[From the Sunday Mercury.] The Progress of my Zouave Practice.

A fellow with a red bag having sleeves to it for a coat, with two red bags without sleeves to them for trousers, with an embroidered and braided bag for a vest; with a cap like a red woolen saucepan; with yellow boots like the fourth robber in a stage play, with a moustache like two half pound paint brushes, and a sort of a sword gun or a gun sword for a weapon, that looks like the result of a love affair between an amorous broadsword and a lonely musket, indiscrete and tender—that is a Zouave.

A fellow who can "put up" a hundred and ten pound dumb bell; who can climb up an eighty feet rope, hand over hand, with a barrel of flour hanging to his heels; who can do the "giant swing" on a horizontal bar with a fifty-six tied to each ankle; who can walk up four flight of stairs holding a heavy man in each hand, at arms' length; and who can climb a greased pole feet first, carrying a barrel of pork in his teeth—that is a Zouave.

A fellow that can jump seventeen feet four inches high without a springboard; who can tie his legs in a double bow knot round his neck without previously softening his chin bones in a steam bath; who can walk Blondin's out door tight rope with his stomach outside of nine brandy cocktails, a suit of chain armor outside of that; who can set a forty foot ladder on end, balance himself on top of it, and shoot wild pigeons on the wing one at a time, just behind the eye, with a single barreled Minnie rifle, three hundred yards distance, and never miss a shot; who can take a five shooter revolver in each hand and knock the spots out of the ten of diamonds at eighty paces, turning somersaults all the time and firing every shot in the air—that is a Zouave.
I am a Zouave.

My musket education progresses—I am getting on finely—I can tell the muzzle from the stock at the first sight, and shall soon be able to say which end of the ramrod to be put down, and which side up the cartridge goes.

But I am paying more attention to my gymnastics just at present than to my musket, for everybody knows that in a battle arms are not of nearly as much importance as legs, it is a very good thing to know the use of your legs, in case of war.

I've got a practicing room, where I gymnastic every day. I've taken up the carpet—a performance which my landlady entirely approves—I've piled the chairs on top of the table in a corner, and have sold my bed at auction—Zouaves sleep on the floor.

Besides, it is a good thing to know how to sleep without a bed, in case of war.

Spinkey and his brother come to see my room after I had got it arranged for practice—they did things—they Zouaved a little, by way of setting me an example.

I found out by the actions of the Spinkey brothers the exact dimensions of my room; it is three flip-flaps long, and a hand spring and two back somersaults wide.

By means of a flip-flap you disconcert your enemy's aim and draw his fire, then you kill him. A flip-flap is a good thing to do—in case of war.

By means of a hand spring you reverse your position, and your bewildered enemy cuts off your foot instead of your head. Then you kill him; then you screw on a wooden leg and do so again. When you have done it twice you've killed two enemies and only lost two legs; and, after that, you can only lose wooden legs, which are comparatively cheap, especially if the war is in a well timbered country.

A hand spring is a splendid thing to do—in case of war.

By means of a forward somersault, you leap over your enemy, when he charges on you; then, by a back somersault, you fall on his head from a great height and stun him; then you kill him.

A somersault is an indispensable maneuver—in case of war.

Our company—Spinkey commanding—can go through the manual of arms complete and only touch the ground three times; they do all the loadings in a single somersault, springing into the air at the word "Up!" with their muskets empty, and loading exactly together at the word of command, given by Spinkey with a speaking trumpet, and firing by files as they come down.

When Spinkey left my room I began to practice; for I'm very anxious to progress. Our company has been all drafted into Kerigan's Contingents, and we must all be ready.

Tried a somersault first, as I thought it looked very easy. All you have to do is, to throw your heels up and head down, and then you bring your head up and your heels down; it's the easiest thing in the world, apparently. When I came to try it, I thought the floor looked unusually hard, so I put a pillow on the spot where I thought my feet would come down, as I didn't want to hurt my heels. Then I took off my coat, tied all my suspenders tightly round my waist, took a short run from the corner of the room, shut my eyes and

When I recovered, which I should judge was about three quarters of an hour, I had a bump on my forehead as if I'd been hit there by a base ball, which had stuck. It took me fifteen minutes to get up on my feet for I felt as if my legs and arms had been distributed over the neighboring county by a gun powder explosion; and it was some time before my mind was disabused and of that impression.

I judge that something interfered to prevent the artistic execution of my contemplated somersault, for my head evidently struck the ground as soon as my heels went up; my nose received a severe contusion, and the results were, a map of some unknown country done in red on my shirt, two vest pockets full of blood; and my hair so stuck together with the same fluid that I had to get my head cropped like a prize fighter.—Whether I broke the window with my head when it went down, is comparatively immaterial—certain it is that there was a hole in the sash big enough to throw a bushel basket through without touching the edges.

As to the pillow, it didn't seem to ease my feet after all; perhaps it is because neither of them came within a rod of it, for I discovered that while I broke my only water pitcher with one heel, I put the other through my picture of John C. Heenan, in his favorite character of Champion of the world.

I mustered up courage in three days to try a hand spring, but the results were not satisfactory, being merely a new and extensive assortment of bumps and bruises.

Then I sent for Spinkey—Spinkey taught me the art—I can do it now—I do it all the time—I keep doing it; in fact, I don't do anything else. When I come down to breakfast I generally walk on my hands around the table, and give each one of the boarders a patronizing shake of my slipper; then I turn a hand spring over the table, and come down easily in my chair, and read a column in the Tribune, while the people are looking in the air for me to come down. I never sleep on a bed now—a days, sometimes I hang myself by the toes to the gas fixtures; sometimes I suspend myself by my little finger to a staple in the wall, sometimes I balance myself on my trusty sword, or take a short nap on the point of my bayonet; I've practiced thrusting with my bayonet and sword till there isn't a picture in my whole collection that has its regular number of features; Dolly Davenport has only one eye, and a fraction of a nose; Edwin Forrest is playing Hamlet without any top to his head, and J. C. Heenan with one arm and a big hole in his ribs, is fighting Tom Sayers, who has no legs, and nary eye in his head. I've put up a target on the brick partition that separates me from the next house, and have fired so many balls into it that the bricks are now more than an inch and a half thick, and I expect every day to kill a baby or two in there; when I do I will have to apologize. I haven't killed anybody for a good while, and I really ought to get my hand in again. If you shouldn't hear from me next week, you may conclude that I'm going through the farcical formality of an examination for manslaughter, and I'll write as soon as I can get out on bail.

Confidently,
DOESTICKS, P. B.

A TRAVELER stopped at a farm house for the purpose of getting dinner. Dismounting at the front door he knocked, but received no answer. Going to the other side of the house, he found a little white-headed man in the embrace of his wife, who had his head under her arm, while with the other she was giving her little lord considerable "bringer." Wishing to put an end to the fight, our traveler, knocking on the side of the house, cried out in a loud voice, "Hello here, who keeps this house?" The husband, though much out of breath, answered: "Dod drot it, stranger, that's just what we are trying to decide!"

CHEAP STOCK.—We were informed last week, says the Alameda Herald, by a stock dealer and butcher for the San Francisco market that beef cattle were unusually low at the present time, with a prospect of continuing so, and perhaps of going lower. He said a fine lot of California beeves had just been sold for seven dollars per head, and a large contract had been made for a drove to be delivered in the city in June next at twelve dollars each. This does not look encouraging for the stock business, whatever the prospect for the consumer.

"Ma," said a little urchin, peeping from beneath the bed-clothes, "I am cold—I want some more cover on the bed."

"Lie still my dear," said the mother, "until your sister comes from church; she has got the comforter for a bustle."

Kissing.

A kiss is like a sermon: "it requires two heads and an application." It deals with the hidden spirit by means of tangible symbols. It is like faith, in that it is "the substance of things hoped for." It is the language of affection, the echo of love, and the concentration of bliss; it is of good report, and pleasing to our ears; it is eloquence "dwelling in sweet accents upon the lips." It is both vocal and instrumental "harmonies" in a language and with a sentiment intelligible in all languages and in all ages. It is the seal of a father's blessing, the witness of a mother's love, the guarantee of a brother's protection, the surety of a sister's devotion, the gate to a lover's heaven, and something that mere friends have nothing to do with. It is very fashionable for misses of a certain age to insist that "it is all foolishness, and decidedly silly." We never hear such an expression without thinking of a circumstance that actually occurred somewhere in Indiana, if we rightly remember, which was as follows:

A gentleman stopped by the wayside for information as to the route he was taking, and found a woman ironing, with her little child trying to amuse itself upon the floor; the little one was some two and a half years old, very neatly dressed, evidently scrupulously cared for, and eminently handsome. The gentleman, while talking to the mother, picked up the child and kissed it; the little one looked up in such perfect astonishment that the gentleman remarked "why, you little dear, one would think that you were not used to being kissed." The mother answered for the child, "I don't believe, sir, that she was ever kissed before in her life. I'm sure I never did such a thing, and never knew its father do so."

Lord have mercy on that child and send it somebody to love it, was the gentleman's prayer, as he made sure that his wallet was in its place, and took himself out of the house as fast as possible. Not to know the holy kiss of a mother, the fondling embrace of a father, the earnest lip press of brothers and sisters, is to fail in the development of the soul in an essential and vital degree; and surely what is so wonderful holy in infancy, so refining in childhood, so worthy in parents, and so prevalent upon the hearthstone, is not a matter to be disposed of with a sneer, or dismissed with a "pooh!" Kissing, like the marriage bells, or the blessed Bible, never wears out; it is, like them, always new, fresh, and interesting; and for the same reason, viz., it deals with the affections, which, unlike the intellect, loves the familiar, delights in the old, and is coy of the new and the strange.

MODES OF WALKING.—Observing persons move slow; their heads move alternately from side to side; while they occasionally stop and turn round.

Careful persons lift their feet high, and place them down flat and firm. Sometimes they stoop down, pick up some little obstruction and place it down quietly by the side of the way.

Calculating persons generally walk with their hands in their pockets, and their heads slightly inclined.

Modest persons generally step softly, for fear of being observed.

Timid persons often step off the sidewalk, on meeting another, and always go around a stone instead of stepping over it.

Wide awake persons "toe out," and have a long swing to their arms, while their hands shake about miscellaneous. Careless persons are forever stubbing their toes.

Lazy persons scrape about loosely, with their heels, and are first on one side of the walk, and then on the other.

Very strong minded persons have their toe directly in front of them, and have a kind of a stamp movement.

Unstable persons walk fast and slow by turns.

Venturous persons try all roads, frequently climb fences instead of going through the gate, and never let down a bar.

One idea persons and very selfish ones "toe in."

Cross persons are apt to hit their knees together.

Good natured persons snap their thumbs and fingers every few steps.

Fun-loving persons have a kind of a jig movement.

AN Irish woman appeared in the County Court of Louisville, recently, to be appointed guardian for her child when the following colloquy ensued:

"What estate has your child?"

"Plaze yer honor I don't understand you."

Judge—"I say what has she got?"

"Chills and fever plaze yer honor."

"HAVE you said your prayers, John?"

"No ma'am—it ain't my work. Bill says the prayers, and I the amens! We agreed to do it, because it comes shorter."

INCREASED QUANTITY OF WHEAT

PLANTED.—The ready demand for shipment abroad for the immense surplus of our past year's wheat crop, and the almost certain assurance that California will always be able to ship wheat to New York and Europe with profit, has induced our farmers to plant a very considerable increase of wheat the present year. The wisdom of this movement has probably been based upon the facts, that during the secession excitement, the South and West may not plant as largely the present year, and this together with the continued favorable reports of short crops in Europe and our greatly increased facilities for placing California wheat both in New York and Liverpool on better terms than even the famed city of Chicago, has given our farmers the encouragement to plant largely the present year.

From all appearances now, we think there will be at least one-third more acres of grain planted in 1861 than in 1860; and now in the face of three million bushels exported, the same amount on hand, and an annual use by home consumption of three millions, making nine or ten million bushels as the product of 1860, we look forward to an increase of at least one-third the crop of 1861. These figures may surprise some, but where only a few days since wheat was reported scarce at $1 60, as soon as it reaches $1 75 or $1 80, it increases in quantity and quality too. Just give our farmers two cents, and they will bring in some of the prettiest wheat shown this season; and we think that figure will be reached yet.

We, however, would still recommend our farmers to crowd all they can out of the market, for Oregon is beginning to send her crop forward, and it is a heavy one, and must effect our market more or less.—California Farmer.

PRESCRIPTIONS FOR A FASHIONABLE

LADY.—Madam, allow me to prescribe for you. I have had a large experience in the management of delicate women, and I believe I can give you some important advice. For the present, I prescribe only for your feet:

1st. Procure a quantity of woolen stockings, not such as you buy at the store, under the name of lamb's wool, that you can read a newspaper through, but the kind that your Aunt Jerusha in the country knits for you, as thick as a board, that will keep you dry and warm in spite of wind and weather.

2d. If you want to be really thorough, change them every morning, having the fresh ones hung by the fire during the night.

3d. Procure thick calf-skin boots, double uppers and tripple soles, and wear them from the first of October until the first of April. Make frequent application of some good oil blacking.

4th. Avoid rubbers altogether, except a thick layer, which you should have cemented on the bottom of your soles.

5th. Hold your feet in cold water an inch deep five or six minutes before going to bed, and have them rubbed hard with some one's naked hands.

6th. Now, madam, go much out of doors at all seasons, and believe me, not only will your feet have a good circulation, but, as a consequence, your head be relieved of its pain and congestion, and your heart be relieved of its palpitation, because relieved of its accumulations.—Boston Journal of Physical Culture.

GENERAL JO. LANE.—Somebody in the East gets off the following on the correct spelling Senator:

Jo. Lane is at New Orleans. He wrote a letter to his wife, giving his views on the state of the Union. Here is the letter, as reported for the Kankakee Gazette:

"Nu orlens, jan. 10, 1861.

"Dere Gane,
"I write to tell you that I have disoluted, in kcommon with the South. We are afared of Jeems Buchanan, he is 2 korrupt for us, & we have resolved to thro him on the tender Mursy of the North. i can't tel when I wil ce you, the kuntry neds ny service, & i wou't giv hur up. U mite sel the cow and get some money, for i expect a office now.

"Your husband,
"JO. LANE."

MOSES, THE RICH FELLOW.—Moses, the famous English clothing merchant, who pays about two hundred thousand dollars per annum for advertising, has recently purchased an estate for which he paid the snug sum of nine hundred thousand dollars, the result of advertising.

Women are all alike. When they are maids, they are mild as milk; once make them wives, and they lean their backs against their marriage certificates, and defy you.—Douglas Jerrold.

ONE contented with what he has done, stands but little chance of being famous for what he will do. He has lain down to die—the grass is already growing over him.

Knight's Landing News.

OFFICIAL COUNTY PAPER.

SATURDAY, MARCH 9TH, 1861.

WORK'S WELL.—Owing to the announcement made by the merchants of this town, that the Cash system would be enforced from the 1st of this month, has certainly made money more plenty, and just as many goods sold. We would call on all those who are indebted to us, to settle soon, for we will be the only ones that will suffer by the Cash system. Our credit has very near run out.

THE BALL which came off on Monday evening last at the Union Hotel, given by Mr. W. G. Seely, was certainly the largest one that was ever held in this County since our recollection. There was about 90 couple; and if we may judge everybody by ourselves, we know they must be satisfied! The music under the direction of Mr. J. Snyder, of Marysville was excellent. About 12 o'clock, a sumptuous supper was ready, and after it was over the dancing was commenced again and kept up until daylight.

DANCING ACADEMY.—Mr. J. Snyder has removed his Dancing Academy to the Hall in the Union Hotel. We visited his school on Thursday evening last, and was very sorry to see so few present. We would advise all those who are fond of dancing, to go and take lessons. Now is your time.

RACES.—The spring races over the Prairie Race Course, seven miles above Knight's Landing, will commence on Thursday the 21st instant, and continue three days. See advertisement in another column.

GRAIN IN DEMAND.—During the last week large quantities of Grain has been coming into town from all portions of the County, for the Eagle Flour Mills, and shipment to Sacramento and San Francisco.

QUICK TRIP.—The steamer Victor, Captain Foster, made the quickest trip on record from Sacramento to Knight's Landing, on Saturday last, being only 3 hours and 35 minutes.

AMBROTYPES, &c.—We understand Mr. J. Ballard intends leaving in a few days, so all those who want a good picture, will do well to call as soon as possible; for they are good and cheap.—Rooms at the Yolo House.

FAVORS.—We are under many obligations to the Officers of the steamer Victor, and O. B. Smith, W. F. & Co.'s messenger for files of papers.

STATE INSANE ASYLUM.—The number of patients in the State Asylum at present is 448; the number admitted to February 19th, about one half of the number in the preceding month.

The new steamer Nevada will be launched, at North Beach, in San Francisco to-day.

A span of horses, wagon and harness were sold at Nevada on Tuesday for $132 50. Dirt Cheap.

DURING the year 1860, one mill at Oak Point, Oregon, shipped to San Francisco 2,885,500 feet of lumber,

The Pike's Peak gold mines have yielded $7,000,000.

ACQUITTAL OF BROWN.—W. H. Brown was tried and acquitted on Wednesday last, in the District Court, at Sacramento on charge of murder, in killing W. W. Coreoran.

INFORMATION WANTED.—The Postmaster of Sacramento has been applied to for information of the following persons:—William Gesham, late of El Dorado, Ark.; J. M. D. Mulford and George W. Shepard, of Iowa; M. A. Upper, of Upper Canada; and R. T. Buckley, of Lucas county, Ohio.

NARROW ESCAPE.—On Tuesday night last during a heavy storm, Mr. James R. Rogers, while sleeping in his house near Rock Spring, was awakened in the night and becoming scared jumped up out of the bed and ran out into the yard; when just at that moment a large tree fell upon the house, crushing it to the ground. Mr. Rogers being the only occupant of the house at the time, no loss of life resulted from the accident.

MORE SHOOTING IN SONORA.—The Columbia Times, of the 28th ult., says: About two o'clock yesterday morning, B. F. Hunter, a well known lawyer in Sonora, shot W. A. Carroll. We are informed that Hunter, the deceased, and three or four others, went out on a spree—that they had all imbibed pretty freely, when a dispute arose about politics, which terminated in personalities. Carroll drew his revolver—before Hunter fired. Carroll died yesterday forenoon, leaving a wife and family.

County Seat.

By the Senate proceedings on Thursday last we see that Assembly bill No. 166, making Washington the County Seat of Yolo, from and after the 1st of July next, passed that body, and the bill only awaits the signature of the Governor to become a law.

The Legislature has, it seems, the power to locate the County Seat of any County; but it should in all such cases be governed as near as may be by the voice of the people to be affected by the change. But how is it in this case? A little over one-third of the voters of the County expressed their preference for Washington for County Seat, and Washington got at the last Election all its strength—every vote it could command. Nearly two-thirds of the voters cast their voice at the polls against Washington but were divided between Cacheville (the present Seat of Justice), Knight's Landing and Yolo City. So, if the Election could be between Washington and either of the three places named, Washington would be beaten from 800 to 1000 votes. To say the least of it the Legislature has in this case acted without due consideration, it has ignored the voice of the Majority and obeyed the behest of the Minority—this to our mind is decidedly arbitrary.

From the Silver Region.

A most complete machine for panning out (separating the amalgamated metal from the sands) has recently been invented by Mr. Almarin B. Paul, Superintendent of the Washoe Company's works.—The material is first received on a sieve which separates all the larger pieces; the smaller falling through, move on and into a hollow column, having within its circle a stirring arrangement that revolves with great rapidity; all the quicksilver and metals are concentrated and precipitated to the bottom and beyond further action; the separated sand's move on into another opening and are discharged and allowed to run off. This machine will pan out in one hour's time, an amount of dirt that would take two men a day to accomplish. When the work is completed, it can be "cleaned up" and ready for another lot in a few minutes' time. A patent has been applied for.

Parties are preparing to have printed at San Francisco, certificates of mining stock, bearing a resemblance to the stock of certain mining companies of good standing in Utah Territory. It is well for the public of California to be informed about this subject, for it is no better than that or the exploded "Gift Lottery" of last summer. We learn that the first imitation is to be of the certificates of the "Mount Davidson Gold and Silver Mining Company," copying the style and type and only introducing a single word in the title to avoid the criminal offense of counterfeiting.

Several new rich leads have been discovered in the Devil's Gate District during the past week. The Grattan Company, on a lead lately discovered, have a ledge of five feet in width, from which they are obtaining very fine rock. An Italian company lately discovered a ledge of great richness, which has created quite an excitement in mining circles.

A substantial church is about to be erected in Silver City, for the Methodist persuasion; a lot has been donated for the purpose, and $1,000 subscribed to it.—A schoolhouse is also in the course of erection.

The finest bar of gold yet extracted from the ores of Washoe, was taken out last week by Paul, at the works of the Washoe Gold and Silver Mining Company No. 1. It runs as high as $12 36 per ounce, and was valued at $2,200.

Mr. W. Aldridge has commenced running an express from Carson and Virginia Cities to Honey Lake Valley.

Mr. Creighton, Agent of the Overland Telegraph Company, has arrived at Fort Churchill, and was expected at Virginia City.

A HANDSOME RETURN.—The Marysville Appeal says: The net profits of the lectures of T. Starr King, to the Library Association, are $4 57; quite a handsome sum to expend in books for the Library; and the amount of intellectual food which those lectures have left this town can not be estimated in the low scale of dollars and cents, although some small souls have had their ideas running in a sordid and narrow channel.

A HEAVY LOAD TO CARRY.—On Monday afternoon a gentleman, named Wm. May, made a wager with a butcher, named Lutz in San Francisco, that he would carry a quarter of beef, weighing two hundred pounds, from the corner of Market and Kearney streets to the Harmonie Hall, on Dupont street, near Clay. May trudged along to his place of destination, and landed it at Harmonie Hall without having once paused to rest on the road. This feat is simply astonishing, on account of the cumbersome shape and size of the load.

RETIRED.—Gen. James Allen, of the Nevada Transcript, has disposed of his interest in that paper to Brown, Skelton and Casemayan.

Arrival of the Pony Express!

Dates to February 20th.

CARSON CITY, March 5th—9 A. M.
The Pony has just arrived, with dates from St. Louis to Feb. 20th. The following is the report to the Union:

St. Louis, 20th Feb.—A. M.
A special Pony leaves Fort Kearney at noon to-day, the regular Pony having been detained at St. Joseph by the failure of the railroad in consequence of the snow. President Lincoln is prosecuting his journey towards the National Capital. Nothing important has occurred.

Jeff. Davis was inaugurated President of the Southern Confederacy February 18th. His inaugural address goes out by the Pony in full.

The Peace Congress has accomplished nothing as yet.

In the Virginia Convention various proposals have been submitted against coercion, but no definite position has been assumed.

Missouri and Arkansas Declared for the Union.

The Missouri and Arkansas Conventional elections, so far as heard from, have gone overwhelmingly for the Union. Unconditional Union men have been elected in St. Louis by nearly 5,000 majority. It is estimated there will not be one secessionist in the Missouri Convention. A great majority will be Union men, conditional upon the settlement of existing difficulties.

Force Bill Passed in the U. S. House of Representatives.

The House passed Stanton's Force Bill, calling for volunteers to garrison the forts, by a large majority.

Reported Outrages in Texas.

A dispatch to-day, from Fort Smith, says the Texans have seized the Overland coach at Fort Chadbourne, with its mail and all the property of the company within reach. The agents and employes are said to be imprisoned. It is also reported that Forts Chadbourne and Belknap have been captured.

Miscellaneous.

The Union men in Baltimore are making great preparations for the reception of Lincoln.

The rumors are renewed that Fort Sumter will be attacked before the 4th of March; also, that South Carolina will demand from the Montgomery Convention a guarantee of free trade, and will oppose any duty higher than six per cent. the tariff yielding twenty odd millions.

The Maryland Convention has adopted resolutions in favor of a State Convention, and on the new understanding Governor Hicks is disposed to call a Convention in the event that the Peace Conference and Congress fail to effect a satisfactory settlement. The Convention has adjourned till the 12th of March to await such action. The resolutions also oppose coercion.

Nothing has been done in regard to the Pacific railroad.

New York Markets.

NEW YORK, Feb. 16th and 17th.—Advance in wheat one and two cents; Feb. 18th—One cent higher. Feb. 19th. One cent higher.

Later from Europe.

European news has been received to February 8th.

Napoleon's speech was not satisfactory. The funds have consequently declined. Breadstuffs are quiet.

CHURCH OF THE ADVENT PEWS.—At the sale of pews in the Church of the Advent, (Rev. F. M. McAllister), the largest sums bid were as follows: R. E. Brewster, $510; Lieutenant J. McAllister, $504; Judge M. H. McAllister, $500; Cutler, McAllister, $500; Hall McAllister, $500; L. C. Garnett, $500; C. A. Eastman, $500. A few pews were sold for $300; a few for $200; and so on down—sixty-four pews selling for $6,885. The number of pews in the church are 138.—S. F. Times.

SAN FRANCISCO NEWS.—The following dispatch was in the Union yesterday:

Captain Gage, from Humboldt, reports the total loss of the bark Acadia during the gale last Sunday. She parted cable and went ashore at Trinidad. Captain and crew were saved.

Captain O. A. Gunoon jumped overboard from Folsom street wharf last night and was drowned. Body found to-day. He was to have been married last night. He had threatened suicide several times, was a native of Norway, and aged 37 years. His brother committed suicide in the mines four years ago.

At a late Sheriff's sale in Siskiyou county, ten head of stock sold for five dollars per head, a work horse for fifty dollars, and other things in proportion. The Shasta Herald says that this is lower than stock has ever been sold for before in this State.

A Billiard match is said to be on the tapis between Harry Eaton and Mr. Maher well-known players of San Francisco.—They are to play, the four-ball carom game of 1000 points. Eaton offers to give Maher 250 points in the 1000, and play for $100 to $500.

The Solano Herald says that grain from that place has suffered a discount of five cents on a hundred pounds, on account of the poor quality of the sacks in which the grain has been put up, much of it being wasted by the bursting of the flimsy material.

From the North.

The wreck of the British bark "Nanette" was sold at Victoria, V. I., Feb. 13th, for $650.

A meeting was held in Victoria on the 12th instant, for the purpose of devising means whereby the colonies of Vancouver Island British Columbia may be represented at the next Industrial Exhibition to be held in London in May 1862. Gov. Douglas presided, and the "notables" generally made speeches, among which we notice that of Mr. De Cosmos, editor of the Colonist, as up to the mark.

The Puget Sound Agricultural Company—an offspring of the Hudson's Bay Company—claimed large tracts of land in Washington Territory. The Secretary of the Interior has reported adversely to the interests of the company.

The sloop "Greyhound" got aground at Point Wilson, W. T., on the 11th ult., and was a total wreck.

The Indians on Puget Sound have captured two whales lately; one of them was a very large one, and they had great difficulty in towing him ashore.

A magnificent American flag was presented by the ladies of Vancouver, W. T. to the Hibernian Society of that town, February 14.

Two Indians, who had been engaged in stealing horses at Walla Walla, had been captured and taken to the Dalles for trial. Two others for the murder of whites, were delivered up to the troops at Old Fort Walla Walla, by the chief of the tribe, and were hung. There were three others at large, whom the chief promised to arrest and deliver up.

The Portland Advertiser estimates the monthly exports from Portland at $413,000, of which the principal portion is in produce, gold dust, etc., to San Francisco.

Capt. W. G. Haley has taken editorial charge of the Democrat, at Albany, Oregon, formerly edited by Hon. Delazon Smith.

SNAGS IN FRAZER RIVER.—The steamer Otter, while entering the mouth of Frazer river, struck a huge snag, and very narrowly escaped a serious accident.—The snag struck her in the stern, between the rudder and the screw, and stopped her instantly. She hung on the snag a few moments, and it was at first supposed she had sustained a serious injury; but upon examination it was ascertained that no damage had been sustained. In about fifteen minutes she swung off from the ugly customer and proceeded on her way. Two men were slightly scratched in the face by splinters from the snag.—British Colonist.

The mines on the Simikameen are reported better than before. One party mining near the Forks, after cutting through about one foot of ice, they washed 100 pans of dirt, and obtained eleven dollars. Preparations are fast being made to commence washing from Blackfoot Flat all along up the river for ten miles.

Dewdney & Moberly have commenced the wagon road from Hope to Simikameen, and have got a lot of sleds at Hope, with which they intend to transport provisions from Hope to Simikameen and along the route, using Indians instead of mules to do the packing. The snow is yet too deep to admit of animals traveling.

The reported outrage of Indians at Cariboo is contradicted.

The people of Yale have sent a remonstrance numerously signed, to Governor Douglas, protesting against the imposition of half a cent per pound on all goods taken by boats through the canons.

A new paper, called The British Columbian, is being published at New Westminster.

The Nez Percees Mines—Large numbers of persons are said to be migrating to the Nez Percees mines. A correspondent of the Portland Times, writing on the 27th of February, says:

Ten men left here to-day for these mines, who have been written for by their partners, who are at work there. Two trains for Canal and Cariboo leave here to-day—one 36 horses and one of 24 horses carrying 200 pounds each. Say to my friends in Willamette who are farmers, they can do well there, or if any cannot, they are not the kind for the mines. They could starve anywhere, and we shall have no more canons than the Indians require up with us.

Silver Mines near Astoria.—We understand that a prospecting party has been organized and fitted out, and is in readiness to move on to the silver leads on the Washington side of the Columbia river. The party is made up in Astoria, and has recruits from Astoria, Clatsop, Tillamook and Washington. The expedition leaves Astoria in boats, and contemplates a fortnight's absence. Bad weather alone can delay the departure of the miners.—As soon as the sky "dries up," they are off. These mines are said to have been thoroughly prospected last Fall, and experts have been testing the ore by various processes for several months, and have realized it, is reported, highly satisfactory results. The present expedition goes out to locate claims. There will be a perfect exodus from Astoria.—Portland Advertiser.

A CANDIDATE FOR SAN QUENTIN.—On the 20th of January, one G. Dodge hired a horse at Frank Hoffman's livery stable, in Jackson, to go to Camanche Camp. He forgot to return, but traded the horse for a mule, which he sold away down at Petaluma. He was apprehended a few days ago at that place.

PRICE FOR PERJURY.—James Copeland, recently convicted for perjury in Stockton, in swearing falsely to an alibi in the case of Ward for wife-murder, confesses to the crime, and states that he was promised $500, a horse, saddle and bridle for his oath. He gives as an excuse for accepting the bribe, that he has three helpless, motherless children at the East, to whom he wished to send the money.—Instead of the tempters paying him $500, they only gave him $20, and an order in lieu of the horse, etc., an order on a store for $15 worth of goods.

THE marine losses by the insurance companies in Boston, Mass., have been very heavy within the past few weeks, several first class ships, with valuable cargoes have been lost. One office in that city has lost $115,000, and another $80,000, within a month.

PRINTER'S LIEN LAW.—The Stockton Republican is advocating a lien law for the benefit of printers, under which compositors may have a lien on the material used in their work for their wages.

HOP ROOTS—FIRST PREMIUM.
J. R. Ray, 106 J Street, Sacramento, has for sale a limited stock of those superior Roots, from his old Hop Yard, thirty miles below Sacramento, where the sample sack was raised that took the first premium at the late Fair of the State Agricultural Society.
As much has been said about male and female plants, and often to mystify the subject, it may be well to say that purchasers of Roots will be provided with the proper proportion of each, with directions for planting, if desired.
The plants which we offer roots are five years old, having been brought from one of the best hop yards in the Atlantic States.
As the stock of Roots from my yard is limited this season, it may be well for those contemplating planting to advise me early.
