CARMEL PINE CONE

ISSUED EVERY WEDNESDAY

MARCH 29, 1916

CARMEL, CALIFORNIA

VOL. 2, NO. 9

New School Certain

Without a dissenting vote, the electors of Carmelo school district last Friday authorized the board of trustees to issue bonds to the extent of $2000 to erect and furnish a modern school building.

The structure now in use is one of the oldest in the state, which should have been abandoned years ago.

At the next meeting of the trustees, plans and specifications will be presented and adopted and bids advertised for, and construction will begin as soon as possible.

Curtis Playgrounds

The vacant lot between the J. W. Hand building and the Carmel Candy store, on Ocean avenue, is being made into a children's playground, with swings, rings and other apparatus to amuse the kiddies. And for older persons, benches will be placed under the trees, where one may read and doze. Mr. Delos Curtis is doing it.

Gray-Metcalf Wedding

Lee L. Gray, son of Mrs. J. D. Gray, nephew of Mrs. M. L. Hamlin, and brother of Mrs. Stewart W. Young, was married to Mrs. Marie Butters Metcalf at Pebble Beach last Thursday night.

The wedding took place in what was formerly the Shepley home, recently acquired by Mr. Gray.

Superior Judge J. A. Bardin came over from Salinas to perform the ceremony. A large number of guests, many of them from distant points, were present.

The pre-nuptial event was a party and dance at the beautiful Pebble Beach Lodge, on Wednesday evening.

The bride is the daughter of Charles Butters, the wealthy mining man, and widow of Victor Metcalf Jr.

Lee Gray has for several years been one of the prominent figures in the raisin industry of California, having extensive interests in Fresno.

Party at the Bath House

Dear little Julia. Everybody knows Julia McEldowney, the pretty little niece of Dr. and Mrs. J. E. Beck. Julia was four years old last Tuesday, and of course she had a party. The affair took place at the Bath House, which was decorated in pink and white for the occasion. The little miss was the recipient of many gifts, several of them from far off Pennsylvania. And the party did not spoil her a bit, for on Wednesday morning she was the same singing, happy little girl.

Those present at the party were: Helen Hicks, Irene Goold, Vere Basham, Fay Murphy, Dorothy Smith, Evelyn and Myrtle Arne, Rosaleen and Kathleen Murphy, Julia McEldowney, Waldo Hicks, Franklin Murphy, George Leidig, Martin Leidig, Glenn Leidig, Dale Leidig, Teddy Leidig, Chas. Owens, Mrs. Fred Leidig, Mrs. C. O. Goold, Mrs. R. W. Hicks, Mrs. W. M. Basham, Mrs. B. H. Leidig, Mrs. C. J. Arne, Mrs. R. J. Leidig, Mrs. M. J. Murphy.

This is fine picnic weather, and last Saturday a number of parties went on all-day trips to Point Lobos, Pebble Beach, San Jose Canyon and Carmel beach.

Harmony in Sight

One of the things most desired by many in Carmel who are interested in and devoted to the presentation of the annual Forest Theatre affairs, is likely to be consummated.

At a meeting of the council of the Forest Theatre Society last Friday evening, at which several members of the Western Drama Society were present, the proposition of the organizations uniting was taken up. The result was the appointment of a joint committee, the business of which will be the working out of a plan for consolidation.

For the first two years after its organization, the Forest Theatre Society, which had put on Miss Skinner's "David" and "Twelfth Night," was alone in the field, but in 1912 a disagreement arose in the society, which culminated in the formation of the Western Drama Society. Since that time both groups have been producing elaborate and costly plays annually—and neither of them have done as well artistically or financially as they might have.

Socialists Organize

At the parlors of the Carmel Hotel last Friday evening, the Socialists of Carmel held a meeting for the purpose of organizing and electing officers. Eleven men and seven women joined the organization, which, together with the charter members, makes an enrollment of twenty-eight.

A number of Socialists were in attendance from Monterey. Following the election of officers, short talks were given on topics concerning the cause. Meetings will be held every Friday night, and in the near future it is planned to have J. Stitt Wilson address a public meeting at the Manzanita Theatre.

Harry Lauder

On Thrift

"Mither wadna waste," says Harry, "and I would be disgracing her memory if I wasted."

- 1.—Behave toward your purse as you would to your best friend.
- 2.—View the reckless spending of money as criminal and shun the company of the reckless spender.
- 3.—Drop needless debts, and lighten your load.
- 4.—A bank pays a higher rate of interest than your bank.
- 4.—Take your amusements judiciously. You will enjoy them better.
- 5.—Don't throw away the crusts—eat them. They are as nourishing as beef.
- 6.—It is more exhilarating to feel money in your pocket than beer in your stomach.
- 7.—A bank book makes good reading—better than some novels.

The Carmel Young Men's and the Boys' Club had an enjoyable time at Mr. A. H. Roseboom enening last week. The weather was obligingly propitious for the eighteen guests to study the moon and Venus through the telescope, and after they had all looked to their hearts content, they were invited to the Andrew Stewart residence where singing was indulged in and bountiful refreshments served.

Rehearsals for "An Evening With Shakespeare" are now being held.

We Do Not Think So

So prone have become the residents of Los Angeles to indulge in exaggerated and distorted statement when extoll the virtues of the southland, that it appears they can mention no subject without overstating the facts.

In San Francisco, recently, Joseph Scott, speaking on "The Early California Missions," delivered himself of the following: "The history of Junipero Serra and the early Spanish padres is more important to Californians than the history of the Mayflower and the Pilgrims."

Preparedness the Reason

The real reason for the withdrawal of France from Mexico following the war between the States, is set forth in the current number of a monthly publication, as follows:

When the Civil War was over we found France in possession of Mexico. Our government intimated to the French government that its presence there was undesirable, and the French withdrew. Why? Because the righteousness of our protest made Napoleon ashamed of himself? Not at all. It was because at that moment we had a million trained men under arms. And having the million men ready to fight, we did not have to fight. That victory was won without the firing of a single gun or the loss of a single drop of blood—because we were prepared for victory.

German "Kultur" Taboo

Painters, sculptors, composers, musicians, editors and other men of the artistic professions have organized at Florence, Italy an association called the Artistic Entente, the purpose of which is to prevent the infiltration of Teutonic artistic influence. The membership comprises Englishmen, Russians, Frenchmen, Belgians and Serbians.

Hark! How the Sacred Calm That Breathes Around

The omission of these stanzas from Gray's "Elegy" has never been satisfactorily accounted for, although a biographer has attributed it to his fastidiousness:

*"Hark how the sacred calm that breathes around,
Bids every fierce tumultuous passions cease;
In still small accents whispering from the ground,
A grateful earnest of eternal peace.*

*"Him have we seen the greenwood-side along,
While o'er the heath we hied, our labor done,
What time the wood-lark piped her farewell song,
With wistful eyes pursue the setting sun.*

*"There scatter'd oft, the earliest of the year,
By hands unseen are showers of violets found;
The red-breast loves to build and warble there,
And little footsteps lightly print the ground."*

New Auto Bus

A 1916 automobile of the Buick make has been received by C. O. Gould. The machine is equipped with many new devices and is the most up-to-date car of its kind on the peninsula. The new machine was purchased in anticipation of the increased summer traffic.

Wake Up!

Are you going to the polls on May 2, only to find, when about to vote, that you failed to register for the presidential primaries. Quite a number of citizens in Carmel have not yet registered. Four days remain to register for the presidential primary. Call at the office of the Pine Cone and register.

Death of Frank L. Narvaez

The Narvaez family of this town is mourning the death of Frank L. Narvaez, brother of L. P. Narvaez, the well-known painter and decorator.

Mr. Narvaez passed away at the home of his sister, Mrs. Moses Castro, in Monterey, last Wednesday morning, the cause of death being a stroke of paralysis.

Services were held at the Castro home, and at San Carlos church high mass was said.

Notice to TAXPAYERS

All taxpayers are required by the constitution to annually make and deliver to the Assessor a statement, under oath, setting forth specifically ALL the real, personal, or other class of property, owned by such persons, or in their possession, or under their control, as the same stands of record at 12 o'clock Meridian on the first Monday of March.

The Political Code provides, that all property must be assessed at its "full-cash value," and defines "full cash value" as being "the amount at which the property would be taken in payment of a just debt from a solvent debtor."

Unsecured Personal Property

The taxes on all unsecured personal property are due and payable and must be paid at the time the assessment is made.

Exemptions

Any person or association, claiming any property to be exempt from taxation, MUST make the claim and affidavit, for such exemption, every year, in the manner provided by law. This applies to the $100 allowed on personal property of householders; the $1000 allowed soldiers, sailors, marines, etc., and property used solely and exclusively for religious worship.

Assessments

Any information desired relating to assessments will be gladly furnished on application, and all objections should be made before the Board of Equalization adjourns, instead of waiting until it is time to pay taxes.

Remember, that if you fail to make a statement you fail to comply with the law and you lay yourself liable to arbitrary assessment, which is expensive to yourself and causes much trouble to others.

Barnes Circus Will Show Soon

If the circus interferes with your business, go to the circus.

If the circus interferes with the lunch and supper dishes, go to the circus.

And take all the kiddies you can afford to take.

The Barnes Big Four-Ring Wild Animal Circus will exhibit in Monterey on the afternoon and evening of Thursday, April 6.

Some of the features of the show are as follows:

Thirty full-grown, jungle-bred man-eating African lions in one bunch is an unusual spectacle—especially so when it is remembered that such a sight may be witnessed for one's entertainment and instruction.

Centuries have passed since the brutal Nero introduced man-eating cats as a form of amusement, and while scenes such as were witnessed in his time may not now be seen, these lions are used in scenes of a decidedly thrilling character.

Thirty of the beasts, headed by Caesar, said to be the finest and fiercest lion specimen in captivity, are assembled in an act. They are in charge of Herr Louis Roth.

The entire herd is turled loose at one time in the steel-barred arena, Herr Roth in their midst. The masterly control exercised by Roth over the animals is quite remarkable. Crowding his way among them, carrying only a small whip, he, with sharp commands, compels every lion to perform some maneuver. Mounting them into a pyramid, with Caesar at the apex, Roth climbs to and straddles the snarling beast's back.

Though of a quiet unassuming disposition, Roth's control over the animals is fairly electrifying, and the onlookers get thrill after thrill.

The very acme of trained lion perfection is represented in this group and their value is placed at $50,000.

But the lions are only a part of this splendid circus. Many other wonderful attractions are provided. Remember the time. April 6, afternoon and evening. ad
