VINDICATION.

The general rule of this dictionary is to enter titles of anonymously published works relating to an individual which begin with the word, "Vindication," under the name of the individual, as well as those actually written by himself. A few titles of this sort omitted previously will be entered below among other anonymous "Vindications."

The Vindication. Of James Alexander . . . and of William Smith. See no. 84558, vol. 21.

A Vindication of an Association from the Charge of countenancing Heresy in Doctrine, and of Partiality in Conduct: shewing That the Proposition, which only they affirmed . . . is neither heretical nor false . . . Written at the Desire of the Association, by One of their Number. Portsmouth, in New-Hampshire; Printed and Sold by D. Fowle, at his Printing-Office. 1758. 4to, pp. 39, (1).

AAS., B., BA., M., NYH. 99795

A defence of a passage in a sermon by Samuel Bacheller. The appendix contains a statement signed by Bacheller, pp. 31-37, and another by H. True, 37-39. The BA. copy contains an inscription stating that it is the gift of Benjamin Parker. That name is included in a list of signatures of persons in the "Association," and other sympathizers, found on p. 5, and may be that of the author.

Improved title of our entry under Bacheller (S.), no. 2604, vol. 1. It seems probable that he was not the author.

A Vindication of E----ce B-g--l. See B[ud]g[e]l (E[usta]ce), no. 8962, vol. 3. NYP.

Correct title to read: "... Hall, on Friday, Sept. 30. 1720. . . ."

Collation: 8vo, pp. 18.

Vindication of Governor Parr and his Council . . . 1784. See Parr [John], no. 58833, vol. 14. B., BM., JCB., WLC.

See also no. 58834.

A Vindication of Infant Baptism. In Four Numbers. Including the rise and progress of a dispute carried on between certain members of the Congregational and Baptist Churches in Sangerfield, in the year 1803. Together with the substance of the arguments on both sides—including the last reply of said Congregationalists, which has been delivered but in part—and, also, including a summary of the dispute between the Ministers of said churches, and remarks thereon. Contents. . . . Printed at Utica, [by Merrell & Seward] for the Authors. June 1803. . . . 8vo, pp. 96. AAS. 99796

Vindication of Mr. Adams's Oration. See [Moore (J. B.)], no. 50398, vol. 12. BA., C., H.

Also attributed to Levi Woodbury, as in the Harvard catalogue.

A Vindication of Mr. Pitt. Wherein all the Aspersions thrown out against that Gentleman, relative to the Affair of Rochfort, are unanswerably confuted. By a Member of Parliament. . . . London: Printed for J. Coote, at the King's Arms opposite Devereux-Court, in the Strand. 1758. . . . 8vo, pp. (4), 68.

BM., C., JCB., NYP. 99797

A Vindication of Mr. Randolph's Resignation. See [Randolph (Edmund)], nos. 67817–67818, vol. 16. Philadelphia, 1795. AAS., B., BA., BM., C., H., JCB., M., NYH., NYP., WLC.

There are variant issues of the first edition of this tract. See Evans.

In some copies the errata leaf contains the following paragraph after the list of errors: "Extract of a Letter from Mr. Randolph to the Printer. 'You will be pleased to direct any person, who chooses to consult the French or other originals to my friend John R. Smith, Esq. in whose hands they will be left.'"

We have located no copies in which all the errors were corrected.

For a reply, see A New Year's Gift for the Democrats, no. 13896, vol. 4.

A Vindication of Nevv-England. See [Mather (Increase)], no. 46756, vol. 11. AAS., C., H., JCB., WLC.

"Though often ascribed to Increase Mather . . . this work was not of Mather's authorship. It was written probably by Charles Morton of Charlestown; and Cotton Mather may have supplied him with some of his materials." See T. J. Holmes' "Increase Mather, a Bibliography," vol. 2, 1931, pp. 615, 635–637.

A Vindication of Publick Justice and of Private Character, against the attacks of a "Council of Ministers" of the "Methodist Episcopal Church." . . . Providence: John Miller, Printer. 1823. 8vo, pp. 51. AAS., B. 99798

The author was John Newland Maffitt.
Improved title of no. 43790, vol. 11.

A Vindication of the Address, To the Inhabitants of the British Settlements. See [Rush (B.)], note following no. 74206, B., C., JCB., and no. 74207, vol. 18, B., H., NYP.

Caption title. By John Bevans, of the Society of Friends.
"A reply to the attack of Charles Stuart."—c.

A Vindication of the Appendix to the Sober Remarks. Being a Reply to some Animadversions upon it, in the Appendix to the Defence of the Modest Proof. Wherein the Ruling and Ordaining Power of Congregational Bishops, or Presbyters, is further Defended. In a Second Letter to a Friend. . . . Boston in N. E. Printed for S. Gerrish, and Sold at his Shop. MDCCXXV. 8vo, pp. (4), 59.

AAS., B., C., H., JCB. 99800

Improved title of no. 25407, vol. 6, entered under the author, Thomas Foxcroft.

A Vindication of the Bank of Credit. See Dudley (Paul), note following no. 21088, vol. 5. BA., C., M., NYP., WLC.

Reprinted, with a photograph of the title page, in A. M. Davis's "Tracts relating to the Currency of the Massachusetts Bay," 1902, pp. 147-166.

See also: Letter from One in Boston, no. 40332, vol. 10.

Vindication of the Bishop of Landaff's Sermon. See [Ewer (J.)], no. 23319, vol. 6. BA., C., H., NYH., NYP.

Attributed by Evans to Charles Inglis. The work relates to John Ewer, Bishop of Landaff.

Another subject entry is our no. 41644, vol. 10.

NYP. has copies of two issues, in the second of which an incorrect quotation from Persius in the title, reading "Non equidem em hoc," is corrected to read "Non equidem hoc."

A Vindication of the British Colonies, against the Aspersions of the Halifax Gentleman. See [Otis (James)], no. 57868, vol. 14. Boston, 1765, BA., BM., H., NYH., NYP.

In reply to Martin Howard's anonymous "Letter from a Gentleman at Halifax," no. 40281, vol. 10.

Vindication of the Captors of Major Andre. See [Benson (Egbert)], no. 4746, vol. 2. AAS., H., NYP.

An examination of n. copies shows variations in issues of the first edition. In one the verso of title is blank, as in AAS. copy, and in the other there is a copyright notice added. The title pages are from different settings of type.

In one of the NYP. copies there is inserted following the title page a leaf containing information regarding the restitution of André's watch, obtained after "the Vindication was put to the Press."

A Vindication of the Character of Geo. Fox from the account of him published in the Encyclopædia. 12 mo. 15, 1796. [London? 1796.] 4to. 99801

BA., GTS., JCB. 99819

The authorship of this book has been attributed by the Rev. Edgar L. Pennington, Ocala, Florida, to the Rev. Caleb S. Ives, missionary at Greensborough and Demopolis, Alabama, in 1835, and delegate to the General Convention of that year. Mr. Pennington's careful study of this point is attached in manuscript to the JCB. copy of the book.

A Vindication of the Proceedings of the Eastern Association, in Fairfield County; and of the Council that censured Mr. White, and dismissed him from his Pastoral Relation to the First Church in Danbury: in a Letter to the Reverend Mr. Joseph Bellamy . . . By the Committee of the First Society in Danbury. . . . New-Haven: Printed by B. Mecom. 1764. 8vo, pp. 78, errata (1).

Signed by Benjamin Sperry and four others.

NYP. 99820

Improved title of no. 23697, vol. 6.

It seems probable that Evans no. 26958, "Vindication of the Proceedings of the Eastern Association in Fairfield County, [Danbury: Printed by Edwards Ely? 1794.]" is an error for the above title.

Vindication of the Proceedings of the First Church. See Hingham, Mass., no. 31958, vol. 8, and for "Newburyport. 1805," read "Boston. 1807." 1st ed. B., C., M.

VIRGINIA.

The works entered below are divided into the following groups:

- I. Early Royal Proclamations with Virginian interest arranged chronologically.
- II. Virginia Company, 1606-1624.

Publications of the royal Council for Virginia, and of the Virginia Company of London arranged chronologically. These include some titles shown by the records to have been sponsored by the Company, and cross references to others of the same sort already entered under individual author or title.

III. Virginia Public Documents.

1. Colony as royal province, 1624-1775.
2. Interregnum, 1775-1776.

This group also includes the convention of August, 1774.

3. State.

This group is carried through the year 1800 only.

IV. Miscellaneous Publications.

The well-known bibliographies of Earl G. Swem and William Clayton-Torrence having covered such a number of titles in detail, it has not seemed necessary to duplicate their work here. For this reason many of the following titles and their imprints are much abbreviated in our list, references being given to their entries in the following bibliographies: Swem's "Bibliography of Virginia," parts 1-3, published in the "Bulletin" of the Virginia State Library, vol. 8, 1916, nos. 2-4, vol. 10, 1917, nos. 1-4, and vol. 12, 1919, nos. 1-2; also his "Bibliography of the Conventions and Constitutions of Virginia," in the "Bulletin," vol. 3, 1910, no. 4; and Clayton-Torrence's "Trial Bibliography of Colonial Virginia," a Special Report of the Division of Bibliography of the Virginia State Library, the first instalment of which was published in 1908, and the second in 1910, as part of the Reports of the State Librarian.

We are indebted to Dr. Swem not only for the use of his invaluable bibliography, but also for his criticism and advice during the preparation of this section.

I. EARLY ROYAL PROCLAMATIONS AFFECTING VIRGINIA.

A few of the earliest royal proclamations with especial relation to Virginia, and her staple crop, tobacco, are entered below. For others relating to tobacco of less direct connection with the colony, see the Short-Title Catalogue. See also "British Royal Proclamations relating to America, 1603-1783," edited by C. S. Brigham, in Amer. Antiq. Soc., "Transactions," vol. 12, 1911. See the Short-Title Catalogue also for additional locations of copies of the following proclamations in British libraries.

II. VIRGINIA COMPANY, 1606-1624.

The charter of 1606 incorporated two so-called "Virginia" companies, the first, for settling the southern part of the territory claimed by Britain in America, called the "London" company, and the second, for the northern part, the "Plymouth" company. The Virginia Company of London, under its separate charters of 1609 and 1612, was officially called "The Treasurer and Company of Adventurers and Planters of the City of London for the first Colony of Virginia."

The "Council" for Virginia, resident in England, varied in character. Under the first charter it was a royal "Council of Virginia" for the two companies. This was eliminated under the second charter and its place taken by the "Council" of the Company, still called "His Maiesties Council," whose members and also the "Treasurer" were named in the document. Under the third charter the members appointed were those whom the Treasurer and Company had "nominated." See A. Brown's "Genesis," vol. 1, pp. 231-32, vol. 2, p. 549, and C. M. Andrews' "Colonial Period," vol. 1, 1934, p. 107. For this reason it is correct to catalogue the publications of the later councils under the Virginia Company of London.

The following titles and cross references chronologically arranged include one official publication of the period of the first charter, the blank form of a bill of adventure which was signed March 22, 1609, before the second charter was granted in May of that year.

Whereas hath paid in readie monie to Sir Thomas Smith knight, treasurer of Virginia, the somme of for his adventures towards the said voyage. It is agreed, that for the same, he the said his heires, executors, administrators or assignes, shall haue ratably according to his aduventure, his full part of all such . . . profits . . . which shall be gotten in the said voiage . . . [At end:]
Written this of Anno Domini. 1608. [London. 1609 n. s.] Folio, 2 leaves. HEH. 99854

Blank form. The HEH. copy is filled in in ms. with the name of Richard Widdows, goldsmith of London, the sum of £25, and the date, March 22. The second leaf in this copy is a fragment. It bears in ms. the name of Richarde Atkinson, who was clerk of the Company.

For another form of the same kind, see "The bylls of adventure," under the year 1611.

Considering there is no publicke Action, being honest and good in it selfe, and which tendeth to the generall good and benefite of this Common-wealth, but that the same is also beneficiall and good in some degree, to euery particular Member thereof, we thought it therefore requisite, to impart vnto you . . . how many wayes it hath pleased God to encourage vs to goe on, in that great worke and enterprize of planting Colonies of our English Nation, in those parts of America, which wee commonly call Virginia, or Noua Britannia; . . . C.-T. no. 15 A. C.-T. no. 22 appears to be the same, an error in the name of the bookseller, which is given as John Welby. McKerrow notes the latter name as found only in two imprints of 1620.

Copies of this and the December, 1610, broadside published by the Council were reproduced by photostat at the Massachusetts Historical Society in April, 1924, from the originals in London. AAS, C., HEH., JCB., M., NEWBERRY, NYP., WHS., WLC., Y. Reprinted in Brown's "Genesis," vol. 1, 1892, p. 445.

The bylls of adventure, with blankes, concerninge the summes of money, disbursed for adventures, towards the voyage of Virginia.
London. William Welby. 1611. 99862

C.-T. no. 15.

Entered by William Welby in the register at Stationers' Hall, April 11, 1611, "under th[e h]andes of Sir Thomas Smithe and Th' wardens." Brown's "Genesis," vol. 1, p. 471, reprints a similar blank form, which he suggests may be one of those entered by Welby, and which is as follows: "The Byll of Adventure. Whereas paid in ready money to Sir Thomas Smythe Knight, Treasurer for Virginia the sum for adventure towards the said Voyage. It is agreed that for the same the said shall have ratably according to adventures full part of all such lands . . . as shall . . . be . . . recovered planted and inhabited: And of all such . . . commodities or profite . . . which shall be obtained . . . in the said Voyage according to the porcion of money . . . For The Colony in Virginea Britannia. Lavves Diuine, Morall and Martiall, &c. . . . Printed at London for Walter Burre. 1612. 4to, pp. (8), 89 (last page misnumbered 41), (7). A-N in fours. BM., BODLEIAN (frag.), FOLGER, HEH., JCB., M., P., PRINCETON. 99866

C.-T. no. 20.

Pp. 40 and 48 also misnumbered 42 and 58 respectively.

Additional leaves are inserted in some copies which do not form part of the signatures. They are as follows: "To the Right Worthy . . . Sir William Wade Knight, &c." found in the Leconfield copy sold at Sotheby's, April 23-24, 1928, lot no. 143; and a leaf addressed on the recto to "Lord Lawarr," and on the verso to Sir Thomas Smith, found in the same copy and also in that at JCB. The Leconfield copy was presented to Princeton University by Cyrus H. McCormick.

The Grenville copy at BM. has a printed address to "Sir Anthonie Auger," followed by a manuscript inscription signed by Strachey.

Contents of copies without these leaves: title, verso blank; "To the . . . Lords of the Councell of Virginea," signed by William Strachey, the editor, verso blank; "To the . . . worthie friends, the Committies . . ." pp. (4); Articles, Lawes, and Orders, Diuine, Politique, and Martiall . . . pp. 1-89; and A Praier duly said Morning and Euening vpon the Court of Guard . . . pp. (7).

The laws were drawn up by Strachey, Sir Thomas Gates, and Sir Thomas Dale, in the colony and are said to have been brought home by Strachey in the autumn of 1611. See Brown's "Genesis," vol. 2, p. 529. See C. M. Andrews' "Colonial Period," vol. 1, 1934, p. 114, as to the fact that they were probably not modeled after Dutch law, or translated from the martial law of the Netherlands, as has been stated.

See the Report of the Director of the Folger Shakespeare Library for 1934, pp. 18-22, as to the possibility of contacts between Strachey and Shakespeare, and a summary of research as to the letter of Strachey which is supposed to have been one of the sources of the "Tempest," the similar use of Florio's Montaigne by Strachey in his preface to the Lawes, and by Shakespeare in the play, etc.

Caption title.

Dated from an allusion on p. 5 which evidently relates to the tract, "Nova Britannia," 1609, which is said to have been published about seven years previously. Hence Clayton-Torrence is in error in considering this Brief Declaration a part of the Declaration of 1620.

Ternaux, no. 383, "State of the Colony and Affaires in Virginia," London, 1616, is apparently a shortened inaccurate form of the above.

First issue of the first edition. (The issues as described by us differ in many respects from C.-T. nos. 35A and 35B.)

Prepared by Sir Edwin Sandys, treasurer of the Company, and Dr. Thomas Winstone, in accordance with a resolution of its Court held Dec. 15, 1619, the preparation having already been considered at the meeting held Nov. 22 of the same year. See Kingsbury's "Records of the Virginia Company," vol. 1, 1906, pp. 276 and 286.

On June 28th, 1620, the "booke newlie come out by order from the Counsell" was said to be ready for distribution to members of the Court at its afternoon session. See Kingsbury, vol. 1, pp. 369 and 380.

As the compilation is made up of a number of separately paged items whose preparation was ordered at different dates, it has been frequently stated, as by Miss Kingsbury ("Records," vol. 1, p. 90), that they were probably first issued separately, and later reissued, appearing for the first time together in June, 1620. Although one of the items was issued separately in a different printing, a systematic study by L. C. Wroth has led him to the conclusion that the sheets as issued with the Declaration appeared only in connection with it. Mr. Wroth has also discovered that minutes of the Court would suggest that three different issues of the first edition of the tract were published, the second and third in turn including additional material. He has located copies which in general bear out this deduction.

The JCB. copy appears to belong to the first issue, as it includes only material which could have been printed by June 28, 1620, and also has textual and typographical characteristics which would seem to suggest an earlier form. It is unfortunately in a broken modern binding with its sections detached, and may, therefore, be an imperfect copy of a later issue. The contents of this copy include the title leaf and the following items:

By his Maesties Councell for Virginia, [statement by the Council dated 22 Iunij. 1620], pp. 11, verso blank.

A Note of the Shipping, Men, and Prouisions sent to Virginia . . . 1619, pp. 1-8. This section is referred to in the text of the preceding one and must belong with it, although a different edition had been issued separately, see below. It contained material reported to the Company, May 17, 1620. See Kingsbury's "Records," vol. 1, pp. 351-354.

The Names of the Aduenturers, with their seuerall sums aduentured, paid to Sir Thomas Smith, Knight, late Treasurer . . . pp. 30.

Names of the Aduenturers, with the Sums paid . . . to Sir Baptist Hicks, Knight, pp. 1-3.

A in four, the first blank except for signature mark and lacking in CHAPIN and JCB. copies but present in HILL copy, B in four, fleuron in four, C-F in fours, the last blank; A in two; A-E in fours.

CHAPIN, JCB., W.M.HILL 99878

Second issue of the first edition. The Newberry copy of the tract corresponds in contents to this issue, except that it lacks the seal on verso of p. 11. In this issue there are slight changes in the second section, the second page being reset, and containing 22 instead of 24 lines.

In the afternoon session of the Court of the Company held June 28, 1620, it was ordered that a new section should be printed and added to the book previously ordered. This was probably first included after the members of the Court had received the copies mentioned as ready for distribution that afternoon. See note on first issue and Kingsbury's "Records," vol. 1, p. 383. The added title is as follows:

"Orders and Constitvtions, Partly collected out of his Maesties Letters Patents, and partly ordained vpon mature deliberation, by the Treasvr, Covnseil and Companie of Virginia, for the better gouerning of the Actions and affaires of the said Companie here in England residing. Anno 1619. and 1620," pp. 39. Although a separate copy of the "Orders and Constitutions" is in the Huntington Library, there is nothing in the records of the Company to suggest that it was to be published in any other way than as annexed to the book as already issued. This Huntington separate copy appears to be from the same type as the same section in the Declaration.

A Declaration of the State of the Colonie and Affaires in Virginia: [etc. as above]. London: Printed by T. S. 1620. 4to, pp. (4), 11, verso seal of the Council (1); 16; 30, blank leaf; 4; 39. Third issue of the first edition.

Other copies besides those located above are the Halsey-Huntington-Rosenbach (imperfect but apparently of this issue); Barlow (imperfect but apparently of this issue); H. V. Jones (imperfect but apparently of this issue); White Kennett, present location unknown; and Sotheby, present location unknown.

The third issue contains the same items as the preceding, including the "Orders and Constitutions" added in that issue, while an additional sheet of four leaves with the signature mark "C" was inserted after the second section, i. e. after "A Note of the Shipping, Men and Prouisions . . ." and paged continuously with it. The title is as follows:

A Declaration of the Supplies intended to be sent to Virginia, in this yeare 1620. By his Maiesties Counseil for Virginia. 18. Iulij. 1620, pp. 9-16.

Such a publication was suggested to the Court of the Company by Sir Edwin Sandys in a written communication read by him July 7, 1620. See Kingsbury's "Records," vol. 1, pp. 388-394. On July 11, 1620, Kingston and Snodham entered "A declaration of the state of the Colony . . ." at Stationers' Hall. See Arber's "Transcript," vol. 3, p. 676. It is probable that the issue then entered contained the "Declaration of the Supplies" in a form not acceptable to the Archbishop of Canterbury, who had been made a supervisor of the press by a Star Chamber decree of 1586. See Arber's "Transcript," vol. 2, pp. 807-810, and vol. 3, p. 689. An amended "Declaration of the Supplies" drawn up July 18th, was sent to him for approval or revision with the request that the book then prohibited might "again passe abroad and be published." It must have received approval as the section is found in many copies and characterizes the third issue of the tract.

Copies containing "A Declaration of the Supplies" would appear to have been made up of sheets of the first and second issues indiscriminately gathered, judging by the nine copies examined by or for Mr. Wroth, and the catalogue descriptions of several others.

White Kennett's "Bibliothecæ Americanæ Primordia," 1713, lists "Another Declaration by his Majesties Council for Virginia, touching the present Estate of their Colony in that Country. dat. 20. Sept. 1620." 4to, pp. 11.

This does not appear in the catalogue of the White Kennett sale at Sotheby's in July, 1917, nor is it now in the library of the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel.

Dedication signed: Edvard Waterhovse.

Entered at Stationers' Hall, Aug. 21, 1622, see Arber's "Transcript," vol. 4, p. 78.

On the verso of the leaf facing the title are representations of the seal of the King and that of the Council for Virginia.

Compiled by Waterhouse, who had been a secretary of the company, from letters sent to the Virginia Company by the governor and others in Virginia, and also from the narratives of witnesses returned to England since the tragedy.

The broadside, "The Inconveniencies that have happened . . ." entered below, is the "Note of the charges" referred to in the title, so that copies without it are incomplete. It is included in the c., JCB., and HEH. copies. It was first issued separately before the news of the massacre reached England. See Alexander Brown's "First Republic," 1898, p. 486.

Kingsbury no. 290, noting the section giving the laws of the Bermuda Company on the selection and settlement of "Land in Virginia." This company was a subsidiary of the Virginia Company.

See the Short-Title Catalogue for locations in other British libraries.

The charter of the Company was declared vacated in May, 1624, and in July of that year a commission for governing Virginia was appointed by the Privy Council. The Short-Title Catalogue lists the following broadside: By His Majesties Commissioners for Virginia. [A notice of their weekly sittings.] F. Kingston, 1624. BM.

At the dissolution of the Virginia Company, the official records were handed over to the government, and have not, up to the present been located. For the earlier period, 1606-1616, the most important source is that found in the narratives of the settlers, such as Newport, Wingfield, John Smith, and Percy. Alexander Brown, in his "Genesis of the United States," 1890, collected and printed as far as was in his power all the unprinted or rare printed documents relating to this period, while describing others already accessible in print.

Fortunately a transcript of the Court Books for the years 1619-1624, made before the records were handed over, has survived. This contemporary copy found its way into the Jefferson collection and came with the latter into the Library of Congress. An "Abstract of the Proceedings" for these years, from this transcript, was prepared by Conway Robinson, and printed with notes by R. A. Brock in Va. Hist. Soc. "Collections," new ser., vols. 7-8, 1888-1889. This was superceded in the publication by the Library of Congress of "The Records of the Virginia Company of London, the Court Book, from the Manuscript in the Library of Congress," edited with an introduction and bibliography by Susan M. Kingsbury, and a preface by H. L. Osgood, 2 vols., Washington, 1906. Miss Kingsbury's bibliography covers in the main the documents, manuscript and printed, for the period between 1616 and 1625, and adds others not published or cited by Brown for the earlier period. Additional manuscript records of the Virginia Company found in Lord Sackville's Papers respecting Virginia, were printed in Am. Hist. Rev., vol. 27, 1922, pp. 493-538, 738-765.

III. VIRGINIA PUBLIC DOCUMENTS.

The following list includes the titles of the contemporary editions of documents of the colony and state through those for the year 1800. In the main the arrangement is first alphabetical under the name of the body, institution, or official, responsible. Exceptions to this rule are the entries under the following: Charters, etc.; Constitution; Laws, Statutes, etc.; Militia, and Treaties. Under an individual heading a chronological arrangement has sometimes been found to be most useful.

The most important compilation of early documents including a number printed for the first time after 1800 is found in Hening's "Statutes at Large," 13 vols., 1809-1823, which contain other material beside the laws. There were two editions of the first four volumes. "Colonial Records of Virginia," printed from transcripts of originals in the Public Record Office, were edited by T. H. Wynne and W. S. Gilman, and published by the state in 1874 as an "Extra" Senate document. Of the items included the most important was "The Proceedings of the First Assembly of Virginia," which had previously been published from another transcript by Bancroft in the N. Y. Hist. Soc. "Collections" in 1857. Documents published for the first time were printed in the "Collections" of the Virginia Historical Society, the "Virginia Historical Register," the "Virginia Magazine of History and Biography," the "William and Mary Historical Quarterly," etc. Hening's "Statutes," the "Calendar of Virginia State Papers," 1875-1893, and a number of the most important of the serials have been completely indexed by Earl G. Swem in his "Virginia Historical Index," published in two volumes under a grant of the Rockefeller Foundation, 1934-35. For miscellaneous documents after 1800, see part 2 of Swem's "Bibliography"; part 4 supplementary to the former, prepared by Wilmer L. Hall, in the "Bulletin" of the State Library, vol. 18, 1932, no. 2; the annual check-lists of state publications whose publication was begun by the State Library in 1926; Bowker's "State Publications," part 4, 1908, pp. 681-718; Cappon's "Bibliography of Virginia History since 1865," 1930, Monograph no. 5 of the University of Virginia's Institute for Research in the Social Sciences; and the check-lists of state publications whose issue by the Library of Congress was begun in 1910.

Signed by Order, U. Scott, Cl. Up. Ho.

The Council of the colony exercised legislative, judicial, and executive functions. Legislative Journals of the Council of colonial Virginia, appeared for the first time in print, edited by H. R. McIlwaine, and published under the authority of the State Library Board, in three volumes, Richmond, 1918-1919. On p. vii of vol. 1 is a list of the sessions for which there ought to be copies of journals, beginning with the session of June-July, 1680, and ending with the June session of 1775.

Minutes of the Council and General Court . . . 1622-1632, 1670-1676, with notes and excerpts from original Council and General Court Records, into 1683, now lost, were also edited by McIlwaine and published by the State Library Board, Richmond, 1924.

The publication of the Executive Journals, from June 11, 1680, was begun under the same auspices in 1925, vol. 4, covering the years from 1721-1739, having appeared in 1930.

Some Remarkable Proceedings in the Assembly of Virginia Anno 1718. [Philadelphia. Printed by Andrew Bradford. 1718.] See no. 86730, vol. 22. APS., PUB.REC.OFF.

Photostatic reproductions or photo-facsimiles located at AAS., B., H., NYP., UCHIC.

A photo-facsimile reproduction by the Oxford University Press from the Public Record Office copy, accompanied by remarks of W. C. Ford, was issued in Mass. Hist. Soc. "Proceedings," vol. 62, 1930, see pp. 29-30. Wilberforce Eames shows that the sheet was undoubtedly printed in 1719, by Andrew Bradford, the only printer in Philadelphia in that year, there being no printer in Virginia. Spotswood enclosed a manuscript of the item in a letter to the Earl of Orkney dated Dec. 22, 1718, and the printed copy in a letter to Mr. Popple dated Feb. 5, 1719, read 29th April, 1719. See Cal. State Pap., Col. Ser., Amer. and W. I., 1717-18, pp. 424-425, and 1719-20, pp. 23-24.

JOURNALS.

The Journals of the House of Burgesses were not printed contemporaneously until 1732. Though a few portions may be found in Hening and elsewhere, the first edition of the Journals as a whole, from the beginning to the Revolution, is contained in the volumes edited successively by J. P. Kennedy and H. R. McIlwaine, and published under the authority of the State Library Board, Richmond, 1905-1915. Those for the later sessions were issued first.

The first and second sessions of the General Assembly of 1727-34 were held from Feb. 1, 1727/28-March 30, 1728, and from May 21-July 9, 1730. The title of the Journal of the third session, May 18-July 1, 1732, the first to be printed, is entered here, and is followed by a check list of the issues for following sessions. For fuller information, see the bibliographies of Clayton-Torrence and Swem under the numbers given.

It is not probable that a complete journal of this session was printed. Evidence that its publication was begun is found in two folio leaves acquired by NYP. from Mr. Hook in 1907, and which were formerly in Jefferson's library. The first leaf has the heading: "Journal of the House of Burgesses. General Assembly begun and held at the Capitol . . . on . . . the first day of June . . . 1775. . . ." On the verso of this leaf is a statement signed by Governor Dunmore dated June 1, 1775, relating to administering oaths appointed by act of Parliament, instead of the oaths of allegiance and supremacy. On the second leaf are six proclamations by Dunmore, dated Jan. 19, Apr. 18, May 12, Nov. 3, Nov. 7, and Nov. 10, 1775. For part of the proceedings printed contemporaneously, see no. 99927, above.

There were meetings of the House of Burgesses Oct. 12, 1775, and March 7 and May 6, 1776, but there was no quorum for the transaction of business.

GOVERNOR, 1776-1779, (Patrick Henry). Williamsburg, August 6, 1778. Sir, By the resolutions of Congress which accompany this, you will perceive that the expedition against Detroit is laid aside; but that, in order to protect the frontiers, the war is to be carried into such of the enemies towns as General Mackintosh shall direct. . . . I desire you will draw out so many men from the militia of your county as General Mackintosh may demand, in order to comply with the directions of Congress. [Williamsburg. 1778.]

LAWS, STATUTES, ETC.

At the beginning of this section it is of interest to mention the important early bibliographical work of Thomas Jefferson on Virginia laws. His list of early laws in his own collection, or otherwise known to him, was forwarded in a letter to George Wythe, dated Jan. 16, 1796, and was printed separately. See above, General Assembly, no. 100066. It was also printed in the Journal of the Senate for the session of 1800-01, and reprinted by Swem in his part 2, pp. 1061-1062. Jefferson's collection of laws is now at the Library of Congress. Hening in the prefaces to the volumes of his compilation of Statutes at Large includes valuable bibliographical information, incorporating Jefferson's letter and list in the first preface. For references to other bibliographical authorities, see Keitt's "Annotated Bibliography of Bibliographies of Statutory Materials of the United States," 1934.

The following titles of editions of colonial and state laws are arranged in three groups: first the session laws, for the most part in tabular form; secondly, single acts and laws printed separately; and thirdly, compilations. For ordinances passed by the Conventions of 1775 and 1776, see the heading "Convention," under Interregnum, and State, above.

SESSION LAWS.

[The Laws of Virginia for 1680. Williamsburg. John Buckner. 1682.] 100232

The session of the General Assembly in 1680 is the earliest the laws of which are known to have been printed separately in the colony. Evans no. 334 and C.-T. no. 87 A quote the following from the ms. records: "Feb. 21st, 1682 [3] John Buckner called before the Ld. Culpeper and his Council for printing the laws of 1680, without his excellency's license, and he and the printer ordered to enter into bond in 100£ not to print anything hereafter, until His Majesty's pleasure shall be known." No copy has been located.

The regular printing of the separate laws of the sessions may have begun with those for the session of Feb.-March, 1727-28. William Parks petitioned for the privilege of printing them, and a passage in the court records of Goochland County under the date May 17, 1730, gives an order of the court levying 800 pounds of "tobacco cask and conveniences" for Parks, in return for which he was to furnish the court with 12 copies of the laws of the last session. See Wroth's "William Parks," 1926, p. 18.

All the Publick Acts, made at a Session of Assembly, begun and held at the City of Williamsburg in Virginia, on Thursday, the Twenty First Day of May, 1730. Williamsburg, Printed and Sold by William Parks, and are to be had at his Printing-Office in Annapolis. . . . [1730.] 100233

Title taken by Wroth from an advertisement of the above as "lately published" in the "Maryland Gazette" for Oct. 13-20, 1730. No copy known. See his "William Parks," no. 46, pp. 45 and 67.

For the laws of later sessions, see Swem, part 2, the Massachusetts State Library's "Hand-List" of American Statute Law, 1912, and the "Preliminary Check-List of Session Laws prior to 1850," compiled by Grace E. Macdonald for the Public Documents Clearing House Committee of the National Association of State Libraries, 1935.

SINGLE ACTS AND LAWS.

The following chronological list includes some items which were printed as bills before passage for the convenience of the members of the legislature, and many which are known to have been printed by references in legislative journals, by printer's bills, or by vouchers, but which have not been seen. The text of the "acts" if actually passed may be found most readily in Hening's "Statutes at Large" by consulting Swem's "Virginia Historical Index."

CODES AND COMPILATIONS.

For the earliest code of laws in force in Virginia, see above, Virginia Company, under the year 1612, "For The Colony in Virginea Britannia. Lavves Diuine, Morall and Martiall," no. 99866.

Beside codes the following chronological list will include unofficial compilations, and collections of laws on given subjects.

For fuller information, see not only the references to the bibliographies of Swem and Clayton-Torrence, but the series of articles by W. H. Martin, entitled "Some Virginia Law Books in a Virginia Law Office," printed in "Virginia Law Register," new ser., vol. 12, 1926, nos. 1-8. Besides information as to the printed titles, the latter includes notes on various mss. revisals. Additional privately owned copies are mentioned.

Dedication signed: J. P.

The compiler was John Purvis. See the Journal of the House of Burgesses under the date, April 26, 1684, where he is censured for having without authorization printed an inaccurate compilation. "Journals," 1659/60-1693, 1914, pp. 201-203.

"An Abridgement of the Laws of Virginia compiled in 1694," in manuscript, was among the "Ludwell Papers" given to the Virginia Historical Society by the late Cassius F. Lee. It was printed in serial form in Va. Mag. of Hist. and Biog., vols. 9 and 10, 1902-1903, and was also issued separately, Richmond, 1903.

An Abridgement of the Laws in Force and Use in Her Majesty's Plantations; (Viz.) Of Virginia . . . 1704. See no. 81, vol. 1. AAS., BA., BM., C., H.(LAW), HSP., JCB., MSL., NYBA., NYP., NYS., P., VASL.

C.-T. nos. 103 and 108, Swem nos. 22493 and 22507.

Copies of either the first or second editions, lacking title, are at H. and H.(LAW). Swem locates two copies of the first edition in private libraries.

Usually called "Beverley's Abridgment," Robert, Peter, and William Beverley have each been suggested as the Beverley in question.

For a summary of the evidence suggesting Robert Beverley, the historian of Virginia, as compiler of this unofficial publication, see C.-T. no. 103.

Acts of Assembly, passed in the Colony of Virginia, from 1662, to 1715. Volume I. London. J. Baskett. MDCCXXVII. Folio, pp. xxiv, 391. B., BM., BODLEIAN, C., H.(LAW), HSP., JCB., MSL., NYBA., NYH., NYP., VAHS., VASL. 100383

C., HEH., NYBA., NYP., VASL. 100389

C.-T. no. 191 and Swem no. 22558 enter under the year 1748. The fact that William Hunter was the printer and that he printed the above after the revival entered in the preceding title is shown by his petition for payment on Nov. 21, 1753. See Journal of the House of Burgesses under that date. "Journals," 1752-1758, 1909, p. 129.

Title from Evans no. 31500.

Among nineteenth century compilations we mention only Hening's monumental work, the publication of which was begun in 1809, with title as follows:

"The Statutes at Large; being a collection of all the laws of Virginia, from the first session of the legislature, in the year 1619. Published pursuant to an act of the General Assembly . . . passed on the fifth day of February, one thousand eight hundred and eight," 13 vols., 8vo, Richmond, 1809-1823. The first four volumes were reprinted, vol. 4 in 1820, and vols. 1-3 in 1823, and issued with some copies of the later volumes. The continuation of Hening by Samuel Shepherd, covering the years from 1792-1806, was printed at Richmond, 3 vols., 1835-1836.

ALMANACS.

There will be no attempt to list here the various series of Virginia almanacs. See the bibliographies of Swem and Clayton-Torrence, also Evans' "American Bibliography" and Morrison's "Preliminary Check List of American Almanacs." A study of the entries in the Union Catalogue in Washington seems to show by far the best file at the Library of Congress, but that lacking a number of items found at the American Antiquarian Society, and in the Richmond libraries. Our earlier cross references to Virginia for almanac titles must be transferred to the above authorities.

The above item was entered in our no. 4889, vol. 2, as if having a title bearing the name of Sir William Berkley, or Berkeley.

All known copies are now without title pages. The above title is taken from the heading of p. 1. White Kennett described his copy, now in the possession of Mr. McCormick, in "Bibliothecæ Americæ Primordia," 1713, p. 114, and included in the title the words, "by Sir William Berkley the Governour," also giving the date 1663. However, when this copy was sold at the White Kennett sale at Sotheby's in 1917, it was without a title page. Rich's description of the Discourse under the year 1663 and our previous entry were apparently based on that of Kennett.

The Rosenbach copy has the ms. inscription: "Given me by Sr. W^m. Barkley Gov. of Virg^a. Feb. 4, 1662."

Watt mentions a description of Virginia by Berkeley as included in Moryson's edition of the "Lawes of Virginia," 1662, our no. 100380, above. Although that compilation is dedicated to Berkeley, no such description is found in copies as collated by us. Probably Watts' statement is an error.

A facsimile reprint from the Crane-Huntington copy, with a foreword by Thomas R. Stewart, [William H. Smith, jr., Norwalk, Conn. 1914], was issued in an edition of 250 copies. B., C., H., JOHNCRERAR, NEWBERRY, NYP., UVA., VASL.

Another edition was printed for the Aungervyle Society, Edinburgh, 1884.

The work was reprinted with additions as "A Plaine Description of the Barmvdas," 1613, our no. 9759, vol. 3, and under this title by Peter Force in his Tracts, vol. 3, 1844.

Title from Lowndes' "Bibliographer's Manual," pt. 10, 1879, p. 2788.

Dr. Swem suggests that the above might be a purchasing list of books wanted. Thomas Jefferson in 1824 was making plans as to buying books from abroad for the University of Virginia, and by 1826 a number of boxes had already arrived. See Jefferson's "Works," vol. 16, 1903, pp. 34 and 155.

First published in Mass. Hist. Soc. "Collections," 2d ser., vol. 1, 1814, pp. 27-80. The edition printed by Force was reissued in Amer. Hist. Soc. "Transactions," vol. 1, 1839.

A reprint from Force is in "American Colonial Tracts," vol. 1, no. 10, 1898.

A more accurate printing from the same manuscripts as the earliest edition is in Mass. Hist. Soc. "Proceedings" for 1866-1867, pp. 299-342, with a note on p. 342 giving arguments for and against the possibility that the author was Sir William Berkeley. This edition was also issued separately with title: "The History of Bacon's and Ingram's Rebellion . . ." Cambridge, 1867.

M. C. Tyler, in his "History of American Literature," vol. 1, 1897, pp. 79-80, suggests without stating his reasons that the mss. were "written by one Cotton, of Acquia Creek, husband of Ann Cotton, and author of a letter written from Jamestown, June 9, 1676, printed in Force, Hist. Tracts, I. No. 9."

The Journals of the conventions of the diocese from 1785-1835, inclusive, were reprinted as an appendix to F. L. Hawks' "Narrative of Events connected with the Rise and Progress of the Protestant Episcopal Church in Virginia," 1836, which forms vol. 1 of his "Contributions to the Ecclesiastical History of the United States."

Though the conventions at first met annually, they became irregular after several years, the annual series beginning again in 1813.

The NYP. set includes a larger number of the earliest journals than any other that we have located, including the journal for a special convention of 1812, while the CRS. file includes the journals for 1791, 1793 and 1794, and is complete from 1813 on.

According to the latest catalogue, the origin of the institution may be traced to the organization of the Education Society in 1818. This Society established a theological professorship at William and Mary College in 1821. In 1823 because of lack of success, a seminary was founded in Alexandria, and was originally called the Theological School of the Diocese of Virginia.

UNIVERSITY OF VIRGINIA.

The publications of the University of Virginia, a state institution, fall outside the period covered by our list of Virginia public documents, so that we include here only a few of the earliest titles. The publications for each year are included in the chronological list of documents in Swem, part 2, while those in the State Library are entered in his part 1.

The nucleus of the University was Albemarle Academy chartered in 1803, but remaining on paper until after Jefferson's election to the board of trustees in 1814. By an act of Feb. 14, 1816, the name of the proposed institution was changed to "Central College," and when the University was established by an act of Jan. 25, 1819, it acquired the property of the College. See H. B. Adams' "Thomas Jefferson and the University of Virginia," 1888, pp. 56, 68, and 97.

A Catalogue of the Library of the University of Virginia, arranged alphabetically . . . Published by Gilmer, Davis, & Co. Charlottesville, Va. 1828. 8vo, pp. 114.

A Catalogue of the Officers and Students of the University of Virginia. First session, March 7th, 1825-December 15th, 1825. Charlottesville, Va., Chronicle steam book printing house. 1880. 8vo, pp. 8.

VASL. 100535

Swem no. 9718. H. Clemons, librarian of the University, sends us the following information: "In 1880-81 the faculty, acting under the misapprehension that no catalogues had been issued for the first twenty or so sessions, caused to be compiled and printed a number of catalogues for the earliest sessions. Since then more detailed originals have been found for a number of sessions . . . But catalogues for the first five sessions and for some scattered sessions thereafter are known only in the 1880-81 form." The earliest of the original catalogues which we have located is the following:

A Catalogue of the Officers and Matriculates of the University of Virginia, session 1829-30. Charlottesville, Va.: Printed by Carr and Elliot. 1830. 8vo, pp. 11. Continued.

Swem, no. 10290, gives reprint of 1880. C., H., UTEX., UVA. 100536

Swem no. 9719.

Supplementary enactments were also printed, [1825?] VASL.

Swem, no. 9747, gives enactments, 1826, published in the Report of the Rector and Visitors of the University, 1827. There were separately printed Enactments in 1827, 1831 and 1838.

An Exposition of the Proceedings of the Faculty of the University of Virginia, in relation to the recent disturbances at that institution. Charlottesville, Printed by James Alexander. 1836. 8vo, pp. 14. C., UTEX. 100538

Signed: J. A. G. Davis, Chairman of the Faculty, and dated: University of Virginia, Dec. 16, 1836.

Proceedings and Report of the Commissioners for the University of Virginia. Presented December 8, 1818. Read and referred to a Select Committee. Richmond: Printed by Thomas Ritchie, Printer for the Commonwealth. . . . 1818. 8vo, pp. 31.

Signed at end: Th: W. Maury, Secretary to the Board. BA. 100539

Swem no. 9014, for the edition in the Journal, notes that 500 copies were printed.

The report of the proceedings of the visitors of the "Central College" near Charlottesville, Jan. 6, 1818, Swem no. 8959, is said to have been published separately as well as in the Journal of the House of Delegates, but no copy is located.

B., NYP. 100595

Evans no. 14778 enters the Boston edition in 12 pages under 1776, but in his list of printers at the end of each volume he does not show the Fleets "at the Bible and Heart" until 1780. His later lists show that imprint of the Fleets until at least 1799.

The 1775 edition and that of Dover, 1793, are from Evans, nos. 14069 and 25557.

The title of the Amherst edition begins: "A Remarkable Vision! shewing . . ." "To the Reader" is signed and dated: "James Treadway, Connecticut April 4, 1795." As Nathaniel Coverly discontinued his Amherst Journal on Jan. 9, 1796, and was established in Haverhill, N. H., by March of that year, it is probable that the pamphlet was printed soon after the date of the prefatory address.

VISSCHER (Nikolaas).

We shall make no attempt to enter here the titles of various atlases and maps published by Visscher at Amsterdam at the end of the 17th and beginning of the 18th centuries. For titles of editions in the Library of Congress and notes as to maps with American interest, see P. L. Phillips' "List of Geographical Atlases" published by the Library of Congress.

V[ISSIER] (P[aul]). Histoire de la tribu des Osages, peuplade sauvage de l'Amérique Septentrionale, dans l'état du Missouri, l'un des États-Unis d'Amérique; écrite d'après les six Osages actuellement à Paris; par M. P. V. Suivie de la relation du voyage de ces sauvages, et d'une notice historique sur chacun de ces Indiens célèbres dans leur tribu par leurs exploits guerriers. Paris. C. Title from Medina's "Diccionario de anónimos y seudónimos," vol. 2, 1925, p. 285, where it is suggested that the "fiscal" is Fernando Antonio Elizalde.

VITA.

For titles of anonymous works relating to individuals beginning with the word "Vita," see under the name of the person to whom they relate. The following list will merely include a few titles omitted previously under the subject.

Vita Beati Turribii. See [Valladolid (Juan Francisco de)], no. 98370, vol. 26.

Vita del Vener. Mons G. di Palafox, Vescovo d'Angelopoli, e poi d'Osma. Tradotta dall' edizione Francese del 1772. Venezia. 1773. 2 vols., 8vo. BM. 100609

The author's dedication is signed "N. N.," the dedication of the French edition, however, being without signature.

For information as to the French original, see no. 99507, vol. 26.

Vita del venerabil servo di dio P. Giuseppe Anchieta della Compagnia di Gesu' detto l'Apostolo del Brasile cavata da' Processi

Autentici formati per la sua Beatificazione. Da un Sacerdote della medesima Compagnia. In Roma, MDCCXXXVIII. Nella Stamperia Komarek al Corso. Con Licenza de' Superiori. 8vo, pp. (16), 307, verso blank, (2). Portrait. NYP. 100610

The NYP. copy lacks the portrait.

Sommervogel's edition of de Backer adds a Monza, 1887, edition.

Improved title of nos. 1374, vol. 1, and 56697, vol. 13.

Vita del Venerabile P. Fr. Francesco Camacho Religioso dell' Ordine di S. Giovanni di Dio compilata da un Sacerdote della Compagnia di Gesù. E dal Molto Rev. P. Fr. Domenico Maria Betri . . . dedicata al Reverendiss. Padre Fr. Leopoldo Pio Sormani . . . In Napoli, Nella Stamperia di Felice Carto Mosca. 1748. 4to, pp. (12), 190, (4). Portrait. BM. 100611

Title from Medina's "Diccionario de anónimos y seudónimos," vol. 2, 1925, pp. 286-287, where a note states that the usual attribution to Betri disregards the fact that, according to the title, it is by a Jesuit. Medina gives Saverio Santagata as the author. Sommervogel's edition of de Backer notes that Santagata's name appears in the "permission du Provincial."

Vita della gloriosa Santa Rosa della citta' di Lima del Perv, Canonizzata dalla Santità di nostro Sig. Papa Clemente X. alli 12. d'Aprile l'Anno 1671. In Roma, & in Firenze per Francesco Onofri Stampatore Arciuescouale. 1671. . . . 8vo, pp. 15.

The American interest lies in the sections, epoch-making in the history of international law, "De Indis insularis relectio prior" and "De Indis, sive de iure belli Hispanorum in barbaros Relectio posterior," pp. 282-374, 375-425, respectively. See below under the 1696 edition for a reprint of that edition of these sections. They were also reprinted with a Spanish translation, Madrid, 1928. c.

A more correct entry for this author would have been under Francisco de Victoria. The place of his birth, however, has been frequently used as a surname.

Other errors in pagination of the 1565 edition not affecting the total.

Information as to the Antwerp and Ingolstadt editions from Father Getino's "El Maestro Fr. Francisco de Vitoria," 1914, p. 170. He describes the former as "Edición del siglo XVI sin año, registrada." Size of the Ingolstadt edition from N. Antonio's "Bibliotheca hispana nova," vol. 1, 1783, p. 497.

Hurter in his "Nomenclator Literarius Theologicae Catholicae," vol. 2, 1906, column 1369, notes that the 1565 edition is slightly better than the first edition, and that the Ingolstadt, 1580, edition is good, and followed by later editors as in the case of the Lyons issues of 1586 and 1587.

BIB.NAC.MADRID, H. (LAW). 100622

H. F. Wright's "Francisci de Vitoria de Iure Belli Relectio," 1916, gives the date of the Madrid edition as 1755, but as he locates no copy and does not mention that of 1765, he is probably in error. Getino gives only a 1765 edition printed at Madrid, in the 18th century, see his life of Vitoria cited above, p. 171, which see also for locations in other Spanish libraries.

A Spanish translation by Jaime Torrubiano Ripoli, "Relecciones teológicas," was issued as vols. 1-3 of "Biblioteca de vulgarización de la ciencia española," Madrid, 1917. c., h. It includes facsimiles of the titles of the 1557, and 1565 editions.

See J. B. Scott's "The Spanish Origin of International Law, Francisco de Vitoria and His Law of Nations," 1934, published by the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace, for translations of a number of the Relecciones. He notes the forthcoming edition of the original in preparation by Father Luis G. Alonso Getino.

The above title and notes from the c. printed card.

Another issue of this book, Medina, "Imprenta en Lima," no. 4, bears a title exactly similar except that it begins "Arte, y vocabulario | . . ." instead of "Vocabulario | . . ." Copies of that issue are in the Bibl. Nac. Madrid and the Bibl. Museo de Ultramar, Madrid. The collation by signature and contents is the same as our title above, of which it is probably a corrected variant differing only in its more explicit title. The c. copy is the only one located of the Vocabulario issue, though it is described in Leclerc's "Bibliotheca Americana," Supplement, 1881, no. 2993. Medina and later authorities do not accept the attribution of the work to Holguín as in our 32492, vol. 8, but they in their turn are unable to determine its authorship.

Medina, however, in his Dicc. de anón. y seud., 1925, gave his opinion that the author was the Jesuit Diego de Torres Rubio. He had, on the other hand, pointed out previously in his Bib. hisp.-amer. no. 477, that the Seville, 1603, edition of the Vocabulario with title, "Gramatica y vocabulario," was not the same work as the "Arte de la Lengua Quichua," of that author printed at Lima in 1619, our no. 96269, vol. 25. Besides the Seville edition mentioned above the Vocabulario was again printed in Lima in 1614, with title, "Arte y vocabulario." NYP. The latter edition was twice erroneously entered by us, first under Ludovico Bertonio, no. 5020, vol. 2, and secondly under the printer of that edition, Francisco del Canto, no. 10710, vol. 3.

One of the issues of the first edition is located at BM.

Title of the first issue from Michelmore & Co.'s "Voltaire. Notes upon an unrivalled collection of his editions originales," 1923, no. 19. For a full description of the variations in the issues of the first edition, see G. Bengesco's "Voltaire. Bibliographie de ses œuvres," vol. 1, 1882, pp. 28-29.

There are two titles in the London, 1736, edition, one of which has a list of characters on the verso. This edition is a reissue of the sheets of the Amsterdam edition, omitting the "Privilegie," and list of characters of that issue, pp. (5), following p. xxvii.

Information as to the issues without location in our list has been taken from Bengesco's "Voltaire," vol. 1, pp. 28-30.

According to Bengesco, vol. 1, p. 29, the Amsterdam, 1736, editions of Desbordes and Ledet have on the final unnumbered page an "Avis du libraire," which mentions several pirated editions printed at Brussels and Strassburg.

Reprinted frequently after 1840.

Below we arrange a list of translations and adaptations of Alzire in languages other than French, followed by the titles of two parodies.

TRANSLATIONS AND ADAPTATIONS OF ALZIRE.

A Danish translation appeared in "Forsøg i de skønne og nyttige Videnskaber," vol. 5, part 10, 1772, pp. 133-236.

Other translations and adaptations are arranged below alphabetically by languages.

Also an edition published by Cooke in London, in vol. 14 of his "British Drama," 1817.

Translated and adapted by Aaron Hill, whose name is signed to the dedication and appears as author on the titles of the later editions. The Edinburgh, 1755, edition has the title, "Alzira. Or Spanish Insult Repented." Also printed under this title in the "Dramatic Works" of that author, vol. 2, 1760, pp. 115-176. BM., H.

The 1777, 1791, and 1792 editions are found respectively in vols. 10, 7, and 12 of editions of "Bell's British Theatre." One of the issues of 1791 is apparently located at BM.

Also issued in the author's "Natuurkundige Beschryving eener uitmuntende verzameling van zeldsaame gedierten," Amsterdam, 1804. C., NYP.

This collection is a reissue of 33 parts, each with separate pagination and title pages dated from 1766 to 1804. It has the engraved title: "Regnum animale . . ." A French version has the same engraved title, and the printed title: "Description d'un Recueil exquis d'Animaux rares . . ." 1804. This also consists of 33 parts with separate title pages variously dated. Evidently different issues of the items were used as the titles of those in the JCB. set are dated from 1767-1774 while those in the set at c. are dated from 1767-1805.

Eleven of the parts describe American animals and might as logically be entered here as the above.

Les | Voyages auantureux | dv Capitaine | Ian Alfonse, | Sainctongeois. | Auec Priuilege | du Roy. | A Poitiers, au Pelican, par Ian de Marnef. | [1559.] 4to, 4 unnumbered and 68 numbered leaves. ã, A-R in fours. HEH. † [Second issue. Same imprint and collation.] [1559.] BIB.NAT., H., NYP. 100828

The real name of Ian Alfonse or Jean Alfonse was Jean Fonteneau. The above work has usually been described as an abridgment of the account of his travels from the manuscript "Cosmographie" of Alfonse. The abridgment was said to have been prepared after his death at the instance of Melin de Saint-Gelays. The "Cosmographie" was printed in 1904 for the first time under the editorship of Georges Musset and issued in "Recueil de voyages et de documents pour servir à l'histoire de la géographie." The introduction of Musset takes the view that the "Voyages auantureux" was an independent work and written by Alfonse before the "Cosmographie." For a detailed bibliography of the smaller work see pp. 20-33 of this introduction. Brunet and Harris describe the work in less detail, also mentioning fewer editions. The first issue given here is Church no. 111.

Musset locates copies of issues of the first edition in the Bibliothèque d'Amiens and in a private library.

The final paragraph on the verso of leaf 68 in the first issue reads: "Fin du present liure, composé & ordonné par Ian Alfonse pilote experimenté en la plus part des choses narres en ce liure, natif du pays de Xainctonge, pres la ville de Cognac. Et ce fut fait a la requeste de Vincent Aymard, marchand du pays de Piedmont, escriuant pour luy Maugis Vumenot, marchât d'Honfleur. Fin."

In the second issue this paragraph reads: "Fin du present liure, composé & ordonné par Ian Alfonse pilote experimenté es choses narres en ce liure, natif du pays de Xainctonge, pres la ville de Cognac. Fait a la requeste de Vincent Aymard, marchand du pays de Piedmont, escriuant pour luy Maugis Vumenot, marchand d'Honfleur. Fin."

Some copies of the undated edition were issued with the following as an appendix: Les Tables de la | declinaison ov esloi- | gnement que fait le Soleil de la ligne |

Equinoctiale chacun iour des quatre ans. | . . . | A Poitiers au Pelican, par Ian de Marnef. | [On last leaf:] Ce Liure ha esté ainsi ordonné par Oliuier Bis- | selin, homme tres-expert a la Mer. Et acheué | d'imprimer a la fin du mois d'Auril, en l'An | mil cinq cens Cinquante neuf. | 4to, 28 unnumbered leaves. a-g in fours. n., NYP. The tables were appended also to later editions.

Copies of the first issue were reproduced by photostat at the Massachusetts Historical Society in February, 1920, from the original in the Henry E. Huntington Library. AAS., C., HEH., JCB., M., NEWBERRY, NYH., NYP., WHS., WLC., Y.

BIB.NAT., BM., NYP. 100829

Except for sig. ã this edition seems to be from the same sheets as the one described above, which does not have the date of printing on the verso of the title.

The last paragraph on leaf 68 reads as in the second issue of the undated edition. The NYP. copy of this edition also has Bisselin's "Tables" appended.

Les voyages auantureux | du capitaine Ian Alfonse | Sainctongeois | contenant les Reigles et enseignemens nécessaires | à la bonne et seure Navigation. | Avec Privilège du | Roy. | A Poitiers, au Pélican, par Ian de Marnef, 1559. 4to, 4 unnumbered and 68 numbered leaves.

BIB.NAT. 100830

Title from the introduction to "La Cosmographie . . . par Jean Fonteneau dit Alfonse de Saintonge . . . publiée et annotée par Georges Musset," 1904, p. 27. Copies are also located in the Bibliothèque de Rothschild and in the possession of M. Richard, archivist at Poitiers. Musset gives the information as to date of printing on verso of title as follows: "Le présent livre ha esté achevé d'imprimer le 2 jour de may en l'an 1559."

Bisselin's "Tables" are appended.

Les | voyages aventureux | du capitaine Ian Alfonse | Sainctongeois | contenant les reigles et enseignemens nécessaires | à la bonne et seure navigation. | Avec Privilège | du Roy. | A Poitiers, par les de Marnefz et Bouchetz freres. | 1559. | 8 unnumbered and 68 numbered leaves.

100831

Title from pp. 28-29 of the work cited in the preceding note, no size given. A copy is located in the Bibliothèque de Poitiers. Probably this is the same 4to issue described in the BM. catalogue, but there are differences in the transcription which suggest a variation in the edition.

Bisselin's "Tables" are appended.

BM. 100832

Title of the 1578 edition from Harrisse's anonymous "Notes pour servir à l'histoire, à la bibliographie . . . de la Nouvelle-France," 1872, no. 4. Musset gives an additional preliminary leaf in the collation, and locates a copy in the Bibliothèque de l' Arsenal. Bisselin's "Tables," 20 unnumbered leaves, are appended. In the undated editions the "Tables" have the imprint: La Rochelle: Par Jean Portau.

Les | voyages avan- | tureux du capitaine | Jean Alfonse sain- | ctongeois. | contenant les Règles et enseignemens nécessaires | à la bonne et seure Navigation. | Reueu et corrigé de nouveau | selon la réformation faite du calendrier qui fut fait l'An mil | cinq cens quatre-vingtz-deux. | . . . | A La Rochelle | par Jean Portau. | [n. d.] 4to, 4 unnumbered and 62 numbered leaves. 100833

Title from Musset's introduction to his edition of the "Cosmographie" cited above, pp. 30-32. He locates copies in the Bibliothèque de l' Arsenal and the Bibliothèque de Marseille. He also describes as another issue another undated edition printed by Portau of which a copy is located in the Marseilles library.

The BM. catalogue gives the queried date 1590 for an issue printed by Portau.

An edition of the "Tables" is appended.

Brunet mentions an octavo edition printed at Paris in 1598.

Les | Voyages Avan- | tvrevx dv Capitaine | Iean Alphonce | Saintongeois. | Contenant les Reigles & enseignemens necessaires | à la bonne & seure Nauigation. | Reueu et corrigé de nouveau, selon la reformation faite | du Calendrier, qui fut fait l'An mil cinq | cens quatre vingts deux. | A Rouen, | Chez Theodore Reinsart, pres le | Palais, à l'Homme Armé. | 1602. | 4to, pp. 128, tables de la declinaison (36). The English account of the voyage is found in Purchas his Pilgrimes.

The octavo edition of the above is included in Pieter vander Aa's collection of voyages and travels entitled "Naukeurige Versameling der gedenk-waardigste Zee en Land-Reysen," vol. 22, 1707. The folio edition is included in vol. 1 of Pieter vander Aa's "Wijd-Beroemde Voyagien . . . gedaan door de Engelsens," which is part of a rearrangement of the "Naukeurige Versameling," grouped by nationality, printed in 1706 and 1707 in eight volumes. There was a reissue of the whole collection with a general title dated 1727. The octavo and folio editions of "Voyagie na West-Indien," entered above, are printed from the same setting of type, which in the folio edition is rearranged to make two columns to a page, the columns numbered, 1-10, besides the title leaf and the register, the verso of the last leaf. The plate in the octavo edition is numbered and in the folio edition, where the engraving is used as an illustration, it is evident that the number has been erased from the copper-plate leaving faint traces.

A "Third Edition" with its own separate title page was reprinted as part of the third edition of vol. 3 of Dampier's Voyage. For a description of this see Dampier (W.), note following no. 18373, and no. 18376, vol. 5. BM., C., H., NYP.

The observations and adventures of a British buccaneer, associated with Dampier and others in expeditions to the isthmus, the western coast of South America, the West Indies, etc. 1680-1688. The map is the same as that used for the editions of Dampier's "A New Voyage round the World," first published in 1697. Winship notes that the route marked on it is that of Dampier and the main body of his companions, and not that traversed later by Wafer.

A reprint of the first edition, edited by G. P. Winship, was published by the Burrows Brothers Company, Cleveland, 1903. This includes an historical and bibliographical introduction, and notes with additional information, chiefly from the writings of Wafer's companions. The map and plates are reproduced in facsimile, and a map of the same region from the British Admiralty chart of the Darien country, corrected to 1891, has been added.

Another reprint, based on the same edition but with the errata corrected as in the second, was issued in 1934 as vol. 73, 2d ser., of "Works issued by the Hakluyt Society." It contains Wafer's Secret Report (1698) printed from ms., and Davis's Expedition to the Gold Mines (1704), and was edited with introduction, notes, appendices, and two additional maps, by L. E. Elliott Joyce.

WAFER. The Voyage of Mr. Lionel Wafer, to The Isthmus of America (or Darien). Giving A succinct Narration of The remarkable Incidents Which happened him, while on the Isthmus;

. . . With his Departure from the Isthmus, and Voyage along the Coast of Peru and Chili. Glasgow: Printed for Robert Smith, Bookseller, Paisley. M,DCC,XCIV. 8vo, pp. 63. JCB. 100941

WAFER. . . . Wafer's Travels across the Isthmus of Darien. Embellished with four elegant copperplates. A New and Correct Edition. London: Printed for the Booksellers. 1816. 18mo, pp. (2), 5-34. 4 plates. NYP. 100942

With heading: New Juvenile Library.

Abridgments of Wafer's narrative have been published in a number of collections of voyages.

[WALCOTT (Eliza)], Joint author. The Two Sisters' Poems and Memoirs. New Haven. 1830. 100993

Title from Cushing's "Initials and Pseudonyms," 1886, p. 288, where it is attributed to Eliza and Sarah G. Walcott.

WALCOTT (R. F.).

A cross reference from Philo Pacificus to this name, in our vol. 15, was probably caused by an erroneous entry in the printed catalogue of the library of the New York Historical Society in which the fifth edition of Noah Worcester's "Solemn Review of the Custom of War" by Philo Pacificus is attributed to such an author. Cushing also states that this pseudonym was used by Robert Folger Walcutt, Harvard 1817. The name as spelled in ms. records of the class is "Walcutt." Walcutt was at one time an agent of the American Anti-Slavery Society. Bartlett gives the following title: The Spirit of the South towards Northern Freemen and Soldiers, defending the American Flag against Traitors of the Deepest Dye. Boston: R. F. Walcutt, 1861. 12mo, pp. 24.

[WALCOTT (Sarah G.)]. See [Walcott (Eliza)].

For another work, with a similar title but not written by Waldo, see Monroe (James), no. 50023, vol. 12. Waldo on p. vii of the preface to the 1818 edition of the Tour alludes to this "Narrative of a Tour" as being more military and less general in character than his own work.

Waldo's "Brief Sketch . . . of Stephen and Jesse Boorn," with a separate title page, forms pp. 37-48 of "Mystery Developed," Hartford, 1820, our no. 96830, vol. 25. BM., H. (LAW), NYH., NYP.

References to Harrisse and to Walther Ruge's "Aelteres kartographisches Material in deutschen Bibliotheken," 5th part, (Nachrichten von der König. Gesell. der Wiss. zu Göttingen, philologisch-historische klasse, Beiheft, 1916) are given as a help in differentiating the editions, which are only briefly distinguished here. See also J. B. Thacher's "Continent of America," 1896, pp. 123-165, which includes a helpful comparative table prepared by Dr. Wilberforce Eames. Dr. Eames in his forthcoming separate of the Vespucci section of this Dictionary expects to describe fully the variations.

We have not attempted to reproduce the type for archaic contractions used in the original titles, but have filled them out and indicated the fact by printing the supplied letters in italics, except in the italic imprints where the supplied letters are in roman.

LEIPZIG UNIV.BIBL., NYP., SCHLETTSTADT STADTBIBL. 101017

Harrisse Additions 24, Ruge 103. A verse by Philesius [Matthias Ringmann] appears on the verso of the title. On the second leaf is Waldseemüller's dedication, beginning: "Divo Maximiliano Caesari Avgvsto Martinvs Ilacomilvs . . ."

On the verso of the fifteenth leaf is the famous passage translated by Miss Stillwell in her "Incunabula and Americana," 1931, p. 69, as follows: "But now that these parts have been more extensively examined, and another fourth part has been discovered by Americus Vespuccius (as will be seen in the sequel) I do not see why we should rightly refuse to name it America, namely the land of Amerigen or America, after its discoverer Americus, a man of sagacious mind, since both Europe and Asia took their names from women."

An account of Vespucci's four voyages forms an appendix. For description of this, see nos. 99354-99355, vol. 26.

A facsimile, with an introduction by F. R. von Wieser, was reproduced from the copy in the Stadtbibliothek at Schlettstadt, and published at Strassburg in 1907, as no. 12 of the series, "Drucke und Holzschnitte des xv. und xvi. Jahrhunderts in getreuer Nachbildung." Another facsimile, with an English translation by E. Burke and M. E. Cosenza, was published as Monograph iv by the United States Catholic Historical Society, New York, 1907.

The "Cosmographiae Introductio" was intended to accompany Waldseemüller's small globe and large wall map of 1507, in which the new world is designated as "America." The map and Waldseemüller's "Carta marina" of 1516 were published in facsimile at Innsbruck in 1903, accompanied by an explanatory text, "Die älteste Karte mit dem Namen Amerika," edited by J. Fischer and F. R. von Wieser, with an English translation by G. Pickel in parallel columns.

Harrisse 45, Ruge 104. In this edition Ringmann's dedicatory verse is omitted and Waldseemüller's dedication is somewhat altered and attributed to the Gymnasium Vosagense. It begins on the verso of the title, as follows: "Divo Maximiliano Caesari semper Avgvsto, Gynnasivm [sic] Vosagense . . ."

A comparison with the preceding edition shows typographical differences on each of the first six leaves, indicating that signature A was reprinted. The remainder of the work is identical.

B., BM., H., HEH., JCB., NEWBERRY, NYP., WLC. 101019

Harris 46, Ruge 105. This edition is entirely reprinted. It resembles the preceding edition in omitting Ringmann's dedicatory verse and using the dedication of the Gymnasium Vosagense.

MUNICH STAATSBIBL., NYP. 101020

Harris 47, Ruge 106. The first, second, fifth and sixth leaves seem to be identical with no. 101017 above, except for a few slight variations, e.g.: (1) recto of second leaf, last line begins "ciente:" while in no. 101017 the last line begins "ciente,,"; (2) verso of fifth leaf, a figure 3 in the margin opposite the fourth line from the bottom and a figure 4 in the margin opposite the last line, while in no. 101017, only a figure 4 in the margin opposite the fourth line from the bottom.

With the exception of A i, A ii, A v and A vi this edition corresponds with no. 101019.

This combination of leaves occasions the omission in the text of the letters "gicis ait" between the sixth and seventh leaves.

This edition has Ringmann's dedicatory verse and Waldseemüller's dedication. The Vespucci voyages form leaves [15]-[32].

The diagram in one of the NYP. copies is a pen and ink facsimile, done so carelessly that the 14-line inscription on the back was made to run over into 15 lines. HARRISSE's misleading statement about two issues is based on this facsimile.

Ruge, no. 111, in describing this edition spells the fourth word in the imprint
"Impressoriae." He locates six copies in Germany.

The work was intended to accompany a map of Europe, "Carta itineraria Europæ," which, according to Ruge, was found by Dr. F. R. von Wieser and published by him at Munich in 1893.

At the annual meeting of the Oregon mission in 1839 Walker had been appointed to prepare an elementary book in the Spokan language, with Cushing Eells as his "reviewer." However, it is probable that Eells contributed the larger share as Walker writes in a letter of Oct. 1841, "I have given him my full consent to go on & write the language." See H. M. Ballou's "History of the Oregon Mission Press" in Ore. Hist. Soc. "Quarterly," vol. 23, 1922, pp. 95-98. The article includes facsimile reproductions of the title and one of the other pages of the book from a copy in the library of Tualatin Academy and Pacific University, Forest Grove, Ore.

". . . The Oregon Missions as shown in the Walker letters, 1839-1851," edited by P. C. Phillips and W. S. Lewis, was first printed in the historical section of the Frontier, a magazine of the Northwest, vol. 11, no. 1, Nov. 1930, and was also issued separately.

C. W. Alvord notes that this, like all of the Vandalia or Grand Ohio Company pamphlets, was probably written by Samuel Wharton. See "Mississippi Valley in British Politics," vol. 2, 1917, pp. 316-317.

Also: Soon after the last European peace many of the king's subjects in the provinces of Virginia, Maryland, and Pennsylvania apprehended, that as the French were removed from the lands in the neighborhood of the Ohio, and the Indians were then in a pacific disposition, they might with propriety make settlements on the fertile country over the Allegany mountains . . . [n. p. 1771?] 4to, pp. 38, appendix 26. BA., JCB., ULL. All three located copies of this "Statement of the petitioners in the case of the Walpole Company," as Alvord supplies a title, are without title page, the text beginning on sig. B. Probably it was written by Samuel Wharton.

Report of the Lords Commissioners for Trade and Plantations on the Petition of the Honourable Thomas Walpole, Benjamin Franklin, John Sargent, and Samuel Wharton, Esquires, and their Associates; for a Grant of Lands on the River Ohio, in North America; for the purpose of Erecting a new Government. Half-title: Report of the Board of Trade. The report was written by Lord Hillsborough, and the Observations and Remarks by Samuel Wharton, not by Benjamin Franklin, as suggested in Ford's "Franklin Bibliography," 1889, no. 311. See Alvord, op. cit., vol. 2, p. 317. Reprinted in John Almon's anonymous "Biographical, Literary, and Political Anecdotes," vol. 2, 1797, pp. 201-322.

Considerations on the Agreement of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, with the Honourable Thomas Walpole and his Associates, for Lands upon the River Ohio, in North America. In a Letter to a Member of Parliament. London, MDCCXXIV. 8vo, pp. (4), 46. NYP., WHS. Signed: "A. B." Ford, "Franklin Bibliography," no. 317, suggested the authorship of Franklin, but Alvord, op. cit., thinks that Wharton was the author.

For information as to the Grand Ohio Company, see Alvord's work, vol. 2, chapters 4-7. See also our titles under Wharton (Samuel).

The author was William Arnall. See Dict. Nat. Biog.

The above is a reply to William Pulteney's anonymous "A Short View of the State of Affairs," our no. 80700, vol. 19. The latter pamphlet has been confused frequently with another with a similar title, also printed in this controversy, by "Caleb D'Anvers of Gray's-Inn, Esq." and which has the half title, "The Craftsman's Observations on the Peace, &c. and the Answer." Nicholas Amhurst, as editor of the political journal, "The Craftsman," used the pseudonym "Caleb D'Anvers." This journal published anonymous pieces of Bolingbroke and others.

The issue of this edition described in our no. 1625, vol. 1, has a different imprint, London, T. Osborne, MDCCXLVIII. We have located no copy with the latter imprint.

Titles of editions, translations and abridgments of this work were previously entered under Anson (George, Lord), where they were arranged with other accounts of the voyage. In the following list we do not attempt to revise all the previous entries, but, in order to locate copies of the various issues in their proper sequence, we include references to them as well as information as to other editions not previously described.

Though the work bears on the title the name of Walter as compiler, there has been considerable controversy as to how much credit should be given to him, and how much to Benjamin Robins who apparently revised the compilation. R. H. Vetch, in the life of Robins in Dict. Nat. Biog., notes that in the indenture between Robins and Knapton the former is treated as the sole proprietor. In the sketch of the life and works of Robins by James Wilson prefixed to the edition of Robins' "Mathematical Tracts," 1761, it was claimed that Walter contributed but a skeleton made up from the journals and logs. This statement was contested by Walter's widow. J. K. Laughton, in the life of Walter in Dict. Nat. Biog., does not consider Robins' part to have been definitely ascertained except as to the discussion of the nautical observations. See also the preface to Sir John Barrow's "Life of George Lord Anson," 1839, pp. vi-ix, and note following our no. 1629.

C., JCB., R.W.PEACH, Y. + [Another issue with additional tunes on leaves numbered 25-44.] B., H., M.B.JONES. 101196

The first leaf of the 1721 edition is blank except for the signature mark "A." Haven's List mentions a 1754 reprint of Walter's "Book of Psalmody."

M. B. Jones calls attention to the fact that an abridgment of Walter's work formed book 1 of Daniel Bayley's "A new and complete Introduction to the Grounds and Rules of Music in Two Books," Newburyport, 1764, of which editions were published in 1766 and 1768. The second book was taken from Tansur's "Royal Melody."

For fuller information as to the editions and condition of copies of the Grounds and Rules, see M. B. Jones's "Bibliographical Notes" on the work, reprinted from Amer. Antiq. Soc. "Proceedings" for October, 1932, new ser., vol. 42, 1933, pp. 235-246, to which we are indebted.

OF JAMAICA. + The Third Edition. London, Printed in the Year, 1698. Folio, pp. 16. HEH., NYH. + The Fourth Edition. London, Printed in the Year 1699. Folio, pp. 16. Ram-Head-Inn-Yard, in Fairchurch-Street, 1700. Folio, pp. 16.
CU., JCB., M., WLC. 101285

Information as to the second edition from Cundall's "Bibliographia Jamaicensis," no. 269.

Probably the early editions of the Trip to Jamaica were also printed by J. How. The HEH. copy of the third edition is bound with 18 numbers of "The London Spy," 1698-1699, and other pamphlets by Ward, published from 1699 to 1703. The earlier numbers of the Spy were printed for J. Nutt, and most include lists of books sold by him, each containing the Trip to Jamaica, while the later numbers were "Printed and Sold by J. How," and have lists of books sold by him which include the Trip to Jamaica. The other pamphlets in the volume were either printed by How or are without a printer's name. On the title page of the third edition of the Trip is a printer's ornament found in the How imprints. This evidence seems to indicate that the 1698 editions of the Trip were printed by J. How for J. Nutt.

The sheets of the seventh edition of the work were reissued, with other remainders of Ward's pamphlets, as no. 7 in "A Collection of the Writings . . . of Mr. Edward Ward," London, 1701. M. It was reprinted in various issues of the collected writings of Ward, being included in "Writings of the Author of the London Spy," London, 1704, and London, 1706 (vol. 2, pp. 146-167, of the latter edition, a copy of the volume located at H.), and in vol. 2, 1717, of the fifth edition with title "A Collection of the Writings," pp. 146-167.

The cu. copy of the seventh edition was reproduced in reduced facsimile in "Five Travel Scripts commonly attributed to Edward Ward," New York, 1933.

B., C., CU., H., HEH., JCB., M., NYP., WLC., Y. 101286

A scurrilous tract written by a London tavern keeper and pamphleteer.

The sheets of the work were reissued, with other remainders of Ward's pamphlets, as no. 8 in "A Collection of the Writings . . . of Mr. Edward Ward," London, 1701. M. It was reprinted in various issues of the collected writings of Ward, being included in "Writings of the Author of the London Spy," London, 1704, and London, 1706 (vol. 2, pp. 168-193, of the latter edition, a copy of the volume located at H.), and in vol. 2, 1717, of the fifth edition with title "A Collection of the Writings," pp. 168-193, also located at H.

The cu. copy of "A Trip to New England" was reproduced in reduced facsimile in "Five Travel Scripts commonly attributed to Edward Ward," New York, 1933.

Reprinted (together with "A Letter from New-England," by J. W., 1682) with an introduction and notes by G. P. Winship, in the latter's "Boston in 1682 and 1699," Providence, 1905. 100 copies were printed as the second publication of the Club for Colonial Reprints. C., H., NYH., NYP.

H., HEH., JCB., MINNHS., NYP., P. 101326

The Church Catalogue describes the first of the editions in which the printer's names are represented by initials only as the first edition of the tract. It is hardly likely, however, that the names would have been given in full in a later issue and that the issues following that should return to the form of imprint with initials only.

In the third and fourth editions the fifth word in the title is spelled "Aggavvam."

Two issues of 1647 are located at BM.

For differences in editions, see J. W. Dean's "Memoir" of Ward, 1868, pp. 168-169, and the new JCB. catalogue.

The fourth edition is reprinted in Ipswich Hist. Soc. "Publications," no. 14, 1905, with fac-similes of title page, preface, and head-lines, the exact text, and an essay, Nathaniel Ward and the Simple Cobler, by Thomas Franklin Waters. 400 copies were issued separately.

Bowtell, | at the signe of the Bible in Popes Head-Alley, 1647. |
4to, pp. (47). JCB., NYS. 101327

Wilberforce Eames suggests that the imprint of Dever and Ibbitson in this edition is a false one, and states that a comparison with the other editions leads him to this conclusion. As the tendency in reprinting a book is to condense it on fewer pages, he feels that it would be unlikely that Dever and Ibbitson would have printed an edition on 47 pages and then have spread it over 80 pages in a later issue. As the edition with 47 unnumbered pages has been noted to have different type ornaments, this would also suggest the work of a different printer, who was trying to make a little money by pirating the popular tract. L. C. Wroth notes that, in the matter of unusual and incorrect spellings, the above edition follows the first of the preceding entries in which the names of the printers are given in full, while those in which initials are used form a different group.

Dexter attributes to Ward with a query. Felt in his "History of Ipswich," 1834, p. 218, says he is supposed to have been the author, and in his "Ecclesiastical History of New England," vol. 1, 1855, p. 599, that Peters' tract "A Word for the Armie," was a reply to Ward's "A Religious Retreat," and that the former "brought out from Mr. Ward" the above pamphlet. J. W. Dean in his "Memoir" of Ward, 1868, p. 102, is inclined to believe him to be the author.

The above list does not include all the writings of Ward. A number of titles of religious or political interest in connection with events in Britain are found at BM., in the McAlpin collection at UTS., at H., and NYP., and elsewhere.

Ward was the author of the address "To the Reader" in "The Day-Breaking, if not the Sun-Rising of the Gospel with the Indians in New-England," see [Shepard (T.)], no. 80207, vol. 19.

Running title: Chronologie historique de l'Amérique.

The table of proper names for the first four volumes of the octavo edition of the "Chronologie," though it has its own title page and imprint dated 1832, is usually bound following the similar tables for the earlier volumes of this edition.

The work of which the above volumes form a part was begun by Maur-François Dantine, and continued after his death by Charles Clément, and Ursin Durand, the first edition in quarto being printed at Paris in 1750, and covering the period of the Christian era. The compilation edited and continued by F. Clément was issued in folio in 1770, and a third edition, in folio, was published from 1783-1787. During the years from 1818-1844 a new edition of the text was published, which was then called the second part, a new section covering the era before Christ, as a first part, and a continuation, as a third part, were added, Clément's work being carried on by Saint-Allais, Jullien de Courcelles and finally by Fortia d'Urban. Warden's treatise, "Chronologie historique de l'Amérique," came to be regarded as a fourth part as shown by the titles of vols. 17-18 of the octavo edition. The publication came to an end at the death of Fortia d'Urban, the final editor and proprietor. The "Chronologie" should have included additional matter covering the remainder of the United States and Canada. O. Rich, in the preface to the separate issue of the "Chronologie" listed in the following title, noted his intention to publish this additional material then extant in manuscript, but apparently was not able to procure enough subscribers to warrant the undertaking. Evidently for this reason the Bodleian copy of the folio edition, of which we have a description, and the Mackall copy of the quarto are without title pages for the final volume of the American portion, to which these additions would have been appended. The Bodleian copy has this vol. 5 in two "livraisons," each with a paper label, "Art de vérifier les dates, 3e. partie. Tome V. première [or deuxième] livraison." This copy has no title page for vol. 4, but the Mackall copy of the quarto edition has a title page for vol. 4, dated 1838. The BM. catalogue gives 1838 as the final date of publication of both the folio and quarto editions, though the library apparently lacks vol. 5 of the quarto issue, but the Bibliothèque nationale assigns 1842 for these issues, while giving 1844 as the final date of the octavo edition of the same text.

Though new editions of the second part, beginning with the Christian era, were issued to accompany the quarto and octavo editions of the first and third parts, the folio editions of the first and third parts were prepared for the convenience of owners of the early editions published by the Benedictines, later called the second part, and there was no later folio edition of this section.

The text is the same in the octavo, quarto and folio editions. As the octavo edition is the more common we give the contents as found in that.

Contents:—vol. 9: Introduction; La Floride; Mexique ou Nouvelle-Espagne; Mexique avant la conquête; Nouveau Mexique; Royaume de Guatémala; Californie et côte du Nord-Ouest; — vol. 10: Continuation de la Californie . . . ; Le Pérou; République de Bolivar; Le Chili; — vol. 11: Continuation du Chili; République Argentine; — vol. 12: République de Colombie; — vols. 13-14: Brésil; — vol. 15: Guiane; — vol. 16: Antilles; Cuba; Jamaïque; Martinique; Guadeloupe; Marie-Galante; Saintes; Désirade; Puerto-Rico; Trinité; Barbade; — vol. 17: Louisiane; Virginie; Massachusetts; Maine; — vol. 18: New-York; Pensylvanie; Maryland; Caroline du Sud; Caroline du Nord; État de Géorgie.

[WARREN]? We the Subscribers, inhabitants of the town of [space] having taken into our serious consideration the precarious state of the liberties of North-America . . . embarrassed as it is by several acts of the British parliament . . . among which is the act for blocking up the harbour of Boston . . . [Boston. 1774.] Folio broadside. AAS., BA., M., MASS.ARCH. + [Another issue.]

Dated: June [space for filling in day] 1774. AAS., B., M., NYP. IOI479

The first issue listed has 49 lines and the second issue 47. There are many differences in the text, but the first half is practically the same in both. The 49 line issue includes an oath that goods on hand have not been imported from Great Britain since the last day of August, 1774.

Warren was the chairman of the committee which prepared the above. See Frothingham's "Life and Times of Joseph Warren," 1865, p. 313.

"A Short Narrative of the Horrid Massacre in Boston," nos. 80668-80673, vol. 19, was prepared by a committee consisting of Warren, James Bowdoin and Samuel Pemberton.

[WARREN (Mrs. Mercy Otis)]. The Adulateur. A Tragedy, as it is now acted in Upper Servia. . . Boston. Printed and sold at the New Printing-Office, near Concert-Hall. MDCCLXXIII. 8vo, pp. 32. BU., C., H., M., UCHIC., UP. 101480

The above satire on Governor Hutchinson was not entirely Mrs. Warren's production. The authoress had prepared a dramatic fragment with this title and with practically the same though briefer cast of characters. According to a note in a contemporary draft of the fragment, preserved at Harvard, it "was deemed so characteristic of the times and the persons to whom applied, that it was honoured with the voice of general approbation; but before the authoress thought proper to present another scene to the public, it was taken up and interlarded with the productions of an unknown hand. The Plagiary swelled the Adelateur [sic] to a considerable pamphlet."

Reprinted as Extra Number 63 [pt. 3] of the "Magazine of History," 1918.

Attributed to Mrs. Warren in P. L. Ford's "Some Notes . . . on the Beginnings of American Dramatic Literature," 1893, pp. 16-18, where he calls attention to the fact that it was written as a burlesque of Burgoyne's farce, "The Blockade."

AAS., BU., C., H., HEH., M. IOI485

Improved entry of no. 51110, vol. 12, which see for a note, identifying the persons satirized. Quinn states in his "History of the American Drama," 1923, p. 54, that a ms. key in the F. W. Atkinson copy of the farce makes the "Flourishes," "Taxalls," "Bubbles," and "Turncoats" represent members of the DeClois, Sheafe, Swan, and Hubbard families, while Captain Aid symbolizes T. Cartwright and Captain Careless, Amiel. Similar notes are in AAS. and M. copies, with some variations.

Because of similarity in style to that of Mrs. Warren's plays, the above is usually attributed to her. See W. C. Ford's contribution, "Mrs. Warren's 'The Group'" in Mass. Hist. Soc. "Proceedings," for 1928-1929, p. 21, and F. P. Hill's "American Plays," [1934], pp. 110-111.

GEORGE WASHINGTON.

For the organization of this section, the preparation of a large share of the titles, and the editing of others previously prepared, we are indebted to Willard O.
 Waters, bibliographer of Americana in the Henry E. Huntington Library at San Marino, California. However, Mr. Waters should not be held responsible for possible errors incurred in the completion, final revision, and proof reading of this section.

Following the titles of which Washington, himself, is the author, will be arranged a list of title entries relating to Washington. For the officially published messages and papers of Washington as president, see Evans' "American Bibliography," Greely's "Public Documents of the First Fourteen Congresses," and later government indices. A few compilations published unofficially will be included here.

In both sections our list includes, with a few exceptions, only items published up to and including the year 1840.

For later material of the same sort the student is referred to the large general collections such as those of the American Antiquarian Society, the Library of Congress, and the New York Public Library, and also to three special collections found in the library of the Boston Athenæum, in the Boston Public Library, and in the Henry E. Huntington Library. The first of these special collections has as its nucleus Washington's own library, and the two last were assembled by Walter Updike Lewisson, and were acquired by bequest and by purchase respectively.

For the first edition, see Letters from his Excellency George Washington . . . to Sir John Sinclair, below.

The 1844 edition contains an account of the character of Washington by George Canning, pp. 64-67.

NYH. has a copy of the 1839 edition, with half title, title, and facsimiles 35, only.

These letters were also included in Letters . . . to . . . Young and . . . Sinclair, 1803, pp. 114-128, below, and in Letters on Agriculture, 1847, pp. 125-177, below.

WASHINGTON. Farewell Address.

The following list of separately published editions of the Farewell Address of 1796 is arranged chronologically, and, under each year, alphabetically by place of printing.

For further information see the edition prepared by Victor Hugo Paltsits with title: "Washington's Farewell Address in facsimile, with transliterations of all the drafts of Washington, Madison, & Hamilton, together with their correspondence and other supporting documents. Edited, with a History of its Origin, Reception by the Nation, Rise of the Controversy respecting its Authorship, and a Bibliography . . ." New York, New York Public Library, 1935. The bibliography describes the separate editions of 1796 and notes in detail its appearance in newspapers, magazines, and almanacs of that year.

"As first printed for Washington by Claypoole in the American Daily Advertiser, of September 19, [1796,] it had no other introduction than "To the People of the United States." Paltsits, p. 308.

WASHINGTON. The Address of his Excellency George Washington, President of the United States of America: to the people of the said States: on his declining to be a candidate for the office of President at the ensuing election. Albany: Printed and sold by Barber & Southwick, Faust's Statue, below the Dutch Church, State-Street. 1796. 8vo, pp. 23 (misnumbered 22).

JCB., NYH. 101548

WASHINGTON. The Address of George Washington, President of the United States, Commander in Chief of their Armies during the Revolution. Albany: Charles A. [i. e. R.?] and George Webster [1796?] Large folio broadside. 101549

Title from the catalogue for the sale at Heartman's, October 2, 1926, lot no. 62, where the copy described is called "the issue with the rare stipple portrait pasted on top . . ." The name of the printer was Charles R. not Charles A. Webster.

The Heartman catalogue supplies the date [1800], but Paltsits, p. 317, cites an advertisement for an edition of "The President's Address" in the Albany Gazette for October 3, 1796.

[WASHINGTON]. The President's Address to the People of the United States, on his declining another election. Amherst, New-hampshire, Printed by Samuel Cushing. [1796.] 8vo, pp. 35.

[WASHINGTON]. The President's Address to the People of the United States, announcing his intention of retiring from public life at the expiration of the present constitutional term of presidency.

Philadelphia: Printed for J. Ormrod, no. 41, Chesnut-street, by Ormrod and Conrad. 1796. 8vo, pp. 23. B., C., HEH., HSP., JCB., MDHS., NYP., P., WHS., WLC., Y. † Ormrod's Second Edition. [Same imprint, date, and collation.]

B., C., H., HEH., JCB., NYP., UP. 101577

Paltsits notes that the first edition of these printers was advertised in Fenno's "Gazette of the United States, & Philadelphia Daily Advertiser," on the evening of Sept. 20 as "this day published." It was also advertised as "this day published" in "Claypoole's American Daily Advertiser" of the 21st. It is possible that this was the first separate pamphlet edition, or that the edition "printed for the proprietors" by Samuel Harrison Smith has that distinction.

WASHINGTON. Columbia's Legacy; or, Washington's valuable advice to his fellow citizens, published by him at the period of announcing his intention of retiring from public life at the expiration of the present constitutional term of the presidency of the United States. RUTGERS. 101579

The HEH. copy has a frontispiece portrait, apparently inserted, described in Charles H. Hart's "Catalogue of the Engraved Portraits of Washington," 1904, item 523. Information regarding the second edition from Paltsits, p. 320.

Wilberforce Eames points out that the printer of this edition was Samuel Harrison Smith, whose newspaper, "The New World: or, the Morning and Evening Gazette," was published at 118 Chestnut Street. Paltsits, p. 55, notes that the latter newspaper was one of three Philadelphia papers to reprint the address from "Claypoole's American Daily Advertiser" of September 19 in their own evening issues of the same day. Smith's edition was concluded in the morning issue of the 20th. It is possible that his was the first pamphlet issue of the address. However, see the edition printed by Ormrod and Conrad, above.

"This is the edition which Evans, no. 31542, without authority, calls 'the first edition,' and he attributes its printing to Philadelphia."—Paltsits, p. 323. Dr. Eames notes that Evans probably copied from Henry Stevens's "Bibliotheca Historica," sold in Boston in April 1870, lot no. 2290, and that the claim has no more value than similar ones made frequently by booksellers. Evans, not Stevens, is responsible for guessing that it was printed in Philadelphia. For editions, one of which may be the first separate issue of the Address, see the issues printed in Philadelphia, above.

[Verso of title:] Robert Craighead, Printer, 112 Fulton Street, New York. Folio and 4to, pp. (12), 55, (1), xlix, verso blank, (1). 2 portraits. AAS., BA., C., H., HEH., JCB., M., NYP., P., PRINCETON, WHS. + New York. John Wiley. 1850. [Same imprint on verso of title.] 4to, pp. (12), 55, (1), xlviii. HEH., NYP. 101686

On the recto of the sixth preliminary leaf in the private issue: "54 Copies Folio, 175 Copies Quarto, Printed for Presents only." This statement does not appear in Wiley's issue.

Edited by James Lenox, whose initials are signed to the preface. Printed from the original manuscript in Washington's hand, formerly in the possession of D. C. Claypoole. "All the interlineations and alterations are inserted in brackets [], and where, in any case, words or sentences have been struck out . . . these portions . . . are printed in notes at the foot of the page."

Contents of appendix: Statement of Mr. David C. Claypoole [relating to the first publication of the Address in "Claypoole's American Daily Advertiser," and his interviews with Washington in regard to it]; Report made by William Rawle, Esq., to the Historical Society of Pennsylvania, Dec. 16, 1825; Letter from Chief Justice Jay to Richard Peters, Esq. [in regard to the possible authorship of Hamilton, suggested because of a draft in his hand, which is explained satisfactorily here]; Jared Sparks' opinion on the authorship from his edition of the "Writings;" note in regard to the portraits by Peale and Stuart from which the accompanying engravings were taken.

One of the portraits was engraved by John Sartain after a painting by James Peale of Washington in military uniform, the other by Sartain after the full length portrait by Gilbert Stuart. Some copies have in addition a third portrait engraved by A. H. Ritchie after the same Stuart painting. The m. copy has this Ritchie portrait with which is a ms. note from Mr. Lenox, dated "July 1870," asking that it be inserted. Of the five folio and four quarto copies of the private issue in NYP. several have extra copies of one or more of the portraits in different states. The copy which Mr. Lenox has marked as no. 1 has an original pencil drawing of the Stuart painting, five different proof impressions of the Peale-Sartain portrait and five different impressions of the Stuart-Sartain portrait. The first four of each were made before the lettering was added at the foot.

Some copies were issued without the final leaf which bears the Lenox coat of arms. BA., C., H., HEH., JCB., M., NYP. Two of the nine NYP. copies of the private issue are without this leaf.

For an account of the misspelling "papar" for "paper" on the verso of the fourth preliminary leaf, line 9, see Henry Stevens' "Recollections of James Lenox," 1886, pp. 100-105. Mr. Lenox had the error corrected by hand in some copies.

At the front of one of the NYP. copies is inserted a printed slip reading: "Mr. L. regrets that his necessary departure from New York has not left time to prepare a more appropriate covering for the Address." This copy has no portraits. It bears a presentation inscription from Mr. Lenox to George Bancroft.

In the issue with the Wiley imprint the following is added to the preface on the recto of the fifth preliminary leaf: "The owner of the Manuscript Address, having had a limited number of copies printed for presentation only, has consented that others shall be struck off for general circulation, and for the benefit of the publisher." This issue is without the portraits, final leaf with the Lenox coat of arms, and the leaf preceding it which in the private issue contained a description of the portraits. The leaf immediately following the title page does not bear the two words "Presented to" found in the presentation copies, but is blank except for an ornamental border.

With the exception of the Lenox edition of 1850, the above list attempts to include only the separate publications of the Address from 1796-1840. There have been many later editions.

At the time of Washington's death a number of editions of the Farewell Address were printed as appendices to eulogies delivered on this occasion. They have separate pagination in some cases, though there is no title page or imprint and although the signatures are continuous. Some copies are found separately. We list below a few such fragments which we have identified.

WASHINGTON. Spurious Letters.

The following chronological list includes the various separately published editions of the seven forged letters asserted to have been written by Washington, but repudiated by him. Their authorship has been ascribed to Rev. John Vardill, but they were probably written by John Randolph, the last royalist attorney-general of Virginia, who had considerable knowledge of Washington's private affairs. For a full history and bibliography of the letters, see Worthington C. Ford's "The Spurious Letters attributed to Washington," 1889. See also John C. Fitzpatrick's "The George Washington Scandals," in "Scribner's Magazine" for April, 1927, and reprinted by the Washington Society of Alexandria, 1929; and Griffin's "Catalogue of the Washington Collection in the Boston Athenæum," 1897, pp. 305-309. For a separate issue of Washington's statement as to the letters, see below, "To the Editor of the United States Gazette."

Following the titles of the editions of the seven letters is entered another spurious letter published in Paris.

WASHINGTON. An intercepted original Letter from General Washington to his Lady, in the Year 1776. [Philadelphia? 1777.] Folio broadside.

BA., P. 101738

Dated: "June 24, 1776." The text of one of the seven spurious letters.

"Mr. Hildeburn . . . credits the issue of this single folio sheet to Philadelphia; but I am inclined to believe that it was printed in New York. Washington wrote to Richard Henry Lee, February 15th, 1778: 'I have seen a letter published in a handbill at New York, and extracts from it republished in a Philadelphia paper, said to be from me to Mrs. Washington, not one word of which did I ever write.'" —Ford, "Spurious Letters," pp. 10-11.

Photostatic reproductions. B., HEH.

Also published in "Gentlemen's Magazine," vol. 47, 1777, pp. 629-631.

WASHINGTON. Letters from General Washington, to several of his Friends in the Year 1776. In which are set forth, a fairer and fuller View of American Politicks, than ever yet transpired, or the Public could be made acquainted with through any other Channel. Together with the Reverend Mr. Jacob Duche's (late Chaplain to the Congress) Letter to Mr. Washington, and an Answer to it, by Mr. John Parke, a Lieutenant-Colonel in Mr. Washington's Army. [New York:] Printed [by J. Rivington] in the Year 1778. 12mo, pp. (2), 53.

AAS., B., BA., C., H., M., NYH., NYP., P., WLC. 101739

An edition of the "spurious letters," with the addition of Duché's letter, which had been printed in "Rivington's New-York Loyal Gazette," Nov. 29, 1777, and Col. Parke's reply. For information as to Rivington's printing of the edition, see Ford, "Spurious Letters," pp. 11-13. Ford points out that in first printing the letters in the Gazette, Rivington altered some of the dates from those in the London edition, and in the book repeated the errors.

AAS., B., BA., BM., C., H., HEH., JCB., M., NYH., NYP., NYS., P., WHS., WLC. 101741

According to the preface, the "following Letters are, at this time, republished from a Boston Edition, now out of print, as furnishing an interesting appendix to the Official Letters of General Washington, which have lately made their appearance."

Ford, p. 21, says, "I fear the mention of a Boston edition was put in as a blind, as I am unable to trace any such issue."

The spurious letters occupy pp. 4-66, and are followed by an Appendix of miscellaneous letters.

Some copies, B., BA., C., NYP., VA.STATE LIB., have an inserted leaf, headed "To the Editor of the United States Gazette," (see below), on which is printed Washington's letter to Pickering, of March 3, 1797, disavowing the letters and giving a list of the forged ones. Pickering originally printed the letter in the "United States Gazette." See "Catalogue of the Washington Collection at the Boston Athenæum," 1897, p. 308.

There are three different issues, with typographical variations on pp. 57, 66, 67, 116, and 125, all three represented at both HEH. and NYP.

The portrait is engraved by Rollinson from the painting by Savage. Evans calls attention to the fact that there are two states of the plate, in one of which part of the uniform is in aquatint. He also notes that some copies have instead the engraved portrait by Hill, first published in the Boston edition of Washington's Official letters to Congress, 1796. NYP. has copies with these three variant portraits.

The third volume will be ready on the 1st day of March; and the succeeding volumes will appear at regular intervals of two months.

For an abridged French translation, see Vie, correspondence et écrits, above.

Some later printings of Sparks' edition are as follows: Boston: Charles Tappan; Louisville, Ky., Alston Mygatt, 1846.—New York: Harper & Brothers, 1847–1848.—Boston: Little, Brown and Company, 1855, and 1858.

"The Writings of George Washington. Collected and edited by Worthington Chauncey Ford," 14 vols., were published, 1889–1893, by G. P. Putnam's Sons in New York. "This edition contains letters not printed in Sparks's collection, but omits many which are found there. Consequently both editions must be consulted by the historical student who wishes to have all the printed material before him. Mr. Ford claims for his edition greater textual exactness. The relative merits of Sparks and Ford are discussed by Prof. Herbert B. Adams in the introduction to his 'The Life and Writings of Jared Sparks.' [Boston, 1893.]"—Catalogue of the Washington Collection in the Boston Athenæum, 1897, p. 286. This catalogue lists the contents of the editions of both Sparks and Ford.

The publication by the United States George Washington Bicentennial Commission of "The Writings of George Washington from the Original Manuscript Sources, 1745–1799," under the editorship of John C. Fitzpatrick, was begun in 1931. This edition may be considered definitive. Up to date [December, 1935] eleven volumes have been published, covering the writings through May, 1778.

WASHINGTON (TERRITORY).
PUBLIC DOCUMENTS.

Since the territory of Washington was not organized by act of Congress until March, 1853, its documents are of a later period than that now covered by this Dictionary. Below we give merely the titles of a few of the earliest of each series of the official publications of the territory, and do not attempt to enter those of the state of Washington.

DISTRICT COURT. THIRD JUDICIAL DISTRICT. Letter [and opinion]. [n. p. 1856.] Pp. 14. HEH. 101909

GOVERNOR. See also Secretary and Acting Governor, below.

LAWs, STATUTES, ETC. Statutes of the Territory of Washington: being the Code passed by the Legislative Assembly, at their first session begun and held at Olympia, February 28th, 1854. Also, containing the Declaration of Independence, the Constitution [sic] of the United States, the Organic Act of Washington Territory, the Donation Laws, &c. &c. Published by authority. Olympia: Geo. B. Goudy, Public printer. 1855. 8vo, pp. 488, viii, lxxviii. c., MSL., NYP., UWASH., WASH.S.LAW. + [Another issue. Same imprint and date on title. 1875?] 8vo, pp. 488, viii, lxxvii.

H.(LAW), UWASH. 101914

Some copies with the first collation have the date of opening of the session given as February 27th instead of 28th. c., WASH.S.LAW. A copy in the R. I. State Law Library has the title with this date pasted between the end paper and p. 3.

H. H. Bancroft notes that the publishers of the "Pioneer and Democrat" of Olympia, J. W. Wiley, A. M. Berry, and R. L. Doyle, had obtained the contract for printing the territorial statutes, and that Berry, going east to attend to the printing, died in August, 1854, at Greenland, N. H. He also states that George B. Goudy became associated with the firm in December, 1854, and sole publisher of the newspaper in August, 1855. Hence it seems possible that the printing was actually done in the east. See Bancroft's "History of the Pacific States," vol. 26, 1890, p. 377. Wilberforce Eames notes that the printing was too well done to have been likely to have been carried out in Olympia, and that the acts on public printing, pp. 445-447, specify that some practical printer be employed to certify that the work furnished by the territorial printer is properly done; and also that "it shall be the duty of the territorial printer to publish the laws of the present session in the Pioneer and Democrat, by inserting each act in said paper at as early a period as practicable."

I. L. McCloud of the Statute Law Book Co. in a letter of January 28, 1936, states that he knows of no reprint of the whole volume of the Statutes of February, 1854, before that of the General Laws and Resolutions made in 1896, but that there was a "type reprint of the title and the early pages of the text, 3 to 10, and also the last pages of the index. My information is that a number of copies were defective, and someone reprinted these pages to perfect such copies."

Acts of the Legislative Assembly of the Territory of Washington, passed at the second regular session, begun and held at Olympia, December 4, 1854. . . . Olympia: J. W. Wiley, Public printer. 1855. 8vo, pp. 6, 5-75. c., LEHIGH, MSL., UWASH., WASH.S.LAW., WHS. + [Another issue. Same imprint and date on title. Reprinted 1875.] 8vo, pp. 6, 5-82, (1).

This work is more generally supposed to be written by Waterhouse, because of his use of the same pseudonym in no. 102067, below. Evans, who enters the pamphlet under the latter author, also calls attention to the inscription in the BA. copy, written in a contemporary hand: "The supposed authors Benj Brandon of Boston & Revd. Dr. Mayhew," and notes that this copy contains a manuscript key to the persons referred to in the work.

Caption title.

"The date of publication is variously given; but a letter in Fleet's paper, the Boston Evening Post, from Samuel Waterhouse, June 23, 1766, in which he refers to James Otis as James Bluster, esq., gives probability to the above date. Otis was seriously injured in 1769. Thomas Dawes was made Colonel of the Boston Regiment in 1773." — Evans no. [10519].

According to Foster's "Alumni Oxonienses," Webb was matriculated at Balliol College, Oxford, in July, 1724, at the age of 16. About a year afterward he ran away to London, and becoming impoverished bound himself to serve a term in America. His time for four years was bought by Keimer, the Philadelphia printer, and at his office Webb became acquainted with Franklin. Foster describes him as again in England in 1734, a barrister at the Middle Temple. See also Franklin's "Autobiography," Smyth's edition of the "Writings," vol. 1, 1905, pp. 290-291.

The preface, signed by Webb, is the only part of the pamphlet known to have been written by him. The text itself is a translation of a promotion circular published a few years before with the title: "Information and Direction to Such Persons as are inclined to America . . . Especially . . . those related to . . . Pennsylvania," our no. 59707, vol. 14. The authorship of the latter has been attributed to William Penn and it must have been prepared under his auspices. A reproduction of this English original was issued by the Massachusetts Historical Society as no. 122 of its Americana series of photostats, September, 1924.

An English translation of the Dutch version, with a facsimile of its title page, is included in "A Rare Dutch Document concerning the Province of Pennsylvania in the seventeenth century" published by D. B. Shumway in Pa. Mag. of Hist. and Biog., vol. 49, 1925, pp. 99-140, which see for fuller information.

WEBSTER (Daniel).

The list of the speeches and other works of this statesman given below comprises in general only those published up to and including the year 1840. Exceptions are two titles included because of cross references from earlier entries. For fuller information as to the works of Webster, see C. B. Clapp's "The Speeches of Daniel Webster," in Bib. Soc. Amer., "Papers," vol. 13, 1919, pp. 3-63, and the "Cambridge History of American Literature," vol. 2, 1918, pp. 92-103, and 480-488.

In the following chronological list the speeches are arranged by date of delivery, in order that all editions of the same address may be found together. No attempt has been made to note fully the reprints in Webster's collected works, in collections, or in series published for schools.

Very complicated variations have been noted in different copies with this title, e. g. many copies have the last pages misnumbered, 73-75.

An article on this subject by C. B. Clapp is included in "Bibliographical Essays, a Tribute to Wilberforce Eames," 1924, pp. 211-219. Clapp calls attention to the fact that varying issues of the speech as published separately were printed at the same time as the issues of it included in the "Journal of the Proceedings of the National Republican Convention, held at Worcester, October 11, 1832," which has the same imprints. The speech in the latter pamphlet occupies sheets 5-10, pp. 33-75, and is printed from the same type settings as sheets 1-6 of the separate publication. Mr. Clapp comes to the conclusion that because of the large demand two presses were used, and the sheets printed by one press were often copied by the other, also that Webster made a number of alterations in the course of the printing. Whenever the demand was urgent, copies would be made up from whatever sheets were available, revised or unrevised, from either press, and with either the Journal or the Speech pagination.

WEBSTER (Noah).

In view of the bibliography of Webster now in preparation by his great-granddaughter, Mrs. Emily Ellsworth Ford Skeel, we are not attempting to give here a complete list of all the editions of the various works. The speller, grammar, and reader were first published as parts I, II, and III of the Grammatical Institute, and these are listed below. Thereafter in each case we enter only the first edition with separate title. Similarly, we are listing only the first octavo and first quarto editions of the Dictionary. We wish to acknowledge Mrs. Skeel's generous assistance in the preparation of this briefer list.

WEBSTER. An Address, delivered at the Laying of the Corner Stone of the Building now erecting for the Charity Institution in Amherst. See below, A Plea for a Miserable World.

WEBSTER. An Address, delivered before the Hampshire, Franklin and Hampden Agricultural Society, at their Annual Meeting in Northampton, Oct. 14, 1818. By Noah Webster, Esq. Vice President of the Society. . . . Northampton: Printed by Thomas W. Shepard & Co. 1818. 8vo, pp. 28.

AAS., BA., C., HEH., NYH., NYP., WATKINSON. 102332

[WEBSTER]. An Address to the Citizens of Connecticut. J. Walter, Printer. [New Haven. 1803.] 8vo, pp. 24.

AAS., BA., C., HEH., NYH., NYP., Y. 102333

Signed: "Chatham." Improved title of no. 15640, vol. 4.

Attributed to Webster in Dexter's Yale Graduates, vol. 4, p. 74.

[WEBSTER]. An Address to the Freemen of Connecticut. 1803. See no. 15644, vol. 4. AAS., BA., C., CHS., M., NYH., NYP., WATKINSON, Y.

Signed on p. 6: In behalf of the Meeting, Jonathan Ingersoll, Chairman. S. Sam Smith, Clerk of the Meeting.

Although the title, imprint, and collation of the 1803 Address are the same as those of the Address of 1806 entered below, the text is entirely different. Mrs. Skeel considers both to have been written by Webster.

In ms. on the NYH. copy: "Noah Webster, Esq. is the reputed author of this pamphlet."

[WEBSTER]. An Address, to the Freemen of Connecticut. Hartford: Printed by Hudson & Goodwin 1806. 8vo, pp. 7.

AAS., CHS., NYP., WATKINSON, Y. 102334

A copy belonging to Mrs. Skeel has a ms. note in Webster's handwriting, "No — 2," seeming to imply that the preceding Address was no. 1.

Improved title of no. 15645, vol. 4.

WEBSTER. An American Dictionary of the English Language: intended to exhibit, I. The origin, affinities and primary signification of English words, as far as they have been ascertained. II. The genuine orthography and pronunciation of words, according to general usage, or to just principles of analogy. III. Accurate and discriminating definitions, with numerous authorities and illustrations. To which are prefixed, An Introductory Dissertation on the Origin, History and Connection of the Languages of Western Asia and of Europe, and a concise Grammar of the English Language. By Noah Webster . . . In two volumes. . . . New York: Published by S. Converse. Printed by Hezekiah Howe — New Haven. 1828. 2 vols., 4to. Frontispiece portrait.

AAS., APS., B., BA., BU., C., CHS., H., M., MINNHS., NYP., P., PRINCETON, UP., WHS., Y. 102335

WEBSTER. An American Selection of Lessons in Reading and Speaking. Calculated to improve the Minds and refine the Taste of Youth. And also to instruct them in the Geography, History, and Politics of the United States. . . . Being the Third Part of the Grammatical Institute of the English Language. By Noah Webster, jun. Esq. The Third Edition, greatly enlarged. . . . Philadelphia: Printed and sold by Young and M'Culloch, at the Corner of Second and Chesnut-streets. M.DCC.LXXXVII. 12mo, pp. 372.

B., BM., C., HSP., NYP., N.Y.SOC.LIB., P. 102336

The first separate edition of the Grammatical Institute, Part III. Frequently reprinted.

Evans' collation calls for a portrait of Washington, but there is none in the B., C., HSP., NYP., N.Y.SOC.LIB., or P. copies. However, G. E. Littlefield's "Early Schools and School-Books of New England," 1904, pp. 154-155, gives facsimiles of the portrait and the title page of a copy belonging to Z. T. Hollingsworth.

Chapters 24 and 27, pp. 115-127, 153-166, were reprinted as no. 198 of the "Old South Leaflets."

WEBSTER. The American Spelling Book: containing, an easy standard of Pronunciation. Being the First Part of a Grammatical Institute of the English Language. In three parts. By Noah Webster, Jun'r. Esquire. The Eleventh Edition. Hartford: Printed by Hudson and Goodwin. [1788.] 12mo, pp. 153. JCB. 102337

In the Table of Numbers, the last given is 1788.

The first known edition of the Grammatical Institute, Part I, with the above title. However, Mrs. Skeel has found a copy, lacking title page, at the New York Society Library which she believes to be of the seventh edition, Philadelphia, 1787, Evans no. 20864. From advertisements and from Webster's letters she will show in her forthcoming bibliography that the issue represented by this copy was probably also entitled "The American Spelling Book." C. S. Brigham notes that in the issue of the Wilmington "Delaware Courant" of May 5, 1787, under the advertisement of William Young & Co., is advertised "Webster's Grammar" and also an "American Spelling Book," but the latter is not described as "Webster's American Spelling Book."

"The Eleventh Connecticut Edition," also printed without date by Hudson and Goodwin, has 1792 as the last number in the Table of Numbers. STANFORD. Many later editions to 1845.

See also: A Critical Review of Noah Webster's Spelling-Book, first published in a series of numbers in the Albany Argus, in 1827 and 28. By Examiner. Printed in 1828. 12mo, pp. 35. The undated editions have caption titles only.

Ford's "Bibliotheca Hamiltoniana," no. 78, supplies the imprint, [Philadelphia: Printed by William Duane. 1798], for the edition with pp. 3-10.

In the second issue listed the words "By a Federalist" are in black letter type, there are 33 lines on p. 1 including two rules, and the text ends on the first half of p. 8. In the third issue listed "By a Federalist" appears in Roman capitals, p. 1 has 34 lines including two rules, and the text ends at the foot of p. 8. In the fourth issue "By a Federalist" is in Italic capitals, there are 39 lines of type on p. 1 including one ornament, and the text ending on the first half of p. 8 is followed by "Finis."

The pamphlet was included by Webster in a private list of his own writings. See E. E. F. Ford's "Notes on the Life of Noah Webster," vol. 1, 1912, p. 500.

Copies of undated issues are located also at APS., HEH., JCB., WATKINSON, WLC. (2 issues), and Y.

Improved title of no. 29960, vol. 8, where are listed other doubtful editions of which we have located no copies.

WEBSTER. A Letter to the Governors, Instructors and Trustees of the Universities, and other Seminaries of Learning, in the United States, on the Errors of English Grammars. By Noah Webster, jun. New-York: Printed by George P. Hopkins, for the Author. 1798. 8vo, pp. 36. AAS., B., BA., BM., C., CHS., H., JCB., NYH., NYP., UTS., WATKINSON, Y. 102362 [WEBSTER]. A Letter to the Hon. Daniel Webster. See Marcellus, pseud., no. 44480, vol. 11. H., M., NYP., Y.

WEBSTER. A Letter to the Honorable John Pickering, on the subject of his Vocabulary; or, Collection of Words and Phrases, supposed to be peculiar to the United States of America. By Noah Webster. Boston: Published by West and Richardson, No. 75, Cornhill. T. W. White, Printer. 1817. 8vo, pp. 40, 49-60.

AAS., B., BA., C., H., JCB., M., NYP., WATKINSON, WHS., Y. 102363

Allibone lists an Amherst, 1816, edition, possibly because the letter is dated on p. 60, "Amherst, Dec. 1816."

See our nos. 62637-62638, vol. 15.

[WEBSTER]? A Letter to the Secretary of the Treasury, on the Commerce and Currency of the United States. By Aristides. New-York. Printed by C. S. Van Winkle. 1819. 8vo, pp. 39. AAS., B., BA., BM., C., H. (BUS.), LIHS., NYH., NYP., UTEX., WHS. 102364

Attributed to Webster in Dexter's Yale Graduates, vol. 4, p. 75, but Mrs. Skeel doubts his authorship. Among other reasons she states that the Letter does not seem to be written in his style and that she finds no allusion to it in his letters. The pamphlet has also been ascribed to William P. Van Ness, another who used the pseudonym "Aristides." See Cushing.

Improved title of no. 1977, vol. 1.

WEBSTER. Letters to a Young Gentleman, commencing his Education: to which is subjoined a Brief History of the United States. By Noah Webster, Esq. New-Haven: Sold by Howe & Spalding. S. Converse, Printer. 1823. 8vo, pp. 335.

AAS., B., BM., BU., C., H., JCB., NYH., NYP., WHS., Y. 102365

The history was later issued separately, with additions. See History, above.

By Noah Webster, Jun. Attorney at Law. Hartford: Printed by Elisha Babcock. M, DCC, XC. Sq. 16mo, pp. 48, 80, 13. NYP. 102367

Second title page, following p. 48: Rudiments of English Grammar; being an inroduction to the Second Part of the Grammatical Institute of the English Language: Compiled at the desire of the Committee of the Grammar School in Hartford. By Noah Webster, Jun. Esq. . . . [Imprint and date as above.]

The second, third and fourth parts are paged continuously, the third part, pp. 52-69, having the caption title: "A Federal Catechizm; containing a short explanation of the Constitution of the United States of America. For the use of Schools." The fourth part, pp. 69-77, has the caption: "Principles of Government and Commerce." "On a Reform of Spelling" forms pp. 78-80. These 80 pages were also issued separately in original boards. NYP. Copies of the same are found bound with some copies of the Little Reader's Assistant, Hartford, 1791. c., CHS. The last group of pages has the caption title: "The Farmer's Catechizm; containing plain rules of husbandry and calculated for the use of schools."

Evans locates the 1790 edition at BM. and also at AAS. and CHS. but neither of the latter libraries has this edition.

Reprinted, Hartford, 1791, AAS., C., CHS., NYH., Y.; Northampton, 1791, AAS., NYP.; Northampton, 1798, C., NYP. Evans lists Hartford, 1793, and 1798 editions without locating copies.
