Swiss Desire to Co-operate With League of Nations

Confidence Expressed By Swiss Representative; Recent Incident Involving Switzerland Declared Closed At Session of Council.

Paris, March 4.—Confidence that in any future cases which might arise between Switzerland and the League of Nations a settlement satisfactory to both sides would be reached because of the growing closeness of their relations, was expressed at the closing session of the Council of the League of Nations to-day by Dr. Dunant, Swiss Minister to France. He made this statement in giving to the Council the reply of his Government to the observations recently made by Leon Bourgeois, of France, to the effect that Switzerland had delivered a blow to the moral prestige of the League by refusing right of way across Switzerland to the League force for police duty during the forthcoming plebiscite in the Vinea area.

M. Bourgeois, in the name of the Council, then declared the incident closed.

GERMAN REDS MAKE AN EFFORT

Talk Revolution Because Allies Are Firm

Berlin, March 4.—The German Communist Party to-day made the Allied ultimatum, delivered to the German delegation in London, the occasion for a revolutionary proclamation in which the German workingman is called on to overthrow the Government, erect a Soviet Government and effect a political and economic alliance with Russia.

The Communists announce that demonstrations will be held on Sunday.

Coblenz, March 4.—All the Allied generals of the army of occupation were entertained here to-day by Paul Tirard, president of the International Rhineland Commission. The guests included Lieut-General Sir T. L. Morland, commander of the British army on the Rhine; General Rouquay, of the Belgian forces, and Generals Mordacq, Caron, Gavet, Heucher and Futeois, all of the French Rhine armies.

It was officially stated the generals attending were simply the guests of M. Tirard.

Rumors.—London, March 4.—Vague hints that discussions were going on among the Allies regarding the possibility of bridging the gulf between them and the Germans were heard last night. Nothing tangible, however, developed and members of the German delegation told newspapermen at midnight they had secured nothing from Berlin regarding the matter made yesterday by Mr. Lloyd George in presenting the Allied ultimatum to Dr. Simons.

To-day's newspapers engaged in speculation regarding the extent of the Allied military measures to be adopted if the Germans should fail to meet the terms laid down by the Supreme Council in Paris. The Daily Mirror claimed to have information that the British War Office was ready to place a division of infantry at the disposal of Marshal Foch, and the newspaper said it understood that the British would occupy Düsseldorf.

Rt. Hon. Andrew Bonar Law, remarked in the House of Commons the other day that the number of British troops on the Rhine numbered 12,909.

Foch's Opinion.—Marshal Foch, it was declared by The London Times, believes the Allies sufficiently strong in occupied districts of Germany to hold Dusseldorf, Duisburg and Ruhrort, if necessary. A dispatch from Brussels stated a battery of artillery had been dispatched to German territory occupied by Belgian troops.

AT PORTO RICAN PORT.—San Salvador, March 4.—Six warships and twelve hydroplanes of the United States Pacific Fleet have arrived at Punta Arenas, Costa Rica, according to a dispatch received here.

B. C. Spends $490,000 to Relieve Unemployment

The unemployment debate precipitated by the resolution of Sam Guthrie, Socialist, member for Newcastle, came to an end in the House yesterday afternoon after Premier Oliver detailed what the Government has done to relieve the situation since early Winter, and after the resolution had been amended to one of approval of the relief measures adopted and pledging the support of the House to any further measures the Government takes.

The amendment to the resolution was carried in committee by 22 to 18 votes. The division vote for adopting the committee's report was 23 to 19. All the labor men and independents, including Kenneth Duncan, member for Cowichan, voted with the Conservatives against the Government. Attorney-General Farris, Mrs. Ralph Smith and R. H. Pooley were absent.

The Premier declared that the Government was indebted to the mem-

JOHN MACSWINEY SENT TO PRISON

Late Cork Mayor's Brother Sentenced; Also Others

Cork, March 4.—John MacSwiney, brother of the late Lord Mayor of Cork, was one of ten men who were sentenced to fifteen years' imprisonment here to-day for waging war against Crown forces, mainly in possession of arms, munitions and explosives. Another convicted man was sentenced to ten years' penal servitude.

Curfew Hour.—Dublin, March 4.—Announcement has been made that the curfew hour has been advanced from 10 o'clock in the evening to 9 o'clock until conditions improved. It is believed this order, which was caused by the continuance of night fighting in the streets, will compel theatres and moving picture houses to close their doors.

CITY WARNED ON B. C. ELECTRIC PLAN

Ask Members to Block Transfer of Company

Developments which have occurred during the last twenty-four hours have led the civic authorities of Victoria and Vancouver to fear that the proposed transfer of the B. C. Electric Railway Company to Federal control may yet be carried out. As a result, City Solicitor H. S. Pringle has written Hon. S. F. Tolmie, Minister of Agriculture, and J. C. McIntosh, Federal member for Nanaimo riding, to do all in their power to oppose the transfer and to operate in the matter with the Union of Canadian Municipalities.

A telegram from Mr. McIntosh describing the present status of the B. C. Electric question was received at the City Hall here yesterday, and in Mayor Porter's absence, was taken under advisement by Mr. Pringle. Mr. McIntosh stated that the company had not withdrawn its application for a Federal charter, and that the application would come before Parliament for consideration in the near future. It was in answer to this telegram that the City Council, by resolution, requested Mr. Pringle to act to block the application.

Conference To-day.—This morning Mr. Pringle conferred at the Parliament Buildings with the Mayor of Vancouver and heads of the B. C. Electric Railway Company, including A. T. Goward, local manager. He was informed (concluded on page 4).

JAPANESE PRINCE LEAVES FOR EUROPE

Departure of Crown Prince Occasion for "Display"

Tokio, March 4.—Prince Hirochito, heir-apparent to the throne of Japan, left to-day for Europe. His departure was marked by an imposing military and naval display. Fifteen thousand soldiers and police lined the streets from the palace to the station and the Crown Prince passed under beautiful arches which had been constructed in his honor. The special train taking the Crown Prince from Tokio to Yokohama was boarded by members of the Imperial Family, Cabinet Ministers, members of the diplomatic corps and upwards of a hundred Japanese officials.

Because of disquieting rumors growing out of opposition to the Prince's departure, the railroad to Yokohama was closely guarded. Upon reaching the port the Prince was taken to the battleship Katori, which will take him to Europe.

GOVERNOR AT RED CROSS MEETING

Assistance of Duke of Devonshire Acknowledged

Toronto, March 4.—Hearty tributes were paid to the Duke of Devonshire, Governor-General of Canada, at the annual meeting of the Canadian Red Cross Society here yesterday for his fine spirit during the war and his splendid services to the society.

The Governor-General, who expressed regret that owing to illness the Duchess of Devonshire was unable to be present, referred to the fact that this was probably the last meeting of the Society he could attend.

Among western members elected to the Central Council were the following: Sir Frank Barnard, Mrs. Fleming, Victoria; A. J. Forsythe, Vancouver; F. W. Jones and Sir Richard Lake, Victoria; John Ridington, Vancouver.

TRAIL SMELTER

Nelson, March 4.—Receipts at the Trail smelter for the last seven days of February were $6,011 tons of ore and concentrates. This brings the receipts for the first two months of the year at Trail to $6,211 tons.

TRIBUTES PAID TO WOODROW WILSON

Premier Briand and Others Make Statements

Bernstorff Declines to Send a Message

London, March 4.—M. Briand, the French Premier, commenting on the retirement of Woodrow Wilson as President of the United States to-day, said: "France will cherish eternally the memory of the statesman who took the responsibility for the intervention of the United States in the great war is inseparably from the victory and will remain equally engraved upon French hearts."

Idealism.—"We know the generous idealism which animates the American policy and which has always inspired the high personages called to the supreme magistracy. I know President Harding will be for the sister republic as sure, as large in spirit and as devoted to the triumph of right as his illustrious predecessor."

Send-Off.—New York, March 4.—(Canadian Press)—The New York World this morning gave President Wilson a warm send-off after eight years of administrative service at Washington by publishing messages of praise from eminent statesmen and men of affairs in all parts of the world, including Great Britain, France Italy, Belgium, Japan, Brazil and Spain.

Germans.—The comment of political Germans is particularly bitter. Ex-Prince Max of Baden says President Wilson has played false to his own ideals. "The cry of those who once loved Wilson must be: 'Long live the cause he betrayed,'" he says. Ex-Count von Bernstorff, former German Ambassador at Washington, says he is the last man in the world to write about President Wilson, but thanks The World for the request.

VOTERS REJECT "P. R." POLLING SYSTEM

Two-to-One Majority for Old Voting Plan

After a brief existence here, the Proportional Representation system of voting was rejected by a two-to-one majority at the polls yesterday. "P. R." received the support of only 1,143 voters while 2,324 voted against it. Thirty-three ballots were spoiled. As a result of this emphatic decision on the part of the electors, the old system of voting will be used again at the next civic election.

Before the election opponents of "P. R." never had any doubt that the system would be rejected while even its most enthusiastic supporters were beginning to feel that public sentiment had turned against it. When it was discovered yesterday that the ballot on the "P. R." question had been so worded as to confuse many voters the opponents of the system began to fear that they might lose out. Many people thinking they were voting against "P. R." supported it, they claim. They declare that had the ballot been clearly worded the majority against the system would have been far greater than that which actually was piled up. Even under the existing circumstances, however, the large majority accorded to the sentiments of the electorate.

BOSTON IS SCENE OF $400,000 FIRE

Boston, March 4.—Fire of unknown origin which caused damage estimated at $400,000, partly destroyed the car barns of the Boston Elevated Railway Company here early to-day. Forty-six persons occupying houses opposite the blazing structure were guided through smoke-filled halls to safety by the police. There were forty-five cars burned.

TO MAKE MATCHES.—Nelson, B.C., March 4.—Provisional directors were elected yesterday for the Kootenay Match Company, whose incorporation for $100,000 was authorized. The plant will be at Nelson and the first run is expected to be ready for operation in two months.

German Newspapers Urge Berlin to Oppose Allies

Berlin, March 4.—The German newspapers, in their comment on the Allied ultimatum to Germany on reparations, are unanimous in demanding that the Government oppose the ultimatum with a determined "No."

The Cabinet had no definite official news from Dr. Simons and in the absence of this confined its deliberations at last night's session, which lasted until 9 o'clock, to an informal survey of the situation. Chancellor Fehrenbach, it was announced, is to make a statement to the Reichstag to-day.

CHIEF FIGURE TO-DAY IN WASHINGTON CEREMONIES

Warren G. Harding Is Inaugurated As President of U.S.

Ceremonies in National Capital of Republic To-day; New Chief Executive Declares States Wishes to Aid in Making War Thing of Past.

Washington, March 4.—Warren G. Harding, of Ohio, and Calvin Coolidge, of Massachusetts, were inaugurated to-day President and Vice-President of the United States. Mr. Harding took the oath at 1.18 p.m. and Mr. Coolidge at 12.21 p.m.

Immediately after the administration of the oath of office, Mr. Harding turned to the vast crowd which stretched across the Capitol Plaza and began delivery of his inaugural address. Sound amplifiers carried his voice to the outskirts of the big assembly. A chilly wind, feebly warmed by a bright sun, swept the broad space, which appeared strangely in contrast with other years when it was illuminated by the uniforms of West Point cadets, midshipmen from Annapolis and troops.

Pledging his faith anew to American institutions, President Harding reiterated a plea for a return to "normalcy," for industrial peace, for friendship with the world, and spoke again a promise to work for an association of nations to bring about peace and "approximate" disarmament.

But he coupled his renewed declarations with a fresh pronouncement against "entangling alliances."

Sole Decision.—"America," he said, "can enter into no political commitments, nor assume any economic obligations which will subject our decisions to any other than our own authority." "I am sure our people will not misunderstand nor will the world misconstrue," said the new President. "We have no thought to impede the paths to closer relationship. We wish to promote understanding. We want to do our part to make offensive warfare so hateful that governments and peoples who resort to it must prove the righteousness of their cause or stand as outlaws before the bar of civilization."

Not Selfishness.—Then, speaking of his determination to enter no "entangling alliances," Mr. Harding declared: "This is not selfishness, it is sanctity. It is not aloofness, it is security. It is the suspicion of others, it is patriotic adherence to the things which made us what we are."

Immediately at the conclusion of the inaugural address the small party reformers and took cars back to the White House, escorted by the cavalry troops which had brought it to the Capitol.

Arrival.—Soon after 11 o'clock President Harding and Vice-President Coolidge arrived at the Capitol for the inaugural ceremonies which were to begin exactly an hour later. Accompanied by Senator Knox and Representative Cannon, ranking members of the Inaugural Committee, the new President and Vice-President, accompanied by a cavalry escort, motored down Pennsylvania Avenue.

No Acknowledgments.—A thin crowd which stood in the chill night cheered at intervals, but Mr. Wilson made no acknowledgments and Mr. Harding obviously in respect to the outgoing President, took none of the cheering for himself. When President Wilson descended the steps from the car back of the White House service men placed his feet on each succeeding step. President-Elect Harding waited until Mr. Wilson had been assisted into the car and had taken his seat. When the party was seated, President Wilson raised his hat slightly and with the signal a battery of cameras began to click.

In Automobile.—President Wilson and President-Elect Harding sat on the rear seat of the automobile, with Mr. Wilson on the right hand side, Senator Knox and Representative Cannon occupied a seat facing them.

There was a demonstration by the crowd on the plaza as the Presidential party arrived. President-Elect Harding got out of the automobile at the regular Senate entrance and entered the Capitol. The automobile then moved on to a little used door between the Senate wing and the main building of the Capitol, where Mr. Wilson was assisted out of the car.

MINISTER URGES CO-OPERATION

Senator Robertson Endorses Industrial Councils

Ottawa, March 4.—That the work of industrial council should be the basis of organized, co-operative effort between employer and employee, without which there could not be the same control and stability, was one of many interesting statements made by Senator Robertson, Minister of Labor, in an address on industrial relations yesterday before the Ottawa branch of the Engineering Institute of Canada.

Colonel C. P. Edwards, chairman, paid tribute to the efforts of Senator Robertson and the Labor Department to bring about a better industrial understanding. Colonel Edwards stated that if Canada had enjoyed remarkable freedom from industrial trouble, it was due in no small measure to the efforts of Senator Robertson and the Labor Department to bring about a better industrial understanding. Colonel Edwards stated that if Canada had enjoyed remarkable freedom from industrial trouble, it was due in no small measure to the efforts of Senator Robertson and the Labor Department to bring about a better industrial understanding.

Railway Bonds Subject of Questions at Ottawa

Senator Robertson Endorses Industrial Councils

Ottawa, March 4.—(Canadian Press)—The certificates and bonds of the Canadian Northern Railway issued May 1, 1920, to the extent of $15,000,000 and December 1, 1920, to the extent of $25,000,000, and Grand Trunk bonds amounting to $37,000,000 are made the subject of an inquiry by William Duff, of Lunenburg. Mr. Duff wants to know if the bonds and certificates were all issued through Dillon & Read Company, of New York, and what commission they received. Mr. Duff also wants to know what bank or individual acted on behalf of the Government and what connection Miller Laah, of Toronto, had with the sale.

A. R. McMaster, Bross, is asking if the Government guaranteed the Grand Trunk issue, and if not, if the bonds were issued with the consent of the Government. He also wants to know if the cost of distribution amounted to $1,000,000. Regarding the Canadian Northern loan, Mr. McMaster asks if commissions amounted to $950,000. He wants to know if the Government in October guaranteed Grand Trunk Railway bonds to the extent of $25,000,000. If after the commissions were paid, if the railway company duly received $23,550,000.

PARIS PAPERS SUM

UP WILSON'S WORK

Comment on the Retiring American President

Paris, March 4.—Paris papers of all shades of political opinion devote lengthy articles to the change in the American administration in which comment on the departure of President Wilson holds a larger place than speculation on the coming of President Harding.
The Temps says: "President Wilson believes in principles as one believes in God. He has failed in his noble effort, as are bound to fail all those who wish to act above human nature as it is constituted."
"Woodrow Wilson will remain, however, as a man who desired to unsheath the sword to defend Right and Liberty. For this alone he will remain forever in history as a great American."
Noble Soldier.
The Petit Parisien says: "Despite the bitter attacks to which he has been subjected, President Wilson will remain great because he has been a noble soldier of idealism and humanity."
La Victoire says: "There is a tragic grandeur in the political and physical collapse of a man who two years ago was the moral dictator of the Allied nations."
The Radical, which represents the Left Centre Party, says: "The work of Wilson was worthy that of Washington and Lincoln."

WASHINGTON HAS

MANY SPECIES

Salmon Declared to Be Most Valuable Food Fish

Seattle, March 4.—There are more than 200 species of fish in the salt waters of the State of Washington as well as whales, which are mammals, said Professor Trevor Kincaid, head of the Department of Zoology at the University of Washington, in an illustrated lecture at the Chamber of Commerce assembly hall Wednesday. His lecture was one of a series under the auspices of the civic bureau of the chamber.

Prof. Kincaid said there was ample scientific proof that the whale, although it lives in water is not a fish and made the statement that with the whale eliminated the shark, eight feet in length, is the largest fish in Washington waters.

Seventy-Five Edible
The speaker said of the more than 200 enumerated species, 75 are edible and 50 are rated high in food value. No other state has such a variety, he said. In addition to the native species the waters of Puget Sound are enriched from time to time by the migration of fish from Southern and Alaskan waters, which come here searching for food.

The Pacific Ocean salmon, known scientifically as the Oncorhynchus, is the most valuable marine harvest, he said.

"Unlike the related fishes of the genus salmon, this specie exhausts their vitality in the act of spawning and do not return to their relatives in the great ocean from which they emerge to perpetuate their race, but leave their countless skeletons, to be scattered in the waters of the cradle of their race," said Prof. Kincaid. "The flesh of the dead parents is not entirely wasted since the young fish do not hesitate to feed upon the disintegrating bodies of the adults. The latter in their final processes of decomposition furnish food for a multitude of minute fresh water organisms, which in their turn provide either directly or indirectly sustenance for the young salmon."

The speaker said that with the entrance of man upon the scene, a pressure was established against the reserve of the salmon which has increased from decade to decade in the most unrelenting manner. Even with artificial spawning beds it seems as if the tide had gradually turned against the salmon and rendered its existence precarious in the extreme, he said. The speaker said means must be found to allow a greater percentage of the mature fish to reach their spawning grounds and declared the destruction of immature salmon within the feeding grounds must be suspended or carefully controlled.

THANKS EXTENDED TO STEFANSSON

Ottawa, March 4.—The Privy Council of Canada has issued a formal vote of thanks to Vilhjalmur Stefansson, the Arctic explorer, acknowledging on behalf of the Canadian Government the services which Mr. Stefansson has rendered the nation in exploring uncharted Canadian lands. His unique method of living on the country by forage, the Council's statement points out, has proved the northern hinterland to be less barren and hostile in climate than was previously believed.

FISH DAY WAS A BIG SUCCESS

Ottawa, March 4.—The 1921 National Fish Day was a success, judging from reports received here. Fish sales on that day exceeded by far those of the last national event in 1919.
Next year Fish Day will be an international event. This year the United States interests were unable to make arrangements on such short notice, but in 1922, and succeeding years, there is assurance of international co-operation.

NEW ARMAMENTS COMMISSION SET UP BY LEAGUE

Paris, March 4.—The Council of the League of Nations yesterday constituted a Commission on Armaments composed of Rene Viviani of France, Right Hon. A. R. Fisher, British Minister of Education; M. Orlando of Italy; Hjalmar Branting of Sweden; Manuel Rivas Vicuna of Chile and Seichita Tatsuk of Japan. The latter is Japanese Minister to Holland.
The members discussed military, naval and aviation questions with the consulting commission of the League. Later they took up the German Danzig convention. It was decided that liquidation of the Danzig administration should be completed not later than July.

INSURANCE ACTION BROUGHT BY JUDGE

Toronto, March 4.—An action which is calculated to evoke more than usual interest was launched by R. F. Latchford, a judge of the Supreme Court of Ontario, against the Canada Life Assurance Company here yesterday. Judge Latchford declared that the company adopted a system of accounting which deprived policyholders of the profits to which they were entitled. This is denied by the company. Mr. Justice Latchford has asked that the action shall be tried by a jury. His claim is that he is entitled to at least $3,950 as profits in addition to $7,070, the amount of an endowment policy taken out by him on August 12, 1899.
The statement of claim states that one of the ways in which Mr. Justice Latchford alleges he was deprived of his proper share in the company's profits was that "the paid up capital of the company was needlessly increased from $125,000 to $1,000,000."

MORE THAN 50,000

APPOINTMENTS

Part of New United States President's Task

Washington, March 4.—Upwards of 50,000 appointments to public offices during the term of President Harding, more than $100,000,000 a year are to be made by President Harding. Some of these were made to-day, many others will be announced during the next few months, while still others will be made as the term of present Democratic office-holders expires.

The first fruits from the shaking of the official "plum" tree were Cabinet officers, whose salaries are $12,000 a year each. Others to come include nearly a dozen Ambassadors whose salaries are $17,000 each, many Ministers at $10,000 each, Assistant Secretaries, Federal judges, attorneys and marshalls, customs collectors, members of various government boards and commissions and postmasters by the thousand.

In contrast with the huge patronage roll of Mr. Harding are the appointive positions retained and practically unchanged by his predecessor. They comprise only his secretary, clerk, page boy and private telegraph operator. Their total cost is $7,700 a year. The Vice-President himself receives $12,000.

As is the usual custom, Ambassadors and Ministers now serving are expected to present their resignations to President Harding immediately so he may have a free hand in creating his diplomatic corps. There are forty-four Ambassadors and Ministers but some of those who have risen from the ranks in the diplomatic service may be retained and practically all of those now in service will continue in office until their successors are named and qualify.

Ambassadors
Among Ambassadors regarded as certain to be filled by Mr. Harding are those to Great Britain, France, Italy, Spain, Japan, Belgium, Brazil, Chile, Argentina and Peru. Many new Ministers also are to be appointed and when full relations are re-established with Germany, Austria, Mexico, Turkey and Bulgaria, appointments also will be made to those countries.

Among appointments in immediate or early prospect are seven members of the Shipping Board at $12,000 each; two members of the Interstate Commerce Commission at $15,000 each; five members of the Federal Reserve Board, $12,000 each; three members of the War Commission at $7,500 each; two members of the Federal Trade Commission at $10,000 each; four members of the Railroad Labor Board at $10,000 each; and four members of the Federal Farm Loan Board at $10,000 each.

Justices
Four of the nine Supreme Court Justices also may be appointed by President Harding. Chief Justice White and Associate Justices McKeen, Holmes and Day now are eligible by length of service, to voluntary retirement. The salary of the Chief Justice is $15,000 and that of associate justices $14,500.

Postmasters comprise the bulk of Presidential patronage. There are nearly 50,000 post offices in the United States. The President will place many in the civil service.

Cabinet Members.
Biographical sketches of the members of President Harding's Cabinet, who to-day assume the duties laid down by the outgoing members of the Wilson Cabinet, follow:

Charles Evans Hughes, New York, Secretary of State, born at Glen Falls, New York in 1862; graduate of Harvard and Yale; admitted to New York bar 1884, practicing law until 1890; Attorney-General in 1890; Mayor of New York in 1906. Served two terms as Governor of the State of New York. Received 254 electoral votes as against 277 for Woodrow Wilson in 1916. Connected with Supreme Court of the United States as Justice in 1910, prior to holding political positions.

Andrew Mellon, Pennsylvania, Secretary of the Treasury, banker, born in Pittsburg, Pa. in 1852. Trustee of the Carnegie Institute for some time. Associated with numerous banks, including the Bessemer Trust Company. Interested in metals; developed a large steel industry in Donora, Pa.

John Winsate Weeks, Secretary of War, Senator of New Hampshire, born in Lancaster, in 1860. Graduate of the Naval College, Middletown, in the United States Navy in 1881. Served five years in the navy. Mayor of Newton, Mass. Republican nominee at the state Republican convention in 1905. Identified with naval and military commissions and matters for a number of years. 128 MEMBERS

LEAVE PUBLIC LIFE

Make-up of New American Congress

Washington, March 4.—One hundred and twenty-eight members of the House and Senate of the United States retired to-day to private life. Most of them went out in the back-wash from the tidal wave which swept the Republican Party into full control of all the functions of the Government, but some few, Republicans as well as Democrats, elected not to run again for their seats.

One or two of the Republicans may become officials in the Harding administration, but the great majority will know public life no more for two years at least, and many for a longer period if ever.

Among the outgoing representatives and Senators were some of the most picturesque characters in Congress. These included Senator Lawrence Y. Sherman, Republican, Illinois, who did not offer for re-election.

The actual number of House members retiring was 118, but three of these—McKinley of Illinois, Harrell of Oklahoma, Republicans and Carraway of Arkansas, Democrat, go to the other end of the Capitol as Senators. McKinley's House record was fourteen years.

The political landslide of November gave the Republicans a much larger working majority in the House—too big in the opinion of some leaders. The new extra session will start with 301 Republicans, 134 Democrats and one Socialist. The lone prohibitionist in the closing Congress under which the country went dry was beaten. There is one man shy—from Pennsylvania-at-large. The Republican campaign caused by the death of the member-elect will not be filled until fall.

Senate
The new Senate, which convened to-day in special session to act on nominations by President Harding, contains 69 Republicans and 37 Democrats, giving the Republicans a majority of 22 as against only two majority during most of the last Congress, when the line-up generally was 49 Republicans and 47 Democrats. The seating of two Republicans in January in place of Democrats gave the former a slightly larger working margin during the last few weeks.

For the second time in history the House will have a woman member, Miss Alice M. Robertson, of the Second Oklahoma District, who succeeds William W. Hastings.
For the first time in the history of the House the territory East of the Mississippi and North of the Ohio River will dominate legislation. Republicans from that area being in full control and strong enough to overcome all combinations of Democrats and Democrats from the South and West.

Government figures show that there is a surplus of a million women in England whose only hope of matrimony depends on their migrating to some part of the earth where there is a more even distribution of sexes.

WOULD SHARE IN VALUE OF LIQUOR SEIZURES IN CITY

Vancouver, March 4.—Vancouver City Council has launched a determined campaign to obtain financial benefit from the value of liquor seizures made by the city police. Alderman Frank Woodside was responsible for the demand, voicing his opinions at a meeting yesterday morning, and securing passages of a resolution asking the Provincial Government to recognize the justice of the claim.

Under the Prohibition Act the municipality received fines imposed upon offenders, and this source of revenue helped to defray costs of operating the police dry squad. Alderman Woodside said that under the new Liquor Control Act Vancouver's police would be deprived of this revenue if it would be required to pay fifty cents per day for the prisoners sent from this city to Okalla. The Provincial Government would receive from the prisoners manual labor of considerable value. Thus, to use the alderman's expression, Vancouver City appeared to be getting "the short end of the stick." The alderman referred to the important $250,000 liquor seizure from

ADDRESS ADOPTED BY OTTAWA HOUSE

Majority for Government Was Twenty-five Fielding and Other Speakers Were Heard

Ottawa, March 4.—The Address in Reply to the Speech from the Throne was adopted in the Commons at an early hour this morning by 118 yeas, a majority of 25 for the Government.

The vote on the King-amendment, which preceded that vote was 91 for and 116 against.

Mr. Andrews, Centre Winnipeg, and L. J. Gauthier, St. Hyacinthe, voted with the Government.

The Campbell sub-amendment was defeated without a voice being raised in its favor. Neither the mover nor seconder was in the Chamber when the question was put.

The House adjourned at 4.45 a. m.

Mr. Fielding.
That Canada could not go wrong under any of the respective leaders of the parties in the House was the statement made by Hon. W. S. Fielding, who began to speak at a late hour. Mr. Fielding said that the Prime Minister, the Leader of the Opposition and the Leader of the Progressives were all young men, full of energy and ability. Continuing, he declared himself in favor of the League of Nations, and went on to show the high place Canada must occupy in world affairs and in the British Empire.

Mr. Pardee.
Speaking in the afternoon, F. F. Pardee, member for West Lambton, who declared, in a fighting speech, that the Government lacked the courage to go to the country.

Although a war administration pure and simple, it proposed to try and carry it with a high hand, ignoring promises made to the electors in 1917. The tariff, insisted Mr. Pardee, was not the issue. It was merely a red herring which the Government was striving to draw across the trail.

F. L. Davis.
F. L. Davis, of Neepawa, speaking from Non Man's Land, announced that he favored the platform of the National Progressive Party in most particulars.

Mr. Maharg.
J. A. Maharg, Maple Creek, characterized as slanderous statements attributed to the Prime Minister that the farmers had formed an alliance with the Bolsheviks and secessionists.

The member for Maple Creek asserted that a man, who said was in charge of law and order in Canada, had gone to the Saskatchewan agriculturalists and asked their aid in allaying unrest.

Mr. Maharg referred to contributions which, he said, had been made by the Prairie farmers during the province of Saskatchewan, he said, was second of all provinces in contributions to the Red Cross.

The discontinuance of the Wheat Board, Mr. Maharg said, would be responsible for at least $100,000,000 of Canada's adverse trade balance with the United States. The amount of grain purchased in Western Canada, or at least, the reduction in price consequent upon the discontinuance of the Wheat Board, would amount to that sum.

Apples.
Regarding a statement made in the House by Dr. Cowan, of Regina, that the British Columbia growers were feeding their best apples to the cows, the member for Maple Creek, quoted a letter from a Penticton grower denying this assertion and adding that if any apples were wasted

In British Columbia it was because the "abominable" freight and passenger rates precluded their being shipped anywhere else.

Mr. Maharg said that the wording of the King's amendment did not suit him, nor did it suit Western Canada. But the effect of the amendment, if it carried, would suit Western Canada very nicely.

Mr. Halbert.
R. H. Halbert, North Ontario, said he wished to thank the Leader of the Government for warning members of the Progressive Party that they were being wooed by the Leader of the Opposition. All courtships did not end in marriage, as the Premier had found when he went seeking support in the province of Quebec. He had apparently only made one convert, the member for St. Hyacinthe, who was understood "to be making good eyes across the floor and longing for the fleshpots of the Cabinet."

Mr. Halbert caused amusement by declaring that Canada, in the past, had been controlled by a few manufacturers and railwaymen. The people had not changed all that. They were determined to be freed from the "thralls of the barons."

Mr. Wright.
H. O. Wright, Battleford, characterized as an event of national importance the selection of Hon. T. A. C. Steinhilber as Leader of the Progressive Party.

The passage of the Fordney bill by the United States Congress would create a financial panic in this country. The surprising thing was that while this bill was before Congress, Canada did not have a representative at Washington. Canada should have also had representatives in all the industrial centres in the United States.

Mr. Cannon.
Lucien Cannon, Dorchester, charged the Government with having directed the country on racial and sectional lines to win the election. Then it had formed an alliance with the Nationalists and carried on despite the disappearance of the mandate.

The Government, finding itself repulsed in the West, had gone to Quebec with cajolery and flattery, with but meagre results.

"Mr. Blondin is an outcast in our province," declared Mr. Cannon, referring to the Postmaster-General.

Mr. White.
W. H. White, Victoria, Alberta, said the C. N. R. had lost much traffic because of shortage of cars to handle the prairie farmers. The Western members who stood behind the Government to-day were not representing Western sentiments, Mr. White declared. The Opposition members were more representative of what the prairies wanted.

Mr. Stein.
C. A. Stein, Kamouraska, gave the House a list of scandals which the Government, beginning with war contracts awarded in contravention of the act and continuing with the horse, scenery, binoculars, shirt, shoe, padlock and other alleged scandals.

Mr. Nicholson.
Donald Nicholson, Queens, from the Government benches, said opponents of the administration misrepresented the soldiers who were charged that these men were coerced into voting for the Union Government.

Before adjournment Sir Henry Drayton gave notice that he would move the House into committee of supply and committee of ways and means on Monday next.

Meighenites' Attitude.
Ottawa, March 4.—(Canadian Press)—The Meighen Ministry came through its first division in the House shortly before 4 o'clock this morning with a majority of twenty-five, a much larger margin than even the most hopeful of the Government supporters had expected. The result created great enthusiasm among the members to the right of the Speaker, who consider they now have a mandate to carry on until the census figures are available and redistribution affected.

The debate was much shorter than that of last year, concluding after two weeks of speech-making, whereas in 1920 the debate occupied nearly a month. The Government's attitude in not putting up any speakers for two sittings had the effect of shortening the debate.

Hon. Mackenzie King's amendment, which was defeated, was a motion of no confidence in the Government, reading: "We respectfully submit to Your Excellency that Your Excellency's present advisers do not possess the confidence of the House or of the country, and that their retention of office constitutes a usurpation of the powers of popular government."

WARREN G. HARDING IS INAUGURATED AS PRESIDENT OF U. S.

the things which made us what we are.

"To-day, better than ever before, we know the aspirations of human kind and share them. We have come to a new realization of our place in the world, and a new appraisal of our nation by the world. The unselfishness of the United States is a thing-proven; our devotion to peace for ourselves and for the world is well established; our concern for preserved civilization has had its impassioned and heroic expression. There was no American failure to resist the attempted reversion of civilization; there will be no failure to-day or to-morrow.

Rest on Popular Will.
"The success of our popular government rests wholly upon the correct interpretation of the deliberate, intelligent, dependable popular will of America. In deliberate questioning of a suggested change of national policy where internationality was to supersede nationality, we turned to a referendum to the American people. There was ample discussion, and there is a public mandate in manifest understanding.

To Prevent War.
"America is ready to encourage, eager to initiate, anxious to participate in any seemingly programme likely to lessen the probability of war and to promote that brotherhood of mankind which must be God's highest conception of human relationship. Because we cherish ideals of justice and peace, because we appraise international comity and helpful relationship no less highly than any people of the world, we aspire to a high place in the moral leadership of civilization, and we hold a maintained America, the proven republic, the unshaken temple of representative democracy, to be not only an inspiration and example, but the highest agency of strengthening good will and promoting accord on both continents.

Mankind needs a world-wide benediction of understanding. It is needed among individuals, among peoples, among Governments, and it will inaugurate a new era of good feeling to mark the birth of a new order. In such understanding men will strive confidently for the promotion of their better relationships. Nations will promote the comities so essential to peace.

Trade Ties.
"We must understand that ties of trade bind nations in closest intimacy and none may receive except as he gives. We can make no more helpful contribution by exacting from a republic's capacity to emerge from the wreckage of war. When we have established a freedom like our own and shall have sanctioned the pursuit of peace as we have practiced it, I believe at last sorrow and the final sacrifice of international warfare will have been written.

Supreme Task.
"Our supreme task is the resumption of our normal way, reconstruction, readjustment, restoration—all these must follow. I would like to have them. If it will lighten the spirit and add to the resolution with which we take up the task, we repeat for our nation, we shall give our people just cause to make good and start afresh, without prejudice, we entertain no spirit of revenge, we do not hate, we do not covet, we treat of no conquest, nor boast of armed prowess.

"If, despite this attitude, war is again forced upon us, I earnestly hope a way may be found which will unify our individual and collective strength and consecrate all America, materially and spiritually, body and soul, to national defence.

Unity of Spirit
"Out of such universal service will come a new unity of spirit and purification which would make our defence impregnable, our triumph assured. Then we should have little or no disorganization of our economic, industrial and commercial systems at home, no staggering war debts, no swollen fortunes to flout the sacrifices of our soldiers, no excuse for sedition, no pitiable slackness, no outrages of treason. Envy and jealousy would have no soil for their menacing development and revolution would be without the passion which engenders it.

"Regret for the mistakes of yesterday must not, however, blind us to the tasks of to-day. Discouraging indebtedness confronts us like all the war-torn nations, and these obligations must be provided for. No civilization can survive repudiation.

"We can reduce the abnormal expenditures and we will. We can strike at war taxation and we must.

War's Reaction
"The business world reflects the disturbance of war's reaction. . . . Perhaps we never shall know the old level of wage again, because war invariably readjusts compensations and the necessities of life will show life's inseparable relationship, but we must strive for normalcy to reach stability. All the penalties will not be light or evenly distributed.

"There is no instant step from disorder to order. We must face a condition of grim reality, charge off our losses and start afresh.

"No altered system will work a miracle. Any wild experiment will only add to the confusion. Our best assurance lies in efficient administrations of our present system.

Production
"The forward course of the business cycle is unmistakable. Peoples are turning from destruction to production.

Industrial Peace.
"I wish for an America no less alert in guarding against dangers from within than it is watchful against enemies from without. My most reverent prayer for America is for industrial peace, with its rewards, widely and generally distributed among the inspirations of equal opportunity.

"If revolution insists upon overturning established order, let other peoples make the tragic experiment. There is no place for it in America. Ours is a constitutional freedom where the popular will is the law and the majority is sacredly protected. Our revisions, reformations and evolutions reflect a deliberate judgment and an orderly progress, and we mean to cure our ills,

BRITISH MINISTER DEFEATED AT POLLS

Laborite Got More Votes Than Boscawen

London, March 4.—Sir Arthur Griffith-Boscawen, the newly appointed Minister of Agriculture, was defeated in the Dudley by-election by J. Wilson, Labor candidate. The voting was:
Labor 10,244
Coalition-Liberal 9,968
Majority 276
The defeat of the Government Minister and candidate is mainly attributed to the controversy over the question of the embargo on Canadian live cattle used as an argument by the opposition, who ascribed to this cause the high cost of meat in Great Britain. Lord Beaverbrook took this position, and flooded the constituency with copies of The Daily Express, owned by him, in which he stated that "every vote for the Government was a vote for dear meat."
Sir Arthur Griffith-Boscawen became Parliamentary Secretary of the Board of Agriculture upon the reorganization of the Lloyd George Ministry in 1919, and he succeeded to the position of President of the Board, which is the official title of the British Minister of Agriculture, upon the recent transfer of Lord Lee, of Fareham, to another Cabinet post.
Sir Arthur has represented Dudley since 1910. In 1918, he was elected over a Labor candidate by a vote of 9,126 to 8,048. His defeat on this occasion is, therefore, a notable political occurrence.
Societies.
Agricultural societies in this country appear to be growing less uncomplaining in their opposition to the withdrawal of the cattle embargo against the Dominion.
The Royal Agricultural Society has reversed its decision not to send a representative to the conference to consider the withdrawal of the embargo, and further, the Central Chamber of Agriculture is also convening a conference on cattle importation. They are careful to point out that no danger is apprehended from importation of Canadian cattle.

MANY FARMERS LOSE ON COWS

Toronto, March 4.—"Fifty per cent of the cows in this country are kept by the farmers at a loss; twenty-five per cent make money," declared Dr. J. B. Hollingsworth, Ottawa, at a meeting of the Ontario Veterinary Society. Dr. Hollingsworth asserted farmers should develop their present stock into high grade cattle.

THE VOTE AT OTTAWA.

The result of the division at Ottawa early this morning on Mr. Mackenzie King's amendment means that the Government will weather the present session and that in all probability there will be another meeting of Parliament before a general election. The majority of 25 obtained by the Government on this division was considerably larger than even prophets friendly to the Administration predicted, especially after the declaration of Hon. T. A. Crerar that the Progressives would support the Opposition.

The action of four or five Progressives in pairing with absentee members of the Government helped to swell the majority, for if they had pursued the same course as Mr. King's followers and refused to pair off with Government supporters unable to be present the margin would have been under twenty.

All conditions considered, however, the vote shows that with proper vigilance on the part of the Government whips the Administration will have nothing to fear in the way of a defeat in the House this session. From this it may be taken for granted that there will not be a general election until after redistribution. The census will be taken this coming Summer and legislation redistributing the Dominion constituencies will be presented to the House in the following session, after which there will be an appeal to the country. It is predicted by some observers that the next session will be called late next Fall, to be followed by an election in the Winter, but it is scarcely likely a Government caucus would favor a second session this year without additional remuneration. A session in January or February will be followed by an election early in the Spring of 1922 would appear to be a reasonably safe prediction based upon the signs of the times.

Another snub. With less than seven hundred votes ahead Captain Robert Gee, V. C., the Coalitionist, succeeded in defeating Mr. James Ramsay Macdonald, the Socialist-Labor leader, in the Woolwich by-election which had been made necessary upon the retirement of Mr. Will Crooks.

THE NEW COMMISSIONERS.

Nothing could be more decisive than yesterday's choice for Police Commissioners. Mr. North succeeded in demonstrating his original contention that the people of Victoria desired his election to this important body. Dr. Hall obviously convinced a sufficiently large number that he is capable of discharging the duties attaching to the office. Both gentlemen are well known and the size of their vote should bespeak an appropriate amount of public interest in this branch of civic government in general as well as in the part that the two new members of the Board will play in its administration. They are to be congratulated upon their success.

It is fitting to remind the people of this city at this juncture that Victoria is fortunate in its possession of an efficient police force. The conspicuous absence of serious crime and the insignificant amount of the smaller variety of misdemeanor single her out for special consideration when comparing the criminal statistics of other places less difficult to control than an Island port. It is sometimes argued that the problems of law enforcement on the Mainland largely exceed this part of the Province by reason of the geographical differences. This is the purest fallacy. It is well nigh impossible to select a better place in British Columbia for the fugitive from justice to cover up his tracks than in the wilds and from the natural harbors of this Island.

This will be as obvious to the new Commissioners as it was to those who went down to defeat yesterday; and it is only when he able to expect that the same cordial relations and co-operation with the force which have contributed to the maintenance of law and order in this city will be forthcoming from the newly elected members.

THE EMBARGO TOLD.

Whether Sir Arthur Griffith-Boseawan's defeat in the Dudley by-election yesterday may be attributed to his uncompromising attitude towards the continuance of the British embargo on Canadian cattle or not the agrarian interests of Great Britain will have been forced to realize that this important question is no longer of exclusive interest to the people of Canada.

The successful Labor candidate selected the issue upon which he would fight the newly-appointed Minister of Agriculture and the assistance of the Beaverbrook organ undoubtedly enabled him to present his case with an appropriate amount of Canadian "color." In an industrial community such as Dudley the price of meat would be of much more interest than the wider issues of international importance which loom largely in the average election contest at the present time, and the Labor candidate was astute enough to grasp the opportunity which the embargo afforded him to deal a verbal blow at beef.

There is little hope that the new member will be able to influence the Government to the point that it will remove the restriction; but his successful campaign will serve as a tangible reminder to the Department of Agriculture—and through it to the Ministry—that this question has grown to a political snag large enough to upset a member of the Cabinet.

R. I. P.

Proportional Representation is dead in Victoria. To all intents and purposes it succumbed at the January elections. Its interment took place yesterday and the epitaph carved upon its tombstone by the electorate was its own tale. And if the ballot paper had been simpler in its appeal the grave would have been dug considerably deeper than it was. But it is deep enough to postpone the resurrection day indefinitely.

ANOTHER SNUB.

With less than seven hundred votes ahead Captain Robert Gee, V. C., the Coalitionist, succeeded in defeating Mr. James Ramsay Macdonald, the Socialist-Labor leader, in the Woolwich by-election which had been made necessary upon the retirement of Mr. Will Crooks.

Woolwich has been represented by Labor since 1903 and it was hardly to be supposed that an electorate which had given such a splendid continuity of support to Mr. Crooks would be willing to accept as his successor a former member of the House of Commons who had been kicked out of his own constituency because of his defeatist attitude throughout the war, even though it might involve an apparent set-back to the Labor Party's prestige. In electing Captain Gee Woolwich has merely transferred its parliamentary representation to one who has all the attributes of Crooks to the extent that they both began life in humble surroundings and won fame by sheer display of grit and courage.

It is true that Captain Gee conducted his campaign under the Coalition banner; but his return to Westminster instead of the Labor Party's official candidate is a workingman's loss only in terms. He is a Will Crooks with a different political name. Mr. Macdonald's election would have comforted the radical elements and the German delegates now in London.

FREE PASSAGES.

As long as there is no intention of adding to the problems of this country by exporting unskilled members of Great Britain's unemployed the inclusion of three and a quarter million dollars in the supplementary estimates for free passages for ex-servicemen to the Dominions should be useful all round. Too much emphasis cannot be given to the warning against emigration at this time unless the intending settler has a trade or is a member of an employment when he reaches this country. It is all very well for the Dominion Government's immigration van to tour the British Isles in search of settlers; but unless great care is exercised, the Spring rush will be overloaded with misfits.

NOTE AND COMMENT

Nearly one thousand ballots were spoiled in the election of Police Commissioners yesterday. No wonder "P. R." got it where the chicken usually gets the axe.

According to the annual report of the Prohibition Commission British Columbia liquor sales totalled one million dollars last year. What will the next report say?

Canon Hinchliffe says he is neither a politician nor a lawyer. But he is keeping close company with a gentleman who has played the dual role for many years.

The British Department of Agriculture is convinced of the soundness of Canadian cattle. Apparently the cows from this country are even more substantial than the arguments upon which the now defeated Minister depended in his contest at Dudley.

Marshal Foch is reported to have been so busy on Wednesday that a luncheon appointment with the King quite slipped his memory. Starting a new war to collect two hundred and twenty-six billion Marks does occupy one's mind somewhat.

In one of the important industrial centres not many hundreds of miles away from Victoria an attempt has been made to interest the people in the local library by the publication of the suggestion that the building and books are open to everybody who can read. It is to be hoped that Lenin does not hear of this.

Members of Parliament and a number of gentlemen of the Peerage met in London on Wednesday and came to the conclusion that there is a conspiracy against the British Empire and all democratic institutions. All present were agreed that the civilized world should be awakened to the gravity of the situation. The port must have been a little too new for the digestion of some of these ponderous gentlemen.

OTHER PAPERS' VIEWS

THE TARIFF AS A BOOMERANG

(From The New York Journal of Commerce) There is a good deal of ignorance of the indirect bearings of tariff legislation, which may lead us into serious loss and error if they are perpetuated. As things stand there is a general disposition in other countries to impose tariff duties, and especially to retaliate on rates which the United States may charge. These duties must be considered in figuring what will be the total burden of the business which is to be created by our new tariff measures. If, for instance, retaliatory duties are imposed by France or Italy upon the chief exports of the country to those nations by way of penalty for a heavy duty laid by us on any silk, and the difficulty of shipping American goods abroad, already very great, will be rendered more severe not only through an enhancement of prices but through greater difficulty in financing the shipment, while the fall from such a policy will undoubtedly leave the balance out of which past obligations can be settled harder to provide for. It is not too much to say that an unreasonable tariff policy on our part may not only decrease foreign trade very greatly—meaning both the volume of our exports and of our imports—but may also entail a large loss on the indebtedness already owing to us. That we shall have to take such a loss in any case is not a good reason for making it greater.

BEAT HIM TO IT

(From The Toronto Star) Mr. Vere Clay Ker-Seymour has been suing the Duke of Manchester for the return of a loan of £250. In evidence he declared that the Duke on one occasion said he was going that day to play golf with two rich Americans and would borrow £250 and let him have it, but did not do so. The Duke in giving his evidence was asked about this, and he explained what had happened:

"I did go and play golf with two very rich men, and before they could say anything to them one of them said: 'Can you lend me a fiver over the week-end?' and the second also wanted to borrow money. (Laughter). Both had left themselves, after banking hours, without any cash. I left a note for Ker-Seymour that night to tell him so."

One rather suspects that the two rich Americans had been tipped off about the Duke's little ways by some comrade who had golfed with him, and that they had been told to enterprise, genius and efficiency to carry our cargoes in American bottoms to the marts of the world.

Service. It is the supreme commitment of life. I would rejoice to acclaim the era of the golden rule, and crown it with the autocracy of service. I pledge an administration wherein the agencies of government are called to serve and ever promote an understanding of government purely as an expression of the popular will.

Ceremonies.

Washington, March 4.—Warren Gamaliel Harding was inaugurated President of the United States today with ceremonies as simple as those the historians have described in chronicling the induction into office of George Washington more than a century ago.

Had Mr. Harding's personal wishes been adhered to strictly, the ceremonies would have been even more simple, but the Congressional Inauguration Committee made some arrangements on its own account. These included a cavalry escort of four troops for the President in his ride from his hotel to the White House, and thence to the White House. This little cavalcade contrasted strangely with the great military and civil processions which have attended inaugurations for half a century or more.

Besides the cavalry escort, the Congressional Committee also had arranged to have several companies of Marines in full dress uniform at the Capitol as a guard of honor and for the presence of the Marine Band. The President's Own, which played "The Star Spangled Banner" immediately after Mr. Harding had taken the oath of office.

Simplicity

The very simplicity of the ceremonies on the east portico of the Capitol added to their impressiveness. Simple and impressive also were those in the Senate chamber, where Calvin Coolidge was sworn in as Vice-President by Vice-President Marshall and where Mr. Coolidge in turn swore into office the new Senators elected last November.

The day's ceremonies began with formal calls on the President-elect and Vice President-elect at the New Willard Hotel by the Congressional Committee, headed by Senator Knox of Pennsylvania. The Presidential party and the Congressional Committee then left the hotel for the Capitol.

At the Capitol the east plaza with its standing room for thousands was packed and the crowd overflowed out over the park spaces and avenues which converge there. Most of these thousands were able to hear the inaugural address as Mr. Harding's voice was carried far out by means of a sound amplifying device installed over the platform.

When the official party arrived at the Capitol it was escorted into the building. Senate galleries had been filling long before this hour. Invited guests of the new President—Vice-President, Speaker and Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States supplied with coveted cards of admission, were assigned to the east side. Guest seats were assigned to the northeast gallery and guests of representatives to seats in the three west ones.

Diplomatic Corps

While the Senate was assembling for its special session the first of the 67th Congress, the Diplomatic Corps was arriving and assembling in the marble room, to be escorted into the chamber by the Speaker.

Gorgeous in the colors and gold if their court uniforms, the corps entered headed by its dean, the Ambassador of France, Jules Jusserot. The other diplomats entered by precedence in the order of the time they have been accredited to this country. The Ambassador coming first was the Minister of State.

Next came the Chief Justice and the Associate Justices of the Supreme Court, in the sombre black silk gowns of office. Both men raised their right hands. Mr. Marshall slowly spoke the Vice-President's oath, the new Vice-President repeated the address, and then delivered his address.

While the new Senators were being sworn in the remainder of the party began moving out of the chamber toward the east portico. All of the party on the Senate floor and the guests in galleries, by prearranged directions, moved along the rotunda in lines which converged at the main entrance and thence out to the portico steps. The guests were in their places before Mr. Harding appeared on the Speaker's stand, a semi-circular structure thirty feet square, built with iron girders and with a covered canopy above housing the sound-amplifying instrument which was decorated with flags and bunting.

Huge Throng

As they came out of the Capitol the company from the Senate passed through a lane of Marines to places on the Capitol steps and under the east portico, back of the Presidential party. Mr. Harding was accompanied by Chief Justice White of the Supreme Court and the Congressional Committee which had seats on the platform with him.

Then before a great sea of humanity, official and unofficial, invited and uninvited, Mr. Harding took his place at the left of the Chief Justice and at the right of the Arrangements

The majority of this morning's newspapers professed little expectation that the German Government would yield. Some thought the position of Dr. Simons had become so difficult that he might be replaced, while others expressed belief that the German Cabinet would resign and another Government amenable to the Allied demands would be formed.

The Morning Post declared the penalties laid down were insufficient and said it could not see how the customs proposals could be successfully carried out unless German seaports were occupied and the British fleet was employed in the North Sea and in the Baltic.

MINISTER URGES CO-OPERATION

(Continued from page 1.) small measure to the fact of the Department of Labor. All Workers. Senator Robertson addressed the gathering as "his fellow workers," because, he stated, all were working, building and planning in their own particular sphere.

Dealing with the necessity of realization of duties of citizenship, Senator Robertson said there had been a tendency on the part of employers to look on the profit side of their business rather than on the other side, the welfare and happiness of their employees.

CITY WARNED ON B. C. ELECTRIC PLAN

(Continued from page 1.) that the company would not withdraw its application from the Federal charter until it had negotiated satisfactory fare and lighting agreements with all municipalities in which it operated. While the company hopes that these agreements would be arranged in the near future it would stand by its application in the meantime. Mr. Pringle was assured, however, that the application would be withdrawn immediately after agreements with the municipalities had been negotiated.

Company Satisfied. The Company, Mr. Pringle learned, was quite satisfied with the present agreement in Victoria and would not ask that it be changed. In Vancouver it is asking for an extension of the present agreement until the Summer of 1922, but here it is satisfied to have the present agreement terminated with six months' notice by either party. Vancouver is about to sign the desired agreement, it was stated, and it is hoped that little difficulty will be experienced in other cities and towns.

HOROSCOPE

FRIDAY, MARCH 4, 1921 (Copyright, 1921, by The McClure Newspaper Syndicate.)

During the morning hours to-day friendly stars hold dominion over the planetary forces, according to astrologers, but later the aspect changes. While Mercury, the Sun and Jupiter are in benefic aspect until afternoon, Mars and Uranus become adverse later.

There is the best possible sign for all persons who take positions in the Sun. Rulers have the forecast of great success in the administration of public duties. Jupiter is in a place most auspicious for all that pertains to business. Financial matter should become satisfactory as the Spring and Summer pass.

Mercury in kindly way seems to indicate that the press of the country will give support to those who carry heavy responsibility. There is an auspicious sign for those who give bond, take oath or enter into written contracts to-day, the morning being the most favorable time. Mars in sinister aspect seems to fore-shadow envy and malice in certain quarters, but the malice to-day are much less powerful than the good stars. Uranus presages gossip and even slander that will reach even the lesser personalities that find places of emolument or receive rewards.

The evening should be a fairly favorable time for balls, receptions and entertainments, but there is an indication of jealousy and evil report. This is a most unfavorable time for flirtations or new friendships between men and women. Women may be too susceptible for their own interests. There is a menacing direction of the stars affecting the ambitions of all persons who seek recognition through political influence and all personal ambitions should be forgotten until a better direction of the stars.

Some great surprise is seemingly forecast for a woman who will be publicly honored. Persons whose birthdate it is have the augury of a busy year that should bring substantial profits. Children born on this day may be quick-tempered and high strung, but these subjects of Pines usually succeed in whatever they undertake.

W. A. BUCHANAN REMAINS IN OTTAWA

Ottawa, March 4.—(Canadian Press)—W. A. Buchanan, Lethbridge, is in Ottawa to-day, and states he will remain until the end of the session. The Canadian Press last night carried a dispatch that Mr. Buchanan had left for the West. The member for Lethbridge was paired with R. L. Richardson, Springfield, Man., in the division on the address in reply to the Speech from the Throne.

The vote on the King amendment to the Address brought a line-up of Liberals and Progressives supporting the amendment. Messrs. Bolvin, Molloy, Michael Clark, Maharg, Reid of Mackenzie Knox and Kennedy, announced they were paired, and would have voted for the amendment.

APPROPRIATIONS WERE $3,806,029,647

Washington, March 4.—The total appropriations at the present session of Congress for the fiscal year, 1922, were $3,806,029,647. Chairman Warrenton of the Senate Appropriations Committee, announced in the Senate to-day. This represents a reduction of $1,453,485,928 from the estimates submitted, and a cut from appropriations for 1921 of $898,247,910, he said.

Previous Applications Refused.

"It is unfair to give the city power to establish bus lines, elevated railways or subways which would compete with the B. C. Electric Company so long as the city is receiving part of the company's profits," Mr. Robertson declared. "If such projects were proceeded with the city would be competing with the company and at the same time receiving profits from its operation. The city has several times applied for the right to establish bus lines before but each time the Committee has turned down the clause of the city bill allowing such rights." He feared the city might use its share of B. C. Electric profits to establish competitive concerns. "The B. C. Electric Company is exercised unduly over this," Mr. McCrossan assured the Committee. "I frankly state that no move to establish bus lines will be made. We are looking ahead over a period of twenty years or so when Vancouver, we hope, will be a very large city and when development of its transportation facilities will be necessary." Mr. McCrossan protested against the city being tied up to one surface form of transportation on account of a perpetual franchise negotiated, when Vancouver was in its "swaddling clothes." It was quite possible that in the future Vancouver, like other cities, would find it necessary to establish several different transportation systems. When such necessity arose the B. C. Electric Railway Company would have the right, without other concerns, to apply for an elevated, bus or subway franchise. It was possible, he added, that the city might want to start an aeroplane system of transportation. Mr. Robertson opposed a clause in

KING'S DAUGHTERS PLAN DAFFODIL TEA

Annual Function to Be Held in Rest Rooms April 9

Plans for the annual daffodil tea which has in past years been one of the most enjoyable social functions of the Spring were made at the meeting of the King's Daughters held in the Rest Room on Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. L. H. Hardie, district president, was in the chair and there was a good attendance of members.

Daffodil Tea.
The daffodil tea this year will be held in the rest rooms in the Hibben-Bone Building on April 9, from 3 till 6 p. m. There will be a musical programme in connection with the affair, and stalls of home cooking, cut flowers and candy will be operated in addition to the other phases of the enterprise.

Mrs. Hearn, Mrs. Gordon Smith and Miss Fraser were appointed as the tea committee; Mrs. A. T. Harvey, Miss Morley and Miss Conyers for the home cooking; Mrs. Wilbers, Mrs. Abel and Miss Leitch for the cut flowers, and Mrs. Sargison, Mrs. McLaurie and Miss Duncan for the candy. Contributions to any of these stalls will be gratefully received. The proceeds will be devoted to the Daughters' work along philanthropic lines.

Reports revealed that their last month's work included a donation of $15 to the S. P. C. A., as well as sewing for the Protestant Orphanage and the hospital.

Gift to Hospital.
Mrs. H. A. S. Morley reported for the King's Daughters Hospital at Duncan for January, showing that the turnover for the month named was $1,267.75, while fifty in-patients and four out-patients had received treatment during the month. Mr. Corfield, a Justice of the Peace, was at Duncan, had recently presented a cottage to be used as a sleeping quarters for the nurses, and this had more lately been moved to the hospital and would prove a much valued annex of the establishment.

WELL-KNOWN TALENT ENTERTAIN PATIENTS AT ESQUIMALT

The patients at Esquimalt Hospital were entertained at a delightful concert last evening, when a number of well known Victoria artists gave a programme under the auspices of the W. A. to the G. W. V. A. with Mrs. Ricketts and Mrs. Lewis as joint conveners. Col. Winlay presided.

Vocal numbers were given by Mrs. Harry Pooley, Mrs. Charles E. Wilson, Mrs. Duncan, Mrs. Bowden, Miss Palmer, Messrs. J. G. Brown and R. B. McKenzie, each item being warmly received and encored. Mrs. A. J. Gibson contributed materially to the success of the programme with her accompaniments at the piano.

At the close of the programme the Women's Auxiliary served refreshments, after which the floor was cleared for dancing, the popular pastime continuing until the visitor left for town accompanied by the warm thanks of the patients and staff.

Mrs. Gleason's orchestra generously gave their services for the dancing.

FLORA

Flora is a Springtime name as any maid could wish. It means flowers, of course, and commemorates the goddess of flowers, who was so called from the Latin name for Spring blooms, "Flora."

Flora came into use through her masculine counterpart, curious to relate. From the goddess was evolved Flora chiefly in memory of the name of the procurator whose merciless rule drove the Jews to their last rebellion, and finally was subsequently derived as the feminine of the former name.

The first Flora was found in Spain. She was the daughter of Count Julian, who was much disliked and is recorded in Spanish ballads as "la Cava," the wicked.

The martyrdom of a Spanish maiden called Flora by the Moors in 851 redemmed the reputation of Flora as a feminine name and its use became widespread in Spain; whence it penetrated France as Florio, Scotland, which has an extraordinary fondness for flower names, adopted it, and soon it was brought to England, where it still enjoys the greatest and most widespread vogue.

The evershadow, symbol of Springtime, is Flora's talismanic gem. It promises a wearer keen intelligence, gentle charm and prophetic vision. With an emerald in her hand, she is said to have such perfect psychic power, as to be able to foresee the future.

THE SANDMAN STORY FOR TO-NIGHT

MR. FOX'S NEW SUIT

"I really must have a new suit of clothes," said Mr. Fox, one morning to his wife, "and while I am about it I may as well have a stylish one. I noticed in the Spring fashions that they are wearing the trousers lighter."

"You can't get about very well in tight pants," said Mrs. Fox, "and goodness knows that you are slow enough now about getting food for the family. You better think a little more about work and less about style."

But in spite of all of Mrs. Fox's good advice Mr. Fox got a new suit and had it made tight-fitting.

"You better put on your old suit of clothes to-night," said Mrs. Fox, as her husband started off for the market basket on his arm. "You know that Mr. Dog up at the hill farm is a very restless sleeper and if he should chase you he might catch you with those tight clothes on."

"I guess I can jump and run faster than lazy old Mr. Dog, even if I am dressed up," replied Mr. Fox, as he slammed the door behind him, for he was tired of hearing so much about his stylish clothes.

As he walked along in the moonlight Mr. Fox looked at his fine-looking shadow and forgot all about his legs, or even about Mr. Dog, and while he was careful not to tear his clothes he jumped lightly over the wall and went to the poultry house.

He soon had two plump birds in his basket, and over the wall he sprang and started for home, but he had gone only a little way when he heard a bark behind him, and looking around he saw Mr. Dog in full run coming after him.

Right in front of Mr. Fox was a high rail fence, and for this he ran, feeling sure that he could easily escape Mr. Dog by leaping over it and dashing home through the woods before Mr. Dog could crawl under.

But, O, how little he reckoned on those new clothes. He forgot he had them on, now he was in danger, but he would not stop to think of the leap and but for a rail that stuck up where they were crossed to hold the fence he might have escaped.

Yes, Mr. Fox leaped, but he did not go over. Instead he caught by the seat of those new trousers and hung there above the head of Mr. Dog, who by this time had reached the scene and was barking loudly.

Of course, Mr. Fox dropped the basket and the birds were crying loudly as they ran for home, and every second Mr. Fox felt sure the farmer would appear with a gun and he would never see his home and family again.

He jerked and he wiggled and at last the cloth gave way and luckily he fell on top of Mr. Dog and knocked him over, and while he was scrambling to his feet Mr. Fox lost no time you may be sure in running home.

When Mrs. Fox saw him with the torn trousers, and no basket she was very angry, but she did not say a word, just took those new trousers, put a big patch of red flannel on the torn part, and when her husband saw that he put on his old ones and never again wore the new ones.

When he goes out at night now he wears a pair that are large enough for him to make a wide leap and not get caught on rail fences.

The Insane Truth

By Olive McClintie Johnson

Both mistress and maid ran to assist. As the trio rolled the giant cask into the kitchen, Mrs. Ince emerged from the sitting room in quest of her friend, and the reason for the delay of the customary and expected climax to the party. It required but one glance at the furious happenings in the kitchen for her to realize that the occupants labored under some great and all but calamitous stress. She wanted no time in useless questions, but drew off her gloves and fell to work without a word. Hurriedly she began to arrange Nannette's cakes on the plates. Orestes opened the ice cream.

"Oh! gasped Lella, as the cover came off the can and revealed, instead of the expected daintily colored individual portions which she had ordered, great quantities of bulk ice cream almost red in color! "Lawsy!" was the delighted exclamation of Orestes and Nannette. But the face of their mistress reflected only bleak despair. "Never mind," reassured Mrs. Ince, attracted by the commotion, "red is the astral aura of love. I think the psychiatrist will regard it as an especial tribute, and if she doesn't I'll remind her."

"Mrs. Ince was already dishing the circusy concoction on the plates. "We'll have to carry them in ourselves, Mrs. Holmes. Nannette is too hot, and Orestes is too dirty." Lella nodded, took up a tray, and motioned Mrs. Ince to lead on. Nannette paused a moment. "What dat Miss Ince say 'bout red hair?" asked Lella. "Red hair is de sign of love," responded her spouse. "Red, red ice cream's bettah."

"It's de insane truth," mumbled Nannette, returning to her cakes, while Orestes dashed ice cream on the plates against the impromptu waitresses' return.

"What say, Nannie-gu'l?"

"De insane truth, dat's what dis whole party is concernin' which," she replied, removing a pan of deliciously fragrant cakes from the oven. "De visitin' lady is spoke plum beautiful about it. You mus' cum-bat yo' difficulties wid de germs of infinite poutices."

"Golly, why'n't I think about dat when I wuz coolin' dam teamsters wid my fists?"

"'At's de insane truth say," she added, as she eased another pan into the oven, "reach out an' draw power from de infinite hen-nest what is all about you?"

"Like I done at de ice-cream factory," grinned her spouse, intent upon literal applications. "Sep'n I made a misdraw, 'stid o' drawin' de ice cream fo' Miss Lella's pouty I drawed it fo' de niggaah dance!"

A Wonderful Color Scheme Nannette was convinced with laughter. "Hush, niggaah, you kin hab some when de white folks is tho."

"Can't wait," declared Orestes, taking a generous spoonful in his mouth. Just then the ladies suddenly reappeared for additional plates, and he swallowed it with a gulp.

"You are a wonder!" exclaimed Lella to Mrs. Ince. "A dozen have rhapsodized over my appropriate color scheme."

"I know it," giggled Mrs. Ince. "The leader wrote it down in her notebook, and is going to mention it in her next lecture. She explained to me how 'persons react to their color impressions,' and declared yours was the most 'harmonious party of the season!'"

With mutual chuckles the two returned to the scene of the now highly successful party.

Meanwhile Nannette and Orestes sat in the doorway, enjoying rest and refreshment following their strenuous labors.

Two huge figures loomed suddenly at the alley gate. They wore uniforms and rode motorcycles.

"Fawd Nannette, iffen I ain't clean fo'git," whispered Orestes, pausing with spoon halfway to his mouth. "Two cops chased me all de way 'long Turtle Creek Boulevard, an' heah dey comes now."

"Assist, dat's how come I come in on a flat tire. Dey shot my left behine tire clean tho."

"Count o' which?"

"You know dey don't lows no trucks on de boulevard. But I had to come de shortes' way—an' de quickes'."

"Speakin'!" exclaimed Nannette with dread finality.

"Da'sall! Does you know a insane truth dat'll help me wid oftruncers?"

"Ah, the male! The ever-clinging male! They mistake who liken him to the giant oak in times of stress. Remove the possibility of static arbitration, and he becomes the clinging vine, twining his tendrils about the female form with confident belief in the potency of his fingers."

"Nannette shook her head.

"Umphm—! Dey ain' no sich. Hit'll take Miss Lella. I'll call her."

Again Nannette unfurled her distress signal through the door crack.

Lella had a way—call it personality or magnetism or plain friendliness—at once disarming and winning. People liked her. She found it a gift more precious than rubies in dealing with the butcher, the baker, and the candlestick maker. Still, she never had tried her charm on officers of the law.

Despite her unusual stress, and the party at its climax, she met the men pleasantly, Orestes and Nannette hovering uncertainly in the background.

"So good of you to come to see me," she said, "but really I'm terribly busy just now—have to take leave of sixty guests and hear each one of them express her appreciation in an entirely original and different manner."

She made a little gesture of scorn. It was involuntary, but somehow it conveyed the impression of a confidential understanding, and the men actually smiled.

"Would it be too much to ask you to wait for me fifteen minutes?"

One of the men suggested that, as they had only come for the negro, it would be quite unnecessary to trouble her further. They would merely take the prisoner and be off.

"Oh, you mustn't do that!" said Lella dismayed. "And leave us with these mountains of solid dishes, and Nannette and me ready to drop? Oh, you wouldn't do that! Orestes! Lella have to wash the dishes first."

"All right, we'll wait," said the other.

B. C. SPENDS $490,000 TO RELIEVE UNEMPLOYMENT.

What Government Did

He read all the correspondence between his office and Ottawa urging the resumption of public works at Prince Rupert, Victoria and Vancouver, the most parts of the Province, and correspondence with the C.P.R. about going ahead with railway improvements.

"That, after the reading of these letters and telegrams and after an expenditure of $490,000 for relief within the last three months, surely in the face of this evidence, it cannot be said that the Government has taken no action for the relief of unemployed in this Province," said the Premier.

Labor Scarce Last Summer

"During last summer it was impossible to get sufficient labor. Labor was at a premium, and men were earning $6.00 a day with continuous employment. But some of these men who were receiving high wages are among the unemployed to-day.

"This Government has been trying to deal with the situation having in view the many factors that enter into it. I am not sure that the resumption of public work may be considered as setting the standard, the standard of a day's work and the standard of a day's pay."

Expect Return for Pay

"If we are to pay a standard day's pay, then we have the right to expect a standard day's work. But with all due deference to public opinion and as an employer of labor for forty years, I may say that relief work does not give us a standard day's work. In this there is the question of the taxpayer to be considered.

"While my labor friends are decrying capital, they can't move a finger to relieve conditions without going to that same capital and enlisting its aid."

Limit to Aid of Capital

"We are not decrying capital, but the present system," Sam Guthrie interjected.

"There is a limit to which we can enlist the aid of capital," the Premier went on. "I venture to think that the lumber yards have been filled with lumber produced at high cost of labor, and that if the hours of labor had been shorter and wages higher still, credit on which lumber was produced would have been exhausted that much sooner and the men thrown out of employment that much sooner."

Willing to Dig Ditches

Thomas Uihill, Labor member for Fernie, challenged some of the statements for content by the Premier in his speech two days ago. Mr. Uihill declared despite what the Premier said many of the unemployed are willing to dig ditches as the Premier himself had done in his early days, as many of them are returned soldiers, and in France had dug ditches under far less favorable conditions than in Canada and had received only $1.10 a day for it.

"As long as we work under the capitalist system we cannot get rid of the unemployed," said Mr. Uihill. "Under the capitalist system it is an advantage to keep a surplus of labor."

Mr. Uihill while on his feet urged the appointment of a labor representative on the coal commission, and nominated William Robson, of Fernie, as a fearless man.

Capital Destroyed by War

"We should not always blame the people for unemployment," said Jos. Clearihue, Liberal member for Victoria. "This question of unemployment is world-wide. It is due to the effects of the war, and the destruction of capital and the fact that we have withdrawn men from production, and it is difficult to get it back to production."

He declared that the sure way of remedying the evil is to continue the policy adopted by the Government last year of developing the resources of the Province by getting an iron and steel and other industries started through the Department of Industries. He urged the establishment of a central council where capital and labor could meet on equal terms and discuss their problems, so that much of the distress on the part of both could be eliminated.

Government Always Willing

Mr. Clearihue asserted that the returned soldiers appreciate what the Government has done for them. He testified that at all the conferences with the Government he had attended the returned men always received every consideration.

Major Burd, Independent member for Alberni, explained that the men who are said to be looking for white-collar jobs in the city could stand rough rural work in the Province in France a 300-pound man had to dig a trench with just as big and heavy a spade as was furnished to the 300-pound man.

Would Also Dig Ditches

"We may have derelicts among the returned soldiers, and I may be one myself, but I think 50 per cent of those who have been demonstrating in Vancouver would willingly dig ditches," he said.

The Major declared that if his eight hour bill had been passed there would have been no over-production of lumber and closing down of the mills, as labor would have been better spread out.

Engineers Extended Relief

The Hon. J. H. King, Minister of Public Works, declared that his department had not been remiss in regard to unemployment.

"It must be conceded by the members of this House that the winter season is not the time to carry on outdoor works in most parts of the Province," he said. "But early in December I wired all our district engineers asking them to advise as to work that could be undertaken to alleviate unemployment. In selecting work to be carried on, my desire was to select work in which the department would receive some value for its expenditure. We confined our efforts to the unorganized parts of the Province. The advice from our engineers was that road construction at this time of the year could not be carried on with any degree of satisfaction."

Hon. Dr. King told of the relief work of this nature carried on in Kamloops, Salmon Arm and Nelson Districts. At Eddyville, as a result of the lumber mill closing down, many men, returned soldiers who had just settled there, were out of work, so extensive work in North Saanich was undertaken by the Department. The Minister said he has reason to be-

TOO ILL TO GO TO SCHOOL

Mother Tells How Daughter Was Made Well by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Cobourg, Ont.—"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was recommended to me for my daughter. She had trouble every month which left her in a weak and nervous condition with weak back and pain in her right side, she had these troubles for three years and frequently was unable to attend school. She has become regular and feels much better since she began taking the Vegetable Compound and attends school regularly. She is gaining steady and I have no hesitancy in recommending Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Lydia E. Pinkham's Blood Medicine."

—Mrs. JOHN TOMS, Ball St., Cobourg, Ont.

Standing all day, or sitting in cramped positions, young girls contract deranged conditions, and develop headaches, irregularities, nervousness and bearing-down pains, all of which are symptoms of women's ills. Every mother who has a daughter suffering from such symptoms should give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a fair trial.

leave that this work has relieved the situation.

Not Running Wild

Men in Victoria were sent out to work in the surrounding districts. Work was carried on at Cowichan, Sooke, Vernon, Comox, Newcastle, Union Bay, Roseland, Point Grey and other places under local engineers.

"We did not run wild and we do not propose to run wild on unemployment," said Hon. Dr. King. "Our engineers were instructed to give relief to any men in distress in their districts."

"Outside of the cities, I think we have a surplus of men well as very effectively. The Department and the Government have been closely in touch with the unemployed situation and have tried to alleviate it."

Sidney Well Looked After

The Hon. T. D. Pattullo, Minister of Lands, told of telegraphing to Ottawa to try to get additional provision made for the extension of the better housing scheme. He declared that the legislature of this Province, six months ago had been a signal success.

M. B. Jackson, K.C., commended the Government for the relief work carried on in his constituency, the Islands.

"Until we have established an agricultural population in this Province we will not have begun to solve the future of this Province," said Mr. Jackson. "As long as British Columbia gathers 80 or 90 per cent of its people into the cities we will have trouble."

The Poor Professional Man

Mr. Jackson declared that it was the professional man who had suffered and had to endure hardships during the last few years, while the laboring man was earning high wages.

"But there is one class with whom I am in utter sympathy and they are the chaps who were earning only $10 a day and who were doing dirty work overseas and were not able to participate in the $5.00 or $7.00 or $15.00 a day that men who stayed at home were doing. It was not fair," he added.

R. H. Neelands, member for South Vancouver, said that the unemployed do not want trade union wages but the rate of wages current in the line of work in which they are engaged. He hoped that there would be some public work that could be undertaken close to the cities where the problem is acute.

SALTS IF KIDNEYS OR BLADDER BOTHER

Harmless to Flush Kidneys and Neutralize Irritating Acids.

Kidney and Bladder weakness result from uric acid, says a noted authority. The kidneys filter this acid from the blood and pass it on to the bladder where it often remains to irritate and inflame, causing a burning, scalding sensation, or setting up an irritation at the neck of the bladder, obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night. The sufferer is in constant dread, the water passes sometimes with a scalding sensation and is very profuse; again, there is difficulty in avoiding it.

Bladder weakness, most folks call it because they can't control urination. While it is extremely annoying and sometimes very painful, this is really one of the most simple ailments to overcome. Get about four ounces of Jad Salts from your pharmacist and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast, continue this for two or three days. This will neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer is a source of irritation to the bladder and urinary organs which then act normally again.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless, and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is used by thousands of folks who are subject to urinary disorders caused by uric acid irritation. Jad Salts is splendid for kidneys and causes no bad effects whatever.

Here you have a pleasant, effervescent lithia-water drink, which quickly relieves bladder trouble.

LOOK FOR AID FOR WEST SAANICH ROAD

The Saanich Council was last night informed that the Provincial Engineering Department was now engaged on classification of primary and secondary roads eligible for Government aid.

Councillor Brooks moved a deputation wait on the Government urging the West Road be included. Reeve Watson stated that until the session of the House closed the Government would have no time for such a deputation. It was felt by the Council that it would be unwise for Saanich to make its arrangements for road work until the Government had announced its stand. Councillor Kingwell moved a deputation wait on Hon. Dr. King and the Government asking aid for the West Road.

It was suggested that if that were all that was asked for they might be told, "Certainly, the West Road shall be a secondary highway; we will drop the East Road from our plans."

Reeve Watson said that his understanding was that before finally deciding on road classification the Department of Public Works would consult with municipalities.

Councillor Kingwell then withdrew his motion.

MILITIA OFFICERS MAY HELP CADETS

Besides Regular Instructors Active Militiamen Can Go to Camp With Boys

Amendments to the Cadet Regulations, it is learned, make it possible for officers and other ranks of the active militia to serve with cadet units in training, for the assistance and instruction of the units, while these officers and other ranks need not be enrolled as cadet instructors. In effect this means that cadet camps will have the regular instructors, officers and men, but will in addition be able to avail themselves of the services of other officers, from the active militia, for voluntary assistance along these lines. Prior to this amendment none other than regular instructors had any status in the cadet camps. The amendment calls for free transportation and rations for these active militia officers, but no monetary remuneration from the public funds.

SAANICH IS ASKED FOR SUBSTANTIAL PUBLICITY GRANT

The Development Association Makes Strong Appeal for $2,500

"It is rather as the advertising department of Saanich that we are here this evening," said J. Carl Pendray last night to the Saanich Council, when acting as mouthpiece of a delegation from the Victoria and Island Development Association.

He was supported by Alderman A. E. Todd and George I. Warren in his appeal for an increased grant, which he based on the fact that much of the work being done by the Association was of direct benefit to Saanich.

With a handful of "Follow the Birds" folders as a sample of the type of propaganda work being done, Mr. Pendray pointed out that it was not the $500 which the folders cost which constituted the valuable work done for Saanich, but rather the organization which so successfully distributed them as to secure interested queries from the most desirable type of settler.

He supported this information by reading a most remarkable series of letters from interested parties, generally inquiring for small ranches and homesteads suited to men of small independent means, just the type of men Saanich was most desirous of securing, he maintained.

Must Meet Competition. "People are talking about Victoria and this district to-day more than ever before," he said, urging the need of funds for folders which would compete in interest with those issued by California. "That is what we are up against; we have the organization, we want more money for publicity matter to hold the interest of these inquirers," said Mr. Pendray.

He showed a wonderful series of Victoria scenes, in natural colors, which the Development Association is interested in circulating at very low cost in Prairie centres, and assured the Council that similar views of Saanich would be prepared if the councillors so wished.

"I think you will agree with me that $500 does not begin to cover the cost of the service which the Association gave to Saanich last year," he said, after enumerating a long list of accomplishments, not the least being the support which has been secured by the Association from the Canadian Pacific Railway. "You could not buy that prestige and support for a million dollars," he said, suggesting that $2,500 "would not be out of order at all."

Only For Publicity. Alderman Todd said that if Saanich granted $2,500 they would understand that there would be no proportion of overhead costs charged against the grant. The whole sum would be expended in booklets, pamphlets and other advertising.

In explanation of the results secured of late by the Association, Alderman Todd said Victoria was today more filled with people than ever before in its history, and this applied with ever greater force to Saanich as far as real estate sales are concerned, for inquiries at any real estate office in the city would show that eighty per cent of the properties changing hands recently have been in Saanich.

George I. Warren also appealed for an additional grant. Reeve Watson said he considered the Association had done well by Saanich, and he thought the Council would give the request for a larger grant favorable consideration when the estimates are brought before the Council for final passage, which would be at a later meeting.

SMALL REDUCTIONS IN EMPLOYMENT

Nominal Decline in Some Lines of Industrial Endeavor

Increased activity was reported in Ontario only, but the reduction in the other provinces were in most cases small, that of 514 persons in Nova Scotia being the most pronounced. That province with Alberta and British Columbia anticipated having slight recovery during the following week but decreased employment was expected elsewhere. Firms in every district registered less employment during the week under review than in the base week, the losses of 52,745 persons or eleven per cent in Ontario and Quebec being the largest.

Certain Increases
Decided increases in activity as compared with their returns for the preceding week were reported by firms in logging, sawmills, furniture and confectionery plants, in the crude rolled and forged division of iron and steel products, in boot, shoe, garment thread, yarn, cloth and bedding factories, in local and water transportation. In many cases these additions indicated recovery from holiday and inventory losses.

Large contractions in payroll occurred in pulp and paper and rubber establishments, coal, asbestos and chrome mines, railway transportation, retail trade, building and railway construction, the declines in part being due to season inactivity. The reduction in these groups, as in the increases mentioned above, were in most cases widespread insipidation, the individual losses in many groups being small.

During the week ending January 29, employment, as during the last few weeks reviewed in these releases, showed a substantial recession from that afforded by the same firms for the base week, (January 17, 1920), these 5,255 firms showing decreases aggregating 68,425 persons or almost ten per cent. In this comparison there were increases in nine industrial groups totalling 4,429 persons, while in twenty-three groups there were shrinkages amounting to 72,854 workers.

Payroll Contractions
The most pronounced contractions in payroll since the base week occurred in the manufacturing industries, the different divisions of which recorded losses aggregating 62,158 persons or slightly over fifteen per cent. Within this group the largest reductions were registered in lumber and its products, iron and steel and textiles, these losses being in each case over 11,000 persons.

There were, however, important declines in leather, in the miscellaneous group of industries, (which includes tobacco, chemicals, musical instruments, electric current and apparatus) in edible plant and animal products and rubber goods. In addition, there were decided decreases in metallic mining, trade and logging.

The only substantial increases in employment in this comparison were reported by firms in telephone operation, coal mining, local and water transportation and building construction.

British Columbia firms reported further contractions in employment, the 517 reports tabulated showing decreases of 386 persons or almost one per cent. The largest reduction occurred in shipyards and in railway construction. There were some increases in activity, however, in sawmills and water transportation. For the week ending February 5, employment was expected to remain practically stationary, a nominal increase of six persons only being anticipated. In this Province there were reductions in employment since the base week of 7,384 persons or nearly thirteen per cent, most of which was reported in sawmills, shipyards, and in railway construction.

Dr. Harrigan's Advice To Nerve Exhausted People

It's worth your while to read what a New York specialist has to say about the nerve and brain cell builder that Cyrus H. Bowes sells so much of these days. He writes: "Let those who are weak, thin, nervous, anemic or run-down, take natural, unadulterated substances such as Bitro-Phosphate and you will soon see some astonishing results in the increase of nerve energy and strength of body and mind."

Bitro-Phosphate is a pure organic phosphate such as good physicians prescribe to create abundant nerve force. Edward Jose will direct Alice Joyce in her next Vitagraph special production to follow "Her Lord and Master." The title of the new play is "A Desperate Heritage," and the script is now being read by Miss Joyce and Mr. Jose, who at one time was stage director for the world-famed Sarah Bernhardt.

Stolen Car Found—The police this morning recovered the Chevrolet motor car belonging to Cory & Power which was stolen from in front of the Royal Victoria Theatre Wednesday night. Three men had apparently been joy-riding in the car all night, as they took it out on Quadra Street and were seen abandoning it at 7 o'clock yesterday morning. The car is in good condition and was not damaged in the slightest.

Pleased With Choice—J. A. Shanks, defeated candidate for Police Commissioner, said to-day: "I would rather see Dr. Ernest Hall a Police Commissioner than gain that honor myself. He has always been my sincere desire. Dr. Hall is eminently better fitted to be making the laws than enforcing them; his scope should be province-wide. He is too big a man, too intelligent, far-seeing, and deep-thinking for the affairs of a medium sized city."

Hopes Resignations Unnecessary—"Personally, I hope that no such drastic action will be necessary," said Rebe Watson last night, when explaining to the Saanich Council the conditions which induced him to place before the Convention of the Union of B. C. Municipalities his famous "more money or we strike" resolution, which met with such strong support by the delegates after they had received a negative answer from Premier Oliver.

Defers Water Discussion—The Saanich Council late last night went into Water and Sewer Committee, to consider waterworks extensions and other water business. An elaborate report on extensions was placed before the committee, which consists of the whole Council, but this proved to be too large to be dealt with without careful perusal, and discussion on this matter was, therefore, deferred for one week.

The following well-known artists are assisting the choir: Miss Warfield, soprano; Miss Stewart, contralto; Kenneth Angus, tenor; Jack Petch, baritone; Vernon Smith will give violin number, and Ivor Parry will render an organ solo. UNEMPLOYMENT INSURANCE URGED

Veterans of France Adopt Resolution in Favor of System

At a meeting of the Veterans of France held last night, a resolution favoring the establishment of a system of unemployment insurance was adopted.

The resolution reads as follows: "Whereas the Province of British Columbia will inevitably be faced with recurring periods of unemployment as a result of economic conditions brought about as the aftermath of the Great War and the Reconstruction problems that have since arisen, and

"Whereas, from public information it can logically be assumed that, in times of acute displacement of labor, Government employment cannot absorb any large number of workers; these in the large majority of cases being subject to Provincial and municipal assistance in the form of relief, and

"Whereas, the progressive Legislature as initiated to-day in many countries, social needs are meeting a large share of approval, with a view to, abolishing as far as possible, any assistance that savors of 'charity,'

"Therefore be it resolved that this general meeting of the Veterans of France requests the Provincial Government, in this present session, to introduce Legislation to provide for unemployment insurance for all workers in this Province, and

"Further be it resolved that copies of this resolution be forwarded to Premier Oliver, the Provincial Minister of Labor, Leader of the Opposition and to Ex-Service and Independent Members of the Legislature, Trades and Labor Council, and the Ex-Service Associations of Victoria."

VISITING SAILORS TO BE ENTERTAINED AT SUNDAY TEAS

Plans for the entertainment of the crews of the visiting Canadian squadron which will arrive in Victoria on March 6 were made at the meeting of the Ladies' Guild for Sailors held at the Connaught Seamen's Institute yesterday afternoon.

The Guild voted a donation of $100 to the Esquimalt Ladies' Guild for the provision of Sunday teas for the men during their stay in this port.

Other donations included a sum of money to a sailor's widow who is ill, while during the past week a gift of socks, muffler and other warm comforts was given to an ex-sailor, who has now left for Alberta to take up land.

On Monday, March 14, a meeting will be held at the Institute for the purpose of packing boxes of books and magazines for the inmates of six lighthouses, who are particularly grateful for reading matter to lighten the tedium of their monotonous existence.

Arena Will Be Packed In Honor of Johnson

Exciting Scenes on Douglas Street To-day When "Moose" Distributed Tickets to Five Hundred Boys, Who Will Be His Guests To-night at Victoria-Seattle Game; Plenty of Sport and Excitement Promised Bumper Crowd.

"Moose" Johnson and his five hundred boys are going to have a big time at the Arena to-night and the 3,500 fans who have to part with their shekels for seats and standing room will be treated to a heap of fun, sport and excitement.

This will be the biggest night in the hockey history of this city since Victoria played Quebec for the championship of the world about ten years ago. Seattle and Victoria are billed to provide a stellar game of hockey, which has considerable importance attached to it through the fact that if Victoria loses the team will almost take the count for any chance of getting into the play-off, but even at that, the battle will have to take second place to the remarkable celebration which has been planned in honor of "Moose" Johnson, the veteran rover, who is doing sensational work to boost the Capital into the play-off.

WILL BE GATHERING LIMELIGHT TO-NIGHT

What a Scene. The "Moose Johnson" celebration commenced this afternoon at 4 o'clock, when nearly every physically fit boy in town swarmed about on Douglas Street, outside the office of Strickland, Patrick & Swain, and clamored for a "pass" for the game, which were being handed out by the "Moose." For a time it looked as if Joe North and the police force would have to be called out to quell the noisy multitude, but it was a big day in the boys' lives and they were given no end of rope.

The "Moose" also had a big time distributing the 500 tickets which made it possible for that number of lusty-throated youngsters to squeeze into the Arena and witness the big scenes to-night.

Before the "Moose" began handing out tickets he managed to calm the lads for a brief period and delivered himself of an oration that pleased the boys better than a beautiful flow of words from the silver-tongue of a Laurier.

"Moose" Says Something.

"Now, boys, I'm going to give you these tickets to help you get into a few words to you all while you're quiet, because I know once I start doing these things out there's going to be a pretty good crowd. You boys are all young and just getting along to the age when you will be stepping into athletics. You'll not be real boy unless you take part in some kind of sport, for it is the sporting instincts in our race that makes strong, fine men. If you don't play some game, you're just liable to develop into one of those mummy-pummy boys, who are usually known as "sissies." Now when you all jump into a game, don't forget that above all things you must go into a game prepared to win. Don't figure that you are beaten before you start or you'll certainly get an awful trimming. Get the best that is in you. Do not be too reckless but do not be afraid to take some chances. And play clean. Don't go out with the deliberate idea of getting some one. Play clean, play the game and play to win."

The Great Clamor.

The boys let out a characteristic war-whoop that startled citizens who were gazing in shop-windows looking for bargains. Then began the terrible job of handing out tickets, and if the "Moose" should happen to be a bit off color to-night the fans can put it down to the hot time the big fellow had in holding back the boys who stepped all over him.

When the last tickets were handed out there were a lot of happy faces and there were some sad boys. The jovial ones were the lucky ones, while those who hung their heads had not received a ticket. They wanted to see the "Moose" play, but they were either too small to get through the crush or were too late to get on the inside.

Something Up Their Sleeves.

The celebrations will be continued at the Arena to-night. The fans are planning some kind of a stunt for the veteran and the boys who are being entertained by the "Moose" have also Victoria's fifteen picked to meet the speedy Centrals, of Vancouver, at Oak Bay to-morrow afternoon, finishing their training last night and will go on the field prepared to battle for the Intermediate championship of the Province. The team is a very young one. It is also a very aggressive one, and can be relied upon to uphold the colors of Victoria against the Vancouver champions.

Scott, of the Bays, who is playing full-back, is, outside of Johnson, the cleverest in that position in the city. Fast Three-quarters. Armbrister, of the Bays, who has been bottled up at centre all this season will have a chance to show his speed and cleverness in his right position at wing. Ker, on the opposite wing, who is skipping the side, needs no introduction to the fans. He is a hard worker, with a good kick, and splendid defence, and given the ball is a hard man to stop.

Bannon and Huxtable at centre have been playing together all this season and work in conjunction very prettily.

Lusden at five-eighths is a tower of strength. He just missed being picked for the senior rep team and is something up their sleeve, which will startle the fans. After the cheering dies away and Referee Ion can steady the players the crucial game between the Mets and the Caps will get underway. Victoria is sure of the greatest crowd of boosters that has yet crowded into the Arena. The rink will be packed to capacity, not one seat even in "nigger heaven" being left cold. Playing before such a crowd the Capitals should deliver themselves of their best and there should be no doubt of the outcome.

Want This Game. If Victoria wins they will be with in grasping distance of a place in the play-off. A team which has been down in the rut and developed a stride which has carried them through to victories in the last third of the schedule makes a hard aggregation to stop. The Caps have their fighting spirit aroused and want to take to-night's game and then enter the last week of the playing season with a splendid chance of breaking up Vancouver's team-play.

Right to-day Victoria has the most aggressive team in the league. Eliminate Lehman's lucky nights and Vancouver and Victoria would just be in the opposite places in the league standing.

Ice Comedian on Job. The puck will be faced off at 8:30 o'clock to-night and in the intervals Ralph Alcock, the ice comedian, will introduce several new skits to the public and help along the evening's entertainment.

It looks like one of those "painting the town red" nights.

very versatile. He is a strong probability for rep. honors next season. Half-backs Are Good. Anderson at scrum half has been one of the most consistent players in the league this year. He was well worth his position on the senior fifteen. His partner, Chaloner, is very shifty and needs a lot of watching. The forwards are very fast and aggressive. Brynjoelson, the younger of the two brothers, bids fair to be the equal in the scrum to his elder brother, "Cotton." Blythe and Beales are both fast youngsters. Blythe will probably make a strong bid next year for rep. honors. The rest of the forwards are very evenly balanced. The Vancouver side is of similar calibre and the match will make the Victoria fifteen step out to win.

Will Be Fine Game. Although the game is billed as intermediate it is far from the actual fact. All the Victoria side are from the senior league. The Vancouver side is of similar calibre and the match promises to be one of the fastest seen this season.

The whistle will be handled by Stan Honeychurch. The kick-off will be at 2:45 sharp.

The Victoria line-up will be as follows:
Full-back—Scott, Bays.
Three-quarters—Armbrister, Bays; Bannon, Cardinals; Huxtable, Cardinals; Ker (capt.), Old Boys.
Halves—Anderson, Bays; Chaloner, Old Boys.
Five-eighths—Lusden, Cardinals.
Forwards—Blythe, Cardinals; Brynjoelson, Bays; Chadwick, Old Boys; Ker (capt.), Cardinals; Milligan, Old Boys; Tolmie, Cardinals.

STAR GRASS HOCKEY GAME ON TO-MORROW

Victoria and Vancouver Teams Meeting to Decide B. C. Championship

One of the keenest grass hockey games played here for some time will be staged at the Jubilee Hospital grounds to-morrow afternoon when the Victoria and Vancouver teams meet to decide the British Columbia championship. Victoria has a splendid chance to annex the title this year. A very active, fast and strong team has been selected. The other week the Capitals journeyed to Vancouver and defeated the Shamrocks by 6-1. In the other semi-final, Vancouver defeated North Vancouver by 1-0.

Winner Takes Cup.

The winner of to-morrow's game will hold the B. C. Challenge Silver Cup for one year. The game will commence at 2 o'clock. The Victoria team will be as follows:

Goal, Stanier; backs, Wilson and Hudson; half-backs, Idens (capt.), Taylor, Full-back, Whyte; forwards, Wale, McKeck, O'Brien, Brynjoelson, Half-back, S. Sherritt, Menzies, Half-back, Thomas, McInnes, Forward, Mulcahy, Pettigrew, Forward, Baker, Totty, Forward, Peden, Plump, Forward, J. Sherritt.

The Wests are trying out a new goal-keeper in Fann. He has never been tested in a hard match in this city, but is reputed to be a clever man between the sticks.

There promises to be two exciting games in the Victoria Combination League to-morrow. The draw is as follows:

It took him ten hours to come the last thirty miles from Rocky Lake. He explained that his dogs simply had not been in condition for the trip.

Lavalie arrived a short time after Gayne.

VARIETY
Although he made most of "The Last of the Mohicans" in the great mountain and lake country of the West, Maurice Tournier, producer of Cooper's famous story, now showing at the Variety Theatre, firmly believes in filming as much as possible of a story in his studio. "Of course," says the French director, "we love to get all the beautiful exteriors we can, but whenever possible, I like to build sets on the studio stage, because it is far easier to secure effective work from the players when scenes are filmed under the lights." This explains why such elaborate sets, representing portions of the caves, forts, cabins, wigwams, and many other forest retreats were set up in the studio during the filming of "The Last of the Mohicans." Nevertheless, the grandeur of the big hills plays its part in the picture, and nature, in its varying moods of storm and calm, leads the usual Tournier atmosphere of beauty and artistry.

PRINCESS
The play now being produced at the Princess Theatre is beyond doubt a splendid comedy drama. Its name is, "What Money Couldn't Buy," and it is suggestive of the ideal and beautiful, for in these days of rush and scramble for hard dollars there are not many things beyond the reach of the gold plated palm. There is some splendid comedy, great situations, and one big climax right after another all through this powerful play.
The next offering chosen is "Sick-a-Red," a comedy with a real "kick."
"Sick-a-Red" will open on Wednesday next, and at the first performance another enlarged framed portrait of James Coots will be presented to the one guessing nearest the

DRAMATIC FINALE IN
"THE ONLY WAY"
Sir Martin Harvey at His Best in Portrayal of Famous Dickens's Character Stirred by the wonderful artistry of the eminent English actor in his dramatic portrayal of the principal role in "The Only Way," the crowded house at the Royal Victoria Theatre last night accorded Sir Martin
Harvey a remarkable ovation.
Sir Martin was at his best in the character of Sidney Carton, who, disappointed in love, makes the supreme sacrifice to assure the happiness of one most dear to his heart. In the intensely dramatic finale, when the curtain slowly rises on the last scene, depicting the guillotine silhouetted against the approaching light of dawn, Sidney Carton delivers himself up to the executioner in the place of the successful suitor for the heart of the girl he realized he could never win. Truly a dramatic masterpiece impressively conveyed by the uttered words,
"It is a far, far better thing I do than have ever done, and a far, far sweeter rest I go to than I have ever known."
"The Only Way," an intensely dramatic play by Wilkie Collins, "Tale of Two Cities," is staged in the period of the French revolution. Sidney Carton is in love with Lucie Manette, but he realizes he can never win the idol of his affection. In his disappointment he is driven to drink. Charles Darnay, the son of a dissolute and hated French nobleman, living in exile in England under an assumed name, wins Lucie. Darnay is trapped in returning to France. Carton hurries to France and after failing in a magnificent effort to save Darnay before the revolutionary tribunal, he takes advantage of those circumstances, personating Darnay and making the noble sacrifice.
In walking to the scaffold in company with the faithful Lucie, Carton refused to be separated from him at the last. He expresses confidence that it will be "The Only Way."
Miss N. de Silva takes the role of Mimi, while Miss Mary Gray proved an excellent substitute in the role of Lucie Manette.
"The Only Way" will be repeated to-night at the Royal Victoria Theatre.

ROMANO
Most of the action in William De Mille's production, "The Prince Chap," which will be on view at the Romano Theatre again today, is set in a bohemian atmosphere of Paris, and takes place in the bohemian colony of struggling artists in the Soho section of London. Several studios are shown and to provide the most realistic furnishings for them,
Mr. De Mille made full use of his extremely wide acquaintance among artists. He dipped ruthlessly into every studio I could find, excepting the producer, "picking up a little water color here and an oil study there. I commandeered brass tea-kettles, pilfered prizes at book fairs, took with me the valued hangings from walls and windows, and even shamelessly entered wardrobes and requisitioned comfortable, well worn coats, caps, and smocks." The result is that each studio in "The Prince Chap" is a perfect gem of "artful realism" that is aimed to reflect accurately the character of the person who occupies it. Thomas Meighen is the featured player in this appealing comedy, and Lila Lee, Kathryn Williams, Theodore Kosloff and Ann Forrest are also in the cast. It is a Paramount Artcraft release.

Had Bad Cough
For Three Years
The constant hacking, racking, persistent cough that sticks to you in spite of everything you have done to get rid of it, is the kind that is dangerous.
The longer the cough sticks, the more serious menace it becomes to your health.
There is no remedy that will relieve coughs—coughs that won't let go—like Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup.
It has a healing and soothing action on the air passages, and at the same time acts as a disinfectant of the respiratory organs, destroying germs that produce serious lung complications.
Mrs. John Miller, Minburn, Alta., writes:—"I had a very bad cough for three years. I went to several doctors and tried different cough medicines, but nothing seemed to help me. One day a friend told me about Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, and after using several bottles I became completely relieved. I always keep a bottle in the house, and also recommend it to others."
Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup has been universally used for over 30 years, and so great has been its success, it is only natural that a great many imitations have been placed on the market. The genuine is put up in a yellow wrapper; 3 pine trees are on the label, and price 25c and 50c a bottle; manufactured only by The

ALLEGES LIBERALS
ARE PUSSYFOOTING
W. J. Bowser, K.C., Warns Against Stealthy Propaganda Affecting Him
Liberals are carrying on a stealthy propaganda to weaken his position in the Conservative party. W. J. Bowser, K.C., told the Victoria Conservative Club last night. It was very necessary, in the face of these tactics, that Conservatives should stick close together, he declared. Faint-hearted Conservatives should steel themselves against these pussy-footing tactics.
The occasion for these remarks was Mr. Bowser's reference to the manner in which the Liberals were treating his criticism of the Government Liquor Bill.
W. A. McKenzie, member for Simikameen, put in a good word for Canon Hinchliffe for the stand the Canon had taken on the liquor bill.
Colonel Fred Lister said he was glad that the Conservatives had been put in, it should be an easy matter to send over three more Conservative to the House at the next election.
Canon Hinchliffe said that Mr.
Bowser had been criticized for daring to criticize the liquor bill, though the Government had invited opinions of all members on the proposed legislation. "What are we to do?" If attention were unwilling to help the bill. If we talk, we are obstructing," he said.
Frank Andrews moved the vote of thanks to Mr. Bowser for his address.
Miss Lottie Bowson acted as chairman.
A tribute was paid to J. O. Dunford who has been president of the Conservative Association for the past two years. Mr. Dunford's enterprise and energy in the interests of the Association were very much appreciated by every member of the organization, it was stated.

Metchosin, March 4.—The Metchosin
Women's Institute held its general monthly meeting this week. President Mrs. T. F. Helgesen in the chair.
There was a splendid attendance.
A debate took place on "Teaching Eugenics in the Schools," led by Mrs.
Brown for the affirmative, and Mrs.
MacTavish for the negative, in which many of the members took part.
March 15 was set as the date for a lecture by F. Napier Denison, superintendent of the Meteorological Observatory at Victoria, on "Earthquakes and Volcanoes," with lantern slide illustrations.
The Institute decided as a body to become a member of the Island District Institutes, and decided at some future date to ask Mr. Stevenson, of the Experimental Farm, to visit the Institute.
Miss Helen Stewart, Victoria City Librarian, will be asked to attend the next meeting to advise regarding the forming of a district library.

CHICAGO TO BE

MECCA IN JULY

Large Gathering of Realty Men Is Expected This Summer

Every city and realty board in the Pacific Northwest is expected to send a substantial delegation of realty men to swell the grand excursion of delegates from this section to the convention of the National Association of Real Estate Boards to be held in Chicago July 12, 13, 14 and 15, according to an announcement of Fred O. Brockman, Portland, secretary of the Inter-State Realty Association.

Under the leadership of E. B. Arth and of Houlihan, president; Frederick H. Strong of Portland, treasurer; and Fred O. Brockman, secretary, of 404 Artisans Building, Portland, an organization has been formed for the purpose of creating Chicago Convention Clubs in the ranks of all the realty boards of the Northwest, and the campaign for a record delegation at the Chicago gathering is already under way. Brockman announced that already 135 realtors, representing all sections of the Northwest, had been signed up for the trip to Chicago, and that from present indications sufficient delegates would be secured to have two special trains.

Trains To Be Finest

"The special trains bearing the Northwest delegation will be the best that the railroad companies can furnish," said Brockman, in discussing plans for the convention. "They will be fitted up with all the modern conveniences, including a barber shop, manicurists, bath room, stenographers, wonderful amusement car, first-class dining cars and equipment, besides printing a daily paper enroute.

"The trip will be made in easy stages, with stops enroute, to give the Westerners a chance to advertise their section with songs and yells and in any way they may see fit."

Brockman said that negotiations were now under way with the railroad companies with a view to securing a low round trip rate. He said that a rate of $150 to $175, possibly lower, would be secured.

"It is especially appropriate that the Northwest have a record-breaking delegation at the convention this year, owing to the fact that this section has the national president of the association, Fred E. Taylor of Portland," said Brockman.

Big Convention Expected

"The gathering at Chicago is expected to be the biggest assemblage of American business men ever held in the United States. It will, consequently, be a particularly appropriate time for the Northwest to make a good showing and to advertise this section of the country. The business and financial men of the country are looking toward the Northwest as never before, and it is up to us of this section to show them that we have a country worth boasting for."

Mr. Brockman said that there would be no special trains for the return of delegates. This will give each man a chance to return when and how he may see fit. Many intend to take advantage of the opportunity to make a little trip to the East previous to returning home.

HAWAII MARU WILL ARRIVE FROM JAPAN ON THURSDAY NEXT

Arizona Maru Cleared From Port Last Night on Return Trip to the Orient

Coming on from the Orient the Osaka Shosen Kaisha liner Hawaii Maru will arrive here next Thursday. Messrs. R. P. Rithet & Co., local agents for the Japanese Line, have received word that the Hawaii Maru has 185 passengers aboard, including 73 steerage for Victoria and 13 cabin and 99 steerage for Seattle. The liner has about 300 tons of cargo for British Columbia ports.

Arizona Sails

After embarking 47 steerage passengers here the O. S. K. liner Arizona Maru, Captain D. Fuchisama, left the Outer Docks last evening on her return trip to the Orient. Her cargo chiefly comprised shipments of flour, lumber and cotton. The Arizona had 50 passengers aboard from Seattle, Tacoma and Portland.

In honor of Captain T. Nishimura, who has been port captain for the line, a dinner was given aboard the line, a dinner was given aboard the Arizona on Tuesday at Tacoma. Captain Nishimura is leaving Tacoma to take command of the steamship Canada Maru, formerly of the Victoria fleet which is now loading at New Orleans, while Mr. Sall is going to Japan for a visit before taking up new duties at Los Angeles.

The Arizona Maru is scheduled to reach Hongkong April 8, and will return to Victoria May 22.

LINER WENATCHEE SHOWS HER SPEED ON TRIAL CRUISE

New Boat for Pacific Steamship Company Averages 18.75 Knots

Running her trials off Sandy Hook on Wednesday, the new United States Shipping Board passenger and freight liner Wenatchee, first of a fleet of vessels which are to be operated by the Pacific Steamship Company between Seattle and the Orient via Victoria, developed 20.2 knots in one hour and averaged 18.75 knots for the 100 miles of the official trial test.

The performance of the Wenatchee is the best yet made by any of the big liners known as the "535's," the best previous performance having been that of the steamships Golden State and Hawkeye State, both of which bettered nineteen knots.

According to the message from President Alexander, who went east for the trial, the Wenatchee is one of the finest vessels afloat, and during the entire trial trip, which occurred on the regulation course off Sandy Hook, was successful in every detail.

Economical Ship.

One of the important features brought out at the trial is that the big ship demonstrated the ability to develop a high speed with a comparatively small fuel consumption. According to the message she maintained better than seventeen knots on 121 tons of fuel, which means approximately 650 barrels.

At the conclusion of the trial tests the Wenatchee was officially turned over to the representatives of the Admiralty Line at New York. Capt. J. E. Guphill, one of the best known and most popular Pacific Coast mariners, taking command of the ship.

The Admiralty Line announces the booking of over 200 passengers for the coastwise voyage in this big ship. This excursion will leave New York on Saturday, March 12, calling at Havana, Cuba, en route, and passing through the Panama Canal. Up the Pacific Coast the Wenatchee will call at San Pedro and San Francisco, and will reach Seattle April 4 or 5, and will then sail for the Orient on her first voyage to the Far East April 9.

VETERANS RESENT STATEMENTS MADE OF INCOMPETENCY

Veterans of France Condemn Reflections Cast Upon Returned Men at Shipyards

Taking exception to statements made at the meeting of the shareholders of the Victoria Shipowners, Ltd., which it is claimed, reflected upon the efficiency of returned men employed at the Chulberg Shipyards, the Veterans of France last night condemning the unwarranted statements and resolved to call a meeting of the various ex-service associations to consider the question and ask the persons concerned to appear before the returned men and justify their statements.

The resolution reads as follows: "Whereas, at a special meeting of the shareholders of the 'Victoria Shipowners, Ltd., certain statements were made and published in the daily papers which certainly were false in substance and fact, and were libellous to a degree in besmirching the good name of the returned men that veterans were lazy and incompetent, and whereas, it is provable that in launching that enterprise, the veterans as a body, were used to obtain concessions enabling that yard to open and operate with Dominion Government assistance, and whereas, contrary to these statements published, bad management was responsible primarily for failure to operate this yard on the Sonthebs Reserve, known as the Chulberg Shipyards, where these ships were being constructed and can, by no manner of means, be laid at the door of the returned men, therefore be it resolved that the Veterans of France, in meeting assembled, do condemn these persons for these unwarranted statements considering that veterans have quite long enough been made a football for interested parties to kick about, and further be it resolved that a meeting be called by the various associations to thoroughly consider this question and ask the persons concerned to appear and justify their statements, and that copies of this resolution be forwarded to the ex-service associations for their approval."

The Veterans of France also discussed the Esquimalt Drydock and other development work, passing the following resolution: "That this association communicate with all ex-service and other public bodies asking that they make a joint protest against delay in starting drydock and all city work including paving of Government Street and Johnson Street Bridge."

For some time past Mr. Beek has been unwell, and it is feared that his fall may have been brought about by a sudden seizure.

SUBSIDY IS SOUGHT BY N.Y.K. FOR ITS SOUTH SEA SERVICE

Competition by Other Lines Brings Request For Aid From Government

The Nippon Yusen Kaisha contemplates asking the Japanese Government for a subsidy for its South Seas shipping service, according to reports from the Orient. The line is maintained under special arrangements with the Japanese Navy Department, but at present the company receives no aid from the Government.

The development of Japanese shipping operations in the South Seas dates back only to the World War. The withdrawal of foreign ships from this part of the world provided an opportunity for Japanese ships to enter the field, and the development of Japanese shipping was further accelerated when the German islands north of the equator were occupied by the Japanese navy. Since the restoration of peace, with the return of foreign ships, the situation has become unfavorable, but Japanese shipping companies had obtained a strong foothold although some minor firms have withdrawn. The Japanese concerns now maintaining service to the South Seas are the Nippon Yusen Kaisha, the Osaka Shosen Kaisha, the Nanyo Yusen Kaisha (South Seas Mail Steamship Company) and the Yamashita Kisen Kaisha. The Osaka Shosen Kaisha and the Nanyo Yusen Kaisha are subsidized by the Japanese Government, but no such aid is received by the other two.

The Osaka Shosen Kaisha receives an annual subsidy of $500,000 from the Government General of Formosa and maintains a regular service between Keelung, Takao, Manila, Sandakan, Batavia, Samarang and Soerabaya on the outward voyage and between Soerabaya, Macassar, Sandakan, Hongkong, Takao and Keelung on the homeward voyage. The formal starting point is Keelung, but in practice vessels begin and end their voyages at Yokohama and Kobe.

The Nanyo Yusen Kaisha receives a subsidy of $100,000 a year from the Department of Communications. Its service is maintained between Kobe, Moji, Hongkong, Batavia, Samarang and Soerabaya on the outward voyage and between Soerabaya, Samarang, Macassar, Saricatan and Hongkong on the homeward voyage. The actual starting point is Yokohama.

Under special arrangements with the Navy Department, the Nippon Yusen Kaisha maintains two South Seas lines, eastbound and westbound.

WITHIN RANGE OF THE SYREN

The resumption of the Princess Charlotte in the triangular service and the Princess Adelaide in the direct gulf service is welcomed by the traveling public. The return of these vessels to the service is an indication of the desire of the company to provide the best service possible in the interests of its patrons. The Princess Charlotte is the most expensive boat of the fleet to operate and has been out of commission during the slack period. The Princess Adelaide has been temporarily laid up undergoing necessary minor repairs. The Princess Charlotte cleared this afternoon for Vancouver and the Princess Adelaide will leave to-night.

There will be nothing lacking in the way of amusement for the crews of the Aurora, Patriot and Patricia, the Canadian naval vessels which are due to reach this port next Thursday. The different public organizations and the ex-service organizations are looking to this, and it can safely be assumed that the joyful Jack Tars will thoroughly enjoy themselves during the stay of the fleet in British Columbia waters.

The eastbound line is maintained between Yokohama and Anaur and the westbound line between Yokohama and Xaluit and other islands. On both lines the ports of call include numerous islands in the former German territory now under Japanese occupation.

When the shipping situation was prosperous it was not necessary for a company like the Nippon Yusen Kaisha to receive Government aid, but the situation has changed. It is true that the company has declined the subsidy in favor of mail fees for the European, North American and Australian lines, but this is due to the fact that they can maintain them with profit without aid from the Government.

WILL PROSECUTE ROAD DESTROYERS

"Personally, I'd like to see our Extraordinary Traffic Bylaw tested out," said Reeve Watson last night, when Councillor Vantreight had declared that Chinamen, using motor trucks, hauling green wood, were ruining Ash Road, contrary to the bylaw, which provides that loads over one ton on gravel roads were prohibited at this time of year as extraordinary traffic.

Councillor Kingwell thought it would be well also to take action on a similar case of damage to Brookley Road.

Councillor Brooks said if wood hauling did not take place in the Winter months Victoria city would freeze.

Councillor Ormond suggested Summer hauling, though limited loads were reasonable traffic in Winter.

It was pointed out that the bylaw was machinery to prevent damage being done, not for oppression, and heavy loads not destroying the roads were not liable to trouble. Councillor Vantreight then secured endorsement of instructions to the Police Department to prosecute those infringing the bylaw and causing road damage.

DEMAND CONTINUES ON G.W.V.A. RELIEF FUND DONATIONS

Sums Received Are Insufficient to Meet Penurious Cases

The demands upon the G. W. V. A. Relief Fund are as great as ever, but the donations have fallen off to an alarming extent. Hundreds of little children rely upon the fund for every morsel of food they eat and unless the public response to the appeal is more generous than it has been during the past week, it will be impossible for the G. W. V. A. to cope with the situation, and the children of ex-service men will be forced to go hungry.

With two notable exceptions, the fund is mainly supported by ex-service men, and wives and widows of those who served. The public has failed to realize the seriousness of the situation and the response to the appeal has been most disappointing. The following letter signed "A Widow's mite," which the secretary received is typical of the self-sacrifice practiced by poor but sympathetic subscribers who are ready to share their little with others:

"I am enclosing $1 for the Relief Fund. I wish I could do more. I am a widow, my husband having died after returning from France. I receive no pension and have to struggle to make both ends meet, but I cannot close my eyes to the children's cry for food. My contribution is small, but some little one will be benefitted by 'A Widow's mite.'"

RE MR. POOLEY'S SPEECH ON THE LIQUOR CONTROL BILL.

To the Editor:—I read Mr. Pooley's speech in to-day's paper, and note that he endeavored to impress upon the Government the necessity of employing all amputation cases possible as vendors, etc., under the new Act. So far, so good, but I regret his deliberate attempt to ignore the other disabled men and the effort on his part to class them as grouchers.

As a public man and an M. P. P. he exhibits a woeful lack of knowledge of disabled men's problems, notwithstanding the fact that in his constituency he has the Military District Headquarters and the Esquimalt S. C. R. Hospital. If Mr. Pooley was better acquainted with the troubles of the disabled ex-service men, as he ought to be, then he would at least have made a plea for all disabled men and not for members of the Amputation Club alone. The members of the Amputation Club need no assurance from the other associations as to what support they can receive and will receive at all times, and I am certain they will also be the first to admit that in many cases the heart, chest, lung or stomach case is very much worse off than quite a number of the amputation cases, both so far as employment and pensions is concerned.

Perhaps if my friend Mr. Pooley visited the Esquimalt Hospital at other times as well as during his election campaign, he would be in a better position to further the interests of his constituents who are returned soldiers and sailors.

REAL MODERATION.

To the Editor:—When the people voted for the Government control of liquor, they did so in the desire to see framed an Act that would promote greater temperance than was possible under a prohibition law. It has been demonstrated beyond question in the United States that total abstinence cannot be forced on the people by legislative enactment. All that can possibly be done is to minimize some of the evils of the old system, and it has been found that repressive measures, when pushed to the limit, create new and dangerous conditions. The drug habit is only one of the consequent evils that is now confronting those who have the welfare of mankind at heart. In the Liquor Control Bill just brought down the Government has lost the greatest opportunity to encourage sobriety. The mistake made is in placing beer and light wines in the same category with hard liquor. Intoxication is what causes the injury. Since it has been shown by the referendum that the people wish a beverage with some alcoholic content, it should be the desire of the Government and of everyone in sympathy with the moderation cause, to years ago an ulcer appeared on my ankle," writes Mrs. Jeffrey, of Methuen, Mass. "In spite of all the remedies I used, it spread to my knee, and developed into an open sore. I had medical treatment for twenty-five years, but only got temporary relief. The pain I suffered was terrible, and for years I was unable to leave the house.

"One day I saw in a newspaper an account of a bad ulcer having been cured by Zam-Buk. Although I was skeptical, now, of anything curing me—having tried so many remedies in vain—I decided to give Zam-Buk a trial. I applied the balm freely every day and to my delight the sore soon showed some improvement. Gradually the inflammation was drawn out, the pain was ended, and, after thirty years of suffering, I realized I was on the road to recovery. With perseverance, the awful sore was finally completely healed, and, although that was three years ago, there has been no slightest trace of the ulcer returning."

Zam-Buk is the best remedy, also, for eczema, boils, pimples, blood-poisoning, piles, burns, scalds and cuts. All dealers, or Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, 50c. box, 3 for $1.25.

see that good standard beer is more easily accessible to the people than high power whisky. In order to discourage the consumption of high power liquor the logical antidote is to encourage the drinking of low power beer. To do this it must be possible under the new law for anybody to obtain beer by the glass in hotels and buffets, served, if thought best, at tables.

If the citizens are compelled to obtain a permit to buy bottled beer at a Government store, it will be found the majority of them will buy hard liquor, for the reasons that they will be getting more alcohol for their money, and it can be more easily transported. All will agree such is not in the interest of moderation.

BUTTLE LAKE (STRATHCONA PARK.)

To the Editor:—This attractive section of Vancouver Island can be made available for tourist travel during the coming Summer at a very trifling expense, if the Government will have fallen trees cleared from the trail, and a few minor improvements carried out along the road and trail.

I understand private parties at Campbell River are prepared to put on the necessary packhorses and motor cars, if they are encouraged by improvements to the wagon road and trail. The same parties are prepared to place boats and gasoline launches on the Campbell Lakes and Buttles Lake, if the right-of-way is made satisfactory.

Tourists frequently express a wish to visit Buttles Lake, but are discouraged by accounts they hear of the condition of the roads to the Park. At the present time, the writer knows of a number of Vancouver people who are willing and anxious to spend some time in the park during the coming Summer, if they know that the road and trail are in good condition.

FULL RIGHTS FOR MINISTERS ASKED

The Presbytery of Victoria, in session here last week, passed the following resolution:

"The Presbytery of Victoria respectfully protests against the continued disability suffered by Ministers of religion under the Public Schools Act of B. C., whereby they are rendered ineligible for such positions as teachers, inspectors, superintendents of education and trustees.

"And earnestly calls upon the Legislative Assembly now in session to remove said disability and accord the ministers of religion their full rights as British subjects.

"And a copy of this resolution be forwarded to the Hon. the Premier and the Leader of the Opposition, as well as published in the local press."

POSSESS GOOD HEALTH BY LOOKING AFTER THE BOWELS

A free motion of the bowels, once or twice a day, should be the rule of everyone, as half the ills of life are caused by allowing the bowels to get into a constipated condition.

When the bowels are allowed to become constipated, the stomach gets out of order, and the liver does not do its work properly on account of holding back the bile so that it does not pass through the bowels, but is allowed to get into the blood, thus causing a poisoning of the whole system.

If you would escape constipation, sick and bilious headaches, heartburn, floating specks before the eyes, coated tongue, foul breath; the nasty irritating, bleeding, itching and protruding piles, you should keep your liver stirred up by the use of Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills.

These pills, being purely vegetable, keep your liver working actively, helping it to resume its proper functions, and thereby removing the bile that is circulating in the blood and poisoning the whole system.

Mrs. H. Barrows, Enfield, N. S., writes: "I was troubled with sick headaches and constipation. One day a friend told me of Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills. I got two vials, and found they did me a world of good. I therefore have great faith in them."

Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills are 25c. a vial, at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Millburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

PRESENT POLITICAL OUTLOOK IN P. E. I.
Light Business Programme for Session of Legislature
Charlottetown, P. E. I., March 4.—It is expected that at the forthcoming session of the Provincial Legislature, the second session of the new Liberal administration headed by Premier John H. Bell, the business will be comparatively light. Last year the Government had a very heavy programme on its hands, inclusive of increased taxation, roads and the establishment of an agricultural and technical high school.
A substantial increase in revenue was secured by the passage of the new taxation act last session and it is quite probable that the income and expenditure of the Province for the year will about balance, something that has not occurred for some time in Prince Edward Island. The Opposition press since the last session has been persistently attacking the Government taxation measures which they claim were unequal for the contentions of the Opposition Leader, A. E. Arsenault, was that with a special education tax the Government would be able to carry on without materially increasing taxes of other kinds. Taxation is never popular in any Province, and in Prince Edward Island, which is no exception, a number of important meetings have been held since the House last met.
Under the 60-40 highway arrangement with the Federal Government, the Province has been asked to expend $100,000 on roads, the automobile license fees being found to pay the interest on the money spent.

QUEBEC LIQUOR BILL UNSOUND
Quebec, March 4.—(Canadian Press)—That the Quebec Liquor Bill, which was sanctioned by the Provincial Government, is unconstitutional in as much as it infringes upon the rights of individuals, is the opinion given by W. J. Bowser, leader of the Opposition in the British Columbia Legislature, who has sent the following telegram to Arthur Sauve, leader of the Opposition in the Quebec Legislature.
"Would think Provincial Legislature can pass legislation to monopolize business, but do not believe they can do this without the participation by individuals.
DELIVERS LECTURE.
Nanaimo, March 4.—W. M. Brewer, of Nanaimo, mining engineer for the western division, gave a good address on the mining possibilities of the district conveying a thorough knowledge of past, present and future prospects along that line of business at the annual meeting of the Duncan Board on Wednesday.
Mr. Brewer voiced the opinion that much might be achieved in the local mining industry, if such an organization as the Board of Trade could in their scope work for the interesting of sufficient capital to the area. Information of certain groups of claims, and these ultimately to be worked under the oil flotation process.
"Take the King's shillings," Blue Bell said in other claim in the vicinity," said Mr. Brewer. "I do not believe a mine could be made of any one of them individually, but if these claims were brought to the surface, management put over them, with sufficient capital, I believe those properties could be run successfully by the oil flotation process."
CLAY TESTED.
Regina, March 3.—A series of laboratory experiments to determine the suitability of Saskatchewan clays for the manufacture of ceramics has just been completed for the Bureau of Industrial Chemistry. During the experiments a large number of vases, small bowls and other articles, were made, which these experiments were carried out were all taken from the East End white clay outcrop in the valley of the Frenchman River in the Cypress Hills. Three of the samples tested proved to be ball clays, similar in texture to the Kentucky ball clays that are used generally throughout the United States in the manufacture of porcelains. They assume a light creamy color at a low temperature and can be used in any porcelain, pottery or stoneware body. These clays are found in layers from three to six feet in thickness.
TEACHERS PAID.
New Westminster, March 4.—Word was received by the School Board of the Department of Education at Victoria yesterday to the effect that the salaries of the teachers who were on strike at week's end should be paid. When the check for February was issued, the Board deducted one-quarter of the salary due because of the week's absence from duty occasioned by the strike. The trustees announced that they did this because they did not think the Education Department would sanction payment of salaries for that time. The matter was brought to the attention of the Department, and S. J. Willis, the Superintendent of Education, wrote the Board saying the salaries should be paid.

Beauty Secrets Revealed.

Anna Q. Nilsson the Popular Actress Tells How

To Instantly Have a Beautiful Rosy-White Skin and Complexion.

ANNA Q. NILSSON

New York—"The secret of beauty is the proper care of the skin," says Miss Nilsson, the popular Metro star. "It only requires a few moments time and anyone in more than paid for the little effort it takes. In the first place the skin should be kept scrupulously clean. Use a good cleansing cream (Laska cold cream I have found to be the best), follow this by bathing the face with warm water then rinse with cold water and dry thoroughly with a coarse towel. After this process select a beautifier which in addition to being delicate to the skin and will positively stimulate or produce a growth of hair. Give it a thorough trial and you will never be without it. Accept no substitutes as there is nothing "better," "just as good" or "just like it."

NOTE—Ask your druggist about "derwillo" and he will tell you that he has never sold any toilet article which has become so popular in so short a time. This is due to the satisfaction it gives. It is guaranteed by every druggist or department store to give complete satisfaction or they will refund your money. If you don't like it take it back. Could anything be fairer? It is sold at all drug counters in this city, including Owl Drug Co., and Newaver Drug Co.

Liquor Debate Ending; May Pass Bill Next Week

Government leaders expect to have the debate on the second reading of the Government Liquor Control Bill brought to an end before the House adjourns this afternoon.

Dr. W. H. Sutherland, chief Government whip, said this afternoon that it is intended to keep the House down to business on the Liquor Bill and bring it into committee at the first of next week. He said that if the bill gets off to a good start at the first of the week there is a possibility that it may be through by the end of the week. There are a number of contentious clauses and a lot depends on how long they are held up in debate. As the estimates are not yet ready the Liquor Bill practically has a clear right-of-way.

It is a little too early to think of night sessions yet, Dr. Sutherland said.

Major Burde, member for Albgeld; Mrs. Joseph Smith, member for Vancouver; E. C. Henniger, member for Grand Forks, and H. F. Kergin, member for Atlin, are down to speak this afternoon.

Prohibitionists Protest.
Formal protest that the sale of light wines and beer by other than Government vendors would be a direct violation of the terms of the plebiscite on Government Control was made to-day by Premier Oliver by the People's Prohibition Association of Victoria. The organization asked for "the strictest interpretation to be given to the plebiscite."

The Association also protested against "the sale of liquors for profit either by the government or other persons, and especially against the suggestion to make and use liquor profits for hospitals, schools and the relief of taxation in the Province."

Women's Institute Opposed.
Vigorous enforcement of the present Prohibition Act as long as it is in the statute book is urged.

Directors of the Cowichan Women's Institute under Mrs. E. A. Leather, president, to-day informed the Premier that they strongly "protest against the restoration of the sale of liquors in clubs, hotels, saloons and other places, and against the suggestion that Government agents, as promised to the people in the late referendum."

ACROSS THE BAY

What the British Columbia Legislature and Its Politicians Are Doing.

LABOR MEN VOTE AGAINST MORE AID FOR UNEMPLOYED

There was talk around the Legislative corridors to-day about the way labor members of the House yesterday voted so that they are down on the Government in respect to which the Government is opposing to further aid from the Government to relieve the unemployment situation, simply because they were anxious not to endorse what the Government has done already.

The exact words of the resolution which the labor men joined with the Conservatives in voting against are: "That this committee approves of the relief measures adopted by the Government in dealing with unemployment and pledges its support to the Government in respect to such further measures as may be necessary for the Government to take in dealing with the present unemployment situation."

There was also talk in the corridors to-day about the action of Kenneth Duncan, Independent, joining with the labor members in voting against the Government, although he represents an agricultural constituency, such as Cowichan.

The division on the foregoing resolution was: For, 23—Clearhouse, Jackson, Paterson, Perry, Yorston, MacDonald, K. C. Anderson, Sutherland, Macdonald, M. A., King, Oliver, Sloan, Ramsay, Henniger, Kergin, Mackenzie, I. A., Pauline, Buckham, Whiteside, Barrow, Hart, Pattullo, MacLean.

Against, 19—Hanes, Neelands, Guthrie, Uphill, McRae, Catherwood, Pearson, McDonald, A., Esling, Schofield, Duncan, Burde, Hunter, Hinchliffe, Lister, McKenzie, W. A., Jones, Bowser, Rose.

Victoria's 1921 Private Bill will be thrashed out before the Private Bills Committee of the House next week, if present arrangements are carried out. The bill would have been considered before but for the fact that information added a number of clauses to it recently, thus making additional advertising necessary. City Solicitor H. S. Pringle is in charge of the Buildings to-day to arrange for the handling of the bill.

Optometry Bill Halted

Although his ruling was reserved in regard to the method of procedure in having introduced into the House an act relating to optometry, Speaker Manson gave the impression Thursday afternoon that the Premier's amendment to I. A. Mackenzie's motion would be adopted. This will mean the appointment of a select committee to consider the views of medical men opposing the introduction of the bill and those of its supporters.

Some discussion arose over the proper time to have the bill read a second time. Mr. Bowser suggested having the select committee appointed before the second reading, in which he was supported by the Premier, who remarked that this was one of the few times when he could agree with the Leader of the Opposition. Mr. Bowser suggested that as there was also proposed a bill relating to drugless healers and another to chiropractors the select committee appointed should consider all three.

Capt. Ian Mackenzie, sponsor of the proposed Optometry Bill, said he was informed by the Minister of Health upon any profession, but he felt that an optometry bill was necessary in order to protect public health. He said several other provinces had such measures and that they were working out most satisfactorily. He also pointed out that 46 of the United States had laws regulating optometrists and that the Government of that state were unanimous in their endorsement.

Premier Oliver said he was opposed to the principle of the proposed measure and certainly to some of the clauses therein. For instance, he said, he thought it would be wrong to have a board appointed which should consist of optometrists, when such a board would not be answerable to the Government. The proper method, he pointed out, would be to have such a board under the control of the Department of Public Health.

Further discussion was stopped through the announcement of the Speaker that he would decide the issue at the next sitting.

Peace River Lands Sold.

Answering questions asked by W. A. McKenzie, the Minister of Lands has informed the House that only 230 acres of land were sold by the Government in the Peace River district to settlers in 1920, while 26 pre-emptions were taken out.

Motor License Income.

Attorney-General Farris informed J. W. Jones that the sum of $405,490 was received from motor licenses during 1920.

Survey for P. G. E. in North.

Premier Oliver, as Minister of Railways, has informed W. A. McKenzie that the sum of $8,600 was spent on the surveys made north of the G. T. P. Railway last Summer in connection with the P. G. E. Railway.

DENIES EXECUTIVE ACTION ON PLANNED PROVINCIAL HIGHWAY

Hon. Dr. King States No Decision Reached on Route

Rising to a point of privilege in the Legislature this afternoon Fred W. Anderson, member for Kamloops, read in full an article that had appeared in the Vancouver World on March 3, which stated that Government engineers had come to a decision on the new highway to the interior. The article stated, he said, that the Fraser River Valley route would cost $1,000,000; that the old Hope-Princeton route would be blocked by snow part of the year, and that the new Hope-Princeton route had been decided on. Eighteen miles of this new Hope-Princeton route, it was stated, was already in progress, and the cost of the highway to the interior would be in the neighborhood of $350,000.

These intimations had been brought out at the House and Anderson, in a speech, stated that these are true and are to be given to the press, and that Government engineers give out such statements to the press I think we should dissolve this Legislature. Articles of this nature create a great consternation in the Province.

Hon. Dr. J. H. King replied to the point of privilege stating that the Hope-Princeton route and also the old Dewdney trail had been both suggested. "I do not think engineers of the Department have made any such statement to the press," he stated. "No decision of the Legislature has been reached by the Government."

To which Mr. Anderson replied: "I want to see this kind of thing stopped, and action taken against the responsible officials." There the incident closed.

WANTS CITY'S AID IN CELEBRATION SCHEME

Chamber of Commerce Deputation Waits on Streets Committee

P. B. Scourah, on behalf of a deputation from the Chamber of Commerce, in answer to a request by Mayor Porter, took up with the Streets Committee of the City Council this afternoon the question of the proposed three-day celebration Victoria Day.

The delegation asked that the city aid financially the movement.

It was explained that the Pacific Northwest Tourist Association was arranging a series of festivals in Pacific Northwest cities to enlarge the tourist movement.

It was explained to the Streets Committee what has already been done by the Chamber of Commerce towards organizing for the event.

Alderman Sangster replied that if the city intended appropriating money for this purpose the question would be settled by making a reference to the Estimates Committee.

The various members of the Streets Committee spoke in favor of the scheme. A public meeting is planned to discuss arrangements.

ASKS FOR HELP FOR TECHNICAL CENTRE

But Government Cannot Grant Technical Head's Requests

L. W. Gill, Superintendent of Technical Education for Canada, conferred with Hon. Dr. J. D. Maclean, Minister of Education this morning and urged that the Provincial Government contribute toward the expense of establishing and maintaining a school in Toronto to train technical teachers.

Dr. Maclean stated after a lengthy conference with Mr. Gill that the Government was unable to give him any encouragement in his efforts to secure assistance from British Columbia.

Under the plan advocated by Mr. Gill a central school for technical teachers would be established in Toronto. To this would go young teachers from all over Canada to receive training in technical education.

Mr. Gill stated that several provinces had agreed to contribute toward the expense of such an institution.

"We cannot see our way clear to acceding to Mr. Gill's requests," Dr. Maclean said after hearing the Superintendent of Technical Education.

FURTHER EVIDENCE AT COAL INQUIRY

Vancouver, March 4.—The continuation and minutes of the Mainland Coal Dealers' Association were filed with the Commissioner by J. D. Kearns, secretary of the organization, at a this forenoon's session of the coal inquiry. He gave evidence to the effect that the Dealers' Association at a meeting held in May, 1919, passed a resolution binding members not to sell coal at a price to net more than eight per cent profit.

J. D. McNeill, local retailer, expressed the opinion that there were too many retailers in Vancouver. When there were only three or four establishments here, coal was cheaper, he said.

STOCKS SHOW LITTLE CHANGE

(By Burdick Brothers, Ltd.)
 New York, March 4.—Rather erratic fluctuations in Atlantic Gulf featured the dealings to-day. Net changes in the general list were of no great significance. Kansas City Southern was in active demand, buying in this stock being induced by recent favorable earnings exhibits and the fact that the company showed a fair sized excess in earnings last year over the preferred dividend requirements. Some of the other low priced rails were affected sympathetically.

Hamilton, March 4.—Many patients who die at the Ontario Hospital for the Insane here do not receive Christian burial, according to Rev. Dr. S. B. Meighen Speaks of Prime Ministers' Conference

Ottawa, March 4.—(Canadian Press)—The Prime Minister, speaking in the House this afternoon, intimated that at the coming conference of Prime Ministers of the different nations of the Empire, called for June in London, the following among other subjects will be on the programme:

- (1) Renewal of the treaty of alliance with Japan of July 13, 1911.
- (2) Question of naval policy based on the principle of co-operation.
- (3) Review and consolidation of the general policy of the foreign policy of the Empire.

Correspondence, Mr. Meighen said, is now proceeding on the subjects for discussion.

On the question of discussing in the House the subjects to come up at the conference, Mr. Meighen said: "Should there be an indication of a general desire on the part of the House of Commons for a discussion, the Government would be prepared to arrange facilities and would welcome expression of opinion from all quarters; but in view of the fact that the meeting is in the nature of the conference of the Government and of the departure from the invariable practice by making commitments in advance of the meeting. Necessarily, any proposals resulting from the conference and affecting Canada must be subject to the approval of the Canadian Parliament."

Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King asked when the estimates would be brought down.

Sir Henry Drayton: "Next week."

GRAINS CONTINUE STRONG TO-DAY

(By Burdick Brothers, Ltd.)
 Chicago, March 4.—Wheat showed strength from the start and although set-backs were frequent the market closed strong at the top of the day. The advance was based primarily on persistent good bug stories from the southwest, although more optimistic trade reports had a beneficial influence. Omaha said there was a much better future demand. Kansas City likewise and at the same time reported light offerings from the country. There was no evidence of a foreign demand for soft wheat.

WHY CANADA LEADS IN HIGH GRADE BACON

Much keen discussion is going on in farming and meat trade journals in the United States as to the reasons American bacon is not popular in the British market. It is generally acknowledged that the product has not been in favor for many years.

Professor C. S. Plumb of the Ohio State University, who some years ago made a special study of the matter, says he found the criticism of our bacon was that it was soft and oily and not of good quality, due, the specialists stated, to improperly fed pigs, laying special emphasis on our great use of corn as the main cause.

He gives facts which will guide Canadian farmers and breeders as to what to avoid in the care and feeding when he says "The criticism of the British dealer, that a corn ration makes a poor, soft bacon, is within the facts. Experiments conducted at the Canadian station at Ottawa by Shutt, have shown that pigs fed exclusively on corn may yield hard pigs, laying special emphasis on our great use of corn as the main cause."

SAYS LIQUOR LAW IS LIKE GERMANS OVER IN BELGIUM

Canon Hinchliffe Declares It May Even Incriminate Absent Men

"If you want a humorous situation just read the last paragraphs of the manifesto issued before election by the Honorable the Premier and compare them with the new Liquor Control Act," said Canon Hinchliffe, Conservative member for Victoria, in concluding an hour's address during the debate in the Legislature on the second reading of the new measure Thursday.

The Canon declared that Premier Oliver had advocated legislation regarding beer, a non-partisan control board and various other features which he claimed were not being provided for in the Act. "I am not approaching this question from the viewpoint of the politician or the lawyer, for I am neither," said Canon Hinchliffe, in beginning his address. "Furthermore, I am on the horns of a dilemma. If I say nothing I am accused of refusing my assistance, and if I say anything of a critical nature I am said to be making an attack on the Government. But as a private citizen I must express my views."

Wanted Skeleton Bill. He agreed with the Attorney-General that the new law must have the support of a vast majority of the people in order to be effective. But he said the Government had done more to stir up and foster a spirit of hostility than the Opposition could ever hope to do. There was the hesitation on the part of the Government to say anything with regard to what the bill would contain, he pointed out, also the jealousy guarded manner in which everything was hidden.

Canon Hinchliffe maintained that the Government should have submitted a skeleton bill at least before the referendum. The people had only been permitted to choose between two questions—a disreputable prohibition act and another act about which they knew nothing.

People Openly Hostile. "The result is that the prohibition people are openly hostile, and will have nothing to do with the new law. Then there was the surprise caused the Premier and members of the Cabinet by the plebiscite. The deepened distrust of the people grew. Then followed the appeals of the silver-tongued second member for Vancouver and the dulcet tones of the siren calls of the lady member, asking an expression of opinion from members of the House. And the too earnest invitations of the Premier.

made us determined to see the bill through, giving no ground to politicians, but it was bad policy. The appeals sounded hollow to me, and the whole thing was the subject of a clever, smart, but not quite honest political manoeuvre."

Hurting Individual Liberty. Canon Hinchliffe said he could see no reason why the Government delayed bringing down the bill. It was a very good bill, he commented, quite good enough for a foundation upon which to commence an honest effort to solve the problem.

He found fault with the Government for controlling the board, nothing to do except bear the responsibility of controlling permits. This was the only thing the commissioners had a free hand in, he went on, and it did not seem right to grant such liberality. He thought the Government should shoulder the responsibility for the permits.

The Canon said that many of the regulations in the bill as drafted would interfere with individual liberty. The right of search without warrant and the punishing of one man for the sins of another were instances, he said.

Jealous of Freedom. "Get a bill that will work," he went on, "but don't exchange the priceless privileges of British freedom for a mere piece of paper." Canon Hinchliffe said the Attorney-General had declared there was no clause in the bill giving the right to search without a warrant. But this was not true, he said. Permission was granted to search the lands of any person, and according to the "Interpretation Act," this meant buildings which might be thereupon.

"The Attorney-General either knew this or he did not know it," Canon Hinchliffe said. "If he did know it then his alleged wickedness is apparent and if he did not know it then he is a very poor lawyer."

Just Like Germans. Criticism was voiced of the clause which forces a man to give evidence that might incriminate himself. This was harking back to the Middle Ages, said Canon Hinchliffe and it savored of the third degree. "The act was so worded," he continued, "that a man might be absent from home and still be held liable for the infractions of the law committed by his servant. Men were also denied the right of appeal, he said.

"Did you ever hear of the Germans in Belgium?" queried the Canon. "We were disgusted by them. This affair reminds me of them."

Does Not Like Commission. Canon Hinchliffe had something to say about the commission to be appointed. A non-partisan commission was, impossible, he said, when it was remembered that the Government was retaining complete control over the board. This was a direct breach of faith with the electors, he said.

The speaker said the municipalities had no idea what they would receive. There was a reserve fund to be cared for and the expenses of administration and enforcement. Also, the Government intended to keep all the revenue from the sale of permits.

"Do you call that giving the municipalities a 'substantial portion' of this revenue?" he asked, referring to the promise made by the Premier. Major R. J. Burde moved the adjournment of the debate.

J. NORTH AND DR. HALL HEAD POLLS

Addresses Crowd. When the results of the election were known Mr. North addressed an enthusiastic crowd.
Mr. North's Opinion. Mr. North, when seen by The Times to-day, expressed the utmost satisfaction at the huge majority rolled up for him.
"When a man's support increases 100 per cent in two months it is a clear indication that the people of this city believe in his sincerity of purpose and his assertions that a better administration of the police department can be attained. I do not take this victory as a personal triumph over the other candidates. I consider it a vote of confidence in me by the people. They showed that they take my word at par value, and that when I told them they would get a square deal, they believed it and endorsed me."
"I am particularly pleased that a friend of years standing has been elected with me. Dr. Hall, I am sure, will live up to his word. Some people are afraid that we are two extremists. I do not believe that anyone who knows us will share in that belief. We realize that some evils cannot be wholly eradicated, but we shall endeavor to curb them as much as it is in our power to do so."
"I wish to give one warning before we are sworn in. That warning is to the white habitues of Chinatown. They must keep away from there. If they are caught in a raid they can not blame the police."
"Some members of the police force have expressed the opinion that drastic changes will be made in the personnel of that department. I wish to say that, so far as I am concerned, a man who has nothing to fear should fear nothing. A man's value to the department will not be gauged by the number of persecutions or prosecutions he accomplishes, but by the results attained by the strict enforcement of the law. In other words, a man will be catalogued by the merits of his work, and nothing more."

"At the end of my term my highest ambition will be to prove to the people

ple that I have kept my word with them and that a square deal has been meted out to everybody. My support obviously came from people in all walks of life and I wish to again take this opportunity to express my sincere thanks for their belief in me."

Dr. Hall this morning gave out the following statement on the election:
Dr. Hall's Opinion.

"It was the voice of protest upon the part of the citizens of Victoria and the expression of a desire for better conditions," said Dr. Ernest Hall, successful candidate for the one-year term on the Board of Police Commissioners at the polls, speaking to The Times to-day.

"This vote in itself constitutes the greatest moral force that Victoria has experienced for years, and will in its deep-rooted expression the work of the incoming Board."

"Victoria has definitely expressed a desire for entering upon a new chapter in her history. Shall the newly appointed Board receive a continuous sympathy and support that was so enthusiastically expressed at the polls yesterday? For we must remember that flowers and brass bands do not necessarily constitute the fundamental factors in the world's work."

Something Unique. "Without the expenditure of one dollar; without addressing any meetings, except the Central School; without soliciting a vote, but, voting for my opponent and telling my friends to do the same, coupled with Mr. North's remarkable victory, the poll of yesterday was something unique."
"The result turned less on the personal factor than the presence of a deep-rooted impression that there was a laxity in law enforcement and not actually something 'rotten in Denmark,'" said Dr. Hall.
