Dear Frank,

I thought I would give a part of my 'Commencement' day, to a call upon you - supposing that you had returned from your journey. - But, for y<sup>r</sup>. own sake, & your father's, I am glad your absence is to be prolonged still a week. - On my way hither Edw<sup>d</sup>. S. Philbrick has handed me a contribution for Mrs. Nell, - wh. I sh<sup>d</sup>. have passed along to you, - but will by & by, send to your father. - I have paid the bill of the J. S. Cochrane books.
