CUT OUT RED TAPE

PROVOST MARSHAL GENERAL TO SELECT MEN FOR SPECIAL INDUCTION

That radical changes are to be effected in the methods of making special inductions into the army which will concentrate authority in Washington, seen evident from the text of a circular letter from the office of the Provost Marshal General which has been received by the local Exemption Board. The circular states that after July 1st competent orders (frequently termed "individual induction orders") will be issued by the Provost Marshal General only. No other person will be vested with authority to issue such orders and local Boards are instructed to ignore all orders with requests for the individual induction of registrants which are signed by any other person and which are presented to them subsequent to June 30th.

Under the new plan the competent orders, original and duplicate, will be forwarded to the Provost Marshal General's office direct to the registrant through the local Board, which will summon the registrant named in the orders and offer him voluntary induction in the particular service named. The registrant must within twenty-four hours indicate his acceptance or rejection of the offer by signing a statement at the bottom of the form. If the offer is rejected, both copies of the form are to be filed with the Questionnaire of the registrant. Upon acceptance by the registrant of voluntary induction under the competent order, the local Board will proceed to induct him in the usual manner.

It is the belief of the local Board that this direct method of induction which cuts out considerable red tape and consequently effects a considerable saving of time has been made possible by the classified information relative to registrants which was compiled by the teachers in Glendale and other cities who assisted the Board in the making of the indices of Questionnaires which were forwarded to Washington. It should be a satisfaction to Miss Vaite and her associates in the work to see the fruits of their labor thus manifesting themselves.

This more direct method should simplify the work of giving registrants a chance to select the branch of service for which they are best qualified by inclination and experience.

MUSIC SECTION LUNCHEON

The Music Section of the Tuesday Afternoon Club had its annual luncheon for members and guests at La Ramada on Friday, June 28th. This being the closing event of the section, all formality was abandoned and everybody enjoyed an informal good time. The tables were beautiful in their simplicity and patriotism was the keynote of the afternoon's program. The decorations were carried out in the national colors flags flying in the midst of ferns and red geraniums. Before seats were taken at the table, Mrs. Cline led all in a salute to the flag. This was followed by unison singing of the Star-Spangled Banner.

The luncheon, for which Mrs. A. A. Barton acted as chairman, proved a great success. As she conformed strictly to the rules laid down by Mr. Hoover, the Section felt it was doing its bit in the way of food conservation.

Following the luncheon two musical games were given to the ladies for guessing, one of which was written by Mrs. John Crampton. This was patriotic and caused much merriment among those present. Mrs. Mattison B. Jones had the honor of guessing all the titles of the patriotic songs correctly. The second game, called "A Case of Absolute Pitch," for which Mrs. Thomas Ogg was responsible, was won by Mrs. Frank Arnold.

Mrs. Jones then talked informally of the work the Federation expects from all sections and emphasized the advantage of working collectively as well as individually. Mrs. W. W. Ramsay, president of the club, voiced her appreciation of the work of the Music Section the past year, and Mrs. Y. M. C. A. huts at home and in Freeman Kelley, Chairman of Programs of the club, expressed a desire that more trench and patriotic songs should be incorporated in the club programs next year that members may learn to know the songs our boys are singing.

In closing, a rising vote of thanks was given Mrs. Frank Arnold, Curator of the Section, in appreciation of the work in which she has led this year. The Section then adjourned for the summer months, all being ready to take a rest but looking forward to next year's work under the leadership of Mrs. L. N. Hagood, who will act as Curator.

DEATH OF FRANCIS GOLDSBOROUGH

Glendale lost another worthy citizen in the death on Sunday, June 30th, 1918, of Francis W. Goldsborough, who died at his home, 346 West Fifth street, at the age of 86 years, leaving a sorrowing widow with whom he had been united for more than sixty-four years in married life. He was a native of Ohio, but for forty-six years conducted a building and contracting business in Sioux City, Iowa, where he was very highly esteemed as a citizen and business man. When his health failed he came to California and for the past eight years he and Mrs. Goldsborough have resided in or near this city. Though no longer active in business he has not been helpless by any means and was not confined to his bed until three days before his death. He is deeply mourned by four sons and three daughters, viz.: Frederick L., Charles L., and Harry W. Goldsborough of Los Angeles, and Herbert B. Goldsborough of Glendale, by Mrs. C. E. Boss and Mrs. James Currier of Glendale and Mrs. G. H. Barager of Long Beach.

Funeral services will be held at the Jewel City Undertaking parlors this (Monday) afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, conducted by Rev. B. C. Cory of the Tropic Methodist Church, and interment will be made in Forest Lawn Memorial Park.

INDEPENDENCE DAY CELEBRATION

Glendale's Federation of Parent-Teacher Associations, at all times having the welfare of its community in mind, is planning a gala program for the Fourth of July "Stay at Homes."

Many people feel that on that day of days home is "safer and saner," consequently to them the idea of having a pleasurable day brought to them will come as a splendid surprise. The children too will anticipate the "Glendale Celebration." A patriotic program with a fine speaker is in preparation, also a musical program to be in charge of Mrs. A. C. Andersen, vice-president of the Glendale Federation. Mrs. I. S. Levitt will act as chairman of refreshments and that is an assurance that they will be good.

Mr. Harkness, manual training instructor of the Intermediate school, will be in charge of the athletic program.

The purpose of the Glendale Fourth of July celebration is to raise money in order to secure game tables for the Y. M. C. A. huts at home and in France as a recreation for the soldier boys. These tables will be made gratis by the Intermediate boys, using the manual training room, but the material must be bought.

There will be no charge for admission, but a collection will be taken and we know our people will respond heartily as they have in the past. Keep in mind that all money received is to be spent for material to be used in the making of these game tables.

The Federation of Parent-Teacher Associations assures a welcome to all at the Intermediate school grounds Thursday, July 4, at 2 p. m.

FREAK STORM DOES DAMAGE

STANDARD OIL TANKS AT EL SEGUNDO AND DERRICKS AT LA BREA STRUCK BY LIGHTNING

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
LOS ANGELES, July 1.—Two of the Standard Oil Company's tanks at El Segundo were struck by lightning and exploded early today. Both were of 55,000 gallons capacity and one contained distillate and the other crude oil. Firemen from Inglewood, Hermosa and Redondo rushed to aid the oil men to save the other tanks. At La Brea an oil derrick was struck by lightning, setting fire to the derrick and oil. The oil burned for three hours. Further damage was caused to electric wiring in the La Brea fields.

The lightning that did damage in the oil field was part of the freak storm that began yesterday and continued throughout last night and up to noon today. It is the first electric storm here in twenty years and the first in July since the weather bureau was established here in 1887, according to Forecaster Carpenter.

Interurban traffic of the Pacific Electric company's northern division was paralyzed today when the lightning burned out an induction coil at the Ramona substation.

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
WASHINGTON, July 1.—President Wilson today asked Congress for power to commandeer telegraph and telephone lines. This indicates that Wilson will prevent the strike of the Commercial telegraphers union called for Monday.

SUCCESSFUL FETE

GUESTS WELL ENTERTAINED AT RED CROSS GARDEN PARTY ON TOLL GROUNDS

A fine program worthy presented in a beautiful setting, was the verdict of the three hundred or more guests who attended the garden party given as a Red Cross benefit Saturday evening on the handsome grounds of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Toll on Kenneth road. Many came early that they might enjoy a stroll through the gardens and the fine view of San Fernando Valley before dusk blotted it out.

Soldiers from Companies C and D of the Coast Artillery, who arrived Saturday to take the places of Companies A and B at the rifle range, recalled to Fort MacArthur, were present and were the guests whom all delighted to honor, from the small boys tagging them about with adoring admiration and pretty girls who strove by gracious attentions to make them feel at ease, to aged grandparents who vividly recalled other days when just such young men went forth in blue uniforms to serve their country.

Mr. and Mrs. Toll as host and hostess gave them a special welcome and when the evening's program ended and they were taken back to camp in the autos of guests, they were a well-pleased lot of soldier boys.

In accord with previous announcement, Mr. Robley, dramatic reader of the University of California and in charge of its extension work, was the chief entertainer. His interpretations and characterizations were so wonderful that his audience was quite carried away.

As a preliminary to his first recitation, by Eugene Field, "When Modjeska Played Camille," he told of Field's daily poem for the Denver paper with which he was connected, a poem usually in the vernacular of a Western miner with some local happening as a theme and into which he introduced his friends as dramatic personae. The poem showed Field's close kinship with California's Bret Harte and was new to many in the audience. He was a cheerful, wholesome entertainer with a fund of anecdotes which he strung like beads between the longer numbers. There were no lurid dramatics and there was no "sob stuff." His program included Kipling's "Gunga Din," Gibbon French's dialect number, "Pensidit," "How Sarah Fixed Things Up," Kipling's "Mandalay," the cry of the old retired English soldier, homesick for India, Ben King's "If I Should Die Tonight," Joel Chandler Harris' "Burr Rabbit and Tar Baby," and Paul Laurence Dunbar's "Little Brown Baby," which were sufficiently diverse to reveal his manifest powers.

Interspersing these numbers was excellent music. Mrs. W. Herman West sang very beautifully, "O Come with Me and Be My Love" to the familiar lilting melody of Mendelssohn's Spring Song, her second and third numbers being the no less delightful "Roses in My Garden Fair" and "Whistle and I'll Come to You, My Lad."

Julius Kranz, whose playing never fails to arouse great enthusiasm, contributed two lovely numbers, the second, "A Mission Romance," being his own composition.

Spencer Robinson has a fine voice and he fills his audience with a great content when he sings such dear familiar things as he chose on this occasion, "Believe Me, if All Those Endearing Young Charms" and "Auld Lang Syne," in which he persuaded the audience to join.

Mrs. J. A. Wright's piano number was a familiar and intricate classical selection which displayed her fine technique to excellent advantage.

Two other musicians who rendered much appreciated service were Mrs. Spencer Robinson, who accompanied her husband upon the piano, and Miss Gertrude Chamberlain, who furnished the accompaniment for Mrs. West.

Dr. Henry R. Harrower announced the numbers and other things in his big, breezy way and finally sang the "Marseillaise" in his most splendid manner.

The Star and Stripes which triumphantly dominated the decorations never seemed more beautiful than in the garden setting, whether seen in the sunset glow before twilight or the soft radiance of electric lights, but when reinforced, as they were, by the clustering flags of the Allies, nothing finer could be imagined. There were flowers, too, on the refreshment tables, but they were secondary to the flags. The patriotic spirit they inspired found its voice in the singing of "Columbia, the Gem of the Ocean," "America," and the "Star-Spangled Banner," in which Dr. Harrower led the audience.

W. S. S. SUBSCRIPTIONS

LARGE AMOUNT PLEDGED DURING CAMPAIGN CONTINUES TO GROW

Professor Harry Howe reports that since his official returns were dispatched to Chairman Flint in Los Angeles, belated subscriptions to the War Savings Fund have been coming in by the hundreds from citizens who were absent when their homes were visited by the solicitors, but who do not wish to be left out of the reckoning. The subscriptions have now reached a total of $85,000 and seem likely to go to $90,000 as Mr. Howe and the precinct captains will continue to receive them and embody them in a supplemental report to headquarters. It will therefore be possible for any one who desires to do so to turn in his pledge or subscription to Mr. Howe or a precinct captain any time within the next few days.

Mr. Howe also states that the committee has received four limit pledges of $1000 each, from the following persons: Mr. and Mrs. Peter Ferry, each $1000, Mr. Wilkins of the Bungalow Grocery, and Mrs. Ella W. Richardson, who gives the Cerritos P.-T. A. credit for the subscription and will buy her stamps through that school.

The largest returns from any captain were from Mrs. Houston of Precinct No. 3, whose total was something over $8000. As good work was done by other captains, however, in large precincts sparsely settled where the service was hard and the returns small by comparison. In general the response by the people of Glendale has been very gratifying to Mr. Howe and his associates, who feel that they have reason to be proud of our citizenship.

FATHER O'NEILL HONORED

The Right Reverend John J. Cantwell, D. D., Roman Catholic Bishop of Los Angeles, notified Father O'Neill last week of his appointment on the "Bishop's Board."

There are 275 priests in the Los Angeles diocese, and the Bishop's Board attends to the various administrative work connected with a busy diocese. It is a coincidence that the Bishop's letter reached Father O'Neill June 28, as it was the 16th anniversary of his ordination to priesthood. This may mean a call to a city parish.

While Father O'Neill's many friends will rejoice in his promotion, they will be sorry to see him leave Glendale and the Holy Family Catholic Church.

The following registrants in this district have been notified by the Exemption Board to respond to the call for five men to be sent July 15th to Fort McDowell. The list includes three extras to take the places of men who may be excused for good and sufficient reasons:

- Carl Benjamin Gray, Mozart Apartments, Los Angeles.

PATRIOTIC SERVICE

The First Congregational church was the scene of an intensely patriotic meeting last night. A splendid program was prepared by the pupils of the Sunday School and greatly enjoyed by a large and patriotic audience.

The address of the evening was given by Judge J. H. Franklin. His theme was patriotism and he spoke of the good results that would follow in the wake of the blood and sacrifice of the nations; of the regenerated manhood and womanhood of the country and of a more loyal and united patriotism to our nation. His address, while short and to the point, was the kind that reaches the heart of every true patriot.

The Sunday School and choir responded in their usual gracious manner when called upon to do their bit. The committee desires to thank all those who took part in the program, also Miss Frances Payne, violinist, who accompanied Mrs. Lewis Abell, pianist, and Miss Bingham, who decorated the church in such an appropriate manner.

Is it not wonderful that a day such as today has been named "Mothers' Day," that these boy soldiers are urged, and respond, to write a letter of cheer, love and comfort to their mothers, whose sacrifice is far greater than their own?

The above letter was written on Mother's Day by Courtney Jones, who is in the Aviation Service in France, to his mother in Los Angeles.

In May these societies appealed to President Wilson to issue a proclamation calling upon all native Americans to unite with the foreign born in observing the national holiday, and plans for the many celebrations developed after the proclamation was issued. In answer to queries regarding the protection afforded against mustard gas by American masks, word has come from the Expeditionary Forces that no information has been received that any box respirator of American or English manufacture has been penetrated in the field.

RELATIVE TO CHILD LABOR The Department of Labor authorizes the following statement: Telegrams and letters have been pouring into the Children's Bureau from the mines, the mills, and the factories of the country asking whether in view of the Supreme Court's decision that the United States child labor law is unconstitutional, children can now be put on the long day. Some employers ask, "Can we now work children under 16 full time at night?" and others, "Are we allowed to work them in the mines?" In order that no time may be lost in getting the children back to work the request usually ends, "Wire reply collect." In response to the question as to what rearrangements of work were being made by the bureau in view of the decision, Miss Julia C. Lathrop said that the field staff of the Child Labor Division had been called in for a conference and were returning to complete investigations. About 50 subsistence inspectors of the Army attended a school of one week recently held at Washington, D. C., to receive instruction in methods to standardize the inspection of food.

NEEDED TO FEED MEN ON TRANSPORTS An account of how soldiers are fed at sea is given in the daily newspaper published on a transport: "Outside of providing 210,000 meals at sea, the mess officer of the ship has very little to do. Very little. "He is only called upon to provide, by the regulations, 180 different varieties of food. That's all. Ever try to order 180 different things to eat? Yet this is the authentic list. "The food needed to feed several thousand men at sea ranges beyond the glutton's dreams. You get the answer in the ship down below the water line, where 7,290 loaves of bread have been baked in one day, and where you stumble over every variety, from 60,000 pounds of beef to 132,000 eggs, or a compartment of brick ice cream in a 10-degree-above-zero vault. "And if this doesn't suit, you can bump along into 49,324 pounds of potatoes, 7,100 pounds of ham and bacon, 7,800 pounds of butter, 9,200 pounds of sugar, and 61,500 pounds of flour. "If you can't get a meal out of this you can still fall back on 4,600 pounds of sausage, 3,400 pounds of sauerkraut, 26,000 pounds of apples, 19,800 pounds of oranges, and 4,200 pounds of onions. And this leaves out 1,600 pounds of jam and 9,400 pounds of lima and navy beans. FARM LOAN BONDS The Federal Farm Loan Board issues the following: The Federal Farm Loan Board has closed its bond-selling campaign and accordingly instructed the 12 Federal land banks and bond houses throughout the country which have been offering the bonds. The campaign was inaugurated on May 23 and approximately $60,000,000 in bonds have been sold. This will be sufficient to meet the needs of the farm loan system for several months to come. Women stenographers and typists are now being enrolled in the Naval Reserve as yeomen.

Personals

Rev. Vernon H. Cowser and family expect to spend the month of July at Hermosa Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Blake Franklin and family, 1498 West Third street, are planning to spend the month at Bass Lake, Madera county.

Miss Clara Midcalf, 344 Orange, teacher at the Intermediate school, will spend her vacation with her sister, Mrs. F. O. Haskell, at Redondo Beach.

Mrs. George W. Martin of Montrose, Colorado, formerly Miss Lucile Spencer, arrived Friday evening to spend six weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Olin Spencer, 1537 West Broadway.

Mrs. W. C. Bradley, who had undergone a serious operation at a hospital, has been brought to her home at 1617 Oak street. Although she is recovering as rapidly as could be hoped for, she is not yet able to see her friends.

Ronald Elrod reports that through an ad in the Glendale Evening News he purchased the Glendale rights of the publication "Camera," devoted to film subjects and is ready to furnish the paper to all interested in such a publication.

Of the 95 registrants in this District, about 25 had called at the headquarters of the Exemption Board and filed Questionnaires up to Saturday afternoon. Wednesday will be the last day for filing Questionnaires and the interval between now and then will probably be a very busy one at the Board rooms.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Peckham, of 245 North Central avenue, entertained Sunday in honor of Mrs. Peckham's nephew, Ensign Chester Cornelius Chandler of the Naval Reserve, who is here from San Francisco. The Ensign is the son of A. L. Chandler of Glendale. Twelve members of the Chandler family visited the Peckham home during the day to greet the young officer.

O. H. Belew of this city, who is one of Uncle Sam's soldiers, has been called to Camp Kearny and leaves for San Diego Tuesday morning. He and Mrs. Belew have been enjoying a vacation together the past week at Catalina and other places and we all know his little wife will give him the kind of a send-off a loyal American should, for she is one of the most patriotic women in Glendale. The service she gave in strenuous clerical work during the Liberty Loan drive and in work for the Red Cross showed the quality of woman she is.

The parents of boys in the manual training departments of our public schools will be glad to know that arrangements have been made to have the rooms of the Manual Arts Department of the Intermediate open every morning in the week except Tuesday and Thursday in charge of Mr. Harkness, during July and August, and playgrounds also under the supervision of Mr. Harkness, will be open afternoons. This will be a fine thing for the boys and will enable them to make the tables for which the Y. M. C. A. has sent out calls, these tables to be used in the playing of games in the Y. M. C. A. huts.

GARDEN FETE POSTPONED

Dr. Durfee, who is attending Mrs. Charles M. Turck of 521 Glendale avenue, has exercised his authority and forbidden her to proceed at present with the big garden fete which she had planned for the benefit of the Red Cross, to be given in her garden the latter part of this month. Mrs. Turck was prostrated about a week ago by a prevailing influenza which has confined her to her home ever since. Though she is recovering she is still weak and nervous and, in the doctor's opinion, in no condition to undertake anything so strenuous as a three-day fete would be. She has therefore consented, reluctantly, to a postponement of the affair, but expects to carry it through later and is counting on the help of her friends, who have interested themselves in the matter, when the time comes.

A conference of women will be held in Chicago on July 9, 10, and 11 and means for the measure of service we may have been beginning Liberty loan campaign. The members of the national woman's Liberty loan committee, women chairmen of the local reserve districts, and State chairmen of the woman's Liberty loan committee. Mrs. William McArthur, chairman of the national woman's Liberty loan committee, will be present.

BIG PARTY PLANNED FOR SOLDIERS

Mrs. Ella W. Richardson and a party of friends drove out to the rifle range Sunday and invited Captain Stewart and his men to a tennis court dance and indoor party to be given in honor of Companies D and C at the Richardson home, 805 South Central, Thursday, July 4, at 7 o'clock. Captain Stewart's response was: "We will be there almost to a man." Capt. Stewart is a West Point man and the visitors were delighted with his bearing and the general atmosphere of the camp.

WOMEN IN MEDICAL CORPS

The Committee on Public Information, Division on Women's War Work, issues the following:
 Two women psychologists have been appointed to the Army Medical Department at Washington, Dr. Mabel Fernald and Dr. Margaret Cobb. According to Maj. R. M. Yerkes, of the Psychological Division, trained women can be used for the highly specialized work of handling the Army reports and may eventually be called upon to assist with work in special hospitals dealing with cases of reconstruction.

I. E. WEAVER FUNERAL

Funeral services for I. E. Weaver were held at the home Saturday morning. Rev. Norton led in prayer. Miss Isgrig sang two favorite hymns. Rev. B. D. Snudden gave a comforting message from the text: "Let me die the death of the righteous and let my last end be like his."
 We are slow to learn the lessons of God. Men look upon this world as a wreck and our business is to save ourselves and escape at death. The Psalmist does not give this thought. "The earth is full of the goodness of the Lord." "O Lord, the earth is full of thy riches." Some people think of life as a burden. They speak of the westward side of fifty. "I am going down the hill." There are those who say that when the appointed years of life are past it is better to die forthwith than to live. But the Master saw life so glorious that he said "Lo, I am with you always." Life is so magnificent, so divine, so worth while if the Divine Spirit abides constantly. We have thought of death as a despoiler, a robber, the king of terrors. Yet we remember the words of Scripture, "O, death, where is thy sting? O, grave, where is thy victory?" Even though death may be like a winter blast, causing this tenement of clay to fall to the ground, it has no victory. Take this thought: "Let me die the death of the righteous and let my last end be like his."
 Here we have an ideal for death: "Let me die the death of the righteous." We are to take the climax of life, set before us one great ideal for that climax and then work toward it. The tragedy of a race in athletic games is not its close—rather the order in which the contest is finished. The passing of Father Weaver is ideal. In this community are many bound to him by the closest ties of friendship born of a real camaraderie for the children of men. In the church men hung upon his words as he told in simple diction of his faith, and his children and grandchildren were about him and he looked with confidence to the invisible. This is ideal. Men come to the ideal by a definite pathway. Life is not a thing of chance. When men come to the saints' crowning, they come by the saints' pathway. A beautiful old age is fashioned by beautiful years. This home was fragrant with the incense of a sacred love consecrated by the overshadowing influence of the love of God.
 Father Weaver was a Knight of God. He went forth with a splendid enthusiasm for his King. We are realizing today that the man who gives himself is the highest type of humanity. The knighthood of this man found expression in four characteristics:
 His faith, which never wavered until he has left to his children the strong integrity and wonderful Christian character of a Godly father. An heritage indeed.
 His love, that went out not only in beautiful solicitude to his immediate family, but to his friends and neighbors.
 His vision, broad enough to see the possibilities of the nations across the seas touched by the news of a great salvation.
 His optimism, realizing every good and perfect thing is in the hands of God. This had much to do with his attitude toward music and song. One can not really sing in a pessimistic mood. All the pent-up music of his soul found expression these last days, and his wife said to him: "I know what you will be doing in Heaven—you will be singing."
 There is a song of the saints and "no one can learn that song but the hundred and forty and four thousand redeemed from the earth." Our songs grow out of our experiences. He came to his hour of triumph with the matchless hymns of the church of God upon his lips. The years of faith and love and vision and optimism and service had been moulding and shaping his heart life and he might well have said: "I have fought a good fight, I have finished the course, I have kept the faith. Henceforth is laid up for me a crown of righteousness which the Lord, the righteous Judge, shall give me in that day, and not to me only but to all them also who love his appearing."

 Many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Toll and of the Red Cross rallied to assist in making the affair the success it proved to be. Among these, Walker & Wilde, of the Ford Agency, who had charge of the auto service, rendered great service. Mr. Lynch of the Department of Public Service, which furnished the lights free of charge, and his assistants who installed them, contributed greatly, and for the beautiful collection of flags used in the stage setting Mrs. Toll was indebted to Professor Richardson D. White and the Intermediate school. The Richardson Transfer Company transported without charge the chairs which were loaned by the public schools, by Scovern, Letton & Frey and by the Pulliam Undertaking Company.

The splendid publicity given the fete was due to Attorney Frederick Baker, who was in charge of the advertising.

Mrs. Harry Peterson was the very efficient general chairman of refreshments and was assisted by Misses Ellen and Nellie Williams. Mrs. A. S. Chase, Misses Vera and Margaret McPherson, and Misses Lois Olmstead, Bertha Fangman, Marie Oliver, Carita Conner, and Dorothy Cotton. Mrs. Oliver had charge of the cornucopia table, and Mesdames Kelley and Cotton of the punch table.

Miss Alice Frank, assistant of Dr. Harrower, Chairman of the Red Cross Entertainment Committee, rendered valuable assistance in the arrangement of the program.

The majority of the young ladies who helped were members of the War Service Club which meets Tuesday evening at Red Cross headquarters to make surgical dressings. Misses Turner, Shropshire and Sadler, of this club, wearing the Red Cross nurse costume, received the admissions at the stations where the autos discharged their passengers.

Mr. Toll as host asked the privilege of treating all the soldiers to refreshments, and everybody had an exceedingly pleasant evening. Not all the returns are in at this writing, but it is probable the fete will yield $80 or more for the Red Cross.

JUSTICE

Text, Aquarian Gospel, Chap. 49: 20. My conscience rules; what these, my brothers, have to say I'll hear, and when the testimony all is in I will decide. You can not judge for me, nor I for you.

Text, St. John 5:30. I can of mine own self do nothing; as I hear, I judge; and my judgment is just; because I seek not mine own will, but the will of the Father which hath sent me.

When Jesus took his first step on the way to mastery by proving his sincerity in his desire for knowledge of himself and his oneness with God he was not content to rest but said I will go on and learn my lessons all; if there are trials, let them come, for every victory over self gives added strength; and so to the medium who would unfold the gifts of the spirit will come many hours of trial to test his sincerity whether the promise to the spirit to work for the human family was the word of a hypocrite or the word of sincere meaning. Remember Jesus said: "Whoever puts his hand to the plow and looks back is not worthy to be my follower, and remember every victory over self is one step nearer power and when the tempters of earth come to you and your life and attempt in their ignorance to lead you from your chosen path of unfoldment, answer as Jesus did to those who tempted him in the temple: "No man can judge for me and if I judge of myself alone I will judge wrongly but I will enter deep into the silence of prayer and in tune with the Spirit of God will learn the truth and then I shall be able to judge rightly." Let this be your rule in every decision of your life in regard to everything and everybody and then indeed shall the Master Spirit place to your credit in the record of time the word of Justice and you shall have gained a victory over the carnal mind and found happiness for yourself and be a help to all with whom you come in contact and you will have taken one more step on the way to mastery; the next step is Faith.

To Motormen and Conductors

Pacific Electric Railway

You have been asked by outside steam line union agitators to strike, with no reason except to secure recognition of unions.

Do YOU know what that means?

It means aid to the Huns. It means efforts to cripple transportation to Los Angeles Harbor and thereby cripple ship construction; yet more and more ships, AS QUICKLY AS POSSIBLE, are vital that our Southern California boys, on European battlefields, be not helplessly slaughtered.

Do YOU stand for that?

It means an attempt to cripple service to our Army and Navy at the Harbor.

Do YOU stand for that?

Your wages have been raised five times voluntarily in thirty months—you who were in service in December, 1915, are getting on the average more than 40 per cent increase since that date.

Is THAT unfair?

You are making on the average in street car service $125 per month; interurban passenger service $135 per month; and in freight service $167 per month.

Your wages have been fixed on the exact basis of increase recommended by the National Railroad Wage Commission as adopted by the Director General of Federal Railroads. This was voluntary—the Pacific Electric is not a Federal road.

Don't you know that, according to the National Railroad Wage Commission report in December last year, 51 per cent of the railroad employes of the United States received LESS than $75 per month and 80 per cent less than $100 per month—and only 3 per cent over $150 per month.

Are not our wages living wages?

You get paid by the hour, so every hour you put in represents gain to you. Have you in mind what the National Railroad Commission said in its report of April 30th as to hours of service during the war? It said—

"Manifestly, therefore, at this time, when men must be constantly taken from the railroads, as from all other industries to fill the growing needs of the nation's army, hours of labor cannot be shortened and thereby a greater number of men be required for railroad work. The nation cannot, in good faith, call upon the farmers and the miners to work as never before, and press themselves to unusual tasks, and at the same time so shorten the hours of railroad men as to call from farm and mine additional and unskilled men to run the railroads.

"The Commission does not believe that the Railroad employes really want thus to hamper the transportation facilities of the country in its hour of need."

Anything WRONG in this?

Do you know that in the President's Proclamation of March 29th last, incorporating as a part thereof the principles and policies to govern relations between workers and employers during the war, as adopted by the National War Labor Board, the one most emphasized was:

"THERE SHOULD BE NO STRIKES OR LOCKOUTS DURING THE WAR."

Do you know also, in the same proclamation, it is stated that workers "shall not use coercive measures of any kind to induce persons to join their organizations, nor to induce employers to bargain or deal therewith?"

And that a policy by a company of dealing ONLY with its own employees under "open shop" conditions shall NOT be deemed a grievance?

Are YOU going to violate these policies?

Are YOU going to be a party to a plan to tie up Southern California industries essential to winning the war by tying up transportation AND THUS HELP THE ENEMY?

I don't believe you are. As for the Pacific Electric Railway, it has an obligation to me to keep its service going; to take care of passenger service to industries; to protect all its employees, AND THESE THINGS WILL BE DONE.

I ask you to reflect carefully before you act. Consider this situation from the viewpoint of patriotic Americans who want a record through the war; one you will be proud of and that your children will be proud

Paul Shoup,
President
