DECREE.

When, with the consent of his Ordinary, the master of ceremonies at the Cathedral Church of the diocese of New York, United States of America, petitioned the Sacred Congregation of Rites to declare "whether for the greater benefit of the faithful who do not understand the Latin Text of the Roman Pontifical; in particular to that part which treats of the conferring of Orders, as has been done in a volume entitled "The Rite of Ordination," according to the Roman Pontifical, by Rev. J. S. M. Lynch, Professor of Sacred Liturgy in the Provincial Seminary, at Troy, N. Y., etc., etc. The Sacred Congregation, through the undersigned secretary answered, on Feb. 3d, 1879, as follows: Let the Decree of Aug. 4th, 1877, in a case proposed by New York, stand.

CARDINAL BARTOLINI,

The director of a certain Catholic journal published in New York, petitioned the Sacred Congregation of Rites to declare if it were forbidden (in books of devotion) to add a translation in the vernacular to the Latin text of the Ordinary of the Mass, and particularly to the Canon. The Sacred Congregation of Rites, after hearing the opinion of the Rev. Lawrence Salvati, Promoter of the Faith, declared through the undersigned Secretary: "that books of the kind under consideration, and translations of them in the vernacular are entirely reserved, by the canonical regulations and Apostolic decrees, to the authority of the bishops; and that, therefore, it is unlawful for the faithful to use any edition of the same unless it bear the express approbation of the bishops." And so it was declared August 4th, 1877.

Bishop of Ogdensburg.*

RT. REV. AND DEAR BISHOP:—

While this book was in preparation it pleased His Holiness, Pope Leo XIII, to appoint you Bishop of Ogdensburg. The news of your elevation to the episcopate, while pleasing to clergy and laity alike, was especially gratifying to the editor of this volume, who was trained for the duties of the priestly state by your instruction and example. Desirous of offering some token of deep esteem and good will, he takes the liberty of dedicating to you this little volume, which was first edited during your Rectorship by the Rev. J. S. M. ## RITUS ORDINATIONIS.

Ante Ordinationem Ordinandi induunt habitum sacram respondentem Ordini, ad quem sunt promovendi; videlicet tonsurandi superpelliceum replicatum brachio sinistro sustinent; Ordinandi ad Minores induunt superpelliceum; Ordinandi ad Subdiaconatum induunt amictum, albam, cingulum, brachio sinistro impositum ferunt manipulum ac tunicellam. Advertere debent ut amictus non stet circa collum, sed paulatim extra albam, ut Episcopus illum possit capiti eorum imponere. Ordinandi ad Diaconatum induunt amictum, albam, cingulum, et manipulum brachio sinistro, in quo ferunt dalmaticam et stolam replicatam; Ordinandi ad Presbyteratum induunt amictum, albam, et cingulum, manipulum in brachio sinistro, stolam, Diaconali more, in humero sinistro, firmatam super latus dexterum, planetam replicatam super brachi-

T H E RITE OF ORDINATION.

Before the ordination, those who are to receive orders put on the sacred vestments corresponding to the order to which they are to be promoted, to wit : those who are to receive Tonsure carry on their left arm a surplice folded ; those to be ordained to Minor Orders put on a surplice ; those to be ordained to Subdeaconship put on an amice, alb and cincture, and carry on the left arm a maniple and tunic ; they should be careful not to have the amice drawn tight around the neck, but to let it hang a little above the alb so that the Bishop may be able to draw it over the head ; those to be ordained to Deaconship put on an amice, alb, cincture, and wear a maniple on the left arm on which they carry a dalmatic and stole folded ; those to be ordained to the Priesthood put on an amice, alb, cinture, and wear a maniple on the left arm, a stole on the left shoulder, fastened at the right side, after the manner of a Deacon, carry a chasuble folded on the left arm, and have a white linen handkerchief fastened to the cincture for the anointing. And all carry lighted candles in the right hand.

um sinistrum, sudarium albi coloris firmatum cingulo pro unctione. Omnes vero manu dextera candelam ardentem gestant.

Sic induiti Ordinandi hora competenti bini ac bini Ecclesiam ingrediuntur, ubi locum quisque sibi attributum occupat. Omnibus ingressis, Pontifex venit ad Ecclesiam, et accedens ante altare genuflexus ibidem aliquamdiu orat. Deinde vadit ad sedem, ubi accipit omnia paramenta Pontificalia et statim Sacrum exorditur.

ORDINATIO.

Dicto Kyrie Eleison *Pontifex sedet, et Archidiaconus vocat omnes ordinandos dicens:

Accéderunt omnes, qui ordinándi sunt.

Ordinandi discedunt de locis suis et veniunt geniculatum ante altare quemdam efficientes semicirculum ea tamen animadversione, ut Tonsurandi sint propiores Altari, deinde Minoristæ, postremo Ordinandi ad ordines sacros. Id vero fit, si loci amplitudo et numerus Ordinandorum patitur; sin minus genuflectunt loco ipso quem occupant.

* Supponitur ordinationem fieri infra Missam privatam. Si autem celebretur Missa solemnis, consuetæ cæmoniæ servandæ sunt, et orationes ordinationis non leguntur sed cantantur.

Thus vested, those who are to receive orders enter the church at a suitable hour and each one takes the place assigned to him.

When all have entered, the Bishop comes to the church, and approaching the middle of the altar kneels and prays for a little while.

He then goes to his seat, where he puts on all the Pontifical vestments and Mass is begun immediately.

THE ORDINATION.

After the Kyrie Eleison has been said *, the Bishop sits, and the Archdeacon calls all those who are to receive orders, saying;

Let all who are to be ordained come forward.

Those who are to receive orders leave their places and come before the altar, kneeling in a kind of semicircle, in such a way, however, that those to receive Tonsure are nearest the altar, those to receive Minor Orders next, and, lastly, those who are to be ordained to Sacred Orders. This is done if the size of the place and the number of those to be ordained permit ; if not they kneel in their places.

* It is supposed that the ordination takes place during a Low Mass. Should, however, a High Mass be celebrated the usual ceremonies should be observed, and the prayers of the ordination, instead of being read, are sung.

Archidiaconus, conversus ad Ordinandos, legit ex Pontificali inhibitionem seu mandatum nomine Episcopi, videlicet: †

REVERENDISSIMUS in Christo Pater. et Dóminus, Dóminus N. Dei et Apostólicæ Sedis grátia Epíscopus N. sub excommunicatiónis pœna præcipit, et mandat ómnibus, et singulis, pro suscipiéndis Ordínibus hic præsentibus, ne quis forsan eórum irregularis aut álias a jure, vel ab homine excommunicátus, interdíctus, suspensus, spúrius, infámis, aut álias a jure prohíbitus, sive ex aliena diœcési oriündus, sine licéntia sui Epíscopi, aut non descríptus, examinátus, approbátus, et nominátus, ullo pacto aúdeat ad suscipiéndos Ordines accédere. Et quod nullus ex ordinatis discédat, nisi Missa finíta, et benedictióne Pontíficis accépta.

† Si ordinatio fiat extra tempora, prius legitur mandatum Apostolicum cuius vigore Pontifici facultas conceditur ordinandi; quibus lectis, dicit Pontifex: “Deo gratias,” et ad ordinationem procedit. Exceptis Stat. Fœd. Americæ Sept. Vide “American Ecclesiastical Review” p. 68. Jan., 1892.

The Archdeacon, turned towards those who are to be ordained, reads from the Pontifical the inhibition or mandate in the name of the Bishop, viz.:†

THE most Reverend Father in Christ,
His Lordship N. by the grace of God, and the favor of the Apostolic See, Bishop of N. orders and commands, under penalty of excommunication, all and each here present for receiving Orders, that none of those who may perchance be irregular or excommunicated by the Canons or by his Superior, or under interdict, or suspended, illegitimate, infamous or otherwise excluded by the Canons, or who may be from another diocese by birth, and lacks the permission of his Bishop, and none of those who has not been registered, examined, approved and called by name, shall, on any account, dare to come forward to receive Orders.

He commands also that none of those ordained shall leave until Mass is ended and they have received the Episcopal Benediction.

† If the ordination takes place outside of the prescribed times, the apostolic Mandate, in which the faculty of ordaining is granted to the Bishop, is first read. After this has been read, the Bishop says "Thanks be to God," and pro-ceeds with the ordination. Except in United States of America. See "American Ecclesiastical Review." January 1892, p. 68.

DE CLERICO FACIENDO.

Post hæc Archidiaconus vocat tonsurandos, dicens;

Accédant qui promovéndi sunt ad prímam clericálem tonsúram.

Ceteri Ordinandi consurgunt et redeunt sessum ad locum suum. Deinde vocantur omnes Tonsurandi nominatim et sigillatim per Notarium, et quilibet dum appellatur, assurgit, respondet Adsum, discedit de loco suo et venit ante altare geniculatum.

Quibus ante altare coram Pontifice in faldistorio cum mitra sedente genuflexis, Pontifex surgit cum mitra, et dicit:

V. Sit nomen Dómini benedictum.

R. Ex hoc nunc, et usque in sǽculum.

V. Adjutorium nostrum in nómine

THE MAKING OF CLERICS.

After this, the Archdeacon calls those who are to receive Tonsure, saying:

Let those who are to be promoted to first clerical Tonsure come forward.

The others rise and return to their places, where they remain seated.

Then the Notary calls the names, one by one, of all those who are to receive Tonsure, and each one as his name is called rises, answers Present, leaves his place and comes before the altar and kneels.

The Bishop rises with his mitre on and says:

- V. Blessed be the name of the Lord.
- R. From henceforth, now and forever.
- V. Our help is in the name of the Lord.
- R. Who made heaven and earth.

DEARLY beloved brethren, let us beseech our Lord Jesus Christ in behalf of these His servants, who hasten for His love to lay aside the hair of their heads, that He bestow upon them the Holy Ghost, Who shall keep them in the practice of religion forever, and protect their Tu es, Dómine, qui restítues hæreditátem meam mihi.

PSALMUS XV.

CONSERVA me, Dómine, quóniam spe-rávi in te: * dixi Dómino : Deus meus est tu, quóniam bonórum meórum non eges.

Sanctis, qui sunt in terra ejus: * mirificávit omnes voluntátes meas in eis.

hearts from the stumbling blocks of the world, and from worldly desires, so that even as they are changed in outward appearance, He may likewise grant them an increase of virtue, and, opening their eyes, deliver them from all spiritual and human blindness and bestow upon them the light of everlasting grace. Who liveth and reigneth with God the Father in the unity of the same Holy Ghost, God, world without end.

After this the Bishop sits and the choir begins and continues the following antiphon and psalm:

It is Thou, O Lord, that will restore my inheritance to me.

PSALM XV.

PRESERVE me, O Lord, for I have put my trust in Thee. I have said to the Lord Thou art my God, for Thou hast no need of my goods.

To the Saints who are in His land, He hath made wonderful all my desires in them.

Their infirmities were multiplied ; afterwards they made haste.

I will not gather together their meetings for blood-offerings ; nor will I be mindful of their names by my lips.

Repetitur tota Antiphona.

Tu es Dómine, etc.

Incepto Psalmo, Pontifex cum forficibus incidit unicuique extremitates capillorum instar crucis in locis quinque, videlicet, in fronte, in occipitio, in aura dextera, in aura sinistra, deinde in medio capitis aliquot crines capillorum, et in bacile deponit, et quilibet cum tondetur, dicit: *

DOMINUS pars hæreditatis meæ, et cálicis mei: tu es, qui restítues hæreditátem meam mihi.

Omnibus tonsis, mitra deposita, surgit Pontifex, et stans versus ad illos, dicit:

Orémus.

PRÆSTA quæsumus omnípotens Deus, ut hi fámuli tui, quorum hódie comas cápitum pro amôre divíno deposúimus, in tua dilectione perpétuo máneant; et eos sine mácula in sempitérnum custódias. Per Christum Dóminum nostrum. R. Amen. Tunc schola inchoat, et prosequitur Antiphonam sequentem et Psalmum. Qua incepta, Pontifex sedet cum mitra.

Hi accípient benedictiónem a Dómino :

* Et Episcopus juxta morem eadem verba simul profert.
S. R. C. 21. Nov., 1831.

The whole antiphon is repeated:

It is Thou, O Lord, &c.

At the beginning of the psalm the Bishop cuts, with a scissors, some hair from the head of each in the form of a cross in five places, namely: from the forehead, from the back of the head, from the right ear, from the left ear and a little from the crown of the head, and lets all the cuttings fall into a dish. Each one, while he is being tonsured, says:

THE Lord is the portion of my inheritance and my cup; it is Thou that wilt restore my inheritance to me.

When all have been tonsured, the Bishop rises with his mitre off, and, turned towards them, says:

Let us pray.

GRANT, we beseech Thee, O Almighty God, that these, Thy servants, the hair of whose heads we have this day for Divine love cut off, may remain perpetually in Thy love, and do Thou keep them without stain forever. Through Christ our Lord. R. Amen.

Then the choir begins and continues the following antiphon and psalm. When it is begun the Bishop sits with his mitre on.

These shall receive a blessing from the PSALMUS XXIII.

DOMINI est terra, et plenitudo ejus: * orbis terrarum, et univérsi qui hábitant in eo.

Quis ascéndet in montem Dómini? * aut quis stabit in loco sancto ejus?

Innocens mánibus, et mundo corde: * qui non accépit in vano ánimam suam, nec jurávit in dolo próximo suo.

Hic accípiet benedictiónem a Dómino,* et misericórdiam a Deo salutári suo.

Hæc est generatio quæréntium eum, * quæréntium fáciem Dei Jacob.

Attóllite portas príncipes vestras, et elevámini portæ æternáles: * et introíbit Rex gloriæ.

Quis est iste Rex gloriæ? * Dóminus fortis et potens, Dóminus potens in prælio.

PSALM XXIII.

THE earth is the Lord's, and the fulness thereof; the world and all they that dwell therein:

For he hath founded it upon the seas; and hath prepared it upon the rivers.

Who shall ascend into the mountains of the Lord; or who shall stand in His holy place?

The innocent in hands, and clean of heart, who hath not taken his soul in vain, nor sworn deceitfully to his neighbor.

He shall receive a blessing from the Lord and mercy from God his Savior.

This is the generation of them that seek Him, of them that seek the face of the God of Jacob.

Lift up your gates, O ye princes, and be ye lifted up, O eternal gates: and the King of Glory shall enter in.

Who is this King of Glory? the Lord, Who is strong and mighty; the Lord mighty in battle.

Lift up your gates, O ye princes, and be

Quis est iste Rex glóriæ? * Dóminus

Sicut erat in principio, et nunc, et sem-

Deinde repetitur tota Antiphona:

Hi accípient, etc.

Qua finita, surgit sine mitra Pontifex, et ad altare conversus, dicit:

Orémus.

Et ministri dicunt:

Flectámus génuia.

R. Leváte.

Et mox ad tonsos genuflexos versus Pontifex, dicit:

A DESTO, Dómine, supplicatióibus nostris, et hos fármulos tuos bene **✚

hábitum sacræ religiónis impónimus; ut, ye lifted up, O eternal gates; and the King of Glory shall enter in.

Who is this King of Glory? the Lord of Hosts, He is the King of Glory.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost. As it was in the beginning, now and ever shall be world without end. Amen.

Then the whole antiphon is repeated:

These shall receive, &c.

After which the Bishop rises with his mitre on, and turned towards the altar, says:

Let us pray.

And the ministers say:

Let us bend our knees.

R. Arise.

And then the Bishop turning towards those who have been tonsured, and who are still kneeling, says:

H EARKEN, O Lord, to our supplications and vouchafe to bless  these Thy servants whom in Thy sacred name we invest with the habit of holy religion, that through Thy bounty, they may deserve to persevere devout in Thy Church, and attain to everlasting life. Through Christ our Lord. R. Amen.

Tunc Pontifex sedet cum mitra, et acceptum a singulari superpelliceum cuilibet imponit, dicens:

INDUAT te Dóminus novum hóminem, qui secúndum Deum creátus est, in justitia, et sanctitáte veritátis.

Orémus.

OMNIPOTENS sempitérne Deus, propitiáre peccátis nostris, et ab omni servitúte sæculáris hábitus hos fámulos tuos emúnda; ut dum ignomíniam sæculáris hábitus depónunt, tua semper in ævum grátia perfruántur: ut, sicut similitúdinem corónæ tuæ eos gestáre fácamus in capítibus, sic tua virtúte hæreditátem súbsequi mereántur ætérnam in córdibus. Qui cum Patre, et Spíritu sancto vivis et regnas Deus, per ómnia sáecula sæculórum. R. Amen.

Deinde sedet cum mitra Pontifex, et alloquitur eos sub his verbis:

FILII caríssimi, animadvértere debétis, quod hódie de foro Ecclésiæ facti estis, et privilégia clericália sortíti estis;

Then the Bishop sits with his mitre on, and, taking from each one his surplice, puts it on him, saying:

MAY the Lord put on thee the new man, who, according to God, is created in justice and in the holiness of truth.

The Bishop then rises with his mitre off, and, turned towards those who have been tonsured, says:

Let us pray.

O ALMIGHTY, Everlasting God, forgive us our sins and free these Thy servants from all the slavery of secular dress; grant that while they put off the ignominy of the worldly garb, they may enjoy Thy grace forever more; and that as we make them bear on their heads the likeness of Thy crown, so by Thy strength they may deserve to obtain the everlasting inheritance in their hearts. Who with the Father and the Holy Ghost liveth and reigneth God, world without end.

R. Amen.

Then the Bishop sits with his mitre on, and addresses them in these words:

DEARLY beloved children, you ought to ponder well that you are placed to-day under the jurisdiction of the Tum, suggeste Archidiacono, Ordinati redeunt ad loca sua.

DE ORDINATIONE OSTIARIORUM.

Clericis ordinatis, Pontifex dimissa mitra assurgit, accedit ad Missale, et dicit :

Orémus.

Assistentes autem :

Flectámus génuá.

R. Leváte.

Legit orationem primam et primam lectionem. Qua lecta, Pontifex sedet cum mitra. Archidiaconus vocat ordinandos dicens :

Accédant, qui ordinándi sunt ad offícium Ostiariórum.

Et mox Notarius singulos nominatim vocat et qui libet assurgit, respondet Adsum discedit de loco suo et venit ante altare geniculatum.

Omnibus coram Pontifice genuflexis Pontifex admonet illos dicens :

R. Amen.

Then, directed by the Archdeacon, those ordained return to their places.

THE ORDINATION OF PORTERS.

After the ordination of clerics, the Bishop rises with his mitre off, goes to the Missal and says:

Let us pray.

The assistants say :

Let us bend our knees.

R. Arise.

The Bishop then reads the first prayer and first lesson, after which he sits with his mitre on. The Archdeacon calls those who are to be ordained, saying:

Let those who are to be ordained to the office of Porter, come forward.

Then the Notary calls them separately by name, and each rising, answers, Present, leaves his place, comes before the altar and kneels.

All being on their knees before the Bishop, he admonishes them, saying:

SUSCEPTURI filii caríssimi, officium Ostiariórum, vidéte, quæ in domo Dei ágere debeátis. Ostiárium opórtet percútere cýmbalum, et campánam ; aperíre Ecclésiam, et sacrárium ; et librum aperíre ei qui prædicat. Providéte ígitur, ne per negligéntiam vestram, illárum rerum, quæ intra Ecclésiam sunt, áliquid depéreat : certísque horis domum Dei aperiátis fidélibus ; et semper claudátis infidélibus.

Studéte etiam, ut, sicut materiálibus clávibus Ecclésiam visíbilem aperítis, et cláuditis ; sic et invisíbilem Dei domum corda scílicet fidélium, dictis, et exémplis vestris claudátis diábolo, et aperiátis Deo : ut divína verba, quæ audíerint, corde retíneant, et ópere cómpleteant, quod in vobis Dóminus perfíciat per misericórdiam suam. Deinde Pontífex accipit, et tradit omnibus claves Ecclésiæ, quas successive manu dextera singuli tangant, Pontifice dicente :

SIC ágite, quasi redditúri Deo ratiónem pro iis rebus, quæ his clávibus recludúntur.

DEARLY beloved children, who are about to receive the office of Porter, see what you must do in the house of God. It is the duty of the Porter to strike the cymbal and to ring the church bell, to open the church and the sacristy, and to open the book for the preacher.

Take pains, therefore, lest through neglect on your part, anything in the church be destroyed: open the House of God at certain hours for the faithful; and always shut it to unbelievers.

Study, also, as you open and shut with material keys the visible church, so in like manner to shut to the devil and open to God, by word and example, the invisible House of God, that is the hearts of the faithful; so that they may keep in their hearts and show forth in their works the Divine words which they have heard, which may the Lord in His mercy accomplish in you.

Then the Bishop takes the keys of the church and while presenting them to be touched by each in turn, says:

SO act as about to give an account of those things which are kept under these keys.

Post hæc Archidiaconus, sive alias Archidiaconi vice fungens, ducit eos ad ostium Ecclesiæ, et facit illos claudere et aperire; deinde ducit eos ad turrim et singulis eorum tradens funem campanæ, jubet ipsos pulsare campanam uno tinnitu; quod si turris nimis distet, et difficii ascensu sit, facit ut singuli campanulam ad ostium Ecclesiæ appensam pulsent. Deinde illos reducit ad Pontificem, quibus coram Pontifice genua flectentibus, stans cum mitra Pontifex versus ad ipsos ordinatos, dicit :

DEUM Patrem omnipoténtem, fratres caríssimi, supplíciter deprecémur, ut hos fámulos suos bene †dícere dignétur, quos in offíciu Ostiariórum elígere dignátus est: ut sit eis fidelíssima cura in domo Dei, diébus, ac nóctibus, ad distinctionem certárum horárum, ad invocándum nomen Dómini, adjuvánte Dómino nostro Jesu Christo, qui cum eo vivit et regnat in unitáte Spíritus sancti Deus, per ómnia sácula sáculórum. R. Amen.

Tum, mitra deposita, stans Pontifex, et conversus ad altare dicit:

Orémus.

Et ministri subjungunt:
Flectámus génuas.

After this the Archdeacon, or some one taking his place, conducts them to the door of the church and makes them shut and open it; he then leads them to the tower and handing to each the bell-rope directs him to ring the church bell with one stroke; but if the tower be too distant, and difficult of ascent, he causes them to ring a little bell placed at the door of the church. Then he brings them back to the Bishop. When they are again kneeling before him, the Bishop standing with his mitre on and turned towards those who have been ordained, says:

DEARLY beloved brethren, let us humbly beseech God the Father Almighty to vouchsafe to bless † these His servants whom He has deigned to choose for the office of Porter, that they may be most diligent, both day and night, in their care of the House of God, never failing to keep in mind the different hours for invoking the name of the Lord. Through the assistance of our Lord Jesus Christ, Who liveth and reigneth with Him in the unity of the Holy Ghost, God, world without end. R. Amen.

Then the Bishop still standing, having put off his mitre, and turned towards the altar, says:

Let us pray.

And the ministers add:

Let us bend our knees.

R. Leváte.

Et statim versus ad illos genuflexos, stans sine mitra,
dicit:

DE ORDINATIONE LECTORUM.

Ostiariis ordinatis, Pontifex reddit ad Missale, † legit versiculum qui sequitur lectionem primam, subjungit deinde secundam orationem et legit lec-tionem secundam; qua lecta Pontifex sedit cum mitra et Lectores vocantur per Archidiaconum hoc modo:

Notarium non nominantur.

† Hic modus servatur in Sabbatis Quatuor Temporum in quibus plures dicuntur lectiones. Quomodo autem aliis temporibus fiat, ex Pontificali cognosci potest.

R. Arise.

The Bishop standing with his mitre off and turned towards those who have been ordained, who are still kneeling, says:

OHOLY Lord, Father Almighty, Eternal God, vouchsafe to bless † these Thy servants for the office of Porter, that amongst the door-keepers of Thy Church they may obey Thee with readiness, and amongst Thy elect they may deserve to have part in Thy reward. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Thy Son, Who liveth and reigneth with Thee in the unity of the Holy Ghost, God, world without end

R. Amen.

After this, those ordained, directed by the Archdeacon return to their places. *

THE ORDINATION OF READERS.

After the ordination of Porters, the Bishop returns to the Missal † and reads the versicle after the first lesson, then the second prayer and second lesson. He then sits with his mitre on and the Readers are called by the Archdeacon in this manner:

* If, however, the same persons receive immediately another Minor Order, they remain kneeling, and their names are not called again by the Notary.

† This is the manner observed on the Saturdays of the Ember days, when several lessons are said. How it takes place at other times may be learned from the Pontifical.

Accédant qui ordinándi sunt ad offícium Lectórum.

Let those who are to be ordained to the office of Reader come forward.

Then their names are called by the Notary. When they are on their knees before him, the Bishop admonishes them saying:

CHOSEN, dearly beloved children, to be Readers in the House of God, realize and fulfil your office. For God is powerful to increase unto you the grace of everlasting perfection.

It is the duty of the Reader to read what he preaches, * to sing the Lessons and to bless the bread, and all the new fruits. Study, therefore, to announce distinctly and clearly the words of God, that is, the holy Lessons, for the understanding and the edification of the faithful. Do not falsify the text lest the truth of the Divine Lessons intended for the instruction of your hearers, should through your carelessness be corrupted. And what you read with your lips, believe in your hearts and practice by your works, so that you may be able to teach your hearers equally by word and example.

DE ORDINATIONE EXORCISTARUM.

Lectoribus ordinatis, Pontifex accedit ad Missale, legit versiculum post lectionem secundam, recitat orationem tertiam ac tertiam lectionem; qua lecta Pontifex sedet cum mitra.

Exorcistæ vero vocantur per Archidiaconum modo consueto, dicendo:

Afterwards those ordained, by direction of the Arch-deacon, return to their places.

THE ORDINATION OF EXORCISTS.

After the ordination of Readers, the Bishop goes to the Missal, reads the versicle after the second lesson, the third prayer and the third lesson. He then sits with his mitre on. The Exorcists are called in the usual manner by the Archdeacon, who says:

Let those who are to be ordained to the office of Exorcist come forward.

The Notary calls them separately by name. When they are on their knees before him the Bishop admonishes them, saying:

DEARLY beloved children, who are about to be ordained to the office of Exorcist you ought to understand what you take upon yourselves. For it is the duty of the Exorcist to cast out devils, to tell the people that whoever is not going to Communion is to give way to those who are; and during the service to administer the water when required.

You receive then the power of imposing hands upon the possessed, and by the imposition of your hands together with the grace of the Holy Ghost and the words of the Exorcism, the unclean spirits are cast out of the bodies of the possessed.

Díscite per offícium vestrum vítiis imperáre; ne in móribus vestris áliquid sui juris inimicus váleat vindicáre. Tunc étenim recte in áliis dæmónibus imperábitis, cum prius in vobis eórum multímodam nequítiam superátis. Quod vobis Dóminus ágere concédat per Spíritum suum sanctum.

Study, therefore, that, as you cast out devils from the bodies of others, in like manner you drive from your own minds and bodies all uncleanness and wickedness, lest you succumb to those whom by your ministry you drive out of others. Learn by your office to subdue your passions lest the enemy be able to lay claim to anything in your conduct as his own. For then only will you rightly command devils in others when you shall have first overcome in yourselves their manifold wickedness. Which may the Lord grant you to do by His Holy Spirit.

After this the Bishop takes the Book in which the Exorcisms are written and presents it to all, each touching it with the right hand, while the Bishop says: *

RECEIVE and commit to memory, and have power to impose hands on the possessed, be they baptized or catechumens.

DE ORDINATIONE ACOLYTHORUM.

Exorcistis ordinatis, Pontifex reddit ad Missale, et legit versiculum qui sequitur lectionem tertiam, deinde recitat quartam orationem et subjungit lectionem quartam; qua lecta sedet cum mitra.
Acolythi vero vocantur per Archidiaconum:

Accédant qui ordinándi sunt ad offícium

Et mox nominantur per Notarium.

After this, by direction of the Archdeacon, they return to their places.

THE ORDINATION OF ACOLYTES.

After the ordination of the Exorcists, the Bishop returns to the Missal and reads the versicle after the third lesson; then he reads the fourth prayer and the fourth lesson. He then sits with his mitre on.

The Acolytes are called by the Archdeacon.

Let those who are to be ordained to the office of Acolyte come forward.

The names are then called by the Notary.

When they are on their knees before him, the Bishop admonishes them saying:

DEARLY beloved children who are about to receive the office of Acolyte, weigh well what you take upon yourselves. For it is the duty of the Acolyte to carry the candlestick, to light the lights of the church, and to minister wine and water for the Eucharist. Strive, therefore, worthily to fulfil the office once you have received it. For you shall not be able to please God, if, carrying in your hands a light before Him, you serve the works of darkness, and thereby set an example of áliis exémpla perfídiæ præbeátis. Sed sicut Véritas dicit: Lúceat lux vestra coram homínibus, ut vídeant ópera vestra bona, et gloríficent Patrem vestrum, qui in cœlis est. Et sicut Apóstolus Paulus ait: In médio natiónis pravæ et pervérsæ, lucéte sicut luminária in mundo, verbum vitæ continéntes. Sint ergo lumbi vestri præcíncti, et lucérnæ ardéntes in mánibus vestris, ut filii lucis sitis. Abjiciátis ópera tenebrárum, et induámini arma lucis. Erátis enim aliquándo ténebræ, nunc autem lux in Dómino. Ut filii lucis ambuláte. Quae sit vero ista lux, quam tantópere incúlcat Apóstolus, ipse demónstrat subdens: Fructus enim lucis est, in omni bonitáte et justítia et veritáte. Estóté igitur sollíciti, in omni justítia, bonitáte et veritáte, ut, et vos, et álios, et Dei Ecclésiam illuminétis. Tunc étenim in Dei sacrificio digne vinum suggerétis, et aquam, si vos ípsi Deo sacrificium, per castam vitam, et bona ópera, obláti fuéritis. Quod vobis Dóminus concédat per misericórdiam suam.

Post hæc Pontifex accipit, et tradit omnibus candelabrum cum candela extincta, quod successive manu dextera singuli tangant, * Pontifice dicente:

* Tangunt candelabrum pollice manus dextræ, et candelam indice.

faithlessness to others. But as Truth says : "Let your light shine before men that they may see your good works and glorify your Father Who is in Heaven." And as the Apostle Paul says : " In the midst of a crooked and perverse generation shine as lights in the world, holding forth the word of life." "Therefore let your loins be girt, and lamps burning in your hands, that you may be children of the light." "Cast off the works of darkness and put on the armor of light." "For you were heretofore darkness, but now light in the Lord. Walk then as children of the light." What that light is upon which the Apostle so much insists, he himself points out, adding : "for the fruit of the light is in all goodness, and justice, and truth." Be, therefore, solicitous, in all justice and goodness and truth, to enlighten yourselves and others and the Church of God. For then will you worthily supply wine and water in the Divine Sacrifice, when, by a chaste life, and good works, you shall have offered yourselves as a sacrifice to God. Which may the Lord grant you through His mercy.

After this the Bishop takes a candlestick with an unlighted candle and presents it to all, each in turn touching it with his right hand, while the Bishop says :

ACCIPITE ceroferárium cum céreo, et sciátis vos ad accendénda Ecclésiæ luminária mancipári, in nómine Dómini.
R. Amen.

Tunc accipit, et tradít eis urceolum vacum, quem similiter tangere debent, dicens communiter omnibus:

ACCIPITE urcéolum, ad suggeréndum vinum et aquam in Eucharístiam sanguinis Christi, in nómine Dómini. R.
Amen.

Postea, eis genuflexis permanentibus, Pontifex stans cum mitra versus ad eos, dicit:

DEUM Patrem omnipoténtem, fratres caríssimi, supplíciter deprecémur, ut hos fámulos suos bene† dícere dignétur in órdoine Acolythórum; quátenus lumen visíbile mánibus præferéntes, lumen quo-que spirituále móribus præbeant: adju-vánte Dómino nostro Jesu Christo, qui cum eo et Spíritu sancto vivit, et regnat Deus, per ómnia sácula sæculórum. R.
Amen.

Tum Pontifex ad altare se convertens, deposita mitra et stans, dicit:

Orémus.

RECEIVE the candlestick with the candle and know that you are bound to the lighting of the lights of the church, in the name of the Lord. R. Amen.

Then he takes an empty cruet and presents it to them, which likewise they touch, while he says to all:

RECEIVE the cruet for ministering wine and water for the Eucharist of the Blood of Christ, in the name of the Lord. R. Amen.

Afterwards they remain kneeling, and the Bishop standing, with his mitre on, turns towards them and says:

DEARLY beloved brethren, let us humbly beseech God the Father Almighty, to vouchsafe to bless † these His servants for the Order of Acolyte, so that bearing before themselves a visible light in their hands, they may also show forth in their conduct a spiritual light. We beg this through the assistance of our Lord Jesus Christ, Who with Him and the Holy Ghost liveth and reigneth God, world without end. R. Amen.

Then the Bishop turning towards the altar and standing with his mitre off, says:

Let us pray.

Et ministri:

Flectámus génuá.

R. Leváte.

Et mox Pontifex conversus ad eosdem genuflexos,
dicit:

Dóminum nostrum. R. Amen.

And the ministers:

Let us bend our knees.

R. Arise.

Then the Bishop turning towards those who, have been ordained, who are still kneeling, says:

O HOLY Lord, Father Almighty, Eternal God, Who, through Jesus Christ Thy Son, our Lord and His Apostles, didst send the light of Thy glory into this world, and Who, in order to blot out the ancient handwriting of our death, didst will that He should be nailed to the standard of the most glorious cross, and that blood and water should flow from His side for the salvation of the human race, vouchsafe to bless ✚ these Thy servants for the office of Acolyte, so that in lighting the lights of Thy Church, and in presenting the wine and water for the consecration of the Blood of Christ in the Eucharistic oblation they may faithfully minister at Thy holy altars. Inflame, O Lord, their minds and hearts with the love of Thy grace, so that, illumined by the sight of Thy splendor, they may faithfully serve Thee in Holy Church. Through the same Christ our Lord. R. Amen.

Let us pray.

O HOLY Lord, Father Almighty, Eternal God, Who didst speak to Moses and Aaron, and tell them to light the lamps in the tabernacle of the Testimony, vouchsafe to bless ✚ these Thy servants, that they may be Acolytes in Thy Church. Through Christ our Lord. R. Amen.

Let us pray.

O ALMIGHTY, Eternal God, Fountain of light and Source of goodness, Who through Jesus Christ Thy Son, the true Light, didst illumine, and, by the mystery of His Passion, didst redeem the world, vouchsafe to bless ✚ these Thy servants, whom we consecrate for the office of Acolyte, beseeching Thy clemency to illumine their minds with the light of knowledge, and water them with the dew of Thy piety, that, with Thine aid they may so fulfil the ministry which they have received as to deserve to attain to an everlasting reward. Through the same Christ our Lord. R. Amen.

After this, by direction of the Archdeacon, those who have been ordained return to their places.

DE ORDINATIONE SUBDIACONI.

Acolythis ordinatis, Pontifex redit ad Missale, et legit versiculum post quartam lectionem, deinde subjungit quintam orationem et lectionem quintam; qua lecta, Pontifex revertitur ad sedem suam, ante medium altaris, et Archidiaconus versus ad Ordinandos dicit:

Accédant qui ordinándi sunt Subdiáconi.

Et Notarius unumquemque illorum vocat, nomini et cognomini adjungens titulum ad quem ordinantur; e. g. N. ad titulum Ecclésiæ N.; N. ad titulum patrimónii sui; N. ad titulum Missiónis; Frater N. proféssus Ordinis N. ad titulum paupertátis; N. Congregatiónis N. ad titulum mensæ commúnis; et quilibet vocatus dicit: Adsum.

Omnibus autem in Subdiaconos ordinandis competenti spatio coram Pontifice stantibus, Pontifex cum mitra sedens admonet eos, (nisi omnes sint religiosi, quia tunc ista admonitio omittitur) dicens:

FILII dilectíssimi, ad sacrum Subdiaco-nátus Ordinem promovéndi, íterum at-que íterum consideráre debétis atténte,

THE ORDINATION OF SUBDEACONS.

After the ordination of the Acolytes the Bishop returns to the Missal and reads the versicle after the fourth lesson, then the fifth prayer and the fifth lesson; he then returns to his seat before the middle of the altar, and the Archdeacon turned towards those who are to be ordained, says:

Let those who are to be ordained Subdeacons come forward.

And the Notary calls each of them, adding to the name and surname the title to which they are ordained; e. g., N. to the title of the church of N.; N. to the title of his Patrimony; N. to the title of the Mission; Brother N. Professed of the Order of N. to the title of Poverty; N. of the Congregation N. to the title of Common Table, and each one when he is called answers: Present.

And they all come before the altar and remain standing two or three paces from the lowest step. And the Bishop, sitting with his mitre on, admonishes them, (unless they are all Religious, for then the admonition is omitted) saying:

DEARLY beloved children, who are about to be promoted to the Holy Order of Subdeaconship, you ought to consider attentively, again and again, quod onus hódie ultro appétitis. Háctenus enim líberi estis, licétque vobis pro arbítrio ad sæculária vota transíre; quod si hunc Ordinem suscepéritis, ámplius non licébit a propósito resilíre, sed Deo, cui servíre, regnáre est, perpétuo famulári; et castitátem, illo adjuvánte, serváre oportébit, atque in Ecclésiæ ministério semper esse mancipátos. Proínde, dum tempus est, cogitáte, et, si in sancto propósito perseveráre placet; in nómine Dómini, huc accédite.

Post admonitionem Ordinandi approximent uno passu ad altare.

Deinde Archidiaconus vocat cæteros Ordinandos, dicens:

Accédant qui ordinándi sunt Diáconi, et Presbýteri.

Et ipsi procedunt ante altare, eo tamen discrimine ut ordinandi Subdiaconatui genuflectant in latere Epistolæ, ordinandi Diaconatui in latere Evangelii, ordinandi autem Presbyteratui in medio ante altare, si possit id commode fieri et si numerus ordinandorum patiatur, secus disponuntur ut commodius videatur.

to what a burden you, of your own accord, this day aspire. For as yet, you are free, and it is lawful for you at will to pass over to worldly pursuits. But if you receive this Order, you will no longer be at liberty to recede from your resolution, but you will be obliged to serve God perpetually, (to serve Whom is to reign); and with His assistance to observe chastity, and you will be bound to the ministry of the church forever. Wherefore, while there is yet time, reflect, and, if you wish to persevere in your holy resolution, in the name of the Lord, come hither.

After the admonition those who are to be ordained advance one step towards the altar.

Then the Archdeacon calls the others who are to be ordained, saying:

Let those who are to be ordained Deacons and Priests come forward.

And these come before the altar in such a manner, however, that those to be ordained to Subdeaconship kneel on the Epistle side, those to Deaconship on the Gospel side and those to Priesthood in the middle before the altar, if this can be conveniently done, and if the number of those to be ordained permit; otherwise they are arranged in whatever way seems most convenient.

Prostratio.

Quibus sic ordinatis Pontifex mitram in capite tenens procumbit super faldistorium, in superiori gradu, sive plano altaris paratum, et omnes ordinandi in locis super tapetia prosternunt se; ministri vero, et alii stantes genuflectunt; et schola inchoat Litanias, choro respondente; vel si Officium fiat sine cantu, Pontifex dicit: ministris respondentibus:

The Prostration.

When they have been thus arranged the Bishop, with his mitre on, kneels at the faldstool which is placed on the top step or on the platform of the altar, and all those who are to be ordained prostrate themselves in their places on the carpet; the Ministers and others assisting, kneel; and the chanters begin the Litany, the choir making the responses; or, if the Office be celebrated without music, the Bishop recites the Litany, the ministers making the responses.

Christ have mercy on us.

Lord have mercy on us.

The Litany being ended, the Bishop rises and with his mitre on, sits on the faldstool before the middle of the altar, and the Archdeacon says in a loud voice:

Let those who are to be ordained Deacons and Priests withdraw.

When they have returned to their places, the Bishop proceeds with the ordination of the Subdeacons, who remain kneeling before the Bishop in a semicircle and are admonished by him as follows:

DEARLY beloved children, who are about to obtain the office of Subdeaconship, ponder well the nature of the ministry which is given to you. It is the duty of the Subdeacon to prepare water for the service of the altar, to wash the altar cloths and the corporals, to assist the Deacon and present him the Chalice and Paten used in the Sacrifice. The offerings which are brought to the altar are

De ipsis oblationibus tantum debet in altáre poni, quantum pôpulo possit suffícere, ne áliquid pútridum in sacrário remáneat. Pallæ, quæ sunt in substratório altáris, in álio vase debent lavári, et in álio corporáles pallæ. Ubi autem corporáles pallæ lotæ fúerint, nullum áliud linteámen debet lavári, ípsaque lotiônis aqua in baptistérium debet vergi. Studéte ítaque, ut ista visibília ministéria quæ díximus, nítide et diligentíssime compléntes, invisibília horum exémplo perficiátis. Altáre quidem sanctæ Ecclésiæ ipse est Christus, teste Joánnē, qui in Apocalýpsi sua altáre aúreum se vidísse pérhibet: stans ante thronum, in quo, et per quem, oblationes fidélium Deo Patri consecrántur. Cujus altáris pallæ et corporália sunt membra Christi, scilicet fidéles Dei, quibus Dóminus, quasi vestiméntis pretiósis circúmdatur, ut ait Psalmísta: Dóminus regnávit, decórem indútus est. Beátus quoque Joánnes in Apocalýpsi vidi Fílium hóminis præcinctum zona aúrea, id est, sanctórum catérvam. Si ítaque humána fragilitáte contíngat in called the Loaves of Proposition. Of these offerings as much only as may suffice for the people should be placed upon the altar, lest anything remain to decay in the Tabernacle. The cloths which are laid over the altar should be washed in one vessel, and the corporals in another. And none of the other linens should be washed in the water in which the corporals have been washed, and this water should be thrown into the baptistery. Study therefore, whilst neatly and most diligently fulfilling these visible services which we have mentioned, to also perform those invisible offices of which these are the exemplars. For the altar of Holy Church is Christ Himself, as John witnesseth, who in his Apocalypse relates that he saw a golden altar standing before the throne, in Whom and through Whom the offerings of the faithful are consecrated to God the Father. The cloths of this altar and the corporals are the members of Christ, that is, God's faithful, by whom the Lord is encompassed, as it were, with precious vestments as the Psalmist saith: "The Lord hath reigned, He is clothed with beauty." Blessed John saw also in the Apocalypse the Son of Man girded with a golden girdle, that is with a band of Saints. If, therefore, áliquo fidéles maculári, præbénda est a vobis aqua cœlestis doctrínæ, qua purifi-cáti, ad ornaméntum altáris, et cultum di-víni sacrificíi, rédeant. Estóte ergo tales, qui sacrificíiis divínis, et Ecclésiæ Dei, hoc est, córpori Christi digne servíre valeátis, in vera et Cathólica fide fundáti; quóniam, ut ait Apóstolus: Omne quod non est ex fide, peccátum est, schismáticum est, et extra unitátem Ecclésiæ est. Et ídeo, si usque nunc fuístis tardi ad Ecclésiam, ámodo debétis esse assídui. Si usque nunc somnolénti, ámodo vígiles. Si usque nunc ebriósi, ámodo sóbrii. Si usque nunc inhonesti, ámodo cásti. Quod ipse vobis præstáre dignétur, qui vivit, et regnat Deus in sǽcula sǽculórum. R. Amen.

Deinde Pontifex accipit, et tradit omnibus Calicem vacuum, cum Patena vacua superposita, quem successive manu dextera singuli tangunt, * Pon-tifice dicente:

VIDETE cujus ministérium vobis trádi-tur; ídeo vos admóneo, ut ita vos exhibeátis, ut Deo placére possítis.

* Apponunt pollicem dextrum cuppæ calicis, indicem autem et medium quoque pariter dextrum, super patenam.

it should happen through human frailty that the faithful be in any way sin-stained, you should present them the water of heavenly doctrine, purified by which they may return as ornaments of the altar and of the worship of the Divine Sacrifice.

Be, therefore, such that you may be able to minister worthily in the Divine Sacrifices, and serve the church of God, that is, the body of Christ, grounded in the true and Catholic faith ; since as the Apostle saith, everything that is not of faith is sin, is schismatical and is outside of the unity of the church. And, therefore, if hitherto you have been remiss in coming to the church, be henceforth diligent ; if hitherto drowsy, be henceforth wakeful ; if hitherto given to drink, be henceforth sober ; if hitherto lacking in purity, be henceforth chaste. Which may He Himself vouchsafe to grant you, Who liveth and reigneth God, world without end. R. Amen.

Then the Bishop takes an empty chalice with a paten placed upon it, and presents it to all, which they touch, one after the other, with the right hand, while the Bishop says :

SEE Whose ministry is given to you ; I admonish you, therefore, so to comport yourselves as to please God.

Et Archidiaconus accipit, et tradit eis urceulos cum vino, et aqua, ac bacile cum manutergio, quæ omnia similiter tangere debent. Postea surgit Pontifex, et versus ad populum stans cum mitra, dicit:

OREMUS Deum, ac Dóminum nostrum, fratres caríssimi, ut super hos servos suos, quos ad Subdiaconátus offícium vocáre dignátus est, infúndat bene ✠ dictióнем suam, et grátiam; ut in conspéctu ejus fidéliter serviéntes, prædestináta Sanctis præmia consequántur, adjuvánte Dómino nostro Jesu Christo, qui cum eo vivit, et regnat in unitáte Spíritus sancti Deus, per ómnia sácula sæculórum.
R. Amen.

Tum deposita mitra, conversus ad altare Pontifex, dicit:

Orémus.

Et ministri:

Flectámus génuua.

R. Leváte.

Et mox Pontifex versus ad ordinandos genuflexos, dicit sine mitra:

DOMINE sancte, Pater omnípotens, aétérne Deus, bene ✠ dícere dignáre hos fámulos tuos, quos ad Subdiaconátus offícium elígere dignátus es; ut

And the Archdeacon takes and presents to them cruets with wine and water, and a basin with a finger towel, all of which things they likewise touch. Afterwards the Bishop rises and standing with his mitre on, and facing the people, says:

DEARLY beloved brethren, let us beseech God and Our Lord to pour down His blessing † and His grace upon these His servants, whom He has vouchsafed to call to the office of Subdeaconship, that faithfully serving in His sight, they may obtain the reward predestined for the Saints; with the assistance of our Lord Jesus Christ Who liveth and reigneth with Him in the unity of the Holy Ghost, God, world without end. R. Amen.

Then putting off his mitre and turned towards the altar the Bishop says:

Let us pray.

And the ministers:

Let us bend our knees.

R. Arise.

And then the Bishop with his mitre off, turned towards those who are to be ordained, who are kneeling, says:

O HOLY Lord, Father Almighty, Eternal God, vouchsafe to bless † these Thy servants, whom Thou hast deigned to choose for the office of Sub-

Per Dóminum nostrum Jesum Christum Fílium tuum: qui tecum vivit, et regnat in unitáte ejúsdem Spíritus sancti Deus, per ómnia sæculórum. R. Amen.

Tum Pontifex sedens, accepta mitra, amictum qui in collo ordinandorum jacet, imponit super caput siugulis, dicens:

ACCIPE amíctum, per quem designá-

Tum immittit manipulum in sinistrum brachium cui-deaconship, that they may be tireless and watchful sentinels of the heavenly army in Thy holy sanctuary, that they may faithfully minister at Thy holy altars; and let the Spirit of Wisdom and Understanding, the Spirit of Counsel and Fortitude, the Spirit of Knowledge and Piety rest upon them and fill them with the Spirit of Thy Fear, and confirm them in the Divine ministry, so that, obedient to Thee both in word and deed, they may obtain Thy grace. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Thy Son, who liveth and reigneth with Thee in the unity of the same Holy Ghost, God, world without end. R. Amen.

Then the Bishop draws over the head of each of those who are to be ordained, the amice which hangs on his neck, saying:

RECEIVE the Amice by which is signified the curbing of the tongue. In the name of the Father, † and of the Son, † and of the Holy † Ghost.

R. Amen.

Then he puts the maniple on the left arm of each, saying:

RECEIVE the Maniple by which is signified the fruit of good works. In the name of the Father, † and of the Son, † and of the Holy † Ghost. R. Amen.

Post hæc induit quemlibet tunica, et si tantum unica sit, immittit illam cuilibet solum usque ad scapulas, ac retrahens, postremum totaliter induit, dicens cuilibet:

Postea accipit, et tradit omnibus librum Epistolarum, manu dextera ipsum simul tangentibus, dicens:*

Omnibus expeditis, sugerente Archidiacono, ordinati redeunt ad loca sua.

DE ORDINATIONE DIACONI.

Subdiaconis ordinatis Pontifex accedit ad Missale, et legit canticum: Benedictus es, post lectionem quintam, deinde in medio altaris, conversus ad

After this he puts the tunic on each, and if there be but one tunic, he puts it on only as far as the shoulders and then takes it off, leaving it on the last one saying to each:

MAY the Lord clothe thee with the Tunic of sweetness and the garment of joy. In the name of the Father, † and of the Son, † and of the Holy † Ghost. R. Amen.

When all those ordained have been thus vested, they return two or three together to the Bishop, who presents to them the Book of Epistles, which they touch with their right hand, while the Bishop says *

All these things being done, those ordained, directed by the Archdeacon, return to their places.

THE ORDINATION OF DEACONS.

After the ordination of the Subdeacons, the Bishop goes to the Missal and reads the Canticle of the three children in the fiery furnace, which comes populum, dicit: Dominus vobiscum, et convertens ad Missale legit orationes. Postea legit Epistolam, et eodem tempore legitur per unum ex Subdiaconis noviter ordinatis.

Lecta Epistola Pontifex sedet. Promovendi vero ad Ordinem Diaconatus per Archidiaconum vocantur, dicendo:

Accédant qui ordinándi sunt ad Diaconátum.

Et mox singulatim nominantur per Notarium nulla tamen facta mentione de titulo.

Quibus in modum coronæ coram Pontifice genuflexis, Archidiaconus offerens illos Pontifici, dicit;

REVERENDISSIME Pater, póstulat sancta Mater Ecclésia cathólica, ut hos præséntes Subdiáconos ad onus Diacónii ordinétis.

Pontifex interrogat, dicens:

Scis illos dignos esse?

Respondet Archidiaconus,

Quantum humána fragilitas nosse sinit,
et scio, et testíficor ipsos dignos esse ad
hujus onus offícii.

Et Pontifex dicit:

Deo grátias.

after the fifth lesson; then, in the middle of the altar, facing the people, he says: The Lord be with you, and turning towards the Missal he reads the prayers. Afterwards he reads the Epistle, and it is read at the same time by one of the newly ordained Subdeacons.

After the reading of the Epistle the Bishop sits. Those who are to be promoted to the Order of Deaconship are called by the Archdeacon, who says:

Let those who are to be ordained to Deaconship come forward.

Then the Notary calls the names separately.

When they are kneeling in a semicircle before the Bishop, the Archdeacon presenting them to him says:

MOST Reverend Father, our Holy Mother, the Catholic Church, asks that you ordain the Subdeacons here present to the office of Deaconship.

The Bishop interrogates him saying:

Dost thou know them to be worthy?

The Archdeacon answers:

As far as human frailty alloweth me to know, I both know and bear witness that they are worthy of the charge of this Office.

And the Bishop says:

Thanks be to God.

Et ad eorum ordinationem procedit. In primis Pontifex cum mitra sedens, clero, et populo annuntiat, dicens:

AUXILIANTE Dómino Deo, et Salvatörre nostro Jesu Christo, elígimus hos præséntes Subdiáconos in órdinem Diacónii. Si quis habet áliquid contra illos, pro Deo, et propter Deum cum fidúcia éxeat, et dicat; verúmtamen memor sit conditiónis suæ.

Et facta aliquali mora, Pontifex convertens sermonem suum ad ordinandos, admonet eos, dicens:

PROVEHENDI, filii dilectíssimi, ad Levíticum órdinem, cogitáte magnópere, ad quantum gradum Ecclésiæ ascénditis. Diáconum enim opórtet ministráre ad altáre, baptizáre, et prædicáre. Sane in véteri lege, ex duódecim una Tribus Levi elécta est, quæ speciáli devotióne tabernáculo Dei, ejúsque sacrificiis, ritu perpétuō deservíret. Tántaque dígnitas ipsi concéssa est, quod nullus, nisi ex ejus stirpe, ad divínum illum cultum, atque offícium ministratúrus assúrge-

And he proceeds to their ordination.

First the Bishop, sitting with his mitre on, makes an announcement to the clergy and the people, saying:

WITH the assistance of the Lord God and our Savior Jesus Christ, we choose these Subdeacons here present for the order of Deaconship. If any person hath anything against them, let him in God's name and for God's sake, come forward with confidence and speak: howbeit, let him be mindful of his own condition.

And after a short pause, the Bishop, addressing himself to those who are to be ordained, admonishes them, saying:

EARLY beloved children, who are about to be promoted to the Levitical Order, consider well to how great a height in the church you are rising.

For it is the duty of the Deacon to minister at the altar, to baptize and to preach. Of a truth, in the old law, out of the twelve tribes one was chosen, that of Levi, which should serve the tabernacle of God with special devotion, and His sacrifice by a perpetual rite. And so great was the dignity granted to it, that no one unless of this tribe could rise to the ministry of the Quam Ecclésiam Dei, véluti tabernáculum, portáre, et muníre debétis ornátu sancto, prædicátu divíno, exémplo perfécto. Levi quippe interpretátur additus, sive assúmptus. Et vos filii dilectíssimi, qui ab hæreditáte patérna nomen accípitis, estóte assúmpti a carnálibus desidériis, a terrénis concupiscéntiis, quæ míliant advérsus ánimam; estóte nítidi, mundi, puri, casti, sicut decet minístros Christi, et dispensatóres mysteriorum Dei; ut digne addámini ad númerum ecclesiástici gradus; ut hæ-

Divine worship and obtain this office; so that by a signal privilege of inheritance it deserved both to be, and to be called, the tribe of the Lord. You hold to-day, dearly beloved children, both the name and the office of this tribe, because you are chosen in this Levitical office, for the ministry of the tabernacle of the testimony, that is, the church of God, which, always ready for battle, wages an unceasing warfare against her enemies; whence saith the Apostle: "our wrestling is not against flesh and blood, but against principalities and powers, against the rulers of the world of this darkness, against the spirit of wickedness in the high places."

This church of God you ought to carry even as the tabernacle, and fortify it with holy ornaments, with divine preaching, with perfect example.

For "Levi" signifies "added" or "lifted up." And so be you, dearly beloved children, who receive your name from your paternal inheritance, be lifted up out of carnal desires, out of earthly lusts which war against the soul, be clean, undefiled, pure, chaste, as becometh ministers of Christ and dispensers of the mysteries of God, that you may be worthily added to the number of those in the Ecclesiastical réditas, et Tribus amabilis Dómini esse mereámini. Et quia comminístri, et cooperatóres estis córporis, et sanguinis Dómini, estóte ab omni illécebra carnis aliéni, sicut ait Scriptúra: Mundámini, qui fertis vasa Dómini. Cogítate beátum Stéphanum, mérito præcipuæ castitatis ab Apóstolis ad offícium istud éléctum. Curáte, ut quibus Evangélium ore annuntiátis, vivis opéribus exponátis, ut de vobis dicátur: Beáti pedes evangelizántium pacem, evangelizántium bona.

Habéte pedes vestros calceátos Sanc-tórum exémplis, in præparatióne Evangélii pacis. Quod vobis Dóminus concédat per grátiam suam. R. Amen.

Deinde, si non sunt ordinati Subdiaconi, ordinandi omnes prosternunt se, ubi genuflectebant, et Pontifice ante faldistorium suum genuflectente, dicuntur Litaniæ et ordinandi per Pontificem benedicuntur, prout supra p. 35 in ordinatione Subdiaconi dictum est. Post hæc ordinandis ab accubitu surgentibus, genuflexis tamen manenti-bus, Pontifex sedens in faldistorio cum mitra, intelligibili voce alloquitur clerum et populum dicens:

Order and may deserve to be the inheritance and the beloved Tribe of the Lord.

And since you are co-ministers and co-operators of the Body and Blood of the Lord, be estranged from every allurement of the flesh, as the Scripture saith: “Be ye clean, you that carry the vessels of the Lord.”

Reflect that Blessed Stephen was chosen for that office chiefly on account of his chastity.

Take care that you may illustrate the gospel, by your living works, to those to whom you announce it with your lips, so that it may be said of you “Blessed are the feet of those who preach the gospel of peace, who bring glad tidings of good things.”

Have your feet shod with the examples of the Saints, in the preparation of the gospel of peace; which may the Lord grant you by His grace. R. Amen.

Afterwards, if no Subdeacons have been ordained, all those who are to be ordained prostrate themselves where they were kneeling; the Bishop kneels at his faldstool, the Litany is said and those who are to be ordained are blessed by the Bishop as above, (p. 35) in the ordination of the Subdeacons. After this, those who are to be ordained rise from where they have been lying down, yet still remain on their knees, and the Bishop, sitting on the faldstool with his mitre on, addresses aloud the clergy and the people, saying:

COMMUNE votum, commúnis orátiō prosequátur, ut hi totius Ecclésiæ prece, qui ad Diaconátus ministérium præparántur, Levíticæ bene † dictiōnis órdine claréscant, et spirituálī conversatiōne præfulgéntes, grátia sanctificatiōnis elúcent; præstánte Dómino nostro Jesu Christo: qui cum Patre, et Spíritu sancto vivit, et regnat Deus in sácula sáculórum.

R. Amen.

Deinde surgens cum mitra Pontifex, stans versus ad Ordinandos dicit, alta voce legendo:

OREMUS, fratres caríssimi, Deum Patrem omnipoténtem, ut super hos fámulos suos, quos ad officium Diaconátus dignátur assúmere, benedictiōnis suæ grátiam cleménter effúndat, eisque consecratiōnis indúltæ propítius dona consérvet, et preces nostras cleménter exaúdit, ut quæ nostro gerénda sunt ministério, suo benígnus prosequátur auxílio; et, quos sacris mystériis exsequéndis pro nostra intelligéntia crédimus offeréndos, sua bene † dictiōne sanctíficet, et confírmet. Per unigénitum Fílium suum Dóminum nostrum Iesum Christum, qui cum

Through the assistance of our Lord Jesus Christ Who with the Father and the Holy Ghost liveth and reigneth, God, world without end. R. Amen.

Then the Bishop, rising with his mitre on and standing turned towards those to be ordained, says, reading in a loud voice:

DEARLY beloved brethren, let us beseech God the Father Almighty mercifully to pour down upon these His servants whom He has vouchsafed to take into the Order of Deaconship, the grace of His blessing and propitiously preserve in them the gifts of the consecration conferred upon them, and benignantly hear our prayers, so that what is to be done by our ministry may be graciously followed up by His aid, and that He may sanctify and confirm with His ✚ blessing those whom, according to our judgment, we think should be presented for the celebration of the sacred mysteries. Through His only begotten Son our Lord Jesus Christ Who with Him

Deinde, deposita mitra, extensis manibus ante pectus,
dicit:

Then putting off his mitre and extending his hands before his breast, he says:

R. Amen.

V. The Lord be with you.

R. And with thy spirit.

V. Lift up your hearts.

R. We have lifted them up to the Lord.

V. Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

R. It is meet and just.

It is truly meet and just, right and profitable unto salvation, that we should always and in all places give thanks to Thee, O Holy Lord, Father Almighty, eternal God, the Giver of honors, the Dispenser of orders, and Disposer of offices; Who abiding in Thyself reneweth and disposeth all things by Thy word, Thy power and Thy wisdom, Jesus Christ Thy Son our Lord; and by Thy everlasting providence doth prepare and dispense what is needful for each particular time. Whose body, Thy church, diversified by a variety of heavenly graces, yet by the wonderful law which presides over the whole structure, bound together and Super hos quoque fámulos tuos, quáesumus Dómine placátus inténde, quos tuis sacris altáribus servitúros in offícium Diaconátus supplíci-ter dedicámus. Et nos quidem tamquam hómines, divíni sensus et summæ rationis ignári, horum vitam, quantum póssumus, æstimámus. Te autem Dómine, quæ nobis sunt ignóta non tránseunt, te occúltam non fallunt. Tu cógnitor es secretórum: tu scrutátor es córdium. Tu horum vitam cœlesti póteris examináre judício, quo semper prævales, et admíssa purgáre et ea, quæ sunt agénda, concédere.

Hic solus Pontífex manum dexteram extendens, ponit super caput cuilibet ordinando; et nullus aliis, quia non ad Sacerdotium, sed ad ministerium con-secrantur, dicens singulis:

united in the distinction of her members, Thou grantest to grow and to spread for the increase of Thy temple; Thou Who hast ordained in the service of a sacred charge a triple grade of ministers to battle for Thy name, even as the sons of Levi were chosen in the beginning to watch like faithful sentinels over the mystic movements within Thy house, that they might possess by a perpetual lot the inheritance of eternal benediction.

Look also we beseech Thee, O Lord, with kindly eye on these Thy servants whom we humbly dedicate to the office of Deaconship, for the service of Thy holy altars.

We indeed as men, devoid of divine judgment and supreme understanding, make such estimate of their lives as our limited powers permit. But what is unknown to us eludes Thee not O Lord; hidden things escape Thee not. Thou art the Knower of secrets, the Searcher of hearts. With a heavenly discernment that never faileth, Thou art able to penetrate the mystery of their lives, wash away the faults that have crept into their souls and grant them to do all things which it behoveth them to do.

Those alone who are to be ordained Deacons rise, go up to the altar one after another and kneel before the Bishop who places his right hand on the head of each, saying:

ACCIPE Spíritum sanctum, ad robur, et ad resisténdum diábolo, et tenta-tióñibus ejus. In nómine Dómini.

Unusquisque post impositionem manus Pontificis redit ad locum suum ante altare et geniculat.

Deinde Pontifex prosequitur, extensam tenens manum dexteram, usque in finem Præfationis.

Emítte in eos, quæsumus Dómine, Spíritum sanctum, quo in opus ministérii tui fidéliter exsequéndi septifórmis grátiæ tuæ múnere roboréntur. Abúndet in eis totíus forma virtútis, auctóritas modésta, pudor constans, innocéntiæ púritas, et spirituális observántia disciplínæ. In móribus eórum præcépta tua fúlgeant; ut suæ castitátis exémplo imitatióñem sanc-tam plebs acquírat: et bonum consciéntiæ testimónium præferéntes, in Christo firmi et stábiles persevérerent; dignísque succéss-ibus de inferióri gradu per grátiam tuam cápere potióra mereántur.

Quod sequitur dicit submissa voce legendo, ita tamen quod a circumstantibus possit audiri:

Per eúmdem Dóminum nostrum Jesum
Christum Fílium tuum, qui tecum vivit,

RECEIVE the Holy Ghost, that you may have strength, and be able to resist the devil and his temptations. In the name of the Lord.

Each one after the imposition of the Bishop's hands returns to his place before the altar and kneels.

Then the Bishop holding his right hand extended, continues till the end of the Preface.

Send forth upon them, we beseech Thee, O Lord, the Holy Ghost, by Whom they may be strengthened with the gift of Thy seven-fold grace for the faithful performance of Thy ministry. Let the practice of every virtue abound in them, mild authority, constant modesty, the purity of innocence and the observance of spiritual discipline. In their conduct let Thy precepts shine forth, so that the people may follow, in holy imitation, the example of their chastity; and bearing before them the testimony of a good conscience, may they persevere firm and steadfast in Christ, and by merited successes deserve to rise by Thy grace from a lower grade to higher dignities.

What follows, he reads in a low voice so that, however, he may be heard by those standing near him.

Through the same Jesus Christ our Lord Thy Son, Who liveth and reigneth et regnat in unitáte Spíritus sancti Deus : per ómnia sǽculórum. R. Amen.

Post hæc Pontifex sedens cum mitra cuilibet ordinando ante se genuflexo, stolam quam singuli in manu habent, imponit, successive super humerum sinistrum, dicens singulis :

ACCIPÉ stolam  cándidam de manu Dei, adímpile ministérium tuum : potens enim est Deus, ut aúgeat tibi grátiam suam : Qui vivit, et regnat in sǽculórum. R. Amen.

Post hæc Pontifex accipiens dalmaticam, induit ea quemlibet successive dicens :*

INDUAT te Dóminus induménto salutis, et vestiménto lætitiæ, et dalmática justitiæ circúmdet te semper. In nómine Domini. R. Amen.

Postremo Pontifex accipit, et tradit omnibus librum Evangeliorum, quem manu dextera tangunt, dicens :†

with Thee in the unity of the Holy Ghost, God, world without end. R. Amen.

After this, the Bishop, sitting with his mitre on, puts the stole, which they hold in their hands, on the left shoulder of each of those to be ordained, who are kneeling before him, saying to each in turn:

RECEIVE this shining ¶ stole from the hand of God, fulfil thy ministry; for God is powerful to increase His grace unto thee. Who liveth and reigneth world without end. R. Amen.

He makes over each the sign of the cross, and then the assistants fasten the ends of each one's stole under the right arm.

After this, the Bishop taking the dalmatic puts it on each one in succession, saying at the same time:*

MAY the Lord clothe thee with the garment of salvation and the vestment of joy, and may He encompass thee always with the dalmatic of justice. In the name of the Lord. R. Amen.

Then the Bishop presents to all the Book of Gospels which they touch with their right hand while the Bishop says: †

RECEIVE the power of reading the Gospel in the church of God, both for the living and for the dead. In the name of the Lord. R. Amen.

* If there be but one dalmatic, he puts it on each as far as the shoulder only, and leaves it remain on the last one.

† See Note, p. 18.

Quo facto, Pontifex stans ad altare conversus dicit sine mitra:

Orémus.

Et ministri:

R. Leváte.

Et vertens se ad ordinatos, dicit:

EXAUDI, Dómine, preces nostras, et super hos fámulos tuos Spíritum tuæ bene †dictiōnis emitte: ut cœlesti múnere ditati, et tuæ majestatis grátiam possint acquírere, et bene vivéndi áliis exémplum præbére. Orémus.

DOMINE sancte, Pater fídei, spei, et grátiæ, et proféctuum remunerátor, qui in cœlestibus, et terrénis Angelórum ministériis ubíque dispósitis, per ómnia eleménta voluntátis tuæ diffúndis efféctum, hos quoque fámulos tuos spirituáli dignáre illustráre afféctu; ut tuis obsequiis expedíti, sanctis altáribus tuis

After this, the Bishop arises without his mitre, and turned towards the altar, says:

Let us pray.

And the ministers:

Let us bend our knees.

R. Arise.

And turning to those ordained, the Bishop says:

H EAR O Lord, our prayers, and send forth the spirit of Thy X benediction, upon these Thy servants, that, enriched by this heavenly gift, they may obtain the favor of Thy Majesty, and set an example of good living to others. Through our Lord Jesus Christ Thy Son, Who liveth and reigneth with Thee in the unity of the same Holy Ghost, God, world without end. R. Amen.

Let us pray.

O HOLY Lord, Father of Faith, Hope and Grace, and Rewarder of all growth in virtue, Who in the heavenly and earthly ministrations of Angels, everywhere appointed, dost diffuse the effect of Thy will through all the elements, vouchsafe to illumine these also, Thy servants, with spiritual love, that ready to do Thy bidding, they may grow up pure ministers Deinde suggeste Archidiacono, redeunt ad loca sua.

DE ORDINATIONE PRESBYTERI.

Diaconis ordinatis, Pontifex redit ad Missale et legit Tractum usque ad ultimum versiculum exclusive.
Deinde cum mitra revertitur ante altare. ubi sedet super faldistorium.

Tunc Archidiaconus vocat ordinandos dicens:

Accedant qui ordinandi sunt ad ordinem Presbyteratus.

Et mox nominatim leguntur per Notarium. et illi ad
Pontificem accedunt. et coram eo in modum

Through our Lord Jesus Christ Thy Son, Who liveth and reigneth with Thee in the unity of the same Holy Ghost, God, world without end. R. Amen.

THE ORDINATION OF PRIESTS.

After the ordination of Deacons, the Bishop returns to the Missal and reads the Tract as far as the last versicle exclusively. Then, with his mitre on, he returns to the middle of the altar, where he sits upon the faldstool.

Then the Archdeacon calls those who are to be ordained, saying:

Let those who are to be ordained to the Order of Priesthood come forward.

And their names are read by the Notary, and they come up to the Bishop, and arrange themselves before him in a semicircle.

Tunc Archidiaconus præsentat ordinandos Pontifici, dicens:

REVERENDISSIME Pater, póstulat sancta mater Ecclésia cathólica, ut hos præséntes Diáconos ad onus Pres-bytérii ordinétis.

Et Pontifex interrogat, dicens:

Scis illos esse dignos?

Respondeat Archidiaconus:

Quantum humána fragilitas nosse sinit,
et scio, et testíficor ipsos dignos esse ad
hujus onus offícií.

Pontifex dicit:

Deo grátias.

Et annuntiat clero, et populo, dicens:

QUONIAM, fratres caríssimi, rectóri navis, et navígio deferéndis éadem est, vel securitatis rátio, vel communis timoris, par eórum debet esse senté-tia, quorum causa communis exsístit.
Neque enim fuit frustra a Pátribus institútum, ut de electíone illórum, qui ad régi-men altáris adhibéndi sunt, consulátur

Then the Archdeacon presents to the Bishop those who are to be ordained, saying:

MOST Reverend Father, our Holy Mother, the Catholic Church, asks that you ordain the Deacons here present to the functions of the Priesthood.

And the Bishop interrogates saying:

Dost thou know them to be worthy?

The Archdeacon answers:

As far as human frailty alloweth me to know, I both know and bear witness that they are worthy of the charge of this office.

And the Bishop says:

Thanks be to God.

Then he makes the following address to the clergy and people:

SINCE, dearly beloved brethren, the master of a ship and the passengers have common motives for security or fear, in like manner those who have a common interest should agree in opinion.

For it was not without reason that the Fathers determined that the people also should be consulted touching the choice of those who are to be employed in the service of the altar.

etiam pόpulus: quia de vita et conversatiōne praeſentāndi, quod nonnūmquam ignorātur a plūribus, scitur a paucis; et necesse est, ut facilius ei quis obediēntiam exhibeat ordināto, cui assēnsum præbuerit ordināndo.

Horum síquidem Diaconórum in Presbýteros, auxiliante Dómino, ordinandórum conversátio (quantum mihi videtur) probáta, et Deo plácita exsistit, et digna (ut árbitror) ecclesiástici honoris augmēnto. Sed ne unum fortásse, vel paucos, aut decípiat assénsio, vel fallat afféctio, senténtia est expeténda multórum. Itaque quid de eórum áctibus aut móribus nové ritis, quid de mérito sentiátis, líbera voce pandátis; et his testimónium Sacerdótii magis pro mérito, quam affectiōne aliqua, tribuátis. Si quis ígitur habet áliquid contra illos, pro Deo, et propter Deum, cum fidúcia éxeat, et dicat; verúmtamen memor sit conditiōnis suæ.

Deinde Pontifex. facta aliqua mora, convertens sermonem suum ad ordinandos, admonet eos dicens:

Because, as regards the life and conduct of him who is presented, it sometimes happens that what is hidden from the many, is known to a few ; and besides, it is necessary, in order that the faithful may more easily yield obedience to him when ordained, to whose ordination they have given their consent.

Now, so far as I can judge, the conduct of these Deacons who are, with the assistance of the Lord, about to be ordained Priests, is approved and pleasing to God, and worthy, in my opinion, of an increase of ecclesiastical honor.

But lest favor or affection should deceive one or a few, the opinion of many should be sought. Wherefore freely proclaim whatsoever you may know of their actions or morals, as well as of their worthiness; and let your assent to their ordination be influenced more by their merit, than by favor or affection. Should any one, therefore, have anything against them, let him in God's name, and for God's sake, come forward with confidence and speak. Howbeit let him be mindful of his own condition.

Then the Bishop after a short pause addresses himself to those who are to be ordained, and admonishes them, saying :

CONSECRANDI, filii dilectissimi, in Presbyteratus officium, illud digne suscipere, ac susceptum laudabiliter exequi studeatis. Sacerdotem etenim optinet offerre, benedicere, praeesse, predicare, et baptizare. Cum magno quippe timore ad tantum gradum ascendendum est, ac providendum, ut coelestis sapientia, probi mores, et diuturna justitiae observatio ad id electos commendent. Unde Dominus praecipiens Moysi, ut septuaginta viros de universo Israël in adjutorium suum eligeret, quibus Spiritus sancti dona dividenderet, suggessit: Quos tu nosti, quod senes populi sunt. Vos siquidem in septuaginta viris, et senibus signati estis; si per Spiritum septiformem, Decalogum legis custodientes, probi, et maturi in scientia similiter et opere eritis.

Sub eodem quoque mysterio, et eadem figura in novo Testamento Dominus septuaginta duos elegit, ac binos ante se in predicationem misit; ut doceret verbo simul, et facto, ministros Ecclesiæ suæ, fide et opere debere esse perfectos; seu

EARLY beloved children, who are about to be consecrated to the office of Priesthood, strive to receive it worthily, and to discharge its functions in a praiseworthy manner. For it is the duty of the priest to offer sacrifice, to bless, to govern, to preach and to baptize. In truth, with great fear should one ascend to so high a rank, and care should be taken that heavenly wisdom, approved morals, and a long observance of righteousness, should commend those chosen thereunto. Wherefore the Lord, when commanding Moses to choose seventy men from all Israel as his helpers, amongst whom He would give of the gifts of the Holy Ghost, added these words: "Whom thou knowest to be ancients of the people." You indeed are typified in these seventy elders if, by the sevenfold Spirit, observing the ten commandments of the law, you are virtuous and perfect in knowledge and in work.

Under the same mystery, and also by the same figure, did our Lord in the New Testament choose the seventy-two and send them two by two before Him to preach, to show us at the same time by word and deed, that the ministers of His Church should be perfect in faith and works, in other words, géminæ dilectionis, Dei scilicet et proximi, virtute fundatos. Tales itaque esse studeatis, ut in adjutorium Moyssi, et duodecim Apostolorum, Episcoporum videlicet catholicorum, qui per Moysem, et Apóstolos figurantur, digne, per gratiam Dei, eligi valeatis. Hac certe mira varietate Ecclesia sancta circundatur, ornatur, et regitur: cum alii in ea Pontifices, alii minoris ordinis Sacerdotes, Diaconi, et Subdiaconi, diversorum ordinum viri consecrantur; et ex multis, et alternae dignitatis membris unum Corpus Christi efficitur. Itaque, filii dilectissimi, quos ad nostrum adjutorium fratrum nostrorum arbitrium consecrandos elegit, servate in moribus vestris, castae et sanctae vitae integritatem. Agnoscite quod agitis: imitamini quod tractatis; quatenus mortis Dominicæ mysterium celebrantes, mortificare membra vestra a vitiis, et concupiscentiis omnibus procuratis. Sit doctrina vestra spiritualis medicina populo Dei; sit odor vitae vestrae delectamentum Ecclesiæ Christi; ut prædicacione atque exemplo aedificetis domum, id est, familiam Dei, quatenus nec thoroughly grounded in the two-fold love of God and of their neighbor.

Strive, therefore, to be such, that, by the grace of God, you may be worthily chosen as helpers of Moses and the twelve Apostles, that is, of the Catholic bishops, who are prefigured in Moses and the Apostles.

Truly wonderful is this variety of ministers with which God's holy Church is surrounded, adorned, and ruled; some are bishops, others next in dignity, priests, deacons, and subdeacons, men of different orders, all consecrated to God; thus is the one Body of Christ composed of many members of various grades of dignity.

As you, therefore, beloved children, have been chosen by the voice of our brethren to be consecrated as our coadjutors, preserve the purity of your lives in unspotted holiness. Bear in mind what you do. Let your conduct be in conformity with the action you perform, so that celebrating the mystery of the Lord's death, you take heed to mortify your members from all vices and lusts. Let your doctrine be spiritual medicine for the people of God; let the odor of your life be the delight of the Church of Christ; so that by your preaching and example you may build up the house, that is, the family of God; so nos de vestra provectione, nec vos de tanti officii susceptione damnari a Dómino, sed remunerári pótius mereámur. Quod ipse nobis concédat per grátiam suam. R. Amen.

Si non sint factæ ordinationes Subdiaconorum, vel Diaconorum, dicuntur Litaniæ, ut supra in ordinatione Subdiaconi dictum est, pag. 30.

Post hæc surgunt omnes, et ordinandis coram Pontifice binis et binis successive genuflectentibus, Pontifex stans ante faldistorium suum cum mitra, et nulla oratione, nulloque cantu præmissis, imponit simul utramque manum super caput cuiuslibet ordinandi successive, nihil dicens. Idemque faciunt post eum omnes sacerdotes qui adsunt, quorum tres,-aut plures, planetis vel saltem cum stolis parati, si commode fieri potest, esse deberent. Quo facto, tam Pontifex, quam Sacerdotes, tenent manus dexteras extensas super illos. Et Pontifex stans cum mitra, dicit: * that neither we may be condemned by the Lord for promoting you to so high an office, nor you for receiving it, but both may rather be deemed worthy of a reward; which may He Himself grant us through His grace. R. Amen.

O REMUS, fratres caríssimi, Deum Patrem omnipoténtem, ut super hos fámulos suos, quos ad Presbytérii munus élégit, cœlestia dona multíplicet; et quod ejus dignatióne suscípiunt, ipsius consequántur auxilio. Per Christum Dóminum nostrum. R. Amen.

* Tum Pontifex tum sacerdotes qui adstant, vix facta impositione utriusque manus, statim dexteras manus extendunt easque sic extensas tenent donec Episcopus orationem absolverit S. R. C. 31 Augusti 1872.

If no Subdeacons or Deacons are to be ordained, the Litany is said, as in the ordination of Subdeacons, (p. 30). Then all arise, the candidates come forward, two by two, and while they kneel, the Bishop standing before the faldstool with his mitre on, and without saying any prayer whatsoever, lays both hands on the head of each one. After this, all the priests who are present, three or more of whom, if convenient, should wear chasubles or at least stoles, do the same. Next, the Bishop and all the priests raise their right hands and hold them extended over the candidates, while the Bishop standing with his mitre on, says: *

LET us, dearly beloved brethren, beseech God the Father Almighty to multiply His heavenly gifts on these His servants, whom He has chosen for the office of Priesthood and enable them to fulfil by His help, what they undertake through His favor. Through Christ our Lord. R. Amen.

* Both the Bishop and priests who are present, after imposing both hands, extend their right hands and hold them extended until the Bishop has finished the prayer. S. C. R. Aug. 31, 1872. See other Note in Appendix.

Pontifex, deposita mitra, conversus ad altare, dicit:
Orémus.

Et ministri:

Flectámus génuia.

R. Leváte.

Et mox conversus ad ordinandos, dicit:

EXAUDI nos, quásumus, Dómine Deus noster, et super hos fámulos tuos bene ✚dictiónem sancti Spíritus, et grátiae Sacerdotális infúnde virtútem: ut, quos tuæ pietatis aspéctibus offérimus consecrádos, perpétua múnieris tui largitáte prosequáris. Per Dóminum nostrum Jesum Christum Fílium tuum, qui tecum vivit et regnat in unitáte ejúsdem Spíritus sancti Deus.

Tum extensis manibus ante pectus, dicit:

Per ómnia sácula sáculórum.

R. Amen.

Dóminus vobíscum.

R. Et cum spíritu tuo.

Sursum corda.

R. Habémus ad Dóminum.

Grátias agámus Dómino Deo nostro.

R. Dignum, et justum est.

The Bishop putting off his mitre turns towards the altar and says:

Let us pray.

And the ministers:

Let us bend our knees.

R. Arise.

And then turned towards those who are to be ordained, he says:

HEAR us, we beseech Thee, O Lord, our God, and pour down upon these Thy servants the blessing  of the Holy Ghost, and the strength of priestly grace, so that Thou mayest follow with a perpetual outpouring of Thy gifts those whom we present to be consecrated in the sight of Thy goodness. Through our Lord Jesus Christ Thy Son Who liveth and reigneth with Thee in the unity of the same Holy Ghost, God.

Then extending his hands before his breast, he says:

World without end.

R. Amen.

V. The Lord be with you.

R. And with thy spirit.

V. Lift up your hearts.

R. We have lifted them up to the Lord.

V. Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

R. It is meet and just.

Vere dignum, et justum est, æquum et salutare, nos tibi semper, et ubique gratiás ágere, Dómine sancte, Pater omnípotens, ætérne Deus, honórum auctor et distribútor ómnium dignitátum; per quem proficiunt univérsa, per quem cuncta firmántur, amplificátis semper in mélius natúræ rationális increméntis, per órdinem cóngrua ratióne dispósitum. Unde et Sacerdotáles gradus, atque offícia Levi-tárum, Sacraméntis mýsticis institúta crè-vérunt: ut cum Pontífices summos regén-dis pópolis præfecísses, ad eórum socie-tatis et óperis adjuméntum, sequéntis órdinis viros et secúndæ dignitátis elí-geres. Sic in erémo per septuagínta vi-rórum prudéntium mentes Móysi spíritum propagásti; quibus ille adjutóribus usus, in pópulo innúmeras multitúdines fácile gubernávit. Sic et in Eleázarum et Ithamá-rum fílios Aaron patérnæ plenitúdinis abundántiam transfudísti; ut ad hóstias salutáres, et frequentiórnis offícii Sacra-ménta, ministérium sufficeret Sacerdótum. Hac providéntia, Dómine, Apóstolis Filii tui Doctóres fídei cómites addidísti, quibus illi orbem totum secúndis prædicatiōnibus

It is truly meet and just, right and available to salvation, that we should always and in all places give thanks to Thee, O Holy Lord, Father Almighty, Eternal God, source of every honor and dispenser of all dignities; through Whom all things prosper, by Whom all things are made firm; Who dost continually increase and perfect the growth of our rational nature in a most orderly and suitable manner. Hence also have grown up the degrees of priesthood and the office of Levites instituted by mystic symbols. Hence, having appointed bishops to rule Thy people, Thou didst choose, as their companions and helpers, men next in rank and dignity. Thus, in the desert, didst Thou spread the spirit of Moses by means of the wisdom of the seventy elders, through whose assistance he governed with ease countless multitudes of Thy people. Thus also didst Thou communicate to Eleazar and Ithamar, the sons of Aaron, their father's fulness of power, that the number of priests might suffice for the service of frequent rites and saving sacrifices. So also, O Lord, didst Thou associate with the Apostles of Thy Son, teachers of the faith, through whom they have filled the whole world with their successful preach-impletevérunt. Quapropter infirmitati quoque nostrae, Dómine quásimus, hæc adjumenta largíre; qui quanto fragiliores sumus, tanto his plúribus indigémus. Da, quásimus omnípotens Pater, in hos famulos tuos Presbytérii dignitátem; innova in viscéribus eórum Spíritum sanctitátis; ut accéptum a te Deus secúndi mériti munus obtíneant, censurámque morum exémplo suæ conversatiónis insínuent. Sint próvidi cooperatóres órdinis nostri; elúceat in eis totius forma justítiae, ut bonam ratiónen dispensatiónis sibi créditae redditúri, æternæ beatitúdinis præmia consequántur.

Quod sequitur, legit submissa voce. ita tamen quod a circumstantibus audiri possit.

Per eúndem Dóminum nostrum Jesum Christum Fílium tuum: qui tecum vivit et regnat in unitáte ejúsdem Spíritus sancti Deus, per ómnia sǽcula sǽculórum.
R. Amen.

Pontifex sedet, accepta mitra, et reflectit stolam ab humero sinistro cuiuslibet, capiens partem, quæ retro pendet, et imponens super dexterum humerum, aptat eam ante pectus, in modum crucis, singulis dicens:

ACCIPE jugum Dómini; jugum enim ejus suáve est, et onus ejus leve.

ing. Wherefore, we beseech Thee, O Lord, grant also the same helps to our weakness, which, inasmuch as it is greater than theirs, stands so much the more in need of such assistance. Bestow, then, we beseech Thee, Almighty Father, the dignity of the Priesthood upon these Thy servants; renew in them the spirit of holiness, that they may receive from Thee, O God, this office next to ours in dignity, and that the example of their lives may be for others an incentive to virtue. May they be prudent fellow-workers with us; may the spirit of all justice shine forth in them, that, when they come to render an account of the stewardship entrusted to them, they may receive the reward of bliss everlasting.

What follows he reads in a low voice, but loud enough to be heard by those about him.

Through the same Jesus Christ Thy Son, our Lord, Who liveth and reigneth in the unity of the same Holy Ghost, God, world without end. R. Amen.

The Bishop sits with his mitre on, and taking the stole which hangs from the left shoulder of each one, brings over the right shoulder the portion that is behind, arranging it in the form of a cross before the breast of each, saying at the same time:

RECEIVE the yoke of the Lord; for His yoke is sweet and His burden light.

Postea imponit cuiilibet successive casulam usque ad scapulas, quam quilibet teneat super humeros complicatam, a parte anteriori deorsum dependentem, singulis dicens:

ACCIPE vestém Sacerdotálem, per quam caritas intelligitur; potens est enim Deus, ut augeat tibi caritatem, et opus perfectum.

Ordinandi respondent:

Deo gratias.

Surgit Pontifex sine mitra, et omnibus genua flectentibus, dicit:

DEUS sanctificationum omnium auctor, cuius vera consecratio, plenariaque benedictio est, tu Domine, super hos famulos tuos, quos ad Presbyterii honorem dedicamus, munus tuum bene~~+~~ dictonis infunde; ut gravitate acutum, et censura vivendi probent se seniores, his instituti disciplinis, quas Tito, et Timotheo Paulus exposuit; ut in lege tua die ac nocte meditantes, quod legerint, credant; quod crediderint, doceant; quod docuerint, imitantur; justitiam constantiam, misericordiam, fortitudinem, ceterasque virtutes in se ostendant; exemplo

Then he places over the shoulders of each a chasuble, folded behind and hanging down in front, at the same time saying:

RECEIVE the priestly vestment by which charity is signified; for God is powerful to make you grow in charity and every perfect work.

Those ordained answer:

Thanks be to God.

The Bishop takes off his mitre, rises; all kneel, and he says:

OGOD Author of all holiness, to Whom belong true consecration and the fulness of blessing, do Thou, O Lord, pour down upon these, Thy servants, whom we dedicate to the dignity of the Priesthood, the favor of Thy ✚ blessing, so that by the gravity of their conduct and the strictness of their lives they may prove themselves elders, instructed by those teachings which Paul set forth to Titus and Timothy; that, meditating on Thy law, day and night, they may believe what they read, teach what they believe and practise what they teach.

May they show forth in themselves justice, constancy, mercy, fortitude, and all other virtues. May they preach by example, præbeant; admonitione confirment; ac purum et immaculatum ministerii sui donum custodiant; et in obsequium plebis tuæ, panem et vinum in corpus et sanguinem Filii tui immaculata benedictione transforment; et inviolabili caritate in virum perfectum, in mensuram ætatis plenitudinis Christi, in die justi et æterni judicii Dei, conscientia pura, fide vera, Spíritu sancto pleni resurgent. Per eundem Dominum nostrum Jesum Christum Filium tuum: qui tecum vivit et regnat in unitate ejusdem Spíritus sancti Deus, per omnia sæcula sæculorum.

R. Amen.

Tunc Pontifex, sine mitra ante altare conversus, flexis genibus incipit alta voce, schola prosequente, hymnum:

Veni, Creator Spíritus,
Mentes tuorum visita,
Imple superna grátia,
Quæ tu creasti, péctora.

Hic Surgit Pontifex, et facit ut in fine hymni habetur: interim schola prosequitur hymnum; qui si propter Ordinandorum multitudinem necesse sit, repetatur. omissio primo versu:

Qui diceris Paráclitus, Altissimi donum Dei,
Fons vivus, ignis, caritas,
Et spiritális unctio.

confirm by admonition, and preserve pure and unspotted the gift of their ministry ; and may they change by the holy words of consecration bread and wine into the Body and Blood of Thy Son as the homage of Thy people.

And in the day of the just and eternal judgment of God, may they, with conscience pure, with true faith, and full of the Holy Spirit, rise by stainless charity unto a perfect man, unto the measure of the age of the fulness of Christ.

Through the same Jesus Christ Thy Son our Lord, Who liveth and reigneth with Thee in the unity of the same Holy Ghost, God, world without end.

R. Amen.

Then the Bishop, with his mitre off, turned towards the altar, kneels and begins in a loud voice, and the choir takes up the following hymn :

Come, Holy Ghost, Creator, come,
From Thy bright heavenly throne !
Come, take possession of our souls,
And make them all Thine Own !

Thou Who art called the Paraclete,
Best Gift of God above,
The Living Spring, the Living Fire,
Sweet Unction, and True Love !

Tu septifórmis múnere,

R. Amen.

(Tempore Paschali Hymnus terminandus est sic.)

Deo Patri sit glória,
Et Fílio qui a mórtuis

In sempitérana * sǽcula.

R. Amen.

* Infra Octavam Pentecostes loco sempitérana, dicitur sǽculórum.

Thou Who art sevenfold in Thy grace,
Finger of God's right hand,
His Promise, teaching little ones
To speak and understand !

O guide our minds with Thy blest light,
With love our hearts inflame,
And with Thy strength, which ne'er decays,
Confirm our mortal frame.

Far from us drive our hellish foe,
True peace unto us bring,
And through all perils guide us safe
Beneath Thy sacred wing.

Through Thee may we the Father know,
Through Thee the Eternal Son,
And Thee the Spirit of Them Both,
Thrice blessed Three in One.

All glory to the Father be,
With His co-equal Son,
The same to Thee O Paraclete,
While endless ages run. R. Amen.

(The hymn is thus concluded during Paschal time.)

Now to the Father and the Son
Who rose from death, be glory given,
With Thee, O holy Comforter,
Henceforth by all in earth and heaven.
R. Amen.

Dicto primo Versu, surgit Pontifex, et sedet in faldistorio cum mitra, et depositis chirothecis, et annulo Pontificali reassumpto, ponitur ei gremiale, sive mappula super gremium, et singuli ordinandi successive coram eo genua flectunt; et Pontifex cum oleo catechumenorum inungit uniuicue ambas manus simul junctas, in modum crucis, producendo cum pollice suo dextero in dictum oleum intineto duas lineas, videlicet, a pollice dexteræ manus usque ad indicem sinistræ, et a pollice sinistræ usque ad indicem dexteræ, ungendo mox totaliter palmas, dicens, dum quemlibet inungit:

CONSECRARE, et sanctificare digneris, Dómine, manus istas per istam unctionem, et nostram bene  dictiōnem.

R. Amen.

Pontifex producit manu dextera signum crucis super manus illius quem ordinat, et prosecutur:

Ut quæcumque benedixerint, benedicantur, et quæcumque consecraverint, consecrēntur, et sanctificentur, in nōmine Dómini nostri Jesu Christi.

Amen.

After the first verse, the Bishop rises, takes the seat prepared for him and puts on his mitre; he then removes his gloves and takes again his episcopal ring; an apron or towel is placed in his lap, and the candidates approach one by one and kneel before him. The Bishop then anoints both hands with the oil of Catechumens in the following manner: having dipped the thumb of his right hand in the oil, he draws two lines in the form of a cross—one from the thumb of the right hand to the forefinger of the left, and the other from the thumb of the left hand to the forefinger of the right—finally, he anoints the whole of both palms, saying at the same time:

VOUCHSAFE, O Lord, to consecrate and sanctify these hands by this unction, and  by our blessing.

R. Amen.

The Bishop makes with his right hand the sign of the cross over the hands of each of those whom he ordains, and continues:

That whatsoever they shall bless may be blessed, and whatsoever they shall consecrate may be consecrated and sanctified; in the name of our Lord, Jesus Christ.

And each of those ordained answers:

Amen.

Tum Pontifex claudit, seu jungit manus cujuslibet successive, quas sic consecratas aliquis ministrorum Pontificis albo panniculo lineo simul, vide licet, dexteram super sinistram alligat; et mox unusquisque ad ordinem suum reddit; et sic clausas, et alligatas manus tenet. Omnium manibus unctis, et consecratis, Pontifex pollicem mica panis tergit; tum tradit cuilibet successive Calicem cum vino, et aqua, et Patenam superpositam cum Hostia, et ipsi illam accipiunt inter indices et medios digitos, et cuppam Calicis et Patenam simul tangunt, Pontifice singulis dicente:

A CCIPE potestátem offérre sacrificíum Deo, Missásque celebráre, tam pro vivis, quam pro defúnctis. In nōmine Dómini. R. Amen.

His peractis, Pontifex lavat manus, et tempore opportuno unus ex Diaconis noviter Ordinatis accedit ad latus Evangelii et simul cum Pontifice Evangelium legit. Proceditur in Missa ordine solito usque ad Offertorium inclusive.

Pontifex vero, Offertorio lecto, accepta mitra, vadit ad faldistorium ante medium altaris, et ibi sedens accipit Offertorium ab omnibus ordinatis, qui omnes accedunt bini, et bini ad Pontifice, coram quo genuflexi offerunt illi singulas candelas accensas, et osculantur ejus manum; primo Presbyteri tum Diaconi successive, et alii suo ordine.*

* Si ordinandorum ingens esset numerus, posset ab uno tantum in singulis ordinibus præsentari cereus quemadmodum fit Romæ in Lateranensi Basilica. Martinucci Lib. vii, cap. iii, n. 334.

Then the Bishop closes the hands of each candidate, and one of the ministers binds them together with a white linen cloth, putting the right hand on the left; and then each returns to his place, keeping his hands thus closed and bound. When the hands of all have been anointed and consecrated, the Bishop purifies his thumb with a small piece of bread; then he presents to each one successively a chalice, containing wine and water, and a paten upon it, with a host; each one takes the paten between the index and middle fingers, touching the cup of the chalice and the paten at the same time, while the Bishop says to each:

RECEIVE power to offer sacrifice to God and to celebrate Mass, as well for the living as for the dead, in the name of the Lord. R. Amen.

After this, the Bishop washes his hands and continues Mass as usual. At the proper time the Gospel is read by one of the newly ordained Deacons. During the reading of the Offertory, or before, if necessary, the newly ordained priests also wash their hands, wiping them with the linen cloths with which they were bound. When the Bishop has finished the Offertory, he puts on his mitre, and taking his seat before the middle of the altar, receives the offering of a lighted candle from each of those ordained, who go up two by two to the Bishop, and kneeling before him kiss his hand (that is, his ring) as they make the offering; first the Priests, then the Deacons successively and the others according to their order. *

* If the number of those ordained be great, a wax candle may be offered by one only of each Order, as is done in the Basilica of Saint John Lateran, Rome.—Martinucci, Book 7. chap. III. n. 334.

Accepto singulorum offertorio, Pontifex lavat manus, et surgit sine mitra, ac tollitur faldistorium, et prosequitur Missam. Presbyteri vero ordinati, post Pontificem, vel hiac et inde, ubi magis commodum erit, in terra genuflexi, habeant liros coram se, dicentes: Súscipe, sancte Pater, etc., et omnia alia de Missa, prout dicit Pontifex: qui tamen bene advertat, quod Secretas morose dicat, et aliquantulum alte, ita ut ordinati Sacerdotes possint secum omnia dicere, et præsertim verba consecrationis, quæ dici debent eodem momento per ordinatos, quo dicuntur per Pontificem.

Pontifex accipit patenam cum Hostia, quam offerens, dicit:

SUSCIPE, sancte Pater, omnípotens, æterne Deus, hanc immaculátam hóstiam, quam ego indígnus fámlulus tuus óffero tibi Deo meo vivo, et vero, pro innumerabílibus peccátis, et offensiónibus, et negligéntiis meis, et pro ómnibus circumstántibus, sed et pro ómnibus fidélibus christiánis vivis atque defúnctis: ut mihi, et illis proficiat ad salútem in vitam ætérnam. Amen.

Deinde faciens crucem cum eadem patena, deponit Hostiam super corporale: infundit vinum et aquam: et aquam miscendam in Calice bene + dicit, dicens:

DEUS qui humánæ substántiæ dignitátem mirabiliter condidísti, et mira-

When all the offerings have been received the Bishop washes his hands, takes off his mitre, and rises; the faldstool is removed, and he proceeds with the Mass. The Priests who have been ordained kneel on the floor of the sanctuary behind the Bishop, or on either side of him, if more convenient, and with their books before them, say with him: Accept, O Holy Father, etc., and all the rest of the Mass. The Bishop recites the prayers slowly and somewhat louder than usual, that they may be able to accompany him. This refers especially to the words of Consecration, which should be pronounced by the Bishop and the newly ordained at the same moment.

The Bishop takes the paten with the Host and offering it up, says:

ACCEPT, O Holy Father, Almighty, Everlasting God, this stainless Host, which I, Thine unworthy servant, offer unto Thee, my God, living and true, for mine innumerable sins, offences, and negligences, and for all here present; as also for all faithful Christians, both living and dead, that it may be profitable for my own and for their salvation unto life eternal. Amen.

Then making the sign of the cross with the paten, he places the host upon the corporal. He pours wine and water into the chalice, blessing the water before it is mixed, saying:

OGOD, † Who hast wonderfully framed man's exalted nature, and still more wonderfully restored it;

bílius reformásti: da nobis per hujus aquæ et vini mystérium, ejus divinitatis esse consórtes, qui humanitatis nostræ fíeri dignátus est párticeps, Jesus Christus Fílius tuus Dóminus noster: Qui tecum vivit et regnat in unitáte Spíritus sancti Deus: per ómnia sǽcula sǽculórum. Amen.

Postea accipit calicem, et offert dicens:

OFFERIMUS tibi, Dómine, cálicem salutáris, tuam deprecántes cleméntiam: ut in conspéctu divínæ majestatis tuæ, pro nostra, et totius mundi salúte cum odóre suavitatis ascéndat. Amen.

Deinde facit signum crucis cum calice, et illum ponit super corporale, et palla cooperit: tum junctis manibus super Altare, aliquantulum inclinatus, dicit:

IN spíritu humilitatis, et in ánimo contrítio suscipiámur a te, Dómine: et sic fiat sacrificium nostrum in conspéctu tuo hódie, ut pláceat tibi, Dómine Deus.

Erectus expandit manus, easque in altum porrectas jungens, elevatis ad cœlum oculis, et statim demissis, dicit:

VENI sanctificátor, omnípotens ætérne Deus: Benedict oblatæ, prosequendo: et bénē ✠ dic hoc sacrificium, tuo sancto nómini præparátum.

grant us, by the mystic signification of this commingling of water and wine, to become partakers of His Godhead who vouchsafed to become partaker of our manhood, Jesus Christ, Thy Son our Lord; who liveth and reigneth with Thee in the unity of the Holy Ghost, God, world without end. Amen.

Afterwards he takes the chalice, and offers it, saying:

WE offer unto Thee, O Lord, the chalice of salvation, beseeching Thy clemency that, in the sight of Thy divine Majesty, it may ascend with the odor of sweetness, for our salvation, and for that of the whole world. Amen.

Then he makes the sign of the cross with the chalice, and places it upon the corporal and covers it with the pall. Then with his hands joined upon the altar, and slightly bowing down, he says:

TN a humble spirit and a contrite heart may we be received by Thee, O Lord; and let our Sacrifice be so made in Thy sight this day that it may please Thee, O Lord God.

Raising his eyes and extending out his hands, he says:

COME, O Sanctifier, Almighty, Eternal God, He blesses the oblation, continuing: and bless † this Sacrifice set forth to Thy holy name.

Pontifex junctis manibus, accedit ad cornu Epistolæ
Altaris, ubi digitos lavat dicens:

Deinde aliquantulum inclinatus in medio Altaris, junctis manibus super eo dicit:

* Omittitur Gloria tempore Passionis.

The Bishop with his hands joined, goes to the Epistle side of the Altar, where he washes his fingers while he recites the following verses:

Psalm 25.

I WILL wash my hands among the innocent: and I will compass Thine altar, O Lord.

That I may hear the voice of praise, and tell of all Thy wondrous works.

O Lord, I have loved the beauty of Thy house, and the place where Thy glory dwelleth. Take not away my soul, O God, with the wicked, nor my life with men of blood.

In whose hands are iniquities: their right hand is filled with gifts.

But as for me, I have walked in my innocence: redeem me and be merciful unto me.

My foot hath stood in the right way: in the churches I will bless Thee, O Lord.

* Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost.

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Then slightly bowing in the middle of the altar with his hands joined upon it, he says:

* In Passion-time, the Gloria is omitted.

SUSCIPE, sancta Trinitas, hanc oblationem, quam tibi offérimus ob memóriam passiónis, resurrectiōnis, et ascensiōnis Iesu Christi Dómini nostri: et in honórem beátæ Maríæ semper Vírginis, et beáti Joánnis Baptistæ, et sanctórum Apostolórum Petri et Pauli, et istórum, et ómnium Sanctórum: ut illis proficiat ad honórem, nobis autem ad salútem: et illi pro nobis intercédere dignéntur in cœlis, quorum memóriam ágimus in terris. Per eúmdem Christum Dóminum nostrum. Amen.

Postea osculatur Altare, et versus ad populum, extensus, et jungens manus, dicit:

ORATE fratres: ut meum ac vestrum sacrificiūm acceptábile fiat apud Deum Patrem omnipoténtem.

Ministri respondent.

SUSCIPIAT Dóminus sacrificiūm de mánibus tuis ad laudem, et glóriam nóminalis sui, ad utilitátem quoque nostram, totiusque Ecclésiæ suæ sanctæ.

Ordinati cum Pontifice dicunt: Amen.

Deinde manibus extensis subjungit Orationes secretas.

RECEIVE, O Holy Trinity, this Oblation, which we offer unto Thee, in memory of the Passion, Resurrection and Ascension of our Lord Jesus Christ, and in honor of blessed Mary ever Virgin, of blessed John, the Baptist, of the holy Apostles, Peter and Paul, of these and of all Thy Saints: that it may be to their honor and to our salvation: and may they vouchsafe to intercede for us in heaven, whose memory we celebrate on earth. Through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

Then he kisses the altar, and having turned himself towards the people, extending and joining his hands, he says:

PRAY, my brethren, that my Sacrifice and yours may be acceptable to God the Father Almighty.

The ministers answer:

MAY the Lord receive the Sacrifice from thy hands, to the praise and glory of His name, to our benefit, and to that of all His holy Church.

Those ordained say with the Bishop: Amen.
Then with outstretched hands he recites the Secret Prayers.

Deinde accipiens Calicem dicit:

giving thanks to Thee, He makes the sign of the cross over the Host, did bless, † break, and give unto His disciples, saying : Take and eat ye all of this.

Holding the host with both hands, the Bishop pronounces the words of Consecration, distinctly and attentively over the host, and at the same time over all the hosts if there are many to be consecrated.

FOR THIS IS MY BODY.

After pronouncing the words of Consecration, and making a genuflection, he adores the sacred Host, then he rises, elevates It for the adoration of the people, replaces It upon the corporal and adores It again.

Then taking the chalice, he says:

IN like manner, after supper, He takes the chalice with both hands, taking also this excellent chalice into His holy and venerable hands: and giving thanks to Thee, Holding the chalice with his left hand he makes the sign of the cross over it with his right, He blessed, † and gave to His disciples, saying : Take, and drink ye all of it.

Profert verba consecrationis super calicem, attente,

HIC EST ENIM CALIX SANGUINIS MEI, NOVI ET ÆTERNI TESTAMENTI: MYSTERIUM FIDEI: QUI PRO VOBIS ET PRO MULTIS EF-FUNDETUR IN REMISSIONEM PECCATORUM.

Prolatis verbis consecrationis, deponit Calicem super Corporale, dicens:

Hæc quotiescùmque feceritis, in mei memóriam faciéatis.

Genuflexus adorat: surgit, ostendit populo, deponit,

manibus, dicit:

Then he pronounces the words of consecration over the Chalice attentively and without interruption, holding it slightly elevated.

MY BLOOD OF THE NEW AND SINS.

After pronouncing the words of consecration, he places the Chalice upon the corporal, saying:

As often as ye do these things, ye shall do them in remembrance of Me.

Making a genuflection he adores, then rising, he elevates the Chalice for the adoration of the people, replaces it, covers it and again adores. Then disjoining his hands, he says:

pro quibus orare intendit, deinde extensis manibus prosequitur:*

Ipsis, Dómine, et ómnibus in Christo quiescéntibus, locum re-frigérii, lucis et pacis, ut indúlgeas, deprecámur. Jungit manus, et caput inclinat. Per eúmdem Chris-tum Dóminum nostrum. Amen.

He joins his hands and prays for a few moments for such of the dead as he intends to pray for, and those ordained do likewise; then the Bishop extending his hands, continues:

To these, O Lord, and to all who rest in Christ, grant, we pray Thee, a place of refreshment, of light, and of peace. He joins his hands, and bows his head. Through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

He strikes his breast with his right hand and those ordained do likewise.

TO us also, Thy sinful servants, who hope in the multitude of Thy mercies, vouchsafe to grant some part and fellowship with Thy holy Apostles and Martyrs: with John, Stephen, Matthias, Barnabas, Ignatius, Alexander, Marcellinus, Peter, Felicitas, Perpetua, Agatha, Lucy, Agnes, Cecilia, Anastasia, and all Thy Saints: into whose company, not weighing our merits, but pardoning our offences, we beseech Thee to admit us. He joins his hands. Through Christ our Lord.

R. Amen.

Jungit manus.

BY whom, O Lord, Thou dost always create, He makes the sign of the cross three times over the Host and Chalice conjointly. sanctify, † quicken, † bless, † and bestow upon us all these good things.

He uncovers the Chalice, and makes a genuflection; then taking the Host in his right hand, and holding the Chalice in his left, he makes with the Host the sign of the cross three times over the mouth of the Chalice, saying:

Through Him, † and with Him, † and in Him, † He makes the sign of the cross twice between the Chalice and his breast. is unto Thee, God the Father † Almighty, in the unity of the Holy † Ghost, Raising the Chalice a little with the Host, he says: all honor and glory.

He replaces the Host, covers the Chalice and makes a genuflection; and rising, he says:

World without end.

R. Amen.

He joins his hands.

Oremus.

Præcéptis salutáribus móni, et divína institutióne formáti, audémus dícere :

Extedit manus.

Pater noster, qui es in cœlis :

véniat regnum tuum : Fiat volún-tas tua, sicut in cœlo, et in terra.
Panem nostrum quotidiánum da nobis hodie : et dimítte nobis débita nostra, sicut et nos dimíttimus debi-tóribus nostris. Et ne nos indúcas in tentatióнем.

R. Sed líbera nos a malo.

Postquam a ministris responsum fuerit, Sed libera nos a malo. Presbyteri Ordinati dicunt :

Amen.

Deinde accipit Patenam inter indicem, et medium digitos, et dicit :

L IBERA nos, quásimus Dómine, ab ómnibus malis, præ-téritis, præséntibus, et futúris : et in-tercedénte beáta, et glóriosa semper

Let us pray.

Admonished by Thy saving precepts, and following Thy divine institution, we make bold to say :

He extends his hands.

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name : Thy kingdom come : Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread : and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation.

R. But deliver us from evil.

After the ministers have answered But deliver us from evil, the Priests ordained say:

Amen.

He takes the paten between the index and middle fingers, and says:

DELIVER us, we beseech Thee, O Lord, from all evils, past, present, and to come : and by the intercession of blessed and glorious

Vírgine Dei Genitríce María, cum beátis Apóstolis tuis Petro et Paulo, atque Andréa, et ómnibus Sanctis, Signat se cum Patena a fronte ad pectus, et eam osculatur: da propítius pacem in diébus nostris:
ut ope misericórdiaë tuæ adjúti, et a peccáto simus semper líberi, et ab omni perturbatióne secúri.

Submittit Patenam Hostiæ, discooperit Calicem, genuflectit, surgit, accipit Hostiam, frangit eam super Calicem, per medium, dicens:

Per eúmdem Dóminum nostrum Jesum Christum Fílium tuum.

Partem, quæ in dextera est, ponit super Patenam.
Deinde ex parte, quæ in sinistra remansit, fran-git particulam, dicens:

Qui tecum vivit et regnat in uni-tate Spíritus sancti Deus.

Mary ever Virgin, Mother of God, together with Thy blessed Apostles Peter and Paul, and Andrew, and all the Saints, He makes the sign of the cross on himself, from his forehead to his breast, with the paten, and kisses it. graciously give peace in our days: that, aided by the help of Thy mercy, we may be always free from sin, and secure from all disturbance.

He places the paten under the Host, uncovers the Chalice, makes a genuflection, rises, takes the Host and breaks It in the middle, over the Chalice, saying:

Through the same our Lord, Jesus Christ, Thy Son.

He then places the part of the Host which he has in his right hand on the paten. Then he breaks off a particle of that which remains in his left hand, saying:

Who liveth and reigneth with Thee in the unity of the Holy Ghost, God.

Aliam medium partem cum ipsa sinistra ponit super Patenam, et dextera tenens particulam super Calice, sinistra Calicem, dicit:

Per ómnia sǽcula sǽculórum.

R. Amen.

Cum ipsa particula signat ter super Calicem, dicens:

Pax † Dómini sit † semper vobís † cum.

R. Et cum spíritu tuo.

Particulam ipsam immittit in Calicem, dicens:

HÆC commíxtio, et consecrátio Córporis et Ságuinis Dómini nostri Jesu Christi, fiat accipiéntibus nobis in vitam ætérnam.
Amen.

Cooperit Calicem, genuflectit, surgit, et inclinatus Sacramento, junctis manibus, et ter pectus percutiens, dicit:

Agnus Dei, qui tollis peccáta mundi: miserére nobis.

Agnus Dei, qui tollis peccáta mundi: miserére nobis.

The other part he places on the paten with his left hand; keeping in his right, over the Chalice, the particle which he has broken off, and holding the Chalice with his left, says:

World without end.

R. Amen.

He then with this same particle makes the sign of the cross three times over the Chalice, saying:

May the peace  of the Lord be always with  you.

R. And with thy spirit.

He puts the particle in the Chalice, saying:

MAY this mingling and consecration of the Body and Blood of our Lord Jesus Christ be unto us that receive it effectual unto life everlasting. Amen.

He covers the Chalice, makes a genuflection, rises and then bowing down, joining his hands and striking his breast three times, he says:

Lamb of God, who takest away the sins of the world, have mercy on us.

Lamb of God, who takest away

Agnus Dei, qui tollis peccáta mundi : dona nobis pacem.

Deinde junctis manibus super Altare, inclinatus dicit sequentes Orationes:

DOMINE Jesu Christe, qui dixisti Apóstolis tuis: Pacem relínquo vobis, pacem meam do vobis: ne respicias peccáta mea, sed fidem Ecclésiæ tuæ: eámque secundum voluntátem tuam pacificáre et coadunáre dignérис: qui vivis et regnas Deus, per ómnia sácula sáculórum. Amen.

Cum Pontifex dixerit hanc orationem, osculatur altare, et dat primo ex singulis ordinatis cujuslibet ordinis sacri ad eum successive accedenti, et altare prius ad dexteram Pontificis deosculanti, pacem dicens: *

Pax tecum.

Cui ille respondet:

Et cum spíritu tuo.

---

* Sabbato Sancto Pax non datur.

the sins of the world, have mercy on us.

Lamb of God, who takest away the sins of the world, grant us Thy peace.

Then with his hands joined upon the altar, bowing down, he says the following prayers:

O LORD Jesus Christ, who saidst to Thine Apostles, Peace I leave you, My peace I give you : look not upon my sins, but upon the faith of Thy Church ; and vouchsafe to it that peace and unity which is agreeable to Thy will : who livest and reignest God world without end. Amen.

The Bishop having said this prayer, kisses the altar ; then the senior of those ordained to each Holy Order comes up ; and having kissed the altar receives the Pax from the Bishop who says while giving it : *

Peace be with thee.

To which each one answers :

And with thy spirit.

*The Pax is not given on Holy Saturday.

Et quilibet illorum dat sequenti sui ordinis secum ordinato, et ille alteri, et sic usque ad ultimum continuatur. Si autem ordinatorum parvus sit numerus, Pontifex poterit dare pacem singulis.

Quo facto omnes genuflectentes prosequuntur cum Pontifice:

DOMINE Jesu Christe, Fili Dei vivi, qui ex voluntate Patris, cooperante Spíritu sancto, per mortem tuam mundum vivificasti: libera me per hoc sacrosanctum Corpus et Sanguinem tuum ab omnibus iniquitatibus meis, et univérsis malis: et fac me tuis semper inhærére mandatis, et a te numquam separari permittas: qui cum eodem Deo Patre, et Spíritu sancto vivis et regnas Deus in sæcula sæculorum. Amen.

PERCEPTIO Córporis tui, Dómine Jesu Christe, quod ego indignus sumere præsumo, non mihi provéniat in judícum et condemnationem: sed pro tua pietate prosit

And each of them gives the Pax to his neighbor ordained with him, who gives it in turn to the next one and so until all have received it. If, however, the number of those ordained be small, the Bishop himself gives it to each one.

After all are again kneling they continue with the Bishop.

O LORD Jesus Christ, Son of the living God, who, by the will of the Father and the cooperation of the Holy Ghost, hast by Thy death given life to the world : deliver me by this Thy most sacred Body and Blood from all my iniquities and from all evils ; and make me always adhere to Thy commandments, and suffer me never to be separated from Thee. Who with the same God the Father and the Holy Ghost livest and reignest God world without end. Amen.

LET not the partaking of Thy Body, O Lord Jesus Christ, which I, though unworthy, presume to receive, turn to my judgment and condemnation ; but by mihi ad tutaméntum mentis et córporis, et ad medélam percipiéndam : qui vivis et regnas cum Deo Patre in unitáte Spíritus sancti Deus, per ómnia sácula sæculórum. Amen.

Genuflectit, surgit et dicit:

PANEM cœléstem accípiam, et nomen Dómini invocábo.

Deinde parum inclinatus, accipit ambas partes Hostiæ inter pollicem, et indicem sinistræ manus, et Patenam inter eumdem indicem, et medium, et dextera percutiens pectus, dicit ter devote, et humiliter:

DOMINE, non sum dignus, ut intres sub tectum meum : sed tantum dic verbo, et sanábitur áнима mea.

Postea dextera se signans cum Hostia super Patenam, dicit:

CORPUS Dómini nostri Jesu Christi custódiat ánimam meam in vitam ætérnam. Amen.

Thy mercy be it profitable to the safety and health both of soul and body. Who with God the Father, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, livest and reignest God world without end. Amen.

He genuflects, rises, and says:

I will take the Bread of heaven, and will call upon the name of the Lord.

Then slightly inclined, he takes both parts of the Host between the thumb and index finger of the left hand, and the paten between the index and middle finger of the same hand, striking his breast with his right hand; and those ordained to Priesthood strike their breasts three times also, saying with the Bishop:

LORD, I am not worthy that Thou shouldst enter under my roof; but only say the word, and my soul shall be healed.

Afterwards, making the sign of the cross on himself with the Host, holding it in his right hand over the paten, he says:

THE body of Our Lord Jesus Christ preserve my soul unto life everlasting. Amen.

Sumit reverenter ambas partes Hostiæ, jungit manus, et quiescit aliquantulum in meditatione Ss. Sacramenti. Deinde discooperit Calicem, genuflectit, colligit fragmenta, si quæ sint, extergit Patenam super Calicem, interim dicens:

QUID retríbuam Dómino pro omnibus quæ retríbuit mihi? Cálicem salutáris accípiam, et nomen Dómini invocábo. Laudans invocábo Dóminum, et ab inimícis meis salvus ero.

Accipit Calicem manu dextera, et eo se signans, dicit:

SANGUIS Dómini nostri Jesu Christi custódiat ánimam meam in vitam ætérnam. Amen.

Postquam vero Pontifex se communicaverit, et totum Sanguinem sumpserit, priusquam digitos abluat, Ordinati ad Presbyteratum consurgunt et accedunt ante altare et Pontifex eos communicat proferens formulam.*

CORPUS Dómini nostri Jesu Christi custódiat te in vitam ætérnam.

* Et commnnionem sacram accipiunt, antequam dicatur Confiteor. Dum Episcopus singulos Presbyteros communicat, dicit "Corpus Dómini," sicut ad aliorum communione. S. R. C. 14 Martii, 1861.

He then reverently receives both parts of the Host, joins his hands and remains a short time in meditation on the most holy Sacrament. Then he uncovers the Chalice, genuflects, collects whatever fragments may remain, and wipes the paten over the Chalice, saying in the meantime:

WHAT shall I render unto the Lord for all the things that He hath rendered unto me? I will take the Chalice of salvation, and call upon the name of the Lord. I will call upon the Lord and give praise: and I shall be saved from mine enemies.

He takes the Chalice in his right hand, and signing himself with it, says:

THE Blood of Our Lord Jesus Christ preserve my soul unto life everlasting. Amen.

After the Bishop has communicated and consumed the Precious Blood, and before the ablution, those ordained to the Priesthood rise and come forward to the altar, and the Bishop gives them Communion, making use of the following form:*

MAY the Body of Our Lord Jesus Christ preserve Thee unto life everlasting.

* And they receive Holy Communion before the Confiteor is said. When the Bishop gives Communion to the Priests, he says: "The Body, etc., " as at the Communion of the others. S. C. R. Mar. 14. 1861.

Unusquisque respondet, Amen ; osculatur manum,
i. e. annulum, Pontificis et recipit Sacram Particulam.

Postea reliqui Ordinati accedunt ad altare et genu-flectunt; et singuli ex Diaconis et Subdiaconis tantum dicunt submissa voce :

CONFITEOR Deo omnipoténti, beátæ
Maríæ semper Vírgini, beáto Michaéli Archángelo, beáto Joánni Bap-tistæ, sanctis Apóstolis Petro et Paulo, ómnibus Sanctis, et tibi, pater : quia pec-cávi nimis cogitatióne, verbo, et ópere, mea culpa, mea culpa, mea máxima culpa.
Ideo precor beátam Maríam semper Vírginem, beátum Michaélem Archángelum, beátum Joánnem Baptístam, sanctos Apóstolos Petrum et Paulum, omnes Santos, et te, pater, oráre pro me ad Dóminum Deum nostrum.

Et Pontifex stans capite detecto, versus ad eos dicit intelligibili voce :

MISEREATUR vestri omnípotens Deus, et dimíssis peccátis vestris, perdúcat vos ad vitam ætérnam. R.
Amen.

Signans eos signo crucis prosequitur.

Each one answers, Amen, and before receiving, they kiss the hand, i. e., the ring of the Bishop as he presents the Sacred Particle.

Afterwards the others who have been ordained approach the altar and kneel, and only the Deacons and Subdeacons say in a low voice:

I CONFESS to Almighty God, to blessed Mary ever Virgin, to blessed Michael the Archangel, to blessed John the Baptist, to the holy Apostles Peter and Paul, and to all the Saints, and to you, Father, that I have sinned exceedingly in thought, word and deed, through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault. Therefore I beseech blessed Mary ever Virgin, blessed Michael the Archangel, blessed John the Baptist, the holy Apostles Peter and Paul, and all the Saints, and you, Father, to pray to the Lord our God for me.

And the Bishop, standing with head uncovered, turns towards them, and says in an audible voice:

MAY Almighty God have mercy upon you, and forgive you your sins, and bring you unto life everlasting.

R. Amen.

Signing them with the sign of the cross, he continues:

INDULGENTIAM, absolutiōnem, † et remissiōnem peccatōrum vestrōrum, trībuat vobis omnípotens, et misericors Dóminus. R. Amen.

Tum accedunt ordinati ad supremum gradum altaris. bini et bini, Pontifex vero ponit plures Hostias consecratas super Patenam, quam ori cuiuslibet communicandi supponit, et singulos communicat, cuiilibet dicens:

CORPUS Dómini nostri Jesu Christi custódiat te in vitam ætérnam.

Quilibet respondet: Amen.

Et priusquam communionem sumat, manum Pontificis Hostiam tenentem osculatur.

Unus ministrorum Pontificis stat juxta cornu Epistolæ altaris Calicem habens, non illum cum quo Pontifex celebravit, sed alium cum vino, et mappulam mundam in minibus, ad quem singuli communicati accedunt, et se purificant, os extergunt, et ad partem se locant.

Omnibus communicatis, Pontifex exterget Patenam super Calicem suum, et Presbyteri dicunt cum Pontifice:

QUOD ore súmpsimus, Dómine, pura mente capiámus: et de munere temporáli fiat nobis remédiū sempitérnum.

MAY the Almighty and merciful Lord grant you pardon, absolution, † and remission of your sins. R. Amen.

Then the others who have been ordained go up, two by two, to the highest step of the altar. The Bishop places several consecrated Hosts upon the paten, and gives them Communion, saying to each:

MAY the Body of Our Lord Jesus Christ preserve thee unto life everlasting.

Each one answers Amen, and before receiving they kiss the hand, i. e., the ring of the Bishop as he presents the Sacred Particle.

One of the Bishop's assistants stands near the corner of the altar, on the Epistle side, holding a chalice, not the one used in the Mass, but another containing wine. After communicating, each one takes some of the wine, wipes his mouth with a purificator held by the attendant, and returns to his place.

After all have received Communion, the Bishop purifies the Paten over his own Chalice, and the newly ordained priests say with him;

WHAT we have taken with our mouth, O Lord, may we receive with a pure heart; and of a temporal gift may it become to us an everlasting healing.

Interim porrigit Calicem ministro, qui infundit in eo parum vini, quo se purificat, deinde prosequitur:

CORPUS tuum, Dómine, quod súmpsi, et Sanguis, quem potávi, adháreat viscéribus meis: et præsta; ut in me non remáneat scélerum mácula, quem pura et sancta refecérunt sacraménta: Qui vivis et regnas in sǽcula sǽculórum. Amen.

Abluit digitos, extergit, et sumit ablutionem: accipit mitram, et lavat manus.

Pontifex, lotis manibus, mitra deposita, stans in cornu Epistolæ altaris, versus ad illud, legit Responsorium. *

Jam non dicam vos servos, sed amícos meos: quia ómnia cognovístis, quæ ope-rátus sum in médio vestri, allelúia.

Accípite Spíritum sanctum in vobis Paráclitum: Ille est, quem Pater mittet vobis, allelúia.

V. Vos amíci mei estis si fecéritis, quæ ego præcípio vobis. Accípite Spíritum sanctum in vobis Paráclitum.

V. Glória Patri, et Fílio, et Spirítui sancto.

* A Septuagesima usque ad Pascha dicitur sine Alleluia.

In the meantime he presents the Chalice to the minister, who pours in some wine for the purification and continues:

MAY Thy Body, O Lord, which I have received, and Thy Blood which I have drunk, cleave unto my inmost parts; and grant that no stain of sin may remain in me, who have been refreshed with pure and holy mysteries. Who livest and reignest forever. Amen.

He purifies his fingers and takes the ablution. He then puts on his mitre, and washes his fingers. After this the Bishop takes off his mitre, and standing with his face towards the altar, at the Epistle corner, reads the Responsory.*

I will not now call you servants, but my friends, because you have known all the things which I have wrought in the midst of you. Alleluia.

Receive in you the Holy Ghost, the Paraclete. He it is Whom the Father will send you. Alleluia.

V You are my friends, if you do the things that I command you. Receive in you the Holy Ghost, the Paraclete.

V. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost.

* From Septuagesima to Easter the Alleluia is omitted.

Ille est, quem Pater mittet vobis, allelúia.

Lecto responsorio, Pontifex, accepta mitra, vertit se ad Presbyteros ordinatos, qui ante altare coram ipso stantes profitentur fidem, quam prædicaturi sunt, dicentes:

CREDO in Deum, Patrem omnipoténtem, Creatórem cœli et terræ. Et in Jesum Christum, Fílium ejus únicum Dóminum nostrum: qui concéptus est de Spíritu sancto, natus ex María Vírgine: passus sub Póntio Piláto, crucefíxus, mortuus, et sepultus: descéndit ad íferos: tértia die resurréxit a mórtuis: ascéndit ad cœlos, sedet ad déxteram Dei Patris omnipoténtis: inde venturus est judicáre vivos et mórtuos. Credo in Spíritum sanctum, sanctam Ecclésiam Cathólicam, Sanctórum communiónem; remissiónem peccatórum, carnis resurrectiónem, vitam ætérnam. Amen.

Quo finito, Pontifex cum mitra sedens super faldistorium, ante medium altaris, imponit ambas manus super capita singulorum coram eo genuflectentium, dicens cuilibet:

He it is Whom the Father will send you. Alleluia.

Having finished the Responsory, the Bishop, wearing his mitre, turns towards the newly ordained Priests; and standing before him they make the profession of the faith they are about to preach:

I BELIEVE in God, the Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth ; and in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord ; Who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried ; He descended into hell ; the third day He rose again from the dead ; He ascended into heaven, and sitteth at the right hand of God the Father Almighty ; from thence He shall come to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost, the Holy Catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.

After this the Bishop, still wearing his mitre, sits on the faldstool before the middle of the altar, and as the new priests kneel before him he places both hands on the head of each, saying at the same time :

ACCIPPE Spíritum sanctum, quorum remíseris peccáta, remittúntur eis; et quorum retinúeris, reténta sunt.

Deinde explicans casulam, quam unusquisque habet super humeros complicatam, induit illa quemlibet, singulis dicens:

STOLA innocéntiæ índuat te Dóminus.

Et mox unusquisque iterum ad Pontificem accedit; et genuflexus ponit manus suas junctas inter manus Pontificis dicentis cuilibet, si suus est Ordinarius:

PROMITTIS mihi, et successóribus meis reveréntiam et obediéntiam?

Et ille respóndet:

Promítto.

Si vero Pontifex non est suus Ordinarius, cum manus eorum inter suas tenet, ut præfertur, dicit singulis Presbyteris sacerdotalibus:

Promítis Pontífici Ordinário tuo, etc.

Singulis vero Regularibus:

Promítis Præláto Ordinário tuo, etc.

PROMITTIS Pontífici (vel Præláto) Ordinário tuo pro témpore existénti reveréntiam, et obediéntiam?

RECEIVE the Holy Ghost; whose sins thou shalt forgive they are forgiven them; and whose sins thou shall retain they are retained.

Then, unfolding the chasuble, which has thus far remained folded on their shoulders, he invests each one with it, saying at the same time:

MAY the Lord clothe thee with the stole of innocence.

Then each one goes up again to the Bishop, and kneeling, places his joined hands between those of the Bishop, who says to each, if he be his Ordinary:

DOST thou promise to me and my successors reverence and obedience?

And he answers:

I promise.

But if the Bishop be not his Ordinary, he says to each secular priest, whilst he holds their hands between his own, as aforesaid, "Dost thou promise to the Bishop thy Ordinary," &c. And to each regular "Dost thou promise to the Prelate thy Ordinary," &c.

DOST thou promise to the Bishop (or the Prelate), thy Ordinary for the time being, reverence and obedience?

Et ille respondet:

Promítto.

Tunc Pontifex tenens manus illius inter suas, oscula-tur unumquemque, dicentis: *

Pax Dómini sit semper tecum.

Et ille respondet:

Amen.

His expletis, et eis ad ordinem suum reversis, Ponti-fex sedens cum mitra, et baculo, et admonet eos, dicens:

QUIA res, quam tractatúri estis, satis periculósa est, filii dilectíssimi, móneo vos, ut diligénter totius Missæ órdinem, atque Hóstiæ consecratióinem, ac fractiónem, et communiónem, ab aliis jam doctis Sacerdótibus discátis, priús quam ad celebrándum Missam accedátis.

Pontifex surgit cum mitra, et baculo, et Presbyteris coram eo adhuc genuflexis benedicit, dicens voce competenti: †

* Episcopus eum osculatur in dextera vultus parte.
S. R. C. 12 Nov. 1831.

† Notandum, quod ad benedictionem istam genuflexi esse debent soli Presbyteri, quibus impertitur.

And he answers:

I promise.

Then the Bishop, holding each one's hands between his own, kisses * him, saying:

The peace of the Lord be always with you.

And he answers:

Amen.

At the end of the ceremony, when all have returned to their places, the Bishop, sitting with his mitre on and holding his crosier, admonishes them, saying:

INASMUCH as the action which you are about to perform is one of no small peril, I advise you, my dear sons, before celebrating Mass, to learn carefully from well-instructed priests the order of the whole Mass, and everything relating to the Consecration, Breaking, and Communion of the Sacred Host.

The Bishop rises with his mitre on, and holding his crosier while the Priests remain kneeling before him, bestows upon them this benediction: †

* The Bishop kisses him on the right cheek. S. C. R.
Nov. 12, 1831.

† It is to be observed that at this blessing only the new Priests to whom it is given should be kneeling.

R. Amen.

Post hæc Pontifex, deposita mitra, et amoto faldistorio, convertitur ad altare, prosecuitur Missam una cum Ordinatis ad Presbyteratum et dicitur Postcommunio Quos tuis, pro ordinatis sub uno Qui vivis. cum Postcommunione Missæ diei.

Then taking his seat, he addresses, in the following words, all those who have been ordained who are kneeling before him:

DEARLY beloved sons, consider diligently the order you have received and the burden that has been placed upon your shoulders; strive to live holily and religiously, and to please Almighty God, that you may be able to obtain His grace, which in His mercy may He Himself vouchsafe to grant you.

Each one of you promoted to first Tonsure, or to the four Minor Orders, will say once the seven Penitential Psalms, with the Litany of the Saints, together with the versicles, and prayers.

Those of you who have been ordained to Subdeaconship or Deaconship say a Nocturn from the office of to-day.*

Those of you who have been ordained to Priesthood, will say after your first Mass three other Masses: one of the Holy Ghost, another of the Blessed Mary ever Virgin, and a third for the faithful departed; and pray to Almighty God for me also.

The Bishop and those ordained make the sign of the Cross on the forehead, mouth and breast.

IN the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. The same was in the beginning with God. All things were made by Him, and without Him was made nothing that was made : in Him was life, and the life was the light of men : and the light shineth in darkness, and the darkness did not comprehend it.

There was a man sent from God, whose name was John. This man came for a witness, to testify concerning the light, that all might believe through him. He was not the light, but he was to give testimony of the light. That was the true Light, which enlighteneth every man that cometh into this world.

He was in the world, and the world was made by Him, and the world knew Him not. He came unto His own, and His own received Him not. But as many as received Him He gave them power to be made the sons of God, to them that believe in His name, who are born not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God. [Here all kneel.] And the Word was made Flesh and dwelt among us ; and we saw His glory, the glory as of the Only-begotten of the Father, full of grace and truth.

R. Thanks be to God.

The Bishop is disrobed, and those ordained lay aside, in a convenient place, their sacred vestments.*

* The prayers ordered to be said after low Mass by his holiness, Pope Leo XIII. are to be omitted after the Mass of Ordination, even if it be a low Mass.

APPENDIX AD USUM ORDINANDORUM PRÆNOTANDA.

1. Sacræ Ordinationes, statutis a jure temporibus, semper fiunt in Missa de tempore seu Sabbato; non vero in Missa de Festo occurrente, etiamsi de eo sit factum Officium.—Decretum S. R. C. II Julii, 1739.

2. In Missa ordinationis, Orationi diei (idem est de Secreta et Postcommunione) additur collecta pro Ordinatis, sub unica conclusione.

Extra tempora et dies statutos celebratur missa de festo currente, in qua similiter additur oratio pro ordinatis sub una conclusione cum oratione missæ, et deinde aliae, si quæ faciendæ sint commemorationes. Idem est dicendum de Glória, Credo, et præfatione etc.

3. In Sabbato sancto non dicitur alia Oratio; sed in aliis Sabbatis additur una vel duæ: una scilicet in Sabbato quatuor Temporum Pentecostes, contra Persecutores Ecclesiæ vel pro Papa: duæ in reliquis. Missæ episcopales pro S. Ord.

4. In Sabbato quatuor Temporum Adventus, ultra Secretam diei et pro Ordinatis, secundo loco dicitur In méntibus nostris. Et tertio loco Prótege nos vel Oblátis quæsumus.

5. In Sabbatis quatuor Temporum Quadragesima et ante Dominicam de Passione secundo loco Secreta Exaúdi nos; tertio loco Deus cui soli. Præterea finita Postcommunione, additur Oratio dicta, super Pópulum, ut suo loco adnotatur.

6. In Sabbato quatuor Temporum Septembribus secundo loco dicitur Secreta Exaúdi nos; tertio loco alia ad libitum Episcopi ordinantis, communiter tamen illa Pro omni gradu Ecclésiæ, quæ etiam sola ponitur in libro citato supra No. 3, et ideo sola assignatur infra, in proprio Missarum.

7. In Missa ordinationis nulla fit commemoratio Festi novem Lectionum eodem Sabbato occurritis. Fit tamen commemoratio Vigiliæ, si aliquod Festum, habens Vigiliam, celebretur Dominica vel Feria secunda sequente.

8. De Festo simplici fit solum commemoratio, quando eodem Sabbato non occurrit Festum novem Lectionum: si enim tale Festum occurrat, supponitur, quoad istam commemorationem, esse satisfactum in Missa de Festo.

Hinc omissæ sunt, infra, Orationes pro commemo ratione de SS. Mauritio et Sociis, vel de S. Thecla; quia in Sabbato quatuor Temporum Septembribus semper occurrit aliquod Festum novem Lectionum, saltem translatum.

9. Si commemoratio de Festo simplici facienda sit in Sabbato quatuor Temporum Pentecostes, omittitur Oratio de qua supra No. 3.

10. Si in aliis Sabbatis occurrat fieri commemora tionem de Vigilia vel Festo simplici, ea ponitur secundo loco; et tertio loco dicitur Oratio, quæ alias secundo loco dicenda erat: omissa postrema, supra numeris 4, 5 vel 6, assignata.

11. Præfationes autem dicuntur, ut in ordine Missæ adnotatum est: etiamsi eodem Sabbato occurrat Festum habens præfationem propriam. Decret. 16 Jun., 1708.

12. Post Præfationem incipitur Canon Missæ, in quo serventur omnia ut in ordine Missæ: Ubi vero infra actionem Communicantes et Hanc igitur variari contingit, suo loco in propriis Missis adnotatur.

13. Nota relate ad pag. 57 recentissime habita, in postrema pagina hujus Appendicis, ob spatii angustiam, fuit inserta.

DE MANUUM IMPOSITIONE FACIENDA NEO-SACERDOTIBUS.

Notandum — Cum in regionibus Americæ haud uniformis exsisteret praxis in impositione manuum; et cum editor hujus libelli nonnullos cærimoniarum magistros consuluisse ad uniformitatem ritus constituendam hac super re, rationibus hinc inde militantibus, diversas habuit sententias. Quapropter ad rem auctoritative definiendam, censuit Cærimoniarium Pontificium litteris adire, et ab eo dubiorum infrascriptorum solutionem petere juxta Archibasilicæ Constantinianæ praxim: Nunc autem læto animo lectoribus præbet sequens responsum Cærimoniarii Pontificii, firma spe tenens Americæ Ecclesias hoc esse libenter amplecturas.

Ex Archidiœcesi Neo-Eboracensi ad me pervenerunt litteræ in quibus proponebantur infrascripta dubia juxta praxim Archibasilicæ Lateranensis solvenda.

Dubium I. Sacerdotes imponentes manus stant retro vel ante neo-presbyterum?

II. Impositio est incipienda a cornu Epistolæ vel a cornu Evangelii?

III. Impositione manuum peracta, juxta Pontificale Romanum Sacerdotes oportet quemdam semicirculum efforment. Unde quæritur: Semicirculus est efformandus ante altare, vel in cornu Epistolæ, vel in cornu Evangelii?

Resp. Ad I. Affirmative ad primam partem.

Negative ad secundam.

Ad II. Negative ad primam par-tem.

Affirmative ad secundam.

Ad III. A cornu Evangelii.

Hæc est praxis continuo servata in Archibasilica Lateranensi.

ALBERTUS MARCUCCI,

ROMÆ, 10 APRILIS 1892.

Recepta Neo-Ebor. 22 ejusdem mensis.
