7:30 o'clock, for the purpose of setting the date for the bond election for building school house and equipping it. All are urged to come.

Mrs. E. H. Brooks is spending several days with her daughter, Mrs. Cuthbert, at her home in Alhambra.

The president of the association, Mr. Brooks, will give a short address on "How the World Is Fed," showing clearly that the fighting nations of Europe and our greedy commerce do not need to kill so many people for want of a sufficient supply in the world's bread basket. A Malthusian philosophy has been exploded.

Every voter in La Canada is urged to register at once that he or she may be ready to vote at the coming school election in the early part of April.

Never was there in the history of La Canada a more delightful and merry evening spent than on the twenty-eighth, when a large crowd gathered at prompt eight o'clock and surprised Mr. Robert Lea on his fiftieth birthday. Mr. Lea had been working hard all day and came in late and very tired, but soon forgot all about being weary. Mr. Lea had such a queer expression on his face all who saw him gave a merry laugh. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Ashworth, Mr. and Mrs. Ilsen and son, Mr. and Mrs. Holden and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Cooper, Mr. and Mrs. Slutman and children, Mr. and Mrs. Bradley and children of Pasadena, Mr. and Mrs. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Pate and daughter, Mr. D. J. Green. All knew Mr. Lea was very fond of something sweet and all brought a present of something sweet. Very lovely old-time songs were sung and played on the piano by Mrs. Holden, and music by Mrs. Johnson, Marie and Dorothy Bradley were much enjoyed. After games and a delightful time the men took Mr. Lea for a walk to Michigan avenue, and on returning they found the table prepared for them. A large white cake, covered with roses, six small doves and fifty flaming candles, was placed before them. Four other cakes were cut and served with chocolate by the merry guests. At a late hour the guests, wishing Mr. Lea many more happy birthdays, returned to their homes.—A GUEST.

Wedding in the Valley

A beautiful home wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. J. J. Skow, at high noon, Feb. 23, when their daughter, Miss Minnie, was united in marriage with Mr. Willets of Pasadena. Only near relatives of the bride and groom witnessed the ceremony. The bridal couple stood under a bower of greenery and flowers. The attendants were Miss Annie Skow, sister of the bride, and the brother of Mr. Willets. The Rev. Hopping of La Crescenta officiated. The bride was attired in a gray traveling suit with picture hat to match. After an informal breakfast, the bridal couple left for home, in Pasadena.

FISHERIES UNPROTECTED

It is reported that representatives from the Pacific Coast will ask our government to seek the purchase of Lower California from Mexico. Lower California, besides the harbor of Magdalena Bay, possesses valuable fishery resources. Many of the sea fishes taken in California waters spend their spawning season off Lower California. In fact, that is their principal residence and they follow their food into California waters during the summer time. To properly conserve these fish, the most important of which is the long-finned tuna, it will be necessary to protect the young and the spawning fish in Lower California waters. The value of the long-finned tuna pack in California exceeds $1,500,000 a year and the stability of this great industry will depend on the protection the fish get in Lower California. This protection could best be given if the United States government had control, for Mexico has not protected her west coast fisheries in the past and is not likely to do so for some time in the future.

PHYSICAL SUFFERING

Measure as you may the progress of the world, materially in the advance of steam, electricity, and the other material appliances; sociologically in the great improvements in the conditions of living; intellectually in the diffusion of education; morally in the possibilities of higher standard of ethics, there is no one measure which can compare with the decrease of physical suffering in man, woman and child when stricken by disease and accident.—Osler.
