

SHOP EVOLUTION

REARRANGEMENT OF RED CROSS SALESROOM ON BRAND BLVD. AND NEW STOCKS

At the Red Cross Shop on Brand boulevard yesterday, things were doing. Miss Douglas, Mrs. Boettner and their assistants were reorganizing affairs and planning various schemes of beauty and utility which would display stock to advantage and afford more room for certain specialties. They have evolved the scheme of sorting magazines according to serial stories and selling them for the complete novels or novellettes rather than by years. It is working out finely. Mary Roberts Rinehart seems to be a special favorite and her stories are in such demand the committee may have to put a premium on those numbers. It is a clever idea and will make it easily possible to dispose of the large stocks of Saturday Evening Posts which the shop has accumulated.

Among the attractive new arrivals in the shop are a collection of pictures which produce quite a gallery effect. They are all good and should find buyers. A picture which will probably be snapped up by some wise collector of such treasures is a well-preserved copy of that old engraving, "Jesus Blessing Little Children," which was such a feature in the homes of our grandparents along with "Shakespeare and His Friends," but which is hard to find now.

Mrs. Boettner is in her element "fixing things up" and with her help the committee in charge are sure to evolve a most attractive salesroom. They will soon have the assistance of the Glendale Garden Society which has offered to provide the stock for a plant and seed sale every Friday, and that will mean hanging baskets, potted plants, cut flowers and other lovely "green things growing" from the beautiful out-doors. Mrs. Nanno Woods will direct this activity and will be assisted by an able committee whose names will be published in the near future.

PUPIL'S RECITAL

Tuesday evening was not particularly propitious for a musical, but the excellent audience which gathered to enjoy the fine program provided by pupils of Mrs. Laura Jones and given at the Presbyterian church, felt well repaid for coming. The program as published in Monday's paper was given in its entirety. The girls are all in their teens and therefore not fully developed in depth of feeling, yet they showed an intelligence in interpretation which was very satisfying and which showed conscientious work and good instruction. Elizabeth Cadd is a hard worker and her contributions were especially noticeable, but all the pupils did well. The numbers by Mrs. Jones were a great treat and in all respects the entertainment was most enjoyable.

MACHINES NEEDED

MISS GRIFFITH AND ASSISTANTS DO SPLENDID WORK ON AVIATOR'S VESTS

Sewing machines are at a premium at the headquarters of the Glendale Red Cross Chapter and Miss Griffith and her assistant Mrs. Shattuck improved the time yesterday to put in extra work on the leather vests for aviators which their department is making for Uncle Sam's flyers. Being a stormy day, not as many seamstresses as usual visited the Chapter and not all the machines were in use.

Mrs. Betz was on hand with her usual corps of assistants who apparently pay no attention to the weather, and sixteen pillows were manufactured. When the reporter was making the visit of inspection the ladies were "snipping and planning, cutting and contriving" pieces for the little folks to snip into bits for the filling of the pillows. It is no small task to cut up the garments after they have come from the laundry, and then iron all the small pieces so they will be in just the proper condition for the small boys and girls to handle.

In the surgical dressings department an even larger class than usual was at work under the instruction of Mrs. E. W. Towle and Miss Ruth Taggart, the ladies present being Mesdames Harry A. Thimm, E. S. Hedges, R. L. Milligan, O. T. Okhansen, Jennie Tresslar, Mary A. Steele, Cora Quinch, G. Van Pelt, A. Van Pelt, Olive Pixley, A. M. Mortensen, R. S. Durkee, Edward Dale, James W. Pearson, J. F. Lilly, R. C. Smith, L. Kelly.

WEATHER FORECAST—Fair tonight and Thursday. Colder and heavy to killing frosts. Westerly winds.

THIRD LIBERTY LOAN

GLENDALE PEOPLE ORGANIZE FOR SALE OF LIBERTY BONDS

The Third Liberty Loan will be here in Glendale in a few days. The government is busy building up the organization for handling this loan in every portion of the United States. The successful outcome of this war and the defeat of "Kultur" can not be accomplished without sacrifice on the part of each of us.

A committee is now being formed in Glendale under the chairmanship of F. H. Vesper, President of the Bank of Glendale, to thoroughly canvass the Glendale district for subscriptions to the loan.

Last night at the Red Cross headquarters a preliminary meeting was held for the purpose of perfecting the organization and getting started at the routine work which will be so necessary to insure that every one in the jurisdiction of the committee who is able to subscribe to the loan will do so. Those who were at the meeting were:

- F. H. Vesper, Chairman.
- A. L. Lawshe, Secretary.
- J. A. Logan.
- Dr. H. R. Harrower.
- A. T. Cowan.
- Herman Nelson.
- Rev. W. E. Edmonds.
- George Paine.
- Menzo Williams.
- H. B. Lynch.
- S. W. Shaull.

Methods of conducting the drive were discussed, and it was agreed that the best plan would be to list on a card index all those capable of subscribing to the loan, and to divide these names among ten or a dozen captains, each of whom will have about ten persons to actively canvass the names on his list.

Miss Vesper, Mr. Lawshe, Mr. Moyses, Mr. White and H. B. Lynch were appointed a committee to gather the names of all residents in the community and to prepare cards for the committee. The addressograph lists of the Public Service Department and the Gas Company cover the district almost completely and will be used as the basis for the list.

F. H. Vesper, W. W. Lee and Dan Campbell were appointed an executive committee.

It was the feeling of all that this is the most important and urgent duty that any of us have yet faced and that we owe it to ourselves and our country to make this loan a big success. Everyone expressed his willingness to devote to this great work all of the time and energy necessary to accomplish the desired results.

STAUNCH CITIZENS

Mrs. F. H. Everts of Central avenue, who was one of the eight or ten women drawn for jury service in the court of Judge Craig, says that while it is not particularly pleasant to be compelled to report at the court room every day on the chance of being needed on a jury, particularly in weather such as has prevailed this week, she would not think of trying to get out of the obligation when called, or of evading service. She is a staunch believer in the franchise for women and worked and voted to bring it about in California. The case on which Mrs. Bartlett served last week was one involving the theft of an automobile. As Mrs. Everts admitted she had had an automobile stolen, the lawyer probably feared she might be prejudiced in favor of the plaintiff and so excused her from serving on that particular case, accepting Mrs. Bartlett. She, as well as Mrs. Bartlett, is reporting every day, and they are equally patriotic in living up to their obligations as citizens.

THE RED CROSS BALL

There is no prettier sight than a beautiful ballroom when the music is in full swing and the dancers in party array are making a rainbow of color under the soft glow of incandescent lights. It is worth the price of admission just to watch the scene. It is doubly worth while if the watcher dances as well, and trebly worth while if the money is used for the comfort of the soldiers. All these conditions will be met at the ball which will be given at the Elks' Club House on the 16th, under the patronage of Mesdames G. A. Whitaker, S. F. Whitaker, John Robert White, W. H. Boothby, J. Ford, Lillian Dow, and Miss Coral Griffith. Tickets can be obtained from any of these ladies or they can be purchased at the Red Cross headquarters, at the Glendale Music Store, or at the door on the evening of the ball. It will be the great event of a quiet season and will be the more enjoyable because such affairs are not numerous.

GERMANY PREPARES NEW PEACE PROPOSAL

RUMORS INDICATE TEUTON DIPLOMACY IS ABOUT TO FOIST MILITARY-MADE PROPOSAL ON WORLD

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
WASHINGTON, March 13.—On military-made terms and timed to follow a "German victory," a new peace proposal is apparently about to be foisted on the world by Teuton diplomats.

Rumors indicate that Germany will suggest the retention of her near-east plunder, "consenting" to give up her ambitions in the west.

The proposal will probably get a stonier hearing than any received to date, though the indications are that the proposal will be framed to stir up pacifists and make a special appeal to that group of people who believe that Russia should be left to her own fate.

RAILROAD BILL SIDETRACKED

IMPORTANT MEASURE HELD UP BY POINT OF ORDER RAISED EMBODYING RECENT SENATE RULING

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
WASHINGTON, March 13.—The Railroad Control bill was suddenly sidetracked in the Senate today, when that body by a vote of 51 to 23 approved a ruling of Vice President Marshall sustaining a point of order raised by Senator Frelinghuysen against the Conference report on the measure.

The point raised was that the Conference committee had written new matter into the bill contrary to a recent ruling of the Senate. The bill now goes back to the Conference committee.

AMERICANS IN NEW RAID

ENEMY EVACUATES FIRST LINE TRENCH UNDER TERRIFIC ARTILLERY FIRE OF U. S. BOYS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY IN FRANCE, March 13.—Americans in the Toul sector again raided the German trenches last night, but at a different spot than yesterday. German first line trenches were found to have been evacuated under the terrible artillery fire of American gunners. The Americans returned to their own positions fifteen minutes after having enthusiastically "gone over the top."

CLUB IS HOSTESS

RECIPROCAL LUNCHEON FEATURES TUESDAY AFTERNOON CLUB MEETING

Although the attendance would have undoubtedly been much larger had the weather been more propitious, the Masonic Temple was seemingly filled to capacity at yesterday's session of the Tuesday Afternoon Club, which took the form of a Reciprocity Day luncheon. Members of the local club were busy from early morning arranging tables and making the hall gay and attractive with foliage and flowers. Acacia, marigolds and poppies were used in profusion, and the yellow gleam of the blossoms brightened the dull atmosphere like the warm glow from a grate fire on a chilly evening.

Long before the appointed hour, all fears as to attendance on account of the steady downpour of rain were set at rest. Guests began arriving from the four corners, literally speaking, for there were delegates from Pomona, Alhambra, Redondo, Van Nuys, Long Beach, Pasadena, Los Angeles, Eagle Rock, Highland Park and so on, ad infinitum, there being between 165 and 170 federated clubs in the Los Angeles District, which is the largest in the state.

The district officers and chairmen of departments were the guests of honor, and these were placed at one long table with the officers of the Tuesday Afternoon Club. Mrs. W. W. Ramsay, the president, occupied the center; on her immediate right was Mrs. Mattison B. Jones, district president, and on her left Mrs. J. B. Stearns, district vice-president. Other guests at the table were Miss Mary Foy, chairman of emergency service, Dr. Louise Richter, child welfare, Mrs. W. A. Galentine, civics, Mrs. J. W. Joos, general chairman of conservation, Mrs. Frederick W. Houser, waters, Mrs. Chas. M. Kite, natural scenery and parks, Mrs. L. A. Beeb, home economics, Mrs. E. B. Weirick, industrial and social, Mrs. I. W. Gleason, parliamentary usage, and Mrs. C. H. Ritchie, political science. Dr. Jessie A. Russell, state president, Congress of Mothers, and Mrs. H. E. Bartlett, past president of the local club, were also at this table.

When all were seated, Mrs. Ramsay, in a humorously bright and appropos speech, presented greetings to the visitors and introduced Mrs. E. D. Yard, her first vice-president, as toastmistress of the occasion. Mrs. Yard responded in a happy vein, and called upon "our own Mrs. Jones," who expressed pleasure at being privileged to welcome so many of her district associates to her own home club. The value of such gatherings was emphasized in her remarks and the Federation activities in the present world crisis briefly sketched, closing with the statement that "if the Federation has done nothing else save to furnish the machinery, organization and woman power with which to carry on this great work, it has not existed in vain." The District has an approximate membership of 17,000 women.

The audience was next thrilled and exalted by the prophetic words of Miss Mary Foy on the subject of "World Democracy." Her human understanding and breadth of vision are at once a marvel and inspiration. She voiced her belief in the ability of the women of the nation to meet every emergency, even to the tilling of the fields, if need be, in order that the great world peace, which is as yet but a dream, may be fully realized. "It is the club women of every community," she stated, "that are to the fore in every righteous movement and in every crisis."

A brief recess was next announced to permit of a re-arranging of chairs and a clearing of tables, preparatory to the formal program.

The first number was a group of original violin solos by Julius Kranz, Jr., an honorary member of the club, whose fine artistry always delights. Miss Gertrude Champlain, also well appreciated for her fine work, played the piano accompaniment. A "Salute to the Flag," by Mrs. C. M. Turck, was then given and Mrs. L. N. Hagood followed with a delightful Chopin number and her own popular composition, "Forty Horsepower," as an encore.

Mrs. Dortha Hoaglin-Hayden, a reader of national reputation, was next introduced. The offering selected from her extensive repertoire of literary classics was "The Piper," by Josephine Preston Peabody, an American playwright. This play, which is a resurrection of the old legend of the "Pied Piper of Hamelin," took the prize in the Stratford contest. All its poetic symbolism and alluring touches of fairy magic were well brought out by the gifted reader, whose voice of exceptional flexibility especially charmed.

A PRETTY SHOP

SALESROOM OF INTERMEDIATE JUNIOR RED CROSS HAS SUCCESSFUL OPENING

Deluging showers interrupted to some extent the patronage of the pretty shop at Maryland and Broadway where the wares manufactured by clever boys and girls who are enrolled under the Red Cross Auxiliary of the Intermediate School will be sold. A good many visitors were there, however, and every one was impressed and delighted with the artistic products and the beautiful though perfectly simple setting in which they were displayed. It was very suggestive of Japanese work, though it was not Japanese at all when analyzed. Beautiful pieces of pottery and the beautiful studies loaned by Miss Jones, the art teacher, helped immensely as a background for the objects displayed, and art was also displayed in not having all the stock on exhibit at once.

The gay flower sticks intended to support whatever needs to be, attracted much attention. They, the book racks, the door stops, and a good many of the things offered were poster products in substantial form and were very taking. There were gray and white birds with astonishing yellow tails, perched upon the sticks, crushed strawbirds and other wonderful combinations that Nature never thought of. The round and oblong pillows embroidered and appliqued with unusual designs in daring color schemes, were hard to resist, and when it came to the purple and blue and white rabbits on wheels, few could get by them. Then there were embroidered table runners of art crash that were lovely in coloring and design, and unusual bags.

The boy's quartette from the Jefferson High School was on hand with its teacher and established in the balcony overlooking the salesroom. Their music was delightful and it began with such favorites as "The Long Long Trail" and "Keep the Home Fires Burning."

A dainty table where delicious tea and pimento sandwiches with a little red cross in each one, and crisp little home-made cookies were served by sweet young girls, brought considerable revenue.

In spite of adverse conditions it was a successful opening and it is safe to prophesy that the venture will be profitable to the organization financially and a great credit to the Intermediate School.

GLENDALE, CALIFORNIA, WEDNESDAY, MARCH 13, 1918

GLENDALE A STRONG PATRIOTIC UNIT

With the continuance of the war the people of Glendale are proving themselves to be a thoroughly patriotic people. About a year ago when the need of a local Red Cross organization became known to the citizens, they took hold of the matter with a vim and an earnestness that in a few months time gave the Glendale community an independent Chapter of the American Red Cross and now this chapter has a membership of about 2300 and a thoroughly organized force of continuous workers.

Last fall when the people of Glendale were asked to contribute a minimum sum to the Y. M. C. A. all became busy and soon more than the required amount was subscribed.

The first and second liberty loan drives were given substantial support, the citizens of Glendale coming forward with their full quota. Now a third liberty loan drive is being planned for and will probably take place from April 6 to April 13. This is a national drive and Glendale is preparing to do her share in this very necessary money-raising scheme. The question of aiding in carrying on the war successfully is being considered seriously by all our people. Young men have been drafted into service and are serving their country loyally, sacrificing the best years of their lives and now it is the desire of every citizen who is in a position to aid by contributing time or money to such channels as will better equip these young men for their duties, to do so.

Every community in the United States may be considered a unit in doing its share in aiding in the conservation of food and the contributing of money, and indications are that Glendale will place herself on record as being one of the most patriotic and benevolent units engaged in this great work.

WEEKLY SALE OF PLANTS AND FLOWERS TO AID RED CROSS

Every Friday, from 11 o'clock to 5 o'clock the Glendale Garden Society will conduct a sale of vegetable and flower plants, slips, seedlings and cut flowers in the Red Cross Shop. All proceeds will be handed over to aid the Red Cross funds. Mrs. Frank Hester has been appointed chairman of this plant sale committee, and the following ladies, all members of the Garden Society, have kindly consented to serve on the committee: Mrs. Rosa Cook, Mrs. John Paul, Mrs. Thomas Atkinson, Mrs. George Henderson.

Donations of any kind of plants or cut flowers are earnestly requested. Potted plants, such as ferns, begonias, etc., are also requested. Plants too heavy or cumbersome, or too distant to allow of carrying, will be called for every Friday morning by Mrs. Hester in her automobile. Friends will please speak of this enterprise to everyone they meet, and ask all their neighbors for contributions. The plants will be sold at extremely reasonable prices, and the public is urged to drop in every Friday and buy the bargains offered. People thinning out their vegetable rows will please send the superfluous plantlets to the Red Cross Shop. Friends having plants to donate, will kindly phone Mrs. Nanno Woods, Sunset Glendale 394, or Mrs. Frank Hester, Sunset Glendale 386-W.

PACIFIC AVENUE P.-T. A.

The meeting to be held at the Pacific avenue school by the Parent-Teacher Association, Thursday, March 14, will be unusually interesting and full of information concerning the most important questions of the present time. So important and entertaining is this meeting to be that all members of the Board who expect to attend the Board meeting are urged to be present promptly at 2:30 o'clock, so as not to interfere with the regular program, which is to commence at 3 o'clock sharp. Rev. W. E. Edmonds will talk on Home Ideals, the Tuesday Afternoon club Glee Club, composed of six members of the Music section under the direction of Mrs. Calvin Whiting, will render several selections and Mrs. A. B. Rosencranz will sing. Prof. Richardson D. White and Prof. Harry L. Howe will speak on Thrift. A large crowd is expected and an attendant will be present to care for the children.

Tickets can be procured from Pythian Sisters or can be purchased at the door.

RAINFALL NOW 16.99 INCHES

Mr. Bartlett's rain gauge recorded 33-100 of an inch as the precipitation after 7:30 o'clock Tuesday morning, bringing the total for the storm to 4.82 inches, and total for the season to 16.99 inches.

KENSINGTON CLUB ELECTION

The Kensington club celebrated its birthday Tuesday with a dinner and social afternoon at G. A. R. hall. There was an excellent attendance and the proceeds of the dinner brought about $10 to the club treasury. Following the dinner a business meeting was held at which officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows: President, Mrs. R. L. Sanders, Vice-President, Mrs. Effie Ripley, Secretary-Treasurer, Mrs. Lena Roberts. The afternoon was devoted to knitting, fancy work and a general good time.

PUPILS' RECITAL

A really charming program was presented Saturday afternoon at the recital by the little pupils of Helene Morgan given at her home, 124 East Acacia avenue. Miss Morgan comes of a musical family, her uncle, H. E. Krehbiel, being the critic and musical editor of the New York Tribune and well known as an author and lecturer. Miss Morgan is but nineteen years of age and is regarded as a musician of great promise. The pupils who took part Saturday who are residents of this city were Louise and Ruth Bender, Sarah Meek, Carolyn Bradling, Erma Lucas, Helen Harting and Marie Claire Morgan. Los Angeles pupils were Florence McLaughlin, Anita Berge, Madeline Krause, Virginia Drummond, Helen Chapman, Catherine Curby and Alvin Smith.

At the close of the children's program Mrs. Leslie Eames sang an operatic selection from "La Favorita," and Miss Morgan played Liszt's "St. Francis Walking on the Waves" and Ravel's "Jeau D'Eaux." Dainty refreshments were then served.

ST. PATRICK'S TEA

Mrs. R. P. Isitt of 872 Damasco court invites all women of the Presbyterian church and their friends to a tea in her home, Thursday afternoon, March 14, from 3 to 5 o'clock. A silver offering will be taken at the door for the benefit of the Ladies' Aid.

BEAUTIFUL PICTURES TONIGHT

On account of the bad weather the most beautiful colored pictures on "The Social Side of Foreign Missions" has been postponed from time to time. It is decided to give them tonight in the Lutheran church at 7:30, corner of Fifth and Maryland. These are views from the four corners of the earth, showing the momentous and far-reaching results brought about in the social life of the nations by the foreign missionaries who represent us abroad. They show how the world is being transformed by practical Christianity. Often there is much criticism regarding the slow progress of foreign work among the heathen, very little is accomplished, so it is argued. Tonight will be convincing of what is actually accomplished in the most wonderful transformation of human character, living, customs, habits. The lecture is without charge for admittance.

A FRIEND FOR THE BOYS OVER THERE

Mrs. Charles M. Turck calls the attention of all mothers who have sons in France to the following article reprinted from a Chicago Red Cross publication. Mrs. Gassette is a personal friend of Mrs. Turck, who says she is a woman any mother could be proud to have her son know. Send her address to your boy in France and when he is in Paris he can easily find her. Mrs. Gassette's letter follows:

My dear Friend:

Your letters of November 21st and December 5th are both received. . . . We feel that the system of personal appeal which you have so successfully inaugurated is more and more proving to be a great success.

You sometimes deplore that you are not "doing much." We think that you are doing a wonderfully good work for us and the scope of it is widening all the time, and this corrective branch of service, too, is every day being more valued and recognized, and is already placed second to none in its importance by the French Government. We hope that when our American surgeons begin to need it, they, too, will endorse it; never, I suppose, in the history of the world have such great numbers of human bodies been left so torn and mutilated.

Grace and I often say what a great benefit it would be not only to the armies, but to the profession of medicine, if those coming now could inform themselves and come in contact with the doctors who have had these over three years' practice. I should think that some plan might be thought out which would make this possible.

I want to refer to two items mentioned in your letter—first, to the systematic registration of women for whatever work they are best fitted, and, second, to the broad, philanthropic and patriotic plans adopted by the department stores in Chicago in behalf of their employees in the army; both of these measures are in full keeping with the wonderful spirit of service which we are seeing developed everywhere at home. We are so proud of our country. Not a day passes either that some French person does not congratulate this country and us upon the coming of the new Ally to whom we are all looking to say the last word and strike the last blow for the world's salvation. I tell you that American "stock" has no fluctuation these days—it is at the highest point and stands stationary.

Yes, as you say, we think and we talk in millions and billions, but when we come down to our every day work, we are ever reminded that the millions and billions are only the aggregations of dollars and cents and upon these humble figures depends our success. We are so glad that we have not the responsibility of dispensing the great sums and are so grateful to those who feed into our modest treasury enough to meet our recurring needs.

For over a month now Grace and I have been "at home" on Saturday evenings in the studio, 17 rue Boissonade. It is the headquarters of our committee and is always warm. There are two large connecting rooms, we have a phonograph and the young people can dance. So much has been said and written about our "American boys" being homesick and for the want of better company seeking out undesirable companions, we thought that we would try the experiment and give them a chance to meet nice French and American girls and have a real free and enjoyable time. It has been successful and we shall continue as long as there seems to be a demand for it. Being in the studio it is much less formal than in a home and the boys feel at ease. We serve very simple refreshments, such as cocoa and crackers, or sometimes apples and chestnuts, letting the young people roast the latter over the fire. We have wished for marshmallows and pop corn, but these are not procurable here. The other evening one of the young fellows, who has been in the ambulance service for two years and is now going into the French artillery, brought his guitar and added to the general enjoyment. We do not encourage them to remain later than eleven o'clock, for the Metro stops at 11:30 and it is the last means of conveyance. You may assure any soldier coming over of a hearty welcome. Our family may grow, but we have room for a hundred and fifty and can spread if necessary. Grace and I have several times invited young American soldiers home to lunch or dinner whom we encountered on the streets, and "thereby entertained angels unawares." I know that this may seem somewhat irregular, but my heart yearns over these young men who are so far from home among strangers and in a strange land, and knowing as I do that so many of them will soon be at the front doing battle for us all, I feel that any word that I can say or anything that I can do must be done now as I come in contact with them.

We are spending our days in helping our poilus, most of whom have fought all the battles that they will ever fight, and we want also to do something for our very own, who are coming to take their places. Many of our French girls are anxious to entertain and know "our boys" and are joining with us in entertaining them Saturday nights. We are keeping a register of the boys with their personal home address as well as their military address. Thus we may some time be a medium of communication between them and their friends at home.

We are practically snowbound, having never known such a succession of snowstorms or continuous cold in France. I see that Chicago is digging herself out of seven-foot snow drifts. You, too, are having troubles of your own. O, the misery and suffering in the world today! It seems to me that there never was a time when one needed more to try and count one's blessings.

Grace sends her affectionate greetings with mine to you all, and with many thanks on behalf of the committee for your last remittance. I am faithfully yours,

AMELIA L. GASSETTE,
Chairman.

"THE FRENCH CRUSADE"

Appreciation of verses written by Glendale's Chamber of Commerce Secretary and lately published in the Glendale Evening News. The following letter is from a grandson of General William Le Noir, of the Continental Army in the American Revolution. Another of his grandsons still lives at the old Le Noir Plantation, named "Fort Defiance," on the Yadkin river in North Carolina.

"Cincinnati, Ohio.
Mr. Walt Le Noir Church,
Secretary Chamber of Commerce,
Glendale, California.

My Dear Nephew:
Thanks for your historic note. Yes, our ancestors were not cowards or refugees from justice, but brave God-fearing, liberty-loving Christians and patriots, subjected to continuous and inveterate persecution. They sought a home in America where they could worship God in accord with enlightened consciences. I greatly admire, and heartily endorse, the spirit of your verses, 'The French Crusade.'

If I could call back fifty years from the weight and frailties of more than ninety years, I would gladly respond to the Mother call and rush to the firing line.

Blood will tell, and I have unshaken confidence that

"Backed by the Lion Unconquered
No foe can stop our advance,
Under the Star-Spangled Banner,
Wreathed with the lilies of France."

W. T. LE NOIR.

VARIETY ENTERTAINMENT

The children of the Cerritos school and their friends are looking forward to Thursday evening and the entertainment which they will give in the Yeomen hall on San Fernando boulevard for the benefit of the Junior Red Cross of that school. Mrs. Eustace B. Moore of Blanche avenue is chairman of the committee which has it in charge, but the teachers and everybody interested in the organization are helping and it should be a big success socially and financially. There will be plenty of variety in the program and it will all be good.

CARD OF THANKS

Mrs. Kate Fenstermaker, widow of H. C. Fenstermaker, and Philip Kale, her brother, wish to express to the many friends who showed attentions to Mr. Fenstermaker during his illness, and to Mrs. Fenstermaker during that sorrowful time, their sincere gratitude for the kindness thus bestowed; and to those who expressed their respect for the dead by beautiful floral tributes, their deep appreciation. The sympathy and regard thus displayed will help them to bear their great loss.

MALICE AFORETHOUGHT

In the Cap Rock country interest was centered about the registration booth and the atmosphere was becoming pretty solemn and funeral when a well set up young cowman clicked up to the official in charge and gave a well-known name.

Glibly answering the questions put to him he was met with the question: "Ever have any accidents?"

"Accidents? Nope."
"Never had an accident in your life?"
"Nope. Rattler bit me once."
"Don't you call that an accident?" continued the questioner, eyeing the easygoing young fellow severely.
"Hell, no! The blamed thing bit me on purpose!"—Ex.

WANTS NINE PAIRS OF SHOES A YEAR

Gen. Pershing has requested shipment of 18,590 pairs of shoes for each 25,000 men monthly, which is approximately nine pairs of shoes per man per year. This quantity is in excess of actual consumption and is being used to build up a reserve for all troops in France. When such a supply is accumulated, the quantities per man will be reduced.

The Quartermaster General's Department now has on hand and due on outstanding contracts, 7,564,000 field shoes and 7,873,000 marching shoes. It will be necessary to secure more than a million additional shoes during the year.

You can help your fellow men, you must help your fellow men; but the only way you can help them is by being the noblest and best man that it is possible for you to be. I watch the workman upon the building which by and by is to soar into the skies, to toss its pinnacles up to the heavens, and I see him looking up and wondering where those pinnacles are to be, measuring the feet, wondering how they are to be built; and all the time he is cramming a rotten brick into the building just where he has been set to work. Let him forget the pinnacles, if he will or hold only the floating image of them for his inspiration; but the thing he must do is to put a brave, strong, honest and substantial life into the building just where he is now at work.—Phillip Brooks.

Dr. and Mrs. Bahrenburg of Twin Pines have been entertaining Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Weeks of Bakersfield for several days. From that city comes the interesting news of the birth of a daughter, Rhea, to Dr. and Mrs. Norman Bahrenburg.

The Woman's Auxiliary of the First Congregational Church will meet Thursday at the church at 10 a. m. Red Cross work will be done and the Mission Study Class will meet in the afternoon. All ladies of the congregation are cordially invited.

Eugene Imler has just received a message to the effect that his lifelong friend, Alfred Cooper of Los Angeles, has arrived safely overseas. The report that Mr. Cooper was aboard the Tuscania caused considerable concern among the friends of the young man in Glendale, where he is well known and popular.

Several parties are being organized to attend the big Christian Endeavor Convention which will be held in Santa Monica Friday, Saturday and Sunday. Mrs. H. W. Yarek and Mrs. F. R. The Presbyterian Church is having excellent success in its prayer meeting drive and hopes to reach the goal of 200 tonight (Wednesday). The prayer meeting will be followed by a reception to the pastor, Rev. W. E. Edmonds, who recently returned from an extended tour of the east and who will relate some of his interesting experiences there. Brief speeches will be made by members, there will be some good musical numbers, refreshments will be served, and a general good time enjoyed.

Miss Theo. Radovich of Los Angeles spent Friday of last week with Mrs. C. A. Stockbridge of 217 South Adams street. Miss Radovich motored back to Los Angeles with her brother, who came out for dinner. Miss Radovich is a horticulturist of some note, her chrysanthemums having taken several of the prizes at the automobile and flowers shows in Los Angeles. Both she and Mr. Radovich, being musical, enjoy the artistic playing of Master Edward Stockbridge on his harmonica.

Hon. and Mrs. J. W. White of Norrie, Col., who have been guests at Palm Villa, the home of Mrs. D. W. Imler and Miss Hickman, have gone to Salt Lake city, where they will be guests at the Cullen hotel for a season. Mr. White is a prominent Colorado legislator and sheep man, and the Cullen hotel is the Mecca for all the sheep men of the west. Mr. White purchases thousands of head of sheep after the shearing season and pastures them on his ranch at Norrie, later shipping them to Kansas City. Those who have met Mr. and Mrs. White during their visit here have found them extremely interesting people.

POLLY IS INTERVIEWED

An attempt was made by the society editor recently to extract some interesting information from "Polly," the green and yellow bird that "keeps company" with Mrs. J. H. Mellish, who manages the attractive jewelry store at 334 South Brand boulevard, but Polly refused to be interviewed. Skepticism and cynicism were in her every glance as she steadily resisted all blandishments with an occasional contemptuous grunt. Polly regards the world with the disinterested eyes of a detached on-looker and when she chooses to act holds the mirror up to nature in an astonishing way. For instance, imagine the astonishment of the lady given to lavish endearments when she heard her own tones exactly imitated in a flippant farewell of "good-bye, dear," as she left the shop.

Polly has quite a musical repertoire which she has picked up all by herself from hearing the passing crowd, no one knows exactly how. She sings "Tipperary" like a soldier lad, and is equally artistic with "Whose Pretty Baby Are You Now?" Perhaps the phonograph has taught her. At any rate she has improved her opportunities in a manner which should put to shame reluctant music pupils. Polly is especially fond of telephone conversations and frequently reproduces them in a manner which is convulsing.

Mr. Mellish is an amateur entertainer of no small note and Polly seems to feel she must live up to the reputation of the family, though like most artists she is shy and has to be handled with great diplomacy. When you want her to do things she usually keeps silent, and when you desire quiet she insists upon reciting her entire program.

She is what is called a "double yellowhead Mexican" parrot. Like the sensational newspapers she gets yellower every day about the headlines, and like them she occasionally talks too much. The yellow feathering increases on these birds with each moulting until the entire head is yellow.

MAC BAIN IS WELL PLEASED

H. G. MacBain, who a month ago had his Oakland touring car stolen from the street in front of the Palace Grand Theatre, and who two days afterwards received notice that the car had been located in Bakersfield, is very much pleased with the treatment accorded him by the Home Insurance Company, of which our townsman, W. B. Kirk, is representative. This company paid the expense of returning the car to Glendale, replaced rear tires and overhauled the engine.

MAROOINED IN THE MOUNTAINS

Owen Mosier, son of Mrs. C. M. Mosier of 1322 North Louise street, who with some boy companions was marooned in the Sierra Madre mountains for several days on account of the storm, reached home Tuesday evening about six o'clock, somewhat tired but all right. He and two boy companions, Francis and Earl Beitsch of Los Angeles, left home Saturday for a mountain hike. They made their way to Switzer's camp, where the rain caught them. Three attempts they made to get out of flooded trails without success, but they finally made it Tuesday by getting to the Mount Love Tavern on horseback and coming down from there. The boys are employees of the City Trust and Savings Bank of Los Angeles and they were joined in Switzer's Camp by three other boys similarly marooned.

FLAGS LOANED BY SCHOOL

The Intermediate school, which has a splendid collection of flags of the allied nations, is going to loan the display for the British Ambulance Drive meeting to be held at the High School auditorium Thursday evening. The flags will be moved to the High School tomorrow evening under an escort composed of Kathleen Taylor, Eleanor Sawyer, Louise Smart, Dorothy Cotton, Richard Taggart, Wilfred Cline, and Horace McRae. This is only one of the very interesting features planned for tomorrow evening's meeting.

1. WAR CONDITIONS MAKE CIRCLES.

The largest circle embraces countries allied together.

The smaller circle embraces a nation which stands solidly together.

The smallest circle embraces a city, town, or community which stands as a unit.

Nature gives us plenty to go around, but resources must be husbanded and waste eliminated, which the Government insists on.

2. IN GLENDALE WE ARE PARTICULARLY BLESSED.

Fertile ground, plenty of water, and ideal climatic conditions.

Every foot of tillable land should be planted.

The Government calls upon us to do it.

3. WASTE ELIMINATED.

This means mostly energy misdirected or misplaced. This includes a wide range. For example, five (5) laundry machines of different concerns delivering in one block. Why is this? Competition—Lack of regulation by law and American waste.

4. WHAT WE SHOULD AND EVENTUALLY WILL DO.

Communities (or circles) will be divided into zones.

To operate delivery machines the average cost is six cents per mile. This does not include driver's time, or take into consideration depreciation in car.

5. The Glendale Laundry machines' average consumption of gasoline is 87 Gallons per month. Laundry delivery machines for outside cities coming into Glendale easily consume 500 Gallons, besides man power, and also take money out of Glendale without any direct compensation to our city.

6. The Glendale laundry employs about forty (40) people, with a pay roll of approximately $500 weekly, which is a direct benefit to property owners and others of Glendale, as an industry is an asset to any city.

7. The quality of the work turned out by the Home Plant is absolutely first class, and has every reason to be. Why?

1st. The employees are skilled, experienced and the best we can get.

2d. We, fortunately, are blessed with water that when analyzed shows only a slight hardness, which insures garments sent to us to be laundered of a longer life.

8. Intensive competition is the reason so many laundries are coming into Glendale.

No better work than the Home Plant.
 No better service than the Home Plant.

Then why not be with the Government? Hooverize, keep the money in Glendale and send your linen to the

BIG DEMAND FOR CHICKEN FEED

(By United Press) WASHINGTON, Mar. 13.—To meet the greatest demand for pennies, the United States Mint produced 284,025,785 pieces of the bronze coins last year.

Last year was the largest coinage year in the history of the mint service, according to a report of the Director of the Mint Baker, a feature of the year being the coinage of smaller denominations.

The number of coins minted for domestic circulation last year was 500,725,628, valued at $35,538,903.30. The highest previous record was in 1907, when 218,505,563 pieces were struck.

The increased circulation of pennies is attributed to the operation of the Revenue Law provision for the payment of penny taxes with theatre admissions, telephone taxes, and revenue stamps.

In certain cities trolley car rides have increased to six cents, thus demanding a large circulation of pennies.

A shortage of pennies in one Western city caused one organization to issue paper penny certificates, redeemable for paper money when a sufficient amount accumulates.

Over 17 million coins for foreign countries were minted last year, Director Baker reports.

The striking of 35,840,050 pieces of metallic money for Central America and the Philippine Islands, and the preparation of 500,000 gold and 1,101,278 silver planchets for a South American Republic, Director Baker says, contributed to the making of a very active year.

SECOND WAR FUND DRIVE

The date of the Second War Fund Drive of the American Red Cross for $100,000,000 has been definitely fixed for the week starting May 20. Mr. John B. Miller, Pacific Division Chairman for the Second War Fund Campaign received this announcement by wire from Washington Saturday evening (March 9), National Headquarters also transmitting the following information concerning the drive: The War Council of the American Red Cross announces that the campaign is to raise the Second War Relief Fund of $100,000,000, and that the original date has been changed from May 6 in order that it may not in the slightest way interfere with the Liberty Loan Campaign. This postponement of two weeks makes the date of the Second War Fund Campaign of the Red Cross eleven months after the first, which was carried out during the week of June 18, 1917. The War Council was appointed by President Wilson five weeks prior to the start of the first money-raising campaign, and the first great task was to provide means of carrying on relief work on a scale commensurate with the military operations. More than $100,000,000 was contributed in response to the first call for financial aid and the contributions plus the interest brought the total receipts from the first drive to $105,099,257. Of this amount $17,006,121 was refunded to chapters for local relief work. Of the balance, $77,721,918 has been appropriated, leaving a balance available for appropriations of $10,371,217. France has been the beneficiary of the Red Cross appropriations in the sum of more than $30,000,000. During the week preceding Christmas, the Red Cross conducted a membership drive, which resulted in the enrollment of approximately 22,000,000 new members. This was followed last month by a campaign conducted by the Junior membership of the Red Cross, and which resulted in the enrollment in that collateral organization of virtually all of the school children in America.

FOR FOOD CONSERVATION Valley canneries are not neglecting any preliminary arrangements for handling big business which it is possible to make now. A canning plant is to be established in the Miller Packing House at San Fernando and contracts have been made for pimentoes from a large acreage. A cannery will also be established on the Metler Ranch in Pacoima. The San Fernando Canning Company, which is being organized as a stock corporation, it is expected will soon be started, as all but a few hundreds of the stock has been subscribed.

INCREASED RIFLE PRODUCTION

Rifle and cartridge production in the United States has developed in volume and in quality on a scale assuring the satisfactory equipment of the Army, according to a statement authorized by the Secretary of War.

To achieve the rifle and ammunition production program the Government has expended or has obligated itself to expend, during 10 months of war, $400,000,000, and 200 officers, 80,000 men and 10,000 women have been engaged exclusively in the manufacture of rifles and cartridges. Two Government plants and three privately owned plants are engaged in making rifles and one Government plant and nine privately owned plants are engaged in cartridge manufacture. Ordnance experts in this country and in Europe are in agreement that the United States Army is being equipped with two of the best three rifles in the world.

THE PEOPLE ARE SAVING Evidences are accumulating that the habit of saving among the American people, especially among the patrons of savings banks and postal savings, is outstripping the financial demands made upon them by the government. While no exact figures are available at present, it is known that postal savings deposits have steadily gained during the year 1917, and notably since the 1st of July of that year, which was after the first issue of the Liberty Loan. The reports from savings banks also show a steady gain, and the same is true of co-operative building and loan associations. Nor have the people of small means been the only savers. It is estimated that the savings of the whole people of the United States, ordinarily $5,000,000,000 to $6,000,000,000 annually, were increased to $14,000,000,000 to $15,000,000,000 in 1917. The response of the people to the national need of economy and saving has been general and generous.

FLOWERS WITHER And soon fade away,—but the value of money increases as the years go by. There are many foolish ways in which you spend money, which if added to a Bank Account would in a few years make you INDEPENDENT. Why not try a year of thrift and make this bank the depository for your funds? 4% Interest Paid on Accounts. First National Bank OF LENDALE Corner Brand Boulevard and Broadway DESTROY $100,000 PER DAY The following from a state bulletin shows the seriousness of the rodent peril and the reason why it is penny wise and pound foolish to put up with it, now that we know that the pest can be controlled: "So great is the damage to crops from the operations of the ground squirrel alone that it is estimated the loss to the state in 1917 was $35,000,000. Therefore in these war times when the conservation of food is of the greatest importance and every effort is being made to increase the productivity of our soil, Governor Stephens and the State Council of Defense have regarded it as a wise and timely expenditure to set aside $40,000 of the $1,000,000 emergency fund to the state horticultural commission for the purpose of a drive against the destructive rodent.
